OFFICIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,

Passed at the Second Session of the Forty-Second Congress.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 14.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to provide a national currency secured by pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June, eighteen hundred and sixty four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section thirty-one of said act be amended by striking out the word "Lenox-worth" when it occurs in said section.

Approved, March 1, 1872.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 15.]

AN ACT extending the time for the completion of the Green Bay and Sturgeon Bay and Lake Michigan ship canal, in the State of Wisconsin.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the time for the completion of the Green Bay and Sturgeon Bay and Lake Michigan ship canal be, and the same is hereby, extended to the tenth day of April, anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy four.

Approved, March. 1, 1872.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 16.]

AN ACT to set apart a certain tract of land lying near the head-waters of the Yellowstone river as a public park.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the tract of land in the Territories of Montana and Wyoming, lying near the head-waters of the Yellowstone river, and described as follows, to wit; commencing at the junction of Gardiner's river with the Yellowstone river, and running east to the meridian passing ten miles to the eastward of the most eastern point of Yellowstone lake; thence south along said meridian to the parallel of latitude passing ten miles south of the most southern point of Yellowstone lake; thence west along said parallel to the meridian passing fifteen miles west of the most western point of Madison lake; thence north along said meridian to the latitude of the junction of the Yellowstone and Gardiner's rivers; thence east to the place of beginning, is hereby reserved and withdrawn from settlement, occupancy, or sale under the laws of the United States, and dedicated and set apart as a public park or pleasuring ground for the benefit and enjoyment of the people; and all persons who shall locate or settle upon or occupy the same, or any part thereof, except as hereinafter provided, shall be considered trespassers and removed therefrom.

SEC. 2. That said public park shall be under the exclusive control of the Secretary of the Interior, whose duty it shall be as soon as practicable, to make and publish such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary or proper for the care and management of the same. Such regulations shall provide for the preservation, from injury or spoliation, of all timber, mineral deposits, natural curiosities, or wonders within said park, and their retention in their natural condition. The Secretary may, in his discretion, grant leases for building purposes for terms not exceeding ten years, of small parcels of ground, at such places in said park as shall require the erection of buildings for the accommodation of visitors; all of the proceeds of said leases, and all other revenues that may be derived from any source connected with said park, to be expended under his direction in the management of the same, and the construction of roads and bridle-paths therein. He shall provide against the wanton destruction of the fish and game found within said park, and against their capture or destruction for the purposes of merchandise or profit. He shall also cause all persons trespassing upon the same after the passage of this act to be removed therefrom, and generally shall be authorized to take all such measures as shall be necessary or proper to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this act.

Approved, March 1, 1872.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 17.]

AN ACT to constitute Shreveport, in the State of Louisiana, a port of delivery.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Shreveport, in the State of Louisiana, shall be, and is hereby, constituted a port of delivery, within the collection district of New Orleans; and there shall be appointed a deputy collector of customs, to reside at said port, who shall receive a salary, to be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

Approved, March 1, 1872.

[GENERAL NATURE No. 18.]

AN ACT to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river at or near St. Joseph, Missouri.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for "The St. Joseph Bridge Building Company," a corporation organized for that purpose under the general corporation laws of the State of Missouri, to construct a bridge across the Missouri river at or near Saint Joseph, Missouri, and to lay on and over said bridge railway tracks for the more perfect connection of any and all railways that are now, or which may hereafter be, constructed to the Missouri river at or near Saint Joseph, or to the river on the opposite side of the same, near Saint Joseph, and build, erect, and lay on and over said bridge ways for wagons, vehicles of all kinds, and for the transit of animals, and to provide ways for foot-passengers, and to keep up, maintain, and operate said bridge for the purpose aforesaid; and that when said bridge is constructed, all trains of all railroads terminating at said river, and on the opposite side thereof, at or near Saint Joseph, Missouri, shall be allowed to cross said bridge for reasonable compensation, to be made to the owners of the same, under the limitations and conditions hereafter named. The owners of said bridge may also charge and receive reasonable compensation or tolls for that transit over the said bridge of all wagons, carriages, vehicles, animals, and foot-passengers.

SEC. 2. That any bridge built under the provisions of this act may, at the option of the owners of the property, be built as a draw-bridge, with a pivot, or other form of draw, or with unbroken or continuous spans: Provided, That if the same shall be made of unbroken continuous spans, it shall not be of less elevation in any case than fifty feet above extreme high-water mark, as understood at the point or location, to the bottom chord of the bridge, nor shall the spans of said bridge be less than three hundred and fifty feet in length, and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river, and the main span shall be over the main channel of the river and not less than three hundred feet in length: And provided also, That if a bridge shall be built under this act as a draw-bridge, the same shall be constructed as a pivot draw-bridge, with a draw over the main channel of the river at an unobstructed and navigable point, and with spans of not less than one hundred and sixty feet in length in the clear on each side of the central or pivot pier of the draw, and the piers adjoining, upon the draw, shall be so placed as to leave a space of not less than sixty feet between the piers; and such span shall not be less than thirty feet above low-water mark, and not less than ten feet above extreme high-water mark, measuring to the bottom chord of the bridge, and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river: And provided also, That said draw shall be opened promptly, upon reasonable signal, for the passage of boats whose construction shall not be such as to admit of their passage under the permanent spans of said bridge, except when trains are passing over the same, but in no case shall unnecessary delay occur in opening the said draw during or after the passage of trains: And provided further, That the corporation building said bridge may, if not unauthorized by the provisions of its charter of incorporation, enter upon the banks of said river, either above or below the point of the location of said bridge, for a distance of seven miles, and erect and maintain break-waters or one each other means as may be necessary to make a channel for said river, and confine the flow of the water to a permanent channel, and to do whatever may be necessary to accomplish said object, but shall not impede or obstruct the navigation of the said river; and all plans for such works or constructions upon the banks of the river shall first be submitted to the Secretary of War for his approval.

