Platform of the Republican party of Texas.

Resolved, 1st. That the Republican party of Texas heartily accepts the conditions of reconstruction embraced in the several reconstruction acts of Congress, and will in the future, as heretofore, fully sustain the same in word and spirit.

2. That the amendments to the Constitution of the United States, known as the 14th and 15th amendments, are necessary to the pacification of the country and the security of the equal civil and political rights of all classes of the people. The Republican party therefore pledges itself to the prompt adoption of those amendments.

3. That the resolutions adopted by the Chicago Convention of May 20th 1868, where not modified by the proposed 15th amendment, are accepted by the Republicans of Texas as the embodiment of correct principles of public policy. That the Republicans of Texas especially, commend the spirit of the additional resolution adopted in that Convention at the instance of Hon. Carl Schurz, and we will cheerfully accept the assistance of such of our fellow-citizens as served in the late rebellion, but who now frankly and honestly co-operate with us in restoring the peace of the country, and reconstructing our State Government on the basis of impartial justice and equal rights.

4. That the payment of the debt incurred in preservation of the unity of the nation to the last dollar, is in our opinion the sacred duty of the American people, and the Republicans of Texas will condemn all attempts to evade in any manner, the payment of this debt according to the intent of the creators of the same.

5. That the Republican party of Texas earnestly desires the encouragement of internal improvement and immigration, and will as a party, press the adoption of measures having these ends in view. That in Convention herewith, we condemn the demagogical use of the term of "carpet-bagger," and other terms of reproach applied to strangers who may come among us, as designed to keep alive the prejudices of the ignorant and deter immigration.

6. That while the Constitution submitted to the people is in some respects imperfect and objectionable, it is believed on the whole to propose the main object of Constitutional Government viz: The equal, civil and political rights of all persons under the law. This Convention therefore recommends the ratification of the same.

7. That the preservation of the unity and the organization of the Republican party is essential to the safe progress of reconstruction in this State, and they believe that to effect this reconstruction, a great work has yet to be performed. They therefore warn the loyal people of Texas that opposition to the organization of the Republican party, is the result of an unpatriotic design of the enemy purposing the political alienation of the State to the disloyal.

8. That the Republicans of Texas heartily express unqualified confidence in the administrative abilities, and integrity of the honored head of our Government, President Grant, and in the patriotic statesmanship of the majority in Congress.

P. W. Bell, of Bandera, offered the following, and moved that it be added to the resolutions, and be known as resolution No. 9:

Resolved, That the commanding General of this military district, Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, deserves the approval of the loyal people the United States, for his activity in ferreting out and bringing to justice the murderers of the patriot Geo. W. Smith, and for the measures he has adopted for the security of life and property, and the establishment of peace.

Johnson Reed of Galveston, offered the following, and moved that it be added to the resolutions, and be known as resolution No. 9:

Resolved, That to this end we earnestly invite the co-operation and support of all good citizens, advocates of peace, law and order, and who believe in the principles of the party of union, progress, liberty and reform, which has done so much for the pacification and well being of this country. This resolution adopted.

THE OLD WORLD AND THE NEW.

There's a checkmate universal
In this dead old world of ours,
The earth has lost its vigor,
Men's brains have lost their powers.

Alas! for the young fruits blighted,
And the flowers that cannot bloom!
Alas! for the lack of air and sun;
Alas! for the lowering gloom!

Alas! for the thirsty harvests,
And the moans that will not cease!
Alas! for the lingering harvests,
And the still delaying seasons!

By millions starve the beggars
Around the untilled domain,
And the orphans weep in the alleys
Of the rich and sumptuous banks.

There's a checkmate universal,
In this dead old world of ours;
The earth has lost its vigor,
Men's brains have lost their powers.

Yet I hear an angel crying,
"Away to the Virgin Land,
Away to the beautiful prairies,
Fresh from God's shaping hand."

And I see the Eastern sunbeams
Point to the broad free West,
And I watch the sea birds leading
To the golden realms of rest.

There's a checkmate universal
In this dumb old world of ours;
The earth has lost its vigor,
Men's brains have lost their powers.

Yet I know the flowering prairies
Shall soon roll with the ripening grain,
And the merry streams flow laughing
Over the desert plain.

Break up old tyrant my brothers,
Pave roads with Church's bones,
Hew from the pyramids of the Past
The Future's humble stones.

SUNDAY READING.

