The state can't buy any chicken salad, even for a governor, according to an item in the new issue of Texas Parade magazine. It was during the administration of Gov. O. B. Colquitt that the legislature approved an appropriation of $2,000 for expenses of the governor and among the items enumerated were such things as ice and chicken salad. Paying for chicken salad was held unconstitutional, although the state was allowed to furnish ice for the governor.

A switch of allegiance by an elector in North Carolina apparently will be used to focus more attention on efforts to change this country's system for electing presidents. One of the Republican electors in North Carolina decided to cast his vote for George Wallace rather than Richard M. Nixon, the party's candidate for the highest office in the land.

Although in modern times the electoral college has named the apparent winner, from the very outset, the electors have not been bound to vote for any certain nominee. Of course the "weakness" of the system cited most often is the fact that it is possible for a candidate to receive a majority of the electoral votes and at the same time finish second in the popular vote.

There could be a similar "weakness" in a strictly popular mandate, however. It would be possible under such a system for one of the more populous states to elect a president. For example, suppose the total vote of 49 states gave a candidate a 100,000-vote margin over his opponent, yet in the one remaining state the opponent got a majority of 200,000. The one state, in effect, would elect the president, although all other states favored another candidate.

District 3-AAA, of which Snyder High School is a member in University Interscholastic League competition, will have two new football coaches next fall. However, neither is in Snyder's zone under the new district alignment.

San Angelo already has named Chuck Smith as head football coach at Lake View High School to succeed Fagan Mullins who resigned a couple of weeks ago. Smith was on the staff at San Angelo Central.

James Hillyer, the highly successful coach at Lubbock Dunbar, is moving to Colorado State University as an assistant coach. His successor has not been named. Hillyer's move generally was interpreted as an effort to open up a new recruiting area for the Colorado school, which just completed its first season as a member of the Western Athletic Conference. Hillyer, an excellent coach, also has an xcellent background for possible recruiting over a wide area of Texas. He attended school and coached in the Corpus Christi area before going to Lubbock seven years ago — WACIL McNAIR

Today In History

Today is Sunday, Jan. 5, the fifth day of 1969. There are 360 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1896, the German physicist, Wilhelm Roentgen, announced the discovery of the X-ray.

On this date: In 1477, the Swiss defeated and killed Charles the Bold of Burgundy at the Battle of Nancy.

In 1608, the Virginia colonist, Capt. John Smith, was captured by the Indians.

In 1781, a British naval expedition under command of the American traitor, Benedict Arnold, burned and plundered Richmond, Va.

In 1893, the Great Northern Railroad was completed with the driving of the last spike at the east-west junction point in Cascade Mountains.

In 1925, Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross was sworn as governor of Wyoming; becoming the first woman to hold a governorship.

In 1933, former President Calvin Coolidge died at his home in Northampton, Mass.

Ten years ago — A White House science advisory raised questions about the reliability of detecting underground nuclear tests.

Five years ago — Pope Paul VI and Patriarch Athenagoras of Constantinople met in Jerusalem. It was the first meeting of the heads of the Roman Catholic and Orthodox churches since the 15th century.

ADAM CLAYTON POWELL RESEATED

Congress Ready To Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 91st Congress gets down to business in earnest Monday with Adam Clayton Powell back in the house, a more liberalized Senate leadership and enough immediate work to possibly provide clues on the mood that will greet the new president.

After a joint session with the Senate to certify presidential election returns, the House is expected to take up Monday the question of pay raises for congressmen, cabinet members and the President.

The Senate faces the biennial effort to gut the filibuster rule, plus debate on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty that President Johnson wants ratified before he turns over the White House to Richard M. Nixon Jan. 20.

The Apollo 8 astronauts Thursday will tell a joint session of their lunar-girdling trip.

The Democratic - controlled Congress formally opened Friday with something of a bang as Massachusetts Democrat Edward M. Kennedy and Pennsylvania Republican Hugh Scott upset conservatives to capture their parties' No. 2 positions.

Capping a day of party caucuses and swearing-in ceremonies the House voted after five hours of debate and preliminary balloting to seat the ousted Powell if he agreed to pay a $25,000 fine and accept loss of seniority.

Powell, banished from the 90th Congress after being accused of misusing federal funds, accepted the conditions, was sworn in and took the seat that represents half a million repdominantly black voters in New York's Harlem.

Final vote on the resolution was 252 to 160. Powell, who lost his chairmanship of the Education and Labor Committee, will have the fine deducted from his paycheck.

Kennedy's defeat of Louisiana's Russell B. Long by 31 to 26 vote and Scott's defeat of Nebraska's Roman Hruska by a 23 to 20 margin drew mixed reaction on whether it would lead to greater muscle for liberals.

The immediate impact was expected to be more psychological than practical, however, since the whip in either party has seldom exerted strong influence.

It has, however, been a useful victory was seen as a first step toward a possible 1972 bid for the White House.

Kennedy's surprise victory was accomplished without the support of Minnesota's Eugene J. McCarthy, who invited Kennedy to his office just before the Democratic caucus to inform him of his stand.

Neither man would comment afterward. But McCarthy's position apparently was the result of a long-simmering feud with the family that opposed his support of Adlai Stevenson's presidential aspirations in 1960 and—through the late Robert F. Kennedy—battled his own bid in the 1969 primaries.

On the Republican side of the Senate aisle, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois was re-elected unopposed as minority leader. He said Scott's upset of Hruska in the tussle for the post vacated by the primary defeat of California's Thomas Kuchel, would bring no great changes in Republican policy.

In the only other important vote, Michigan's Robert P. Griffin lost an 11th hour bid to beat out Colorado's Gordon Allott for the Republican Policy Committee chairmanship.

Fifteen new members—10 Republicans and 5 Democrats—were sworn in to the Senate, making the balance of power 57 to 43 in favor of the Democrats.

That body also made official the election of Georgia Democrat Richard B. Russell as president pro tem who presides in the absence of the vice president of the United States.

The job fell to Russell automatically as senior member of the majority party.

Forty new members were sworn into the House where John W. McCormack was formally appointed speaker, a job he has held since 1961.

Allies Search For Prisoners

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces have intensified sweeps in the U Minh Forest in hopes of finding more U.S. and South Vietnamese prisoners held deep in the Viet Cong sanctuary that compares to Florida's Everglades.

So far one American and six Vietnamese have been rescued.

South Vietnamese headquarters said today five government soldiers were found Friday in a small Viet Cong prison camp of bamboo and thatched huts. Last week U.S. Special Forces Maj. James Rowe and a South Vietnamese officer took advantage of an allied military sweep in the forest to break free after five years of captivity.

Spokesmen said the South Vietnamese 21st Division, supported by U.S. helicopters and naval patrol craft, has been making "intensified probes" in the U Minh Forest for more than a month.

The forest lies along Vietnam's southwest coast in the Mekong Delta on the Gulf of Siam. It covers an area about the size of Florida's Everglades and has been an enemy sanctuary since the days of the war against the French.

In addition to the seven prisoners, operations in the forest have turned up dozens of Viet Cong supply depots containing thousands of rounds of small arms ammunition and mortar shells.

A South Vietnamese battalion sweeping the northern fringes of the forest turned up another arms cache today the third significant find in three days. It contained 39 machine-guns, bazookas and mortars and 48 rifles, enough heavy weapons for a main force battalion.

The South Vietnamese also reported a successful ambush early today in the upper delta, about 30 miles south of Saigon. Government soldiers surprised an enemy band moving by sampans, killed 25 and captured 59 carbines and submachineguns left behind by the fleeing survivors.

The allies hope to weaken the Viet Cong's political control in the delta region, spokesmen said, by steadily chipping away at the enemy's supplies in the U Minh Forest coupled with intensified patroiling of canals and waterways to the north and west.

Delegates In Brief Meeting

PARIS (AP) — U. S. and South Vietnamese diplomats had a brief working session today to go over the latest proposals presented by both sides to break the deadlock blocking peace talks.

Spokesmen for both allied delegations had no immediate comment on the session except to say that it was a regular consultation.

Diplomats for the other side—North Vietnam and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front — were apparently taking a weekend recess.

The deadlock in the stalled talks centers on the procedural question of how all four parties will be seated at the conference, once it starts.

North Vietnam and the NLF have proposed a round table, with no nameplates or flags.

The United States and South Vietnam accept a round table only if it carries into practice the allied notion that the conference is two-sided so as not to recognize the NLF. To do this the United States has suggested a narrow strip of felt to be placed across the table's center.

AM Directors In Tour Of Facilities

The board of directors of American Magnesium Company concluded a visit to Snyder and a whirlwind tour of its plant facilities west of town Friday with a lunch for local business and civic leaders at the American Restaurant.

Joe Pitts, executive vice-president and general manager for American Magnesium, extended a personal invitation to those present to visit the company plant at any time in the fuure. He added that an informal "open house" will be held at the plant site when the weather gets warmer. Due to the hazards of construction, public visits will be delayed until the "open house."

Roger Wheeler, president of the company and a graduate of Rice Institute, expressed his appreciation to the local residents for their hospitality and cooperation. In answer to a question from C. T. McLaughlin, local oilman, Wheeler indicated that initial production at the American Magnesium plant would begin with about 150 employes. He said that several local persons would be among the work force Wheeler also invited those present to visit him and the board of directors at Tulsa.

Bill Wilson told the company executives and directors that the AM plant "means a lot" to Snyder and that he appreciated the contribution the plant will make in the local economy.

The directors made a quick four of the plant facilities after the company airplane bringing them to Snyder landed at Wilston Field about 9 o'clock Friday morning. Shortly after the luncheon, the group returned to Tulsa.

Gang Of Bandits Attack Bangkok Bus

BANGKOK (AP) — Police said a gang of 50 bandits opened fire on a bus Friday, killing one passenger and wounding the driver, because the bus company had refused an extortion demand for $10,000.

A police patrol caught up with the fleeing gunmen as they were crossing the Pattani River in sampans and reported four of the robbers were shot. Their bodies were not recovered.

The incident occurred in southern Thailand near the Malaysian border.

Auto Theft Cases Solved

City Police have cleared up two cases of motor vehicle theft with the arrest of a 14-year-old boy from Wichita Falls.

He was apprehended at 7:45 p.m. Friday in the 2300 block of Avenue H, and he signed statements in connection with both thefts, officers said.

The vehicles that were stolen were the 1964 Model Chevrolet of Rev. Bill Parkey, a former Snyder resident, and the 1967 Model Ford pickup of B. J. Hollingsworth, Box 723, Electra. The car was taken Nov. 22 from the parking lot at Snyder National Bank. The truck was stolen in Electra Thursday night.

Officers said they recovered the pickup Friday night in the 800 block of Twenty-third Street. The car had been recovered Nov. 24 near the railroad tracks about 300 yards north of where the pickup was abandoned. Keys had been left in both vehicles, but there was no damage to either the car or the truck.

The youth was turned over to Juvenile Authorities. The case was cleared by Police Patrolman Brad Gambrell, Detective Sergeant Jerry Morris and Chief of Police Stephen Clark. They said the boy, an 8th grade student is the step-son of a Snyder resident. His mother lives in Wichita Falls, and his father lives in Electra.

