ADMINISTRAION PLEA REJECTED

Steel Price Hike Spreads

Bethlehem Joins Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Bethlehem Steel Corp. today became the third major steel producer to reject an administration plea for price restraint and raised the price of its steel bars.

Bethlehem said that effective Sept. 7 the base price of its hot-rolled carbon and alloy steel bars would increase $3 a ton.

Earlier, this week U.S. Steel Corp. and Republic Steel Corp. announced increases on bar products.

Just hours after Gardner Ackley, the President's top economic advisor, sent telegrams Thursday to steel producers asking them to hold off on further price boosts, U. S. Steel raised the price of its bar products 1.8 per cent.

The firm is the nation's top steel producer.

The increase, effective Monday, was identical to one announced Wednesday by Republic Steel Corp., the No. 3 producer. The increases, covering 16 per cent of industry-wide shipments, amount to $3 and $4 a ton on various bar products.

Steel bars are used in a variety of end products, ranging from industrial fasteners to railroad car axles. Other major steel producers had no comment on Ackley's telegram, but said they were studying the new price hikes. But if the industry's price pattern holds, it can be expected to follow suit within the week.

This week's increase marks the first time in a year that big steel came face-to-face with the administration over prices. The White House and the Council of Economic Advisors called a price increase last August "inflationary."

Ackley avoided the word inflationary this time but called the price boosts distressing.

He said the addition of steel bars to products which have gone up in price since November rules out the possibility that the increases were selective and in some cases justified.

"They must be viewed as a consistent pattern that has resulted in higher prices for nearly half the steel tonnage produced in this country," Ackley said.

The industry, in the past month alone, has raised prices on steel plate; canmaking steels and bars which accounts for a third of shipments.

U.S. Steel said it gave "very thoughtful attention to Mr. Ackley's comments" before raising prices.

"We are also very mindful of inflationary pressures, having been on the receiving end of many of them," the company said. "But after the long period of relative price stability in steel, these modest price changes cannot be considered either unwarranted or inflation-inducing."

U.S. Steel and Republic both cited rising labor and material costs and declining profits.

Second quarter profits in the steel industry skidded 36 per cent this year.

Taking these factors into account, steel observers in the past month have been predicting a general price increase.

Analysts figure the time is ripe for it. Although sales are beginning to pick up, they argue that if steel waits for a sales boom it would weaken it's argument for higher prices.

Fire Stays Ahead Of Tired Crews

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The northwest's largest, most stubborn timber blaze was producing little more today than frustration and a constant taste of smoke for 3,000 Canadians battling it northeast of Vancouver.

"What gets me is you work all day and then in one flareup all the ground you have gained is lost," fire fighter Tom Yarama said.

Yarama is among those trying to outmaneuver the two-week-old, 25,000-acre Shuswap Lake fire near Kamloops, B.C. That blaze accounts for almost one-sixth of the timberland ravaged in Canada and the northwest United States since early August.

Another volunteer, William Koch of Calgary, described what has become routine for the Canadians, as well as thousands of others on the fire lines in North Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and California.

"We pick and shovel boys work from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. every day," Koch said. "You're dirty five minutes after you start.

"At the end of the day, you can taste the smoke, your nose is plugged and your eyes sting. When we get back at night, we go to bed and cough all night," he added.

In north Idaho, conditions early today were described as slightly improved, though the 11,500-acre trapper peak fire was still not controlled.

In Oregon, 25 firefighters narrowly escaped Thursday after being trapped three hours by racing flames from the Santiam Pass blaze which for a time threatened the central Oregon resport community of Hoodoo Ski Bowl.

That blaze is part of a 5,000-acre area now blackened in the Willamette National Forest.

In western Washington, the Evergreen Mountain fire was nearing 5,000 acres today, while two smaller fires had spread over 1,300 acres.

POLICEMAN IS INJURED

Terror In Hong Kong

By FORREST EDWARDS

HONG KONG (AP) — A bomb squad policeman, investigating Communist placards planted on top of a hill, was critically injured today when he stumbled on a loose rock and triggered a terrorist bomb blast.

Other policemen raided two Communist union headquarters and seized 350 "acid bombs"—thin-walled vials of acid that police said would break if thrown against the face or body.

As police reported three other bomb blasts and defused another dozen bombs and booby traps in the continuing anti-British terror campaign, three Communist news executives were brought to court in prison garb to face new charges of sedition. Each was sentenced earlier this week to three years in jail for printing seditious articles.

The news executives' arrest and the banning of three small newspapers sparked a 48-hour ultimatum from Peking calling for their release.

When Britain disregarded it, Red Guards sacked the British chancellery in Peking, setting in motion a chain of events that culminated this week with a brawl between London police and Chinese mission personnel who fought them with axes and baseball bats.

The three news executives pleaded innocent to the additional sedition charges today. The government began trying five reporters and photographers for the colony's two leading Communist papers on riot charges.

Police arrested three terrorist suspects today on information furnished by a fourth who earlier had led police to a cache of bombs and explosives.

Two trucks owned by a construction company were doused in gasoline and set afire. Pro-Communist slogans were pasted on the wreckage, but it was not definitely established whether the fires were the work of terrorists or disgruntled employes.

Chinese-language newspapers said four men who engineered the fire-bombing deaths of an anti-Communist radio comedian and his brother last week had fled to Macao, the Portuguese colony 40 miles west of Hong Kong.

One paper quoted Macao Chinese informants as saying the four were hired killers paid $9,000 by Hong Kong Communist leaders to kill comedian Lam Bun.

MANSFIELD DISAGREES

More Bombing Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—A panel of investigating senators pressed for a major intensification of the air war against North Vietnam — but Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says the bombing already is "close to the point of saturation in terms of rational purpose."

