Number 40

Following 17-6 Win Over Menard . . .

Eagles Host Sanderson Here Tomorrow Night

The Eldorado Eagles host Sanderson tomorrow night on New Eagle Field in the second District contest of the 8A schedule.

Sanderson has played four, lost three, and tied one for the 1967 season. Last year they failed to win a game. Such records hurt the boys who have to live with them and make them sullen, dogged, and resigned losers; but each time an opponent has to meet a team like this, it is much like carrying a cup of nitroglycerine. It just is not known at which place the endurance point is reached and such a team is going to explode.

Sanderson has good team potential, reasonably big boys, good speed, and at least one excellent back in the person of their right half, No. 30, Harry Reiss. The Sanderson Eagles deserve commendation for their courage in competing for so long a winless period. But their opponents including the Eldorado Eagles should exercise greatest caution in their encounters with Sanderson. One of these days the Terrell County lads may find out that teams just don't have to take a beating everytime.

A glance at their starting line-up confirms at least some of the above comments:

No.	Name	Pos.	Wt.
88	Flowers	LE	160
77	Thompson	LT	175
55	Lemons	LG	180
50	Escamilla	C	165
60	Lee	RG	140
75	Flowers	RT	175
80	Ybarra	RE	155
40	Garcia	RHB	155
30	Reiss	LHB	165
22	Haynes	FB	145
10	Garza	QB	130

Sanderson utilizes the "I" formation, "Straight T" formation, and "Winged T" formation for offensive purposes. They employ standard plays and strategy. Another way of saying it is that they lose with what other people use to win. Like the rifle cartridge that snaps, one of these days that cart-

Band To Perform In The Cotton Bowl

The Eldorado Eagle High School Band is one of 16 high school bands from all sections of the state selected to perform in the State Fair Music Festival October 9 at 8:00 p.m. in the Cotton Bowl. The 16 bands will perform as one band making some 7 formations to salute the theme, "Texas International."

The pageant will honor the great State of Texas, Fine Arts and Business and Industry.

Mr. "Tijuana Brass" himself, Herb Alpert, will be the honored guest. His appearance will be highlighted by the formations of Herb and Tijuana while his music is played and sung.

In addition to the 16 bands several choirs and orchestras and the Marine Band from San Diego, Cal., have been selected to appear in the pageant.

Over 4000 high school musicians will gather in the Cotton Bowl for afternoon rehearsals before the performance on Monday evening.

The Eldorado Band will leave at 6:00 Sunday morning and return Tuesday afternoon. The Band will stay at the Ramada Inn in Grand Prairie, only a few minutes drive on the freeway to the State Fair grounds.

On Sunday evening the band members will see a performance of the Broadway musical, "Mame" starring Celeste Holm.

In addition to their rehearsal and performance time the band members will have sufficient time to see the State Fair.

CLIFFORD NELSON AT FIRST BAPTIST

While Kenneth Vaughan is closing out a revival at Tow Sunday, arrangements have been made for Rev. Clifford Nelson of Brownwood to conduct both morning and evening services at the First Baptist church here.

ridge may explode and pity the folks in front.

Sanderson to date has passed infrequently and usually to a back in the flat or near the outside lateral areas adjacent to their team or their QB, No. 10, Garza will lateral back to Reiss who is strong enough to pass deep into enemy territory.

Defensively, they deploy into standard formations, again with their own variations. They may set up in a 5-3 with their tackles facing their opponents guards rather than head on the opposing tackles and with the linebackers out wide; or they may employ a five-man front with four linebackers. Occasionally, they use a four-man front with four linebackers, and again, these eight men use the so called "Gap 8" strategy, trying literally to swarm through all holes in an offensive line.

Eldorado fans should not assume a too greatly relaxed attitude. This "dud" will explode one of these days. It is best to let it explode with one's neighbors.

Meanwhile the youthful Eldorado Eagles will be hard at work this week on appropriate lessons such as holding a football in turbulent traffic, blocking opposing linemen who are not particularly agreeable, being as tough to the outside as they are already to the inside of their tackles, and just generally trying to develop and inspire sophomores to play like other people

Decision Saturday: Legal Sale Or Continue With Prohibition

After a period of 19 years, voters in Schleicher County will go to the polls Saturday and vote again on the question of legalized sale of alcoholic beverages.

This election was ordered by the Commissioners in their regular meeting on Monday, September 11th, when they were presented a petition bearing 318 signatures calling for local option election.

Saturday, October 7 was set as date for election and notices were posted at the various voting precincts. Balloting Saturday will take place at the six regular voting boxes, and absentee balloting has been going on at the County Clerk's office up to 5:00 p.m., Tuesday.

Election judges and their assistants at the various boxes are:

Precinct No. 1, Memorial Building: T. R. Spence and Jerroll Sanders.

