TALK In Print

While stopped at a traffic light on Columbia in Plainview, we saw the "dead" truck pass, going east on 5th St. It was piled to the top of the sideboards with dead cattle. Before the fly and mosquito season begins, city, county and state health departments should have a conference with the firm that picks up dead animals. The firm should be able to make their "dead" trucks fly and mosquito-proof without a great deal of cost.

I am not knocking the firm that picks up the dead animals. It performs a very valuable service to livestock raisers. And, their prompt removal of the dead animals before they become a health-hazard is appreciated. Also, the places in various towns around Plainview that act as clearing houses for livestock raisers and the rendering company are performing a service to the communities.

My only complaint: I sometimes wonder if the fly buzzing around the house had its last meal from the dead animals hauled in the "dead" truck.

An out-of-town relative of Forrest Garrett told me about the unique method used by him and his brothers and sisters in holding their annual family reunions.

Every year, the Garretts and their children and their families hold their reunion in a different town over the state. They make advance reservations and all stay at the same hotel or motel. They use the meeting room facilities where they stay to gather and visit in air-conditioned comfort. Their meals, served buffet in the meeting room, are catered. Attendance at the Garrett reunions has increased since they started this practice. Not many attended when reunions were held in parks. This way, the women do not have to knock themselves out cooking and cleaning up the dishes. They don't have to share their meals with ants, flies, gnats and mosquitoes, in smelly parks.

The 1966 Garrett re-union is scheduled sometime in the summer, in August, I believe. They have reserved the entire tenth floor of the famed Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells for the reunion. This floor has a large meeting room.

Suggestion: Now that the Chamber of Commerce membership is again vacant, I suggest that it be left vacant. Let Peggy Carter continue with her office work, and turn over mail and inquiries to the C. of C. president or chairman of committees. Also, I suggest that some of the overhead pressure be taken off local firms by lowering by half the dues they now pay. Abernathy, which operated many years without a C. of C. manager, has made as much, or more, progress as most towns in its class on the South Plains. Come with me and I can show you towns that have had C-C managers that are far behind Abernathy's progress.

This column, over the past few years, has been in a sort of running battle with Fort Worth's U. S. Representative Jim Wright over his practice of using his franking privileges to send mail to newspapers over the state. We conceded his right to franking mail to newspapers and individuals in the district he serves, but not on a state-wide basis to newspapers.

Since the last gripe on this subject was printed here, we received a release from him in an envelope bearing an air mail stamp. March 6th, we received a franked envelope, sealed and nothing in it, from his office. On March 7th a franked envelope containing a news release from Wright's office was received here.

With U. S. Mails already blunted with unwanted direct-mail-advertising, the U. S. Representatives and Senators should stay within proper bounds with their franking privileges.

If you find mail in your post office box bearing a special delivery stamp, don't cuss the local post office staff. The U. S. Post Office Department makes no provisions for special delivery service here. The department charges the sender for special delivery service that it does not render.

When I run across an envelope bearing a bank return address while digging my mail

AHS Wins In Track Meet

Abernathy outsourced an eight team field in Division AA Saturday to cop the championship of their own track and field meet. Hale Center edged Idalou for the crown of the Class A division.

The host team racked up 140 points, and second place Slaton collected 79. Hale Center had 117 points while Idalou managed 116 1/2.

Morton's Jimmy Joyce was the meet's high scorer in the AA Division with 30 points. Joyce collected three gold medals including a 10.4 finish in the century. He was clocked at 22.9 in the 220, and he won the high jump with a leap of 5-8. Joyce also ran the anchor leg on Morton's mile relay team and was clocked in a swift 48.6.

Tim Lockridge of Kress was the top performer in Division A with 30 points. He breastst the tape first in the open quarter with a 52.6 a faster time than recorded in the upper division. He was clocked at 23.1 in the 220 and 10.6 in the 100.

