Dora Turns Away From Islands

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Dora took a turn away from the northern Leeward Islands early today and the Weather Bureau said it no longer endangered any Caribbean land areas.

The big, blustery storm decreased its forward speed to about 15 miles per hour from an earlier 20 miles but still packed winds up to 115 miles per hour near the center.

A hurricane watch was discontinued for Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands and the northern Leeward Islands and gale warnings were discontinued in the northern Leewards.

The hurricane was moving toward the west-northwest and the Weather Bureau said "there is evidence of recurvature to a more northerly direction."

At dawn hurricane Dora was about 460 miles east-northeast of San Juan and 275 miles in the same direction from St. Maarten, Lesser Antilles.

It was almost 1,500 miles east-southeast of Miami.

Hurricane-force winds extend 80 miles north of the center and 40 miles to the south, with gales reaching out 20 miles to the north and 100 miles to the south.

"Indications are that Dora will increase slightly in size and intensity during the next 12 hours," the Weather Bureau said.

Hurricane Dora was expected to move on a course between west-northwest and northwest, which would take it away from any land areas.

"There is no longer any danger to Caribbean land areas from hurricane Dora except that heavy surf may be expected in the Leeward Islands and people near exposed beach areas should continue to exercise caution," the Weather Bureau said.

Krush, Erhard May Hold Talks In Bonn

BONN, Germany (AP)—Premier Khrushchev has agreed to come to Bonn for political talks with Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, the government press office announced today.

The announcement said Khrushchev made known his readiness for the visit in a statement delivered by Soviet Ambassador Andrei Smirnov to the chancellor's office.

The press office said the time of the visit and the program will be worked out later through diplomatic channels.

The Soviet premier now is in Prague for meetings with East bloc Communist leaders. Reports have said a new Soviet policy toward West Germany may be in the making.

The two countries long have differed about the fate of Central Europe.

The West German government seeks reunification with East Germany, now a separate, Communist nation, and reestablishment of the national capital in Berlin. It also has refused to give up claims to territories east of the Oder-Neisse line lost in World War II.

The Soviet Union insists that the results of the war must be accepted as permanent and West Berlin treated as a separate political entity instead of part of this country.

When Erhard first publicly invited Khrushchev to Bonn, he said he was doing so providing their talks would lead to some progress on the German question.

The chancellor's government welcomed Khrushchev's acceptance of the invitation.

President Johnson indicated when a Khrushchev visit was first mentioned earlier this year that he had no objection.

Konrad Adenauer, as chancellor, went to Moscow in 1955 to negotiate the return of German prisoners of war and to establish diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union. But no Soviet premier ever has visited Bonn.

LBJ Signs Conservation Measures

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed today two major conservation bills, one to protect 9.2 million acres of wilderness and the other to finance the purchase of recreation land.

Johnson, signing the measures at a ceremony in the White House rose garden, called them "some of the most far-reaching conservation measures that a far-sighted nation has ever coped with."

The White House had announced in advance that Johnson would sign the wilderness bill, which sets aside for special protection large tracts of federal forest land, mostly in the western states.

But, when Johnson showed up at the ceremony he also had with him the land and water conservation bill, which he said would authorize pay-as-you-go purchases of lands that will be needed in the future for public recreation.

The land and water conservation bill authorizes establishment of a $2-billion, 10-year fund for purchase of recreation areas, principally in Eastern states.

Johnson said the occasion was a happy and historic one "for all who love the great American outdoors."

And he included himself in that category.

Fish Kill Reported

AUSTIN (AP)—Extensive fish kills in East Union Bayou, just east of Freeport, were reported today by the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Conservation officer R. Z. Finchum attributed the kills to loss of oxygen in the water, resulting from decomposition of large volumes of poorly treated sewage released by a city treatment plant.

Blue-green algae, developing heavy growths from the sewage nutrients, also depleted the oxygen. Other factors, the department said, were lack of rain and tidal action being stopped at the valves of the storm levee.

Goldwater Makes Opening Address

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater formally opened his bid for the White House today in Prescott, Ariz., believing that he is running well behind President Johnson but convinced a groundwell is stirring that could carry him to victory by Nov. 3.

A crowd of some 35,000 people—20,000 more than live in the mountain-rommed former Arizona capital—was expected to hear the GOP presidential nominee as he got a four-day head start on his Democratic opponent.

The White House announced Wednesday that President Johnson would begin his campaign with a Labor Day speech Monday in Detroit's Cadillac Square where Democrats have traditionally started election drives.

Getting under way in Prescott is something of a tradition for Goldwater. It's where he made his political debut a dozen years ago when he first ran for the Senate, and where he began his successful re-election campaign in 1958.

In his prepared remarks, Goldwater promised to end the draft, keep the peace and halt "the cancerous growth of the federal government . . ."

"Republicans will end the draft altogether, and as soon as possible," Goldwater declared. "That I promise you."

He accused Johnson of using the Selective Service System "for political and social schemes . . ."—a reference, his press secretary said, to Johnson's program to retrain men rejected in pre-induction physicals.

As Goldwater s, 1 by jetliner to Arizona from Washington, where he voted Wednesday against Johnson's program to put medical care for the aged under Social Security, it was learned that he:

—is not surprised by a sizable Johnson margin reported by his own public opinion pollsters.

—believes that a groundwell of concern, not measured by the polls, is stirring among voters and foretells a change in the nation's sentiment.

The Arizona senator believes that even those Republicans — such as New York's Sen. Kenneth B. Keating—who don't care for his candidacy will rally behind him once the intensity of Democratic attacks starts to mount.

Goldwater conferred with Keating Wednesday about the New Yorker's battle for re-election against Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Kennedy, fresh from capturing organized labor's endorsement in the senatorial contest, was to resign from President Johnson's Cabinet today.

Meanwhile, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, said he would launch his campaign with weekend appearances in his home state of Minnesota.

Humphrey said he plans to spend September on a swing from the Rocky Mountain states to New England with special emphasis on the Midwest and South.

Rep. William E. Miller, Goldwater's running mate, accompanied the Arizonan to Prescott. Then both head for Lockport, N.Y., where Miller formally opens his campaign on Saturday.

Debate On Bill Will Be Limited

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders drove for passage today of a Social Security bill with a program of health care for the aged already written into it.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., the majority leader, obtained an agreement to limit debate on all remaining amendments.

The first to be considered today was one by Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., to raise the minimum Social Security payment from $40 to $70 a month. It was not expected to be adopted.

Mansfield said the measure might be passed and sent back to the House late today. If not, he said, final action will come Friday in time for a three-day Labor Day weekend.

The biggest Senate fight on the legislation was settled Wednesday with a dramatic 49-44 vote to add to it hospitalization and other health care benefits for persons over 65.

Increased retirement and other benefits would also be provided, and both the tax rates and the wage base on which they are levied would be raised to meet the added costs.

It was the first time either branch of Congress ever had agreed to write a health care program into the 29-year-old Social Security system. The Senate rejected similar proposals in 1960 and 1962.

