Buying Wave Rescues Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the biggest buying waves of 1966 rescued the stock market from the bottom of its long decline today. Heavy early trading slackened early this afternoon as some gains were trimmed.

Prices surged ahead along a broad front.

By noon prices were below their best as day-to-day trades took profits.

The Dow Jones industrial average was up as much as 11.97 at the end of the first hour. By noon the Dow industrials held a gain of 7.74 at 871.88.

The market snapped back from weeks of almost uninterrupted decline. Brokers said the signs were abundant that big institutional investors had begun to buy stocks. At the same time, many a "little fellow" was clambering back aboard what he hoped would be a band wagon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 3.0 at 316.7 with industrials up 5.1, rails up 1.0 and utilities up 1.1.

Many traders and investors took advantage of the rally to unload stocks at the higher prices, convinced that the month-to-month decline has further to go.

Financial Newspaper Survey, reporting that appliance sales and home durable goods are booming even as the auto industry is cutting back, helped spur interest anew in the color television issues and electrical equipments.

Wide gains were made in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged.

Descrepancies In Mexia School Audit

AUSTIN (AP)—The state auditor reported today that a number of discrepancies had been discovered in an audit of the Mexia State School and Home, including alleged mishandling of scrap metal sales and alleged illegal sale of radios to students.

The report from State Auditor C. H. Cavness went to Gov. John Connally, the legislature and the Board of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Cavness noted that during the audit Vernon Jones, superintendent of the school; Thurman Kerr, business manager, and assistant fiscal officer Ernest Jones were placed on a leave of absence with pay by the governing board "pending further investigation of certain rumored irregularities." Cavness said the three later resigned.

The board meets May 27 and 28 to hear a report on a special investigation at the school and to name a new superintendent and business manager.

Americans Uninjured

SAIGON (AP) — Rebels shot down a U.S. spotter plane over Da Nang late today. U.S. Marines quietly took over a Da Nang River bridge disputed between rebel and government troops in that hotbed of northern dissidence.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's opponents poured 500 more anti-government infantrymen into the city. And 200 men from a detachment of rangers already based there switched to the rebel side. That boosted the rebel ranks to more than 1,000 men, against the 2,500 Vietnamese marines and paratroopers Ky sent in Sunday.

Government forces, supported by two tanks, started to close in on one of Da Nang's three rebel-held pagodas. But they withdrew after Buddhist monks set fire to a wooden pyre they had erected there and threatened to burn themselves to death if the advance continued.

Ky had visited Da Nang briefly to rally support and swear in his new military commander for the five northern provinces making up the agitation-ridden 1st Corps area.

Of complaints from U.S. officials that he had not advised them in advance of the troop movement, Ky said in an interview that "the American government and the Vietnamese government are close, perhaps closer than ever before, but it does not mean we have to discuss everything."

U.S. Marines won control of the Da Nang River bridge by negotiations. Their commander, Gen. Lewis W. Walt, talked Vietnamese marines into letting the Americans take over the west end and others negotiated a withdrawal of rebel troops holding the east end.

The American spotter plane, carrying a U.S. Army pilot and a Marine Corps observer, drew rebel fire on two flights over Da Nang.

It crash-landed on a beach two miles east of town after taking seven hits from antigovernment gunners based near one of the three pagodas controlled by rebels. Neither American was injured.

2 Snyder Brothers Fight In Viet Nam

Two brothers who graduated from Snyder High School are serving in Viet Nam, and one of them is the only Scurry County serviceman assigned to the famous "Green Beret" special forces group.

The brothers are Sgt. Donald T. Deere, 21, Detachment A-331, 5th Special Forces Group, Airborne, 1st Special Force; and Sp-4 Charles R. Deere, 22, Co. C, 4th Battalion, 23rd Infantry, 1st Brigade Task Force, 25th Infantry Division. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Deere, N. Avenue R.

Donald, who is on his third tour of overseas duty, has been with the Green Berets in Viet Nam for about a year. He is stationed at Lac Ninh near the Cambodian border about 75 miles north of Saigon on a French rubber plantation. Charles is stationed at Cu Chi, 35 miles northwest of Saigon.

Both men graduated from Snyder High School in 1962. Donald attended Ranger Junior College and was a member of the local National Guard unit before joining the Army in the summer of 1963. He went through paratrooper training at Ft. Bragg, North Carolina, and subsequently won the combat infantry badge while serving in the Dominican Republic. Later, Donald taught Chinese soldiers on Formosa how to jump with parachutes. At the time, his headquarters was at Okinawa.