Team totals in Class AA: Abernathy, 140; Slaton, 79; Friona, 63; Morton, 58; Post, 55; Floydada, 47; Olton, 31; Dimmitt, 23.

AHS Antelopes won first in several events and placed high others they entered.

out of the post office box I expect it to be bad news; they'd like to see me about an overdue note, or they are returning a check that bounced. However, I did receive one that was not bad news.

Noting that the letterhead was of extra good quality, I skylighted it for the watermark. The cotton farmers may be pleased to know that Abernathy First State Bank is cooperating with them on the use of cotton. The watermark on their letterhead says "engraved parchment" "100% Cotton Fiber."

I have noted, with a great deal of satisfaction, that more students graduating from AHS are going to college, and more are staying in college and receiving degrees. We had a depressing situation several years ago. AHS grads would enroll in college and many of them would drop out after the first semester, and some before they completed a semester.

The gradual upgrading of requirements for graduation from AHS, along with the recognized need for higher education, has brought about this delightful change.

Most colleges and universities have very active and alert public relations (or information) departments. They mail to us pictures of the students from AHS and news stories about their accomplishments in college.

Many times, parents of these students whose pictures and news stories appear in The Review tell us that the stories

AIRLINES EXECUTIVE

Charles Bucks of Los Angeles, Calif., will be the principal speaker on the program of Abernathy Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet. The event is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., April 7, in Abernathy School cafeteria.

Students In Spelling Bee At Plainview

Billy Martinez correctly spelled "distinctly," after Debra Thomas had misspelled it and then correctly spelled "dividend" to win the Abernathy Fourth and Fifth Grade Spelling Bee. Billy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martinez of Rt. 1, Box 8, Abernathy. Debra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas of Route 2, Box 103, Abernathy. Both are fifth grade students in Abernathy Elementary School.

Junior Betancourt spelled eminent correctly, after Linda Hall had incorrectly placed an "e" in place of an "i," and went on to spell "encourage" to win the Abernathy Sixth Grade Contest. Junior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aniceto Betancourt, Box 224, Abernathy. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hall, Box 566, Abernathy.

Joy Hall spelled "census," after Nancy Sanders had missed it, and then spelled "census" to win the seventh and eighth contest. Joy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hall, Box 566, Abernathy. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sanders, Box Y, Abernathy.

Billy, Junior and Joy will now go to Plainview March 18, to enter the Hale County Spelling Bee. The Plainview winner will go to Amarillo with a chance to win a trip to Washington, D.C. and the National finals.

The competition was very keen this year and interest was high. A total of twenty-four fourth and fifth grade students, twenty-six sixth graders, and sixteen seventh and eighth students spelled for a chance to move on to the County Bee.

BANDIT HITS HERE

"Say One For Me, Too"

Mrs. Bobby Cuevas spent several long minutes praying as she sat on the floor in a storage room of June's Drive-In Monday night. "Say one for me, too," Mrs. Harvey Grisham said as she sat beside Mrs. Cuevas. They were sitting on the floor by orders of an armed bandit, who moments before had taken about $63 in a hold-up of the place, owned by Mrs. June Speer.

"I was praying," Mrs. Cuevas explained, "because I was afraid that he (the bandit) would come back and kill us because we got a good look at him and could identify him."

The two women were in the cafe alone, preparing to close, when the lone and nervous bandit entered the place shortly before 10 p.m. and asked for a cup of coffee. Mrs. Grisham had her back to him while pouring the coffee. "Suddenly I felt what I thought was a gun in my back and he demanded that I give him the money in the cash register."

"He wanted bills only; no silver or checks," Mrs. Grisham said. He then ordered her to the back room, where Mrs. Cuevas was. "When Mrs. Grisham called my name, I thought she wanted me in the cafe," Mrs. Cuevas said.