2A, Wool House: Mrs. Patsy Hartgraves and Mrs. Mabel Blaylock.

2B, Frieske Residence: Mrs. Elsie Frieske and Mrs. Edna Ory.

3, County Barn: Mrs. Edith Runge and Mrs. Jess Blaylock.

4A, Schoolhouse Gym: W. O. Enochs and Mrs. Winnie Jackson.

4B, Northern Natural Gas office: Nick Jurecek and Mrs. J. Tom Williams.

5, Absentee: Mrs. Donnie Gilmore and Mrs. Josephine Woodward.

Polls open at 8:00 a.m. and close at 7:00 p.m.

Post Script

Schleicher county votes Saturday on the proposition of legal sales of alcoholic beverages for off premises consumption only.

In this paper three weeks ago we announced that this election was being called, and we stated then our position on the question at that time.

We said we were for it. We're still for it and there is no reason why we should go over all that again.

I would like to observe that the past three weeks have seen the quietest election campaign I have ever experienced.

Last May when we were approaching the hospital vote, it seemed that everyone was expressing an opinion—one way or another. All this has been absent in this "legal sales" campaign. In fact this campaign has been distinguished by its absence of controversy.

A voluntary group which signs itself "Schleicher County Committee for Legal Sales" seems to be the only one that has taken an active part. They have taken up a collection to pay for a limited amount of advertising and are mailing out letters giving reasons why legal sales are desirable for this county. We urge you to read these letters you receive in your mail box.

On page 3 of this issue they also present a thoughtful and reasonable statement to support their stand for legal sales. (Incidentally this ad is paid for, too, at regular rates.)

We can't improve on the statements in this ad, and we simply ask you to read it and ponder it.

We still can't discuss this subject without going back to our hospital proposition.

We voted for a hospital so we could get a doctor and medical facilities.

Money has been voted and a hospital is now on the drawing board. In God's good time you will see a new modern hospital and doctor(s) right here in Eldorado. And what does it take to make a hospital a success?

People! We need to stop this exodus of citizens who are moving away and—of small businesses that are closing.

Legal sales may not be the complete answer to a worried small town's prayer.

BUT IT COULD HELP.

Tuesday at 5:00 p.m. was the deadline for voting absentee in the election coming up Saturday on whether or not to legalize sale of alcoholic beverages here.

Election Returns In Success Window

When the polls close at 7:00 o'clock Saturday night, Bill Gunstead will be at the County Clerk's office and will phone results as they come in from each voting box, to the Success office where they will be posted in the window.

Since it is a simple question of "For or Against" the final totals should be in within an hour's time.

With passing of the deadline, there were 106 absentee votes cast which would indicate a good voter turnout for Saturday.

Wallace Joiner was the winner of 50 gallons of gas given away by B&G Enco Station in a drawing held there Sept. 30th.

With our subscribers: Mrs. S. D. Harper has subscribed for Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Morehouse who live at 2500 Steck, Apt. 144, Austin, Texas 78758.

Tom Kent's new address in Midland is 2604 Bedford.

Dr. Brame Is Still Considering Eldorado

Dr. J. B. Brame of Pasadena, Texas, has informed the hospital board that he has reconsidered, and wishes to reopen the possibility of moving to Eldorado to practice medicine.

In a telephone conversation with Carroll Ratliff, president of the board, he stated that they could not get Eldorado out of their minds and in every conversation they had concerning changing locations, Eldorado would be the first place they would discuss. He also stated that he would be in a position to make a definite announcement within two or three weeks.

Mrs. Brame was in Eldorado Tuesday afternoon to see what housing was available.

DOYLE LEAVES FOR ARABIA

Kenneth Doyle left last month, on Sept. 10th, for Bahrain on the Arabian Gulf in the Middle East. He had to fly over India instead of Syria. He is back at work with the same company.

HOLDING REVIVAL

Kenneth Vaughan is in Tow, Texas, this week where he is conducting a revival at the Tow First Baptist church, from October 2-8.

First Round Golf Matches This Week

First round matches in the first Partnership tournament for the Eldorado Golf Club will get under way this week. Thirty-two players qualified last week, and partners were designated according to scores. Pairings are posted at the golf course and in the Eldorado Drug store. It will be the responsibility of each team to arrange the time for play. One match will be played each week for the next three weeks. Matches may be played sooner if agreeable with each team.

The recent rains have held up work on the new greens, but the new dirt around the old greens has been shaped and will be ready for seeding this week. The new greens will be shaped and planted as soon as they get dry enough.

Golf Club president Ralph Waldron said that he was well pleased with the interest already shown in this tournament, and he was sure the interest would increase as the tournament progressed.