Marchers Clash In North Ireland

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer

LONDONDERRY, Northern Ireland (AP) — About 150 Roman Catholic civil rights marchers clashed with Protestants six miles outside Londonderry on the last leg of their four-day protest march on the troubled Northern Irish City.

At least 12 persons were injured, some seriously, by a hail of rocks and gasoline bombs thrown by the Protestants.

Police, who earlier had promised the marchers safe passage, charged with clubs against a Protestant force blocking a bridge.

Some of the marchers scattered into the fields alongside the road. At least five were caught and severely clubbed by the Protestants police said.

In Belfast, Ulster Labor members of parliament urged Prime Minister Terence O'Neill to recall the provincial legislature for talks on the growing civil rights unrest in Londonderry. The city was the scene of a violent clash Friday night in which 40 persons, including eight policemen, were injured.

The riots were the latest in a series which started four months ago when civil rights campaigners charged that Northern Ireland's Roman Catholic minority—one third of the 1.5 million population—is discriminated against in jobs, housing and voting rights.

The militant students, breaking what had been an unspoken truce between the government and older leaders of the civil rights campaign, set out on New Year's Day to march the 78 miles from Belfast, the capital of the six northern counties, to Londonderry.

Oil Workers Stage Nationwide Strike

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Union oil workers struck refineries across the nation today, to enforce demands for a wage increase.

The Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union said its 60,000 members had joined in the walkout. A spot check showed pickets had appeared at refineries located from Washington State's Puget Sound to Marcus Hook, Pa.

A spokesman at the union's Denver headquarters said it would be many hours after the 12:01 a.m. local time strike call before the effectiveness of the walkout would be known.

Major oil companies reported there would be no immediate shortage of petroleum products. Some companies said they expected to operate some of their refineries with supervisory personnel.

The union has been bargaining at individual plants for renewal of 435 separate contracts that expired at midnight last Tuesday.

Czechs Warned To Soften Demands

By FRED COLEMAN

PRAGUE (AP) — The 21 member presidium of the Czechoslovak Communist party today issued a stern warning that "public ultimatums and demands" in this occupied nation are getting out of hand.

A declaration that apparently followed an all-night meeting of the party's top leadership hinted that Czechoslovakia might suffer further Soviet intervention if "certain elements" continue to campaign for the return of freedoms lost in the Soviet invasion last August.

Prague Radio broadcast the text of the declaration.

It called on the nation to unite behind party decisions in November and December that slowed down reforms planned before the August invasion to "normalize" relations with the Kremlin.

"The implementation of these program objectives will be possible only if we proceed in a well thought out manner both in internal and external relations," the declaration said. "Society cannot continue to live tossed by conflicts and tensions on the brink of political crisis.

"Various ultimatums, demands are made which are creating permanent unrest in the public, arouse emotions which can be easily abused against the true interests of our people."

This referred to widespread petitions from workers, students, scientists, intellectuals and other groups demanding an end to press censorship, more information on the activities of the leadership and retention of progressive. National Assembly Chairman Josef Smrkovsky when a new parliament is formed later this month.

Major Describes Cong Captivity

By RICHARD BENE
Associated Press Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Maj. James A. Rowe, who escaped from the Viet Cong after five years captivity, says he can hardly believe he is back in the United States.

"I'm still back on the chopper," Rowe said Friday, referring to the helicopter that rescued him. "I haven't really caught up with what's happening."

It's like being alive again," the Special Forces officer said on his arrival at Kelly Air Force Base in his native Texas. After a news conference, he was taken to Brooke Army Medical Center where doctors will examine him.

He said he did not know when he will be able to return home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rowe of McAllen, who plan to welcome him there with a quiet reception and as little publicity as possible.

"I never realized how valuable freedom was until I lost it," Rowe told newsmen Friday.

The 5-foot-8½ officer said he weighed about 165 pounds when captured along with two other American soldiers on Oct. 29, 1963. He said he now weighs about 140 pounds but his weight dropped to about 125 during the first six months of his imprisonment.

Asked why his weight dropped, Rowe replied: "Inability to eat rice."

He said his diet for the five years primarily was rice and fish twice a day. He said "There were never any overt threats" on his life.

The 1960 West Point graduate would not go into details about his escape. "The guard became unconscious," he said. Then he ran to a helicopter he heard near where he was being held in the Mekong Delta and was whisked away.

"I celebrated Christmas, New Year's and everything else on the 31st when I got away," he said.

Rowe said he already has asked to be returned to Vietnam.

"I feel that the experience I have gained over the past five years would be beneficial and would enable me to do something of benefit in the effort which is being made in South Vietnam," he said.

"I've gained a wealth of knowledge which I never would have had and never could have gained in any other manner."

Province Returned After 108 Years

FEZ, Morocco (AP) — Spain returned the province of Ifni to Morocco today after 108 years.

The enclave of 741 square miles on Morocco's Atlantic coast was turned over to Morocco in a formal treaty signing in the Palais Du Batha.

Morocco ceded Ifni to the Spanish in 1860. For nearly 75 years Spanish occupation of the enclave was nominal. Spanish authorities first raised Spain's national flag over the province in 1934.

Explosive Set Under Gaza Auto

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — An explosive charge went off beneath an empty Israeli-owned automobile in the occupied city of Gaza today and wounded three local residents, the Israeli army announced.

An army spokesman confirmed reports from Amman that Israeli and Arab gunners exchanged artillery and mortar fire for 45 minutes Friday night across the Jordan River north of the Damiya Bridge. He said there were no casualties.

"The heavy artillery came from the other side," the spokesman added. "We used mortars."

In Beirut, students at four universities in the Lebanese capital launched a strike to press the government into imposing compulsory military service.

The students called for a universal draft and military training at the universities to prevent a recurrence of last Saturday's Israeli attack at Beirut International Airport.

Defense Minister Hussein Ouweini told a news conference Friday that the Lebanese government has approved the principle of conscription and is moving to draft the nation's youth.

Panda Romance Gets More Time To Bloom

LONDON (AP) — The hoped-for romance between the Moscow zoo's giant male panda bear, An-An, and the London zoo's female, Chi-Chi, has been given more time to develop.

The object is another giant panda.

An-An has been in London for six months and was to have returned home last November. Then his stay was extended until the end of December. On Friday Moscow zoo officials decided Chi-Chi should have company for another month.

Watson Dedicates VIM System

By CLAUDE O. MAPLES
Associated Press Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Native Texan and Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson, was the keynote speaker at the dedication of the vertical improved mail (VIM) system in a new Dallas skyscraper Friday.

He said things have changed dramatically in Dallas and the nation, but the postal service has failed to measure up to the challenge.

Watson said, "In terms of modern techniques, the nation has not. I hope Congress will approve a new concept which will make the Post Office Department as self-supporting instead of a tax-consuming process."

The Baylor University graduate told a crowd of about 200 that the nation could gain encouragement from the VIM system and become dedicated to a task within reach—"the creation of a mail service that has reached the highest standard in the world: The American standard."

Watson said the blame for the out-moded postal system has been in part, "many changing periods in our government." He said, "The history of the postal service can be described as too much paper and not enough money."

He said his successor, Winton M. Blount, who will assume duties January 20, will be in a position to make the greatest contribution to postal service in modern history. Watson said, "I wish him well."

VIM, a cooperative venture between private business and the U. S. postal service, consists of modern conveyor systems linked to a postal station and carrier within an office building.

Mrs. Watson joined her husband and the two injected a locked tray into the VIM system and started the mail moving.

MRS. CHARLES FREDRICK MILLER

Miss Hatch, Mr. Miller Wed In Mason Church

The First United Methodist Church of Mason, Tex. was the setting for the marriage of Nancy Sue Hatch and Charles Fredrick Miller on December 28, 1968 at 2 p.m. Arthur Kendall, minister officiated at the double ring service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Hatch of Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Miller of Snyder.

Mrs. Harry Spaeth presented traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Elizabeth Anne Brannies who sang, "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Johnny Richter of Bryan seated guests.

Greenery, white gladiolus and altar candles were used in the church decor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white street-length dress of bonded crepe with lace bodice, and a short veil of silk illusion. For something old she wore her great grandmother's wedding band, something new, a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, borrowed, a white Bible belonging to the sister of the groom, blue, a garter and pennies in her shoe minted the years of the couple's births.

She carried a white orchid surrounded by Frenched carnations and orange blossoms atop a white Bible.

Miss Sara Beth Hatch of San Antonio attended her twin sister as maid of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Anne Brannies of Mason was bridesmaid. They wore matching street-length dresses of bonded cerise crepe with white fur hats, and carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Lt. William F. Weaver of Laredo served as best man, and Milton Ham of Midland was groomsman. Stephen Ham was ring bearer and Mark Ham lighted candles. They are both of Midland and nephews of the groom.

A reception was held in the community room of Mason National Bank. A white net cloth with satin underskirt covered the table with appointments in crystal and silver. Assisting in the house party were Mrs. Sam Oatman and Mrs. Donald Durst. Mrs. Milton Ham, sister of the groom registered guests.

For her traveling costume the bride chose a three-piece knit suit with matching accessories. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 2214 Franklin, Bryan, Texas.

The bride attended San Marcos University, graduated from Durham's Business College, Austin and is employed at Mason National Bank. The groom has a BS degree from Texas Tech and presently enrolled in the School of Veterinary Medicine at A&M University, College Station.

Out of town guests were from Snyder, Abilene, Bryan and Laredo.

The grooms parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Hill Top Restaurant on Dec. 27.

"This house is a magnet, a crossroads of good conversation for ideas, for stimulation . . . It is an exceedingly stimulating place. That I shall miss." Mrs. Lyndon Johnson in an interview dealing with her years in the White House.

Marriage Announced

Scurry County Judge Sterling Taylor and Mrs. J. M. Boothe, Sr., were married Friday evening in a ceremony performed by Pat J. Abbananto, minister of the 37th Street Church of Christ, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Parks, Jr. Mrs. Teddy J. McMillan and Vestal Boothe served as attendants for their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are at home at 2 Twenty-Seventh Street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are long-time residents of Scurry County. Mr. Taylor has been county judge for the past six years. He had previously served as county tax assessor-collector for six years and was a deputy in that office for six years before his election. Mr. Taylor was reared in the Ira community. He attended East Texas Normal College in Commerce, a privately owned college which was later sold to the State of Texas, and Metropolitan Business College in Dallas. He worked to organize the Snyder Co-op Gin Co. in 1935 and managed the gin for five years. He has also worked as a real estate dealer and insurance representative. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Mrs. Taylor moved to Scurry County with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parks, both now deceased. Mrs. Taylor was a real estate broker in Snyder and San Angelo for five years. She and her late husband were the owners of the property which was sub-divided and developed into the Bootheland Addition, 128 acres in north Snyer. Sterling Taylor was the real estate broker who sold them this tract of land. Mrs. Taylor is a member of the Business & Professional Women's Club and a past president of the Palette Club in Snyder and a charter member of the Art Museum Club in Abilene. She served as chairman of the art show for the county fair in October.

