'Normal' Again After Rains In Month Of May

Rainfall in Snyder during May totaled 3.55 inches, the highest for May since 1950, when the figure was more than double with 7.37 inches.

This year's May figure altered the average since 1911 from 3.16 inches to 3.23 inches for May. The month's figure was .39 of an inch above the old average for May and .07 above the new average set by it.

In 1953, the May total was .66; it was .160 in 1952 and 1.42 in 1951. The total to date this year is 6.91 inches, only .53 of an inch below the average total for the first five months of the last 43 years.

May rains this year were 2.65 inches the ninth through the 11th, .60 the 17th and 18th, .20 the 21st, .07 the 24th, and .03 the 25th.

Other rain totals this year were .30 in January, .03 in February, .10 in March, and 2.93 in April. The 42-year average for June is 2.28 inches, and the annual average is 20.58.

A portrait of Saint Pius X offers a striking parallel to the balcony scene above as Pope Pius XII blesses throngs assembled in front of St. Peter's Basilica for the closing rites of the two-day canonization ceremonies. The present head of the Roman Catholic Church added his predecessor's name to the roll of Saints in a majestic ceremony. The Pontifical Mass in honor of the former Pope Pius X topped off the rites.

New Orders Are Given To Molotov

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov returned to the Far Eastern conference today after a sudden, two-day trip back to Moscow for consultations.

Western observers assumed he had gone back to report to Soviet Premier Georgi M. Malenkov and his associates on the talks thus far, and to discuss the strategy the Soviets will pursue in the future negotiations on Indochina.

These sources believe the Communists now are debating whether to try to prolong the negotiations for an Indochina armistice in order to produce a replica of the two-year-long Korean military talks at Panmunjom, or whether to seek a halt as soon as possible to the fighting.

Aside from Molotov's return, the chief event anticipated at the conference today was a meeting of French and Vietminh representatives called to arrange for the opening of military discussions on armistice terms later this week.

The nine-party conference on Indochina was in recess for a day after getting snarled yesterday over Communists proposals for a "neutral" commission to police any truce that may be achieved. The conference debate was scheduled to resume tomorrow at another secret session.

The delegates used the recess today for private conference with their allies.

The French-Vietminh meeting today was called to work out preliminary details of negotiations expected to begin Thursday — on the question of zones in which the rival forces would assemble if and when a cease-fire is effected.

In the subsequent talks Col. Jules Fleurant is to represent France and Ta Uang Buu, Vietminh vice minister of defense, will attend for the Reds.

New difficulties over the cease-fire question arose yesterday when the full Indochina conference came to grips for the first time with the problem of policing an armistice.

The Communists proposed establishment of a Korea-type police body—part Communist, the rest non-Red — for Indochina. The Soviet Union nominated Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia, along with India and Pakistan. The West quickly objected, charging that the Korean Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission had failed to work because of vetoes by its Communist members.

Debate will be resumed tomorrow when another secret session is scheduled. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov is expected back from his Moscow talk by then.

The conference planned to continue discussion also on other issues, including proposals for exchange of prisoners and prohibition of reinforcements from outside.

The proposal for a four-nation supervisory commission was advanced yesterday by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Objecting to the Red proposal, U.S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedel Smith cited repeated deadlocks on the Korean supervisory commission.

GUATEMALA REDS JUMPY OVER POSSIBLE UPRISING

GUATEMALA (AP) —Guatemala's leftist government kept a close watch on Latin-American embassies today for fugitives from a roundup of underground opposition leaders.

Local newspapers said widespread police searches so far had uncovered nothing to support the government's charges Sunday that plans were under way for an uprising and arms had been assembled secretly.

One diplomatic source viewed this as evidence that anti-government forces had "well-organized intelligence" forces, enabling them to learn "an hour or two before the raids that they are coming so they can escape or seek refuge."

Five leading opponents of President Jacob Arbenz's regime already have found asylum in the embassies of El Salvador and Ecuador in accordance with the Latin-American political tradition that sanctuary must be given to political fugitives.

Reliable reports said the government was maintaining a guard on these and other embassies to prevent other fugitives escaping to them.

Guatemalans have been jittery since the United States began blasting their government for receiving a large shipment of arms from Communist Poland two weeks ago.

The newspaper El Espectador said "recruiters" for Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, a leading opponent of Arbenz now living in neighboring Honduras, had been discovered near the Honduran border. Without giving any source for its report, the paper said the government had found evidence of a "vast conspiracy" to build up a rebel army.

In Tegucigalpa, capital of neighboring Honduras, a 45-year-old man identifying himself as a Guatemalan named Rafael Mendez Rodriguez summoned correspondents to a news conference yesterday and said Guatemala's present secret police chief had sent him to kill Col. Castillo.

Mendez said he told Catillo of the plot the day after he arrived in El Salvador, in March.

Little Girl's Already Mad At Martians

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—If the Martians won't come to the 9-year-old Linda Sue Russell, she's going to build a space ship and go to them.

Last week little Linda Sue, a pert, impressionable youngster, wrote a letter to the Martians telling them to come to her house Sunday night.

"What business I am writing about is to stop the earth people from fighting," Linda Sue wrote. "all they have is war, war, war and I'm getting tired of it, so be here."

Linda Sue even enclosed a hand-drawn map telling the Martians to land their space ship at a nearby playground. She said she would leave her window open and promised "I will never tell anybody about you."

But the Martians didn't show.

"I felt sort of mad because they didn't come," Linda Sue said. "When I grow up and become a scientist, I'm going to build a spaceship and go and see them.

"As soon as I'm 12 I can start studying for it."

What Linda Sue wanted to tell the Martians was to "scare the people on earth."

"That's what I want them to do," she said, "because there's too much war. If the people on earth are scared by maybe the Martians making the ground shake, they'll stop fighting because maybe then the Martians will break up the earth and we'll have to talk peace with the Martians."

Mrs. Arthur Russell, Linda Sue's mother, says her daughter is quite serious in her plans to see the Martians.

"She was so displeased when they didn't come," Mrs. Russell said, "that she decided what she had to do was to go and see them. She's sure she can build a space ship after she's a scientist."

Rumors About Jailing Today

Many rumors were being fanned throughout Snyder today to the effect that the state supreme court had issued an order for the jailing of C. F. (Frank) Sentell of Snyder to complete a term assessed for contempt of court.

A check with the clerk of the supreme court this morning proved, however, that no order had yet been sent.

Sentell recently stated he had decided against carrying his appeal in the matter to the federal supreme court, a previous decision on which the state court granted him a temporary stay in which to perfect the contemplated appeal.

Sentell has approximately half of a three-day sentence to finish, having been released on a temporary writ of habeas corpus which the state supreme court has twice ruled against making permanent.

Candidate Is Coming Here

By The Associated Press

The race for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor of Texas had the top spot in political activity Tuesday, at least briefly.

Lieut. Gov. Ben Ramsey announced in Austin that State Senator Crawford Martin of Hillsboro would be his campaign manager for re-election.

Ramsey said Monday he would open state headquarters at Austin's Driskill Hotel, probably next week. Martin was in North Carolina attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Meanwhile, C. T. Johnson, who is running against Ramsey said Texas needs "new men" in office to strengthen insurance laws for the protection of policy holders.

Johnson was to carry his campaign to San Angelo Tuesday morning and be at Big Spring at 2 p.m., at Midland at 4 p.m., and at Odessa Tuesday night at 8 p.m.

"It's interesting to see," Johnson said in Austin yesterday, "those who have been in a position for years and years to clean up the insurance mess suddenly get stirred up about it."

Wednesday, Johnson plans to be in Lamesa, Snyder, Lubbock, and Amarillo. Pampa, Childress, Vernon and Abilene are on his Thursday schedule. And he plans to be at Wichita Falls, Breckenridge, Mineral Wells and Cisco Friday and Saturday.

