Austin.—Some like it hot. Some like it cold.

Politicians seem to prefer the latter. So, candidates again will campaign from the freezing weather of January and February, right up to the heat of summer.

This preference on the part of office holders became evident when the Texas House of Representatives killed bill by Rep Howard Green of Fort Worth that would have moved the Spring voting dates to August and September.

Representative Green urged passage of his bill to bring the voting dates closer to the General Election and thus cut campaigning time in half. But the House would have none of it. Legislators decapitated the bill 97 to 44.

Opponents argued that August was vacation time, therefore a poor time to try to get out the voters.

Green countered with a reminder that absentee voting took care of that problem.

But the House refused to concur. In fact members proved their almost total dislike for the bill by a most unusual move. They struck the enacting clause, which was like severing a head and leaving only a body.

First Filibuster

Gov. John B. Connally's program on higher education has run into trouble in both houses of the legislature.

House State Affairs subcommittee, considering the bill to create a 25-member study committee on higher education, is holding up the measure in the lower chamber.

Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress delayed action on the bill for at least six days with a Senate filibuster.

House subcommittee and Senator Rogers both feel that other top officials, in addition to the governor, should have a say in selecting the 25 committee members. They propose that the governor name 15 committeemen, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith five, and Speaker Byron Tunnell, five.

Governor Connally, who still is recuperating from a hernia operation, believes he can get a better balanced committee if he names all members.

Trespassing Bill

Rep. Bill Rapp of Raymondville wants to simplify trespassing convictions.

He has introduced a bill that would allow a landowner to establish ownership simply by going into court and swearing he owns the land. But Rapp found few supporters when he appeared before the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee.

Rep. Travis Peeler of Corpus Christi backed him up. "I know of no convictions in my area," he said. "It is so absurd to spend maybe $500 to establish title to get a $50 conviction, no one tries it."

Rapp told the committee, "I own no land, but I feel that a man who owns land should be able to keep me off if he doesn't want me on. People know they can get by with trespassing under the present law, so they trespass."

He said ranchers in his part of Texas are especially plagued with trespassing hunters.

Criminal jurisprudence committee agreed with Rapp that a man should be able to protect his land from hunters who might mistake cows for deer. But some were afraid that the bill could be used to establish title in an ownership dispute.

So the bill was sent to a subcommittee to have the wrinkles ironed out.

Senate Change Proposed

Big city legislators joined Rep. Tom Bass of Houston in a new effort to break up the rural domination of the state senate.

Bass' resolution calling for a vote on a constitutional amendment that would cut out the limitation of one senator per district was signed by Reps. Herbert Shutt, Chet Brooks and Charles Whitfield of Houston; V. E. Berry and Jake Johnson of San Antonio; Dick Morgan and George Macatee of Dallas, and Dave Finney of Fort Worth.

Under Bass' proposal, Harris county would get four state senators on the basis of qualified electors. But no one has suggested a solution to the constitutional limitation that restricts the senate to 31 members.

Open Meetings

By the time Rep. Chet Brooks' bill to ban secret sessions by all state and local boards, commissions and councils passed the House of Representatives, it was little more than a legislative resolution in favor of open public meetings.

Brooks—news reporter on leave from the Houston Post—failed in his attempts to fight the exclusion of a penalty. So the way the bill now stands, if a citizen is barred from a meeting of elected governmental officials, he may seek an injunction against the barring group.

Rep. Charles Whitfield of Houston said, "Ordinarily, it takes eight or ten days to get an injunction. Meanwhile the meeting is over."

A 14-Man Jury?

House criminal jurisprudence committee praised a bill by Houston representative Paul Floyd and sent it to the House for a vote.

Bill provides for the selection of one or two alternate jurors, to be used in case regular jurors become ill.

Present law calls for only 12 men. Often this results in mistrials because a jurymen may become sick midway through a trial.

Under Floyd's bill, the 13th and/or 14th juror would sit through the entire trial and follow regular jury rules. But he would sit in on a verdict decision only if one of the regular dozen became incapacitated.

SDEC Committee Named

Gene Locke, head of the State Democratic Executive Committee, has named a finance committee chairmaned by C. C. Woodson, Brownwood publisher.

