May 20 Set As Date For Hospital Election

Canvass Set Tonight For Cancer Drive

With the appointment of Joe Ed Spencer as Crusade Chairman and Mrs. Blanche West as Residential Chairman, the 1967 Crusade Against Cancer got under way in Schleicher county recently and will be concluded with a house to house canvass tonight, Thursday.

Kickoff of the drive will take place at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, April 20th, at El Dorado Woolens. After meeting at the mill office the workers will begin their rounds in their designated parts of town and wind up the drive with refreshments back at the mill, it was stated by Mr. Spencer.

Riley Sloan of San Angelo, field representative of the American Cancer Society, will also be on hand and will show a film to the workers tonight.

In addition to the urgent goals of getting information about cancer into every household in the county, and raising the funds needed to continue cancer control activities throughout the state, volunteers for the ACS will have a new and important assignment.

The Cancer Education Survey will be conducted in Texas for the first time this year; an estimated 600,000 replies will be collected from households in every section of the state.

Here in Schleicher county, the Survey will be carried out by Crusaders during the House-to-House drive tonight. After householders have been given the list of cancer's seven warning signals, they will be asked to fill out a brief, confidential form, asking questions about their own health practices. The completed forms can then be mailed back in the envelope provided and will be counted by volunteers in the District Cancer Society office in San Angelo.

About 25 women will participate in the house to house canvass tonight.

Assembly Of God To Have New Pastor

Mrs. Gandy stated this week that the Assembly of God congregation expects a new pastor to be on the job here the 30th of April.

The Success will have further details next week.

Pre-School Round-Up Is Set For April 28th

Mrs. Gerald Hartgraves is chairman this year of the P-TA Round-Up for pupils who will enter the First Grades of the Eldorado Schools this coming September.

This year's Round-Up will be held a week from Friday, on April 28th.

Mrs. Hartgraves stated that letters will be sent early next week to parents of all incoming first graders. Letters will be sent to those families who listed first grade pupils in the census last January, but any who were overlooked in the census or have moved to the community since then should call Mrs. Hartgraves or the elementary school office.

Further details on the Round-Up will be given in next week's Success issue.

Jury Brings Verdict In Civil Case Tuesday

Local jurors heard arguments all day Monday and Tuesday in the case of Bill and Beverly Wilson vs. Lum Davis in which suit for damages was brought against Mr. Davis in connection with a vehicular accident which occurred south of town during the Labor Day week end of 1965.

Davis was charged with making an improper left turn in the path of a vehicle driven by Van Carson, in which Mrs. Wilson, of San Angelo, was a passenger. The suit centered on claims for damages brought by Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson's attorneys were Tom Webb and Ed Bolding of Webb and Stokes. Davis was defended by Curt F. Steib of Thigpin, Logan, Steib, Lewis and Middlebrook.

The case went to the jury shortly after 6:00 Tuesday evening, and they returned with their verdict at about 10:30 p.m. They awarded damages totaling $25,000 to Mrs. Wilson; however, Mr. Davis's attorney has 10 days in which to file an appeal.

Commissioners Accept Bid For New Grader

In a meeting Monday, the County Commissioners accepted the $23,560 bid from Anderson Machinery Co. for a new Allis-Chalmers Motor Grader, Model M-100B, pursuant to an order dated March 27.

Post Script

Now that election date has been set for the hospital, it might be well to set down some of the things the county expects to get for their $450,000.00.

The architect made one set of preliminary plans over a month ago. In consultation with the doctors they condensed the plans to remain within the resources of this county and still be efficient and workable.

Here are some of the specifications:

- 1. Hospital Wing—
A total of 20 beds, composed of 6 private rooms with baths, others semi-private.
Also an emergency room for surgery and delivery.
A central supply room.
A laboratory and x-ray room.
- 2. Nursing Wing—
Total of 19 beds, mostly semi-private.
Includes nurses' station, bath and utilities. Also a recreation room.
- 3. Administrative, Doctors—
Doctors' offices and treatment.
Also dentist office.
Also business office, records, and corridors and waiting room.
- 4. Kitchen, Dining, Mechanical—
This includes kitchen and dining space that totals 1,450 square feet as well as an area described as "mechanical" which covers 450 square feet.