Big Gift To Hardin-Simmons University

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—A New Mexico couple is giving $100,000 worth of oil payments to Hardin-Simmons University.

The donors are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Linam of Hobbs. Their gift was announced today to the board of trustees by Dr. Allard Reiff, H-SU president.

Payments will come from properties held by Linam, oilman and rancher, in southwest Lea County, New Mexico.

Front Stalled Below Lubbock

By The Associated Press

A June norther swept across northern reaches of Texas Monday night and Tuesday was stalled on a line running from Texarkana, to south of Dallas, north of Abilene, and south of Lubbock.

The out-of-season cold snap dropped temperatures and brought heavy rain to Greenville and other Hunt County points of Northeast Texas Monday night. Wolfe City had a hard rain and Celeste had light hail.

Some trees were toppled in Greenville and moderately heavy winds accompanied the front into the blackland cotton area.

While Greenville and environs were getting rain, dust was blowing at Amarillo, Dalhart, Childress, Wichita Falls and Lubbock.

But the weather calmed down as the front stalled in North Texas and the only things marring an otherwise perfect day, weatherwise, were a few clouds.

They were at Junction, Laredo, San Antonio, Lufkin and College Station about dawn, but Weather Bureau men said the hot June sun probably would disperse them during the day.

Temperatures ranged from a cool 52 at Amarillo—back of the front—to a comfortable, summery 77 at Galveston, Texas island resort city.

Partly cloudy skies for Tuesday with widely scattered afternoon thundershowers back for Wednesday were in Weather Bureau forecasts.

North Scurry Pennsylvanian Wildcat Slated

Progress Petroleum Co. of Texas has spotted location for a Pennsylvanian reef wildcat in north Scurry County, 15 miles north of Snyder.

It is the No. 1 J. G. Whatley, located 467 feet from south and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 504-97-H&TC. Drilling will start at once.

TO RE-ENTER

Olsen Oil Co. of Jal, N. M., has filed application with the Railroad Commission to plug back for a Canyon sand completion at a depleted Strawn sand producer in the Hermleigh field of East Scurry County.

The depleted well is the No. 1 Feldman, 660 feet from north and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 63-3-H&GN, 10 miles east of Snyder. Completion attempts will be made through perforation at 5,843-873 feet.

ELLENBURGER DRY

Ellenburger has proven to be barren of commercial production at Fort Bend Oil Co. No. 1 Wade Davis, central Scurry County wildcat, one and one-half miles east of Snyder. Operator is to plug back and test three zones in the Pennsylvanian which had slight shows of oil and gas in drillstem tests.

Ellenburger was tested in open hole at 7,798-882, both before and after treating with acid. A small amount of new oil was developed but it was exhausted after a short period of swabbing. Operator then deepened to 8,002 and ran a 45-minute drillstem test at 7,962-8,002 feet. Recovery was 180 feet of sulphur water, with no shows of oil or gas. Five and one-half inch casing was cemented at 7,798. The upper shows were at 7,004-064, 7,372-387 and 7,650-665 feet. Those intervals will be tested through perforations in the casing.

DRILLING REPORT

Lario No. 4 Arnett, Scurry field try, is now drilling 600 feet in red beds.

In Borden County, Trans-Tex and others No. 1 McKee is drilling 5,943 feet in lime and shale.

Honolulu No. 1 Newman, Kent tester, drilled to total depth of 7,848 in granite, has drilled out to 6,100 and perforated casing at 6,052-056 and 6,059-070 feet. It is

GOP Farm Policy At Stake In Vote

By The Associated Press

A farm issue test in South Dakota, with Democrats striving to run up a big protest vote against Republican agricultural policies, provided the chief national interest of primary elections in three states today.

The other states involved in the voting were Nevada, featuring a five-man race for the Democratic nomination for governor, and Alabama where former Gov. James Folsom's victory in the first primary took most of the luster out of a Democratic runoff.

The only statewide Democratic contest in South Dakota was between E. F. McKellips, Alcester banker, and Ed. C. Martin, Chandler rancher, for the gubernatorial nomination.

Both of them have accused the GOP, in a wheat state where farm price supports are a hot issue, of backing "unsatisfactory farm legislation." Democratic leaders have backed the 90 per cent of parity price supports on major crops which the Eisenhower administration wants to replace with flexible price props.

McKellips was favored, in a race which the Democrats hoped would bring out some 35,000 voters, about 15,000 more than two years ago.

The Republicans, with a three-way contest for governor, looked for about 100,000 votes, some 15,000 below the count of the fierce 1950 primary when the choice between Dwight D. Eisenhower and the late Sen. Robert Taft for president got into the state voting.

Joe Foss, Sioux Falls auto dealer and Medal of Honor winner for shooting down 26 enemy planes in World War II, was given an edge in the GOP contest against Lt. Gov. Rex Terry and Harold O. Lund, Brookings attorney.

A five-man race for the Democratic nomination for governor was the headline event in Nevada. The winner will try to unseat Gov. Charles Russell, unopposed on the Republican side.

Backers of Archie Grant, Las Vegas auto dealer, have put out word that he is acceptable to veteran Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev).

Former Rep. Walter Baring, who barely lost to Rep. Clifton Young in the general election two years ago, was opposed by Eugenia Clair Smith, Reno businesswoman, for the Democratic nomination for Nevada's one seat in the House of Representatives. Young was unopposed on the GOP side.

In Alabama, the voters' job was to choose among Democratic candidates who failed to get an actual majority over the field in primaries four weeks ago. The Democratic nomination in Alabama amounts to election.

Folsom was already in without a runoff but he still was a figure in the second round, having endorsed a slate of candidates for state office.

UN To Look At Asia Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations announced today the Security Council will meet at 10:30 a.m. (EDT) Thursday to take up Thailand's appeal to send U.N. observers to check on the war crisis in Southeast Asia.

The meeting was arranged after consultations between Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U.S. delegate who is president of The Security Council for June, and other delegates on the 11-nation council.

It was requested Saturday by Thanat Khoman, Thai delegate to the U.N. so said large-scale fighting has taken place in the immediate vicinity of Thailand and his government feels there is a possibility of an invasion by foreign troops. Some of the fighting in Indochina has been near the border of Thailand.

Nation's Death Toll Over Holiday Nears 350

By The Associated Press

The death toll on the nation's highways neared 350 before the long Memorial Day weekend closed Monday at midnight, with 19 of the dead in Texas.

The total surpassed the estimate made by the National Safety Council which had made a pre-holiday prediction of 340 traffic deaths.

In Texas, the violent deaths totaled 33, including the 19 on streets and highways.

French Hasten Defense Plans

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — The French speeded defense plans in the Choben Valley today as speculation spread that four Vietminh divisions knifing toward the Red River delta from Dien Bien Phu planned to hit that sector first.

For the past week the French have been mopping up shadow patrols infiltrating into the area 40 miles southwest of Hanoi. Some French sources estimated the enemy's main striking force could reach the valley on the Black River in about four weeks.

French Army sources in Saigon said a fifth rebel division which took part in the Dien Bien Phu capture —the 351st Artillery— already has reached its base 45 miles northwest of Hanoi.

The other four divisions—304, 312, 308 and 316—are moving along a mountain route which the French are bombing daily with American-supplied B26s, Bearcats and Corsair fighter planes.

High Of 95 Monday

The temperature reached 95 degrees yesterday and had climbed to 70 by 7:30 o'clock this morning, according to Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer. Low last night was 67.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday, with widely scattered thundershowers late Wednesday. Slightly warmer north portion Wednesday.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday. Widely scattered thunderstorms Panhandle, South Plains and east of Pecos Valley late Wednesday. Slightly warmer Panhandle and South Plains this afternoon and tonight.

