Mass Air Strike Brings Challenge By Red MIGs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Navy Phantom jets flying top cover for the most massive air strike yet staged against North Viet Nam battled Communist MIGs over the sea 25 miles from Red China's Hainan Island today.

One of the Soviet-built jet fighters possibly was shot down. It was seen disappearing into clouds in flames.

The nationality of the MIGs was not determined, but they were presumed to be North Vietnamese. There was no announcement of any American losses in the air battle.

It is possible the MIGs were Chinese. There is a large airbase on Hainan Island.

In Saigon, American authorities announced that two more battalions of U.S. Marines and a squadron of Marine jet fighters will land shortly in Viet Nam, further reinforcing security at Da Nang and at the city of Hue.

A five-man Vietnamese military tribunal sentenced to death the driver of the getaway motorbike in the U.S. Embassy bombing of March 30 despite the Viet Cong's threat to execute a captive U.S. aid mission official, Gustav C. Hertz of Leesburg, Va., in reprisal.

The condemned terrorist is Nguyen Van Hai, 27. There is no appeal from the tribunal's sentence, but Chief of State Phan Kac Suu could commute it.

About 220 U.S. Air Force and Navy planes raided North Vietnamese bridges in this 20th such operation against military targets of the Hanoi regime since Feb. 7. The greatest number previously involved on a single day was about 160 on March 2.

U.S. authorities announced ground fire felled one plane, a Navy A4D Skyhawk, but said the pilot was rescued. Radio Peking declared eight of the raiders were shot down.

With the report on the Skyhawk, American announcements show a loss of 27 planes — U.S. and South Vietnamese — during the 20 strikes north of the border. The Communists now claim their gunners have downed 165.

The encounter between the MIGs and the American planes was the third in a week.

Last Saturday three MIGs approached a formation of U.S. planes over North Viet Nam but did not tangle with them.

On Sunday, MIGs attacked a formation of U.S. planes and shot down two F105s.

The Navy planes involved in the battle today were F4C Phantom jets, among the fastest fighters in use today. The Phantoms were assigned to a special "anti-MIG patrol."

About 140 U.S. Navy planes attacked Tam Da bridge, 120 miles south of Hanoi, while 80 Air Force jets attacked two other bridges in raids today.

"WATER COMIN' " were the magic words as firemen competed in races during the Mid-West Texas Firemen's Association convention here yesterday. Pictured is the team from Clyde during their effort which produced a time of 27.5 seconds — good for third place in the event.

WHILE WAITING FOR THEIR TURNS at competition, students from the 19 Region II AA, AAA, and AAAA schools had a chance to visit with each other at the Band Concert and Sight Reading contest held at Snyder High School today. Pictured waiting for their turn in the "warm-up" room are Chuck Cleveland from Cisco, Sarah Brown from Winters, Sue Hoffman, Cisco, and David Brown, Winters. Nearly 1,500 students are participating in the contests which were to end about 6:30 p.m.

House OKs Health Care

By EDMOND LE BRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's $6-billion health care-Social Security bill has swept through the House by a margin of almost 3 to 1 and Senate approval is expected within eight weeks.

The House passed the historic measure—the greatest revision and expansion of the Social Security system in its three decades of existence —by a 313-115 vote Thursday night after rejecting a Republican substitute by a much closer vote, 236 to 191.

Republicans argued the plan to provide comprehensive health services for older Americans and to boost retirement benefits should be financed primarily by the general Treasury. Democrats contended the bill's way is best —boosting the payroll tax on employers and employes. The House is overwhelmingly Democratic and the Democrats won.

The GOP leadership then freed individual Republicans from the restraint of a party position. So, even though GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan voted against the Democratic administration's bill, it carried by the wide margin of almost 3 to 1.

The two key votes went this way: On substituting the Republican bill, 128 Republicans and 63 Democrats were on the losing side, bowing to 226 Democrats and 10 Republicans.

On final passage of the administration bill, 248 Democrats and 65 Republicans triumphed over 42 Democrats and 73 Republicans.

Johnson said the House action "demonstrates once again the vitality of our democratic system in responding to the needs and will of the people."

The first step on the Senate side is a round of hearings before the Finance Committee. The chairman, Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., said it will not be able to take up the measure until after the Easter recess, scheduled for April 15-21.

