Meeting Scheduled For Tonite to Map Plans For Deer Season

Game Warden Bill Works announces that all ranchers and town people interested in the deer hunting season are invited and urged to attend a meeting at the Memorial Building tonight. Rules, regulations and privileges pertaining to Schleicher county will be explained.

One development that has just recently been announced is that permits for antlerless deer will be issued to Schleicher county ranchers this year in all of the county except in the "deer restoration area" in the north central part of the county. Ranchers in the rest of the county wanting antlerless permits may obtain them at tonight's meeting. These permits are also being issued at the court house today and tomorrow (Friday) during the regular court house office hours.

The deer restoration area which is not included in the antlerless program is that area where 100 deer were planted in the fall of 1959. This area is bounded on the south by Hwy. 29, and on the east by F. M. Hwy. 2084, generally called "Toe Nail" trail. The western boundary is F.M. road No. 2135.

Officials associated with the Game and Fish Commission are trying to impress on landowners in this county the value of deer as an annual money crop. They point out for instance that a visiting hunter who comes in and kills one deer, brings as much money to the county as one bale of cotton.

Game Commission men have advocated that ranchers do some out-of-county advertising to attract Texas hunters who do not know that Schleicher has become "deer country" in the last few years.

Three-Fourths Of Crop In; Ginning Begins To Drag

The biggest part of the dryland cotton crop is already in and ginning has slowed down at Mikeska Gin according to word from there on Tuesday.

The season's total at that time stood at 2109 bales, and Mikeska believed he would be lucky if he got as much as 400 more bales before the season closed.

Of the crop remaining the bulk of it would be irrigated cotton which was not yet ready to be gathered.

If 2500 bales is going to be the size of this year's crop it will be short of last year's crop by 500.

Ginning Slows Down In 3-County Area

Sample receipts at the U.S.D.A.'s Cotton Classing Office in Abilene declined slightly during the past week according to B. E. Manly, Jr., officer-in-charge. A total of 35,833 bales were classed during the week ending November 1, 1963, as compared to 38,773 bales for the previous week. This brought the total bales classed during the current harvesting season to 218,125. Receipts from District 7 were down again last week. The portion of District 7 which is served by the Abilene Office is composed of Tom Green, Concho, and Schleicher counties.

Ninety-six percent of the cotton from District 7 was Light Spotted, 3% was Spotted, and 1% was classed as White. The predominant grade was Middling Light Spotted, with 70% classed in this category.

Staple length remained about the same as the previous week. Sixty-eight percent being classed as 29/32; 19% was 15/16; and 13% was 7/8 and shorter.

Micronaire readings remain good with 1% below 3.5; 84% "miked" between 3.5 and 4.9; and 15% of the readings were above 5.0.

Turkey Shoot Set For Saturday and Sunday

Glynn Hill, Vocational Agriculture instructor in the high school, reports that arrangements are complete for a Turkey Shoot this Saturday and Sunday at the Agriculture Center south of town.

The shoot will be conducted by the F.F.A. chapter each day at 1:00. Each shooter is to bring his own gun.

There will also be Target and Pot Luck shooting.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE SET NOVEMBER 24TH

The Ministerial Alliance of Eldorado has scheduled a Community Thanksgiving service for the night of November 24th.

The 24th is the Sunday preceding Thanksgiving day, the 28th. Further details will be given in the Success later.

Post Script

Monday, Nov. 11th, will mark the 45th anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in World War I. For a number of years afterward, the day was designated Armistice Day, a holiday.

More recently, it has been designated Veterans Day to honor the veterans of all wars. Some places observe the day as a holiday.

A survey around the business district reveals that most businesses will be open Monday. Also the Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op will remain open as will court house offices, where Judge W. R. Bearce will meet for the usual second Monday session with the Commissioners Court.

The post office will be closed and other federal employees will have the day off. For most people, though, it will be business or work as usual.

School will also be on.

Thirty-nine years ago doesn't seem long at all when a co-worker from that period drops in and we begin talking about "those days."

Sykes Wood and I were employed on the Holtville Tribune in the Imperial Valley, California, during parts of 1924 and '25. He has been around quite a lot since that time and is now employed on the Statesman in Austin. He came through here last week with his 93-year-old Daddy on their way back from McCamey where they had gathered for a family reunion.

Their stop here was so brief that we didn't have time to review all the things we could have talked about, but we did our best.

The years apparently have been good to Sykes and he still looks "fit as a fiddle." But then he ought to—he's only 63 years old. Me? I was his shop foreman out there in California.

Tomorrow night while Eldorado Eagles square away against Ozona here, a large number of local fans will be interested in what's going on at Big Lake.

Ever since Rankin shellacked the Eagles there three weeks ago, there has been a lot of speculation on how they will measure up against the Owls.

If Rankin were to beat Big Lake tomorrow night they would become undisputed champions of the district. In order for Big Lake to become the champion they must beat Rankin tomorrow and Eldorado the week after.

BUT IF Big Lake beats Rankin and Eldorado comes back and beats Big Lake, the result would be a three-way tie.

That's a lot of IF's!

But anyway the game of the week will be at Big Lake.

Some Eldoradoans will be there.

It will probably cost the state of Texas several dollars a vote to hold the election Saturday for the four proposed amendments to the State Constitution.

