RUMANIAN PARTITION UNDER WAY—Little Balkan nations showed their muscles Friday night as Russian forces, after occupying the Bessarabian territory surrendered by King Carol, advanced into new territory in what many feared was the start of a totalitarian carve-up of southeast Europe. Japs Talk Of Dominating A New 'Sphere'

Military Leaders Want To Take Advantage Of War

TOKYO, June 30 (Sunday) (AP)—War in Europe has presented Japan with a "golden opportunity" and she must take a "strong attitude," a group of leading Japanese army men decided at a conference last night the newspaper Nichi Nichi said today.

The paper said the conference followed a broadcast to the empire yesterday by Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita, who enunciated a foreign policy based on creation of a Japanese-dominated "Asiatic sphere."

Instructions relative to the "strong attitude" were sent to all army corps, and on the alert for opportunity to consolidate Japan's position.

Observers believe, however, that the military men were disappointed in Arita's speech because it advocated cooperation in the formation of spheres of influence and also avoided encouragement for the axis powers, rather than coming out flatly for a redistribution of the world's resources as a prelude to peace.

Japanese language newspapers reported the military services were attempting to quell rumors that they favored avoidance of friction with the United States and Great Britain. According to these papers, the military view is that friction with these "old nations" (Britain and the U. S.)

will become inevitable through future changes in the international situation.

At Hongkong Japanese-British tension was so high that a state of emergency was proclaimed and British authorities planned to remove all women, children and unneeded men from the crown colony to Manila. This was interpreted to mean that Britain would reject Japan's demand that it close the Burma route which the Japanese charge, in carrying army supplies to the Chinese.

(A Japanese blockade of Hongkong or even an invasion was considered possible. The British were understood to be ready to take powerful counter steps. American action for removal of women and children was expected within a week.)

Nazis Damage British Areas

LONDON, June 30 (Sunday)—(AP)—Several casualties and heavy damage were inflicted in the populous Midlands industrial area today by German air raiders.

Bombs also were dropped in southwest England but material damage was described as slight. No casualties were reported.

In the northeast of Scotland, a single high-flying plane dropped three high explosive and 30 incendiary bombs.

The air ministry issued a communique saying: "Enemy aircraft crossed the coast during the night. Anti-aircraft defenses are in action."

Other planes, believed to be German, were heard over northeast England.

Rumania Gets Pledge Of Aid From Axis

Dictators Also Work To Keep Hungary, Bulgaria Quiet

BUCHAREST, June 29 (AP)—Russian seizure of German-owned materials in ceded Bessarabia led to mounting fears tonight of complications between Germany and the Soviet Union.

At Chilla harbor, on the Danube, the German grain company, Dunarea, had a large quantity of wheat ready for export but all was seized by the Soviet committee headed by the mayor.

In the town of Balti, in northern Bessarabia, long strings of freight cars loaded with sugar were ready to leave for Germany but after the seizure of the territory in Russia, the population refused to let it go.

Rumanian authorities were able to get away only a few of the cars.

Germany and Italy meanwhile promised military and air assistance to Rumania, it was reported on high authority, if Soviet troops attempt to make further advances into this patchwork kingdom beyond the areas reluctantly ceded by King Carol.

Informants who are close to both palace and cabinet said the axis powers had given broad and flat assurances that any more penetrations would be stopped.

A number of government bureaus, however, arranged meetings Sunday to discuss plans for an emergency seat of government in the Carpathian mountains.

(Bucharest is in southern Rumania, near the Bulgarian border. A move to the Carpathians would place the government in the approximate center of the country.)

Foreign correspondents were told that military authorities had taken over the communications system, and military censorship becomes effective at midnight Saturday. Some London correspondents and others already have had their telephone connections cut off in the past 24 hours because of stories they filed.

Bessarabia, which the Russians always have called the land of milk and honey, already is under the heavy tread of the Soviet military in a comparatively bloodless occupation.

Russian sources said, too, that the principal cities in northern Bucovina—the other area yielded by Carol under a Moscow ultimatum—are now in control of the Red army.

The chaotic state of affairs and the lack of good communications from Bucharest to the provinces made it difficult to learn at what point in the north the Russians had halted, but the latest word was that they had pushed on as far as Dorohoi, some 15 miles beyond the western boundary of Bessarabia and thus well within old Rumania.

Russian informants declared, however, that this penetration beyond the agreed lines was "probably a military error."

There were, at the same time, signs that at least two possible sources of conflict were quieting.

Those involved in Hungary and Rumania, which have claims of their own for Rumanian territory. It seemed clear, from information received by diplomats here, that their demands were being calmed.

In Budapest, Hungary, it was learned that Germany and Italy were urging both Bulgaria and Rumania to stay at peace and continue their production, with the understanding that their demands upon Rumania will be adjusted "in due time."

Nevertheless, King Carol, who already had appealed strongly for Adolf Hitler's help last week, loudly break apart under the Russian-Bulgarian demands, was forming an army of 2,000,000 in a "last man" mobilization.

The highways of Rumania were jammed with refugees and with hundreds of thousands of Rumanian troops answering the call to service while the Russian soldiers tramped down the winding, muddy roads of Bessarabia, taking control of town after town.

The army of occupation, which started pouring down yesterday from Russian Poland and also over the only bridge over the Danube river near Iainca, continued streaming today through these backroads and then spreading into the territory.

Talks Of Forming A 'Peace' Party

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—Senator Johnson (D-Col), calling Wendell Willkie an "interventionist," asserted today that there would be a third party—"the peace party"—if the democratic presidential nominee also was one.

The senators, the "cannon fodder," and the veterans of this republic demanded a vote on the question of peace and they shall have it," Johnson added in a statement.

The Colorado senator is supporting Wheeler of Montana for the democratic nomination. Wheeler has been critical of the administration's policy of aid to the allies, and two weeks ago in the senate declared that he would "break with the democratic party" if it became a "war party."

Johnson said that Wheeler was the only democrat who could defeat the republican presidential candidates.

"Willkie is vulnerable in his Wall street connections and in his attitude toward war and the democrats to win must make the most of his weakness," he said.

With the republican convention over, capital political interest veered to the forthcoming democratic convention at Chicago beginning July 15.

Most democrats, confident that President would accept a third nomination, appeared to believe that the only major issue facing their convention would be selection of a vice presidential candidate.

He Probably Was Right, At That

ALBANY, N. Y., June 30 (AP)—An Albany court official after explaining the history of the American flag to a group of alien seeking citizenship papers, asked one of them:

"Tell me, what flies over the city hall?"

The alien blinked, replied: "Fojns."

Ask Funds For Highway 80

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—West Texans from El Paso to Fort Worth today asked the state highway commission to allocate an "equitable" amount of money each year for modernizing U. S. highway 80, important east-west artery which links either coast of the nation.

The U. S. Highway 80 association informed the commission the road had become obsolete, particularly along a 200-mile sector in Central Texas because of heavy traffic.

Its high crow, deep ditches and narrow underpasses, spokesmen said, could be blamed for a 45 per cent drop in tourist traffic in recent years and a high accident rate. The long range program suggested by them would provide a modern 4-lane artery across the West Texas expanse.

The road directly serves a population of 600,000 and is a link in the "Broadway of America," so-called because it connects Broadway in New York and San Diego, Calif.

The commission promised consideration of the request and Chairman Brady F. Gentry declared the officials had concluded that sooner or later the road must be given more attention, especially sections in Nolan and Taylor counties.

Wants Chamberlain To Leave Cabinet

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—A suggestion that Neville Chamberlain and others responsible for past appointment of Adolf Hitler should quit the war cabinet to still rumors of a British move for agronomist was made today by Lord Strabolgh, labor leader in the house of lords.