"There is a strong suggestion, moreover," said Mansfield, "that to go much further would be meaningless except in the context of the barbarism of total war on the entire civilian population—a bombing back into the stone age."

The demand of the Senate military preparedness subcommittee for a bombing stepup the Communist port of Haiphong added an angry new dimension to congressional debate on the Vietnam war.

Mansfield answered the Thursday report in advance with a strongly worded defense of the policy pursued by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and President Johnson.

He said later in an interview he stood by that Senate speech as his answer to the pressure for more bombing—and to criticism of McNamara studding the subcommittee report.

The Pentagon said it would have no comment on the report hastened into print by the panel which concluded Tuesday a three-week investigation of administration policy in the air war.

One of its key passages:

"The subcommittee is of the opinion that we cannot, in good conscience, ask our ground forces to continue their fight in South Vietnam unless we are prepared to press the air war in the North in the most effective way possible. This requires closing the Port of Haiphong, isolating it from the rest of the country, striking all meaningful targets with a military significance, and increasing the interdiction of the lines of communication from Red China."

"What is needed now is the hard decision to do whatever is necessary, take the risks that have to be taken, and apply the force that is required to see the job through," the report said.

It acknowledged these risks include the possibility of conflict with Communist China or the Soviet Union.

But the panel, advocating action against Haiphong, said that possibility "does not justify the Secretary (McNamara) in taking the position that closing or neutralizing this vital port is unimportant from a military standpoint, a position which is entirely at odds with the unanimous judgment of all of our military experts."

Mansfield praised McNamara and said "attacks on the integrity" of the Pentagon chief are in reality attacks on President Johnson.

Mansfield said McNamara's position is sound, and noted the defense secretary had declared the bombing or mining of Haiphong would not stop the infiltration of Communist troops and supplies into the South.

Red Campaign Mounts Sharply

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — The Communist terror campaign mounted sharply today. Meanwhile, the U.S. Command reported three more U.S. planes shot down over North Vietnam, raising losses in the North to 22 in the past 11 days.

The major Red campaign to terrorize voters before Sunday's presidential and senatorial elections was taking place in the politically sensitive five northern provinces. Fragmentary reports said guerrillas kidnaped no less than 200 people there in the past few days—about 65 of them early today.

A strong band of guerrillas entered Kim Nam hamlet a few miles from Da Nang, awakened the villagers and herded off most of the males including the village chief.

South Vietnamese authorities reported it likely that the kidnaped villagers were being held as hostages to ensure that their relatives boycotted the election according to Viet Cong instructions. Similar kidnapings have been reported in at least three other northern villages, and authorities fear that more are unreported.

Communist gunners inside and above the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam were harassing U.S. Marine positions with repeated mortar and artillery attacks evidently designed to emphasize Red strength during election time.

At least four Americans were killed and 37 were wounded. The Americans countered with radar-directed fire on Red gun positions, jet assaults on positions that were spotted and B52 strikes Thursday night and this morning on uspected enemy strongholds.

Other Communist attacks dotted the nation, particularly in the populous Mekong delta. Three villages were hit by mortars early today, and the guerrillas were reportedly deploying numerous small units to disrupt traffic on Highway 4, the main road from Saigon south into the delta.

U.S. Command reported the guerrillas early today tried to trick a U.S. Navy patrol boat into firing on a friendly village. The guerrillas opened up on the boat from within the village and then fled. The Navy boat did not return the fire, authorities said.

North of Saigon, guerrillas blew up several small bridges on one of the larger roads about 20 miles above the city. U.S. engineers immediately started repairs and hoped to have traffic restored before Sunday.

WELCOME PLANNED FOR AFS STUDENT

Snyder's foreign exchange student for 1967-68 is scheduled to arrive here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Malven K. Stevenson, in whose home she will reside during her year in Snyder, left today for Dallas to meet Gill Potgieter of South Africa. Miss Potgieter is scheduled to arrive in Dallas by plane this evening.

They plan to drive back to Snyder early Saturday and an official welcome has been planned for 11:30 a.m. on the north side of the county courthouse.

Many Set For Holiday

Many Snyderites were set to take a long holiday weekend as Labor Day approached.

Reports over town indicated that more local firms would be closed than in the past few Labor Day holidays. All government offices, from city and county through state and federal, will be closed, with the exception, of course, of law enforcement and emergency offices such as fire stations. Banks also will be closed.

An informal poll taken this week by the Chamber of Commerce disclosed that many retail business firms would be closed here Monday. Local schools also will observe the holiday, returning to classes on Tuesday.

Lockout Unlikely At Chrysler Corp.

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. broke silence today with a carefully worded statement inferring it would not lock out United Auto Workers Union members if the union strikes some other company.

At the same time, the corporation, smallest member of the Big Three automakers, rejected for the second time a UAW proposal that it be exempted from strike consideration for the time being.

The development reinforced speculation that UAW President Walter P. Reuther intends to tackle one of the two biggest U.S. Automakers, General Motors or Ford, in search of a new contract.

Chrysler's statement responded to a UAW query on whether the companies would agree to an extension of the current three-year contract if a new pact is not agreed upon by the 11:59 p.m. Wednesday termination date.

All three automakers had rebuffed the first such request from the union, but the UAW put the question to Chrysler alone for a second time Thursday.

Chrysler's second letter said it was "interested in the continuity of operations of Chrysler Corp. plants beyond the terminal dates of the current agreement."

"We will continue to operate all plants of Chrysler Corp. after Sept. 6, 1967 - the termination date - if it is possible to do so," Chrysler's statement said.

AFS Chapter Sets Meeting Saturday

The local chapter of the American Field Service will hold its regular "Dutch treat" breakfast session at 8 a.m. Saturday at Sallie's Cafeteria.

