Mrs. McLaughlin's Retirement To Bring Change In Business Matters of Telephone Company

Mrs. Eva McLaughlin, who has been employed by General Telephone Company of the Southwest, and its predecessor, the San Angelo Telephone Company since 1935, will retire on November 9, 1962, it is announced by John E. Robbins, Jr., Division Manager.

The business office, which Mrs. McLaughlin has operated since 1935, will close effective with her retirement and all telephone matters will be handled by the San Angelo office.

Mrs. McLaughlin's husband, Charlie C., who is a combination man in Eldorado, is scheduled to retire next year. They plan to continue to make their home in Eldorado after retirement, Mrs. McLaughlin said.

In announcing Mrs. McLaughlin's retirement, Robbins commended her for the long service she has given to the telephone company.

Mrs. McLaughlin was born in San Saba and moved to San Angelo when she was seven. She attended

San Angelo public schools and San Angelo Business College. During World War I she worked as an operator in San Angelo. In 1935 she became Chief-Operator Cashier in Eldorado. She was made Cashier when Eldorado became an automatic exchange and handling of long distance calls to and from Eldorado were transferred to the San Angelo office. That was back in 1948.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, who have two children and three grandchildren reside at 14 E. Gillis here in Eldorado.

After Mrs. McLaughlin's retirement and the business office closes, Eldorado customers will be able to call the San Angelo business office without charge to discuss telephone business, according to J. L. Stambaugh, District Manager. Telephone trouble also will be reported to the San Angelo office and relayed back to the local plantman, Stambaugh said, and correct telephone numbers for each type call will be published later.

One Criminal Case, Civil Cases, On Docket For District Court

With Judge Joe L. Mays presiding, sessions of 51st District Court will get under way Monday morning in the courthouse. The list of petit jurors summoned is published elsewhere in this Success issue.

The Grand Jury recently returned an indictment, no. 227, charging forgery, against Lyle Mayron Kelly who is now in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

The Grand Jury also tru-billed William Wardell Brooks, charged with writing forged checks on Jack Etheredge and Ernest Hill, and he has been moved here from Huntsville; his is the only criminal case to come up.

Civil cases on the docket include:

Hal King vs. Traders and General Insurance Co., compensation. King is represented by Aubrey Stokes and Traders by Upton, Upton, Baker, & Griffin.

Gilbert Lowe vs. Zurich Ins. Co., compensation. Lowe is represented by Aubrey Stokes and Zurich by Kerr & Gayer.

Travis K. Adams vs. Texas Employers Ins. Corp., compensation. Adams is represented by Thigpen & Steib, and Texas Employers by Hardeman, Smith, and Foy.

A few other cases may come up for consideration.

Eagles Set to Play Last Non-District Game at Junction Tomorrow Night

By PEYTON CAIN

The contest between the Eldorado Eagles and the Junction Eagles in Junction tomorrow night is strictly for the birds—either way. But it won't necessarily be an easy contest for the Eagles from the Edwards Plateau. It is true that Eldorado nosed out Rocksprings 15-14 on a muddy field and then Rocksprings downed Junction 15-0; but what isn't generally known is that Junction repeatedly penetrated Rocksprings' 20-yard line but seemed plagued by ill luck from there and couldn't make it across to the vital territory. It could be different Friday night should Junction get going in this critical zone because that is how football disasters are born.

The Eldorado Eagles' starting lineup collectively weighs 1,730 pounds while the Junction lads total 1,745 pounds as a team.

The Junction starting line-up is as follows:

No.	Name	Pos.
80	Butch St. Clair	LE
50	James Elliott	LT
61	Mike Lamb	LG
51	Keith Boone	C
62	Joe Hernandez	RG
74	James Crumby	RT
84	Charles Coleman	RE
16	Clifton Moss	RHB
20	Roy Modgling	LHB
33	James Hodges	FB
10	Kenney Neal	QB

Schleicher High Coach Earl Barnett said this week that Junction uses a varied set of offensive formations from the T formation, the I formation, to the Spread, with a number of variations of the formations mentioned. He continued that during the Eagles' week of rest, he had strongly emphasized fundamentals but that this week he would teach methods of combatting the offensive strengths of the Junction formations.

Coach Barnett described Junction's offensive spearhead as being some of a three-pronged matter with three hard-running backs: Fullback James Hodges, 170 lbs.; Right Halfback Ray Modgling, 170 lbs.; and Kenny Neal, 135-lb. left hander; along with Butch St. Clair, 170 lbs., at end who drops back into Tail Back on the Junction spread.

He continued that Junction actually got inside the Rocksprings 20-yard line six times last Friday night. He concluded that the Eagles could expect a rough time of it with the Junction lads whom he termed as "Cedar Choppers" rather than Eagles.

