New Bids To Be Asked On Coliseum

Scurry County Commissioners this morning took formal action to reject all bids of Sept. 2 on the coliseum project and instructed architects to begin redesigning the proposed structure in preparation for rebidding.

The project had been under intensive study since the Sept. 2 bid opening when the low combination of bids amounted to approximately $300,000 more than the available funds.

The commissioners court conferred this morning with George Killam, county attorney and then passed two motions, one rejecting the original bids and the other clearing the way for redesigning the plans and specifications. Killam said that apparently that was the only legal method for bringing the cost of the project within the prescribed amount.

Commissioners already had discussed the problem at length with architects, and it was estimated that it will require at least 30 days for new plans to be prepared.

Crisis Looms In Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO (AP) — A serious deterioration in the internal political situation confronted the Dominican Republic's fledgling provisional government today.

The gravity of the crisis was underlined by the sudden return Sunday night of U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, the top troubleshooter in the Dominican crisis for the Organization of American States.

But the presence of the 10,000-man inter-American peace force was believed to rule out any chance of large-scale violence.

The Dominican armed forces and the National University were understood to be the principal problem areas for the three week-old regime headed by Dr. Hector Garcia-Godoy.

The return Saturday of deposed ex-President Juan Bosch was considered an aggravating factor in the already tense political climate. On his arrival, Bosch exhorted the Dominicans to forceful action, including strikes, to force foreign troops out of the country.

President Garcia-Godoy was expected to address the nation tonight.

Shrimp Boat Sinks

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — The shrimp boat Miss Margie sank in the Gulf early today. Another shrimper picked up the three crewmen.

The Miss Margie, based at Freeport, radioed at 2 a.m. that she was taking water and sinking fast at a spot 110 miles east-northeast of Corpus Christi.

The shrimper Sam K. out of Freeport, rescued the crew.

CREW FOR GEMINI 8—Air Force Major David R. Scott, 33, left, and Neil A. Armstrong, 35, a civilian, were named as the Astronauts to fly Gemini 8, a two-day flight expected next year. Armstrong, of Wapakoneta, Ohio, will be the command pilot and Scott is scheduled to take a space walk that could last as long as one orbit of the earth, which normally takes about 95 minutes. AS MURDER

Executions Denounced

By ROBERT MOOREFIELD

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The United States today denounced the execution of two more American soldiers by the Viet Cong as "acts of wanton murder."

Communist broadcasts said an American captain and a sergeant were executed in reprisal for the execution of three Communist sympathizers last week by a South Vietnamese firing squad.

"The Viet Cong have carried out more acts of wanton murder against American military prisoners," an official U.S. spokesman said.

"These acts show utter disregard for humanitarian principles and the provisions of the 1949 Geneva Prisoners of War Convention of which the Viet Cong's masters, the Hanoi regime, are adherents."

Radio Hanoi identified the Americans as Capt. Humbert R. Versace of Baltimore, Md., and Sgt. 1.C. Kenneth M. Roraback, whose wife lives in Fayetteville, N.C.

"The Viet Cong's brutal conduct can in no way be justified as a reprisal for the Vietnamese government's recent execution of three civilian, nonuniformed Viet Cong agitators," the American spokesman said.

"These agitators were executed following a trial conducted in accordance with established Vietnamese law and judicial procedure, in which they were convicted of fomenting public violence."

Versace, whose father retired from the Army two years ago as a colonel, was captured in October 1963, when the Viet Cong overran a Special Forces camp at Tan Phu, 110 miles south of Saigon in the Mekong Delta.

Roraback was captured in November 1963 when the Viet Cong overran another Special Forces camp west of Saigon near the Cambodian border. One of two other Americans captured with him, Sgt. Isaac Camacho of El Paso, Tex., escaped last July.

Roraback is the son of Esther M. Robbins, Baldwin, N.Y., and George D. Roraback, West Hollywood, Fla.

Bombers Strike Near Cambodia

By ROBERT POOS

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. B52 bombers made their 33rd strike of the Viet Nam war today, blasting a Viet Cong area 55 miles northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

A U.S. spokesman said the eight-engine jet bombers from Guam struck 15 miles northeast of the provincial capital of Tay Ninh, in an area where U.S. intelligence reports have said a Viet Cong headquarters is located.

Results of the strike were not announced.

Communist broadcasts announced that the Viet Cong executed two American soldiers Sunday in reprisal for the execution of three Communist sympathizers last week by a South Vietnamese firing squad. A U.S. spokesman accused the Viet Cong of "wanton murder against American military prisoners."

Radio Hanoi identified the Americans as Capt. Humbert R. Versace of Baltimore, Md., and Sgt. I.C. Kenneth M. Roraback, whose wife lives in Fayetteville, N.C. Versace was captured in October 1963 and Roraback a month later.

South Vietnamese troops claimed 48 Viet Cong were killed in an unsuccessful attempt to overrun an outpost southwest of Quang Ngai Sunday. The South Vietnamese said two Viet Cong companies inflicted moderately heavy casualties on the defenders until air attacks drove them off.

A U.S. military spokesman announced that the planes which bombed the Ben Hai bridge in the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam were American.

Two U.S. Navy planes bombed the bridge's north approach on Sept. 16 and three Air Force planes hit the south end the next day. The spokesman said the bombing resulted from navigational error due to bad weather and "similarity of terrain situated in North Viet Nam."

About 20 Vietnamese were killed, several more wounded and there was considerable property damage. Under the Geneva agreement of 1954 dividing North and South Viet Nam, military activity is prohibited in the zone. The bridge spans the Ben Hai River.

A Viet Cong company hit a small government unit 12 miles south of Saigon and inflicted heavy losses on the South Vietnamese troops, a spokesman said. He added that Viet Cong casualties were not known.

U.S. Marines on a sweep 5 miles southeast of Da Nang captured 14 Viet Cong suspects and reported they suffered light losses.

No major ground action was reported elsewhere.

U.S. planes continued heavy strikes in South Viet Nam.

Backers See Win For Home Rule

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — A revised bill to give District of Columbia residents self-government reaches the House floor today. Its backers confidently predict victory.

"We've got a minimum of 235 votes," said Rep. Abraham J. Multer, D-N.Y., a leader of a bipartisan group pushing for its passage. A majority of the House is 218.

Multer said there might be a filibuster by diehard opponents of the bill which would give Washington, with its heavily Negro population, the right to elect its own officials for the first time since 1874.

He said if this happens — it is done in the House by members demanding strict following of all rules and by repeated uorum calls — it may be Wednesday or Thursday before a final vote comes. "We'll just sit and twiddle our thumbs until it's over," Multer said.

In order that Jewish members of the House could be present for any votes during the Rosh Hashanah holidays today and Tuesday, an unprecedented Jewish religious service was arranged for the Capitol prayer room near the House chamber.

Backed up behind the home rule bill is a heavy schedule for the House this week.

A $2-billion pay raise bill for all federal workers is next on the schedule, with the complicated sugar bill and the highway beautification bill after that.

The Senate is taking the day off today, Tuesday it takes up a bill to eliminate tariffs on new cars and auto parts between the United States and Canada. This may take all week, but if there is time Senate leaders said they may bring up the controversial bill calling for repeal of section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act. This section allows states to outlaw union shop contracts. Employes covered by such contracts must join a union within 30 days to hold a job. Nineteen states have such "right to work" laws. The union shop repealer has stirred considerable controversy, and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has threatened a filibuster to block it.

Pakistan Appeals To US For Aid In Settlement

By LEWIS GULICK

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Declaring the India-Pakistan cease-fire is being shattered in many places, Pakistan's Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto asked Secretary of State Dean Rusk today for U.S. support on a permanent settlement of the Kashmir dispute.

Bhutto also said his president Mohammed Ayub Khan, wants to visit President Johnson in the United States "on an appropriate occasion," but he set no date.

"The cease-fire seems to be in a very bad way," Bhutto said, upon emerging from what he termed a "constructive" one-hour meeting with Rusk at the U.S. Mission to the United Nations.