The AFS sponsors foreign exchange students programs here and anyone interested in the chapter's work is invited to attend the meeting.

VIETNAMESE VOTE SUNDAY

Candidates Hold Last Rally

By BARRY KRAMER

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's presidential candidates held their final joint campaign rally here today, but it appeared to generate only scant public interest with the voting just two days away.

It was estimated the crowd reached 3,000 persons at its peak. The numbers were hard to judge because of the normal dinner hour traffic moving around the main traffic circle at the site in front of the U.S. Joint Public Affairs Office in downtown Saigon.

The turnout seemed small for the capital city, with a population of about 2.5 million.

Neither Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, the leading presidential candidate, nor his running mate, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, showed up. Their military ticket is generally expected to win over the 10 civilian slates.

Their representatives told the crowd official business prevented Thieu and Ky from being on hand.

Some members of President Johnson's observer team watched the rally from the terrace of the Rex Hotel, a U.S. officers billet just across the street.

As each candidate spoke, an English translation was carried over a loud-speaker to the rooftop terrace of the billet for the benefit of the American observers. However, all the Americans left long before the rally ended for other engagements, including a reception given by U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker.

The Viet Cong grenade-throwing incidents occurred in the outskirts of Saigon tonight, part of a mounting wave of terror aimed at sabotaging the election.

A primary school that is to be used as a polling place was one target. A Vietnamese policeman and two civilians were wounded. Another grenade exploded at an electric transmission station, wounding three civilians. The terrorists escaped.

A burst of shooting erupted in downtown Saigon and police seized a man near the U.S. Joint Public Affairs Office and whisked him away. One account said he had been carrying a grenade; another said he had been trying to steal a bicycle.

In the previous 24 hours, four small-scale terrorist attacks had wounded three Vietnamese and a Viet Cong woman was killed.

Other Red harassments dotted the nation, but the major campaign to terrorize the voters was taking place in the politically shaky five northern provinces.

DEAR ABBY: My mother sends our children big gifts every year for their birthdays, and she also sends my brothers one, plus a birthday card with $20 enclosed, but she NEVER sends our wives anything. This makes them feel hurt, and starts fights in our homes.

It's not that mother doesn't know when her daughters-in-laws' birthdays are because we know she does.

What can we do to keep peace in the family?

THE BROTHERS FOUR

DEAR BROTHERS: You could let your mother know that your wives are "hurt" at being overlooked on their birthdays, which would probably produce some forced and therefore insincere gifts.

For your mother to slight your wives deliberately is small. But it does not justify "fights" in your homes. A wise and considerate wife would not hold her husband responsible for what his mother does, or does not do.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I know this letter has a very slim chance of getting in the paper, but with your answer it will surely help other teen-agers with aunt problems.

My aunt (I'll call her Peggy) brings her two children (ages 4 and 6) to our house every Tuesday and Thursday, then she and my mother take off and play golf, leaving my sister and me to baby sit with the children.

My sister and I are sick of it, and we told our mom to tell Aunt Peggy that we are going to start charging her for baby sitting. My mother said, "Don't get smart."

So my sister and I are going to tell Aunt Peggy ourselves. What do you think of this? Maybe we owe our mother the task of baby sitting, but not our aunt. I am 14 and my sister is 13 and we have other things planned for those days. What is your advice?

* * *

DEAR SISTERS: If your mother's reaction to your complaint was, "Don't get smart," I don't recommend complaining to your aunt. I agree, you are being taken advantage of, but occasionally we must all put up with situations which require us to give more than we get.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am a middle-aged widow who is very much in love with a widower my own age who claims he loves me, too. (I'll call him George.) We both lost our mates within the past three years.

George has a 20-year-old daughter who resents me. George says his daughter hasn't anything against me, personally, that she would resent any woman her father showed an interest in.

I would like to marry this man, but how can I work around his daughter? He will not marry without his daughter's blessings.

INTERESTED

DEAR INTERESTED: How the daughter feels about you is relatively unimportant. How does George feel about you? If his daughter's unjust resentment is keeping him from marrying you, who needs him? He and his daughter deserve each other.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO PINKY: The proof of the pudding is not always in the eating. It's whether he comes back for seconds. A lot of very mediocre pudding has been consumed for lack of choice.

Chinese May Test Missile

LEEDS, England (AP) —China may be ready to test her first intercontinental missile capable of carrying a nuclear warhead before the end of this year, a scientific conference was told here today.

Already the Chinese Communists have performed "remarkable achievements" in nuclear weaponry, C.H.G. Oldham, of the science policy research unit at Sussex University, told a meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science.

"The successful detonations of an apparently 'clean' hydrogen bomb only eight years after the inauguration of China's first research factor and less than three years after his first atomic explosion was a remarkable scientific and technological feat," said Oldham, who studied Asian science while based in Hong Kong.

Oldham said China's aim of catching up with Western science in 20 to 30 years was "realistic." But he speculated that the suspension of educatio for a whole year during Chairman Mao Tse-tung's "chaotic cultural revolution" must have interrupted the training of scientific and technical personnel.

9 Held In Burglaries

DALLAS (AP) — Nine persons remained in custody Friday as police prepared to file additional charges regarding a series of Waco burglaries.

Dallas police arrested three persons Thursday after they tried to sell stolen jewelry at a discount house. Information gleaned from the three led to the arrests of six others, officers said, and the break-up of a burglary ring.

The loot was traced in part back to the weekend burglaries of Morris Jewelers and two clothing shops in Waco. Some $43,500 worth of merchandise was stolen, police said. $25,000 in jewelry.

Hamilton issued a formal statement in which he said: "Lynda and I have been friends, we are friends, and we will remain friends."