The health care amendment, sponsored by Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., was put through with votes of 44 Democrats and 5 Republicans.

Opposed were 16 Democrats, including 15 Southerners and Sen. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, and 28 Republicans including Sen. Barry Goldwater, his party's presidential nominee.

President Johnson, who strongly supported the Gore-Anderson proposal, said in a statement the vote was "a victory not only for older Americans but for all Americans."

But Goldwater said the action "reveals a contempt for the intelligence and judgment of our people" and implies they "are incapable of deciding how to spend their money." He called it an additional tax burden on wage earners.

The health care amendment was added to a House-passed Social Security bill. It seemed to face highly dubious prospects when the measure goes to a Senate-House conference to reconcile the differences.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., who long has opposed putting health benefits into Social Security, will head the House conferees.

Malaysia Declares Emergency State

By TONY ESCODA

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman said today his government has decided to impose a state of emergency throughout Malaysia because of indications that Indonesia is preparing to "mount a big offensive" against this country.

Rahman presided at an emergency Cabinet session after high-level talks with British Commonwealth allies who pledged to increase military and economic aid following an airborne landing in Malaya Wednesday by about 30 heavily armed Indonesian paratroopers.

"We'll give all the help we can," said Reginald Maudling, British chancellor of the exchequer.

Security forces today killed two more Indonesian paratroopers, the Defense Ministry announced.

It brought to four the number of Indonesians killed since an airborne attack in the Labis area, 105 miles southeast of this capital of Malaysia.

The ministry said one member of the security forces was killed and another wounded, the first Malaysian casualties.

The government accused "Communist or Indonesian provocateurs" of trying to incite fresh race rioting between Chinese and Malays in Singapore to divert attention from the airborne strike.

Rahman told a news conference the state of emergency to go into effect Friday is designed to help the government deal with Malaysians acting as Indonesian agents.

Under the emergency, persons found in illegal possessions of arms and explosives would face the death sentence.

Rahman also announced his government has asked the U.N. Security Council to take up what Malaysia has labeled "naked aggression" by Indonesia.

Asked to clarify his warning about a major invasion by Indonesia, Rahman referred to the order of President Sukarno on Wednesday canceling all leaves for members of the armed forces.

This was indicative of a "threat of further landings," Rahman told reporters.

Sukarno also is expected to make an important statement in the next day or so on his campaign to crush Malaysia, which he calls a device to perpetuate British colonialism in Southeast Asia.

The paratrooper landing Wednesday coincided with a renewal of racial violence between Malays and Chinese in Singapore where 23 persons were killed and 460 injured during four days of rioting last July. In the latest flareup, a Malay taxi driver was killed.

The government charged that four "Communist or Indonesian provocateurs" created the fresh racial incident to divert attention from the airborne assault.

The Malaysian government said the Indonesian paratroopers landed in the heart of Malaya 105 miles southeast of this capital before dawn Wednesday.

Khanh Again Holds Reins

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh again assumed full command of South Viet Nam's shaky government today. The premier said he had won support of Buddhist leaders who were threatening to renew antigovernment violence unless their demands were met.

Khanh's return to power after a five-day "temporary retirement" at the mountain resort of Dalat was disclosed by a government spokesman following a six-hour emergency Cabinet session. Khanh flew to Saigon from Dalat amid reports that he was demanding full support from all members of the caretaker government that had been led by acting Premier Nguyen Xuan Oanh.

"The military has promised Gen. Khanh their complete support. The situation looks much more stabilized today," the spokesman said.

Khanh, 37, was expected to retain members of the powerful Dai Viet party in the government and the armed forces. Before Khanh went to Dalat last week, following violent antigovernment demonstrations, he charged that members of the party had plotted against his government. He conferred today with Nguyen Ton Hoan, leader of the party who resigned Wednesday as vice premier after charging Khanh's government had no legal standing.

"Gen. Khanh plans no reprisals against them," the spokesman said.

Khanh also won an agreement from Buddhist leaders to call off a planned hunger strike and a possible general strike, the government said. The agreement presumably entails concessions, but these were not spelled out. The spokesman said the Buddhists fully supported his resumption of duties.

Buddhist leaders had planned a 48-hour fast in a move to end what they called "indiscriminate arrests, provocations and oppressions."

Oanh, who was visiting the northern city of Hue, was to return to his duties as deputy minister for economic affairs.

Khanh went into the emergency session today immediately after returning from Dalat. He appeared in good health.

The politician-soldier apparently had continued to direct government affairs although he said he was resting in Dalat. He said he had a heart condition and high blood pressure.

Johnson Pays Tribute To Sgt. York

By BILL RAWLINS

PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP) — Sgt. Alvin C. York, who rode out to war 47 years ago in a horse-drawn surrey, has returned to his beloved green valley of the Three Forks of the Wolf. President Johnson led tributes from across the nation.

The doughboy hero of World War I died Wednesday in Nashville's Veterans Hospital at the age of 76, succumbing to a urinary tract infection.

The funeral, to which President Johnson and other leaders will send representatives or attend, will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at York's Chapel here on the banks of the Wolf River in the Cumberland Mountains.

The President expressed his sorrow Wednesday, saying the Medal of Honor winner "epitomized the gallantry of American fighting men and their sacrifices in behalf of freedom."

Bobby Resigns; Seeks Own Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy, off at last on an elective political career of his own, turns in his resignation as attorney general today.

Kennedy, who already has begun his campaign for the Senate in New York, meets with President Johnson to make official his departure from the Cabinet post his assassinated brother gave him in 1961.

Kennedy 38, thus becomes the fourth member of the original New Frontier Cabinet to step out, and the first to leave since Johnson succeeded John F. Kennedy.

Preceding him were Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, now a Supreme Court justice; Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff, now a senator from Connecticut, and Postmaster General J. Edward Day, who quit to return to private life.

Six members of the original Kennedy Cabinet remain in their posts.

As long as a year ago, before President Kennedy was slain, Robert Kennedy said he would not stay on at the Justice Department for a second term.

After his brother's death, Kennedy said he would remain on the job through this year's elections. But after Johnson foreclosed the vice presidency to him, he decided on the Senate race in New York, although he votes in Massachusetts and lives in Virginia.

Johnson has given no indication who will become the 6th attorney general. It is widely believed he will withhold his selection until after the Nov. 3 election. The man most widely mentioned to take over the Justice Department is Leon Jaworski, prominent Texas lawyer and friend of Johnson.

The acting attorney general will be Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, 42, the deputy attorney general, whom Kennedy has already strongly recommended to Johnson for the permanent job.

More Wheat To India

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The United States is stepping up its shipments of wheat to this hungry nation as heavy monsoon rains multiply the misery by flooding vast areas of valuable cropland.

Indian officials announced Wednesday 80 U.S. ships are being used to rush shipments of surplus American wheat.

They are to bring four million tons between now and February —twice the amount that had been scheduled.