BERLIN (AP) — The Berlin autobahn was closed again tonight just when Communist pressures on the isolated city appeared to be easing.

Firemen's Convention Held Here

More than 175 out-of-town firemen and their wives registered here Thursday for the Mid - West Texas Firemen's Association semi - annual convention.

Highlight of the convention were the races in which teams of firemen from the various cities competed with each other to see who could post the best time in "hooking up" a pumper engine to a fire hydrant, and actually get water from the nozzle several yards from the truck.

Snyder, as the host city, led off each competition with a "pattern" time. The host city does not compete.

In the pumper race, Snyder set a pattern of 20.4 seconds. Winning first place was Haskell with a time of 22.5. Second went to Rotan with a time of 25.6, and Clyde placed third with 27.5 seconds.

In the six-man race, Snyder set a pattern of 11.9 seconds. Haskell won the competition with 12.1 seconds.

In the two-man race, Snyder's pattern time of 12.1 seconds was bested by Rotan, who were the winners with 11.1 seconds.

Officers elected at the business session of the convention were Charlie Woods of Rotan, president; Leonard Keller of Snyder, first vice president; and G. L. Autry of Snyder, secretary.

The next convention will be held in Hamlin in October.

Colorado City's bid for the April, 1966 convention was accepted by the Association.

Local firemen who were responsible for the arrangements for the convention, expressed satisfaction this morning with the way the convention was carried off, and noted with pride that a number of the visitors said that the Snyder meeting was "the best convention we've ever been to."

The day's activities closed with a Fireman's Ball at the Snyder Country Club.

Actress Linda Darnell Suffers Bad Burns

GLENVIEW, Ill. (AP) — Actress Linda Darnell suffered extensive burns over her body today in a fire in the home of friends in Glenview, a Chicago suburb.

Miss Darnell was reported in serious condition in Skokie Valley Hospital with what fire officials described as burns over 90 per cent of her body.

Also injured was Patricia Curtiss, 16, daughter of the owner of the home in which the fire occurred; and a neighbor, David Mundhenk, 22. The girl's mother, Mrs. Richard Curtiss, 40 was treated for shock.

Wait'll The Stamps Will Buy New Wives!

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wilmer Struebing, a member of the State Legislature, testifying Thursday at a committee hearing on his bill to ban trading stamps, said: "The time will come when you won't be able to kiss your wife goodbye, because you'll stick to her."

No Wonder It's Called Albert Einstein High

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — The Albert Einstein High School, appropriately enough, emerged the winner Thursday of the annual Montgomery County math meet.

The questions might have intrigued even the great Einstein.

For example: "A student on vacation of 'D' days observed that: It rained seven times morning or afternoon. When it rained in the afternoon, it was clear in the morning. There were five clear afternoons. There were six clear mornings. What does 'D' equal?"

The answer, of course, is nine days.

Concert Drive In Final Days

The current membership drive of the Scurry Concert Association will close Saturday at noon.

Campaign chairman Mrs. Herbert Feather has asked that all workers on the drive should hand in their reports to headquarters by that time. About 10 per cent of the workers have made final reports so far and it is expected that the major rush will be tomorrow.

There are three or four concerts presented each season in the Snyder High School auditorium - and memberships must be secured this week. There are no single admissions sold to any one concert.

Annual dues are $7.50 for adults and $4 for students and may be mailed to Scurry Concert Association, P. O. Drawer CC, Snyder. A telephone call to HI 3-3312 can also reserve a membership. Checks should be made out to the Scurry Concert Association and may also be post - dated until May 10.

The talent committee has announced two attractions for next season - the Chicago Little Symphony with Thor Johnson conducting, and the New York Sextet.

Edmond Karlsrud will lead the New York Sextet. Snyder audiences will remember him from the Karlsrud Chorale some seasons ago.

The New York Sextet features a bass-baritone, soprano, mezzo - soprano, two tenors and a baritone. This vocal ensemble will present great art songs, operatic selections and Broadway hit tunes. Each member of the group is a competent professional soloist in his own right. The key to the success of the Sextet is the ability to please every audience with unique programs and special arrangements.