The above figures are taken from reports by the architect which are in much more detail. His report includes a covered passage of 575 square feet and his total overall footage comes to 17,055 square feet.

All of these plans of course will come under the scrutiny and approval of the 7-man board of directors who will be named by the Commissioners Court on Monday, May 22.

From that day on those seven men will be in charge and will have the duty and responsibility of carrying the project through in accordance to the wishes (votes) of the majority in the county. Whoever they may be, they will have the job of selecting a site, advertising for bids and letting contracts. These first directors will have a big job and should have the co-operation of their fellow citizens.

The medical center plan which has been laid out for Eldorado is the minimum which can be expected to work and to become a success, according to the professional judgment of our two Pasadena doctors in co-operation with an experienced hospital architect. It is hoped that an architect's drawing of the building will be available for publication between now and election date.

When the voter reistration period came to a close January 31, it was revealed that 787 people had registered in the sheriff's office. This number plus some 200 "overs" constitute the voting strength of the county for this year.

In the coming hospital election all of these people would be allowed to vote PROVIDED they owned property which is assessed for taxes and on the county's tax roll.

Now there are a number of good citizens in the above group who reside in a rented house and have no taxable property except perhaps an automobile. The county tax office has not been in the habit of entering these lone vehicles on the tax roll. They COULD do it but but feel that it scarcely would be worth while.

If you should be in this particular group and are terribly anxious to vote you can do this—

You can go to the county tax assessor office and voluntarily render your car for tax purposes. But you'll have to do it before the end of April.

Someone has said that if you don't like the weather in Texas just stick around a little while and it will change.

The experience we had Monday

The Schleicher County Commissioners Court on their own initiative in special meeting here Monday, set Saturday, May 20th as date for a county-wide hospital district election, which will provide for a medical center and nursing wing for Eldorado where for the past year no medical facilities have been available.

On another page of this paper appears the legal notice calling for the election. The notice is scheduled to run again in next week's issue. It specifies that the election will be held in all of the voting boxes of the county, and that absentee voting will be provided in the Clerk's office beginning May 1st.

Ballots will be printed by the Success during the coming week. They will carry two propositions which, in brief, are—

FOR creation of the district.
AGAINST (same)

FOR issuance of $450,000 in bonds
AGAINST (same)

Following the election on Saturday, May 20th the Commissioners Court will meet on May 22nd to canvass the returns, and, assuming it will have been approved, they will at the same time name the seven directors who will be the governing body of the new Hospital District for the first year.

Action by the Court Monday brings to a head a campaign started eight months ago and carried on by a committee headed by Don McCormick which worked out the necessary legal procedures to bring it to a vote. During that time the Success has reported and explained each step, and it is felt that by now everyone in the county is familiar with it.

Another letter appears in this issue endorsing the hospital and more articles will appear in this paper during the next four weeks before the election. Additional thoughts appear in the Post Script column in this issue.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Schleicher County Medical Center is nearing the final stages now. Only one more test remains, and that is the vote of the Schleicher county people to make this a reality.

I understand the election is to be ordered for May 20, 1967, and the bond issue for $450,000 included on the ballot. It would be well for every citizen of the county to weigh all the costs and the benefits before casting their ballot.

The benefits have been mentioned many times, but I would like to repeat some of them for your consideration.

First, the economic advantage to our county is obvious, as a large per cent of the doctor and hospital bills being paid outside the county would come back home and this money be put in circulation locally.

Second, there would be a number of people employed in the hospital, providing more employment here, calling for more housing, and an increase in business.

Third, less time would be lost on trips to the doctor, and less transportation expense and inconvenience.

And fourth, the saving of time and suffering on critically ill patients will certainly help and on seems to bear that out.

At 6:00 a.m., I woke up feeling uncomfortably warm, kicked off all the covers and still found I was perspiring. There was a dead calm and not a breath of air stirring. Disgusted, got up and dressed and came to town for my usual two cups of coffee.