In an open letter to British editors, he declared the mere presence of Chamberlain, lord president of the council, and Lord Halifax, foreign minister, in the government was having an effect "most serious in the two most important neutral countries in the world—the United States of America and Russia."

Rodeo Dates August 14-15

Dates for the seventh annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo were announced Saturday as Aug. 14-15.

A decision to continue with the show this year had been reached two weeks ago, but the setting of dates was delayed at that time.

Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by Red Lyons, Evers, who has furnished all or part of the stock for the local rodeo in former years. Fans have found his calves, steers and bronc uniformly spirited and in rodeo jargon, downright salty.

Rodeo association officials have announced that the current contest would be thrown "wide open" to all contestants.

The seventh annual show is being underwritten up to $1,000 by a number of Big Spring business men. Plans are to streamline the program, to run events in rapid-fire order, and to add new color through various activities. The reduction of the show to two days is a step in speeding up the event.

NETS FOR TRAINING

PANAMA, Panama, June 29 (AP)—Submarine nets being installed across both the Atlantic and Pacific entrances to the Canal Zone were described officially today as "for training purposes."

'Little Merchant' Service Extended

Effective today, the 'Little Merchant' system of distributing your Daily Herald is being extended to cover other portions of the city, so that boys are now handling their own routes in practically all of the area south of the railroad.

These Big Spring boys have signed a contract to buy copies of The Herald at a wholesale price. They will do so at a retail price of 10c per week. The difference is their profit.

Your 'Little Merchants' are not in position to extend long credit. They must collect by the week, since they must pay for their papers by the week.

You may pay in advance for as many weeks as you like. You may also pay by check or money order. But please remember: YOU OWN THEM! BOY.

These boys want to give you service. They want your patronage. It doesn't run a real business for them, it brings money than they have made before. Your cooperation with them will be appreciated.

U. S. ENTERING COSTLIEST YEAR

Moisture Supply Boosted Further

More rain, preceded by a devastating wind, added to sub-soil reserves in this area Friday evening and Saturday morning to leave farms and ranches of the section in generally good condition. Precipitation was measured at .56 of an inch at the U. S. department of agriculture weather bureau at the airport and .56 of an inch at the U. S. Experiment Farm. However, in spotted parts of Howard county, the rain was as much as three inches.

Because most of the rain fell slowly, little additional water flowed into either of the city's two lakes in southeastern Howard county. Between the two lakes the downpour was intense enough to carry out a crossing.

Strong, sand-laden wind worked havoc in the northwestern part of Howard county. From the Moore community north and west to a point above Knott, virtually all sandy country. In some sectors, cotton eight inches high was reported heavily damaged if not ruined. Young cotton and feed were rubbed even with the ground by the cutting sand.

In the northeastern part of the county, where the wind was followed quickly by rain, damage was not regarded as serious. Around Chahoma the rain was variously reported from an inch to two and a half inches. In the Wild Horse creek area to the northwest, some farmers estimated the fall at three inches.

Some but not extensive damage occurred at Elbow, southwest of Big Spring and the Loma area appeared to have weathered the storm comparatively well.

Along the Howard-Borden county line one inch of moisture seemed to be about the average.

At Stanton half an inch of rain was gauged, while at See MOISTURE, Pg. 8, Cl. 4

REVIEWING THE BIG SPRING WEEK

BY JOE PIGGIE

Just when it looked like we couldn't wait another minute for rain, a country soaker came. Then, as if that was not enough, another general downpour fell before the end of the week. Of course, this does not mean that crop prospects are perfect, for it is late and wind Friday ripped out a few thousand acres of cotton. But prospects are so much better than they were a week ago that everyone is happy.

By now the furor over the introduction of water from the lake supply—and rains have laid in a year's store in the two city lakes—has subsided. City officials will admit that where they erred was in not by-passing the first half million gallons which had set long enough in the mains to absorb an abundance of lining and caulking tanks. It was bad enough that rumors arose about the lake drainage areas. To get the record straight, let it be said again that

Total To Pass Ten Billion

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The government, chalking up a deficit of $3,700,000,000, will end one fiscal year tomorrow and start on a new one which, as a result of the new defense program, will be the costliest in peacetime history.

The expiring fiscal year produced a new spending record of about $9,000,000,000, revenue to a deficit exceeded in peacetime only in 1939 when the soldiers bonus was paid. Exact figures on income and outgo will not be known until the middle of next week after year-end reports are received from field offices.

At present, treasury officials are figuring on expenditures of approximately $10,500,000,000 and income of about $7,000,000,000 in the new year. If these estimates hold good, the deficit will be about $3,500,000,000 because the treasury is figuring on getting about $700,000,000 from a dozen government corporations which have been instructed to turn back part of their capital.

There is every prospect, however, that expenditures will be far greater than $10,500,000,000. President Roosevelt has disclosed that expansion of the rearmament program is under consideration. He mentioned no figures, but authorized quarters said that this might involve a $5,000,000,000 outlay.

At the turn of the fiscal year, the treasury owed about $4,000,000,000 and had less than $2,000,000,000 of its statutory borrowing authority left. But the new defense program carried with it $4,000,000,000 more borrowing power.

Transition of the budget from a peacetime to a preparedness status was marked in many items. In the old year, the treasury spent $1,575,000,000 for defense. In the new year, the bill will approximate $4,000,000,000. Appropriations for next year are much larger, but much of the work won't be paid until the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1941.

GO-ED CLEARED IN SHOOTING CASE

FORT COLLINS, Colo., June 29 (AP)—Lola Jeanne Van Orsdal, 19, Colorado State college co-ed, was freed today of charges of attempting to kill her football player-sweetheart in a lovers' quarrel last November 22.

Greer Is Named Hwy. Engineer

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Thirty-seven-year-old Dewitt C. Greer, design and construction engineer for more than three years, today was appointed state highway engineer in succession to Julian Montgomery, resigned.

An employee of the department since 1927, Greer has served as field engineer, division engineer in the Tyler district and lately in charge of design and construction of roads and bridges on which the department spends an average $25,000,000 annually.

Montgomery, who was chief engineer for three years, resigned on the advice of physicians because of ill health.

First-Half Construction, Postal Receipts Are Higher

32 SPONSORS ARE LISTED FOR RODEO AT STAMFORD

STAMFORD, June 29—Thirty-two cowgirl sponsors, including the eight first-prize winners of former years, had been registered for the eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion up to Friday morning. Former winners of first place will not compete for prizes, but will participate in the other activities on the program for the sponsors. Top prize is a beautiful special-made saddle. Registrations will continue to be received through Sunday, June 30. Mrs. Warren B. Teyman of Stamford will be hostess to the sponsors. The list of appointments to date includes Miss Mary Nell Edwards of Big Spring.

New Car Sales Show Decline From 1939

Business held its own here during the first half of 1940, according to a survey of building, postal receipts and new passenger car sales totals.

Postal receipts showed a substantial gain, construction slightly improved its position, but new car registrations hit the skids. Although the amount of building in Big Spring for the initial six months did not reach boom proportions as in several other localities, it was steady. Through June the figure stood at $184,425 as compared with $180,581 for the same time a year ago. The gain amounted to $3,844.

An odd feature was the decline in both residential and business building, leaving repairs, remodeling, etc. to account for the increase. During the initial six months there were only 27 new homes (and many cost $500 or less) erected at a cost of $58,990. For the same period last year here 37 homes were built for $71,795, and two years ago there had been 43 new homes for $90,292.

