Meat Buyers' Strike Fails To Spread To Hereford Area

Only Seasonal Slump Is Reported By Local Butchers

The meat buyers boycott getting the publicity in other towns has not affected the Hereford retail merket according to a survey of the Brand among local grocery stores and packing plants. Summer generally brings a seasonal slump in meat buying as housewives turn to cold cuts, sandwich fillers and chicken for cooler meals, but August sales do not reflect any downward trend attributed to boycotts. Work stoppages among some businesses, however, have caused a decline in meat buyers among that definite group.

Hereford butchers volunteered several opinions as to why there had been no definite decline in meat sales. "There has been no apparent telephone crusade nor any organized effort among the women here, that we have heard of," said one man.

Many people in the community do not work for a salary and since wage earners are the group most affected by raising prices because they get reciprocal benefit, they would do the most to stop it, declared another meat dealer.

"The cattlemen or farmer who makes his money off meat is not going to stop eating it," said one butcher. "People out here are just in the habit of eating it."

Another retailer said, "Meat is high but so are other foods. Might as well eat high priced meat as high priced eggs or oranges."

A survey made by a press association of 25 cities indicated that lamb chops have risen one and a half cents a pound, T-bone steaks are up almost two cents and pork chops nearly three cents per pound.

Those are average figures and a few cities are showing reductions in meat prices. Most of the butchers in Hereford would not try to predict what the prices of meat would do.

Pickets Protest High Prices

Joining the nationwide outcry against high prices, Chicago housewives and their children walk a "picket line" in front of food stores. Butcher shops were chief targets of shopper strikers across the country.

Local Jaycees To Erect Giant Road Signs

Hereford Jaycees, meeting Tuesday night, approved the erection of three huge signs at approaches to the city welcoming tourists and visitors to Hereford and completed plans for a breakfast to be given 100 amatuer fliers on a pilot breakfast flight Sept. 12.

Dub Reeves, Jaycee president, said the signs would be placed at east, west and north entrances to the city. Approval was granted by the organization's directors to the Western Sign Co., owned by L. D. Neal of Lubbock, to solicit advertising for portions of the board. The remainder will be used by the Jaycees to publicize Hereford and welcome visitors to the town without a toothache.

Each board is to be 18 feet high and 50 feet long, with a skirt across the bottom extending two feet at each end, or 54 feet over all.

Second Clean-Up Drive Starts

Midwestern Farmers Rolling In Oats

Farmers are harvesting a record crop of oats from the farm of John Grovert near Kalamazoo, Mich., a scene duplicated many times across the midwest as the harvest season got in full swing. This crop of Clinton variety hybrid oats yielded 66 bushels to the acre, far above the average for the year.

Town Area Is Again To Get DDT Spraying

Recent rains causing excessive growth of grass and weeds have lead city authorities and welfare agencies to decree a clean up campaign in Hereford and Deaf Smith County beginning today.

This new plan will be a repetition of June's campaign but will concentrate on ridding the town of breeding places for flies and mosquitoes. The town area will again be sprayed but since the spray is not effective among tall grass and weeds, townspeople are asked to destroy such foliage before August 26.

Still On Rampage

Polio hit a new high for a single week in Texas this year when 90 cases were recorded in 83 counties the week ending Aug. 14, The State Health Department reported.

There were 31 cases in West Texas and the Panhandle.

Cooperating groups in this drive are the county and city officials, the County Welfare Office, the local chapter of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation and the Hereford Parent Teacher's Association.

First To Stage Drive

"Hereford was one of the first towns in this area to stage a clean up campaign this year and we believe the spraying is responsible for the few flies which were found this summer. Now, however, they hatched out in great numbers since the rain and are proving a sanitation problem in town," said Mrs. Dyallhis Bradly, head of the County Welfare Agency.

THIEF STEALS RADIO FROM ELECTRIC CO.

Hereford police are searching for a thief who stole a radio from Fullwood Battery and Electric Company Tuesday, Police Chief F. S. Buckalew, said.

The $59.35 portable was picked up when no one was around, and resold later in the day to Don Bookout for about $37. The thief explained to Bookout that he had bought the radio about a month ago and needed to sell it for the money.

AROUND TOWN SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

This is the annual "fun week" for Hereford post office employees. And if you think it isn't a lot of "fun" putting up and handing out 3,500 pounds of mail order catalogues try it sometime. Except for one small detail -- a postal regulation -- the P. O. boys might be glad for your assistance. The cataloges, thus far, total 600 and weigh over five pounds each.

Asked if they preferred handling the cataloges better than chickens, one employee chriped, "Chickens don't bother us and we don't bother them." Then, how about the cheeping? "We don't hear it," was the reply as the chicks cheeped meerily away in the background.

They are still chucking along Main Street about the story of

Hereford Is To Feel But Little Effect Of Housing Costs Hike

The long range predictions for increased housing costs next year will have less effect upon Hereford construction than upon the national average, according to statements of local lumber men, contractors and real estate agents.

The men in charge of local building believe next year will be even a greater one than 1948 in view of tenative plans made by home builders.

Although the national picture indicates bigger down payments for home buyers, and tighter installment terms on household equipment that may prevent some people from carrying out their construction plans, it will have much more effect upon the small home builder than the larger one.

Hereford construction doesn't reflect the national normal because a greater percentage of the homes built here are in the upper income level. A recent comparison by the National Home Builders Association shows however, that today's $10,000 cost between $3,500 and $4,000 in 1934. According to one local real estate agent, about half of the houses on his books were in the $10,000 class and over. For the nation as a whole, the average is $8,200 and ten to twenty thousand and above reflect only about one third of the total national income group. People building in this cost range are paying cash and will not be affected by the loan increases.

Situation Still Critical

Another real estate agent has predicted Hereford to build 150 of the homes in the $6,500-$7,000 class within the next two years regardless as housing is still a critical situation. Over the nation a builders survey reveals 81 per cent of the U. S. cities need more business space and only 25 per cent of the cities have enough one family dwellings.

"It is frequently the shortage of materials, not the retail cost that prevents people from building," said one lumberman. Prefabricated parts, improved machinery and sub-assembly meth-

Youth Raising Duroc Jersey For FFA Club

Young Joe Hershey hasn't decided whether he's a Four-H or an FFA boy, but he has decided he wants to learn all he can about farming and get some practical experience while he's learning.

Right now he's raising a registered Duroc Jersey gilt for his high school FFA group. This gilt is one of the four the club purchased with funds from the Sears Roebuch Foundation. This foundation donated $100 annually to each agriculture club district in the United States. Each district includes several clubs; in this area are Canyon, Dimmit, Farwell, Vega, Friona and Hereford. The money must be used to purchase livestock and the off spring from these animals still be given to other boys in the club.

The Hereford club bought gilts with their money, chose four boys to raise them and Joe was one of them. The other boys are

Courthouse Gets Underground Water Sprinkling System

A rich green lawn, the second step in the county's courthouse improvement program, became a step nearer realization this week as workmen of the Hereford Heating Company began plowing up the earth for the installation of an underground sprinkler system.