"It seems to be shattered at many points," he said. "This bears out our fear that a cease-fire won't be lasting unless there is a satisfactory settlement."

Rusk made it plain to the Pakistan envoy that the U.S. position on the India-Pakistan crisis is to work through the U.N. Security Council, including dealing with cease-fire violations, U.S. officials said.

Bhutto said the United States "can play a very significant role" because "it can bring its great force to bear on the side of justice in the subcontinent."

On Kashmir, whose population is predominantly Moslem, as is Pakistan's, Bhutto reaffirmed Pakistan's stand for a plebiscite to determine the future of the disputed territory.

A proposed Rusk meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko did not take place, U.S. officials said that because of scheduling problems, it looked as if the two would not be able to get together before Tuesday at the earliest.

Rusk launched a two-week visit to the headquarters of the United Nations with plans to see as many as he could of the 88 leaders attending the General Assembly's 20th anniversary session.

The India - Pakistan truce was threatened as Pakistan Sunday night charged Indian forces with two major attacks. The Pakistanis claimed the attackers were repulsed.

U.N. Secretary - General U Thant informed the Security Council the cease-fire is "not holding" and said both sides were stalling on troop withdrawals.

The Pakistani government said Indian troops attacked Saturday night with tanks and artillery on the Fazilka front, near Lahore, but were driven back after 90 Indians were killed and 73 captured.

India announced that 71 men were missing after the fighting at Fazilka and details of other casualties were awaited. The Defense Ministry charged that the Pakistanis encroached on Indian territory and attacked without warning when an Indian company was sent to ask "the intruders to vacate the intrusion."

India charged that more than 1,000 Pakistani troops moved across the Sutlev River into Indian territory in the Fazilka area. "If they do not get out, there is going to be a fight," a spokesman for the Indian Defense Ministry said.

Later, the Pakistani government radio said Indian troops seized two posts in Rajahstan, near the Arabian Sea, but were forced back by a Pakistani counterattack.

In letters to Thant during the weekend, India charged that the Pakistanis attacked first on the two fronts, as well as near Gadra in the disputed Himalayan state of Kashmir. Pakistan protested the alleged Indian intrusions to Thant.

Thant said in a two-page report to the Security Council that the deterioration in the Lahore area began Friday night when Indian troops opened fire with artillery, tanks, recoilless rifles and small arms near a small canal separating the two sides southwest of the city.

As a result of this action, the local Pakistani command claims to have suffered a number of casualties, in killed, wounded and missing," Thant said.

BAND PARENTS IN SESSION TONIGHT

Parents of all Snyder High School Band members have been urged to attend tonight's meeting of the Band Parents Club.

The session is set for 7:30 p.m. in the band hall. Officers will be elected, committees will be appointed and plans for activities during the school year will be discussed.

Early Freeze Grips Wide Northern Area

By The Associated Press

Freezing temperatures chilled most of the northern border of the nation from Maine to Montana Monday and in some areas frost and rain dealt damaging blows to crops.

Readings in Montana and Michigan were in the low 20s, while snow fell in parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota. Southwestern Montana reported freezing drizzle.

South of the snow area, cold rain swept through the plains and the Mississippi Valley.

Tropical depression Debbie moved slowly northwest in the Gulf of Mexico and early Monday was reported about 500 miles south of New Orleans.

The combination of frost, and rain and unseasonably low temperatures in some states threatened to wipe out certain crops.

A killing frost struck northern Wisconsin, a state already hit hard by rains which have left crops trapped in field too muddy for mechanical harvesting.

An official said a third of Wisconsin's sweet corn crop might be lost. Serious losses also are expected in carrots and cabbage. The rains have increased the possibility of a potato blight.

Many thousands of dollars damage, especially to corn and soybeans, was reported after the first killing frost Sunday in much of Minnesota. A county agent estimated that half the corn and soybeans were lost in Kandiyohi County.

Heavy damage to vegetables also was reported.

Coral Gables, Fla., was hit with 3.46 inches of rain and Miami Airport had 2.21 inches. Miami Beach had 2.18 inches, South Miami 2.55 inches and Tamiami Trail at 40-Mile Bend, 1.56 inches.

The September rainfall in Florida is 11.37 inches, 3 inches above normal.

Rain pounded southern Texas from San Antonio to the southern tip. It was the first general precipitation since May.

Some homes were flooded temporarily and a highway was closed, but the situation was in hand. Most rains measured 2 or 3 inches, but Poteet, a village 30 miles south of San Antonio, had an unofficial tall of 5 inches.

The Northeast continued in the grip of a drought and giant waves pounded the West Coast.

Brief showers helped alleviate the drought in the Northeast the last two days, but the rain was not enough. Boston has had 18.31 inches of rain this year. The normal amount is 31.66 inches.

Chilly air moved into the New England states and frost was reported in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

Giant waves threatened more than $1 million in beach-front homes in Capistrano Beach, Calif., as four sea walls collapsed.

PORTABLE HEART AID DEVELOPED—Two Doctors and a florist have built a lightweight, portable machine which they believe may be of great use in diagnosing heart interruptions and starting the heart beating again. Shown with the machine in Galveston are, left to right: Dr. Val Hutchinson; florist Howard Knapp, and Dr. Joe Walker who developed the instrument. Knapp became involved because his wife is a nurse and knows the doctors, and he dabbles in electronics and radio.

Hurricane Slams Coast Of Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Hurricane Hazel hit the Pacific Coast port of Mazatlan late Saturday night, destroyed hundreds of houses, and flooded a vast coastal area of the northwestern state of Sinaloa, ham radio reports indicated early today.

There was no word on casualties, but the reports said damage in Mazatlan was serious and 5,000 people were homeless. Regular communications were disrupted. At least a score of boats and small ships were reported sunk in the port.

Heavy rains continued, sending the rivers to flood levels.

Mazatlan was reported reachable only by boat or canoe, a dangerous trip. A group of ham radio operators left Culican with radio equipment and generating plants for Mazatlan early today in an effort to establish communications and organize rescue operations.

Rosario, 10 miles southwest of Mazatlan, was considered the most seriously affected by floods and strong winds. Scores of persons took refuge in trees and hills when their homes were destroyed or flooded. They remain perched there waiting for help, reports said.

The navy department reported that the hurricane hit Mazatlan at 11 p.m. Saturday and continued until 5 a.m. Sunday. The department said it lacked information regarding damage.

The rich agricultural area of El Bajo, in Guanajuato State, also was reported hit.

The storm apparently took the population by surprise. The naval observatory Saturday night had reported that it was well out in the Pacific.

Postponement Refused For Suspects In 'Bama Slaying

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Circuit Judge T. Werth Thagard refused today to postpone trials of either of two white men accused of killing civil rights workers in rural Lowndes County.

Thagard's decision left it up to a three-judge federal court in Montgomery to say whether the charges against Thomas L. Coleman, a special part-time deputy sheriff, and Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., a young Ku Klux Klansman, will be tried at Hayneville this week.

The federal court was scheduled to hear later today a motion which would prohibit any jury trial in Lowndes County pending disposition of a federal court suit seeking to get more Negroes on the jury rolls in the county.

That motion was filed by the American Civil Liberties Union.

Coleman, 55, is under indictment on a manslaughter charge for the shotgun slaying of Jonathan Daniels, 27, a civil rights volunteer and Episcopal seminary student from Keen, N.H.

Wilkins, 21, a Fairfield, Ala., mechanic, is charged with murder in the killing of a white Detroit housewife, Mrs. Viola Liuzzo.

Unless the federal court intervenes, Coleman will go to trial Tuesday in the century-old courthouse at Hayneville. Wilkins' second trial—a jury which tried him last May was upset—is on the docket for Wednesday. Whether that case will be heard this week would depend on how long the Coleman case lasted.

This is the last week of the September term of Circuit Court.

