The National Right to Work Legal Defense Foundation views a verdict last week in Omaha, Neb., Federal Court as a decision that will benefit many [illegible] the country.

A federal court joury awarded $342,000 in damages to a man named Dale Richardson for "malicious treatment he received as a result of having dropped his membership in labor union."

The award included $250,000 damages solely against the Communications Workers of America for mental anguish, and $92,000 damages divided 70 per cent against the union and 30 per cent against the employer, Western Electric Co., for lost wages and seniority rights.

Richardson filed suit as a result of events subsequent to his withdrawal from the union in late 1966 when he couldn't get a satisfactory explanation of suspected misuse of union funds. He claimed that his withdrawal from the union triggered a vicious campaign of abuse and harrassment leading ultimately to his discharge by the company.

The National Wildlife Federation has announced a $500 bounty for information leading to the conviction of anyone shooting a bald eagle anywhere in the United States.

It has been illegal to shoot or otherwise molest bald eagles since 1940, when a federal law was passed protecting the country's national bird and emblem. Conservationists and wildlife enthusiasts say the bald eagle is in serious trouble from hard pesticides and diminishing habitat. They say the total bald eagle population in the lower 48 states may contain as few as 3,000 to 4,000 birds.

LEAVE CAPITOL AFTER INDICTMENT — House Speaker Gus Mutscher, followed by aide Rush McGinty, leave the state capitol shortly after they and two others were indicted by a Travis County grand jury. The indictments were in connection with the sensational stock fraud scandal. (AP Wirephoto)

Gus: Big Fish — Still Swimming

AUSTIN (AP) — House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two of his chief lieutenants have been indicted on bribery charges arising out of the Texas stock scandal.

Mutscher, the highest state official to face criminal charges since Gov. James W. Ferguson was impeached in 1917, told newsmen Thursday after being fingerprinted: "the big fish are still swimming."

"I think it's a politically motivated thing, designed to destroy me politically and completely destroy my future," Mutscher said.

The Travis County Grand Jury Thursday indicted Mutscher on charges of accepting a bribe and conspiring to accept a bribe.

The grand jury indicted Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, speaker pro tempore, and Mutscher's chief administrative assistant, Rush McGinty, on charges of conspiring to accept a bribe.

John Osorio, former State Insurance Commissioner and president in 1969 of National Bankers Life Insurance Co., now in receivership, was indicted on a charge of filing a false report with the State Board of Insurance.

The bribery indictment against Mutscher, officially unsealed and made public today by the district clerk's office, alleges he accepted $130,250 in loans and the use of the money provided by Frank Sharp through the Sharpstown State Bank of Houston "on or about" July 22 1969 ... another $179,258.76 in loans and the use of the money was provided Mutscher's employes, associates and relatives," the indictment says.

Mutscher accepted the loans "with agreement and with the understanding with" Sharp that Mutscher would "use his vote and influences and powers of his office ... to procure and assist in procuring the passage" of bank deposit insurance legislation, the grand jury alleged.

This, the indictment continued, "was in violation of the duty of the said Gus F. Mutscher Jr., as a legislative officer ..."

Mutscher, McGinty and Shannon are named jointly in a single indictment alleging conspiracy to accept a bribe. The indictment says that "on or about July 22, 1969" Mutscher, McGinty and Shannon "did unlawfully conspire, combine, confederate, and enter into a positive agreement ... to accept and agree and consent to accept a bribe and bribes. ..."

The indictment said they agreed to accept loans "and the use of money" from Sharp and the Sharpstown bank "with the agreement and with the understanding" that Mutscher and Shannon would "use their votes and influence and powers of their offices" to pass bank deposit insurance legislation.

Legislators Call For Resignation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Indictment of Speaker Gus Mutscher in a bribery case prompted quick calls from several legislators for him to relinquish his office.

State Rep. Dick Reed of Dallas, a member of the so-called "Dirty 30" minority group which bucked Mutscher's control in the legislature last spring, declared "It's in very poor taste to have a man who's under indictment serving as speaker.

Two Houston Republicans, Reps. Jim Earthman and Sid Bowers, said if Mutscher refuses to resign, they will offer a resolution for his removal when the legislature next meets.

Reed, a Democrat, said the speaker possesses interim authority "that I think should not reside in the hands of a person who's under indictment for bribery."

The Dallas lawmaker also said steps to remove him might be necessary.

Reed added, "He has appointed himself again to the Legislative Budget Board; he will be in charge again of activating and appointing the membership of interim committees to study the various problems that relate to the legislature during the interim."

In a joint statement, Earthman and Bowers asserted, "The respect of our state has been damaged so severely that Speaker Mutscher, regardless of his guilt or innocence, should step aside.

"Between citizens and elected officials in our democratic system of government there exist bonds of trust and respect which have been so convincingly shattered that Speaker Mutscher, out of respect for his state, should immediately resign."

IT RAINS AGAIN — For the third straight day, rain fell in Snyder, causing high water at several intersections in the City. Here, water flows across the roadway in the 1700 block of Twenty-second Street.

Defector Tells Of Soviet Spying

LONDON (AP) — A senior Soviet intelligence agent defected to Britain with documents on a Russian spy network, the Foreign Office announced today.

The Foreign Office ordered 105 Soviet employes of the embassy, the trade delegation, the Moscow Bank and the Aeroflot airline to leave Britain.

Ninety of the Russians currently on duty here were given two weeks to leave. Another 15, currently abroad, will be denied permission to return to London.

The mass expulsion is the biggest of is kind in modern diplomatic history except in cases of countries breaking off relations.

The expelled officials, all accused of espionage activities, are spread through the embassy, the airline, the tourist agency Intourist, a machinery rental center and the Moscow Narodny Bank, a Foreign Office spokesman said.

Sir Denis Greenhill, permanent secretary acting for Foreign Secretary Sir Alec Douglas-Home, gave the British decision in written form to Ivan Ippilotov, the Soviet charge d'Affaires.

None of those expelled will be replaced, the British said. This would reduce the Soviet population to 445 and the Foreign Office said anyone else detected in espionage activities would be ejected without replacement.

The Foreign Office said: "Evidence of the scale and nature of Soviet espionage in Britain conducted under the auspices of the Soviet Embassy, trade delegations and other organizations, has been provided by a Soviet official who recently applied for and was given permission to remain in this country."

"This man, an officer of the KGB, brought with him certain information and documents including plans for infiltration of agents for the purpose of sabotage."

The Russians ordered to quit Britain apparently work for the Soviet trade delegation, the airline Aeroflot, the tourist agency Intourist and the Moscow Narodny Bank as well as the embassy.

Sharp Makes Surprise Appearance

DALLAS (AP) - Frank W. Sharp, Houston promoter described as the mastermind behind the alleged Texas stock fraud, made a surprise appearance while the Dallas federal grand jury was meeting here today.

He testified earlier before an Austin grand jury which returned state criminal indictments Wednesday against House Speaker Gus Mutscher Jr. and three others. Sharp also testified before a Houston federal grand jury.

Courthouse sources had indicated Sharp would not be called before the Dallas grand jury and his appearance had not been expected. They declined to give any reason for his presence.

Assistant To Smith Resigns

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith said today his executive assistant, Otice A. Green, has resigned.

Green was the third key governor's assistant to resign or take other jobs in recent weeks.

Green said he planned to return to his home and publicity business in Lubbock. He was appointed Smith's top administrative aide March 24, 1970.

Larry Teaver, another administrative aide, recently was appointed to the State Board of Insurance by Smith.

Bob Bullock, Smith's chief legal aide, recently was named secretary of state, replacing Martin Dies Jr., who was named by Smith as a judge of the Beaumont Court of Appeals.

Water District's Budget Approved

BIG SPRING — Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District Thursday adopted a budget of $5,850,691 for 1972, up $885,727 over the current year.

The vast bulk of the increase comes from higher principal and interest payments occasioned by the Lake Spence and Ward County well field and pipeline projects. Debt service will cost the district $3,332,957 for the year, or $602,753 more than budgeted for this year.

Operating expenses will total $1,351,199, or $72,010 more than for the current year. Nearly all of this can be attibuted to addition of the Ward County field and supply line to the system, for this incurs $61,189 new expense.

