Death Of Editor Starts Manhunt

GANGSTER REVENGE BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE IN MURDER OF CRUSADER AGAINST ORGANIZED GAMBLING; POLITICIAN ALSO MURDERED

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, May 21—Assassination of Herbert Spencer, magazine editor and crusader against organized gambling, and his friend, Charles Crawford, wealthy politician, started police today one one of the greatest manhunts ever undertaken in Los Angeles.

On the eve of a projected expose of gambling by Spencer's magazine, the editor was shot through the heart and the politician was mortally wounded late yesterday in the latter's office by an unidentified man whom Crawford had received. Officers said the circumstances indicated gangster revenge.

Death overtook Crawford before he could keep a promise to identify the killer, who escaped in an automobile. Apparently confident that he would live Crawford told detectives before he underwent an emergency operation that he would tell only "if I'm due to go." He died three hours after being wounded.

Early today detectives, spurred by a statement from Spencer's widow that "the overlord of gambling here had threatened to get Herb," searched haunts of gamblers and gangsters for a "swarthy man about 35 years old of heavy build."

An hour before the tragedy, Spencer, formerly city editor of the Los Angeles Evening Express, left his office, telling an associate he was going out to get some more "underworld stuff" for the magazine, which had published a number of articles on alleged gang and vice activities here.

Ray J. Radke secretary to Crawford, reported to police that short-

EVENTS SEVERAL DAYS BEFORE SPIKES BOYS SLAIN REVIEWED

First witness to give direct testimony purporting to detail events in the robbery of the Monarch saloon in Tucumcari, N. M., a few days before John and Dick Spikes were killed on January 21, 1901, was on the witness stand all morning in the suit of Fred Spikes against the Capitol Reservation lands and others for $200,000 for alleged libel.

Alex Street, federal department of justice special agent at El Paso and owner of a saloon in Tucumcari near the Monarch saloon, in 1901 and 1902, testified concerning the events that transpired after the robbery of his competitor.

Recognized Two

"I thought I recognized two of the men," Street said in response to questioning by C. C. Crenshaw, defense attorney. One was Henry Hawkins, the other George Cook."

The witness said he saw them outside the saloon after the holdup. There were a number of men there. Later witness said he recognized Hawkins by his shape, size and voice.

Street identified pictures of the cave that he said he had visited about six or eight months after the slaying of John and Dick Spikes, on Mesa Redonda. He saw some buttons and buckles at the cave.

Witness also testified having met John and Dick Spikes at Liberty,

HOME WRECKED EARLY TODAY BY STORM

OIL SETTLEMENT NEAR BORGER SWEPT BY TWISTER, HAIL

(By The Associated Press)

BORGER, May 21.—At least four persons were injured early today when their home was demolished by a small tornado which struck Skellytown, an oil settlement 16 miles southeast of Borger. Disrupted telephone connections made first reports meagre.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Francis, their daughter, 14, and a nephew, Carl Alexander, 17, were whirled into an open field when their house was wrecked. Francis, an oil pumper, and his wife suffered broken bones and bruises. The children were not badly hurt. All were brought here to a hospital. No other persons were known to have been injured.

Found By Rescuers

A heavy downpour of hail awakened Francis shortly before the tornado struck and he hurriedly pushed members of his family into and under a boiler firebox nearby, as the twister pelted them with debris of the wrecked house. They remained in the shelter of the firebox until daylight when rescuers found them.

The destructive path of the twister was confined to a small area, although strong winds and rain swept Borger and Pampa, nearby.

Four houses were destroyed and 21 derricks were blown down by the wind. Hail damaged the roofs of houses and crops in the vicinity. Telephone communication was cut off, and a comprehensive report of the storm was not available.

Mrs. Francis received several fractured ribs and her nose was broken. Other members of the family were not considered seriously injured. They will be dismissed from a Borger hospital tomorrow.

The storm struck about 3 a. m. Shortly after midnight a high wind west of Amarillo destroyed a dairy barn and did other damage estimated at $1,000.

Proud Armada Of Air In Flight

OVER 600 PLANES IN PARADE FORMATION OVER CHICAGO

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 21—A proud armada of the nation's fighting air craft streaked through the skies of America's inland metropolis today.

It was the army's greatest demonstration of its air strength. Over Chicago's lake front 659 planes paraded in formation, entertaining thousands.

Texans In Flight

Major Davenport Johnson of Galveston led the great procession with the 3rd attack group of 70 planes from Fort Crockett.

Following the attack group was the 2nd bombardment group from Langley Field Virginia, flying lower than the leaders about 800 feet from the earth and a quarter mile out over the lake. The droning bombers flew in columns of three, 50 to 60 in each group.

Speedboats darted over the lake, and amphibions soomed low over the water to be ready for instant rescue in event of any mishap.

Brig. Gen. Benjamin D. Foulois, commanding the division, surveyed the demonstration from the roof of the Hotel Stevens with his staff.

Return To Dayton

Once past the downtown area, the bulk of the army soared on to its concentration points at Dayton and Cleveland without pausing. Three squadrons, however, dropped out of line and returned to the scene of maneuvers over the navy pier. These were the 11th bombardment squadron, nine planes from Rockwell field, San Diego, under command of Lieut. C. H. Howard; the 95th pursuit squadron from Rockwell field, 18 ships under Captain F. O. D. Hunter; and the 13th attack squadron from Fort Crockett, commanded by Lieut. Ralph Stearly.

WORLD'S ONLY GIRL MATADOR KILLED FIFTY BULLS

EL PASO, May 21 (AP)—Although she is only 17 years old, weighs just 115 pounds and is distinctly feminine in appearance, Maria de Jesus Alguin has killed more than 50 bulls in the arena.

The slim dark-eyed Mexican girl, who comes of a family of matadors, claims to be the only woman bull fighter in the world.

"Really it doesn't take strength," she said here during a recent visit to the Juarez arena. "One simply stands still, and the bull runs into the sword and kills himself."

On her trips she is usually accompanied by a brother, Francisco, who sternly forbids her to have "dates."

"Too dangerous," said Francisco. "I let her go out once, and a Mexican general nearly kidnaped her."

ESTIMATE RECORD YIELD IN WHEAT

AMARILLO, May 21 (AP) — Although the Panhandle wheat crop for 1931 was estimated at 40 million bushels, one of the biggest yields on record, those attending the annual meeting of the southwest shippers advisory board here today were told that railway cars and storage facilities were available to handle the crop.

Movement of the crop from the South Plains will begin about June 15, it was estimated, and from the North Plains about ten days later. Speakers representing the railroads said plenty of cars were available.

The biggest factor in the way of handling the new crop is the 48 million bushels already in storage in Texas, speakers said. This condition also will make for lower prices, they said. Estimates of prices ranged from 30 to 40 cents a bushel.

VETERAN KILLED

WILTON, Ark., May 21 (AP)—J. P. Stephens, 85, a Confederate veteran, was killed yesterday when a train struck him as he was walking on a trestle near Wilton. Under two-year sentence for killing his son-in-law, W. R. Kernell, he had been released from the state prison on parole and was returning to his home in Alleene after a visit here.

Contractors Refuse Reduction In Wages

HOUSTON, May 21 (AP)—The Associated General Contractors of Houston will not accept the $1 per day reduction in pay announced by the five building crafts of Houston, J. B. Townsend, chairman of the contractors group, said today. The A. G. C. will "stand pat" it was said, on the $2 per day wage cut originally demanded as effective May 1.

"And the building crafts will not accept any lower scale than the $1 per day cut," H. Winkler, president of the Houston labor and trades council, said.

WELL SPUDDED IN

NACOGDOCHES, May 21. (AP)—The Joiner-Henson No. 1 Legg was spudded in Wednesday and was down 400 feet in two hours and 21 minutes. Members of the crew said they thought the performance set a world's record. They expected to have the well down to 2,000 feet early Friday.

DEATH CLAIMS INVENTOR

CHARLES VAWTER DIES OF BURNS RECEIVED IN EXPLOSION

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Charles E. Vawter, widely known inventor, fatally burned by an explosion in his laboratory here, died early today. His body was sent to Blacksburg, Va., seat of Virgnlia Polytechnic Institute, where for many years he taught physics.

Mr. Vawter's death followed by 24 hours a blast which occurred in his workshop at his home in the Germantown section.

Clothing Fired

He was lubricating a motor while testing a new high tension ignition device designed for airplanes when a spark ignited the oil, causing an explosion. The burning liquid fired his clothing.

Among the more than 200 radio and electrical devices he is credited with having invented or perfected are electric testing instruments, circuit-breakers and an attachment which makes it possible to use the house wiring system as a radio antennae.

Asleep On Track, Two Boys Killed

HOUSTON, May 21. (AP)—George Watts, 15, and Jesse Lee Wilson, 18, of Humble were killed and Howard Huffman, 15, was injured fatally yesterday when they were struck by a passenger train near Singleton.

Members of the crew said the boys were lying on the track, apparently asleep. The engineer was unable to stop the train. The Humble youths were killed instantly. Young Huffman died about six hours later in a hospital at Navasota. The boys' parents said they left home Monday to look for work.

RECESS URGED BY GOVERNOR STERLING

LEGISLATURE IS ASKED TO RESUME SESSION SOMETIME SOON

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, May 21—Gov. Ross S. Sterling today recommended that the legislature recess its regular session tomorrow until "some day certain" within the next few weeks.

The governor pointed out that hundreds of bills would die on the calendars tomorrow. He stated they would keep their places if the session were recessed instead of a special session being called. The necessity of reorganizing also would be obviated, he explained.

Held Permissible

The chief executive stated he understood such a procedure, although unprecedented, was permissible.

The governor said that using the medium between the amounts of the senate and house appropriations bills, the "most liberal calculation" left no reasonable hope for a remaining indicated deficit of less than $5,000,000 by the end of the next biennium. "The appropriations must be decreased, or the revenues increased, or both," he said.

In the event the legislature does not recess, a special session "appears quite probable, to deal further with the problem of revenues and expenditures and perhaps other important matters," Governor Sterling stated.

The $212,000,000 state highway bond issue could be considered again in a recessed session. It could not be taken up in a special session.

Three Face Charges In Cerf Kidnaping

CORSICANA, May 21. (AP)—Charles R. Hassell, Currie W. Caldwell, and Jimmie Nash today faced indictments for assault while in disguise in connection with the kidnaping of Robert Cerf last December. They previously had been indicted, along with Doyle Nash, for kidnaping and conspiracy to commit a felony. Oliver Clapp, indicted for all three offenses, had not been arrested.

Bonds were set yesterday at $5,000 for Doyle Nash and $10,000 each for Jimmie Nash and Caldwell. They had not made bond.

Separation Suit Filed By Graham McNamee's Wife

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 21.—A separation suit brought by Mrs. Josephine Garrett McNamee against Graham McNamee, popular radio announcer, was revealed today.

The charges in the complaint which has been on file in supreme court for several weeks were not disclosed.

McNamee said he had been served with the papers about the first of the month. He denied the action was by mutual consent and said it would not be contested.

They were married 10 years ago after meeting at a concert in the reformed church in Bronxville, N. Y., where both were on a musical program. McNamee was a baritone singer before he became an announcer.

Disclosure of the separation suit came as a surprise to their friends among whom they were described as an ideally married couple. McNamee often has been quoted as saying his wife was his severest critic, who sat at one of their five radio receivers at home and listened to him broadcast descriptions of sporting events, political meetings and other doings.

In the current issue of Radio Digest, Mrs. McNamee has an article describing the life of radio announcer's wife:

"I make it a point to keep the hours he keeps and to entertain our friends when it is convenient for him. Many a time I have made pancakes and fried egg sandwiches at 4 o'clock in the morning.

"Although Graham's work takes him away a great deal, I have one advantage over other wives. I can always hear him. The first thing he does when he finished a broadcast is to telephone me and say, 'Did you ear the program? How was it?'

McNamee is 42 years old.

ROTHSCHILD IS CONVICTED

FORMER POSTMASTER AT BORGER TRIED AT AMARILLO

(By Associated Press)

AMARILLO, May 21. — Harold Rothschild, former postmaster at Borger, was found guilty of embezzling postal funds in the sum of $566 by a jury in federal district court here today.