The 30-minute hearing on the motion to delay Coleman's trial brought angry charges by state and defense attorneys and statements that lawyers on both sides have received threats of their lives.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Joe Breck Gantt told the judge that "I fear for my personal safety, and the attorney general, too, while prosecuting this case in Lowndes County. I have received and the attorney general has received threats on our lives."

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A mother and four of her children died at dawn today in a fire that swept a two-story row house in North Philadelphia. Five other children fled to safety.

Authorities said the victims were Lucille Miller, 53, and her children: Robert, 12; Bryan, 11; Raymond, 6, and Anthony, 9.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman past 60. I live alone. My husband has been an invalid for over 25 years and is now in a hospital for the chronically ill. Some gentlemen friends I have known a long time (widowers) have invited me out for dinner and a movie after visiting my husband. Everyone says, "Don't go! How will it look?"

I have never neglected visiting my husband and I do everything in my power to see that he is comfortable and well cared for. Would it be so bad if I were to go to dinner and a movie with a gentleman once in a while? Just working around the house and visiting the hospital gets so tiresome. And I do get lonely for male comanionship occasionally. My husband says for me to go. Should I?

TEMPTED

DEAR TEMPTED: Go, and enjoy yourself. You need answer only to your husband and your own conscience. And tell your critics not to judge you until they have walked a few miles in your moccasins.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow. In love with a traveling man whose territory includes my town. He is married and has two children, but he and his wife are married in name only. I didn't know he was married when I first started seeing him. But after getting to know him, and the circumstances of his marriage, it made no difference. Abby, this man has the power to transform me from a 49-year-old woman into a 16-year-old high school girl. It's magic! Now the problem:

For three years he has been promising to divorce his wife so we could be married. Last year I visited his town with the idea of renting an apartment to be near him. He discouraged this, saying he planned to file for a divorce very soon. It's been seven months and nothing has happened. How long should I wait for him? He doesn't want me dating anyone else and I am not getting any younger.

MAGICIAN'S SWEETHEART

DEAR SWEETHEART: Give him 30 seconds. Snap your fingers three times and if your "magician" doesn't appear with his divorce decree in one hand and a wedding ring in the other, disqualify him. He's a phony!

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Our dear father died a year ago. Dad was married twice. His first wife, who was my mother, passed on several years ago. She was a devoted wife and the beloved mother of his 22 children. Mother had a Bible which contained all the important dates of our family. When Mother died, Daddy kept the Bible. Now that Daddy is gone his second wife refuses to give it to any of us children. Abby, that Bible means nothing to her, but it is priceless to us. Has this woman the right to keep our mother's Bible? If not, how do we get it back?

THE ELDEST

DEAR ELDEST: If your father left all his wordly goods to her, the Bible is hers. True, she is mean and spiteful to keep it. But unless she changes her mind, you don't have a prayer.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Maybe I can help "Blushing" because I had the same affliction, and I do mean affliction, for years. I turned down luncheons, dreaded to meet anyone on the street, sat at the bridge table and suffered until I pretended I had a coughing spell and could leave gracefully. I finally gave myself a good "talking to." I simply said, "What do I care if I DO blush? Just look people straight in the eye and go ahead and blush. It's no disgrace." How in the world this ever worked, I will never know, but it did.

Broke Beats Banned

LONDON (AP) — A London coffee bar put this sign over its entrance today:

"Beatniks not admitted unless accompanied by cash."

Herald Tribune Back On Stands

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Herald Tribune appeared on newsstands today for the first time since it shut down 11 days ago in support of the strikebound New York Times.

The newspaper resigned from the Publishers Association of New York Saturday, citing "economic and other considerations" for resuming publication.

Negotiations continue today between the striking AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild and the Times and between the Mailers Union and the Publishers Association.

A Guild spokesman said some progress had been made Sunday, but added: "I don't expect an early break in the deadlock, not even this week."

The Guild struck the Times Sept. 16 in a dispute over job guarantees against automation and mergers, a voice in the introducton of automation, improved pensions and a union shop agreement requiring all editorial employes to join the Guild.

All other major dailies in New York suspended publication in support of the Times, except the New York Post. The Post resigned from the association during the 114-day strike in 1962-63.

The closing of the newspapers idled 17,000 newspapers workers and suspended circulation of 4.4 million newspapers daily.

The Herald Tribune had planned to increase its normal weekday circulation of 307,000 today, but a spokesman for the newspaper said wholesale distributors had canceled orders for extra papers.

Executive Vice President Robert MacDonald said the wholesalers had telephoned "one by one" to stop the increased orders. He said they gave "best business interests" as the reason for the cancellations.

The Newspaper and Mail Deliverers Union protested the wholesalers' action.

After the Guild struck the Times the Mailers Union announced it would not return to work even if the Guild and Times reached a settlement until it had a contract of its own.

The labor contracts expired March 31 but the unions have been working since then without a contract.

Otis Justus Laid To Rest

Funeral for Otis Justus, 42, brother of Mrs. Seabourn Eicke, Route 1, was held Saturday afternoon at the Crosbyton Church of Christ.

Mr. Justus died at 6 p.m. Thursday in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Big Spring after a lengthy illness. He was a veteran of World War II.

Also surviving are the widow, a daughter and one son, one grandson and four brothers. Burial was held in the Crosbyton Cemetery.

Jail Term Assessed In County Court

Steven Ray Botts received a 30-day jail term in County Court today after he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was arrested Sept. 23 following a two-car accident at Twenty-fourth and Avenue E.

Judge Sterling Taylor, presiding judge, also fined Botts $50 plus court costs.

Herbert Wayne Atzbach received a $25 fine plus court costs after he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while his license was suspended.

Top Reds Study Economic Problems

MOSCOW (AP) — Big black cars drove up in front of the Soviet Communist party Central Committee's administrative building today, bringing party leaders to launch a new effort to solve the country's economic problems.

The Central Committee apparently began meeting on schedule.

The party newspaper Pravda made no mention of the meeting but filled half of its front page with an outline of what the Central Committee had to do and what it had done in the past year to set the country on a better course.

The editorial did not mention former Premier Nikita Khrushchev, blamed for much of the difficulty the country now faces in industry and agriculture.

President Lyndon Johnson's inauguration festivities Jan. 20 were tame compared to the wild celebration that followed Andrew Jackson's oath - taking in 1829. A boisterous crowd of perhaps 20,000 followed the popular hero down Pennsylvania Avenue. At the White House, muddy boots clambered over silk chairs fists flew; china crashed, and ladies fainted in the crush. Jackson, who had defeated 5,400 British troops at New Orleans, beat an ignominous retreat out a back door.

Assailant Of Officer Dies

SEGUIN (AP) — A policeman shot below his heart by a motorist Sunday might staggered back to his patrol car and gave chase, firing six shots at his speeding assailant.

Police said patrolman Joe Carrillo hit the man in the back of his head as he raced down a street in this Central Texas town. His car collided head-on with a third vehicle, injuring two persons in that car.

The accident was a block from a hastily erected police roadblock.

The dead man was unidentified.

Policeman Joe Carrillo, 22, who underwent surgery in a San Antonio hospital, had stopped the man to tell him one headlight of his car was out. As he walked toward the car window, a bullet pierced his chest just below his heart and exited out his back.

Police said later the car proved to have been stolen in Houston.

Graveside Rites For Infant Twins

Graveside rites were held this morning at the Hermleigh Cemetery for Sylvia and Celia Rocha, two-day-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rocha. The two girls, who were born Friday, died Sunday morning at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Bell-Seale Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Surviving are the parents, five sisters and three brothers.

If you like, you may substitute brewed coffee for the water called for in a boiled frosting recipe. This coffee combination tastes good on spice cake.

Debbie To Gain Speed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tropical depression Debbie was expected to intensify today as she moved out into the strength giving warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Hurricane Carol moved around in the Atlantic, about 1,800 miles east of North Carolina and was of no immediate danger to land with her mile winds.

Weather forecasters were keeping a close watch on Debbie as the storm, located at 5 a.m. EST about 500 miles south of New Orleans, La., moved toward the northwest at 7 miles an hour.