Fee May Be Charged For Alamo Visit

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Visits to the Alamo, long considered the birthplace of Texas freedom, may not be free starting next year.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas, custodians of this shrine, have been alerted by HemisFair officials to expect up to 30,000 visitors a day at the Alamo during the six-month run of the 1968 exposition.

Experts said these throngs will increase maintenance costs and necessitate additional employes.

Visitors to the Alamo average about 82,000 a month during the summer and the DRT charges no admission.

Currently it employes 27 full-time and 11 parttime workers at the Alamo. HemisFair officials estimated the increase in visitors may require up to 20 more.

Funds for upkeep of the Alamo and its grounds now come only from sale of souvenirs and a small amount of donations.

A DRT committee in charge of cently on charging an amission fee. Half of the committee felt a fee would "commercialize" the old mission.

The issue is expected to come up again before HemisFair, an international exposition, opens April 6. Its grounds are only two blocks from the Alamo in the center of downtown San Antonio.

At the Alamo in 1836 a band of 186 Texans stood off a vastly superior army of Mexicans for 12 days, before being slain to the last man. This stand enabled the rest of Texas to prepare for its war for independence from Mexico.

WIN AWARDS — Ed Dickerson, manager of the Western Co. (left), presented a traffic safety award to K. T. Allen at a safety banquet, held Thursday night at the Snyder Country Club. Dan Nowlin, Texas Dept. of Public Safety (right), was the main speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Allen appear in the center. He has driven company vehicles 10 years without an accident.

Safety Stressed By Western Co.

Dan F. Nowlin, patrolman with the Safety Education Service of the Department of Public Safety's Abilene office, told Western Company employes and guests that persons seeking renewal of driver's license will "have to appear in person" after Jan. 1.

He spoke Thursday night at a banquet held at Snyder Country Club in honor of company drivers who received awards for safe driving.

Recipients of the awards and the number of years driving company vehicles without an accident: K. T. Allen, 10 years; G. M. Holladay, 7 years; Bill J. Murray, 4 years; Larry Tom Bills, 3 years; and B. W. Farmer, 1 year. All received pins from Ed Dickerson, manager of the Western Co.

Nowlin, in discussing traffic accident problems and the new driver's license law, observed that motorists may be required "to take the road test" when they appear for renewal of licenses after Jan 1 — the date the new law goes into effect. The law requires motorists to appear in person for license renewals.

"Pictures will be taken of all motorists and they will be required to pass eye examinations," declared the motor safety expert.

He also observed that operators of motor scooters will be required to wear helmets and pass a driving test. Beginners licenses for motor scooter operators can be issued at age 15. However, holders of such licenses must "be in sight of a licensed motor scooter operator while driving."

Another change in the law requires that motorists under 21 years of age receive "provisional licenses." Nowlin said this license may be suspended upon two convictions. These licenses will be of a different color than regular licenses.

All original applicants for driver's licenses will be thumbprinted and required to appear with birth certificates or other documentary evidence pertaining to date of birth when applying for licenses. Another change requires that the commercial license examination be given in a commercial vehicle of the type the applicant will use when he drives.

Cool Front Nears Gulf

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Autumn-like weather sent the mercury to the low 50s in the Panhandle this morning as a sharp cool front neared the Gulf of Mexico.

Early morning readings in Texas generally were in the 60s and low 70s. The highest minimum was Corpus Christi's 78. On the other hand, Dalhart had 53 and Amarillo 55.

Scattered showers fell along and behind the front's passage. Higher rainfall amounts included Texarkana .75 inches; Austin .63; Alice .39; and Galveston .21.

Relief from usually torried August heat resulted from a cool front which pushed as far south before daylight to a line from Galveston to Laredo.

Showers also fell around Amarillo, Borger, Pampa, Childress and Hereford in the Panhandle, at Junction, near Waco, in an area embracing Temple "Tomball, Katy and Waelder, and from Round Rock toward Waco and Caldwell.

The slow moving cool front held Thursday's top temperatures to 63 degrees at Lubbock and 64 at Dalhart. High marks at other points ranged up to 99 at College Station.

Forecasts promised more widely scattered showers tonight and Saturday in all sections of the state except Northeast Texas.

Bodies Are Back Home

BIG SPRING, Tex (AP) — Bodies of John C. Polone and his family, who died in a plane crash near Mexico City, were brought home Thursday.

A search went on in Mexico for another Big Spring family whose plane disappeared there, at about the same time.

Polone, his wife and their two children were killed Sunday. Their private plane cracked up on a dormant volcano about 35 miles from Mexico City.

Associates learned that the Polone craft crashed so close to an unidentified mountain climber that he was cut and scratched by bits of wreckage and his raincoat caught fire from the blazing plane.

Mexican authorities reported Thursday that an aerial search, hampered by poor visibility, still failed to turn up any clues to another light plane carrying John H. Lloyd and his family.

The Polones and the Lloyds took off Sunday from Acapulco, Mexico, en route to Brownsville, Tex. It was believed the two planes were flying close together.

Arlene No Longer Viewed As Threat

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Winds of tropical storm Arlene dwindled today as the season's first storm thrashed far at sea and was ruled out as a threat to the United States mainland.

At 6 a.m. the National Hurricane Center said the storm had continued to weaken about 1,800 miles east-northeast of Miami. Winds were estimated at 45 miles per hour in squalls within the storm.

"Arlene poses no threat to the U.S. mainland," said the 6 a.m. advisory.

Connally Back To Survey Situation

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — Doffing his role as Hemingway-style African big game hunter, Gov. John Connally has come back to Texas and resumed the part of political Hamlet.

To run or not to run, that is the question.

The governor has been on safari in Kenya and Tanzania, East Africa, since July 19 as a guest of the American Broadcasting Co., which filmed the hunt for its "American Sportsman" television series.