The first step in the beautification program was the recent removal of an outer row of trees surrounding the building, once described as one of the most outstanding, in appearance, in West Texas.

Chester C. Cox, owner of the heating company, said the sprinkling system will be completely installed and ready for operation within ten days.

Farwell Man, Involved In Wreck Gets Fine Here

A traffic accident Sunday afternoon on Highway 60, about two miles west of town, hospitalized one man and another suffered minor injuries after the truck in which they were passengers collided with a coupe.

C. A. Rasor, of Farwell, driver of the coupe, was charged with driving while intoxicated and fined $150 and costs in Deaf Smith County Court Monday morning. The driver of the truck, Delvino Gonzales, was fined $18 by Justice of Peace Andy Thomas for failing to yield the right of way.

The injured men were part of a group of musicians from Clovis. They were Lorenzo Anaya, who suffered fractured vertebra and George Guttierez.

The musicians were turning into the highway from the road leading to Radio Station KPAN where they had been presenting a program. The right front side of the car hit the left rear of the truck but neither vehicle was overturned.

Rains Improve Winter Wheat, Grazing Prospects

Winter wheat grazing and grass pasture prospects showed improvement this week as a result of recent rains, also contributing to heavy runs of cattle in area mearkets.

Another contributing factor, according to Deaf Smith cattlemen, is the prospect of a bountiful supply of feed from row crops.

At the Clovis Cattle Commission barn, where sales have been held three days each week, 5,472 animals passed through the two rings in the city last week, including many herds from the Hereford vicinity. Effective with last Tuesday, cattle sales at Clovis will be held four days each week, auction officials have announced.

The Ranchers and Farmers Livestock Sales Company, which opened the action three weeks ago, had receipts totaling 2,656 last week and was forced to run from 9 a. m. Friday until 4 a. m. Saturday to dispose of the run.

Henceforth, sales will be held Tuesday and Friday beginning at 9 a. m. each morning, Manager J. D. Hance, announced.

Third Humble Oil Test Here Is Abandoned

The Humble Oil and Refining Co. last week abandoned as a dry hole its wildcat test well in the west part of Deaf Smith County, after drilling 6,675 fet.

The well, Stambaugh No. 1, was staked out by Humble less than a mile from its first wildcat drilled in this county three years ago and is the third dry area.

Crews began tearing down the rigs last Saturday and speculators do not believe the company will drill in the block again. It is believed the firm will sink test in other parts of its extensive holdings in this area.

The well just abandoned was located one and a half miles north of Harrison Highway, and approximately one mile inside the state line near the Garcia Lake country.

The company is known to have a large block of land under lease along the west edge of the county.

Hyslop No 1, Humble's first test, was drilled in 1944 and Hyslop No. 2, also a dry hole, was sunk in 1946 across the county line in New Mexico.

Peace Officers Seek Missing Pampa Man At Dimmitt

West Texas peace offcers this were conducting another search between Dimmitt and Muleshoe in an attempt to determine the whereabouts of John J. Foreman, 35, who has been missing since July 14.

The search is being conducted at the request of Police Chief Dewey Allen at Pampa, who is convinced Foreman, known to be carrying several hundred dollars, met with foul play.

Pampa police have located a woman in Dimmitt who saw Foreman leave that city enroute to Muleshoe the day he disappeared. Foreman is a farmer near Pampa and was to have returned there July 18.

Any information should be sent to Chief Allen.

Child Plays With Fireworks, Sets Haystack On Fire

A six-year-old boy's violation of a city ordinance prohibiting the shooting off of fireworks in the city limits Wednesday caused the destruction of a hay stack at the corner of Highway 60 and Clements street.

According to Police Chief F. S. Buckalew, the child was given the fireworks by his grandfather against the mother's protests.

The hay stack belonged to Ernest Layman, who was reported to be out of town when the fire occured. The stack was completely burned but no estimate of the damage was available. The fire started in the top of the stack and was reported about nine yesterday morning.

Charges were filed against the child's parents for permitting him to play with the fireworks.

? QUESTION of the WEEK ?

What do you think about women's purses?

Bruce Wooddell: "What they get in them astounds me . . all that stuff! And when they want something it is always in the other purse."

Cliff Estes: Something for them to hang on to. Sometimes when they get to digging around trying to find a check I can't help but look and when they catch me some of them act as though they did not like it.

Bob Higgins The bigger the purses the more convenient they are. I like for women to carry big purses. They make me think of saddle bags which I use to have. I remember one I had was lined with sheep wool, which really made it pretty.

Jimmie Hendrick: I think women's purses are too large, it's true they contain a good many things but even then they could be smaller and carry the same number of articles.

Sam Nunnally: Being a retail merchant in the past will say that 90 per cent of women's purchasing time is wasted . . hunting her money!

(See the Sunday Brand for a picture and story about women who were stopped and the contents of their purses brought to light.)

Results Are Astonishing, Declares Magazine Writer

Mineralized Soil Reaps Rich Results In Hereford Section

Gilbert Webb, writing in the current issue of West Texas Today, official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, discovers that farmers of the High Plains are reaping rich rewards out of the Big Bend area . . . . and it isn't from the tourist attractions.

The reason for all this, Webb tells his readers, is a strange mineralized soil, discovered on the very border of the famous wonderland, that is being applied to thin, worn soil in the vegetable-wheat growing sections around Hereford, Plainview, Lubbock and other sections. "The results are astonishing," the writer reveals.

Continuing his article says:

"Growers of commercial potatoes are finding that the soil amendment has almost totally removed potato scab that formerly robbed them of thousands of sacks of number one market spuds. Wheat farmers, this year, have found production has hiked as much as 102 per cent on soil that has been dedicated to irrigated farming for the past quarter of a century. The same story applies to commercial lettuce, onions, carrots and other marketable products grown in the general vicinity of Lubbock.

Used By Flower Growers

"Even lovers of beautiful flowers have started using the newly discovered soil for improving flower gardens."

Skipping over Deaf Smith County, Webb goes north of Lubbock for starting results of the mineralized soil. There, W. J. Thiel applied 350 tons of the peat to his 130 acres of potatoes and other vegetables and at last report was harvesting 300 sacks

Texas Cattle Markets Show Gains During Week; Other Terminals In S. W. Net Mainly Losses

Scattered spots of strength contrasted with largely steady to weaker trends at southwest farm markets during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Hog prices advanced anywhere from 50 cents to $2.50 a hundred pounds for the different classes at the various markets. Top butcher hogs sold Monday at $27.50 at San Antonio, $29 at Fort Worth, around $30 at Oklahoma City and Wichita, $30 to $30.75 at Kansas City, and $30.50 to $31.50 at Denver.

Texas cattle markets showed gains up to $1 for the week, but other terminals netted mainly losses of 50 cents to $1. Good fed steers sold at $32.25 to $35 at Kansas City Monday. Good and choice grades turned at $35.50 to $38.50 at Denver, and $33 to $37.50 at Wichita. Medium grass steers ranged from $23.50 to $27 at Oklahoma City and San Antonio. Medium steers, yearlings and heifers changed hands at $25 to $30 at Fort Worth, where good yearlings reached $31.50.