SEC. 3. That any bridge built under this act, and according to its limitations, shall be a lawful structure, and shall be recognized and known as a post-route, upon which, also, no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and the munitions of war of the United States than the rate per mile paid for their transportation over the railroads or public highways leading to the said bridge.

Licorice-Root Cultivation.

Hon. William D. Kelley, of the House of Representatives, has referred to the Department a statement of Meeker & Rittenhouse, of Philadelphia, concerning the manufacture of licorice, the extent of its consumption in the United States, and the practicability of cultivating the root in this country.

The larger proportion of licorice-extracts consumed in the United States is by the manufacturers of chewing-tobacco, it being considered indispensible in 'plug' or 'limps.' In medicine it is largely used as an expectorant. The following figures of the Bureau of Statistics show the quantity and value of licorice-extract imported during the last five years:

Year.	Quantity.	Value.
1867 ..... pounds	3,095,976	$450,950 00
1868 ..... do	3,005,257	469,045 75
1869 ..... do	2,606,000	399,012 00
1870 ..... do	2,710,000	351,854 00
1871 ..... do	2,005,500	310,000 00

In England an acre of the cultivated root is said, by the firm referred to, to command £100. The root is also imported by the United States from Spain, Italy, Sicily, France and Russia, but chiefly from the two first named.

Entertaining the opinion, after some investigation, that the root can be successfully cultivated in several of the Southern and Western States, Messrs. Meeker & Rittenhouse consider that a new industry may be fostered, relieving us of the necessity of importing a valuable and indispensable product. The root is worth from five to ten cents per pound, according to quality, and three pounds will yield one pound of the extract. In addition to the yield of extract, the crushed and powdered root is applied to various minor uses. Messrs. Meeker & Rittenhouse attribute the decreasing importations in the statement above made from the Bureau of Statistics, to the high tax on plug tobacco, in which the extract is used, and a discrimination in favor of fine-cut chewing, the tax on which is about one-half that on plug tobacco.

The following considerations upon the subject of introducing the culture of the root into this country were submitted by the Commissioner:

"I am not aware that this root has ever been a successful culture here—not by any means on account of unsongenial climates. As far as climate is concerned, it can be produced from New Jersey south and westward; but, like many other products equally well suited to our climates, such as tea, madder, opium, indigo, &c., &c., its profitable culture depends upon the price of labor. This does not apply, perhaps, in the same degree either to licorice, madder, or indigo, as it does to tea and opium, because more of what may be classed as unskilled labor is needed for the two last-named products.

Practically, the soil to produce good licorice-roots must be rich, and, above all, deeply worked—say from eighteen inches to two feet—of a light loosened, rich soil a preparation that is best attained by hand-labor. Then, again, the crop takes from three to four years to perfect, so that the estimate of its value at £100 per acre, (which, by the way, is a very high estimate,) has to be divided by 4 to give the yearly value of an acre of the root. I do not suppose that farmers would consider it a profitable crop unless they received double the amount per pound for it that it is now imported for. The same species of labor extended upon vegetable-growing realizes ten times the value of product, so that there is but little to encourage the farmer to enter this branch of culture. There are at least $60,000,000 in gold that yearly go to other countries for products that can be produced here to equal perfection, so far as climate and soil are concerned, but we cannot compete with their cheap labor.

A St. Louis Judge is said to have appeared on the bench clad in a black gown, such as are worn by barristers in England.—Whether the gown had the effect of rendering the wearer's decisions more than usually intelligible, or of startling with awe merely spectators, is not reported.—The innovation is not likely to meet with favor among gentlemen members of the bar.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

CHANGE OF TIME ORDERED.

A Republican Convention of the Republican party of Texas is hereby called to assemble in the city of Houston on the second Tuesday of May, 1872, for the purpose of nominating Presidential Electors, selecting Delegates to the Philadelphia National Convention, for a thorough re-organization of the party, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the body.

The basis of representation is fixed the same as for members of the Legislature under the present apportionment.

Papers friendly to the objects herein expressed will please copy this call.

J. G. TRAUT,
Ch'n Republican State Executive Committee.
J. P. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

TERGIVERSATION.

The Austin Journal, the other day, in noticing the changes made in the City Council of this city, stated as the principal ground for the removal of the old board, their purchase of the Brackenridge property, and as a further ground their having been so long in office that they had ceased to respect either the party or the people. We may reasonably suppose that these reasons were given ex-officiis. From private, but reliable sources, it is generally understood that Governor Davis did not willingly make the change, but yielded to the importunities and energetic persuasions of of his Secretary of State. Now there are more than a dozen men in this city who know that Mr. Newcomb, whenhe was on the city council, was very anxious that the city should buy the Brackenridge property—that he repeatedly spoke to Mr. B. about it, and obtained an offer from Mr. B. at one time; but that was when Mr. B. owned only the Sweet tract, on the east side of the lower springs, containing only about 40 acres. When Mr. Newcomb was here last, he complained of the high price paid for the property, until he was told how much had been added to the original tract, when he acknowledged that the price was not too high, and emphatically approved of the purchase. This ground, then, for the removal, is just as satisfactory as was the hollow log which supported the corner of the rail fence, both ends being on the same side, to the pig. The more he crawled through with the view of getting on the other side of the fence, the more he found himself on the same side; but men as well as pigs are able to afford amusement to the spectators by crawling through holes, and sometimes very small ones. There is something Napoleonic too, in great men who perform feats of the kind—the minds of the people, you see, must be diverted from affairs of State—must be amused and recreated. This principle is equally well carried out in the other reason given. The former members of the Council had ceased to respect the party. Now it is not made quite clear which, or what party; but we perceive a tasteful use of language which accomplishes its true purpose, namely, conceals its meaning. If it mean the party at Austin which takes such a constant and unremitting care of our local affairs, upon the principle of the new departure republicanism it has inaugurated in this State, that the people were made to be governed, and are incapable of governing themselves, then it can scarcely be denied that the former Council had ceased to respect it. But if it mean the republican party, then we are again amused with the same brilliant spectacle of a Napoleonic Secretary of State crawling through the hollow log; for, if the reason were a true one, he would have taken care to have constructed a new council who did and do respect the republican party. There are probably two of the new appointees who do—after their fashion—but if there are any others, it would take a very strong blister-plaster to draw out from them an expression to that effect. But the probability is, the democratic party was meant. This explains the whole business satisfactorily to everybody, only there are people who think that great men of war ought not to sail under false colors. The other reason given, that the former Council had ceased to respect the people, is the mere elevating of the pigs tail preparatory to the exulting scamper from the presence of the hollow log. A wonderful feat has been accomplished to the great astonishment and delectation of the spectator, who admires not only the agility, but the profound modesty with which it has been exhibited.