Highest winds in Debbie were clocked at 35 miles in squalls 150 miles out from the center in the northern semicircle. Winds over the northern portion of the Gulf of Mexico, churned to a froth just two weeks ago by Hurricane Betsy, were expected to create rough seas.

The Weather Bureau at New Orleans warned small craft along the northern Gulf Coast not to venture out into open water and that interests in that areas should remain in contact with advisories on the storm.

Carol was moving toward the southeast at a slow speed. No increase in size or intensity was expected.

From Frying Pan Into Fire

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)— Florida State University's football squad went back to practice Sunday to get ready for Saturday's opening home game against Baylor.

At the same time, the Seminoles tried to forget their 7-3 defeat at the hands of Texas Christian Saturday night.

The Seminoles intercepted one pass and recovered five TCU fumbles, including one with 33 seconds to play at the Frogs' 13-yard line. But the best FSU could manage was a 23-yard field goal by Pete Roberts in the second quarter.

The Horned Frogs turned their only break—an interception of an Ed Pritchett pass—into a 47-yard scoring drive capped by sophomore fullback Ken Post's five-yard scoring burst through the center of the FSU line.

Things looked up for the Seminoles in the final seconds when Bill McDowell recovered Post's fumble on the TCU 13 with just over half a minute to play. But FSU got off only one play—a nine-yard run by Pritchett to the four. The gun went off as the Seminoles were scrambling back to try to get off one more play.

With 33 seconds left, McDowell recovered the Post fumble. But as one FSU fan observed: "That offense just didn't have it."

Mystery Boy's Mother To Undergo Psychiatric Test

By HEDLEY BURRELL

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Detroit mother undergoes psychiatric examination today after telling a judge she left her mentally retarded teen-age son at a Miami airport with three cents in his pocket and no identification.

Mrs. Victor Thorne flew to Miami late Sunday night after a nationwide search was started Wednesday, the day the mute boy was found at the airport.

Mrs. Thorne, wife of a businessman, was ordered admitted to Jackson Memorial Hospital for examination after a one-hour hearing before Dr. Ben Sheppard, chief juvenile court judge for Dade County.

Another hearing was set for today.

Mrs. Thorne told the judge she left her son, Richard, 13, at the airport in the hope that someone would find him and be interested in him. She said she could not find suitable help for the boy in the Detroit area.

Her son is being cared for at a private home under the jurisdiction of Dade County.

Richard has been unable to speak since he suffered brain damage from encephalitis and pneumonia when he was 18 months old.

His sister, Paula Willis of Troy, Mich., quoted Mrs. Thorne as saying she had left her son with a man in Miami, but she did not identify him.

Mrs. Willis said that her mother had planned to place Richard in a Southern school, where he could enjoy warm weather.

"I trust my parents to do the right thing," Mrs. Willis said. "There's no reason for them to do anything foolish."

She said her mother had been under emotional strain since deciding to send Richard to school in the South.

Mrs. Thorne, 44, was taken to the judge's office and the hospital by Barron F. Shields, juvenile court probation officer.

Relatives said Mrs. Thorne has a beautiful home on a hill overlooking the Detroit suburb of Troy. Her husband is the manager of a tool and die company. His whereabouts were not immediately known.

They said Mrs. Thorne cried a lot and hugged her son — who possibly couldn't understand why his mother was crying.

A doctor had told Mrs. Thorne her son's case was hopeless.

Miss Malone Said Improving Slightly

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Actress Dorothy Malone is making some progress but still is in critical condition, her doctor said today.

And, said her doctor, "the next few days may be critical and are of the greatest importance."

Miss Malone, 40, underwent surgery at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, last Thursday night to remove blood clots from her lungs.

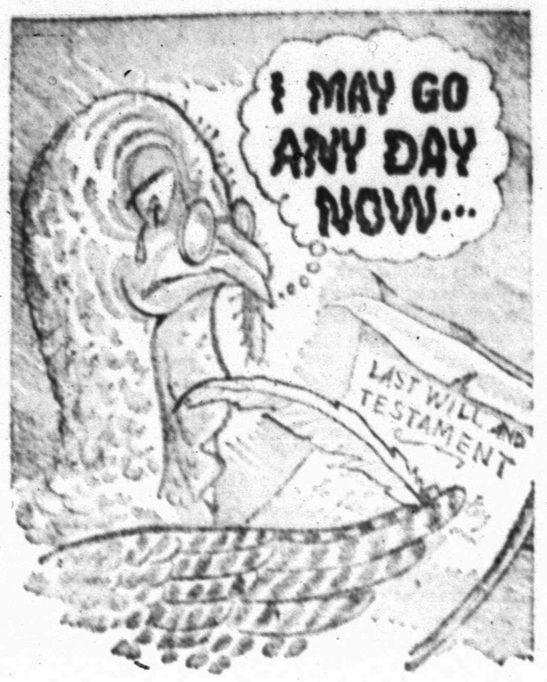
WOMEN OFTEN HAVE BLADDER IRRITATION

After 21, common Kidney or Bladder Irritations often result in many women as early and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondarily, if you may lose sleep and suffer from Headache, Backaches and be old, tired, depressed. To such irritations, CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaving comfort by curbing irritating germs in urine, and urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX at druggists. Feel better fast.



There was a time when I could feel safe until November. But the member-owned MIDWEST Electric Cooperative has changed all that. With food freezers in so many homes, poultry processing plants, electric brooders and all that modern electric wizardry, they are processing turkeys all year long. I'm lucky I've lasted this long.

In Case I end up in your giblet gravy, just remember this . . the MIDWEST Electric Cooperative may be fine for rural people, it may be helping Texas grow and it may be the greatest example of rural people working together to brighten their lives. But it has played havoc with my life expectancy.

TFWC Annual Fall Board Meeting Set October 4-5

Mrs. J. L. Ginnings of Pilot Point, president of THE TEXAS FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS with headquarters in Austin has announced that the Annual Fall Board Meeting, with emphasis on workshops, will be held in Austin on October 4-5. Headquarters will be at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel. There will be a "spend the day" at State Headquarters, 2312 San Gabriel Street, on Monday, October 4th, when the Board will convene at 9:30 a.m. An informal luncheon will be served at the Clubhouse and workshop will continue at 2:15. The Board of Trustees will host a Green Tea in the afternoon at 4:30.

An innovation this year is a Trash and-or Treasure sale at the Headquarters Building in Austin "Your trash may be a treasure for someone else", says Mrs. Ginnings. Every member is asked to contribute as many articles as she wishes. This sale will be under the supervision of the Board of Trustees with Mrs. Cecil Cabaniss of Austin as Chairman, and the Maintenance Committee headed by Mrs. J. W. Stancil of Cleveland.

Preliminary meetings will be held in the president's suite at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel on Sunday evening, beginning with a Past Presidents' Meeting at 4:30 p.m. after which Mrs. Ginnings will honor the Past Presidents with a 5:00 o'clock Dinner in the Directors' Room at the hotel. Past presidents include Mesdames J. U. Fields, Haskell; R. T. Lindsay, Mt. Pleasant; Joseph M. Perkins, Eastland; J. W. Walker, Plainview; Florence Johnson Scott, Rio Grande City; J. Howard Hodge, Midland; Van Hook Stubbs, Wortham; L. E. Dudley, Abilene; A. J. House, Yoakum; Ben W. Boyd, Denton; Harry Griffiths, Austin and A. T. Carleton, Houston.

Following the president's meeting with past president, Mrs. Ginnings will meet with the Board of Trustees from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. and from 8:00 to 10:00 the fourteen District Presidents will have their meeting with the State President. The Executive Committee meeting will be from 10:00 to 11:30 p.m. A Departmental Workshop will be held at the hotel 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Sunday evening in the East Room - Mezzamine - S. F. Austin Hotel - when Mrs. Henry F. Shaper of San Antonio, Second Vice President of the organization and Dean of Departments, will bring the chairmen up to date on the reporting procedure for this administration.