Ben Hext Completes 15 Years Supervisor

BEN HEXT

After 15 years as a soil conservation district supervisor, Ben Hext, local stock farmer, plans to step down and relinquish the office to another elected land owner within Zone 4. The election of a new supervisor to replace Ben is to be held at the Hext farm, 10 miles southwest of Eldorado, on Saturday, October 7th.

Hext was elected as supervisor of the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water District in an election in October, 1952. He has served as supervisor continuously since then. During this period Ben has missed very few monthly supervisor meetings and has attended a number of state meetings of soil and water conservation district supervisors.

Ben has been a member of the district nearly as long as there has been a district. He has been a district cooperater since March, 1949, and has been active in carrying out soil conservation practices on his own place.

Other supervisors include Ois Deal, Walter C. Pope III, Milton Rathbone, and Voy Lee Butts. One supervisor is elected each year for a five-year term.

Soil conservation districts are political subdivisions of the State of Texas and by law are charged with the responsibility of carrying out a soil and water conservation program in their district.

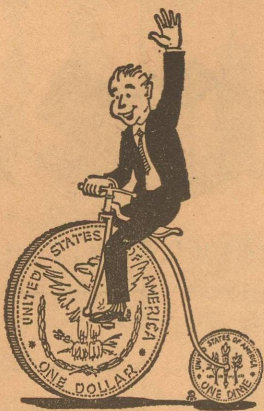

The five landowner supervisors administer the soil and water conservation programs for the district and furnish local leadership.

Through the district, such items as technical services, equipment and leadership in small watershed projects and many other services are provided cooperating landowners and operators.

Landowners at the meeting and election are to give Ben a vote of thanks for his long tenure and fine service to the district.

Methodist Notes

Sunday School Attendance Drive Began Last Sunday

The following are excerpts from a recent letter to our teachers, written by the Chairman of our Commission on Education, Mrs. Ed Meador:

"Beginning Sunday, October 1, our Sunday School will have a contest among the classes to see who will have the largest increase in attendance during the month.

Starting October 1, and continuing through the month, all classes will meet in the sanctuary of the church for a 15-minute opening session. Each class assigned will have charge of the program, and that class will ring the church bell at 9:45. That class will also select the songs to be sung that particular morning. A count will be made during the morning session and a record will be kept to see which classes have the largest percentage increase in attendance.

The following points will be given:

- Each class member present 5 points
- Each class member who comes and brings someone new 10 points
- Visitors who attend but are not members 3 points
- New Members 8 points

It might be suggested that classes select captains in order to build up your attendance & points each Sunday. You might call, visit, send cards, or work in any way to contact people, but our hope is to build up our Sunday School attendance the most we can. We need everybody's help!

On October 25, Wednesday night, we will have our big Victory Halloween supper and party. Everyone will hear more of our plans for this, but it will be a BIG party for every participant in our church. We know everyone will have fun and we hope a real feeling of having done something very extra special for our church."

Appreciation is expressed to the following members who attended our recent group Quarterly Conference in Sonora: Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West, Mrs. V. G. Tisdale, Mrs. Billy McCravey, and Mrs. E. C. Peters.

Items of business conducted included the election, on recommendation of the Nominating Committee, of the Lay Members to the Annual Conference. Dick Preston will serve as delegate, with E. C. Peters and Elton McGinnes as reserves. These members will serve for a four-year term in accordance with a recent Conference ruling.

The pastor's travel allowance has been increased from $650 to $850.

Our two WSCS Circles will be providing sanctuary flowers for the months of October and November, and we hope that the church will furnish them during December. If anyone would like to give flowers for any Sunday, just call the church office or parsonage and the flower calendar in the foyer will be marked accordingly.

MERRY MAKERS 42 CLUB

Mrs. Mary Joiner was hostess last Thursday when the Merry Makers 42 Club met in the club room of the Memorial Building.

There were three tables of 42, including two guests, Mrs. Victor Sauer and Mrs. L. T. Wilson.

The hostesses served a salad plate, pie and coffee at Neff's cafe.

—Rep., Bessie Doyle.

Mrs. Glynn Hill and Lana spent from Friday until Thursday at Winters visiting relatives. While Mrs. Hill was at Winters she attended the funeral of her grandfather, Fred D. Beford, who was 83.

Eagles Down Menard 17-6 Last Friday

The Eldorado Eagles took their opening 8A District football game by a 17-6 margin in Menard the night of September 29.

Statistics show that the Eagles did indeed win their game:

Eldo.:	Menard:
336	28
42	22
5	2
3for25	8for80
2for30	4for33
1for30	5for35

The Yellowjackets made a surprisingly tough contest against their ancient foes; but the Eagles applied the "Flit" for 17 points to Menard's 6.