The jury's verdict, which was reached last night, was sealed and returned into open court this morning.

Leniency was recommended in the jury's verdict.

Judge James E. Wilson indicated that sentence would be pronounced this afternoon.

Rothschild some months ago was the central figure in an alleged robbery of the Borger post office, when he reported that he had been forced to accompany two men from his home to the post office and to open the safe after which he was returned by the men to his home, where is wife and a relative had been held captive by confederates of the alleged robbers.

American Woman Is Acquitted By Jury

NICE France, May 21 (AP)—Acquitted in ten minutes on a charge of slaying her husband, Mrs. Charlotte Nixon-Nirdlinger reserved today for the two children who have been bereft of parental care for more than two months.

She refrained from disturbing their rest last night at the conclusion of the trial. She saw her baby daughter occasionally while in jail but the four-year old boy not at all. He has not been told of the death of his father and has been led to believe both his parents were on a long journey.

Gang Leader, Beer Baron Is Stabbed

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Charles "Vannie" Higgins, described by police as a gang leader and beer baron was taken to Polyclinic hospital today suffering from three stab wounds in the chest. The case was a mystery to police.

Higgins, detectives believed, was stabbed during the morning while in Flushing, Queens. Two men and a woman in a New Jersey automobile brought the wounded man to the hospital and left him there. Several minutes later detectives were notified by hospital authorities that Higgins was a patient.

MAN CHARGED AFTER RAID

GENE WILSON HELD ON BEER AND LIQUOR COUNT HERE

Charges of possession of beer and whisky for purpose of sale were filed against Gene Wilson of Lubbock in Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter's court following Wilson's arrest by the sheriff's department Wednesday night.

A gallon of whisky, a hundred bottles of beer and a jar of beer were found at 2108 Twenty-first street, where Wilson lived, a deputy sheriff said.

Two Are Fined

Luther Cooper and Charles Clifton were fined $1 and $12.15 costs each by Peace Justice Porter for theft of tobacco and soap from a railway refrigerator car here. Two others were arrested with Cooper and Clifton by county officers Wednesday. One of the suspects was released on order of County Judge E. L. Pitts.

A man and a woman were arrested by members of the sheriff's force in an attempt to pass a forged check at the Montgomery Ward & Co. store here Wednesday. The man was in jail this morning.

Police Wednesday night arrested ten youths whom they said were golf caddies, in a dice game in a local hotel. Gaming charges were filed against them in city court. Money found on the boys, ranging in age from 15 to 19 years, totaled less than $5, police said. The gambling suspects were released to appear at the police station this morning.

ENTRY LIST IS BOOSTED FOR PLAY TODAY

ABOUT 225 GOLFERS OF WEST TEXAS IN ANNUAL TOURNEY

Off to a slow start because of a hitch in the plans of officials and the delay in arrival of several outstanding players, the qualifying round in the seventh annual West Texas Golf association championship tournament promised to see some low scores turned in shortly after noon today. No qualifying marks had been registered at 11:30 this morning.

The arrival of eleven golfers this morning swelled the total entry list to around 225, including the players from two Lubbock clubs. With 4 o'clock this afternoon set as a dead line for entries it was thought that approximately 25 others would register for qualifying rounds today.

Favorites Picked

Pre-tournament favorites continued to exercise their favoritism around the club house this morning. Mansell Merriman and Ed Johnson of Amarillo, Ginson Payne, and Billy Holmes of Lubbock, Charles Quails of Post and C. R. Pope of Abilene were competing for the top favorite's position as Referee Walter Sykes called for qualifiers.

The failure of Dennis Lavender, 1930 champion, and Dixon White, runner up for the past two years, to enter the tournament left an open field which bids to see strong competition in each of the four flights.

Highway Opened

State highway No. 9 from Lubbock toward Plainview has been opened and visitors and players attending the W. T. G. A. tournament at the Lubbock Country club may ride that far over a new cement pavement. Through efforts of Guy R. Johnston, state highway official of Lubbock, and the courtesy of the contractors the layer of dirt has been swept from the pavement and it was open to travel this morning.

Country Club officials urge that the people of Lubbock attend the matches this week, for which no admission will be charged, and invite large galleries during the four-day tournament. A $2 registration fee provides a badge, passes to dances and shows and to the course during the tournament, but no charge will be made for visitors witnessing the match play.

Finals Set Sunday

Following the qualifying round of 18 holes today, match play will begin early tomorrow. Consolation

J. E. Stanford Is Claimed By Death

J. E. Stanford, 58, of 1624 Seventh street died at 10:25 this morning following an operation. He had been ill two weeks.

Survivors of Mr. Stanford, who had resided here seven years, include three daughters, Mrs. John W. Hughes of Lubbock, Mrs. S. J. Pickrel of Lubbock, and Mrs. T. H. Anderson of Pampa, and a son, Lester Stanford of Lubbock.

Funeral arrangements this morning were incomplete. Burial will be here.

RED CROSS TO CELEBRATE

HOOVER TO SPEAK ON 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF INCORPORATION

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The American Red Cross today celebrates its incorporation 50 years ago.

Two presidents of units of the international relief organization will open the golden jubilee tonight. President Hoover, who heads the society in this country, and Judge Max Huber of Zurich, Switzerland, president of the international Red Cross committee, will make addresses. Both the National and Columbia systems will broadcast the speeches.

While preparations for the jubilee proceeded today, the Red Cross made public scores of congratulatory telegrams it had received. They came from the duke of York, Prince Charles of Sweden, Prince Tokugawa of Japan, and from Madrid, Cairo, Budapest, Shanghai, Berlin, Paris and Athens.

The celebration is being staged because back in 1881 Miss Clara Barton persuaded Americans to form a Red Cross society and obtained the assistance of President Garfield in efforts to obtain senate ratification of the treaty of Geneva, under which the international organization operated.

GIVEN TEN YEARS

FORT WORTH, May 21 (AP)—S. R. Harmon was under a ten-year sentence today for killing W. R. Kucker in 1929 in a quarrel that began when their sons had a fight. The verdict was returned yesterday. Harmon pleaded self-defense.

Amateur Actor Is Not So Bad

PITTSBURGH, May 21 (AP)—Joe Palmer's talent as an amateur actor saved him some money and landed two holdup men in jail today.

As the pair got out of his taxi they pulled guns on Joe.

"And me with debts and a sick wife," he gulped.

Then something unexpected happened. The holdup men came out of a huddle and handed Palmer his money.

"Gee," one of them said, with a catch in his voice, "I guess times are pretty tough buddy." The other offered Palmer his gun "Better take this for protection," he cautioned.

Five minutes after they departed, Palmer picked up two policemen and the holdup boys were captured and whizzed to a police station in Palmer's car.

Man Slays Wife And Two Sons; Others Threatened

(By Associated Press)

MEDFORD, Wis., May 21—Joseph Fleischmann, 35, shot and killed his wife and two small sons last night and for five hours held his two daughters, another son and three adults in a state of terror while he talked incessantly of firing rifle bullets at them.

The three adults, one a Catholic priest, escaped from the Fleischmann farm home, two miles north of here, amid a burst of bullets from Fleischmann's gun. They called authorities who arrested the man before he could harm his other children.

Fleischmann, an assistant maker at the Medford creamery, was crazed by liquor, Sheriff George R. Baird said. He said Fleischmann had been confined at the Winnebago asylum twice for alcoholic insanity.

Wednesday afternoon, the sheriff said, Fleischmann began drinking his own home brew beer. Inflamed, he shot his wife and two youngest sons and talked to himself about taking the lives of his other children.

Finally, he telephoned Anton Kummer, a neighbor, and invited him to his home. Kummer walked into the house a short time later and found himself covered by Fleischmann's rifle. The threats of death continued.

Fleischmann forced Kummer to drag the bodies of the three victims into another room and cover them with a sheet.

Fleischmann then ordered Kummer to telephone the Rev. Father Gregory Reuter, his parish priest and ask him to come to the home. The priest arrived shortly with Otto Huber, Medford. They were made captive and with the other four were marched into the room and forced to view the bodies.

The crazed man continued to mutter threats against their lives. At Kummer's suggestion, he, Father Reuter and Huber fled. Fleischmann shot at them as they climbed into the priest's automobile, they told Sheriff Baird.

GAMBLING AT NUEVO LAREDO UNDER GOVERNMENT SANCTION IS APPARENT

LAREDO, May 21. — That gambling will be conducted in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, shortly under sanction of the Tamaulipas state government became apparent today. Mayor Amado Gonzales Palacios announced he had received instructions from Governor Castellanos to permit gambling concessions to open.

Concession holders were reported to have agreed to pay the state 1,000 pesos a day for permission to operate. Orders also were issued that Mexican laborers and farmers would be barred by special police from gambling.

The gambling concessions included roulette, chess, billiards, cards, poker, dice and checkers.

Protests against the renewal of gambling were made by the Sociedad Patronol, an organization of leading business men of Nuevo Laredo. Many declared they would not rent establishments to gambling promoters.

Money from gambling taxes will be used by the state of Tamaulipas for state improvements. The same concern which owns concessions for Nuevo Laredo plans also to open gambling houses in Reynosa and other border towns.

WILLIAM GIBBS McADOO HAS LARGE CIRCLE OF ACQUAINTANCESHIP OVER NATION; HE GOES MOSTLY BY PLANE

BY BRIAN BELL
(Copyright, 1931, By The Associated Press.)

LOS ANGELES, May 21. (AP)—William Gibbs McAdoo, at 67 years of age, lives every minute of every day and has as many personal acquaintances, perhaps, as any man in the United States.

Trains and motors are too slow for him so he does most of his extensive traveling by air. He owns his own plane and has as his personal pilot, Harry Ashe, World war veteran. His plane will develop speed of 200 miles an hour although he does not always go so fast.

Made Good Time

McAdoo flew from Los Angeles to Washington in 16 hours and 21 minutes, actual flying time. When told it was "good time," McAdoo, with a thought of his unsuccessful fight for the Democratic nomination for president, said:

"Yes, one can go to Washington in an airplane much faster than by way of the electoral college."

He has flown across the continent and back seven times. He flew to Pendleton, Ore., to participate in the famed western round-up and recently went to San Francisco by plane to appear before the supreme court, returning to his home at Los Angeles the same day.

Has Much Correspondence

His personal correspondence is prodigious, large enough to occupy the full time of an average man if there were nothing else to do, and he is the active senior partner of a firm of lawyers. Yet he is finding time to write his memoirs.

He has a rare sense of humor and his best stories have William Gibbs McAdoo as the victim.

With many chuckles he relates an experience in 1913 when the federal reserve was a live topic. Traveling from Washington to New York, he observed a man in front of him reading a front page story in a New York newspaper with the name of the secretary of the treasury in the headlines.

Did You Ever See?

Suddenly the reader turned.

"Did you ever see such a fool as this secretary of the treasury we have at Washington?" he asked.

"No I never did," was the McAdoo reply. "I happen to know him quite intimately and you have him sized up just right."

The two then started a conversation and finally the stranger handed McAdoo his card with a request for his name.

"Certainly, my name is McAdoo, I am the unfortunate secretary of the treasury."

As his companion seemed speechless, McAdoo added:

"Please don't for a moment feel uncomfortable. I like a good joke on myself and I can't tell you how much I have enjoyed this one. Don't take back anything and don't feel the least embarrassment.

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Virginia Cross
ANNISTON, ALA.

Now! Please! — Actually put your finger on your Adam's Apple. Touch it — your Adam's Apple — Do you know you are actually touching your larynx? — This is your voice box — it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat — your vocal chords. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants — Reach for a LUCKY instead — Remember, LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that through its exclusive "TOASTING" process expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE, and so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

(Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.)

"Wonderful for dishes," says Mrs. J. Blackwell, 2013 15th Street

"Our water here is hard, but Rinso makes real business-like suds that loosen dirt and soak clothes like new. I never even boil any more. This gentle Rinso way saves the clothes—keeps the colors fresh and bright. Wonderful suds for dishwashing, too; grease goes in a flash. It's the only soap I use now—all through the house."

MRS. J. A. BLACKWELL
2013 15th St., Lubbock, Texas.