Sheep values sustained further losses during the week at most markets, though Fort Worth paid steady to higher prices. Medium to good spring lambs brought $25 to $26.50 at Fort and $22.50 to $23 at San Antonio. Most good and choice lots made $25 to $26 at Oklahoma Cty and $25.50 to $26.50 at Wichita.

Texas grain markets began quoting new crop corn last week at prices about 20 cents a bushel under recent midwest offerings. No. 2 yellow corn closed Monday at $2 to $2.05 a bushel, and white corn $2.25 to $2.30. Wheat and sorghums netted slight gains while oats and barley eased a little. No. 1 hard wheat sold around $2.35 in bulk carlots at Texas common points, and No. 2 milo $2.40 to $2.50 a hundred.

Strong demand for most live poultry and the better grades of eggs kept prices steady to firm during the week. Most markets took fryers at 35 to 40 cents a pound. Egg prices on best candled whites ranged from 45 to 50 cents a dozen at Dallas and Fort Worth. Denver bought current receipts at 40 to 43½, and New Orleans 45 to 48.

Cauliflower weakened slightly at Colorado shipping points, but peas and potatoes held steady to firm. Weaker trends prevailed on cantaloups, celery and swet potatoes at Denver. All fruits except peaches sold firm to slightly stronger at Fort Worth, where Pecos Valley cantaloups and Colorado corn moved briskly at steady prices. Grapes, onions, lettuce and cabbage worked lower at New Orleans.

Infant and Mortality Rates In Texas At Lowest Level In History Of State

AUSTIN—Infant and mortality rates in Texas are at their lowest level in the history of the state, according to figures released by the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Health Department. Infant mortality has reached a low of 41.2 deaths for every 1000 live births.

Compared to the figures for 1940, this represents a reduction of more than 39 per cent. In that year, there were 197,023 live births and 8,685 deaths. But despite these gains, Texas still has the sixth highest infant mortality rate in the United States, with forty-two states reporting lower rates.

Dr. George W. Cox, State Health officer, attributes the reduction to the increase in public response to the educational efforts of the Texas State Department of Health.

"We have reason for pride in our reduced infant and maternal mortality when it is realized that the reduction means in excess of 5000 babies are being saved annually which would have otherwise died," Dr. Cox said. "In addition, the birth rate is higher than the 1940 figure by more than 71,000."

The comparison between the live births figures for 1940 and 1947, shows white births up 22,707; Latin American births up 7,186; and Negro births up 3,297.

The report also shows maternal mortality has been reduced over 65 per cent. In 1940, the rate was 4.6 for every 1000 live births as compared to 1.6 for 1947.

Around Town

Billie Sirles and the Oklahoma traffic cop. It seems Billie was driving through the Sooner State in a '37 Olds she had bought and loaded with the dozens of articles cars get packed with on vacation trips. Between Billie's being none too familiar with the car or the road and the age of the vehicle, they were creeping along at a snail's pace and holding up traffic for blocks when a cop came careening up. "Is this as fast as you can go, lady?" he asked. "No, it isn't," said the unperturbed Billie, "But I'd like to take my car with me."

If your vacationing friends have a pecular squint, they may have the "highway glare," a phrase coined by Mrs. Dyalthia Bradly for her mother, Mrs. Mary Stovall, whom she says has been "gadding around a lot" this summer.

Mrs. Pat Lawhon was among those who really enjoyed the recent XIT Reunion at Dalhart and like many others has made it a point to say so, says the Dalhart Texan proudly. Mr. and Mrs. Lawhon were among the Deaf Smith County Range Riders who formed a unit in the annual XIT parade the first day of the two-day reunion. The Texan quotes her as saying she and all the Range Riders, plus other Hereford people who were at the celebration, appreciated the welcome extended by reunion officials and by Dalhart. "We have never been treated quite so royally before," she declared. Everyone seemed personally interested in making our stay pleasant."

Seems like the Hereford hospitality is catching on in other towns, too.

Recent rains have done but little more damage than creating a delay in potato harvests, according to many Deaf Smith spud growers. They believe almost 75 per cent of the crop is already dug and one shed reported it expected to be through in about ten days or two weeks, although late planted spuds will be harvested until September.

Picnics, reunions and get to gethers are very much in vogue just now and the Wyche Community is not to be out done. It is holding an annual picnic Thursday at 6 p. m. Beryle Elliston has finally been roped in after three years of promises to the community to show his pictures. After all they are a part of the United States they say and if these pictures have been all over the states they think they should have a chance to see them. Back of the whole deal Elliston admits he is hungry and has been saving up for the big old fashioned picnic the people of the community serve. One hundred guests are expected to attend.

Hereford volunteer firemen have received another check for $25 in appreciation of their work recently in protecting the store of Gaston Baer, "The Popular" during the recent Elite Cafe fire next door. And, of course, it goes without saying that the boys really appreciated the gift.

Mrs. Bessie Smith thinks some one is spying on their home life and then making a comic strip out of it. Recently a J. P. Jones was in a cartoon strip and they kidded her son in law about the deal. The next day something about Mrs. Jones appeared which fitted right into the set up and on the third day the final insult was added when a character called "Messy Bessie" appeared.

The Women's Guild of the First Presbyterian Church will sponsor a bake sale Saturday morning from 10 until 12 at Cogdell Motor Company.

The "barking frog" of Texas has a call that resembles the barking of a dog.

Texans, your personal freedom and the freedom of your children is in danger. Truman's so-called civil rights program will destroy our way of life. Never since the Alamo has Texas been in such danger.

If we are to be saved, we must unite today . . . all creeds, all factions, farmers, laborers, businessmen.

If the Truman forces steal the Fort Worth Convention on September 14 by unseating the States' Rights delegation, you will still have the chance to vote for STROM THURMOND AND FIELDING WRIGHT.

Money must be raised . . . it is YOUR fight. It is now or never!

Repeal of Present 30 Per Cent Ad Valorem Tax To Be Sought In Legislature By West Texas C-C

ABILENE -- Additional revenues for cities and counties in West Texas would be made available if the next session of the Texas legislature passes an enabling act proposed by the Soil Conservation Commission of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The act will be prepared on the assumption that HJR 24 will be passed as a constitutional amendment at the general election in November.

It provides for repeal of the present 30 cent ad valorem tax and making it possible for the counties to relevy the same amount within the county for farm-to-market road and flood control purposes.

Under the program adopted by the WTCC group, the enabling act will contain provisions which will make a part of this money available to the municipalities for flood control and water improvement projects. The remainder would be divided equally between flood control and farm-to market road work in the county. The committee is working on the assumption that flood control means keeping excess waters out of the streams and on the land, and therefore soil conservation work can be carried on with these funds.

The bill also will provide that soil conservation work can be carried on within the county in supplementation to and in cooperation with existing services, such as the Soil Conservation Service, Soil Conservation districts and the extension service. FM road work would be carried out in cooperation with the State Highway Department.