Registration will begin at the hotel on Sunday afternoon, and delegates may register from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. and those preregistering may pick up their credentials at that time. Mrs. Virgil Shelton of Pilot Point is Registration Chairman and Mrs. Robert Reynaud of Houston is Credentials Chairman.

Recommendations from the Executive Committee will be on the agenda for Monday morning, and reports from members of the Executive Committee will be heard. Other business will include the adoption of a budget and the acceptance of new clubs. General Federation Board Members will also speak at the morning session. They include Mrs. J. L. Ginnings, president, Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Chairman of GFWC Legislative Committee, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, Chairman of News Bulletin, Council of International Clubs, Mrs. A. T. Carleton, Houston, Hostess, Council of International Clubs, Mrs. Howard Hodge, Hostess to Speakers.

Other speakers at the morning session will include Mrs. Vivian McCracken, Executive Secretary, Mrs. Ira Hayes, Social Director at the Clubhouse, Mrs. Myrtle Nelson, Clubwoman Circulation Manager and Mrs. J. D. Elder, Pilot Point, Chairman of Clubwoman Subscriptions. The Editor of the Texas Clubwoman, Mrs. Henry Kluge of Austin, and Mrs. Sammy Hale of Floydada, Junior Editor, will speak prior to the luncheon.

When the afternoon session convenes at 11:30 — Mr. Donald A. Deutsch, Dallas, Vice President, Sears - Roebuck Foundation will speak on "The Key to Community Betterment." A workshop on Club Reporting will follow conducted by Mrs. Henry F. Shaper and Mrs. Frank Galusha of San Antonio. At 2:15 the assembly will recess so that individual workshops can continue in various parts of the Clubhouse Headquarters. They will include departmental Endowment Maintenance, Americanism, Community Improvement, with the various chairmen serving as speakers and moderators for the members.

Mr. A. C. Wimpee, Public Relations - Dallas and Garland HLH Parade Products, Hunt Oil Company, will be guest speaker at the Monday evening Dinner at 7:30. He will be introduced by Mrs. W. R. Elliott of Waxahachie, Program Chairman. Mr. Wimpee's topic will be "Freedom Magic." Mrs. B. F. Seay of Andrews, first vice president and Dean of District Presidents, will preside at the reporting session of District Presidents following Mr. Wimpee's talk. Also present for the Dinner Meeting will be Miss Norma Uyema of Lima, Peru, TFWC's Latin American Scholarship student.

On Tuesday morning the session will open at 9:30 at the hotel with Juniors reporting and summary reports and plans reported by the department chairman Mrs. Kelly McAdams will report on the result of the Monday workshop. Mrs. McAdams is State Chairman for Community Improvement Program sponsored jointly by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Sears - Roebuck Foundation.

The projects Luncheon at the hotel at noon Tuesday will feature a guest speaker. There will be a question and answer period following the luncheon and the meeting will adjourn at 3:00.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Los Angeles: —Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight or your waistline is larger than 32 inches, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girdle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim," in both girdle and panty versions, is the peak achievement of the California designer-genius, Olga. They are available in our area at

A FEELING OF BEING FOLLOWED

Vote On Section 14B May Bring Uproar In Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINTON (AP) — This year has been like one long Indian summer for President Johnson.

He was the medicine man and Congress took his medicine and danced as he wanted. But now some Senate warriors have their scalping knives out.

Their would-be victim is a bill to make the union shop possible in all 50 states by repealing section 14B of the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act. Under 14B any state can outlaw the union shop. As of now, 19 states do.

The House passed this bill last July, although by a fairly narrow squeak, 221 to 203, with most of the opposition from Republicans but a lot from Democrats, even though Johnson gave it his blessing and asked for it.

Then it moved over to the Senate and at once banged into trouble.

A band of about two dozen senators of both parties set out to polish it off, led by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, the Republicans' Senate chief who has otherwise been very helpful to Johnson all year.

At this moment Congress, which made a tremendous record in 1965, has been rolling toward a finish which could come around mid-October if there is no uproar over something.

There will be an uproar if the Democratic leadership tries to put through the union shop measure. Dirksen, among others, has threatened a filibuster. If that happens, Congress could be here for the snow.

The Democrats' 1964 campaign platform called for repeal of 14B. So did Johnson in his State of the Union message last January and again in a special message in May.

He said wiping out this section in the law would, he hoped, reduce conflicts in "our national labor policy." Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is against repeal.

Organized labor, of course, wholeheartedly backs repeal. But if there is a floor fight over the bill labor may have something else to worry about besides just this one change in the Taft-Hartley Act.

Republicans have said they would use the bill as a vehicle to try to win broad changes in the labor law.

Supporters of the bill, like Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon Democrat, take the position that this year Congress should concern itself only with knocking out 14B and wait for next year before considering other changes.

Under 14B states can pass their own "right-to-work" laws banning labor contracts which compel workers to join a union. Repeal of 14B would make union shops legal in all states, perhaps. There would be court fights over it.

Arguments for and against the union shop go like this:

For: Unions have expenses, including the cost of negotiating contracts. Union members pay for those expenses through dues and assessments. Therefore all workers in a plant covered by a contract should have to pay their share by being union members.

More bluntly labor argues that nonunion workers are "free-riders" since under federal law a union must bargain for all workers covered by a contract, whether they are union members or not.

Against: No worker should be compelled to join any organization against his will as a condition for holding a job.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has said it would be difficult to get the two-thirds majority to stop a filibuster. Supporters of the bill try to discount talk of one.

The 19 states which ban the union shop are Arkansas, Arizona, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, Mississippi North Carolina North Dakota, Nevada Nebraska, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia and Wyoming.

Reading Mail Found To Be Educational

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Seven out of 10 headaches are caused by nervous tension, and doctors say they hit three times as many women as they do men.

America's economic loss from traffic accidents last year came to $10 billion, according to the Insurance Information Institute. That amounts to more than $50 for every man, woman and child in the nation.

Prosperity note: The average price of a new home today is $16,597. Nearly two out of three new homes have more than one bathroom.

The more education a woman has the more likely she is to be employed outside the home. Almost 54 per cent of those with college degrees hold jobs, compared to only 30 per cent among those with a grammar school education.

If you want to live to be 100, you'd better keep your weight down. Fat centenarians are rare.

Here's bad news for the enemy: A new battlefront radar system has been developed that is sensitive enough to detect a moving person nine miles away and a moving vehicle 22 miles distant.

Quotable notables: "I like snobs. A snob has to spend so much time being a snob that he has little time left to meddle with you."—William Faulkner.

Fire facts: Fires damage or destroy 1,000 U.S. homes a day. Fire claims a human life every 44 minutes. One out of every five fires is caused by matches or smoking.

If all the monetary gold in the free world were lumped together, it would make a 41-foot cube.

Americans spent $40 million on perfume last year. More than half the perfume used by women is bought for them by men.

Gulping vitamin pills is no protection against the penalty of overdrinking. A Detroit medical study found that excessive drinking over a period of years can damage heart muscles even in persons who are well-nutritioned.

Folklore: If it snows on your wedding day, you will become rich. Wear an eelskin around your waist and it will ward off rheumatism. If you see three white horses and then make a wish, it will come true. If the back of your legs itch, that's a sign you're going on a long journey.

It was Mark Twain who observed, "Good breeding consists in concealing how much we think of ourselves and how little we think of the other person."

Junior Editors Quiz on SEA GULLS

QUESTION: If some sea gulls live inland, what do they feed on?

• • •

ANSWER: In our picture we are looking at a remarkable scene. In the foreground is a field of fine wheat, planted by Mormon farmers in the old days of the West. The grain is ripe; but a horde of large insects called Mormon crickets have descended on it and will destroy it unless something is done at once. If the farmers pulled off the crickets one by one, the battle would be lost. They could not do this quickly enough. It was a desperate situation, for these wheat crops were vital to the pioneering Mormons. Then something wonderful happened: great numbers of Franklin's gulls, a gull which lives inland, appeared and picked off the crickets, saving the crops. In gratitude, the Mormons erected a monument to these gulls, which can be seen in Salt Lake City today.