There is something thrilling—and chilling about leadership, and it is a heavy responsibility. It will fall crushingly on Eldorado's two Senior boys and one Junior boy tomorrow night when they take to Junction's decidedly hostile field in the yearly effort to beat back Junction several of whose players have never beaten Eldorado. As a result, Junction will be fired to the maximum.

Game time tomorrow night is 8:00 o'clock.

A year ago the Eldorado Eagles beat Junction 39 to 6.

Final Non-District Tilt

Tomorrow night's game at Junction will be the Eagles' final non-district game. The following Friday, October 19, Rankin comes here for the first district game with the Eagles. At that time the game starting time will be moved up a half hour to 7:30 p.m., and that starting time will continue throughout the remainder of the season.

Commissioners Approve Improvements On Court House, Mem. Bldg.

Some improvement projects for the Memorial Building and Court House are under way as result of recent meetings of the Commissioners Court.

On Sept. 24, in special session, the Court employed E. R. Bryant to furnish labor and paint for the exterior gables and trim of the Memorial Building, for $170. This work has been done by Mr. Bryant.

At the same meeting, J. H. Faull was employed to furnish labor and material putting 5/8" plywood and vinyl floor tile in the area occupied by the Judge, Jury, and lawyers in the District Courtroom of the courthouse. Also to enclose the balcony with 5/8" plywood, textured and painted on the courtroom side. Contract price was $840.

Mr. Faull was at work on this project this week and it is expected to be all done by the time district court gets under way Monday.

At the same meeting the Court approved the 1962 tax roll.

Monday, the Court took up the matter of leasing school land in Gaines county for oil, gas, and mineral leases.

Rains Miss Us

It rained all around us on Tuesday but Eldorado got only a trace—not enough to register in most gauges.

Black, vicious looking clouds were hanging in the sky off to the south and it is reported that heavy downpours occurred in the ranch country of Sonora. Some area in Sutton county which had been without rain all summer was said to have gotten as much as 6 or 7 inches.

Less than one-tenth of an inch was recorded in the Bailey ranch area here.

H. D. Council Meets

The County Home Demonstration Council met on October 5th at the S.W. Texas Electric Co-Op building, with nine present in addition to the agent, Vida Kreklow.

Mrs. Wayne Mikeska and Mrs. Duwain Sauer gave reports on the state meeting which they attended recently in Dallas.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

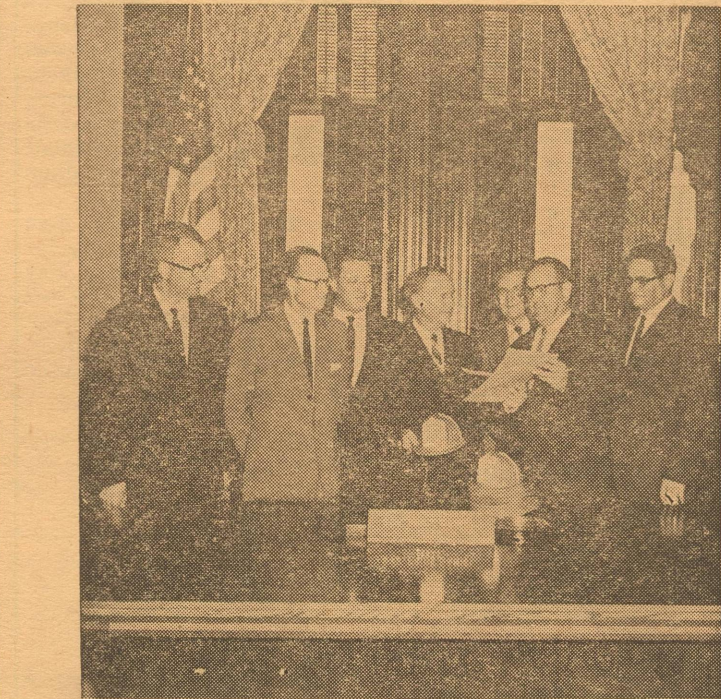

Mrs. Ethel Boynton, pres.; Mrs. Duane Branham, v. pres.; Mrs. Ruth Williams, sec.-treas.

Gulf Station Changes Hands

In a deal that was worked out Tuesday evening, Jack Mund sold his Gulf filling station to Jack Hext and Dee Love.

Mr. Love will be in active charge of the business, while Hext continues as Gulf consignee for Schleicher and Sutton counties.

Mr. Mund's future plans have not yet been announced.

The sponsors of next Tuesday's meeting announce that all are invited to attend.

GIN TOTALS

475 bales had been ginned at the Mikeska gin here up to noon yesterday. Cloudy, damp weather and traces of rain has slowed down movement of the crop this week.