The group is headed by Charles C. Thompson, Colorado City banker and land owner; Sterling Williams, Scurry county state legislator and land owner; W. R. Cusenbary, Sutton County rancher; J. G. Nisbett, Moore county business man and farmer, and W. R. Humphrey, Fort Worth editor and active soil conservation proponet.

In a broad declaration of principles the group favored a division of funds, which would be made available by a countywide vote, to permit the municipalities of a county to receive one-third of the revenue received within the city limits, based on county valuation, for its flood control work. This would afford a new source of revenue for a municipality, which is not now available.

It was pointed out that with the passage of HJR 24 as a constitutional amendment, it will be necessary for the legislature to pass an enabling act which will permit the counties to relevy the 30 cent tax. Each county will then be required to authorize this passage by its vote, before the law can be put into effect.

This enabling act will be sponsored by the WTCC and will be offered in the legislature by Sterling Williams, according to General Manager D. A. Bandeen.

"At our referendum meeting last November, this committee was set with this definite program and it has now been activated," Bandeen said.

Ticklers By George

Mineralized Soil

of numbed one spuds per acre off land that formerly yielded less than that amount and many under top quality.

"Probably the most notable comparison of results of the application of this product," according to the magazine story, "was turned in by Bill Kerry, wheat farmer 15 miles north of Plainview. He demonstrated with a plot of land receiving 1,600 pounds per acre and a plot just across the irrigation ditch without treatment.

Returns 42 Bushels

"The treated land returned 42 bushels of number one wheat per acre while the untreated land cut no more than 18 bushels an acre. Both plots have in irrigated farming for 26 years.

"At least five other states have turned to this Big Bend product to improve the quantity and quality of sugar beets, wheat, cotton, corn, grain sorghums and other crops in addition to flowers. Demonstrations in Utah, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Louisiana have confirmed the findings of Texas farmers and already placed an additional demand on one small grinding mill at Marathon.

"This untreated product became available to Texas and the rest of the nation through a pure accident. An unknown geologist found it during a hunting trip in 1936. He took a sample home for tests to find out why not even Texas cacti failed to grow in the vast area.

Flower Starts Blooming

"He placed the hunting bag containing the sample in a pot where a flower had almost died. Rains melted some of the soil and it penetrated around the flower's roots. Within a few weeks, the flower started blooming, and the geologist returned to the Rio Grande country for more samples.

"In the years that followed, samples were taken into the lower Rio Grande Valley where they were tried on citrus fruits and vegetables. Results were so outstanding that the Brewster County Chamber of Commerce sent Glenn Burgess, then its manager, from Alpine to the lower Valley for first hand reports. He came back with startling pictures and stories of the native soil.

"Soon after that, the Min-Sol Corporation was formed with headquarters at Alpine, for the purpose of mining the soil and making it available to farmers. Contrary to poplar belief, there is no treatment given the product. It is mined 82 miles south of Alpine and brought to Marathon where it is ground up and sacked for shipment. The farmers receive it in its native state without the large clods.

Contains 29 Minerals

"Backers of the product say it contains some 29 different minerals which combine with native soils in a reaction that makes plant food readily available to growing plants.

They say that of irrigation water or rains fall to reach the treated soil, crops will not burn up for lack of water. It merely lays there doing neither good nor harm to the crops until water reaches the land.

"In addition to the growing properties of the mineralized soil, it carries a high quality of soil conservation properties. It loosens up the soil so that natural rains penetrate into the native soils before they have a chance to drain off. Agricultural men say it will be valuable to Texas soils for a conservation agent."

The luminous moss appears to glow with an iridescent light.

HEREFORD Bull

By JIMMIE GILLENTINE

The fellow who originated the saying, "People are Funny," really had something on the ball. I notice in the Sunday Brand where a lot of movie stars are drinking Hereford water. The list included some of the really big shots, too. What makes this seem even more unusual is that I have personally known of several families who bought bottled water from firms in Amarillo and hauled it down here every week for their children.

I still think the Santa Fe should put Hereford water in the coolers on trains through here, along with signs about having water from Hereford, Texas.

Lots and lots of people are asking whether the addition of The Sunday paper is making more work. The answer is decidedly "Yes!" The work has increased tremendously -- in every department. Howeve, most of the subscribers seem to like the additional Brand each week. A few do not, however. We received an anonymous card Monday which got the whole place in an uproar. The writer said that the once-a-week edition was much, much better, and said no one was interested in the type of material carried in The Brand, especially on Thursday. It was signed "Old Timer". (here 35 years).

The reason the card caused such an uproar was the fact that it contained a lot of truth and covered some points which we have been working to remedy. It said P. R.'s coffee story was too long and tiring, but we have to disagree on this point; Literally hundreds of people have been laudatory about this article. We thought it was unusually good, and Phyllis is doing an excellent job. If this "Old Timer" will just keep his shirt on we will do our best to overcome some of the things mentioned. It all boils down to the fact that he just doesn't believe Hereford is large enough for two papers each week.

Another unusual thing about the "Old Timer's" message is the fact that all of the kicks received have come from older people -- at least 95 percent of them. When we first started the Sunday edition, folks who did not want to subscribe for the Sunday paper were almost always 60 and above. Don't know why this is, but it is absolutely a fact.

We know that is it impossible to please everyone, but we do appreciate criticisms and would appreciate them a lot more if the people felt sufficiently sincere to sign their names.

Marine Hero Is Honored

Col. James P. S. Devereux, USMC, commander of the Wake Island Marine garrison which held out for 16 days against an overwhelming Japanese naval force early in the war, received his retirement orders in impressive ceremonies held by the famed First Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif. The Marine hero, with 25 years of service, four of which were spent in Jap prisons, will hold grade of brigadier general in retirement.

Every once in a while you hear some of the inside facts on the Lions Clubs delegates to the National Convention in New York a few weeks ago. Heard that Dub Reeves went down to breakfast in his shirt sleeves the first morning at the Roosevelt and they refused to serve him at the table with his wife and the other delegates unless he wore his coat. Dub got so mad he went over to the counter and ate. G. W. Brumley was wearing a slack suit while in Canada and ran into much the same situation. Boy, those folks back East sure must get warm. Wouldn't it be a job to get all of these Hereford men decked out in a tie and coat during this hot weather?

Jim Kirby came up with an idea which could solve two of Hereford's current headaches. The Kirbys have been wanting to build a home for a long time. This year they happened to be faced with the prospect of making a big yield of grain sorghum and no place for storage. Jim's idea is to build the walls, roof and floor in the new home, but not include the partitions. He figures that he can then qualify the house as farm storage and get support price of $2.28 on his row crop, rather than sell it for current market prices. He figures that the saving will be enough to pay for the part of the house he will build now -- and perhaps for the entire completed home, despite current building costs. Jim expects to start building next week.

Maybe this is the answer to the housing shortage in Hereford. People could build a few rent houses, practically pay for them with the extra grain sorghum money, and still have the houses to rent or for homes. It sounded screwy to me at first, but the more I think about it, the more I believe Jim really has something.