The district projects water sales of $5,800,691 and recreation revenues of $50,000. The anticipated net revenues for the year are put at $1,166,535, an increase of $160,964 over this year and sufficient to provide the required 1.35 coverage for outstanding bonds.

Biggest single item of expense will be electric power for pumping, which is calculated at $583,710, an increase of $32,247. Next is payroll, which amounts to $435,332, up $28,847 for new employes and salary adjustments of five per cent provided the wage freeze is lifted by the new budget year, Jan.1.

The board also authorized execution of two new contracts to sell water to Texas Electric Service Company. One calls for delivery of water to Lake Colorado City, under certain conditions, starting in 1972, and from the Ward County well field to TESCO's Monahans power plant in 1974.

Bids on a crawler-type tractor were authorized. OH. Ivie, general manager, reported the district now has 141,000 acre feet in surface reserves, not counting inflow underway from Thursday's rain.

Students Plan 'Light Show'

A group of Western Texas College students called the Artisans will present a "Light Show" at the National Guard Armory at 9 o'clock tonight.

The "Light Show" will be given by the use of three slide projectors, three film projectors and three overhead projectors. The Artisans will use slides, film, jello, cake coloring and other materials.

The "Light Show" will be given in conjunction with a Teen Dance featuring the Smoke Stack.

Nomination Of Poff Is Hinted

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has thrown out a broad hint that he may nominate Rep. Richard H. Poff, a Virginia Republican, to fill one of two openings on the Supreme Court.

Poff's chances appeared brighter after Nixon discussed with members of the Economic Club of Detroit the kind of candidates he was considering. "Teachers, legislators for example with great experience on the House Judiciary Committee. He helped pilot Nixon's crime control legislation through Congress last year and is considered a "law and order" conservative of the sort the President would turn to for the high court.

He already has the backing of the committee chairman, Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., and the ranking Republican, Rep. William M. McCulloch of Ohio, though he voted against civil rights bills they sponsored in the 1960s.

A second place on the Court opened Thursday when Justice John M. Harlan retired. Harlan, 72, and suffering cancer of the spine, stepped down six days after Justice Hugo L. Black, who is in critical condition at the Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Harris Enters Race For Presidency

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma announced today his candidacy for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination, saying he will try to "call this country back to the greatness that is in us."

"I intend to try to turn this country around before it's too late," the 40-year-old senator said as he became the second declared entry in a field of Democratic White House prospects.

Lakes Gain As Rains Continue

Rains continued today over the Snyder area and across most of Texas.

The official gauge in Snyder had logged 1.36 inches in the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today, making a two-day total of 2.36 inches. This increased the total for the month of September to 3.54 inches, all of it falling within a week. The September total now has gone nearly an inch and a half above the average for the month.

Meanwhile, lakes of the Colorado River Municipal Water District were beginning to benefit from the rains, which mostly were slow and steady in this area.

Lake E. V. Spence at Robert Lee was at elevation 1852.82 at 11 a.m. today, a gain of 1.5 feet the past two days. It was still catching water.

Lake J. B. Thomas was at elevation 2232.55, an increase of about .37 foot. The Colorado River was flowing a stream about seven feet deep into Lake Thomas this morning, and Bull Creek was flowing about three or four feet deep, water district officials reported. They expected Lake Thomas to gain possibly a foot more from rains that already had fallen on the watershed.

Lake Spence had approximately 95,000 acre feet of water, while Lake Thomas had a little over 63,000 acre feet of water this morning.

Elsewhere in Texas, rains were heavy enough to cause a drowning in one area and flash flood warnings in another.

The heaviest deluges apparently were around Brady in West Central Texas, where state police reported 7 inches of rain poured down before midnight. As the downpours continued, the Weather Service warned against possible flooding in low areas of McCulloch County.

Highway patrolmen said water flowed as much as 15 inches deep over U.S. 190 east of Brady, halting traffic toward San

'The Princess' needs to help keep the 'castle'

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have a grown daughter whom I shall call "The Princess." She works full-time and lives at home. We both love her very much, but here's the problem.

The Princess never misses a meal at home, gets free room and board, her own TV, and my wife even buys her toothpaste and shampoo, besides doing her laundry.

In turn, The Princess monopolizes the bathroom, keeps a sloppy room and leaves her cosmetics and clothing scattered all over the place from h— to breakfast.

I maintain she should contribute to her food expense. My wife thinks I am "Cruel." She says the girl is insecure, and it's all MY fault. Is it?

—DADDY

DEAR DADDY: I don't know, but if she is insecure, what difference does it make whose fault it is? One way to reduce her insecurity is by helping her to build her self-respect. Start by insisting that The Princess contribute something, if only her cooperation, around the "castle."

DEAR ABBY: There are some Europeans who think that garlic and onions are "healthy." I have a friend who even rubs raw onions and raw garlic on heating equipment such as stoves, ovens, ductwork and anything that heats up because he honestly believes that the smell of onions and garlic kills germs. Does it?

—NEEDS TO KNOW

DEAR NEEDS: No. But it could test a lot of friendships.

DEAR ABBY: You had a letter in your column from a woman who had been married for 18 years to a man who still flirts. Well, I have her beat. I've been married for 55 years to a man who still flirts. He is over 80, and I don't see any signs of him slowing up.

You once compared an old man who chases women to a dog that chases cars. How did that one go anyway?

—CHASER'S WIFE: HAGERSTOWN, MD.

DEAR WIFE: I said: "An old man who chases women is like a dog that chases cars. If he ever caught one he wouldn't know what to do with it."

DEAR ABBY: I don't write to columnists as a rule, but after reading all the comments about wedding gifts, I decided to send this on to you:

With the invitation to a wedding of a young California couple came this note: "There are millions of the poor who are cold and hungry. There is still war and ever-increasing ravages of war. This makes us aware of our riches and makes us want to find meaning for ourselves and for our marriage in somehow changing things. Therefore, if you had planned to give us a gift, we would especially appreciate a contribution to the Fellowship of Reconciliation, the American Friends Service Committee, the Committee to Aid Hungry Americans or some other cause, so that because of our marriage life for others may be a little better."

After I read the above, I guess it made my day a little better. I am divorced, but should I ever marry again, I think I will follow in the footsteps of these beautiful young people. Maybe if you print this, others will, too.

—"TOUCHED" IN MICHIGAN

DEAR TOUCHED: I, too, am touched. Thank you for sharing a truly noble attitude in a generally selfish and materialistic world.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069.

Officials Say Mao Healthy

TOKYO (AP) — Communist Chinese authorities, declaring Mao Tse-tung is in good health, say the chief reason for the cancellation of the Oct. 1 National Day parade in Peking is economic, a Japanese newspaper reported today.

The Nihon Keizai Shumbun said in a dispatch from Peking that diplomatic missions in the Chinese capital had been informed of the cancellation about a week ago.

Chinese officials have denied rumors linking Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung's health with the cancellation of the parade the paper said. The officials were quoted as saying Mao, 77, is in good health.

The dispatch did not refer to speculation about tension along the 4,500-mile Chinese-Soviet border, nor did it mention the reported Chinese army order calling all troops on furloughs back to their units.

The paper quoted Chinese authorities as saying the Peking leadership had decided to "reform" the traditional way of celebrating the National Day "to save time and expense."

It said workers had to rehearse for the parade for a long time, thereby reducing production. Staging of the parade also demanded a large amount of time and expense, it added.

Farther west in Crockett County, Gustavo Raul Sorola, 49, of Ozona drowned late Thursday after his pickup truck stalled in the water while crossing Johnson's Draw. Officers said a sudden rise swept him downstream while Sorola was trying to attach a towing cable to the vehicle.

Rainfall was generally lighter elsewhere but it continued over much of Texas, with larger amounts in the western half of the state.

There also was a good bit of fog again in early morning, mostly in interior sections and near the Middle Texas Coast.

Thick clouds blanketed all sections except the south tip of the Lower Rio Grande Valley and several points on the Upper Texas Coast.

A cool front which eased into the state two days earlier received credit for the widespread moisture as it stalled along a line from Texarkana to Del Rio. More rain was promised most sections.