So . . . if you paid your poll tax this past January for this off-year, or are otherwise qualified to vote, you can get your money's worth by being sure to go to the polls and casting your ballot.

However, a light voter turnout over the state is foreseen by most observers.

Anna MacTaggart is globe-trotting again. A picture post card from Hong Kong arrived in the mail last week, with this brief message:

News of the Sick

Another Hepatitis Case
Mrs. Jim Cobb is in the Sonora hospital where she has been since late last week. She was placed in the hospital with what was diagnosed as hepatitis, the second case reported for this county. Mrs. Cobb's four children are staying with her parents in San Angelo.

Mike Dempsey came home from the hospital this week.

Last Home Game of the Season Tomorrow; Eldorado vs. Ozona

In the final home game of the year, Eldorado plays host to the Ozona Lions tomorrow night for perhaps the 40th encounter between the football teams of the two Edwards Plateau towns. The Lions are distinctly underdogs, but as underdogs they have presented respectable opposition to most of their grid foes this season, last Friday night seeing them bow to powerful Rankin by a respectable 27-12 margin. This alerts the Eldorado Eagles to the fact that the Lions though underdogs are thoroughly dissatisfied with the situation and that they will stage a strong effort to "sneak up on" their favored opponents tomorrow night.

They will field a squad composed of 19 boys with a probable starting lineup as follows:

No.	Name	Pos.	Wt.
81	Thomas Garza	LE	151
72	Rick Hagelstein	LT	178
60	Pete Garza	LG	156
17	Bob Amthor	C	97
61	Joel Huff	RG	148
70	Mike Walters	RT	149
82	Doug Moore	RE	131
84	Scott Mahon	RHB	138
30	Richard Vargas	LHB	151
44	Bryan Montgomery	FB	153
10	Leroy Cooper	QB	146

Their best linemen are Joel Huff, Walter Hagelstein, and Mike Walters.

Both teams are nearing the end of the 1963 season. A Lion win over the favored Eagles would provide a tremendous boost to their morale which is somewhat low due to their mediocre season. Their final game sees them host the Sanderson Eagles and they have a good chance to win this contest.

Ernie Boyd writing for the Ozona Stockman says that the Lions are not only preparing for Eldorado tomorrow night but for next year's contest as well when he feels that the Lions' fortunes will be looking up.

Game time is tomorrow night on Eagle Field at 7:30; and it's the last scheduled home game of the year.

Legion Meeting Tonight Promote Xmas Program

Commander Billy Frank Blaylock reminds all members of the Bev McCormick Post of The American Legion that the regular monthly meeting of the post will be tonight at 7:00 in the Legion room of the Memorial Building.

All Legionnaires are urged to attend. The post will be making plans for their annual Christmas program as well as promoting girls and boys basketball season.

Community Revival Planned For 1964

The Ministerial Alliance is planning a community-wide revival for the month of April, 1964. It will begin either the second or third week in April and run for two weeks.

Dr. Robert Goodrich will be the preacher for the first week, and Bill Mann, a member of the Billy Graham team, will be the song leader for the two weeks.

Local ministers are still working on arrangements for this event and will announce plans as they are worked out in the months ahead.

Two From This County Attending A & M

College Station.—Two A&M University students are listed as residents of Schleicher County, a newly-released report of Registrar H. L. Heaton indicates.

Among the more than 8,100 Texas Aggies enrolled for the Fall Semester are residents of 244 counties of Texas, 44 other states plus the District of Columbia and 48 countries around the world. There are a record 356 foreign students enrolled.

The registrar's report listed the following students from Schleicher county: Leonard L. Kent and James F. Runge.

Maxfields Honored With Retirement Party

The Sid Maxfields were honored Saturday night with a retirement dinner at the Memorial building. Mr. Maxfield has worked for the Sinclair Oil and Gas Company for the past 38 years. The past 7½ in Eldorado.

The Maxfields' daughters and grandchildren attended, along with 80 other friends and neighbors. Fred Rogers was speaker and films were shown of various Sinclair plants throughout the country.

After retiring the Maxfields are moving to Henderson, Texas to their new home.

Nixons and Their 1000-Lb. Colorado Bull Elk

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Nixon pose at their hunting camp in Colorado where they spent nearly two weeks recently and bagged a 12-point bull elk weighing about 1,000 pounds. Alongside of it is a 250-pound timberline buck. The hunting party included the Nixons and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clark. Others in Colorado about the same time were Sam Henderson and a party of eight who also bagged their limit.

Amendment Vote Is Set For Saturday

A light turnout of voters is seen for the election coming up Saturday in which Texas voters will decide on the proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Voting will take place at the usual voting boxes here in Eldorado and out in the county, and polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. (The Commissioners recently passed an order for polls to open at 8:00 a.m. instead of 7:00 a.m. in the past.)

Most interest is centering around the proposed amendment to abolish the poll tax. Last year, a referendum appeared on the Democratic Primary ballot as to whether the Legislature should submit such an amendment to the voters of the state, and the Schleicher county voters rejected it by 341 to 223, although it was approved on the state level.

Absentee voting has remained light, County Clerk J. P. Enochs reported with passing of the deadline Tuesday. Only eight absentee votes had been cast with one more expected back in the mail by Saturday, to make a total of nine.

