All Set For School Election Saturday

Everything is all set for the school trustee election which will be held for the entire county here Saturday.

Ballots were printed last week and are now in the hands of the election judge, Walter Ramsay.

Balloting will take place at the high school building and the hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The one voting box serves for the whole county.

There are three propositions on the ballot.

First is the vote for two trustees. There are three candidates in this race, and the voter will scratch one, leaving the other two to indicate his choice. They are:

Eldon T. Calk
Fred H. Case
W. C. Lester

The second proposition is the vote for three county trustees, in which Elton McGinnes, Howard Derrick and Dee Love are uncontested.

The third proposition is for converting the Schleicher County Rural High School District into an Independent school district.

This change in name has been requested by the school authorities and the reasons for it explained in this and the last several issues of this paper. The voters will undoubtedly grant this request in Saturday's balloting.

Final Statement On Name Change

Summary of final questions concerning the proposed change to be decided by Schleicher county voters in Saturday's election seems to boil down to whether or not some motive or purpose is hidden in what appears to be only an improvement in the administration of the Schleicher county schools.

Board President Joe M. Christian said as among his last official statements as Board president that nothing other than what had been said already lay in School Board members' minds concerning the Board's request. He continued that since County Judge Dick Bearce had given full approval and sanction to the proposed improvement along with the complete school board, patrons could rest assured that only good results in improved efficiency and time saving could come from the change from rural high school district to independent school district status should patrons authorize the change.

Other spokesmen said that since the district was a county unit, the retention of "Schleicher County" in the name would preserve the identity and meaning for citizens to identify their county schools just as in the past.

In conclusion, trustees, school administrators, and school attorneys unite in this final publication in a sincere and respectful request to Schleicher County voters to approve the change for the betterment of their schools.

Two Indicted As Grand Jury Meets

At Grand Jury meeting in 51st District Court Monday, one man was indicted and pleaded guilty later without a jury, and another man was indicted on two counts of burglary.

Virgil L. Newman of Lubbock was indicted on a charge of driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense, waived jury and pleaded guilty before Judge Joe L. Mays of San Angelo. He was assessed a fine of $150 and court costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Marion A. McKinney, 30, of Sutton county, was indicted on two counts of burglary. He was charged with having stolen two outboard motors each from two places near Fort McKavett Dec. 6.

The grand jury no billed A. D. Carter on a charge of defrauding by worthless check and Eddie Franco, 19, of Rocksprings on a charge of worthless checking.

Summoned for Grand Jury duty Monday were:

Former Residents Lose 16-Year-Old Son

George Breedlove, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Breedlove, died in a Dallas hospital following a lengthy illness. He was a victim of leukemia.

Besides his parents, the young man is survived by two brothers and two sisters.

The Breedlove family were residents of Eldorado during 1944 and '45, when they published the Eldorado Success.

News of the Sick

Mrs. Joab Campbell was admitted to the Sonora hospital Monday for treatment.

Ward Parks was admitted to Shannon hospital last Friday for tests because of a heart condition, and is doing nicely.

J. D. Ashmore, who underwent surgery for the second time on March 26 in a Seymour hospital, is still critically ill. All of his children and his wife have been at his bedside.

Fred Smith was admitted to St. John's hospital last Saturday. Last reports are that he is better.

Rain Welcomed

Rain that measured about 1.60 inches fell in Eldorado yesterday (Wed) afternoon and it went a long way toward removing the feeling of gloom that has been prevalent for the past three drouthy months.

This office was able to get but few on the rural lines last night to check, but apparently the rain was general.

W. V. Lux reported 1.20 inch, and Virginia Bruton, 1.50, which was probably average for that community.

Everyone agrees that there is a good bottom season in the ground, and that this rain was all that was needed to start things growing again.

STATE STUDENT COUNCIL CONVENTION HELD

The State Student Council Convention was held at the Thomas Jefferson High School in San Antonio last Thursday, Friday, and until Saturday noon.