The choice of other artists is directly dependent on the number of subscriptions. Until the officers and directors know the size of their budget, they cannot complete their engagement of artists.

Vote Bill Has Group's OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A voting bill described by the chairman as "strong dosage" was approved today by a House Judiciary subcommittee by a heavy bipartisan margin.

The bill sticks closely to the original measure sent up by the administration but adds provisions designed to make it easier for Negroes to vote in all parts of the country.

"This is a tough bill," said chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y. "It is strong dosage."

Celler will convene the full Judiciary Committee next Tuesday to start work on the bill.

Only one member of the 11-member subcommittee, Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., voted against sending the bill to the full committee.

Among other things, the House subcommittee included a provision which would outlaw poll taxes as a requirement for voting in state and local elections. They are barred by constitutional amendment in federal elections, but questions have been raised about the constitutionality of applying the ban to state and local elections.

The Senate Judiciary Committee added a similar provision Thursday as one of a series of amendments to its own version of the voting rights bill.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, said the amendments "absolutely jeopardize the bill in my judgment" and announced he would seek a reversal of the decisions. But Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., one of the sponsors, predicted the committee would stick by its vote.

Baptist Ministers Jailed By Castro

HAVANA (AP) — The Castro government is holding 47 Baptist preachers — including two Americans — and 13 laymen as spies for the United States.

A spokesman for the Western Cuba Baptist Convention said two-thirds of the Baptist ministers in western Cuba are in jail.

Swiss Ambassador Emil Stadelhofer, who handles U.S. interests in Cuba, has not been permitted to see the arrested men.

The Americans are the Rev. Herbert Caudill, 61, head of the convention and a missionary here the past 35 years; and his son-in-law, the Rev. James David Fite, 31, of Wynesboro, Ga.

Their wives and relatives of the other men were notified they would be able to visit the prisoners next Tuesday.

Mrs. Caudill refused Thursday night to comment on her husband's arrest except to remark that they had "not faced any trouble before in Cuba and were dedicated to teaching and preaching."

Cuban authorities picked up seven ministers in outlying provinces some days ago. Thursday at dawn, raiding parties searched homes and churches in the Havana area, arresting 40 preachers and the 13 laymen.

Caudill was arrested at the Baptist Seminary in Havana, where he lived and taught.

Cuba's government radio charged that Caudill and the other churchmen, "working under the cloak of religion, organized a counterrevolutionary group for missions of espionage and subversion."

Caudill, a native of Clinchport, Va., returned to the United States last year for surgery on a detached retina. Dr. Arthur B. Rutledge, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, said in Atlanta, Ga., Thursday that during the months Caudill was home, he would not even discuss Cuban political matters for fear he would jeopardize his return to Cuba.

The Western Cuba Baptist Convention has 90 churches with an estimated 9,000 adult communicants in Havana, Matanzas, Pinar del Rio and Las Villas provinces. The Eastern Cuba Baptist Convention, affiliated with the Northern Baptists in the United States, has about 16,000 members.

Louisiana March Ends In Uproar

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — A Negro march on City Hall in this racially tense lumber mill town ended abruptly today in confusion and near hysteria at a downtown intersection about eight blocks after it began.

Whites clustered at the intersection said one of the official cars convoying the line of some 500 Negroes ran over a white man.

The uproar split the parade of Negroes, marching four abreast, about a third of the way down the line and stalled the march.

Asst. Police Chief L. C. Terrell tried to get things moving again. When he failed, he ordered the march turned back.

It wasn't clear exactly what happened.

Terrell shouted that the car did not touch the man. This was angrily disputed by many whites in the crowd.

The man sprawled on the pavement until an ambulance took him away.

The marchers, mostly teenagers who skipped school, had started out for the City Hall to back demands for changes in the old pattern of racial segregation.

Their leaders included James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, which is assisting the Bogalusa Civil and Voters League in a registration drive.

City police were on extraordinary alert, backed up by state police and sheriff's deputies.

It was a sticky, summer-like morning as marchers set out.

The march started after an hour of speeches and freedom songs at a Negro union hall.

The marchers had a permit from Mayor Jesse H. Cutrer.

Cutrer had appealed to a meeting of about 200 white people to "avoid another Selma."