There is a slight confusion among voters in regard to the election Saturday. They do not understand why the coming election on the four proposed amendments to the State Constitution is set on Saturday instead of Tuesday, as general elections always are.

This is not a general election; rather it is a special election called by the state Legislature for the sole purpose of deciding on the proposed amendments.

A year from now, in November of 1964, the general election will come when party nominees will be elected for local, state and national offices.

They Won 59 to 18, but—

EAGLES HAVE ROUGH TIME AT SANDERSON

The Eldorado Eagles capitalized on Sanderson blunders the night of November 1, on Sanderson Field and defeated them by a one-sided 59-18 score in which game Coach Earl Barnett did much seasoning of this year's sophomores against the trials and tribulations of the 1964 season.

Eldorado again was the target of an emotion packed "Dad's Night" which had the Sanderson boys so wound up that they could hardly play respectable ball. They fumbled on three consecutive kick-offs in the first quarter, and their best back Senior John Ed Robbins was ejected from the game for a dangerous and unsportsmanlike act described as follows:

Captain Lynn Meador served as ground crewman for Captain "M" M. McAngus's first try for extra point. When the ball was snapped to Meador, Robbins drove through and dealt Meador a tremendous buffet, this being expressly forbidden by the rules due to the vulnerable position which ground crewmen must assume to hold the ball in kicking the extra point.

Game officials assessed a 15-yard penalty against Robbins who did not repeat the personal foul until three touchdowns later in the second half when he again drove into Captain Meador who again was kneeling to hold the ball for Captain McAngus's toe. This time the officials ejected Robbins. His team collapsed following this flagrant rules violation. Sad commentary is that many Sanderson fans did not understand why Robbins was removed from the game and were overheard remarking that it was unfair for the officials to take him out of the game.

Fortunately Captain Meador, although shaken, was not seriously hurt as he could have been very easily in the two incidents. Schleicher fans were impressed with the competence of the game officials out of an Odessa association. They did not let Eldorado lads get out of hand following the incident although Eagle tempers were getting frayed somewhat.

Game statistics show how completely Eldorado dominated the game:

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Eldorado, Texas

By Dayton Kelley
Mary Hardin-Baylor College
Belton, Texas

We promised to tell our readers about the Confederate States Centennial Conference which met in San Antonio Oct. 25-27 and which we attended as a member of the Texas Civil War Centennial Advisory Committee. The Conference is made up of the Civil War Centennial Commissions of all the old Confederate states and meets twice each year to discuss plans and exchange ideas in commemorative programs during the centennial years.

The San Antonio meeting came at election time and George W. Hill, our friend from Austin who is Executive Director of the Texas Civil War Centennial Commission, was named president of the Conference succeeding Rep. John A. May of South Carolina who presided at most of the meetings we were able to attend.

Other states represented at the meeting were Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, Oklahoma, Florida, and North Carolina.

During the Friday evening banquet four national leaders of Confederate organizations were made honorary Texans by the Conference. They were Mrs. Robert Hamilton Smith of Pennsylvania, president-general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy who spoke at the Friday luncheon; Dr. Frank F. Gross of Illinois, historian-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans; Mrs. Gladys Sladen of Mississippi, past chairman and now honorary chairman of the Confederates States Centennial Conference and a member of the Mississippi House of Representatives; and Col. May, the retiring chairman who was also named honorary chairman.

The meeting was held in the historic Menger hotel in downtown San Antonio and included a Civil War seminar on "Confederate Trade With and Through Mexico During the Civil War." Speakers included Dr. Allan Ashcraft and John Duncan, professors of history at Texas A&M College, James Nichols, professor of history at Stephen F. Austin State College in Nacogdoches; and C. Stanley Banks, a member of the Bexar County Historical Survey Committee.

Members of the Conference were taken on a tour of San Antonio by the San Antonio Conservation Society Saturday morning and then left by bus for Laredo for "a night in Old Mexico."

At the Saturday noon luncheon, former attorney-general John Ben Shepperd, now chairman of the Texas Civil War Centennial Advisory Committee, made one of the finest addresses we've ever heard. His subject was "Texas in the Civil War," but he didn't stick to just that one topic in his speech.

We wish all our readers could have heard his description of the plight of the Civil War buff's wife. If we can obtain it from him, we will pass it along to you.

A few weeks ago, we commented briefly in this space on a soon-to-be released book entitled "Rip Ford's Texas," edited by Stephen B. Oates and published by the University of Texas Press. We had been looking forward to the publication of the diary of Ford, one of Texas finest soldiers, for more than a year—but now after having examined the book from every angle—it was worth the wait. Ford was an important figure in almost every important event which took place from 1836 until 1863, when he retired to write his memoirs. Although he never achieved great fame in any of the areas in which he served Texas except that of soldier, Ford made his mark as a doctor, lawyer, journalist, and politician. We, of course, have been most interested in his contribution as a soldier in the Confederate States Army.

It was Rip Ford who led the Confederate "Cavalry of the West" from San Antonio to Brownsville in 1864 to retake that city from the Federals. It was Rip Ford who commanded the Confederates who soundly whipped the Yanks at Palmito Ranch near Brownsville on May 12 and 13, 1865—more than a month after Appomattox. "Rip Ford's Texas" is all we expected it to be—and more.