Godmother

Although some fabrics are made of 100 percent mohair, in fashion it is generally blended with another fiber, most frequently wool. Mohair has been described as the "fairy godmother who changed Cinderella into a lovely princess" for the way it enhances any fabric it touches with its characteristic luster, glowing color and rich elegance.

"Thank you for my baby,"—Actress Sophia Loren to her doctor on the birth of her first child.

Beef Blade Steak Royale

1 beef blade or arm steak, cut ¾ inch thick
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup water
¼ teaspoon marjoram
1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas, separated
4 smoked sausage links, cut in ½ inch slices

Brown steak in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Mix mushroom soup, water and marjoram. Add to browned steak. Cover tightly and simmer 1 hour and 10 minutes. Add peas and cook 10 minutes. Add sausage slices and continue cooking 10 minutes longer or until meat is done and the peas are tender. 4 to 6 servings.

A Book About China

THE CHINA CLOUD: America's Tragic Blunder and China's Rise to Nuclear Power. By William L. Ryan and Sam Summerlin.

"As of now, humanity has only a few short years to consider its future, and in fact, whether it has a future at all."

This ominous note comes near the close of the authors' study of a two-fold theme — what happened in America after World War II and what has been happening in China in the 1960s.

At the end of 1949 more than 3,500 Chinese students were in American colleges and universities, a large proportion of them studying science. In an appendix, the authors list 80 important scientists who returned to their homeland from the United States. Among them were "six of the top 15 who worked on China's bomb, and four of the five leaders of the missile program."

Why did they leave for China? Partly because the Chinese threatened and cajoled them. But mainly it was because American investigators and immigration officials hounded them during the feverish "Red hunts" of the 1950s.

The authors cite a number of case histories, and present one at full length — the classical case of rocket expert Tsien Hsue-shen. As an intellectual, he naively associated with a number of known leftists. That was a time of "guilt by association," and he was almost literally driven out of the country on that premise. Within a few years he played a major part in giving China a missile capability.

The second theme of the book is how the Chinese rapidly achieved nuclear status in spite of the massive political and ideological upheavals of the Cultural Revoution and the campaigns of the Red Guards, which are described in depth.

The political troubles had little effect on the scientists. As the People's Daily in Peking gloated last year, "It has taken China only two years and eight months to cover the entire course from its first atom bomb explosion in October 1964 to the successful H-bomb test." That was considerably less time than any other nuclear power required.

This is a well-researched work as fascinating as it is frightening.

Doublering Vows Unite Miss Schattel And Mr. Schwarz

Miss Linda Kay Schattel became the bride of Mr. Larry Edward Schwarz in a double ring ceremony Friday, November 29, in St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church of Snyder, with the Father Cyril Lange presiding.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schattel, Route 2, Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Schwarz, Route 1, Loraine.

Mrs. Betty Patchell, organist, presented "Trumpet Tune in C" by Henry Percell. This was played in place of the traditional wedding march. The march originally came from England and is very rare in the United States.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of French designed handclip Chantilly lace with crystal pleated lace jabot, standup collar, and tiered sleeves. It had a removable Watteau chapel train outlined with crystal pleated lace. Her veil was of Alencon lace and peau-soie petal flower with a float-length veil of England silk illusion. She carried a white orchid and Stephanotis, English Ivy foliage.

The bride carried a six-pence in her shoe, given to her by the groom's mother and a coin minted in the year of the couples birth. Something old and borrowed was a locket belonging to the bride's mother. Something blue was a garter.

Sharlot Rose, of Snyder, roommate of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a formal-length gown of blue velvet. She carried a cresent bouquet of pink Aristocrat roses and salal foliage.

Bridesmaids were Cynthia Clifton, of Hermleigh, cousin of the bride, and Dolores Schwarz, of Loraine, sister of the groom. They wore dresses fashioned after the maid of honor's. Their headpieces were blue velvet cabbage roses attached to blue illusion. They carried cresent bouquets of pink Aristocrat roses and salal foliage.

Donna Lynn Hilcher, of Abilene, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of white velvet fashioned after the bride's. Her headpiece was a white velvet cabbage rose with white illusion.

Jimmy Hess, of Hermleigh, served as best man. Groomsmen were Royce Mason, of Hermleigh, roommate of the groom, and Leo Don Schattel, of Snyder, brother of the bride. Ushers were Robert Pieper and Ronny Parker.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were host to a reception at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church. Miss Sue Hardin of Snyder and Miss Lisa Clifton of Hermleigh presided over the three tiered wedding cake. Miss Diane Rose, of Snyder, attended the wedding book.

The groom's parents were host for a rehearsal dinner Thursday night at the Americana.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Snyder High School, and is a sophomore at Texas Tech in Lubbock. The bridegroom is a 1966 graduate of Hermleigh High School and is a junior at Texas Tech. The couple are making their home at 2902 Third Place in Lubbock.

Mom Goes Mini To Maxi

SAN GABRIEL, Calif. (AP) — For the new year, Marilyn Connelly decided to give up the miniskirt and wear a 12th century dress—a floor-length loose medieval garment.

"I'm hoping it won't interfere with my job," said Mrs. Connelly, a 25-year-old housewife who teaches at St. Luke's Catholic elementary school.

But her new clothing, she said Thursday—on the second day—is "the most practical thing women ever wore."

She prepared the dress after watching the nuns at St. Luke's in their long habits. Hers is a floor-length loose bell-sleeved affair in bright print, cinched in at the waist with a leather belt. Over this, she has a bright green, flap-like overgarment. On her feet are bright pink sneakers.

There are no zippers, snaps or buttons.

Because she has two babies in diapers, Mrs. Connelly said she has complained about the short tight skirts, high heels and while tending to a mother's chores.

Hot Mushrooms

Wash and remove stems from large mushrooms and fill with bacon-cheese mixture. Bake in the oven until heated through and use as a hot appetizer, garnish for roast beef or steak.

Festive Orange Ginger Cake

1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon ground cloves
½ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1-3 cup melted lard
½ cup light mild molasses
¼ cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon soda
½ cup boiling water
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
¼ cup chopped nuts

Grease and flour a 1½-quart ring mold or an 8x8-inch baking pan. Sift flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, ginger, cloves, allspice and nutmeg. Mix lard, molasses and sugar. Add egg and beat well. Add sifted ingredients and stir only until moistened. Dissolve soda in boiling water and immediately add to batter. Beat for ½ minute. Stir in orange rind and nuts. Pour mixture into baking pan. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Whipped Cream Topping

2 oranges
9 marshmallows
½ pint whipping cream

Peel and section oranges. Cut each section in half. Cut marshmallows into quarters. Whip cream until stiff. Fold in marshmallows and orange sections. Spoon into center of ginger cake mold or serve on top of squares. Yield: 8 to 9 servings.

Miss McKinley, Mr. Cantrell Exchange Doublering Vows

Following their marriage on December 23, 1968 at 6:30 p.m. in the Eastside Church of Christ, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dale Cantrell are making their home in Fort Stewart, Ga.

Miss Cantrell is the former Ricky Jane McKinley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bryan McKinley, 1910 Forty-second Street, Snyder. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cantrell of 201 Thirty - third Street.

Michael Ezzell, minister of Dunn Church of Christ officiated at the double ring ceremony before a background of candles and greenery. A chorus of singers from Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ and Eastside Church of Christ sang the processional and recessional, "Whither Thou Goest" and "More."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin overlaid in lace in empire fashion with a flowing train. A crown of pearls held her elbow-length veil. She carried an arrangement of white carnations and greenery.

Attending the bride were her sister, Joan Rollins as matron of honor, Marsha McKinley, also a sister, and Martha Redden as bridesmaids. They wore matching blue satin gowns fashioned in empire style and puffed sleeves, short veils attached to blue satin flowers and carried white carnations. Jana McKinley of Hurst served her aunt as flower girl. She was attired in pink velveteen with white lace collar and sleeves.

Bernie Hopper of Fort Stewart, Ga. served as best man and Jimmy Farmer of Snyder was groomsman. Ushers included Tommy McKinley, brother of the bride of Snyder and David McKinley of Hurst, also a brother of the bride. Donnie Castleberry of Midland, nephew of the groom was ringbearer.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The lace covered table held candles and a blue and white floral centerpiece. Susan Farrar and Wynona Jones presided at the three-tiered wedding cake and Marilyn Cuppet registered guests.

For traveling the bride chose a beige dress trimmed in orange and brown with orange and brown accessories.

The bride attended Snyder High School and will continue her education at Ft. Stewart, Ga. The groom is a graduate of Snyder High School and is serving with the U. S. Army.

Out-of-town guests were from Midland, Hurst, Big Spring, Abilene, Fort Worth, Lubbock, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Brownfield and San Marcos.

TO WED — Mr. Houston H. Buchanan of Route 2, Snyder, announces the engagement of his daughter, Barbara Louise, to Mr. Reed Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Robinson, 2809 Avenue L. Miss Buchanan is a senior social science major at Baylor University, while Mr. Robinson is a senior business major at Texas Christain University. The wedding will take place February 1, at First Methodist Church.

Mohair Producer

Mohair is obtained from the thick, long ringleted coat of the Angora goat, which originated in the province of Angera, Turkey, where it has been cultivated for thousands of years. The world's leading producer of mohair today, the United States, first began raising Angoras in 1849, when seven does and two bucks were imported from Turkey. Today, Texas is the largest mohair raising area in America, producing 97 percent of the output.

Natural Partners

Mohair and wool form a natural partnership in producing sweater textures of special depth and beauty. A strong and lustrous long fiber, mohair adds a fine sheen and richness to the softness of the knitted wool. Most popular applications of mohair-and-wool blends are in the brushed surfaces; lacy, open knits; lightweight souffles and crisp links stitch knits.

Through The Ages

Mohair's unique properties are respected by connoisseurs today as they have been through the ages. As long ago as the fifteenth century, handspun yarns and cloths of mohair were treasured exports from Turkey, and records show that as early as 1450 a substantial business was done in Venice on raiments made of mohair.

WHAT'S GOING ON

Mrs. Ann Chellborg has returned to her home in Smithtown, New York after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Gray Parks of Snyder. Mrs. Chellborg is a cousin of Mrs. Parks.

Rx Vs. Aging

Thanks to plenty of good food and nutrition know-how, protein deficiency in America is relatively rare. Where it exists, however, here are some of the symptoms: premature aging, poor muscle tone and posture, anemia and slow recovery from illness or surgery.

"There is not one word in the dictionary that can describe how I feel today. I am so proud of my country that enabled my husband to carry out this mission. It's incredible to believe he's been there—the moon."—Mrs. James A. Lovell Jr. wife of one of three U.S. astronauts after their return from the Apollo 8 moon flight.

Very Rare Document Discovered

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A rare, first-edition printing of the Declaration of Independence has been discovered in a Philadelphia book store.

The copy was printed in straightline form by John Dunlap and dated July 4, 1776. It was authenticated as genuine by the American Philosophical Society, which also owns one of the Dunlap Prints. The Society said the copy is only the sixth known one.

The document was discovered in a scrapbook at Leary's, a 132-year-old downtown book store which closed recently. Employes now are preparing to auction away its stock.

Edward R. Poole, Leary's manager, said Thursday the scrapbook was in a sixth-floor corner—a jumbled collection of unlisted documents, papers and scrapbooks known to employes as "that corner."