Landing at municipal airport in a rain shower Thursday evening, he gave his wife a big kiss, said "it's great to be home," then took on reporters' questions about his political future and his African trophies.

"Have you made up your mind about running again?" was question No. 1. It is one to which Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, who is definitely after Connally's job, and Speaker Ben Barnes, who says he might want it if Connally doesn't would like an answer.

"No, I have not," he said.

When will he decide?

"It may be weeks. It may be months. I'm going to talk to a great many people in the state—as many as I possibly can talk to—before I make up my mind."

Before he left for Africa, he indicated he would decide before he goes to the National Governors' Conference Oct. 16. But now, he said, "I don't know whether I will or won't by then."

A reporter asked what Connally would be trying to find out in his political conversations as he wrestles with his decision whether to seek an unprecedented fourth term.

"Basically, whether or not it is in the best interest of the state, the progress of the state, for me to seek a fourth term. It's no secret that from a personal standpoint I am not dying to run for a fourth term," he said.

"They (his family) and I would like a period when we could enjoy each other more and enjoy the relative privacy of private life."

Connally said he would "be guided to a very large extent" by his evaluation of how people of the state feel about a fourth term.

Smith already has said that if Connally runs, the fourth term will be an issue. No Texas governor ever has served four full terms.

The governor was relaxed and smiling at his Austin airport news conference. He looked lean and tanned from his six weeks under the African sun. Connally was ebullient and seemed eager to talk about his adventures.

His trophies, many of which will be mounted, include a "very good lion," an impala, wart hog, Thompson's Gazelle, cape buffalo and an elephant shot "the day before yesterday" while cameras recorded the kill for television.

Also on the hunt were David Janssen—"The Fugitive," television cowboy Clint Walker, singer Bing Crosby and comedian Phil Harris.

Connally said it was a "real disappointment" that he did not shoot a leopard. One was within easy shooting range, but walked away while camereas were being set up to photograph the kill, he said.

"I could have just had a wall-eyed fit," he grimaced.

A scattering herd of cape buffalo and an angry lioness which tried to keep him from retrieving his slain lion gave him a few uneasy moments, he said.

Hearing Is Continuing

One interesting aspect of the hearing being conducted here by the National Labor Relations Board is that both parties to the dispute appear to base their arguments on similar propositions.

For instance, representatives for the union representing employes at the North Side Gasoline Plant contend that Chevrol Oil Co., a subsidiary of Standard Oil Co. of California, violated the Taft-Hartley law by not putting an 18-cent hourly wage increase into effect Jan. 1.

Company lawyers, on the other hand, appear to take the stand that it would have constituted a violation of the Taft-Hartley Law to put the wage increase into effect at that time. According to them, the wage increase was part of the overall negotiations, and those negotiations had not been completed.

Other employes of the company received the wage increase Jan. 1, and it was extended to employes in the union at a subsequent date.

Today's session of the hearing will be the last one until Sept. 12 when the hearing re-convenes.

Decide About Heating System In Summer

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Summer is the time when people think about a new heating system because their present unit is too costly, too dirty or isn't providing enough heat. It is easier to get heating estimates during warm months when heating people have fewer demands on their time.

Whatever the reason for wanting the change, one must give considerable thought to a new heating system before one makes a decision. It isn't easy. One shouldn't latch on to the first suggestion that is made.

A great deal is involved in ascertaining the heating system that is best for your house.

After you have determined what it is, there can be a vast difference in estimates given by heating companies to install the same system. It is always good to remember the rule of three (estimates).

One confusing thing is that heating companies do great selling jobs but they aren't necessarily trying to reach you. For example, electric companies advertise regularly the heating advantages of electricity but your house must be insulated like a fortress before they will recommend that you put in electric heating. If the house is well insulated, electric heat works like a charm but otherwise it can be very expensive, these utility companies advise. They prefer to put it in new houses or very well - insulated homes.

Heating engineers may suggest hot air in small homes because it is less costly than other heat, even in homes that are not too well insulated. Hot air heat has aesthetic drawbacks if one must put registers in floors. Units are smaller but still present problems for decorators. You can't place furniture next to these units. Many small houses haven't room for the large ducts that may be required for this type of heat.

Baseboard radiation may be installed with the hot air system but in a small house with small rooms, it presents a bit of a problem.

Anyone entertaining the idea of putting in a new furnace to replace a converted-to-oil coal furnace will find the new furnace will almost pay for itself with the saving in oil over a pereiod of time. Old furnaces chew up lots of fuel and if you get a squint inside that old reconverted coal furnace and its ducts that are being discarded, you may shiver at the sight of the soot that it has been pushing through your register.

Many people are impressed with hot baseboard heating. It is clean, effective, though more costly that hot air heat in old houses were rooms are not too well insulated. You may use more fuel than a hot air furnace and there may be a long period of adjustment. In the beginning, a two-story house will be a hot-cold proposition, with one floor or the other being too hot or too cold. It straightens out as you play it by thermostat, and find the heat temperature that is right for your family.

There are all sorts of supplementary heating systems—ceilings, walls and so on, but there is no such thing as a shortcut to heat if you live in a cold climate.

Heating estimates vary a great deal.

For example, in getting bids for installing heat in a new two-room addition of their house, one couple got an estimate from one company of only $300 more to put the heating system throughout the entire house — six additional rooms.

A company may be quite a bit higher than another company if it is quoting an expensive furnace, boiler or other equipment. That's why one must get at least three bids for the heating job and ask for specifications sheets — just what is the equipment, who makes it, what is it made of and so on.

You must also learn how each company plans to install the system. A company that doesn't estimate your heat loss properly may quote a lower figure based on a minimum of equipment. You will pay in the end with larger heating bills.

One should investigate every source of information on the subect of heat before signing up for a new system. Friends can provide some information on their own system. Good heating engineers value their reputations and should give you good information.

