The SDN COLUMN

Not much fanfare is evident and for a time some local citizens appeared to be on the verge of becoming impatient, but reliable reports during the past few days indicate that the American Magnesium Co. is moving along on its plant project here.

The preliminary work and ultimately the announcement of the new company's plans for building a plant in the southwest part of Scurry County caused plenty of excitement here. Subsequently, the project settled down to a lot of work on the part of those associated with the magnesium firm, and apparently it is continuing.

Officials of the firm are in contact with local industrial leaders frequently, mostly with Bill Wilson and Harry Reed of the Scurry County Industrial Development Corp. and Karl Mawhorter, the city's director of community development.

Although construction work has not started, there have been enough negotiations and final transactions involving local and area people to indicate that progress is being made.

Two playoff football games here resulted in rather good turnouts of fans. The Class A game matching Seagraves and Aspermont lured over 1,800 persons into Tiger Stadium, while the Class B Regional game last Friday night between Bronte and Wilson brought over 1,300 paying customers to the stands. This is considered good, since the paid crowd for one triple A playoff game in another city attracted less than 1,400 paid attendance.

Snyder might have landed still another playoff tilt — the Class AA semifinal match between Phillips and Plano, if Phillips had won a coin flip. Phillips school officials, apparently anxious to pick a site south of the caprock because of the weather potential, had expressed interest in playing here. As it developed, Phillips lost the entire series of coin flips involved in arranging for its semifinal match. It lost on the game site, the time of the game, etc. Naturally the Blackhawks are hoping their turn to win will come on the playing field Saturday night at Vernon.

There were college and pro observers in town Friday night for the Bronte-Wilson game. Emory Bellard, the former San Angelo Central head mentor, who now applies his talents in behalf of Darrell Royal's University of Texas staff, was one of the interested onlookers. When asked what he thought about Bronte's Doug McCutchen, Bellard expressed belief that "he's got some potential."

Also watching the game as a spectator was Jim Myers of the Dallas Cowboys staff and formerly head coach at Texas A&M. Most of the scouts in this vicinity Friday night hastened to Amarillo on Saturday to catch the Cooper-Tascosa and Brownwood-Dumas games — WACIL McNAIR

Terrorists Ravage Viet Village

Hamlet Of Montagnards

SAIGON (AP) — Hundreds of Viet Cong rampaged through a South Vietnamese village early today with flamethrowers and grenades, inflicting death and destruction, U.S. officials reported.

The U.S. Mission said latest reports indicated that about 20 persons were killed and 30 were wounded in Dak Song, about 130 miles northeast of Saigon.

First reports had said 300 persons were killed, which would have been the worst terrorist attack reported in the war. But Wilbur Wilson, the assistant director of U.S. civil operations in the area, said later reports indicate this figure "is much reduced."

Wilson said the latest report was about 20 dead and 30 wounded. He said 30 or 40 homes were burned down by the attackers, who were estimated to number about 400 guerrillas.

Wilson said he assumed the hamlet was inhabited by Montagnards, the mountain tribespeople who often fight under U.S. direction against the Viet Cong.

Dak Song is located in an area along the Cambodian border where there has been a large buildup of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops in the past few months. U.S. and South Vietnamese forces have had two big battles this month with Communist troops at Loc Ninh and Bu Dop, southwest of Dak Song and also near the Cambodian border.

Wilson said it had not been determined yet from intelligence sources what was behind the attack. But the Viet Cong often raid villages to show that the South Vietnamese government cannot provide complete protection.

Dak Song is a "new life" hamlet, which supposedly is sufficiently protected to be free of Viet Cong terrorism.

In the air war, the U.S. Navy strengthened its arsenal of bombers striking at North Vietnam and sent a new light attack jet into action Monday for the first time.

The craft is the A7 Corsair II, which can carry 15,000 pounds of explosives while maintaining speeds of nearly 600 miles an hour. U.S. headquarters said the jets made their first combat runs against a bridge near Vinh, about 150 miles south of Hanoi.

The Corsairs' 5-inch rockets heavily damaged the span, pilots returning to the carrier Ranger reported. One squadron of about 20 of the $1.4 million jets is aboard the carrier.

The U.S. 7th Air Force will soon add the plane to its strike force also. The Corsair was first ordered in 1964 as a replacement for the A4 Skyhawk to provide a subsonic plane which could carry a heavier load of weapons than the Skyhawk.

Overcast weather from the northeast monsoons again limited most of the 80 U.S. missions Monday to areas south of Hanoi, but radar guided Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs to at least three targets above North Vietnam's capital city.

Their targets were the Thai Nguyen railroad yards 35 miles north of Hanoi, the Yen Bai airfield and storage area 78 miles northwest of Hanoi, and surface-to-air missile sites 24 and 37 miles to the north. There was no damage assessment because of the overcast.

The same overcast conditions prevented damage reports from U.S. Marine all-weather A6 Intruders after they raided the Kien An airfield six miles southwest of Haiphong. Pilots reported touching off a secondary explosion in Intruder strikes at the Nam Dinh railroad yard 50 miles south of Hanoi.

Toastmaster Charter Is Presented

Fourteen charter members and their wives were present Monday night when the Snyder Toastmasters Club received its official charter.

Presentation was made by Barry Koch of Midland. He is the District 44 governor. Receiving the charter on behalf of the local club was Jimmy Johns, president.

Koch, in making the presentation, praised the local members for their efforts in organizing the local club. He pointed out that membership in the Toastmasters Club "can help you in many fields of endeavor." The Club is an international organization whose members strive for better public speaking.

The Club held a charter dinner at the Steak House. Other out-of-town guests included Al Smith of Midland, Area 3 Governor; Ray Thurston of Garden City, past district governor; and, John Wright, Area 4 governor form Abilene.

Speeches were given by Thruston, Bob Harlin and John Kaplan.

Thruston, superintendent of schools at Garden City, gave a humorous talk on "contrasts in Texas." Harlin, vice-president of the local club, spoke on time wasted through indiscriminate watching of television. Kaplan, parts manager of Wilson Motor Co., gave another serious talk on conformity. He compared Communism with "Hitlerism," pointing out that individuals under either system must conform or be annihilated.

A common adherence to a moral code is necessary, he said, but conformity in all aspects of life destroys individual initiative, he said.

