THE HOG MARKET

TODAY'S QUOTATIONS:

Choice sorted	$5.85@6.00
Mixed packers	5.65@5.85
Light	5.50@5.85
Choice pigs	5.50@6.00
Stags and roughs	4.00@5.00

Receipts of hogs today were only moderate, and fell down to about half the number on yesterday's market. At the opening eight cars were in, 522 head, but enough more, including drive-ins, arrived before the market closed to make total receipts for the day close around 700, against 85 head for last Wednesday, and 170 for the corresponding day last month.

The quality of today's receipts was not as good as the hogs on yesterday's market, and there was nothing of a toppy nature on sale.

Packers started out bidding generally a nickel lower than yesterday, and when trading opened up there was some unevenness to sales. Some salesmen were quoting their sales only a shade lower, while a full nicklel decline was noted in other places.

Trading was slow and draggy all day and it was at a late hour that a clearance was made.

The top today was $5.90 for Texas hogs averaging 251 pounds, with the bulk of the sales at $5.80.

Choice sorted are quoted from $5.80@6.00, with mixed packers $5.65@5.85, light grades $5.50@5.85, choice pigs $5.50@6.00, and boars, stags and roughs from $4.00@5.00.

DUAL PURPOSE CATTLE.

John Marriage, of Kiowa county, Kansas, is trying to produce a perfect type of animal. The breed is commonly called "Marriage" cattle. The type is distinctly American. The breed is a deep red, no horn, and as silky as the Aberdeen Angus. They are as good milkers as the Jerseys and as good beefers as the Angus—a double-purpose formula.

The foundation cow was the pure bred Devonshire, bought by his father thirty-five years ago. Bred to a pedigreed Holstein-Friesan bull, weighing 2,400 pounds, the product was a red cow, an excellent milker, named Cherry. She by a red polled Aberdeen Angus bull produced a pair of brindly roan heifers, and to a red Cruikshank brought several dark red, hornless cattle, which proved useful beef and butter makers and very hardy.

The present herd began twenty-one years ago with the choice of three of these, named Faith, Hope and Charity. These were mated with an imported Suffolkshire bull, weighing 2,350 pounds, and in turn a Norfolk polled bull was used.

This crossing produced the present Marriage cattle.

LIVE STOCK PREMIUMS.

WINNERS OF PRIZES AT THE DALLAS STATE FAIR.

Some Good Stock in All Classes, From Texas and Other States and Territories.

At the close of the first Saturday, all the premium live stock had passed through the ring, had their stand before the judges, and ribbons were awarded. This feature of the Dallas State Fair, speaking from the view of owners of the stock, eclipsed any yet held. Yet there are two criticisms brought out at this fair worthy of the most careful consideration of the management, to-wit, the long time the owners have to hold their stock on the grounds, and the remoteness of the show grounds from all other attractions.

The first is serious to the owners, who take the position that one week is ample time in which to show all stock, and a longer time is of serious consequence to them, both in expense and risk to the animals, besides Texas now has many fairs held during the autumn months, and many exhibitors like to attend a part, or all of them. The second criticism is almost as serious. The man who has an animal worth $500 to $5,000 wants some one else to see it besides his competitors and the judges. It is at an enormous expense to the owner that it is transported from his barn to the show ring—in many cases they come hundreds of miles, and the throngs of sight-seers are an inducement to the owner almost equaling the expected blue ribbon. When this feature is practically shut out by all sorts of shows, feasts and fiestas, occupying the front gates to attract and hold the visitors, and the fine stock department relegated to the farthest background, it is natural for few save the owners and judges to see them.

SWINE.

The display of swine came along this year in better keeping with what this state should do. There were in the show pens around five hundred when the judges commenced to "poke" and examine them Wednesday morning. Texas should have not less than 5,000 swine on exhibition at the state fair each year. Duroc-Jersey and Berkshires predominated, which with the Chester Whites and Poland Chinas, about filled out the representation. The weather was hot and made against them, but there was no loss from this cause.