When I reached the door between the cafe and storage room I was looking down the barrel of the gun," Mrs. Cuevas continued. The bandit ordered them both to the storage room, and to sit on the floor for "three minutes." The women said, judging from a noise the bandit made before leaving, that he gave the cash register another once-over to see if Mrs. Grisham had given him all the bills.

"That was the longest telephone number I ever dialed," Mrs. Grisham said about calling the police. City law enforcement officers were joined by Lubbock and Hale County Sheriff Departments and the Highway Patrol was setting up road blocks shortly after the robbery was reported.

Ministers Meet Here Thursday Ministers of Abernathy churches and churches in neighboring communities are to attend the monthly Ministers' Fellowship luncheon at Graham's Restaurant in South Abernathy at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, March 17. A special program is planned for the meeting.

Bucks is a graduate of Abernathy High School, and he attended Amarillo Junior College and Texas Tech. He is the son of Mrs. C. H. Bucks, Lubbock.

A vice president of the Los Angeles-based Continental Airlines, Bucks began his commercial airline career at Lubbock Municipal Airport, chunking baggage into airplanes. When Continental Airlines bought the commercial airlines firm for which Bucks worked, he went with Continental. He has made rapid progress up through the ranks to his present high position with Continental.

Bucks will be accompanied to Abernathy for the banquet program by his wife, Joyce. Also an Abernathy High School graduate, Mrs. Bucks is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner, Muleshoe, formerly of Abernathy.

Among special out-of-town guests at the banquet will be the head of Continental Airlines operations in Lubbock, Ed Colby, manager of Lubbock Municipal Airport, and parents and other relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Bucks.

Rites Held For Mrs. Northcutt

Rites for Mrs. Lena Pearl Northcutt, 78, of Abernathy, were conducted at 3 p. m. Thursday in First Baptist Church here.

Officiating was the Rev. Hubert Long, pastor, assisted by the Rev. James Enger, pastor of the Southside Four-Square Church in Lubbock. Burial was in Abernathy Cemetery under direction of Chambers Funeral Home. Pallbearers were L. Northcutt, O. L. Hanz, Henry Northcutt, Freddie Pierson, Lee Roy Waters and Mancil Smith.

A type-setting error in last week's Review placed the right manager with the wrong directors, or the right directors with the wrong manager.

The story had County Line Co-op Gin directors listed along with the name of Leland Phillips, manager of Abernathy Farmers Co-op. Names of the County Line Co-op Gin manager, Raymond Bohler, and Abernathy Farmers Co-op Gin were left out of the story.

The story, about their attendance of the state Co-op meeting in Corpus Christi, should have read:

Representing Abernathy Farmers Co-op Gin were Manager and Mrs. Leland Phillips, Messrs. and Mmes. Lee Roy Waters, Clyde Benn, B. A. McDougal and Ralph Davis.

Representing County Line Co-op Gin were Manager and Mrs. Raymond Bohler, Messrs. and Mmes. E. M. Crow, Lindell Myatt and H. F. Gregg.

Mr. Rowland assumed his duties as City Patrolman March 17th, replacing Randy Neville, who resigned.

Right Manager, Wrong Directors Or Vice Versa

The next regular meeting date will be Tuesday, April 5, at 8:00 p.m. The meeting was postponed because the West Texas Area School Board Workshop will be in Lubbock on Monday, April 4.

Large Crowd At Dinner For James R. Ray

A large crowd, estimated at more than 300 persons, attended an Appreciation Dinner in Abernathy School cafeteria March 8, honoring James R. Ray. An AHS graduate, Ray is a candidate for State Senator, 30th Senatorial District. He has a degree from Texas Tech, and he attended law school at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ray, Jim is a farmer, stockman and businessman. He and his wife and two children reside on a farm northeast of Abernathy, in the Happy Union Community.