Since writing the foregoing, we have seen the article in the Austin Daily Journal of the 26th inst., entitled "The Removal of City Officers of San Antonio." It is generally believed in this community that the very plain statement of all of the facts concerning the purchase of the property covering the San Antonio springs, made by the editor in the columns of this paper, closed the case. We should not notice the Journal article, were it not for its willful perversion of the facts as we stated them, charging Mr. Thielepape with having "consummated the purchase," after having telegraphed to the Governor that "no further action would be had by the City Council, &c. As we then stated, before the deed came into our possession, it had been delivered to the Mayor as the representative of the city—with request to have the blanks filled up, and the deed recorded. When the Mayor offered it to us to fill up, we suggested that Judge Stribling was the better person to do so as the attorney of the vendor; at Judge Striblings request we undertook the labor. The reason why it was not immediately filled up and handed over to the Mayor, or placed of record, which both parties to the contract had instructed us to do, we have already explained;—it was chiefly because after a day of two had elapsed, some opposition had sprung up to the purchase, and we thought the contract might be annulled. When abler attornies than ourself advised Mr. B. and the Mayor that it could not be, there was nothing left for us to do but to fill up the deed, or as we have formerly stated, re-write it, in accordance with the trust imposed, and hand it to the Mayor. We had full authority to place it of record in January, when it first came into our hands—but we did not do so. We simply did what we were bound to do, and no more. The attempt to pervert this into even the appearance of acting as attorney for both parties is not surprising, considering the source from whence it comes. There is not an honest lawyer in Texas who would make the accusation—or insinuation. Would Judge Stribling have been accused of acting as attorney for both parties if the contract, had he taken the deed and fulfilled his trust as we did? The question answers itself.

That Mr. Newcomb is not pleased with the present management of the EXPRESS, is not surprising; nor can we say that this effort, by insinuation, to slander others, is without precedent in his conduct, or not characteristic of his nature, as the people of this city well know. If the writer in the Journal knows that we have been paid for services as acting city attorney—he knows more than we do. There is a considerable balance due, which we need and would like very much to receive. And now vale!

The GALAXY for April has been on our table several days, and we have found it an exceedingly interesting number. There is something suitable for all tastes—biography, narrative, fiction, poetry and politics, if it be just to call political Mr. Gideon Welles' first paper on "Lincoln and Johnson.—Their Plan of Reconstruction and Resumption of National authority." The "French at Home," by Albert Rhodes, is very instructive, and "My Life on the Plains," by Gen. G. A. Custar, will be read with satisfaction, recalling personal experiences of many here. "An Independent Ku-Klux," by J. W. De Forest, is almost perfect in its characters, and his descriptive powers are not excelled by any modern writer of fiction.

Go to Gamble's Book Store and buy the Magazine, and when you have read it if you think you haven't got your money's worth, come to us and we will give you—some good advice.

Omaha is not to be the eastern terminus of the Union Pacific railroad, after all. The Government Directors of the road, to whom the decision of the disputed construction of the charter was referred by the Secretary of the Interior, have decided that Council Bluffs is the place required by the act of incorporation as the terminus of the road; and that for the company to locate it at Omaha and with the obligation imposed by the statute relative to the construction of a bridge, would be a direct violation of the charter, and a detriment to the interests of the public.

The New York Commercial Advertiser advises its readers that: "As a general thing attempting to 'hog' editors is an unprofitable business. Shoveling of snow or driving a charcoal wagon for a living pays better in the long run." A hostile visitor to an editorial sanctum usually finds that the best side of the building for him to be in on the outside. We have heard of individuals equipping themselves and approaching an editor for the purpose of cleaning him out; but they have always gone away with the conviction that they were born for some less active pursuit. Thus discouraged, such intruders are daily diminishing in numbers.

Officers of the higher grades in the French army receive pay as follows, as taken from the Budget:

Marshal MacMahon, commander-in-chief of the army of Versailles, received 70,000 francs a year ($14,000); each of the marshals not holding a command, 30,000 francs ($6,000); General Leflo, Governor of Paris, 50,000 francs, ($10,000); Generals Montauban, Bartaille, Clinchant, Du Barail and Douai, heads of corps d'armee, 30,000 francs each, ($7,000); General Bourbaki, commander of the army of Lyons, 34,400 francs, and each of the generals of divisions, who are members of a committee, 20,700, ($4,140).

