Probably the biggest disappointment on the world scene this year, the invasion of Czechoslovakia has generally been interpreted as an eye-opener for "doves," but for the Czechs themselves it undoubtedly is even more of a shock. What promised to be another "window" in the iron curtain filmed over again, but regardless of the power of the Soviets a person wonders if it can ever be completely blotted out again.

It is a change of pace, of course, for the communist bloc to have such a problem within its family put on public display. As for our side, it already has been pointed out that we have had no ties with the Czechs since they were enveloped in the iron curtain and consequently there are no commitments for material assistance. These are Warsaw Pact nations moving into another Warsaw Pact nation.

But it offers an excellent opportunity for propaganda and it is difficult to see how the Soviet Union can avoid suffering in world opinion. It is a blow to its image and the free world should exploit it to the fullest.

News dispatches noted that the Soviets said they had been "requested" to come in and protect communism in Czechoslovakia. I suspect that the United States could get an invitation to move into Cuba that would be as valid as any that went out to the Russians from Prague.

The Texas Safety Association, which has been working on the project for a long time, reports that rapid progress is being made in its campaign to make driver education available to all Texas teen-agers. Reporting on the new "master plan," E. E. Edmondson Jr. of Houston, President of the association, said the new, comprehensive program now underway features "advanced techniques in instruction, and promises to make driver education one of the most sophisticated courses in our school system."

The master plan will be implemented this fall when a group of highly - trained teaching assistants and their supervisors fan out across the state to inaugurate the state's new multi-phase program. It will not be available in all schools this year, but the scope and quality of the program where it is available are expected to be greater than ever before.

Youngsters cannot receive motor vehicle operators licenses now until they are 18 years old, unless they have driver education courses. Those who successfully complete the driver education course may obtain licenses at 16 years of age. — WACIL McNAIR.

DUBCEK ARRESTED

Prague Scene Of Massive Protests

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovaks massed today on Vaclavske Namesti, Prague's main square, in a violent demonstration against the Soviet-led occupation and the arrest of their reform-minded Communist chief, Alexander Dubcek.

Ignoring requests by the clandestine Prague radio to maintain calm to avoid giving the foreign soldiers an excuse for further violence, a crowd of about 20,000 shook their fist at the Russians and shouted: "Russian murderers go home!"

They called for Dubcek's release.

Shots were heard from the square. It could not be determined immediately whether the soldiers were aiming at demonstrators or loosing warning shots into the air.

Soviet tank troops, who had been covering all approaches to the square since their arrival Wednesday, immediately closed all bridges across the Vltava River, which divides the city.

The move came as Czechoslovak Communists, reacting to the occupation by 200,000 Russian and Kremlin-line satellite troops, convened in an extraordinary party congress that its liberal leadership had originally scheduled to open Sept. 9.

This was a last-ditch attempt to force the troops to leave through political pressure.

The clandestine proliberal radio announced 927 delegates met at 11:20 a.m. Though the broadcast did not specify the site, the delegates had been urged to go to the liberal-controlled CKD factory on the outskirts of Prague.

Under arrangements that had been made by Dubcek, 1,500 members would have been on hand for the September meeting. In that session it had been expected he would oust conservative opponents from the ruling party Presidium and the Central Committee.

The seven Central Committee members who have declared loyalty to the Soviet-led occupation troops, tried to shift today's meeting to the party-owned Praha Hotel.

Red Rockets Smash Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy rockets smashed into the center of Saigon for the first time in two months today and mortars hit more than a dozen other cities and allied installations in a fifth straight day of widespread enemy attacks.

Heavy ground fighting also was reported at half a dozen points.

Military communiques reported 45 Vietnamese civilians were killed and 117 wounded in the rain of more than 500 rockets and mortars that hit Saigon and cities to the northwest and south. A Japanese news correspondent, Tatsuo Sakai, 33, also was killed in the Saigon attack, becoming the 19th correspondent to die in the war. Only five Americans were reported wounded in the widespread shellings.

An American solder was fatally shot in the back while cycling in downtown Saigon. The shooting touched off a running motorcycle gun battle that left a South Vietnamese soldier and one of the three Vietnamese assailants wounded. The wounded assailant was later captured. The two other men escaped.

The intensified pace of the war included shellings and ground attacks against at least six allied bases blocking invasion routes into Saigon and a fifth straight day of heavy fighting for control of a road 40 miles northwest of Saigon.

IMMEDIATE ACTION SOUGHT

Czechs Turn To UN Council

By STANLEY JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Czechoslovakia, overrun by the Soviet Union and four hardline followers, fought back on the diplomatic front today with support from the United States and other Western powers.

The Security Council, heeding American pleas of urgency, scheduled a second round of debate after arguing the Soviet military take-over in Czechoslovakia for nearly five hours Wednesday night with no break for dinner.

U.S. Chief Delegate George W. Ball said he strongly appealed for "immediate action of the council. . . we have the responsibility to act and act quickly."

So far, however, the six nations—the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Denmark and Paraguay—which persuaded the council to place the case on its agenda over strenuous Soviet objections, have not come up with a formal resolution.

Discussions were understood to be going on to draw one up which would get the broadest possible support while still expressing Western determination to have the council tell the Warsaw Pact forces to get out of Czechoslovakia immediately.

Any resolution faces an almost certain Soviet veto and this was foreshadowed by Soviet delegate Jacob Malik's bitter opposition to any U.N. discussion of the issue at all.

Malik was impassive and, for most of the session Wednesday, wore dark glasses.

His performance lacked fire and Britain's Lord Caradon commented that the Russian diplomat had the council's "compassion" because it realized his "disgust at having to defend such a disgraceful act. No wonder he carried so little conviction."

"Your compassion is in vain, Lord Caradon," Malik retorted. "I am proud that here in this council I defend a just cause."

Malik insisted that the Soviet Union and its allies had moved into Czechoslovakia at the invitation "of the government of that state. It is the government of that state which requested aid from its allies."

Teddy Is Back In Spotlight

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts returned to political activity Wednesday with a call for an end to the war in Vietnam and a statement that he is not a candidate for any office this year.