Only change in the previously announced program following the dinner was a short talk by Dr. J. A. Chatman, longtime Lubbock resident. The physician operates Chatman Hospital in Lubbock. Dr. Chatman was added to the program when W. V. Swinburn, Tulsa, was unable to attend and speak. Swinburn, a former Abernathy School superintendent, was in a clinic at Dallas.

Reward Offered For Information On House Fire

J. F. Buske is offering a $50.00 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person, or persons, believed to have set fire to the 6-room house on the Buske farm about three miles northeast of Abernathy.

The house was completely destroyed. The fire was discovered shortly before 11 p.m. Saturday, and it had too much of a headstart for firemen to control the blaze.

The house was not occupied, but it contained planting seeds and numerous items stored there, Buske said.

Accident Report For February

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 21 accidents on rural highways in Hale County during the month of February, according to Sergeant Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one death, fourteen persons injured and estimated property damage $16,855.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county for the first two months of 1966 shows a total of 36 accidents resulting in 1 person killed, 22 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $23,630.00.

Only one month remains for some 2,340,000 vehicles registered in Texas to secure the 1966 safety inspection sticker. The period set by law for securing the 1966 sticker ends at midnight, April 15, and there can be no extension of that deadline. The Sergeant stated, "Any motorist whose vehicle bearing Texas license plates that does not display the 1966 sticker after April 15 is subject to arrest by any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, City Policeman or any Officer of the Department of Public Safety and upon conviction will be subject to a fine not to exceed $200.00."

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS AND CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF LUBBOCK AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Abernathy Weekly Review as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the cooperation of those citizens in Lubbock who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

Ed Carroll

Generally speaking, civic pride is one of those things that goes hand-in-hand with success; because a man must have been successful to fully appreciate the advantages that were afforded him by the community in which he lives.

Ed Carroll of the Caprock Film Service, and Caprock Camera Supply, is one of those progressive business men of Lubbock who has shown his appreciation for his success by his attention to civic matters. His willingness to become a cog in the wheels of community progress whenever concerted effort is needed to put over some movement or project advanced for the good of the Hub City has always been taken for granted.

Mr. Carroll's quiet assumption of responsibility, not only in connection with his own business, but in regard to other matters as well, has often lent a feeling of confidence to others interested in the same movements.

In complimenting Ed Carroll upon his high standing in the community, we do no more than express the admiration and respect of his many friends and business associates.

W. A. Lorenz

W. A. Lorenz has proved his progressiveness by constantly adding to, and increasing the service which the Lorenz Oil Company, distributor of Kendall Petroleum Products and the Lorenz Service Station has extended to the people. The large volume of business handled by his station proves that "service" to him, is not "just a word", but something to be rendered to the motoring public to the fullest extent of his ability.

In addition to his close attention to his business affairs, Mr. Lorenz was never a man to dodge his civic responsibilities, and help in those matters has always been cheerfully given.

He fully appreciates the value of good will, and has more than his share of that intangible commodity because of the manner in which he meets both business and civic obligations. He is a credit to his community, and is thoroughly established in the forefront of the business life of the city.

W. A. Lorenz has a great many friends and satisfied customers throughout this area, and it is a pleasure to bring him before our readers in this review of progressive Lubbock business men.

Guy N. Young

In singling out some of the more conscientious business men of Lubbock, we would be censured should we fail to include Guy N. Young, General Manager of the Conley-Lott-Nichols Machinery Company, for he is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and industrial activities of this region.

Mr. Young has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail, those opportunities which come to his attention to further civic enterprise. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

Guy Young deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has managed the operations of the Conley-Lott-Nichols Machinery Company. He is a friendly and likeable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for him a host of friends and acquaintances in and around Lubbock who would, if given the opportunity, join us in wishing him many more years of continued success.

Weldon L. And John A. Wines

It is a privilege in this Lubbock review of progressive men and firms that have been such a great aid to the growth and development of this section of West Texas to place two such men as Weldon L. and John A. Wines of United Components, on an equal plane with all others in this rank. In the past, few men have exceeded them in contributing of their time and energy to the onward progress of Lubbock and the surrounding country.