EAST and SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers. No important temperature changes. Moderate southeast and south winds on the coast.

House Due To Pass Increase In Scope Of Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP) —Legislation to add an estimated 10 million persons to the social security rolls and to boost benefits and taxes comes before the House today for debate and almost certain passage.

Drafted by the House Ways and Means Committee and embodying in large part recommendations by President Eisenhower, it was docketed under "take it or leave it" procedure. It cannot be amended on the floor.

The legislation has little if any opposition. The Senate has not acted.

Besides extending social security coverage to large new groups, the legislation would provide for increased benefit payments, larger annual contributions by employers and employes, and a more liberal income test for people already receiving payments under the 17½-year-old program.

A major provision would boost from $3,600 to $4,200 the maximum annual wage on which both benefits and taxes are based. At the present rate of 2 per cent — for both workers and employers—this means an additional payment of $12 annually into the social security fund by each covered worker making $4,200 or more and by his employer.

The new benefit structure would boost monthly payments now being made to an estimated six million persons by a minimum of $5. The new monthly minimum would rise from $25 to $30.

Maximum monthly benefits for a retired worker would be hiked from $85 to $98.50.

Those increases, affecting persons already receiving benefits, would become operative two months after the bill becomes law.

Most of the other changes would become effective next Jan. 1.

For covered workers not yet retired, the maximum monthly benefit would go up to $108.50. It now is $85. The top for a retired worker and his wife, if she is over 65, would jump from $127.50 to $162.75. The maximum payable to any one family would be raised from the present $168.75 monthly to $200.

Persons already retired but having small earnings from part-time work would get a break. Existing law cuts them off from benefits for any month in which they earn more than $75 in covered employment. The proposed new law would let them earn at least $1,000 a year from covered or uncovered employment. Above that, they would lose one month's benefits for each month in which they earned more than $80.

As under present law, retired persons who are 75 years old or older are not affected. They may draw benefits regardless of how much they earn.

Large new groups made eligible for social security coverage for the first time include farm owners and workers, many state and municipal employes, professional workers and clergymen.

McCarthy Refuses To Allow Panel To See Schine Papers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy refused to turn over to the McCarthy-Army hearings committee today the complete files on which Pvt. G. David Schine had worked. He said he would not because they contain the names of confidential informants.

Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel for the McCarthy Investigating subcommittee, had delivered the files a few moments earlier in a big cardboard box to special hearings counsel Ray H. Jenkins.

The hearings committee had asked for documentary evidence of work performed by Schine for the subcommittee while on special passes from Army training.

McCarthy spoke up to say he could not permit the hearings committee to take custody of the files since they contain the names of informants.

McCarthy insisted that he—not Cohn—had custody of the papers. McCarthy is chairman of the regular investigating subcommittee and Cohn is his chief counsel.

McCarthy said he would be glad to give the hearings subcommittee the requested papers, but only after he had time to go through them and make sure the names of confidential informants had been deleted.

Chairman Mundt (R-SD) said the McCarthy subcommittee had the long Memorial Day weekend to get the papers ready and he would be "very disappointed" if they could not be made available today.

Cohn said he, like McCarthy, regarded the names of confidential informants as a "sacred trust" and was willing to turn the papers over to the hearings subcommittee only on the understanding that these sources would be protected.

Earlier Cohn denied he ever threatened to "wreck the Army" and bring about the dismissal of Secretary of Army Stevens if Schine was sent overseas.

"Ridiculous and untrue," Cohn said of the [illegible] testimony by Army Counselor John G. Adams.

Cohn, 27-year-old chief counsel to the McCarthy subcommittee, denied too that he ever asked that Schine be assigned to the New York area—disputing testimony of both Adams and Stevens.

In the course of a hammering cross - examination from special counsel Ray H. Jenkins, Cohn disclosed he had referred the name of Schine's regimantal commander at Ft. Dix to the McCarthy staff for investigation.

He swore this action as to Lt. Col. Earl L. Ringler was not related, however, to any concern over Schine's treatment at Dix.

He said he took the action because he had been told Ringler was not in sympathy with the McCarthy subcommittee's work and had referred to it as "a witch hunt" and a "red herring."

Cohn's order for a check on Ringler was brought out during questioning of the McCarthy aide about an assertion from an Army witness that Cohn once said Ringler and Capt. Joseph Miller had been uncooperative where Schine was concerned. [illegible] (Cohn) would not forget their names.

That testimony came from Lt. John Bruce Blount who said Cohn made the statement in objecting to a Sunday kitchen police assignment for Schine.

A little later Jenkins recalled testimony from Adams as to Cohn's reaction when informed Schine might be sent overseas.

Adams said Cohn threatened to wreck the Army and declared Stevens would be "through as secretary of the Army."

"I'm sure I did not make that statement," Cohn testified under oath, as had Adams.

Both statements attributed to him, Cohn said, are "ridiculous and untrue."

Cohn said that some of the documents in his cardboard box contain the names of informants.

Chairman Mundt (R-SD) said that the names will have to be screened out before the documents can go into the record.

Mundt said the subcommittee itself will decide what documents shall be put into the record.

Jenkins recalled to Cohn that Adams had testified that from Nov. 18 to Dec. 8 Cohn repeatedly exerted pressure to get Schine, who had been drafted Nov. 3 assigned to the New York area.

DUVAL COURT FIGHT ON GRAND JURY DEVELOP

SAN DIEGO, Tex. (AP)—The two political parties in Duval County —the pro-George Parrs and the anti-George Parrs—squared off in the courthouse again today.

Acting for the Old Party aligned with Parr, M. J. Raymond of Laredo filed a motion to prevent empaneling a new grand jury.

It was filed in district court here and was similar to one filed in federal court in Houston yesterday.

It charged discrimination against members or adherents of the Old Party and in favor of members of the Freedom Party, which was organized with the express purpose of breaking Parr's political power.

State Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd was in San Diego in the courtroom when Raymond filed the motion.

Shepperd said he understood also that a motion had been filed to disqualify acting District Judge A. S. Broadfoot, who dismissed the previous grand jury.

Judge Broadfoot presided today. He called the list of 16 men summoned for the new grand jury, and 15 men answered. The 16th was out of the county.

After Raymond filed the motion to prevent empaneling of the new jury, Judge Broadfoot recessed court until 1 p.m. "so that the lawyers can get together on the law in this matter."

Shepperd called the motion "another desperate attempt to delay and confuse and to keep a fair and impartial jury from being empaneled....It is just another attempt to preserve their bucket of whitewash."

Raymond's motion claimed that the jury commission chosen last Feb. 25 by the then district judge, C. Woodrow Laughlin, was the rightful one. Laughlin was ousted by order of the state Supreme Court and Broadfoot appointed.

The motion charged "a preconceived plan and scheme was devised and entered into between the state attorney general, his assistant and the present district judge" to discharge the old jury commission.

In Houston yesterday Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly permitted the members of the old party to file a petition seeking a court hearing on the dispute but refused to order a delay in empaneling the new Duval County grand jury.

Members of a Duval County grand jury which Broadfoot discharged March 31 asked Kennerly yesterday to delay empaneling of a new jury until the dispute could be heard in federal court.

After permitting the 16 plaintiffs to file their petition, Judge Kennerly gave both sides until June 12 to file briefs on the question of jurisdiction.

Defendants named in the petition are the 16 grand jury veniremen who were to appear before Broadfoot today. All have been identified with the Freedom Party, organized to oppose Parr.

The petition specifically asks an order that would prevent Broadfoot from selecting the jury from among the 16 Freedom Party members. It also asks that Broadfoot be ordered to "desist and refrain from failing" to pick the 12 jurors from among the 16 defendants or Old Party (Parr) members.

McCarthy Takes Stand He Is Only Person To Protect U. S.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Who's in charge around here?