By 7:00 was standing in front of the shop watching big clouds rapidly boiling in from the north. Then with a rush came a norther—another dry norther that forced me back indoors to keep warm. Cold throughout the day but by 3:00 o'clock wind switched and came from the southeast, bringing about half inch of rain in short time.

7:45 p.m., waiting for Andy Griffith at 8:00 stepped outdoors. Air calm again but a bank of ominous black clouds were building up in the north.

Good night to stay home.

Connie Sue Speck's Car Burns Sunday

The firemen were called out Sunday afternoon to the street just north of the school where Connie Sue Speck's 1966 Chevrolet caught fire, after she started it and the wiring apparently shorted out.

The firemen came quickly, but the engine was considerably damaged and the top of the hood was badly scorching.

The Schleicher County Historical Survey Committee will meet Friday, April 21 at 7:30 at the Memorial Building.

Assembly Program Here To Demonstrate Atomic Energy

Atomic energy and its uses will be demonstrated at Eldorado High School April 26.

Assistant Bank Cashiers Attend Meeting In Dallas

Mary Nell Harkey and Frances Peters, Assistant Cashiers of The First National Bank, were in Dallas Friday and Saturday and Sunday of last week attending the 18th annual Regional Conference of The National Association of Bank Women. There were 207 members to attend this Conference, which was the largest of any ever held. This region is composed of Texas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas.

The conference theme this year was "The Art of Management—Development and Opportunity". The program consisted of a workshop "N.A.B.W. in Action". At this time members participated in the discussion of Customer Relations, Business Relations, and Personnel Relations. There was an interesting panel discussion, "May I Speak to the Manager?", given by several outstanding business leaders of Dallas—this proved informative as they were discussing ideas they would like to see the Banking Institutions give to the public. We were fortunate in having two outstanding speakers, Dr. Eerie Darnall, Psychologist, who spoke on "Managing Your Time", and Dr. Cleo Dawson, a Psychologist, Lecturer, T. V. Personality, and Author of best seller, "I Came to the Valley", who spoke on "For Every Problem, There's An Answer."

Also attending this Regional Conference were the national president and vice-president from Wichita, Kansas, and Williamsburg, Va. Accompanying Mary Nell and Frances were Mrs. Janice Ratliff and Mrs. Edna Durham of The First National Bank of San Angelo, and Mrs. Leslie Baker and Mrs. Jim O'Harrow of Eldorado.

"Terrace Maintenance For Soil and Water Conservation"
By Lloyd Johnson, S.C.S.

The rain of last week has improved the prospects of crops in part of the Eldorado-Divide S. & W.C.D. The rains varied from about 1/2 inch up to 5 inches. Unfortunately, some of the District did not get any rain. Most of the rain came fast and started running to the low places and terraces soon after it began to fall. In the farming area that received up to 5 inches of rain, some terraces were broken and water spilled around the ends of some terraces. Water held above terraces that did not break, and the water that went into the soil above the terraces before the terraces broke, will provide moisture to get crops off to a good start.

Following heavy rains is a good time to check the adequacy of a terrace system. During years that rainfall is not received in a large amount in any one rain, terraces that have been constructed for several years may appear to have sufficient height and width. However, after terraces have been on the land a few years, they deteriorate until they do not have sufficient height and width.

Terrace maintenance should equal or exceed the importance of terrace construction. Level closed end terraces help improve the chances of a crop each year by holding the water on the land where it falls for crop use. Water lost from the field does not leave the field alone, but it carries away soil and its nutrients. Properly constructed and maintained terraces help maintain or improve the value of the land.

Terraces, like a chain, are only as strong as their weakest part. Terraces without proper end closure can not serve the purpose intended. Without end closures, water is lost from above the terraces by running around the terrace ends. Too much end closure on terraces cause terraces to break, after rains in the amounts and intensity that can not be held by the effective height of the terrace.

The best time to repair and maintain damaged terraces is just as soon as the field is dry enough following the rain that did the damage. Breaks in terraces that are not repaired before the next rain lose water that is needed for crop use, breaks are made bigger and take more time to repair and gullies start where the water runs out of the break. Water lost from broken terraces can fill lake areas and prevent crops from being planted, destroy growing crops, and crops ready for harvest.