Those from Eldorado High who attended were next year's Student Council officers: George Draper, John McGregor, Betty Humphrise, and Jan Davis, accompanied by Mr. Kemble.

DISTRICT TRACK MEET COMING UP AT OZONA

The District 8-A Track Meet will be held in Ozona next Saturday with the Preliminaries at 10:00 a.m., and the Finals at 2:00 p.m.

Both Junior and Senior high schools will be represented at the meet. There are 34 boys from Eldorado to be entered, with 17 from Jr. High and 17 from Sr. High.

Post Script

On Easter Sunday afternoon, an open house will honor Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Alexander on their 60th wedding anniversary. Hosts will be their sons and their families, and the open house will be held at the Alexander home west of Eldorado. And Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Thigpen are to be honored soon on their Golden Wedding.

Further details will be announced in the Success later.

County Democratic Chairman Edwin Jackson has now assembled all the material for the primary election ballots and they are now in the hands of the Success printers.

Absentee voting is scheduled to start on April 15 and ballots will be delivered to the county clerk's office before that time.

The ballot will be somewhat longer than before as it includes three propositions at the bottom asking the Legislature to submit constitutional amendments to the voters on horse racing and abolishing the poll tax.

Two of the county's irrigation farmers are going to try something new this year, and if they make a success of it, it may usher in a new trend—they are going to experiment with vegetables!

Jene Moore is planning to set out about 17 acres of yellow Bermuda onions, and Leonard Lloyd is planting 10 acres.

There were a number of reports last fall that the cotton crop on irrigated acres failed to come up to expectations. In a number of cases the crops were a disappointment, to say the least.

Since we've got the soil and we've got the water, the question naturally presents itself—"Is there any other crop we can grow successfully?"

Every crop has its problems. With onions it is the problem of getting enough labor to set out the plants. Moore is already confronted with that and we understand that he has been busy scouting around for hands.

Then once you raise such a crop—onions, carrots, or whatever—there will be the problem of marketing it. Clide Keeney ran into that trouble several years ago. He put in two acres of onions and made a crop, and then ran into marketing trouble.

This new experiment will be watched with interest by all other farmers in the area, and it is hoped that it proves to be a money maker.

33 Votes Cast In City Election

As was to be expected, very little interest was shown in the city election for aldermen, which was held Tuesday, since three candidates were running without opposition.

The folks who held the election naturally cast their own ballots as well as the ones working in the city office, and about 20 others dutifully remembered to go vote.

There were 33 votes cast in all, and Davidson, Peters, and Hall each received 33.

Not a single write-in.

'Tartuffe' Will Be Presented Tuesday

Eldorado's district winning one-act play, "Tartuffe," by the classical French playwright, Moliere, will be presented in the high school auditorium Tuesday night, April 10, at 7:30.

Local students won four out of the six possible acting awards at the district tournament in Sonora recently, as well as first place for the play itself. Sonora won second place. Eldorado's play will go to Regional Meet at Lubbock on April 14th.

Actors in "Tartuffe" who won awards at Sonora were Pam Calk, Betsy Bruton, Leonard Kent, and John McGregor.

Other members of the cast are Martha Topliffe, Judy Hext, Monty Montgomery, Lynn Meador, George Draper, and Ray Lewis Ballew.

The play is under direction of Bill Bowen.

Mrs. Ben Hext was taken to the John Sealy hospital in Galveston March 26 for a check-up. She is expected home the last of this week.

Tiny Godwin, Schleicher County agricultural agent, and Ed "Two Bits" Meador, acting president of the Eldorado Chamber of Commerce, released the completed program for Schleicher County's first "Sheep and Goat, Wool and Mohair Day" set for April 12 in Eldorado.

Mr. Godwin said in describing the speakers and subjects selected for the day that the subjects were as directly related to the production of wool and mohair as could be designed at this time, and that the speakers were authorities in their fields.