Business structures increased in number, but were off in value. At the end of June there had been 22 new non-residential buildings raised at a cost of $55,248 against 17 for $70,985 last year and 26 for $130,925 in the first six months of 1939.

Postal receipts, showing gains for every month, were up to $36,724.74 as compared with $34,048.13 for the same period of 1939, an increase of $2,681. In April, May and June the gain was most pronounced—$1,672 of the net gain occurring in that period.

The same psychology working against new construction apparently undermined the new passenger car trade. For the first six months registrations amounted to 518, 58 machines less than the 576 for the first half of last year. The monthly margin of decline continued through June.

Incidentally, June furnished a fair picture of first half business. Construction amounted to $31,286, up from $17,208 for the month a year ago, but down from the $30,068 in May. Postal receipts jumped to $5,817.51, up sharply from the $4,682.69 for June of 1939 and down from the $6,884.99 in May. New car registrations fell from 57 in May to 71, which was 10 less than the same month of last year.

Young Tenor To Sing Here

Joedene Propst, pictured above, will provide one of the bright spots in "Texas Stars On Parade," to be presented here Monday night.

Fourteen acts of music, song, dance, comedy, impersonations and novelty numbers will be presented by an array of talent brought here under auspices of the local American Legion post. Texas Stars On Parade is scheduled at the football stadium, beginning at 8:15 p. m. but of the weather is inclement, the program will be moved to the municipal auditorium.

Young Propst, a tenor soloist, is a popular West Texas entertainer and is being brought back here by request to sing popular numbers and Irish ballads. He will be remembered as the tenor soloist for the Hardin-Simmons Cowboy band and during the summer months in the featured soloist for WFAA. During the school vacation last year he studied voice in California and while there was auditioned among 79 tenors to take Kenny Baker's place on the Jack Benny program. He was in the final runoff of the three selected. He has been personally given encouragement for a brilliant future, with his voice, by Bing Crosby.

Business Heading To Recovery Level

By FRANK MacMILLAN
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK—American business crosses the halfway mark of 1940 with factory wheels spinning at the fastest seasonal rate in three years, and prospects that war demands and domestic rearmament may soon push activity to the highest levels since 1928.

The European war has dominated the business scene since hostilities broke out in September. But the enormous recent successes of the Nazi blitzkrieg have made it an ever-increasing factor in the calculations of business men and investors, as energies of the nation were turned to making the United States a formidable military power.

Few industrialists and speculators appear to have called the turn of events precisely in the business world as a result of the struggle. Much of the first half of 1940 was spent in a readjustment to the fact that European purchases of war supplies did not come so fast or in such big volume as had been expected.

TEN BILLION LOST
This was reflected in the movement of the stock market, which reached a peak in its first reaction to the war late in October, then moved sidewise and later, downward to a bottom early in June.

When the first impact of the total war hit the market, with the invasion of the Low Countries, prices crashed in one of the most severe bear movements in the history of Wall Street. Total quoted value of shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange lost more than $10,000,000,000 in less than two weeks, and bonds and unlisted securities many billions more.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 20 per cent in value in ten trading days, before stocks steadied.

The course of industrial activity had followed a roughly similar course. Many lines of activity had been speeded in autumn on the theory that Allied buying here would be on the scale of 1916, although it took the collapse of France, at the end of nine months of war, to bring British purchases to their peak.

HEAVY INDUSTRY PUSHED
This foreign business coincided with the rush to rearm America, and gave heavy industry its greatest push since 1937. The aircraft and steel plants of the nation were whirring along at or near capacity as the half-year came to a close, and motorcar factories were booming in unusual resistance to the normal summer down-trend.

This activity appeared to be spreading rapidly to other lines of business as the second half of the year began. Retail trade seemed to be catching up with the rush in factories, after a spring lag.

Most observers felt that still further improvement lay ahead, though not minimizing the disruption of many normal channels of trade as a result of the war. The rearmament race here was expected, for the time being, to take up most of the slack caused by the loss of customary foreign markets.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics in Washington said: "If the European war continues active, it seems fairly certain that industrial activity during the last half of 1940 will be higher than during the first half."

The trend of share prices appeared to lend weight to this point of view.

Measured by the Associated Press average, the market reached its lowest in two years, at 37.0 on July 10, when it had become fairly obvious that the French defense was collapsing.

ARMY PLAN STARTS RISE
The course from then on was generally upward, as investors and speculators appeared more and more interested in the effects of business of the many billions of dollars the U. S. government was planning to throw into its arms effort.

Statistics Show U. S. Position Ahead Of 1939 At Mid-Year

AF Feature Service
NEW YORK—Here are some indicators as to how much better the United States did, in working, manufacturing and selling in the first half of 1940, compared with the same period of 1939:

1940	1939
Average number employed	45,000,000
Steel production (tons)	28,900,000
Automobile production	2,540,000
Freight car loadings	16,890,000
Electric power output (kw-hrs)	64,014,000,000
Crude oil output (bbls)	891,250,000
Home building contracts	270,000,000
Stocks and bonds (new capital)	$191,000,000
Farm income	$3,818,000,000

Totals for the first half of 1940 are partly estimated. Building statistics are those of F. W. Dodge Corp. for 37 eastern states.

Commodity prices for the first half of 1940 were consistently higher than during the first half of 1939.

ent that the conflict was getting a slow start, prices quickly subsided, though to levels a little better than at the outbreak of hostilities.

Wheat nearly doubled in value to above $1.10 a bushel in the autumn buying surge, but is now under 80 cents. Cotton got to nearly 11 cents a pound, but now is only a bit above 8. Typical of imported commodities was rubber which rose from 16 cents a pound to above 21, and is now in the neighborhood of 18.

REA Project Due To Get Funds Soon

STANTON, June 29 (Sp)—The Martin-Howard county rural electrification project was represented at a statewide REA meeting in Fort Worth by Herman Deavenport, president of the board of directors of the local project, and George Bond, Martin county agent.

The meeting was held at the Texas hotel by REA officials from Washington and the field, who outlined the program and policies of REA for the coming fiscal year, which starts July 1.

Assurance was given at the meeting that the local project which covers parts of Martin and Howard counties would receive funds from the coming appropriation. The lines here will cover 158 miles and furnish electric current to 327 signers. Work will be started immediately on signing up users on approximately 150 miles of additional line as officials at the meeting stated that R. E. A. is now in a position to furnish service to the more thinly populated areas.

The trip to Ft. Worth and back was made in Herman Deavenport's plane, according to Bond, who reports that it was his first flight of any distance in such a craft.

IN FORT WORTH
Olie Cordill, fire chief, was undergoing X-ray treatments in Fort Worth this weekend for a malignant throat condition. He was reported resting well.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell L. Willkie were all smiles as they emerged from individual conferences with newspaper reporters following his nomination for president by the republican convention at Philadelphia.

Republicans Can't Decide On Man To Be Party Chairman

PHILADELPHIA, June 29 (AP)—The rear guard of the republican national convention squabbled over the selection of a national party chairman today and settled the issue temporarily by appointing a sub-committee to confer with Wendell Willkie and choose the man.

Important influences backed a move to continue John D. M. Hamilton in the job, with Willkie's apparent concurrence. The opposition had the leadership of Alf M. Landon, who at Cleveland four years ago selected Hamilton as his pre-convention manager.

Later Hamilton, in a statement, termed the creation of a sub-committee "very natural in view of the rapidly with which events have moved in the last few days."

This affords Willkie the "needed opportunity" to consider campaign plans, Hamilton said, and added that meantime the present "staff" of the committee will continue to function.