Terraces maintenance and repair can usually be done with farm equipment that is already on the farm. Where fills need to be made at washed out places, a tractor drawn scraper can be used to do a good job. However, the implement that has probably been used the most to make terrace fills and repairs, is a tool bar with grader blade bolted to the foot pieces. Also, a board is bolted to the foot pieces above the grader blade to facilitate the carrying of the dirt. Dirt can be moved into the area to be filled from a wide area and the fill can be left smooth, where-by it can be farmed.

How much rain that is received for crop use is very important. However, more important than how much rain received is the amount that is kept where it falls for crop use. Good crops can not be grown without the needed rainfall unless they are irrigated. Water lost from rainfall or irrigation does not benefit crops. The water that is kept for crop use is all that counts.

The maximum amount of water from rainfall can be kept where it falls for crop use, by applying and maintaining all the conservation practices needed on the land. Assistance in planning and applying the needed conservation practices is available from the Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the District. Cost share assistance in applying the needed conservation practices is available from the Great Plains Conservation Program, administered by the S. C. S., and from the Schleicher County A.S.C.S. office.

'Three Coins In A Fountain' Theme This Year's Jr.-Sr. Banquet

Last Saturday night the Junior class and their sponsors, Jack Bell and Wayne McDonald, honored the Senior class of 1967 with a banquet and dance.

The theme for the affair was "Three Coins in a Fountain" and it was carried out with two large murals, pastel walls and ceilings, an Italian wishing fountain and a corner garden.

The program for the banquet included the invocation by Billie Gayl Blaylock, vice president of the Junior class, and Rusty Meador, class president, offered the welcome. Bobby DeLong, president of the Senior class, responded with appreciation for his class. The entertainment for the evening was Miss Anita McKewn, a ballad singer from the University of Texas. She played the guitar and sang several numbers.

The Junior class took this opportunity to recognize Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lester as special guests. Mr. Lester has been on the local school board for 11 years and Rusty, on behalf of the class, thanked him for his many contributions to the educational system and wished him and his family good fortune as they move to Colorado City.

The Junior class mothers prepared a buffet supper, also following the Italian theme. Lasagne, chicken catceteri, shrimp, a fruit plate, tossed salad and hot bread completed the selection. The dessert was an individual serving of tartini, also an Italian dish.

After the banquet the tables and chairs were cleared for dancing with music provided by "The Fantastic Bunch" from Alpine.

The Junior class wishes to thank all those who helped make the annual Junior-Senior Banquet a success.

Mohair producers are reminded of the annual membership meeting to be held at Junction, Texas, in the High School Auditorium, on Saturday, April 22 at 10:00 o'clock a.m. A barbecue lunch will be served at noon courtesy of the Junction Warehouse Company.

The purpose of this meeting is to elect directors and to organize the new council in accordance with the agreement with the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Schleicher County is in District 5, comprising Irion, Tom Green, Concho, Menard and Schleicher counties. 1,647,292 pounds of mohair was produced in these counties in 1965. Three (3) directors will be elected from the district. Directors will be elected from representatives at the meeting, according to word received from Mr. C. A. (Al) Dishman, chairman, planning committee Mohair Council of America.

Mohair producers are asked to be present at this meeting to represent the county.

If you expect to have an abundance of flowers on your rose bushes this spring and summer, start your disease control program immediately. It is usually too late for good control when blackspot becomes visible on the leaves. Begin spraying or dusting the foliage as soon as growth starts in the spring and continue to use a good fungicide every week to 10 days throughout the summer.

It is still not too late to complete your landscape planting. While bare root planting is not too successful at this late date, ornamentals in containers can be planted successfully throughout the late spring and summer if extra care is taken. Care must be taken in removing the container in order not to break the soil ball. In areas where plants are exposed to strong wind and bright sunlight, it is helpful to provide a temporary screen or shelter. Give the plants plenty of water until they are well established but do not over-water—a saturated soil is not conducive to good root development.