Mr. Meador continued that Schleicher county citizens and producers not only from this county but from surrounding areas whose citizens were interested in wool and mohair, lamb and kid production were cordially invited to attend the first of what he hoped would grow into an annual event.

Following is the schedule for the day's events along with accounts of the various speakers slated to appear.

A coffee break from 10:00 until 10:30 will be prepared by Eldorado firm, Parker's Food Store.

The noon barbecue will be free and will be prepared by Orland Harris and provided by Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce.

Methodists Schedule Homecoming For June 3

Plans are under way for an all-day Homecoming to be held at the Methodist church on Sunday, June 3rd. The bishop and the district superintendent will be on hand and all former members and pastors will be invited back to see how much has been done to the church property in recent years.

The educational building west of the main church building, which was erected back in 1955, was paid off recently and it will be dedicated as highlight of the day's program.

The stained glass windows were installed in the sanctuary early this year, and air conditioning is now being installed.

Some improvements were recently made in the church parsonage, which was built in 1945 just as World War II was ending. Carpeting was put in the living and dining rooms a while back, and downstairs walls have been re-finished and painted. New furniture is being bought.

All these facilities will be open for inspection by visitors at the Homecoming June 3rd.

Right now, the central committee is compiling a list of names and addresses of former members and pastors so that they can be invited.

E. L. Kent of Monahans flew in Friday night and visited with his mother, Mrs. A. E. Kent, on his way to San Antonio.

Oil News

The rotary rig was moved last week from the TXL-Pfluger test west of town after tests below 6200 feet failed to produce. A work-over rig was set up and tests have been made on a shallow zone around 850 feet. On Tuesday it was reported on the street that the well swabbed about 14 barrels of oil in 12 hours from that depth.

Further tests will depend on orders from headquarters.

In the meantime interest has been reawakened in shallow production in the area.

Re-Entry

Jesse W. Wright Jr., Midland, will re-enter and clean out to 3,900 feet at a Schleicher County Ellenburger failure, three miles southeast of Eldorado, for completion attempt as a second producer and a 1 5/8-miles, north-northwest extension to the Flying Anchor (Wolf camp gas) field. It is the No. 1-A T. A. Thomson Estate.

Originally drilled by H. S. Moss, et al, Dallas, as the No. 1 Thad A. Thomson, it was abandoned March 6, 1959, at 6,719 feet.

Location is 1,780 feet from the north and 660 feet from the west lines of 22-A-HE&WT.

The Wolfcamp discovery, Wright No. 1 Thomson Estate, also a re-entry operation, was finished March 10 for a calculated, absolute open flow of 27.5 million cubic feet of dry gas per day through perforations between 3,540-577 feet. Originally drilled by J. S. Woodward, it was abandoned April 1, 1957, at 7,203 feet.

CARBON PAPER at the Success

Conservation And The Population Explosion

By LINDA SAUER

(Essay written in conjunction with Fort Worth Press state-wide "Save the Soil and Save Texas" program. This essay placed 2nd in the local contest sponsored by the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District and was mailed to the Fort Worth Press to compete in state-wide contest.)

The booming world population makes it vital that we conserve our natural resources for future generations. According to statistics, our population will increase seventy per cent between 1930 and 1980. If we don't conserve our resources today, we may find ourselves lacking in the major necessities of life tomorrow.

President Theodore Roosevelt once made the observation, "When the soil is gone, man must go." And the process does not take long. More than fifty million acres of farm land has been destroyed by erosion in the United States alone since Colonial days. Another fifty million acres have been partially destroyed, while one hundred million acres are being threatened now.

In 1950, we in the United States were consuming ten per cent more than we were producing. If our population continues to increase at the present rate, we will have a population of about 335 million people by the year 2000, as compared to 180 million in 1960. In order to conserve humanity, and to provide for these millions of people, we must first conserve those things vital to life. I believe that conservation of the soil is the most fitting place to begin, as the human race depends on the soil for its food.

Personally and professionally, Walter Koch is a man of uncompromising integrity, as all who know him will bear witness. He possesses that quality of fairness which would compel him to make decisions impartially."

