OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF BEXAR COUNTY AND CITY OF SAN ANTONIO.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1872.

JUDSON W. VAN SLYCK, Editor.

CHANGE OF TIME PROPOSED.

A Delegate Convention of the Republican party of Texas is hereby called to assemble in the city of Houston on the second Tuesday of May, 1872, for the purpose of nominating Delegates-at-Large, to a National Convention, for a thorough reorganization of the party, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the body.

The basis of representation is fixed the same as for members of the Legislature under the present apportionment.

Friends friendly to the objects herein contained will please circulate the call.

E. G. TRAUT,
Ch'n Republican State Executive Committee.
J. D. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

The Sumner-Summer-Drooler continues on the President.

The Senate of the United States has been absorbed for many weeks in discussing, and the leading political newspapers of the country more or less agitated, over Mr. Sumner's resolution concerning "those, arms." The facts of the case have thereby become pretty thoroughly developed and appear to us, after a laborious sifting of the evidence pro and con, to be very plain. We will endeavor to give a condensed statement of the matter.

More than a year and a half ago, by authority of the act of the Congress, Mr. Belknap, then Secretary of war, advertised for sale a large quantity of condemned arms, ordinance stores, etc. Mr. Sumner was then chairman of the Senate Committee on foreign Relations, and of course was fully advised of everything going on. Mr. Schurz was also in the Senate and we will be soon had his attention called to the matter. An agent of the Remingtons, whose business is notorious all over the country, and who have for years been in the habit of purchasing arms at such sales, was successful in purchasing large quantities. As this was about the commencement of the German-France war it was soon rumored that the Remington's agent was purchasing the arms for the French to be used against the Germans. Protests and petitions were sent in by the German residents and citizens of the U. S. from all quarters to Senator Schurz, but who took no notice of them, and urged none of them upon the Senate. Neither did Sumner utter a word.

But some German citizens of the city of Columbia, through General Boyd of Missouri, presented to the House a memorial upon the subject, which of course brought the matter officially before the President. The President, through his War Secretary, immediately ordered Gen. Dyer, chief of the Ordnance Bureau, to discontinue the disposal of all arms and munitions of war which was done.

Now more than a year after all this Sumner introduces into the Senate a long preamble and resolution asking Congress to appoint a Committee to investigate the whole transaction, the preamble charging in substance, that these arms were sold by our government to the government of France on account of a secret hostility entertained towards the German government; and also that army officers were corruptly interested in effecting the sale—the President conniving, it is intimated, if not pecuniarly interested. There has not been as yet, produced any good evidence that the agent purchasing the arms was, in fact, a secret agent; but there is no doubt, we presume, that large quantities went into the hands of Frenchmen.

The administration Senators did not oppose the investigation but fully agree to the validity of the preamble, and assert, with reason, that it is a mere election trick sprung by the Democrats to the nomination of Gen. Grant to the Presidency. They think an excitement can be kept up before the country, charges and insinuations liberally and persistently made, sufficient to alienate a great number of the German Republicans from Gen. Grant, and to intimidate the party leaders to such an extent as will render his renomination impossible. The leaders in the movement, Schurz, Sumner and others, are known to be personal enemies of the President. Their bad faith, and unjustifiable action is apparent in the tardiness of their action in so grave a matter, in the position thus where the charges are spread upon the country, just in time to influence the nomination of a candidate to the Presidency, and while nothing can be finally determined before the nomination is made. It is further apparent in the virulence and malicious of the attacks made upon the present government.

We do not believe the Germans will, to any extent, be deceived. The veil which is thrown over the real object of his opponents is too thin.

The President is too well known to have been a staunch friend of Prussia in her war with France, and Sumner was openly and avowedly the ally, in the Congress of France, while Schurz even took pains to say publicly, with reference to the war, that he was not a German, but an American citizen—which meant something or nothing, but certainly did not mean that he was entitled to become the peculiar champion of the Germans-Americans. Indeed, Gen. Grant is too popular with the people everywhere to have his chances for nomination or election endangered by this unscrupulous attack.