Troy Moore tells an interesting story about butane, which has freezing qualities similiar to dry ice when it is first released. Troy said he was driving a butane truck which got stuck in the mud following a big rain. In desperation, he finally took the nozzle and started spraying gas on the ground. He says he froze the water and the ground enough to drive the truck out of the hole and used surprisingly little gas.

People have been jumping all over us at The Brand office because we said apartments were becoming ealser to get. "Just tell me where," is the threat that always gives us the most trouble. However, it is the literal truth. Apartments were a lot easier last week-end, but they seem to have filled up pretty fast. We ran an ad Sunday and had six people call offering to rent apartments, but as people came back in the middle of the week the apartments all seemed to be filled. It even looks like they are getting back as rough as ever, despite the fact that 30 places were released with removal of the geophysical unit.

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Kilpatrick of Elk City, Okla. were weekend guests in the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Edwards. They were accompanied to Hereford by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kilpatrick and daughter, also of Elk City, who were also guests in the Edwards home. Mr. Lowell Kilpatrick is Mrs. Edward's brother.

The pig actually belongs to the club, but is under Joe's care. However, when the first litter arrives, he can give one of these gilts to the club, which pays his debt, so to speak, and from then on the sow and the rest of the litter are Joe's.

Three years ago Joe joined the Four H Club. His first project was raising bees and it netted him $34.35. In March, 1946, he won a calf in the scramble at the Four H Calf show and raised it the following year while enlarging his original project. The second year his bees netted $106.28.

This year he won another calf in the scramble and is raising it to show this year, in addition to caring for his gilt.

Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hershey who live 2 miles north of Progressive. The High School Sophomore has been a secretary of his Four H Club one year and is now a member of his high school Future Farmers of America organization.

Many West Texas Firms Are Paying Employes Less Than 40 Cents Hour

ALBUQUERQUE -- Approximately 10 percent of the Texas firms, including a number in West Texas, inspected by the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, U. S. Department of Labor, during the fiscal year ending July 1, paid some of their employees less than 40 cents an hour, according to John R. Cartwright, who represents the Divisions in New Mexico and West Texas.

Violations of one or more provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (Federal wage and hour law) or the Walsh-Healey (public contracts) Act, or both, were found in 1168 of 1204 covered plants inspected in this state during the twelve months, and minimum wage violations were disclosed in 117 of these establishments, Cartwright said today at his headquarters, 413 Federal Building.

"Despite reports of high wages in West Texas, as well as other parts of the state, some Texas firms were found to be paying employees less than $1[illegible] for a 40-hour week," Cartwright said. "The Federal wage and hour law sets a minimum of 40 cents an hour for employees engaged in interstate commerce, in the production of goods for interstate commerce, or performing work necessary for the production of goods that move in interstate commerce.

"The act also requires payment of at least time and a half for all hours worked in excess of 40 in any workweek. Employers in Texas during the year agreed to pay $228,288 in back wages to employees for unpaid overtime and minimum wage violations.

"The Walsh-Healey Act, which applies to firms supplying goods or materials to the Government on contracts exceeding $10,000, also contains minimum wage and overtime sections. Both acts prohibit employment of child labor."

The majority of minimum wage violations in Texas, he said, were found along maintenence and office employees.

Local Jaycees

16½ feet and the skirt, to be three feet high, will be for the use of Hereford and the Jaycees, Reeves said. This is to be outlined in scotchlite.

Individual spaces at each end of the board are to be sold to merchants on a four-year contract, with a two-year option for renewal. These spaces are to be 5 by 8¼ feet, standard baby bulletin size, with the firm name in scotchlite.

Local contracts for the sign company will be made by W. H. Teal. Meanwhile a crew of five carpenters, sign painters and artists are getting the board ready for erection.

Approximately 100 pilots, many from as far away as Dallas and Fort Worth, are expected to arrive at Clover Airport here at 8 a. m. Sept. 12. The breakfast will be served at the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars headquarters.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this means of expressing my appreciation to those who were so nice to me during my stay in the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo.

Especially do I want to thank those who visited me and for the flowers, cards and letters.

May God's richest blessings be with each of you.

Clean-Up

She also explained that grasses and weeds, spurred on by the rains had gotten a head start even in the usually well-manicured lawns and that the neglected vacant lots and garbage can areas are particularly good places for flies.

Paul Harvey, head of the local infantile paralysis chapter said, "Although the town has escaped severe seiges of polio, continued precautions will help insure against further attacks. The origin of polio is still unknown but authorities say that in every case traceable signs of filth or filth carriers have been found."

Lists Health Rules

He also listed several health rules to be followed during the danger period of June through September.

Don't get over tired. Extreme fatigue makes one an easier victim.

Avoid chills. Don't stay too long in cold water.

Don't swim in polluted waters.

Keep clean. Wash hands before eating. Keep flies and other insects away from food.

Mayor W. E. Dameron hesitated to set a definite date for the spraying of alleys because it will depend upon whether the equipment used is purchased or rented, but it will be done in conjuction with both city and county officials to insure population areas outside the city limits of getting the benefits from the D. D. T.

Judge Asks Citizens Help

"Help keep Deaf Smith County clean," said County Judge Leonard Foster pointing out that waste and exposed garbage can be sources of infection.

According to Mrs. Bradly, the most effective method is fogging alley ways with the spray and not spraying from the air, except in such instances as along Tierra Blanca, where air spraying is the only method available.

"Any collection of filth in town endangers all citizens for flies are no respectors of persons. Please report any such accumulations of filth to city officials or to the welfare office for just cleaning your own grounds will not assure you of safety," said Mrs. Bradly.

In this campaign to clean off vacant lots and garbage units the following health-measures from city ordinances have been issued by the mayor.

Covered Garbage Cans

1. City ordinances require approved covered garbage cans for every family. The city will supply such cans delivered for $1.50.

2. City ordinances require garbage cans to be placed on the alley property line; if there is no alley, the cans must be placed on the street property line for city trucks are not allowed on private drive ways.

3. City ordinance prohibits burning anything in garbage cans. Garbage collectors are instructed not to empty such cans containing ashes for they are a fire hazard.

4. City ordiance provides a fine not to exceed $100.00 for violation of above provisions of the sanitary ordinance.

Hereford To Feel

ods have however, helped account for quicker work when things are available.

As for complete prefabricated houses, local real estate men agree that they have done little to alleviate local conditions.

"Prefabricated houses, not to be confused with prefabricated parts, tend to become more expensive in the long run," said one man.

Hereford's local plans for zoning and health laws, reflect national problems, too. Edward Carr, president of the NAHB, has said, "If we can enforce health and safety codes and turn the spotlight on owners allowing property to become hovels, we can both clear city slums and provide adequate housing in small towns."

Louis St. Laurent, 66, Canada's minister of external affairs, recently was elected head of the Liberal Party, succeeding Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King, who held the position for 30 years. St. Laurent is expected to become prime minister on King's retirement from that post.