He currently is an instructor of Vietnamese forces in the use of light and heavy American weapons. While serving with the famous Green Berets, Donald's outfit won the presidential unit

R. C. PATTON

Patton On Bank Board

R. C. Patton, one of Snyder's best-known civic leaders and businessmen, has been named to the board of directors of the West Texas State Bank to fill a vacancy on the board.

Patton, who now is serving as a member of the Snyder City Council, has held posts of leadership in many community civic and service organizations. He has been president of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, has served as district commissioner for Boy Scouts and has served as chairman of the service committee of the Salvation Army. He also has served as chairman of the board of deacons for the First Baptist Church.

He is manager of Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co.

Abductor Is Killed

By STEVE MARCUS

SHADE GAP, Pa. (AP) — A mad kidnap killer was shot to death today in a desperate attempt to break through a police cordon with his 17-year-old hostage, Peggy Ann Bradnick.

William Diller Hollenbaugh, 44, fell dying in a farmyard with a slug through his neck after a dash for freedom in the commandeered car of a deputy sheriff he had critically wounded.

The girl fled to the shelter of the farmhouse. She was not hurt.

Jack Conmy, press secretary Gov. William W. Scranton, said the slug was fired from a shotgun by Larry Rubeck, 15, son of the farm owner. Hollenbaugh, who Wednesday killed a pursuing FBI agent, fired two shots at oncoming state troopers before he collapsed, bleeding heavily.

The final gunfight climaxed a massive manhunt in the Tuscarora Mountains 70 miles southwest of Harrisburg.

Hollenbaugh [illegible] inmate of an asylum for the criminally insane — snatched Peggy Ann on her way home from school last Wednesday.

Jaycees Install, Present Awards

Herb Reed took over the reins of the local club, succeeding John Jarrell as president. Jarrell exited on a particularly pleasant note, being chosen as young man of the year, one of the top honors bestowed each year.

Wayland Huddleston received the Key Man award, Jack Lawrence was named Jaycee of the year, and H. W. Cargile, president of the West Texas State Bank, was named boss of the year.

In addition to Reed, the new officers were Dave Harlin Jr., first vice president; Jack Lawrence, second vice president; Bobby Melton, secretary; Jimmy Melton, treasurer; Les Francis, Darrell Rains and Wendell Rehm, two-year directors.

Artificial Heart Used Again

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A retired Navy man was "awake and doing well" today after becoming the second patient within three weeks to have a partial artificial heart implanted in his chest.

Walter L. McCans, 61, Woodinville, Wash., received the device to assist his heart's pumping in an operation performed Tuesday by a cardiovascular team at Methodist Hospital.

A hospital statement said McCans was taken to surgery to have an aortic ball valve inserted in his heart. He was described as in "rather severe left ventricle heart failure" when he entered the operating room.

Afterward the hospital would say only that "The surgical operation was successful."

Its first statement on McCans' condition was issued more than four hours after the operation was completed.

Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, internationally known heart surgeon, performed a similar operation last April 21 on Marcel L. DeRudder, 65, a former Illinois coal miner. DeRudder died April 26 without regaining consciousness.

Doctors said death was caused by a ruptured left lung, one of several complications following surgery.

DeBakey said the artificial heart was working normally when DeRudder died.

The hospital's brief statement did not say DeBakey performed the operation on McCans. He is head of the medical-engineer artificial heart team but other surgeons on the team are capable of performing it.

The hospital gave no information about McCans. The neighbors in Woodinville said he had spent almost half the last two years in hospitals and a heart condition has kept him from working for some time.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Thirteen months ago we took Dickie, my husband's brother's 2-year-old [illegible] mother, had been committed to a mental hospital. Dickie's father never called, wrote, or visited the boy in all that time. He never even offered a dollar toward the boy's keep. He moved in with his parents and seems to have cut himself off from the rest of the family.

His wife was recently released, and she's back living with her people. I am expecting my fifth child, Abby, and I don't think this is fair. I was glad to help out temporarily, but it wasn't my intention to raise this child. It looks like nobody wants him, so we're stuck. My husband thinks we should keep him. I think we were used. What is your advice?

USED

DEAR USED: Nowhere in your letter is there a word of affection or concern for Dickie. Since he IS your husband's nephew, one might assume he'd be better off with "family" than strangers. But if you feel "stuck" and "used," see a lawyer. Perhaps a foster home can be arranged. A child needs more than a roof over his head. He needs "love."