Sen. McCarthy didn't ask the question. But he raised it by challenging President Eisenhower's authority to run the executive branch of the government as he thinks best.

McCarthy urged all federal employes—in spite of any Eisenhower order not to give out classified information—to turn over to him any information they might have on graft, corruption, communism or treason.

This didn't just happen suddenly. McCarthy has been leading up to this, although there's no sign he planned it step by step.

Last Sept. 9 he showed newsmen 70 pages of a 75-page "restricted" Army intelligence pamphlet on Siberia. He described it as "clear-cut, all-out Communist propaganda."

This was a case of McCarthy deciding he knew better than the Army what should be kept secret and what revealed. There are laws against revealing secret information. The Army said he had violated them. Nothing happened.

During the Senate hearings on his fight with Army officials he produced a document on spying in the Army. It was a condensed version of a much longer one which FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover had sent to the Army, marked "confidential." Some unknown person had copied parts of the original and given them to McCarthy.

McCarthy proposed to make it public. Again, McCarthy was deciding what should be released to the public.

Atty. Gen. Brownell said it should not be devulged because national security was involved. McCarthy said: "No human . . . or any other directive which is designed not . . . for the security of this nation but to prevent embarrassment for those responsible for covering up Communists . . . will keep me from making . . . public this type of information."

He said an Army officer had given him the document, but refused to reveal the man's name, although it would appear the man had violated the law by giving McCarthy the document. McCarthy assured all federal employes he'd keep their names in confidence if they gave him secrets.

When Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) last week referred to this document, suggesting that McCarthy himself might be guilty of a crime in receiving it, McCarthy was nettled. He said:

"So far as I am concerned, I would like to notify those two million federal employes that I feel it is their duty to give us any information which they have about graft, corruption, communism, and that there is no loyalty to a superior officer which can tower above and beyond their loyalty to their country."

Since McCarthy excluded no one, it can be assumed he was telling the FBI agents to let him know as much as they told Hoover about the most secret investigations.

His sweeping statement can be interpreted as meaning McCarthy trusts no one in the government to protect the nation except, in the end, himself, and that the only way the country can be sure the government is being run right is if McCarthy has all the most secret information about it.

He did more than that. He was urging every government employe to decide for himself, in disobeying presidential secrecy orders, what was good for the country and to tell McCarthy. The senator said he was authorized to receive such information as chairman of a Senate committee which checks on government spending.

The White House promptly said McCarthy was trying to "usurp" the President's powers. One thing is certain: if federal employes carried out McCarthy's request in all cases, the President would have lost control. No official could trust any employe.

Government employes qualified to handle classified information are supposed to have been cleared as loyal by an FBI investigation. If McCarthy has been given an FBI check, it is not publicly known.

But McCarthy is asking for secret information. Yet he would be the first to complain if a government employe, even though he publicly proclaimed himself anti-Communist, was allowed to handle classified material without an FBI check.

Liquor Revenue Down, Problem Is Discussed

Revenues from licenses and legal sale of liquor in the state during April reached a total of $1,467,347.79, a decrease of $107,797.01 from the figure a month earlier, which was the highest of the year.

The April figure is the latest released by the state liquor control board in its monthly pamphlet. The April total still is higher, however, than those of January and February, which were $1,264,276.79 and $1,286,513.20.

Revenues for April of this year totaled $9,570.95 more than they did in April, 1953, but the total to date this year is not far from the total for the first four months of last year.

Having nothing to do with revenues of the board but printed in the pamphlet are the totals of fines and court costs assessed in various counties over the state for liquor law violation. The total of assessments for April was $53,287.05. These assessments are collected by the courts of the various conties an are paid into the county treasuries.

Of the April assessments, $38,651.10 was the total of dry counties, and wet county assessments totaled $14,635.95.

Five illicit liquor stills were captured by officers during April, the report shows. They were in Red River, Bowie, Nacogdoches, Smith, and Tarrant Counties. There are usually from two to five seized each month, but during March, seven were seized.

Along with issuance of the monthly report, Coke R. Stevenson, Jr., administrator of the board, stated that consumption of alcoholic beverages by jeveniles was still "our No. 1 problem."

Stevenson said the board and liquor industry were doing all possible to stop sales to minors, but he stated that enforcement was not the complete answer to the problem.

"Some parents do not always know where their children are or what they are doing," he said.

"One particular difficulty arises from the fact that armed forces personnel 18 years old may purchase alcoholic beverages on military posts. When off the military establishments, under-age service people sometimes use fictitious credentials and other unlawful devices in purchase of liquor."

Three Cadets At NMMI Die Of Drowning

ROSWELL, N. M. (AP)—Death last night of three cadets cast thick gloom over the graduation ceremonies today of New Mexico Military Institute.

The three cadets drowned when they dived into the college swimming pool last night to start a pump which was to create bubble effects as part of the school's annual graduation ball.

When they rose to the surface, fumes from dry ice used in the stunt overcame them. A fourth cadet was rescued and may recover.

Col. Charles F. Ward, superintendent of the college, identified the victims as P. G. Vlohoupoules, Houston, Tex.; D. W. Vertrees, Roswell, N. M.; and Woody Moore, Ruidoso, N. M.

Col. Ward immediately called off the final ball. He said today's graduation ceremonies, however, would continue as planned.

The superintendent said the boys were in their swimming trunks in the pool, which was intricately decorated and had a bridge constructed across it.

"They were just finishing arrangements to make a mist over the whole scene," Ward said. "They wanted to make the place look misty.

"You can say that carbon dioxide probably overcame them as they completed the arrangements. They definitely drowned."

Funeral Today J. W. Ivison, Ex-Snyder Man

Funeral for John William Ivison, 64, former Snyder resident, was to be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Kiker and Son Chapel in Colorado City, with burial in the Roby Cemetery at Roby. Floyd J. Spivey, minister of the Colorado City Church of Christ, was to officiate.

Mr. Ivison died of a heart attack about 8 o'clock Monday morning in his radiator shop at Loraine. He had operated a radiator shop in Snyder for about 15 years before moving to Loraine in 1949.

He was born May 27, 1890, in Missouri. Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Jeff Ellis of Colorado City; two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Gage of Plainview and Mrs. Cora Ketchersid of Dallas; and two grandchildren.

His brother, Ira T. Ivison, lived in Snyder until his death four years ago, and Mrs. Ira Ivison and their seven children still live here. Five of the sons will serve as pallbearers.

Civic Affairs Committee Is Holding Meet

The second meeting this year for the Chamber of Commerce civic affairs committee has been set for 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon by the Rev. Ronald Hubbard, chairman.

At its last meeting, the panel voted to begin a study program on libraries, to consult authorities on what is necessary for a library building and how much aid is available from the State Library Association for the building of one here. There is no public library now in Snyder or Scurry County.

The group also voted to secure information from the national united fund organization on setting up such a fund here. The committee plans, after study of the information, to call a public meeting of representatives of all communities, clubs, and other interested groups or persons in the county for discussion of organizing the fund here.

Also discussed at the last meeting were programs to improve transportation and communications facilities here.

3 Convicted For DWI Here

Business picked up a bit in criminal county court this morning with the filing of three charges of driving motor vehicles while under influence of intoxicating liquor.

A special county judge, J. Ray Martin, was appointed to hear pleas in the three cases this morning. A panel of attorneys here elected Martin to act in the absence of Edgar Taylor, who is out of town.

Wiley W. Floyd, 40, Snyder, was sentenced to 15 days in jail and fined $100 plus court cost of $23.50 when he pleaded guilty. Floyd had previously been convicted on a charge of being drunk in an automobile.

John Henry Milne, 34, Big Spring, was also fined $123.50, including cost, when he pleaded guilty. A three-day jail sentence, mandatory on such a conviction, was assessed and probated for six months.