Eagle scoring was spectacular. Captain Lynn Meador scored within three minutes of the opening kickoff after Mike McCravy jolted the Sanderson kick-off receiver Bill Adams loose from the ball and David Whitten captured for Eldorado.

Sanderson received again; an unidentified Eagle blasted the ball loose from Sanderson back Haley Haynes; and Jimmy Belk recovered the fumble. Seconds later, Monty Montgomery scampered 10 yards across the Sanderson goal line.

Sanderson received again and the Eagles jarred Sanderson's Oscar Marquez loose from the ball and George Draper carefully gathered it in. Captain McAngus scored this time. He kicked all three extra points and the half ended with Eldorado out front 21-0.

In the second quarter, Captain McAngus crunched his way 59 yards to score again two minutes after Eldorado received. Then Ronnie Williams flicked over for another touchdown; and just for fun Captain McAngus kicked a 25-yard field goal. The Eagles scored 16 points in the second quarter and the half ended with Eldorado leading 37-6, Robbins having scored once for Sanderson before he was removed from the game.

The last half was like the first as Eldorado kept scoring 16 points in the third quarter and 6 in the last as follows:

Captain McAngus set an all time record for Eldorado by kicking his second field goal of the game, two minutes after the opening kickoff.

Then Sam Henderson not only blocked a Sanderson effort to punt but covered the ball in the Sanderson end zone for another touchdown.

Sophomore Fullback Charles Nixon scored just before the end of the third quarter and went on to score again in the fourth.

Richard Preston distinguished himself by capturing a fumble and a blocked punt which Sanderson disaster was engineered by Bobby Halbert.

Sanderson Back John Cates scored twice for Sanderson in the final period, as Eldorado Coach Earl Barnett passed the playing candy to every Eagle reserve on the bench.

It was a cold night, a full moon "Came over the Mountain" just southeast of Sanderson's unusual field in the second quarter. The halftime saw a picturesque and fiery S on the mountainside, part of Sanderson's "Dads' Day" celebration, and Sanderson displayed the largest band in that school's history. The fiery S was created by filling coffee cans with oil and outlining the S on the mountain side with each of the lines of the letter some 125 feet long.

But the Eagle band with its superb marching precision and instrumental steadiness dominated this part of the meeting also.

It will be 1965 before Eldorado goes back to Sanderson.

WANTED BY THE FBI

EDWARD HOWARD MAPS

Edward Howard Maps, "beatnik," firearms expert, college graduate, artist and sculptor, who is charged with brutally slaying his wife and four-month-old daughter, is one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

Firemen attempting to extinguish a blaze in Maps' Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, home on January 21, 1962, found the infant dead of smoke inhalation, and Maps' young wife dying of a fractured skull and cerebral hemorrhage. At least ten fires had been set in the home and the gas oven was turned on.

Maps was missing but allegedly telephoned two neighbors shortly after the crimes were discovered, threatening one with being "next." A Federal warrant charging Maps with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for murder and arson was issued on January 23, 1962, at Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Generally known as an artist and sculptor, he is a nonconformist who shuns ordinary footwear, going barefoot in the summer and wearing sandals without socks during the winter. A sloppy dresser of unkempt and untidy appearance, he was discharged from the Marine Corps as a schizophrenic.

A white American, born on June 29, 1922, at Passaic, New Jersey, Maps is 5' 8" tall, weighs 170 pounds, has a ruddy complexion, broad shoulders, a barrel-chested build and is unusually strong. His eyes are brown, he has bushy, curly graying-black hair and sometimes wears a full beard and mustache.

Consider Maps armed and extremely dangerous. Please immediately notify the nearest FBI office of any information concerning his whereabouts.

Miss Allen Bride Of Bert Bruton

MRS. BERT BRUTON

The First Baptist church in Big Lake was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Allen, and Bertram Lee Bruton of Eldorado. The bridegroom is the son of the late Ray Bruton, and Mrs. Bruton of this county. He is attending San Angelo College and is engaged in farming and ranching.

The bride is a graduate of Reagan County High School and has been employed by the Reagan County attorney. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Allen of Big Lake.

The Rev. Bob Fulmer officiated at the wedding.

Attending the bride during the ceremony was Miss Betsy Bruton of Eldorado, sister of the bridegroom and maid of honor.

Clyde Thackerson of Eldorado was best man, with H. A. Belk Jr. of Eldorado and Jimmy Easley of McCamey as groomsmen. Guests were seated by Ronnie Sauer of Eldorado and Charles Harlow of McCamey.

Escorted by her brother, J. L. Allen Jr., the bride wore a gown designed by her sister, Mrs. Wayne Ables. The floor-length dress of Chantilly lace over peau d'or featured a skirt of pleats which were appliqued with lace and pearls. The bodice was designed with a scooped neckline and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a crown of seed pearls and teardrops. She carried a white satin-covered Bible adorned with a white orchid and miniature chrysanthemum arrangement.

Following a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple are at home at 1810 Johnson Street in San Angelo.

Taxes, Payrolls and Dividends

A world of changes have taken place in this country over a 30-year period.

And one of them has to do with the relationship of the tax collector to a successful business enterprise.

Take, for instance, the typical experience of an oil company.

In 1932 it paid total taxes of $1.6 million. In the same year it paid its employees $13 million in wages and salaries, and its stockholders got $5.2 million in dividends. The tax collector, then, was low man on this totem pole.