Doyle Promoted In Army Reserve Unit

James C. Doyle, long-time Eldorado citizen, received orders the night of April 3, 1962, at the United States Army Reserve Drill period in Sonora promoting him from Specialist fourth grade to Sergeant. The promotion raises Sergeant Doyle a full pay grade and was effective March 23. One other Troop "B" Reservist, Bobby A. Taylor, Junction citizen, also was promoted from Specialist fourth grade to Sergeant.

Sergeant James C. Doyle, who for a number of years has been an inspector for the State Highway Department, along with his wife and two children moved to Ozona Saturday where he received another promotion, this being an occupational one from Highway inspector to Highway Engineer's Assistant.

Lt. Arlan L. Fenner, officer in charge of the 1st and 2nd platoons of United States Army Reservists at Sonora, conducted a show-down inspection of organizational equipment at the first drill period in April the night of the third.

Lt. Fenner said that this was but the first of a number of similar inspections in preparation for annual active duty training at Fort Polk, La., early in June.

SCOUTS TAKE HIKE MONDAY

We had 11 Boy Scouts present for the five-mile hike Monday evening. All Tenderfoot Scouts are now ready for advancement to Second Class rank. Most of the boys of Second Class rank are ready for advancement to First Class. One of the requirements for advancement of Scout ranks is "Scout participation." This means attending meetings. No Scout can advance past Tenderfoot without attending meetings regularly.

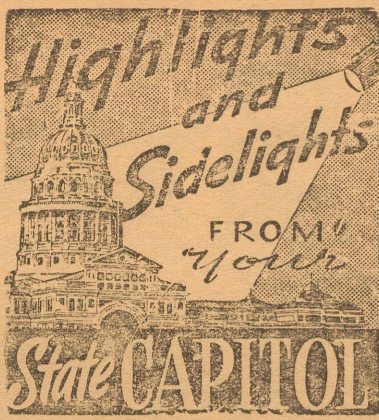

We have been asked to request the presence of the Troop Committee next Monday night so we can have a committee meeting after our Scout meeting. Subject of the meeting will be to discuss Summer Camp plans.

Scout meeting will start at 7:00 p.m. Troop committee meeting will be from 8:00 'til conclusion of business.

See you at Scouts. Your Scoutmaster Jack Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lloyd visited their son, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lloyd at Batesville, last week end.

Austin.—At a joint meeting of the Governor's Highway Safety conference and the Texas Safety Association, Gov. Price Daniel said that good traffic safety legislation still is lacking because citizens "have never taken enough time and trouble to tell their legislators exactly what they want."

He said five bills which have failed to pass will be introduced in the January session, "regardless of the identity of your next governor." These concern:

1. State financing to pay the salaries of driver-education teachers in public schools.
2. Complete revision of the driver-licensing law.
3. A chemical test law for use in cases of driving while intoxicated—designed to free the innocent and provide medical evidence against the guilty.
4. Adequate city and county traffic courts of record to handle traffic cases with efficiency and justice.
5. Authorization for additional highway patrolmen and additional pay for Department of Public Safety personnel.

Although the Legislature lately approved 51 additional highway patrolmen, a $300 increase in pay and set a floor of $4,947 annual salary, the governor reported the patrol still is 150 men short of its authorized strength of 804. He feels the pay hike was insufficient.

Voters List
Comptroller Bob Calvert added up the poll taxes and exemptions sent in by the counties and found 2,355,159 Texans qualified to vote. This is an increase of 300,000 from 1958, the last non-presidential election year. But it is virtually the same as the number of qualified voters in 1952.

Still holding the record is 1960 with 2,599,924 Texans qualified to vote.

Teachers Quizzed
Texas school teachers are pretty good at answering their examinations.

Texas Education Agency sent out questionnaires to about 95,000 school people. They expected a 30% return but 92,000 answered.

Questions were part of a Texas Legislative Council study of teacher training.