Kennedy was stern and serious as he made his first public speech since the assassination of his brother Sen. Robert F. Kennedy June 5.

His audience, 1,200 members and guests of the Worcester Chamber of Commerce, gave him ovations at the opening and end of his speech. There were seven interruptions for rounds of applause.

Hanson Rites Set Friday

ROTAN — Funeral service will be held here Friday for J. E. Hanson, 81, a pioneer settler in the Dunn area of Scurry County. Mr. Hanson, 81, died at 10:45 a.m. Wednesday in the Crestview Lodge here.

Scott Mitchell, minister, will officiate at the funeral service at 10 a.m. Friday at the Rotan Church of Christ. Graveside rites and burial will follow at 11:30 a.m. at the Dunn Cemetery. Weathersbee Funeral Home in Rotan is in charge of arrangements.

A native of Georgia, Mr. Hanson came to Texas in 1901 with his parents and settled in the Dunn area in 1902. He was married on Dec. 16, 1911, to Miss Alice Byrd in Colorado City. They lived at Dunn for many years, moving to Snyder and to Jayton before coming to Rotan in 1952.

In addition to the wife, survivors include a son, James W. Hanson of Rotan; two daughters, Mrs. John Swink of Gardenia, Calif., and Mrs. E. S. Gallagher of Abilene; a brother, Marvin Hanson, of Snyder; four grandchildren and two great - grandchildren.

Soldier In Vietnam Asks For Books

Sp4 Dennis Kennedy, serving with a radio research communications unit in Vietnam, has issued a plea for help in getting a library started.

A former employe of the Snyder Daily News, Dennis made the plea in a recent letter to friends here:

". . . I would like to make a direct plea to the people of Snyder from the men of the radio research communications unit, Viet Nam. Over here, we are working twelve-hour days and don't have very much spare time. What little we do have is useless because we have nothing to do. There is no television, very little and poor radio reception, and movies come only one or two times a month.

"Here at Davis Station, we are trying to get a small library started. To do this we need books. Our plea is this: Will the people of each of our home towns get together and contribute books to help us out? I remember how cooperative Snyder was in the soap drive held a couple of years ago, and I'm sure they will help us out this time.

". . . Believe me . . . such a contribution to the morale and welfare of the guys over here would be one that would surely touch each of us very deeply . . . Anything that you can do will be greatly appreciated."

Anyone wishing to send books may do so in care of Sp4 Dennis Kennedy, RA 15775016, RRCUV — Vietnam, APO S.F. 96307.

Prospects For Arms Talks Alive Despite Newest Strain

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration intends to press for arms control and other East-West accords despite the millstone the Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia has hung on U.S.-Soviet relations.

The prospect of far-reaching talks between the United States and Russia on nuclear missile and antimissile curbs are still alive, authoritative U.S. sources said Wednesday.

President Johnson has not canceled the newly inaugurated New York-Moscow air service, clamped down on trade with Russia or suspended U.S.-Soviet cultural exchanges although such options remained open.

A U.S. military response was ruled out from the beginning.

The immediate U.S. strategy has been to try for some relief of Czechoslovakian liberals by joining in the outcry of world public opinion against the Russian move.

Johnson publicly denounced the Soviet action Wednesday. Ambassador George W. Ball protested at the U.N. Security Council and the government's Voice of America radio tripled its Russian-language broadcasts.

"It is never too late for reason to prevail," Johnson said in appealing for urgent United Nations action.

The President called the Soviet Union claim that Czech leaders had asked for military aid in preserving communism in their country "patently contrived."

"The Czechoslovakian government did not request its allies to interfere in its internal affairs," Johnson said. "No external aggression threatened Czechoslovakia."

On Capitol Hill, both Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford agreed there is little the United States can do except to take the matter to the United Nations.

The State Department, meanwhile, advised all Americans to defer travel to Czechoslovakia and said those already there should keep in touch with the U.S. Embassy.

The United States also quietly began arrangements to help refugees should they start streaming out of Czechoslovakia, as they did from Hungary after the Soviets smashed an uprising there 12 years ago.

Ohio Penitentiary Rebellion Crushed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A rebellion by Ohio Penitentiary inmates was crushed Wednesday by police and National Guardsmen, who blasted through prison walls to rescue nine penitentiary guards held hostage for nearly 30 hours.

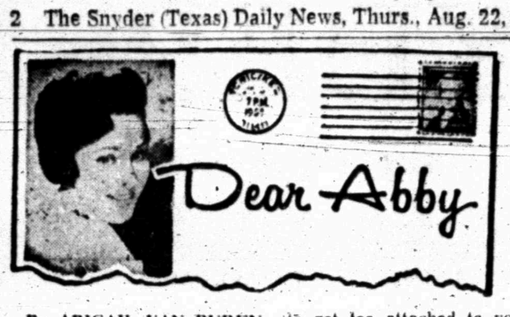
Five of the inmates who had threatened to burn the guards to death were killed in the attack and 10 others were injured. The hostages escaped injury.

State Corrections chief Maury C. Koblentz said the inmates "overplayed their hand and lost." The inmates had threatened to kill the hostages if certain demands weren't met or if a rescue by force was attempted.

"They had won two big items but lost everything when they ignored our ultimatum," Koblentz said.

That ultimatum, delivered at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, gave the inmates 15 minutes to surrender and release the guards.

The fifteen minutes passed, the hostages were not freed and two dynamite blasts were set off seconds apart. One shattered the outside wall of cells where the prisoners were, the other ripped the roof off the cell block.



By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please notice that this letter is from ELIZABETH, NEW JERSEY. There is a man I go with and like very much, but he is a nut about one thing. He wears TEXAS-type cowboy boots all the time! He wears regular clothes like every other well - dressed man in Elizabeth, but he will not wear anything else but these western style boots. I once asked him if he's from Texas, but he said no. He had once visited in Fort Worth and had become accustomed to cowboy boots — and found them to be so comfortable that he now won't wear anything else.

Don't you think they are out of place here? How can I get him to chuck these boots and be more normal?