Franklin's gull breeds in the inland marshes. It is a handsome bird with a black head and lives on a varied diet of insects, small fish and mollusks, berries and anything else edible it can find. Other kinds of sea gulls often live inland, especially Herring Gulls, which find large fresh water lakes to their liking. However, most gulls prefer the sea shore, because they have such an appetite for sea food.

Strong San Angelo Edges Determined Kittens, 8-6

The San Angelo junior varsity beat off the Snyder Tigers "B" team in the fourth quarter here Saturday night to preserve a shaky 8-6 gridiron verdict. The Kittens hammered relentlessly at the young Bobcat goal in the final stanza, but time proved to be the determining factor: there just wasn't enough of it.

A last second field goal attempt by the Kittens missed. But before that, the boys of Coaches Bill Hartsfield and Roy Carter drove three times deep in Bobcat territory in the final stanza.

The first drive was halted at the 30 by a penalty after quarterback Mickey Almond had engineered Snyder into good field position with a 17-yard toss to halfback Dwaine Boydstun. Seconds later, Snyder's Ronnie Shields recovered a 'Cat fumble on their 22. Dannie Garner cleared Dwight Davis to the 10 with a key block, then hammered to the five himself. At this point, the visitors' defense stiffened and they held Almond at the one on fourth down.

San Angelo punted out to their 29 and Almond tossed to Boydstun again — at the 12 for a 1st. Then disaster struck in the form of right halfback Mark Dove. He intercepted a pass at the four and went all the way. A clipping penalty nullified the score, but his fine defensive work had preserved the Bobcat victory.

Still, Snyder did not give up. The local boys recovered a fumble at the 23 with seconds remaining. Almond completed two passes to Frankie Grimmitt. With the ball on the 12 there was time remaining only for a quick field goal attempt.

San Angelo drove 46 yards in the first period to score first. Left half John Gable collected the points on a six yard sweep of left end after Dove set it up with a 32 yard ramble around the same end. Dove also provided the margin of victory with a center plunge for two points following the touchdown.

Almost the entire second quarter was played in San Angelo territory. The visitors held on downs at the 11 early in the frame. After receiving the ensuing punt, Snyder drove 54 yards in 13 plays for its touchdown. Shields, Almond and Pinkerton all turned in valuable yardage in the march. The big play was a 4th down 16-yard pass, Almond to Boydstun, which set up 1st and 10 on the 16. Almond swept end to the eight. Three ground plays and a penalty moved the ball back to the eight. Then Davis romped around right end for the tally with 52 seconds remaining in the half. A run for points fell short and Angelo had the winning two-point margin.

Another Snyder drive, in the third quarter, was halted by a fumble at the Angelo 13. Davis, Pinkerton, Almond, Shields and Lonnie Gilstrap all turned in short yardage in the drive, and Almond completed passes to Leon Riggins, Davis and Craig Bell in the march.

San Angelo also cranked up some offensive fireworks in this frame of the spectacular variety with Gable speeding around left end on a 67 yard run to the Snyder eight. Only a last-second tackle by Boydstun saved a touchdown. Then Snyder made a determined stand and fought the bigger Angeloans off, taking over on the four.

Boydstun was outstanding both offensively and defensively for Snyder. Besides the ones already mentioned, Tim Mebane, Emmitt Hataway, Larry Wadzeck, Bobby Clayton, Jackie Green and others were in the thick of the fight. The entire Kitten line kept the visitors at bay most of the night. They had outfought a bigger team that easily swept away the opposition in their previous games this season.

Improved Lamar 9th Grade Socks Ponies, 20 To 0

The Lamar 9th grade team of Snyder put down visiting Sweetwater here Saturday night, 20 to 0, with a potent offense that struck by land and air. The rock-ribbed defense also looked good, thwarting every Pony drive.

A little slow getting started, the Texans were unable to take advantage of good field position in the first quarter, although they drove to the 16 and 23 in Pony territory. The defense of Coaches Tom Echols and Bob O'Day looked good in the beginning. A Pony drive in the 1st quarter was stopped in the second frame at the Texan 24. Craig Alexander and Jodi Williamson cut off other Pony second period marches with interceptions at the five and 17 respectively.

Lamar drove 67 yards late in the second quarter for its first touchdown after recovering a fumble at their 33. Mitch Rambin raced around left end to the Pony 45, but a penalty moved the Texans back to their 40. Quarterback Steve Holder then passed downfield near the right sidelines to end Jerry January. He took the ball at the Pony 37 and charged on down to the 20. The same combo clicked on the next play for a touchdown. January made a fine reception and sped across the goal with 35 seconds remaining in the half. A pass try for extra points failed.

The entire third quarter was played in Pony territory with Rambin notching the second tally with a four yard burst over center. Craig Alexander took a short pass and ran over the conversion points, and the Texans led, 14-0, with 7:27 remaining in the period.

Jodi Williamson had put the Texans in scoring position at the eight, "red-dogging" the Ponies on fourth down. Eprian Cervantes bull-dozed to the four before Rambin rambled on in.

Sweetwater's Redwine saved a touchdown later in the period with an interception at the seven after the Texans had driven from midfield to the Pony 23. Alexander, Rambin, and Larry Lofton accounted for most of the yardage with power plays.

The Texans also dominated play in the final stanza, driving 67 yards again for their final touchdown. The drive began belatedly at the 28 following a 5 yard penalty. Cervantes then swept right end to the 45. Lofton added three and a penalty put the Texans on the Pony 37.

At this point Holder faked two handoffs and handed to Rambin going wide to the right. He was arrested on the 22. A line play gained five, then Rambin was thrown at the 28 for a loss. Holder was stopped on a line play, leaving 4th down and over 15 to go.

The Texans were equal to the occasion though. Rambin went down long to his right, cut back to the left and took a perfect pass from Holder in the end zone with 37 seconds remaining.

Sweetwater's deepest penetration in the final period was to the Texan 34, where a fumbled halted the maneuver.

Several boys were outstanding for the Texans in addition to the ones already mentioned. Bobby Wright and Dewey Grinslade looked good on defense. Doyle Gallman, recently recovered from an injury, also turned in a creditable game as did Lynn Wilson, Morris Smith and others.

Coach Echols said he was proud of the way all of the boys played.

Braves, Drysdale Cut Giant Margin

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal can't win.

Don Drysdale can't do anything else.

And so the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers go into the final week of the National League season all even.

While Milwaukee was handing Marichal his third straight loss Sunday, 3-2, Drysdale won his fourth in a row and pitched the Dodgers to their ninth consecutive victory, 1-0 over St. Louis.

Drysdale fired a five-hitter at the Cardinals and made a first-inning run — produced on Maury Wills' base-running and Jim Gilliam's single — stand up. The hard-throwing right-hander, now 22-12, has accounted for one-third of the nine victories in the Dodgers' streak, which has lifted them from 4½ games back into a tie for first.

At San Francisco, Gene Oliver's bases-empty homer in the sixth inning gave the Braves a 3-0 lead and proved the clincher against Marichal, who's lost 13 and won 22.

The Giants, who zoomed to the top with a 14-game winning string, have dropped five of nine since — with Marichal losing three of them.

Each front-runner has seven games left — all at home — before the regular season closes next Sunday. The Giants open a three-game set against St. Louis today, then conclude with a four-game series against Cincinnati's third-place Reds. Los Angeles starts a three-game series against Cincinnati tonight, then plays four against Milwaukee.

The eventual winner of the NL scramble will face the Minnesota Twins in the World Series. Minnesota clinched its first American League pennant Sunday with a 2-1 decision over Washington.

In other NL action — Houston kept Cincinnati three games behind, trimming the Reds 4-2 on rookie Chuck Harrison's three-run homer with one out in the last of the ninth; Pittsburgh overcame the Chicago Cubs 5-3 on run-scoring doubles by Willie Stargell and Jim Pagliaroni in the 10th inning; and Tony Gonzalez' double in the 10th gave Philadelphia a 5-4 victory over the New York Mets.