The biggest day at the gin took place last week when they processed 49 bales.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henderson and daughters, Cindy and Betsy, came last week from Laredo to visit Mrs. Henderson's mother, Mrs. Allan Kuykendall and her sister, Louise. They left Tuesday for Sand Springs, Okla., to visit Mr. Henderson's parents for a few weeks before Mr. Henderson leaves on November 6 for San Francisco on his way to Japan. Mrs. Henderson and the girls will join him in Japan later.

Barbecue is being served at noon.

Bob Whitis and Linda Love were home over the week end from college.

SCREW WORM ERADICATION WEEK

TARGET
SCREW WORM ERADICATION

OCTOBER 14-20

The week of October 14-20 has been designated Screwworm Eradication Week by Governor Price Daniel. This week climaxes the efforts of southwestern livestock producers and sportsmen to raise $1.3 million to be used to rid Texas and the Southwest of this costly livestock pest that does $100 million in annual damage. The program entails the production and release of sterile screwworm flies over infested areas, which results in infertile eggs and eventual eradication.

The kick-off on screwworm eradication finds that 144 producers out of 243 running stock in the county have paid $15,249.60 on a basis of 50 cents per animal unit while 99 have not contributed to the eradication program.

The memorandum of understanding signed by three groups, the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, the Texas Animal Health Commission and the Animal Disease Eradication Division, ARS, U.S. Department of Agriculture will be on a 50-50 matching basis. Livestock committees are hopeful of raising an additional $1,300,000 to complete their three million commitment, in which 99 producers in the county are considered a part.

The success of the screwworm eradication program depends on the co-operation of all producers. You can eradicate the screwworm!

1. Become a member of the screwworm eradication program by contribution of 50 cents per animal unit if you have not already done so.
2. Inspect livestock frequently.
3. Treat all wounds promptly.
4. Collect worms from the wound and use vial to send in for proper identification.

Send your contribution to Leslie Baker, treasurer, committee, First National Bank, Eldorado, Texas.

On The Screen . . . 'Lisa' Is Melodrama, On Sunday & Monday

Compassion merges with drama in "Lisa," the CinemaScope and DeLuxe Color motion picture showing Sunday and Monday nights at the Eagle Drive-In Theatre here in Eldorado.

The story concerns a Dutch policeman (Stephen Boyd) who wants to help a victim of Nazi concentration camp medical experiments, a Jewish girl (Dolores Hart) seeking refuge in Palestine. In the process, a German sadist is killed and the couple flees across Europe to avoid arrest. They fall in love, but their romance is not to be finalized. The girl gains her haven, but the policeman has a rendezvous with the authorities.

"Lisa," is an engrossing story and the action of the chief players get strong support from the rest of the cast. Support is given by such able performers as Hugh Griffith, Leo McKern, Finlay Currie, Harold Goldblatt, Marius Goring, and others.

The general progress of the action is dramatically serviceable and there are colorful and exotic background details. The locales ranging from Holland to Tangiers and the shores of Palestine provide opportunities for much colorful camera work.

Producer Mark Robson has lavished extraordinary care on the creation of atmosphere for the film. The exotic backgrounds of the Jan De Hartog novel ("The Inspector") from which Nelson Gidding wrote the screenplay, play a strong role in themselves.

With Miss Hart and Boyd turning in workmanlike portrayals, "Lisa" provides 112 minutes of high adventure. The cast: Peter Jongman.....Stephen Boyd Lisa Held.....Dolores Hart Brandt.....Leo McKern Van der Pink.....Hugh Griffith Sgt. Wolters.....Donald Pleasence Ayoub.....Harry Andrews Dickens.....Robert Stephens Thorens.....Marius Goring De Kool.....Finlay Currie Dr. Mitropoulos.....Harold Goldblatt Browne.....Neil McCallum

Ed Meador accompanied six high school boys to Austin Saturday for the annual High School Band Day and the Tulane-Texas U. football game. Attending were Lynn Meador, Rusty Meador, Larry Blair, Bob Lester, Beep Cain, and George Draper.

Overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will L. Isaacs on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. John F. Isaacs of Sierra Blanca.

Oct. 14, 1927—A caravan of 22 Chevrolet commercial cars, including the full line from fire truck to school buses, invaded Eldorado Friday on a tour of the state, on which they will visit 200 Chevrolet dealers over Texas. They were met out of town by the local dealers, Evans & Wall, and paraded the streets with whistles and horns blowing and a music box playing. Their trip here was purely advertising and not without humor. The smaller children mistook Pete Wall for the clown of the show, thinking it was a big circus coming to town and that Pete was the clown.