Thirty years sped by. And by 1962, employee compensation came to $57 million; stockholders received $20 million; and taxes amounted to $34.5 million.

So, in just 30 years, payroll and dividend payments increased four times—where taxes zoomed 21 times.

This isn't the whole story. If the taxes the company was required by law to withhold from its employees' paychecks, along with payroll taxes, and the estimated income taxes stockholders paid on their dividends (figured at the minimum taxable rate of 20%) are counted, the tax bill reaches the $50 million level. That works out more than three times the stockholders' returns after taxes—and more than the employees received after withholding and payroll deductions.

So—who comes out farthest ahead when an oil company does a good job, pleases an army of customers, and makes money? Answer: the tax collector. And this is true of any other enterprise and industry. —McCamey News.

Too Many Sidelines

Did you know that Uncle Sam has a lot of sidelines?

Well, he has. He runs coffee-roasting plants, rum distilleries, printing and power plants. He manufactures scores of different products including surgical, medical and dental equipment, rope, chain, watches, clocks, paints and fertilizers.

There's more. Uncle Sam is also in the plastic-laminating business and in cement, railroad and wood-preservation enterprises. He even operates movie theaters and ice cream plants.

All in all, according to Senator J. Glenn Beall (R-Md.), Uncle Sam as the front for the federal government, runs some 19,000 commercial and industrial businesses that are indirect competition with private concerns.

The unfairness of this deplorable situation is further compounded, Sen. Beall points out, by the fact that businessmen and industrialists, who operate the same kinds of establishments as the government, must pay taxes to their competitor and that these taxes are poured back into the government-operated businesses which are damaging to the interests of the privately operated enterprises.

Not only is this situation unfair, it is unsound business, and in direct opposition to the free enterprise system which has made us the most productive country in the world, and which, incidentally, foots the bill for the operation of all the government's worthwhile programs as well as unnecessary ones like this. It seems to us to be just another case of the stupid farmer who killed his goose which laid golden eggs.

Uncle Sam has no business in business and the Congress should make it its business to see that he retires—without social security. —Bronte Enterprise.

Government as a Censor
Few people probably know it, but, the U. S. Government has entered the business of collecting and disseminating news in competition with private news agencies.

On the first of August, the Department of Agriculture inaugurated a marketing news service over a national leased wire teletype network. In a protest filed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, "An expansion of this concept would result in a government-controlled news service such as presently exists in some other countries including the Soviet Union, where the so-called news service Tass is government-owned and operated."

To quote Editor & Publisher: "A government, or official, news agency is the last thing we want in this country. It could lead to attempts by other government agencies to enter the same area and this particular endeavor would put the government in the censorship business in an odious form."

If you think these words are too strong, a statement by the Department of Agriculture itself should resolve your doubts. It "reserves the right to cancel at any time the connection of any and all subscribers who abuse the service."

That can mean only one thing—a user of the service is warned to go along with the Department of Agriculture line, whatever it may be, or be prepared for punishment.

This is no small matter. And if government is to disseminate news, what power would be left to prevent government from doctoring and warping news as it sees fit? —Van Horn Advocate.

District Governor To Address Lions Club

L. E. Carothers, governor of District 2A-1 of Lions International, will make his official visit to the local Lions club this coming Wednesday, November 13th. The meeting will be held in the Memorial Building at the regular time, 12:15.

Mr. Carothers, whose home is in Big Spring, will be introduced by the immediate past governor, David "Doc" Ellis of Midland.

At the meeting yesterday, Fred Watson presided and he urged all Lions to try to attend the meeting next week to hear District Governor Carothers.

In the business session yesterday, L. L. (Bill) Watson reported that he would host a group of about a dozen boys from Boys Ranch to hunt on his place for a few days beginning December 7th, and the Lions club voted to arrange transportation for them. The club will appoint a committee to work out details.

Charles Wimer reported on the zone meeting that he and Fred Watson and Bill Rountree attended Tuesday night in Ozona. Twenty-four Lions officers were on hand from Eldorado, Ozona, Sonora, and Big Lake. Eldorado will host the next zone meeting in March.

BUILDING GOING ON:

Workmen were framing up walls on the new Morty Mertz residence in Sunset Acres this week.

Knight-Susen is also about to finish the educational building at the rear of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dannheim and son were among the crowd attending the game at Sanderson last Friday night and spent the night with friends there. On Saturday they continued on west and visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Sauer at Van Horn, and returned home Monday.

Visiting here Monday were Joe and Billie Edens who now live at Marble Falls. With Mrs. Edens were Hobson and Iniz Cloud of Rocksprings.

Mr. and Mrs. Johny Carothers and their one-year-old son, Kenneth Allen, of Abilene, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Black Davis of Junction visited here this week with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Davis.

Fred Watson, Bill Rountree, and Charles Wimer were in Ozona Tuesday night where they attended a Lions' zone meeting, which club officers from a wide area attended.

A flower arrangement demonstration was held after the business meeting.

The Trick-or-Treat campaign that local church young people conducted last week on Halloween night for the Christian Rural Overseas Program, took in about $153. The drive was sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance.