Local 4-H and FFA teams are in training in preparation for entering the Invitational Range Judging Contest, to be held at Walter Pope's ranch beginning Saturday, April 22, at 9:00 a.m. Both junior and senior teams will be entered.

This range contest is sponsored by the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation supervisors. Mr. Ben Hext is chairman of the board.

When improving a flower bed or planter box or leveling the lawn with topsoil, make sure you know the source of the soil. Many homeowners have added to their lawn problems by bringing in wild garlic, nutgrass and other hard-to-kill weeds as well as disease organisms, nematodes and insects. This makes for added expenses for chemicals and labor to control the pest.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF SCHLEICHER COUNTY

We, the undersigned members of the Executive Committee for Schleicher County Hospital District report the following:

We requested the Honorable Commissioners Court to call an election for May 20th. We are very grateful to the Court for calling this election upon their own order, thereby saving time.

We requested the amount of bond issue to be $450,000. This amount was arrived at after much study and consideration by a number of people and principally, Mr. Don Goss, architect. After making several plans, Mr. Goss came up with a Medical Center that we think is a minimum size that can be operated economically. This will consist of:

1. Hospital Wing with a total of twenty beds, some private and some semi-private.
2. Surgical Suite, with emergency room, Surgical and Delivery, Laboratory, X-ray and central supply rooms.
3. Extended Care Wing, (Nursing Home) with a total of nineteen beds with baths, also Nurses Station and Recreation room.
4. Administrative - Doctors, Doctors offices, Treatment rooms, Dentist office, business offices, Corridors and waiting rooms..
5. Kitchen - Dining & Mechanical rooms.

Mr. Goss, a well qualified architect, who has had a lot of experience in building hospitals as well as other buildings, states the above described Medical Center can be built and equipped, and site purchased for $450,000.

We, the Executive Committee know and realize the Board of Directors to be appointed by the Commissioners Court is the governing body and will have the authority to determine the size of the Medical Center.

Respectfully submitted,
Don McCormick,
Duane Branham
Ronnie Mittel
Members of Executive Committee

Water Rights Law

After 50 years of effort, Texas now has a water rights adjudication act to help solve water disputes without prolonged and costly court battles.

Act follows the "Oregon plan" of administrative procedure in resolving water wrangles, plus automatic judicial review.

Riparian users must file a record of their claims with the Texas Water Rights Commission, the administrative agency, by Sept. 1, 1969.

Backers of the bill said they hope it will prevent repetition of cases like the Rio Grande Valley water rights suit which has cost an estimated $10 million ($400,000 of that out of state funds) over years of litigation. Case now is on appeal.

Industrial Amendment Passes

Legislature has cleared for submission to voters next year the first constitutional amendment of this lawmaking session—to permit cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development.

If approved by Texans in the November, 1968, election, bonds could be used to build industrial plants for private concerns and repaid through revenues of the corporations. No tax funds would be obligated.

Medicaid Bill Advanced

Senate has passed a bill to implement the "medicaid" program of medical assistance to needy that would provide a program totaling more than $200 million in the next two years.

Federal government will match state expenditures on a four-to-one-dollar basis. Bill, virtually assured of House passage also, would provide hospital, nursing home and physicians services to public welfare recipients, including aged, blind, disabled and families with dependent children.

MH/MR Legislation

Last week was a big one for Mental Health-Mental Retardation.

House passed a bill to allow MH/MR board members to be paid for every day they work instead of just the days they attend a meeting; bill transferring the authority to license private mental hospitals from the State Department of Health to MH/MR; and a bill to allow the voluntary admission of mentally retarded persons to state schools.

House MH/MR Committee favorably reported a bill setting out the schedule of monthly payments for persons in mental retardation facilities; bill to allow MH/MR to make contracts for the provision of MH/MR services with hospitals and other private facilities; and a bill to require county attorneys of counties where community centers are located to file suit to collect fees for the treatment of non-indigent persons in those centers.

Proponents contend that consumers will have a better loan market if banks and other lending agencies charge the same rates as finance firms.