While returning from the fairgrounds Monday after the ball game, a car from Sonora driven by Miss Stokes ran into Cicero Swift's car in which Jym Newsom was riding. NUGENT SETS FORTH HIS PLATFORM FOR RE-ELECTION

Stepping up the pace in his campaign for re-election as State Representative of the 66th District in the Nov. 6 general election, James E. "Jim" Nugent carries his conservative platform into every section of the 11-county West Texas area. The energetic and youthful Kerrville attorney, completing his first term in the Legislature, has adopted the slogan, "Let's operate our state on a businesslike basis now," and solicits support of his constituents for a proven conservative West Texas man to represent a conservative West Texas district.

In his first session as state representative, Nugent supported and will continue to fight for the preservation of our farm to market road program.

Economy in our state government is the cornerstone of good government and Jim Nugent's record reflects his constant support and work for the reduction of expenses in state agencies commensurate with providing adequate services.

Nugent said the plight of our deserving senior citizens due to inflation is a matter of concern to all. Last season, he helped pass the bill granting additional benefits for our deserving elder citizens in compliance with the wishes of the people of this district and will continue to fight to see that our senior citizens receive enough to live in decency and comfort.

Representative Nugent said, "I will continue to use every effort to support and sustain local self government, believing that people at the local level know best how to take care of their own affairs at the city, school and county levels. Let's handle our own problems without Federal intervention, in our cities, schools, and county governments."

Nugent will continue to use every effort to effect passage of a fair and effective Loan Shark bill; he voted for the one that was passed out of the house last session, which died in the senate.

As Vice-Chairman of the state-wide Legislative Committee on Water Pollution, Nugent is working on a fair water program for the protection of the people of this district and the state. He said, "We must protect our riparian water rights and save the fresh water of our district and state."

Our state sales tax should be amended to take out the existing inequities and reduce the reporting burden now placed on our businessmen.

Veterans of this area know they can depend on Jim Nugent from his past record of assisting them in legislation affecting their welfare and in their dealings with administrative agencies.

Nugent sponsored legislation supporting our screechworm eradication program last session and will continue to work toward the eradication of this destructive pest.

He helped fight off an attack on our right to work laws last session and restated his continuing support for the preservation of our right to work laws in the State of Texas.

"As your state representative," Jim Nugent said, "I will do my best to represent the wishes of all the people of this district. I will not be the tool of any special group or faction and will represent the will of the majority, and in seeking reelection to a second term, I assure all of the voters that I will conduct my campaign on a clean, upright basis running on my own qualifications and merits and will not degrade our district by engaging in mud slinging or character assignments."

Editorial Comments From Our Neighbors

From Bad To Worse

There is more involved in the proposed across-the-board postal rate hike than mere money.

The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee is harnessing a billion-dollar pay raise for 1.5 million Government workers to the bill, and in proposing an alien and costly censorship—rather than a flat ban—on Communist propaganda from behind the Iron Curtain, has created a monstrosity that threatens our philosophy of government.

Besides adding a cent to the cost of mailing a letter—either first class or air mail—and a crushing burden to the backs of newspaper and magazine publishers, passage of such a bill would serve notice that the traditional roles of the American people and their Government have been reversed. The Government, under this cynical new attitude, would no longer be the servant but the master.

Historically, the cost of Government is met out of general taxes. And when—at a time when the tax burden is already so heavy that business must curtail or forego profits to maintain plant and equipment—a postal revenue bill is saddled with a general Civil Service pay boost plus the ugly spectre of censorship, the authoritarian "welfare" state is only a Congressional vote away.

But, of graver concern, is the revelation now apparent in the bill that it is a mere shakedown and in no sense an honest effort to improve the Government's fiscal position. And it would be a tragic thing for the nation if the Congress, in the mounting fever for adjournment, should so far forget its duty as to pass such a measure.

Woman's Club Meets

The Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon at the club room for the regular semi-monthly meeting. The meeting was scheduled to be held in the home of Mrs. L. L. Watson, but was changed on account of the threatening weather.

During the business meeting at which Mrs. Edwin Jackson presided, the resignation of Mrs. D. C. DuBose was accepted with regrets.

A district workshop will be held in Comanche on Sept. 20.

Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene will review the book, "View from the Hill" by Cid Ricketts Sumner, on Nov. 13. The Mertzon and Sonora clubs have been invited to attend.

Mrs. Arch Mittel was leader of the program which was on friends and brought the inspirational thought.

Mrs. C. N. Clark talked on working together and Mrs. John H. Luedecke talked on praying together.

Mrs. Clark stated that a man's ability to get along with others and make friends is the best reason for him to be made the head of a great business. Mrs. Luedecke said that friends and nations praying together and working together is the way to have peace in the world.

Mrs. L. L. Watson served apple pie a la mode and coffee or tea and nuts to the 12 members and one guest, Mrs. Ben Biggs, present.

LIONS HAVE PROGRAM ON COUNTY OIL PLAY

Schleicher county's oil development from the 1920's to the present time was traced in a talk given to the Eldorado Lions club yesterday by Robert K. Bradley, who is a consulting geologist.