Atty. Gene McCullough of Harlingen will be vice-chairman.

When the SDEC meets in Austin on March 16, the finance committee also will hold its session.

'Cheap' Gas Billed

Mexican gasoline may not be so cheap for Texas motorists in the future.

Rep. Ben Jarvis, Tyler, has offered a House bill which would require payment of a five cents a gallon state tax on all gasoline bought in Mexico, or states adjoining Texas, unless the motorists have been out of Texas more than 24 hours.

He told the House Revenue and Taxation Committee that residents along the Rio Grande, particularly in the El Paso area, find it cheaper to drive their cars and trucks across to Mexico and fill up with gas at 10 to 12 cents a gallon less than the fuel costs in the U. S. border cities.

Sales Tax Lid

Texas voters may be given an opportunity to clamp the lid on sales tax increases.

House Constitutional Amendments Committee approved a measure, sponsored by Rep. John Allen of Longview, to freeze the tax at the current 2%.

Loan Bill Pieces

A senate banking subcommittee is attempting to fit together the jigsaw pieces of three loan bills into one composite bill.

When the task is completed, further debate on controversial and conflicting ideas is expected to result in more revision.

Subcommittee chairman Sen. Bruce Reagan said all members are trying to work out an acceptable measure.

Each member is selecting sections he favors, from the three bills submitted.

All will be put into a general draft. Then will come removal of provisions failing to meet majority support.

Final bill is expected to embrace both the small loan features of unsecured personal loans, and the consumer finance provisions covering larger loans.

Land Money Requested

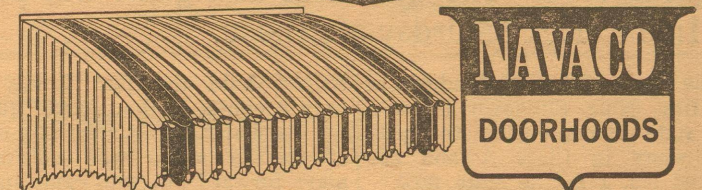

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says the accelerated Veterans Land Program has depleted program funds. He's asking the Legislature for $150 million to make more money available.

Veterans interested in purchasing land now are being placed on a waiting list.

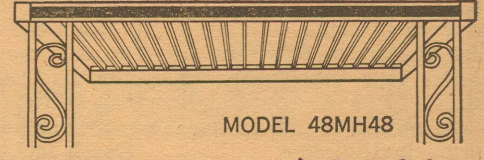

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Dyer have moved to the Linthicum house on the Menard highway which they bought some time ago and have had extensively remodeled and renovated throughout. The house was built in 1947 by Jack Ratliff. Mrs. Rose Doyle moved to her house which Dr. Dyer vacated.

To The People Of Eldorado And Schleicher County

It is our wish as the Heart Fund committee for Schleicher county that we had the means by which we could see everyone personally and express our appreciation for your response to the Heart Fund campaign. Since that is obviously impossible we hope you will accept this sincere expression in lieu of a personal contact. Up to the time of this printing you have contributed $353.49 only $36.51 short of our goal of $390, and contributions are still coming in.

I, as chairman of the Fund committee, wish to express my personal appreciation to those who assisted in any way in the campaign. The committee members responded splendidly to every suggestion and request for assistance. Also those representing different neighborhoods in the community and those who actually did the soliciting are hereby heartily commended for excellent performance.

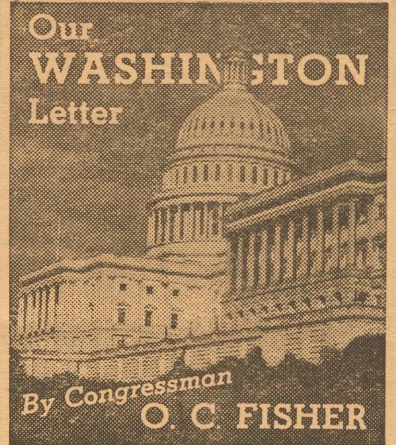

We have delayed transferring your contributions to the Heart Clinic in order to allow time for all those who wish to make a contribution who were away from home at the time of the campaign to do so.