Sidewalk Sale Big Success

What started out to be a fundraising venture turned out to be a fun raising venture when the Home Demonstration clubs staged their open air sale Oct. 30 on the West Texas cafe corner. However, the funds happened to turn out to be as successful as the fun.

When members of five clubs collected all those things, which they had decided that they could live without, plus a lot of baked goods and other foods, no one ever guessed that at the end of the day the little cigar boxes would hold, but they did! $189.50.

Hard work is never too hard when rewarded with success. All those who worked so hard are deeply appreciated by the whole club membership. The funds are to be used for operating expenses of the council; the chief item being the annual trip of three council delegates to the state Home Demonstration women's convention.

Mrs. Truett Stanford, Mrs. H. A. Belk and Mrs. E. L. Dyer were delegates to the San Antonio meeting for the 1963 meeting and each delegate came home with great enthusiasm and true to expectations these women made tremendous contributions to the sale day.

Mrs. Stanford remarked on returning from the San Antonio meeting that if contributing to the 4-H college scholarship fund was the only thing we did as a group that cause alone would be sufficient.

Each county contributes 25 cents per member annually toward the 4-H scholarship fund. Since Schleicher county has about 85 or more members that takes over $20, which may not seem much either to make or to give, but it does add up.

The most fun, for the spectators at least, happened when Billy Frank Blaylock spotted his mother's purse, put a 50c tag on it and then hid it. While Alpha was getting her spice cake and other goodies unpacked and ready to sell she didn't think about her purse. But she did soon. And her quiet hunt started. Finally she found it, tucked under some other sale goods and since it was tagged she knew that somebody had bought it for a half dollar.

The joke was too good to keep and somebody told Alpha about the plot against her—she was relieved to find the purse and I honestly believe that had Billy Frank been some years younger he could have been in for trouble.

The next sale we will stage will be home made peanut brittle sometime about Dec. 16 or 17. Call 22592 for your reserved purchases. Our peanut brittle is thin, almost transparent, and as full of peanuts as we can make it. Those who had a taste of what was made for the sale last week can tell you how good it is.

More about the brittle. I use these making sessions as teaching opportunities. We work in the Corral of the Memorial Building and invite ANY BODY who wants a free lesson to come and take part. Even though the finished candy is sold all those who help with the making have uncounted tasting privileges.

Again, call 22592 and ask that your name be added to the list of "Brittle work shop." We will call you as to the exact hour and date.

Non-club members—you have a special invitation.

"For Your Health's Sake"

Austin.—Some 60,000 Texans soon will be getting invitations to dine with the President—for $100 a plate—at Austin's Municipal Auditorium.

Presidential aides now are in Austin making arrangements with top Texas Democrats for a November 22 "Texas Welcome Dinner" for Pres. John F. Kennedy and Vice Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Speakers list so far has been limited to the President, the Vice President and Gov. John Connally.

To assure a capacity crowd, local party officials are being called on to help. Quotas are being assigned to districts over the state. Funds raised are to be divided between the National and State Democratic organizations.

Most of Texas' 21 congressmen are expected to attend the dinner and all members of the Legislature will be invited. Early announcements indicate Sen. Ralph Yarborough will be with the Presidential party.

President Kennedy is due to arrive in Houston on November 21, where he will attend an appreciation dinner for Congressman Albert Thomas. Cities all over the state are bidding for the rest of his time.

Draft Goldwater Campaign

Meanwhile, Republicans are not standing still on the eve of an election year.

State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell of Dallas came to Austin to announce the heads of the Texas drive to draft U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is a presidential candidate—and to map plans for other races.

State Rep. Dick Morgan of Dallas and Mrs. J. C. Mann Jr., a Wichita Falls housewife, were designated co-chairmen of the campaign.

O'Donnell said 2,462 elective offices in Texas "will be up for grabs" next year and Republicans intend to reap a fair share.

He said the Republican timetable calls for a Draft-Goldwater chairman in each congressional district by December 1. County chairmen will be appointed by January 1 and precinct chairmen by January 15.

Many of the local draft movements will tie in with GOP county executive committees and with election campaigns for precinct, city, county and state, as well as national, elections for public office.

November 9 Election

Coke R. Stevenson, Jr., administrator of the State Liquor Control Board, announced that Saturday's special election will not be a "dry day."

Stevenson said, "All types of alcoholic beverages may be sold during legal hours of sale on that date in wet areas."

Legislative Redistricting

Pre-trial hearings will be held Friday on a suit to declare current state legislative districting laws unconstitutional.

State Sens. Don Kennard of Fort Worth and Franklin Spears of San Antonio; Reps. Bob Eckhardt of Houston and Jake Johnson of San Antonio; and Harris County Democratic chairman Bill Kilgarlin filed the suit. They are objecting to the law which limits a county to no more than one senator and restricts a county with more than 700,000 persons to one additional state representative per 100,000 population.

Several state elected officials who represent small-population districts are intervening in the suit.

Insurance Problems

Texas employers are paying more for workmen's compensation insurance and injured workers are enjoying less benefits, Texas Manufacturers Association charged.

State AFL-CIO, an unusual TMA ally, suggested a statewide conference on the issue.

State Board of Insurance Chairman Hunter McLean challenged a section of TMA's report. Roy A. Langston, president of the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies, said rates may have gone up 40% in the last 10 years but still are 22% lower than they were in 1939.