Bradley, who with his brother Pancho sold lemonade at the site of the Whitten well in 1929, pointed out that oil exploration was started during that decade as a result of successful fields being brought in at Big Lake in 1923 and in the Yates field in 1926.

He discussed the geological formations in the county as well as the various oil well locations. Mr. Bradley holds a degree from Texas Tech. He was introduced by W. H. Hale.

In the business session, Peyton Cain, Dr. Marcus Young, Douglas Jung, and Raymond Mittel received their membership pins.

W. R. Bearce presided and pointed out that the club had gotten four new members out of the quota of seven which had been assigned the Eldorado club.

The club directors agreed to furnish $50 for materials for improving and painting the interior of the Scout hall.

Wesley Isenhauer of Brady was the only guest besides Bob Bradley.

It is doubtful that any of the historic structures in Texas spells "Civil War" as does Wyalucing, the 112-year-old home of Lucy Holcombe Pickens at Marshall in deep East Texas. To those who know Wyalucing's story and the events which took place on its grounds, the very name is synonymous with the 1861-65 conflict.

And yet, the old mansion may be lost forever unless quick action is taken to save it.

Since 1880, Wyalucing has been a part of Bishop College, but now the school has been moved to Dallas and the entire plant sold. The campus is presently being cleared of all buildings to make way for a modern development of some type on the site. Wyalucing will doubtless be wrecked for the lumber and other materials it contains unless a suitable arrangement can be made for its purchase and preservation.

Wyalucing was built in 1850 by Col. Beverly H. Holcombe, a Tennessee planter who migrated to Texas in 1847 bringing his wife, his two daughters and two sons. One of the daughters, Lucy, was married at Wyalucing in 1858 to Francis Wilkinson Pickens, U. S. minister to Russia. Pickens later became governor of South Carolina and Lucy was a frequent visitor to her old home in Marshall.

During the War, Lucy's picture appeared on $1 and $100 Confederate currency—the only woman to be so honored. She is reported to have sold her jewels to equip a Confederate regiment which became known as the "Holcombe Regiment." She became known as the "Queen of the Confederacy" and her old home in Marshall became both the social and military center of activities.

After the fall of Vicksburg in 1863, Wyalucing became headquarters for the Trans-Mississippi Conscript Bureau, the Department's postal offices, a temporary headquarters for the surgeon-general, and several other minor offices.

The governor of Missouri was a house guest at Wyalucing while engaged in moving the wartime capital of his state to Marshall and Gen. Joe Shelby stood on the steps of the old mansion to announce the fall of the Confederacy to his troops. It was here that General Shelby sounded the call for troops to follow him into Mexico and hundreds flocked to join him.

Though Lucy Holcombe Pickens was probably the outstanding Texas heroine of the War, her sister, too, played an important role. Anna was married to Col. Elkanah Greer, the organizer of the famous Third Texas Cavalry and later the director of the Confederate Conscript Bureau of the territory west of the Mississippi.

Today, Wyalucing stands majestically on a hill overlooking downtown Marshall. Surrounded by magnolia and oak trees, the house could become a major tourist attraction for the entire East Texas area. The Harrison County Historical Society wants to buy the place either on its present location or on condition that it be moved to another site. East Texas Baptist College has offered to provide a site on its campus and to maintain the building as a museum and historic shrine if it has to be moved.

Main obstacle to the acquisition of the building is, of course, the lack of funds rather than a lack of interest. It is to be hoped that some satisfactory arrangement for the purchase can be worked out for if Texas and Texans do nothing else during the Civil War Centennial, they should preserve Wyalucing.

Plans are being talked in Marshall for a Civil War Centennial observance noting the anniversary

Home Demonstration Agent's Column
By MRS. VIDA KREKUCW

I always forget two things. I forget how long it stays hot in the summer and how cool it gets when it does get cold. But, on looking at the calendar I know that pretty soon I'll be pulling out the electric blanket. Before I use it though, I must wash it. Wash an electric blanket, you say. Yes, it actually is the only way to get an electric blanket clean.

I'm going to follow the directions given by the experts and this is what they say about it.

How To Launder Your Electric Blanket

Important: Never dry clean the blanket because some cleaning materials are injurious to the wiring system.

Wash your electric blanket as you would any fine blanket—with complete confidence. (See instructions below). Remember to disconnect the plug at the foot of the blanket.

As with any fine blanket, you should always measure your blanket before laundering so that you may block it back to its original size.

Automatic Laundering:

1. Place 1/3 cup of mild soap or detergent in machine and fill with warm (100 to 110 F.) water. Run machine for two minutes to mix detergent, then add blanket.

2. Washing:
a. For agitator type washers with two wash action speeds, wash for 1 1/2 minutes with slow wash action and fast spin.

b. For agitator and tumbler-type washers with single wash action speed, soak blanket for ten minutes then agitate or tumble for 15 seconds.