The Wines, whose place of business is located at 506 East 44th Street, are generally recognized as two of the more conscientious business executives in this district, and they retain that distinction in the admiration and respect of their wide circle of friends. Also their interest in, and the very valuable assistance they have rendered to the many projects of a civic nature, reflect the principles which they have always so successfully applied to their business affairs.

We congratulate John and Weldon Wines on their records, and sincerely hope that their careers will be as useful and completely successful in the years ahead as it has been in the past.

Don Tusha

Lubbock has attained a prominent position in the business and industrial life of the South Plains because of the foresight of those men who had the ability to envision the possibilities of the community, and the trade area it serves. And a wide awake progressive individual who justly should be included in this category is Don Tusha, Vice President of Panhandle Steel Buildings Incorporated.

Such men have, many times over, proven their worth to the community, both as business men and as active workers in the civic betterment and progress of the city. And Mr. Tusha has earned the good will and respect of his fellow citizens for contributing his bit to the general welfare of the Hub City, and the people as a whole.

It is our duty to include Don Tusha in that group of dependable and conscientious business executives who are doing so much for Lubbock, and to express the wish that he will continue for many years to forge ahead with the success which he has enjoyed in the past.

Lillie Miller

A drive-in operator of Lubbock who has based her success upon the belief that the public will appreciate good food, well prepared and appetizingly served, is Lillie Miller of the Super Dog Drive Inn, located at 1102 19th Street, whose many friends and customers by their daily patronage of her popular eating place, attest to the soundness of her policy.

It is not only because of the successful operation and management of her drive inn that Mrs. Miller has come to be recognized as an asset to the community; but it is also because of her policy of "looking ahead", and endeavoring to sponsor or take part in those community activities which will, in some manner, benefit the city of Lubbock and the people as a whole. She is another of those who have shown their appreciation for their success by their willingness to contribute their time and efforts to the promotion of community projects.

It is such citizens as Lillie Miller whom we are privileged to include in this review, and to publicly give her due credit for success in civic and business affairs.

Cotton James

Performing an outstanding service for the people of Lubbock and the surrounding territory, Cotton James of the Cotton James Insurance Agency, has achieved an enviable reputation for his progressive policies of business administration. His constant study of insurance problems in relation to the protection the people both need and can afford, have been important factors in his well-earned success.

Mr. James is a man of ideas, and he is as practical as he is progressive in putting those ideas to beneficial use in furthering the service his agency renders to the public. His sound business judgment and unwavering honesty are characteristics which place him in the front rank with other business leaders of the city. Yet, he is unassuming and modest in his personal contact with the people; always ready to listen to their ideas and desires.

We are glad to pay tribute to conscientious citizens of this type, for it is such men as Cotton James who have caused Lubbock to become recognized as the metropolitan center for this section of the state.

J. L. Damron

J. L. Damron, manager of Universal Carloading & Distributing Co., International Forwarding Co., Texas Freight Co. Inc., and the Lone Star Package Car Company, has won the universal respect and good will of the people of Lubbock and the surrounding country for the progressive manner in which he has kept these four reliable firms in the forefront of the business life of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

Mr. Damron is not the kind of individual who makes himself conspicuous by the manner in which he conducts himself, either in business or other matters. Yet, his quiet reserve and air of confidence mark him as a man of sound judgment, whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment J. L. Damron for the successful management of Universal Carloading & Distributing Co., International Forwarding Co., Texas Freight Co. Inc., and the Lone Star Package Car Co., and also for his constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which he has found time to interest himself. He is a man whom a great many are proud to call friend.

Dick Rountree And W. H. Riley

Due to the consistent efforts of a group of wide awake business men, the city of Lubbock has attained a dominant position in the commercial life of this section of the South Plains. And two of those who have justly earned credit for being progressive members of that group are Dick Rountree and W. H. Riley of the Rountree Company.