The Eagles scored only four minutes after the opening kickoff. Big John Mayo started the march with a crunching 12-yard sortie right up the middle. A succession of Mayo forays hypnotized the Menard lads so much that when they began to discover that Mayo did not have the ball this time, Roy Davidson had contributed a long and damaging 25-yard run outside for the Eagles to the Wasps' three. Again Mayo served as the decoy and a pitchout from QB Bob Page to fleet Wayne Doyle sent the ball over the Menard goal line.

The kicking team with Roy Davidson providing the educated toe and Bob Page holding accurately tabbed the extra point by place kick and Eldorado was out front 7-0.

The Yellowjackets came back strongly with a pass interception, and a quick kick which sent the ball deep into Eagle territory. The Eagles started marching out of the danger zone but a fumble gave Menard the ball near Eldorado's 10-yard stripe. Three Menard thrusts performed by Wasps Charlie Martinez and Bill Lehne penetrated to the Eagle three. At this point and confronted by a fourth-down-and-three situation, Menard JB Randy McDonald reached way back into football's forgotten limbo and pulled out an ancient "spin play." He pretended to hand to Charlie Martinez and then to Brooks Walker but kept the ball and did a complete turn and then sprinted over for the touchdown while the Eagles were searching various Wasps for the ball. The Wasps tried to run the ball over for two points but failed. All this took place just 30 seconds before the first quarter ended.

The Eagles threatened again in the second and reached Menard's 8-yard line where they stalled against the spirited Menard defense. The kicking team made up of Messrs. Davidson, Page, and Davidson's toe kicked a 20-yard field goal to put Eldorado out front 10-6 just four minutes before half time.

The Eagles and the Wasps frittered away the third quarter, alternating at capturing each other's fumbles and intercepting stray forward passes. Menard added a surprising quick kick which kept the Eagles way back. In fact, Lehne probably surprised his own Coach Melvin Burns by quick kicking from his own four-yard line.

Midway in the fourth quarter, the Eagles cranked up again with Big John Mayo, Pinky Dempsey, Mickey Clark, and Buff Whitten to maul the Wasps into final submission with Mickey Clark going over from four yards out for the final tally. The kicking team assisted Davidson's toe for the successful place kick and the Eagles had pulled away 17-6.

The Eagles should have scored at least twice more but fumbles robbed them of hard won thrusts into or within the Menard 12-yard territory. An unheard of Wasp named Florencio Zamora nearly panicked the Eagles with his admirable punt runbacks.

A number of Eagles displayed great energy and ambition. Their kid indiscretions were more than outweighed by their obvious sincerity. From the opening kickoff where Mike Olson received the short kick and in very hard nosed fashion indeed ran over his tackler for an additional two yards to the Eagle team defense which saw the Eldorado line smother Wasp QB Randy McDonald six or eight times. Among those lads displaying great honesty and integrity of purpose were such offensive stalwarts as Jim Robledo and Albert Torres. Other sincere and dedicated lads included Bob Page who nearly fired another bomb to Buff Whitten who made a fine leaping catch deep in Menard territory.

Another noticeable feature was Eagle observance of football rules and regulations. The Eagles lost only 25 yards in three infractions while the Wasps suffered four 15-yarders as well as three off side penalties and one slow start-of-play five-yarder. These penalties definitely stalled at least two Wasp drives.

Coming up with a loose football when it belongs to the other team is a fine feat of arms. Mickey Pennington captured one by himself while Messrs Ross Whitten, Alan Corbell, John Mayo, and Jim Mann made a nice production of purloining a second.

Defensively, Mike Pennington, Paul Page, J. Danford, D. Lloyd, A. Corbell, Ross Whitten, J. Mann, et al, deserve commendations for their efforts. Their earnest attention to current lessons is an essential for meeting the rest of the cruel 1967 season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Walton of Big Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dunham of McCamey, and Mr. and Mrs. Buz Conner of Imperial visited with the Luther Dunham family here over the week end.

Your Choice Saturday...

Legal Sales and Local Control OR Prohibition and Illegal Sales

After all is said and done . . . this is the ONLY question is be decided at the polls Saturday. Legal Sales—or— Illegal Sales? Certainly the Legal Way is the better —safer—more sensible and MORE PROFITABLE way for everyone in the county.

HOW WILL YOU VOTE?

LEGAL SALES

- Provide a freedom of individual choice.
- Prohibit sales to minors.
- Increase local businesses which add to the local tax rolls and boost local economy in rents, utilities, insurance, more jobs and more wages.
- Stimulate retail sales of all local merchants.
- Enforce legal selling hours.