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Recently at a dance my date suggested a couple of times that we go "outside." (This means go sit in his car and neck.) This got me kind of mad because I have no special feeling for him in that way, and I am sure he doesn't really like me in that way, either.

I got the idea that he thought this was the only way he could get his money's worth out of the date. What could I have added to my NO to explain my feelings about the subject?

NO OUTSIDER

DEAR NO: It wasn't necessary to add anything to your NO. If a girl refuses to neck with a boy, she doesn't have to justify her decision with a speech.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law used to teach in a little country school in Iowa about a hundred years ago. Every time we get a letter from her, she incloses my husband's latest letter, all marked up with "corrections" on his spelling, grammar, and word usage. He just laughs and throws it in the waste basket. Now, Abby, my husband is a college graduate, and he knows as much about writing as his mother does. I say it's time he told her to go jump in the lake. Am I wrong?

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If your husband knows as much about writing as his mother, he should tell her to go jump INTO the lake. If one jumps "in" the lake, it indicates that he was already in the water before he jumped. But right or wrong, I would advise extreme caution about assigning this firm-minded old lady to the lake.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the witness who saw a mother hold the hand of her 3-year-old child over the gas flame because she wanted to teach the child a lesson about playing with matches.

I could not have allowed such a thing to happen in my presence. I would have taken the child from her if I had to knock her unconscious to do it. I pray for such unfortunate children every night.

Old-Timer Graduate Of West Point

By PAUL ALBRIGHT

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — "The only thing I am being honored for, I had nothing to do with," said the oldest living graduate of the U.S. Military Academy today as he marked his 100th birthday.

For Brig. Gen. William Jefferson Glasgow it will be a relatively quiet day spent inside his historic 91-year-old adobe home near downtown El Paso looking at birthday greetings, including one from President Johnson.

"My main occupation is sleeping," the general said with a laugh. "I nap in the morning and nap in the afternoon and sleep all night."

Although not bedridden, Glasgow is physically weak. "I haven't been out to the front gate in oh, two or three years, I guess," he said.

Glasgow graduated from West Point in 1891, 30th in his class of 65. Two other class members survive, Col. Lewis S. Sorley and Gen. John L. Hines, both of Washington, D.C. They are a few months younger than Glasgow.

Born in St. Louis, Mo., he first came to the Southwest as a second lieutenant of cavalry soon after his graduation from West Point.

He was promoted to brigadier general in 1927, the year he retired from service. Glasgow and his wife Josephine, now 92, then moved to El Paso.

He credited his long life partially to a strain of French blood in his family's heritage. "I had an uncle who lived to be 104, and another uncle was 102," he said.

Scouts Visit Webb AFB

Boy Scout Troop No. 35, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Snyder, spent a day recently at Webb Air Force Base at Big Spring.

Members of the troop had an opportunity to view the graduation ceremonies for Pilot Class 66H, along with a parade. They also saw a flying demonstration by the famous Thunderbirds, along with a flying demonstration of model airplanes flown by remote control. There was a display of various types of planes and missiles, and Scouts were permitted to sit in the cockpit of a jet plane.

Scouts making the trip were Jim White, Hollis Campbell, Bill Baldwin Jr., Carlos McBeth, David Fisher, Mike Mize, William Patterson, Billy Campbell, David Tullis, Joe Mark Adams, Tom Ed Wilson, Danny Chastain, Tommy Early, Davie Parkhill and Mark Blythe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chastain were the sponsoring parents for the trip, and guests were Sarah Baldwin and Mickey Gallman.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leon Elam, 102 Elm, are the parents of an 8 lb. 4 oz. baby boy, born at 11:28 a.m. May 17th.

Diocese Adopts One-Vote Example

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Episcopal Diocese of Maryland has decided to follow the example of some of the 50 states.

Delegates to its annual convention voted Tuesday to reapportion themselves more closely to a "one-man, one-vote" principle.

Under the new constitutional amendment, the number of delegates each church may select will be based on its communicants rather than the number of clergy based at the church. One delegate will be allowed for each 400 communicants or fraction thereof.

AMARILLO AIR BASE

Five Killed As Jet Cartwheels

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A jet tanker dug a wing into a runway while landing at Amarillo Air Force Base and cartwheeled in flames Tuesday night, killing the four crewmen and a passenger.

The Strategic Air Command craft, a KC135 assigned to the 909th Refueling Squadron here, was returning from a four-hour local mission. Its tanks still contained 2,700 gallons of fuel, officials said.