A paper title how a servant girl mends her petticoats: Wind a hole appeared in the top, Bridget tied a string around the stocking above the aperture, and cut off the projecting portion. This operation was repeated as often as necessary, each time pulling the stocking down a little, until at last it was nearly all cut away, when the string parted and she had her hips, and this kept her stocking always in repair.

The New Orleans Republican of the 2nd says: "Warmoth will reach home by the last of the week. His visit to Washington has been eminently satisfactory in every respect. The political campaign will doubtless be opened immediately on his return. The rumors you receive in relation to his interview with the President small side of the truth, as will very soon appear.

All plans for permanently removing the bar from the mouth of the Mississippi river having failed, a bill has been introduced in Congress authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to contract with a company to construct floating docks containing a buoying capacity of not less than five thousand tons, supplied with propellers, for the purpose of floating loaded vessels drawing more than fifteen feet of water over the bar. The bill proposes to pay to this company the sum of $250,000 annually for ten years as compensation for passing all vessels of whatever nationality over the bar to or from the Mississippi river free from any tax or toll.

An Irish counselor having lost his cause, which had been tried by three judges, one of whom was esteemed a very able lawyer, though the other two were indifferent, some of the other barristers were merry on the occasion. "Well, now," said he, "who could help it, when there are a hundred judges on the bench?" "A hundred!" said a bystander, "there were but three." "By St. Patrick," said he, "there were one and two ciphers.

The celebrated Dusseldorf Gallery of painting, which contained one of the choicest collections of art in Europe, was nearly destroyed by fire on the 15th instant, together with a number of adjacent buildings. This loss will be severely felt, because it contained many of the choicest works of the old Dutch and German Masters, besides many of the best of modern paintings.

A Democratic exchange says in its local column: "A negro and two young mules were drowned in the river yesterday. The mules were remarkably fine animals, and cannot easily be replaced."

That local should be immediately appointed 1st chief scale. He will be elected unopposed for sheriff when next October, and we'll wager he will tell you without hesitation who the 'Sweetest man in Texas' is.

A correspondent divides brides into two classes, the serious and the smiling. The first enters with a quiet grace, and seems to say, "Don't look at me—don't you see I am married, and that those days are over?" The other comes up smiling, as much as to say, "I've landed him; isn't it fun?"

The poet of the Chicago Post is responsible for this:

The Democrats up in New Hampshire,
The Republicans wanted to ——, sorer;
But when Weston they saw
Badly beaten by Straw
The party was dumb as a clam, sure.

If a teaspoonful of genuine ground coffee be thrown into a tumblerful of cold water it will float upon the surface of the water, while the substances usually used in adulterating coffees will sink under the same circumstances. If, when the suspected coffee is thrown upon the cold water, part of it sinks at once, the sample is quite sure to be adulterated.

The New Orleans Picayune, in speaking of the political return movement in Louisiana, is accused by the stalwart Democratic press of the South of having "gone over to Grant." The mistake is a very natural one.—St. Louis Rep.

An Incident of Hawthorne.

Mr. Fields account of his friend Hawthorne is his charming volume, "Yesterday with Authors," is genial and very delicately touching. But he has omitted a little incident in the life of the great novelist which deserves recollection. When ex-President Pierce took him to New Hampshire, in the spring of 1864, hoping that the mountain air would revive his fallen energies, they were stopped at a country tavern by an obstinate rain storm. As Hawthorne languidly reposed on the sofa during the second day, the brisk, cheerful ex-president, coming from a look at the clouds from without, said encouragingly, "Well, Nat, this weather can't last forever." "Ah! Frank," replied Hawthorne, "I fear it will last my time." This was but a few days before Hawthorne's death, and betrayed his consciousness that his life was ebbing away nearly told.

Emerson says: "Do not hang a dismal picture on your wall and do not deal with subtle and gloomy in your conversation." Beecher follows with: "Away with those fellows who go howling through life, all the while pining for birds of paradise. He that can not laugh and be gay should look well to himself. He should fast and pray until his face breaks forth into light." Talmage then takes up the strain: "Some people have an idea that they comfort the afflicted when they groan over them. Don't drive a hearse through a man's soul. When you bind up a broken bone of the soul, and you want splints, do not make them of cast iron." After such counselings and admonitions lay aside your long face.

Dr. Prime, in his "Travels in Japan," says: "Passing through a street, and seeing forty or fifty coppers hanging on as many nails at the front of a shop (the copper coin has a hole in the center), I inquired what they were for, and was told that they were placed there by the shopkeeper to save time and trouble in answering the calls of the mendicants. When one came along he simply took a copper and passed on never abusing the charity of the shopkeeper by taking two."

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

HAVING GOOD reasons for believing certain persons, actuated by unworthy motives, have originated the current report that "my charges for professional services are exorbitant and not in accordance with customary rates," I, in just self-defense feel compelled to denounce such imputations, tending to injure me, as utterly devoid of truth, for I have at all times been governed in my practice as far as charges are concerned, by the customary fee bills adopted by the majority of medical societies and respectable practitioners throughout the state and also agreed to years ago by the old established regular physicians of San Antonio. A regrettable discrepancy of opinion among the members of the medical profession here at present, preventing a satisfactory agreement in order to establish a uniform, adequate and regular standard of charges for professional services in accordance with the customary rates adopted nearly everywhere in this state by the profession, is the cause of the difference in the amounts charged by physicians here at the present time. Unwilling to either myself any longer to be wrongly suspected of charging higher rates than other physicians, and in order effectually to disprove all circulating rumors to the contrary, I hereby beg leave to inform the public at large, that my general charge for a professional visit within the city limits in day time will be $1 specie.

To poor and destitute sick I shall cheerfully give advice gratis.

TRUST SALE.