Jimmy Johns, president of the local club, was the toastmaster. Dean Floyd, Rev. John Bollinger, Dave Harlin, Irving Townsend, Les Francis, Harold Wilson, and Louis Blanchard also appeared on the program. In addition, every member present made a brief, impromptu speech.

Local persons present: Mr. and Mrs. John Bollinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaplan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Spradlin, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patchell, Mr. and Mrs. Don Jeffcoat, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Les Francis, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blanchard.

ELECTION SET JAN. 9

City Council Calls Sales Tax Vote Here

Snyder voters will go to the polls Jan. 9 to decide whether a city sales tax shall be levied here.

The City Council called the election last night, following a two - hour discussion.

Thus, Snyder will be one of the last cities in the region to take the sales tax issue to the polls.

Toward the end of last night's council session, the possibility of such an election here came up for discussion and ultimately, after considering some of the demands which will be made in the future on the city government, councilmen decided that the voters of the town should be presented the newest source of revenue provided for cities.

At the same time, it was noted that a one per cent sales tax likely would provide enough revenue to take care of increased demands for city services, plus a reduction in ad valorem taxes. Based on estimates furnished by the State Comptroller's office, local councilmen expressed confidence that a decrease of at least 10 cents in the ad valorem tax rate would be feasible, and possibly more, if the sales tax is approved. There would still be an overall increase in city revenue for improvements and more services.

The council here is thinking in terms mostly of capital improvements in its projections for any added revenue. Undoubtedly there would be some improvements in other areas of the city government also, however.

Scores of cities and towns will have voted on the city tax before the end of this year and so far, all but two have approved the sales tax overwhelmingly. In most cases property owners, seeking relief from ad valorem taxes (either reductions or pledges that the line can be held) have been among the strongest backers of the sales tax proposals.

The city sales taxes are collected simultaneously with the state sales taxes and then refunded to the cities by the State Comptroller. Thus, no new machinery for collecting the tax is required and all citizens share in paying the tax in proportion to the amount of taxable goods they purchase.

In other business last night, the council authorized Mayor M. L. Broman to execute an agreement with the Texas Highway Department concerning maintenance of state and federal highways within the city limits; approved a zone change in Bootheland West Addition as recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission, and authorized the city manager to take bids for the purchase of a backhoe for the water and sewer department. The zone change involves business zoning for an area adjacent to the U. S. Highway 84 bypass.

A notice from Sante Fe Railway was read, advising of hearings on the railroad's request to discontinue passenger trains. The closest hearing to Snyder will be Jan. 25 at Lubbock.

The city manager was authorized to proceed with plans to offer Dumpmaster garbage collection service in residential areas where enough customers agree to adding 50 cents per month to their service charges. The city could furnish a limited number of containers within the coming year, with three cubic yard containers designed to serve four or five residences each.

Seized By Police

DETROIT (AP) —Two detectives seized the distraught father of a Detroit riot victim today as he emerged briefly from his fortress home where he had held scores of police at bay for 16 hours while locked inside with as many as nine people, some hostages.

Lubbock Officers Seek Sadist Killer

LUBBOCK (AP)—Police questioned hundreds of Texas Tech students today, seeking a clue to the sadistic killer of a cleaning woman found almost decapitated in a blood-spattered laboratory on the college campus.

Co-workers from a six-person custodial team working in a Tech science building went looking for Sarah Alice Morgan, 54, when she failed to join them at supper and found her body about 8:15 p.m. Monday. Her throat had been slashed and her neck almost severed.

A scapel kept in the laboratory for use by student experiments and a bloody four-inch section of a saw blade lay on the floor nearby.

Lubbock police and Texas Tech security officers interviewed students and professors known to have been around the science building at the time. No one reported hearing any commotion or cries for help.

A professor told police he and two coeds saw Mrs. Morgan at about 7 p.m. when she refused them entry to the building basement.

Mrs. Morgan was described as a stocky, 5-foot-6 woman who was well-liked by co-workers. Her ring of keys to the science building were not found. An all-night search of trash containers on the campus failed to yield any trace of bloody clothing.

A police investigator, noting the ferocity of the attack, said Mrs. Morgan's killer must have been gory with blood upon leaving the scene.

17 DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

HUNDREDS ARRESTED

Pickets Rush Induction Site

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 1,000 antiwar demonstrators chanting "Peace now!" marched on the Whitehall induction center in Lower Manhattan today, but failed to shut it down.

Police arrested almost a third of them before the demonstrators dispersed after five hours.

Among the first to be arrested was Dr. Benjamin Spock, baby doctor and a leader of the "Stop the Draft Week" demonstration. Poet Allen Ginsberg also was arrested.

Police set up a special office in the nearby Criminal Courts building to handle those arrested. Most were charged with disorderly conduct.

After the arrests, some of the demonstrators continued to march quietly in the streets between police barricades. The only injury appeared to be to a demonstrator whose head was bleeding as he was led away by police.

Inside the center, Lt. Col. James J. McPoland, the commander, said operations were normal and he expected them to continue that way. The center processes about 250 enlistees and draftees daily, he said.

Most of the demonstrators were in their late teens or early 20s, but there were several older people. A few hippie types were among the demonstrators, most of whom were neatly dressed.

Crowds of financial district workers and commuters coming from the Staten Island ferries walked past the pickets. Some exchanged words with them.

The protest was sponsored by "The Stop the Draft Week Committee" which described itself as a coalition of some 50 antiwar and civil rights groups. Leaders said they expected 5,000 demonstrators by midmorning.

They began gathering in Battery Park at the tip of Manhattan as early as 5:30 a.m. and started the trek to 39 Whitehall St. shortly after 6 a.m.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I recently made a shocking discovery. We happened to come across our daughter's bank book, and found she had deposited more than $1,000 in her savings account since June!

Our daughter is 20, and worked as a cashier last summer. Most of her paycheck went for clothes, and she said she was saving "a little." She worked only 10 weeks, and she couldn't possibly have saved that amount from her earnings. There is only one way she could have gotten that much money and that was to steal it. How she ever managed to get away with it is beyond us.