Early Bird Obeys Signal

WASHINGTON (AP)—A control station at Andover, Maine, sent signals to the Early Bird communications satellite today, designed to station it in a hovering orbit over the Atlantic between South America and Africa.

The Communications Satellite Corp. said the satellite's motor fired successfully at 8:40 a.m. in response to the signals.

The motor operated for 19.7 seconds to push the satellite to the desired altitude of 22,300 miles, directly above and along the equator.

ON VIET NAM

Chinese Spurn Offer Of Talks

TOKYO (AP) — Red China rejected President Johnson's offer of peace talks on Viet Nam today, and North Viet Nam and the Soviet Union gave no indication that their response would be any more favorable.

Peking Radio said Johnson's speech Wednesday was "full of lies and deception." It called his offer of unconditional discussions "old stuff."

The Chinese broadcast said the object of the offer was to disarm the South Vietnamese people and force them to give up the fight against the Saigon government so the U.S. military could remain to run the country.

It said the President's proposal "clearly stated" that U.S. forces will not leave South Viet Nam and that Saigon's "puppet government must be assured of its rule."

Peking called Johnson's proposal to funnel $1 billion in aid into Southeast Asia "a political deal to weaken the South Vietnamese people's fight and dissolve the U.S. predicament (in Viet Nam)."

Hanoi Radio's midnight broadcast still made no mention of Johnson's offer but repeated a called for unity to defeat U.S. aggression.

North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh said in an interview Monday with the Japanese Communist newspaper Akahata, published today, that his government stood by its demands for withdrawal of all U.S. troops from South Viet Nam and an end to U.S. bombing of the North as conditions for talks. These demands have already been rejected by the United States.

Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev accused the United States of "aggression" in Viet Nam but made no mention of Johnson's offer for talks.

Speaking in Warsaw Thursday, Brezhnev said the Soviet Union is ready to give North Viet Nam all the aid it needs.

In Moscow, Soviet President Anastas A. Mikoyan accused the United States of barbarous actions in Viet Nam. U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler suggested to Mikoyan after his remarks at a Kremlin reception that he read Johnson's speech.

The Soviet press published Johnson's offer of talks without prior conditions for the first time today. The story appeared without comment in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend says that what he likes most about me is that I am morally aloof. He is right. I don't put up with any monkey business. Fred (not his real name) used to be very thick with a certain girl for about three years. He said she was not morally aloof like I was. In fact, she was just the opposite. Now Fred tells me that he has to go back with her every now and then to test his strength and make sure that he is absolutely through with her. I don't care for this idea. He says I don't have any kick coming because I always win out since he always comes back to me, which proves that he is absolutely through with her, doesn't it? I think there's something wrong with the way he figures. What is it?

MORALLY ALOOF

DEAR ALOOF: It's heads he wins, tails you lose. Tell Fred that if he can't prove his "strength" by staying away from the other gal entirely, you'll be not only morally aloof, but physically absent from his life.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I don't mind people borrowing things, but I can't stand beggars. My neighbor (I can't call her a friend, she is just an acquaintance) carries things too far. She sends her children over here for two eggs, or shoe polish, or sugar, mustard, or bread. She has even borrowed money from me. She has never returned anything. Her excuse is "We didn't have time to go to the store."

Since I always have on hand what she sends for, I can't say I don't have it and sin against God. And I can't say I can't spare it when I really can. My husband hates this situation. And it is getting me down. Please advise.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Don't lie. Tell your neighbor that because she has never returned anything she's borrowed, you have decided not to lend her anything in the future. It may be exactly what she needs to wake her up. If she's offended and never speaks to you again, you are not out much.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I met a woman recently at the home of a mutual friend. She was very pretty, intelligent, refined and friendly. But for some strange reason, which I cannot for the life of me understand, I took an instant dislike to her. This has been bothering me because I rarely form an opinion about a person before getting to know him. Are first impressions usually correct? Why do you suppose I took such a definite dislike to this woman?

MISS T.

DEAR MISS T.: Perhaps she reminded you of someone you dislike with good reason. Or possibly, she was TOO "pretty, intelligent and refined," and you were jealous. First impressions are the result of one's combined prejudices and should not be relied upon.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: This is my solution for getting teen - age daughters to help willingly with the dishes. Simply refuse to let anyone who has "too much homework" or is "too tired" to help with the dishes receive any phone calls for the evening. After years of scolding and threatening, I finally hit upon this idea and it worked like magic. I only wish I had thought of it sooner. Pass this on to your readers, Abby.