It is because of the successful operations of such a business as theirs that the Hub City has earned the reputation of being one of the more progressive communities in this area.

Mr. Rountree and Mr. Riley have been conspicuously successful in spite of the fact that they have repeatedly neglected their own private affairs to devote a part of their time and efforts to the successful promotion of civic projects.

It is considered a privilege to include W. H. Riley and Dick Rountree in this Lubbock review, and to publicly give them due credit for their success in business, and for their many contributions to the general welfare of the city.

W. D. "Watt" Howard

It is fitting in this review of dependable Lubbock business men that we acquaint our readers with the one to be credited with having maintained the Plains Gin Machinery Incorporated, in the enviable position it holds in the business and industrial life of this area. That personality is W. D. "Watt" Howard, whose genius for organization and for converting new ideas into actual deeds, has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which this reliable firm now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Howard has found time in addition to his business interests to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him, and to say that this region owes much to the many benefits which "Watt" Howard and Plains Gin Machinery Incorporated have rendered to this section of West Texas.

Henry L. Stafford, Dick V. Mims And A.C. Melton

Because this is a period of growth and expansion for Lubbock, those progressive business men who had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of those conditions, are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are therefore, glad to pay tribute to Henry L. Stafford, Dick V. Mims and A. C. Melton of the South Plains Contracting & Equipment Company, and Panhandle Pavers Incorporated, for they have become well-known figures in the business and industrial life of West Texas.

Their persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued future prosperity of the people of Lubbock and vicinity, are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

Henry Stafford, Dick Mims and A. C. Melton have also always shown their willingness to do their part in civic advancement, and have contributed their bit, in a great many ways to projects promoted for the welfare of the city. We believe that business men of this kind are entitled to our sincere praise, both because they have achieved success in their business and private affairs, and because they are eager to contribute to the public good.

Bob Poteet

To those progressive business men who have also taken a part in civic affairs, we owe a debt of gratitude that we very often find difficult to repay. However, we can do so in part by publicly acknowledging their many services, and we take this opportunity to pay a brief tribute to Bob Poteet of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange.

In doing so, we express the sentiment and feelings, not only of the community, but also those who have been actively associated with him in business or civic affairs.

Mr. Poteet's time is almost wholly occupied by his own private affairs. Yet, there has never been an occasion when he has been called upon by the people of Lubbock and vicinity, to assist some civic project that he has not responded and helped to the fullest extent of his ability to further that project. Thus he has frequently sacrificed other interests to promote some worthy cause.

Because of this, Bob Poteet has proven himself to be a good and loyal citizen of whom the Hub City and this district have every reason to feel justly proud.

George "Buddy" Bankston

In compiling this review of progressive Lubbock business men, it is fitting that we should include some of those who, by their aggressiveness have definitely established themselves in the business and commercial life of this region.

Such a man is George "Buddy" Bankston, representing the General Fire Fighter Equipment Company, who also deserves an additional word of praise for being more than just successful. He is a consistent and enthusiastic booster of the community, and in his way has done much to advertise the Hub City.

Mr. Bankston has pursued the progressive policy of stepping up his business ahead of the times, thus setting a pace for which he has earned the reputation of being a go-getter, who does not sit back and wait for the business to come to him.

We are glad to pay tribute to "Buddy" Bankston, and to point out to our readers that his sincere desire to be of service, coupled with his determined methods, are largely responsible for the standing of the General Fire Fighter Equipment Company throughout the South Plains.

Larry Gill

To serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully, is the basic foundation many progressive business men of Lubbock have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the one we have in mind is Larry Gill of the KU-KU Burger Bar. The popularity and patronage enjoyed by his many services accentuates the ideals of courtesy and efficiency which he has consistently applied in the management of the business and in the servicing of his customers.