Food shortages have touched off demonstrations throughout India and have resulted in the arrest of thousands of Communist agitators. Police said they have arrested more than 8,400 Communists in the Red stronghold of Kerala State. Most were released after being held for several hours, the police said.

If we go on a trip, all he remembers about it afterwards are the places where he had headaches. I am

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of married children who are always taking advantage of their parents? They bring their children to us so we can babysit with them, and they spend the week-ends fishing or going away somewhere.

They all work and could well afford to hire someone to sit with their children. They could also ask their parents to go with them once in a while, but they never think of it. I hope you'll print this because they read your column and it would do them good to know how selfish they are.

If he has all that money for doctors, why not get himself a few acres of land in an out-of-the-way place and build his own "jail"? He could get a time lock and lock myself in with only a jug of water, a few oranges and some carrots. I've had a weight problem for years and that's what I do. I built myself a little place near Palm Springs, and when I put on about ten extra pounds, I lock myself in for 36 hours at a crack. I am 56 and in fine shape. # Insects Show Resistance To Sterilization Process

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Remember that promising idea for getting rid of insect pests by sterilizing captured males and freeing them to mate futilely with the female of the species?

It's running into some trouble, reports Agriculture Department entomologists who had been spearheading research in this field. Their hopes of winning a centuries-old battle with pests by that method are somewhat dimmed.

Some mosquitoes are retaining the power to reproduce, and scientists fear that if the mosquito can develop resistant strains, so can other insects.

Specifically, laboratory tests show that yellow fever mosquitoes are able to develop resistance to the sterilizing effects of a widely tested chemosterilant known as apholate.

This ability must be taken into account in developing, testing and planning for a broadened eradication campaign of that kind.

For several years, the department has been sterilizing males of the screwworm, a serious livestock pest, in infested areas in Texas and New Mexico.

So far favorable results have been reported from this project.

The same technique has been used with some success with other insects.

In the experiments with the yellow fever mosquito, increased resistance to the sterilizing effect of apholate was noted, even when the concentration of the chemical was increased.

The sterilization approach has been pushed in recent years because of public concern and criticism over use of pesticides — some posing hazards to livestock and humans if used excessively.

A home in nonarid parts of the United States is bombarded with an average of 100,000 pounds of rain and snow each year.

Negro Leader Backs Moderate For Judge

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A Negro leader is urging members of his race to vote for a white moderate in a three-man race for the seat of Fulton Superior Court Judge Durwood T. Pye.

A. T. Walden, judge of the Atlanta Traffic Court, said in effect, in a letter to Negro voters, that a vote for Negro attorney Donald Hollowell would be wasted and merely help to reelect Pye, who has been criticised for handing out stiff sentences to defendants in civil rights cases.

Negroes are urged by Walden to vote for white candidate Paul Webb Jr.

Hearings Open On Cuba Visits

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities opened new hearings on student travelers to Cuba today with decorum the immediate rule. One usually bearded witness even showed up without his beard.

In contrast to last year's boisterous, raucous sessions, quiet order seemed the hallmark they had set.

The committee had sought to insure order with some of the strictest security arrangements ever used at the Capitol. There were more police and U.S. marshals on the scene than students and sympathizers.

Before allowing the students and their sympathizers into the room, the committee filled half the seats with staff members and friends of committeemen. Then it sprinkled U.S. marshals throughout the other half.

The first witness, George Lue, a New York travel agent, testified that Yvonne Bond, accompanied by a bearded young man, had come to his offices in May to make arrangements for a group of 28 to travel to Paris.

Asked if the young man with the beard was in the room, Luke said, "Yes, but he doesn't have his beard," and he pointed to clean - shaven Morton Slater. Both Miss Bond and Slater had been subpoenaed to testify before the committee.

The students are believed to have traveled to Paris before making their trip to Cuba. They reached Cuba June 12 and stayed there until Aug. 12.

Slater's lack of his usual beard seemed to signal a new order of dress for the young travelers. At last year's hearings, it was beards, blue jeans, and sandals. There were some of those today, but most of the young travelers and their friends looked hardly different from the committee staff people and the friends across the aisle.

Before the first witness testified, Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., chairman of the committee, warned that "noisy, boisterous, untoward misconduct will not be tolerated."

A year ago, the committee's hearings on student travel to Cuba were rocked by angry shouts, wild applause and policemen tossing demonstrators down the steps.

The committee called the hearings then to question students who had defied the State Department ban on travel to Cuba and had spent part of their summer on the island as guests of the Cuban government.

CHICAGO (AP) — "It was just like he changed from Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde," said bakery truck driver Clarence Olson.

Then he stuck a revolver in Olson's side - made him give up $150 in receipts, and fled.

Designer Wants Kitchen To Be Happy Room

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

"Most sharp answers to husbands come from kitchens," says kitchen designer George Warren of Louisville. "Food preparation is a chore to most women, especially when a husband is in the living room reading a newspaper."

Warren's goal for more than 20 years has been to make the kitchen a "happy room," planning it so that color, conveniences and equipment solve problems, rather than create them.

"For example, the color of counter tops can blind and clash with food. Some shades of green make steak and butter seem rancid, discouraging cooks. Carrots and beets throw off color they reflect, like a blotter absorbs water near it," he says.

He designed a turquoise and white kitchen for Princess Grace's little chalet at Monaco with a small greenhouse in a bay window where she can grow herbs. He put in a pink kitchen for the King of Libya, one of several Warren has installed in palaces. Pink appliances, pink plastic counter and a pink marble floor were used in the ceremonial kitchen. The queen ordered six broom closets, but didn't want them for mops and brooms — she wanted to use them for hanging bunches of bananas. She chose an 18 cubic-foot upright freezer, but not to plug in — she liked the shelf arrangements for canned food.

That's the way to look at a kitchen, Warren says, as a solution for your own family needs.

In his own kitchen, Warren has a small refrigerator just for milk, butter and cheese, and he has two freezers. He has a griddle, barbecue, water cooler and other gizmos that are right for his own needs. And he has carpet in his kitchen.

"I carpeted my kitchen because I feel the resiliency of floors is important in avoiding back strain. But 70 per cent of women I suggest carpet to, invariably say, 'Oh, no' — until they analyze it. Actually, it is as easy to take care of as any other flooring. You wipe up spills, even from dog and cat plates, the way you would anyway with a sponge or paper towel. And you use a carpet sweeper to keep it clean."

Warren uses a high density sponge cushioned carpet of nylon, a commercial carpet, the kind used outdoors at airports and swimming pools. He says it is not expensive.

Another disposition saver in the kitchen is a waste disposal, he points out. Garbage from a family of four can be ground up in minutes, he says.

Women complain of lack of storage space, but often they use it for paper bags and string, he says. And they often say a new kitchen is too expensive to put in.

"A kitchen is only as expensive as you make it. If you decide to rip out walls and windows or alter wiring, you can't blame it on the new kitchen," he says.

The most interesting kitchen he ever designed was one that had a swimming pool as a ceiling, he says. He predicts the return of pantries, "not the walk-in kind for storing baby carriages," but adequate space for canned goods; counters that move, bringing food from preparation center to range; push buttons that will produce from lobster newburg to ice cream.