Early morning temperatures sagged to 49 degrees at Amarillo and Dalhart while it was still 77 at Galveston and 78 at Corpus Christi.

Top marks Thursday afternoon ranged from 90 at Brownsville down to 49 at Amarillo.

Dollar Slips

LONDON (AP) — The dollar slipped further on Europe's money markets today, apparently still reacting to a report that the International Monetary Fund is planning to push for a raise in the values of other leading currencies.

In Frankfurt, the dollar slipped at one stage to a second low and would buy only 3.2975 German marks against the official parity of 3.6600.

Then the dollar picked up slightly to hover around 3.3050, putting the value of the mark up 10.74 per cent against the dollar since President Nixon announced Aug. 15 his emergency measures to boost the U.S. economy.

In Paris the dollar dipped to 5.345 francs from Thursday's 3.365.

HEAVY DAMAGE — Fire caused considerable damage to the inside of a two-story frame structure at 2109 College Avenue at 7:15 a.m. today. The owner, Myron Fenton, said the blaze could have been caused by faulty wiring. The building is the former location of Pioneer Furniture Company. The loss was not covered by insurance. City Firemen extinguished the blaze.

Deadline Not Set On Phase II

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — President Nixon promises that wage-price restraints to take effect Nov. 14 will "cover the whole economy" and depending on interest rate trends—could encompass regulation of rates on consumer credit.

Nixon parceled out a few more clues to his thinking on future anti-inflation policy in a question-and-answer session at a Thursday night dinner meeting of the Detroit Economic Club.

The hour-long quiz was broadcast nationally by some radio networks.

At a Sept. 9 news conference, Nixon spoke of wage-price restraints on major industries following the Nov. 13 expiration of the current freeze. This was widely interpreted at the time as indicating Nixon leaned toward very selective curbs.

His new pronouncement, however, embraced all segments of the economy, although he emphasized that his Phase 2 program to be announced in mid-October will concentrate on areas which, in the absence of restraints, could contribute most strongly to continued inflation.

The chief executive was asked by one member of a 10-man panel how soon he planned to return to a "free economy."

Nixon said his wage-price stabilization effort will continue until we have cooled the fires of inflation."

Most panelists were leading members of Detroit's industrial-mercantile-financial community and the questions reflected business concerns and viewpoints.

Outside cavernous Cobo Hall, several thousand demonstrators paraded for a variety of causes. Some opposed the freeze, some the Vietnam war, some the handling of the Attica, N.Y., prison revolt. The President, arriving and departing by a rear entrance, at most caught only a glimpse of the protesters as he left to return to Washington.

Nixon, who had never before talked of possible curbs on interest rates, told the listeners "the matter is still open." He noted the Federal Reserve Board has standby authority to regulate consumer credit.

HEW Plans To Hire 80,000

By G.C. THELEN Jr.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — On the heels of record relief spending last year, the government is planning to hire an unprecedented 80,000 new federal officials if President Nixon's proposed welfare reform is enacted.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare announced Thursday that national welfare costs rose 27 per cent to $16.3 billion in fiscal 1971 and disclosed that HEW's 107,000-man force must almost be doubled to run the planned Family Assistance Welfare system.

Although welfare spending by all levels of government rose $3.4 billion in the year ending June 30, the number of relief recipients decreased during the last quarter of the year for the first time since 1968.

With 11 states cutting back welfare eligibility and payments, the number of persons receiving public assistance in June dropped to 14.3 million, 22,000 fewer than May.

"There is an obvious tightening up in the states," said John D. Twiname, head of HEW's social and rehabilitation service. Another HEW official, Richard P. Nathan, deputy undersecretary for welfare, said a large cadre of new federal relief officials would be needed to man the planned 4,000 offices nationwide of the Family Assistance Program.

Prize-Winning Table Setting Has Goldfish Bowl Centerpiece

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Take one big shiny goldfish. Put him to swim in a large glass bowl of water encircled with blue, white and orange flowers and you have a winning centerpiece for a table.

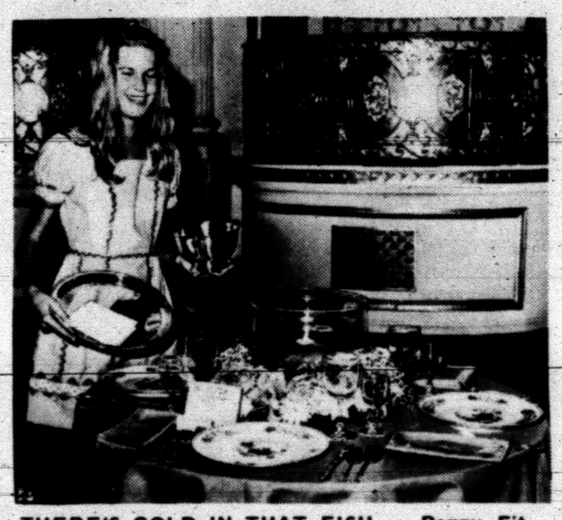
That's what happened to 18-year-old Peggy Fitzgerald, of Kansas City, Mo., one of three top winners in this year's annual "Best Dressed Tables" contest. The contestants attending the finals in New York were regional winners in their own states.

Peggy was sure the goldfish pulled it off and she was planning to give him new aquatic delights: before going back home she would deposit him in the goldfish pond at Rockefeller Center, she said.

"I really matched the goldfish to the orange linen napkins," she said happily. "My table is really 'now and then' a mix of old and new. The traditional look is the blue and white china and the English gadroon silver. But the blue denim tablecloth and napkins are really now."

Peggy's room at home is furnished in the 'now and then' theme, too, she says, with an old secretary, modern posters and some glassware she has made.

"I don't go for super-mod things, although I like the uncluttered look. I think most color schemes shown for young people are a little wild. I visit a lot of houses with my father who is in the real estate business and I can't imagine how some people live with some of the far-out things in their homes."



THERE'S GOLD IN THAT FISH — Peggy Fitzgerald, 18, won a table setting prize in the annual Best Dressed Table contest with her goldfish in a bowl centerpiece.

Her $500 winning check will go to the Mercy Hospital in Kansas—all winners prizes in the Gorham-sponsored event are earmarked for a favorite charity—but she will be able to keep the two silver prizes awarded by Redbook and American Home magazines.

There were other youth-oriented tables. The winning table, "My Husband Got a Raise," appropriately in honor of the bread winner had an enormous centerpiece, a basket filled with breads—everything from bread sticks to long loaves. It was set on an amber and brown cloth.

"Checkmates for Life," another winner featured a tablecloth of black and white felt squares with little white chessmen at each place, and a centerpiece of red carnations and twisted red candles set into silver candlesticks. It was suggested for a newlyweds party.

Another centerpiece was a patriotic one with a inverted Uncle Sam hat filled with white flowers, blue bows and red bumble bees. Little drummers surrounded the hat.

A Honolulu entrant showed her "His and Herbs" table, a fascinating array of little clay pots filled with herbs and flowers put in a small milk can.

There was also a table swathed in green and white plaid, and another in brown burlap. There were yellow cloths and pink cloths and organdy over colorful liners. One attractive bridesmaids' table had a centerpiece of pink roses and baby's breath intertwined with white porcelain doves on a pink-beribboned silver tray.

Among the unusual tables was one of black mirrored tiles set on black satin with black candlesticks in silver. Red and black napkins and red carnations completed the theme.

Turkeys Checked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government inspectors are checking 50,000 Minnesota turkeys slaughtered for Thanksgiving tables to see how many contain harmful residues of an industrial chemical that also was discovered in chickens this summer.

The turkeys were impounded over the past six weeks at Swift Dairy & Poultry Company in Detroit Lakes, Minn., a subsidiary of Swift & Company, the nation's largest meat packer.

Dr. Kenneth M. McEnroe, head of Meat and Poultry inspection for the Agriculture Department, said Thursday the turkeys were from "six or seven flocks" grown by producer Peterson-Bidding of Wadena, Minn.

There was no indication of the source of the chemical PCB contamination, McEnroe said. Not all the turkeys were thought to be tainted, but to be sure, he said, all were held at the plant for further tests.

Sorority Has Monthly Social

Iota Psi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met for its regular monthly social Monday night, September 20th, 1971 at the home of Anna Stephens.