The listed the crew members as Capt. Thomas W. Burt, 34, the pilot, from Fort Worth, Tex.; Capt. Max J. Katz, 30, co-pilot, from Little Neck, N.Y.; Maj. Richard H. Doughty, 35, navigator, from New York City, and T. Sgt. Harry L. Alexander, 29, boom operator, from Amarillo. Families of all four live here.

Authorities withheld the name of the passenger aboard the plane pending notification of relatives. They said he was an Air Force man.

It was the first fatal crash at the Amarillo base, which has operated continuously since 1951 and now is being phased out.

The 909th Squadron was scheduled to start moving today to March Air Force Base near Riverside, Calif.

Chief M. Sgt. Philip A. Horn was checking runway lights and heard the tanker hit as it approached from the south.

He reported the big craft fliped, broke open and exploded as flames enveloped the wreckage.

"There was no chance to save the crew," Horn said.

Several other witnesses told of seeing the plane veer after its right wing dipped to the runway. The cockpit was torn off as the fuselage split in half.

All four engines broke free and debris was strewn for 200 yards.

Court Refuses To Void Ruby's Trial

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals unanimously ruled today Jack Ruby's trial judge did not disqualify himself to sit as judge in the case when he decided to write a book about the trial. The case now goes back to Dallas for a sanity hearing.

The case was on appeal to the high court from a denial of a writ of habeas corpus by Dist. Judge Louis Holland of Montague, Tex., who replaced Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown after Brown voluntarily stepped down June 21, 1965.

Ruby's lawyer, Phil Burleson of Dallas, argued that Brown had a financial interest in the case because he was writing a book entitled "Dallas, Ruby and the Law."

Brown performed several judicial acts in the case after he decided to write the book and while the case was on appeal, Burleson said. Burleson said this voided Ruby's death penalty conviction for the pistol slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, identified by the Warren Commission as President Kennedy's assassin.

Dallas Asst. Dist. Atty. James Williamson, arguing for the state, said the only people who could be affected by the book were the members of the appellate court. "I don't believe this honorable court will consider anything not in the record of this case," Williamson said.

BROTHERS

citation with two Oak Leaf clusters.

A Special Forces unit of the Army, the Green Beret soldiers are specially trained for guerrilla and counter - insurgency warfare. They frequently work with civilian populations in the area where they are assigned.

Charles was enlisted into the Army by Sgt. Joe A. Welch, Snyder army recruiter, on May 25, 1964. He is a former employe of the Snyder Daily News and he played football in junior high school here. Charles attended college in Ranger, Corsicana and Big Spring prior to his entry into the service. He is married to the former Sheryl Corley of Hermleigh.

Both of the young Snyder soldiers have seen action in Viet Nam. Charles also has won his combat infantryman's badge, although he has been overseas only about a month.

Mrs. Deere is proud of her sons and what they are doing for their country. However, like any other mother, she naturally would like for them to be able to come home.

Sgt. Welch said another son of the Deeres would probably be in Viet Nam now if the Army would take him. He tried unsuccessfully to enlist here with Sgt. Welch one time.

"Leon's got too many dependents," explained the veteran recruiter. Leon is 24, married and the father of two children. He lives in Arlington as does a sister, Mrs. R. D. Sanderford.

Both of the Snyder soldiers frequently write newsy letters back home to their parents. They tell of the wartime conditions in that faraway land and remain cheerful through it all.

Although Donald is the only man from Scurry County serving with the Green Berets, his brother Charles probably would be with the special forces group if he could pass the physical. An injury which prevented Charles from competing in football in high school also kept him out of paratrooper training.

Foreign Policy Criticism Nothing New For Fullbright

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has had something critical to say about American foreign policy ever since he first spoke in the Senate with his maiden speech there in 1945.

And his attempt Tuesday to explain his criticism of President Johnson's foreign policy is not the first time he tried to explain what he said after being criticized for saying it.

In that speech 21 years ago, just a few months after election to the Senate, he complained that for more than two decades American foreign policy had been "improvised from day to day."

As chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee now his words get more attention but through the years he managed to get attention and never more so than with his suggestion about President Harry S. Truman in 1946.

As soon as the Republicans gained control of Congress in the elections that year, Fulbright suggested that Truman, who had no vice president, should appoint a Republican to succeed him and then resign.

