

Calves Throttle North Ward, 23-13

After trailing until the third inning, the Central Ward Calves turned on the steam behind the pitching of Lefty Maynard to throttle North Ward 23-13 in a softball game Thursday afternoon.

Maynard shared pitching duties with Don Washburn. Others in the Calves lineup were: Roger Brown, catcher; Billie Martin, first base; R. B. Hall, second base; Jackie Culpepper, third base; Sam Hall, short; Rex Kennedy, left field; Joe B. Howell, center field; Randy Hickman, right field.

The Calves will tackle East Ward on the East Ward diamond next Wednesday.

PROFESSOR LIVES UP TO LEGEND

CINCINNATI, April 8. (AP)—A University of Cincinnati faculty member joined the ranks of the legendary absent-minded professor yesterday—because of two articles of clothing.

The professor—whose name was withheld—attended a university student sale of lost and found articles. He hung his coat and hat on a rack among the for sale items. A UC employee happened along and liked the coat and hat, handed a student a dollar and walked off with the clothing.

The mistake was corrected later. The professor got back his coat and hat and the employee his dollar.

Painter Is Found Dead In Woods

CANAAN, Conn., April 8. (AP)—Extra Winters, 63, internationally known painter of murals, was found dead of a shotgun wound yesterday in the woods behind his home, and Dr. R. C. Sewell, medical examiner, gave a verdict of suicide.

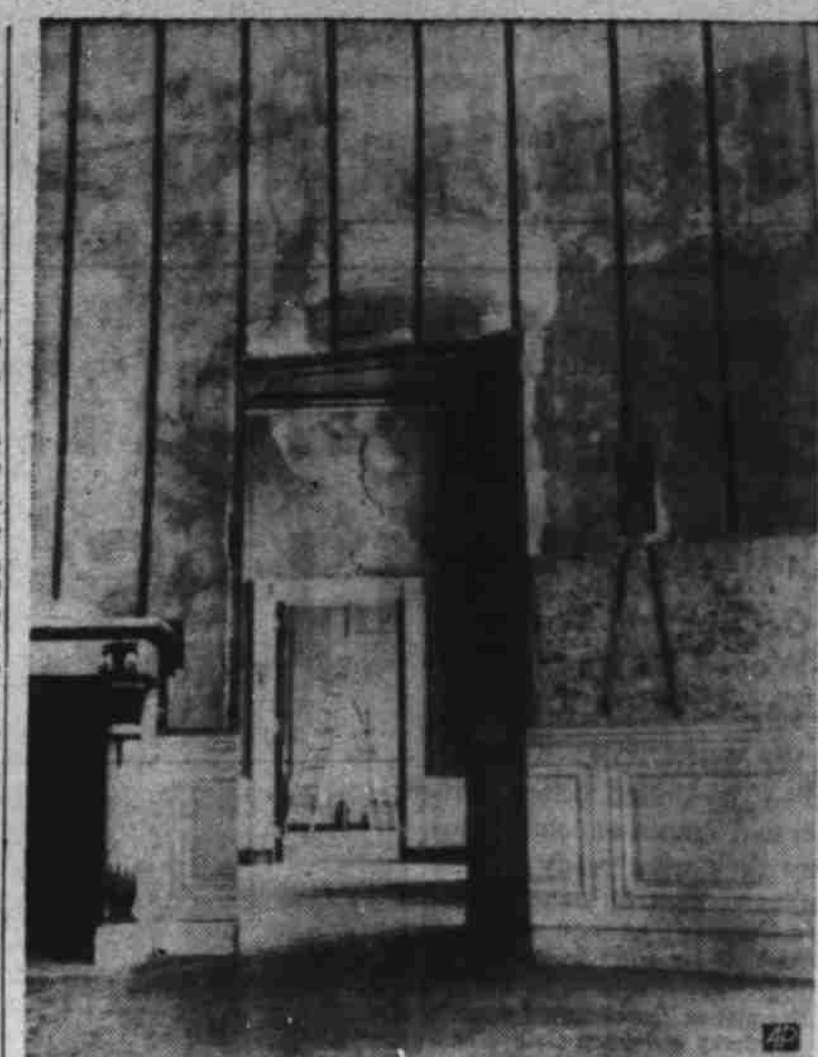

The body, shotgun at his side, was discovered by Fred Blackwell, caretaker of Winters' extensive estate. State Police Lt. Elton Nolan quoted Blackwell as saying he heard a shot in the woods behind Winters' studio when he went to call the artist for his noonday meal. Members of the family said Winters had been in ill health for more than a year and was bothered by a recent hip injury. He left no notes or letters.