"I always had a hunch something valuable was in there," said Poole. "But I was thinking more in terms of plates of books Leary's published many years ago."

The copy, believed worth more than $30,000, was turned over to an auctioneer, who will sell it. In 1951 a similar copy turned over to the National Park Service now is displayed at Independence Hall. Officials say it was then valued at $27,500.

No Shrink

Fashions made of 100 percent mohair can be easily and safely washed, because the fiber does not felt and shrink. The surface of the strong mohair is smooth and therefore it is not subject to the felting shrinkage that may occur from washing friction in fibers with scaly structures.

"Everything happens when you're 18, and it's almost too much while it's going on, and then it's over too soon."—Dallas Pell, daughter of U.S. Sen. Claiborne Pell, on the social whirl of a debutante.

MARKING TIME !

IN AMERICA'S SOUL TOWNS—

Black Revolution A Murmur

By JERRY BUCK
Associated Press Writer

In Mound Bayou, Miss., they know about Black Power. They've been at it for 81 years.

Mound Bayou is the oldest of the nation's all-Negro towns, and like the others it has its own elected government.

The black revolution raging across the country has had its impact on the all-Negro towns of America, of course. But for the most part it is muted to a distant murmur as the town leaders cope with the workaday problems that afflict every small town.

"We want our folks to know what it means to try to do the best they can for themselves," says Charles Kelley, an 89-year-old retired farmer who is the mayor of one such town, Mitchellville, Ark. "Self-government has meant much to the citizens of Mitchellville because they have learned what it means to go forward."

In Hobson City, Ala., the Rev. Nimrod Q. Reynolds, asserts: "I don't think the people have a separatist attitude, but there's a certain sense of pride in participation in something of their own. The main problem has been and still is a lack of communication. They simply don't know the strings to pull."

At this moment the biggest municipal crisis facing Mound Bayou is finding enough jobs for the town's 2,000 inhabitants. In another town, Howardville, Mo., the difficulty is much the same.

"We can't keep our young people," said Travis Howard, a retired teacher and school principal who founded Howardville about 15 years ago. "Several thousand kids graduated under me. You can't find more than a dozen now."

Situated on 100 acres in deep southeast Missouri, Howardville has a population of 190 and no industry. Howard claims the true population is closer to 750. "When the 1960 census taker came, most of our people were away working as migratory workers," he said.

In Hobson City you will find all the attributes of small town boosterism. Boats. Mayor J.R. Striplin: "I believe Hobson City is on the verge of a dramatic leap forward."

The townspeople recently ousted four oldtimers from the town council and replaced them with young go-getters.

James Snow, director of the Housing Authority, admits, "What we're trying to do is get our fair share of the money available—just like any other town."

Just like any other town. The Negroes who live in these all-black towns for the most part have not been caught up in the racial revolution.

Mayor Kelley of Mitchellville says the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is busy finding jobs and improving housing conditions for the 600 residents.

"It's very active in a civil way. We don't indulge in these marches and sit-ins," he said.

Other views are similar. "We don't want violence. We don't cater to that at all," said Howard, the father of baseball player Elston Howard. "But we do want to see the Negro get his share of jobs, education, things like that."

That doesn't mean that everything is fine in the all-Negro towns. Jobs are scarce, so is money, and most are little more than rural slums that have become a waystation for Negroes displaced by the mechanization of the plantations.

Julia Ann Boyd describes her hometown of Kinloch, Mo., this way: "I consider Kinloch a ghetto. Sure, we have some nice homes here, but not enough. Being a separate municipality, our problems are somewhat peculiar perhaps, but still they come from prejudice.

"In Kinloch you don't see prejudice against the individual, you see prejudice against the whole community. We are locked in by the white communities."

Kinloch, located northwest of St. Louis, is the largest of the all-Negro towns with a population of 8,600. It has its own police and fire departments and school system—and little else. There are no suburban shopping centers, no public parks or playgrounds. There is a supermarket and a furniture store, both white-owned, several government buildings, a few gin mills and cafes. The town has a few nice to luxurious homes, but most of them are rundown. The St. Louis County tax office figures about one-third of the residents live in low-cost public housing projects.

Mrs. Boyd, who is an official of the Kinloch Gateway Center, an Office of Economic Opportunity project, said she doesn't see the separatism doctrine of some black power advocates as a means to a better life for Negroes. But she acknowledges with a wry smile that it has had practical effect within Kinloch: "We have black leadership, so we don't have confrontations with the white power structure that sometimes leads to violence."

Leona B. Simmons is a Negro living in the all-Negro town of Idlewild, Mich. But she said, "I don't believe in any all-Negro anything."

Mrs. Simmons is Yates Township treasurer and owns the Lee-Jens Novelties and Soda Bar. Mrs. Simmons says she doesn't approve of the black supremacy movement, declaring "I think people should be regarded on their merits."

Idlewild gained national prominence at its peak in the 1930s when thousands of Negroes vacationed at Lake Idlewild and listened to top-name Negro entertainers and bands. Now, the night spots are falling into disrepair and the cottages have been turned into year-around homes. The population is 400.

White people can buy land in Idlewild, says Harrison Wilson, who runs a land development firm, but none has inquired about it for some time.

Wilson has seen the town change from "a resort to a retirement area" and believes young people will move away "unless we can get some industry to attract them to stay."

In all of Lake County, only 71 firms were on the tax rolls in 1966. They employed 30 persons and had a taxable income of $213,000. Tourism has been the lure bringing money into Idlewild and other portions of the country. Fishermen and vacationers spent an estimated $4.5 million last year, officials said.

Despite the interest of Idlewilders in integration, many doubt that it will occur. The town's 105 children attend school with whites in nearby Baldwin, but an attempt to found a Parent-Teacher Association failed.

The modern calendar owes its basic form to Julius Caesar. In 46 B.C., Caesar decreed a 365-day year with an extra day every fourth February. Until then, the year had 355 days, plus added months or days to make it conform to the solar year. To start 45 B.C. in alignment with the seasons, Caesar extended the year 46 to 445 days.

The Oakland Athletics have scheduled only 39 night baseball games in their home park for 1969. Last season they played 60 at night.

Junior Editors Quiz on DOGS

QUESTION: What are the major groups of dogs and how can one tell them apart?

* * * *

ANSWER: The American Kennel Club divides the 115 pure breeds of dogs into six groups, which we show. Dogs within each group vary, but we'll try to give you some points about them. SPORTING DOGS hunt by sniffing the air for game. Pointers and setters point noses and bodies toward game; retrievers pick it up; spaniels flush birds into the air. These are very active, deep-chested dogs. HOUNDS are dogs which run after game, generally baying rather than barking. They are streamlined, speedy looking. WORKING DOGS do different jobs and look different. The German shepherd and old English sheepdog were bred to handle sheep, the huskies to haul sleds. The large St. Bernards and Newfoundlands often rescue lost or drowning people. TERRIERS were bred to catch small animals by digging; they generally have bushy beards and eyebrows. Important breeds are the Airdale, fox and Irish terrier, and the smaller Skye. NONSPORTING dogs include such different types as the graceful Dalmatian, cocky Boston terrier and squat bulldog. TOY DOGS, of various breeds, can be easily recognized because they are small.

Powell Reseated, Salary Is Docked

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell, the cocky and often criticized Democrat from New York's Harlem, is a member of the House again—but under orders to have his pay docked by $25,000.

The House came to this conclusion Friday after a five-hour wrangle—which was itself the culmination of a two-year hassle over Powell's status.

He was excluded from the past Congress by House vote, after an investigating committee charged him with misuse of more than $40,000 in public funds—mainly by putting his nonworking wife on the payroll and by permitting private trips to be paid out of committee funds.

Since then his constituents reelected him twice, once in a special election and again last November.

Powell took the oath of office after the resolution to seat him with the punishment condition attached had been adopted.

But later, at a news conference, he replied to all questions about paying the fine by saying "I'll see my lawyer." At the same time, Powell said he was represented at a conference of leaders that workd out the compromise to seat him.

House sources said there appears to be no way he can stay in the House and avoid paying the fine, unless he can obtain a court order blocking it. The clerk is instructed to collect it from his $30,000 a year pay at the rate of $1,150 a month.

Asked whether he considered he had purchased a House seat for $25,000, Powell grinned and said, "Maybe I'm an emancipated slave." He added, "it might be a good idea if everybody had to pay $25,000 to get in here."

The House turned down a resolution to seat him without conditions and another to refer the whole matter to another special committee. A proposal for stiffer punishment was ruled out of order.

The House finally voted, 251 to 160, to seat him, impose the fine, and strip him of any seniority he would retain from his 22 years' previous service.

However, he had already lost the chairmanship of the Education and Labor Committee. He told reporters, "If you're not chairman, seniority doesn't matter much."

Carport, Car Are Damaged In Blaze

Fire of undetermined origin caused considerable damage to a carport, a 1964 Model Ford, and a storage room at the Floyd Newman residence, 130 Milburn, at 2:45 a.m. Saturday.

City Firemen, who answered the general alarm, fought the flames in 22 degree weather and prevented the flames from causing serious damage to the house owned by Bucky Crisp. There was some smoke damage in the house, but only minor fire damage.

Purple Hearts Awarded To Pueblo Crew

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The skipper of the Pueblo and nine of his men receive the Purple Heart Medal today for wounds suffered during the seizure of the intelligence ship by the North Koreans.

Rear Adm. Horace D. Warden of the Naval Medical Corps is in charge of the ceremonies at the naval hospital, which he commands.

Most of the wounded crewmen, including the skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher, were hit by shrapnel when North Korean ships opened fire on the Pueblo while it was in international waters, the Navy said.

The men were released and returned to the United States Dec. 24 following 11 months of captivity.

One Pueblo crewman, Duane Hodges of Creswell, Ore., was killed in the incident. His parents will receive his Purple Heart at later ceremonies.

In addition to Bucher, those receiving the Purple Heart are Lt. Edward Murphy Jr., San Diego, Calif., Lt. Stephen Harris of Richland, Wash., and crewmen Robert Chicca, Ft. Mead, Md.; Michael Barrett, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Wendell Leach, Houston, Tex.; Charles Crandell, El Reno, Okla.; Peter Langenberg, Clayton, Mo.; Steven Robin, Silver Springs, Md.

The 82 members of the crew are undergoing intelligence debriefings at the naval hospital here while awaiting a court of inquiry into the capture of the ship. No date has been set for the court to convene.

About 22 of the crew will be eligible for discharge Jan. 21.

Scurry Lambs Place High At Odessa

ODESSA — Scurry County youngsters took prizes, including one championship, in the junior lamb division of the Sand Hills Livestock Show here.

Randy Gill of Fluvanna entered the champion finewool lamb. He also had the sixth place animal in the heavyweight class of finewool lambs.

Jimmy Beck of Hermleigh had the second place medium weight finewool lamb, and his brother, Weldon Beck, had the 6th place medium weight animal.

Denny Belew of Fluvanna had the second place heavyweight finewool lamb, while Danna Vicary of Hermleigh and Gill had 6th place animals in the lightweight and heavyweight classes, respectively. Joe Belew of Fluvanna had the 10th place heavy weight finewool lamb.