The Club brought trading stamps to be donated to the Day Care Center to buy toys for the smaller children. They also voted to take refreshments every Wednesday afternoon to the Day Care Center.

Newspapers, pins and Scotch tape were passed out to members and they were asked to design some kind of clothing from these items. Prizes were won by the team of Norma Book and Trudie Wood, with a pants suit fashioned after the Indian design with the traditional fringe and headdress.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Virginia Johnston, Betty Hunter, Anita Payne, Wanda Eicke, Ida Stokes, Annabel Schattel, Norma Book, Norma Thompson and Trudie Wood.

Here's the Answer

By ANDY LANG

Q.—We have a very old house. It has thresholds under the doors between all the rooms. Most of them are very worn and I would like to replace them. However, I noticed that most new houses do not have them except under the front door. Can I do away with ours? If not, can you tell me how to replace them?

A.—Yes, you can do without them between rooms, but there will be two problems. There will be a wide space under each door, which may or may not be objectionable. And you then will have to repair the floor at each point to make it presentable. In houses which do not have thresholds, the doors fit accordingly and the smooth walking surface between rooms is preferable. Thresholds in the doors opening to the outside are necessary to keep out the weather.

To replace a threshold, try to get out the old one in a single piece. Place a chisel under each end, which loosens the nails. After they are loose, pull them out and attempt to lift the threshold. This is not always easy, since some thresholds fit under the door stop and cannot be slid out. If so, you may have to remove the door stop, the vertical moulding along the door jamb. You'll have to use your judgment here. If the task appears too difficult, you'll just have to cut through the threshold with a saw. A backsaw is best for this.

In buying a new threshold, use the old one to determine the proper size. You can buy stock thresholds which require only a little trimming or, if you are lucky, none at all. Since most thresholds come in hardwood, although they are available in other materials, don't drive nails through them without first drilling hilot holes or you will split the wood. Use finishing nails and drive them slightly below the surface, filling the holes with wood filler.

Q.—I have to repaint some old kitchen chairs, which are still in good condition but badly need a painting. I understand there is a technique for painting chairs. Can you tell me what it is?

A.—I assume you are talking about the order in which the various parts of the chair should be painted. With the chair placed upside down on a table on which a cloth or paper has been spread, paint the rails and stretchers first, then the legs and remainder of the underside. Turn the chair rightside up, paint the upper parts, the back and, finally, the seat.

Cross Feels Incentives Of Blacks Are Withheld

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Is it wise or just to turn over to an insurance pool from which black-owned insurers are excluded because of small size the $80 million a year in premiums paid by 200,000 black servicemen for life insurance?

Wouldn't it be more constructive to allocate those premiums as a competitive reward to those companies, black and white, who invest in the disadvantaged areas to which some of these servicemen will return to live?

These are the kinds of questions that occupy the mind of Theodore Cross, '49, former Bostonian, Harvard Law grad, executive and, as a beneficiary of capitalism, an unemotional believer in its universal application.

To his concern, he feels the Establishment and business and even government and the law are subtly withholding from the black the incentives and the means to affluence by denying him the chance to acquire capital.

Banks do not lend to him. Insurers shy away from his property. Bondsmen won't guarantee his contracts. Businessmen really don't see him as a potential executive. Professions, such as accounting, do not demand his services.

The black has little incentive to raise personal capital because often he cannot use it creatively. He lacks strong aspirations for certain jobs because he knows there is no demand for his services in those roles.

Cross calls it a boycott, generally unorganized, often benevolent but often conspiratorial. He hopes to end it, not by destroying the establishment but by enlarging it to include those on the outside.

Otherwise, he maintains, the black is "powerless to speak effectively to the many except through riots, boycotts and sit-ins."

Cross maintains the ingredients for black capitalism exist. The skills can be developed if the economic rewards are offered. The entrepreneurs and tradesmen will develop if given the opportunity.

Some of Cross' views, which have developed a wide following within and outside of government, were expressed in a book, "Black Capitalism," which led to the year-old Opportunity Funding Corp. of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

"My notion is that the federal government should insure and underwrite and guarantee black business, minority business, until it is viable," he says.

"We must guarantee deposits in black banks even to $100,000. We must guarantee them insurance. We must guarantee contract performance in order that they can enter bids."

Junior Editors Quiz on GRADUATION GOWNS

QUESTION: When and where did the custom of wearing graduation caps and gowns originate?

• • •

ANSWER: The wearing of caps, gowns and hoods at commencement exercises and for other collegiate activities, such as assemblies, dates back to the Middle Ages. The early universities were under the control of the Church, and most medieval scholars were associated with the Church, in fact many belonged to monastic orders.

After the fall of Rome, Europe was in a chaotic state. The Christian Church seemed to be the only stable organization at the time. During the Middle Ages, the Church took over leadership in many fields. The universities of Oxford and Cambridge in England adopted the ecclesiastical costume as the official academic dress. The academic gown was originally the style of the modest gown worn by the monks. The hoods which today symbolize the various degrees were originally worn by the monks to cover their shaved heads. Some dropped the hoods back and wore a form of cap, called a biretta. From this biretta, the various academic caps have developed. The mortarboard is one of the popular caps worn today. The wearing of the cap or mortar-board usually implies the wearer has attained a Bachelor's Degree or is working toward this degree. A gold tassel on the cap is often worn by scholars who have reached the Doctorate.

Hospital Chaplain Is Busy

DALLAS (AP) — The Rev. Herman Cook, the new chaplain at Parkland Memorial Hospital, says that a clergyman at a hospital is like a barber at Army boot camp.

"You've got an awful lot to work with. And you really get to know human nature under crisis," he said.

Part of his job is consoling relatives of victims, or becoming a "mourning partner." He got a quick initiation for his work during his first Saturday night "on call."

"We must have had 10 DOA's (dead on arrival cases)," he said. "The worst was a wreck with three young men killed."

In such cases of death—and similarly when death appears to loom near — patients and their relatives gain "a different way of perceiving life and are challenged to re-examine their lives," the chaplain said.

One of the Rev. Mr. Cook's greatest challenges is thus to avoid a melancholy outlook himself.

"For this we turn to each other," he said. With two other resident chaplains and others serving temporary terms, the chaplain distributes his grief "to avoid being overcome with the sadness around us."

You're Middle Age IF. . .

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — You're getting middle-aged if—

You can think of more people you'd like to leave out of a will than put in it.

Every dawning when you awake you lie in bed for 15 full minutes trying to think of a good worthwhile reason for getting up and facing life. There is none. Habit is all that gets you up.

You decide it is high time you taught your wife how to put up the storm windows herself. After all, that's what she'd have to do if something ever happened to you.

One fine morning you study your face in the mirror and your heart leaps with horror as you detect a hair growing in your ear. The color of the hair is gray.

You quit sending away box tops because you can't think of anything you really want back.

For everything that makes you smile there are two that make you frown and five that make you yawn.

Every personal letter you write contains some comment on the current state of the weather, and the comment is rarely laudatory.

When you get a cold, it hangs on two days longer than it used to—and takes one more bottle of bourbon to cure.

You suspect that not one but three of your fellow workers at the office are secretly trying to get your job, and now and then you get a little melancholy over the fact that this world holds such treachery.

It is difficult to find anyone to have a discussion with, because they are either too old and opinionated or too young and callow to take seriously.

Even with the help of your bifocals it becomes increasingly difficult to read the fine print on medicine bottle labels.

On rainy days you like to review your life insurance policy and try to figure whether, in the eventuality of your demise, it would provide for your wife until she could find another husband half the man you are.

Generally speaking, you feel better in the autumn than in the spring and, specifically speaking, you can't remember the last time you felt really good all over.

You haven't bothered to estimate the number of days you still have left to work before you get a pension, but you can make a pretty close guess on the number of months.

Yep, there's no doubt about it—you're middle middle-aged. But you don't have to stay middle-aged.

You can always outgrow it.

Bodies Found In Crashed Plane

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Bodies of two men, missing since Wednesday night on a flight in stormy weather, were found in a crashed plane Thursday in rough Southwest Texas Hill Country.

They were Kenneth David Cummings, 21, and Coleman Spruell, 34, both of San Antonio.