Willkie, meanwhile, left the city without making known his choice. He and his attractive wife sailed as guests of publisher Roy Howard aboard the yacht Jamaroy for a brief sea voyage before returning to New York and then taking a longer vacation.

The republican candidate told newsmen he would probably defer his formal acceptance speech at his home town, Elwood, Ind., until after the democrats meet in Chicago July 15, adopt a platform and choose his opponent.

The contest within the republican national committee affected in no way the jubilant and confident air assumed by party chieftains after Thursday's nomination of Willkie as the 1940 standard-bearer.

This same spirit inspired the rank-and-file delegates as the last of them headed for home.

The members of the committee were extremely reluctant to concede that their 150 campaign had started in a controversy over who should manage it, but the existence of the row was so obvious that finally they made no effort to conceal it.

Walter S. Hallanan of West Virginia was appointed chairman of the sub-committee. He said he would visit Willkie in New York about the middle of next week, probably Wednesday and talk the question over with him.

Willkie Calls Himself The Man To Trade Blows With Roosevelt

PHILADELPHIA, June 29 (AP)—"I'm just beginning a fight," declared Wendell L. Willkie after an amazing eight-weeks' campaign, unique in recent American political history, brought him the republican presidential nomination.

Standing atop an improvised platform of desks in his headquarters on the sixteenth floor of a hotel, the 45-year-old utilities executive, tired but smiling broadly, gave a pushing, cheering crowd of admirers the promise of a fight for votes in the weeks to come.

"I intend," he said, "to give everything I have to bring about American prosperity, build an adequate national defense and restore national unity."

Sensing victory as the sixth ballot was taken, Willkie told friends he thought he was the man "to trade blow for blow" with the democratic nominee, whom he predicted would be President Roosevelt.

Word of his nomination, of which he had been confident since the convention opened, came to him by radio at his headquarters.

The former Indiana farm boy kept through it all the informality that had made him popular with convention visitors and Philadelphians from the start.

"I'm very happy, very appreciative and very humble," he said when the last ballot was in.

All during the voting he bantered and joked. Before each ballot, he would offer a prediction as to the number of votes he would get. His predictions always were too conservative. He first forecast that victory would come on the sixth, but later, in a moment of enthusiasm, changed it to the third. When that ballot failed to bring the nomination, he went back to the sixth.

As the contest developed into a battle between himself and Senator Taft of Ohio, Willkie smoked one cigarette after another. Occasionally, he would run his fingers through his thick, black hair.

Once when Taft made a spurt, Willkie remarked:
"It looks as if it might be either of us. Well, should he win, we can say that we at least scared them."

A few minutes later, when the tide of Willkie votes started flowing in, he smiled and said:
"Boys, that's not bad for eight weeks' work, is it?"

ATLANTA, June 29 (AP)—The term "cold blooded thief" appeared to meet the situation perfectly here today.

WILLKIE 'BOOM' STARTED MAY 11
PHILADELPHIA, June 29 (AP)—Wendell Willkie gave his own answer today to the question which has had a lot of politicians here puzzled: When did he first begin to take his presidential boom seriously.

The date, the republican nominee said, was May 11. On that day, he related, he received and accepted an invitation to speak before a meeting of Minnesota republicans at St. Paul.

The invitation, he added, was extended after he had followed that "well-known gladiator, Harold Jokes," in speaking before a meeting of publishers in New York.

Reds Rally To Edge Chicago Cubs, 4 To 1

CINCINNATI, June 29 (AP)—Claude Passeau held the Cincinnati Reds scoreless for five innings today but the National league leaders peppered him from the lead on to give Jim Turner a 4 to 1 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Passing Harry Craft purposely to get to Morris Aronovich in the eighth round proved Passeau's undoing. Aronovich doubled to score Ernie Lombardi and Craft and give Cincinnati a permanent lead.

Craft had accounted for a tally in the sixth round when he drove home Ival Goodman.

Chicago's only run came in the sixth when Jimmy Gleeson's triple enabled Stan Hack to score.

Brooke Wins Collegiate Golf Title

MANCHESTER, Vt., June 29 (AP)—A 20-year-old University of Virginia gamester, who refused to give up even when he appeared hopelessly beaten, is the new national collegiate golf king.

He is F. Dixon Brooke, who came back from being four down to win the title in a 36-hole match from Harry Haverstick of Swarthmore by 1 up, over the Ekwanok club's rolling course today.

Haverstick, who has played in five of the last six national amateur and qualified for two national opens, fired a eight-over-par 78 this morning to gain his four-up lead over Brooke, who scrambled around in 83 strokes.

On the second 18, however, Brooke got hold of his game, wiped out that deficit at the 27th, and then went on to win with a neat 78 as Haverstick's game fell apart.

DEAN AND HORNSBY LEAD IN ALL-STAR GAME BALLOTING

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, June 29 (AP)—Two fading figures—Dixie Dean and Rogers Hornsby—stepped from the shadows into the glare of baseball's fickle center light once more tonight.

Fans of the Texas League, the fans who knew Of Dix as their prize bush leaguer a decade ago and the Rajah as one of the best hitters of all times, voted them to the top of balloting for the circuit's all-star game to be played at Fort Worth on July 11.

Dixie Dean isn't the best pitcher in the league. Some youngsters have taken that away from him. But he could pass around glamor to all the boys and still have enough left.

His closest competitor in the north—Manager Bob Linton of the last place Fort Worth Cats—by 4,000 votes.

Manager Dyer was a runaway choice in the south with 18,803 votes.

For the fourth consecutive year the veteran Clayland Touchstone, Dallas pitcher with the countless deliveries, was named to the northern mound staff—in his usual third place position.

Four games have been played since the classic was played in 1936. The south won the first game, 4-3 repeated in '37 with a 3-1 triumph, belted the "Yankees" again in '38 behind Harry Kimbrell's great hurling 2-0, and finally lost their first game at San Antonio last year, 7-2.

Red Cross Fund Is Still Growing

Contributions continued to be received by the Red Cross chapter for the war refugee fund Saturday.

Shine Phillips, chapter chairman, said that the total received to date had reached $2,572.89. New donors included Mrs. Frances M. Boyle, Mrs. W. E. Irvin, Mrs. H. Miller, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. J. T. O'Barr, the Elbow Sunday school, the Knott Home Demonstration club and Mrs. Florrie Neill.

Although the county quota of $2,250 has been exceeded, this does not mean that the need has been lessened. Because the refugee problem in war-torn Europe is mounting daily among non-combatants, Phillips urged those who can make further gifts to the cause.

New Talk Of Adjournment

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Talk of a new administration drive for congressional adjournment circulated on Capitol Hill today as the legislators began returning after the week's recess for the republican convention.

Senator Ellender (D-La.), usually an administration follower, reported increasing sentiment for congress to quit.

"There is no real reason to stay here," Ellender said. "Our job is done and public hysteria is quieting down."

Senator McNary (R-Ore.), minority leader and his party's vice-presidential candidate, said the republicans would continue to oppose adjournment, but would agree to a 10-day recess for the democratic convention at Chicago beginning July 15, rather than only a week's recess.

Indications are that little will be accomplished in congress next week aside from committee, and possibly senate, consideration of President Roosevelt's nominations of Col. Frank Knox to be secretary of the navy, and Henry L. Stimson to be secretary of war.

Income To Individuals Shows Gain

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The commerce department reported today that income payments to individuals during the first five months of this year totaled $29,182,000, an increase of five percent over the same period last year.

The index of such payments—using 1929 figures as 100—increased three-tenths of a point to 87 from April to May, Secretary Hopkins said. This increase, he added, "reflected largely the increase in business activity following the slow decline in February, March and April."