Truman ignored him publicly, but not off the record, and Fulbright got such a bad reaction that within four days he issued a five-page explanation, saying he had been misunderstood and misinterpreted.

But the explanation was only a repetition of the original statement. He was critical of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's foreign policy, much less critical of President John F. Kennedy's, and then really went to town on Johnson.

Last September he attacked Johnson's use of troops during the revolt in the Dominican Republic last April.

Johnson said nothing and relations between the two men became pretty frigid. But in recent months he has piled criticism upon criticism of Johnson's policy in Viet Nam. Two things in particular got attention:

He wondered whether the United States could "ever overcome that arrogance of power" which in some cases had destroyed other nations; and he called the Vietnamese capital of Saigon an "American brothel."

Johnson still hasn't gone after Fulbright directly but last week in a speech at Princeton he jabbed at the senator indirectly, saying in this century American use of power has meant not "arrogance but agony for all Americans."

The President took another dig the next night at a Democratic dinner with Fulbright sitting nearby. Johnson said he was delighted to be there with so many old friends and "some members of the Foreign Relations Committee." When Johnson finished, Fulbright applauded lightly and left.

Then once again Tuesday at the National Press Club Fulbright undertook to explain some of the things he had said — like arrogance and brothel — "Because they lent themselves to interpretations I did not intend."

He suggested the press had not accurately conveyed his ideas.

But as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee Fulbright has an enormous responsibility when discussing foreign affairs to take the trouble to express himself so clearly that there is little chance for misunderstanding.

Such is not the case. Historians of the future, if they examine some of Fulbright's recent speeches, will find in them some highsounding phrases in a vast prairie of vagueness.

Junior Editors Quiz on AUSTRALIA

QUESTION: Why is Australia called the land of living fossils?

• • •

ANSWER: Experts tell us there are certain "dead-end" places in our world where very ancient animals once moved to and where they have remained in much the same stage of development as when they first came. Australia is such a spot. It is thought that this continent was once connected by a bridge of land with Asia, in some such way as we show at (A). As the first animals began to spread over the earth, many moved across this bridge into Australia. Among these were such strange primitive creatures as the duck-billed platypus and some of the animals called marsupials, such as the kangaroo, who carry their young in pouches after being born. After the first animals had moved in, the land bridge disappeared because of movements of the earth's crust. Australia became a large island (B). The first animals were mostly inoffensive creatures. Fortunately for them, the large, savage, meat-eating animals, which developed later, could not get across the sea to Australia. So the animals settled down and, since they found conditions which suited them, remained almost unchanged to the present, suggesting the phrase "living fossils."

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Our American Opposum is a marsupial, another of the "living fossils." It climbs trees and is an expert at hiding and so has managed to survive. But how did it get here? The scientists don't seem sure. See what you can find out about it. 5-18

How Normal Mentally Are You?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Many people today wonder whether civilization is nutty—or whether they are.

The suspicion is natural and healthy.

Just where do you really stand? How mentally and emotionally normal are you?

For folks who can afford a psychiatrist's couch we've compiled a kind of poor man's sanity test.

Ask yourself these questions. But, remember, be absolutely honest.

Do you enjoy gossip, as long as it is about somebody else?

In reading about how someone held up a bank by pointing at the teller with his fist in a brown paper bag, do you sigh and wish you had the courage to try it, too?

Now and then are you struck with the idea that someone or something is following you?

Do you keep your eyes wide open when you kiss your wife goodby in the morning?

Are you convinced that your shoelaces never break except when you are in a desperate hurry?

Does it ruin your day if some other motorist beats you to a parking place?

If a younger man is promoted over you at the office, do you suspect it is because he has pull, or toadied to the boss?

Do you feel the tax assessor unduly favors your neighbors, and your own home taxes are unfairly high?

If the office boy whistles cheerfully while sorting the mail do you scowl at him?

At least once a day does something happen to you that makes you want to hire a lawyer and file suit?

Are you morally sure that all politicians are liars, and all television repairmen and garage mechanics are playing you for a sucker?

Your kids don't appreciate you, do they? They don't know how easy they've got it, do they?

Do you feel nobody can really sympathize with your woes, because nobody knows the trouble you've seen?

Do you feel the world is going to hell in a handwagon, just as fast as it can?

Well, that is your sanity test. Now about your score. If your answer to every question was a thumping "Yes!"—well, cheer up. You are just as sane and normal as everyone else in your block.

Which leaves only one problem.

Just how nutty do you think they are?