This sentence was not probated for Robert Carl Tidewater, 38, Cabin Courts, who was given credit for three days served since his arrest. He, too, was fined $123.50. He was arrested Sunday afternon by Howard Gibbons, deputy sheriff, and Walter Suttle, police chief.

Milne was arrested by Suttle and Johnny Claybrook, policeman, when Milne's car and one driven by Mrs. Juanita Rollins of Snyder were involved in an accident here yesterday morning. Property damage was estimated at $50.

Floyd was arrested Sunday afternoon by Roy Wilhelm and J. D. Frith, city policemen.

Milton Berle's Mother Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Sandra Berle, who guided the early career of her son, television comedian Milton Berle, and backed up his jokes with enthusiastic laughter, died last night. She was 77.

Berle often quipped that "Mom" was his best fan and he would call her from the audience to take bows with him.

In theaters across the country her high-pitched laugh cued crowds in response to his gags and stories.

A friend of the family reported Berle was in California when he received word of her death and would fly to New York today.

The family spokesman said Mrs. Berle, who had been ill for several days, died of a cerebral hemorrhage.

She is survived by three other sons, Phil of Los Angeles and Jack and Frank of New York, also surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Rosalind Wigderson, of Miami, Fla.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Rhodes, 2302 Avenue I, are the parents of a daughter born at 3:39 p.m. yesterday in Battenfield Hospital. She weighed five pounds, 12½ ounces at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Banks of Snyder are the parents of a son, David Foy, born at 11:40 a.m. yesterday in Battenfield Hospital. The baby weighed three pounds, 12 ounces.

'Junior' Has Become Beneficiary Of His Own Life Insurance

SPRING HOUSE, Pa. (AP)—Fritz J. Hartman, who still lists his name as "Junior," became eligible today to collect $1,189 as the beneficiary of his own life insurance policy.

He bought the policy in 1901 and stopped paying premiums in 1921. Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York announced it had offered Hartman the privilege of cashing in the policy on the anniversary date nearest his 96th birthday anniversary, which will be next Oct. 13.

The company said only three persons out of every thousand can hope to reach 96.

Japanese Team Fails In Climbing Attempt

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—A Japanese attempt to scale 24,299-foot Mt. Ganesh Himal in the Himalayas has failed, reports reaching here said today.

The 15-man team was reported on its way back to this capital city.

The reports said the Japanese had been forced to withdraw from their third camp and were unable to climb farther. An attempt to find another route up the mountain failed.

now running tubing and packers to test.

Lowe No. 1 Golden-Sun, Southwest Scurry County wildcat, is drilling below 4,920 feet in lime.

In Howard County, Southern Minerals No. 1 Homan is drilling at 5,329 feet in lime. Lone Star No. 1 Merworth, bottomed at 9,912 feet, has cemented five and one-half inch casing at 9,892 feet, with 479 sacks of cement, and is now picking up tubing to drill plug.

Southern Minerals No. 1 Girard, in Kent County ran a drillstem test at 6,570-585 feet in the reef. The tool was open one and a half hours, with a weak to fair blow throughout. Recovery was 200 feet of salt water with no shows. Flow pressure was 100 pounds, with 20-minute shutin pressure 225 pounds. The project topped the reef at 6,545 feet. It is now drilling at 6,609 feet in shale with lime streaks.

Lone Star No. 1 Eiland, Scurry project, is drilling below 5,170 feet in lime.

FISHER WILDCAT

Christie, Mitchell & Mitchell of Houston and Robert, King & Ford of Breckenridge are to begin drilling immediately on the No. 1 M. D. Douglas, a 6,300-foot wildcat in Southeast Fisher County. Drillsite is 5,100 feet south and 1,700 feet west of the northeast corner of T. Ayres survey No. 324, two miles southeast of Sylvester and five and three-quarter miles southeast of the Rallen-Flippen lime field. That is eight and one-half miles northeast of the Palava-Ellenburger pool.

NOLAN PROJECTS

Sun Oil Co. has staked location for a west offset to Union Oil Co. No. 1-74 Young, a recently completed Strawn discovery in Northwest Nolan County.

The offset will be the No. 1 L. H. Harp, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 75-23-T&P, eight and one-half miles southwest of Sweetwater. Projected depth is 6,750 feet.

In Southeast Nolan, General Crude Oil Co. will drill the No. 1 George T. Cave as a 7,000-foot wildcat.

Drillsite is 1,990 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 249-64-H&TC, three and one-half miles south of Nolan. It is an east offset to Humble Oil No. 1 Petty, an indicated Ellenburger discovery and one and three-eighth miles northeast of the EA Cambrian field.

Bad Check Fine Paid

B. V. (Pete) Lomax of Snyder paid a fine of $28.50, including court cost, this morning after pleading guilty Saturday to a county court charge of swindling by worthless check.

Wayland G. Holt, county attorney, said Lomax redeemed the $5 worthless check he had passed to D&H Super Market. The fine was assessed by Edgar Taylor, county judge.

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

The promotion and pending move of CHARLES N. STRONG, assistant superintendent of the Lone Star Gas Co. compressor station here for the past three and one-half years was announced last week.

Mr. Strong will become superintendent of a similar compressor station at Caddo, Tex.

In Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Strong, and their two children, Robert and Janet, lived at 1204 Twentieth Street.

Strong's promotion and move became effective yesterday.

A farewell party was given for the Strongs Thursday night at the compressor plant located just outside the southwest part of Snyder.

Heading the group of hosts at the farewell party were Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR DISHEROON. Mr. Disheroon is plant superintendent here.

Mr. Disheroon and Mr. Strong have been working together for the entire six years Mr. Strong has been employed by Lone Star. The last three and one-half of those six years has been in Snyder.

Mr. Strong, a native of Ranger, moved to Snyder from Abilene. The Strongs are members of the First Baptist Church here.

• • •

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. CLARENCE E. McGAW, SR., over the week end were their sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGaw of Longview and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. McGaw, Jr., of Midland. Also visiting the McGaws are Mr. and Mrs. William Bearce of Des Moines, Ia.

Clarence McGaw, Jr., is moving to Midland from Waco to be associated with a drilling company. He graduated last week from Baylor University, having majored in business administration.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. MARSHALL PYLANT and daughter, who have been living in Washington, D. C., arrived in Snyder Friday, and plan to make their home here. Mr. Pylant was formerly a marine corps corporal and stationed in Washington. He is to be employed by Caprock Materials Co. here.

Mr. Pylant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. RAYMOND PYLANT, 1708 Avenue S. Mrs. Pylant, who was injured in an automobile accident in February, is convalescing at her home now.

The fact that you can use a quarter of a cup of left-over coffee doesn't really make this coffee-macaroon pie a major economy plan. However, it's good eating and pretty as a picture, and if you can afford some cups of fresh, hot coffee you'll have the dessert that lingers pleasantly in memory for a long time.

¼ teaspoon salt
3 eggs, separated
1½ cups sugar
¼ cup left-over coffee
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon almond extract
1¼ cups shredded coconut, cut
1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell

Add the salt to the egg yolks and beat until thick and lemon colored. Add the sugar, half a cup at a time, beating well after each addition. Add coffee, butter, lemon juice and almond extract. Blend well. Fold in the coconut and stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into a pie shell. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 50 minutes or until a knife inserted comes out clean. Cool before serving.

• • •

While we're on the subject of desserts, how about cheese cake? This one professes to have some new ideas with even better taste.

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup sugar, divided
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 cups creamed cottage cheese, sieved (three 8-ounce cartons)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Before you begin on the cake itself, make this crumb topping. It goes into the pan before the cake, comes out on top.

2 tablespoons melted butter
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ cup finely chopped nuts
¼ cup graham cracker crumbs
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Line the bottom of an 8-inch spring form pan or an 8 or 9-inch square pan with waxed paper. Pres the crumb mixture well down in the bottom of the pan.