Just as marvelous in washers

Rinso is all you need—no bar soaps, chips, powders or softeners. Cup for cup, Rinso gives twice as much suds as lightweight, puffed-up soaps — even in hardest water. Thrifty, lasting suds!

The makers of 40 leading washers recommend Rinso for safety and for whiter, brighter washes. Great for dishes, too. Get the BIG package.

The only Tire Fact you need to know

When you read a tire advertisement that almost sweeps aside your judgment with its enthusiasm: SAY TO YOURSELF

"More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!"

When you face a sales argument that sounds good but you have no means of testing: SAY TO YOURSELF

"More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!"

When the high-pressure dealer works on you with hypnotic eye and coercive logic: SAY TO YOURSELF

"More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!"

When you are tempted to fall for bargain claims, a long trade-in, trick size comparisons, or anything else but intrinsic tire goodness: SAY TO YOURSELF

"More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!"

Then, just for variety, ask yourself "WHY?" Why is it true that

"More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!"

The answer lies in the fact that Goodyear has, year after year, given the public built-in quality and value which far out-weighs trick comparisons and clamorous claims.

Picnics Are Popular In Society With Return Of Spring; Tech College People Have Parties

Several Events Of Today Are Picnics

Picnics and other outdoor affairs have returned to popularity with the coming of spring and have been interspersed with other events during the remainder of this week.

Seniors at Texas Technological college are having a picnic this afternoon as a part of Senior Day activities. Lubbock Sanitarium employees and members of the doctors' staff are having a picnic at Tumble N pool during the late afternoon.

Other picnics are scheduled for Friday, including the engineering school picnic and the International Relations club picnic which will draw people from Texas Technological college. The Christian Endeavor of First Christian church is to have a picnic Friday evening.

Entertain Tonight

Tonight wives of men in the Quester club are entertaining the club men with an outdoor party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Granbery. This will be at 6:30 o'clock. During a program, W. A. Whatley will be the speaker.

Another event of interest to Tech faculty people is the Faculty club chicken barbecue which is booked for 6 o'clock Monday evening at the stock judging pavilion. Dr. P. W. Horn will be the speaker on this occasion and Dr. J. O. Ellsworth is in charge of entertainment.

College people figure in much of the entertaining during the remainder of this week. D. F. D. club members are having an annual dawn dance in the morning at the Hilton hotel. About 65 guests are expected for breakfast at 5 o'clock and others will come in for dancing at 6:15 o'clock.

Surprise Luncheon

Mrs. F. A. Kleinschmidt entertained Wednesday noon with a surprise luncheon for her mother, Mrs. J. W. Smith, on the latter's birthday. Bridge games followed during the afternoon.

There were twelve guests, Mesdames Alan Strout, Ernest Nelson, K. M. Renner, Murray Jones, Paul Jones, Edgar Shelton, A. C. Jackson, J. H. Murdough, W. L. Stangel, W. C. Holden, A. B. Cunningham and Smith.

Among the other events of today are a Centaur dance this evening at the Hilton and a party that Mrs. Thomas West is giving this afternoon for her guest, Mrs. Ward Powell of Fort Worth. Bridge is being played at this latter event.

There's A Reason For The Smiles

For three years in succession girls representing the home economics department of the Odessa High school have scored the highest number of added points in state-wide contests at the Homemaking Education Rally conducted by the home economics division of the State Department of Education, winning for their school first prizes. The electric sewing machine awarded the Odessa High School, at the recent rally at Lubbock, in competition with 85 schools representing every section of Texas, will be a valuable addition to the school's equipment. Left to right: Billie Hockett, Bess Cadiwell, teacher, Louise Hines, Sylvia Smith.

Miss M. Magee And J. A. Dowdle Marry

A simple ceremony, read at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in First Baptist church, united in marriage Miss Mabel Magee, of Mart, and J. A. Dowdle, of this city. Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the church officiated in the presence of a small group of friends.

The bride, who has been teaching in the Lubbock High school for two years, is the daughter of Mrs. Lula Magee of Mart. She is a graduate of Baylor college, Belton, and has done advance work in the University of California and in the National University of Mexico, Mexico City. Last summer she reigned over the annual national fiesta at the latter university as the first American girl to have this honor.

Mr. Dowdle, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dowdle of Purdon, is a graduate of Baylor university at Waco. He is employed in the finance department of the post office here.

He and his bride have gone to Santa Fe and Taos, New Mexico, on a honeymoon trip and upon their return will be at home at 2514 22nd street.

Lawn Party Attended By Girls' Class

Fourteen-year-old girls in First Baptist Sunday school and several other guests were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Ed R. Vaughn in her home at 1901 28th street. This was a lawn party.

An ice course was served to Exline Heddins, Bessie Lee Ford, Aigo Peek, Elise Tucker, Robert Lee Stone, Dorothy Ford, Kathleen Green, PaPauline Travis, J. C. McClellan, Roleta Isard and W. C. Vaughn, jr.

L'Aiquille Needlers Enjoy Afternoon

L'Aiquille Needle club members were guests of Mrs. Imogene Pace Wednesday afternoon in her home at 2323 19th street. After an afternoon of needlework, a refreshment course was passed to Mesdames H. T. Wilkins, T. W. Keys, D. Puckett, Earl Ellison, Tom Biggs, J. W. Phillips, V. O. Jennings, Robert Ellison and W. E. Von Wolff.

Songs Are Practiced By Young Girls

Songs were practiced Wednesday afternoon when the Owl Bluebird group of Camp Fire met with Miss Margie Taylor, city Camp Fire executive. This group is composed of girls too young to enter regular Camp Fire work.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

I am printing below a letter from a mother of the middle west, changing a few words in places so it can be disguised that no one may locate her to her embarrassment. I am touched by it as you will be. I answered her personally, as sympathetically and as well as I was able. All the while I wished I might sit down at a quiet luncheon or take a morning walk with the father, or that someone else might lead him to see how he could make this lovely young mother happier.

I wish a number of fathers would read it, and I wish many of my readers would write what they would do, if they were in this mother's place, to realize her ideals. How would you feel in her place, Mother? What would you do, Dad, if you were a good pal of her husband? It does suggest to us that we ought to try to persuade our daughter not to marry a man with very much less education than she has.

"Dear Dr. Myers. Every opportunity that I've had I've read your daily talks in the paper. But never before have I ever had the courage to go to any educator with my problem. It probably isn't very different from thousands of others. If I knew so, it would be a great consolation to me.

"I am a mother, 28 years old. I finished two years of high school and a six-weeks' normal course, fell in love, and my parents allowed me to marry. My husband was a poor boy with a very limited education. His parents are good, hard-working people, and I am still in love with him. But love and two beautiful children have not covered up the many differences in our make-up. Year after year I've tried to make the best of life's circumstances. It isn't that I'm unhappy, no, not that, but it's just that I've come to the full realization of what education, sociability and recreation mean. Not that I believe a person can't be happy without all of these, either. I wonder if you'll criticize me for expecting anything out of life except happiness? Well, I've done it myself. I've really tried to say to myself I was selfish in my desires to want something in life outside of my family circle.

"I want to grow. I want my moral life to be the best first. Besides this, I want to be useful. My husband thinks I'm not interested in my home if I spend much time reading. If I want to entertain occasionally or go out he says I don't care for him. If I want new clothes, and want him and the children to have them so we may attend church, he says I'm extravagant. I've always tried to be patient. In this surely I'm a true wife. I intend to be a true mother, too. My children are my hope (in this world). But is it fair? Am I doing any good? Must I go on and be satisfied year after year without those things which really count?

"Tell me, is it just as it should be for me to give up these ambitions and be content, or is it humanly possible for me to make my environment fit me? I'm willing to try. But my efforts in the past have been unsuccessful. That's why I've written you. Am I wrong, in thinking I should keep a vision of better things in the future, and believing that I owe a certain part of my time, effort and thoughts to the church and my neighbors and fellowman in general?"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Two pamphlets by Dr. Myers may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Garry C. Myers, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Punishments and Rewards" and "Fear."

Evelyn Rutherford Has Bridge Affair

Five tables of bridge were in play Wednesday afternoon when Miss Evelyn Rutherford entertained in her home, 2303 5th street. The silhouette motif was used in tallies and scores, setting a black and white scheme.

The guest list included Misses Mona Gowan, Josephine Caraway, Lorene Fryar, Louise Garrison, Opal Parmer, Clara Mae Bishop, Evelyn Stewart, Naoma Mitchell, Mary Evelyn Woodson, Patti Hopping, Ada Ruth May, Merbria Pirtle, Eileen Graves, Loraine Gable, Genevieve Deckert, Ruth Zimmerman, Maxine Gwin, Sue Brown, Lesey Bullock and Louise Arrington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Allen and children have returned from Missouri. Mr. Allen went to St. Louis on business. Mrs. Allen and the children visited relatives in the southeastern part of the state.

Y Committee Has Session Yesterday

A program and buffet supper were enjoyed by young women in the Christian World Education committee of Y. W. C. A. at Technological college Wednesday afternoon late. The affair was in the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Jennings, 1016 17th street, with Miss Jean Shelley Jennings as hostess. This was the last meeting for the year.

D. W. C. Holden, of the Tech faculty, spoke and a general discussion of interracial relationships followed.

Members present were Misses Helen Blythe, Maxine Clark, Imogene Cox, Marie Bostick, Ruby Rae Williamson, Kathleen Conrad, Jo Wilder and Mary Cosby.

Guests were Misses Marie Price, Louise Jennings, Cecile Horne, Voncile Gilkerson, Sue Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyd, Mrs. W. P. Jennings and Dr. Holden.

Program Committee Meets Today

Camp Fire Group Has Outing On Ranch

Mrs. Mike Barrier, guardian, and Mrs. O. W. Sumner, assistant guardian, left Wednesday with Wakishaka Camp Fire girls for an outing at the Sumner ranch about fifty miles south of here.

The group is to camp and put into practice their training in camp craft and nature study. Those who are making the trip are Ernestine and Willie Merle Sumner, Margaret Marshall, Mary Margaret Carter, Anna Margaret Bourland, Helen Wagner, Addie Lee Terrell and Austine McDonald.

Kongenial Klan Has Party Wednesday

Mesdames W. O. Lockwood and W. C. Rylander entertained the Kongenial Klan Wednesday afternoon in Mrs. Lockwood's home at 2305 13th street. Following a series of fortytwo games, an ice course was served to Mesdames R. Bush Smith, George R. Bean, W. W. Campbell, W. D. Lawson, A. B. Ellis, M. H. Sneed, J. A. Lee and Otis R. Copeland.

Mrs. N. B. Butler, of Mangum, Okla., arrived Wednesday for a visit in the home of her son, M. C. Butler, 2405 Broadway.

Norris Lain of Greenville is the guest of Wendell Pool and Dow Gambrell, Tech students.

Expression Groups To Be In Recitals

Expression pupils of Miss Lulu Mae Cravens are to appear in recitals tonight and Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the chapel of the First Methodist church. Two piano pupils of Miss Louise Jennings, Jacqueline Sampson and Hugh McFarland, will assist in the program Friday.

Pupils who are to appear in the recital tonight, which is composed of stories, monologues and monodrama are Katherine Klett, Billy Bob Jones, Mary Robinson, Maxine Burrus, Ruth and Beth Holland and Wildring B. Sherrod.

Those who will be in the Friday recital are Janet Wilson, Mary Alice Maedgen, Gloria Robnett, Betty Mae Haynes, Paul Sherrod, jr., and Lewis Ellis.

Friday's program, in addition to the musical numbers, will be composed of a play stories, monologues and poems.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leaverton and family are leaving today for Gladewater where they are to live. They have been in Lubbock since last fall.

Mrs. John Edmisson and baby are visiting Mrs. Edmisson's parents near San Antonio.

How to gain NEW STRENGTH in the Spring

Colds, flu and sickness play havoc with the red-blood-cells and the body therefore has less resistance against further disease attacks!