Results will be fed through computers to give lawmakers an idea of what school people think about the way public schools are run and how teachers are trained.

Water Loans Hit

The state will borrow another $15 million on April 19 to help local water districts, river authorities and cities on their water projects.

Texas Water Development Board has the authority to borrow up to $100 million for this purpose.

Its first bond issue of $10 million is nearly used up in four loans. So another $15 million worth of bonds will be sold.

Major project helped so far by this state's program is the Toledo Bend reservoir on the Sabine river near Newton. It will get a $15 million loan over the next four years.

Padre Study

Herb Petry, chairman of a special committee to study the various proposals for making Padre Island a recreation area, said the committee will have a meeting in April to decide on its recommendations.

Governor Daniel appointed the committee after differences developed as to whether Padre Island should be turned into a recreation area by the federal or state government.

A bill in Congress has authorized federal purchase of a large part of the island as a national seashore area. But the bill has not passed the House of Representatives because South Texas Congressmen favor a smaller area, if any at all.

GI Farms

Veterans Land Board has sold 20 repossessed GI farms for $19,000 more than it had invested in them.

But it turned down bids on a Grayson county tract which drew 33 bidders.

Board tried, but failed, to put a block deal back together by advertising for bids on an 850-acre farm in Zavala county. Board had set the minimum bid at $150,000 but nobody bid.

Only qualified veterans who have not made GI land loans were eligible to bid on the tracts.

Eden Druggist Injured In Fall From Building

John Bucy, owner and pharmacist at Concho Pharmacy, was hospitalized Monday evening from injuries received when he fell from atop the store's building.

Injuries received in the 18-foot fall included injury to bones in left wrist and right arm between elbow and wrist, and cracked vertebra.

He was rushed to Concho County hospital by ambulance where x-rays were taken and bone specialists, Drs. Jim Wimpee and Steve Henderson, both of San Angelo, were called.

Monday being a rather warm day, Mr. Bucy had taken on the chore of getting the air-conditioning unit atop the store building ready for use, and the fall happened as he was descending the ladder. —Eden Echo.

New Masonic Lodge Hall Going Up At Van Horn

Construction is now under way on the new Lodge Hall for Culberson Lodge 1232 AF&M. T. A. Parker has contracted to build the 78 foot by 30 foot cinder block building, located on Crockett street next to the Woman's club building.

Cornerstone laying and dedication ceremonies are being planned for the $12,500 structure. —Van Horn Advocate.

Well Equipment Stolen At Robert Lee Recently

Sheriff Melvin Childress's department is investigating the theft of oil well servicing equipment that is valued at more than $2,500.

The equipment, belonging to Roy Taylor Oil Well Servicing of Snyder, was reported to have been stolen from the R. B. Allen lease that is located 8 miles west of Silver on the nights of March 21 and 22, 1962.

The Coke County Sheriff and Texas Ranger Ralph Rohatch were checking out several leads this week. —Robert Lee Observer.

Spring & Summer Plans Given For Boy Scouts

Eldorado's Boy Scout Troop 18, which has been sponsored for the past 33 years by the Lions club, has re-registered for the 1962-63 year. Fred Watson is institutional representative.

Unit leaders are Jack Mills, Scoutmaster, and Walter Ray Donaldson, assistant.

The troop committee consists of Bill Gunstead, chairman; and W. H. Hale, Dick Preston, Jack Halbert, Morris Whitten, and Gus Love, members.

Boys who recently registered for the new year were: Chris McCravey, Joe Edmiston, Mike Hale, Gary Derrick, Mickey Pennington, Kenny Phelps, Lonnie Gibson, Claude Mills, David Nixon, Johnny Ramos, Robert Ramos, Buddie Calk, Jerry Stigler, and Johnny Reynolds.

The Twin Mountain District Exposition is coming up on Saturday afternoon, April 14, from 2:30 to 4:30 and 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the fairgrounds exhibition building in San Angelo.

This is a wonderful show put on by Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers from the entire district, which includes the units here in Eldorado.