[From the N. Y. Independent.]

NOT WORTHY.

"We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs from under Thy table."—Episcopal Communion Service.

"Not worthy!" Lord, oh, no! it cannot be—
A feast of love like this spread out for me!
For me, ungrateful, stubborn, proud and willful;
Thou must not merely reckon me a child!

Too good for me the very crumbs that fall
Beneath the table of Thy banquet hall;
Oh, let me gather where my Lord has been,
And feast on fragments, silent and unseen.

"Not worthy"—ah, Thou knowest it Lord, too well!—
One blessed hour within Thy courts to dwell;
How then can I presume to take a place
Where I must meek behold Thy very face?

"Not worthy," Lord, and dost Thou press me still?
In this Thy royal wish, Thy sovereign will?
Has love yet heights and depths I have not known,
Can it consent this worthless one to own?

Ah, let me tarry at Thy blessed feet,
Twere joy enough for me, Thy blood bought sweet,
Might I, like the poor sacred one, softly creep
Beside Thee and forever kneel and weep.

Yet, if thou bid'st it, Master, it shall be;
I'll sit at table—aye, even close to Thee—
More humbled, as Thou know'st, to take this seat
Than to have late unnoticed at Thy feet.

relations of the character of God, and of the duty, interest and final destination of mankind.

We believe there is one God, whose nature is love, revealed in our Lord, Jesus Christ, by the Holy spirit of Grace, who will finally restore the whole family of mankind to holiness and happiness.

We believe that holiness and true happiness are inseparably connected, and that believers ought to be careful to maintain order and practice good works; for these things are profitable unto men.

The Boston Nation gives an account of a church which was led to report the use of wine at the Lord's Supper by the following circumstances:

A drunkard in the place was reformed, unknownsly to himself converted and became a Christian man. He united with the church but he did not dare to taste the intoxicating wine at the communion table. He feared the taste would awaken his old appetite and send him back to his ways.—The members of the church were made thoughtful by this turn of affairs. They said, "It is good neither to eat flesh nor drink wine, nor anything whereby a brother stumbleth," etc., and they concluded they had no business to set temptation before a weak brother even at the Lord's supper. They saw that Christians are bound to avoid anything that will cause a brother to offend, and they found that the Bible made no exception at the communion table—that if a believer was in this careless in every other place not to lead a brother astray, he might surely to be thus careful at the Lord's Supper. No intoxicating wine was handled, since which time wine has been prepared from raisins for the occasion, after the recipe of Pliny and Columella.

Religious Intelligence.

J. PAYNE, D. D., Episcopalian, has resigned the episcopate of Africa, to return home to die.

THE Boston Young Men's Christian Association has over 2,000 members.

W. H. WIGGINS, Episcopalian, of Chicago, having united to a Baptist church, has been deposed from the ministry by Bishop Whitehouse.

THE Methodist is keeping watch of "Lay Delegation Returns" and, so far, finds up 8677 for and 3040 against.

DR. BOGERT, Episcopalian, of New Jersey, one of the prosecutors of young Tyng, has no longer a parish to guard, having been appointed general missionary by Bishop Odenheimer.

BISHOP ARMITAGE refused to attend a recent Bible Society meeting in Milwaukee, as "it was not in accordance with his principles to participate in such societies like the American Bible Society."

THE Mariner's church of San Francisco has just put up a pulpit modeled in the shape of a ship's stern, and on the wall behind it is inscribed: "He taught the people out of a ship."

THE Primitive Methodist organization of Great Britain is only 39 years old; yet they have 3,500 chapels, and at least 200,000 church members and Sabbath school teachers.

THERE are in New York 123 Protestant missions where Sabbath schools or services for adults are carried on. Of these 41 are permanently established in their own buildings.

THE Prussian Baptists hold their annual meetings the first week of May, in Stettin. There were reported 3,809 members, and 17,000 baptists on the Continent, exclusive of those of Sweden.

A PROTESTANT Episcopal rector of Chicago recently preached a communion sermon on the duty of receiving the bread with hands crossed, and of carrying it to the lips without touching it with the fingers!

In the largest Episcopal church in Mobile, after a contribution is taken up, it is ceremoniously handed to the pastor, who asks all who contributed to rise, when he solemnly represents the collection with prayer. Every one gives something.