Civil Air Patrol pilots discovered the wreckage in a small clearing on a ranch near Boerne, about 30 miles northwest of here.

Charles Earnhardt, owner of the light plane, said the two had flown to Corpus Christi Wednesday to transfer a medical patient to Kerrville.

The craft disappeared during a rainstorm after leaving Kerrville. A rancher reported hearing a plane and then a muffled explosion.

Officials said the plane apparently struck a high power line.

The victims worked part-time for Earnhardt, who operates an aviation firm.

Cowboys Are 20 Point Favorites

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The string of upsets that sent favorites reeling in the National Football League last week likely will continue this week with Atlanta harassing Roman Gabriel and Los Angeles into submission while O.J. Simpson breaks loose for Buffalo in an upset of Miami.

But remember, those predictions are being made by the same guy who last week correctly predicted Atlanta to upset San Francisco—and not much else. The record, as a matter of record, was 4-8-1, for the opening week's program.

The problem this week is being able to determine which of last week's upset winners are legitimate threats and which are merely pretenders. The guessing is that the Falcons are for real and the Bills, who showed plenty of offense against Dallas, are substantially stronger.

Here's the way it looks like it might go with a 12-game program Sunday followed by Monday night's nationally televised game between the New York Jets and St. Louis being shown by ABC starting at 9 p.m., EDT.

Atlanta 27, Los Angeles 20—QB Bob Berry has a new target in rookie Ken Burrows, and the Falcons have the defense to harass Gabriel, who completed just 11 of 30 passes against New Orleans. The Falcons may not have the depth to go all the way but right now they're solid.

Buffalo 31, Miami 27—Dallas watched O.J. last week and Dennis Shaw passed for four TDs. The Dolphins will probably be watching Shaw this week. So watch O.J. The key, however, will be the Bills' defense, lacking against Dallas in last week's 49-37 loss.

Baltimore 28, Cleveland 17—Browns' QB Bill Nelsen picked apart Houston last week but the Colts' zone defense is something else. So apparently is running back Norm Bulaich. The Colts aren't flashy but they win.

Minnesota 35, Chicago 10—The only danger here is that the Vikings may take the Bears too lightly. But Spartan Coach Bud Grant will see to it they don't. Even if Gale Sayers makes it back, Chicago doesn't have enough to match the powerful Vikes.

Oakland 27, San Diego 24—The Raiders likely took New England too lightly last week but there's no way they can feel that way about the Chargers after San Diego's victory over Kansas City.

Washington 34, New York Giants 27—The Giants don't figure to score twice on fumbles within six seconds as they did against Green Bay. Larry Brown will give the Redskins the ball control they need.

Cincinnati 21, Pittsburgh 20—The Steelers could upset, but with No. 1 running back John Fuqua doubtful the Bengals should be able to contain Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw.

Dallas 41, Philadelphia 21—Whether it's Craig Morton or Roger Staubach at quarterback, the Cowboys will run wild against Eagle defense that permitted 532 yards in loss to Bengals.

Detroit 48, New England 13—The Lions should be aroused after tough loss to Minnesota, which means trouble for the Patriots and Jim Plunkett. Plunkett gets plunked—often.

San Francisco 38, New Orleans 21—John Brodie doesn't throw four interceptions every week, and that's the only way the Saints can beat the 49ers. Archie Manning also gets plunked—often.

Denver 30, Green Bay 17—The Broncos' front four will push either Zeke Bratkowski or Scott Hunter all over the field. Green Bay Coach Dan Devine better watch his other leg.

Kansas City 24, Houston 21—The Chiefs can't get their offense rolling, but they should be able to handle the Oilers, who appeared totally disorganized in Cleveland shutout.

St. Louis 27, New York Jets 20—Norm Bulaich ran against the Jets so why can't MacArthur Lane and Com? But it all may resolve around which quarterback hurts his team less, Jets' Al Woodall or Cards' Pete Beathard.

Crucial Series Set In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Los Angeles manager Walter Alston, his Dodgers facing a three-game series with the blood-in-their eyes Atlanta Braves, says simply, "We're going to do the best we can and that's all we can do."

The series is being pegged as the do-or-die phase of the Dodgers' bid for the National League West flag.

The division-leading San Francisco Giants didn't make it any easier for the Dodgers Thursday night, defeating Houston 2-1 and stretching their lead to three games.

The third place Braves aren't expected to be very sociable to the Dodgers, having only Wednesday night been eliminated from contention by another team from California, the San Diego Padres.

"There is still second and third place at stake for the Braves as far as we are concerned," Atlanta manager Luman Harris said. "All baseball teams have taken pride for a long time in the fact that if they can't win it, they like to say who does win it. We'll be the determining factor on whether the Dodgers have a shot at it or not."

Harris said the Braves won seven out of their last 10 games and "a fast finish gives a lot of hope for next year." Then looking back a ways, the head Brave said, "It's easy to see that if we had not had a slump right before the All Star game we could be going right down to the wire with the Dodgers and the Giants."

Alston, meanwhile, wasn't in a talkative mood when newsmen tried to interview him after news of the Giants' victory was out. Asked what frame of mind the Dodgers were in, especially after dropping two straight to Cincinnati, Alston retorted, "What kind of a question is that?"

Both the Dodgers and the Giants have six games to play. Any home field advantage would favor Los Angeles. After the series here, they head for home where they play a three-game set with Houston. The Giants, on the other hand, will be on the road all the way to the finish, with three games in Cincinnati and three at San Diego.

The Giants' title-winning magic number was reduced to four with their victory over Houston.

Tanner, Connors Score Net Upsets

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "From now on," says 43-year-old Richard "Pancho" Gonzales, "I am the underdog."

Such a title might prove magical as the $73,000 Pacific Southwest Open tennis tournament moved into the quarterfinal round today.

Underdogs Roscoe Tanner and Jimmy Connors knocked off highly regarded Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia and Clark Graebner of New York Thursday night.

Tanner, a 20-year-old junior at Stanford who lists his hometown as Lookout Mountain, Tenn., pulled the upset of the tournament when he eliminated the second-seeded Kodes, 6-4, 6-4.

Connors, a UCLA sophomore who became the first freshman to win the national collegiate singles championship, disposed of fourth-seeded Graebner, 6-4, 6-3.

The top-ranked player, recent U.S. Open champion Stan Smith of nearby Pasadena, defeated unseeded Ismael El Shafei of Egypt 6-4, 7-6, winning a best-of-nine tiebreaker 5-3. Cliff Richey, seeded No. 3 from San Angelo, Tex., advanced with a 6-4, 6-1 triumph over Jaime Fillol of Chile.

Gonzales, seeded eighth and winner of this tournament when he was 41, defeated young Jeff Borowiak of Los Angeles, 6-3, 6-4, and was pitted against Tanner in the quarterfinals.

Connors will meet Bob Carmichael of France, a 6-3, 6-0 upsetter of fifth-seeded Frank Forehling of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

It was Tanner's second victory in as many matches with Kodes, the runnerup to Smith in the U.S. Open. Tanner beat the Czech earlier this year on clay at Indianapolis, 6-4, 6-4.

While Gonzales, from nearby Malibu, was anything but an underdog to Borowiak, Connors wasn't expected to defeat the veteran Graebner, who at one point followed up an ace serve by yelling across the net:

"You may win this match, but you'll know you're not playing in the juniors anymore."

Penn State and Duke will begin a four-game football series starting in 1977.

Obscure Texas Rookie Leads At Robinson

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

ROBINSON, Ill. (AP) — Obscure rookie Dwight Nevil started out in the first round of the Robinson Open Golf Tournament "so early I had to stop and shake the trees to wake up the birds."

But the 27-year-old Texan wasn't complaining. That early start helped him shoot a four-under-par 67 and tie 6-foot-6 George Archer for the first-round lead in this $100,000 event Thursday.

Archer, along with the four players tied at 68—Lebron Harris, Larry Hinson, Mac McLendon and Jim Ferriell—all had early tee times and finished before gusty winds kicked up on the 6,585 yard Crawford County Country Club course and sent scores rocketing.