"Prospective purchasers of kitchen equipment should investigate all brands before they buy, he says, and get the brand that suits their individual requirements. Be careful. You may wind up with a refrigerator door on the wrong side. Warren is head of a large staff of kitchen designers at General Electric.

THIS TURQUOISE and white kitchen is one similar to that planned for Princess Grace by George Warren, kitchen designer. Kitchen has carpet on the floor.

Elderberry Passes Test Of Writing

THE ELDERBERRY TREE. By Irving Petite.

For years the author has lived on a ranch in the logged-over foothills of the Cascade Mountains, in Washington.

Like the elderberry tree of his title, which he feels is a symbol of hope, a point of reference and a token of nature's permanence, Petite has put down a long taproot in the hills.

His essays are about the wild creatures, his farming, mountain climbing and mushroom picking, and the thoughts and emotions which outdoor living arouse in him.

He has had some amusing animal friends move in on him. There was a male fawn with a sense of humor, which liked to fool hunters into getting lost — until the day he found a lost hunter and led him straight to the author's door. There were a mink named Mademoiselle, a coyote that practically took the house apart and a pack rat that kept a rummage sale going in the attic.

Petite likes to watch everything from a caterpiller to a mountain beaver, as well as a great variety of birds. He knows natural history and he has the experienced nature writer's gift of poetic expression.

His book passes the real test of nature writing—for under the pleasant surface of observation, appreciation and interpretation it carries the personal meanings of spiritual enrichment which the author has distilled from his own experiences, into a universal language.

Chocolate Vein Cake

1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 large egg
½ cup commercial sour cream
1-3 finely chopped pecans
1-3 cup sweet chocolate-flavored beverage mix

Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla; beat in egg thoroughly. Stir in sifted dry ingredients in 4 additions, alternately with sour cream, just until smooth. Spread about half (a little less than 1 cup) of the batter over the bottom of a buttered 8-inch size glass pie plate; sprinkle with the pecans mixed with the chocolate mix. Spoon over the remaining batter, spreading lightly with a small spatula. (It doesn't matter if a little of the chocolate - nut mixture blends with the batter.) Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until browned and top springs back lightly when touched — 35 to 40 minutes; make sure center of cake is baked through. Cool in pie plate on wire rack; cut in wedges and serve warm.

Sorority Starts Year

Lambda Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their first meeting of the fall season Tuesday in the community room of Snyder Savings and Loan.

The business meeting, presided over by the sorority's president, Frances Shamburger, was a busy one. Plans were made for the fall rush season. Betty Winkles was named vice president to finish the unexpired term of Barbara Gilbert who moved during the summer.

The program, given by Pat Pate, was entitled "Oratory." She explained that true oratory is different from ordinary speech making in that the orator has a God-given talent. He is able to make an audience feel as he feels, and think as he thinks. Excerpts from famous speeches such as Kennedy's inaugural address and Carl Sandbrug's interpretation of Lincoln's Gettysburg address were given as examples of the true orator's art.

Members present were Pat Allen, Mary Lou Scott, Frances Shamburger, Gene Terrell, Helen Gilbert, Pat Pate, Eilene Snyder, Betty Winkles, Juanita Tucker, Ann Yielding and Judi Hardin.

Barbara McClung was a guest.

Hostesses for the meeting were Pam Mangwasser and Patty Stator.

Conflict In Malaysia Could Dwarf Viet Nam Struggle

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The Indonesian-Malaysian situation poses the risk of a disaster that could make the struggle in South Viet Nam seem puny by comparison.

While Indonesian President Sukarno cancels military leaves and talks ominously of an enemy threatening the safety of his nation, the government of Malaysia reports a small airborne Indonesan attack on its mainland.

This could be just one of many feints the Indonesians have been making to show the world they mean to "crush Malaysia." But if one of these feints should go too far — if an attack should look like the real thing — Asia and the world likely would be in for a powerful jolt.

People conversant with the situaion say Australia will not tolerate invasion of Malaysia in force.

Those who have discussed the matter with high-ranking Australians see them determined, if necessary, to carry war to the heart of Indonesia with all the power Australia has at its command.

Australia would expect the support of British power which is pledged to the protection of Malaysia, and indeed also would expect U.S. support. All this could present another glimpse over the abyss of World War II.

Australia appears to have been unhappy for a long time with U.S. policy regarding Indonesia, which Australians see as a clear threat to themselves. Indonesia became Australia's next-door neighbor when it took over Dutch New Guinea, which Indonesians call West Irian.

Australians suspect there is no bottom to the appetite of the Sukarno regime and that it needs dangerous adventuring to take its people's minds off the bleak facts of food shortages, fiscal nightmares and economic troubles. Australians see little point to Western aid for a nation whose postures and actions taunt the West.

Since 1950, the United States has supplied $700 million in aid to Indonesia, including military hardware. The Soviet Union provided arms aid, too, and recently agreed to step it up.

As Indonesia grew more hostile to Malaysia, American aid dwindled. No more military equipment was sent. Last month, the Senate voted to ban all further aid.

Mexico Will Borrow Amistad Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $23.75 million loan has been authorized to help Mexico finance her share of costs for the Amistad Dam on the Rio Grande 12 miles above Del Rio, Tex.

The Export-import Bank announced the Alliance for Progress loan to Mexico Wednesday.

It will be part of Mexico's $47.5 million payment in the $130 million project, one of three dams to be built jointly by the United States and Mexico to improve flood control and irrigation.

Need for the Amistad project was demonstrated in 1958 when a Rio Grande flood caused more than $42 million damage, the bank said. The project also will include power generation.

Technical studies by the U.S. Engineers and the Mexican Ministry of Hydraulic Resources propose a dam, 6.5 miles long and 255 feet high. Such a dam would create a reservoir surservice of 88,200 acres.

The project will benefit cities, towns and rural areas in the United States and Mexico inhabited by about 900,000 people, of whom 492,000 are Americans, the bank said.

The $23.75 million loan is repayable over 12 years, starting in 1969.

Texas In Good Shape Says Calvert

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas government's financial situation "looks better than it has for a long time," says Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

He told newsmen Wednesday that the general revenue fund, which pays for most routine government costs, finished fiscal 1964 Monday with a balance of $73 million — its largest in 15 years.

But the state's white-haired chief bookkeeper staunchly refused to predict what shape government's finances will be in at the end of the present fiscal year, Aug. 31, 1965. Gov. John Connally has predicted $75-80 million will be left in the general fund at the end of next August.

Kenneth Kimbro, Calvert's chief deputy, cautioned that the fund might dip temporarily into the red during the year.

Total spending from all funds was $1,574,959,268, and state revenue totaled $1,698,864,022.

Big revenue gains from the previous fiscal year were registered for the general sales tax and the levy on automobile sales.

General sales tax revenue was up more than $24 million, and the auto sales tax brought nearly $8 million more than in fiscal 1963. The 1964 take was $204,736,161 from the sales and $41,547,418 from the automobile tax.