REV. CHARLES CLEVELAND, now in his ninety-seventh year, the venerable city missionary of Boston, lately preached in the Springfield street chapel, and had among his auditors one man one hundred years old.

PETER CARTWRIGHT, who is now closing his fiftieth year as a presiding elder in the Methodist Church, and the sixty-sixth of his regular ministry, will have a jubilee entertainment given him by the ministers of Illinois Conference, at Lincoln, during their session in September next.

DR. SCUDDER'S (Dutch) church in San Francisco are giving special attention to a Chinese Sunday School. They have now one hundred and ninety-six pupils and fifty-three teachers. At first it takes about one teacher for a pupil, and the size of the school is only limited by the ability to find teachers—as there is no trouble in getting scholars.

THE Baptist General Association of Virginia reports 442 Sabbath schools, of which 400 have 34,843 teachers and scholars, and report 1,500 conversions. The State Mission Board sustained 15 missionaries, at an expense of $2,300. They are in the association 343 churches, 341 ministers, 66,158 members, of whom 55,687 are white and 10,469 colored. The baptisms of the year are reported as 3,732.

OF the 1,200 convicts in the Illinois State prison, 300 are members of the Young Men's Christian Association which has been started there. They remain after chapel after chapel services, when the rest have retired, for a prayer meeting. On these occasions they are left without guards "upon their honor." Some are evidently hypocrites, but most seem to be seeking a Christian life.

THE new German Church at Lagrange Mo., was dedicated June 13; sermon by Rev. C. E. Conrad, pastor of the German church of Quincy, Ill., dedicatory prayer by Rev. E. B. Turner, Rev. Jacob Schwartz, lately of Iowa, has taken its pastoral charge. A Sabbath school of over one hundred has been gathered, and the future prospects of the church are flattering.

THE Union Pacific railway gives to the Baptist Home Mission Society lands on the line of their road for the location of missions. A delegation of the officers of the society are now on the route selecting lots. It will no doubt prove shrewd business speculation for the railroad. On arriving in San Francisco, the delegation will visit the important points of California and Oregon, and propose to be absent nearly four months.

THE Methodists have a gift for doing the Lord's work on business principles, and making money out of it, that is unsurpassed. They have bought a splendid building on Broadway, New York, for their Book Concern and for connectional purposes, and now they are in the market to sell half a million dollars of coupon bonds, bearing seven per cent. interest, which propose to sell in order to pay for part of the building.

DR. JONAS KING, who died at Athens on the 28th ult., was one of the veterans of the missionary work. He graduated at Andover in 1819, was made a Professor at Amherst, and going to Europe to fit himself by further study, found his way into the missionary field. He married a worthy helpmeet in a noble Greek woman, who, still retaining her membership in the Greek church, bravely and royally stood by him in all his work of toil and peril at Athens for thirty-five years.

"All Quiet in Texas"—The Facts.

In order to impress the President and the North generally, with the lamb-like attitude of Texas, Governor Pease and other coalition politicians, are spreading the report that "all is quiet in Texas." In looking over our daily issues from the 20th of June to the 24th of this month, we find under "Texas Items," recorded the following murders and outrages:

W. C. Joynes killed Hawkins at Brenham.

A negro killed by Bob Lee, a planter on Red River.

Sheriff Jacobs, Stap and two Peaces killed in Goliad county.

Irishman kills his wife in Smith county.

Dr. R. C. Black assassinated at Round Rock.

A. M. Snodgrass, killed near Brenham.

One man killed and one wounded at Hearne station.

Peevey, killed by Goynes party in Atascoso county.

Dr. Maxwell, murdered on the streets of Calvert by forty desperadoes.

Jas. A. Thomas, called to his door and assassinated in Sumpter county.

The Union newspaper office destroyed.

The soldiers attack the colored people at Columbus.

Laura Lensing, killed in Austin.

A colored man kills his wife.

A white man kills his wife.

Henderson killed in Corpus Christi.

Capt. Wicher killed at Belton by Bill Mullins.

James Fitzpatrick, killed at Galveston.

Chas. Glenn, killed by John McGintry, on Peach Creek, Gonzales county.

Jimmy Watterson, confesses to murder of Anderson.

Two brothers, William and Edward Jones, hung by a mob in Montgomery county. They were Unionists.

Q. Mecoes killed Joe Hale at Ailyton.

Two men, Bell and Moore, killed in DeWitt county.

Dr. Carter killed Capt. M. H. Mitchell at Corsicana.