WHEREAS, W. C. A. Thielepape, President of the "San Antonio Meat Extract Company," did, on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1872, as President of said San Antonio Meat Extract Company, a body corporate and politic in the county of Bexar and State of Texas, and by authority in him vested as such, make, execute and deliver to Ernest Altgelt his certain Deed of Trust, for a legal and valuable consideration, and to secure the prompt payment of his certain promissory notes, by him so made as the President of the said body corporate and politic, the one executed and delivered on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1872, to A. Nette, C. Elmendorf, E. Pentenrieder, A. Siemering, A. F. Wulff, Th. Hertzberg, and H. Klocke, for the sum of twenty-one thousand and thirty seven dollars and thirty cetns, U. S. currency, payable one month after date of execution, with twelve per cent interest per annum, and the other executed and delivered on the same day and date, to A. Nette, C. Elmendorf, E. Pentenrieder, A. Siemering, A. F. Wulff, Th. Hertzberg, and H. Klocke, for the sum of six thousand three hundred and thirty-five dollars and two cents coin, payable one month after date of execution, with twelve per cent interest per annum, selling and conveying the following described property, to wit: Two tracts of land in Victoria County—State of Texas—described by metes and bounds in said Deed of Trust and already sold by virtue of said Deed of Trust on the 11th day of March, A. D. 1872, to E. Dorsch of the County of Bexar and State of Texas. Also a certain tract of land in Bexar County State of Texas, on the west bank of the San Antonio river, below mission San Jose, beginning at a stake on the bank of the river, the south east corner of a tract of land owned by the Estate of C. L. Tyron, thence west 4264 varas thence south 782 var., thence east to the San Antonio river, thence up said river to the place of beginning, containing six hundred and eighty-five acres of land, it being the same tract sold by Wm. McLane to San Antonio Meat Extract Company, together with buildings, houses, factories, outhouses, and all improvements, and all appurtenances to the same belonging, and also the entire inventory now at and belonging to the said San Antonio Meat Extract Factory, as follows, to wit: one slaughter house, one tallow tank, iron with boiler, cooler and conducting pipe and other fixtures, 3 tables, a platform balance, an iron pipe, grind-stone, sugar-pans, cauldron with furnace, a lot of tallow barrels, &c. &c. In the yard a lot of rock, an iron chimney, about 300 bricks, engine-house, a steam engine, with steam pumps and two boilers complete; a forge a railroad cart, work bench, lot of tools, shovels, picks, axes, factory room, two railroad carts, meat cutter, a small steam engine, conducting pipes, six extract pans, a water tank, tin cans, extract press, lot of crockery, jack-screw, six lanterns, two coolers, thirteen disinfecting tubs, three water pumps, a large water tank and pipes thereto pertaining, extra iron plates, two pullies, three extra windows, twelve iron and four wooden bedsteads, office and other rooms, a laboratory and fixtures, a clock and chemists scales, a stove, cooking stove and kitchen utensils, and Meat Extract about 175 lbs in ½ and ¼ pound cans. Out door a wagon and harness for four horses, a cart and harness, three mules, four horses, about 40 hogs, 600 cords of wood, more or less, and about 2000 lbs. of bacon.

Schedule C. All the right and title of San Antonio Meat Extract Company in consignment of meat extract about 11,000 lbs. in the hands of their agent, F. Meyer at Hamburg, Germany, less charges and commissions, and the said W. C. A. Thielepape, President of said San Antonio Meat Extract Company having failed to pay said two notes according to their tenor and the terms of said Deed of Trust and having provided therein, that, should he as President of said body corporate and politic, therein fail, then the said trustee should proceed to sell the said property at such place as hereinafter designated, after giving fifteen days notice of time, place and terms of sale in some newspaper published in the city of San Antonio.

Now I, Ernest Altgelt, Trustee as aforesaid, will sell on Tuesday, the 15th day of April, 1872, at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash in U. S. Currency, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., in front of the Factory of the San Antonio Meat Extract Company, in Bexar county, Texas, the tract of land in Bexar county, as above described, with improvements thereon, upon which the Factory stands, together with all the inventory and all the other property as above set forth, and also the claim of said Meat Extract Company for meat extract in the hands of Agent at Hamburg, Germany, as above mentioned.

Upon payment of purchase money, the purchaser will receive deed or other necessary evidence of purchase. Deeds and stamps at expense of purchaser.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The District Court adjourned yesterday until Tuesday next without doing any business. It is understood that the Tarrant bull case will be taken up that day.

Tom Kearney fined courses $5 50 and costs for fast driving over a bridge, and another was fined for being drunk and disorderly.

One hundred and eleven colored recruits arrived on the 24th at Galveston per steamship Josephine en route for San Antonio, from whence they will be divided out among the colored troops now keeping watch and ward on the frontier.

Three Justice Blocks will be found to-day and to-morrow at Mr. Van Slyck's Law Office on Flores street, to receive returns of assessments for State and County taxes. Tax payers will bear in mind that these are the last days for making their returns.

During the absence of a colored man and his wife, by the name of Adams, from their home on upper Flores street, day before yesterday, the house was broken open and a trunk containing all of the woman's clothing was also forced open and the clothing carried off. A Mexican was seen lurking in the neighborhood during their absence, and is suspected of being the house breaker and thief.

A young man, by name, Simon Reider, who lives in Atascosa county, left this city day before yesterday on his return home. Crossing the Medina river he looked his wheel to get down the bank. At the foot he, in jumping from his wagon caught his foot in some way, and falling violently fractured his leg in two places. He immediately returned to the city and received proper medical attention. It is not thought his injuries are dangerous, although exceedingly painful.