Winters' works were hung in many important buildings. They were in two rooms of the Congressional Library in Washington, the foyer of Radio City Music Hall in New York, the Clark Memorial Building in Vincennes, Ind., the Eastman Theater in Rochester, N. Y., and the Bank of Manhattan in New York City.

Winters was at work on the last of seven paintings for the Bank of Manhattan at the time of his death. He did all his painting in his studio, which was large enough to accommodate a canvas 60 feet long.

The artist was born at Manistee, Mich., March 10, 1886. He attended the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts in 1908 and 1909 and three years later won a scholarship of the American Academy in Rome. He received many medals and high honors for his work.

Winters is survived by his widow, head of the House of Herb here and three daughters by a former marriage—Mrs. Renata Hunter of Pleasantville, N. Y.; Mrs. Donald Whelan of Chappaqua, N. Y.; and Mrs. Albert Moss of Mt. Kisco, N. Y. Funeral plans are incomplete.

Tories Move In On British Labor Party Elections

LONDON, April 8. (AP)—Britain's week-long county elections continued yesterday with the conservatives making further inroads into labor majorities.

Labor's whopping 3-1 margin on the council of giant London County fell to less than 2-1 on the basis of incomplete returns. Neighboring suburbs switched to the Tories as did several outlying counties.

All Communist candidates were defeated.

These elections, which correspond to American city and town council elections, have no bearing on parliament. They have been eagerly awaited here, however, as an indication of popular feeling.

Yesterday's voting followed by one day the publication of labor's high-tax austerity budget. Conservative gains were regarded in some quarters as a natural reaction although the Tories were also out front earlier in the week before the budget was made public.

Jack Graham, leading home ruler in the Pacific Coast circuit last season with 48 and now a St. Louis Brownie, holds a private pilot license.

MR. FORT WORTH THROWS PARTY

Non-Stop Global Fliers Honored With Non-Stop Banquet Thursday

FT. WORTH, April 8. (AP)—A non-stop banquet for the non-stop fliers, Fort Worth really put it on big last night for Capt. James G. Gallagher and his crewmen who circled the globe in a single 94-hour and one minute hop.

For three hours the fliers—and Air Force officials—soaked up compliments and accepted gifts.

After the choice shrimps, mushrooms, remoulade, strawberries and other extras had gone down the hatch, Mr. Fort Worth took over.

Mr. Fort Worth is Amon G. Carter, famed publisher, a big strapping man, gray-headed and bright-eyed.

Carter was in rare form—even for Carter. He was a roaring, applauding, untiring audience of 500. He reminisced, rambled and never ran out of humor—but through it all he brought the sincere thanks of a warm, friendly city.

As he told the airman:

"Your gallant flight has been written into time—and with it has been written the fact that the flight started in Fort Worth and ended in Fort Worth. Fort Worth will not forget that—nor will it let anyone else forget it."

It was a plush, top-drawer affair, sponsored by Fort Worth's hard-hitting chamber of commerce. Menus cost a dollar each to produce. The swank hotel ballroom was full of flags, flowers and beautiful gowns and the soft music of a smooth orchestra tantalized the air. The young fliers lolled happily at the head table.

At a reserved front table were the wives—the guests of Fort Worth. Each wife wore a gardenia corsage.

"We surely appreciate all this," said Lt. Earl L. Rigor of Corvallis, Ore. "This is the first time our wives have had a chance to see us in action."

"I'm getting more of a kick out of this than I did out of making the big trip," said Staff Sgt. Robert R. McLeRoy of Alvarado, Tex.

And my dad—W. R. McLeRoy of Alvarado—is out there in the audience, getting a bigger kick out of it than I am."

"This is Texas," Capt. James H. Morris of San Antonio said blissfully.

Carter presented the world-fliers and Air Force officials present with expensive, leather-bound scrolls, conferring lifetime citizenship in Fort Worth; fine wallets, and 14-karat gold medals commemorating the epic flight. In addition he promised them broadbrimmed western hats: "Just be careful where you leave those hats, boys."