Although opponents emphasize that the bill allows up to 240% annual interest (on a loan of $10 for one month), rate permitted still is a reduction from that now fixed as a ceiling in that class of small loans. (Actual charge on the $10 transaction under the code would be $2.) Reduction is about 25% below those now charged for loans under $100.

These rates are authorized by the code: —Auto installment loans—$7.50 per $100 on new cars ranging to $15 per $100 on autos over four years old.

—Regulated loans—$18 per $100 annually on first $300 and $8 per $100 above $300, to $2,500.

—Secondary mortgage loans on residential property—$8 per $100, same rate as on installment loans.

—Retail installment sales and services would be limited to $12 per $100 for first $500, ranging down to $9 over $1,000.

—Revolving credit maximum would be 1 1/2% per month for first $500 of unpaid balance and 1% on unpaid balance over $500.

Optometry Bill Delayed

Bill to reverse State Board of Optometry ruling which restricts multiple-office practice and advertising of eye glass firms under trade names (e. g. Texas State Optical, Lee) was sent to subcommittee after hearing before Senate Public Health Committee.

Fate of the bill is uncertain. Contested ruling, upheld by State Supreme Court, was made by six-member Board, five of whom are independent optometrists.

Dr. N. Jay Roberts of Beaumont, TSO head, said Board ruling was aimed at curtailing competition and would run up prices of glasses.

Board attorney Charles Babb argued advertising would not be prevented by ruling, although he criticized some advertising by multiple office optometrists. He said intent of Board's ruling is to require optometrists to practice under own names and maintain closer relationship to "patients."

—Court would have power under new bill to require presence in courtroom of parents or guardians of a minor charged with driving while intoxicated.

—Law does not require an employee to be given time off to vote while working overtime hours for which he volunteered.

—Galveston County may use flood control funds to maintain seawalls.

—It is responsibility of the committing county to physically return an escaped juvenile offender to Texas Youth Council custody.

—Bill authorizing exchange of benches by justices of peace in the same county is constitutional.

—Harris County commissioners court cannot enjoin a subdivider from selling lots on the ground that he has failed to complete roads to standards of county engineer.

Relays Set Monday For Grade School

The B.V.D. Relays, a track meet for all Eldorado 4th, 5th, and 6th grade P. E. boys, will be held at the new track on Monday, April 24th, at 3:45 p.m.

All the boys have been working on their events for several weeks, and some good times are expected. Each boy is entered in at least three events, consisting of one running event and two field events.

Grade classification is not considered for purposes of this track meet. Rather, the boys are divided into five classifications by age and weight.

The group classifications are as follows:

- Div. I. — age 9 & 10, 70 lbs. & under
- Div. II. — 9 & 10, 71 lbs. and over
- Div. III. — 11 & 12, 85 lbs. & under
- Div. IV. — 11 & 12, 86 lbs. & over
- Div. V. — 13, 14, & 15 year olds.

Events that will be held in the track meet include:

Running events—60-yard dash, 75 yard dash, 600 yard dash, 40-yard low hurdles.

Field Events—Running Broad Jump, Standing Broad Jump, Softball Throw, Hurl Ball Throw.

Ribbons will be awarded the first three places in each event in each division.

The featured event in the Relays will probably be the 40-yard low hurdles. Preliminaries have been held, and the top five boys in each division will be running the hurdles in the track meet.

The B.V.D. Relays will become an annual event beginning this year. The winning time in each event will become a record for that division. No admission will be charged, so come on out to the new track and watch these future Eagles in action. Field events will begin at 3:45, with the running events to get under way at 4:30. The meet should be concluded before 6:00 p.m.

Hit, Miss Rains Aid Game and Fish

Austin.—The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said today widespread rains, apparently the best in the last six months, were exceptionally timely for both game and fish resources.

J. R. Singleton, executive director, said field reports indicated that all but the extreme eastern end of the Rio Grande Valley got at least some moisture.

He emphasized that the rains "were fairly general with the amounts varying greatly." The precipitation ranged from light showers on up to seven inches at Seymour west of Wichita Falls in north Texas. Blum in central Texas reported an unofficial five inches. Several readings of up to four inches were registered.