She is back in college now (less than 100 miles from home) and is doing well. We want to know how to handle this. Should we go to her ex-employer, whom we have never even met, and ask him if he will please take the money back and not press charges? Or should we do nothing and hope that her conscience bothers her enough to do something about it herself? Please help us, Abby. We are well aware that if her former employer wants to be ugly about it, he could send her to jail.

CAN'T SLEEP

DEAR CAN'T: First, at the earliest possible moment, confront your daughter with your "discovery" and let her explain it. If you are correct in your suspicious, I urge you to proceed with the guidance of a competent attorney.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a married woman who carried on with a bachelor for 26 years, and then drops him and goes with a married man for 9 years? Then her husband dies, and for 4 years she's been going with a kid young enough to be her son?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: I think she must be a very old woman by now.

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend is in the navy and soon will be discharged. He is a very good looking sailor and looks terrible in his "blues."

My problem is trying to get him to wear his uniform when we go out. He says he is sick and tired of looking at uniforms and it's bad enough wearing one when he has to.

He looks good in his civvies, too, but a girl is proud to be seen with a guy in service, and I would much rather have him wear his uniform when we're out. We argue about this all the time. Can you help me!

NAVY BLUES

DEAR BLUES: I know how you feel, but I also know how he feels. If you man is being discharged soon, ask him to do you a favor and hold still long enough for you to get a picture of him in his blues. In the meantime, get off his back and let him cover it with a suit of his choice.

Gain Series Is Ended

For the first time in 15 months, the Colorado River Municipal Water District failed in November to register a gain in monthly water deliveries.

The 824,158,360 gallons metered to customers during the month was about seven million gallons or .87 of one per cent less than for November 1966. This was the first time since August 1966 that this had happened, and a week of cold drizzling weather at the end of November was credited with the negligible decline.

The November output, however, did give assurance of a 12.5 billion-gallon year for the district, making it the first time that the 12 billion mark has been passed.

During November, the member cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder used 442,132,400 gallons, down 3.05 per cent from a year ago. Odessa used 226,930,000 gallons, up 1.24; Big Spring 174,941,000, down 6.87; Snyder 40,267,400, down 8.53.

The oil companies used 382,379,960 gallons, up 1.85 percent from November of 1966. Production for the first 11 months of 1967 reached 11,854,762,914 gallons, a gain of 8.61 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

Robb Traced To Nobility

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — The Swiss news agency said today it traced the family tree of President Johnson's future son-in-law and discovered that he is a direct descendant of Swiss nobility.

Capt. Charles Spittal Robb will marry the President's daughter Lynda Saturday. The agency's research showed he is descended on his mother's side from the famous old Bern family of Von Graffenried. His great-greatgrandmother was Cicely de Graffenried, a member of the so-called Worb branch of the family founded by Abraham von Graffenried, born 1580, who married Ursula von Diesbach-Wrob.

Abraham's grandson, Aton von Graffenried (1639-1730), was the first one in the family to get mixed up with the Anglo-Saxons when he became a member of the English Academy of Science.

Plea Is Entered

Clavin Lee Davis of Snyder pleaded guilty in County Court yesterday to a charge of destruction of property belonging to another. He was handed a 15-day jail term plus court costs. The offense occurred Nov. 21.

Response In Project Good

Generally good response was reported in the business "open house" Monday evening, Chamber of Commerce representatives reported this morning.

There was excellent cooperation in the "light-up" program, with virtually all firms leaving some lights on until 9 p.m. or later. Some downtown stories reported a surprising number of business transactions, particularly between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. Traffic was lighter in outlying areas, but for the most part, Chamber officials reported, it was felt that the open house and light-up served their purpose.

Midland — Interstate 20, from .4 mile east of Texas 349 to the Martin County line, 13 miles, $745,000; and Interstate 20 from Ector County line to .4 mile east of Texas 349 overpass, 14.7 miles, $843,000.

Draft Call Largest Since Last Year

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' January draft quota is 1,659 men, all for the Army, state selective service headquarters said today.

The quota is the largest monthly call since November 1966, when 2,012 were drafted, said Col. Morris Schwartz, state director. It compares with 924 in December, 1,159 in November, 977 in October, 1,180 in September and 1,421 in August.

Texas' quota is part of a national call for 34,000 men in January, all for the Army.

WHERE THE SUN NEVER USED TO SET!

President Avoids Exposure To Foot-In-Mouth Disease

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP) — He's been in politics 30 years and he learned young one of the very best ways to miss being the No. 1 man is to catch foot-in-mouth disease.

His mouth has been constantly open for 30 years but he has been very sanitary about it. He kept his feet away.

In time he became the No. 1 man. And in his early White House days President Johnson's mouth was constantly open, on television, in speeches, or in one way or another, always saying something.

He seemed to have a compulsion to say something in those early days on Pennsylvania Avenue until he was reminded often enough he was not a hit on television or as a public speaker.

He was too stiff, too often what he said spontaneously was from a prepared text was just corn. His television appearances grew less frequent and so did his wide-open news conferences.

Meanwhile he continued to see White House reporters frequently by calling them into his office to make a statement or answer questions. Then at a big news conference last Nov. 17 he found a method that really clicked.

Instead of staying glued, as he had so often in the past, to a fixed microphone on a fixed podium behind which he stood as fixed and stiff as a cigar-store Indian, he decided to put a microphone around his neck.

He was a new man, free to roam around, twist his head or wave his hands to make a point. Congratulatory telegrams poured in. He was delighted. This is probably how Johnson will do much of his talking in the future.

He talks fast but he has learned from his 30 years of public life not to be careless with the language which, through a clumsy or offensive word, could turn him into a laughing-stock or a political corpse.

But this long training in being careful is one reason why some of his news conferences could be done without, for some of them haven't meant much. Playing the cards close to your chest is not the best way to give information.

A good example was the sudden conference Monday with White House reporters. He called them into the Cabinet Room to announce he had named a new Marine Corps commandant, Lt. Gen. Leonard F. Chapman Jr.

After revealing that he sat back to give very unrevealing answers to reporters' questions.

One example was a question about the tax increase he wants from Congress. What he said, in effect, was that he thinks it's necessary, which is what he had said a dozen times before. Another question was about his fellow Democrat from Minnesota, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, who is setting out to try to frustrate Johnson's chances for renomination in 1968 by entering some presidential primaries.