Woman.

For every man a woman is born—
Does she sing or laugh or cry?
For every man a heart is torn—
A mother's or lover's—why?
Because a man must curse and sin,
Because a man must fight and win—
And love the best of another's kin,
He loves, or else must die.

For every man a woman sings
A dirge or a song of glee;
For every man the heart-bell rings,
And a toller sad is she;
For loving a man is a task of gall;
The idol shatters and down will fall,
And love must compass the world and all
When the world is "He and She."

For every man a woman dies—
Naught can her life breath stay;
For every man a woman lies,
Thrusts her salvation away;
Though decades pass with ceaseless tread,
Forsworn she'll be till still and dead,
But through her love she will be led
From hell to the light of day.

A Welsh Fossil.

A very fine specimen of lepidodendron has been unearthed at a quarry worked by Mr. Jones, near Cefn Lwynau, Gelligaer, Wales. The lepidodendron is a fossil plant found largely in the carboniferous coal measures, and was a kind of tree fern of gigantic proportions. The portion exposed is about fifteen feet long and nearly a yard wide, and the roots are also distinctly visible.

Some sixty-four miles off the coast of Tunis a cluster of little islands has been discovered. One was found to be inhabited by a former French sergeant, Clement, who had disappeared some fourteen years ago, and a small number of natives. The islands have been annexed by France, and Clement appointed resident inspector of fishing and of the harbor, registrar and teacher.

He Ran No Risk.

He had risked his life to rescue the fair maid from a watery grave, and, of course, her father was duly grateful. "Young man," he said, "I can never thank you sufficiently for your heroic act. You have incurred an awful risk in saving my only daughter." "None, whatever, sir," replied the amateur life-saver. "I am already married."—Chicago Daily News.

William Gillette, the playwright, says that he has no "theory" about his work. He tries to produce what the public will pay for and be satisfied with, and he considers this a better plan than to strive to reach an impossible ideal.

Got His Letters Back.

A circumstantial fish story is told by the London Daily News. The captain of the steamer Benalder, of Leith, on a voyage to China, threw a bundle of old letters overboard in the Mediterranean. Some Spanish fishermen of Agullas, near Cartagena, later caught a large fish, and on opening it found a bundle of letters inside. They took this to the mayor, who managed to decipher in one the name and address of the superintendent of the steamship line in London, and thus to restore the letters to their owner.

WERE ON LOOKOUT.

Secretary Loeb Had Received Word About Elliott.

TRIED ON SABBATH

To Have an Interview With President Roosevelt at Grace Church and Was Prevented by Secret Service Officers.

Washington, Oct 6.—Peter Elliott, who had a difficulty at the white house Monday, is undeniably a violently insane person. Several days ago Secretary Loeb received a letter postmarked Washington and written on letter paper of the St. James hotel, this city. The letter enclosed a photograph of Elliott and an incoherent request for an interview with President Roosevelt. The letter was signed "Peter Ell," the statement being made immediately under the signature that the writer was registered at the hotel then as Peter Elliott. It was evident to Secretary Loeb that his correspondent was insane and he issued directions at once that the officers on duty, both at the white house and at the executive offices, should be on their guard against him. The photograph was turned over to the secret service officers. Nothing was seen of the man until Sunday, when the president attended morning services at Grace Reformed church. Elliott appeared at the entrance of the church and made an effort to speak to the president, but he was foiled in his endeavor by the secret service officers. At that time the man manifested no symptoms of insanity and quietly left the vicinity of the church when ordered to do so by the officers.

About 10 o'clock Monday morning he appeared at the executive office. Entering the vestibule he inquired for President Roosevelt. One of the doorkeepers asked him why he wanted to see the president. "Oh, just for fun," he responded.

"The president sent for me and I just want to see him." Elliott was told to return next month. He smiled and walked away, not offering the slightest objection to the rebuff which he had received. His appearance attracted very little attention and he gave no indication at that time of insanity.