Viet Policy Switch Indicates Hastily Mapped Action Plan

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration's switch to a softer line on how to start peace talks in Viet Nam raises a question about how thoroughly the problem was thought through in the first place.

The switch President Johnson made this week in his nationwide talk leaves the door open to an impression some of the U.S. policy is being made up as it goes along, except for the basic, original determination.

That part of the policy has always been clear: to save South Viet Nam from a Communist takeover.

But Johnson started out with a hard-nosed policy when, immediately after the Red guerrillas attacked an American air base, on Feb. 7 he ordered Communist North Viet Nam bombed.

And the White House explained: what was wanted was a "clear indication" from the Reds that they were ready to stop attacking the South. Later Johnson said he wanted peace talks conducted "under conditions that would be productive." And so on.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Dean Rusk was echoing this line, almost to the point of banality, even though the repeated American bombing of North Viet Nam put no visible dent in the guerrillas. They kept on fighting.

As time passed the administration's tactics and position, as Johnson outlined it, were being criticized at home and abroad, by friends, neutrals, Russia and Red China.

It's understandable that in the beginning the administration must have felt the hard line on peace talks was necessary to convince the Reds that American policy and bombings were not just gestures to save face.

Two months of bombings brought no cries for peace from the Communists. And the criticism increased. Then Wednesday night Johnson abandoned the policy of laying down conditions before discussions could start.

(Johnson, however, said plainly the American bombings wouldn't stop and the United States wouldn't pull out "under the cloak of a meaningless agreement.")

But the switch on the peace talks, slight as it was, brought praise at home and abroad. Johnson also got criticism, not only from the Red Chinese who called his talk "lies and deception," but from Republicans, too.

It's hard to believe this new policy couldn't have been the policy from the beginning since the continued bombings, in the past as in the future, would if anything could, convince the Reds of American determination.

The very fact that Johnson finally made his broadcast explanation was also, in effect, a switch. He had been under pressure for weeks to make such a talk. But he and Rusk relied on cryptic, repetitious statements.

It's possible that by eliminating preconditions to a peace discussion Johnson now has put the burden on the Communist world to start negotiations. But that's probably sheer optimism.

The Chinese not only quickly repudiated Johnson's talk but the North Vietnamese, as usual, have said nothing. What's lacking is a knowledge of what's going on in the Communists' heads.

They may still feel, if they stick it out, they can gobble all South Viet Nam where half the population is not supporting either side.

This indifference of the South Vietnamese is good evidence that the United States, although it has been helping South Viet Nam for years, has done a miserably poor job of trying to convince the majority of the people they should be anti-Communist.

Perhaps the answer is that the United States for all these years put too much time, effort and money into worrying about whoever was running the government at the moment and not worrying enough about the people.

Boyle Holds Drill In Double Talk

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — It has been sometime since we've had a class drill in double-talk. So let's have one now.

Double-talk enables you to say what you should say in a situation, although you don't really mean it at all.

Parents use it when talking to children, and vice versa, and kids use it when talking to other kids. It's good at any age.

Here are a few examples followed by the literal meaning:

"Just a second, Mommy." If she really wanted me right now, she'd have screamed louder.

"My daddy can lick your daddy." I've got to bluff this bully some way.

"Gee, I had my theme right in this book, It must have dropped out in the bus on the way to school." I got so sleepy watching television last night I forgot to write it.

"I'd be glad to help you with your homework, but your teacher said she wanted you to do it by yourself." That new arithmetic is crazy. I don't understand it at all.

"This is the very last time I'm going to tell you to get ready for bed." After that, your father can start telling you.

"I don't want any dinner, Mama. I just don't feel hungry." Besides, I've got three candy bars hidden in my room.

"But Mom, every other girl in my class is already wearing high heels." If she lets me buy a pair, I'll be the first in our class to have them.

"Cross my heart, I'll never do it again." I sure didn't think she'd catch me this time.