"I think everybody was surprised by how much purchasing power was available," Kimbro said.

The federal income tax cut "probably had some effect" but "we have no way of measuring it," Calvert added.

Sales taxes, including levies on tobacco, gasoline and autos, brought 36 cents of every revenue dollar, followed by federal and county aid with 25 cents, business and property taxes 23 cents, licenses 9 cents and other sources 7 cents.

Cigarette and tobacco tax receipts climbed slightly, to $97.4 million, but rose less than normally, Calvert said. He attributed the reduced rate of increase to a report to the U. S. surgeon general in January linking lung cancer to cigarette smoking.

On the spending side, education got 39 cents of each dollar, followed by highways with 29 cents, 16 cents for public welfare, 11 cents for "other" expenses and 5 cents for state institutions.

The largest end-of-year general fund balance in recent years was $85 million Aug. 31, 1949. The 1948 fiscal year ended with the state $75 million in the fund. Last year's Aug. 31 balance was $38 million.

Three Oilmen Killed In Plane Crash

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—A private plane carrying three oil men crashed while trying to land at a ranch Wednesday, fatally injuring all three.

They were Emmett Hall, 40, the pilot and a vice president of Grigsby-McCord, a New Orleans oil exploration firm; Dr. Carl Thorsen, 36, a consulting geologist with the firm, and Raymond Hayward, 31, of Lafayette, a geologist with Colorado Oil & Gas Co.

Hall was killed in the crash. Thorsen died in a Sulphur Hospital and Hayward in a Beaumont, Tex., hospital.

A witness saw the plane make a pass at the landing strip on the ranch 30 miles southwest of Lake Charles, turned back, went into a spin, crashed into a rice field and broke into several pieces.

Hall and Thorsen, both oil well logging experts, flew from New Orleans to Lafayette, picked up Haward and were en route to the R. A. Moore ranch, where a well was being drilled for Grigsby - McCord. Hayward's company had an interest in the well.

Rail Line Gets Ok To Discontinue Runs

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission has approved discontinuation of two passenger trains between Fort Worth and Houston because of financial losses.

The Rock Island & Pacific Railway contended it lost $458,000 last year on the Twin Star Rockets, operating on the Fort Worth-Houston run as part of service from Minneapolis to Texas.

Not affected by Wednesday's commission ruling on the Rock Island request are the Sam Houston Zephyr trains operated by the Fort Worth & Denver between Houston and Fort Worth. This service is part of a run between Denver and Texas.

Earlier this year the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad was allowed to cancel a Dallas-San Antonio train.

Story Of Klusmann Escape Remains The Navy's Secret

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Navy Lt. Charles F. Klusmann, the jet pilot shot down over Laos and captured by Communists nearly three months ago, is home again with his wife and two children today.

But the story of his escape to Thailand and safety is yet to be told, when the Navy so decrees.

Klusmann, 30, was limping slightly and one arm was bandaged when he arrived at North Island Naval Air Station late Wednesday night. Those waiting to greet him included Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, commander in chief Pacific Fleet, who had briefed him before the lieutenant's plane went down in Laos June 6.

"Admiral, I owe you a big apology," Klusmann told Moorer. "You told me not to get shot down, and I did."

"That's all right, Chuck," said the admiral. "It's good to have you back."

The pilot and his comely, auburn-haired wife, Sara, arrived at 11:20 p.m. from Travis Air Force Base, Calif., where she had gone to meet him earlier in the evening after his flight from Honolulu.

Both wore leis as they came down the plane's ramp at San Diego. Klusmann was attired in khaki cotton trousers, a short-sleeved shirt and slippers. His wife clung firmly to his arm.

Navy officials said that he would be checked up immediately at a San Diego naval hospital for injuries he received when he was shot down.

Klusmann embraced his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Klusmann, of Arcadia, Calif., and placed a lei around his mother's neck.

Asked by newsmen if he had any help in escaping or met any other Americans in prison, Klusmann replied: "I can't say anything about that."

Reliable sources in Vientiane, Laos, said today that Klusmann was helped by Meo tribesmen. A source said Klusmann was believed to have effected his escape alone, fled to the hills and met a small guerrilla unit of Meo tribesmen. They escorted him to a national army outpost that sent a signal to the American military at Udorn, Thailand, and a plane or helicopter was sent for Klusmann, the source said.

His escape to Thailand was made known Tuesday. Briefing officers said they hoped to determine later today when he will be permitted to grant interviews.

"It's great to be back," was his only comment when he reached Travis at 8:45 p.m. The Navy had said beforehand that there would be no interviews there either.

The Klusmann children — Diana, 3, and Richard, 6 — did not go to Travis with their mother because Richard has the flu. Neither did they go to North Island.

But Mrs. Klusmann delivered Richard's message at Travis: "Tell daddy to hurry home. And, oh yeah, tell him I said hello."

Texas Demo Backs Barry

AUSTIN (AP) — Martin Dies, former East Texas congressman who won election as a Democrat, says he will support Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

Dies, in Congress from 1931 to 1945 and chairman of the Committee on Un-American Activities from 1938 to 1945, disclosed his intent in a statement issued Wednesday by Tad Smith, state coordinator of Goldwater's campaign.

By voting for President Johnson, Dies said, "I would make a mockery of the great principles of honesty and sincerity which most Americans profess and which are the cornerstone of free governments.

"In this critical period which could determine the survival of free government in America, I urge every responsible citizen to examine the record. This election is a supreme test of this country's sincerity in its lofty profession."

Dies also was a Texas congressman-at-large in 1953-59. He ran unsuccessfully for the U.S. Senate in 1957 against Sen. Ralph Yarborough.

-BUT WITH A DIFFERENCE!

Presidential Candidates Are Study In Extreme Contrasts

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The top candidates in the 1964 political campaign which gets rolling by next week are in some ways a study in extreme contrasts.

The two top Democratic candidates — President Johnson and his vice presidential running-mate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota — both panted for the presidency.

Both tried for it in 1960 but were squeezed out by John F. Kennedy.

The two top Republican candidates — Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, trying for the presidency, and his vice presidential partner, Rep. William E. Miller of New York — talked of no ambition for the top jobs at all.

Until January 1964, Gotdwater insisted he was not seeking the presidency and only wanted re-election to the Senate.

Miller, in Congress since 1951, had announced some time before the Republicans in July tapped him for the No. 2 place on their ticket that he was not even going to run for re-election to the House this year.

There is another deep difference between the two pairs, a difference something like that between storekeepers and traveling salesmen.

In 1959, Goldwater, who had been in the Senate six years, was chosen to be chairman of the Republicans' Senatorial Campaign Committee whose job was to help Republicans stay in the Senate or get elected to it.

This kept Goldwater on the road continuously, dashing around the country making speeches and conferring with Republican politicians, from 1959 until he went after the Republican presidential nomination this year.

He made perhaps an average of 400 speeches a year. This kept him away from his job in the Senate quite a lot.