The Exposition will be something like a County Fair with many ten by ten foot booths inside the Exposition Building. Each booth will be filled with either Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts or Explorer Scouts demonstrating skills they have learned in their Scouting program. The crowd will walk around from booth to booth and observe the boys in action.

You will be amazed at the many different kinds of skills demonstrated by the boys and also by the high degree of efficiency they have attained.

Cubs will be demonstrating different kinds of handicraft including leathercraft, woodcraft, and plaster of paris, while the Boy Scouts will have booths on First Aid, Camping, Cooking and many others of the 114 Merit Badges. Explorer Scouts will have more complicated booths.

Tickets for the event at 50c for adults and 25c for children are already on sale.

Summer Camp Set For June
On Sunday afternoon, June 10, Camp Fawcett near Barksdale and Camp Sol Mayer near Fort McKavett will open for the summer camping season.

R. C. (Bob) Warner, chairman of the Twin Mountain District Camping and Activities Committee, stated, "Fourteen of our Twin Mountain District troops have already made reservations at Camp Mayer and Camp Fawcett for this summer."

Troop 18 here in Eldorado will attend the first session at Camp Fawcett, beginning June 10.

The total cost per boy for the camping week is $14.50 and there is no charge for adult leaders at either camp.

Candidates for the Order of the Arrow, the honorary organization of Boy Scout campers, will be selected by units during sessions of camp.

Canadian Canoe Trip
Reservations are now being accepted in the Scout Office in San Angelo for the Canadian Canoe Expedition. Twenty Senior Scouts and Explorers and two adult leaders will leave San Angelo on August 5, arrive in Ely, Minnesota, August 8, and will have nine wonderful days in the wilderness canoe country of southern Canada.

They will arrive back in San Angelo on their chartered bus on August 22. The reservation fee is $25 and the total cost of the trip is $165 per boy. The boys who attend must be 14 years of age or older and in excellent physical condition.

This will be the fifth year the Concho Valley Council has had a Canadian Canoe Expedition.

District Scout Executive John H. Pearson of Del Rio and Council Vice-President Dr. C. E. Oswalt, Jr., of Fort Stockton, will be the two adult leaders.

World Jamboree Set For '63
The 11th World Jamboree of Scouting will be held in Greece in August, 1963. Scouts who will be 14 by August 1, 1963, but not over 18 on that day may participate.

The total Jamboree cost will be about $1,500.

Further information is available in the San Angelo offices of the Concho Valley Council.

6th Nat'l Jamboree Coming In '64
The Sixth National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America will be held at Valley Forge State Park in Pennsylvania in the summer of 1964.

It's not too early for Scouts to start saving their money to attend.

SHOWER FOR MRS. GRANBERRY
A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Shirley Carroll Granberry was given March 31st in the home of Mrs. George Williams.

Chocolate, chocolate, pink cake squares, were served. Hostesses were Mes. John Luman, C. E. Jergens, J. B. Swain, J. D. Holden, J. T. Ottaberry, Walter Turnbow, and George Williams.

The apportionment ruling by the Supreme Court, overruling a series of prior decisions, has created both confusion and consternation. Just how it will be implemented and how far-reaching it will be, remains to be seen.

The case originated in Tennessee when a group of urban citizens filed a suit in federal court, attacking the state's apportionment of legislative districts, and contending that they were being deprived of fair and equal representation because under Tennessee law rural areas were being heavily favored in representation at the Statehouse.

The Supreme Court decided such apportionment laws may be reviewed by federal courts to determine if such representation is fair and equitable.

But the 6-2 ruling drew a vigorous dissent from Justice Frankfurter who contended this issue was local in nature, was political in substance, and under our doctrine of separation of power between the three branches of government the judiciary has no legitimate jurisdiction.

Wide speculation is already being expressed of how the court could enforce any finding of improper apportionment. If the state of Tennessee should refuse to redistrict, can the Supreme Court later hold the Tennessee legislature in contempt. Or, can the Supreme Court enjoin the holding of state elections under a condition which the Court may decide denies equal representation to some areas? If so, then what would happen.