At the same time, the labor department reported that employment in nearly every region of the United States increased between April and May in non-agricultural establishments. There was a net gain of 250,000 in such employment, it said.

Hopkins said that a rise in payrolls during May was more than enough to offset a decline in cash farm income caused by the sharp drop in government agricultural benefits. Salaries and wages for May were estimated at $2,789,000,000, an increase of $61,000,000 over April and $191,000,000 over May, 1939.

His report said that the total income payment totals during the first five months of the year was divided in this way: Salaries and wages, $18,685,000,000; dividends and interest, $3,428,000,000; entrepreneurial income and net rents and royalties, $5,828,000,000; direct relief and other labor income, $1,212,000,000.

(Income payments to individuals differs from national income in that government payments for relief, crop subsidies, etc., are included. When national income is figured, these payments are excluded, but increases in corporation surpluses are included.)

Cite Need For Research

WACO, June 29 (AP)—The cotton research congress in its closing session today passed a resolution urging the legislatures of southern states to appropriate at least $250,000 annually for specific research for new uses of cotton and its by-products.

The resolution was presented by A. M. Goldstein of Waco.

Commenting on the three day congress, Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro, chairman, said:

"This is the first time in history we have brought together the brains of the cotton industry. We have stimulated new interest in cotton thinking and if we haven't accomplished any more than to bring the cotton problem home to the public this meeting has been a success."

In a speech Jackson warned of the danger of America's cotton export markets being lost completely.

He painted a somewhat gloomy picture of the situation created by the European war and said the congress had been held with the idea of attempting to gain from the consensus of opinion the best methods to be used in combatting the difficulties that had arisen.

Grover B. Hill of Washington, assistant secretary of agriculture, cited the aid given by his department in expanding cotton consumption, adding that America is by no means as ill-prepared for the conflict as it was in 1914.

"Today, to have a loan program to prevent the bottom falling out of the price," he said.

"We have the AAA to keep production more nearly in line with probable consumption. We have machinery for competing in the world market. Underlying everything else, we have 2,500,000 farmers who are cooperating in all objectives leading to orderly production and marketing of crops and conservation of our soil."

Italo Balbo Is Victim Of War

ROME, June 29. (AP)—Marshall Italo Balbo, bearded pioneer in the fascist movement, and nine others, including prominent Italians, died when their plane was shot down in flames by British aircraft encounter over Tobruk, Libya.

The victims included the Italian consul General of Tripoli, the editor of Balbo's newspaper Corriere Padano, and two relatives of Balbo, Signor Ferrarini, a nephew, and Lieut. Florio Gino, a brother-in-law. Five passengers and five crew members perished.

The plane was on an official mission but did not go up for military action when it was brought down yesterday.

Premier Mussolini ordered flags at half staff for his old associate; swathed in black crepe; the Italian Broadcasting system was silent for two minutes after announcing the death of the spectacular aviator, and the high command thus honored him, in a special communique:

"Flags of the armed forces of Italy are lowered in sign of homage and high honor to the memory of Italo Balbo, Alpine volunteer in the World war, one of the quadrumvirate of the (fascist) revolution, trans-Atlantic flier and air marshal who died at his post in combat."

REDS USED 'CHUTES

MOSCOW, June 29 (Sunday) (AP)—Parachute troops were used in carrying out yesterday's speedy occupation of the Bessarabian and Bucovina areas obtained from Rumania, Tass, soviet official news agency, reported today.

Second CAA Aviation Class To Be Organized This Week

Organization of a second Civil Aeronautics Authority aviation class for non-college students is due here this week, Dr. F. W. Malone, chairman of the chamber of commerce aviation committee, said Saturday.

Through Saturday noon more than 25 young men and women had applied at the chamber of commerce office for membership in the ground school, Chamber and city officials, joint sponsors of the program, are anxious that as many more who meet qualifications will enroll in the class when it is set up at the high school building Tuesday evening.

Big Spring is one of 225 points in the nation offering the CAA service to non-college students. If the ground school numbers from 25 to 49, CAA will award five scholarships for flight training starting Oct. 1. Should the number in class exceed 50, the number of scholarships will be 10.

This total may be raised by payment of scholarships by persons or agencies other than the federal government. For each of these, the CAA will match it, provided it does not match more than 10 such scholarships. The CAA provides $425 for ground instruction for classes up to 49—the one-class limit, and $750 if the number is above 50. In addition, for each flight scholarship, the CAA pays $325. Dr. Malone listed this information for those interested in the course: Applicants must be between 18 and 26 years of age, citizens, legal residents of the state, must not be enrolled in an institution of higher learning; ground school open to anyone (at cost not to exceed $10); women are eligible but only one of class may qualify for flight scholarship; cost consists of $6 for physical examination, which will be refunded if student secures one of flight scholarships; sponsors care for instructional material; any youth in this territory meeting above requirements is eligible and should contact the chamber of commerce if interested.

Illinois Collegians To Give Program At Presbyterian Church Tonight

The Week

The disposal plant is not on or connected with the lakes' watershed.

If you are one of the many who are contemplating a trip to Moss Creek lake today, then expect a rough crossing at Beal's creek where a dump was washed out last week. Also, reconcile yourself to the fact that the road to Powell Creek is a private one and is closed to the general public.

All local candidates posted the ballot fees totaling $1,048. On this basis it looks like they will shell out more than $7,000 for the campaign, which will make each potential vote cost $1. That's something. You name it.

The last person in the world who would want this mentioned is W. G. "Will" Hayden, but our Moore correspondent advises that it was he who came to the rescue when the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hasey was recently destroyed by fire. He moved a four-room house from Big Spring to the Hasey farm and presented it to the family. If everyone did not already know it, then they would be aware that Mr. Hayden is a "good neighbor" schooled in the old way.

Designation of the Big Spring airport as being important to national defense is being sought at the hands of the war department in order to increase an already approved $66,000 WPA improvement program. If there is a strategically located point in this area from a defense point, it should be Big Spring with the juncture of two important national military highways.

The announcement that a new CAA non-college aviation class will start here this week may be taken as proof that the CAA is pleased with the quality of the initial course here—one of two originally authorized in Texas. Barring by an altitude ruling as an army air base, Big Spring can contribute to the national defense program through the CAA.

An interesting program has been arranged for July 4th with the new amphitheatre in the city park as the scene. It is to be hoped that residents of this area will fill the 5,000 seats the first time. Those who like a little excitement with their Fourth will enjoy a fireworks display being planned.

Local people welcome the start of a flood control program in the city, especially after hard showers left evidences of damage. A lot of money will have to be spent on the work, but when one stops to consider that it will prevent, in a large measure, recurrent damage, then it may be reasoned that the program will eventually pay for itself.

Moisture

Lenora, whose moisture was more needed, 1.11 inches fell. Reports received by Martin County Agent George Bond indicated that wind damage was not heavy, that most rain fell where it was most needed, and that farms and ranches were in good shape. Stock water supplies were ample for the summer.

Several hundred acre-feet of water were stored in range tanks over the territory, finishing a job almost completed by good rains the first of the week. Ranchers were cheered as already greening grass was assured of long and luxuriant growth. Many ranchers, having already reduced stocks to the minimum, had been faced with prospect of having to sell more animals in order to get through a drouthy summer. But in one week the picture had changed.

Although the region could have made out nicely on what moisture it already had, the weekend showers were welcomed because they stored moisture in the sub-soil, depleted by prolonged drouth last season. Thus crops and ranges can hold out longer in event of sustained dryness the remainder of the summer.