Hudson killed Hilston at Pilot Point.

T. K. Moore recovering from wound inflicted by a would be assassin.

Lawler killed Rollins in Burnett.

Many other murders and outrages no doubt have escaped our clipping. The days of the Ku-Klux are over, and none of the murders mentioned above are laid to political reasons. But, we ask in the name of humanity, does this bloody record of one month justify the statement that "all is quiet in Texas"? We would be glad to tell a different tale. In simply drawing attention to facts, we are liable to be assailed by the Conservative press, who claim that Texas is in a very lamb-like state. If all political rancor is banished, and all these murders are to be laid to other causes, then we conclude that the spirit of murder is very strong in Texas, and that if a political campaign is opened with no better safe-guards than are now existing, we may expect a harvest of blood.

What does Texas need to stop this carnage? The hand of a Griffin upon its military sword. We want peace, not a wordy peace, but peace that comes from a respect for authority and law.

Our present condition of society must be deplored, as being detrimental to every good interest in the State. We need not only a firm hand now, but we need an iron hand and calm head when we become organized under civil government—General Davis, the Republican candidate for Governor, posseses the qualifications of an executive for the times. We have had enough of Conservative administrations.

We believe the good people of Texas, who want neighborhood peace and who desire to see our State built up with immigration from abroad, will rise in their might and give victory to the only party that can accomplish the much desired end,—the Republican party of Texas, backed by all the physical and moral force of the nation.

THE "VORWARTS"—Is the name of the new Republican paper started at New Braunfels, the first number arriving by Saturday's mail. In English, the name means "Advance," a good name, and the paper is excellent in typography and editorial make-up. Mr. L. E. Kelmer, is the editor. The enterprise is backed by the staunchest of men of New Braunfels. Messrs. R. Bodemann, Th. Goldbeck, L. Klappenbech, Dr. W. Remer, R. Lietkohl, are the starters. The people of Comal have now a true home representative organ. Their loyalty and enterprise find a true exponent in the "Go-ahead" or "Vorwarts."

LOGIC.—The Houston Telegraph is very anxious to impress upon the Democratic party, the necessity of doing nothing as a party, as "it would be ruinous and would raise up the Radicals," and that Jack Hamilton must be elected as the Radicals are "a mere insignificant faction, without numbers or influence." Strange logic. The Radicals are an "insignificant faction," and yet the Democratic party dare not stir a finger, at the risk of being overwhelmed! Try again, brother Webb.

JOSSELYN of the Austin State Gazette, has fallen back on his dignity, and concluded not to pay further attention to his democratic assailants, and thus dismisses them into oblivion:

"We are satisfied that we have given undue importance to the blatherskiting of such journals as the Lavaca Commercial and others of even less note. Let alone, they will do no harm except to themselves. We can write about something of greater interest than sandflies or tadpoles. So the one may buzz and the other wiggle at pleasure."

Very poetical, very.

A LOBBYIST IN THE FIELD.—We see by the Tyler Index that L. Camp, the persistent railroad lobbyist of the reconstruction convention is out for Land Commissioner. It would be highly appropriate to have this railroad land shark at the head of the Land office!

THE RIGHT MAN.—General Buck seems to be just the man for Eastern Texas, he gobbled up the rebel editor of the Jefferson Home Advocate the other day, for publishing a lie about him, the General, and made him give a $5,000 bond for his appearance to answer before any Court ordered by General Reynolds.

DAMAGE OF THE LATE RAINS.—It seems as the floods have subsided and people get a calm view of the situation, the damage done is not near as great as first reported. A good crop will be made even on the fields that were submerged.

JOSSELYN SMELLS A MICE.—The State Gazette, in commenting upon the postponement of the election in Texas, says:

"Remembering the past, we can have little confidence in the intentions of Governor Pease in the right direction, and if the election is indefinitely put off, we shall know where to put the blame. Sudden conversions are to be regarded with some suspicion. There is now a heavy personal interest in this State against reconstruction. Is it reasonable to suppose it will be exerted to effect it?"

After all Pease's trouble, and the expense of his friends, and his being snubbed at the White house, he is suspicioned by his new found friends. Too bad.

Division Sentiment in the East.

The Tyler Index, replying to the Sherman Courier, says:

"Would the Courier deem it advisable or wise to unite under one State government the States of Missouri, Arkansas, and Louisiana? And yet there are fewer serious objections to such a union than there are to continuing Texas as she is.