Lt. Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, chief of the strategic air command and boss of the nation's global bomber training, said: "Our gratitude for the honor you have shown Capt. Gallagher and his crew will never be forgotten. In return we'll give you an Air Force that will give you the security we all desire so much."

And Gallagher said: "Whenever we come back to Fort Worth, it'll always look as good to us as it did after 94 hours and one minute."

Earlier the fliers had been paraded through the city and had attended the presentation of a bronze plaque at Carswell Air Base, marking the spot where the flight began Feb. 26 and ended March 2.

A reporter asked Carter: "When the Army launches its first rocket to the moon, do you suppose they'll launch it from Fort Worth?"

"If they don't," Carter replied briskly, "they'll be missing an opportunity."

'DEFEATISM' SCORED BY TRUMAN IN MESSAGE TO DEMO ACTION MEETING

CHICAGO, April 8. (AP)—Opposition to administration legislation dealing with labor, housing, rent, national health insurance and the European Recovery Program is "only a defeatist expedient," says President Truman.

"Expediency can never win a real victory," Mr. Truman said in a message sent to the convention of Americans for Democratic Action which opens a convention here today.

"Temporary success for expediency is only time out in the march of progress—a hollow victory that soon turns to defeat," the President added in his message addressed to Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) acting national chairman of the ADA.

"A program won the 1948 elections. I hope that all Americans of whatever political faith will not lose sight of the moral of our recent political history."

Mr. Truman said the opposition to a fair labor law, a fair minimum wage, the ERP, rent control, a housing bill, national health insurance, better educational opportunities, and to safeguarding human rights "is no program."

"We are carrying out the program which we offered to the voters last year," President Truman said. "In carrying out that program we are not making everyone happy. Some say we are moving too fast. Others say we are moving too slow."

"As long as the people know where we are going and that we are going there, I do not worry over petty and temporary victories by obstructionists, nor do I worry about the future of liberalism in America."

Small Blind Girl Runs Out String Of Human Emotions

GRAND LEDGE, Mich., April 8. (AP)—Hope, disappointment, then a promise of fulfillment. That's the story of Little Bonnie Lee Kirchen. Blind since birth five years ago, Bonnie put her faith in a report that a cigarette company would furnish a leader dog free in return for the cellophane tabs from 40,000 packs of smokes.

Townpeople pitched in and collected that many. But Bonnie's hopes were shattered when it was learned no company had made the offer.

Then came the happy ending. A Chicago newspaper publicized the little girl's plight. Bernard J. Shell, assistant bishop of Chicago and president of the Master Eye Foundation, stepped in like the fairy godmother.

He notified Bonnie he is sending her a puppy for the time being. What's more, he'll see that she gets a seeing eye dog when she's 12 and old enough to handle it.

COST OF PUBLIC BENEFITS

Louisiana Gets Look At Its Taxing, Spending Program

BATON ROUGE, La., April 8, (AP)—With two thirds of the fiscal year checked off the calendar, Louisiana is beginning to see what its big new taxing and spending program looks like.

Earl K. Long was swept into the Governor's chair a little more than a year ago by a vote majority that topped any ever given a candidate for that office. His chief campaign weapon was a promise to increase public benefits.

In scope, the program rivaled and even outdid the proposals of his brother, the late Sen. Huey P. Long, whose "every man a king" and "share the wealth" plan started the nation in the thirties.

The day after Earl Long was inaugurated last May, a friendly legislature opened a 60-day session. The blueprint giving the state more responsibility for the welfare of its citizens was introduced and glided through legislative machinery with a minimum of friction. With it went a program of record taxation to pay the bills.

From July 1, 1948, through February—the first eight months of the fiscal year—Louisiana's tax collections totaled $135,216,935. That is an increase of more than $53,000,000 over the same period a year earlier. The tax take for February alone was $14,234,183, considerably higher than the $9,275,435 yield in February, 1948.

On the basis of what appears to be a trend, Louisianians are estimating year-end totals at something like $215,000,000, or about $80,000,000 higher than 1947-48 collections.