Every spring countless thousands take S.S.S.—the purely vegetable tonic—to build back their red-blood-cells so that they may have that new strength which makes for a keen appetite, firm flesh, a clear skin and greater resistance against infection and disease. SLATON PLANS CORONATION

KING AND QUEEN OF SENIOR CLASS TO BE CROWNED

SLATON, May 21.—(Special)—The king and queen of the senior class at Slaton High school will be crowned tonight in the high school auditorium to end the commencement program.

Vee Jackson, class queen, and Woodson Armes, king, have been selected to receive the homage of their fellow students.

Each high school class will be represented in the court by their duchesses and dukes, as follows:

Thirty-nine members of the senior class were graduated Tuesday night.

PLAN AGAINST JAIL BREAK

FOUR PRISONERS ARE TAKEN TO CROSBY COUNTY TUESDAY

Four prisoners were transferred from the Lubbock city jail to a jail at Crosbyton late Tuesday as a precautionary measure actuated by an attempted jail-break early Sunday, Sheriff Wade Hardy said.

Frank Cornell, Joe Miller, Bob Johnson, and Jesse Wise were taken to Crosbyton.

Two window bars were cut early Sunday morning by some of the prisoners in the jail, officers said. None of the inmates of the men's tank attempted to escape through the window because a guard, armed with a shotgun, was discovered stationed outside. Two hacksaw blades were discovered in the men's cell Sunday.

Stringent rules regarding the care of the prisoners have been enacted to prevent further attempts to break jail, Sheriff Hardy said. No more visitors will be allowed to visit the county prisoners, he said.

Cline Is Chosen M. E. Lay Leader

CROSBYTON, May 21. (Special)—The lay leader of the Lubbock Methodist Episcopal district is O. H. Cline of Lubbock. He was reelected at the close of a two-day conference here Wednesday.

More than 400 persons attended the sessions. Bishop h. A. Boaz of Houston spoke at 11 a. m. Wednesday. Rev. C. A Bickley, presiding district elder, of Lubbock, presided.

Harry Le Maire is director.

OLDTIMER RETURNS TO LUBBOCK FOR FIRST TIME IN YEARS; SEES CHANGE

Called as a witness in the Spikes-Haley libel case, Judge W. R. McGill of Fort Sumner, N. M., has returned to the scene of his activities forty years ago, when he first presided over the first district court in Lubbock county.

This is Judge McGill's first visit to Lubbock in many, many years. "The last time I was here, the old Nicolet hotel was somewhere around here," he said. "I am all turned around." (The old Nicolet hotel he referred to is now the Broadway hotel and was formerly one of the best well known hostelries of this section) "I got in here Tuesday and have not become straightened out yet."

Had Ten Districts

"I had ten counties in my district and many unorganized districts" the judge said as he recalled early court days here. "Lubbock county was the farthest west of these counties. There was nothing west of here at all."

"I lived in Seymour then and all this territory was in my district. I served two terms, six years. The governor named me district judge and I served two years and then was elected for a four-year term."

About 30 years ago Judge McGill left Texas and moved over into New Mexico where he has been engaged in the stock business ever since, gradually dropping his law practice. Now he seldom ever goes into court except when an old timer wants him to handle a case.

Held In a Saloon

"The first district court ever held in this county was in a saloon," the veteran said as he chatted over old times with friends and newspapermen Wednesday. "I don't remember the location of the saloon. I do remember that you could see the skies through the roof, almost anywhere.

Judge McGill recalled the first jury to hear a case in the Lubbock county district court. "Gus Carlisle was the only man on the jury who had ever served on one before," he explained, adding that they all wore guns while in the jury box.

"George Wolffarth was my district clerk,' the judge added. "When I came back again, he called the members of the jury into his office, there were about 25 or 30 of them, and explained that the law was now here and that it was not the custom in court rooms for the jury to wear guns."

Judge McGill appeared in the court room and was recognized by several of the old timers. He was introduced to Judge Clerk M. Mullican.

"I always like to meet the men on the bench," the aged jurist remarked.

"I want to meet the men who are doing the work I used to do. It is a pleasure to me."

Just about that time Rolle C. Burns came up "Here's somebody you ought to know," a bystander said.

"Why Rolle you old rascal," said Judge McGill as he grasped the hand of the present dean of old timers here. There was a softness in his voice as he silently held the hand of his early day friend.

Another old timer to come up and shake the hands of the jurist was J. D Caldwell. "You remember me—I had the first case in this county you ever tried" said Mr. Caldwell. "I had a case against John O'Herlin and you gave me the decision."

"Yes," replied the judge, "this man and George Wolffarth could kill more ducks than any three men could put in a wagon."

Fred Denham, who formerly lived in Floyd county, was another of the early day residents here who greeted the New Mexico cattle man. "It is 30 years since you saw me," said Denham. "Yes, yes, I remember you, now."

Judge McGill plans to sit through a large part of the case. He is to be a witness and will visit a number of old timers here. Judge McGill is stopping at the Hilton Hotel.

GRAIN SURPLUS CONSIDERED

SEEK TO RECONCILE DIVERGENT VIEWS AT CONFERENCE

LONDON, May 21. (AP)—Committees of the world grain conference today sought to reconcile divergent views as to the best method of absorbing the international wheat surplus, with indications that the two factions would stand by their views.

The American delegation's proposal to restrict acreage has clashed with Russian approval of the Danubian basis—the Polish scheme of export quotas—and neither side appears prepared to give ground.

Hanging Back

Meanwhile, the American, Russian and Danubian delegates having divulged their plans, Canada and Argentina were hanging back pending developments and were ready to throw their influence to the faction which appears to have the best chance of drafting an agreement.

The quota scheme is disapproved entirely by the American delegation because of an opinion that while the plan throws some light on the problem it does not lead the exporting nations out of the wilderness of cheap wheat.

A comparison of exporting nations' pre-war and post-war figures shows that Canada, Argentina, Australia and America stand to lose considerable trade if, as the Russians proposed, the 1909-1914 five year average is taken as a basis from which quotas would be evolved.

The committees are struggling with a mass of statistics in an effort to square the circle of glutted grain markets and few buyers. The conference re-convenes tomorrow.

HIGHWAY SUIT IS COMPROMISED

Trial of a suit brought by A. W. Blankenship against Lubbock county, after an acre of his land at College avenue and Fourth street had been condemned for highway purposes, ended in compromise Wednesday.

Blankenship's suit, an appeal from the decision of a jury of view setting $600 as the property owner's damage asked damages of $5,000. Under the terms of the compromise, the plaintiff will be allowed $910.

The plaintiff pleaded that his property had been damaged in excess of $600 because a protruding corner, designated as a filling station site, had been taken for the road right-of-way.

J. Moll, of Bedford School, and his brother, G. Moll, of the Achilles Club, competed against each other recently at Bedford, England, when their rival teams met in an athletic match.

REMORSE AT FAILURE TO APPRECIATE "BEAUTIFUL LOST" ANGEL REVEALED IN FAREWELL NOTE BEFORE SUICIDE

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Ralph Barton's remorse over failure to appreciate "a beautiful lost angel" was revealed today in a note written before he took his life in his penthouse apartment.

The note identified the "angel" as "Carlotta," referring to the caricaturist's third wife, now married to Eugene O'Neill, playwright. Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill recently arrived in New York from France.

Headed "obit," the note said in part:

Glamorous Life"

"I have had a few real difficulties. I have had, on the contrary, an exceptionally glamorous life, as life goes; and I have had more than my share of affection and appreciation.

"I have always had excellent health, but since my early childhood I have suffered from a melancholia, which in the last five years has begun to show definite symptoms of depressive insanity.

"It has prevented my getting anything like the full value out of my talent, and the past three years has made work a torture to do at all. It has made it impossible for me to enjoy the simple pleasure of life. I have run from wife to wife, from house to house and from country to country in a ridiculous effort to escape from myself. In doing so I am very much afraid that I have brought a great deal of unhappiness to those who have loved me.

Remorse Better

"In particular my remorse is bitter over my failure to appreciate my beautiful lost angel, Carlotta, the only woman I ever loved and whom I respect and admire above all the rest of the human race. She is the only person who could have saved me had I been savable. She did her best. No one ever had a more devoted or more understanding wife.

SPRING ROAD WORK IS TAKING THOUSANDS OF UNEMPLOYED

WASHINGTON, May 21. (AP)—Reports for April to the labor department showed spring road construction absorbing thousands of unemployed although curtailed schedules continued in many establishments.

Meanwhile, the metals trades department of the American Federation of Labor urged local councils to seek additional members, "to make use of collective action if general wage reductions are proposed."

In For Fight

At the same time, Matthew Woll, a vice president of the federation said in an address before the national association of mutual savings banks that "American labor is probably in for the fight of its life."

"The demand for cutting of wages?" he added, "is a part of a campaign which is now only beginning and which has been planned as a part of the program of the international control of capital, of manufacture, of markets, of prices—and of labor, by those who would master the world in the interests of the few."

Following statements by President Green of the federation that reductions were contemplated, the metals trades division said unorganized workers must be organized to keep "any unjustified, unsound, uneconomic burdens from being forced upon labor's back."

It attributed much of the business depression to "unsound and uneconomic policies" followed by employers.

Professor Chodzko of a Warsaw, Poland, grammar school was beaten to death recently by pupils who were angry because he had given them low marks in term reports.

CREAM OF WEST TEXAS GOLFERS ARE HERE FOR TOURNAMENT

Collier Parris

We have with us the West Texas Golf association's annual championship tournament. It is most important series of contests of its kind west of Fort Worth. Lubbock is indeed fortunate in having been selected as the site of the activity.

It is up to Lubbock again to show the kind of hospitality for which it is known over the state. Several hundred out of town golfers, many of them with their families, are here. You will show them every kind of hospitality and will make them glad Lubbock was selected for the tournament. The Convention City of 1931 is Lubbock.

* * *

This department extends a most hearty welcome to the visiting golfers and wishes for them a most pleasant visit here. We have been almost living for the tournament and we hope to meet every golfer personally before he leaves town.

* * *

Lubbock remembers Bob Peck. He won the city golf championship last year and then moved to Wichita Falls. He arrived in Lubbock yesterday with a large delegation of Wichita Falls Country club golfers who will make a strong bid for the championship and who will attempt to take the 1932 tournament to Spudderville.

* * *

Amos Melton, a friend and contemporary of Fort Worth where he writes golf stories for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, arrived in town this morning. He has been at Clarendon covering the Green Belt tournament for the Fort Worth paper, and will serve in the same capacity here. Al Parker of the Wichita Daily Times is expected today. Parker writes all kinds of sports but is a specialist at golf. This department has worked previously with Parker in golf torunaments.

Headquarters in town for the tournament entries are at the Hotel Lubbock. There you will receive tickets to the tournament, badges, programs and tickets to various entertainment features during the four-day gathering, all for a nominal price. If you expect to enjoy all of the tournament and its added features you will be wise to purchase a round-the-town ticket from Hub Jones and his helpers over at the Lubbock.

This department was glad to greet a couple of other friends yesterday when Victor Bouldin of Mineral Wells and Roy Norsworthy of Vernon arrived. Bouldin was one of the alma mater's leading golfers back in college days and he has come to "take the W. T. G. A. title to Mineraal Wells." Norsworthy is another fellow class room sufferer of former days and has come to see the tournament well done. Like Dennis Lavender he will not enter the play, but for different reasons.

Some one left a note on this desk yesterday that reads as follows: "Clinton Bussey, champion of the 1929 West Texas golf tournament, will be unable to enter the tournament which will be held in Lubbock this week. He has accepted a position with the Blue Diamond Linoleum company, with headquarters at Dallas. Bussey is working in San Antonio at the present time."

* * *

That is news to us. While we have nothing but a speaking acquaintance with Bussey, we have been led to believe that he was a golfer of unusual ability. We had counted on him this year to help Lubbock take the W. T. G. A. championship. Recently we have cast aside as idle rumor the reports that Bussey has been at odds with the Lubbock Country club over some matter or another since winning the championship in 1929. We hate to see him leave Lubbock, but whatever golf club gets his membership will gain a first class golfer.

It begins to look more and more as if Lubbock would have baseball on an organized plan this season. Harry Wanderling, former power in the Western league, Western association and one of the organizers of the East Texas league, has been in Lubbock since Tuesday, talking over the project with prominent business men and laying plans for bringing a class D club here soon. He appears favorably impressed with the show of interest given by several outstanding men and believes that in less than two weeks the crack o' the willow against the horsehide will be heard in local circles again, this time the music being furnished by professional players.