Refrigerated Cash Is Suddenly Hot

DETROIT (AP)—Some $2,000 in refrigerated cash got "hot" Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilma Causey, 20, told Detroit police a woman and a man armed with a revolver entered her home, forced her to lie on the floor and grabbed the money from the refrigerator.

She said her father, Walter Wingate, 50, had been saving the money in the bottom of the refrigerator.

TIPRO Names Study Commlttee

By MAX B. SKELTON

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) —Texas independent oil operators have appointed a special committee to study possible incentives to bolster the nation's lagging search for new oil and gas reserves.

The 11-member group will be headed by Walter R. Koch, new president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, and will include four former presidents of the 4,000 member trade group.

Koch appointed the special committee at Tuesday's final session of the association's 20th anniversary meeting. The Austin attorney said a report will be submitted as quickly as possible to the association executive committee, which will place recommendations before Interior Secretary Stewart Udall.

The independents were told on Sunday that Interior officials have indicated they favor granting oil imports quotas for successful wildcat tests.

The association's import policy committee, however, has discussed a proposal that would award such quotas to all exploratory wells whether they are dry holes or gushers.

Independent operators contend the high level of oil imports has depressed crude oil prices to such an extent that domestic drilling efforts have slumped more than 30 per cent since the Interior Department began an import control program eight years ago.

The Texans also commended the Federal Power Commission for its plans to conduct a comprehensive survey of natural gas supply and demand problems. Included would be incentives to seek new gas reserves.

The commendation was strengthened, however, at the suggestion of Commissioner Carl E. Bagge of the FPC. Bagge said the survey will require congressional approval and the commission will need support from all segments of the gas industry.

The resolution then was revised to pledge every possible cooperation "to expedite this overdue and direly needed natural gas survey."

Former presidents appointed to the special incentives study group were R. L. Foree, Dallas; Malcolm D. Able, Midland; John G. Hurd, Laredo, and Johnny Mitchell, Houston.

Working with them will be F. Wilson Germany, the 1965-66 import policy committee chairman from Dallas; William V. Byrd, Corpus Christi; N. A. Steed, Wichita Falls; J. D. Tompkins, West Central Texas Oil and Gas Association president from Abilene; L. A. Douglas, San Antonio, and Neville G. Penrose, Fort Worth.

Noted Botanist Dies

Barry Urges Conservatism

CHICAGO (AP)—Former Senator Barry Goldwater sounded a new call for conservatism Tuesday night and charged that the Johnson administration is engaged "in a relentless drive for more and more executive power."

The 1964 Republican presidential candidate urged conservatives to reaffirm traditional falues and work against socialism.

In what he called "one of the most important speeches of my life," Goldwater addressed the Free Society Association, a conservative political education group that he founded last June. He is honorary chairman of the organization.

In attacking the Johnson administration, Goldwater warned that it threatens "to engulf American freedom . . . for all the folksy benevolence emanating from Washington, the objective is control for purposes of political power."

About 1,000 persons attending a $10-a-plate dinner gave the onetime Arizona legislator three standing ovations and resounding applause.

Why Do We Sigh? Because We Must!

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Why do we sigh? Are we merely weary or depressed?

Neither. We sigh because we have to, says Dr. W. J. Murray, a University of North Carolina anesthesiologist.

Sighing is a physiological function which — like yawning — ventilates the lungs, he told a medical symposium of the Instrument Society of America at Disneyland Tuesday.

Even when we feel on top of the world we sigh at least twice in an hour, Murray said.

Slowdown In Stock Market May Be Over-Emphasized

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —The slowdown in the economy could be overestimated because it is making its first appearance in the three places to which the public pays most attention: the stock market, the auto industry and home building.

Much of the rest of the economy is still whirling along at about the same speed and some sectors are likely to increase their pace.

But a chill has replaced the speculative fever in the stock market. And when stock prices drop, many Americans—even those who don't own a single share—begin to shiver.

The auto industry has cut back from full-speed production after sales slipped slightly from a pace that outsiders had considered hard to maintain. And the general public holds widely to the opinion that as the auto industry goes so goes the nation.

Home building stopped expanding some time back. But many had hoped that this spring would see a revival. This hasn't come so far. And home builders tend to blame tight money and higher interest rates. When cities and towns stop growing at a breakneck speed, the local citizens worry.

But much of the rest of the economy is still zooming along. Steel output has climbed to the highest rate of the year. Last week the mills turned out 2,776,000 tons. This isn't far from the record week's production of 2,806,000 tons set in the week ending April 24, 1965. And the mills are talking about a good chance that total tonnage this month will be the highest for any May.