Miller was elected chairman of the Republican National Committee in 1961. This took a lot of his time in traveling and conferring, which meant time that might otherwise have been devoted fully to a congressman's chores.

But the traveling, speechmaking, meeting Republicans around the country and conferring with the Republican leaders were a big help to Goldwater and Miller when the convention delegates picked their candidates.

Humphrey was elected by Senate Democrats as their assistant leader in 1961. That kept him busy staying close to the Senate and its work, with all the detail and maneuvering that means.

Humphrey made some speeches around the country but nothing on the Goldwater scale and his job as assistant leader tied him down so much he had to make some speeches on tape recorders or by telephone hooked to loudspeakers.

From the time he became vice president in 1961, until he moved into the presidency last November Johnson was a goodwill ambassador for President John F. Kennedy. This required traveling and speechmaking.

And he has managed to get in some speeches since becoming President.

From 1953 until 1960 — first as leader of Senate Democrats when they were in a minority, then as their majority leader for six years — Johnson had his hands full running the Senate. This kept him home.

Yet these two pairs of men, in directly opposite ways, built up their political power and their standing in the country so thoroughly that they got their parties' nominations.

When you are stuffing flank steak, roll the meat with the fibers; then in serving, cut in slices across the fibers.

Lesson In Double Talk Is Timely

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It's time for another double-talk drill.

Double-talk, you will recall, is the art of saying one thing while you're thinking the opposite.

Double-talk is the cement that holds society together. It is the basis of polite conversation everywhere, and of course in an election year we simply couldn't do without it.

Here are a few typical examples:

"No, Gerald, I'm not the least bit sleepy." If this bore doesn't go home soon, I'm going to yawn right in his big fat face.

"Some men say a woman doesn't really become attractive until she's 30." But oh, how I wish I was 29 again.

"We want to keep this campaign on a high level. There'll be no mud-slinging on our part." Besides, my opponent has more mud to throw than I do.

"But officer, I know I couldn't have been going 65 miles an hour." I was doing 70 at least.

"This is one party platform that will be carried out." Carried out and buried.

"Can't I cut you another slice of meat, old boy?" The way this guy puts down the groceries, maybe it'd be simpler just to wrap up the roast and let him take it home.

"Mabel, I don't see how you ever got the idea your legs are too slim." Of course, they would look better on a canary.

"You're just the kind of man we need in public life, Jim. I'll be glad to lend you my support." Just so you don't ask me to lend you any financial support.

"His life has always been an open book." And every page is as empty as his head.

"Oh, I didn't know you were trying to park in this space, too." Beat you to it, didn't I, wise guy?

"Now, remember, it's a secret. Don't breathe a word of it to any living soul." I'll tell them first myself.

"It is indeed a pleasure, Jones, to hand you this gold pin in honor of your 25 years of loyal service to the firm. Keep up the good work." Where's he been hiding? I thought I told the personnel manager to fire this dummy 20 years ago.

"Yeah, he did a good job on your dentures. They look real natural." They'd look even more natural on a Shetland pony.

Texas Gulf Sulphur Named In Suit

TORONTO (AP)— Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. has been named in a $450 million suit by two mining companies disputing ownership of mineral holdings near Timmins.

The suit, filed in the Supreme Court of Ontario, asks that Texas Gulf's holdings near Timmins be delivered to Leitch Gold Mines Ltd. and Mastodon-Highland Bell Mines Ltd., or that $450 million damages be paid.

Texas Gulf announced in April it had uncovered a rich zinc, copper and silver find 12 miles north of Timmins in Kidd Township. The ore body was estimated at 55 million tons worth $2 billion.

Junior Editors Quiz on POLITICAL SYMBOLS

QUESTION: How did the donkey and the elephant come to be used as symbols for the Democratic and Republican parties?

• • •

ANSWER: Cartooning presents ideas in picture form so simply and effectively that one needs few or no words of explanation. Picture symbols for things—such as Uncle Sam for America—help the cartoonist greatly in putting his points across. The Republican elephant and the Democratic donkey were both originated as picture symbols, by the famous cartoonist Thomas Nast, who created them to use in his drawings appearing in Harper's Weekly in the 1870's.

The Democratic party took its name in 1828 when Andrew Jackson was elected as president. Jackson had had the support of small farmers and workers. When Nast, in 1870, wanted a picture symbol to stand for the Democratic party, he chose a donkey, perhaps because this was an animal so much in use by small farmers. Later, he had occasion to seek a symbol for the Republican party, which, though only started in 1854, had grown to great size, possibly a reason for the choice of the elephant. Our main picture is taken from a Nast cartoon in which the elephant appears for the first time. Nast's symbol of the greedy tiger for New York Tammany Hall, led by "Boss" Tweed also became very famous, and is said to have indirectly led to Tweed's downfall.

FOR YOU TO DO: Look through the papers and see if you can find other cartoonists' versions of the Republican elephant and the Democratic donkey. 9-3

Three SWC Teams In Scrimmages

By The Associated Press

Texas, Rice and Arkansas scrimmaged Wednesday in the second day of fall workouts preparatory to the Southwest Conference football season.

Jim Hudson, starting quarterback and co-captain for the Longhorns, was due to leave a hospital today after an attack of heat cramps. Six other members of the Longhorns squad, including co-captain Timmy Doerr, didn't take part in the afternoon drill because of the heat.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal said he expected Hudson to rejoin the squad in a day or two. He added that he was pleased with the Steers' progress so far.

Jess Neely, the Rice mentor, ordered a scrimmage after rain clouds eased the heat at Houston. Afterward he had special praise for tackle Mike O'Conner and the blocking of Paul Piper and Gene Fleming.

Owls guard Ronnie Ulbrich didn't report for practice and the list of Rice lettermen may be cut to 23 as a result.

Arkansas split end Tommy Burnett twisted his left ankle during the first Porker scrimmage but a trainer said the injury didn't seem serious. Films were made of the Razorbacks in action and Coach Frank Broyles said he might make some position changes after studying them.

Southern Methodist Coach Hayden Fry gave the Mustangs an afternoon off to get rid of muscle soreness. He said the team's condition was good. Pat Gibson has been shifted to No. 1 wingback and John Le Grone has been a standout in practice so far, Fry said.

Defensive backfield play impressed Texas Tech Coach J. T. King during the Red Raiders' drills. He liked the way his safeties and defensive halfbacks were shaping up.

Hank Foldberg put the Aggies through offense and defense fundamentals. He said it would be next week before he decided on a substitution plan for Texas A&M. Letterman end Tuffy Fletcher was on the sidelines for a second day with a knee injury.

Baylor took it easy in the heat. So far the Bears have shied away from scrimmages.

Two Texas Christian players—center Jackie Huffman and halfback Tommy Kimbrough—didn't report Wednesday. Huffman said he was quitting football because 'my heart isn't in it." Quarterback John Hulse, plagued with car trouble, was still absent.