3. Rinsing: Use cool water (70 to 90 F.) to remove detergents and rinse twice (one minute each time) for best results.

Hand laundering:
1. Mix 1/3 cup of mild soap or detergent with lukewarm water, then add blanket.

2. Soak blanket for about ten minutes, then squeeze suds thru by hand for about two minutes.

3. Use soft brush and solution of mild detergent to remove stains and heavily soiled spots from blanket binding.

4. Remove from sudsy water by gently squeezing from the fabric.

5. Rinse two or three times in cool water.
NOTE: A fabric softener such as NU-Soft or Sta-Puf is recommended for best laundering results. Follow directions on the bottle when adding fabric softener to the final rinse water.

CAUTION: Do not wring, twist, or pull the blanket after rinsing and extracting.

Automatic Drying:
1. Place four to six dry bath towels in the dryer with the blanket. Do not use good towels as buffers, as blanket colors may transfer to towels.

2. Set automatic dryer control on high heat. Time the drying cycle for 15 minutes.
3. The blanket will be damp and steaming after drying cycle. Allow blanket to cool, then finish drying on a line. This will permit the blanket to be blocked to size as it dries. (See line drying instructions below).

Line Drying: Place the blanket lengthwise over two parallel clothes lines about 18 inches apart. As the blanket dries, keep stretching to block it back to its original dimensions. Dry the blanket in the shade, never in direct sunlight, as sunlight may harm fabric.

When laundered to instructions, the blanket should look soft and fluffy. However, if the nap becomes matted, it may be brushed in one direction with a clean, stiff brush to raise the nap.

The nylon binding may be ironed if necessary. Use low temperature setting on your iron.

Recent new studies have shown fish and shellfish to be among the best foods to include in menus for those who want to keep the cholesterol in their bodies at a low level. Cholesterol, as most of us know, is the number one suspect in heart ailments. Fortunately, fishery products are also high in the nutrients we need, being rich sources of high-grade protein, minerals and vitamins.

At a club meeting last week the conversation drifted after meeting to slick ways to do things about the house and ways to save time and energy. Mrs. Edgar Spencer told us about a perfect use for old egg cartons. The carton is filled with charcoal briquettes and when it's time to add the charcoal the carton is laid on the fire. Of course the carton burns off and there is the whole thing neatly laid out. And—this way the charcoal is only dirty once.

One night about a year ago a rattlesnake met me on my door step. We got him finally, but I've been pretty careful ever since.

About dusk one afternoon last week I checked the walk and the step and thought "it pays to watch" because there is the snake I've looked for so long.

I got a hoe on the double and surveyed my best spot to whack him without hitting a flower pot. Then I let him have it. I hit hard. In fact so hard that I cut the caladium lead cleanly in two.

But honestly, in the near dark that leaf looked exactly like a rattlesnake.

Eaglets Tie Ozona 8-8; "B" Team Wins 30-0

Eldorado's Elementary School lads directed by Coach Guy Whitaker and the High School "B" team in charge of Coach Douglas Jung visited in Ozona Thursday night, October 4, with a good crowd of parents along for the proceedings.

In the elementary game, the Ozona lads rose up and made a valiant effort to avenge their defeat by a lopsided 27-0 in Eldorado. While not snapping Eldorado's 15-game skein of victories, the Lion Cubs did bend it a little, tying the team coached by Coach Whitaker 8-8.

Eldorado had a terrific edge statistically; but they couldn't parlay yards for points. Eldorado tabbed 12 first downs to Ozona's six; piled up 167 yards rushing to Ozona's 85; and earned 86 yards via forward pass to Ozona's 43. The Schleicher lads have not been exactly unsuccessful to date, having scored 102 points to their opponents 14. Incidentally, Ozona in two games scored the 14 points.

The Eldorado lads use Fullback Pat Childers and Right Halfback Gary Derrick as their scorers; but Bobby DeLong scored the Eldorado touchdown when he covered a kick off that rolled in the end zone. Pat Childers then ran the two extra points across.

Ozona scored on a six-yard run-out by George Cox. They failed to earn the extra points but succeeded in trapping Pat Childers behind his own goal line for a safety and enough points to tie the game.

Standouts with the Eldorado defense were Bert Loden, Don Taylor, Line Backers Danny Halbert and Gary Derrick along with Halfback Pat Childers. James Thackerston received a cut across his nose when he insistently thrust it into Ozona affairs and had to sit the rest of the game out.

In the "B" game, the Eaglets romped and rollicked their way to a 30-0 win over the Lion Cubs. They scored 8 points in both first and second quarters and 14 in the third quarter but none in the last when Coach Jung began the process of "tempering" the smaller, younger reserves.