Other questions are being asked. Would this ruling apply to apportionment that relates to Congressional districts? Presumably it would. And would it apply to state laws relating to apportionment of judicial districts? And indeed will it apply to apportionment of County Commissioner precincts.

Many observers see in this decision a bold and dangerous expansion of judicial power, far beyond that ever contemplated in the Constitution. One writer with whom I agree says the Constitution "is being altered not by Congress and the people—the only constitutional way for its alteration—but rather by a momentary majority of a court which seems fatally determined to change the whole social and political fabric of this country—on its own writ and mandate."

Certainly the question of whether it is desirable to change local apportionment situations is a relatively unimportant. The essence of the action relates to the propriety of the Supreme Court expanding its power beyond the dreams of the founding fathers. Just where is the line to be drawn?

A Bishop Looks At Life

By Everett H. Jones, Bishop of The Episcopal Diocese of West Texas

Time Is Sacred

Not long ago as I looked at the tower of a colonial church I was troubled when I saw a large clock in the middle of it. I thought to myself, "That's a poor substitute for a religious symbol. They ought to have a cross there." Then I remembered a sentence I had read somewhere, "Every time you look at your watch, think of God." As I thought more deeply, it seemed to me that a clock or a watch can be a religious symbol, a reminder of the sacredness of time.

One of the most sacrilegious statements we make (without realizing it) is to say: "I am going to kill some time." Time is a gift of God and as such is a holy thing. It is measured by the movement of the sun, and the sun is a part of God's creation. When God created this universe He put order into it. All clocks and watches help us to put order into our daily lives, and can remind us that the highest use of time is to fit our lives into the order and plan of God for us.

A clock is also a reminder of the uniqueness of each day and each event of the day. It says to me: "Your time on earth is limited; you are mortal and finite. Every moment of your life is unique and unrepeatable. The exact circumstances will never be the same again. The chance to do the helpful and compassionate act; to say the word of forgiveness or consolation; to bear the witness to what you believe and stand for—these things are urgent and must be done NOW, before your time runs out."

The deepest message of all is that I cannot enjoy the time I have, I cannot be at harmony with myself and know the real meaning of life, until I come to terms with the Lord of all time. Time is a threat and a curse until I have tasted the meaning of eternity—until I have accepted the fact of death, and the assurance that God's love and presence do not end at the grave. Then I can live in serenity the eternal life—the life fit to be eternal—here and now, even in the midst of all the reminders that time rushes by.

Mrs. Whitten Injured As Car Rams Culvert

Mrs. Jimmy Whitten, the former Betty Bradshaw of Brady, was injured about noon Saturday when her car hit a culvert one mile south of Cherry Springs in Gillespie county.

Thrown out of the car, she suffered numerous cuts on her knee, head, and hands, and a serious back injury. She was driving alone, en route to San Antonio to meet her husband who is stationed at Medina Air Force Base.

Mrs. Whitten was taken to the Fredericksburg hospital and then was sent to the Lackland Air Force Base hospital where she will be a patient probably for about three weeks.

The car first hit a guard post and then struck the abutment of a culvert, used as a passage under the highway for cattle. Flipping over, the car came to rest in the ravine against the opposite abutment. Mrs. Whitten is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bradshaw of Brady. —Brady Herald.

On The Screen . . . 'Crooked Ship' Showing Tonight And Tomorrow

The motley crew that Columbia Pictures and producer Philip Barry Jr. assembled to "Sail a Crooked Ship" defies such hazards as fire, hurricane and mutiny on the high seas, but the crew and ship never left Columbia's Hollywood studio. The film is being shown tonight and Friday night at the Eagle Drive-In Theatre.

The sea action, which comprises most of the footage of the film, takes place on the largest "prop" ever built at Columbia, a replica of a World War II Liberty ship which took up all of two sound stages.