INTERESTED IN HIM

DEAR INTERESTED: Let him wear what he wants, and don't criticize him. And if you are truly "interested in him," keep him foot happy. No man ever proposed to a woman when his feet hurt.

DEAR ABBY: Our son recently was divorced and married again. His second wife (also divorced) worked for him and there was a lot of talk about these two. Many said it was she who broke up his home.

We tried to be friendly and invited them to our home for supper many times. They came only once, and after that they were always "busy." Our son drops in to see us often, without her. We have never been invited to their home.

One Sunday, when our son was here, his wife phoned for him and I answered. She said, "I hope you don't feel hurt that I don't see more of you, but I would rather associate with other people. I don't want to get too attached to you for the simple reason that when you PASS AWAY I won't miss you so much."

Needless to say, I was dumbfounded. What do you make of this? We're not going to force ourselves on her. But isn't there something wrong with her thinking? What would you do in our place?

HURT

DEAR HURT: I would steer clear of her. And tell your son to save his money. He may need it for psychiatric help. She sounds sick.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I need some advice, and quick! My husband is leaving for Viet Nam in 3 weeks. He wants me to live with HIS parents while he's gone. I want to go home and live with my OWN parents. We've been married for 14 months and have a small baby.

So far, all we've done is argue about this. I'm sure I'm not the only young wife with this problem. What do other wives do?

HIS OR MINE

DEAR HIS: I don't know what it's like at YOUR home, and what it's like at HIS home, how you feel about his family etc. But a woman who is old enough to be a wife and mother should be mature enough to make her own decision. I say, in your husband's absence go where you feel more at home.

CRMWD Work Is Moving Rapidly

Mid-month reports show Colorado River Municipal Water District projects to be moving along rapidly.

The biggest of half a dozen now under way is the dam and oil well mounds above Robert Lee. The dam is now rated more than 80 per cent of completion. More than 10,500,000 cubic yards of material — core, wetted embankment, gravel blanket and rock rip-rap — have been put in place. The massive concrete spillway is 77.17 per cent complete. This week the contractor, Clement Bros., has filled the last section of core tench, leaving only the embankment of the dam to be put in place. Only 74 per cent of the scheduled time has elapsed.

The construction of a dozen and a half oil well mounds in the lake basin for Humble is half way toward completion. All of the earthen work on the mounds is complete; bulk of the rock rip rap remain to be put in place by Roland Scherer, contractor.

J. D. Jones, Big Spring, is 30 per cent toward completion on a pump station structure. Panhandle Construction Company is over 90 per cent complete on a 36-mile stretch of 33-in. pipeline from Big Spring to the Martin County well field, having only a mile and a half to lay on the east end.

Lyles & Lyles of Ballinger now stand at 50 per cent of completion on the side storage and channel dam job on the Colorado River just above Colorado City.

Wittman Construction Company is due to begin laying the 27-in. section of pipeline from Moss Creek to the Sun Oil pipeline Sept. 16; the 21-in. section from the Sun Oil line to the off-channel storage Dec. 4; the 42-in. section from Big Spring to Moss Creek Feb. 10, 1969 with completion of this by April 25, 1969. Bids may be received in September on the off-channel storage pump station and on 14.-47 miles of 30-inch line from the Martin County pump station to Midland in November.

Located beyond Gibraltar, Atlantis was supposedly a country larger than Asia Minor and Libya combined; its armies overran the Mediterranean lands. One day the sea overwhelmed Atlantis, and it vanished forever.

Braised Veal

1¼ pounds boneless veal neck
½ cup dry red wine (burgundy)
1 medium clove garlic, crushed
1 bay leaf
2 whole cloves
2 whole allspice
2 tablespoons shortening
2 ribs celery and leaves
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
Chicken bouillon
1½ teaspoons instant flour

Slice veal into 1-inch pieces, cutting away as much fat and as many tendons as possible. Into a shallow dish, turn wine, garlic, bay leaf, cloves and allspice; mix in meat; cover tightly and refrigerate overnight. Drain meat, reserving marinade. Dry meat on paper toweling. In a 9- or 10-inch skillet, melt shortening; add meat and brown rapidly. Pour off fat. Add reserved marinade, celery, onion and ¾ cup bouillon; cover tightly and simmer until tender — about 1 hour. (Add more bouillon as needed to keep about ½ cup liquid in skillet.) Remove celery and spice. Measure liquid; if necessary, add enough bouillon or water to make ½ cup; stir in the flour; return to skillet and cook gently, stirring constantly, until thickened. Makes 2 servings.

INTERPARTY STRUGGLE FOR POWER

McCarthy's Strategy Parallels Rockefeller's

CHICAGO (AP) — The city is different, the party is different, but the strategy is much the same as Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy strives to upset Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and capture the Democratic presidential nomination.

It is almost as though the McCarthy forces were working from campaign manuals drawn up for the Republican presidential bid of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

There are differences, but there are more parallels, in the Chicago campaign for McCarthy and in the Miami Beach convention strategy by Rockefeller three weeks ago.

The Rockefeller effort, of course, failed. Richard M. Nixon, who went to the GOP convention the leader, emerged as the Republican presidential nominee.

The McCarthy camp openly acknowledges the similarity between its campaign and that waged by Rockefeller.

The heart of the strategy amounts to a challenge of the convention system itself, an argument that the party professionals who wield power in a convention hall are not really responsive to what the people want.

The remedy chosen by both candidates: a public campaign designed to convince the delegates that if they really want victory in November, they should turn away from the front-runners.

McCarthy's forces underscored the similarity with full-page newspaper advertisements which began:

"On Aug. 7, 1968, a good man was sandbagged in Miami. Nelson Rockefeller lost the Republican nomination to Dick Nixon and Co.

"On Aug. 26th in Chicago, Hubert Humphrey intends to make Miami's power politics look like the Amateur Hour. He fully intends, at the Democratic convention to obliterate Gene McCarthy."

McCarthy himself has said that he can overtake Humphrey only if the delegates become convinced he is the only candidate who can win in November.

His camp acknowledges that delegates generally would be more comfortable with Humphrey than with the man who cracked the facade of Democratic unity with his primary election challenges to President Johnson.