All of the officers, both at the white house and the executive offices, however, were warned again to be on the outlook for the man and not to take any chances with him.

At the station house Elliott gave his occupation as that of a machinist. He said he had lived in this country for eleven years, most of the time in Minneapolis. He said he came to Washington from Paterson, N. J. An order was issued immediately for his removal to the St. Elizabeth hospital for the insane.

At the same time the Russian government is being kept fully advised as to the extent and nature of Japan's military and naval mobilization. The ships continue under steam, but nothing is known beyond this of their purposes.

ANTICS OF ELLIOTT.

Man From Minneapolis Causes Scene at White House.

HE HAD A REVOLVER.

Fought as if Possessed of Superhuman Strength and Officers For Several Minutes Could Not Su?due Minnesotan.

Washington, Oct. 6.—A party who gave his name as Elliott and his home as Minneapolis engaged in a fight with a policeman at the white house Monday. Both the policeman and Elliott were slightly injured and taken to the hospital. Earlier in the day Elliott appeared at the executive office and asked to see the president. H was mild-mannered and was told to come back later. Some time after that he appeared at the white house, and while talking to Officer Cissell drew a revolver.

The man, who gave his name as Peter Elliott, was overpowered by the officers on duty at the white house and carried to the police station in a van, which had been summoned. He was placed in the van in the custody of two officers. Seeming to realize then for the first time that he was under arrest, Elliott began a furious struggle for liberty. He drew a revolver and attempted to shoot Officer Cissell. The officer wrenched the weapon from his grasp. Elliott's struggles were so fierce, however, that the two officers in the cramped quarters of the van were unable to overcome him. Officer Cissell fired two shots to attract attention. Chief Usher Thomas Stone and Officer Parker of the white house force, who had assisted in arresting Elliott, rushed to the vehicle and assisted in overpowering him. In the struggle with the police in the van Elliott broke a glass panel.

Elliott is undoubtedly violently insane. Officer Cissell has a cut two inches long on one arm.

DURBIN PRESENT.

Governor of Indiana Bivouacked With His Troops.

Camp Young, Ky., Oct. 6.—After having bivouacked all Sunday night in the woods six miles down the Nashville pike nearly 7000 troops awoke Monday morning for a day of strenuous work in the game of war. The air was cool and bracing, after Sunday night's showers. The forces were astir early, and as the morning advanced the intermittent cracking of Krags, as skirmishers from opposing forces felt out the position of "the enemy," was superseded by heavy firing, which at times became a veritable "roar" of battle that military novelists invariably describe as accompanying a conflict. This maneuver is based on the establishment of an outpost by the brown army and its attack by the blues. The attacking force was given a little more weight to compensate it for having to work on outside the lines.

The brown forces moved out late in the afternoon. Bivouacking with the Friday night the upper class men initiated freshmen, putting them through a severe course, and when the latter appeared at chapel Monday morning wearing the colors President Church made a speech prohibiting the color rush. He stated that the freshmen had been initiated in a more severe manner than any class of the institution and he upheld them wearing their colors. As soon as the chapel exercises were over the upper class men went after the freshmen and tor their colors off, and bloody noses and torn clothes were in evidence. The faculty then suspended both classes.

ONE OF ETHICS.

Wayne MacVeagh So Declares Venezuelan Arbitration Tribunal.

The Hague, Oct. 5.—Wayne MacVeagh, senior counsel for Venezuela, continuing his argument before the Venezuelan arbitration tribunal, declared the question before the tribunal was one of ethics, namely, whether or not the war against Venezuela was just and necessary. He maintained that the complaints of Great Britain were merely a pretext for war and that Venezuela had far greater right on her side when she complained of the dispatch of a British vessel from London to the Carribean sea to deliver the cargo of arms to the insurgent chief, Gen. Matos, though the intermediary of agents at Trinidad. Counsel said he found no precedent in history for such a purely financial war as he declared was undertaken by Great Britain and Germany for the protection of railroad companies, bondholders and in support of the claims of the Disconto Gesellschaft.