ILLEGAL SALES

- Make criminals out of law-abiding citizens.
- Encourage teenage drinking thru undercover 'round-the-clock bootleg sales
- Allow trade dollars to slip away to other areas.
- Increase needless highway driving to nearby areas—and back.
- Destroy the dignity of local self government and breed disrespect for ALL LAWS.

There's Tax $ENSE To Legal Sales

In addition to the personal rights, privileges and benefits Legal Sales will provide locally, revenues from the sale of alcoholic beverages in Texas (since Repeal of Prohibition to August 31, 1966) have provided:

$679 Million Dollars To Help Texas And Texans

YES. Legal Sales revenues help support old age pensions — public schools — teacher retirement — the needy blind — dependent and disabled persons — farm-to-market roads and many other worthy state services. Prohibition not only contributes nothing—it DESTROYS these revenues.

Whatever your personal attitude toward alcoholic beverages, legal sales are best . . . for everyone in our county. Vote FOR the legal sale of alcoholic beverages in the county for off-premises consumption only. By LAW, this means:
—NO Taverns.
—NO Honky-Tonks.

QUESTIONS ASKED BY PASTOR OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH IN A RECENT SERMON

The following are some questions posed by Kenneth Vaughan to the First Baptist Church and to Schleicher County on Sunday, Sept. 10. They are published here by some members and friends of the First Baptist Church.
Why should the citizens of Eldorado and Schleicher County vote to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages now or any time? This question should be answered to the satisfaction of every voter. The claim has frequently been made by advocates of legal alcoholic beverages that it will help a community to legalize the sale of these drinks. Why?
What is a community? It is generally agreed that a community, for all practical purposes, is the aggregate of the home, the school, the church, and the business institutions.
Place the question of making legal the sale of beverage alcohol in the light of the welfare of the home. Will legal booze promote the welfare of the home? Will it deepen or advance the devotion of a husband to his wife, and vice versa? Will it promote parental devotion to children? Will it increase the honor and respect for parents by children? Will it improve the relationship of the homes with the other institutions of the community mentioned above? Would there, as a result of legal alcohol, be more money for school expenses and more reserves for higher education?
What of the effect of legalizing the sale of alcoholic beverages on the school? (And it must be noted that the best we can do is to vote according to our honest belief, as to the answers to these questions. These answers can only be based upon Christian convictions, common sense, and individual experience and observation.) What are the interests of the school? Are they not basically instruction, learning, discipline and character building for citizenship? If so, will legal alcohol assist these? Will it promote instruction? Will it, as best we can forecast, deepen the devotion of the teacher to the task of imparting subject matter to the students? Will it give them reason to expect increased success in that tremendously challenging undertaking? Will it stimulate the teacher with an increased curiosity and dedication to learning by the students? Will the legalization of the sale of beer, liquor, wine, vodka, etc., increase the capacity for learning by the students and their appetites for the intellectual fare of the school?

We have, in the opinion of this writer, a good churches in Eldorado. As good as they are, it is generally agreed that they could be improved; and that they should be. It is probably also agreed that, basically speaking, an increased practice of the over-all Christian program for human conduct would result in just such an improvement of our churches. And it would follow naturally that such a renewal would improve every aspect of our society. Will legalizing alcoholic beverages help bring this about? Could it be expected that such action would strengthen the instruction in our Sunday Schools; that it would increase the interest and the essential fervor of our worship services? Could it be realistically expected that the tithes and offerings by the members would increase? Would it facilitate more and better evangelistic appeal and a more positive response to that appeal?
And what effect would legal alcohol have on the business climate of Eldorado? Would it increase the demand for groceries? Would it give more money for food? Would it increase the sales of clothing, furniture, building material, automobiles, medicine, hardware, automobile accessories and service? Would it increase the demand for the other good and services of our community? Would it promote cash sales and reduce the number of unpaid accounts on the ledgers of our business institutions? Will it promote sound credit and put a better foundation beneath the lending of money?
These say nothing of the law? Will legal beverage alcohol revive public respect for the law? Will it facilitate enforcement of the law? These questions should be asked and answered truthfully and sincerely before a vote is cast in the decision now facing our community; the question being, should we vote to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages of all kinds in Schleicher county?
Respect for the intelligence of the people of our community demands our recognition of the fact that these by no means exhaust the questions that could be asked regarding this important question posed to produce whatever benefit they will in behalf of the citizens of Eldorado and Schleicher county and their wise and conscientious usage of the priceless privilege of the ballot.

Directors Unable To Locate Surveyor

At a regular meeting of hospital directors Monday night, Chairman Ratliff revealed that he was engaged in a fruitless search for a surveyor.

It came about that Architect Don Goss had asked Ratliff to have the area surveyed for boundaries, elevation, etc., on which to base his hospital plans.