So the McCarthy emphasis in the convention buildup has been on an argument that if the politicians want Humphrey, the voters would rally to a McCarthy ticket.

Just as Rockefeller argued that Nixon could not win in November, McCarthy spokesmen say that Humphrey is not electable.

As the Republican governors stressed public opinion polls to counter Nixon delegate strength, the McCarthy organization contends the polls prove their man's strength.

Often, even the words are the same. "Erosion" is one of them.

McCarthy's convention manager, Stephen A. Mitchell, contends that is what is happening to Humphrey's delegate lead. It echoes the Rockefeller claims at Miami Beach.

The chief difference between the two strategies is unfolding in preconvention hearings on issues and delegate seating. The McCarthy organization is supporting an array of delegate challenges unprecedented in party history.

In that, Humphrey's organization perceives the outline of what its men charge will be a propaganda effort to challenge the fairness of the way nominating delegates were chosen.

BUSY EMPLOYES — What do City Firemen do when they're not fighting fires? Here, Tommy Guynes and Ed Shuler are busy painting the front doors at the Central Fire Station. "There's always something to do around here," the men said.

Demos Turn To Cities, Poverty

CHICAGO (AP) — Fashioners of the Democratic Platform turn to problems of poverty and the ills of the city today, with supporters of Sen. Eugene McCarthy still trying to put the challengers' stamp on the party policy statement.

The list of witnesses called to the first hearing since the platform committee shifted its operations from Washington to this convention city was heavyily waited with McCarthy supporters.

Among them were George Wiley, executive director of the National Welfare Rights Organization, one of the groups active in the recent Poor Peoples Demonstration in Washington; Michael Harrington, whose books on poverty in America have been extensively quoted by those who advocate substitutes for the welfare system; and Julian Bond, Negro member of the Georgia Legislature.

Meanwhile, negotiations continue among McCarthyites, supporters of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and uncommitted delegates who also criticized the Johnson administration's Southeast Asia policies, on a proposed plank advocating a quick end to the Vietnam war. Delegates favorable to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey tend to argue for a plank that would not tie an incoming administration to a detailed negotiating policy.

A sticky point is McCarthy's insistence on a statement calling for inclusion of members of the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong, in an interim government of South Vietnam.

The administration critics, who make up only a minority of the 110 member platform committee, are trying to frame language that would push the present Saigon government in this direction and yet avoid an outright threat of U.S. withdrawal if it did not comply.

Election Code Change Due?

DALLAS (AP) — State Rep. Jim Stroud of Dallas said Wednesday the 61st session of the Texas Legislature may enact extensive revisions of the state election code, including tougher provisions governing the reporting of political contributions.

Stroud is chairman of a committee to study changes in the laws.

"If we're going to have a reporting law, it should be an accurate one," he said.

He said reporting provisions now are "as weak as can be" because the law permits contributions to be disguised as coming from "friends" or "a committee" rather than a specific donor.

The committee will study virtually every phase of Texas election laws, Stroud said, including vote fraud, special elections, filing fees, precinct chairman duties and registration for returning military personnel.

Other members of the committee are Reps. Rayford Price of Palestine, James Cole of Greenville, Russell Cummings of Houston and Ronald Bridges of Corpus Christi.

Well - known Ukrainian - Americans include actor Jack Palance, Tom Tresh of the New York Yankees and the late sculptor Alexander Archipenko.

Policemen Killed As Wall Falls

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — Two policemen were killed early today when a wall of a building which burned during the night collapsed on a police car.

The burned building was the scene of one of two spectacular fires which occurred just a block apart in the downtown area.

Identities of the officers were not at once known.

A police officer said the two were patrolling for looters along the street when the wall fell on their car at 6:18 a.m.

He said the roof of the car was smashed flat to the car's floor. Rescuers got the officers out in about 20 minutes but they were dead when they reached a hospital.

Firemen fought the blaze at the collapsed building for almost 10 hours before getting it under control early today.

One Wichita Falls fireman, Lt. Lester R. Carlton, 42, was listed in satisfactory condition at a local hospital after a roof fell under him and four other men were treated and released for smoke inhalation.

The first fire broke out shortly before dusk Wednesday and destroyed three buildings, including the Star Hotel, in what firemen described as an old section of the city's eastern downtown district.

Just as firemen believed they had it under control, black smoke billowed from a building in the central business district, about a block away.

The second fire started in a shoe store and soon burned through a wall into an adjacent men's clothing store.

All available Wichita Falls firemen were called to duty and units from surrounding areas were placed on standby in Wichita Falls fire stations.

US Blockade Fails To Stop Castro's Trades With West

By FENTON WHELER
Associated Press Writer

HAVANA (AP) — How effective is the U.S. economic blockade of Cuba in terms of dollars and cents?

Prime Minister Fidel Castro says it is damaging and has cost his country "hundreds of millions of pesos" because of transportation charges and buying under difficult conditions. At the official exchange rate of $1 per peso this means hundreds of millions of dollars.

At the same time the Cuban leader manages to bring hundreds of millions of dollars worth of products to this island every year. Last year his trade with Western countries amounted to about $320 million, or between 20-25 per cent of all Cuba's foreign trade.

Only a shortage of hard currency due to a drought-wracked sugar crop is slowing him down this year. Sugar normally earns four-fifths of Cuba's foreign exchange, and the shelves bare of meat, tobacco, fruit and coffee this year indicate the government is sending as many of these products abroad as it can to take up the sugar slack.

Of the Communist-bloc, Russia is far and away the biggest trading partner at about $930 million annually. Soviet trade with Cuba continues at a deficit —more exports then imports. This accounts in part for the $1 million a day in nonmilitary aid Moscow is reported to send to this island.

For some time anti-Communist Spain has been out-trading such Communist nations as East Germany, Bulgaria, North Korea, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Yugoslavia and, at times, Czechoslovakia. Spanish trade often has approached that of Cuba's No. 2 trader Red China.

The West's new leader this past year was France, which more than tripled its trade of 1966 and is doing almost nine times the business it did here in the 10 years before Castro came to power.