It must be a gratifying spectacle for both Schurz and Sumner to see their speeches circulated everywhere as democratic campaign documents under the frank of democratic Congressmen.

How the times change and men with them!

Texas News.

Several merchants from Mier have been in town this week with hides and to make purchases. The number of Mexican merchants coming here for their goods is constantly increasing, and our trade with Northern Mexico has now become very large.—The Nueces Valley.

One Lynne C. Doyle, publishes a card in the Goliad Guard of the 24 ult. in which he announces that a company of young men is in process of formation in Goliad county, for the purpose of visiting Mexico on a prospecting expedition. Among other qualifications which these young men must possess, is "energy, pluck and industry—especially industry;" men who can resist the smiles of woman, who are not in love; men who have no more use for a wife than hell has for a guardhouse."

It is evident that this company will be composed of very nice young men, and that their prospects are flattering. In a P. S., Mr. Doyle requests those desiring to "make the tour" to forward their names to J. B. Hell, Bayville, Texas. Why they should send their names to Hell, when they have shell a cheerful opportunity to go there themselves, and where they are pretty sure to go in the end, it is difficult to conjecture; but we don't believe when they get there it will be in Bayville, Texas, although for ought we know Bayville may be about as bad a place.

Speaking, recently, of the temperance law of Ohio, and that of Illinois, which is copied after it, we said it encouraged vagabondism and drunkenness by the provision which makes a saloon keeper liable in civil damages to the wife or family of a drunkard. The Ohio papers publish a very good illustration of this in an item about a Mrs. Woods of Millersburg, who has already made $16,000 out of Mr. Woods' libations; and at last accounts Mr. Woods was on his way to a drinking saloon.

Army Officers to Engage in Civil Pursuits.

Mr. Griffin of Pennsylvania, has introduced in the House of Representatives a bill permitting officers of the army, retired from active service, excepting such only as are assigned to duty in colleges as military professors, and in the Soldiers' Home in the District of Columbia, to enter upon and pursue such civil pursuits as other unofficial citizens of the United States, subject only to the civil laws as such citizens. It was referred that the Committee on Military Affairs.

If this bill passes it ought to afford great relief to the minds and consciences of several individuals we wot of whether "retired Capt. J. C. DeGress, U. S. A. Tex. St. Sch. Supt." will feel any better or not it is impossible to conjecture. Perhaps he will inform us through his official organ, the Houston Telegraph, (Democratic).

It is probable, however, that such information is not on his slate and that everybody will be left in ignorance.

Ex-Governor Robinson recently delivered an address before the Texas Agricultural Society, in the course of which he said:

"It is estimated that 200,000 Texas cattle pass through Kansas each year, but their passage through benefits no one but the railroad companies and a few saloon-keepers on the borders of civilization. Probably one half of these are shipped directly to the beef markets, and the other half go to States east of us to be fed. Now, if Kansas would stop these 250,000 cattle, and stuff them with eighty bushels of corn each, they she would have returned to her, to be distributed to her laborers, mechanics, artisans, manufacturers and traders $15,000,000 annually, instead of nothing as now. Illinois and other States are laughing at our stupidity, and receiving these cattle by tens and hundreds of thousands, and get 75c for their corn, while we get 20c and 25c. It is claimed that this law is necessary to prevent disease, but Illinois and other States where these cattle are permitted to go are as free from disease as Kansas, where they are prohibited."

"Old John Burns, of Gettysburg," died at his home in Gettysburg last week. His name enters into history as a fighter "on his own hook" at the great battle which turned the fortunes of our union. Burns was a farmer living near the battle field and marched into action in his old blue swallow-tailed coat, buff vest and knee-breeches, with a high well-crowned white hat covering his gray hair. Bret Harte has sung his deeds in verse:

"Flanked the battle. You know the rest;
Now the rebels, begun and backward pressed,
Broke at the final charge and ran.
At which John Burns—a practical man—
Shouldered his rifle, unbent his brows,
And then went back to his hens and cows."