At the last regular meeting of the Agricultural Association in this city, a large number of seeds was distributed to different persons, in order that their adaptation to this soil and climate might be tested by the recipients. The U. S. Agricultural Department at Washington is engaged in a useful, and in every way carefully considered work, in its efforts to distribute to different parts of the country such seeds and plants received from foreign countries as are likely to thrive in different sections of this country. In making the distribution care is had to consider the climates and soils to which the seeds are sent. The seeds which were recently distributed by our home Agricultural Association came from the Department at Washington, and it is plainly desirable and expected that those receiving them shall take pains in their planting and cultivation. The actual resources of this portion of Texas are as yet unknown, so far as any persistent experimental efforts have gone, long as it has been inhabited, its real productiveness is as yet undeveloped. Lands as rich as any to be found in the world, are lying useless and unoccupied all over this portion of the State. There are certainly some productions for which every foot of the soil is adapted. These experiments are intended to ascertain exactly what those productions may be. It is the duty and obligation of every one to use the seeds or plants he may receive, from Europe, China or Japan, or elsewhere, to give a fair test by endeavoring to secure a growth under the most favorable circumstances possible, and, also, to furnish the Association with full information as to management and the results. We, therefore, take the liberty to urge upon every one who received anything in the distribution named, to comply exactly and thoroughly with the expectations we have mentioned.

The Austin Journal, (Mr. Newcomb,) assuming that a majority of the former City Council had taken action after Mr. Thielepage had telegraphed that no further action would be taken by the City Council says:

"While the action of the majority is what seemed to be open disregard of the promise by Mr. Thielepage to the Governor, made those removals necessary, the sweeping removal was made because in part of the necessity to divide the obloquy among the men, which had been incurred previously."

The fact is universally known here that there never was any action, or meeting even, of the former City Council after the sending of the telegram by the Mayor. The Mayor did every endeavor to procure a meeting of the Council, not to consider the Brackenridge purchase, but for other business, but failed repeatedly in his efforts to secure a quorum. Two of the City Council, newly appointed, manifested a decided disinclination to respond to any invitation to attend a meeting. The further reason given for the "sweeping removal" is equally without foundation. Every ward was represented, but one ward had three representatives, and another only one; there was, therefore, necessity for only one removal, and one new appointment to give each ward its quota of the property distributed. The "omission originally" to do so, was one which was called to the attention of the Sec. of State long since, but at that time he was unable to perceive the necessity, or propriety, of varying construction to the provisions of the law. Our people will be glad to know that he has at last awakened to the importance of observing, in some small degree, its provisions.

In an old number of the Express, when a very talented person by the name of Newcomb was its editor, there is a very spightly article to be found, ridiculing one in an Austin paper setting forth the advantages of that city over this. Among other advantages set forth, was the method of the people of Austin had of getting rid of its garbage—watermelon rinds, &c. Austin it was alleged was infested with swine and cattle and other four-footed beasts, who kindly did the work usually performed in cities by scavengers, the difference being, of course, that San Antonio did things in a better way. The new City Council, the choice of this quondam editor—(Of both are the mighty fallen!)—has come to the conclusion, doubtless from information received from its master, who has had of late considerable experience in the good old Democratic ways of Austin, that the hog and cow scavengers are "Nature's best creation" after all, and have, therefore, repealed the ordinance regulating the limits in which these animals should ply their plundering and cleaning avocations. This is in strict accordance with other "new departures" by the new public functionary, who stands guardian of our city.

We have only to remark, how swiftly a man of agility, possessed with acrobatic talents, can turn himself backward and roll, like a multitudinous spoked wheel down hill, when once he begins to make an exhibition of himself in the street on "grand and lofty tumbling."

A lady who appreciated the benefits of the recorded ordinance which protected her sex from the insult and annoyance of the predatory of love, from which she had suffered severely last summer, asked us yesterday, in the most innocent way, "Will the new Council repeal the ordinance prohibiting the carrying of pistols, too?"—as though she thought the business of the new Council consisted chiefly in undoing what the previous Council had done. The inquiry was a natural one, but she seemed to feel easier when told there was a State law upon that subject.

Removal.—Mrs Feille's Millinery Establishment has been removed to the fine building on Commerce st., next door to the National Bank and opposite J. H. French's store. 5-3-72-4tm

What spring brings with it.

Regarded from a medical standpoint, Spring is not the delectable season described by vernal poets. On the contrary, its yield of intermittent fevers, billious attacks, rheumatic pains, disorders of the stomach, nervous complaints, and pulmonary diseases, is almost as large as its crop of violets, snowdrops and cherry blossoms. The invisible seeds of innumerable maladies rise with the morning mists, and are scattered broadcast by the vapors of night. Who can resist their mephitic influence? Certainly not the weak by nature, or those whose nervous energies have been overtasked by mental or physical labor, unless they tone and invigorate their systems, and thus enable them to cope with the unhealthy influences by which they are surrounded.

The only medicinal agent by which this object can be rapidly and safely accomplished, is the great vegetable renovant and invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The operation of this celebrated specific is four-fold. It strengthens the digestive organs, regulates the secretions, improves the condition of the blood, and induces a regular habit of body, and thereby imparts such vigor and elasticity to the whole physical structure, as to render it capable of resisting the action of the poisonous miasma, with which the spring atmosphere is always to some extent impregnated. Here, then, is a ready and certain means of escaping the disorders prevalent at this season, or (if they have already fastened upon the system) of conquering them speedily and thoroughly.—The flavor of a medicine is not of much consequence, provided it does its work properly, but of Hostetter's Bitters it may be fairly said, that they effect a cure without outraging the patient's sense of taste.

Hats at reduced prices, Burnett & Grant.