Wanderling leaves today for Amarillo where he will report his findings to John McCloskey, Frank Matthews and Jim Galloway, skippers in Amarillo, Plainview and Pampa respectively and to J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas league and of the new Panhandle league. He will return here Sunday to set about installing lights in Merrill Park for night play. Night baseball will be the only kind the league will engage in this season.

ASSORTED PITCHING IN TEXAS LOOP

AMATEURS ARE AT BARRIERS HERE TODAY

SEVENTH ANNUAL WEST TEXAS GOLF MEET OPENS IN CITY

West Texas' representative amateur golfers were champing at the barrier this morning and Chief Official Walter Sykes was exercising a strong hand to keep them in order as the seventh annual West Texas Golf association tournament got under way. While the number of registrations this morning had not increased by any appreciable number over last night, it was still thought by local officials that around 300 would enter the qualifying round some time today.

What was lacking in numbers was made up in quality and potentiality this morning, however, as the cream of the amateurs of this area lined up for the tee shot. Golfers who have been prominent in Texas golfing circles for several years were ready to go.

Out of Town

The following golfers had registered at the Hotel Lubbock headquarters yesterday afternoon:

M. T. Johnson, M. M. Merriman, Ed. Johnson of Amarillo.

C. R. Pope, Bill Yager, and Ross Jennings of Abilene.

GIANTS ARE AHEAD IN GAMES BUT NOT IN PERCENTAGES

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.,
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Giants, up to yesterday afternoon, were just a half-game behind the St. Louis Cardinals. Then they went out and took the Cincinnati Reds, 4 to 0, and the Cardinals obligingly lost to Brooklyn, 5 to 4.

That put the McGraw clan out in front and pulled the Cards from the top of the National league for the first time this season. That is, it did until the percentages were consulted. They showed that the league champs, though superficially a half-game behind, actually still are leading the league by four percentage points today. Hence the Giants' were chagrined.

Recruit Looks Good

Although they fell short of their goal, the McGrawmen gained solace in the brilliant pitching of John Berly, recruit from Rochester, who set Cincinnati down with five scattered hits. Bill Terry's homer with two on was the big noise in the giants' attack.

The cards rallied in the seventh and ninth innings to tie the count at 4-all, only to see their efforts wasted when the Robins nicked Bill Hallahan for the winning run in the last of the ninth.

Buzz Arlett, husky recruit from the coast, poled his eighth and ninth homers of the year as the Phillies came from behind in the late innings to take their second straight from Pittsburgh, 11 to 7.

Four runs in the first inning off Frankhouse and McAfee gave the Chicago Cubs a lead that was never overcome as they squared their series at Boston, 7 to 5. Gabby Hartnett hit a homer, double and two singles to lead the winners' assault.

Not to be outdone by his side partner, George Earnshaw, who shut out Detroit with two hits the previous day, Lefty Grove allowed only three blows and gave the Tigers another whitewashing, 3 to 0. It ran the Athletics' winning streak to twelve.

The Washington Senators made only three hits off Pat Caraway, but turned them into a 2 to 0 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Spencer's homer accounted for one score and a two-base error by Reynolds made possible the other.

Urban Pickering's two homers did not prevent the Boston Red Sox losing an 8 to 4 decision to the St. Louis Browns.

Rain caused postponement on the Yankee-Indian tilt at Cleveland.

STARS OF GAMES ON YESTERDAY

(By Associated Press)

Bob Grove, Athletics—Ran team's winning streak to 12 straight with three hit shutout of Tigers, 3-0.

Buzz Arlett, Phillies — Gained major league home run lead, hitting his eighth and ninth in 11-7 triumph over Pirates.

Sam Jones, Senators—Won fourth straight game, shutting out White Sox, 2 to 0.

Babe Herman, Robins—Singled in ninth inning driving in Thompson with run that beat Cardinals, 5-4.

John Berly, Giants—Shut out Reds 4-0, with five hits to run string of scoreless innnings to 19.

Gebby Hartnett, Cubs—Clouted homer, double and two singles to lead in 7-5 victory over Braves.

ENTRIES FALL SHORT

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Entries for the National Open golf championship this year fell 50 short of the 1930 total but 1,127 players are hopeful of winning places in the tournament at Toledo July 2. Sectional qualifying tests will be held in 20 districts June 8 to cut down this list.

FEW-HIT TILTS FEATURED ON WEDNESDAY

DALLAS GETS 3-HIT GAME FROM BUCS; CATS WINNERS

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

An assortment of pitching that will win most any old ball game bloomed in the Texas league Wednesday night.

Dallas got a three hit game from Oscar "Lefty" Fuhr to beat Galveston, 5 to 3. San Antonio whipped Shreveport 6 to 2 when Moore held the Sports down with a pair of hits. Fort Worth got a splendid three hit game from Chagnon to beat Beaumont, 3 to 2.

Uncover Old Trick

At Wichita Falls, the Spudders uncovered one of their old tricks when they stampeded in the eighth inning to beat Houston, 5 to 2. It gave the Spudders two out of the three games. Elmer Hanson pitched a fine game for Houston until the eighth. "Dizzy" Dean went to the mound and immediately put a stop to the Spudders' rampage, but it was too late.

Playing in the afternoon at Shreveport, the Sports accepted San Antonio's poor fielding as an opportunity to stop a losing streak. Before the win, the Sports had lost five consecutive games.

After winning their afternoon scrimmage, the Sports fell back into their losing rut Wednesday night, dropping a 6 to 2 affair to the Indians. Moore was almost invincible, holding the Sports to a pair of hits while the Indians batted Estrada, Moulton and Erickson hard.

Cats Sweep Series

At Fort Worth, the Cats inaugurated their new night baseball equipment by whipping the Exporters, thanks to a masterful pitching performance from Leon Chagnon. The win enabled the Cats to sweep the Beaumont series and increase their pennant lead to three full games.

The southpaw shoots of Oscar Fuhr worked to a perfection as Dallas beat Galveston in a game of ten errors, six by Galveston and four by Dallas. Carroll pitched ten hit baseball for Galveston, but erratic support spoiled whatever chance he had to beat Fuhr's three hit performance.

American Woman To Compete In Ireland

NEW YORK, May 21. (AP)—On American woman is following the golfing trail to Great Britain blazed by many American men. Maureen Orcutt of Englewood, N. J., winner of the metropolitan women championship for the past four years, sailed last night in quest of the British women's championship, a title which no American born player has yet captured. The tournament will be played over the Portmarnock course in Ireland beginning June 8.

BANK PROGRAM SUBMITTED

BARNES HAS SOLUTION FOR BUSINESS AND RELATIONS

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—An 11 point program for improvement of government business and international relations and trade was submitted to the national association of mutual savings banks by Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the board of the chamber of commerce of the United States.

Barnes sought to outline team play between the government and industry. He said his recommendations "are soundly based for the government's contribution in the effort to secure stabilization and recovery from this depression."

Program Given

Briefly his program suggested the following:

Legislation to lift restrictions which prevent insurance companies from proposing in private contracts security against unemployment.

Framers of tax laws should seek advice and take recommendations from those skilled on the subject, particularly the capital gains provision.

An end to senatorial disparagement of men nominated to government posts by the president.

Congress should "follow the recommendation of President Hoover, organized business and other organizations in respect to joining the world court."

Reconsideration of the anti-trust laws.

Re-survey of banking laws.

Re-study of railroad regulation to permit the carriers to meet competition of new transportation means.

Treatment of tariff as an economic and not a political issue.

TURNESA WINS IN HIS FIRST ROUND

LEEDS, Eng., May 21. (AP)—Joe Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y., won his first round match in the $5,000 Leeds professional golf tournament today from A. J. Young, Essex, five and four.

Joe Kirkwood, who qualified with Turnesa and Tony Manero, among the select 32, was eliminated by his first round opponent, A. R. Bradber.

Turnesa put together two record breaking rounds of 69 to win medalist honors and said he felt he was "fit for Carnoustie" where the open will be played beginning June 1.

Horton Smith and Willie Hunter, the other two Americans, failed to qualify.

Manero completed his match shortly after Turnesa, polishing off W. T. Twine, of Bromley, Kent, four and three. He burned up the course going out for a medal score of 34 and finished out the six holes necessary to victory on the nine four under fours.

Clarendon, Quanah Men Are Finalists

CLARENDON, May 21. (AP)—L. A. Walker of Quanah and Ira Merchant of Clarendon were finalists today in the sixth annual Greenleaf golf tournament.

Walker entered the final round with a 4 up and 3 victory over Bill Rogers of Vernon yesterday afternoon. A birdie and a string of pars on the second nine enabled Merchant to defeat Jack Parr of Childress 2 and 1.

Prince Galeazzo of Thun and Hohenstein, the Grand Master of the Sovereign and Military Order of Malta, died recently in Rome, aged 80.

End Of A Traveling Breakfast

Eating the first Transcontinental breakfast in history, Pilot Harlin Hull is pictured above, and is he getting service? The meal was prepared in New York and Hull carried it with him on the first westbound plane opening the new Transcontinental Western Airmail Line between the eastern metropolis and Los Angeles. Twety-four hours later the breakfast was served to the pilot in the western city by the Misses Dorothy Christy and Gladys Ford.

AMERICAN CONTENDERS CARRIED INTO QUARTER-FINALS OF FRENCH MATCHES

AUTEUIL, France, May 21 (AP)—Their ranks almost unbroken by four days of play in the French hard court tennis championships, the American contenders carried on into the quarter-final rounds of the doubles tournaments today.

Johnny Van Ryn and George Lott, Philadelphia players who form the advance guard of the American Davis Cup team, had their confidence shaken a bit by one tough set which they lost to the French team of Georges Glasser and Antoine Gentien. But they looked forward to success against the Scotch-English combination of Ian G. Collins and John S. Oliff, whom they face in the quarter-finals.

Elizabeth Ryan, former Californian who now makes her home in London, and her German partner, Fraulein Cilli Aussem, are scheduled to take the court for a match with Mrs. Phyllis Satterthwaite and Murial Thomas of England.

TEXAS UTILITIES WIN FIRST GAME

Webster, Texas Utilities hurler, had a no-hit, no-run game in the bag yesterday but in the fifth he let down for a minute and was hammered for one safety, nevertheless the team won its opening City league game over the Lubbock Wholesalers, 7 to 0, at the Texas Tech field.

Howell had worse luck for the Wholesalers, being smashed for ten bingles and backed up by four-error support to lose his first game of the season.

Two games are scheduled for today. The Avalanche-Journal team will meet the Texas Utilities at Merrill park and the Rainbows and wholesalers clash at the former's park on Twenty-third street and Texas avenue. All games begin promptly at 6 o'clock.

Vote Being Taken Over Golf Stymie

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—A vote is being taken by the Western Golf association over one of the perplexing problems of the game, the stymie.

The vote was requested after several members insisted that many were in favor of abolishing it in match play as well as medal. Officials of the western body, however, said they didn't know whether the stymie would be eliminated even if voted against, as rules of the parent golf body, the United States Golf association, favor it.

Race Gambling Bill Passed In Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 21 (AP)—After 20 years of trying, proponents of legalized race track gambling had a bill almost ready for presentation to Governor Doyle E. Carlton.

Over vigorous opposition led chiefly by a woman representative, the state house of representatives yesterday passed by 55 to 38 a senate measure to legalize racing and pari-mutuel systems of wagering. Governor Carlton has not indicated his attitude.

Representative Mrs. Edna G. Fuller said she would "be untrue to everything on which my life has been built if I failed to register my feeling in the presence of God against this legislation."

Representatives Of Stores Plan Meets

Monthly meetings of South Plains representatives of Red & White stores were planned at a dinner attended by 73 employes of the system Tuesday night at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The dinner was provided by members of the women's missionary society. Rev. L. G. Haymes of Lubbock was toastmaster.