One good result to the Republican party of the attacks on the administration of General Grant is, that these attacks will be shown to be groundless before the Presidential contest has been fully opened. Every charge of corruption thus far made has turned out to be groundless. The enemies of General Grant, without, of course, intending it, are adding to his strength and popularity. He grows stronger with the people with every successive failure of his enemies to make good their charges against him. It is well for the Republican party that these false charges are made, met, and exposed before the campaign begins.

BAPTISED IN FIRE.

THE

Chicago Phoenix!

A UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER.

Read the Following:

A popular weekly paper for the Home, embracing the leading features of those journals devoted to the terrible conflagration, and containing such contributions of writers as will give the public all the news of the week, in a readable form, and set forth the events of the great fire, which shook the world.

A TRUTHFUL RECORD.

The Phoenix will be the most truthful and reliable monitor of incidents and facts concerning the great fire, ever published.

ACCOUNTS OF THE FIRE.

It will contain only such sketches as are vouched for by reliable witnesses, and will expose the wrongers and falsifiers of the great fire.

CHICAGO AND THE FIRE.

It will, for a time, be devoted especially to the past, present and future of Chicago, and will be the most complete weekly newspaper in the world.

PERSONAL COMPANION AND FRIEND.

PAPER.

Its columns are devoted to News, Commerce, Science, Literature, Art, Drama, Music, Humor, Fashion, Poetry, Politics, Society news, and enough of Sensation to make it a most desirable family companion, as well as the most reliable and complete newspaper for the businessman in the smoking room.

BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS.

It will be illustrated with engravings taken from Photographs of the Chicago Ruins, instead of sketches "by Our Special Artist" who was not on the spot, and thus give events of value and interest, and illustrate elsewhere, and the first number will contain the only correct map of the burned city.

HAPPY HOURS.

That beautiful literary journal, "Happy Hours," whose publisher was the first to issue a paper to greet the public dismayed, bereaved and homeless, will be a feature in the literary department of the Phoenix, which will embrace the contributions of more than forty of the most popular writers of the day.

A SPECIAL FEATURE.

The Phoenix will contain, as an editorial feature, a more complete record of incidents and events of the late conflagration than is to be found in any book, paper or other publication in the country. Its reports and historical sketches have been the talk of the town, in a manner and to an extent unknown before in this city, and The Phoenix will be the best.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THE three Small Pox patients died quite yesterday.

J. T. Burton will open his Night School Monday night in the room [illegible] French's Store.

MUD, mud and nothing but mud, [illegible] before last we were treated to some severe reminders to the clerk of the weather.

Encarnacion Gamble's case, for Martin Wensing, drunk and disorderly, fined $3 and costs. The Abrams case was continued again.

THE poets not yet united in St. Church will be disposed of this P. M. at 5 o'clock. All those who feel a fair [illegible] are requested to be present.

Mr. Alex. E. Sweet borrowed of the editor, some days ago, a copy of the Ordinances of Chicago, and one dittto of Burlington. He [illegible] the city should let them in some one of Mr. Steinmetz pianos which he called, and has not been able to find them since. Will the person who knows where they are please inform Mr. Sweet, at his office or Brackett's Sugar store, where they are—or leave word at this office?

Mr. Sweet never drinks anything strong.

The Postmaster Gazette informs us that hereafter the through mails for Galveston under some locks, instead of going by way of Galveston or Houston, will go via Austin, leaving this city at 8 o'clock A. M. every morning, Sundays excepted. Persons, however, desiring to send their mail by way mail via Columbus, which leaves at 4 o'clock p. m., may still do so. Application has been made for a change in the schedule so that we may receive a Sunday mail, and Mr. G. feels confident it will be granted. This will give us the present Monday's mail 24 hours sooner.

We are informed that an individual supposed to have been guilty of burglarious intent, entered Mr. J. P. Simpson's law office over Rentzel & Thorntsel's Bank, on night before last, but the [illegible] alarm, which sounds above the bank, discovered him in the act of striking a match, and opened fire upon him from a pistol. The burglar didn't wait long enough to test the question whether Colt is a good shot or not, but [illegible] precipitately, leaving behind an axe and pair of Confiants. We propose to see [illegible] the proper authorities to determine [illegible] and prevent ownership, and may, perhaps, bring something to his interest.