Veteran Landmark Here Being Razed For Conversion Into Apartments

One of Hereford's older landmarks, the Thompson home at 1000 Twenty Five Mile Avenue, is now in the process of being razed by Wink Valentine to convert into apartments.

The house was built in 1902 by Ira Aten, then foreman of the X I T Ranch, according to C. R. Smith, one of Aten's life long friends. Aten was born in Round Rock, and in 1890 had become the first sheriff of Castro County. He built the town house next to that of his old friend Judge Gough. The Gough home is now the Phillip Barkley residence.

Aten was one of the organizers of the present First National Bank, but in 1904 he and his family, which included five children, moved to California, where the 87-year-old man still lives.

Thompson bought the house from Aten and remodeled it into a eight room dwelling. Rancher Thompson had sold part of his holdings to Governor Stubbs of Kansas, and as a partner, the governor visited often in Hereford as a guest in the Thompson home, said Arthur Thompson, one of the five children.

Jeff Thompson's children, Mrs. Ida Davis, and Mrs. Nora Russell, of Clovis, Bart Sisk of Las Angelos, and Roy and Arthur Thompson of Hereford kept the house in the family until this spring when it was sold to Valentine.

Mrs. Lee Kendall accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kendall attended funeral services for her brother-in-law Sterling Stiff in McKinney Friday. The group returned home Sunday.

Maters Agree With Daughters, Too

Mother's Methods Are Not Always Best, 4-H Girls Say

Do you believe every job should be done just the way your mother does it?

That was the question asked the members of the Deaf Smith County Four-H Clubs and their answer was No.

Do you believe you do your work the easiest way?

That was asked of their mothers and again the answer was No.

Now for the next three months the clubs are engaged in work sympilification projects to learn work saving methods in household tasks. Mothers are enthusiastically behind the plans.

The idea grew out of a camp which representatives from the six clubs in the county attended last July 20-22. These girls were Jenelle Womble, president of the Fairview club; Themla Joyce Epting, vice-president of the Jolly Girls; Shirley Perry, president of the Adrian club; Wilma June Wilcox, from Dawn; Dorothy Young, last years president of the Sadie Lee Oliver club and Gracie Fotheringham of the Happy Homes. Their sponsors were Mesdames Louis Olson Earl Scott and George Epting.

Learn To Save Feet

At the camp, the girls learned how to use your head to save your feet and that housework was subject to some of the same effficency measures a successful business man uses. When they returned they were eager to tell their fellow club members all about it.

The first meeting in August gave them a chance to report on the camp and start right in with examples. They gave demonstrations on how to make a bed the easy way. Their suggestions were:

1. Turn the mattress and change the sheets once a week. Keep covers and pillows within easy reach on a chair near the bed.

2. Work on one side of the bed at a time. Tuck bottom sheet head and foot and miter each corner. (Catch edge of sheet about 24 inches from corner with left hand; lift up to form a triangle; with right hand, tuck under mattress. Hold right hand against sheet and mattress and bring left hand and edge of sheet down. Tuck under mattress.)

Leave Mattress Untucked

3. Put top sheet right side down six inches longer than mattress at head. Spread on blankets, leaving eight inches from top of mattress. Fold sheet

Man's Best Friend Seeks Him At Bank

It's a dog's life.

Wednesday a stray black dog was found in front of the First National Bank looking as if he had seen some lean living as of late. Man's best friend was looking for a pal.

He was wearing a dog tag with a vaccination number and the address of a Grand Prairie doctor, so Police Chief Buck Buckalew, investigating the ownership of the thoroughbred canine tramp, wired the man.

The telegraph office was kept busy with wires flying from Hereford to Grand Prairie to Hereford to Dallas and back again until things were straightened out. The dog belonged to the Dallas resident, owner of a farm 18 miles from Hereford. On a recent inspection trip, the owner brought his dog up, let him out on the farm and lost him. Right now the animal is being kept at the home of Sam Wilson, friend of the owner.

Until the owner arrives to claim him, the pupulation of Hereford has increased -- by one dog.

Southwest Grid Mentors Halt Hand-Shaking, Free Speeches

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

DALLAS -- Aimed at self-preservation, Southwest Conference football coaches have made the following agreements:

1. They will no longer follow the custom of meeting in the center of the field after a football game and shaking hands.

2. They will charge a fee of $25 plus expenses to speak at all banquets except those held by alumni groups of their respective schools or those held in the city where their school is located.

The self-preservation ideas behind these moves are:

It's wearing and tearing on a football coach to try to buck the crowds that swarm onto a field at the end of a game.

A fellow can eat himself into a hospital and wear himself down physically making all the trips and delivering all the speeches demanded of a coach, particularly if he's had a winning team.

Someone made the observation that if those guys started charging for their speeches they might find their popularity on the wane. The implication was that the fans woundn't want to have to listen and pay too. That, however, is to be discredited. Southwest Conference coaches are good speakers and make interesting observations.

But there is cause to wonder what one's reaction would be if some town that had no school in the conference and no local alumni to put on the banquet called and said:

"Now, Coach, we'd like to have you speak at our football banquet. We've invited Johnny Whoosiz, the all-state back from Punkin Hollow, as our special guest, and we think with you and this big star both on the program we'll have the best banquet in the state. We're a little short on funds but feel that it will be well worth your while to come here since Johnny has been looking over your school with the idea of perhaps going there next fall."

We're not insinuating that the coach might wink at the rule in such an instance and make the speech. It does, however, open up an interesting speculation don't you think?

Burley Elaine Kent, Father Of Local Man, Succumbs

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the First Christian Church of Perryton for Burley Elaine Kent of Amarillo, father of Lee Kent of Hereford.

Dr. Roy Snodgrass, pastor of the First Christian Church of Amarillo, officiated at the services. Burial was in Ochiltree County Cemetery.

Mr. Kent was founder of the Plainview Furniture and Hardware Company at Perryton and for many years was a prominent citizen of the town.

Other surviviors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Vance Apple of Perryton; another son, Charles Kent of Amarillo, who owns property in Hereford; three sisters, Mrs. Roy Bacher and Mrs. Anna Grayson of Pond Creek, Okla., and Mrs. Paul Stanfield of Caldwell, Iowa; a brother, Raymond Kent of Wauketa, Okla.

Mr. Kent died at 8:10 a. m. Sunday in Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo, following a short illness.

Stock Premiums In South Plains Fair Increased

LUBBOCK -- The finest livestock exhibits ever seen in the Southwest are indicated for the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock Sept. 27-October 2, according to Jason O. Gordon, former Lubbock County farm agent, general livestock superintendent.

Helping to stimulate more interest than he ever has observed previously, he said, are the increase of about 50 per cent in livestock premiums and the great enlargement of the cattle and swine barns. The departments are better equipped for exhibits than ever before.

"But an important contributor to interest simply is that farmers have more time to think about exhibits for the fair," he explained. "They have been mighty busy the last few years producing the food for a war of survival. That tension has been eased this year."

Gordon offered some suggestions which, he said, might help those interested in competing for the substantial cash prizes.