The conduct of such businesses, and the men who operate them, have done much to make Lubbock the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such individuals as Mr. Gill for his part in the onward progress of the city. In doing so, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know him.

Larry Gill has earned his success by the method in which he has served the public, and accepted both civic and business responsibilities, and we wish him every success in the future.

J. F. Rice Jr.

Recognized as an authority on all floor contracting problems, J. F. Rice Jr., of Rice Floors, has turned his knowledge to the advantage of the people of Lubbock and vicinity. More than that, Mr. Rice is a man who has always been vitally interested in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interest by lending assistance, in one form or another, to the successful promotion of many things which have benefited the community as a whole. Lubbock owes much to such men for their part in making the city the business center of this area.

He has always been alert to the many opportunities for service, and more than ready to recognize and accept his share of civic responsibilities.

Because of these things, J. F. Rice Jr., has become accepted as a dependable business man who is an asset to both the business and commercial life of this region. And we trust he will continue to serve the people of Lubbock and the surrounding area in his present capacity for many years.

Walter V. Jarnagin

It is a well-known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work; whether in business or professional activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him certain qualities, over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is Walter V. Jarnagin, well known, and completely reliable dirt and paving contractor, and a leader in the business and industrial life of this section of West Texas.

In addition to being one of the city's more conscientious business men, Mr. Jarnagin was never one to shirk his civic duty. More than that, he enters cheerfully and with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has time to take a part. And seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

Walter Jarnagin deserves his share of credit for being one of those progressive citizens of Lubbock who has contributed so substantially to the onward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

Frank McMahan Jr. And Tom Clark

Lubbock owes much to those progressive citizens who have taken an active part in the growth and progress of the city, and who have helped to make it the business center for this section. In mentioning some of those men, it is only fair to include Frank McMahan Jr., and Tom Clark of the Pangburn Trailer Sales & Rentals, and Pangburn Safe & Lock Company, whose outstanding knowledge of the business, backed up by their many years of experience has brought them to the forefront in their particular field.

Mr. McMahan and Mr. Clark are wholly deserving of our sincere praise, and these few words of commendation is but a just recognition for the many activities they have conducted on behalf of the general welfare of the community.

The honest and successful conduct of their business affairs is not only a reflection of their characters, but has also been a strong factor in maintaining them in positions of leadership in their field of endeavor.

We trust that Frank McMahan Jr., and Tom Clark will continue to serve the people of Lubbock and the surrounding area for many years to come.

John W. And Edward M. Broome

John W. and Edward M. Broome of the Broome Optical Company, have well-earned reputations for dependability because they have consistently forged ahead in their business; never letting up in their efforts to make the service their company renders to the people more valuable. This invaluable policy has made the Broome Optical Company outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout the South Plains area.

But the Broome's have accomplished much more than just making a success of their business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to them for devoting what time they could spare to the general welfare, not only to the city, but the surrounding district as well.

It is such men as they, who are both successful in business, and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving Edward and John Broome the credit for their accomplishments which their many friends and associates have so long accorded them.

W. H. Fielder And Robert E. "Bob" Stewart

In every community, there are a number of business men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Two well-known executives of Lubbock who belong in this category are W. H. Fielder and Robert E. "Bob" Stewart of Lubbock Paint Center Incorporated.

Their leadership in their line of business is recognized throughout this entire district. And their furtherance of civic activities, and support of those organizations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress is well-known to their immediate associates.

Mr. Fielder and Mr. Stewart are men who are equally well liked and respected by their intimate friends and colleagues. They are loyal to the community, thankful for their success in business, and have shown their appreciation by their contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate "Bob" Stewart and W. H. Fielder for being good citizens, dependable business men, and boosters of the Hub City.

NEW TRUDAN 2 IS HERE!