You may make your contribution to the Schleicher County Heart Fund, in care of the First National Bank at Eldorado, or to Mrs. Charles Warnock, the treasurer of the committee, or to myself.

—Kenneth Vaughan, chairman
 Schleicher County Heart Fund Committee

Mrs. Tom Lindsley and son, Scott of McCamey are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Jack Clark and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hodges, here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Doyle were in Lubbock last week end visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Doyle. Jerry is a junior at Texas Tech and is majoring in history. He plans to start practice teaching soon.

By a vote of 385 to 20, the House last week voted to continue the House UnAmerican Activities Committee, with funds requested by the committee to finance its operations during the coming year. A hard core of liberal-radicals fought the action to the bitter end.

A letter from Adm. H. G. Rickover advises that he has just returned from the first sea trials of the USS Lafayette, our 29th nuclear powered submarine, and the 11th equipped to fire Polaris missiles.

The Lafayette, he points out, is the first of a new, larger class of Polaris subs, and is the largest ever built. She will ultimately be armed with missiles having a range of 2500 nautical miles.

With the 14 submarines included in this year's appropriations, the Navy will have 35 Polaris and 40 attack nuclear submarines in operation, under construction, or authorized. This should put us far ahead of the Soviets in this type of naval craft.

Scoffing defiantly at his critics, Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, the Harlem Negro, cried "racial discrimination" last week when he was publicly accused of abusing travel privileges, padding his payroll, and engaging in a multitude of other questionable actions. His wife, a white woman, lives with their baby, in their palatial home in Puerto Rico, where she draws $13,000 a year as a top assistant to Adam.

Adam, who looks like he is about three-fourths white and one-fourth colored, is Chairman of the House Committee on Education and Labor. In that responsible position he enjoys certain privileges, which he abuses with much gusto. Last summer, while Congress was very busy, he showed up in Europe accompanied by two attractive young woman secretaries—one white and the other colored, making the champagne circuit at taxpayers' expense.

Although it is the duty of the House to put a stop to this sort of business, very little has been done, except that his foreign travels have been halted. I have introduced a bill requiring that when a member hires a staff member who does not actually work in the member's office, permission must first be obtained from the House Committee on Administration, showing justification in writing. If this bill should be enacted it is believed Adam will have to take his absentee wife off the payroll.

JEAN ARRIVES IN JAPAN

Leaving San Angelo on Thursday Feb. 21, Mrs. Ray Henderson and two daughters, Cindy and Betsy, flew to Japan to join their husband and father, Ray Henderson, who is stationed there with the Air Force. They arrived on Monday morning at 5:10, Japanese time. They had a pleasant flight with stops at Los Angeles, San Francisco, Honolulu, Wake Island, Tokyo, then an all-night flight to Itazuke by Japan Airlines.

Mrs. Henderson stated in a letter to her mother, Mrs. Allen Kuykendall, that on the Japanese Airlines they served a basket of candy and gum, then hot towels rolled in neat little rolls. Halfway, they served tea, a basket of cookies, candies, pastry and rice cakes. She got coffee instead as the pilot was an American and they had made coffee for him. She said the tea ceremony was very pretty and polite.

She wrote that all the houses around her looked like gingerbread houses, but hers is very comfortable with all conveniences. It has an entrance hall where the shoes are left on a rack when you enter. Some of the women still wear kimonos, clog shoes and carry babies on their backs.

The streets are very narrow and there is little traffic but she summed it all up by saying, "I like Japan."

throws, and scored 233 for the year.

Lynn Meador, 5-foot 11-inch junior, who hit 86 field goals, 30 free throws, for a total of 202 for the year.

Jackie Mackey, 6-foot 2-inch junior, who hit 58 field goals, 32 free shots, and scored 148 for the year.

Ray Lewis Ballew, 5-foot 8-inch senior, who hit 51 field goals, 25 free throws, and scored 127 points for the year.

Mack McAngus, 6-foot 1-inch junior, who hit 8 field goals, 16 free throws, and scored 52 points for the season.

Ronnie Williams, 6-foot junior, who hit 15 field goals, 7 free throws, to total 37 points for the year.