Johnson's answer was another banality: That he thinks anyone has a right to try for anything he wants to run for.

And so on. There is something to be said for the kind of vacuity Johnson left behind him Monday. From his long training he has probably decided he won't be nudged into comment on McCarthy until he thinks the time and the occasion are right, if ever.

But this habit of a lifetime, of picking his own spots to say something, makes some of his sessions with reporters painful, if not useless.

Geologists estimate that 18 billion barrels of oil may lie beneath shallow Gulf of Mexico waters along the mineral - rich Continental Shelf. Production is now more than 400,000 barrels a day.

Things The Average Man Wouldn't Miss

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things the average man could do without in a world that is sometimes too much with him:

Mink cufflinks.

Pajamas for dogs.

Private telephones for teenagers.

Neighbors who build spite fences.

Weird cocktail canapes intended to serve more as conversational tidbits than as appetizers — such as fried Mexican worms or peacock liver paste.

All-purpose credit cards that can be used to rent a yacht or to take a vacation on the Riviera but are no good at all when it comes time to make a home mortgage payment

Permissive nursery schools that get a child so stirred up that he comes home like a howling Apache on a bender.

Girls in miniskirts who wear butterfly decals above their knees.

Doctors who try subtly to imply that they are up-to-date in all things, including medicine, by keeping copies of Playboy magazine in the waiting room instead of the National Geographic.

Guys who complain your martinis are never dry enough even if you bake them in the oven an hour beforehand.

Any breakfast food that can be heard two paces away while being eaten—whether it crackles, pops, snaps, or simply fizzes.

Middle-aged ladies on buses who smash into you with a handbag the size of a suitcase and then turn and glare at you as if you were either a masher or a pickpocket.

Guys who sit behind you at pro football contests and try to explain the game to their girl friends.

Mothers who sit behind you at foreign movies and read the English subtitles aloud to their children.

All politicians who think they automatically become statesmen at the age of 65.

Wiseacres who, when you have a black eye, ask you to explain how you got it and then, when you have done so, reply, "Well, that ain't the way I heard it."

All modernistic paintings that look either like a colony of ants lost in a snowstorm or a cross-section of the bloodstream of an armadillo.

Any cake that doesn't have chocolate icing on it.

Talking parakeets which, despite the proud claims of their owners, have an actual vocabulary that consists only of "eek" "peep" and 27 varieties of twitters.

Stock market salesmen who start their pitch by saying, "I know you'll want to get in on the ground floor of this one."

All girl go-go dancers, leather-jacketed motorcycle riders, long-haired musical groups that imitate the Beatles, television comedians who make a living by ridiculing their mother-in-law, and all dull people who wear dark sunglasses in restaurants in the fond hope they will be mistaken for someone of importance.

From these and other nuisances, deliver the common man, Amen. Enough is enough.

Junior Editors Quiz on FOOTBALL

QUESTION: Was the football always shaped as it is now?

* * * *

ANSWER: The football we use in our American game is oval, with pointed ends. This is not the shape of the ball used in the original game from which both American football and the English Rugby originated. This original game is soccer, in which you kick the ball or butt it with your head instead of carrying it. A round ball is always used for soccer, since any other shape would not roll evenly on the ground. In 1823, a player from Rugby College in England, while playing in a soccer game, picked up the round ball and carried it. This led to the game of Rugby, which stressed carrying the ball, and for this purpose an oval ball was used because it gave a better grip (upper right). Our American game developed from Rugby, but we added innovations of our own, especially the forward pass, which gives the spectators such a thrill to watch. We took over the shape of the Rugby ball but added pointed ends, which give an even better grip. The special shape of our football has been found by experiment to fit into the needs of the special American game, being well adapted for carrying and for long spectacular passes. 12-5

Gray, Blue Take Tilts

There were two exciting 7th grade basketball games held in the Lamar gym Monday with the Lamar Gray waxing the Travis White 37-20 and the Travis Blue edging the Lamar Red 30-29.

Lamar Gray outscored the White in every period except the third one when the White pitched in 8 points, compared with 6 for the Gray.

Jim Waters was high point man of the night. He rang the hoops for 19 points for the Gray while Scotty Sullivan captured scoring laurels for the White with eight points.

The visiting Bulldogs put on a great fourth quarter rally, scoring 14 points compared with 2 for Fluvanna, to send the boys game into overtime. Regulation play ended 33-33. In overtime, Fluvanna got the tipoff and took 1½ minutes getting off a shot. Alex Ynguanzo connected on a medium long one and the Bulldgos did not have sufficient time to get a shot themselves.

TIGERS TRIP TEXAS, SMU, TCU, TECH FALL

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The family that sort of plays together stays together.

Press and Pete Maravich don't actually play together, but they are staying together in an effort to achieve a common goal —winning basketball games for Louisiana State.

Father Press coaches the Tigers; son Pete plays for them, and he plays in a big way.

Pete scored 42 points Monday night as LSU ran its record to 2-0 with an 87-74 victory over Texas at Austin, Tex. The 6-foot-5 sophomore poured in 48 in a 97-81 triumph over Tampa Saturday night.

Only two members of the Top Ten—Houston and Vanderbilt—saw action Monday night.

Second-ranked Houston, 2-0, led Abilene Christian by only two points, 36-34, at halftime in Houston, then the Cougars ran wild for a 90-75 victory. All-America Elvin Hayes scored 33 points and grabbed 21 rebounds for Houston. John Ray Godfrey led Abilene Christian with 29 points.

No. 8 Vanderbilt, 2-0, got 28 points from junior Tom Hagan, eight of them on foul shots in the last two minutes, to beat Auburn 78-65 in a Southeastern Conference game at Nashville, Tenn.

Highly regarded Virginia Tech suffered its third defeat in as many starts, a 92-70 drubbing at Alabama.

Junior guard Rich Travis broke an Oklahoma City Field House record by scoring 52 points in leading Oklahoma City past North Texas 97-78.

Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats scored their second victory as five players hit for double figures in a 99-76 Southeastern Conference victory over Florida at Lexington, Ky. Thad Jaracz was high for Kentucky with 23.

Two free throws by Dave Clark with 58 seconds left helped Georgia Tech to a 77-74 triumph over Southern Methodist at Dallas.