Now combine the gelatin, three-fourths cup of the sugar and the salt in the top of a double boiler. Beat egg yolks and milk together, and add to the gelatin mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until the gelatin dissolves and the mixturd thickens (about 10 minutes). Remove from the heat, add lemon rind and cool. Stir in sieved cottage cheese, lemon juice and vanilla. Chill, stirring occasionally, until the mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Beat the egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add the remaining one-fourth cup sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold into the gelatin-cheese mixture with the whipped cream. Turn into the prepared pan and chill until firm. Invert on the serving plate and carefully remove the waxed paper. Garnish with maraschino cherries if desired. This makes 10 to 12 servings.

Adult Sewing Class Planned At High School

Registration for an adult summer sewing course will begin at 9:30 tomorrow morning in the high school home economics department.

The course will be taught by Mrs. Joel Hodges, sewing instructor in the homemaking department. It is intended especially to help women learn the shortest and most efficient methods of sewing, Mrs. Hodges said. The instruction will include lessons on the use of sewing machine attachments, pattern selection and fitting, the best methods of sewing in zippers and various other subjects.

Classes are to begin next Monday, and are tentatively planned for morning sessions. The schedule will be set to suit the convenience of the greatest number of persons attending, Mrs. Hodges said.

A play school under the supervision of homemaking students can care for the three and four-year-old children of women who plan to attend the sewing classes.

Farewell Party For Mrs. Hale

HERMLEIGH — Mrs. Ruby Hale, a resident of Hermleigh for more than 25 years, was honored recently at a farewell party at the Methodist Church. About 60 persons attended.

Mrs. Hale came here with her husband, the late J. P. Hale, Sr. He was employed by the Shell Pipeline Corp. and remained with them until his death a few months ago. All three of their sons, graduates of Hermleigh schools, started to school here

Mrs. Hale has purchased a home in Abilene at 1850 Highland. Her youngest son, Leon, is to enter McMurry College this fall. The two other sons, J. P. Hale, Jr., of Snyder and Don Hale, who is now in military service, are graduates of McMurry.

The Hales have been active in the Methodist Church here. Leon, a teacher in the junior department, was honored at a farewell party given by the pupils in that class recently.

Monkey Picks Lock, Boy Bitten At Zoo

BOSTON (AP)—A female monkey at Franklin Park Zoo picked the lock of an adjoining cage and released two male mondays yesterday.

The monkeys bounded through a crowd of about 100 fleeing persons, bit John Bosco, 6, and threatened several others.

The birdhouse section was emptied of all onlookers before caretakers could round up the pair of males 20 minutes after their escape.

Young Bosco was treated at a hospital and released.

Play School Planned

A play school for three and four-year-old children will be conducted at Snyder High School during the second and third weeks of June.

The school will be supervised by high school homemaking students who are enrolled for summer project work, Mrs. Joel Hodges, homemaking instructor, said. Several children are already enrolled in the school, but there are still openings for some more.

Gift Tea For Miss Shirley Arnold Held

Miss Shirley Arnold, bride-elect of Kenneth Crook, was honored Saturday at a gift tea given in the home of Mrs. M. H. Roe, 3107 Avenue U.

Miss Arnold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Arnold of Lubbock, has been a student in Lubbock. She is a former resident of Snyder and a graduate of Snyder High School.

Hostesses with Mrs. Roe were Mrs. E. H. Williamson, Mrs. S. W. Trevey, Mrs. A. M. Ramsey, Mrs. Claude Hensley, Mrs. Ben Odorizzi, Mrs. Ray Lunsford, Mrs. Claude King, Mrs. H. W. Cargile, Miss Rose Marie Roe, Miss Jenny Cargile, Miss Mary Nell Trevey and Miss Shirley Ramsey.

In the receiving line with the honoree and her mother were Mrs. J. P. Crook, Mrs. S. F. Crook of Breckenridge, Miss Louise Crook, Miss Wanda Sue Crook and Mrs. Roe.

Miss Suzanne Houston, Miss Jane Houston and Barbara Williamson played piano selections during the afternoon. Miss Cargile sang and Mrs. M. M. O'Rear presented a group of readings. Miss Trevey and Miss Ramsey presided at the refreshment table and the guest register respectively.

About 30 guests called during the receiving hours.

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly In Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

June To Tell Tale As Boston Begins To Look Up At Last

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The next 30 days should decide the fate of Boston in the 1954 American League race. Will the Red Sox bloom in June or are they doomed to second division?

After a horrible spring of injuries and bad weather forced Lou Boudreau to go with a make-do lineup that didn't, the new month finds the Red Sox settling in for an 18-game home stand in friendly Fenway Park.

They own a three-game winning streak for the first time this season. They've gotten route-going performances from their pitchers in two of their last three contests. And Ted Williams is due to start bustin' out all over after being back in action for two weeks.

If the Red Sox can't move now there isn't much hope they will after the midway point since the first division teams already have a good jump. Boston is 11½ games out of first place.

Boston was the only club in either league to sweep a Memorial Day double-header yesterday. They buried Philadelphia 20-10 in the highest scoring display of the league season, then mopped up 9-0 in the nightcap.

The Cleveland Indians stayed a game ahead of the Chicago White Sox in first place by whipping the White Sox 6-3 on Jim Hegan's eighth-inning home run after losing 6-4 as Bob Keegan posted his seventh victory in eight decisions.

Washington's senators, who cause the New York Yankees more trouble than an investigating committee, beat the world champions 1-0 on Johnny Schmitz' three-hitter. Then they pushed the second game into extra innings before bowing 7-6 in 10. Spec Shea forced home the winning run with a bases-loaded walk.

Detroit rallied in the ninth for a 7-5 victory at Baltimore, then lost 4-2 to the Orioles.

In the National League, rain washed out Cincinnati's double-header with the first-place Milwaukee Braves and cut the Chicago-St. Louis twin bill to a single seven inning contest won by the Cubs 14-4 on six home runs, two by Hank Sauer.

Brooklyn beat Philadelphia 5-4 on Gil Hodges' 12th-inning home run in a single game. Pittsburgh split with the New York Giants, winning 4-3 after losing on three hits to Ruben Gomez 4-0.

The only significant shift in the standings came in the American League. Boston moved from seventh to sixth and Baltimore from eighth to seventh as Philadelphia dropped to last.

The Red Sox' big day included 27 hits, five of them home runs. Mylt Bolling hit two. Williams, Jim Piersall and Harry Agganis got one each.

Bill Henry scattered seven hits in the second-game shutout, his third complete game of the year.

A bunt, an error, an infield out and Mickey Vernon's single produced the one run Washington needed to beat New York in the opener. Casey Stengel argued the bunt hit batter Eddie Yost's cap and got tossed out of the game for his vigorous protests.

Baltimore outhit Detroit 14-9 in the first game but left 15 runners stranded. Three runs in the ninth gave the Tigers the decision. In the nightcap Vern Stephens' homer and triples by Jim Fridley and Sam Mele helped counteract 11 strikeouts by the Tigers' Billy Hoeft.

The White Sox ended Cleveland's 14-game home winning streak in the curtain raiser with the help of two-run homers by Minnie Minoso and Ferris Fain. Hegan's home run broke a 3-3 tie in the second game and the Indians added two more in the same inning.

Ahead 3-1, the Dodgers suddenly found themselves trailing by one run in the eighth at Philadelphia when Smoky Burgess smashed a pinch-hit home run with two aboard. Brooklyn tied it in the ninth after George Shuba doubled. The Phils threatened in the 12th after Hodges had given Brooklyn the lead, putting two aboard after two out. But Duke Snider raced up the center field wall and hauled down Willie Jones' tremendous drive for the final out.