Normally a person in Schleicher county would simply call Lawrence Neil for the job, but Neil is in Houston undergoing treatment and is not expected home for another month. Making inquiries in San Angelo, Ratliff found there was only one surveyor there and he was snowed under with work. Further investigation revealed there was no surveyor in either Sutton county or Crockett county.

Problem was solved later when Mr. Goss said he would bring his own engineer here this week and would be able to get the necessary information he needed to go ahead with his plans.

Although directors have a purchase contract, final title to the various lots are still awaiting title corrections.

S. S. Benefits Are For Younger People, Too

Many people think social security means only retirement benefits and Medicare for older people.

But that is not the whole story, according to Bob Logan, social security representative who visits Eldorado. Social security can also mean a lot to younger people. It can help a young disabled worker and his family receive cash benefits. It also can mean monthly checks to young widowed mothers and their children.

Young people earn protection under social security while they work. Their social security contributions go into trust funds for safekeeping until the time when earnings are stopped or reduced because of retirement, death or disability. Protection is also built up for health insurance at age 65.

For more information about the social security program, Schleicher county residents may contact the district office at 3000 W. Harris in San Angelo, or see Mr. Logan at Eldorado on Friday, October 20, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Lions Contribute $241 For Beulah Victims

Boss Lion Bill Rountree reported at the meeting yesterday of the Eldorado Lions club that the local club had contributed $241 to the victims of Hurricane Beulah, which struck South Texas two weeks ago. He stated that this club was second only to the Midland Downtown Club in contributing, in District 2A-1.

Guests were Justin Kever of San Angelo, and Billie Gay Blaylock, Rusty Meador, and Dan Griffin all of Eldorado.

Rountree reported that October is membership drive month and the local club will join others in trying to increase membership. Letters are to be sent to ex-members, and personal calls are to be made.

The club is still selling Zip Code directories for $1.00 each, and $79 has come in. The club will launch sale soon of their bags of Hallo-ween candy; these are to be sold for $1.00 each.

For the program, Mrs. Stigler accompanied Mrs. Whitaker's 5th graders in singing of four patriotic songs.

At the beginning of the meeting, D. G. Salter led the Flag Salute, and P. S. Dudley gave invocation.

Bruce Shipman plans to leave Friday morning for San Angelo with a group of men who will donate blood to the blood bank.

County Extension News

W. G. Godwin, Co. Agent

Heavy rains set off by Hurricane Beulah and the current "spreading out" pattern of screwworm cases spell out one thing for livestock producers: greater vigilance in treating wounds and collecting and sending larval samples to Mission, Texas for identification will be necessary in the critical weeks ahead to prevent a heavy outbreak of cases.

Texas chalked up 38 cases during a three week period in September with all neighboring counties reporting at least one case. Schleicher county has not had one case of larvae diagnosed as screwworms to date.

Thanks to A. A. Clark, James Page Ranch, Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Howard Derrick and Carrol White for sending in samples—diagnosed as no screwworm cases.

All ranchers should keep the vigilance!

Once there was a cowardly counterfeiter. He still has the first dollar he ever made.

Shoe polish, oven cleaner, hair waving lotion, wax—they don't sound harmful but these commonly used household items can be. Add to the list kerosene, bleach, toilet cleaner, medicine, turpentine, deodorant, lighter fluid, dry-cleaning fluid and plant spray and you have a formidable list of potential dangers in your home.

Why? Because each product contains some hazardous substance that could cause illness or death if taken internally.

Of course, it would be inconvenient, if not impossible, to stop using these items in the home. But you can do the next best thing—protect the family, particularly the young children, from accidental contact with these products.

Know what you are buying. Examine the labels—read the small print. Look for these words:

"Caution" or "warning"—indicates the material is a hazardous substance. "Danger" refers to substances that are highly toxic, extremely flammable or corrosive.

"Poison" refers to products defined as highly toxic.

Some of the labels will carry the skull and crossbones of a legally recognized poison. Or there may be the statement, "Keep out of reach of children."

Labels give an indication of the principal hazard in such words as "flammable," "vapor harmful," "causes burns," "absorbed through the skin."

Information on container labels is there for the protection of the user but it does little good if it is not read and followed.

The worst kind of reducing pill is the one who keeps on telling you how he did it.

Small grain planting time is at hand and next year's harvest of grain or the amount of grazing from the crop may well be determined by the variety planted.

County farmers should get the best seed available of varieties adapted to this area of the state. The choice of a variety is influenced by whether the crop is seeded on dryland or irrigated, low or high fertility conditions, used for grazing, grain production or a combination of the two. Disease or insect reaction is important since more resistance is being bred into the varieties. Also the shattering and lodging characteristics and finally, the quality, especially with wheat.