Biggest increases to date are in those taxes which were raised by the 1948 legislature. For the eight-month period, these were severance taxes, up $17,155,789; sales tax, $17,064,072 higher; gasoline tax, up $6,640,405; and beer tax, $6,020,294 higher.

Major tax yields during the period were: Severance, $32,005,895; sales, $29,090,349; gasoline, $25,817,353; tobacco, $9,979,978; income, $7,673,053; and beer $7,446,118.

Budgets for the various state agencies included in the general appropriations act, were approved also by the 1948 legislature. Hinged to the bigger taxes, they were generally scaled higher. Little change has been noted in the size of the state's pay roll.

The governor's most potent campaign promise, and one of the first to be fulfilled, was the expanded and liberalized public welfare program. Financial aid was increased in all categories, particularly old age pensions. To the program was dedicated all proceeds of the state sales tax—doubled from one to two percent at the same legislative session.

The old age assistance program guarantees a minimum monthly in come of $50 to persons over 65 living alone and $45 apiece to those living together. It also relaxes restrictions on personal cash assets and resources. Individual grants have more than doubled to present day averages of about $48 per person each month.

Another major project, consummated this month, was the veterans' bonus. The state started two weeks ago mailing out checks to an estimated 300,000 servicemen and women of World War II in Louisiana. Checks ranged from $150 to $250 depending upon length of service and overseas duty, and dependents of war dead will receive $1000.

Bonus payments are backed up by a $50,000,000 bond sale. An additional $10,000,000 bond issue, if needed, is authorized. The beer tax, averaging about 2 1/2 cents a bottle, is earmarked for this one.

Then there are the minimum salary scale for the public school teachers, stepped-up highway main tenance and construction, and ex panded hospital plan and the school hot lunch program.

New teacher minimums, approved by the legislature, went into effect this fall in all parishes (counties). But a disagreement over distribution has tied up the $80,000,000 fund earmarked for increases. A ruling of the state supreme court soon is expected to end the stalemate.

WALKING 'CORPSE'—Lewis David Ruffcorn (above), 23, proved to be very much alive in Seattle, Wash., after his mother, in Elgin, Ill., found another man's body in the coffin which she thought held her son's. The body had been shipped east from Seattle after Ruffcorn's identification papers were found in the dead man's pockets. (AP Wirephoto).

Boy Accidentally Hangs Self In Tree

NORWALK, Conn., April 8, (AP)—Nine-year-old Ronald Self, playing with a rope in a tree here yesterday, accidentally hanged himself.

The boy's mother, Mrs. Harold Self, cut the child down and tried to carry him home. After two blocks, she screamed for help and police arrived with an inhalator. They were unable to revive the boy. Dr. William H. McMahon, medical examiner, called it an accidental hanging.

Police, who said there were no witnesses, reported that several boys had been using the rope earlier in the day as a swing by placing their feet in a loop.

They said it was apparent the boy had slipped from a tree branch with the loop around his neck.

MANY PROBLEMS TO BE AIRED
Texas Merchants To Meet In Dallas

A program designed to attract nearly every type of merchant in Texas has been arranged for the 49th annual meeting of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas that will be held jointly with six related organizations in Dallas May 1-3. Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, manager of the local Retail Merchants association has announced.

Mrs. Eubanks urged every merchant in the Big Spring area to make plans to attend the three-day meeting. She said that although much of the convention's business would be devoted to credits and collections, many phases of merchandising, pending legislation in both Austin and Washington and numerous problems confronting every type of business would be discussed at the score of sectional meetings scheduled.

Showing the wide range of subjects that will be up for discussion, Mrs. Eubanks listed some of the topics on the convention program: Office records, Watching the overhead, When to use a Telegram, Legal Problems, Collection Letters, How to Distribute and Appurition the Work Where Two or More People Employed for Special Jobs, Personnel Problems, Better Customer Relations by Letter, How to Maintain A Good Down Payment Per Cent, The Role of Retailing in the National Economy, Financing Electrical Appliances and many others. Experts, many nationally known, in the many fields of retailing will be on hand to make the convention talks.

Mrs. Eubanks said she had been advised by the convention committee that sectional meetings would be held throughout the three days. Thus permitting specialty groups to gain the greatest good in the least time. Some of the sectional meetings scheduled will be for jewelers, building material store owners, furniture dealers, utility staffs, wearing apparel groups, finance men, petroleum company credit executives, and business managers for doctors, dentists, clinics and hospitals.