Mike McCravey, 5-foot 10-inch sophomore, who hit 5 field goals, 9 free throws, and scored 17 points for the year.

Larry Blair, 5-foot 10-inch junior, who hit 9 field goals, 1 free throw, and scored 19 points for the season.

Ellis Loden, 6-foot 1-inch senior, who in a part season before he moved away, hit one field goal, six free throws, for a season total of 8 points.

Coach Whitaker noted that total of points scored by opposing teams was 1135 while the Eagles' total for the year's activities was 1446. In district play, opponents hit 424 points to 555 for Eldorado. Eldorado averaged 52.3 for each game while their opponents averaged 40.5. In district play, Eldorado averaged 55.5 to 42.4 for their opponents.

Team standings for the district saw Big Lake with 10 wins and no losses; Eldorado with 8 and 2; Rankin with 5 and 5; Ozona with 4 and 6; Iraan with 3 and 7; and Sanderson in the cellar spot with 0 and 10.

Coach Whitaker commented concerning the season just ended by remarking that the Eagle squad showed continued improvement as reflected by the fact that only three teams in the area succeeded in defeating them, these teams being Big Lake in three contests, Sonora in two, and Water Valley in one; and in each instance, the Eagles whittled down the opposing team's earlier margin.

Coach Whitaker continued that the Eldorado lads had been perhaps the best group from the standpoint of being fine, intelligent, and wholesome young men with whom he had ever dealt.

He said that it was a source of pleasure to him regardless of any forecast for the 1963-64 season that he would lose only three of the 1963 squad members, these being Captains John McGregor and Ray Lewis Ballew, both academic honor students, and Ellis Loden, who moved with his family in January to an East Texas town near Quitman.

Coach Whitaker concluded that the all-district selections would be announced in the near future and that he would be able to publish the 1963-64 schedule soon after the District 8A superintendents and coaches meet early in May.

School Census Shows A Slight Decline

Supt. A. M. Whitis of the Schleicher Public Schools reported last week that the 1963 scholastic census which ended January 31, showed that Schleicher schools had lost a total of 25 children from the same count last year, or from 756 in 1962 to 731 in 1963. Last year saw 722 white children registered and 34 colored children and this year the white children dropped in number to 694 but the colored children rose to 37. Summary of the figures shows that the count dropped 28 white children and increased by three colored children. Mr. Whitis concluded that it was an interesting fact that of the 731 children counted in the district, 694 were enrolled in school for a whopping 95% in classrooms or the largest percentage ever in the local schools of the census figure.

Senior Class Presenting
Two 1-Act Plays Tonight

The Senior Class of Eldorado High School will present two short one-act plays tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 in the high school auditorium. The first play is a drama, Sorry, Wrong Number, written by Lucille Fletcher. This radio "classic" originally done by Agnes Moorehead on "Suspense," was one of radio's "10 best" and is still being repeated as an outstanding study in suspense. It is a mystery thriller, the tale of a neurotic invalid, whose only contact with the outside world is her phone. Over this, one night, because of a crossed wire, she hears plans for a murder which turns out to be her own. Her frantic efforts to enlist help through the only means at her disposal, her growing terror and realization of the truth, and (along the way) the hints about her own life and personality she lets drop, make this a full character portrait not only of herself but of the unseen murderer, whose identity and motivations are surmised, but never revealed. The cast includes: Linda Sauer, Johnny Lawrence, Dennis Jurecek, Joyce Woodward, Doris Swain, Mary Leigh Tisdale, Connie Ferguson, Kathy Kinser, Corky Hodges, James Earl Parker, and Bill Lester, Jr. The second play is a comedy, Balcony Scene, written by Donald Elser. This fantasy takes its mood from thoughts and words at the funeral of a ne'er-do-well. In a beautiful blend of pathos, philosophy, and ironic humor, the play unfolds. Cast in this play are: John McGregor, Ray Lewis Ballew, Pat Rogers, Betty Humphries, Terry Phelps, Harold Wright, Don Pike, and Doris Swain. Other classmen will help backstage with make-up, costuming, stage managing, etc., while still others will take tickets. Ticket sales have been going on the past week. Tickets will also be sold at the door. Mrs. Hattie Martin visited her sister Mrs. Newt Potete and other relatives in Sonora last Saturday.