On the same night the grating in the sidewalk, in front of Mr. Dwight's store in [illegible] was pried out together with the stones of the pavement, by some persons unknown, evidently with the intention of finding a place to sleep adding the stone and valuables stored in the cellar but they must have been alarmed by a noise, or something, or [illegible] their words suddenly, for they left no other trace behind them.

We came very near being the innocent originator of an interesting and tragic local item, not many days since. The circumstances are instructive, and we feel it our duty to give the readers of the Herald the benefit of knowing how our boys pay for their [illegible]. To [illegible] grow [illegible] a boatswain's whistle, [illegible] the wind in a hurry. It [illegible] from a [illegible] whistle. We know [illegible] where we have or are there, but we never [illegible] a [illegible] dog, and that wasn't original. In bachelor days we had a dog Trover, and we learned how to whistle for him. He would always come. We learned how to make it from hearing similar men, and cure was the first plagiarism we remember to have perpetrated. It was of a coaxing, multiform sort, sometimes a little too positive, but generally doing out with a rising cadence, as if it wished to get within higher and cooler air.

But to our story. We were meditatively sounding our homeward way, towards the close of evening, somewhat wearied, when we heard at a considerable distance behind us, [illegible] the [illegible] whistle, [illegible] looked back [illegible] another whistle [illegible] the distance [illegible] up [illegible] never [illegible] quail, but there were no quails in his pocketses. The following energetic and rapid dialogue immediately ensued:

Person.—What in Helen Blazes do you want about us?

Cousinus.—Dropping back a pace or two.) Hold—my what's the matter? I don't want anything in Helen Blazes. I don't know the lady—never heard of her—never saw her. Guess we have to be cousins of [illegible]

P.—Do you mean to insult me, sir, when I ask you what you do for you—

C.—(Stiffly.) I don't take you at all my friend. I can't take you for anything if I wanted to. I'm not an Indian, and am not a policeman; Boston-Lam-not, in the [illegible] sense, [illegible] and don't draw anything with [illegible] Could n't you to take your pretesh just now—

P.—(Interrupting.) Why, my [illegible] must be [illegible] out of them—I won't take any [illegible] insults. I want to know what in Helen Damation you—

C.—That's her name, is [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible]

P.—(Interrupting directly.) What in thunder do you mean or as though I were a [illegible]

C.—(The truth of the matter beginning to dawn upon him.) My dear sir, I'm extremely sorry, I just wanted to speak to you about—you see, I never would [illegible] a dog which he deserved it, and then (should he when he wasn't around) [illegible] with you so terribly [illegible] just now, you [illegible] practical me at first, I [illegible] you meant to [illegible] me to a [illegible] from that Helen. What you call hell, hell really, is [illegible] that little [illegible]

P.—(Interrupting.) Well, don't you [illegible] to say more, in the way you did, you might have got Helen Damation! and before we had time to say another word, [illegible] a quarter [illegible] at this [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Policy of the Administration.

In conclusion, I would sum up the policy of the Administration to be a through enforcement of every law, a faithful collection of every tax justly due to government in the disbursement of the money, a prompt payment of every debt of the nation, a reduction of the taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit, the retrenchment of taxation and tariff so far as consistent as to afford the greatest relief to the great consumers, honest and fair dealing with all other people, to the end that war, with all its blighting consequences, may be avoided, but without sunsmanship, any sight or obligation due to us, a reform in the management of Indians and in the whole civil service of the country, and finally in securing a home, untrammeled by race, where every man entitled to vote may do so just once at each election, without fear of molestation or concurrence on account of his political faith, nativity or color.

U. S. GRANT.

Newspaper Laws.

We would call the special attention of Postmasters and subscribers to the following synopsis of the newspaper laws:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice, by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reason for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages or the publisher may continue to send it until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the Postoffice. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

General and Special Laws of the 12th Legislature of the State of Texas, First Edition, 1871, at the "Express" Office.

THE

New York Tribune,

For 1872.