WAYNE MACVEAGH.

Mr. MacVeagh recalled that Great Britain accepted arbitration in the Alabama case when a British vessel assisted the Venezuelan insurgents and the Venezuelan government entered a protest. Instead of arbitrating this matter Great Britain and her allies sent a twenty-four-hour ultimatum to Venezuela demanding the immediate payment of $380,000.

A BOOM

does not, ultimately, bring about the best results to a community.

THE PANHANDLE

Is NOT on a boom, but is enjoying the most rapid growth of any section of Texas.

WHY?

Because only recently have the public at large realized the opportunities which this northwest section of Texas offers. The large ranches are being divided into

SMALL STOCK FARMS.

Wheat, Corn, Cotton, Melons and all kinds of feed stuffs are being raised in abundance, surpassing the expectations of the most sanguine.

A country abounding in such resources (tried and proven), together with the

LOW PRICE

of lands, cannot help enjoying a most rapid growth, and that is what is happening in the Panhandle.

"THE DENVER ROAD"

has on sale daily a low rate home-sekers ticket, which allows you stopovers at nearly all points; thus giving you chance to investigate the various sections of the Panhandle.

The Dallas News has the following: "The Counterfeiters," a comedy-drama, with scenes laid in New York City, and well-defined plot, was presented at the Dallas opera house last night by the Gagnon-Pollock Stock Company. It is a play that is full of action and climaxes. Throughout the performance there was a steady interest manifested upon the part of the large audience present. The members of the company interpreted the different characters in the piece in such a manner as to evoke frequent applause from the audience. Between the acts new specialties were given by the Wheeler & Wilson trio, and special mention is due Mr. Gagnon in his illustrated songs.

Ladies are to be admitted free tonight when accompanied by a paid 30c ticket which must be purchased before 6 p. m.

MASON AND MASON.

All who attend the performance of "Rudolph and Adolph" may rest assured that they will see Mason and Mason, the German emperors, at each performance in the stellar roles, as Broadhurst & Currie have no number two or inferior companies for the smaller cities. Chas. A. and Harry P. Mason, who have established a reputation as the greatest of all German dialecticians and the same great company which played to crowded houses in New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and all other principal cities, the same clever cast and a superb singing chorus of beautiful girls will be seen at each performance of "Rudolph and Adolph," and comes to Greenwall's opera house Saturday, matinee and night, Oct. 10th.

Cheap Rates to the Panhandle.

For the purpose of enlarging the public's knowledge of the true conditions holding in Northwest Texas (the Panhandle) "The Denver Road" has put in effect round-trip party home seekers rates to points along its line. These rates are upon a basis of one fare for the round trip for parties of five or more persons traveling together on one ticket, and carry the privilege of stop-overs at pleasure at all points north of and including Vernon, Texas; passengers being allowed a limit of 30 days in which to rgturn.

In view of the fact that the Panhandle is enjoying the most rapid growth of any section of Texas, for which there is ample reason, this move upon the part of "the Denver Road" is a wise one and will doubtless result in the splendid agricultural and business opportunities of that section becoming better known and appreciated within a very short period of time. This section of Texas abounds in resources, and land, being still available at very low prices, is now being rapidly taken up.

That Settled Her.

A bachelor maid has lost at least two friends by her honesty. She was invited to visit a mother and father who were rejoicing over the advent of a new baby and she accepted the invitation, all unconscious of what was expected of her. She did not know that families which exhibit their offsprings do so to win for it some extravagant expression of admiration.

The bachelor maid had nothing to say except, "I can't see any difference between babies, except that some are clean and some are dirty, and I must say this is a very clean baby." She has not been asked to call again.—Worcester Spy.

INCREASE IS LARGE.

Quite a Number of New Cases Reported at Laredo,

NO ALARM IS FELT.