Miss Hext To Represent
Local Lions In Midland

DEANNE HEXT

The district convention of area Lions clubs will be held in Midland May 4 and 5, and Miss Deanne Hext is to be the nominee from the Eldorado club for Convention Queen. Miss Hext was introduced by W. R. Bearce, president of the Eldorado Lions club this year, at the meeting yesterday. Judge Bearce pointed out that Miss Hext had been selected by a committee of local women for this honor on the basis of beauty, poise and personality. Those same standards will be applied in the contest in Midland for selecting the Queen. Miss Hext is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granvil Hext. Linda Nixon was introduced as a runner-up, the other runner-up being Jan Davis, who was unable to be present at the meeting of the Lions club yesterday. All three were presented white mum corsages from the club. For the program, Mrs. Oliver Teele presented her Junior High choral pupils who won first in the Interscholastic League contests recently in San Angelo. Vocal renditions were given by: Rusty Meador, Roy Davidson, Mickey Pennington, and Gordon Scrank, quartet; Jan Wagley, Kay Sanders, and Martha Sue Page, trio; and solos by Susan Hill, Martha Sue Page and Floyd West. In the business session, Secretary Bill Rountree presented the matter of the club participating in the student exchange program. It was stated that a Lions club is being organized in Sheffield with charter night set for March 14th and local Lions invited to attend. Guests were Don Riddle and Bill Cotner of Midland and Arch Mittel of Eldorado.

Safety in driving and ways to handle emergencies were also discussed by the members. Mrs. B. J. Reynolds was elected as nominee for a delegate to the district meeting in Fredericksburg May 1. The next meeting will be held March 12 in the home of Mrs. Wayne Mikeska. Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served.—rep., Mrs. J. Tom Williams.

ON NEW JUNCTION SCHOOL

Junction Eagle, Feb. 28—Actual construction of Junction's urgently needed new school facilities will be started within a few days, Dr. Dave Engman, superintendent, announced Tuesday with the signing of contracts by Temple Lumber Co. of Fredericksburg and T. If you have not yet visited the school, you have a special invitation to do so.

Shearing Is Time To Watch For Screwworms

Shearing of goats to be followed by sheep shearing are times that producers should be particularly careful, because the thousands of potential nicks and cuts can be disastrous for the eradication program. The importance of sending in samples as screwworms are detected is a prime importance to eradication. It means the county will receive special treatment; flies will be dispersed to the area affected in the county, released, making sure that native flies are outnumbered by sterile flies. In case a screwworm case or cases are discovered, send in the sample, notify your county agent or livestock committee, and plans will be instigated immediately with eradication headquarters at Mission.

HOSPITAL AND CLINIC TO MERGE AT MASON

Mason County News, Feb. 28—Directors of Mason Memorial Hospital and of the recently built Medical Center last Friday night unanimously approved the suggestion the two units be merged. This merger could be accomplished by the Hospital assuming the indebtedness of approximately $28,000 on the Medical Center, which is valued at about $45,000. The Brady Building and Loan Association is willing to advance the money, to be paid back over a period of 15 years, after which time the property would belong to Mason Memorial Hospital.

The 2nd grade Brownie troop No. 153 met at the Corral Tuesday. Fifteen girls and three leaders were present. The girls started scrapbooks for the children in McKnight's hospital. Sunshine reporter was Twanna Mara. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Jaci Harmond.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column
By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

Last week I got so busy doing the daily jobs which always follow a big meeting, or dem., that I didn't get my column finished. In other words, I got the flowers gathered but I didn't get the bouquets passed out. I would like to now.

And, to use the line of the old timer, Walter Winchell, orchids go to—

West Texas Woolen Mills for the generous use of their materials for decorating, making name tags, and for conducting our out of county guests through their interesting blanket manufacturing concern.

First National Bank for furnishing tube keys for plate favors.

Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op Inc. for the tiny, purse size, plastic tapes.