Trudan 2, Northrup King's new true hybrid sudangrass, is an exciting forage. Unlike sorghum-sudangrass hybrids, Trudan 2 produces fast growth without coarseness... the fine-stemmed, highly palatable plant yields high TDN. Trudan 2 grows back fast with lower prussic acid content. Great for grazing, hay or haylage. Trudan 2 can mean more beef or milk per acre. In tonnage trials, Trudan 2 has out-yielded sorghum-sudangrass hybrids.

64th District Cases Reduced

The criminal docket of 64th District Court in Hale County was reduced from approximately 600 cases to 192 from January 1, 1965, until Feb. 1 of this year.

Jury trial, pleas of guilty and dismissals accounted for the substantial shrinkage of the docket, said Frank Stovall, Plainview, who took over the duties of prosecuting attorney for the 64th Judicial District of Hale, Swisher and Castro counties on Jan. 1, 1965.

Of the 192 cases now on the docket, 55 are subject to prosecution, Stovall said. The others involve persons already in the penitentiary, on probation for other offenses, who are making restitution of property which they were accused of acquiring by a criminal act or who have not been arrested.

FOUR MURDER CASES
Of the 97 cases presented by the prosecutor to the court in 1965 ninety-five resulted in convictions. Of that number 81 were disposed of by pleas of guilty and 16 were tried before juries. In the jury trials, including five cases of murder, 14 accused were convicted. Four murder cases are now on the docket and are set for trial March 7.

In addition to the jury trials and pleas of guilty, ten probations were revoked last year.

There were eight sessions of the grand jury in 1965 from which 147 indictments resulted.

DROP IN BURGLARIES
Grand jury investigations of burglary in Hale County have dropped off approximately 75 per cent since mid-1965, Stovall said. The prosecutor expressed the opinion that the reason for the decrease was conviction and incarceration of "local talent" burglars.

Stovall, native of Floyd County, graduated from the Texas University Law School in 1959. He served as an assistant district attorney for Harris County for one year before coming to Plainview to practice law with his father, Richard Stovall. James A. Joy, formerly of Abernathy, is judge of the 64th Judicial District.

Bob Paden

Bob Paden is one of the more successful restaurant operators of Lubbock who, by maintaining a constant standard of service and high quality foods, has made the Toddle House's three of the more popular eating places in the community. We are glad to give him credit for his well-earned success in a field which is so highly competitive.

It is also a pleasure to give him credit for taking part in community affairs, and lending his assistance to various activities and public projects. When asked to take part in such matters, he always does so without ostentation, but in a quiet manner which lends dignity to his cheerful acceptance of his share of the civic load. It is a pleasure to be associated in the promotion of community activities with such a man as Mr. Paden.

This review of progressive and civic-minded men of Lubbock would not be complete were we to fail to include Bob Paden. His is the kind of success which deserves recognition, and we wish him many more years of the same.

Mrs. Flora Dean and Mrs. C. C. Jones visited Mrs. John Dean and Virginia of Lubbock Wednesday.

Quite a few families in our area are attending a revival at the Idalou Baptist Church this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Harrison were extremely fortunate to recover the metal box and contents stolen from their home when the Becton Store was burglarized early last Monday. It was believed that all checks and personal papers were intact.

Labels and tags left at the scene along with some large shirts gave officers information as to at least approximate size one small robber was. These items were discovered early this week behind the Happy Union Gin.

Mrs. Myers Looney is still a patient in Methodist Hospital this week. She is suffering from a back injury and has undergone a series of tests etc. Treatment thus far has also included traction and physical therapy.

Mrs. Lon Lincecum attended a tea and shower Friday afternoon at the Clifton Martin home in Abernathy, hosted by friends of the Martin family, honoring Mrs. Lincecum's newest granddaughter, Laura Lea Martin.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lance included Mrs. G. K. Bullock of Becton, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lance and daughters of Bovina, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Neal and children, Vickie and Jackie Thomas of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Tudor have returned from several days stay in Corpus Christi where they attended the Texas Independent Ginners Convention.