Several entertainment features, including vocal numbers by H. W. Moore, and a male quartet from Post, and special music by the Lubbock High school orchestra, preceded the main address by Judge W. M. Peticolas, Jr. A. A. Strickland, editor of the Terry County News, and Frank Hill, editor of the Lynn County News, addressed the group. Judge Peticolas' address dealt with the work of the Red and White system and the advisability of using that system, cooperating in every other form of business, applying it to other lines of business and professional life.

It is planned, according to Tom Pierce, member of the advisory board of the Red and White system, to hold similar programs each month.

Match Play Begins In Dallas Tourney

DALLAS, May 21 (AP)—Match play in the first annual Lakewood Country club invitation golf tournament started this morning with LaFayette Franks, medalist yesterday with a 35-36—71, and Joe Bailey first to leave the starting tee. Both are Dallas entries.

With the exception of four, the championship flight is composed of Dallas golfers. H. H. Newton, Marshall; Norris Russell, Denton; J. E. Osborne, Paris, and W. H. Acker, Commerce, were the only visiting golfers to score well enough yesterday to place in the title bracket. Today, Newton plays Reynolds Smith, Dallas; Russell meets Jock Bigger, Dallas; Osborne plays L. R. Robertson, Dallas, and Acker meets Dr. D. S. Harris, Dallas.

Thought For Today

Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me; for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.—Ecclesiastes 2:7.

* * *

Vanity is the fruit of ignorance. —Ross.

In Dollars

When a generous gesture is made with dollars, instead of words, it deserves to be listed with noble impulses. There are entirely too many cases of sticky sentimentalism for which laurel wreaths are plaited and press notices are given. But when you get a green-back version of unselfishness it is fairly reliable.

Last year a bank in Vineland, N. J., failed. School children lost $37,-000. The money which they had earned in mowing lawns and shoveling snow and wiping dishes vanished. The round silver dollars that were special birthday gifts, and the quarters that had been saved when they wanted to see a movie and didn't were completely gone.

Colonel Evan O Kimble, the head of another financial institution in the same city, knew what the reaction of those youngsters would be. They would decide you couldn't trust savings accounts. They would buy caramels and gumdrops and go to movies and ball games whenever they had any money. They would come to the decision that the wisest thing to do is to spend your money before something happens to it.

Colonel Kimble realized that boys and girls who held this attitude couldn't train for the best citizenship. Therefore, from the coffers of his own bank, he dragged out the money bags and restored to each child the sum that he had lost.

Certainly the children who had preferred another bank to his didn't expect such largesse. But they are going to remember it. They are going to realize that fair play and generosity still make up a big part in life, or else a benefactor would not have made such a gift.

There are those who will say that the bank acted as a benefactor because it is counting on the profits which will accrue from the new accounts that will be opened. But such accounts will be small, at best. It will be a long time until the boys and girls will be making noticeable sums of money. The money which the bank could have loaned would have done more for it financially than the new accounts can do.

Colonel Kimble is representative of the type of business men who are putting a conscience in their work. He realizes that it is just as important to teach future citizens that the financial backing with which they deal is secure as it is to encourage them to send their coin to India's starving millions.

Colonel Kimble made a solid contribution to citizenship. He deserves to be mentioned.

Racketeers

It has been quite generally believed that the racketeer is a phenomenon developed only in large cities, but the recent activities of Jack (Legs) Diamond in the Catskills indicate even the farm communities are going to suffer along with the rest. If Diamond had not been liberally punctured with shot it would have been interesting to find out how a rural section can handle a gangster problem.

Diamond was charged with having his gang burn the fleet of a farmer to force him to tell the destination of a load of cider. The significant thing about that was: the farmer dared to complain to officials despite the fear of being killed.

Justice isn't so involved in the country sections. The machinery isn't so complex. There is less of corruption. Farmers have a habit of meeting it out without dallying over technicalities. If that had happened in this particular case it might have set a precedent which would have started the downfall of gangster terrorism.

The prohibition problem for the dry agents is search and for the commissions, research.

Those college professors appointed to study prohibition won't lose any time, of course, in putting it to a test.

ENROUTE TO CHIHUAHUA CITY ON THE NATIONAL RAILWAYS OF MEXICO, May 21.—That Girl on Broadway says a "peso" is equal to about 42 cents in American money, while a "beso" is only a Yankee dime.

The Plainsman is in high spirits this morning. He feels like a millionaire. Yesterday, before leaving Mexico City he had another ten dollar bill (more or less) changed into silver pesos. He shoves his hands down into his pockets and jingles the silver with the utmost satisfaction, but when he withdraws the extremities they look a lot like The Plainsman had been up to the front of the train shovelling coal into the oil-burning engine. If the Mexicans were not hollering so loud about the low price of silver he would suspect that it was really the low price of lead that is disturbing the economic life of Mexico.

PAPER money in this country is almost an unknown quantity, recognized only in banks and by the national treasury. Silver and gold are to Mexico what the "long green" is to the United States. You can't blame the people either. They have been "gipped" so often on revolutionary currency that they had just as soon take cigar coupons as a bill in exchange for their merchandise. A bundle of Huerta, Villa and Madera bills may be bought at the market in Mexico City for little or nothing.

* * *

Twenty dollars worth of pesos weighs so much that the Man on Avenue Q will have to wear suspenders when he comes down here.

* * *

Mexico City was a hard place to leave. The Tri-State fair special pulled out of the National Lines station last night at 11 o'clock, Mexican or Mountain time. A delegation from the "Camara de Comercio" (Chamber of Commerce) and a personal representative of President Ortiz Rubio came down to bid the West Texans "hasta luega" and "adios". A couple of smartly dressed generals, with shining sabers hanging from their belts, also were on hand. They said something, but the train had left the station before The Plainsman, with the aid of his little red dictionary, could make the translations.

Yesterday evening The Plainsman took a long walk over the city. It was a pleasant jaunt, too. At sunset innumerable bells in cathedrals and church began to toll, summoning the natives in for Rosary, just as these same bells beckoned to the Franciscoan monks more than three hundred years ago. Passing one of these places of worship, The Plainsman observed the natives, peons and those of the higher caste, alike, pause momentarily, then walk by the mission reverently, always holding their hats in their hands.

With twilight, hords of old women and girls, bearing baskets on their heads, came out of dark streets to the busy throughfares and after selecting favorable locations started erecting small tables on the sidewalks. Soon, the country's famous "cafe con leche" coffee with milk) stands were in operation.

Smokey, open oil lamps, staging a losing battle against Mexico City's bright street lights, proclaimed to the passers by that hot coffee might be procured. Hours later the old women, with children playing in the gutter nearby might be seen sitting immobile on one side of their little tables. Customers rarely stopped.

Age means little in Mexico. Most of the Panhandle delegation visited one of Mexico City's most proud possession—the Cathedral—and the shrine to "Our Lady of Guadalupe". The first structure was completed in 1563 and the latter was erected in 1695. Both appear to show little depreciation for the elements to brag about. A building is considered new if it was erected 100 years ago. One of the "newest" structures visited yesterday, a residence, had a little plate over the door bearing the date "September 1830". And these bells—practically all of them were seeing service in Mexico before our famouse Liberty bell left the shops, and you can't find a crack in them.

As The Plainsman writes this combination history and geography lesson the Santa Fe-Mexican National train is nearing Aguascalientes, between Mexico City and Chihuahua. We passed through Irapuato and Guanajuato early this morning. If the Journal's representative is lucky, he will get this off to Lubbock within the next hour at Aguascalientes via the National Telegraph of Mexico—everything is "national" in this country.

* * *

Early risers this morning were treated to a rare sight at Irapuato and as a result ate strawberries for breakfast. That little valley produces almost as large a quantity of the fruit as Lubbock county does cotton. Men, women and children were down at the train peddling large, luscious berry, of a healthy red. Those accustomed to driving good bargains back home in buying shoes for the kids were able to get about a gallon of strawberries for 20 centavos, (about 9 cents. Andy Mellon money.) It looked like the entire populace got out of bed before sunrise to meet the train. Those who were not selling fruit were offering hot coffee and "pan dulce" (sweet bread) to the excursionists.

Well, so long folks, but before The Plainsman goes he must give you the daily Spanish lesson (misspelling doesn't count): "usted es muy bonita; "si senorita" and "adois."

Capital Gossip: Woman's Party Praised For Aiding Deported American Born Woman; Politicians Haunted

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The National Woman's Party finds its ears ringing with an unaccustomed amount of praise since it directed everybody's attention to the Labor Department's cruel treatment of Mrs. Lillian Larsh, the destitute American born woman who was deported along with her four little girls to a Canadian town where she know no one simply because her husband had been a Canadian.

Usually the party is found pushing its equal rights amendment and is bitterly razzed by other women's groups because it would abolish labor legislation designed to protect women along with other legal inequalities. It will now, however, work for a bill to permit Mrs. Larsh's return and for once all women's national organizations probably will be on the same side.

The Columbia Broadcasting Company's operator who cut off President Hoover's radio speech awhile ago still has his job and that incident and the one that happened to Democratic Chairman Jouett Shouse in San Francisco recently are making public men more careful. Hoover had penciled a couple of additional paragraphs onto his speech as first prepared and the operator, following the original copy, shut him off before he could get them on the air. All was satisfactorily explained. Shouse's radio listeners suddenly heard him telling a gathering that he was "off the air" when he wasn't and Republican Chairman Simeon Fess charged he had then said things he wouldn't have dared say to a radio audience.

Senator Davis of Pennsylvania; former secretary of labor, sometimes known as "Banjo Jim," isn't always taken seriously here, but Cal Coolidge recently told a friend that when he had wanted to get a thing done Davis was the most dependable man in his cabinet. Jim, he explained, had a faculty of ingratiating himself and getting people to do those things.

The famous D. A. R. apparently still believes there is something slightly profane about tobacco. Signs in corridors of Memorial Continental Hall primly admonish one: "No Smoking. This is a Memorial Hall."

Apple vendors have disappeared from the streets of Washington, but most office buildings have inherited a favorite vendor of fruits and candies who always looks very poor and usually undertakes to strengthen his position by inveighing against the Communists in various offices. The Junior League bought the man who works its block a swell hat and coat which he now wears on his rounds.

A recent article published by the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, to prove that while a certain quantity of wine or brandy makes a man crazy, beer in corresponding quantity makes him stupid, contains this thought: "Some of us prefer an interesting maniac to a brutalized idiot."

Anyway, cocktails are not being consumed fast enough to take care of a surplus of grapefruit juice and orange juice. The Agriculture Department says practically all citrus-growing counties are increasing production faster than world consumption now and that production probably will keep on increasing, which presumably means that just one more section of agriculture is going to suffer from overproduction.

A speaker at the recent Chamber of Commerce meetings departed from his prepared speech to tell interesting tales about how the Illionis corn crop used to go to Canadian distilleries but didn't say any more because of competition and how Mohammedans in the Sudan were persuaded to work only on promise of trips to Mecca in return for two years' labor and then told at Mecca they must work a couple of years more for their passage home.

There was a big story just before the International Chamber of Commerce Congress that foreign delegates would attack the United States for trading with Russia. At the congress itself you couldn't find delegates from any important country that wasn't trading with Russia, so that's presumably why there wasn't any fight.

AIR COOLING SYSTEM

WHAT this country needs is a moderate-priced cooling system for the average house.

The American home is marvelously equipped for most comforts. But considering the horrors of the American climate in summer, it falls down badly in this.

Dr. Clendening

Our heating systems are wonderful. The whole house, rooms and hallways are kept at an even, comfortable temperature in winter, no matter how severe the weather outside. It was not always so. I remember my grandfather's house—the halls were the temperature of the North Pole, the sitting room that of equatorial Africa. Nor is it true of all countries. Winter in an English or French house is a horror not lightly to be enoured.

But American summers, over most of the country are far more severe and trying than our winters. It seems strange that our homes are not equipped with cooling apparatus as well as heating apparatus. I predict that the time for this is not far off. Engineers seem to understand how to do it. I saw a sound-proof room in a radio broadcasting station the other day. It was lighted with artificial sunlight and ventilated with filtered air, constantly in motion, constantly at a temperature of 68, winter and summer. The musicians in the orchestra were more comfortable and healthier in that room than in their own homes. The ones that have hay fever are even free from it while in the room.