Defense spending has picked up speed. And as the factories get the government orders, busy weeks and months lie ahead.

The aircraft industry is enjoying not only defense orders but large ones from commercial airlines, both here and abroad.

Consumer spending in general continues at a high rate, with only car buying as the main, and most publicized, exception. But even if auto sales slip from last year's nine-million unit pace, the total will still be higher than in most other years.

Industrial output in general was still rising in April. The gain for the month wasn't as much as in March and February. And cutbacks in the auto factories may clip the May figures. But production of consumer goods—both durables and soft goods—is well ahead of last year's rate. And few business leaders look for any real decline for some months to come.

Factories and stores both report that inventories are holding at about the same ratio to sales as in the earlier months of the year. Until stocks begin to pile up, if they do, economists won't start worrying about industry living off its inventories and cutting its new orders.

Tors Edge Snyder On Willie's Homer

Willie Tijerina met one of Bobby Clardy's offerings flush on the nose in the 6th inning. The ball sailed over the left field fence despite a partisan, full-house Snyder crowd, and Lamesa emerged with a 2-1 decision in the first tilt of a best 2-of-3 schoolboy baseball play-off.

The second tussle will be held in Lobo Park at Lamesa at 4 p.m. Thursday. If a third game is necessary, then a coin flip will decide the time and site.

It just wasn't in the cards for Snyder to win. The Tigers, like many a poker player, found out Tuesday that sometimes you lose even when you play your best.

Coach Speedy Moffett's boys had a wonderful opportunity to cash in during the last half of the 7th inning. Roy Kizer got things to rolling with a towering fly ball which dropped safely in between the shortstop and outfielders. Ray Kizer bunted smoothly down the first base line and beat it out to up the ante. Then David Cadena sacrificed the runners to second and third. At first, the umpire called David safe, then changed his mind and called him out.

It left an ideal situation for the squeeze play. However, Dink Foree bunted the ball right back to the pitcher and he easily forced Ray Kizer at home plate. Steve Moffett, a pinch hitter, grounded out for the final out.

Snyder put men on base in every inning, including runners in scoring position in each of the first three frames. An inability to come through with the timely or crucial hit was the difference in the game.

Everything else was even. Each team collected five hits, and each team made only one error. Willie Tijerina walked for Lamesa in the 1st, advanced to second on a wild pitch, then came in with the first tally on a single by Beaty.

Snyder tallied in the 5th. Ray Kizer singled and moved down the base path when Cadena walked. Both runners advanced as David Holt grounded out, third to first. Then Kizer raced home on a passed ball.

That was all of the scoring except for Wee Willie's wallop in the 6th as lead off man.

Terry Davis, who doesn't seem to have much on the ball, apparently had enough to keep the Tigers in check. He was in trouble all afternoon, but he got the third out on strikeouts twice with runners on. Bobby Clardy was effective for Snyder except for a touch of wildness in the opening inning.

Roy Kizer again threw out the speedy Amador Tijerina attempting to steal. He turned in an outstanding job handling the backstop chores.

Former Fight King Is Dead

By GRANVILLE WATTS

LONDON (AP) — The sad riches-to-rags story of Randolph Turpin, former world middleweight champion, ended with a gunshot blast in a dingy backstreet cafe Tuesday.

Although police maintained a traditional silence on who did the shooting, friends said the 38-year-old Turpin had been depressed lately.

In the same incident Turpin's 17-month-old daughter, Carmen, was seriously injured with two gunshot wounds and rushed to a hospital.

Turpin was found dead with a gun near the body in his wife's transport cafe in Leamington Spa, about 150 miles north of London.

The spot was not far away from the town's main street, where the whole community turned out to give Turpin a hero's reception in July 1951.

Turpin kept on boxing but never reached the top again.

During his fight career he is believed to have made $560,000. But by 1961 Turpin was bankrupt.

The saddest sight of all in recent years was to see an overweight Turpin performing as a wrestler at $56 a match.

Turpin told friends recently he was worried about a $560 income tax demand which he couldn't pay.

There were also fears that the local Government Council, as part of a development scheme, was going to demolish his wife's cafe—Turpin's main source of livelihood.

Many Call, Few Chosen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Football League listened to the tale of the seven cities today as it continued its search for a 16th franchise to operate in 1967.