Eldorado lads racked up 448 yards rushing on the flying feet of the following lads: Sam Henderson tabbed 167 yards in eight carries. Fullback Roy Love got 40 yards in 10 carries. Scott McGregor got 29 yards in five tries; Monty Montgomery ran 20 yards in two tries. Ronnie Griffin piled up a whopping 176 yards in four tries, and Charles Nixon got 6 yards for one try.

The frolicking Eagles utilized a "flea flicker" pass and lateral: Scott McGregor to Richard Preston and out to Ronnie Griffin for two touch downs and to Monty Montgomery for one. Sam Henderson scored first with a 45-yard gallop.

Extra points were garnered by Scott McGregor and Sam Henderson and Phil McCormick.

Coach Whitaker's lads along with Coach Jung's collide with Big Lake in Eldorado this afternoon and tonight. The Elementary game begins at 5:30 o'clock and the "B" game at 7:00.

Schleicher Elementary lads defeated Big Lake earlier this year by a 34-0 edge and have some ideas about repeating this if possible.

Coach Jung's lads lost a close one in Big Lake and are planning on changing this state of affairs tonight although the Big Lake Owlets greatly enjoyed pasting the Eaglets last time and plan to do so again.

Elementary lads collide at 5:30 with the "B" team tilt at 7:00 in Eagle stadium. This will be the Eaglets' final home game.

SONORA ART CLUB HOBBY SHOW SET FOR OCTOBER 28TH

The Sonora Art Club has scheduled a Hobby Show for Sunday, October 28, at the Parish House of the Episcopal Church in Sonora.

Everyone is invited to enter and display exhibits in the show in Sutton County and the surrounding areas, according to President Mrs. John A. Martin, Jr. Exhibitors should mark displays clearly and bring them to the Parish House by 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27.

All participants are to assume responsibility of displays at the close of the show at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 28.

Austin.—With 12 indictments already returned in the East Texas slant-oil investigation, there are strong side-currents growing out of the East Texas scandals.

Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger and his fellow House investigators sent a preliminary report to Speaker James A. Turman and Gov. Price Daniel. They urged "immediate action" on eight changes in or additions to the criminal laws.

They also proposed that a procedure be set up to replace state officials who become ill and unable to handle their duties. This obviously is a reference to Railroad Commissioner Ernest O.

Thompson, who has been ill at his home in Amarillo for several months.

A major policy change would be revision of the old "marginal well law" which could be very important to many Texans, particularly in old oil areas.

Present law says that if an oil well cannot make as much as 20 barrels a day, it is a "marginal well" which must be exempt from shutdown days. Thus, a well producing 19 barrels a day will get an allowable of 570 barrels a month. But a well capable of making 1,000 barrels a day will be held to 160 barrels a month—20 barrels a day times eight producing days.

Committee recommended that marginal wells be held to the same monthly allowable as a non-marginal well in the same field.

Governor Daniel has been non-committal on the possibility of calling a special session of the Legislature to act on this and other current problem areas.

Business Perks Up

Texas business activity rose 7% in August over July. And 8% above that of August, 1961.

Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas found this rosier picture in August, after two bad months of decline.

Cash On Hand

While there has been lots of talk about the state government being in the red, it really never has been.

On August 31, when the fiscal year ended, the State Treasury had a cash balance of more than $219 millions.

Deficits have been recurring in one of the state's 380 or so funds—the General Revenue Fund. But the others always have cash balances.

Comptroller Robert Calvert gave Texans some charts. They show where $1.3 billion went last year. Education took 41.01 cents of each dollar, highways took 28.50 cents, public welfare cost 16.29 cents, state hospitals and prisons cost 5.16 cents, and all the rest—Legislature, courts, administrative agencies and everything else—cost 9.04 cents of every dollar.

College Tax Illegal?

expected soon on a case which could upset the junior college set-up in Texas.

Taxpayers' suit from Harris county contends that the Legislature had no constitutional authority to allow the levying of taxes by junior college districts.

Supreme Court has been studying the case since April. Should it agree with the taxpayers, it would take a constitutional amendment to legalize the college districts. Meanwhile, state money might be needed to keep the 32 junior colleges going until the voters have a say on the subject.

Slow Picking

Texas Department of Agriculture reports a slow-down in cotton picking. Harvest slowed to 29% which is the same as this time last year.

Damp weather kept bolls from opening in the South Plains and rains slowed the picking in other areas.

Wet fields also have slowed the sorghum harvest.

Summer Reading

Nearly 21,000 school-age children in 285 cities earned certificates from the Texas State Library for summer reading.

Boys and girls who read 12 books during the summer got the awards.

Ballot Roster

Secretary of State Frank Lake has certified 24 candidates for statewide office.

Names appearing on the November 6 general election ballot will include 14 Democratic nominees, eight Republicans and two from the Constitution Party.