Progress of the Revolution.—A new light dawned upon the world with the introduction of Plantation Bitters twelve years ago. Drastic purgation went out—restoration and renovation came in. The eyes of the people were opened to the great fact that the way to cure disease is to strengthen and support its victims, not to place them at its mercy by depriving them of the little strength they have. It soon became evident that as a means of infusing vitality into the feeble system, regulating the secretions, curing indigestion, and reforming a bilious habit of body, no medicinal preparation then known was at all comparable to the new restorative. Since then hundreds of attempts have been made to rival the Bitters. They have all failed, and the grand revolution in medical treatment, which was commenced in 1860, is still in progress. Nothing can stop it, for it is founded on the principle, now universally acknowledged, that physical vigor is the most formidable antagonist of all human ailments, and experience has shown that Plantation Bitters is a peerless invigorant, as well as the best possible safeguard against epidemic diseases.

No man can have a well regulated household without the Wood Family Favorite, B & G.

Flower Plants! Flower Plants!—Mr. Magne, member of the Horticultural Society of France, will shortly arrive at San Antonio, with a complete assortment of flower plants, of the most rare and beautiful kind. Amateurs take notice. [12d1w

Truth.—The powers of Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup for children are as positive as the sunlight from heaven, and gentle and soothing as an angel's whisper.

The Importance of Health.

In point of importance, bodily health is second to nothing earthly. Nay, a modern French philosopher has maintained, that to pursue health—bodily health that is—is the main duty of man. This much, at any rate, is certain, that, whether or not the pursuit of health be itself virtue, the attainment and the possession of health conduce in a degree most remarkable, if not to virtue, at least to clearness of thought, to soundness of judgment and general prudence of conduct—which are commodities much more marketable than virtue is. Now the two great conditions of health are abundant Nourishment and unobstructed Excretion—the latter removing impurities the former replacing this. It is in accordance with this principle that Dr. Gottlieb Fisch's Bitters acts. It stimulates the digestive and nutritive process, on theone hand, and, part pass, the excretory, on the other. To, who prize health, make trial!

This subject continued next week under the head of "Good Health."

Wade & Schmitz, Philadelphia, Proprietors of Dr. Fisch's Food Cure are worthy.

Dead Men tell no Tales: If they could, verdicts against the depleting lancet, the drastic purge, and the mineral antidotes of the materia medica, would arise from every graveyard. The motto of modern medical science is "Preserve, and Regulate, not destroy," and no remedy of our days is so entirely in harmony with this philantropic logic as Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters. In this powerful, yet harmless restorative, dyspepsia, billious complaints, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and nerves, encounter an irresistible antidote.

The Babcock at Monmouth, Ill.—The Babcock Fire Extinguisher for Prairie Fires.

Very effective service was rendered by the Babcock Extinguisher, a few days ago, against a terrible prairie fire which swept over the extensive farm of W. F. Singleton, in the vicinity of Monmouth. The flames had overleaped the Kankakee river and were rushing on with fearful rapidity through the tall grass and canebrake towards Mr. Singleton's house, barns, stacks, &c. So intense was the heat that the men could not approach the fire near enough to work to advantage, and they were nearly exhausted, when the Extinguisher was brought to the rescue. Its effect was positively surprising. Notwithstanding the strong gale which was blowing, it wiped out the advancing sheet of flame almost immediately, extinguishing more than half a mile of the burning line with a single charge.

Dr. Abernethy's answer, when asked "What shall I take, Doctor?" was "Take advice." Our answer to the Sewing Machine question, is "Don't take advice. Buy no machine from experts (or others that don't know what they talk about) until you have proved that you can use it satisfactorily, independently, and upon all sorts of work and fabrics.—Scribner's Monthly for Feb'y.

Fairweather has always maintained this doctrine; he keeps all makes, and has no desire to sell until a machine is fully tested and examined, and the customer fully pleased. He has 100 cases now on the road, of all the different makes, the first lot of which he daily expects. 17 3d-tf

The American Washer!
PRICE $5.50.

The American Washer Saves Money Time, and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One-half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, the ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted the prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleaning efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER, is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

Policy of the Administration.

In conclusion, I would sum up the policy of the Administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law, a faithful collection of every tax provided for, economy in the disbursement of the same, a prompt payment of every debt of the nation, a reduction of the taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit, the reduction of taxation and tariff to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number, honest and fair dealing with all other people, to the end that war, with all its blighting consequences, may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us, a return to the treatment of Indians and to the whole civil service of the country, and finally to securing a quiet, unprejudiced ballot, where every man entitled to cast a vote may do so just once at each election, without fear of molestation or prosecution on account of his political faith, nativity or color.

U. S. GRANT.

Newspaper Laws.

We would call the special attention of Postmasters and subscribers to the following synopsis of the newspaper laws:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publishers for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages of the publisher may continue to send it until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the Postoffice. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

San Antonio, Nov. 10, 1871.

The New York Tribune,

For 1872.

THE consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the leadership of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to reassert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine and the vast but decaying and enfeebled dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the ever-changing phases of our tidings from the Old World. THE TRIBUNE, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent, aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-age Feudalism and Exclusiveness on the one hand, and Nineteenth-Century skepticism and secularism on the other. Recognizing a Divine Providence in all that transpires and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our City, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its grand sweep, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it to those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed Reform, THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights regardless of Color has divested our current politics of half their bygone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be regarded as practically accepted by the whole country. The Rights of every man, be his own limbs and sinews—the equality of all citizens before the law—the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty until he forfeits it by crime—such are the broad and firm foundations of our National edifice; and palsied to the hand which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Emancipation, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternest judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth, the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—to extend the boundaries and diffuse the blessings of Civilization—to stimulate Ingenuity to the production of new inventions for economizing Labor and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grains and of Metals, and thus enhance the gain of Industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchange between farmer and artisan—such is the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain contribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work, THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially elucidated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions, to which none of the ablest and most successful tillers of the soil will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells $100 worth of produce per annum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally full and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we aspire to make it equally valuable to those engaged in other departments of Productive Labor. We spend more and more money on our columns each year, as our country sees generous patronage enables us to do; and we are resolved that our issues of former years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every State! help us to make our journal better and better and better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!