He suggested exhibitors should make sure their registration papers are in order and that they get their animals blood-tested if they are not on a regular Bang's control program. The best plan, he said, is to study the regulations and thus insure that no last-minute difficulties will be encountered.

Gordon invited inquiries from anyone interested. They will reach him if addressed to the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association.

Pittsburgh Girl To Be Bridesmaid At Dutch Wedding

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Margaret Cartwright, pretty 23-year old assistant bank librarian, is going to Europe to be a bridesmaid for a Dutch girl she's never seen. Two years ago Margaret began corresponding with Lizekee de Brauw, daughter of Baron Albert de Brauw, one-time mayor of the Hague. Their international friendship developed after an American soldier told Margaret that Lizekee would like to correspond with someone in the states.

Since then, they've found a lot of mutual interests. For one thing, Margaret likes art -- and Lizekee has been working in an art museum. A few days ago Lizekee wrote that she's getting married and wouldn't it be lovely if Margaret could be a bridesmaid? It would, Margaret agreed. She secured a three-month leave of absence from the Peoples First National Bank to make the trip.

'Personal Titles', Uniforms For Red Bankers, Workers

MOSCOW — (AP) — Since the end of the war ranks, uniforms and insignia have appeared in many branches of Soviet life. "Supreme Soviet News" for instance, says leading and responsible workers of the financial houses and banks are to have "personal titles" and special forms of clothing and insignia to correspond with rank. Also "personal titles" and new insignia of rank have been introduced for the directing personnel of the Ministry of the Merchant Marine.

These are just two additions to a long list. Since January 1, 1947 decrees have introduced "personal titles" for the following: The River Fleet, leading workers of the coal industry, the Ministry of Geology, the Ministry of Ferrous Metallurgy, the Ministry of Non-Ferrous Metallurgy.

Decrees providing "personal titles" for mining engineers did not provide for insigna or uniforms at least in the decrees themselves. However, many other persons wear uniforms or special clothing with insignia of ranks. Among these are those in: Communications service, railway service, diplomatic service, Cvil Air Fleet, Maritime Merchant Fleet, prosecuting attorneys, customs service.

HAS NATIONAL ANTHEM

LUXEMBOURG — (AP) — If Benelux, the economic union between Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg is not yet a practical reality, Benelux has already a national anthem. The Benelux-Lied composed by Grand Duchy professor Gustav Simon was played recently at an open air concert in the Grand Duchy's capital.

$10,000 $10,000 $10,000 $10,000

To anyone who can prove IRELAND MOTOR COMPANY guilty of patronizing the black market in the sale of any of its new DODGE Cars, PLYMOUTH Cars, DODGE Trucks, or DODGE Pickups. This offer good on any of the above which were received legitimately from Dodge Brothers Corporation as IRELAND MOTORS QUOTA in Deaf Smith County and vicinity, since the war.

Many dealers have taken advantage of the quick money to be made by selling their NEW CARS and TRUCKS "out of town" rather than to deliver them to their "home town" customers at a lower price.

Conservatively, we could have had a minimum of $40,000 more "in our hip pocket" had we chosen to sell our New cars on the open market for what they would have sold for.

We are proud to say we have gone down the line with the people of Deaf Smith County who have been our customers for fourteen years as Dodge-Plymouth dealer in Hereford--- and will pay $10,000 to anyone who can prove otherwise.

May we say "Thanks for the business" and assure you we hope to be here for the next fourteen years to give you the same service at a reasonable price that we have given for the past fourteen years.

Mother's Methods

don't tuck under mattress.

By careful bed making once a week, one saves time in only having to straighten the bed a bit each morning.

From bedrooms they moved into the kitchen. The girls were shown the value of forethought ---of planning what would be needed instead of making useless steps for forgotten objects.

Carry things on a tray was the rule. Keep frequently used articles as near table as possible. Use both hands to set the table.

In connection with this the club studied table manners. Etiquette they decided, was just consideration of the other person and by being courteous at the table, one makes things more pleasant for the people around him.

Carry Dishes In Tray

The next logical step was dishes. There may not be a pleasant to do them, but there is an easier way. Use a tray for carrying them. Scrape them with a rubber scraper. Use hot soapy water and dish brushes. Stack them on the right of the dishpan. Use both hands. Drain dishes after thoroughly scalding with hot water.

The general rules the girls have picked up are to eliminate all unnecessary jobs, sit down to do work if possible, make one task out of two or more and use the best tool for the job.

According to Mrs. Argin Draper, home demonstration agent, the girls are most enthusiastic about their new program.

"People who learn to make their work easier, live under less of a strain," she said. "Consequently they get more enjoyment out of their day to day activities and have more time for the things they want to do."

Paul Lyons and Morris Easley spent last week end in Santa Fe and Taos, New Mexico.

How to save Time on a party line...

When you're waiting for someone else to finish a call, jiggling the receiver won't help you get the line any faster. Every time you pick up the telephone it interrupts the conversation...and that may prolong it. You will save time in the long run if you give the other person a chance to finish his call.

The thing to do is hang up quietly and wait awhile before you try again.

Your party-line neighbor will show you the same consideration the next time he picks up the receiver and hears you talking.

Courtesy on a party line pays off in better service for all of you who share it.

PLENTY OF BROWNS

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Domination of the All-American pro football Conference during its first two seasons by the Cleveland Browns is evident in the official All-Conference selections. Four Browns -- End Dante Lavelli, Guard Bill Willis, Quarterback Otto Graham and Fullback Marion Motley -- were named in 1946, while six of the Clevelanders graced the 1947 squad. In addition to the four players honored in '46, End Mac Speedie and Tackle Lou Rymkus were added to the stellar team.

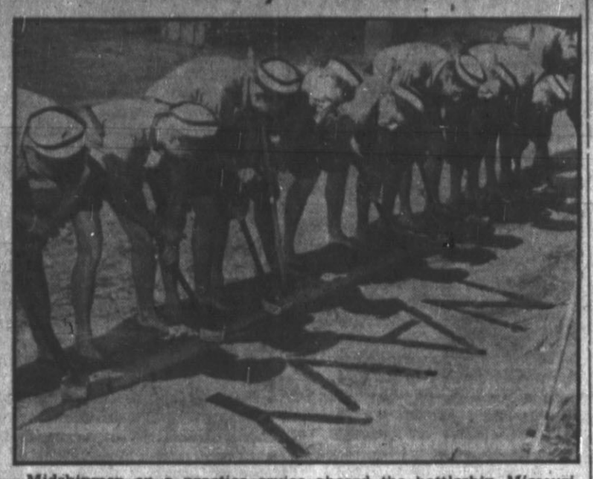
Same Navy---New Sailors



Midshipmen on a practice cruise aboard the battleship Missouri take time out from holystoning the deck to engage in a little naval horseplay. Having scratched "Navy" in the sand and soap solution on the deck, they were enjoying an old sailor chanty until a bosun appeared, shortly after this picture was taken, and set them to scrubbing again. SIRENS WAIL IN RUSSIA

MOSCOW — (AP) — All the street cars in the city of Gorky (formerly Nizhni-Novgorad) are equipped with sirens. A long article in "Izvestia" tells how a correspondent found Gorky pedestrians with jumpy nerves from the continual wail of the street car sirens.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Rudd and son, Donald and daughter, Betty, left Wednesday for Missouri to visit relatives and friends for the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson and Mrs. Ernest Metcalf left this week for a few days fishing trip in Colorado.