The scientific principle involved depends more on keeping the air in a room constantly in motion than in actual reduction in the air temperature.

But at that the American home in summer is so much better than it used to be that we should offer up praise and thanksgiving. Screens, plumbing, shower baths, refrigerators, electric fans and sleeping porches have made a joyous revolution. Our ancestors modeled the homes they built in the new world on the ones they lived in in the old world. Not realizing that the American summer climate is nothing like the climate of Europe.

I saw an old photograph the other day of some pioneers in front of one of the old houses in my part of the world in summer. It made me shudder. The door and windows were wide open and the flies could almost be seen swarming in and out. The men wore black broadcloth clothes (with vests) and most of them had heavy beards. The women were clothed from the wrists and ankles to the ears. Everybody had a palm leaf fan.

In those days you went to bed in a solid room with two windows, usually both facing the same direction. You crawled into bed under a heavy mosquito netting and often found that one or two mosquitoes had got in before you. All the cooling your food got was received from the temperature of the cellar. If you wanted to cool your skin you found some lake warm water in a wash bowl and sponged your face and wrists.

Yes, things have changed miraculously for the better, but to make it complete, how about the inexpensive air-cooling ventilation system?

Ray Click Awarded New Trial By Court

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Ray Click of Llano, sentenced to life imprisonment in the killing last September of Charlie Walker, has been granted a new trial by the court of criminal appeals.

The court held the prosecution's effort to introduce a verbal statement Click assertedly had made after his arrest was prejudicial. The district attorney asked Click if he had not said he "intended to kill Walker on Wednesday but his heart failed him."

The court granted $10,000 bail to N. E. Perkins, charged in Orange county with murder in the killing of W. C. White in March 1930. The trial court had denied bail.

Perkins claimed self defense.

Chicago's "Century of Progress" exhibition in 1933 will be held on man-made land, built out into Lake Michigan of refuse, excavation dirt and rocks.

SWAN

In New York With Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, May 21.—Even in a town where the unique becomes a commonplace, the "Pipe Organ Pumpers" can lay fair claim to distinction.

Although New York has any number of odd and unusual organizations, the "pumpers" remain a couple of leaps ahead of most original ideas.

To be a member, one must prove that he has, in his earlier years, pumped the bellows in the little church organ. And you'd be surprised the number of small towners in the big town who have done just that. Including myself.

Charles M. Schawb, the steel magnate, is numbered among the ancient clan of pipe pumpers. So is George Bye, the big syndicate man. So are hundreds of others who occupy positions of state, to say nothing of the many who are "just people."

And to show you how giddy we boys get out here in New York when we get together, there's a magic lantern show put on each time an annual get-together is held. Yes, sir, and we sing old songs with slide illustrations and cup up like anything.

The bright idea for this order originated in the bean of one Chet Shafer, who used to live around this town and work for magazines, but who has moved back to a small community in the middle west.

All funds that come from dues are to be used for restoring those grand old metal animals that used to be used to decorate lawns. Next thing you know they'll be having a home for wooden cigar store Indians.

The officers of the order are named after the stops of a pipe organ, such as "vox humana," "chief diapason," "chief tremolo" and "tuba profunda."

It was something like three or four years ago, if I remember, that a bunch of ministers' sons who have made good in the world got together and decided to start an organization which would live down the old wheeze that ministers' sons come to no good end.

They pointed out that whenever a minister's son went wrong the fact attracted so much attention that every minister's son was expected to live under some sort of curse.

The world, they pointed out, heard of ministers' sons only when they went wrong, whereas the vast majority of them have done nothing of the sort. Their organization contained scores of eminent personalities.

And I've told you at one time or another about the Circus Fans and the Circus Saints and Sinners, all of them grown men who have never recovered from their boyhood circus thrill.

Also there's a club in New York that has no headquarters. Nor has it dues or by-laws. It meets once a week at lunch, and the lunch place is changed from time to time. It's called the Dutch Treat, and on its list of members are the best known writers, artists, musicians and newspaper folk in America. Once a year they put on a dinner show. The sketches are written by many of the country's most famous playwrights and wits. The parts are played by other celebrities.

A program-book distributed at the time to members has become extremely valuable to collectors, since it contains work of artists otherwise unobtainable and is limited to a few hundred copies.

The fact an increasing number of phone calls are being made at the White House should convince you that the Republicans are quite a busy party.

An optimist is a South America president who thinks the shooting outside is one presidential salute after the other.

The vogue for reducing might acquire some significance if it also applied to heavy artillery.

As far as most housewives are concerned, swatting flies will soon become the national past-time.

"I can't make this out at all," as the infielder said bungling a hot liner.

A twice-a-week air service has been inaugurated between Juneau, Alaska, and Seattle, Wash., a distance of 900 miles.

Sometimes it requires a lot of diplomacy to get a diploma.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

"Say, how long is the China Wall? I cannot see the end at all," said Clowny. "It just disappears 'way off there in the hills. I'd hate to have to walk around the edge of it, along the ground. And look how square and plain it's built, without a lot of thrills."

The little Chinese boy then said, "I'll tell you, if you have not read, why years ago this wall was made. 'Twas when they were at war. One race worked hard year in and year out and met with much success, no doubt. It kept the other races out. That's what the wall was for."

Just then, from near the big wall gate, they heard a voice cry, "Say, it's la'e. You Tinies better come right back. We'll eat, then go to bed." So to the gate they promptly ran, and there they found the Travel Man. "You're kind suggestion that we eat, is great," wee Coppy said.

Soon in a restaurant they sat. Said Carpy, "Here's where I fat. I'm going to eat until stuffed. I'm hungry as can be." The others, too, agreed that they had built an appetite that day. The Travel Man said "Well, a little will do for me."

That night they all slept very sound and when they woke and looked around they found the sun was shining brightly. "This is great," cried one. "We'll hike back to a farm again, where new sights turn up now and then. At least the walk will do us good and we have lots of fun."

So after walking 'bout a mile they reached a farm and, with a smile, the Travel Man said, "There's a sight you've never seen before. The men upon those wheels are strong. They all pump water all day long. That's how they irrigate the land. Just hear the water roar."

(The Tinymites have some more fun in the next story.)

Maryland Woman Happy Now—
Loses 55 Lbs

Edith J. Marriott of Baltimore, Md. writes: "Last winter I weighed 200 lbs. and was very much ashamed. I bought a bottle of Kruschen Salts which gave such wonderful results I bought more. After 4 bottles I weigh 145 lbs. and all my friends say, "How slender you've gotten—now did you do it?" I say only 4 words—thanks Kruschen Salts."

A generous bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks costs 85 cents at Bowen's Drug, Bowlin Hilton Pharmacy, City Drug Store, the Lubbock Drug Co., Marx Drug Co., Posey Drug or any drugstore in America—take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—cut out pastries and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—that will help Kruschen take off your fat.

Take Kruschen every morning. It's the little daily dose that does it—if not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back. Adv.

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER

LIFE OF LATE BRITISH NOVELIST TO LIVE NEW LIFE ON RANCH NEAR TAOS

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Mrs. H. Lawrence, widow of the British novelist and poet who died last ..., was in New York today on her way to her Taos, N. M., ranch house where she said she would try to "build a new life—a simple life of baking one's own bread, doing one's own washing, milking one's own cows, and saddling one's own horses."

Cuts the Cost to the Coast

You can pack the pleasure of the Far West into two weeks.

You can take your fill of a vacation land fretted with painted caverns and canyons; racing streams, mountains and mesas.

You can visit dude ranches, National Parks, snow-capped ranges and take the Indian-detours.

You can go clear to California and back on a Santa Fe Summer Xcursion ticket—at a fare so reasonable you can afford to take the whole family.

MANHUNT

ly after Spencer entered Crawford's office a man appeared and asked to see Crawford.

Crawford greeted the visitor at the door of his private office and asked him to enter. Radke said the men talked about an hour. Suddenly two shots rang out. Radke heard a scream and a yell from Spencer, "Get that fellow." The door burst open and the gunman fled to the street. Radke rushed into the office and found Spencer dead. Crawford sitting in his chair, arose and collapsed.

Recently Spencer had written of threats on his life. As though he feared they might be carried out, he added in these stories that there was "in a certain bank" a box containing the names and full information about those who had been touched by the exposures. Police began a search for the box.

Crawford, about 50, was in the real estate business. He was indicted in the Julian oil scandals, but never prosecuted.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—The stock market started to have a morning rally today, as it has had during the past two sessions, but what looked like bear assaults against a few issues unsettled the market before midday.

Vanadium was pushed down 4 points and Worthington Pump lost nearly as much. Shares losing 2 points or so included Loews, Dupont, Air Reduction and Western Union. General Motors, Anaconda and Standard of N. J. sagged a point. Earlier, several of the rails had worked little higher, gains of a point or so being recorded by Union Pacific and Atchison. Columbian Carbon had pushed up 3.

Call money at 1½ per cent.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, May 21. (AP)—Cotton had a quiet but steady opening here today. As Liverpool cables were better than due, first trades showed gains of five to six points. July advanced a little further after the start to 9.37, up 7 points from yesterday's close. Later in the first hour, the market eased off owing to a rather easier opening in stocks, July trading down to 9.26 and October to 9.60, or seven to eleven points down from the early highs.

Near the end of the first hour the market was quiet and steady and near the lows.

The market continued to ease off most of the morning owing to lack of support. There also was considerable liquidation of the July position which adversely affected the whole market. July traded down to 9.20 and October to 9.54, 17 points down from the highs on July and 13 points down on October.

Toward mid-session the market was a shade steadier on shorts covering, prices recovering five to seven points from the lows.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 21. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today 5 to 7 points higher with July selling up to 9.37 and December to 9.87 on a continuation of yesterday's buying movement which seemed to find further inspiration in the relatively steady Liverpool cables and unfavorable weather news.

The advance, which was attributed largely to covering and a moderate trade demand, met a renewal of liquidation, however, and selling became more active. There were reactions which carried July off to 9.23 and December to 9.77 by the end of the first half hour, or about 4 to 7 points net lower.

Liverpool reported Voering and Continental buying and said a more cheerful feeling prevailed in Manchester on expectations that the Indian cloth boycott would be lifted.

The dominating factor later in the morning appeared to be the weakness of the stock market and prices worked gradually lower under liquidation coupled with some further local and southern selling. July declined to 9.20 and December to 9.74, making net losses of about 6 to 10 points on the active positions. The market at midday was a shade steadier on covering with prices showing rallies of 4 or 5 points from the lowest.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, May 21 (AP) — Cotton futures opened steady today: May 9.28; July 9.35; Oct. 9.66; Dec. 9.87; Jan 9.97 bid; March 10.18.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: May 9.21; July 9.36; Oct. 9.69; Dec. 9.86; Jan. 9.96; March 10.16.

CALL OFF BANQUET

WACO, May 21. (AP)—Dean W. S. Allen of Baylor university has announced that the annual alumni banquet, set for May 26, would not be held. The action was taken in respect for the memory of President S. P. Brooks, who died a week ago. Earl B. Smuth of Dallas is president of the alumni.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, May 21. (AP)—Good rains in parts of the Canadian prairie provinces, tending to abate drouth, led to early downturns in wheat prices today. Indications pointed also to only slight damage from freezing temperatures in Kansas.

Opening at 1-8 1 1-8 cents off, wheat later held near the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 up and subsequently sagged.

TEN CANDIDATES TO GET MASONIC DEGREE IN CITY

Ten candidates were to be given the Royal Arch degree following convocation of the Royal Arch chapter of Lubbock Masons at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Citizen's National bank building.

Supper will be served at 6 p. m. Twelve candidates will receive council degrees here Friday night.

A hundred visitors were expected here late today from Slaton, Post, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Brownfield, Floydada, Plainview, Lockney, Hale Center, Littlefield, and Levelland, said J. H. Moore, secretary of the Lubbock chapter.