A Scurry County group was placed at the top in the judging of the pens of five finewool lambs in the show.

1968 Good Year For Rains Here

The year 1968 was a good one for rainfall in the Snyder area if you were in the farming or ranching business. But, despite rains slightly above "normal," there was little to show for it in Lake J. B. Thomas, the Colorado River Municipal Water District's lake Southwest of Snyder which serves Snyder, Big Spring and Odessa.

For agricultural purposes the rains fell in a good pattern, with good falls during planting season and through most of the early growing season for field crops. The moisture tapered off in late summer and early fall, enabling harvest operations to begin rather early and continue at a rapid pace for several weeks. In fact, only one month, November, produced as much as an inch of rainfall after July. The November rains, which came at an ideal time for winter grain crops, amounted to 3.30 inches. Actually, a substantial portion of the November moisture fell in the form of snow rather than rain. There were two heavy snowfalls during the month, an unusual occurrence.

The official gauge at the Snyder water plant showed a total of 20.66 inches of moisture for the year, which is half an inch or so above the average for the past half century.

The November moisture left a good season in the ground over most of the area for the start of the new year.

Panthers Pulverize Slow-Starting Tigers

Sometimes everything seems to go wrong. Ask Thomas E. Dewey or Snyder's Tigers.

The only difference in the two cases is that Dewey lost out in the latter stages of the contest whereas the Bengals were bombed into submission early.

Lubbock Dunbar turned the tables on the Tigers in Scurry County Coliseum Friday night, taking a 91-67 decision.

The Tigers scored first on a long jump shot by Benny Ward from the corner. The visiting Panthers then proceeded to take over and score 23 points before the hapless Bengals could find the range again on a free throw by Jerry January. Snyder scored only three points in the first period, which must be some kind of a record, while Dunbar connected on 11 field goals and two gratis tosses.

The discrepancy in the first period score also is reflected in the shooting percentages. Snyder hit one of 12 for 8 per cent while Dunbar put in 11 of 19 for 58 per cent. It was more of the same in the next two periods. The hosts connected on only 3 of 12 for 25 per cent in Round Two while Dunbar meshed 8 of 19 for 42 per cent. The Panthers hit 10 of 15 for 63 per cent in the third period while Snyder roped 9 of 21 for 43 per cent.

Trailing 39-73 at the end of three frames, the Tigers at least proved they were unwilling to go down without a struggle. They hit 11 of 21 for 52 per cent compared with 5 of 16 for 31 per cent by Dunbar. Benny Ward, who led local scorers with 22 points, collected half of them in the last quarter.

That first period was something else. The Tigers couldn't seem to hit, and, moreover, they committed several mistakes, losing the ball often on bad passes. Dunbar, on the other hand, seemingly could do no wrong. William Baldwin, Ronald Melton, Alan Mac Newman and Aton Hunter close in and far out and turned in a fine defensive effort as well.

Some of the Tigers had moments of brilliance, but they were not consistently good. Jim Patrick, who shared runnerup scoring honors with Jodi Willamson, put in all of his nine points in the second period. He hit seven of seven from the free throw line in that period. Willamson got all of his points in the second half. Bill Hood, who notched eight points, posted them in the middle two quarters. Jerry January connected on six of his seven points in the last period while Wesley Bishop got all of his six points in the last two frames.

Baldwin was high point man with 24 total while Melton and Newman each collected 18. Hunter had 10 points.

Surprisingly, the Tigers fought the taller Panthers well under the boards and out-grabbed them, 28-19, in the second half, although they trailed, 39-46, overall. Discount that first period fiasco, and the Tigers were outscored by only two points in the last three frames.

They just couldn't overcome the slow start. Dewey couldn't overcome the late surge by his opponent.

The Tigers host Levelland, a perennial power, here Tuesday night.

In the "B" clash, the Kittens socked it to Dunbar 82-59, outscoring the visitors in every period except the third one. Five local lads hit in double figures, led by Danny Farmer with 19 points. Ronald Ward and Bid Cooper each meshed 16, Jeff Stewart put in 12, and Glenn Rambin posted 11. Glenn Davis and Lester Newman shared scoring laurels for Dunbar with 17 points apiece.

Jr. College Clash Set Here

Two talented junior college basketball teams that probably could give a good account of themselves against senior college competitors will hook up in a 7:30 p.m. contest Monday on the neutral court in the Scurry County Coliseum. The game pits the Howard County Jayhawks of Big Spring against the Ranger Junior College Rangers of Ranger.

The Jayhawks are 13-2 for the campaign while the Rangers sport a 7-5 season record. The Rangers, however, will have a slight advantage in height with two of the starting five standing 6-5.

All except two of Coach Buddy Travis' Howard County squad are from West Texas. The tallest regular is Jerry Phillips, a 6-4 213-pound freshman, who made All-State at Lubbock Dunbar last year. Area fans will remember Phillips' aggressiveness under the boards. He's attracted to the basketball like iron is to a magnet.

Other starters for the Big Spring crew are Mickey Wilson, 6-2 soph from muleshoe Robert Jackson, 6-3 soph from Big Spring, and Glen Fletcher, 6-3½ frosh from Crane. The other starting berth will go to either Bruce Belcher, 6-3 soph from Big Spring, or George Tilley, 5-10 frosh from El Paso or Danny Clendenin, 6-0 freshman, also from Big Spring. Clendenin and Jackson both were outstanding performers with the Big Spring high school team. Both are accurate shooters from the outside. The Hawks have a balanced scoring attack with no one boy carrying the team. Fletcher hit 26 points against South Plains in the Hawks' second win at Levelland last week, and Phillips put in 19 points while grabbing 15 rebounds.

While HCJC is loaded with West Texans, the Rangers only have one Texas boy among the starting five. Three of them are from New York City. They are Kenny Jackson (5-11), Gene Knolles (6-4) and Greg Hunter (6-0). Jackson and Knolles are both sophs. Knolles, a forward, is the leading Ranger scorer with a 23-point average per tilt. Jackson, a guard, is runnerup, averaging 19 points per game.

The lads who give the Rangers the height advantage are Ernie Clipper of Gaithersbrg, Md. and Harold Greer of Killeen. Both are 6-5 freshmen.

Coach Ron Butler of Ranger can call on several other talented freshmen, including Tyrone Herron (6-5) of Washington, D. C., Jim Mericle of Beaumont (6-2), Dwight Lane of Grapevine (6-0), Larry Knight (6-3) and Rick Sample (6-0), both of Killeen, Allan Peason (6-0) of Byers, David Hazzard of Hurst (6-0) and Robert Payton (6-2) of Laurinburg, S. C.

Also included on the HCJC roster: Sophomore Victor Lopez (6-4), Los Angeles, Calif.; and, Freshmen John Billizon (6-3½), Houma, La.; Monte Pillion (6-3), Wingate; and, Sammy James (6-5), El Paso.

Tickets will be available at the door Monday night at the rate of 50 cents for students and $1 for adults. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes will operate concession stands and is trying to lineup an interesting halftime show.

Cardinals Clip Highland 53-49

HIGHLAND — Hermleigh's Cardinals opened District 10-B basketball action here Friday night on a happy note, defeating host Highland 53-49 with a late surge.

Trailing 30-40 at the end of three periods, the Cardinals went wild in the fourth frame, scoring 23 points compared with nine for the hosts, to turn defeat into victory.

Hermleigh trailed 29-16 at halftime and shaved the margin to 10 points in the third period. Ronnie Helm and Tom Chorn paced the Cardinal attack with 16 and 15 points respectively. Highland's Wayne Allen was high point man for the game with 17 points.

Hermleigh's girls fought off a late rally to hold onto a 49-48 triumph over the Highland girls. The host's Cathy Wright was outstanding, getting 38 points. Susan Peterson posted 23 for Hermleigh while Sharon Pieper contributed 14 points.

The Cardinals will be at Loraine Tuesday night.

HERMLEIGH BOYS (53) — Chorn 7-1-15; Helm 5-6-16; Hess 2-4-8; Roemisch 2-0-4; Ward 3-1-7; Richburg 1-1-3; totals 20-13-53.

Wake Forest Socks M'land

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Maryland took it on the chin from Wake Forest again in college basketball Friday night and now the Treps, tired of losing to the Deacons, try to change their luck against North Carolina State.

Wake Forest won its eighth game of the season in 10 starts and second straight against Maryland 93-71 in the opener of a doubleheader at Greensboro, N.C. Then the Terps watched while N.C. State, their opponents tonight, whacked Virginia 95-80. Wake Forest meets Virginia in the other game of tonight's doubleheader.

The Greensboro doubleheader was the top attraction on a light Friday night program with all of The Associated Press Top 20 teams taking the night off.

In Philadelphia, Princeton battled from behind to beat Penn 59-56 in the second game of a Palestra doubleheader. Philadelphia Textile routed St. Michael's of Vermont 91-53 in the opener with Paul Poole scoring 20 points.

Jeff Petrie led Princeton's comeback victory, scoring 14 of the Tigers' last 18 points to wipe out a nine-point deficit.

Another Ivy League team, Yale, travelled to Nevada and lost 87-84.

In some other intersectional games, Rhode Island held off the University of California at Irvine 81-76, Buffalo dropped Wayne State 74-55 and San Francisco State walloped Akron 92-56. It was Akron's worst defeat since 1901.

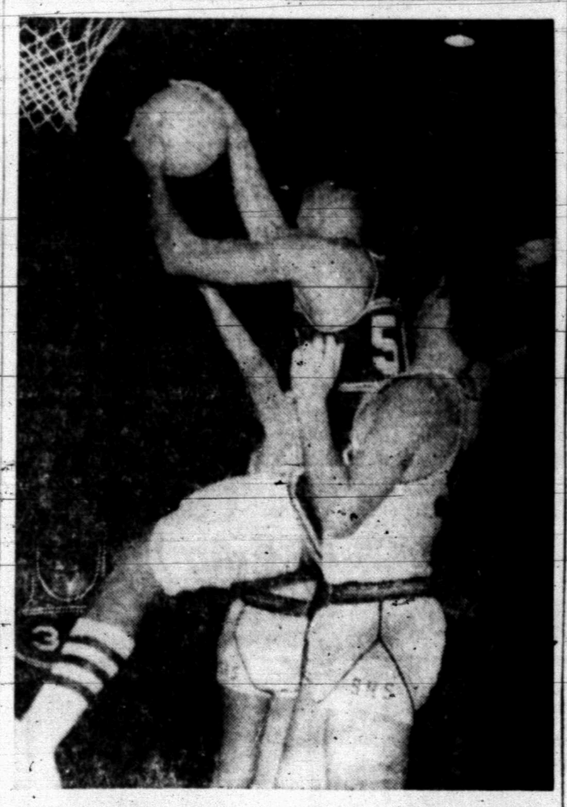
New Pro Has Good Lead

BUENA PARK, Calif. (AP) — Billy Casper, Lee Trevino and other superstars on the PGA tour needed to play catchup today in the second half of the first round of the Southern California Open golf tournament.

Mac McLendon, a pro for only eight months, blistered the Los Coyotes Country Club course Friday for a 32-33—65 and a two-stroke lead on half of the field. His total included seven birdies for a seven-under par total.