Texans in Washington

By TEX EASLEY

AP Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Texan is one of the key figures in the Congressional investigation of alleged Communist spy rings.

Robert E. Stripling, 35, of San Augustine, is chief investigator of the House Committee on Unamerican Activities.

He came here in 1931 as an aide to then Rep. Martin Dies, first chairman of the committee, which became known as the Dies Committee.

It is the duty of "Strip," as he is popularly known on Capitol Hill, to gather information for the committee and then to guide the questioning of witnesses.

Of course, the committee chairman presides over the hearings and committee members take turns questioning witnesses, but Stripling is responsible for bringing out all possible informaton for the guidance of the committee.

The dapper, black-haired and personable Texan has been kept on by the committee despite the fact that it passed to Republican control when that party won a majority of the house in the 1946 elections.

"Strip" is the father of an 8-year-old daughter, Bunny. His father is former San Augustine County Judge R. N. Stripling. The younger Stripling attended Texas A & M and the University of Texas. He served for 18 months in the Army during the war.

Push Hospital Development

Gregg County in East Texas is one of the leading areas in the nation in the development of a hospital program under the new federal hospital act.

The U. S. Public Health Service advises Rep. Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater, that it is in the final stages of approving plans and specifications prior to allocating funds for improvements in Gregg.

One project is a 60-bed addition to the Gregg County Memorial Hospital in Longview. Preliminary estimated cost is $689,400, of whch the government will put up $29,800. The other is a 50-bed general hospital for Kilgore, estimated to cost $842,500, of which the federal share is $275,500.

Wants Broom Threader

A letter reached Washington addressed simply to "The Congress of the United States, Washington, D. C."

There are 435 members of the House and 96 senators. The sealed letter was delivered to one of them. Who? Rep. Olin Teague of College Station. How Come? Because the postmark was that of a town in his district, Wortham. That's the way the Postoffice here handles such mail.

The letter was signed by Mrs. Mary Tisdale, contemplating on going into business for herself, she wrote:

"I would like to know where I could purchase a broom threader, I guess that is what they are called, anyway a machine that you make household brooms with."

She asked also what kind of soil is best for growing broom corn, and information about broom markets in Texas. Rep. Teague attempted to provide the answers.

Studebaker Head Speaks

A recent guest of the Texas congressional delegation at luncheon in the Speakers' ornate private dining room was Paul Hoffman, on leave as head of the Studebaker company to direct the Economic Cooperation Administration.

The ECA administers the Marshall plan and he told the Texans of a recent trip to Europe which convinced him, he said that progress is being made toward making the Continent self-supporting.

A native Texan was another guest. Maurice T. Moore, partner in a New York law firm which handles matters for Studebaker, accompanied Hoffman, Moore is now a legal advisor to the ECA.

Bearing in mind the company he was in, Hoffman upon being introduced said: "I must apologize. I've been in Texas, but I am not a Texan."

Moore went to New York to study law after finishing undergraduate work at old Trinty University in Waxahachie. He said he still calls Texas home and returns for annual visits with his mother. She is Mrs. J. H. Moore of Deport, in northeast Texas, who is president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers Association. Moore was a guest at the luncheon of Rep. Wright Patman of Texarkana.

SPAIN BATTLES ILLITERACY

MADRID —(AP) — One fourth of the population of Spain is illiterate but the percentage is dropping steadily each year, actistics. The most illiterate regicording to official published staons of Spain are the Basque and Navarre provinces, the report stated. The highest illiteracy rate if found in the Canary Islands where 63 percent of the population is unable to read or write.

Coast Guard's Birthday Party

Flags galore were flying from the colorful lookout tower at Cape Hatteras, N. C., as the U. S. Coast Guard celebrated its 158th birthday. The men who guard our shores gathered on the banks of the "graveyard of the Atlantic" with friends and relatives to pay their respects to the service organization.

Fat 'Stray' Steer To Be Barbecued

Cowpunchers To Celebrate At Annual Round-Up Aug. 25

Old-time cow boys of Deaf Smith County this week were preparing to join other members of the Western Cowpunchers Association in its annual round up Wednesday night, Aug. 25 and Thursday, Aug 26 at the River Road camp seven miles north of Amarillo.

A steak supper is scheduled for 6 p. m. Wednesday, followed by an old time square dance. Members will also camp there the next day and kill a fat "stray" steer for barbecuing.

Beal Queen, president of the association, said visitors will find plenty of horse feed and a place to camp, or "you can stay at the wagon yard, which furnishes wood and water for 25 cents."

Anyone or his relatives who punched cows 30 years ago are eligible to participate in the annual round up. As the outfit doesn't have a fiddler, Queen said the association would have to hire one and asked members who have not paid their 1948 dues to bring a couple of bucks, dozen eggs, bushel of plums "or some thing we can turn into money to pay for the fiddler and to help pay for the stray steer as some one might claim him. There will be a man at the gate to get the money."

While there won't be any motion picture stars from California, the association does promise that "some of the prettiest girls from 60 to 70 years young you ever saw in anybody's country" will be on hand.

Catholic Information

There's something wrong with Catholics!

If Catholics worship pictures, statues, and saints—if they think medals, holy water, and the like, will in themselves prevent accidents, disease, lightning, and drowning—if Catholics have no minds of their own and must vote and fight and act just as their priests order—then surely there is something wrong with Catholics. Yes, something so wrong that they should never be permitted to have a hand in the running of this great country of ours.

If, on the other hand, there is no idolatry or superstition about anything Catholic—if all Catholics have 100 per cent free will—if their patriotism is a proved fact—if, in short, Catholics believe that their Faith has in it and behind it reason, common sense, God-given authority, and a philosophy which, if generally adopted, would solve all present-day problems—if Catholics have such a story to tell to their non-Catholic neighbors and fail to tell it—then again we say these is something wrong with Catholics—woefully wrong.

To enable fair-minded people of other creeds to know Catholic facts from Catholic sources, from now on we will publish in this paper little informative stories of the things which Catholics believe, do, and live, day after day, believing that our messages will receive courteous attention and credence because we have no religion to attack, no axe to grind, no purpose in mind other than to engender understanding and goodwill which are so necessary if America is to stand united against the evils that surround us.

We hope you will feel free to write us your opinion of our articles and to ask questions about anything Catholic which you have in mind.

LP GAS THE MODERN FUEL Beyond the gas mains

We will admit that this lady may be overdoing it, but an LP-Gas kitchen does seem like a summer resort compared to a kitchen with an old-fashioned cook stove. We'll be glad to show you how you can enjoy the convenience, pleasure and economy of a modern LP-Gas kitchen. Phone, write or come in soon.