Mr. Bob Rowe, Cubmaster, for directing his boys and their dads into arranging the auditorium of the Memorial Building, for our immediate use, which followed their Blue and Gold Banquet on the night of Feb. 21.

Orland and Dorothy Harris for preparing such good, good food for lunch.

Mrs. Bascom Hartgraves for giving an "extra" measure of work and good management to the position of overall chairman.

Mrs. Roy Boynton who had the difficult and important job of "counting out the money" for luncheon tickets reserved in advance.

Mrs. W. C. Parks and her committee, Mrs. Ruth Finnigan and Mrs. W. T. Whitten, for procuring the original name tags for our guests.

Mrs. Truett Stanford, chairman, and her committee, Mrs. James Williams and Mrs. J. H. Mace, for giving the memorial auditorium the decorative touch of Washington's birthday by using red, white and blue lengths of blanket material.

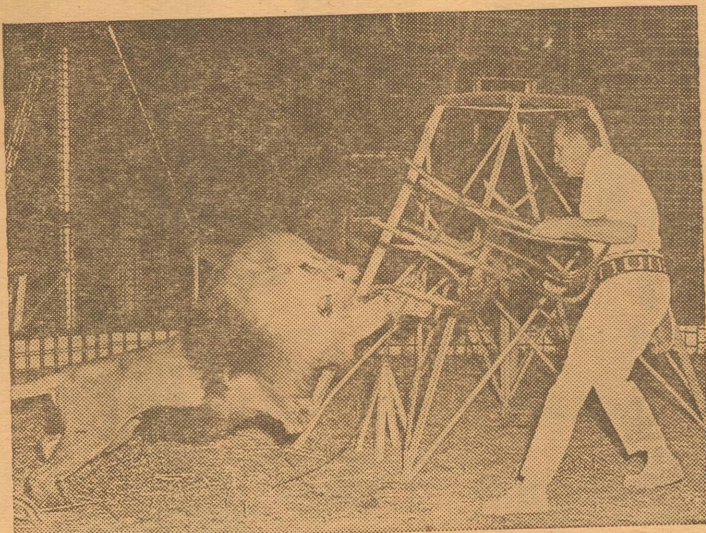

Mrs. J. Tom Williams, chairman, Mrs. Charles Wimer and Mrs. Ruth Williams for setting and decorating for luncheon tables. Mrs. J. Tom Williams, long ago last summer, had an original idea and worked it out. She and Mrs. Lynn Griffin made over 125 containers of prickly pear jelly and saved them for the district meeting. Everybody at the meeting got a big kick out of the rows of gleaming jars of red jelly at each plate.

Mrs. Roy Boynton, Mrs. H. A. Belk and Mrs. W. A. Blaylock for planning the menu and acting as luncheon hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Warnock, Mrs. Wayae Mikeska, Mrs. Duane Branham and Mrs. Douglas Jung for the work and trouble they went to in order that our guests be met at the door with hot coffee and doughnut twists. And—for the decorations for the coffee table which featured a stylized tree which was dubbed a "Schleicher County Wool Tree."

There is a little book out now

A Psychological Approach To Wild Animal Training

Capt. Fred Logan and his cage of jungle fighting lions will be a feature of the Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus in Sonora this coming Wednesday, March 13.

The variety and scope that wild animal performers have today would make the heavily moustached and muscular trainer of 30 to 40 years ago gasp with amazement.

The wild animal trainer Capt. Fred Logan with the Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus who will appear in Sonora this coming Wednesday, has evolved his own original training techniques and became virtually a wild animal psychologist. While the Madison Avenue psychologist will question his patients to find out the motives of his thoughts and actions, the animal psychologist must watch his charges with a Job-like patience to know their actions, reactions, impulses and individualities.

Capt. Logan both performs in his own lion act and supervises the leopard and panther act worked by Empress Leota.

His description of the psychology of lions and leopards and other felines is that they all possess some play instinct. Like household cats, these beasts have a conscious or unconscious vanity which delights in elegant movement and statuesque poses. All the tricks that the wild animal is taught to do come naturally to him. In their natural habitat, lions and leopards sit, stand and paw the air; they jump over bushes and drive through gaps in tangled thorns and when hungry often have to jump over blazing fire to secure their prey. Fred Logan has cultivated their natural traits into a series of evolutions which make them spectacular. They are asked to do no more than simple tricks in the circus ring. This precision act can be seen twice daily at 3:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. at the Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus showgrounds located at Johnson show grounds, Sonora.