In addition, the fate of 14 proposed amendments will be decided by the voters.

Two Constitution party candidates have notified the Secretary of State to withdraw their names from the November election.

They are Ruben Lozano of San Antonio, candidate for Congressman at Large and Roy R. Brown of Bonham, candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Jobs On Rise

Figures released in Austin by the U. S. Department of Labor show the Texas employment picture to be twice as good as the national average. Texas' non-agricultural employment increase from 1947 to 1961 was 45.4%, almost double the national average of 23%.

WARM as toast— SAFE from burns!

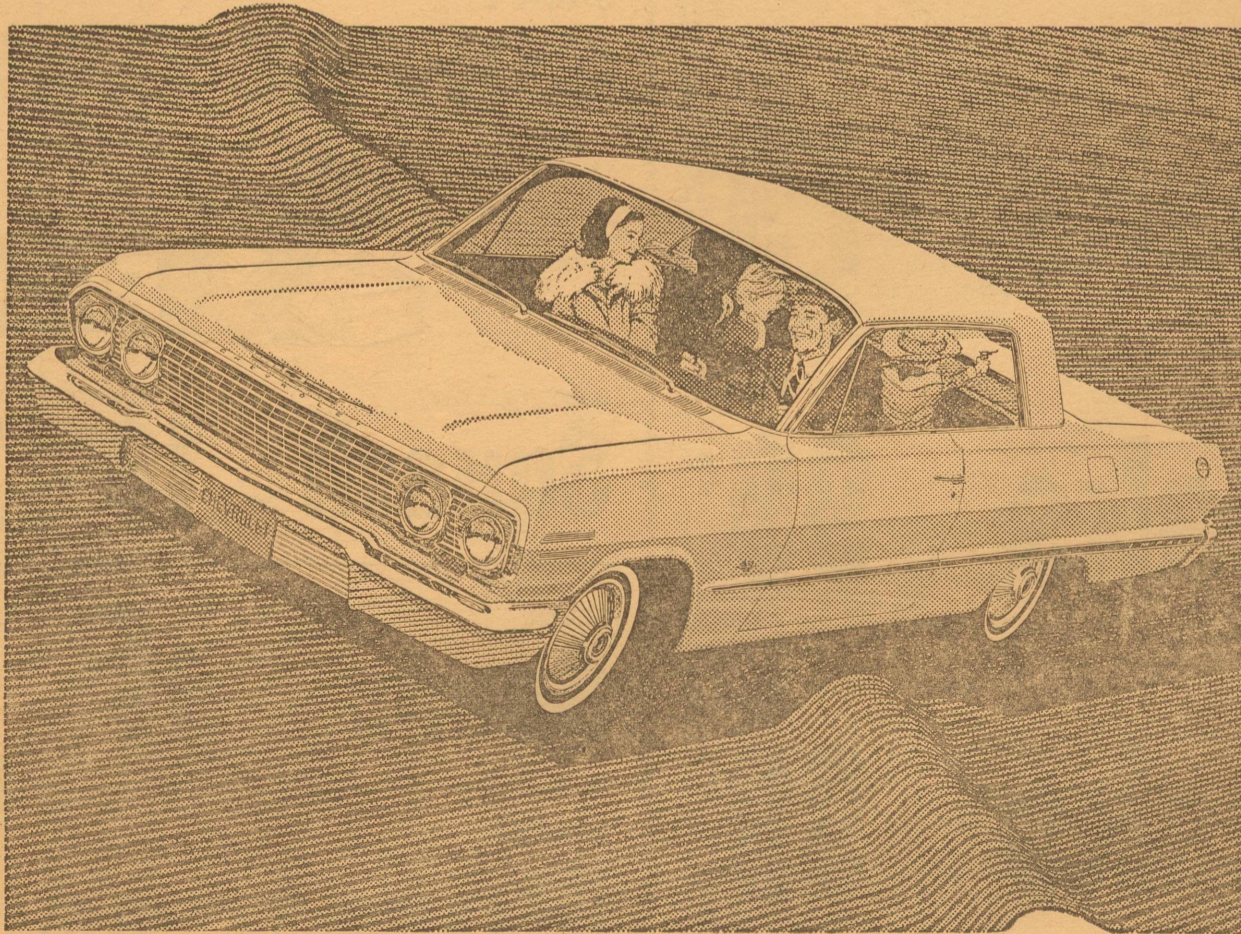

"There's never a worry when you have electric baseboard heating" says Mrs. C. E. Woods, 2126 Glendale in Abilene. "This is the second winter we've heated electrically, and it's the best thing that's happened for baby comfort and safety since the invention of the safety pin." Glynda Woods is feisty-two-year-old who plays variously on the floor and up on chairs, couch and bed. Glynda is warm and comfortable anywhere in her electrically heated home.