Salvation Army To Observe Diamond Jubilee Tuesday

Public ceremonies will officially commemorate the Diamond Jubilee of the Salvation Army here Tuesday as the organization launches similar observances in 97 countries and colonies.

Maj. L. W. Canning, in command of the local Salvation Army post, said that a program will be given between 7 p. m. and 8 p. m. on the east side of the courthouse square. Among those to appear in brief talks are G. C. Dunham, R. R. McEwen, Tom Coffee, R. T. Piner, Shine Phillips and the Rev. C. E. Lancaster. The Rev. Homer Halship is to pronounce the invocation. It is possible that J. A. Morrison, Dallas, divisional secretary, may be here for the program.

The widespread celebration, despite world conditions, marks the 75th anniversary of the time when William Booth, Salvation Army founder, and his wife, Catherine, began work as a missionary to the poor of London, England. Out of that has grown a remarkable unit devoted to rehabilitation of lost souls through the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Today there are Salvationists in 97 countries and colonies preaching

Christ in 104 languages from platforms of nearly 15,000 halls and institutions. There are some 37,000 "officers" (leaders), 10,900 other holders no rank but devoting their time to the army. In the United States, which by coincidence is celebrating the 60th anniversary of the Salvation Army in America, there are 1,631 corps, 229 institutions, 4787 officers and around 1,500 buildings, valued at half the total for all Salvation Army structures in the world.

Work of the organization is multi-lateral. It operates more than 1,000 day schools for underprivileged children, over 2,000 social institutions, 35 naval and military institutions, and up to 250 emergency huts, canteens and shelters operated in war zones.

Although Booth did not envision a youth movement at the start, today there are 55,000 junior and senior bandmen in Salvation Army bands around the world. The Corps Cadet Brigades, preparing for careers as Salvation Army officers, now numbers 35,000.

Similarly, there has been a growth in publications from none during the first three years of Booth's work to 129 today, of which the War Cry (the current issue is devoted to the Diamond Jubilee) is the best known.

A great network of service has been thrown around the globe through the Army's industrial institutions, homes for inebriates, labor bureaus, prison gate work, children's homes, farms, general hospitals, maternity hospitals, and restoration of wayward girls.

Its "trophies of grace" have been without number since the day 60 years ago when "Ash-Barrel Jimmy," so named because he had a habit of diving head first into ash barrels when he got drunk, was saved and restored to a constructive Christian life. And so the Salvation Army work has progressed with but a single objective, saving of lost souls through service and the gospel. What is ahead is uncertain, but none is more confident that there will be a way for continued service than the very workers who are in the ranks today.

WOMAN FRIEND OF HITLER ARRESTED

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—Scotland Yard's fifth column squads today arrested tall, blonde, Lady Mosley, pre-war friend of Adolf Hitler, wife of the imprisoned fascist leader and daughter of a British peer. In doing so Britain not only took cognizance of the fact that Lady Mosley shared actively in Sir Oswald Mosley's "British Union" activities at home, but it reached back also into the curious friendship of two pretty, high-born sisters for the fuhrer of Nazi Germany.

Mitchell Test Swabs 50 Bbls. In Six Hours

N. V. Hilburn No. 1 E. T. Strain, northwest Mitchell county shallow test, swabbed 50 barrels of oil in six hours. It was reported Saturday, to furnish a brighter side to the oil picture in this area.

The test, shot with 275 quarts from 1,701 feet and cleaned out to bottom at 1,800 feet in lime. Swabbing was from 1,200 to 1,740 feet. Location is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 82-97, H&TC.

Also promising was the C. W. Hanes No. 1 Grable, 2,310 feet from the north and east lines of section 195-3, H&GN, which had almost as much fluid as the Hilburn well. Operators planned to cement and shoot with 200 quarts.

Shut down for orders was the Ray Although No. 2 John Robinson, northwest Dawson county wildcat, which had a good show of oil being water through 3,206-14 feet. The show came through 4,000 feet of sulphur water logged from 4,983-91 feet with an increase reported at 5,010 feet. Location is 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 54-M, EL&RR.

In northeastern Howard county, half a mile east of the Vincent community, the M. L. Richards No. 1 Thelma J. Cole wildcat re-cemented and had a dry hole Saturday, and was ready to resume drilling. The test had a shallow pay from 615-30 feet, topped the salt at 825, some 46 feet higher than the Richards No. 1 Shafter, three miles north and west, and called the Yates at 1,120 feet, which would make it 124 feet high in comparison with the abandoned Shafter test. It is 2,310 feet from the west and 1,650 feet from the north lines of section 12-14, H&TC.

Operators planned to move in on the Moore Bros. Exploration Co. No. 1 H. S. Currie, rank southern Glasscock county wildcat. Location for the 4,200-foot test was staked last week 660 feet from the south and 1,980 feet from the west lines of section 25-34-5a, T&P.

No change was reported in the Magnolia No. 1-40 M. H. O'Daniel, southern outpost to the Snyder pool of southeastern Howard county, which had drilled past 2,314 feet in line with no change reported. It is in the southwest quarter of section 40-30-1a, T&P, half a mile south of nearest production.

Crawford And March Co-Starred In Film Version Of Stage Hit

'Susan And God' At The Ritz For Two-Day Showing

Joan Crawford, the star who was the surprise hit of "The Women," joins forces again with the director, producer and scenarist of that production, George Cukor, Hunt Stromberg and Anita Loos, in "Susan and God," picturization of the celebrated Rachel Crothers' stage success, which co-stars Fredric March and plays today and Monday at the Ritz.

As Susan Trexel, rattlebrained social butterfly who adopts a new social movement as a fad, Miss Crawford has her most versatile role to date, with March, following his stage success in "The American Way," making an auspicious return to films as Barrie, her inebriate husband. Cast in support is an impressive group of players headed by Ruth Hussey as Charlotte, the family friend in love with Barrie. Rita Hayworth is seen as the young actress, Leonora, married to the older Hutchins Stubbs, portrayed by Nigel Bruce, but in love with the young actor Clyde Rochester, played by John Carroll.

Rose Hobart is Irene, hostess at the house party at which much of the action occurs, and Bruce Cabot is the sportsman, Mike O'Hara, in love with her. Rita Quigley appears as Blossom, young daughter of Miss Crawford and March.

The story revolves around Susan, who has neglected her own family responsibilities in her enthusiasm for converting her friends to the new social movement. Gradually she antagonizes all her intimates and finds herself faced by a divorce which she does not want and losing the new-found love of her child. She is forced to fall back on the faith which she so blithely discussed without understanding it, to pull her through. Hilarious comedy combines with highly dramatic situations to provide one of the season's outstanding pieces of entertainment.

FROM STAGE TO SCREEN—Joan Crawford, back in the good graces of movie fandom after her success in "The Women," chooses a stage success for her newest screen story, "Susan And God." The picture is at the Ritz today and Monday with Fredric March—who also has been on the stage for some time—playing opposite Miss Crawford.

Cisco Kid At Lyric In New Adventures

Cesar Romero Again Plays Role Of Dashing Bandit

Deeper in danger and luckier in love, O. Henry's romantic rogue of the Rio Grande, the Cisco Kid, is at his "fightin'est" in his latest adventure "Lucky Cisco Kid." The picture tops the Lyric program for today and Monday.

Handsome Cesar Romero is back again in the featured role as the Cisco Kid, dashing, colorful and capable, he has become a fixture for the famous character created by the master short-story writer O. Henry. In his newest adventure, Romero is said to hit a new peak for his portrayal. Gay and daring, with an eye for lovely senoritas, he has made the Cisco Kid one of the best-loved Western characters on the screen.