Figures available here show this lineup for the major Western traders in 1967 in millions of dollars: France 70, Spain 65.6, Canada 48.6, Britain 36.6, Japan 33.5, Italy 24.7, Holland 15, West Germany 9.2, Sweden 6.2, Switzerland 5.6, Belgium 2.8 and Denmark 1.

The figures indicate Castro can buy and bring through the blockade most of the things he needs if he has the hard currency to pay for it.

There has been evidence lately that he also can do it on credit. Romania is giving Cuba $30 million worth of oil drilling equipment on eight years' credit. East Germany has agreed to supply $25 million worth of heavy construction and hydraulic equipment, also on credit. Near Cienfuegos on Cuba's south coast a big fertilizer plant supplied by Simon Carves, Ltd., of Britain is going up. The plant's price is $44 million, backed by a guarantee of the British government. Cuba has five years to pay for this.

Against this background, there are no outward signs here that Castro is interested in resuming diplomatic relations with the United States, even if an offer came from Washington.

"Castro is really hung up on Vietnam," says one who has heard the prime minister's recent views on the United States.

"He believes the Vietnamese are fighting a battle for all the oppressed people of the world. As such, he feels closely allied to them. The fact the enemy is the United States makes his position even more firm."

'Dress Code' Set By SHS Students

With the beginning of school next week, the Snyder Senior High School Student Council has issued a dress code for high school students.

All students are expected to wear clean "street clothes" and appear neat and well groomed. Boys will wear their hair neatly cut and groomed — out of the eyes, off the ears, and not hanging in back. Fads in hair dos, beards, shaven heads, clothing or anything designed to attract undue attention to the individual or to disrupt the orderly conduct of the campus and classroom activities are not acceptable. Boys' sideburns should be of reasonable length. Boys will dress neatly with shirts buttoned and tucked in trousers. Collars will be turned down. Sport shirts that are cut short and straight around the bottom and designed to be worn outside may be worn outside provided they are worn neatly. Socks must be worn with shoes.

Girls should dress neatly and with good taste at all times. Appropriate dress for school will be dresses (pant-dresses of culotte variety included) or skirts and blouses or sweaters. Dresses and skirts will be of "decent" or acceptable length for school. These should be neat, simple and inexpensive. Low-cut sun dresses, slacks, blue jean, jumps suits, fly skirts, bloomer dreses, or imilar wearing apparel are not acceptable. Shorts or similar sportswear garments are not acceptable as school dress for either boys or girls.

Basically the same regulations for dress will apply to after-school meetings. Exceptions to the rule will depend upon the type activity such as working on properties for plays, climbing ladders, etc.

Student Council members have pointed out that "fashions are changing and dress and skirt lengths are coming down."

In an appeal to mothers, students have asked that parents take more responsibility in checking to see if dress and skirt length of their daughters are of proper length. Students and local women's wear merchants have suggested that length for a straight skirt should be "no higher than two inches above the knee."

Headon Collision Kills Two Persons

MABANK, Tex. (AP) — Two persons were killed Wednesday on U. S. 175 just west of this North Texas town, when two automobiles smashed headon.

The drivers of both cars were killed. They were Horace Perkins, 54, of Mabank, and Samuel Templin, 72, of Dallas.

Highway Patrolman Billy Martin said the accident occurred during the early afternoon on a straight stretch of highway in perfect driving weather.

Testifies To Destruction Of Property

DALLAS (AP) — Mark Elston, 15-year-old son of a co-owner of the OK Supermarkets, testified Wednesday that he saw Marion Ernest McMillan and Matthew Johnson destroy store merchandise in one of the firm's stores July 1.

The two Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee members are on trial here for destruction of private property over the value of $50.

Elston said he was at a checkout stand when the Negroes entered. He said Johnson smashed two juice bottles and two watermelons and McMillan destroyed a gallon-sized glass jug of milk.

Store manager E. D. Tallas testified he heard a bottle smash, turned and saw McMillian and Johnson. He testified that the two men led a group of about 20 to 30 Negroes who broke and punctured watermelons and threw other groceries.

The first defense witness, Richard Littleton, a Negro manager of another chain grocery stor, testified that prices in the OK supermarkets were higher than other stores, and thus the amount of damage was not as much as the prosecution alleged.

The OK stores were picketted by SNCC members charging the merchants with carrying poor merchandise and failure to hire Negroes in managerial positions.

Casualties Reflect War Lull

SAIGON (AP) American battle deaths last week numbered 159 killed, the second lowest figure this year, U.S. headquarters nnounced today.

The weekly casualty report reflected the lull in the war which was then in progress. The lull ended with heavy fighting last Sunday and the next casualty report is certain to be higher.

For the week ending Aug. 17, headquarters listed 1,393 enemy killed by allied forces.

American losses were 159 killed, 609 wounded and hospitalized and 575 wounded and treated in the field.

This brought the war's total U.S. death toll to 26,793 as opposed to 379,564 enemy killed.

The death toll was the lowest since mid-July when 157 Americans were killed at the beginning of the period marking the fall in combat activity. That was the lowest week this year and among the lowest in almost two years.

The figures listed 1,193 U.S. servicemen as missing or captured, a drop of 15 during the week due to missing Americans being reclassified from missing to dead.

The U.S. Command also gave an increased figure for the enemy dead in the previous weekly report which ended Aug. 10. The previous figure was 1,642 enemy killed but the command said reevaluation fixed enemy losses at 2,102 for the week.

The weekly report totaled 88,525 Americans wounded and hospitalized since the war began with another 79,627 wounded and treated in the field.

FOR YANKS

Ailing Al Wins Second Game

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Downing hopes Minnesota's Mayo Clinic can do as much for his sleeping habits as Minnesota's Twins have done for his pitching groove.

The little New York left-hander, plagued by chronic arm trouble since spring training, stymied Minnesota hitters for 8 1-3 innings Wednesday night and earned only his second victory of the season as the Yankees edged the Twins 2-1.

Today Downing will re-enter the Mayo Clinic, where his pitching arm passed doctors' tests two days ago, for the examination of another problem—his mysterious inclination toward instant daytime slumber.