Oat varieties recommended, based upon latest research are: ORA, moregrain, mustang, and New Nortex. Ora is a very broad and heavy leaf and furnishes a heavy yield of grain when moisture is available. Ora and moregrain may winter kill in this section. Mustang and new nortex will stand more cold weather.

Crockett, Tascosa and Triumph are good wheat varieties for the county.

Coruova and zora barley are hardiest and recommended barley varieties.

Ebon and gator rye are excellent forage type rye.

Planting a recommended variety will pay dividends to dryland producers for grazing, while under irrigation conditions profits can be two fold over grazing oats used for seed to plant.

It's no wonder women live longer than men. Just look how long they were girls.

Landowners in zone 4 will elect a member to the board of district supervisors of the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District, Saturday, October 7th.

A barbecue lunch will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hext at their home 10 miles southwest of Eldorado, Saturday at noon.

All landowners and their wives are eligible to cast their ballots for a member to the board of supervisors.

Bill Works, game warden, will present a wildlife program.

Austin, Tex.—Although the primaries are not until next May, Texas politicians, here and there, already are beginning to get in and out of statewide races.

Big question still is whether Gov. John Connally will run for an unprecedented fourth term. He says he hasn't made up his mind.

If he doesn't run, it now appears that it will be at least a three-way race in the Democratic primary—between Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, who already has announced, Speaker Ben Barnes and former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

If Connally does run, Barnes and Carr probably will vie for lieutenant governor, though neither has as yet announced a definite decision.

In the state Supreme Court, both Associate Justice James R. Norvell and Meade F. Griffith say that they will not seek re-election in 1968. Woodrow Bean of El Paso and former state Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio are being mentioned as possible candidates for those two posts.

Highway Officials Promoted

On January first B. L. DeBerry, Dallas district highway engineer, will replace Assistant State Highway Engineer J. C. Dingwall. Dingwall will replace State Highway Engineer DeWitt, who is retiring.

There will be four other administrative changes in the Highway Department:

—Archie J. Sherrod, now district engineer in Odessa, will be promoted to chief engineer of maintenance operations.

—John G. Keller, Beaumont district engineer, will succeed DeBerry.

—Franklin Carter Young, district administrative engineer in San Antonio, will take over Keller's job.

—Paul H. Coleman, assistant district engineer at Odessa, will replace Sherrod.

TROPHIES TO BE AWARDED

Award was made in Boston. Accepting were Alvin A. Burger, executive director of the League, and James W. McGrew, research director and head of the project.

League's report was made after an 18-month study requested by Governor Connally. It contained 7 legislative recommendations, but only one of them passed the Legislature. That one provided $250,000 of state money for regional planning.

Texas Tourism Pushed

Texas' official travel exhibit—pushing the state as a vacation land with a "World of Difference"—was seen by approximately 450,000 persons at the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto. So says Walt Warner, director of programs for the Texas Tourist Development Agency, which sponsors the exhibit.

Warner regards Canada as an important but unexplored market for the Texas travel industry. "Many (Canadians) were unaware that Texas lay just 1,200 miles from Toronto's border," he said. "They seemed surprised to find a state so near that offered a warm, tropical climate during the winter months."

Texas' exhibit is being displayed in travel shows all over North America.

Oil Production Down

Texas oil production was reduced by 109,071 barrels for October. The Texas Railroad Commission cut the allowable after finding demand lower as the Middle East crisis eases off.

Commission was to have announced its decision immediately at its regular statewide prorotation hearing, but delayed it four days to see what effect Hurricane Beulah would have on production and refining.

After studying that situation, it was decided that no major damage had been incurred, though there were temporary disruptions.

Camino Del Norte Proposed

A group of Midland citizens appeared before the Texas Highway Commission to request a study on the feasibility of an interstate highway stretching from the Big Bend Country to Denver.

Dubbed "Camino Del Norte" by the applicants, the highway would begin at U. S. 90 near the Mexican border and would run through Midland, Lubbock, Amarillo and on to Denver.

Delegation presented the Commission with copies of a brochure outlining the proposed highway—examining the population, cultural, recreational, historic and national security aspects of the project.

Commission took the request under advisement.

City Sales Tax Favored

Saturday midnight was an important hour in Austin, in so far as many Texas municipalities were concerned. That was the deadline date for reporting city sales tax election results to State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert—if the tax is to go into effect January 1. Otherwise the cities would not go under the tax until April 1, 1968.

As of this writing, 12 of the 13 municipalities that have voted on whether or not to adopt a 1% city sales tax, along the lines of the state's 2% sales tax, have favored the proposal.

Voters in Electra, near Wichita Falls, turned it down.

Voters in the following cities adopted the new-to-Texas taxing device: Aransas Pass, Austin, Elgin, Orange Grove, Henrietta, Ingleside, Nacogdoches, El Paso, Port Aransas, Texarkana and Wichita Falls.