Cannot the Courier discard local and mere party considerations and take an enlarged statesman-like view of this question? The editors are comparatively young men, and the Courier may be read twenty years hence. Why pursue a course that will clog and cripple the energies of our people in the future as it has for the past twenty years? It is wisdom to correct our errors and look to future consequences in governing our actions of to-day. Could the bright future of the four States that are to be carved out of Texas be opened to our view to-day, who would wish to place himself in the way of division, or by his opposition delay for one month its speedy accomplishment? We say not one."

TEXAS ITEMS.

FOR the first bale of cotton of this year's growth delivered in Houston, Mr. House agrees to pay 25 cents, gold, per pound, with the additional premium of a cup valued at $100, gold; or, if the planter prefers it, he will pay $100 in gold in lieu of the cup. Mr. House is determined to have the "first bale," and we have no doubt he will get it.—Houston Times.

THE FIRST BALE.—Messrs. Sessums & Co. repeat their annual liberal offer of a silver service, worth $100, for the first bale of new cotton. They are also prepared to furnish their numerous customers with bagging and ties at the lowest rates.—Galveston Civilian.

UPWARDS of 200 visitors were at that delightful retreat Lampasas springs, a couple of weeks ago. The crowd will be still larger before the season is over, Boarding $10 to 20 per month. Those who camp out buy provisions at very cheap rates.

A NEGRO boy by the name of Freeland Monroe, who has been for years in the employ of Mr. Talbot, as a herdsman, while hunting horses on Possum creek last week, was murdered, a coroner's inquest was held, but nothing elicited further than that his death from SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 24th, 1869. F. P.

It is rumored that Prof. Wheelock is at the helm of the Austin Republican. His family left this city on Friday for Austin.

NEW COUNTY COMMISSIONER.—Mr. Chas. Elmendorf has been appointed as County Commissioner for this county, in place of Joseph Schmidt, disqualified.

THE OLD MILL.—The old mill at the foot bridge is being repaired again, and will be at work once more in a few days.

BONDED WAREHOUSE.—We learn that the merchants of our city are perfecting arrangements to keep up the bonded warehouse.

TURN VEREIN CELEBRATION.—The San Antonio Turn Verein will celebrate their fourth anniversary in a few weeks, and connect with the celebration a Fair, to which all friends will be invited.

NINE LIVES.—We hear a rumor that the old San Antonio Ledger office is to be used to put forth a hermaphrodite Conservative journal in the interest of the "peoples ticket." The old Ledger has died and came to life again several times, but we guess this will be a finisher, if true.

SPEED UP.—Mr. J. H. Kampmann, it seems, infuses energy into every thing he touches, his gentle old buggy horse became so energetic under the touch of his energetic driver on Friday evening, that he ran off, tearing down Main street, and finally bringing up in front of Stemberg's, on Alamo square, smashing the buggy, but fortunately not hurting the occupant.

HAND POWER.—On the invitation of Mr. Elmendorf, we stepped into his extensive hardware establishment on Friday, to witness the practical working of the new "hand power" invention he has imported. We were convinced that steam and water power have a great rival in this new invention. The hardest kind of wood was sawed with the speed and ease of a steam power, by the application of the strength of one man. The machines are easily transported, and very simple to manage, and will be invaluable in this section. Mr. E. has sent for something in the way of boots that is said to outstrip the velocipede. We wait the arrival in order to give a description.

SWEET PICKLES.—Now is the time to put up pickles and preserves, and nothing is nicer than sweet pickles made of peaches, tomatoes, etc. A lady sends us the following recipe for publication: Seven pounds of fruit; three pounds of brown sugar; one quart of good vinegar, one ounce of cloves, one ounce of mace, one ounce of cinnamon. Dissolve the sugar in the vinegar, and cook the fruit in it until soft. The spices should be tied up in a thin bag, and cooked with the fruit. Let the preserves stand one day in the syrup, then turn off the syrup and scald it, and turn it on the fruit again white hot. The preserves are now ready for putting in bottles or jars.

ARRIVALS BY STAGE—COAST ARRIVALS.—Mrs. Foster, Mr. Mitchell, P. Weslin, Capt. Delaney, J. E. Rohres, Lt. C. E. Sewitt and lady, L. M. Woodward, E. M. Smith, Wm. Gamble.