Downing has trouble sleeping at night but can doze off at the drop of a hat in mid-day. The Mayo specialists have diagnosed his condition as narcolepsy, a controllable ailment remotely akin to sleeping sickness. They suspect there may be some relation between his sleeping pattern and arm miseries.

"They are going to give me sleeping pills before I go to bed at night and pills to keep me awake during the day," said the 27-year-old fastballer, who won 14 games for the Yankees last year. "They'll keep me for a day to see how I react. I hope they find the answer."

While Downing bolstered Yankee hopes for a first division finish, Detroit's American League leaders moved a step closer to their first pennant since 1945 by nipping Chicago 3-2 on Jim Price's pinch hit homer in the 10th inning.

Second-place Baltimore nipped California 4-3 in 15 innings and remained seven games off the pace and Cleveland trimmed Boston 8-2 for Horacio Pina's first major league victory in the only other games scheduled.

Pittsburgh blasted Cincinnati 19-1, San Francisco riddled the New York Mets 13-3, St. Louis whipped Philadelphia 8-3, Houston downed Los Angeles 6-1 and the Chicago Cubs swept a doubleheader from Atlanta 5-4 and 13-5 in National League play.

Downing, who spent one month on the disabled list and another in the minors trying to regain his pitching form, held the Twins hitless until the sixth and took a two-hit shutout into the ninth, when Bob Allison's 15th homer brought Lindy McDaniel out of the bullpen to nail down the victory.

Price, a reserve catcher, broke a 2-2 tie at Detroit with his second homer of the year, a one-out shot off Wilbur Wood in the 10th. Mickey Stanley's eighth-inning homer had knotted it for the Tigers.

"I used to catch Wood at Columbus in 1966," said Price. "We were the best of friend. I've pinch hit and tied up the game four or five times this year, but this was the greatest."

Boog Powell broke up the Orioles-Angels marathon with a run-scoring single in the 15th after Mark Belanger walked, stole second and took third on catcher Ed Kirkpatrick's wild throw. Frank Robinson and Don Buford homered for Baltimore, staking Dave McNally to a 3-0 lead, but the Angels tied it in the fifth on a two-out walk, Rick Reichardt's triple and Bubba Morton's double.

The Indians supported Pina, a 21-year-old right-hander making his first start, with an eight-run uprising in the fifth that knocked out Boston's Jim Lonborg.

Pina gave up eight hits and struck out seven, but needed last-out relief help from Vicente Romo. Chico Salmon, Dave Nelson and Joe Azcue drove in two runs apiece in the fifth with a homer triple and single, respectively.

Invasion Poses Olympic Threat

MEXICO CITY (AP) The invasion of Czechoslovakia by the Soviet Union and four of its allies caused new worries today for an already-upset committee organizing the Mexico Olympic Games.

The games, scheduled for Mexico City Oct. 12-27, have already had their share of international political problems. Now there is a threat some countries will be so upset by the Soviet action that they will refuse to compete against the Russians during the games.

Sweden, Norway and Denmark announced Wednsday in Stockholm they were canceling their participation in various European events scheduled for this month or September in which their athletes were to compete with athletes from the Soviet Union or East Germany.

If they carried this boycott to its ultimate they could refuse to compete against the Soviet Union or Germany during the Games.

The Mexican Organizing Committee had nothing to say about whether the Soviet Union could be barred from the Games because of its invasion of Czechoslovakia. Under the rules of the International Olympic Committee, Mexico has invited every country which is a member of the IOC. The Soviet Union is a member.

In Chicago, Avery Brundage, president of the IOC, commented: "I don't know of any regulation that would bar Russia from the Olympics because of the invasion. I anticipate no developments along that line. At least, I hope there are none."

Astros Rip Dodgers Again

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros got behind the hitting of Rusty Staub and the pitching of Don Wilson Wednesday night to whip Los Angeles 6-1 and increase their winning streak to four straight.

The Astros have now won seven of their last eight games.

Staub kept the Dodgers busy, knocking in three runs to up his total RBI count to eight for the three-game series with the Dodgers.

Wilson flipped a seven-hitter for his 11th victory of the season against 12 losses. Only Jim Lefebvre's home run in the third spoiled a shutout.

Junior Golfers In Quarterfinals

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Three Dallas golfers joined five other double winners today in the quarterfinal round of the annual state Junior Golf tournament at Olmos Basin course.

The Dallas golfers taking charge in Wednesday's rounds include Mike Mosser, Wade Adams and Mark Welch.

Today's pairings include Mosser vs. Dave Lawrence of San Antonio; Tommy Johnson of Harlingen vs. Harry Perkins of Bryan; Adams vs. Welch; and Pat Campbell of Odessa vs. Bruce Lietzke of Beaumont.

'Irritability' Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower continued to show increased evidences of heart "irritability" today but Army doctors said his over-all condition is unchanged and still critical.

Travelers Fatten Lead

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas' Billy Wolff tagged a grand slam home run Wednesday night to help the Travelers fatten their eastern division lead in the Texas League at the expense of Albuquerque.

The 2-3 loss recorded another milestone for the slumping Dodgers, only a short time ago the scourge of the Western division.

The defeat was the sixth straight for the New Mexicans and dropped them below the .500 mark with a 63-64 record.

In other games, Dallas-Fort Worth blanked San Antonio 7-0 and Shreveport nipped Amarillo 4-3. Memphis at El Paso was rained out and will be made up as a double header tonight.

Wolff's grand slam, his 12th homer of the season, came in the seventh inning, but the Travelers really didn't need it. They already were ahead 6-2.

Shreveport pulled a trick from Amarillo's hat with a two run rally in the ninth inning to snatch the victory. In a game Tuesday, Amarillo rallied for four runs in the ninth to whip the Braves.

Pinch hitter Walt Hriniak doubled home the tying run for Shreveport and Ralph Garr hit a bad-hop single to account for the winning run.

George Gerberman did most of the pitching and hitting for Dallas-Fort Worth against San Antonio.