Elsewhere in the American League — Baltimore nipped California 2-1, the Chicago White Sox downed the New York Yankees 5-3, Kansas City edged Boston 2-1, and Detroit split with Cleveland, the Tigers taking the first game 2-0 and the Indians the second 7-1.

Wills led off the Dodgers' first against Ray Sadecki with a bunt single. When the St. Louis left-hander attempted a pickoff, Wills stole second, and continued to third when Bill White's throw to second was wild. Gilliam followed with his single — and it was 1-0.

It still was 1-0 after Dick Groat flied to Lou Johnson for the final out. Drysdale, making his record 4-0 against the Cards this year, did not walk a man and allowed only three runners as far as second.

Singles by Frank Bolling in the second and Mack Jones in the third drove in Milwaukee runs against Marichal, then Oliver homered in the sixth.

Chiefs Hold Alworth, SD

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fred Williamson, who once broke the spell of a hypnotist, now apparently is casting his own.

The subject in both cases: Lance Alworth.

Williamson, a defensive back for Kansas City who is antagonistic toward receivers in general and Alworth in particular, held the San Diego flanker to a complete standstill Sunday as the Chiefs and Chargers battled to a 10-10 tie in an American Football League game.

It wasn't long ago, at a party after an AFL All-Star Game, that Williamson was put under hypnosis. The hypnotist, aware of Williamson's feelings about Alworth, ordered him to say the name of the San Diego pass catcher in response to a question.

"I didn't know what I was doing," Williamson said, "but the hypnotist told me afterward that when he asked me who the best receiver was, I opened my mouth and made sounds but I wouldn't say Alworth—because I think he's overrated."

Even more convincing than his reaction to the hypnotic act was the show Williamson put on Sunday as he allowed only two passes to reach Alworth, who had grabed 11 for 277 yards and a 25.2-yard average in the Chargers' first two victories.

While the tie put the first blemish on San Diego's record, Oakland handed Houston its first loss 21-17 on Tom Flores' touchdown pass with 58 seconds remaining and Buffalo wound up the day the only team with a perfect record by beating New York 33-21 despite a sharp performance by Jets' quarterback Joe Namath.

New US Open champion Gary Player tied for 23rd place in the 1964 event with 295 and won $475. This year he shot 282, beat Kel Nagle in a playoff and earned $26,000.

Twins Wrap Up Pennant

By W.B. RAGSDALE Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sam Mele, who never made it to the World Series as a player, finally has made it as manager of the Minnesota Twins.

The Twins wrapped up the American League pennant Sunday with a 2-1 victory over Washington, sweeping a three-game series.

But Mele could be forgiven if he had a few other things on his mind.

About the time the Twins meet the National League champs in the World Series opener, he is due to become a father for the fifth time. Also scheduled about the same time is completion of a new home he is building in Quincy, Mass.

With the victory champagne corks still popping Sunday, Mele talked like he wished the World Series was this week.

"We've got the pitching for them," he said. "We've got the ball club for them. I don't care who we face, we're ready for them."

Mele said he probably would start 20-game winner Jim Grant in the opener, following up with Camilo Pascual and Jim Kaat, who won the clincher Sunday with an eight-hit performance for his 17th victory.

The celebration — delayed nearly 24 hours when the Baltimore Orioles refused to cooperate and won two games Saturday — was a wild one.

Nearly everybody involved with the Twins was soaked in either champagne or beer, or both. The drinks had been on ice for several days. Minnesota could have clinched the pennant here as early as Friday night.

Players battled each other with spraying champagne, stopping occasionally to take a swig of the liquid. Champagne puddles soaked the floor.

Kermit Is Friday Foe

Three Snyder football teams have games scheduled here this week, in addition to two 7th grade games at Lamar Tuesday at 4:10 p.m.

The Tigers seek to get on the victory trail against visiting Kermit at 8 p.m. Friday. Lamar's 8th grade hosts Goliad at 6 p.m. Thursday, followed by a 7 p.m. tussle between the 9th grade teams of both schools. Saturday, the "B" team journeys to Sweetwater for a 7:30 p.m. test of the Ponies.

Dallas Cowboys Are 1st In NFL

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys are in a most unaccustomed place — first in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League.

They got there with a 27-7 victory over the Washington Redskins Sunday and it pretty well illustrated an observation made by Coach Tom Landry during the summer.

Landry said he thought that Bob Hayes, the Olympic sprint champion, was the key to any success his team might have.

Hayes was only a rookie and had been noted mostly for running 100 yards in 9.1 and winning the Olympics 100 meters in 10.0, another world record.

But Bullet Bob also had played some good football at Florida A&M, and Landry figured here was a track man who could utilize deadly speed on the gridiron.

Hayes has done that very thing. Sunday he used his speed to run between a couple of Washington defenders and scat 45 yards to a touchdown with a pass thrown by Don Meredith.

Then Hayes ran like a scared rabbit on an end around for 11 yards and another touchdown before Washington knew he had the ball.

He also grabbed a 23-yard pass in the end zone with his superior speed but that touchdown was wiped away by a holding penalty.

The week previously Hayes had taken a swing pass and dashed 45 yards to a touchdown against New York.

"If he keeps coming up with those big plays he'll fulfill my hopes," said Landry. "And he'll be Rookie-of-the-year. That young fellow can use speed to the best advantage of any player I ever saw."

Hayes was the main punch for Dallas as the Cowboys beat the Redskins with comparative ease while a record regular-season crowd of 61,577 looked on.

Hayes scored the first two touchdowns and it was fairly easy for Dallas the rest of the way.

The Dallas defense was working like a smooth machine again and Meredith, playing most of the way with a wrenched back, turned in a good, solid game.

History May Show Kennedy Gave Country New Impetus

By JACK KNEECE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., believes President John F. Kennedy will be remembered by future generations most for giving "our country new impetus."

The junior senator from Massachusetts, in reply to a series of written questions, told The Associated Press that this was one of the late president's major contributions.

"He was able to dramatize the nation's needs to its people and was able to involve young people in the problems of public service, as well as giving the underprivileged in our country a feeling that America was concerned with their needs."

Concerning President Johnson's success with Congress, Kennedy said:

"Many of the programs, such as medicare and aid to education, which President Kennedy first proposed, had gone through the necessary phase of public acceptance and were thus ripe for passage in the last year and a half. But in addition, President Johnson works extremely hard at his relation with Congress. He knows Congress intimately, and the legislative branch has the highest regard for him."

The senator expressed himself in the following series of questions and answers:

Q. Do you subscribe to the so-called "domino effect" theory about South Viet Nam — that if Viet Nam were lost we'd lose all Allied nations in Southeast Asia like toppled dominoes?

A. I do not think the effect would be so quick or immediate, but I do believe that if we abandon our commitment in South Viet Nam it would lessen the ability of nations like Thailand, Malaysia and the Philippines to stand up to the pressures of Communist China.

Q. Do you have any further ambitions beyond the Senate, such as a Cabinet position or other high office?

A. My ambition is to be as good a senator as possible; to serve the people of my state, and to serve the national interest as well. The Senate is an extremely important part of our government. Anyone who makes a career there has an opportunity to make a significant contribution.

Q. How would you explain President Johnson's phenomenal success with the Congress? Was the time ripe for the legislation he proposed or does he seem to have some mystical sway with the Congress?

A. Both statements are true. Many of the programs, such as medicare and aid to education, which President Kennedy first proposed, had gone through the necessary phase of public acceptance and were thus ripe for passage in the last year and a half. But in addition, President Johnson works extremely hard at his relation with Congress. He knows Congress intimately, and the legislative branch has the highest regard for him.

Congress is also much more Democratic under President Johnson than it was under President Kennedy. We have to thank Barry Goldwater, in a sense, because his candidacy produced the large Democratic majorities that have made President Johnson's job easier.