SPORTSCUTTLE

Snyder may be in its toughest football race since 1955, and there are those who believe that the prospects are better than any other year since 1955. That was the year the Tigers won the district that was composed of teams stretching all the way from Big Spring to Amarillo. Many of those district foes are in Class 4A competition now (Big Spring, Lubbock Monterey, Amarillo Palo Duro, Plainview, etc.) and this will be the first time since that year that the Tigers have been in a district with more than six teams.

As for the district this year, not much has been heard out of Lake View, but it is known that Coach Jerry Sessom of the Chiefs has the first really good passer to grace the roster there since Sessom became head coach. The Lake View flinger that has improved Sessom's disposition is a junior, Don Williams. The Chiefs of course still have block - buster C. L. Avants to pick up yardage on the ground. With a passer on the scene, the Chiefs may be double tough offensively this season.

* * *

Sweetwater still has Benny Pace, which is enough to cause rival coaches to lose sleep, but that is not all. The Mustangs will have experience at every position, and some people down that way are known to believe they will have their best team since they went to the state finals a few years back.

Lamesa has a squad small in numbers (24 on the varsity at last report), but according to no less authority than the new head coach, Donald Jay, "They are all football players." In fact it is reported that the experience and ability of the top two teams at Lamesa discouraged some lesser hopefuls, which is the main reason the varsity squad is so small. Inexperienced boys saw little opportunity to play much in view of the abundance of quality material on the first two teams.

Brownfield has a healthy squad working out and will be dangerous as always, and the two new members of the district, Levelland and Littlefield, are expected to add strength to the district. We know the type of football Levelland plays, because they have been a non-district foe of the Tigers for several years. As for Littlefield, there are many who believe they will be serious contenders for the district title.

* * *

B. B. Lees, the Eastern New Mexico University head coach, faces the task of virtually rebuilding his interior line for the 1965 season. Only three senior linemen will be available. However, Lees said he felt that "we have done a more than adequate job of recruiting for interior linemen. We will have size that we haven't had in the past." Larry Lee of Snyder is one of half a dozen incoming freshmen who are expected to see some service in the interior line of the Greyhounds this season. Coach Lees said the incoming freshmen would be under fire from the start and they must develop rapidly.

* * *

Coach Fank Broyles of Arkansas has announced plans to withold letterman quarterback Jon Brittenum from competition this year. With Brittenum on the red shirt list and one of the other lettermen, Tom McKnelly a kicking specialist, Broyles will actually have just 19 lettermen on his varsity troops this season.

Tigers To Scrimmage At Midland

The Snyder Tigers will go to Midland tomorrow for a final practice scrimmage before opening their 1964 football season a week later on the home field.

The locals will engage the Midland High aggregation in tomorrow's scrimmage session. The two teams plan to begin their scrimmage between 7 and 7:30 p.m.

It will be the second scrimmage for the Tigers. They managed four touchdowns against Odessa Ector last week while holding the Odessa team scoreless.

Coach Horrace Bostick said he expected the Midland High Bulldogs to give the locals a stern test. The Tiger defense in particular is expected to get a working over in the scrimmage. Midland High has six returnees from last year's starting team, including big Ross Montgomery, the talented fullback. Montgomery, whose weight is billed at 217 pounds, reportedly is running at a halfback slot this year, giving way to a heavier operative at fullback.

Midland Coach Harold King was quoted recently as saying he would not trade his six returnees for any other six he had heard about.

Oilers To Face Chiefs

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers and the Kansas City Chefs, participants in the longest football game on record, meet in an American Football League exhibition contest tonight.

The Chiefs—then the Dallas Texans—and the Oilers played 77 minutes and 54 seconds in 1962, running into 2:54 of a second sudden death quarter, before the Chiefs won 20-17 on Tommy Brooker's field goal, taking the AFL championship.

Things haven't been too good for either team since, but both have high hopes for this season. From a 12-3 in season and the playoff game in 1962, the Chiefs went down to 5-7-2 last year. The Oilers slipped from 11-4 over-all in 1962 to 6-8 in 1963.

The Chiefs have a 3-1 exhibition record this year while the Oilers are 1-3.

Fullback Curtis McClinton and quarterback Len Dawson are on the Chiefs' injured list and aren't expected to play.

Houston, hit hard by injuries in earlier games, will have two players back in the lineup—Charlie Hennigan at flanker and Freddy Glick at safety.

Eagles, Redlegs To Meet Tonight

The Eagles and the Redlegs will play the third and final game of their baseball series at 8 o'clock tonight on the North Park Diamond.

The two teams are 1-1 in the series and tonight's game will decide the winner of the set.

Jack Newsome is scheduled to go to the mound for the Eagles, while Ramon Valdez is slated to hurl for the Redlegs.

AL Hurlers Get Tough

Zorro has left his mark on Milt Pappas.

Pappas pitched no-hit ball for 1 2-3 innings and wound up with a one-hitter as the Baltimore Orioles maintained their slim, one half game grip on the American League lead by edging Minnesota 2-0 Wednesday night.

The unkind cut was administered with two out in the eighth by Twins' shortstop Zoilo (Zorro) Versalles, who swung at a first-pitch fastball and ripped it between third and short to deprive Pappas of a no-hitter.

Pappas admitted after the game that he had given Versalles a fat fastball, losing a battle of wits.

"It was one of those funny situations," said the 25-year-old right-hander. "The first two batters in the eighth hit the first pitch. It was a 1,000-to-1 chance that Versalles would swing at the first pitch, too.

"I threw it right down the middle, and I was surprised when he swung at it."

Pappas had no other difficulties as he struck out 10 and allowed only one other base runner — Earl Battey walked on four straight pitches in the third inning — while bringing his record to 13-5 with his sixth shutout.

Still, he had to share the pitching spotlight with three others.

Gary Peters kept the second-place Chicago White Sox right behind the Orioles, bringing his record to 16-7 with a five-hit shutout in a 7-0 victory over Detroit.

Dean Chance of the Los Angeles Angels posted his ninth shutout and his 17th victory with a four-hit, 4-0 victory over New York that dropped the third-place Yankees three games off the pace.

And Lee Stange made the most of a rare opportunity, tying a major league record by striking out four batters in an inning as Cleveland walloped Washington 9-0.

In the other AL game, Kansas City outslugged Boston 9-5.

National League leading Philadelphia edged Houston 2-1, Cincinnati blanked the Chicago Cubs 1-0 in 12 innings, St. Louis whipped Milwaukee 6-2, San Francisco shut out New York's Mets 4-0 and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Pittsburgh 8-5 in 12 innings.

The Orioles' supported Pappas with only four hits but two were homers, by Sam Bowens in the second and Luis Aparicio in the ninth. Both were off Dick Stigman.

Peters pitched his third shutout, drove in one run with a single and also collected a double. He knocked home the final run of a four-run fifth inning uprising that put it out of reach after Bill Skowron supplied the big hit with a two-run single.

The White Sox had actually scored enough for Peters in the second inning when an error and doubles by Pete Ward and with Chicago's Juan Pizarro for Mike Hershberger produced two runs off Hank Aguirre.