"Lucky Cisco Kid," loaded with action, is set in an Arizona town which is terrorized by raiders. The fireworks begin when Cisco and his partner Gordito (Chris Pin-Martin) enter the town. A killer beats Cisco to the draw. A bandit steals his name. A jealous senorita has him at her mercy. But how the Cisco Kid lives to laugh at them all makes for thrilling entertainment. Moving fast with interest sustained throughout, the picture smashes its way to a surprising climax.

An excellent cast of featured players has been assembled. Beautiful and blonde Mary Beth Hughes, one of the 20th Century-Fox studio's most promising young players, heads the list. Before appearing in "Lucky Cisco Kid" she played in "Star Dust" and then in "Four Sons" in which she took a long step forward with a beautiful performance. She is very well cast in "Lucky Cisco Kid" as an Arizona dance hall siren-songstress in love with the gay caballero.

Other players featured prominently in "Lucky Cisco Kid" are: Dana Andrews, who is heralded as a very capable newcomer; Evelyn Venable, more beautiful and charming than ever, and Chris Pin-Martin as the Cisco Kid's popular lieutenant Gordito, rotund maker of laughs.

THE KID'S HERE AGAIN—Cesar Romero, who has taken over the role of the Cisco Kid, has the title role again in the Lyric theatre's offering for today and Monday, "Lucky Cisco Kid." Mary Beth Hughes is the heart-interest in the case, and Chris-Pin Martin is featured in the cast.

HOWDY, FOLKS—Here's the Weavers again; the Weaver Brothers and Elviry, of course, plus assorted other members of the Weaver troupe. They contribute rustic comedy again before the camera, appearing in a hilariously laugh opus called "Grand Ole Opry." The picture is the Queen's feature for today and Monday.

Railroad Commission Aspirants Developing Issues On Defense

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—The war is bearing heavily on the race for the open place on the three-member state railroad commission.

Charles Langford, Jr., of League City, former chief engineer with the commission, has been advocating the merit system for commission employes, an increase in the truck load limit, 90-day oil production schedules with no shut-downs, elimination of "privileged practice before the commission."

Other candidates are Clyde E. Smith of Woodville, who polled 193,000 votes for attorney general in 1934 when William C. McCraw was elected; Rep. Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill; John D. Copeland of Austin, former rule 37 examiner with the commission; Eugene T. Smith of Austin, former chairman of the highway commission; Errol Holt of Dallas, John Paul Jones of New London, Baker Salsbury of Amarillo, John Pundt of Dallas, Bailey Sheppard of Longview, Larry Mills of Dallas and O. O. Terrell of Alvin.

Oliver Culbertson of Edna and Austin stressed the importance of the commission's position in national defense, as well as in the industrial development of the state.

Senator Olan R. Van Zandt of Tioga will speak at Belton July 4, honoring soldiers of all American wars. Because of the serious illness of his mother, he cancelled engagements for this week.

W. H. McDonald of Eastland—former state land commissioner—is stressing the need for raising the truck load limit, and has requested mayors to form committees to investigate subversive activities.

Walton D. Hood of Austin, former chief enforcement officer of the commission, is emphasizing an Americanization theme and a strong anti-fifth column program.

Bryan Patterson of Alton, oil well drilling contractor, running on a platform of "honesty and horse sense," has erected more than 2,500 large posters, which bear the red splash, "Stop Hitler!"

"We have had some trouble with Nazi sympathizers tearing them down," he reports, "but after work-

Weavers In New Comedy At Queen

'Grand Ole Opry' Is Featured Offering Opening Today

The Weaver Brothers—with Elviry, of course—have gone high-falutin' to the extent of quitting the vaudeville stage for the Hollywood camera. But to the film capital they have taken the Ozark atmosphere, and their films retain all the rustic flavor of the familiar Weaver act on the stage.

One of the rural-comedy efforts is at the Queen theatre today and Monday, an opus titled "Grand Ole Opry," in which Abner, Cicero and Elviry put forth their best efforts at mountain music. There are assorted other Weavers in the cast, and the romantic interest is provided by two players named Lois Ranson and John Hartley.

New Federal Tax Won't Be Hard On Local Film Fans

Some movie-goers in Big Spring stand to benefit from reduced theatre prices, and only a comparative few will be called on to "dig up" in answer to Uncle Sam's call for higher taxes to finance the national defense program.

The new taxes, in effect Monday, include a higher levy on amusement admissions. The R&R management here, however, has elected to temporarily—absorbing most of this higher tax bill.

Under the new tax law, the federal tax begins after 20 cents on theatre admissions. Customers at the Lyric will get a lower rate, since that showhouse will drop its

Rain Cancels Benefit Forty-Two Party

Rain canceled the benefit forty-two party which was to have been held by Circle One of the First Methodist Woman's Missionary Society Friday on the lawn of the R. E. Satterwhite home. The affair has been postponed indefinitely and ticket money will be refunded, according to circle leaders.

Prices from 10-25 cents to 10-20, in order to be under the tax limit.

The Ritz theatre's total price will remain at 40 cents at night, with the actual admission being cut to 36 cents, and the theatre paying the 4 cents tax. Ritz afternoon and balcony prices will have the tax added, making the total 33 cents instead of the 30 charged heretofore. The extra 3 cents goes to Uncle Sam.

Queen admission prices are not affected, remaining at 10 and 15 cents.

Greatest Of Nature's Attractions, Carlsbad Caverns, Close To Home

By MARY ALICE WOODARD

One of the most famous, and without a doubt the most fantastic of the national parks is so close to home that it has, in recent years, become quite a popular week-end resort. But distance still lends enchantment, for there are an amazing number of people in this vicinity who have for years taken weekend trips—going much farther away and seeing so much less than they could see in a few hours at Carlsbad Caverns, the largest underground group of caverns known to man.

Spreading in a vast network of chambers and passages beneath the Guadalupe mountains, in Eddy county, New Mexico, and twenty-five miles from Carlsbad, this fantastic fairyland dropping toward the earth's center, is beyond human description. Allow your imagination to visualize an ensemble of Niagara of flowing rock, forming titanic crustations of translucent splendor, frozen cascades, yawning chasms, and giant stalagmites and stalactites. They stagger imagination and seem as unreal as a fantastic dream. This is indeed nature's own underworld.

name of Jim White discovered the cavern, and partially explored them, using torches to guide him. Since that time, hundreds of thousands of people from all over the nation have visited the park. Almost as staggering as the caverns themselves is the history behind them. Geologists estimate they were started some sixty million years ago, at the end of the "Age of Dinosaurs." Water seepage into vast limestone deposits has caused the myriads of sculptured effects, both grotesque and beautiful. In all forms and positions the untold number of stalagmites and stalactites are beautifully colored in shades of off-white, tan, rose, green and purple.

Coloring is due to iron or other minerals in the limestone. It seems completely out of the human realm of comprehension, to stand before these huge masses of formation and try to realize that you are gazing at something that nature has taken sixty million years to build to its present perfection. It is indeed awe-inspiring to see, in some of the rooms, sculpturing so perfect as to have been done by a master hand.

has never been determined, although three main levels have been explored; the first at 700 feet, the second at 900 feet and the third at 1,200 feet. Visitors are taken only to the first level, reached either by trail or elevator. At present seven miles of underground corridors and great chambers are open for inspection. Among the most beautiful are the King's Palace, circular in formation, and separated from other chambers by walls of gleaming onyx; the Queen's chamber, noted for its delicate and dainty draperies, through which pale shades of pink may be seen; the Peepers chamber, the Green Lake Room, which derives its name from a tiny green lake by the side of the trail. The Big Room is indescribable in both its beauty and its size, being 4,900 feet long, 625 feet wide, and the ceiling arches to a height of 350 feet. The majestic Rock of Ages, said to be fifty million years old, is in this room. Here also is the where visitors are allowed to rest and have luncheon.

illumination. The entire trail is now a masterpiece of electrical illumination. To understand the perfection of the lighting, and to realize its full effect, one has only to be seated before the great Rock of Ages, not one shadow can be seen—and see the pagantry of light flashing first in the deep recesses of the room, gradually nearing, until finally the entire room is a blaze of light.