Four Californians and Jerry Barber, former PGA champion, were back of McLendon with 67s. Others at that score were Chuck Montalbano, Ross Randall, Steve Bogan and Jim Gilbert.

Casper, defending champion, and Trevino, winner of last year's National Open, and others idle Friday are the top pros in action on the 6,905-yard par 36-36—72 course.



GRABS BALL — One reason Lubbock Dunbar's Marc Wilson is an All-State candidate is his ability to get the ball under the boards. Contesting for Snyder is Jim Patrick. Wilson led rebounders and blocked several shots by the Tigers as the Panthers reversed an earlier decision by Snyder.

MAVS TIP DALLAS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Little Willie Somerset put out Dallas' fourth quarter fire and big Mel Daniels kept Indiana ablaze in Friday night's American Basketball Association action.

Somerset scored 39 points as the Houston Mavericks weathered Dallas' late rally and trimmed the Chaparrals 100-96. Daniels put in 33 points, leading the Pacers past New Oreans 126-112 for their third straight victory and 10th in the last 13 games.

Miami nipped Los Angeles 92-91 for its sixth successive victory in the only other game scheduled.

In the National Basketball Association, Atlanta beat Detroit 128-106, Milwaukee topped Phoenix 121-104, Baltimore edged Cincinnati 130-125, Philadelphia blasted Los Angeles 139-101 and San Francisco slipped past Boston 104-102.

Dallas, trailing by 19 points in the final period, cut the deficit to three in a 6½-minute hot streak before the Mavericks squeaked through behind 5-foot-10 Somerset and Art Becker, who added 18 points. John Beasley paced Dallas with 20.

Daniels, Indiana's 6-foot-9 pivotman, teamed with Bob Netolicky and Freddie Lewis to lead the Pacers past New Orleans and into third place in the Eastern Division. Netolicky scored 26 points and Lewis 25. Steve Jones' 23 points topped the Bucaneers.

Don Freeman's go-ahead field goal with 20 seconds remaining and a free throw by Willie Murrell carried the Floridians from behind against Los Angeles.

Larry Miller closed the gap with a free throw in the closing seconds, but missed his second attempt, leaving the Stars one point short.

Freeman scored 17 points and handed off eight assists for Miami.

Eddie Mathews, one of the game's greatest sluggers, retired after the 1968 season. He was a major league third baseman for 17 years with the Braves, Astros and Tigers.

Fullback Jerry Skogmo, a 200-pounder from Fergus Falls, Minn., led North Dakota's 1968 freshman ball carriers with 245 yards on 64 carries in three games. The team was unbeaten.

Manager Clyde King of the San Francisco Giants will have Wes Westrum, Larry Jansen and Ozzie Virgil as his coaches for 1969.

1969 Caprice Coupe

No clowns. No hoopla. No funny hats.

This is an event for the serious car buyer. The man who has X number of dollars to spend and is determined to get his money's worth and maybe more.

Come to a Chevrolet Showroom during our Value Showdown.

Ask the man to show you, on paper, how you can order most any 1969 Chevrolet with a big V8 and automatic transmission for less than you could last year.

Come in and spend some time. Dig, probe, ask questions, take notes. You owe it to yourself to be thorough.

Go for a drive.

Get a free sample of Chevrolet's luxurious full-coil, cushioned ride. Shut the windows and see how fresh the interior stays, thanks to Astro Ventilation. Feel the kick of the biggest standard V8 in our field.

Then go down the street or across town and see how we stack up against Those Other Cars.

We think you'll wind up with a Chevy.

More people do, you know.

CHEVROLET
Putting you first, keeps us first.

The Chevrolet Value Showdown is on.

Ohio State Is Nation's Best

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio State's potent young Buckeyes, firmly entrenched atop the college football world after their Rose Bowl triumph over Southern California, looked forward today to a year . . . or possibly two . . . of continued dominance.

The Buckeyes, named national champions by a wide margin Friday in the final Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters, will return all but four of the 22 starters who paved the way to a 10-0 finish capped by a 27-16 conquest of then No. 2 Southern Cal.

Thirteen of the 22, including quarterback Rex Kern, are sophomores, making the future brighter than ever for Coach Woody Hayes.

Ohio State, which last won the national championship 15 years ago, received 44 of the 49 first place votes cast in the final AP ballot. The Buckeyes got 968 points, to 782 for runner-up Penn State, the only other unbeaten, untied major team.

The 11-0 Nittany Lions, who edged Kansas 15-14 in the Orange Bowl New Year's Night, moved up from the No. 3 spot they held in the next-to-last poll, conducted at the close of the regular season. Texas, 9-1-1 after trouncing Tennessee 36-13 in the Cotton Bowl, nailed the third spot, with Southern California, 9-1-1, falling to fourth.

Penn State and Texas each received two first place votes. Arkansas, which jumped from ninth to sixth place, behind Notre Dame, picked up one. Arkansas wound up 10-1, upsetting Georgia 16-2 in the Sugar Bowl, and Notre Dame, which didn't go to a bowl was 7-2-1. The Irish were seventh in the next-to-last poll.

Kansas, 9-2, Georgia, 8-1-2, Missouri, 8-3, and Purdue, 8-2, complete the final Top Ten. Kansas was No. 6, Georgia No. 1, Missouri No. 16 and Purdue 11th before the bowls.

Missouri made the big jump following an impressive 35-10 Gator Bowl victory over then 12th ranked Alabama, which slipped to No. 17. Tennessee and Oklahoma also dropped out of the Top Ten.

Fourteen of the Top Twenty in the last regular season poll played in bowl games and eight were beaten.

Southern Methodist and Louisiana State, unranked before upsetting Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, in post season scraps, moved up to Nos. 14 and 19.

The final AP poll was taken after the bowl games for the second time because of the summit showdown between Ohio State and Southern California and the fact that nine of the Top Ten teams had post-season games.

The final Top 20, with first-place vote in parentheses, season records, including bowl games, and total points. Points awarded for first 15 picks on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-:

1.	Ohio State (44)	0-0	968
2.	Penn State (2)	11-0	782
3.	Texas (2)	9-1-1	762

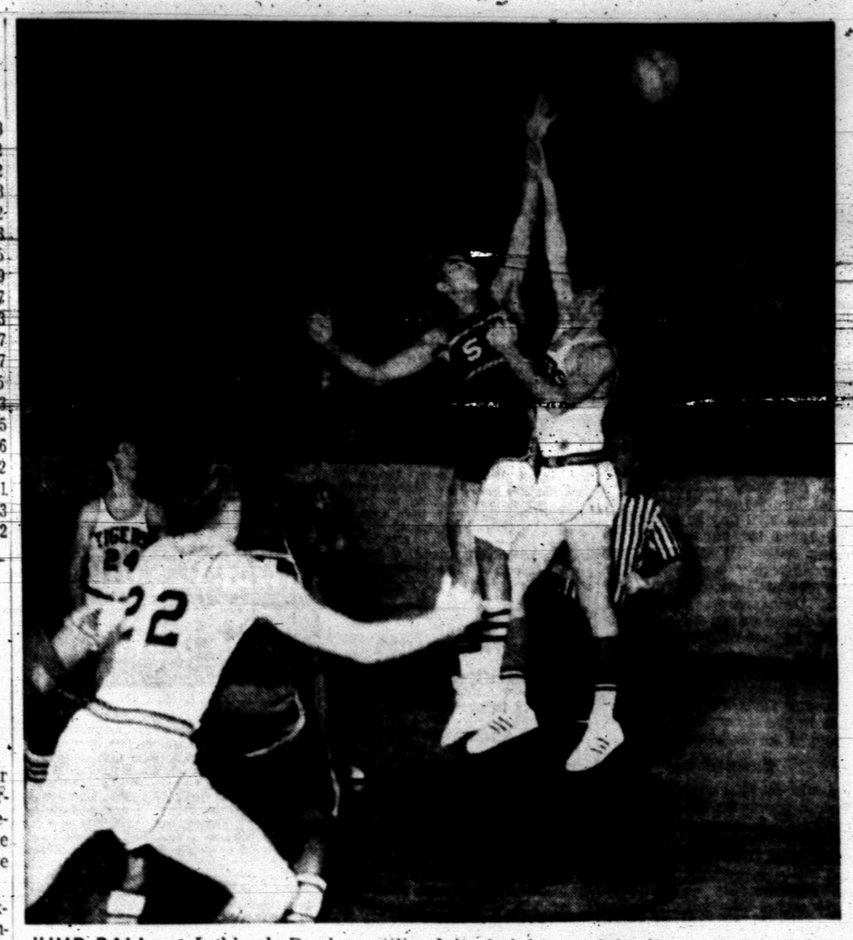
JUMP SHOT — Lubbock Dunbar's William Baldwin goes high to shoot over Snyder's Bill Hood during the non-district basketball tussle in Scurry County Coliseum Friday night. Baldwin was high point man in the game with 24 points.



JUMP BALL — Lubbock Dunbar utilized its height to claim four of five jump balls during the basketball clash with Snyder here Friday night. Here, the Panthers' big Marc Wilson gets the jump on the Tigers' Jim Patrick. Watching helplessly for the Bengals are Benny Ward (24) and Wesley Bishop (22). Dunbar took advantage of a slow start by Snyder to claim a 91-67 victory.

Hefty, Fast South Is Grid Favorite

By RICH OPPEL

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A hefty, towering and speedy South squad met an underdog North team in today's first running of the American Bowl game, and it had the North's coach a little worried.

"I don't know whether we'll be strong enough to stop them," said Coach Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue. "They're sure taller than we are."

The combination of talent top heavy in the defensive units and agreement between Mollenkopf and the South's coach, Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, that there would be no ban on "blitzing" was expected to slow down the offensive efforts of both teams.

Mollenkopf took his team into Tampa Stadium before a crowd of 20,000 to 25,000 to meet a South team studded with All-Americans and prime Southeastern Conference talent.

South defenders included All-American end Ted Hendricks of Miami, the 6-foot-8 "Mad Stork." Others were All-Americans Bill Stanfill of Georgia, a tackle, and Jim Barnes of Arkansas, a guard.

They were gunning for the nation's top offensive leader, Cincinnati quarterback Greg Cook, picked by Mollenkopf to call signals for the North. Other North backs were Darwin Gonnerman of South Dakota State, and Bob Gladieux of Notre Dame.

Edd Hargett, Texas A&M's talented quarterback, was to start in that position for the South, with John Sias of Georgia Tech at flanker, Auburn's Tim Christian at split end and Florida's 6-foot-7 Jim "Punjab" Yarbrough at tight end.

With Hargett in the backfield were Florida's Larry Smith and West Texas State's Eugene "Mercury" Morris at the running back positions.

The 1 p.m., EST, game was to be telecast by Sports Network Inc.

Allen Wants A New Pact, Says Wife

By DAN BERGER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) George Allen's wife says he has been offered his job back—that of head coach of the Los Angeles Rams. But she says he won't accept unless he gets a new contract.

"George is one of the world's great coaches," Etty Allen said Friday. "He is now between jobs because the Rams wanted it that way. To get one of the world's greatest coaches, they should make an appropriate offer."