Meeting jointly with the Retail Merchants Association will be the Retail Credit Executives of Texas, the Lone Star Council of Credit Women, the Collection Division of the Retail Merchants, the Texas Retail Credit Bureau, the Southwest Petroleum Credit Group and the Texas Retail Dry Goods Association.

Lutherans Join On Palm Sunday In Special Confirmation Rites

Special services will be conducted throughout Lutheranism and in the local St. Paul's Lutheran church on Palm Sunday in commemoration of the confirmation of the church membership during the past years.

Following the completion of all Lenten observances, the junior youth will be admitted to the church membership, with approximately 45,000 persons throughout the world being received into the Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Ad. H. Hyer will speak on the subject, "The Sanctifying Effect of Our Redemption Through Christ," during the morning worship hour. Sunday school and Bible class will convene at 10 a. m. and the Ladies Aid will meet for a business session at 2:30 p. m.

Good Friday special services will be conducted at the church at 7:30 p. m. and will be followed by the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Mrs. B. Reagan, member of the church for 50 years, will be honored at special services during the 11 a. m. worship of the First Baptist church Sunday. Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, will speak on "Missions, Our Mission," based on Luke 24:46-47.

Mr. and Mrs. Reagan are pioneer residents of Big Spring, and they gave one daughter, Lucille Reagan, to missions. Miss Reagan, who for years labored on the field in Nigeria, died in the line of duty. Mrs. Reagan has been one of the leading figures for years in the church, and, of course, will be appropriately recognized at the morning service.

During the evening worship hour, Dr. O'Brien will speak on the subject, "Come and Welcome," from Rev. 22:17. Baptismal services will be observed following the service.

From the scriptural text based on Matt. 26:3-4, the Rev. John A. Kolar will discuss "Christ's Entrance Into Jerusalem and the Course Pursued By His Enemies Before His Arrest," during the morning worship period at the Main Street Church of God, corner Tenth and Main.

At 8 p. m. Sunday, the Rev. Kolar will talk on "The Angelle Sinners," from II Peter 2:4. Following the sermon, the film, "John The Baptist," will be projected.

Prayer meeting will not meet Wednesday evening, but on Thursday evening at 7:45 p. m., "Communion and Ordinances," will be observed.

"Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in the Christian Scientist reading room, 217 1/2 Main, Sunday morning.

The Golden Text is: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction." (Psalms 103:2-4)

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Touching the Almighty, we cannot find Him out; He is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: He will not afflict." (Job 37:23) and from page 379 of the Christian Scientist textbook.

Sunday masses at St. Thomas Catholic church, 508 North Main, are at 7 and 9:30 a. m. and daily masses are at 7 a. m. Confessions are heard before the daily mass from 7 to 8:30 p. m. Saturdays. At the Sacred Heart Catholic church (Latin American) Sunday masses are at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. and weekday mass is at 7 a. m.

"It is Hard To Be Bad," will be discussed by the Rev. A. H. Carleton at the First Methodist church Sunday morning. Special music during the morning will include the musical selections, "Were You There."

At the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. R. Gage Lloyd will speak on the sermon topic, "When Christ Rides Triumphant." Prior to the morning sermon, the choir will sing the anthem, "From Olivet He Rides," by Lane.

During the evening services, the Rev. Lloyd will present the question, "Jesus, Or Barabbas?" Mrs. A. B. Brown will sing the hymn, "Fd Rather Have Jesus."

"Verily I Say Unto You, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness..." will serve as the text for the morning sermon brought by Sewell Jones, minister of the Church of Christ. The announced sermon topic is "The Sin Against the Holy Spirit," and the scriptural text can be found in Mark 3:28-29.

Sunday school is at 10 a. m. and the Young Peoples meeting is at 6:15 p. m. The evening church hour is 7 p. m., with the Minister Jones discussing "The Great Physician," from Luke 5:31. C. H. Wasson will serve as guest speaker at the newly formed Garden City Church of Christ Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m.

Marvin H. Clark, pastor of the Trinity Baptist church, will be heard over KBST at 8 a. m. Sunday, and on the subject, "The Verbal Inspiration of the Scriptures," from II Tim. 3:16 during the 11 a. m. worship hour. Baptismal services will be held following the morning service.