W. H. Carpenter is high priest of the Lubbock chapter. Present and past officers of the state chapter and other prominent out-of-town Masons expected to attend the convocation include:

Thomas M. Bartley, grand secretary, of Waco; Sam J. Helm, past grand high priest, of Corsicana; H. L. Ilfrey, chairman of the committee on work, of El Paso; F. N. Sheely, committee on work, of Commerce; G. R. Kimbrough, committee on work, of Fort Worth; J. R. Sheppard, committee on work, of Colorado; H. R. Head, grand master of the council, Grandview; W. S. Tate, of Hamilton A. C. Young of Abbott and Zeb Baird and M. C. Vaughn, of Hillsboro.

LIBEL SUIT

while he was operating a saloon there, and also at Tucumcari.

"I saw Henry Hawkins with Dick and Ernest Spikes" he stated. "I saw John and Dick Spikes with Henry Hawkins and I saw Dick and Henry Hawkins in the late fall of 1901.

"As far as I recall I never met Fred Spikes," he said. He added that he did not remember of having heard of Fred Spikes prior to the fall of 1901.

Says Reputation "Bad"

Witness testified that he had heard of the general reputation of "the Spikes gang" and in particular Dick, John, Fred and possibly Sam. "It was bad" he stated.

Henry Hawkins' reputation was "bad" and his "reputation was as a cow thief and outlaw," the witness added.

Witness testified he knew Web McAdams, who, lived near Endee and whose reputation was connected with cattle rustling activities; he did not know Lee Rasberry, but did know William and Jesse Smith.

Robbery of the Monarch saloon was a few days before the death of the Spikes boys. "I was in my place of business at the time of the robbery" he stated. He went out of the back door and towards the Monarch, he said. About half a block or less from the other saloon he saw a group of men.

"I recognized Henry Hawkins by his voice," the witness stated. "I heard some one say, 'we can get more money down at the other saloon but some of us will be left down there'."

Knew Voice

"I knew something about his voice," he testified in response to a query as to how he knew who the first speaker was.

Testifying as to whom he thought the second speaker was he said, "I thought it was Dick Spikes but I would not swear that it was."

Two or three days later, the day of the slaying of the Spikes boys, Street said he was asked by Fred Freeland, a deputy sheriff, to go with a posse to Mesa Rica to look for Henry Hawkins. It was about noon he said, when he was asked to join the posse. In it, besides Freeland, were Sim McFarland, a cattle inspector, George Kilgore, Lee Hart, Donald Stewart and Lee Smith.

Near the home of Minter Moore, a horse breeder, on the Mesa, he and his party had a gun battle with Henry Hawkins and five or six of his gang. He did not recognize the others, he testified.

For nearly an hour the witness was grilled by G. E. Lockhart, but the questioning failed to shake the witness. At times the cross examination became argumentative and it was necessary for Judge Clark Mullican to caution the examiner to be more careful.

Man Confesses To Slaying Of Three

WINNIPEG, Man., May 21. (AP)—Three children of one family are dead, victims of gunfire and razor slashings, and John Strelb, 45, with self-inflicted wounds which kept him in a hospital, was charged with their murders today.

The dead: George, 18; Doris, 12, and Irene, 8, children of Mrs. Lillian Walters, a department store employe. Police said Strelb, a boarder with the family two years, has confessed.

Rule Against Use Of Lie Detector

VALPPARAISO, Ind., May 21 (AP)—On the grounds that it might cause a mistrial, Judge Grant Crumpacker late yesterday ruled against use of a lie detector in the trial of Virgil Kirkland, Gary, Ind., accused of slaying Arlene Draves.

Although defense attorneys placed Col. Calvin Goddard, ballistics expert, on the stand to testify that the instrument was used in registering emotions of questioned persons, Judge Crumpacker said he preferred to exclude it until it was recognized and adopted by scientific bodies.

CONVENT ATTACKED

PAMPLONA, Spain, May 21. (AP)—Dispatches from the village of Taffalla report that a convent there was attacked and set on fire today by a group of rioters. The townspeople drove off the intruders and extinguished the blaze before much damage was done.

matches will start tomorrow afternoon and all matches will continue through Saturday, with the finals in the championship and in each of the other three flights slated for Sunday.

Entries this morning included H. F. Swab of Ralls, B. D. Myers, S. L. Hodges and D. L. Hustler of San Angelo; Grady Newman of Colorado, L. D. Crump and C. E. Hindley of Post, H. F. Fillingin and W. W. McNaron of Rotan, and Amos Howard and John Garrith of Lubbock.

The program for the tournament calls for a stag dinner at the Country Club house, replete with music "fun and spicy entertainment" this evening at 7:30. Eighteen-hole match play begins in all flights early tomorrow and as entertainment the Lubbock Country club is sponsoring a dance at Lubbock hotel tomorrow night. Another dance will be held at the Uptown Dance palace Saturday night.

high wind which last night damaged houses, plants and downtown buildings here. None was reported injured.

Arriving at about 10:30 p. m., the gale lasted about thirty minutes. Several shacks were blown down, porches torn from residences, roofs lifted from a compress and the city hall, and a plate glass window in Patterson's dry goods store blown out.

A shower was reported last night at Silverton, also in Briscoe county.

NORTH PLAINS DRENCHED

PAMPA, May 21 (AP)—The North Panhandle Plains for fifty miles in every direction from Pampa were drenched by three-quarters of an inch of rain last night. Fog and cold today followed the rain and roads were slippery. Wheat crops were believed benefitted.

RAIN IN KANSAS

DODGE CITY, Kansas, May 21 (AP)—A general, slowly falling rain covered southwest Kansas, west central Kansas, the Oklahoma Panhandle and southeast Colorado last night and in most of the visited sections continued falling today. A light snow fell this morning at Sharon Springs, Kansas.

AMARILLO, May 21 (AP)—Heavy showers averaging from one half to two inches were reported over much of the North Plains area this morning, although the precipitation was spotted. The Santa Fe reported rain over its North Plains lines, from Amarillo to Waynoka, Okla., and from Amarillo to Boise City. The Fort Worth and Denver reported rain from Texline, in the northwest corner of the Panhandle, to Hartley.

Fliers Will Seek Permission For Hop

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 21 (AP)—Wiley Post and Harold Gatty left here today on a projected nonstop flight to Washington to seek an interview with the British ambassador regarding Soviet permission to cross Russian territory on an earth-girdling air trip.

Gatty, Australian by birth, still is a British subject and P. C. Hall, Oklahoma City oil man financing the flight in search of the round the world speed record, believes that may bear weight with Soviet authorities. The fliers previously had been refused necessary permission.

Fail To Agree On Redistricting Plan

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Although they clung to their work until 3 a. m. to day, congressional redistricting free conferences failed to reach an agreement.

Motions were made to dissect the congressional plan, district by district, and pass on it that way, and for the present congressional free conferences to resign and report back to the houses their failure to strike an agreement. The latter of the two was tabled. The first motion, characterized as a "gentleman's agreement" with an aim to let the majority rule, was cast aside when Senator Greer of Athens, author of the senate congressional redistricting plan, failed to agree to such procedure.

PARIS, May 21 (AP)—A havas dispatch from Meknes, Morocco, says a French military plane crashed today from approximately 2,000 feet, killing four persons.

LEGISLATURE

its efforts today to make final disposition of urgent legislation.

Rumors continued to hold that Governor Sterling would call the legislators back for a special session. One was that the special session would be called Saturday, another Monday and still another next fall.

Reject Bond Issue

The house rejected the $212,000,000 highway bond issue again yesterday, the vote being 97 to 46. Speaker Minor overruled a point of order which sought to hold that the proposed amendment could not be taken up again because it failed at final passage.

Representative Hubbard of New Boston, sponsor of the issue in the house, said no further effort would be made to bring the resolution up this session.

The house moves at noon within the confines of the 24 hour rule. After that hour, nothing but free conference reports and resolutions to recall bills for correction can be taken up as new legislation.

To Aid Schools

House and senate free conferees agreed last night to recommend appropriations of $5,000,000 for rural school aid during the biennium. The report was the first of the major money bills now before free conference committees to be reported. The eleemosynary, departmental and the education appropriations bills were considered. The appropriations bills and the congressional redistricting bill were said to be the determining factors in the question of whether the legislature would remain with its deliberations longer than tomorrow.

Only one of the senate's amendments to the Holder peddlers bill—the Hopkins cement tax amendment—was taken from the measure when it reached the house. The house recommended that the cement tax proposal be sent to a free conference committee. The amendment proposed a five cents per sack levy on cement.

Scout Committee To Hold Meet At Post

POST, May 21—(Special)—The southern district committee of the South Plains Area Boy Scout council will meet here at 8 o'clock tonight.

Dates and places of the annual southern district field meet and camp will be determined. D. T. Jennings, area executive, of Lubbock will attend.

J. D. Dyer of Lamesa is chairman of the district committee, Slaton, Wilson, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa and Post compose the southern sector.

Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, of 2201 Broadway, is spending several days in Mineral Wells.

URGE SPECIAL SESSION

EXPANDED PROGRAM OF PUBLIC WORKS ASKED BY LAFOLLETTE

WASHINGTON, May 21. (AP)—A vastly expanded public works program made possible by an immediate special session of congress was seen today by Senator LaFollette as the sole hope of averting "the dire consequences of a third winter of unemployment for many millions of our citizens."

Speaking as chairman of the unemployment and industrial stabilization committee selected at the recent progressive conference, the Wisconsin Republican based his conclusions on a preliminary report by Dr. Isador Lubin, chairman of the conference sub-committee on unemployment.

"The federal government alone can meet the wide-spread distress which the report reveals," LaFollette said. "At the present rate of industrial revival the number of unemployed to be provided for during the coming winter bids fair to remain close to the 6,000,000 found by the census bureau in its enumeration of last January."

The senator said the report showed little or no evidence that the rest of 1931 would bring sufficient improvement.

"Unless the federal government spends now, the cost of healing those injuries which are likely to occur during the coming 12 months will be many times more than what may be saved by our present policy of federal economy," he asserted.

"A special session of congress should be called immediately to relieve distress among the unemployed. Unless an extra session is called there will be a delay of months before any action can be taken to expand our public works program."

Swindling Suspect Says Prince Is A "Charming Person"

CHICAGO, May 21. (AP)—The prince of Wales, in the expressed opinion of John Factor, former Halsted street barber, accused of swindling Britons in a stock scheme, is "a charming person."

This description of the heir to the British throne was given yesterday by Factor after he had surrendered to federal authorities and served notice he would resist all efforts to extradite him to England.

The reference to the prince was made when Factor told newspapermen of playing chemin de fer with him at Monte Carlo last August 16. He denied the prince withdrew from the game when he learned Factor was the banker in the game. Factor said this couldn't have been, because each player is his own banker.

Factor also denied all charges of fraud laid to him by English officials. His hearing was set for Monday before a United States commissioner. Meanwhile he was given permission to stay in a hotel suite under guard of a United States deputy marshal.

Broadway Hotel Is Damaged By Flames

Fire of undetermined origin damaged the Broadway hotel at Broadway and Avenue H, last night. An alarm was sounded at about 9:30 p. m.

Dago's fruit stand, occuping a small space between the frame hotel building and a brick structure housing Blondie's cafe, suffered the greatest loss, firemen said. The stock of goods in the fruit stand was destroyed, they said. The west wall and the roof of the hotel were damaged slightly.

Fire department attaches yesterday investigated a fire which was preceded by an explosion early Wednesday morning in a vacant house at 1010 Nineteenth street. Several cans containing kerosene were found in the house, they said. The interior and the roof were damaged.

AIR COOLED—

The holes running transversaly clear through the tread of the TRIPLE TREAD TIRE carry off by "FORCED DRAFT" the heat generated in the tread of this new revolutionary tire. As the tire revolves, the small holes open and close with each revolution pumping air in and out, thereby eliminating heat—the greatest enemy of rubber.

BLOW OUT AND PUNCTURE PROOF—

Heretofore, tire manufacturers have found that a tread could be made only so thick—made any thicker, too much heat was generated causing premature tread wear, cracked treads, chipped treads and separation. Due to the mechanical air cooling process of this new TRIPLE TREAD SEIBERLING TIRE it was possible to weld three treads into one, thereby giving the user a guarantee of 50% to 100% more mileage. Combine this with the fact that this new tire is practically blow out and puncture proof, giving more for your tire dollar per non-skid mile than all other so called super tires. Then pay us a visit and be convinced.