Willie Mays of the Giants continued his hitting spree with his 14th home run in the first game at Pittsburgh. The lowly Pirates hopped on Hoyt Wilhelm for four singles in the ninth inning of the second game for the two runs they needed to gain the split.

Umpire's Admission, Gang Up On Yankees And Musial

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The most refreshing statement of the current baseball season is that attributed to Umpire Larry Goetz of the National League after a mix-up between his fellow arbiters on a decision in a game between Chicago and St. Louis. The forthright Goetz said it was "lousy umpiring," and expressed his regrets.

The average fan, we suggest, would be much more inclined to respect and even like umpires if the hirelings in blue were permitted mistakes. We predict, further, that the first of them who tells the press after a game that "I blew a couple today, boys," will become famous. Goetz is just the one who might do it, too.

Any of the contending clubs which hope to sneak some "pennant insurance" out of the opposite league—a maneuver made somewhat notorious by the Yankees in recent seasons—will have to act soon. The new "Greenberg Rule," named for its sponsor, General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians, will put a crimp in such activities after it goes into effect June 15.

From that point on it will not be enough to get a player waived out of his own league in order to sell him to a contending club in the other league, as was done, for recent example, when the St. Louis Cards bought Vic Raschi from the Yankees this spring. Under the new law such a "castoff" from the American League would have to be turned down by all the clubs in the National in ascending order, beginning with the last place Pittsburgh Pirates, before he could be dealt to the Cards.

And, speaking of the Yankees, there is additional evidence that their rivals in the American League, while not necessarily engaging in a "stop the Yanks" campaign, are not consciously doing anything to help the five-time world champions, either.

The recent deal in which the Boston Red Sox sent third baseman George Kell to the sizzling Chicago White Sox actually was agreed upon some days before the official announcement was made, but the Bostons thought it would look better if they held on to the star through an imminent three-game series against the Yanks. Kell's bat played a prominent part in winning two of the three.

Having known Stan Musial a long time, other National League managers have shown no disposition to copy Birdie Tebbetts' experiment of yanking his shortstop and using four outfielders in an effort to cut a few points off the head Redbird's batting average.

Theirs is a defeatist attitude. They say that if Musial cracks one of his typical line drives it's going to be a hit unless it goes straight at a fielder, and that if he busts one out of the lot it's gone. Birdie, the new Cincinnati pilot, refuses to be discouraged. He says he'll be satisfied if he only succeeds in worrying the great hitter a little bit.

Boston Was Worse Off Once And Went Into 1st Place Tie Later

BOSTON (AP)—Although the Boston Red Sox found themselves in sixth-place, 11½ games off the pace-setting Cleveland Indians—a glance at the 1948 pennant race gave them encouragement.

On June 1, 1948, Boston was seventh, 11½ games back of the league-leading Philadelphia Athletics. The Red Sox surged back to force a first-place playoff with a Cleveland club managed by Lou Boudreau, current Boston pilot. Cleveland won and went onto win the World Series from the then Boston Braves.

Eddie Yost In 700th Consecutive Game

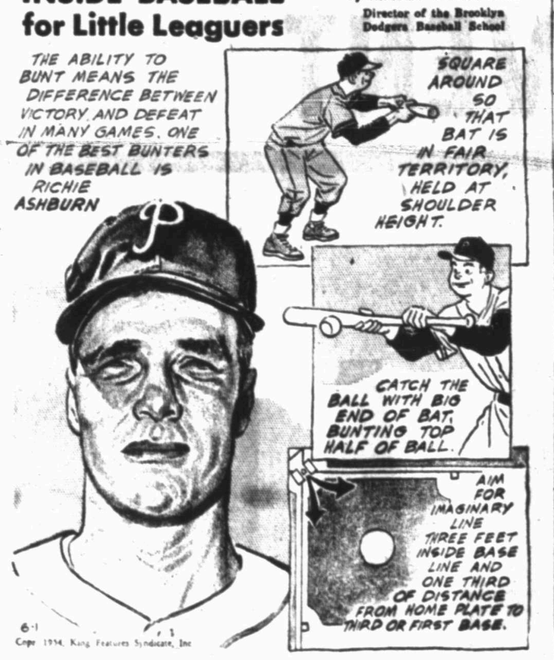
NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Yost, Washington's "Iron Pony," will play in his 700th consecutive game tomorrow night in Detroit.

Not since Lou Gehrig, baseball's "Iron Horse," ended his incredible streak of 2,130 games in 1939 has any major league player been able to roll up as many as 700 games in a row.

More than 15,000 light bulbs flash the odds and prices on the tote boards during the races at Hialeah.

INSIDE BASEBALL for Little Leaguers

By MICKEY McCONNELL
Director of the Brooklyn Dodgers Baseball School



Copr. 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Anyone who can catch a ball should be able to bunt one. You just catch the ball with your bat between the trademark and the big end. To show how easy it is, "Pepper" Martin, during his career with the St. Louis Cardinals, often aimed his bat at the pitcher like pointing a gun and then bunted the ball with the end of his bat in pre-game practice.

Square around so that your bat is in fair territory at shoulder height, and bunt the top half of the ball so you will be sure to bunt the ball along the ground. Try to make the ball stop just inside the foul line and one-third of the way to third base or first base, depending on where you want the ball to go. The bat should be held lightly in the hands with the top hand sliding up the handle to the trademark as you square around into bunting position. Angle your bat so that the ball will bounce off in the direction you want it to be bunted.

TIE IS BROKEN

Holder Indians Grab Third Place By Themselves Here

The Holder Construction Indians broke a tie for third place in the Little League and held onto that place alone.

The Indians defeated the Lions Club Cubs 8-3, while the Rotary Club Cardinals, the other team in the third place tie, fell to fourth when they were edged by the Kiwanis Club Braves 8-6.

The Indians took the lead in their game with three runs in the second inning scored on three singles, a walk, and an error. In the fourth, Ronnie Jones, first baseman for the Indians, slammed a home run with two on for three more runs. His team added two runs in that inning following that. This was Jones' second homer of the season. The only other extra base hit in the game was a double in the first inning by Gene Witherspoon, Cub right fielder. No runs resulted.

Tim Roberts, winning hurler, struck out nine while walking only two and allowing five hits. His team got six hits and five walks off the loser, Weldon Ware, who struck out three.

The Braves and Cardinals tied up their game in the first two innings 3-3, keeping the score like that until the fourth, when Charles Popnoe doubled to bring in three runs, then two more runs came in on Card errors. Mike Moffett, pitcher for the Cards, had a double with no runners on base, the only other extra base hit of the game.

Moffett struck out five, walked four, and gave up four hits. Billy Foree, the winner, fanned seven, walked six, and allowed four hits. Each pitcher struck two batters.

Hits Were Runs In Yesterday's Game

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics got good mileage out of their base hits in the first game of yesterday's doubleheader—30 runs on 30 hits as Boston won 20-10. It was the highest scoring game of the American League season, surpassing Chicago's 14-8 victory over Baltimore.

Vola Huskey was selected as the "most athletic girl" at Tennessee Wesleyan College.

Magnolia Is Still City League Leader

Magnolia kept its lead in the city baseball league last night and dropped Sunray from a tie for third place to fifth in the league.

The Magnolia team was 21-4 winner in last night's game. The game went wild from the first inning, and Magnolia was leading 10-0 by the end of the second.

Larry Hooker was loser. He pitched until the fifth inning, giving up 10 hits, striking out four, and walking five. He was relieved by Hoyle Bishop, who allowed seven hits, struck out three, and walked two. Bill Chambless, winning pitcher, went to the f... and gave up three hits, struck out 10, and walked none. His relief, Carl Foree, allowed four hits, struck out six, and also walked none.

Magnolia got five two base hits in the game, while Sunray had one.