Chance, the major league leader in shutouts, is now tied with Chicago's Juan Pizarro for the most victories in the AL after boosting his record to 17-6 by snapping the Yankees' four-game winning streak.

Chance got all the support he needed when Joe Adcock followed an error and Willie Smith's double in the fourth inning with his 18th homer and No. 301 of his career. That tagged the loss on Jim Bouton, who had held the Angels scoreless for 40 consecutive innings.

Stange allowed only two hits and struck out 10 — four in the seventh inning — before Don McMahon relieved him in the eighth and preserved the Indians 11th victory in 12 games. Max Alvis, Bob Chance and Leon Wagner, meanwhile, supplied the support with homers.

Stange struck out Don Lock leading off the seventh, but a passed ball by Joe Azcue enabled Lock to reach first. Stange then whiffed Willie Kirkland, gave up a single to Mike Brumley, and finished by fanning Don Zimmer and John Kennedy.

The Red Sox aided the A's with two errors and a wild pitch contributing to the Kansas City scoring although Boston got two homers from Lee Thomas and one from Felix Mantilla. Jim Gentile hit his 25th homer for the A's.

Reds Lucky Queen Is Not Following His Dad's Patch

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fortunately for Cincinnati, Mel Queen doesn't quite follow in his father's footsteps.

Queen, a rookie lashed a single that drove in the only run of the game in the Reds' 1-0 victory over Chicago in 12 innings Wednesday night. The triumph kept the second-place Reds 5½ games behind Philadelphia in the National League pennant race.

The 21-year-old right fielder is the son of Mel Queen, a pitcher who compiled a 27-40 lifetime record with the New York Yankees and the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 1940s and early 1950s.

Luckily for the elder Queen, he was a pitcher. He certainly couldn't have reached the majors on his hitting. In eight seasons, he somehow managed to get 17 hits in 164 times at bat for a .104 average. He also batted in four runs in his career.

Young Queen went 2-for-6 Wednesday, raising his average to .218 and his RBI total to 11. He has compiled the record mostly as a pinch hitter. Only recently has he been playing somewhat regularly.

In other NL games, Philadelphia edged Houston 2-1, San Francisco blanked New York 4-0, St. Louis defeated Milwaukee 6-2 and Los Angeles downed Pittsburgh 8-5 in 12 innings.

In the American League, Baltimore beat Minnesota 2-0, Chicago walloped Detroit 7-0, Los Angeles stopped New York 4-0, Cleveland trampled Washington 9-0 and Kansas City defeated Boston 9-5.

Queen's single in the 12th inning followed singles by pinch hitter Marty Keough and Chico Ruiz. It gave Jim O'Toole, who pitched a seven-hitter, his 14th victory in 20 decisions. Bob Buhl allowed the Reds five hits in the first eight innings.

Chris Short hurled a four-hitter, positing his 15th triumph against seven losses for the Phillies, who won the game in the fourth inning. Wes Covington and Clay Dalrymple singled, were sacrificed to second and third and scored on Tony Taylor's single to center field.

The Colts scored in the sixth when Eddie Kasko walked, went to second on Mike White's single and came around on a single by Bob Aspromonte.

Juan Marichal made only his second start since July 29 and stopped the Mets on four hits. Marichal, now 16-6, had been bothered by a back ailment. Tom Haller slammed a homer in the fourth inning while Hal Lanier singled across two runs in the ninth.

The Cardinals won their eighth game in the last nine behind Bob Gibson's seven-hitter. Gibson, 13-10, was backed by Ken Boyer, and Curt Flood, who each knocked in two runs. Two errors by Denis Menke helped St. Louis to three runs in the fourth inning, two on Flood's single.

Derrell Griffith's bases-loaded, two-run double broke a 5-5 tie and started the Dodgers on the way to their 12-inning triumph. A third run scored in the inning on a force play. The Pirates rallied for three big runs in the eighth the last two scoring as second baseman Nate Oliver threw wildly to home with the bases loaded.

Hanner In Lineup For 13th Season

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Dave Hanner, the granddaddy of the Green Bay Packers, is resting easier. He has made the club for his 13th National Football League season.

"Every year it's more of a struggle and you have to bear down harder," the veteran defensive tackle said today. "You always have to fight for your job. There's always some young guy trying to beat you out."

Although 34, Hanner doesn't feel he's too old for his role in one of pro football's most rugged lines.

"There are quite a few players in the league older," he noted. "There's Jack Stroud, Gino Marchetti, Andy Robustelli and Y.A. Tittle to name a few. I don't think age makes so much difference if a player can avoid injuries and keep in condition."

Nicknamed Hawg by teammates many years ago, the former Arkansas star felt his job was in jeopardy this season after the Packers drafted several outstanding tackles, including Nebraska's Lloyd Voss, the No. 1 selection. And it didn't help when he was kept on the bench as Green Bay dropped a 20-7 decision to St. Louis in the preseason opener.

Golf Meet Qualifying Saturday

Qualifying rounds in the Labor Day Partnership Golf Tournament at the Snyder Country Club will be unreeled Saturday.

Charlie Bruce, golf pro at the Country Club and director of the tournament, said entrants may choose either out-of-town or local partners for the event.

Qualifying must be completed before dark Saturday and additional rounds of 18 holes each will be played on Sunday and Monday. The qualifying score will count toward a 54-hole total score for the meet, however.

Musial Says Diet Went Too Far

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "I had planned to lose some weight," said Stan Musial Wednesday night, "but I think I carried it too far."

The former St. Louis Cardinal baseball star remained confined at Jewish Hospital following his collapse Tuesday night at the Cardinal-Milwaukee game at Busch Stadium.

But, said Dr. I. C. Middleman, the Cardinals' and Musial's physician, "Stan should be out of the hospital in a few days."

The 43-year-old physical fitness director, now a Cardinal vice president, experienced extensive diarrhea and vomiting causing dehydration prior to his collapse.

"His condition is satisfactory and he is being kept under observation," explained the physician. "We will conduct various tests to determine the exact nature of his ailment."

Dr. Middleman said Musial suffered an "enteritis virus brought on by emotional and physical exhaustion."

Pee Wee Picks Set

Pee Wee football players in the 9-10 group who have signed up in the Boys' Club program were scheduled to report at 4:30 p.m. today to be picked on teams.

The 11 and 12 year old boys who are not already assigned to teams were to report at the Boys' Club at 4:30 p.m. today also. There are a few uniforms still available for the 11-12 year age group, but they must come to the club and signup before 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Norwegian Shatters Javelin Barrier

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A 20-year-old Norwegian dental student has shattered the 300-foot javelin throw barrier with a fantastic heave more than 15 feet better than the listed world record.

Terje Pedersen made his spectacular throw of 300 feet, 11½ inches in an international meet between Norway and Czechoslovakia at Bislet Stadium Wednesday. The 209-pound youngster's performance easily topped the listed world mark of 285-7 set by Carlo Lievore of Italy in 1961.