Short Shorts . . .

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has ruled that the State Textbook Committee is covered by the 1967 Open Meetings Bill, which requires that all meetings of most state and local agencies be open to the public.

Search Your Conscience - Vote!

We, of the First Methodist Church Wesley Class, urge every Schleicher County citizen to search his or her conscience and vote "Dry" in the coming election on Saturday, Oct. 7, to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, now or at any time.

We join Rev. D. G. Salter, our pastor, in the official position of the First Methodist Church on this issue. Here it is:

"We believe that the Christian privilege of love for God and neighbor and families calls us to abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages and to minister to those victimized by their use. The use of beverage alcohol imperils the abundant life to which Christ calls us. This is especially true, as individuals and families are destroyed by its use. We join with men of good conscience who seek to overcome the social, economic, and moral waste which this indulgence has and will create."

Statistics prove that alcoholic beverages in Schleicher county will cause more people to start drinking, enable more minors to drink; increase the amount of crime; increase traffic accidents and fatalities; increase the total amount of liquor consumed; cause more alcoholism (chronic alcoholics); cause more poverty, job loss, welfare, and cost more for policing due to increased liquor consumption.

If you do not believe this, ask someone who knows and lives with alcoholism and vote "Dry".

(Pol. Adv.—Paid for by The Wesley Sunday School Class of First Methodist Church.)

Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District News

Farmers in the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District already know about what their crop yields for this year will be. Yields throughout the District are now due to not enough moisture for good crop yields. This year, as in past years, the best crops are on land benefitted by level terraces and contour farming.

In high rainfall years and low rainfall years, crops on land benefitted by terraces make the best yields.

Terraces and contour farming have always been two of the important conservation practices on cropland in the district. Even though terraces and contour rows help conserve the rainfall that is received, some problems are created by terraces and contour rows. One of the major problems has been the point rows in terraced and contour fields.

Where point rows end, crops are damaged by turning farm equipment. Equipment covering the largest number of rows at once cause most damage. When a turn row is left to take care of this situation, a bare area is left in the field. Although these problems are present in a terraced field, the advantage far exceeds the disadvantages.

Since the new evenly spaced parallel terraces were introduced a few years ago, farmers now have the possibility of having terraces without point rows. In the Eldorado-Divide S.C.D., fields to be terraced are checked to see if level parallel terraces can be used. They are spaced an even number of rows apart and without point rows. This saves time and money for the farmer and does a good job of conserving soil and water.

Parallel terraces are spaced to fit both the equipment being used on the farm and the slope of the land. For example they might be built 24 rows apart or 72 rows apart, depending on the slope of the field. Three, four, six or eight-row equipment could be used in either of the above spacings.

Fields to be terraced with parallel terraces must have a topographic map made for planning and designing the terrace system. Rod readings are spaced 100 feet apart in straight lines. This topographic grid map on 100 foot square grids enables the S.C.S. technician to make use of every parallel terrace possible in the field. More time is required to plan, design and lay out a parallel terrace system than terraces not parallel. They may cost more to build. Shorter terraces with more grassed waterways may be needed. More cuts and fields are used.

Next year's crops will be affected by more than how much rainfall is received from now until the crops are made. The amount of water held where it falls for crop use is much more important than how much it rained. Level closed end terraces, parallel or not parallel, is one of the conservation practices that will help hold the maximum amount of water where it falls for crop use.

Terraces that are inadequate, not level, or properly spaced should be torn down and level parallel terraces constructed where possible. Terraces that are not level or not high and wide enough with inadequate end closures can cause more damage than benefits to a field.

Cost-share is available from the Great Plains Conservation Program and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Technical help from the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the District, is available on all agriculture land.

MRS. DELONGUE INJURED

Mrs. Cora DeLongue was on her way to work in San Antonio Sept. 28th when her car became involved in a wreck on the freeway. Three cars were involved.

Mrs. DeLongue received a head injury and chest and leg injuries but x-rays showed she did not have any broken bones. Mrs. DeLongue is in the Baptist Memorial Hospital in San Antonio, room 435. Her car was a total loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Faught went down Saturday and returned Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. DeLongue, who was expected to be back at her home sometime this week.

Mrs. DeLongue is the former Cora Sauer of this place and her home address is 1422 West Kings Highway, San Antonio, Tex. 78201. She has been employed for some years with the Immigration Service office in San Antonio.

Mrs. Guss Wallace returned home recently following a stay in the Sonora hospital. Among those who visited her while she was there were her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James W. Wallace of Mesquite, and her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Blair and son Jim of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Visiting the Merton Lions Club last Thursday at noon from here were Bill Rountree, president of the Eldorado club; and Bill Gunstead and E. W. Brooks.