Allen, fired Dec. 26 by club president Dan Reeves because of what Reeves called a personality conflict, has been unavailable for comment on the firing since a Dec. 27 news conference. Reeves also has remained mum.

The Associated Press learned Friday night that no decision would be made by Allen or the Rams before early next week.

Etty said her husband had been offered his old job back on New Year's Day. But she said no decision had been made, especially in light of offers Allen has received from other teams.

The Buffalo Bills of the American Football League said soon after the firing they were interested in Allen. Mrs. Allen said a National Football League team is also interested, but declined to name the team.

Go 1-Platoon Again?

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Worried over rising costs of intercollegiate football which override increased attendance, the National Collegiate Athletic Association today studies countermeasures which could include a return to the one-platoon game.

Chairman John Waldorf and Secretary David Nelson of the Football Rules Committee were invited to meet with the NCAA Council to discuss the situation.

On Monday, when the 63rd annual convention of the NCAA officially opens, a round table discussion takes a look at "the rising costs of intercollegiate athletics."

Any return to one-platoon remains the perogative of the Rules Committee which meets later this month in Palm Springs, but the convention also has power.

It could virtuallp issue a mandate through imiting the size of squas or the number of grants-in-aid.

Many football coaches have violently opposed a change in the present two-platoon system with difference teams for offense and defense and some are sure to be heard.

NCAA President Marcus L. Plant of Michigan told newsmen he felt a commission system may be a solution to the continuing amateur sports controversy between the Amateur Athletic Union and the various federations, the latter backed by the NCAA.

He pointed out that at Mexico City during the Olympics, the United States Gymnastics Federation and the AAU signed an agreement for a National Gymnastics Commission. The commission consists of 10 members, 5 from the federation and 5 from the AAU.

A majority vote controls and if a tie vote results, Arthur Gander of Switzerland, head of the International Gymnastics Federation, will suggest a solution.

Plant, however, said the knotty problem of conciliating differences between the U.S. Track and Field Federation and the AAU continues.

"It seems to us that the gymnastics commission set up a pattern which could be used in working out differences in other sports," the NCAA president said.

A proposal will come before the commission to permit schools which don't have spring football to open their fall practice 10 days early and be permitted an extra game between the last Saturday in August and the first Saturday in September.

Also to be studied is the rule permitting freshmen to compete in varsity sports in all but football and basketball.

Eckert To Preside At Monday Session

CHICAGO (AP) — William Eckert, baseball's lame duck commissioner will preside at a meeting in Chicago Monday involving baseball's heirarchy.

However, it has been deemed a routine meeting and not one at which a new commissioner will be considered.

So far as a possible successor to Eckert is involved it has been learned the leagues will again meet in Chicago Feb. 4 to consider the matter.

Only last month, major league owners went through a marathon meeting to decide on a successor to Eckert but failed to reach any agreement on Dec. 21.

Eckert was eased out of his job at the annual winter meetings early in December.

Jordan Says Viking Game Is Important

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI (AP) — Lee Roy Jordan says he has to prove something to himself. He says the Dallas Cowboys have to prove something to themselves.

Jordan, a 225-pound linebacker for the Cowboys, figures Sunday against the Minnesota Vikings in the National Football League's playoff game is as good a time as any to find some answers.

The 27-year-old Jordan, in his sixth year of professional football, admits he still is a little numb from losing the Eastern Conference title playoff to Cleveland two weeks ago.

"We've got to win this one (the Playoff Bowl) to prove to ourselves and other people we have what it takes to come back."

Jordan has heard that the Cowboys can't win the big ones. He says Dallas has to start its comeback now. "We can't wait until next season. That's too far away."

Dallas won the NFL'S Capitol Division with a 12-2 record. The Cowboys were favored to beat Cleveland but lost 31-20.

The 6-foot-1 linebacker, who played for Alabama before turning pro, expects the Cowboys to win big before an expected 50,000 fans at the Orange Bowl.

"It really boils down to pride," he said.

Minnesota Coach Bud Grant has said that his Central Division champions—they lost the Western title to Baltimore—also are in good spirits and he expects them to play a fine game. Minnesota and Dallas met earlier in the season, with the Cowboys winning a hard-fought game 20-7.

IRA TRIUMPHS

ROBY — Ira's visiting Bulldogs split a basketball "double-header" here Friday night with the boys winning 66-26 and the girls losing 39-46.

The Ira boys jumped into a 15-2 lead in the first period and outscored their hosts in each succeeding period to rack up an easy victory. Joe Williams led the charge with 16 points while Doug White and Ricky Cox each put in 14 for Ira. Larry Daniel was high point man for the losers with 12 points.

The girls game was close all the way. Ira led 7-5 after one period and clung to a 23-21 halftime advantage. Roby wrested the lead from them in the third period to go ahead 38-36 and outscored Ira 8-3 in the final stanza to preserve the victory.

For Ira, Carolyn Rogers and Janie Roddy were high scorers with 14 and 13 points respectively. Helen Lovett captured scoring honors for the night with 20 points while her teammate, Beau Kiker, put in 12.

IRA BOYS (66) — Hooker 4-0-8; Hester 2-0-4; White 7-0-14; Williams 7-2-16; Payne 4-1-9; Cox 6-2-14; Ramon 0-1-1; totals 30-6-66.

ROBY BOYS (26) — Daniel 6-0-12; Raymond 3-0-6; Halcomb 1-0-2; Bomon 3-0-6; totals 13-0-26.

Hawks Nip Pistons 128-106

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Atlanta may be marching through Los Angeles one of these days if the Hawks keep up their torrid pace in the National Basketball Association.

The high-flying Hawks reeled off 20 straight points in the second period Friday night en route to a 128-106 bombing of the Detroit Pistons. It was their 12th straight triumph and moved them within three games of the Los Angeles Lakers, Western Division leaders, who lost to Philadelphia 130-101.

Elsewhere, Baltimore got by Cincinnati 130-125, San Francisco edged Boston 104-102 and Milwaukee whipped Phoenix 121-104.

In the American Association, it was Miami 92, Los Angeles 91; Houston 100, Dallas 96 and Indiana 126, New Orleans 112.

Atlanta trailed Detroit 39-37, but Richie Guerin, the 36-year-old player-coach, sparked the Hawks to a 57-39 lead before the Pistons could score again. The NBA record for consecutive points is 24 by Philadelphia in 1966 while the 1946 Washington Capitols and the 1959 Boston Celtics share the mark of 17 straight wins.

Philadelphia built a 27-point halftime in racing past Los Angeles, which played without the flu-ridden Elgin Baylor while Jerry West was held to 14 points and Wilt Chamberlain to eight.

Billy Cunningham's 27 points paced the 76ers, while the Lakers' top three unexpectedly were Keith Erickson, Mel Counts and Bill Hewitt with 20, 19 and 18.

Baltimore threatened with loss of its Eastern Division lead to Philadelphia, hit the boards hard in the final period to overcome Cincinnati and Oscar Robertson, who scored 42 points.

Wes Unseld and Jack Marin tipped in shots in the final two minutes to keep the Bullets in front of the Royals for the night and one game ahead of the 76ers.

San Francisco staged a sensational second half rally to win its fifth game in seven starts. The Warriors were behind by 18 points in the third quarter before Joe Ellis and Nate Thurmond led a rally that pulled them to within two points with four minutes to go.

Jeff Mullins tied it at 87-87 and Ellis followed up with another field goal. The Warriors then clinched it on a three-point play, a free throw and a field goal by Thurmond with 52 seconds left.

Thurmond finished with 23 points and Mullins contributed 18. Satch Sanders topped Boston Veterans Len Chappell, Jon McGlocklin and Fred Hetzel fired in 33, 28 and 24 points, respectively, as Phoenix routed their expansion Milwaukee colleagues.

Buffalo Boys Lash Loraine

FLUVANNA — The host Buffaloes knocked off Loraine 81-62 here Friday night in a District 10-B basketball clash, but the Fluvanna girls dropped a narrow 35-37 decision to the visitors.

Randy Gill was high point man for the Fluvanna boys with 24 points, and Nanette Bruner sparked the Buffalo gals with 16 points.

Fluvanna will journey to Ira next Tuesday for its next district game.

Flu Epidemic Draining State Aid From Schools

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Writer

School administrators could testify Saturday that the flu outbreak was rampant in Texas. Some hunted substitute teachers. Others watched their state aid drain away.

For not only were pupils ill, but the teachers also. The San Antonio Independent School District, for instance, quickly exhausted its list of 1,000 supply teachers the day school resumed Jan. 2 after the holidays.

On the other hand, administrators surveyed in a spot check The Associated Press showed some suspicion that a few pupils were not ill but were stretching their holiday for two more days and would return Monday.

Absences for any reason, however, meant less state aid for the districts. Aid is based on attendance, not enrollment.

The San Antonio Independent district's Assistant Superintendent Claud Kellam said the district will lose $16,000 in state funds because of absences Thursday and $9,000 Friday when attendance improved.

Where communities appeared well into the outbreak, relief was only a matter of weeks away. The National Communicable Disease Center at Atlanta said the epidemic in each community lasts four or five weeks.

A spot check of several major Texas cities showed wide variations in the rate of school absences presumably due to illnesses. But all reported a high rate of sickness in the schools.

With teachers and pupils ill, indications were that the respiratory-type sickness was prevalent throughout the community.

The Thursday count in San Antonio showed about a third of the district's 80,000 pupils and teachers absent, but the Friday figure stood at 79.2 per cent of the enrollment present. About a third of San Antonio's teachers was ill.

The Austin system's spot check found Austin High School, enrollment 1,826, with 432 absent, meaning a jump from a normal 5 per cent absent to 24 per cent. Absences at Martin Junior High more than doubled the normal.

Amarillo's outbreak appeared on the wane. A citywide survey showed 143 cases Thursday in comparison with 633 last week and 154 Dec. 20.

The Amarillo secondary school system showed 11 per cent absent compared with 13 when the holidays began. The elementary system attendance improved from 89 per cent to 90.

The five hospitals in Amarillo reported a high number of absences among nursing personnel.

The Fort Worth school system had not made a compilation of absences but there was a high incidence of teacher illness and seven of the system's nurses were sick. Dr. Bance Terrell, medical director of the system, said that the absentee rate probably is higher than before the holidays.

Sixty of the 173 Dallas schools reported absenteeism of more than 20 per cent with four schools reporting at least 40 per cent of the pupils out of classes.

Lincoln High reported 48 per cent of its 1,189 pupils absent to lead all Dallas schools.

Parkland Memorial Hospital the Dallas city-county installation, reported 1,244 emergency cases in 17 days of patients with flu-like symptoms. However, at midweek, the number of flu-like emergency cases dropped to 55.

In West Texas, 6,500 students in the Plainview public school system received an extra two day holiday due to the threat of a heavy flu outbreak. Other Hale County schools started classes again as scheduled.

Students, originally set to return to classes Thursday, will resume activity Monday. Supt. Glenn Harrison said he called the extra holiday after talking to city health officials and doctors. He said the action was more of a precautionary step than a result of actual cases of flu reported by Dr. Gerald Wagner, head of the Plainview-Hale County health unit, also is a Plainview pediatrician and a member of the Plainview School Board.