Troubled Lee Trevino, the biggest name in this tournament, fought those winds and a lack of concentration for a 72, one over par on the par 35-36—71 layout in a community of 7,200 just across the Wabash River from Indiana.

Trevino's mother is seriously ill in Dallas, and he left her side only in time to get here about an hour before his tee time.

"I played pretty good, hit the ball pretty good," said Trevino, the No. 2 money winner with $197,000 this season and holder of the American, Canadian and British Open crowns.

"But I putted like an idiot.

"I just didn't have my mind on it. I wasn't thinking about golf."

About a dozen players were in a group at 69, all but two of them morning starters. They included Bert Greene, Jim Colbert and Mike Hill.

Defending champion George Knudson of Canada had a fat 75 and must improve if he is to survive the cut for the final two rounds when the field is trimmed at the end of today's round.

Mason Rudolph and J.C. Snead, besides Trevino the only members of America's victorious Ryder Cup team competing here, each had a 73.

Many of the game's major's stars—including Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Masters champion Charles Coody—are taking an extended fall break.

Congress To Look At Sports

WASHINGTON (AP) — After hearing charges that professional baseball and basketball have become big business monopolies, a Congressional subcommittee has decided to conduct an antitrust probe into all major team sports.

A senate judiciary subcommittee examining a professional basketball merger bill heard three days of testimony this week that the three sports have enjoyed special tax breaks and no government regulation.

Thursday, acting chairman Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., told his staff to start gathering material and a broader list of witnesses for the resumption of the hearings Nov. 9-11.

"Organized sports asks to be treated as monopoly," said Sen. William B. Spong Jr. D-Va., while appearing before the committee Thursday.

Spong said he is "disturbed by the growing domination of the field by big business interests and big business psychology."

He added that "there is serious question about the claim of organized sport to special consideration under the antitrust laws and its right to other forms of public support it receives."

Ervin, the Senate's constitutional watchdog, had earlier warned that if the basketball merger bill passes, he would propose creation of the post of federal athletic commissioner to regulate all major professional sports—baseball, football, hockey and basketball.

Because all professional sports except baseball fall under the antitrust laws, the American and National basketball association are seeking a temporary exemption to merge.

Baseball was exempted by a 1922 Supreme Court opinion holding that the sport was "not a subject of commerce."

But Spong said that more recently the court has referred to the 1922 decision as a "a ruling which at best was of dubious validity" but which would be upheld "as long as the Congress continues to acquiesce."

Pro sports operating rules of the player draft and reserve clause were described at the hearing as a clear violation of antitrust laws and perhaps unconstitutional as well.

Bengal Grid Match Re-Set Saturday

The junior varsity football match with San Angelo's sophomores was postponed from last night until 2 p.m. Saturday in Tiger Stadium.

That means three games will be held in Tiger Stadium Saturday. Travis 9th grade will host San Angelo Lee at 6 p.m., followed by a 7:30 p.m. clash between Lamar 9th grade and Sweetwater. Also Saturday, Lamar 8th grade will be at Sweetwater for a 2 p.m. tussle.

Meanwhile, the varsity Bengals take on Big Spring there at 8 o'clock tonight.

Also tonight, Ira is at Christoval, Gail visits Whitharral, Hermleigh travels to Water Valley and Hobbs hosts Mertzon. Weinert will host Fluvanna Saturday night.

Cage Stars Are Arrested

RALEIGH (AP) — Willis Casey, athletic director at North Carolina State University, has cautioned NCSU athletes that the use of drugs "will not be condoned" by the athletic department."

He warned them that if "an athlete is accused of such an offense, the situation will be taken very seriously."

Casey did not specify what "very seriously" means, but he did say that if athletes on scholarships are found guilty of drug use, action will be taken.

"I just reaffirmed what has always been in existence," Casey said Thursday when asked about his warning.

The action followed the arrest of two State basketball stars, Captain Paul Coder and part-time starter Bob Huets, on charges of possessing marijuana.

Casey said that as long as the two students were still in good standing and have not been found guilty of the offense charged against them, they would be eligible to start the season.

Fighting Tigers Seek Victory At Big Spring

Snyder's Tigers will face their toughest test thus far in the 1971 football season when they tangle with Big Spring's Steers at 8 o'clock tonight in Big Spring.

The Steers are 1-1 for the season. They bested a strong Lubbock Monterey team 14-12, then lost 25-17 to Ysleta Bel Air. Snyder is 0-1-1, having tied Stanford 24-24 and lost to Andrews 27-20.

Big Spring is in the strong 5-AAAA district and is out to improve on a 5-5 record of last season. However, the Tigers are not awed by the fact that Big Spring is in a higher classification. Coach Maurice (Mo) Hodges is expecting a spirited performance by the Tigers tonight, based on team attitude and the hustle they showed in drills during the week.

The team worked out in the rain Wednesday. Coach Hodges said a wet field could affect the performance of both teams. Ball handling probably will be more difficult in the event of rain.

If the weather is good, both teams are expected to do a lot of passing tonight. Doing the chunking for the hosts will be quarterback Mike Adams, a 180-pound senior, who started the first two games last year. For Snyder the aerials will be thrown by Butch Buchanan, 170-pound senior quarterback, who delivers from the port side.

Big Spring operates from the Houston veer offense while the Tigers will employ the Winged-T and I formations. Other backs in the Steer alignment are flanker Mike McCormick (150) and running backs Ricky Steen (175) and Arthur Trevino (165).

Jimmy Don Dyess, 180-pound senior, and Jackie Murray, 186-pound senior, will alternate at halfback for the Tigers tonight. Both are capable runners. At tailback will be Melvin Cobb, 160-pound senior, who has shown considerable improvement lately. The fullback will be Sammie Harrison, 145-pound senior, who runs with determination. Mike Glasscock, 202-pound senior, has recovered from a hand injury and could do some running from the fullback slot tonight.

The Tiger offensive line tonight will include ends Gary Patterson (167) and Joe Bullard (181), tackles Gary Jones (185) and Mike Dennis (179), guards Randy Wright (160) and Albert Hernandez (210) and center Eddie Bane (156).

Joe Mark Adams, senior center, has recovered from a knee injury and probably will see a lot of action on defense tonight. He will spell Joe Bullard at one of the defensive end positions.

Dicky Stanley (160) will be at the other end with Chris Covey (178) at middle guard, Mike Line (208) and Sandy Land (251) at tackle, Louis Loyd (173) and Mike Glasscock (202) at linebacker, Buchanan at rover, Dyess at cornerback, Patterson at halfback, and Jackson Brewster (152) at safety.

Tackles D. W. Powell (215) and Rondel Brock (210) and guard Joe Pesina (220) will lead the Big Spring line.

Snyder uses the Oklahoma 5 defense while Big Spring is expected to go with a variation of the split 6.

Both teams are about equal in size. Big Spring has a couple of boys who can run the century in 9.8, but neither one of them are starters. Otherwise, the speed will be about equal.

This corner is expecting the Tigers to put forth their best effort of the season, but Big Spring should prevail by about a 21-14 score. The Steers are a solid one touchdown favorite.

Vols, Buffs In Key Grid Tilts

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bill Battle, Tennessee football coach, says he is fully aware of the capabilities of Auburn's deadly passing combination of Pat Sullivan to Terry Beasley.

"But we can't afford to concentrate on them alone," said Battle as he prepared to send his ninth-ranked Volunteers against the fifth-ranked Tigers in one of Saturday's key matchups.

"We know that the Sullivan-Beasley combination will give us a lot of trouble," added Battle. "But Auburn can give us other trouble as well."

Despite Battle's comments, the result of the game should hinge on Tennessee's ability to contain Sullivan, the nation's total offense leader last season, and Beasley, the leading scorer in the Southeastern Conference in 1970.

Sullivan, who completed 59 per cent of his passes last year in leading Auburn to a 9-2 record, got off to an even better start in 1971, completing 13 of 16 aerials, including two for touchdowns, as the Tigers opened their season with a 60-7 rout over UT-Chattanooga.

Tennessee, 11-1 last year, also began its 1971 campaign with a romp, crushing UC-Santa Barbara 48-6. The Volunteers only setback last season was a 36-23 beating by Auburn. Naturally, they will be looking for revenge.