Other action included:

Iowa topped Southern Illinois 61-49, Ohio State beat Florida State 76-69, Bradley trounced Sam Houston 102-63, and Texas at El Paso downed Pan-American 66-55 for home court victories.

Michigan outlasted Detroit 104-99, Drake whipped Minnesota 82-63, Maryland mauled George Washington 84-53, and Oklahoma edged Texas Christian 66-57 for road triumphs.

In the Far West, Seattle turned back California-Santa Barbara 84-74, San Francisco downed Stanford 66-60, Santa Clara whipped Creighton 92-80, Brigham Young topped Texas Tech 72-58, Utah thrashed Colorado 95-84 and Miami, Fla., beat St. Mary's, Calif., 77-70.

GOOD HUNTING — From left, Henry Grinslade, Lee Roy Lindsey and son Ronnie Lindsey, J. W. Grinslade and Gerald Hicks, all of Snyder, had good luck on a hunting trip last weekend to Juno in South Texas. They bagged 11 deer, including seven bucks and four does. One of the bucks had 8-points. They said they experienced "ideal weather — in the 20's."

Bruins Ranked No. 1, Cougars In 2nd Spot

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

UCLA's reputation as an overpowering college basketball team was tarnished somewhat in its first game of the season, but the Bruins still managed to build a strong lead in The Associated Press' weekly poll.

The Bruins fell short of unanimous selection as the nation's No. 1 team in the initial poll of the regular campaign. They received 31 first-place votes in the balloting by a national panel of 33 sports writers and broadcasters.

Houston and Louisville, which placed second and third, respectively, each collected one vote for the No. 1 position.

Kansas was fourth, followed by North Carolina, Dayton, Purdue, Vanderbilt, Kentucky and Boston College.

UCLA, a unanimous choice as the top team in the preseason poll, accumulated 327 points in the voting announced today. Houston had 259 and Louisville 250 on a basis of 10 points for a first-pace vote, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc.

The Bruins, unbeaten in 30 games last year when they won the national championship, just managed to defeat Purdue 73-71 on Bill Sweek's last-second field goal in the opening game for both teams Saturday night. UCLA star Lew Alcindor was held to 17 points by the Boilermakers.

Houston beat Sacramento State 110-79 and Louisville trounced Georgetown, Ky., 118-86, in their openers.

Kansas, fifth in the preseason poll, advanced to fourth after routing Utah State, 84-55. North Carolina, No. 4 in preseason estimates, downed Virginia Tech, 89-76.

Dayton whipped Northern Michigan 78-61, Vanderbilt opened by downing Southern Methodist 88-84 in overtime and Kentucky toppled Michigan 96-79. Boston College plays its first game of the season tonight against Dartmouth.

Princeton and Davidson, eighth and 10th, respectively, in the preseason balloting, did not make the Top Ten in the first vote of the regular campaign. The two finished close behind the BC Eagles, who had 50 points. Princeton had 46 points and Davidson 42.

The Tigers opened by edging Army 62-59 while Davidson won a pair, 91-70 over Bucknell and 80-73 over Virginia Military.

Among the teams which made the latest rankings, only Purdue and Kentucky were not rated in the preseason balloting.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1.	UCLA (31)	327
2.	Houston (1)	259
3.	Louisville (1)	250
4.	Kansas	192
5.	North Carolina	176
6.	Dayton	134
7.	Purdue	63
8.	Vanderbilt	57
9.	Kentucky	53
10.	Boston College	50

Bridgers Given Another Season

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Baylor's athletics — including football, where trouble arose over a losing record which contributed to a financial deficit—will continue under the direction of John Bridgers at least for another year.

Bridgers got an extension Monday night when President Abner V. McCall announced that the man who has piloted Baylor football teams for nine years would remain as both athletic director and coach although no formal contract would be signed. Bridgers' contract is up Jan. 1.

The decision followed weeks of inner strife during which a Baylor faction asked that the coach be fired. The student body intimated the same thing in a poll that showed a large percentage in favor of replacing Bridgers as coach.

McCall issued a statement after a meeting of the faculty athletic council. He said:

"John Bridgers will continue as athletic director and head football coach at Baylor University next year. No formal contract will be signed. The Baylor intercollegiate athletic program operated at a deficit last year and there will be a deficit this year."

This was the first indication that the financial situation also was involved. McCall said, "We hope that during the coming year these problems will be resolved."

Rumblings over Bridgers' coaching actually started last year when he had a 5-5 record and tied for fifth in the Southwest Conference.

After Baylor took a 29-7 trouncing from Texas Christian at homecoming this year, the rumblings arose in force. Baylor lost its last five games, starting with TCU.

It was the second worst record in Baylor history. In 1946 Baylor had a 1-8-season. This year it was 1-8-1.

In nine years at Baylor, Bridgers has won 46 games, lost 46 and tied 1 and has a 28-33-1 record in conference play. He has two second place finishes and got his team in three bowl games, winning two of them.

While there was no announcement, it was learned that the athletic council met Monday of last week and asked McCall to let Bridgers go. But before the Texas Christian game Nov. 4, the board of trustees took a poll and voted 40 to 8 in favor of keeping Bridgers.

McCall came in after the vote was taken and told the trustees it was an administration matter and he wanted to handle it. He was told to go head.

The athletic council had suggested that Bridgers continue only as the coach, where he could concentrate on developing the football team without being tied down with the athletic director's duties. Jack Patterson, former track coach now at Texas, was suggested as the man to become athletic director.

After the announcement Monday night, Bridgers said he was satisfied with the arrangement and was "delighted to continue." He was asked about not operating under a formal contract and replied that many coaches did not have contracts.

Kentucky 5 Routs Denver

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The also-rans rose up and gave the front-runners trouble in the American Basketball Association Monday night.

Kentucky, last in the Eastern Division, routed Denver, second in the Western Division and winner of its last five games, 107-85. And Minnesota, in front in the East, needed a three-point play in the waning seconds to beat Houston, second from the bottom in the West, 99-96.

The other ABA teams had the night off and there were no games scheduled in the National Basketball Association.

Denver lost its shooting touch against the Colonels, who were led by Louie Dampier's 30 points. The Rockets connected on only 32 per cent of their field goal attempts. Wayne Hightower was high for Denver with 28 points.