A spokesman for the United States weather bureau in Austin said the wet spell could have been the most general in the last six months. Austin, which last week ended the driest six months in 30 years, got more than two inches. Taylor, just to the east, had more than four inches in one downpour.

Waco, another Texas dry spot, measured almost four inches over a two-day period.

Singleton said the benefits would be spread through the Animal Kingdom, significantly helping to curb the food pinch on the overpopulated deer ranges. The moisture also arrived as an indispensable asset to ground nesting game birds, such as quail and wild turkey, he said.

Fish life, Singleton added, was endangered by low water in lakes and streams. The heavier rains, he explained, will provide greater access areas at the peak of the spawning season. The runoff should carry new nourishment for the state's game species and characteristically stimulate biting by the vaunted catfish just as the anglers were rallying enmasse for the new season.

Colonial Dames Entertain With A Luncheon

Mrs. V. G. Tisdale, president of the local Chapter of Colonial Dames, entertained chapter members in her home with a luncheon on last Thursday at 12:30 o'clock. She was assisted by her granddaughter, Mrs. Patsy Hartgraves.

Decorations consisted of some arrangements of roses and peonies. A beautiful ecru embroidered linen cloth imported from Hong Kong covered the table, with matching napkins, which with the sterling silver, crystal and china made a very beautiful table setting.

In the business session a rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Mary Coupe for her work in compiling the very nice Year Book. Mrs. Alexander read an account of the Organizational meeting of the chapter from the Success, Dec. 18, 1958. Mrs. Elizabeth Powell read an article pertaining to an early Schleicher County school, the Kaffir school, which she and several other men and women attended in the early days. Mention was made of our deceased member, Mrs. W. F. Meador, Sr., and of her work as Secretary-Treasurer of the local chapter and of her interest in the objects for which the Organization stands. It was also noted that Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. E. C. Hill are both descended from Lt. Francis Mason, for whom the chapter is named.

All the Eldorado members except Mrs. C. M. McWhorter and Mrs. Bebe Meador were present for the meeting includes Mmes. P. K. McIntosh, J. O. Willoughby, W. N. Ramsay, Ernest S. Goens, Ernest C. Hill, J. E. Hill, Elizabeth Powell, Mary Coupe, Patsy Hartgraves, V. G. Tisdale, W. O. Alexander and little Janet Hartgraves. Out of town members who could not attend were Mmes. Stephen Perner and L. B. Cox, Jr., of Ozona, Oscar Burden of Wichita Falls, R. J. Bagley of Corona, N. M., and Nell Brown of Odessa.

Eastern Star Chapter Honors Masons Monday

The Eldorado Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, honored the Masons and some guests Monday night with a supper in the main room of the Memorial Building. About 50 attended. The decorations from the Junior-Senior Banquet were still in place.

The evening included a speech by Si Loeffler of Sonora and welcoming remarks by Mary Sofge. Also a humorous skit by the Star members.

MERRY MAKERS MEET

Mrs. Mary Joiner was hostess Friday the 14th when the Merry Makers club met in the Corral room of the Memorial building. There were three tables of players including one guest Mrs. Mary Palmer.

The hostess served cold drinks, fried chicken, potato salad, honey hot rolls and butter.—Mrs. Claude Doyle, reporter.

THANK YOU, MR. D!

ALLAN DINSMORE

The Eldorado High School speechsters have enjoyed a great many successes during this school year. Among them have been a contribution to the district literary championship and the one-act play title. Figuring in no small way to these accomplishments is a newcomer, Allan Dinsmore.

Mr. D, as he is fondly called by his students, was born June 24, 1944, at the Naval Hospital in Norfolk, Virginia. Shortly after his birth, his family moved to Cleveland, Ohio, where they lived for eight years before coming to Texas and settling at Baytown.

At Baytown Junior High, Mr. D played tennis and was a member of the speech club. He attended a high school with an enrollment of over 2000, Robert E. Lee. While there, Mr. D made quite a name for himself as a three year letterman in both debate and tennis. During his junior year, he placed second in district debate. His senior year brought the speech club presidency, a district first in debate, and a one-act play title. May, 1962, marked high school graduation and a debate scholarship offer from Stephen F. Austin College in Nacogdoches.