Civil leaders were on hand to make their pleas for New Orleans, La.; Seattle, Wash.; Houston; Cincinnati; Boston; Phoenix, Ariz.; and Portland, Ore. Governors, senators, congressmen, mayors and chamber of commerce personnel were loaded with the latest propaganda about their area's charms.

After the presentations, Commissioner Pete Rozelle and the NFL owners were expected to tell all concerned, "Don't call us, we'll call you."

A decision on the expansion city will not be made until later in the year. Rozelle refused to be pinned down on any date. But it was obvious that a new club should be ready to operate at least by the college draft next December.

2nd Place Race Tight

By The Associated Press

The race for second place in the Texas League tightened Tuesday night as El Paso captured a marathon slugfest from Arkansas 19-11 and the Albuquerque Dodgers lost a cliff hanger to the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs 5-4.

The Sun Kings picked up a game on Albuquerque and the Travelers, making the race for second place closer.

The Amarillo Sonics maintained their lead by whipping cellar dwelling Austin 9-2.

El Paso collected 19 hits and Little Rock 15 in a three-hour game which saw 15 of the 21 players bag at least one safety.

Judge Suspends Return Order

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Baseball's Braves have won court permission to keep on playing in Atlanta while the Wisconsin Supreme Court studies an appeal of the National League's anti-trust conviction.

A court order for the Braves to return to Milwaukee today was suspended Tuesday by Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller after the state's Supreme Court agreed to hear the appeal June 9.

Baseball attorneys indicated their appeal would attack again the issue of whether a state court had jurisdiction over a sport extending from coast to coast.

"Baseball is an interstate business and at this time all of baseball is outside the jurisdiction of this court," Braves' attorney Earl Jinkinson told Roller in an unsuccessful move for a new trial.

Roller found the Braves, the National League and its other nine members guilty last month of violating Wisconsin's anti-trust law by moving the club to Atlanta and leaving Milwaukee without a major league team.

The U.S. District Court at Milwaukee refused last fall to intervene in the state case and Roller ruled before the start of the six-week trial that his court did have jurisdiction.

Jinkinson criticized sharply that "kooky, nutty idea...that baseball when played in Milwaukee does not violate the anti-trust laws but when played outside Wisconsin it does."

The motion for a new trial was a necessary prelude to carrying the case to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. After the session Tuesday Braves' Attorney Ray T. McCann filed formal notice of appeal with Roller's court clerk.

The actual appeal will be lodged with the Supreme Court in the state capital of Madison as soon as possible, probably within a few days, McCann said.

Dodgers Take Giants In 13th Frame, 2-1

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers are halfway to beating Juan Marichal.

The Dodgers, who haven't beaten the San Francisco ace in more than a year, edged the Giants 2-1 in 13 innings Tuesday night after holding Marichal to a tie in 10 innings.

The tie was an improvement over the outcome two weeks ago when he stopped them 8-1 on four hits. The next logical step, then, would be for the Dodgers to progress the rest of the way and defeat Marichal.

The last time they accomplished that feat was April 29, 1965, when they squeaked by him 2-1. He holds a four-game winning streak against them and is 18-8 lifetime.

Los Angeles nearly missed gaining the tie, and Marichal nearly had his eighth victory of the season without a loss.

But the Dodgers, who managed just five hits in the first eight innings, finally scored in the ninth, tying the game 1-1. Maury Wills beat out a bunt, raced to third as Jim Gilliam singled and came home on Willie Davis' fly to Willie Mays in center field.

It took more than eight innings for the Dodgers to toss a firecracker themselves.

In other National League games, Cincinnati blanked New York 4-0, Pittsburgh defeated Atlanta 5-2 and Philadelphia trimmed St. Louis 5-3. Rain washed out Houston at Chicago.

In the American League, Cleveland edged Washington 3-2, Baltimore beat Boston 8-6, Detroit whipped New York 7-2 and Minnesota downed Chicago 8-3. Rain also halted California at Kansas City.

The Dodgers finally won in the 13th inning when Wes Parker led off with a single against Frank Linzy, dashed to third on Wills' single and continued home as right fielder Ollie Brown fired the ball into the Los Angeles dugout.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney won his third game without a defeat, stopping New York on two hits and retiring the last 22 men he faced. Don Pavletich drove in two Red runs with a double and a homer while Vada Pinson knocked in a pair with a single and a grounder.

Donn Clendenon's two-run single climaxed a three-run rally in the sixth inning that carried Pittsburgh past Atlanta.