"I didn't know it was that time. I guess the teacher musta kept us late." If she ever finds out where Jimmy and I went, I'm really gonna get it.

"Quit whining. When I was your age I had to walk three miles to school." Well, three blocks anyway.

"I just feel dizzy, and my stomach hurts. Can't I stay home today?" I'm unprepared in history, English and geography.

"Honest, Elizabeth, you're my very best friend in the whole world. Whatever made you think I was best friends with Mary Anne? She's so stuck up." I wish Mary Anne didn't like Susie better than me.

"You and Daddy say you love me, but you don't really." If I say this and start crying, maybe she won't spank me after all.

"The class in double-talk is now dismissed. I must compliment you, children. You behaved very well today." Heavens, how can I put up with these noisy brats until vacation time comes?

Junior Editors Quiz on NARWHALS

QUESTION: Why does a narwhal have such a long thin tusk?

• • •

ANSWER: The narwhal is a kind of whale which lives in Arctic seas. The long thin tusk projecting out in front of his head is really an enlargement of a tusk or tooth growing from his upper jaw on the left side. It has a spiral twist and is made of ivory, but being hollow most of the way, does not have as much value to the Eskimos as it would if it were solid. The meat of the narwhal, however, is very important to these northern people, as well as the blubber, from which they make oil.

Some authorities are not certain as to the exact reason for the narwhal's tusk. Others claim that this animal, which lives in seas frequently covered with an ice sheet, uses the tusk to break holes in the ice so it can breathe. Remember that the narwhal is a warm-blooded animal like other whales and can not get air from the water by breathing through gills in the manner of fishes.

The narwhal's horn figured in the creation of that beautiful mythical animal, the unicorn. Ancient artists seemed to delight in combining characteristics of animals in fanciful ways, and so we have the unicorn,—uniting a horse's body with a narwhal's tusk. Unicorns became widely used in medieval heraldry.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Our white unicorns come from a medieval tapestry which is one of the art treasures of the world. Look up some articles on heraldry in an encyclopedia and see if you can find how unicorns were used.

(Robert Ratasak of Amsterdam, N. Y. wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

The top two teams will qualify for competition in the regional tournament. Also, the district medalist and runnerup to the medalist will go to the regional competition. Jess Claiborne of Lamesa held the lead for medalist honors through the first 36 holes with a total of 148. Two Snyder players were in a close battle for runnerup individual honors, with Jimmy Featherston logging a 36-hole total of 152 and Darrell Haney 155.

Texas Hopes To Pad Lead

By The Associated Press

The University of Texas Longhorns will be seeking to lengthen their lead in the Southwest Conference baseball race at the expense of Rice when the two teams meet again today in Austin.

The Longhorns stampeded over the Owls 9-1 Thursday to run their loop record to 5-1 and maintain a half a game edge over Baylor, which took over sole occupancy of second place by defeating Southern Methodist 8-0.

Baylor is now 5-2 while Southern Methodist is in third place with a 4-3 record.

The Texas Aggies, breaking even with a 3-3 mark, move to Fort Worth today for a tilt with Texas Christian in the only other conference game. The Horned Frogs are trailing the league with a 0-5 record.

Baylor journeys to Houston today for a non-conference game with the University of Houston.

Saturday will see A&M at Texas Christian and Baylor at the University of Houston.

Initiation Tonight For Domed Arena

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Astros and the New York Yankees play the first indoor professional baseball game in history tonight and it is expected to be minus the controversy swirling around daytime ball in the celebrated Domed Stadium.

The Astros played a couple of intro-squad games Thursday.

The first, in the afternoon, brought dismay to builders of the $31,600,000 Domed Stadium when the outfielders couldn't see flyballs that got as high as 100 feet in the air. The sun's glare was too much for them.

The night game, however, was just perfect. There wasn't a bobble that could be attributed to glare.

Thus, the mighty structure, built to make baseball possible in comfortable surroundings whether it's raining or blowing or hot, will have no terrors for the two teams that have the privilege of bringing a new era to baseball.

There's one thing certain, however. If something arises tonight comparable to what occurred in the daytime, Roy Hofheinz, the builder of the Domed Stadium, and others backing the Astros will just scream.