Bengals Host Injun Scalping Party At 8

With a 3-2 won - lost record, the Snyder Tigers host Seminole's Indians in another non - district basketball clash. Tipoff is set for 8 p.m. today in the Tiger gym following a "B" battle at 6:15 p.m.

If Coach Ned Underwood goes with the same starting alignment he's used thus far, then Tommy Bullard and Mickey Almond will be guards, Jerry January and Benny Ward forwards, and Jim Patrick the pivotman.

The Tigers socked Colorado City by a wide margin, then edged Andrews in their first two tilts. Competing in a tournament at Irving last weekend, they lost a close one to Richland Hills in the opener, then bested Irving MacArthur. Paris defeated the Bengals in another close one for the Consolation crown.

Not much is known about Seminole, but the Injuns always have been noted for their aggressiveness. And they usually have pretty good height. In a game not too closely called, the scalping party should prevail. Otherwise, Snyder will be favored.

This is the best Tiger team in three years, and one that could go far in the district race. The shooting has been good to excellent. Bullard, a good playmaker, proved he also can hit the basket last week when he notched over 70 points to land a berth on the All - Tournament team. Almond is a good shot, and he often steals the ball while on defense. January and Patrick, both underclassmen, seem to perform with the ability associated with more experienced players. Benny Ward can hit the long one.

Able reserves give the Bengals more bench strength than in the past couple of seasons. Included are Drake Snyder, Frankie Grimmett, Mitch Rambin, Gus Tovar and Jodi Williamson.

A special treat is in store for fans who attend the game. Three choral ensembles of the Snyder High School choir will perform at halftime.

The Bengals will host seven other teams in the 13th annual Canyon Reef Tournament on Friday and Saturday. It will be held in the County Coliseum.

SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Claus leaves toys in the stockings of the sleeping [illegible] sets out to find the Pigwidgen and break the curse. No one can help him until an old woman speaks up.

CHAPTER FOUR

CLAUS leaned over the old woman and gently shook her bony shoulders.

"You've got to tell me what you know!" he cried. "All the children of the land are sleeping because of this Pigwidgen curse."

"A Pigwidgen curse is a fearful thing," wheezed the crone. "That is why you had best go home."

"Who is the Pigwidgen?" asked Claus. "Where does he live? What does he do?"

The old woman closed her eyes. "I don't remember," she whined. "I am very old."

She pressed her lips together and would not say another word.

Claus begged and teased and threatened but the old granny would not speak or open her eyes or even breathe. "She is dead," thought Claus in despair. At that instant the crone's eyes popped open and she cackled, "Ice cream always helps a person to remember."

Claus rushed to an ice cream store and brought back all the ice cream he could carry. The ancient one ate seven quarts in seven different flavors. When the last box was licked clean she said:

"When I was a girl a hundred years ago a crooked - legged elf told me about the Pigwidgen. Go to him and he will tell you, too."

"A hundred years ago!" gasped Claus. "Where could I find such a creature now?"

"On the Sopchoppy River Ferry."

"Where is that?"

"When night has come, take the crooked road out of town. When you come to the fork take the middle road to the weeping willow tree. Circle the willow 14 times."

"And then?" cried Claus.

But the old crone's eyes had closed again. Her mouth folded together. No more would she say.

Claus left her. He went through the town asking directions to the crooked road. No one had heard of such a road. Nor had anyone heard of the Sopchoppy River Ferry.

Claus waited until dark. Then he walked to the four edges of the town. Nowhere did he see a crooked road. Four times he went to the four edges of the town. On the fourth time when he came to the fourth side the moon and come out and he saw a crooked road where before a straight road had been.

Claus was very tired but he raced down the loony, ziggity-zaggity, yawning, catawampous road. At last he came to a fork. One road branched left and one road branched right. The middle road was not a road at all but only a path laid down by the moon.

Claus followed the path. He ran on until the path was blocked by a giant willow tree. Although it was winter the tree was in full leaf.

Claus circled the tree 14 times. The circle grew wider and larger until he was miles from the tree. When he had counted 14 times he fell on the ground in exhausted sleep.

A glittering light and a blow in the face awakened him. He opened his eyes to find a tiny elf leaning over him and yanking on his hair. The elf waved a flashlight made of fireflies and shouted, "Wake up! Wake up!"

"W-who are you?" stammered Claus.

"Patrick Tweedleknees," snapped the elf and he gave the astonished Claus a fierce poke in the nose.

Tomorrow: The Sopchoppy Ferry.

Claus bought all the ice cream he could carry.

Coast-to-Coast NEWSPAPERS SELL THE MOST!

Police, Weatherman Spoil Kid's Fun

DALLAS (A) — Police and the weatherman spoiled hopes of youngsters in a Dallas area of having their own ice skating rink recently.

Police said scores of fire hydrants were turned on by the young people hoping the water would turn into ice during a predicted freeze. Police kept shutting off the hydrants. And the temperature never dropped to freezing, anyway.

Fossils Found At Houston Excavation

DALLAS (AP)—Wild boa constrictors in Houston? Yes, says Bob Slaughter of Southern Methodist University. But that was 15 million years ago. The remains were found in a fossil excavation at the Lake Livingston site and indicated the area once was tropical.

Also found were fossils of ancient horses, rhinoceroses and a type of opossum no larger than a rat.

WHEN WILSON, JOHNSON MEET

New Move Toward Peace Talks?

By JOHN HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prospect of an early conference between President Johnson and Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain points to new moves toward opening Vietnam peace talks.

Wilson may discuss with Johnson the possibility of using an open-end truce in the fighting, including the bombing of North Vietnam, during the forthcoming holiday period to try to create a more favorable opportunity for starting talks.

In Vietnam the most important of the winter holidays is Tet, the Lunar New Year anniversary, which comes a few weeks after the new year in the Western calendar. A year ago Tet was the focus of major peace probing involving Johnson, Wilson and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin. Johnson told a Monday news conference, "Mr. Wilson will be welcome any time he chooses to come," but added no arrangements for such a visit had been completed.

London reports also said the conference is still under consideration and that Wilson was interested in visiting Washington in January. Diplomats here predicted plans for a meeting would be announced soon.