Members of the Sunday school department will convene at 10 a. m. for a study of the 36th and 37th chapters of Genesis and the Young People will meet at the church at 7:45 p. m. under the direction of Wayne Bert.

During the evening worship hour, 7:45 p. m., Pastor Clark will tell of his first hand information concerning the cancellation of the contract of Dr. J. Frank Norris prohibiting further use of the Abilene high school auditorium.

The Rev. Robert Snell of the Trinity Baptist church in Midland will conduct the evening services of St. Mary's Episcopal church at 7:30 p. m. this evening.

Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and the Lay Readers will conduct the morning service Sunday. The Young Peoples Service League will meet in the Parish hall at 6:30 p. m.

CORONATION

Regal processions have moved down the avenues of time. Kings have bowed their heads to receive the crown of the realm.

But never rode a king as this King rode... meek and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

Nor ever wore a king the crown this King wore... surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows.

On one day men lined His path with palm branches, and spread their garments in the way. On another, they pierced His limbs with nails, and cast lots for His robe.

But today men see Him through eyes He opened, and worship Him with hearts He won.

Never lived a king as this King lives! Nor ever lived a people more blessed than those whose lives He rules!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Federated Clubs Open Midland Meet

MIDLAND, April 8 — Delegates, no tables and visitors, who are expected to number in the hundreds before the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs' Thursday at convention headquarters on the mezzanine floor of the Scharbauer Hotel.

At the same hour the district officers and appointed board members who make up the Executive Committee began a business session, which was followed at 4:30 p. m. by a board meeting, which added all district committee chairmen to the group.

Mrs. J. M. Montgomery of Fort Stockton, district president, presided for the preliminary sessions and shared the position of featured speaker with Mrs. J. J. Perry of Sweetwater, state president, at the annual Presidents' Dinner Thursday night.

The formal dinner, which began at 7:30 p. m. in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer, was the first event open to all club women. It honored all club presidents. Mrs. J. Howard Hodge introduced Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, who welcomed the visitors to the city.

Music on the dinner program included two vocal solos by Mrs. Frank Thompson, "Jewel Song" from Gounod's opera, "Faust," and "Let My Song Fill Your Heart." Ernest Charles, Mrs. Frank Miller accompanied Mrs. Thompson and was at the piano for assembly music.

Hostesses, one assigned for each city in the district, were on hand to greet arriving visitors Thursday and also at the informal coffee at which the Midland Women's Club were hostesses from 8 to 9 a. m. Friday in the hotel's Private Dining Room.

South Ward P-TA Elects Officers; Marvin Miller Is Guest Speaker

Mrs. Lee Harris was named president of the South Ward P-TA at a meeting held Thursday afternoon. Other officers elected include: Mrs. J. T. Thornton, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. T. E. Bailey, secretary; Mrs. Raymond Dunagan, treasurer; and Mrs. Lonnie Coker, program chairman. Other business included the election of 15 district convention delegates.

Marvin Miller, guest speaker, discussed the topic, "Better Homes With The Help Of The Schools". Miller stressed the importance of good relations between parents and teachers. He stressed the idea that young students should be made to feel important and that if high school students were given the opportunity to become associate members of the P-TA it would give them a broader outlook on the organization's importance.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

If you're looking for an excuse for that severe case of Spring fever, maybe you'll be interested in an article we read the other day. It seems that this number one time killer is caused by that complicated piece of equipment called the brain. To protect us from becoming chunks of ice or going up in flames some day, there is a sort of thermostat placed within our brain to regulate body temperature.

The spring production this year is under the direction of Dr. Katharine Boyd, chairman of the H-SU speech department, and will star two junior speech majors, Cecil Rutherford of Abilene in the role of Commodore Crochet, and Virginia Dunagan of Midland as Mrs. Crochet.

 If you're looking for an excuse for that severe case of Spring fever, maybe you'll be interested in an article we read the other day. It seems that this number one time killer is caused by that complicated piece of equipment called the brain. To protect us from becoming chunks of ice or going up in flames some day, there is a sort of thermostat placed within our brain to regulate body temperature.

Extremes changes in the temperature get the little instrument rather confused and we develop such lazy diseases as Spring fever. At the present time medical science knows of only one cure—fishing.