A few of the other features with the circus are the Estrada Troupe from Portugal, acrobatic stars; the Gibsons, tight wire artists; the Riding Loyals, bareback riders, and Empress Leota, trainer of leopards, wolves and panthers. Underneath the huge canvas tent, over 100 people and countless animals will perform in the three rings, two stages, mammoth hippodrome track and in the giant steel arena.

Doors to the five continent menagerie annex containing the world's largest herd of elephants and cage after cage of jungle oddities will open one hour before the circus performance. Free attractions on the midway can also be seen at this time.

called "Happiness Is A Warm Puppy." It's Peanuts, Lucy, Linus and Charlie Brown affair and each of these little creatures has some utterance as to his idea of what happiness is. The name of the book is one of the happinesses. Another happiness they name is "three children playing in a sand bed and not fighting."

One of my happinesses could be called "watching a group of friends and neighbors working together to do a great big job."

I had that happiness at the close of the day when visitors came. It was a very nice happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenorris Lacefield and baby of Odessa spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cramer Sofge.

Help!

We're swamped with requests for markers for both Confederate and Union soldiers.

It all started with our column of weeks ago about the Texas Civil War Centennial Commission's Civil War marker program. We mentioned the markers that are to be erected at the graves of Civil War general officers buried in the state and the site markers which are planned to mark places where important events took place during the war years. Then we made the mistake of mentioning the grave markers which are available for descendants of both Confederate and Union soldiers and sailors to call attention to Civil War service.

Since then we've been asked by dozens of persons how to go about getting the marker. Now we like to hear from all these interested people, but our ability to answer all such correspondence has just about reached the breaking point. So, if you're interested in getting a marker put up at your grandfather's grave, here's how to do it.

First, get all the information you can on his service—what company did he serve with and what regiment? Where did he serve? When did he enter service and when was he mustered out?

All the above should be documented and the best way to find out for sure is to send his name to the General Services Office, War Records Division, The National Archives, Washington 25, D. C., and ask them to send a copy of his service record.

Then write to The Quartermaster

General, Memorials Division, Washington 25, D. C., requesting a marker for a Confederate or Union soldier or sailor and enclosing the information received from the Archives Division.

The final item is filing the information with your local county historical survey committee. This latter is not required, but the committee are interested in obtaining this information and you will do them, yourself, and future generations a favor by so doing.

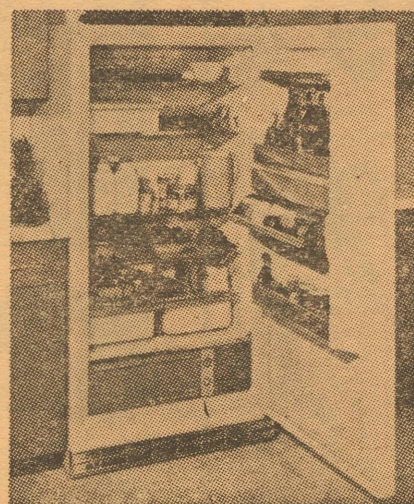

Call your county judge if you don't know who your county historical survey committee members are.

Recommended Reading For This Week: For Confederates—Nathan Bedford Forrest was described by Union General William T. Sherman as "the devil" and Confederate General Robert E. Lee called him the greatest soldier under his command.

Often neglected, frequently misunderstood, and generally criticized, the "Wizard of the Saddle" gets fair and exhaustive treatment in BEDFORD FORREST AND HIS CRITTER COMPANY, a revised edition of Andrew Lytle's classic now brought out by McDowell, Obolensky Publishers.

For Yankees: A day by day account of what it was like to live through the War is contained in DIARY OF A UNION LADY which Harold E. Hammond has now edited for Funk & Wagnalls Company. The diary was kept by the wife of a prominent New York politician and provides a close up look at life on the home front during the crucial days of the conflict.
