Rain, Rain, more rain

HERALD photo/Anna Gutierrez

Recent storms brought a downpour of rain which caused the spillway at Comanche Trail Park to flow again. What once was a normal site has become a rare site, but was one that was able to be enjoyed recently. More storms are expected in the weeks ahead.

Summer is upon us! Send in your photos of blooming flowers, events, and activities around town. Watch for your photos to be featured in Community Report.