Hofheinz didn't have a solution to the problem but he was optimistic that it would be solved. They already are working on it, considering use of special glasses or painting the dome so that the sunlight's glare can't come in. Or maybe just not playing any day games.

Neverthless there will be 49,500 fans in the great stadium at 6:30 p.m., CST, to watch the Astros of the National League meet the Yankees of the American League.

The place seats 46,000 but standing room will be sold to bring it close to the 50,000 mark.

Everyone agrees that the stadium is magnificent, beautiful and all other adjectives alloted to great engineering masterpieces. There is no question in anybody's mind but that the problems will be worked out.

Warren Giles, president of the National League, will be present along with Commissioner Ford Frick. Giles said he would have no comment on the fly ball situation until he has seen five games. But he did say "we will play in the Domed Stadium."

Sweetwater Nips Trojans

Lincoln High School's baseball team dropped a 7-4 decision to Sweetwater here Thursday in the first district game for both teams.

The Trojans managed seven hits off Henry Denson, Sweetwater pitcher, while Brady Cobbs was holding the visitors to five safeties. However, Sweetwater was aided by two Trojan errors, four passed balls and some erractic base running. Lincoln left 10 runners stranded on the sacks and had the bases loaded when the final putout of the game was made.

Cobbs delivered a triple and single to aid his own cause, while L. J. Brooks had a double and a single and Herman Malone walloped a double.

Matson To Attempt New Record Again

COLLEGE STATION Tex. (AP)—Four Southwest Conference schools stage a quadrangular meet here today with Randy Matson of Texas A&M the major attraction.

Matson will be attempting to break the world's record in the shot put. The 6-foot-6, 260-pound Aggie from Pampa heaved the 16-pound ball 67 feet and 9 inches at the Texas Relays last week.

That was just one inch short of the record of 67 feet 10 inches hung up by Dallas Long.

Matson is also due to hurl the discus at the meet, which will start at 7 p.m.

A&M, Texas, Baylor and Southern Methodist are competing in the four-way track and field meet.

Putting Tip Aids Player

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A putting tip from American Ed Furgol has helped move South Africa's Gary Player in front of the hottest band of shooters in the history of the prestige-laden Masters Golf Tournament today.

The 5-foot-7, 153-pound muscle man fired a seven-under-par 32-33—65 at a course he called "The Monster" and still wound up only two strokes in front of a formidable American quartet of favored Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema, Dan Sikes and Tommy Aaron.

Even with that 65 — one stroke behind the course and Masters record of 64 set in the opening round by second-place finisher Lloyd Mangrum in 1940 — the chipper South African had a tremendous task ahead of him if he hoped to duplicate his 1961 Masters victory.

The elite field of 91 of the world's best pro and amateur golfers relentlessly hammered the proud par 36-36—72, 6,980-yard course of the Augusta National Golf Course from the opening first-round shots in the morning until Player came roaring home around 6 p.m. on a hot and perfect day for golf.

Thirty-three players were under par and 44 were par or better as the stars treated the layout as if it was a short public links course.

In all, 11 players shot 69s or better, nine had 70s—including defending champion and four-times winner Arnold Palmer—13 had 71s and 11 matched par 72.

Frank Beard of Louisville, one of the best of the young set, was all alone in fifth place at 68.

The 69 group included Doug Sanders, only winner of two tournaments on the winter circuit; Ray Floyd, a cocky, 22-year-old bomber from Fayetteville, N.C., who says, "I can win it," Wes Ellis Jr.; long-hitting George Bayer, and fiery Tommy Bolt.

Player, a 29-year-old farmer who lifts weights to build up his strength and add yardage to his drives, unloaded his big guns right from the start. He fired three straight birdies and wound up with seven in all and no bogeys.

He required only 30 putts, using a putter he bought for $50 in Tokyo Garish Ginza, and a stance suggested by Furgol, the former U.S. Open champion from Export, Pa., only last weekend.

Nicklaus, off his 32-35, which easily could have been trimmed by two or three strokes with any breaks, still was rated the choice to win.

The Cleveland Indians have trained in Tucson, Ariz., since 1947.

Tigers Face Tors Today

The Snyder Tigers and Lamesa Golden Tornadoes were set to square off at 4 p.m. today in a District 3-AAA baseball game on the Towle Park diamond.