Last week, he reported a survey of city hospitals and doctors disclosed 183 cases of influenza or respiratory illnesses, a slight rise over 175 cases reported on Dec. 20.

Wagner attributed at least part of the gain in cases to increased travel during Christmas holidays, especially by college students visiting at home.

Way Cleared For Project

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The Trinity River Authority appeared Friday to have cleared the way for work to begin this year on structural stages of the Trinity River Canal.

The authority awarded a $74,300 aerial mapping contract to International Aerial Mapping Co. of San Antonio. The contract includes necessary ground work for the establishment of permanent survey markers.

The aerial photography and two key steps which must precede advance engineering and design for the waterway David H. Brune, TRA general manager, said.

Brune said the aerial photography will cover the river and a land area 12 miles wide from Fort Worth to a point 252 miles downstream where U.S. 90 crosses the Trinity at Liberty.

The San Antonio firm was given 120 days to complete the job.

By F. J. LAIN

Miss Lain awards a Mercury portable, courtesy of the Royal Typewriter Co., to Mrs. Melvin Ruff, Gastonia, N. C., for her question:

"How important is educating the woman? My anv my husband's family think the money for education should be spent on the boys, and that there's no need to educate the girls because all they'll do is get married and have children. I disagree 100 per cent!"

A. — That makes two of us. Tell your relatives that sex discrimination in educational opportunities is medieval. While I'm surprised that some parents still think that way, I have a related concern, and that's for the high school girls who can't wait to hop from homework to housework.

A QUIET REVOLUTION is going on in the life pattern of American women. No longer is the routine necessarily one of marriage, family, and happy-ever-after. In a recent government report, "Expanding Opportunities For Girls" — if you want a free copy, send me a postcard in care of this newspaper — statistics show that 9 out of 10 girls will work sometime during their lives.

ALSO, NEARLY HALF the women between 18 and 65 are working, and the percentage continues to shoot up . . . one out of three workers is a woman . . . and the majority of women workers are married. Women are most likely to work between the ages of 20-25, and 45-54. This "split-level" characteristic is the basic reason why girls' career plans should be made early and in the light of a total life plan.

MARRIAGE - MINDED girls should have the education to prepare for careers in which they would like to work for the rest of their lives, if necessary. Careers that can be taken up again when they reenter the working world.

IF STATISTICS don't convince you, read these excerpts from a few of my women readers who found out the hard way:

"I'M DESPERATE. My husband had a very good job selling heavy machinery but illness has forced him to take a job as a $50-a-week clerk. Who can live on that? I haven't worked for 20 years when I quit school to work in a hardware store. What can I possibly do to help earn the living?" . . .

"I'm 25 years old, have never worked, and live with my parents who are getting up there in years. My father just lost his business, and I know I'll have to work to support myself someday, but how? I was married, but my husband disappeared after seven months and I don't know where he is." . . .

"MY HUSBAND DIED several months ago, leaving me with three small children. For financial reasons I have to go to work. We married right after school and I have no special training for anything. I can't afford to spend four years in college now. Have you any ideas, at all about a field which requires minimum preparation and pays decent money?" . . .

"MY CHILDREN ARE GROWN and I'm going crazy in this house today. How can I find a job which will make me feel like a person again? I have no training and not much education. I want to build a new future for myself but don't know where to start." . . . "My husband has been laid-off again. It's the story of our marriage. Now that our children are getting older, I know I'll have to go to work to see that they get the things they need. I'm not prepared to do anything except keep house. I know what you must be thinking and yes, now I am sorry that I wouldn't listen to my parents when I was in school."

THE STORY HAS A HAPPIER ENDING for women who prepared first-married later, as this letter shows: "I'm a thirty-ish nurse-mother, ready to go back to work. Getting a job isn't my problem since the nursing shortage is so great I can pick and choose. I may even work part-time for awhile. My question is one of selection — which fields of nursing are likely to be the most important in the next few decades?"

EDUCATION FOR A WOMAN IS A SOUND INVESTMENT. Not only does it help make her a more interesting wife and better equipped mother, but does much to assure her of a career (if needed or desired) which will challenge her talents and help her realize her ful potential.

New Maid Of Cotton Handy With Humor

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The 1969 Maid of Cotton, Cathryn Louise Muirhead, 19, of Denton, Tex., won the hearts of the audience—and the judges—with a light-hearted answer Friday night to a question about one of life's embarrassing moments.

Miss Muirhead, a sophomore at Texas Woman's University, was asked by one of the judges what she would do if she were attending a baseball game and someone knocked off her wig.

"I'd let it drop to the ground and yell for somebody to 'stomp on that thing, please'," she responded.

Taxes, Education Link Inseparably

AUSTIN (AP) — Taxes and education are inseparably linked as the top issues of the 1969 legislature. Better schools demand bigger taxes. Both issues are calculated to raise lawmaker's tempers.

Nearly all the senators and representatives who responded to an Associated Press mail survey ranked taxes as a leading issue and most tied revenue to schools.

The reason for joining the two issues is simple. A governor's committee of 15 influential Texans found the state's school system inadequate. It recommended spending $338.1 million the next two years to start upgrading it, including about $200 million for teacher pay raises.

Lawmakers themselves do not agree on how much money they must raise in new taxes.

"$100 to $300 million," said Sen. Murray Watson of Mart.

"At least $150 million," estimated Rep. Frank Calhoun of Abilene.

"About $200 million" was the guess of Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena.

"$300 million," said Sen. Charles Wilson of Lufkin.

Lt. Gov.-elect Ben Barnes said recently the legislature can go along with the education committee proposals "and not have over $200 million."

The legislators also are divided over how to raise the money. The great majority of those answering the AP questionnaire expressed no ideas at all on possible tax sources.

Of those who did suggest new tax revenues, most proposed removing some exemptions from the state sales tax. Other advocated various selective taxes, personal and corporation income taxes, another sales tax rate increase and a college tuition increase.

The state sales tax was raised only last summer to 3 per cent. Most Texans live in cities with additional ½ per cent local sales taxes.

"The lobby will try for enough spending to take out sales tax exemptions but I think we will single shot some things," said Rep. Bob Armstrong of Austin.

A senator who asked not to be quoted by name suggested "increased natural resources tax; removal of 'luxury items' from exemption in general sales tax."

Rep. Rex Braun of Houston, said a major issue is "adoption of a corporate profits tax and high taxes on natural gas so that we don't have to buckle under to the lobby's demands for increased and expanded sales taxes."

One house member who is likely to have much influence on the tax bill wrote a single word as his recommendation: "sales."

"If new revenue is needed, exemptions under the sales tax should be removed," said Rep. James Cole of Greenville.

The governor's school study committee said Texas can well afford its recommendations. It presented statistics saying Texas ranks 40th among the states in taxes as a percentage of personal income.

A personal income tax is considered unlikely since many legislative candidates as well as the state Democratic Party platform opposed such a levy during the 1968 campaigns.

The state platform on which Gov.-elect Preston Smith won election said any new taxes should "spread the burden equitably among business interests and individual taxpayers."

QUAIL HABITAT — A covey of blue quail runs for cover. A good mixture of brush, grass, and weeds is essential for quail and this mixture will provide adequate food and protection for them.

Food, Water, Cover Keys To High Bird Population

The 1968-69 quail season is coming to a close. From all reports, from hunters in the area, this was an above average year for quail populations. Figures from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department show that on the average, approximately 10 million quail are bagged each year. Most of these are Bob-white quail and the remainder Scaled quail (or Blues).

This area of the state is fortunate that both the bob-white and the blue quail are found here.

Food, water and cover are the keys to quail populations. Without any one of these three factors, quail populations will decrease or they will leave entirely. This explains the wide fluxuations of quail numbers from year to year.

Landowners and operators can help the quail populations by planting crops and plants that will provide food and cover for quail. Rocky outcrops and field boundaries are excellent places to plant crops for quail. All farm grown grain including corn are acceptable quail food. In general, however it can be said that weeds are the most widely distributed source of quail food. Tillage operations such as disking encourages the growth of weeds and is the most inexpensive method of producing food and cover plants for quail.

Millions of dollars are spent each year in Texas by hunters hunting quail. Landowners and operators are beginning to realize that wildlife grown on their lands is another crop and can be harvested. Hunting leases are becoming more available each year. Most landowners lease by the day or by the year to large groups of hunters. The quail is a means of bringing the landowner and sportman together and they both benefit from it. The Soil Conservation Service will provide technical assistance to anyone interested in improving quail habitat on their land.

Fire Erupts On Panama Cargo Ship

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Fire broke out on a cargo ship from Panama docked here Friday night, the Coast Guard reported. No one was injured.

Six units from the Galveston Fire Department fought the blaze that broke out shortly before midnight aboard the 343 foot long Christina. The 2,992 ton vessel carried scrap steel and iron.

The cause of the fire was not immediately known.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Believe it or not, my husband makes $35,000 a year, but we are so broke he has considered leaving his body to a medical school to save the expense of a funeral.

The reason Freddy is so broke is because he was married twice before and he has to support three families. So now he is throwing a small fortune away on wives and children he never sees. It is like buying oats for a dead horse. I don't say he should let his ex-wives and children starve to death but both his ex-wives are staying single and bleeding him for all he's worth, just to be mean.

How can Freddy get the alimony and support money reduced? Don't tell us to ask a lawyer. If it weren't for lawyers we wouldn't be this broke.

"HARD UP" IN HOLLYWOOD

DEAR HARD UP: When you want legal advice, your best bet is still a lawyer. The "horses" for whom Freddy is buying oats are still very much alive. And when a man changes "horses" three times, he had better have enough "oats" to stock Santa Anita. It looks like you picked a losing oat-burner, Kiddo.

DEAR ABBY: Whoever said teen-age years were the happiest didn't know what they were talking about. I am 13 and I am not the least bit happy. Let me explain.

I can't date.

I can't wear heels.

I can't wear lipstick (even pale pink).

I can't wear nail polish (any kind).

I can't shave my legs.

I can't wear shorts or slacks.

I can't wear low-back dresses.

I can't listen to the radio or watch TV when I want to.

I can't stay overnight at anybody's house.

Hell enough? Well, I have told my mother that she will regret it some day. And she will, too. I've been thinking of running away. I would, but I don't have any place to go. Please tell me what to do. I don't deserve this.

SICK OF BEING BOSSED

DEAR SICK: Your mother is probably sick, too — of being battled. The things you would like to do are privileges teenagers earn by showing they are mature enough to handle them.

One of the first signs of maturity is the ability to accept a decision without putting up an argument. Accept your mother's decisions for a while, and see what happens.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for telling the wife of a Mason to quit pestering her husband for the "secrets" of the lodge or she'd lose her Mason by degrees.

In the first place, Masonry is NOT a secret society. Everything one would want to know about the organization, its principles and teachings can be found in the public library. The only things which a member may not disclose are the signs, grips and means of recognition.

My mother was against my joining the Masons at first, but when she learned that Masonic work benefits the wives and families even more than its members, and in every degree, the admonition of a member's duties is "to God, your family, your country and yourself," she was proud that I had joined.