Q. What can we do to persuade the emerging nations that our system offers more than the Communist system? As you have pointed out, the Communists have made dramatic advances in most areas other than agriculture since 1917.

A. Any leader of an emerging nation who wishes to make a comparison, will find that the economic advances in America under the free enterprise system have been much greater than those under the Communist system. The distribution of the fruits of prosperity is also much wider. But in addition to economic progress, there is the question of individual freedom which is something that is important to every human being. Here our system is vastly superior.

Q. Of President Kennedy's contributions to this nation's history many feel that he will be remembered generations hence most for the Peace Corps. Others feel that it will be for his courage in the Cuban encounter. If you had to single out a contribution by his administration, what would it be?

A. One of the major contributions was that President Kennedy gave our country a new impetus. He was able to dramatize the nation's needs to its people and was able to involve young people in the problems of public service, as well as giving the underprivileged in our country a feeling that America was concerned with their needs.

Q. It has been said that a man must have wealth — personal or family — in order to run successfully for president; that a man of limited means, even though he may be highly qualified, cannot finance through contributions alone. Your comment?

A. This is very true, and I think the situation should be corrected by a system that will allow candidates to raise the large sums of money that are needed for campaigning through small contributions from people of modest means. A tax credit of $10 or $20 for political contributions is one way to do this. A $100 deduction from taxes is another way.

Q. Do you feel, as do many, that the entire Congress is too sluggish and needs streamlining?

A. I think the record of the present Congress shows that when the public mandate is clear and when there is vigorous leadership from the President, Congress as presently organized can perform effectively.

Trading Swells On Wall Street

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A stock trading rush is on in Wall Street. People bought nearly 41 million shares last week — or, if you prefer, sold that many, since someone sells every time someone else buys.

Why are some individual or institutional investors suddenly buying so many? Why are others so willing to sell that many shares?

A prime motivation for many buyers apparently is all the talk that today's prosperity is sure to get even better. Auto men talk of a nine-million car year. Steel is doing better after its labor settlement than most people had thought possible. Employment is at a record high. So are incomes and spending. Popular stock price averages have closed higher week after week.

So the trading volume on the New York Stock Exchange is running far ahead of this time a year ago. The 41 million shares last week, with Thursday alone accounting for 10 million of that, followed a volume of 35 million the previous week, 26 million in the four-day trading in the week ending September 10, nearly 28 million in the week ending September 3, and 27 million in the week ending August 27.

In those five weeks 157,223,000 shares changed hands, compared with 116,883,000 in the like period of 1964.

The daily quota of news in recent weeks has been an effective stimulant. The current business upswing is in its 55th month, a peacetime record. The spring and summer months were better than first predicted. Corporate profits are proving larger than many hoped. The public seems convinced they are still climbing.

The Viet Nam war leads investors to believe many companies will prosper from increased defense spending. Also they feel that the plans for the Great Society mean that increased government spending will tend to keep prosperity rolling on.

Brokers say that some investors, especially the smaller ones, are seeking stocks as a hedge against the inflation they suspect may be on the way.

But others, brokers say, figure just the opposite. They consider inflation to be unlikely because the economic upswing is soundly based. So they do not fear the bust that invariably follows an inflation-inspired boom. They can cite statements by many government officials to that effect and also by most corporate economists.

Wall Street notes, too, that more people than ever before are in a position now to dabble in stocks if they like. Disposable income after taking care of the necessities has never been so large. And more people are taking an interest in business and finance, and are more knowledgeable about investments in general and individual companies in particular.

Some sellers may be skittish over the flocking of novices into the market. This could set off a speculative boom with the traditional price break to follow.

Death Claims Star Of Silent Screen

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Clara Bow, legendary "It" girl of silent movie fame, died early today in her secluded home in suburban Culver City. She was 60.

Relatives in Nevada said Miss Bow died of an apparent heart attack, but added they were not certain of the cause of death.

Miss Bow's body was taken to Forest Lawn Memorial Park under the name of Clara Beldan.

Miss Bow, flaming-haired star of early-day movies, had lived in virtual seclusion in the Los Angeles area since her separation from her late husband, cowboy actor Rex Bell, more than a decade ago.

In her later years, she was described by her son as an incurable insomniac, who painted and read incessantly, but rarely went out. She was plagued by ill health.

To a generation of moviegoers in the 1930s, Miss Bow was the incandescent symbol of the flapper, of emanicipated woman, of "It"—sex appeal—as typified in the popular novels of Elinor Glyn, who first described "It."

Area Farmers Can Depend On Central Tire Service

Area farmers can depend on Central Tire Service for help when they need it.

The firm provides round-the-clock out of store service on farm and truck tires.

"A farmer who has a flat in the field on his tractor while it's hooked up with a stripper doesn't need to spend half a day getting the tire into town," explained Aubrey Blalock, assistant manager. "He can simply call us, and we'll go out and fix the flat," he added.

Such service as this is one of the reasons Central Tire Service has prospered in Snyder during the past 15 years. Such service saves the farmer valuable time during the harvest season, and the charges are reasonable.

Located at 1931 Twenty-fifth Street, Central Tire Service has a complete line of front and rear tractor tires, cotton trailer and implement tires. A special truck equipped with the most modern tools always is ready to answer a service call from farmers who are in a hurry to complete the cotton harvest.

"We've got a vacuum tank that can remove or replace water," said Blalock, "and we can vulcanize farm tires." Also featured at the firm is a complete line of retreading for passenger and truck tires.

In addition to tire service, Central Tire Service mechanics are well qualified to perform a variety of work, including wheel balancing, brake adjustments, front end alignment and muffler installation. Larry House, a mechanic of the firm, is ready to install guaranteed customized or regular mufflers.

There are eight employes of Central Tire Service, including the owner, Stanley Noah. Company employes have a total of 35 years experience in the tire service field.

"Our equipment is designed to meet the needs of the people who live in this area," said the manager.

The authorized U.S. Royal Tire distributor still furnishes its patrons the latest in tread design — a "continental" design in which the tread wraps around the side of the tire, rather than having a high shoulder on the tire.

Retreads from Central Tire Service are economical and durable.

This time of year is important to the farmer. If he wants a real tire bargain with speedy service, all he has to do is call HI 3-3841 — Central Tire Service.

FARM SERVICE is a specialty of Central Tire Service, local dealer for U.S. Royal Tires. One of the servicemen of the firm, Eloy Hill, shows a tractor tire at the establishment. Central Tire Service offers service in the field which is a big help to farmers, especially during the busy harvest season.

ONLY A BRUSH is needed to apply Johnston's No-Roach, the colorless, odorless coating that is effective against all crawling insects.

No-Roach Is Safe To Use Anywhere

Science is wonderful. Too bad they can't figure a way to "blast" all the crawling insects it to orbit and free every housewife from these pests. That's impossible — but science has gone to the laboratory and perfected a bug killer—that is the answer to every woman's dream. It's effective, clean and easy to use, yet absolutely safe to apply anywhere in the home. It's Johnston's brushon No-Roach.

No-Roach is effective against all crawling insects — cockroaches, ants, spiders, and silverfish. One application stays effective for months.

It's clean and easy to use; harmless to pets.

No need to move dishes or food when you use Johnston's No-Roach. Just brush the colorless, odorless coating where you want it. Dries quickly to form an invisible film that stays effective for months. Brush Johnston's No-Roach in cabinets, on baseboards, door sills, window sills . . . wherever you see roaches and ants. Use Johnston's No-Roach and forget about bugs for months! Get No-Roach at Furr's, Cash Food, Piggly Wiggly, B&B, Safeway, Rainbow, and all grocery stores.

Cattle Stolen From Big Spring Ranch

BIG SPRING (AP)—Six head of cattle, valued at $700, were reported stolen from a ranch near Big Spring.

The owner, Bill Bennett, told Deputy Sheriff Lindy Oldfield that the animals were taken sometime last week, but he did not discover the loss immediately.