Insurance Cost Cut

A $3 million reduction in Workmen's Compensation insurance costs to employers, beginning December 1, has been announced by the State Board of Insurance.

Average cut will be 2.2%. Industry wise it is as follows: Manufacturing 3.7%; contracting 0.5%; oil 2.4%; and all other industries 2.4.

Board said this is the first overall reduction in Workmen's Compensation insurance premiums in the past five years.

Credit Insurance Rates

State Board of Insurance set new rates, rules and regulations for credit insurance to become effective November 21.

A rate of 70 cents per $100 a year was assigned group life coverage of the type used in 75% of insured indebtedness. Board called it one of the lowest yet adopted. Maximum individual life policy rates were set up at 80 cents per $100 on loans exceeding $700 and 90 cents on those up to $700. Health and accident coverage rates compare closely with those under the model bill in other states, the board maintained.

Slant Hole Penalties

An Austin jury fined four East Texas oil operators with $304,800 in penalties in the first slant-hole oil suit tried before State Court jurors.

H. M. Harrington Jr., Charles Lutes, Reid Allgood, and J. W. Baton, all of Gregg county, were directed to pay the penalties to the state.

A total of 77 civil penalty suits seeking $22 million filed by the Attorney General following slant-drilling scandals, remains on the docket.

Jury found the four Gregg county oilmen operated a well which bottomed under a neighboring lease for 10 years.

Banks Turned Down

State Banking Board found "no public need" for proposed Merchants State Bank at Houston and Lone Star State Bank at Lone Star.

Board postponed action on an application for charter of Industrial Bank and Trust at Lubbock.

Oil Price Cut Probe

Reps. George Cook of Odessa and Maurice Doke of Wichita Falls have announced hearings by the House Interim Study Committee on oil and gas matters.

They scheduled a committee meeting with the Railroad Commission for Friday to get directions and guidelines for the crude price probe.

Hearings to be held soon in Wichita Falls and Abilene will concern North and West Texas cuts.

Representatives of companies which instigated cuts will be invited to testify, Cook said. If they refuse, the committee will use its subpoena powers.

"I want the people of Texas to know that the members of the Texas legislature are not standing idly by while certain isolated companies are allowed to make a shambles of its most important industry," Cook said. Hearings will result in "recommendations for immediate action."

Doke said cuts, which have ranged from 10 to 48 cents per barrel, would cost the state half a million dollars in tax money and damage the state's economy to the unhappy tune of $9 million a year. "Cuts came," charged Doke, "while major importing companies are running up record profits and independent producers of Texas are being 'bankrupted.'"

Farm-Road Improvements

State Highway Commission approved one of the most extensive farm-to-market construction and improvement programs in many years.

It okayed an $18,144,500 program to protect state investment in 3,056 miles of F.M. roads.

About 67% of the money will go for reconstruction and reconditioning of existing roads and upgrading the safety factors. Work is proposed on more than 500 projects, covering in excess of a thousand miles of F. M. highways.

The Courts Speak

Texas' new small loan control law successfully weathered its first court test. Supreme Court denied three loan firms permission to attack constitutionality of a section requiring at least 51% of a company stock be owned by Texans.

Loan Commissioner Frank Miskell had refused them state licenses because of that restriction.

High court also set for November 20 a "gentlemen's agreement" action to test eligibility of special 93rd District Judge J. H. Starley of Pecos to preside over the trial of a complex law suit which will litigate Rio Grande water rights below Falcon Dam. Action is of vast importance to the economy of Starr, Hidalgo, Cameron and Wilbacy counties.

Attorneys for Billie Sol Estes told the Court of Criminal Appeals too much newspaper and TV publicity kept him from getting a fair trial on swindling charges at Tyler last November. They asked a reversal of the eight-year sentence.

Upholds Farmer's Right

State Supreme Court upheld the right of a San Patricio county farmer, Walter Leber, to stop the flow of water through a drainage ditch on his land with a caliche block.

Leber's neighbors secured a district court injunction ordering him to remove the block and forbidding him from doing anything to stop the "natural flow" of water through the ditch. But the Supreme Court held that the waters reached his ditch through man-made routes, and said he was entitled to "self-help" to prevent damage to his land.

New Look In Nursing

About 4,000 students in Texas are working to add "R.N." (Registered Nurse) to their names. Many are following via revised routes free of some of the old-fashioned restrictions that used to cause a high rate of drop outs.

Miss Bernice V. Johnson, secretary treasurer of the State Board of Nurse Examiners, says many are studying under the so-called "Plan Two" system, which allows a nurse hopeful to take 36 weeks of academic work in the college of her choice, before assuming the added duties of a hospital trainee.

Debbie Is 11

Honoring her daughter, Debbie, on her 11th birthday, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson gave a party Halloween night in the Corral in the Memorial Building.

Punch and birthday cake was served to about 20 guests, and balloons were given as favors.

All guests came in costume, and afterwards they went trick or treating.

Carlman Completes Pre-Flight Schooling

Pensacola, Fla. (FHTNC)—Naval Aviation Cadet Jerry L. Carlman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt L. Carlman of Eldorado, Tex., was graduated Oct. 4 from the U. S. Naval School of Pre-Flight at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. This marks the successful completion of the first step in earning his "Wings of Gold" and a commission in the military service. Cadet Carlman, who entered the service in May 1963, attended North Texas State University at Denton, Texas.