Keala Sets Pace For Girl Divers

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Hawaii teen-ager Rachel "Keala" O'Sullivan, Air Force Lt. Micki King and ailing Sue Gossick make up the U.S. Olympic team that will compete in the 3-meter springboard diving event at Mexico City.

Keala, a 17-year-old from Honolulu, slipped quietly into the water 10 times Wednesday and scored 447.90 points for first spot on the team. It was an impressive, come-from-behind performance for the lithe youngster.

Miss King, of Pontiac, Mich., eighth after the preliminaries, also scored heavily in the evening competition to tally 405.06 points for second place.

But the performance that won the sympathy—and cheers—of the crowd was by the 20-year-old Miss Gossick of nearby Tarzana.

With a back ailment that was so painful her doctor ordered her to pass up the trials, Miss Gossick went out and scored high in the compulsory events of the morning session. Going into the evening's optionals she was leading.

On her second dive, Sue attempted a reverse 1½-somersault. As she arched toward the water, one finger hit the board and the dive lost its perfection.

The judges awarded her only 28.08 points.

Meanwhile, Miss O'Sullivan performed the same dive for 60.84 point, second highest of the competition and went on to an easy triumph.

But when the totals were all in, Miss Gossick had 402.03, enough to make the team. Jerrie Adair, a UCLA coed, scored 397.92 and will go with the team as an alternate.

Fifth in the competition with 391.26 was Lesley Bush of Princeton, N.J., Olympic platform champion in 1964. Sixth was Joel O'Connell, Santa Clara, Calif., with 388.80.

Junior High Exams Set

American Net Hopes Falter At Brookline

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — This is supposed to be the United States' year in the national tennis championships but somebody had better hurry up and tell the Americans before time runs out.

The 88th annual amateur tournament entered its seventh day at Longwood today and officials were frankly afraid to think what might happen next because of the number of startling upsets so far.

There are only four Americans among the nine survivors in the men's singles. In doubles, the United States has only three teams left heading into the quarter-finals.

Army Lt. Arthur Ashe, who arrived five days late because of play in the Davis Cup interzone matches with Spain, remained America's best bet to win the singles title, which has gone to Australia 10 times and to Mexico and Spain once each since Tony Trabert's victory in 1955.

However, Ashe was one match behind as he met Venezuela's Humphrey Hose in the fourth round. Clark Graebner, the No. 2 domestic seed behind Ashe, was the only other seeded U.S. player still alive.

Three seeded teams, including the No. 1 tandem of Bob Lutz and Stan Smith of the University of Southern California, bolstered U.S. hopes for winning the doubles title captured by Aussies the last three years.

Graebner and Charlie Pasarell, the top U.S. Davis Cup doubles team seeded just behind Lutz and Smith in the nationals, were ousted in the round of 16 Wednesday. Pasarell was eliminated from the singles 24 hours earlier.

Elio Alvarez, 21, and Tito Vasquez, 19, Argentine Davis Cuppers from Buenos Aires who are students at UCLA, shocked Graebner and Pasarell, needing less than an hour for a 6-4, 6-4 victory. Pasarell was broken in the eighth game of the first set and Graebner in the fourth game of the second set.

Lutz, who will be 21 next Thursday, pulled a major upset in ousting Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., the nation's third-ranked player who was seeded fourth here.

"I'm getting tired of being regarded as just a good doubles player," Lutz said after his 6-3, 6-2, 6-2 victory.

Lutz had a tough assignment today as he met South Africa's Bob Hewitt, the top-seeded foreigner, in a quarter-final showdown.

America's seeded players in women's singles were on the sidelines after being wiped out in the third round. Margaret Smith Court of Australia, Virginia Wade of England and Maria Bueno of Brazil—seeded first, second and third respectively in the foreign rank—were among the handful of survivors.

East-West Trade Relations Apt To Suffer From Crisis

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The invasion of Czechoslovakia is a serious setback to efforts at improving trade relations between the United States and the Eastern European nations on the rim of the Soviet Union.

For various reasons a breakthrough in trade profitable to both East and West had seemed imminent. But these hopes were based on the belief that the economic liberalization of the East would continue rather than be thwarted, and that East-West tensions would relax.

It was against this very economic liberalism and the political threat it involved, represented in recent weeks especially by the Czechoslovakians, Romanians and Yugoslavians, that Russia and its allies applied their military might.

From the Communist side the intervention may signal a return to less trade contact with the West. As for American businessmen, it is bound to cause at least a long pause in their plans to invest in and trade with the growing economies of Eastern Europe.

Such hopes had caught fire in the past couple of years. Direct commercial flight between Moscow and New York was just one of the more obvious evidences of this. Far grander but less publicized preparations were being made for direct investments, in hotels and even manufacturing plants.

As the stigma of trading with the East diminished, such people as the Rockefeller brothers, who control International Basic Economy Corp., and Cyrus Eaton Jr. revealed plans to invest in Communist nations. Eaton has already done so.

From Minneapolis last year a group sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and including men from several nationally known firms, left on a private trade mission to Russia. They were backed by the U.S. government.

Time Magazine two years ago led a tour by 24 of the highest ranking executives and financiers in America to five East European nations for the purpose of investigating trade opportunities. Almost every company involved could be classified as a blue chip.

Aiding this new spirit was the belief among many Americans that the Communists were beginning to show a better understanding of capitalist economies and their methods of operation.

At least, some businessmen thought, the Communists are now emphasizing consumer goods, instituting profit incentives, lessening their reliance on dictatorial marketing and following instead the laws of supply and demand.

The biggest support for this new spirit — perhaps even the initator of it — was the Johnson administration, which believed that trade bridges not only would aid the economies of both East and West but promote peace as well. Trade, it is said, has its political ends.

Typical of the statements supporting East-West trade was one earlier this year to a congressional committee by Robert Roosa, partner in the investment banking firm of Brown Brothers Harriman and Company.

"Those of us from the United States who have traveled in Eastern Europe, almost to a man," he said, "return with the conviction that the countries represent the most exciting market of potential trade....anywhere in the world."

The possibilities of this big new market were belatedly appreciated by Americans. Other Western nations years earlier had shed their reluctance to trade with the East Europeans.