The great field trials at Medina, Ohio, and at Xenia, Ohio, in the Summer of 1869—where "The Clipper" met some 40 competitors, including all the leading machines built, and was awarded the First Premiums and Gold Medal,—proves that the proprietors have been able to sustain in the field their claims of superiority for The Clipper Machine over all others. Its extraordinary lightness of draft takes one-third of the labor off the team. The adjustability of the finger-bar, to cut high or low without stopping the team, is worth $50 on any machine. It is the only mower that has the true center draft in accordance with correct mechanical principles. In short, it is the lightest, the most durable, the least complicated, the most perfectly constructed, the most symmetrical in design, of any implement of its class. Farmers use CLIPPERS in the Horses' Friend, and you cannot afford to ignore their welfare. Send for pamphlet—investigate. See or write to some one who has used THE CLIPPER. See the Machine yourself before you buy any other.

WONDERFUL RAPIDITY.

Perfectly Regular and Even Distribution of the Seed. CHISHOLM'S Broadcast Seeder. For Sowing all Kinds of Grain and Grass Seed.

The unprecedented success of this Seeder the past season is without a parallel in the history of Agricultural Implements. The farmers of the Country have no longer got to wait in the hurry of Seeding time for the imperfect process of Hand Sowing, nor for the "Slow Coaches," called "Combined Seeders, &c., &c.

BAPTIZED IN FIRE.

THE

Chicago Phenix.

A UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER.

Read the Following:

A popular weekly paper for the times, embracing the leading features of those journals destroyed by the terrible conflagration, and combining just such a corps of writers as will give the public all the news of the week, in a condensed compilation of the leading journals of the nation, and the world.

A TRUTHFUL RECORD.

The PHENIX will be the most truthful and reliable recorder of incidents and facts concerning the great fire, ever published.

ACCOUNTS OF THE FIRE.

It will contain only such accounts as are vouched for by reliable witnesses, and will correct the erroneous and fabricated statements of sensational writers.

CHICAGO AND THE NEWS.

It will, for a time, be devoted especially to the past, present and future of Chicago; besides being the most complete weekly newspaper in the world.

FIRESIDE COMPANION AND NEWSPAPER.

Its columns are devoted to News, Commerce, Science, Literature, Art, Drama, Music, Humor, Pastime, Poetry, Fashion, Society news, and enough of Romance to make it a most desirable fireside companion, as well as the most reliable and complete newspaper for the business man in the counting room.

BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS.

It will be illustrated with engravings taken from Photographs of the Chicago Ruins, instead of sketches "By Our Special Artist" who was not "on the spot;" and thus give a series of PERFECT VIEWS, not obtainable elsewhere, and the first number will contain the only correct map of the burned city.

HAPPY HOURS.

That beautiful literary journal, "HAPPY HOURS," whose publisher was the first to issue a paper to meet the public demand, after the awful fire, has been merged into the literary department of the PHENIX, which will embrace the contributions of more than sixty of the most popular writers of the day.

A SPECIAL FEATURE.

The PHENIX will contain, as an especial feature, a more complete record of incidents and results of the late terrible fire, than can be found in any book, paper or other publication in the country. So numerous and inaccurate have been the accounts sent forth, that something reliable and readable is [illegible] sought at this time, and The PHENIX will fill the bill.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

THE PHENIX is the cheapest paper in America, being an eight page, forty column weekly, at only two dollars a year; in fact it shall be the paper for the people and the times.

THE FIRST NUMBER.

The first number will be issued on Saturday, Nov. 11th, and will be the paper wanted by everybody, as a record worth preserving or to send away, and for its accurate illustrations.

ITS BASIS.

It is a consolidation of other journals, and therefore on a solid foundation, containing their former circulation.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

To any person who gets us three new subscribers, we will send The Phenix for one year free, or one of our beautiful prize, steel plate engravings worth $2.50.

PREMIUMS.

For the purpose of rapidly increasing our subscription list before the close of the present year, we will give to every person who subscribes for the Phenix during the month of November, a beautiful steel plate engraving, worth $2.50, half a dollar more than the price of subscription. No such opportunity was ever before given, and probably never will be again. Avail yourself of it. Engravings will be promptly and safely sent by mail or delivered at this office, as subscribers may wish.

SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Send in your names and subscriptions at once, and sustain this great newspaper enterprise.

Price of subscription only $2.00 per year. Single copies 5 cents.

Dr. GOTTLIEB PISCH'S BITTERS.

This preparation of the great scientist, Dr. Gottlieb Pisch, of Germany, is based on the fact that by nature each of the body parts are derived from Food, so all Vital Force, or Health, is derived from the Food, stored up in Food. Dr. Pisch's Bitters combine the system to liberate and appropriate those Forces, greater Appetite, more Digestion, with its results, Healthy Stability and lack of Nervous Energy; so tones the Stomach and Liver as to make Constipation and Biliousness impossible; reinforces the System so it can throw off and resist the attacking atmospheric poisons, and better enables the demands often unexpectedly made on the Force of Nature. Ladies in delicate health, aged persons, and all emaciated and weak after sickness, will rapidly strengthen by using this great preparation.

☞ Whoever uses this remedy, has for the [illegible] a gifted scientist of Germany.