Another confrontation between two members of the Top Ten Saturday will be No. 10 Colorado at Ohio State, ranked sixth.

Meanwhile, the other members of the elite also will see action. Top-rated Nebraska will entertain Texas A&M. Notre Dame, No. 2 will be at Purdue. Third-ranked Texas will be home against Southwest Conference rival Texas Tech.

Michigan, No. 4 will be host to UCLA, Arkansas, rates seventh, plays Tulsa in Fayetteville, Ark. and Alabama, ranked eighth, visits Florida.

Among the second 10, it will be Oklahoma, No. 11 at Pitt; Penn State, ranked 12th, at Iowa; Stanford, rated 13th, at home against Oregon; Georgia, No. 14, at Clemson; 15th-ranked Arizona State at Utah; 16th-rated Southern California at home against Illinois in a night game; No. 17 Washington against visiting Texas Christian; Louisiana State, ranked 18th, at Wisconsin; Toledo, rated 19th, at Texas-Arlington in a night game; and No. 20 Duke at Virginia.

Boxers Lauded In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 24 (AP) — Carlos Monzon and Emile Griffith, who will tangle Saturday night for the middleweight championship of the world, have one more item on their schedule before the big bout—they have to meet the president.

Monzon, a 29-year-old Argentine and holder of the world title, and Griffith, 33, a native of the Virgin Islands, are to be received today by President Alejandro Lanusse.

Then it's back to waiting for the bell. They will open their 15-round match in the Luna Park Sports Palace in downtown Buenos Aires.

"This is a fantastic country for boxing", Gil Clancy, Griffith's manager, said. "Where else do you go to meet the president."

Both fighters wrapped up their training within the last two days—Monzon completing his sparring Thursday and Griffith the day before.

For Monzon it will be the second defense of the title he wrested from Italy's Nino Benvenutti last November with a knockout in the 12th round. He retained the crown in a rematch this May, putting Benvenuti away in three rounds.

Griffith will be seeking to take back the crown that he lost in 1968 to Benvenuti in a 15-round decision.

Stanford and Penn State will meet in football games four straight seasons beginning in 1973.

FIRECAT IS ROBOT FIREMAN — This robot fireman, powered by tank-like tracks and radio control, was displayed Wednesday at the convention of the International Association of Fire Chiefs in St. Louis. It can be used to get up close to fires where men cannot go. Fire Chief Jimmy Johnson of Chicago said it can be loaded with fire-fighting chemicals or MACE for use in crowd control. A passing fireman hollered out to those watching the Firecat: "Does that damn thing have a union card?" (AP Wirephoto)

Military Raises May Be Caught In Squeeze Play

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $2.4 billion military pay raise just approved by Congress may be caught in a wage-price squeeze play.

Sen. Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., has threatened to fight for scheduled but frozen pay raises for civilian federal employes unless military compensation is frozen on the same basis.

Pay raises for government employes have been frozen until next July 1, and McGee, chairman of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee, said the military should be subject to the same rules, "as a matter of simple equity."

"It would make no sense to freeze half the employes' pay and increase the other half," McGee said Thursday.

The draft extension bill passed by the Senate and sent to President Nixon Tuesday boosts military pay Oct. 1. But the White House has indicated it may be subject to the current 90-day wage-price freeze, which expires Nov. 13.

McGee said he has written the President urging that military pay raises be frozen until July 1.

As part of his new economic policy, Nixon ordered a six-month delay in some $1.3 billion in federal pay raises scheduled for Jan. 1.

The postponement could be overruled by Congress, if action is taken by Oct. 8.

"A failure to freeze military salary increases at once would not only be unfair to civilian federal employes," McGee said, "it would almost certainly result in Congress taking whatever action may be necessary to unfreeze civilian pay levels."

He said that would be a serious blow to the administration effort to halt inflation.

McGee and his Senate panel have been under pressure from organized labor to act to overrule the pay freeze.

"As chairman of the committee," McGee wrote Nixon, "I would have to advise you that without a military pay freeze, I could not continue with clear conscience to ask our committee to hold the line against federal employe pay legislation."

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., however, is sponsoring legislation to further increase the total military pay raise, to some $2.7 billion, with the additional funds concentrated on men in the lowest ranks.

"I'm going to fight to make it effective Nov. 15," Allott said. "The inequities in this situation are not on the side of the government worker, they're on the side of the lower grades in the military."

Allott said a freeze until mid-1972 would jeopardize administration efforts to move from the draft to a volunteer army.

Enemy Suffers Heavy Losses

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. bombers struck inside North Vietnam and along its frontiers for a third successive day, while other allied aircraft wiped out two of Hanoi's base camps in South Vietnam causing heavy enemy losses, military spokesmen said today.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces mounted a fourth day of intensified shelling attacks in the South. The South Vietnamese command said a provincial capital and three district towns were shelled. Two South Vietnamese were killed and 14 wounded.

The air attack inside North Vietnam Thursday was triggered, the U.S. Command said, when an antiaircraft gun fired at two Air Force fighter-bombers on a mission against Hanoi's Ho Chi Minh supply trail in Laos.

The attack occurred in the Ban Karai pass on the Laos-North Vietnam border, about 37 miles north of the demilitarized zone. A command spokesman, Maj. Richard Gardner, said results of the U.S. attack were not known but the American jets were not hit.

It was the 62nd strike by American bombers inside North Vietnam this year under President Nixon's protective reaction policy.

U.S. bombers have stepped up raids against the Ho Chi Minh trail in anticipation of the annual dry season push of war materials into South Vietnam and Cambodia. The monsoons should end next month, and the North Vietnamese are trying to repair the trail.

U.S. B52 bombers pounded North Vietnamese storage depots on both sides of South Vietnam's border with Laos and attacked supply points and bunker complexes in the southern half of the DMZ.

Further south U.S. tactical fighter-bombers and helicopter gunships destroyed North Vietnamese base camps 60 miles northwest of Saigon and 56 miles south of Da Nang, spokesmen said.

Allied communiques said that 50 enemy troops were killed in the attacks and 100 bunkers, a truck and 23 Soviet-made 122mm rockets were destroyed.

The base northwest of Saigon was believed to be a staging area for a North Vietnamese sapper battalion that attacked the South Vietnamese Tay Ninh base camp Monday, killing 21 Saigon troops and wounding 64.

All 215,000 U.S. troops in South Vietnam went on a two-week alert Thursday barring them from populated areas except on official business. The alert is aimed at keeping the Americans clear of possible Viet Cong attacks and political disturbances aimed at disrupting South Vietnam's presidential election Oct. 3.

Woman Named Association President

AUSTIN (AP) — Mrs. Mettie Brown, placement director for the University of Texas School of Law, has been named president-elect of the newly formed National Association for Law Placement.

The by-laws of the new organization state that the temporary president will serve for one year, then the president-elect will become president for three years.

Only law schools that are accredited by the American Bar Association are eligible for membership in the new association, says Mrs. Brown.

While the association would enable placement officers to exchange information and ideas on a national level, a second goal would be the active participation of those who hire the law school graduate.

Jessel Seeks Cut In Payments

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Entertainer George Jessel has asked Superior Court for permission to reduce support payments for his 9-year-old daughter.

Jessel, 73, acknowledged paternity in a settlement made shortly after the girl's birth and agreed to $500 monthly payments to the mother, Joan Tyler, 37.

But his attorney said Wednesday that Jessel no longer works steadily, has had financial setbacks and wants the payments cut to $150 a month. Miss Tyler said Jessel has a sizable income.

A court commissioner said he would rule at a later date.

Harlan Never Granted Interview

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Supreme Court Justice John M. Harlan never granted an interview in the 16 years he was on the court.

Harlan made several speeches criticizing the way the press reported various court decisions, but even in the hour preceeding his retirement Thursday, George Washington Hospital where he is a patient was referring calls to the court. The hospital said Harlan requested such action.

It was announced Harlan is suffering from bone cancer.

Osorio, Carr Named In Suit

HOUSTON (AP) — Former Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and former Texas Insurance Commission Chairman John Osorio are among defendants in a $1.29 million suit filed in district court by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

The FDIC, acting as receiver for the defunct Sharpstown State Bank of Houston, filed the suit Thursday and also listed as defendants Tom Max Thomas, Sam Stock and Dr. Robert Franklin, all of Dallas, Jack Cox of Austin, Donald S. Akins of Gilbertsville, Ky., and the Nashwood Corp., of Dallas.