The ship measured 110 feet in length and stood 30 feet tall. The cost of construction ran in excess of $40,000 and included a lifeboat deck, bridge deck, wheel deck and wheel house, three cabins and a main deck.

The prop was "rammed" by a ferry boat and went through a howling man-made hurricane during the shooting. For more than a week, the cast and crew were deluged with thousands of gallons of water, whipped up by six huge fans for the hurricane scene.

Basically, "Sail a Crooked Ship" is the handiwork of two talented sons of late geniuses. Nathaniel Benchley, scion of Robert, the humorist and actor, was author of the original novel. Philip Barry Jr., namesake of one of our best comedy-of-manners playwrights, is producer. Credit both with knowing their business.

"Sail a Crooked Ship" is Barry's first independent effort. When he came to Columbia with his Philip Barry Productions, he also brought along the Nathaniel Benchley novel from which the film is adapted.

To Barry, the idea of a gang of unorthodox crooks stealing a re-fitted Liberty ship for the purpose of robbing a bank was the basis of an unusually funny motion picture. Columbia agreed and it was placed first on his list of productions.

And what could be more unorthodox than this stellar cast playing some incredibly off-beat characters—Robert Wagner, Dolores Hart, Carolyn Jones, and Frankie Avalon with Ernie Kovacs in the role of the captain, the leader of the strange crew of pirate-bank robbers.

This crew runs into some fantastic situations. Kovacs plays a bungling burglar determined to go down in the annals of crime as a genius. He assembles a band of nitwits, puts back in service a mothballed liberty ship anchored in the Hudson river and heads for Boston.

Along the way, Wagner and Miss Hart, an engaged couple, become forcibly involved in Kovacs' shenanigans. It is Wagner, an ex-Navy officer, who helps drive the "heisted" ship to Boston. Miss Jones portrays the captain's girl friend and young Avalon is the captain's nephew whose dream of becoming Navy someday leads him to sail with his screwball uncle.

The robbery runs into a frustration. At the bank there is a Founders Day Turkey Raffle in progress. "Sail a Crooked Ship" comes to anchor in justice and happiness—ever-after. Mr. Kovacs, it is true, is in jail but few men outside the bars have had it so good.

The impact of Frankie Avalon on teenagers is a mysterious short-circuit, baffling to specialists in music. For the screaming Avalonians, he sings the title tune and one other called Opposites Attract.

The cast: Gilbert Barrows...Robert Wagner Elinor Harrison...Dolores Hart Virginia...Carolyn Jones Rodney...Frankie Avalon The Captain...Ernie Kovacs George Wilson...Frank Gorshin McDonald...Jesse White Nickels...Harvey Lembeck Sammy...Sid Tomack Helmut...Guy Raymond Finster...Buck Kartalian Simon I. ## Here Is Why Your Local Newspaper Ad Provides Greatest Return For Your Dollar

When you place your advertisement in your local, home-town newspaper, an unexpected telephone call or visitor will only delay your message, NOT LOSE IT FOREVER!

Newspaper Advertising DOESN'T INTRUDE . . . It Goes Where It Is Invited! People buy newspapers because they want all the news. They are as much interested in the advertising columns as the news columns because advertising is the news of what is available in goods and services at the stores they know. There are no gadgets to turn off the advertising in newspapers. Nobody wants it turned off. Every survey ever made shows that people prefer to have the newspaper they buy contain advertising BECAUSE THE ADVERTISING IS NEWS!

The newspaper is there all day and far into the night. It is there for the whole family to read. AND THEY DO! They can refer to your ad a day later, a week later, or a month later.

It is there to be read at the time and under the circumstances when reader asks to be informed. It is there for the housewife to tear out the ads and take them with her when she shops. SHE DOES!

There are no dials to turn on. There is no problem of turning the dial at just the right time. There is never a question about whether the advertiser's message gets to the reader. Local newspaper advertising goes where it is invited. It sells because it is read at your customer's convenience.