Keep in mind that these men get bored by "lookers," and are likely to act indifferent when you seek an estimate. It is best to have the man of the family, who can understand their terminology, meet with them and size up the situation.

The housewife can do the preliminaries — ferret out the companies, line up booklets and information, make appointments for the experts to come when her husband is at home and compare estimates on the basis of what is being installed.

She can go to the library and read up on heat loss or have some one explain it to her, if she really wants to get down to basics.

VESTED INTEREST — The vest comes into fashion focus this fall and here's a novel approach done in red cotton leather. The sportswear ensemble features a mini-hipster A-line skirt and vest with flap pockets. Snap closures and skirt pocket detail add pert touches to this design.

Count on a half-cup of cooked hominy grits supplying about 60 calories.

If that cantaloupe is pronouncedly yellow, it may be overripe.

Delicious sandwich spread: cheddar cheese (very soft or finely grated) mixed with mayonnaise, chopped pimiento-stuffed green olives and walnuts. If you are making a large quantity of this spread, and are using a cheddar cheese that isn't the very soft variety, you can put the cheese, olives and walnuts through the food chopper and then mix in the mayonnaise.

Mold Limeade For Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

IT'S QUICK and easy to make, cool and refreshing. We're talking about a molded dessert concocted from only four ingredients — frozen limeade concentrate, yogurt, sugar and unflavored gelatin. You may want to try it.

We offered this Limeade Mold to half a dozen guests. Served with cut-up fresh fruit, all our tasters thought it was a smooth-as-velvet, pleasant summertime dessert.

Choose your own combination for the cut-up fruit from what's in the market or in your refrieges and oranges make a delectagerator. Nectarines, strawberes and oanges make a drelectable combination. So do apricots, pineapple and sweet cherries; you may wat to add the cher- 2 containers (each 8 ounces) they have a tendency to color the other fruit.

LIMEADE MOLD

2½ cups reconstituted frozen limeade concentrate
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup sugar
2 containers each 8 ounces) plain yogurt
Green food coloring
Cut-up fresh fruit

Into a medium saucepan or metal mixing bowl turn 1 cup of the limeade; sprinkle gelatin over it. Place over low heat; stir constantly with a rubber spatula until gelatin dissolves — about 3 to 4 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in sugar until dissolved. Stir in yogurt; beat gently, if necessary, to combine but don't worry about tink white flecks, stir in remaining 1½ cups limeade. Add a few drops of green food coloring — enough to color mixture a pretty pale green — and stir or beat gently to combine. Pour into a 5 cup hold. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve with cut-up fresh fruit, — a mixture of peaches, pineapple, oranges and cantaloupe is delicious. Makes 8 servings.

Note: You will need a 6-ounce can of frozen concentrate for limeade for this recipe; reconstitute according to directions on can. Use remaining limeade, chilled, as a family beverage.

PLEASANTLY COOL — A jellied limeade dessert may be prepared in a mold and turned out or it may be served from a big bowl.

Sensitive Impressions

IRISH JOURNAL. By Heinrich Boll.

There is a pleasant aura of affection and sympathetic regard in this account of the author's visit to Ireland in 1954-55.

It was no quick glimpse of the country. He went there with his family and they stayed long enough to get acquainted with the Irish people. In his epilogue, Boll says he believes he caught Ireland "At that historic moment when it was just beginning to leap over a century and a half and catch up with another five.

He was especially interested in churches, the Irish fondness for gambling and the movies, their unhurried disregard for time, their habits and the pubs and the beauty of Irish children.

He found some amusing observations about the Irish attitudes toward law and order. He explored a deserted village and lived for a while amid the beautiful, rain - drenched scenery of County Mayo. The city of Limerick fascinated him.

Boll was impressed by the pressures, especially in the rural areas, toward emigration caused by a combination of large families and few jobs.

This is a series of sensitive impressions, recorded by an author well - equipped in the art of communicating the spirit of a place.

This Is Pink Comedy

A CIRCLE OF FRIENDS. By Julian Mitchell.

There is pink comedy (as distinguished from the black, bitter, dirty comedy that saturates a good many current novels) in this brightly sophisticated story.

Set in New York and the English countryside, it is one of those cocktail charades about the affluent set, with appropriate eyebrow lifting and elbow bending.

The key figure, oddly enough, is a 25-year-old, inexperienced, ineffectual Englishman named Martin Bannister. He happens to meet in New York a couple named Grigson — Henrietta, an English heiress, and Freddy, an American who produces avant-garde plays.

Martin gets carried off to England to be an unofficial tutor for the Grigson's adolescent son Lawrence. Then we have a bit of folly about an amateur theatrical, rehearsed at Henrietta's country house, during which poor Martin goes into a moon-calf adulation of Henrietta.

Of course, this is lightweight entertainment, but its seemingly frivolous subject matter supports more social malice — good-natured but penetrating — than you might expect. It's more in the tradition of Noel Coward, than of Angry Young Men.

Children usually like this cool drink fruit sherbet softened and beaten with milk plus a little vanilla.

SO VULNERABLE!

Congress Must Pay For Its Dawdling During Summer

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—A long, cold autumn seems likely to be the price Congress will have to pay for dawdling through the long, hot summer.

It's off again on its third vacation since convening last January. And when it returns Sept. 11, the end of the 1967 session won't be in sight.

Legislative leaders no longer have a fixed target date for final adjournment, although they hopefully look to mid-November as the get- away period. In the optimistic opening days of the session, they plugged for July 31 as going-home day. Then they backed it up to Labor Day. They'd settle now for Thanksgiving Day.

Although much has been done during the first eight months, much more remains to be done if the scheduled business is to be disposed of before the end of the year. And most of the remaining legislation is highly controversial.