During 1965, Western Europe and Japan sold $3.8 billion of goods to the East Europeans, excluding Yugoslavia, and imported close to $4.5 billion from them.

The United States, though, sold only $139 million worth of goods to these countries and imported $138 million. These figures haven't grown substantially since then. They were, however, forecast to swell. The market was there.

The Comecon, sort of an East Europe common market, includes nations with 330 million people, much more than the combined population on the European economic community and the European Free Trade Association.

These Comecon economies naturally are not as highly developed as nations to the west, but some of them have been growing faster than even the United States. Potentially they are huge markets.

Boyle Tells The Agony Of Dieting

Of fat and fate: If you have to diet, you're a born loser

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Guess what three-letter word is causing the most trouble in our fair land?

Hah, I thought you'd say sex. Well, you're wrong, friend.

Sex is for the birds and the bees. Fat is for people.

A government report the other day made the complacent claim that very few Americans suffer from dire hunger. Pure gobbledygook. What about the 30-to-40 million blubber-laden U.S. citizens who are dieting?

That's about a fifth of the nation. They feel constantly on the verge of starving. Doesn't their hunger count? It is very real to them.

Personally, I've been on a diet for 48 days and managed to shrink from a wholesome 220 pounds down to 196. My final goal is 180, and it looks farther away than Valhalla or Shangri-La.

The only word for the ordeal is agony. I'd probably have expired weeks ago except for the dog biscuits I was able to sneak and gnaw down when my wife wasn't looking. It has gotten so bad that when I go into the kitchen at the dog's mealtime, he puts his paw on his plate to protect his dinner.

I went on the diet after my doctor examined me and said, "well, you're in shipshape condition."

"Thank you, doc."

"But the ship you're shaped like is a battleship," he said. "Take it off, take it off, take it off."

Easier said than done.

America is the only country in the world where it is easier to lose your mind than it is to lose weight. It is the only country where middle age automatically seems to turn a man from a girl watcher into a weight watcher.

Everything conspires against the person on a diet. He may have lived like a hermit before, but as soon as he goes on a diet he is inundated with invitations to cocktail parties, backyard barbecues, picnics and gourmet dinners with nine courses.

All at once everyone he ever knew wants to take him to lunch or buy him five drinks. If he accepts,, them sticks to his regimen of sauerkraut and club soda water, he assumes the role of the skeleton at the feast. If he ducks the invitations, he is dubbed an ungraciious heel.

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOUDS

QUESTION: Why are clouds of different colors?

* * *

ANSWER: Think of a grayish fog drifting across a mountain (upper left). The part in the sky is cloud. When it touches the ground, it is mist. But mist and clouds are actually the same thing. They are composed of tiny water droplets or ice crystals, condensed from moisture in the air so as to become visible. Clouds can be either a thin screen, like mist, or heavier, like rain cloud. We often see thin wispy streaks of cirrus cloud high in the sky. These are white because they are composed of ice crystals which reflect light as white, like snow. With veils of cloud lower down, such as stratus, we get more water droplets, and so these clouds look grayer and darker. When we get clouds like the nimbus, really dark grey and threatening, it means they are filled with raindrops. Puffy clouds piling up in a blue sky (cumulus, upper right) look white when the sunlight shines across at them, but the bottom layer will be blue gray because in shadow. When heavy clouds get between you and the sun in late afternoon, we get the beautiful effect shown at bottom. The dark part is deep bluish grey, but the thinner edges are brilliant gold.

Hero To Midwestern

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Two high-explosive shells had already blown up in the burning 155 howitzer bunker in Vietnam as Raoul R. Ashby pulled out a badly burned man and began pushing ammunition away from the flames.

Ashby, who won the Soldier's Medal for his heroism in the bunker at Lai Khe, South Vietnam, has assumed duties as Professor of Military Science for the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Midwestern University here.

The Soldier's Medal is the Army's highest award for noncombat bravery. Ashby, now a lieutenant colonel, was fire marshal at a First Infantry Division supply base at Lai Khe, about 140 miles north of Saigon when the bunker caught fire.

Invasion Catches US By Surprise

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. government was caught flatfooted by the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia even though American intelligence experts considered such action possible.

The signs of the drastic move by the Soviet Union were there. They apparently weren't read closely enough to make invasion seem likely.

Soviet and other Warsaw Pact armies had been on the move within striking distance of the Czech border, but U.S. authorities regarded this as part of the war of nerves waged since the Prague government started political reforms.

Another sign which, in hindsight, was ominous was the renewal of Soviet and Polish press attacks on the Prague regime.

And senior U.S. officers said the invasion was understandable in light of Moscow's fear that a closer relationship between Czechoslovakia and the West, particularly West Germany, would weaken the protective shield the Soviet Union has built through its satellite allies.

Yet, in spite of these signs, there is no evidence U.S. experts received advance word of the movement by Soviet and satellite troops across the Czech frontier.

In fact, President Johnson learned of the action, not through American intelligence sources, but by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, about three hours after the invasion started.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk's first knowledge came when an Associated Press bulletin was read to the Democratic party Platform Committee while he was testifying on Vietnam policies.

And it was about four hours after the invasion that U.S. radio monitors picked up a Czech broadcast telling of the action.

According to reliable reports, the Soviet and satellite forces near the border were thought too small to indicate any intention to attack. This possibly diminished the concern, and thus the alertness, of U.S. Intelligence analysts.

The failure to pickup early news of the troop movements could be explained by the Soviets having maintained radio silence, by their acting under the cover of darkness and by their apparent extensive use of aircraft to bring in troops and armor.

Airman Killed In Terrell Collision

TERRELL, Tex. (AP) — A 22-year-old Dallas airman, Billy Wayne Turner, was killed and a fellow airman at Carswell Air Force Base was injured in the collision of two trucks here Wednesday.

Turner and Johnny B. Lawson, 29, the injured airman, were in a pickup truck that ran under the rear of a larger truck-trailer.

The accidents occurred just west of the intersection of IH 20 and Texas 34 in Terrell, about 30 miles east of Dallas.