THE consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual abrogation of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany, and the arming of Russia to resume her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to precipitate her other purposed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the ever-shifting phases of our kindred from the Old World. THE TRIBUNE, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent, aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the political struggle between multiplied aspirations and Reactionism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century adaptation and secularism on the other. Recognizing a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and venality in office has been inaugurated in our City, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its green, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and enabling it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed Reform, THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights to guardians of color has obviated one great politico-moral issue that bore so heavily, however parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be regarded as practically accepted by the whole country. The right of every man to his own limbs and person—the equality of all citizens before the law—the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty until he forfeits it by crime—such are the broad and firm foundations of our National edifice; and palsied be the hand which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Emancipation, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternest judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth, the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—to extend the boundaries and diffuse the blessings of Civilization—to stimulate Ingenuity to the production of new inventions for economizing Labor and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grains and of Metals, and thus enhance the gain of Industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchanges between farmers and artisans—such is the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain contribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work, THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially elucidated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful tillers of the soil will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells $300 worth of produce per annum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally lucid and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we aspire to make it equally valuable to those engaged in other departments of Productive Labor. We spend more and more money on our columns each year, as our countrymen's generous patronage enables us to do; and we are resolved that our issues of former years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every State! help us to make our journal better and better and better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!

In making remittances always procure a draft on New-York, or a Post-Office Money Order, if possible. Where neither of these can be procured, send the money, but always in a REGISTERED letter. The registration fee has been reduced to fifteen cents, and the present registration system has been found by the postal authorities to be nearly an absolute protection against losses by mail. All Postmasters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so.

Terms, cash in advance.

THE

World-Renowned

"ELIAS HOWE"

SEWING MACHINES,

Are Leading all others.

Sales for 1870

LARGER THAN ANY OTHER SEWING MACHINE MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE "HOWE"

SEWING MACHINES

Received the Cross of the Legion of Honor and Gold Medal at the Paris Exposition, in 1867,

AND THE GOLD MEDAL AT AMSTERDAM EXHIBITION, IN 1869,

And have invariably obtained the HIGHEST HONOR at all the great exhibitions, also, received, successively, the highest Premiums at our Texas State Fairs, in 1870 and 1871.

THE "HOWE"

Is the most durable, simplest, most complete in all its parts, uses the shortest and smallest needle, for the same sized thread, than any other Machine, which is far less liable to break; it is so perfect in all respects that with care, it will last a life time without repair.

THEREFORE SELECT

ELIAS HOWE'S"

NEWLY IMPROVED

Family Sewing Machine,

"Which for simplicity and celerity of mechanism, beauty and excellence of stitch, economy of thread, strength of seam and variety of work is unsurpassed by any other Machine.

It will sew, quilt, tie (but, full, cord, bind, bind, and perform every species of sewing, plain and ornamental, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, called the "Howe" Lock Stitch, which is formed by two threads, one upon each side of the material, sewed and locked together in the centre, forming an elastic seam, and presenting the same appearance on both sides.

A stitch of this character commends itself to especially appropriate for sewing woven material, and if suitable thread be used, the seam will prove as strong and elastic as the fabric itself.

At the present time no less than 40,000 Machines are turned out daily, and each and every one is guaranteed perfect, and made of the best material.

We have constantly on hand a full assortment of these celebrated Machines.

Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

Caution.

Agents for the Clipper Mower and Reaper.

The great field trials at Sedalia, Mo., and at Xenia, Ohio, in the Summer of 1869—where "The Clipper" met some 40 competitors including all the leading machines both, and was awarded the First Premiums and Gold Medal—proves that the proprietors have been able to sustain in the field their claim—claiming for the Clipper—the—over all others. Its extraordinary lightness of draft (now something of the lighter of the team. The adjustability of the Reaper, to cut high or low without stopping the team, is worth $25 on any machine. It is the only mower that has the true center draft in combination with correct mechanical principles, and, in the hands of the farmer, the most durable, the least complicated, the most perfectly constructed, the most economical in design, of any implement of its class. Farmers can obtain in the Mower Friend, and you cannot afford to ignore their welfare. Send for pamphlet—investigate. See or write to some one who has used the mower. See the Machine yourself before you buy any other.