Both teams had perfect district records going into today's game, being the only teams to record victories in the young season.

The Tigers opened their district slate Tuesday at Sweetwater by turning back the Mustangs, 7-2.

Lamesa launched its conference slate last Saturday by nipping the district's defending champions, Brownfield's Cubs, 2-1. The Tornadoes then walloped Levelland, 5-0, on Tuesday.

Big Effort By Russell Sinks 76ers

BOSTON (AP) — Boston's Bill Russell has successfully made a surprise raid on Wilt Chamberlain's domain — scoring.

As a result, the Celtics beat Philadelphia 112-94 in the Eastern Division playoff finals Thursday night. They lead the best-of-7 National Basketball Association series 2-1 moving into game No. 4 on the 76ers' court tonight.

"Russell really beat us with those tap-ins and he did a great job on the offensive boards," said Chamberlain. "Heck, yes, he surprised me the way he scored early in the game. But I don't know what I could do about it."

Russell, blaming his sub-par performance for the second-game defeat, scored 12 of his 19 points as Boston jumped off to a 34-27 first-quarter lead Thursday night. He held the 7-foot-1 Chamberlain without a field goal until there were eight seconds left in the first half.

Chamberlain finished ahead 24-19 in the game and 37-26 in rebounds but the damage had been done. Russell had the better shooting average, a 9-7 edge in field goals, 8-1 bulge in assists, and was ahead 3-1 in steals.

The Western Division playoff finals resume tonight at Baltimore with the Los Angeles Lakers meeting the Bullets in the fourth game of their best-of-7 series. The Lakers hold a 2-1 lead.

What's the catch?
There isn't any.

Plunk $1691 into a salesman's hand and he'll plunk you into the seat of a new 1965 Volkswagen Deluxe Sedan. (Give him $30 more, and you'll be plunked into a Volkswagen with matching leatherette upholstery.)

Of course, you'll have to buy license plates and pay local tax. But that is it.

Sound a little too simple? Perhaps. But then the Volkswagen is a simple little car.

CHURCH NEWS

CHURCH NOTES

St. John's Episcopal

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week, when the liturgy sets before us the moving events of our Lord's death, and their inner significance. Day after day the sequence of events is followed as they occurred in the final week of His earthly ministry. Palm Sunday marks a time of refreshment in the sorrowful journey of Passiontide; the palms of Elim are recalled by the palm - branches and crosses of this day. After this, the enthusiasm of those who welcomed our Lord into Jerusalem receded, until He was left alone to his sorrows on Good Friday. Yet in this week He gave the true bread from heaven; on Good Friday at even man's deliverance from sin had been won, and in the morning of Easter Day the glory of the Lord Christ was revealed.

At the 8 a.m. celebration of the Holy Eucharist this Sunday, the Palm crosses will be blessed and distributed. The Rev. Truman E. Bennett, vicar, will be the celebrant and preacher.

At the 10:30 a.m. celebration of the Holy Eucharist, the Palm crosses will also be distributed. The Epistle, Philippians 2:5-11, and the Holy Gospel, St. Matthew 27:1-54, have been appointed to be read for Palm Sunday.

Alan Phillips will serve as Acolyte, and Dennis Holden will serve as Crucifer. Laddie Hanacek will serve as usher, and Miss Diane Hargrove will be organist.

The schedule for Holy Week is as follows:

Wednesday at 10 a.m. the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Maundy Thursday; a Holy day of obligation for all communicants, the celebration of the Lord's Supper will be at 7:30 p.m. It was on this day that our Lord gave His apostles the new commandment that they should love one another and it was also the day when He instituted the sacrement of His Body and Blood and commanded them to "do this in remembrance of Me." After the Lord's Supper, the altar will be stripped of all its ornaments except for the cross, and the crosses are veiled in black for Good Friday, the day of crucifixion.

Good Friday, the Three Hour Service of Meditations, 12-3 p.m. This is the one day in the year when the Holy Eucharist is not offered. It is the actual day of the Sacrifice of our Lord on the cross where days are days of the Eucharistic memorial of it.

Saturday, Easter Eve, 4 p.m. will be the blessing and lighting of the Paschal Candle and the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

St. John's Day School will be dismissed for the Holy Days of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday.