U.S. officials privately professed great skepticism about the success of any peace probes at this time. They say they see no evidence Communist leaders in Vietnam are reconsidering their position—although some Washington authorities also believe Hanoi may soon be compelled to do so because of military reverses in the South and the bombing toll in the North.

The Johnson administration is preparing—probably in a few days—to ask the U.N. Security Council to move into the situation and see if it cannot get talks under way.

One interest of the United States, officials agree, would be to get the Security Council to invite North Vietnam and the National Liberation Front—political arm of the Viet Cong in the South—to send representatives to the United Nations to sit in on a debate on peace proposals.

State Department spokesmen still refuse to confirm officially that a Viet Cong-NLF representative recently expressed interest in coming to U.N. headquarters and the United States blocked his move. He would have needed a U.S. entry visa.

State Department spokesmen would say only that U.S. policy calls for supporting an invitation issued by the Security Council. That meant, officials agreed privately, the United States is opposed to allowing informal Viet Cong representation at the U.N. General assembly.

Since Vietnamese Communist leaders have denied for years that the united nations had any right to intervene in the conflict even as peacemaker, U.S. officials said it was impossible to believe an emissary would wish to go to the General Assembly for any purpose other than to build up support for his cause. But these officials said a formal Security Council invitation issued for the specific purpose of discussing peace possibilites would present very different opportunities.

The appeal to the Security Council was urged on President Johnson Nov. 30 by an 82-0 vote of the Senate. Administration informants said the only questions for decision were those of exact form and timing. They were not hopeful about a prompt or positive response from North Vietnam or the Viet Cong in light of past rejection of U.N. appeals.

What is new in the present situation in Washington, some officials privately admit, is the sense that losses suffered by the Communist forces in the South and by North Vietnam as a result of U.S. bombing may be reaching a point where the enemy leadership will be forced to reassess its whole policy. If so, the war may be close to a turning point.

Depending on events between now and his arrival, Wilson's visit with Johnson could assume special import, diplomats believe. The British and Soviet governments hold key positions in the diplomatic machinery which created North and South Vietnam in 1954 and U.S. officials have long believed that if and when a peace breakthrough comes in Vietnam it might very well be managed by the prime ministers of Britain and the Soviet Union.

U.S. officials say such efforts as the Wilson meeting, the U.N. probe and the careful manipulation of holiday truces must be continued because of uncertainty over when and whether a break may come—and also to demonstrate to the world U.S. interest in peace-seeking.

But military assessments of the war recently given President Johnson by Gen. William C. Westmoreland cover at least another two years of the war, and many authorities here now accept the notion an end of the conflict may very well come not through negotiations but through a fading away of Communist operations.

Treasury Denies Move To Demand French Repayment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury officials say no move is afoot to demand repayment of France's $6.85 billion World War I debt as urged by Rep. Lester Wolff, D-N.Y.

Wolff's demand for new U.S. attempts to collect the French debt came in the wake of resident Charles de Gaulle's call last week for a worldwide gold standard. At the same time the French leader criticized what he called a U.S. attempt to control European industry through investments.

Treasury officials said politics and the world economic system prevent the United States from demanding the principal and interest France still owes this country from World War I. They said no moves have been made to collect it and none are anticipated.

The debate over the French debt is not new. It was lively a few years ago when France announced her policy to buy at least $34 million in U.S. gold monthly. She bought more than $1.48 billion in gold during 1965 and 1966 but has purchased none since September 1966.

U.S. officials noted that France is only 1 of 17 countries which still owe the United States money from World War I and said it would be wrong to single out the French for payment when the United Kingdom owes more— 9.76 billion.

They also said the only real weapon to enforce the demand would be refusal to sell gold to France, a move they claimed would shake confidence in the dollar and undermine the present world money system.

France has made repayments on her World War II and postwar debts, the latest a $70.8 million advance in September 1966. She now owes about $300 million on this debt, having repaid about $1.85 billion since 1947.

As of last June 30 the 17 World War I debtors owed the United States $21.35 billion in principal and interest. Only Finland was current in her payments.

Union Serves Notice Of New Demands

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — AFL-CIO leaders, throwing their support to President Johnson for re-election in 1968, are serving notice they will demand more from the Democratic administration and Congress on many labor issues.

"The United States, in the familiar phrase, can easily afford 'guns and butter,' " said George Meany, president of the 14 million member labor federation, in pledging support of both Johnson's Vietnam war policies and social programs at home.

"This is the program that I say here right now is the program of Lyndon Johnson, and labor must back that program and must get Lyndon Johnson the type of Congress that can put the program over," Meany said.

But Meany lambasted administration officials as "stupid" for allowing the U.S. Merchant Fleet to deteriorate in time of war. He also demanded that the government cancel defense contracts at firms which Meany said flout labor laws.

Meany alluded to the "guns and butter" debate in a report to the AFL-CIO's policy making Executive Council.

"The fact is that without 'butter'—the solution of the urban crisis and the continuing enrichment of American society—the guns will be futile," Meany said.

"They will be futile, that is, as weapons in the eternal crusade for the security, prosperity, the progress and the freedom of mankind," he said.

Meany said no one wants a successful end to the Vietnam war more than Johnson, but that "hawks and doves" in and out of Congress are using it as an excuse to block further social legislation.

To Study In Texas

PARIS, Tex. (AP) — A 20-year-old Japanese student whose father owns a chain of jewelry shops and a pearl company, Mitsuji Okuno of Tokyo, has come all the way to Paris, Texas, to study jewelrycraft.

Okuno is enrolled in the two-year jewelry technology course at Paris Junior College. Another brother is studying jewelry design in France, and a second brother is studying jewelry manufacturing in England.

When the brothers complete their foreign training, they will return to Japan and with their father open a school to teach the courses there. Japan does not now have a jewelry school.

Okuno also has earned the respect of fellow Paris students in another field. He is a student of karate, and holds the black belt.

TAX ANSWERS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I don't have a maid anymore but you're still sending me the Social Security tax form I used to fill out for her. How can I get this stopped?

A — If you do not expect to be paying any taxable wages to household help in the future write "final return" on the bottom of the Form 942 you received in the mail and send it back. Your name will then be removed from the mailing list.

Q — I've been renting a house to my parents at less than I usually would get. Can I deduct as a loss on my tax return the difference between what they pay me and what I would otherwise receive?