Hermleigh, one of the teams still tied for third, and the DeMolays, cellar nine, will meet at 8 o'clock Friday night. Saturday night, Tri-Service, which is still at the top of the league with Magnolia, will be matched with Sun, tied with Hermleigh for third.

Pony League Lead At Stake

The lead in the Pony League will be at stake at 7 o'clock tonight when the Von Roeder Red Sox, league leaders, meet the Scurry Butane Dodgers, a team tied for second place.

Playing in tonight's 9 o'clock game will be the other second place team, Courthouse Tigers, and the cellar team, Lions Club Phillies.

The Red Sox hold a 2-0 record. J. T. Myers and Dick Hayes have each won a game as Sox pitchers. Top batter of the team is Earl Burleson, whose average is .400. A triple by Burleson has been the team's only extra base hit so far. The team is now batting .142. The nine's wins were 7-3 over the team it is playing tonight and 3-2 over the Tigers.

The Tigers hold a 1-1 record, with the loss to the Red Sox and a 16-0 win over the Phillies. Ronnie Baker has won one game as pitcher for the Tigers, and Johnny Griggs was loser against the Sox. Top batter of the team is Mickey McGrew, who holds an average of .400 and has hit two home runs this season. The team average is .200.

The Tigers, holding a 1-1 record, have lost to the Red Sox 3-2 and downed the Phillies 17-1. Dean Staton has won one game on the mound for the Tigers and James Patterson has lost one. The team is batting .188, led by Roger Hensley's and Jimmy Allen's .500 marks, which top the league.

The Phillies, with losses to the Tigers and Dodgers previously, hold a batting average of .57. Maxey Carey and John Ward are leading batters for the team with .250 averages. Jack Tucker and Carol Wylie have each lost a game on the mound, while Mickey Craig and Roger Kerbow have served as relief hurlers.

Big Bets In Boston

BOSTON (AP)—A total of 44,465 thoroughbred racing fans turned out for nine-race Memorial Day holiday cards at Suffolk Downs, Boston, and Rockingham Park, Salem, N.H. They wagered a total of 2,151,345.

Ted Is Still Hitting

BOSTON (AP)—Slugger Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox sported a .408 batting average today—a shade higher than the terrific .407 with which he wound up the 1953 season after returning from the Korean War. He has four homers among his 20 hits and has batted in 15 runs.

Hungarians Loosen Screws A Bit; Living Standards Are Up

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—It is rumored in Budapest that Hungary's Red rulers are planning to take up golf—hitherto regarded by communism as a decadent capitalistic sport.

The rumor may be untrue, but it illustrates one thing:

The "new look" in communism is bringing considerable benefits to the working class. But it is bringing far more to communism's upper and middle classes, the group which has benefited all along. This segment of Red society is demanding still more privileges—and it is getting them.

Hungary was the first Iron Curtain country to announce the "new look", a modification of the Communist drive for ever higher industrial and farm production to permit an increase in the output of consumer goods and restore some niceties of life.

The Red bosses seem content with the progress. They have announced it will continue.

But Hungary is still shipping huge quantities of her production to Russia and other Soviet nations. Thus her living standards, although higher than a year ago, remain lower than before World War II and lower than those of West Europe.

You can buy champagne glasses here today. On fashionable Vaci Utca, there's fishing equipment for the Communist man of leisure. All over Budapest there are night clubs and restaurants run by the state. But the prices are out of this world for the average well-paid whitecollar worker.

Patrons are the Communist doctors, engineers, architects, artists, writers, musicians, high party members and government chiefs who have all the big money in Hungary. Many are young.

You can buy a second-hand automobile. Not a good one, because they are reserved for the select few at the top.

Several members of Hungary's soccer team, for instance, are now car and house owners. So are half the members of the opera.

These men draw salaries of anywhere from 4,000 to 20,000 forints a month ($363 to $1,800 at the legal rate).

Former arch-reactionaries are among the new upper classes. One is Jozsef Vargha, now a Budapest University professor and prize-winning oil expert. He was formerly minister of industry under the regime of pro-Hitler Adm. Nicholas Horthy.

Women of the Communist upper class benefit too. The party says—to those who can pay the price—it is now permitted to be pretty, to wear lipstick, to don high heels, to wear a girdle.

Most Budapest women remain drably dressed and untidy. But I counted a dozen well groomed.

A dress in Budapest's high-fashion store may cost 900 forints, a month's pay to the best of secretaries. Even at the Nagyaruhaz department store, a rayonlike summer frock bears a pricetag of 350 forints. And a bottle of eau de cologne costs 45 forints, or about 10 hours work.

A man's raincoat or a half decent suit costs three weeks pay.

The tab for a meal for two at a good restaurant runs to 50 or 60 forints, considerably more than an average day's pay.

There is more to eat on the market than a year ago. The Red regime is even importing beef from France and lard from the United States (by the way of the Netherlands). But bread remains the staple of the average family because of the high cost of other foods.

Working it out on paper, Western diplomats say Hungarian living standards have gone up 15 to 20 per cent. But they are still years away from rivaling those of West Europe.

In Budapest, every other movie today is from the West, though no Hollywood products are shown. The imports are British, French, Italian, Mexican. Tickets are sold out weeks in advance.

Western music is played everywhere, and here there is no bar on America. "Moulin Rouge" and "Oh, My Papa" are the new hits. George Gershwin and Jerome Kern are steady favorites.

People have more time for home, children and amusement. The old sweat-shop practice of "voluntary overtime" — without pay — is almost a thing of the past.

Newspapers are more readable. Crime news is reported again. There is more Western news — without political comment.

There is no more worshiping of Stalin, or of Matyas Rakosi, Hungary's bald Communist boss. There are fewer Red flags, and fewer secret police, spies and informers.

For the moment, all this has strengthened the Red regime. What Western diplomats hope is that, having loosened the screws, communism will have to let go even more. This ultimately may turn to the West's advantage, instead of Russia's.

But Hungarians, for all the improvements, have not regained much of the gaiety they lost when communism took over here. They still appear strained, nervous and frustrated.

"They have become more tolerant of the regime," said a British diplomat, "but they would be more happy if they could get rid of it. They don't oppose it as much as a year ago, but 90 per cent of them are still against it."

Mexicans Get Shrimp Boats On Navy Day

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico's Navy Day celebration had a new angle today with gunboats capturing two United States shrimp boats Monday under newspaper pressure.

One boat, the "Dr. Walling" of Punta Gorda, Fla., was captured off Veracruz and taken into that port. The other was the "Richards" of St. Petersburg, Fla., captured in the Gulf of Campeche and taken into Campeche Port.

Both craft were accused of fishing in Mexican waters. And both were captured on the evening of Navy Day, the anniversary of the 1917 decree that all sailors on Mexican ships must be Mexican nationals.

Newspapers for the past 10 days have been demanding that the navy do something about the U.S. fishing boats off the Mexican coast. No captures have been reported at Tampico, although that port was included in the complaints about illegal fishing.

These were the first captures since February when four boats were taken and fined $1,720 each.

Bus Drivers Out On Strike

DALLAS (AP)—Bus drivers for the Continental Dixie Lines, a division of Continental Trailways, were on strike today after a midnight walkout.

The strike by Local No. 988 of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen which represents nearly all of the 165 drivers in the division, came after several days of negotiations, Charles Luna, brotherhood deputy president, said.

He added the strike is the first in the local's history.

The union said the final company offer made yesterday was not acceptable.

T. S. Reece, Continental Dixie's vice president and general manager, said the offer turned down by the union would have provided "a substantial increase in wages and benefits over the former contract."

Company officials said about eight Dallas-to-Shreveport runs and four Dallas-to-Texarkana runs would be affected. In all, they said, about 80 schedules including East Texas and Northeast Texas commuter schedules would be hit.

No violence and no picketing had been reported today.

Control of insects in recent years has added a third to U. S. potato production per acre.