Daughter Born To Mr. & Mrs. Bill Hawkins

Tina Marie is the name given to the 7 lb. 7 oz. daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hawkins of San Angelo, on November 2. Grandparents are J. J. Hawkins of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brooks of Tennyson.

David Steen Studying In Mexico City

Mexico City, October 31, 1963 — (Special to the Eldorado Success.) Taking full advantage of the combined benefits of studying abroad plus the opportunity to master a foreign language, David Steen, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Steen of 702 Highland Avenue, is attending this fall the University of the Americas (formerly Mexico City College) in this ancient Aztec capital.

Now the second largest metropolis in the hemisphere, this former seat of the Aztec empire is renowned as a leading, modern and cosmopolitan culture center, rich in archaeological and historical sites.

Steen is the unofficial goodwill envoy from Eldorado now attending UA along with representatives of more than 20 nations who lend the university's campus an international atmosphere that few institutions of higher learning can equal.

His close association with the local and foreign students gives him an insight into the foreigner's concept of the United States, its people, customs and government as well as the Latin American way of life.

Steen is a graduate of Eldorado High School and has also attended Texas Tech in Lubbock and Texas Christian University in Ft. Worth where he received his B. A. degree this year. He is an economics major at UA.

Since UA is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, credits earned here by Steen are transferable to U. S. colleges. The university offers both B.A. and M.A. degrees. For numerous years, statistics gathered by the Institute of International Education have placed UA at the top of the list of foreign colleges attended by American students with the Sorbonne running second.

All classes are taught in English and Steen's instructors include renowned American, Latin American and European educators who give UA students a broader and more cosmopolitan training and world-mindedness.

Dr. D. Ray Lindley, who resigned from the presidency of Texas Christian University of Ft. Worth to head US says:

"Today's struggle is a race for trained minds. In an age of declining muscle power, there is an increasing premium on brain power. Because of its strategic location, the University of the Americas has a distinctive and unique role to play in the area of intercultural and international education. Nothing is more important to the free world than respect and understanding at the highest level among all the peoples of the Americas. It is at this point that the University of the Americas has an indispensable contribution to make."

BACK FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nixon and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hinton, of Hobbs, New Mexico, went on vacation last week to Henry, Tenn., to visit the Nixons' other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Franklin, Jr. On their way they visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Redford and Robert's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. "Don" Henderson of Fort Worth. While there Robert celebrated his 67th birthday with a birthday dinner cooked by Mrs. Henderson. His granddaughters, Mrs. R. S. Runge of Mineral Wells, and Judy and Linda Nixon of NTSU at Denton, drove over and helped him celebrate. After leaving Fort Worth they went by way of Texarkana, Little Rock, Memphis and on to Paris, Tennessee.

The trip was enjoyable, but the autumn leaves were not beautiful with colors yet this year, due to the really dry weather. They spent one day in Paris, Tenn., sightseeing. They saw Kentucky Lake and enjoyed gathering hazelnuts, black walnuts and wild persimmons.

On their return trip they came by way of Memphis, Pine Bluff, Texarkana, Tyler, Hillsboro, and Lake Whitney.

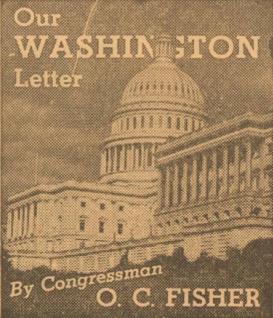

While Mr. and Mrs. Nixon were away Robert's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lang of San Antonio, took care of the ranch.

Our WASHINGTON Letter
By Congressman O. C. FISHER

A coalition of northern liberal Democrats and Republicans on the House Judiciary Committee last week rescued, at least temporarily, Bobby Kennedy's Civil Rights bill and sent it to the Rules Committee. There clearance must be had before it can be considered in the House.

The bill is not due to breeze through the Rules Committee despite the majority on that committee who are rated pro-Kennedy by virtue of the committee packing that succeeded at the beginning of the session this year. One of the new members who was added to the committee under the packing arrangement was Carl Elliott of Alabama, a new Frontiersman on about everything except Civil Rights. And the committee has a member from Arkansas, also a New Frontier mainstay, who has a problem in his district on issues such as this.

So if the Rules Committee clears the bill for House action it may be only done by a coalition there of northern liberals on that committee with the committee's Republicans. Politics make strange bedfellows!

Mis-labeling of mohair content in apparel products being sold in retail stores is now under scrutiny by the Federal Trade Commission and the Commissioner of Customs. Last week a mis-labeling racket was exposed when I revealed that 14 sweaters were purchased at random at leading stores in New York, then tested and found to contain only a fraction of the mohair which their labels indicated.

These sweaters were among one million imported from Italy, then put on the market with the false labels of the amount of mohair each contained. This practice downgrades mohair because purchasers who become dissatisfied with the garment would naturally blame the complaint on the failure of the mohair in the purchase to uphold its traditional quality, and would do serious harm to the reputation mohair has acquired.

The retail stores that sell these sweaters have indicated surprise and a willingness to remedy the mistake. In the meantime, The Federal Trade Commission is expected to order additional tests and then take appropriate steps to clamp down on this type of fraud and deception.