A — No. The difference is really a contribution to your parents' support and is not deductible. In addition, depreciation and other expenses of property rented to a relative or friend at less than fair rental value may only be deducted to the extent of the rent received. The contribution you are making to your parents in the form of reduced rental can be counted as a contribution to their support. If you provide over half their support for the year, and other tests are met, you may claim them as dependents for tax purposes.

Q — I'm a recent widow. Is there any change I should make in my withholding?

A — No. You need not make any change in your withholding in the year of your husband's death. However, if your husband was claiming withholding exemptions for you, your dependents (if any) and himself, you may file a new Form W-4, claiming such withholding exemptions yourself. Of course, you may not claim a withholding exemption for your husband after the year of his death. Furthermore, for withholding purposes if you qualify as a surviving spouse, for the two years after your husband's death the tax will be withheld at the same rates as for married persons.

Q — Is there any penalty for not paying your estimated tax?

A —Yes. There will be a charge of 6 percent per year on the unpaid amount of any installment.

Q — Our church is having a special offering this Thanksgiving and is asking for contributions in food as well as money. Will either be tax deductible?

A — Yes, contributions of food or money to a qualified organization such as a church will be deductible. Gifts to individuals are not deductible.

Q — My return was audited and the agent wouldn't accept checks made out to cash as proof of some of my deductions. Why?

A — To substantiate a deductible expense your records must indicate, among other things, the purpose of the expense, and to whom paid, as well as the amount.

A check made out to cash or to yourself gives no indication by itself of the nature of the expense. This kind of check must be supported by other records, such as receipts, to be useful in proving any deductions you claim.

A check made out to a specific organization or person a charity or a doctor for example, may well be sufficient to establish that a deductible expenditure has been made.

Q — I'm working part - time to earn some extra spending money this Christmas. Can I stop Social Security withholding on the second job since my regular employer withholds the full amount?

A — No. Each employer is required to withhold Social Security taxes on the first $6,600 of income paid each employee during 1967.

If, as you say, more than $290.40 is withheld from your wages for Scoial Security in 1967, because you worked for two or more employers, then the excess should be taken as a tax credit on your 1967 income tax return.

Q — I was left some property by an uncle. Is there any federal income tax on this?

A — There is no Federal income tax on gifts, bequests, or inheritances. However, if property so received later produces income of a taxable nature, interest, dividends or rentals, for example, the income is taxable to you.

Bids Due On Holding Dam For CRMWD

Bids will be asked soon for construction of a diversion structure and a holding dam for mineralized water diverted from the Colorado River.

O. H. Ivie, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, said that plans for the project had been completed by Freese, Nichols and Endress, engineers. Proposals are due to be opened at a Jan. 9, 1968, meeting of the CRMWD board in Big Spring.

The diversion structure will be a low concrete affair on top of steel sheet piling (to prevent underwashing) across the channel of the Colorado River in northern Mitchell County. The downstream slope would contain large rock through which overflow (fresh water) would percolate and continue downstream to the new lake being impounded above Robert Lee in Coke County.

Pumps capable of lifting as much as 90 million gallons per day will boost normal flow and the flush flow of the river into an adjacent holding basin. Automatic devices will shut off the pumps when water mineral content declines to a certain point, leaving the water to go downstream.

The holding dam will be about 7,000 feet long and will require about 600,000 cubic yards of earth.

New York Pays Respect To Cardinal

NEW YORK (AP) — New York City continued to pay its last respects to Francis Cardinal Spellman in an uninterrupted display of devotion. At times as many as 3,600 persons an hour filed past the black-draped catafalque Monday.

St. Patrick's Cathedral, where the prelate lay in state clad in the rich and colorful robes of his office, was open round-the-clock.

A policeman on duty at the church during the early morning said, "There aren't as many people around at 2 a.m. but one thing is amazing: They never stop coming."

Cardinal Spellman died Saturday at the age of 78. He had been spiritual leader of the two million Catholics in the New York archdiocese since May 1939.

Occasionally, memorial Masses were said during the day. One of them was attended by thousands of children from the 443 archdiocesan schools.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday. The six cardinals currently in the United States will celebrate a high pontifical requiem Mass and then the cardinal will be buried in a crypt below St. Patrick's high altar.

Pope Paul VI will select Cardinal Spellman's successor.

Makarios Victor In Cyprus Crisis

By GERALD MILLER
Associated Press Writer

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — President Makarios appears to have won a striking diplomatic victory in the Cyprus crisis.

Despite pressure from the United States and the threat of a Turkish invasion, the Greek Orthodox archbishop who heads the government of Cyprus—and the Greek Cypriot majority—refused to bow to Turkish demands.

The general feeling is that Makarios called Turkey's bluff and won.

Makarios gave up almost nothing. The yielding came from Turkey and Greece. The archbishop accepted unconditionally only one point in U.S. envoy Cyprus Vance's original package— withdrawal of Greek and Turkish troops illegally on Cyprus. Technically he would have had no say on that anyway since they are the forces of another nation and not subject to his control.

Where the proposals touched on matters pertaining exclusively to his administration of Cyprus, he did not budge. These proposals were finally dropped.

Makarios said no to the Turkish demand that he disband his national guard. He said no to the Turkish demand that the Turkish Cypriot minority get the legal right to form their own police forces and governments inside their enclaves.

Makarios has doubts about enlarging the mandate of the U.N. peace force on Cyprus. According to Secretary-General U Thant's last peace appeal, this will be a matter of further negotiation.

Though Makarios scored a major diplomatic triumph, official circles in Cyprus don't think Turkey lost particularly.

Greece's agreement to withdraw an estimated 12,000 Greek troops was a big gain for the Turks, even though it wasn't everything Ankara demanded.

The only real loser seems to be the military dictatorship in Greece. The Greek government and not Makarios bowed to pressure and agreed to pull out its troops. The junta in Athens suffered a drastic loss of face among Greeks on Cyprus, and it may have trouble with the officers who return home from Cyprus.

Makarios is believed not unhappy to see the Greek troops go. And he is known to be relieved to get rid of Gen. George Grivas, the commander of all Greek forces on Cyprus and a potential challenger for the archbishop's power. Grivas was blamed for the battle which touched off the crisis, and the embarrassed Greek government recalled him to Athens.