It deals with tax increases, higher postal rates, pay raises, Social Security, the antipoverty program, civil rights, foreign aid and election law reforms, to list a few.

A tax bill is scheduled to hit the House floor in mid-October, and then it starts all over in the Senate.

The Social Security measure, broadening benefits, has passed the House but isn't expected to reach a Senate vote until late in October.

The election reform bill is the Senate's unfinished business when Congress returns. It hasn't been acted on by the House. Also nearing the voting stage in the Senate are a $2.6 billion antipoverty bill and a broad housing measure including a House-rejected provision to exterminate rats in slum areas.

Major unfinished business on the House calendar is a compromise $70 billion defense appropriation bill with a controversial provision banning naval ship contract awards to British shipyards.

House-passed bills to protect civil rights workers and to make it a federal crime to cross state lines to incite rioting are languishing in the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. James Eastland, D-Miss.

The House Post Office and Civil Service Committee hopes to have ready soon bills to hike postal rates and to boost the pay of postal and civil service employes. Pay raises for military personnel are being considered by the House Armed Services Committee. The pay bills are "must" for the pre-election year session.

Only six of the 17 appropriation bills have gone to President Johnson. Eight of the remaining 11 have passed the House oly. The three that haven't been considered by either branch finance the foreign-aid program, military construction, and antipoverty programs. They can't be considered until separate legislation is enacted putting spending ceilings on the programs.

The money bills enacted involved presidential requests for $93.5 billion in new funds and reflected congressional cuts of $1.9 billion. This includes the Defense Department measure over which there is no controversy as to appropriations. Economy-voting isn't keeping pace with economy-talking.

But despite the long holidays and delays over censuring Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., and unseating Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., Congress has pretty much to show for its work to date.

It has enacted a new draft law, extended the Teachers Corps and other education programs, increased the national debt limit twice, provided benefits for "cold war" veterans and halted a threatened railroad strike.

Idolatry Of Gadgets At A New Peak

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —America's idolatry of the gadget has reached a peak in the present worship of the color television set.

Whether you own one or not determines your social class—whether you belong to the haves or the have nots, the "in" group or the "out" group.

"How long are we going to go on living the Dark Ages?" demanded my daughter, Tracy Ann, who is 14.

"Yes, the Dark Ages!" she said dramatically. "That's what life is without a color television set.

"Practically everybody has a color set except us. How long are we going to stay underprivileged?"

"Oh, we'll get one soon."

"How soon?"

"As soon as you can get one by mailing away breakfast food boxtops."

But I suppose we will have to buy a color set before too long. My wife Frances has joined my daughter's assault, and it is difficult for a man to hold out against two ruthless females, no matter how great his integrity.

Besides, I don't think it's fair of me to subject them to possible social ostracism. My neighbors for some time have looked upon me with suspicion because I've never owned an automobile. If I don't give in and buy a color television set, they may start picketing me as a guy who's un-American and a threat to local property values.

There are several reasons why I haven't joined the race to bring "glorious living color" into my living room.

Such as:

A. I am, let's face it, something of a cheapskate. It shocks my sense of values to pay for an entertainment toy more than I spent for a full year of college in my youth.

B. If I want to see glorious living color, I can watch a sunrise or sunset, or stick my head out the window after a summer shower and look at a rainbow.

C. It is my firm belief that seeing Ed Sullivan's teeth in beige, or Barbra Streisand's nose in pastel mauve, won't really make me admire their artistry any more.

D. I'm afraid that if I get a color television set I'll become as snobbish as some of my friends who now own one.

My friends don't talk of their color sets as machines. They speak of them as if they were pampered pets—almost as if they were alive, but in somewhat delicate health.

"Is yours all right?"

"Yes, it's coming along just fine. How is yours"

Recently the color set of one of my friends had a breakdown. I thought my friend was going to have one, too. I didn't know whether to mail a get-well card to my friend or to the repair hospital where his set had been taken for a thorough examintion. Both were sick, sick, sick.

I thought of phoning the repair hospital to see how his set was coming along, but desisted.

Editor's note: What Hal Boyle doesn't know is that his wife has already selected his Christmas present. It couldn't be a necktie. It's packed in a great big cardboard box marked "Fragile—This End Up."

Junior Editors Quiz on NEW MONEY

QUESTION: How is new money made?

• • •

ANSWER: United States coins come from federal mints in Philadelphia and Denver, Colo. Bullion, meaning gold and silver, is brought to the mint. After being purified and hardened with the addition of copper, it is cast into bars. Blanks, called planchets are then made and fed into stamping machines which can turn out 90 big coins or 120 smaller ones in a minute. All coins are made in the same way irrespective of the denomination or metal content. Paper money is made under the strict supervision of the Treasury Depavtment, which alone is authorized to issue it. Artists draw the designs which are then copied on soft steel plates by engravers. The plates are made into rolls, which, after various hardening processes, are then used to print the bills in groups of 12. Check these important things on a bill: (1) the Federal Reserve Seal with a letter, (2) the serial number of the bill, (3) the green Treasury Seal.

Cepeda, Cards Clip Astros

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's a good thing for the rest of the National League that St. Louis' Orlando Cepeda isn't feeling very chipper.

"I'm dragging," Cepeda complained. "You get tired about now. You can't keep going bam, bam, bam."

One Cepeda bam was enough for the Houston Astros Thursday night.

The weary slugger smashed his 24th homer, walked twice, stole a base and hit a sacrifice fly in the Cardinals' 5-1 victory over the Astros.

Cepeda scored two runs and drove in two more, running his major league leading RBI total to 104. He is batting .344, six points less than Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, who tagged three hits in the Pirates' 6-4 victory over Philadelphia.