The temperature of the caverns is 56 degrees the year round, cool enough to be pleasant, but also cool enough to make a light wrap advisable. Also, for seven miles of walking, low heel shoes are recommended.

As a climax to a day packed with thrills, it is exciting to remain near the mouth of the cavern, to see the last flight. These creatures, inhabiting an area of the cavern not traversed on tours, pour from the opening in a smoky mass every evening at sundown, from March to October. It is estimated that there are about three million of them. This sight, like countless others, is one which can probably be seen, at no other place in the world.

The actual extent of the caverns

State Has Jacks And Stallions For Lease

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Want to rent a horse? The state of Texas will lease you one—a good one—for $50 a year, plus a bond.

ter of fact the jacks are all spoken for but a few stallions are available. These include saddle horses and some big sleek Belgians and Percherons, those with the tufted fetlocks and plaited tails that used to haul brewery wagons.

The big demand is for jacks whose function is to sire mules. Maybe its a forerunner of the national defense program because mules, in spite of the trend toward mechanization, are still army heroes. M. A. Morris, chief of the department's jack and stallion division, says he could lease 500 jacks if the state had that many.

THE DAILY HERALD "Say You Saw It In The Herald"

No Opposition, And That Makes Her Very Happy

Happiest woman about this business of having no opponents is Mrs. Ida Collins, county treasurer. Relief over having no opposition is expressed when she laughs and says that she left candidates for her post "at home." Frankly, Mrs. Collins, for one, is willing to just leave it at that, at least until she gets her children established. This, perhaps, explains why she puts her three children first. For office or no office, Mrs. Collins is first of all a mother. She gains a measure of pride by pointing out that the office to which she was elected two years ago had enabled her to send her eldest son, Juan, Jr., to Texas Tech. Right now he has an appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis and is looking for a ride to Washington, D. C. Her daughter, Dorothy, was graduated from high school this year, another reason why Mrs. Collins is grateful for the opportunity to continue as treasurer. The third member of the family, Roy, is still in school. Mrs. Collins feels that it's entirely proper for women to earn a living, and besides, she enjoys working with books. In her first year of office, she handled $212,222.33 of county funds and balanced it to the penny. She loves to visit with those who call at her office, whether friend or stranger. It makes no difference what the topic—crops or the children—Mrs. Collins has the West Texas penchant for talking things over. Sheep in Wild 8 Years HERBANS (UP)—While mustering on Island sheep station, Queensland, A. Burgess found 10 sheep which had strayed into the wilds after being marked as lambs in September, 1934, and not been seen since. Their fleeces were so long that their hooves were hidden and because of the accumulated dust of years the sheep looked like walking mounds of charcoal. Mrs. Lee Laney of Salina and Mrs. Frank Stripling of Fort Worth arrived here Saturday to visit with their sister, Mrs. Fox Stripling, who continues seriously ill.

Realtors And P-C Matched

The Country Club will be the scene of action today of three City Golf League duels, originally scheduled to be played last Sunday but postponed because of the Fortan tournament. Cook's Realtors, setting the pace in league standings at the present time, tangles with Pepsi-Cola. Phillips No. two is matched with Nalley's while Phillips No. one duels with Post Office. Cook's has won ten matches, one more than has Phillips No. two, in second place.

Plan Defense Parade For Big Spring

Plans for a national defense parade here will be discussed in a conference today between Col. C. McLaughlin, Fort Bliss, district recruiting officer, 2nd Lieut. George T. Coleman, Lubbock recruiting officer, and Sgt. Troy Gibson, local recruiting officer.

Tentative plans call for arrival of an army contingent consisting of two officers, 45 enlisted men, including the 5th cavalry band, three scout cars, four cargo trucks and a reconnaissance car here July 6. Date of the projected parade, in which local service organizations will be asked to participate, will be set at today's parley.

Matt Harrington, assistant chamber of commerce manager, will participate in the conference with the view of assisting in preparations.

Saturday Sgt. Gibson announced that during June the Big Spring post had enlisted a total of 39 recruits for the army. During the past month and a half, recruiting has doubled here. On the peak day 12 men were enlisted.

During the past week the following young men were recruited: Sam H. Crawford, Leonard Martin, James McNeill, Ray D. Anderson, Jack Olin, Robert H. Harper, William W. Williams, George H. Welch, Thomas D. Francis, Kyle B. Caudle, Ray S. McKinnon, Cecil Klahr, Peter Mehaise, Lonnie E. Manning, Gilbert H. Ballard, Robert W. Crow and Thurio E. Brisson from Lamesa.

Others between the age of 18 and 35 may enlist in their chosen branch of service by contacting Sgt. Gibson at the First National bank building.

Floyd Hughes of San Angelo, driver, and J. W. McCullough both escaped injury when their truck got out of control and overturned Friday afternoon on the highway a mile south of town.

TRENDS MIXED ON THE STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 29 (UP)—While the stock market, for the third successive week, managed to show a slight gain on balance, the list muddled through today's brief session with mixed trends.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 41.3, but on the week was up 1. For the month the composite showed a net upturn of 2.8 points.

Transfers for the two hours amounted to 170,130 shares, smallest volume since July 8, last year. It compared with 204,340 a week ago. The June stock trading aggregate was the lowest since February, while the month's bond sales touched a bottom since 1918.

FOR THE 85 PCT.

DENVER, June 29 (UP)—Denver police found themselves facing this dilemma today:

If they marked the tires of parked cars with ordinary chalk, some overtime parkers slipped from their offices to erase the marks with a sponge.

If they used a waterproof chalk the marks remained on the tires of motorists who drove only a short distance from one parking place to another.

After a check-up showed only 15 per cent of overtime parkers were "unfair," Traffic Captain James J. Pitt ordered ordinary chalk used because "we do not want to hurt" the non-cheating 85 per cent.

TRENDS MIXED ON THE STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 29 (UP)—While the stock market, for the third successive week, managed to show a slight gain on balance, the list muddled through today's brief session with mixed trends.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 41.3, but on the week was up 1. For the month the composite showed a net upturn of 2.8 points.

Transfers for the two hours amounted to 170,130 shares, smallest volume since July 8, last year. It compared with 204,340 a week ago. The June stock trading aggregate was the lowest since February, while the month's bond sales touched a bottom since 1918.

TRUCK OVERTURNS

Floyd Hughes of San Angelo, driver, and J. W. McCullough both escaped injury when their truck got out of control and overturned Friday afternoon on the highway a mile south of town.

McCullough said it appeared faulty steering apparatus caused the truck to go into a ditch. The machine turned over several times. A load of furniture was badly damaged.

FOR THE 85 PCT.

DENVER, June 29 (UP)—Denver police found themselves facing this dilemma today:

If they marked the tires of parked cars with ordinary chalk, some overtime parkers slipped from their offices to erase the marks with a sponge.

If they used a waterproof chalk the marks remained on the tires of motorists who drove only a short distance from one parking place to another.

After a check-up showed only 15 per cent of overtime parkers were "unfair," Traffic Captain James J. Pitt ordered ordinary chalk used because "we do not want to hurt" the non-cheating 85 per cent.