While in college, Mr. D participated on the varsity debate team for three years. He was on the tennis team until an accident resulted in a broken collarbone. He was a member of Theta Chi Fraternity, serving as its pledge marshal, historian, librarian, and secretary. In May, 1966, Mr. Dinsmore received his degree with a triple major in history, political science, and speech.

Mr. Dinsmore's duties at Eldorado High include 7th and 8th grade geography, American history, and a speech class. He also spends hours upon end coaching tennis, helping the debaters, directing the one-act play, and advising individual contestants.

True, some of the above have been done in the line of duty, but it is how much of himself he gives to these things and to other activities which have not been enumerated. These are the things that have endeared him to his students—working tirelessly on the Junior and Senior plays, willingly working the clock at basketball games, taking tickets at football games, helping with the Plateau Relays, and hauling the junior high girls basketball team to their tournaments. Mr. D makes himself available to anyone who needs him, and he's always there when support is vital. At the risk of being even more effusive (which he wouldn't like), his students have swelled with pride upon hearing the many favorable comments about Mr. D, such as the observations of the district tennis director at Junction and a director of the district literary meet at Sonora to the effect that he was the most helpful and cooperative coach each had ever encountered.

The Speech Club is indeed fortunate to have this capable personality to guide, and as just yesterday students our lives have been enriched by Mr. D's efforts. — Club Reporter.

Soil Conservation Week Is Coming Up

Soil Stewardship Week will be observed April 30 to May 7, according to Ben Hext, chairman of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District.

"This makes 13 years that Soil Conservation Districts have called upon the public to consider the moral responsibility of caring for our natural resources," Ben said in making the announcement.

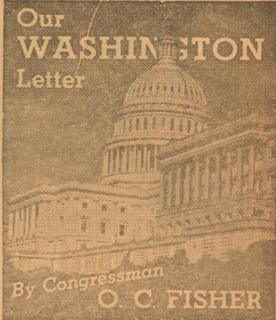

Voy Lee Butts of Christoval has been named chairman of the local Soil Stewardship Week Committee, Hext said.

"The emphasis for our observance this year is upon the private landowner's responsibility," Hext said.

"The stewardship of a piece of God's earth calls for a special sense of service. The landowner knows that the responsibility entrusted to him is unique. How each bit of land is tended affects neighbors near and far. That is one reason why millions of landowners join together and participate in soil conservation district programs," Mr. Hext said.

Ministers and laymen who desire assistance in preparing for a soil stewardship observance should contact Supervisors of The District.

Explosive population in Latin America cast a long and ominous shadow over the ballyhooed meetings of the OAS Presidents at Punta del Este last week. Spearheaded by President Johnson, the groundwork was laid for a common market and a promise to spend more U. S. dollars in priming the Latin economic pump.

But delegates knew full well that without family planning, no amount of spending or economic planning can prevent stark disaster south of the border.

Latin America's population now stands just under 250 million, and at the present rate will DOUBLE within the next 25 years and reach an astounding 600 million by the year 2000!

This growth rate, the highest in the world, is already straining national economies and canceling most efforts to raise the standard of living.

Due to high infant mortality, the Latin growth rate a generation ago was only 1.9%. But improved medical care has jumped that rate to 3%, and thus far little is being done about it. Rise of food production down there (2.4% per year) lags far behind the population rise.

U. S. efforts to promote birth control in Latin America bumps into formidable religious, political and psychological obstacles.

Yet, there are some hopeful signs. The government of Chile is actively promoting birth control, and other gestures are being observed. Our AID program is now for the first time offering birth curbs to nations that have control programs. The U. S. may spend up to $20 million for this purpose during the next fiscal year.

World-wide, at the present rate population will double in the next 35 years. The problem is not confined to Latin America, though that area is the most backward in doing something about it.

Looking into the future, it may very well be that control of population will be more important to mankind than control of the atom bomb.