Drs. Guiteras and Tabor Are Both of the Opinion That This State of Affairs Is No More Than Expected.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 6.—While Monday has shown a very large increase of yellow fever cases, both Drs. Guiteras and Tabor concur in the opinion that there is no cause for alarm, the doctors concurring in the opinion that the increase is nothing more than they expected at this time, this being the fourth infection, or in other words the cases being the result of bites from mosquitoes which had bitten persons infected with the yellow fever, probably before the arrival of the experts. As all the patients infected with the disease are now being protected from the mosquitoes by netting it is very probable that when those now down with the disease have reached the stage of convalescence the stamping out of the disease will practically have been accomplished.

Monday's official bulletin shows there have been twenty-two new cases, with no deaths. This makes the total number of cases to date eighty-three, while the total deaths have been five. The low mortality rate thus indicated is due to a better understanding of the disease, physicians having advanced much of late years in the disease.

No new cases or any deaths have been reported from Minera, a mining town twenty-eight miles up river and it is thought the disease will not gain a foothold there.

Conditions in Nuevo Laredo are greatly improved. A telephone message from that city states there was but one new case Monday.

Dr. Tabor and Superintendent Clark have returned from San Diego, where they met Judge Hopkins of Nueces, Judge Woods of Duval and Adjutant General Hulen. The conference held was very pleasant and all differences were adjusted, so that traffic will be resumed on the Trans-Mexican road at once so far as through freight from Alice is concerned.

The authorities have decided that those who fled from fear of the fever will not be allowed to return to this city until all danger has passed, as it is said the return of the non-immunes would only add fuel to the flames.

One more case of fever has appeared at Monterey, the case being that of a woman servant. The case has been isolated and measures taken to prevent any spread of the disease.

Commercial business in Monterey has been greatly crippled since the beginning of the yellow fever, although merchants say that under the circumstances they are doing much more than they expected.

FORCIBLE COLLECTION.

Emissaries of President Castro Have Arrived at Ciudad Bolivar.

Port of Spain, Oct. 6.—Emissaries of President Castro of Venezuela have arrived at Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, with orders to collect forcibly not only the taxes but the custom house duties already paid by importers from May, 1902, to August, 1903, the period during which the revolutionists occupied that city as government de facto. The amount demanded is about $1,000,000. The foreigners, especially the firms of Blohm & Co., German; Palazzi & Co., French; Boccardo & Co., Italian, and Dalton & Co., American, have refused to pay, claiming that the duties had already been legally paid. Menaces and vexatious tactics are employed against the foreigners. Herr Sprick, a German, refused to pay back duties and a cargo of rum, belonging to him, which was being unloaded from a steamer, was seized by the government and sold at public auction for almost nothing. The German merchant in this manner lost $25,000. Venezuelan merchants who refuse to pay, having no protection are imprisoned.

A reign of terror exists everywhere at Ciudad Bolivar and consequently trade is paralyzed.

President Castros representative at Ciudad Bolivar was quoted as saying: "Germany and other foreign powers obliged the Venezuelan government to pay millions. Now, it is Venezuela who forces the foreigners to reimburse Venezuela."

Heard Report Read.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Delegates to the National Prison Congress attended the meeting of the Wardens' association, where the annual report of President Johnson of Allegheny was heard.

Reticent as the Duke.

London, Oct. 6.—In reply to an inquiry as to the truth of the report of a delay in settling the cabinet crisis due to the indecision of the Duke of Devonshire, lord president of the council, whom, it is alleged, sent his conditional resignation to Premier Balfour, the duke telegraphed: "I have no communication to make." This is accepted in Liberal circles as tending to confirm the report. Official circles, however, are equally as reticent as the duke.

American League Won.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—American League team won the second game of the series, a ten inning contest, by pounding Wicker for 14 hits and playing a perfect game in the field. The score: Americans, 4; Nationals, 4.

Opening Game Postponed.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—The opening game in this city between the Pittsburg and Boston baseball teams for the world's championship series was postponed on account of rain and wet grounds.