Carr and Osorio were key figures in the recent stock trial at Dallas involving National Bankers Life Insurance Co.

U. S. Dist. Judge Sarah Hughes enjoined them, along with Houston financier Frank W. Sharp and 11 other individuals and companies from selling unregistered stock in the future.

The FDIC claims in the suit the defendants borrowed $1.25 million from Sharpstown State Bank about April 17, 1969 for a period of 364 days. The suit claims the defendants paid one note in the amount of $25,075 Nov. 6, 1970.

The suit further claims the money for the loan was used to purchase all the outstanding stock in the West Virginia Life Insurance Co. by the defendants as shareholders of Nashwood, a Sharp-controlled firm.

The suit claims West Virginia Life merged National Bankers Life, and Nashwood subsequently put up 66,666 shares of National Bankers Life stock as security for the loan. The FDIC claims National Bankers Life has no value and it is seeking the $1.20 million judgment to satisfy the loan.

The suit asks an additional 25 per cent of the principal and interest of the note for collection fees.

Custody Hearing Scheduled

HOUSTON (AP) — A hearing is scheduled Monday in domestic relations court on the temporary custody of the daughter of Yoko Ono Lennon.

Mrs. Lennon, wife of Beatle John Lennon, is not expected to attend the hearing.

Mrs. Lennon's lawyer has been asked to show why Anthony Cox, Mrs. Lennon's former husband, should not be given custody of their child, Kyoko, 8, pending final litigation.

The child has been living with her father, a documentary film maker, since a court in Majorca, Spain, gave him temporary custody last April.

The Coxes were divorced in 1969 but Koyoko's permanent custody has never been settled. The judge handling the Virgin Island divorce case ruled that final custody should be determined by "a court of competent jurisdiction.

Cox, who has since remarried moved to Houston this summer.

The recording industry maintains it loses $150 million annually as a result of pirating of recordings, mostly in tape form.

LUXURY LEADER — The New Yorker Brougham is a new luxury leader for Chrysler in 1972.

FRESH LOOK — The 1972 Plymouth Fury Gran Coupe two-door hardtop is one of 16 models offering luxury looks and comfort with an economy price tag.

Chrysler For '72 Has A New Look

The 1972 Chrysler, the company's nameplate car, enters an expanding medium-priced marketplace with a new look and a number of engineering improvements.

Richard M. McLaughlin, Chrysler-Plymouth general sales manager, predicted an 11 percent sales gain in this area for 1972, based upon the surprising sales performance of the medium-priced cars in 1971. They may be seen at Thomas Chrysler-Dodge-Plymouth.

The Newport Royal, the new low-line version, had a good sales trend during the year, running from 4.5 percent of sales to 25 percent of total Chrysler car sales by Spring.

"This increased public interest evidenced in medium-priced cars and our new-look styling should combine to provide increased sales for 1972," McLaughlin said.

The Chrysler car line will have a simplified model lineup for 1972 while taking advantage of the current buying trends in medium-priced automobiles.

"Mini" - "Sub" - "Small" may be "in-words" to some but the 1972 Plymouth Fury Series will offer new style and innovation to the standard size automobile for the market that wants more in things automotive.

A complete new styling, coupled with economy, value and comfort, will be featured in the eight series, and 16 models of the top line of Plymouth.

"We are offering the consumer, who is interested in the standard size car, a new look as well as engineering improvements for the 1972 series," said McLaughlin.

The Plymouth Satellite intermediate car line for 1972 offers dozens of improvements along with minor appearance changes and a revised model line-up.

The improvements contribute to reliability, longer car life, lower maintenance costs, safety, cleaner air, mechanical performance and passenger convenience. They include a new engine and a unique electronic ignition system.

Satellite will continue the new marketing concept introduced last year with the design of two separate shapes — one for two-door hardtops and one for four-door sedans and station wagons — each with its own sheet metal.

Styling changes add eye appeal and engineering improvements contribute higher quality and greater reliability to the 1972 Plymouth Barracuda, Chrysler-Plymouth Division's specialty compact.

"The new styling features make the Barracuda an even more attractive personal car," said McLaughlin.

"The engineering refinements have been developed to improve safety and serviceability and to reduce maintenance costs for owners."

The biggest little success story in the burgeoning compact car marketplace will continue with its broad appeal for 1972, adding engineering and quality refinements for its owners.

The Plymouth Valiant line with the new Duster added in 1970 became an instant success upon introduction and continued its dramatic sales progress in 1971.

The Valiant line had a sales increase of 180 per cent in 1970 as car buyers began to take added interest in the American compact car. By Spring, 1971, the Valiant-Duster line, with the new hardtop Scamp added, had piled up another 23 per cent increase.

Cricket, Plymouth's single-model, four-door subcompact sedan, has increased H.P. (Hopping Power) for 1972.

An all-new car when introduced by Chrysler-Plymouth dealers last January, Cricket will also wear bright new colors in the coming year.

An optional twin carburetor on the four-cylinder engine adds 15 horsepower. The 91.4 cubic-inch (1500 cc) plant will deliver 70 horsepower with the dual carburetors. An automatic choke has been made standard on the single carb engine and a black vinyl roof is a new option.

Veteran's Day Is Proclaimed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has issued his annual Veteran's Day proclamation and designated Oct. 4 as Child Health Day.

Veteran's Day will fall on Oct. 25, rather than the more traditional Nov. 11, due to the new congressionally approved system of shifting several holidays to Monday to promote three-day weekends.

Medina Mum On Job Offer

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Capt. Ernest L. Medina, acquitted Wednesday of all charges arising from the massacre of civilians at My Lai, has refused comment on reports he has been offered a job by a Florida promoter who paid a large share of his legal defense.

A spokesman for businessman Glenn W. Turner of Orlando confirmed Thursday that Turner had offered Medina a job, but he said the type of job and salary specifics had not been discussed.

After his court-martial ended, Medina told newsmen his only immediate plans are to get out of the Army.

The Turner spokesman said Medina's civilian attorney, F. Lee Bailey, is a business associate of Turner.

Turner heads the conglomerate Turner Enterprises, which operates 58 corporations with a total of 300,000 employes, most of them door-to-door cosmetic salesmen.

Landry Guest At Crusade

DALLAS (AP) — A "devil's revival" is in progress and people are possessed by demons of pride, sex perversion, lying, anger, drink and drugs, evangelist Billy Graham declared Thursday night.

He spoke to 43,600 persons at his Southwest Crusade in Texas Stadium and a national television audience.

It was the third "youth night" in Dr. Graham's services, and young people helped swell the turnout through seven evenings to 296,400. Aides said 9,365 have made commitments to Christ.

"The devil has been here since the Garden of Eden, and he's stirring up the demons of greed, lust, violence, hate and jealousy in the hearts of people," the Southern Baptist minister said.

"He's been here since the beginning, and the only power to overcome him is Jesus Christ."

Coach Tom Landry of pro football's Dallas Cowboys and Miss Black Teen-age America, June Kelly of Fort Worth, were guests of Dr. Graham.

"Bible study transformed me from a churchgoer to a Christian," Landry told the crowd. "I believe what St. Augustine said—'Hearts are restless, oh God, until you find your rest in Thee.'"

Singer Johnny Cash and a group of entertainers from Nashville, Tenn., will be on the platform with Dr. Graham tonight.

Promotion Time

IT'S Promotion Time . . . Sunday School Commencement time. Every youngster longs for this time of year. They have done well and must be promoted. They are moving ahead, making progress in the teachings of God. In that there is delight.

Perhaps Promotion time should be just as important to adults as to the young. Maybe we should check our progress in Christian living. If we had to earn our yearly promotion where would we be? Are we going to church more? Have we increased our giving? Do we help more in various church programs? Do our lives reflect deeper religious beliefs? Would my pastor O. K. my promotion? Would my family give me a card? How about my relatives, friends and business associates? It is Promotion time and can we meet the challenge? Can we truly say it is Time for us To Move Up.