AUSTIN.—J. C. Lamont, G. H. Giddings, J. C. Payne, J. F. Bowles, Saml. Morris, A. Rost, J. H. Schne. M[illegible] Smith, Mr. French, C. H. Clapp, [illegible] Parsslow.

ARRIVALS AT MENGER'S.—From 9th July.—Mr. Eckles, Fort Davis; Col. Cunningham; Gust. Valuis, [illegible] Morris; Henry W. Chipman, [illegible] Evans, Twin Sisters; Geo. E. [illegible] M. C. Klum, Platte county, Mo.; L. W. Menmer, San Antonio; Fred. N. Unger, Georgetown College; G. Dimmitt, Eagle Pass; W. Smith and lady, U. S. A.; G. W. Smith; Jno C. Conner, U. S. A.; L. Johnson, U. S. A.; Capt. Steelhammer, U. S. A.; Col. Clements, U. S. A.; A. E. Lyon, St. Louis, Mo.; Dr. J. C. Samont, U. S. A.; C. M. Johnson, Dr. H. A. Gray, Fort Concho; Geo. H. Judson, New Braunfels; Geo. Runcomb, Henry Burrows, John Gline, W. Schulz, Cal.; Sam. Harris, Austin; D. Reibnitz, N. O.; Col. Rob't Hall, U. S. A.; C. S. Werbank, U. S. A.; John J. Delany, New York; J. E. Röhner, Georgetown D. C.; Wm. Gamble, Chicago, Ill.; E. M. Smith; Ch. H. Clapp, Colorado; Sam. Morris, J. Schnitzer, 4th Cav.; St. Scott, 4th Cav.; G. W. Hervis, U. S. A.; John Morf; C. E. Jewett and wife, U. S. A.; S. M. Woodward, Ind.

THE CHATTANOOGA RAILROAD.—The New Orleans Picayune announces that this enterprise is rapidly progressing between that city and Mobile and beyond the latter city. The Picayune adds:

Nor is it to stop here. The surveys are still being made in the direction of Texas. It is pretty well concluded that the road will go up the Mississippi river to the mouth of the Bayou Lafourche, at Donaldsonville, and then strike off in a westward course towards Vermillionville; but it is not yet determined where to cross the Mississippi.

The Picayune favors its completion and is therefore "greatly encouraged for the future in the fact that the Chattanooga road is to be built through to Texas, and that Mr. Morgan is determined that his road also shall be built."

The Revista Universal, (city of Mexico,) has the following in regard to the anniversary of the death of Mejia and Miramon:

The church of San Diego presented a touching sight day before yesterday, the friends and relatives of the dead generals were assembled at the church, a magnificent orchestra played the sorrowful notes which served as an accompaniment to the funeral chants. A great number of ladies dressed in mourning occupied the pews in the center of the church, while the priest offered the holy sacrifice of mass for him who fell at the "Cerro de la Campana."

Funeral services also took place at the church of San Fernando in honor of Gen. Mejia.

The tombs of Gens. Mejia and Miramon were tastefully decorated with a profusion of flowers. A lady dressed in black watched over the tomb of Gen. Miramon.

Gen. Morales, an old soldier who fought in the first war of independence of Mexico against Spain, and a companion in arms to Generals Morelos Bravo, Victoria, Matamoros and others, has just died at Costa Grande in the district of Galeua. He leaves a widow and thirty sons.

TO CURE SCAB ON SHEEP.—Mr. John Palmer, of Illinois, sends the following recipe for this disease: "Take tobacco, boil until strong, then add soft soap and salt; then, for one hundred head of sheep, add one ounce of carbonic acid, crystalized, as it is the best; dip and rub the effected part well. The soap softens the part and creates a gum, while the salt tends to allay the itch. Tobacco will not cure by itself; we tried the pure tobacco and failed to cure; then we mixed this dip ourselves. We used this dip last year, and have now got our sheep about; another dipping will cure them. Be careful to get the hard scab soaked well, and if possible remove from the old pens into new ones after dipping, and a cure will be sure."

A SOUTHERN paper gives the following receipt for a summer drink: "Take a glass and pour into it two spoonsful of good whiskey; take a quart of water and throw out of the window. Then taste to see if strong enough, add more whiskey, let the preparation stand till you are dry, and drink it clear."

Testimonials.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DEMONS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer, like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith, were even thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. (feb19'69dly.