Elsewhere in the National League Thursday, Cincinnati stopped San Francisco 3-1, Atlanta edged Los Angeles 5-4 and Chicago nipped New York 2-1 at 11 innings.

Ray Washburn won his ninth game for the Cardinals with late-inning help from Ron Willis. Jimmy Wynn accounted for Houston's only run with his 42nd homer.

Cepeda's homer came in the third inning against loser Bo Belinsky, 3-9. The big slugger hit his sacrifice fly in the two-run wrapup eighth.

Matty Alou punched an infield single that scored Al Luplow with the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning as the Pirates whipped the Phillies.

Luplow, batting for winner Bob Veale, had doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice before Alou delivered.

Juan Pizarro, who saved Veale's 15th victory, singled home Pittsburgh's final run in the eighth.

Hank Aaron touched off a three-run Atlanta rally in the eighth inning with his 33rd homer and Rico Carty climaxed the spurt with a two-run pinch double as the Braves beat Los Angeles.

Aaron's homer was his 475th career shot and tied him for ninth place on the all-time major league list with Stan Musial.

After the homer, Clete Boyer reached base on an error and Mack Jones walked before Carty doubled. It marked the first time in two seasons that the Braves defeated Claude Osteen.

Rookie catcher John Bench tagged a two-run double — only his second major league hit — to break a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning and carry Cincinnati past San Francisco.

Jim Malorey, who struck out six straight batters over one stretch, hurled a four-hitter and gained his 13th victory. Lee May homered for the Reds snapping loser Mike McCormick's 25-inning scoreless streak. McCormick is 18-7.

Al Spangler's 11th inning pinch single drove in Chicago's winning run against the Mets. Ernie Banks had opened the inning with a single and reached second when Randy Hundley was hit by a pitch.

With a count of one ball and two strikes on Ted Savage, Spangler was sent up to swing and delivered the winning hit.

Italian Cops 110

TOKYO (AP) — Track and field took over the spotlight in the sixth day of the World University Games Friday with five gold medals up for grabs at the National Stadium.

Edey Ottoz of Italy captured the first one of the day, winning the men's 110-meter hurdles in 13.9 seconds over Don Copeland of Los Angeles. Ottoz surged forward with a burst of speed before the final two hurdles to edge the UCLA student, who was timed in 14.0 for the silver medal.

Bodo Tummler of Germany set a World Game record of 3:43.3 in the men's 1,500 meters finals, winning his country's fourth gold medal in the track and field competition.

No Americans were entered in the event.

The United States beat South Korea 92-63 for its fifth straight men's basketball victory. It was Korea's first defeat against four wins. The Americans led 42-29 at halftime.

Tiger 11, Jr. Varsity Drill Today

Local football fans will get their first glimpse of the Tiger potential tonight. The first scrimmage in Tiger Stadium against an outside foe follows a tussle between Hermleigh and the Snyder Junior Varsity which begins about 5 o'clock.

Coach Wayne Tyrone is worried about a lack of speed in the Bengal camp. He said this is one of the slowest teams he has ever seen at Snyder High School.

Speaking at the Quarterback Club meeting earlier in the week, he said, "We've got to work on agility and try to develop some quickness."

The Tiger backs have got to hit the holes as soon as they open up in order for the offense to click, according to Tyrone.

The coach generally was pleased with the performance in the scrimmage at Odessa Ector last Friday night. The Tigers held their own for two hours against a bigger team—a squad picked to win the District 2-AAA crown.

Snyder stayed pretty much with a "bread and butter" type offense in that drill while the Eagles opened up more and did some stunting on defense.

Midland has the experience and size to provide the Tigers with another stern test tonight.

1-HIT PITCHER TAKES STROLL

Gamble Fails, But ChiSox Win Anyway

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The way Eddie Stanky has been putting his "quick hook" into operation, the only way Francisco Carlos is going to complete a game is by throwing a no-hitter.

For six innings Thursday, White Sox rookie Carlos set Boston down without a hit, but then Carl Yastrzemski walked, George Scott hit a single, both moved up on a sacrifice and Stanky was out to the mound in a sprint.

"Young man," said the Chicago manager, "I need a strikeout right here." In came Hoyt Wilhelm, who not only did not get the strikeout but gave up two runs as the Red Sox took a temporary lead before some Chicago homers settled the matter 4-2.

"It's pretty difficult to take a man out with a one-hitter," Stanky allowed after the game. "I realize that, but we're fighting for $10,000 and I'm managing for 25 men."

For Carlos, it was a familiar story. A week ago, in his major league debut against the Red Sox, he went 6 1-3 innings without allowing any runs, but left the game, which the White Sox evenetually won. He threw precisely 79 pitches in each game.

"In my book, he's won two games," said Stanky of the 26-year-old right-hander who posted an 11-8 record at Indianapolis before joining the White Sox.

In the only other American League action Thursday, Minnesota outlasted Baltimore 10-9 and Washington blanked New York 6-0. Detroit, California, Cleveland and Kansas City were ide.

The White Sox went ahead for good in the eighth when Tommie Agee's 13th homer tied the game. A two-out error let Pete Ward bat, he blasted his 16th homer in the right field bleachers.

When Stanky saw that "Wilhelm's knuckler wasn't knuckling," he went back to the bullpen in a flash for Don McMahon, who retired six batters in a row to nail down the victory.

The Red Sox' lead over the Twins was reduced to half a game, while Detroit is one game out and the White Sox are 1½ games behind.

Rich Reese came off the bench with one out in the bottom of the ninth and sent his fourth homer of the season into the right-center field bullpen to put the Twins one-half game behind the Red Sox.

Baltimore had scored three times in the top of the inning on consecutive doubles by Boog Powell and Dave Johnson and Curt Blefary's two-run homer. The Orioles also got four runs in the fifth, two on Brooks Robinson's homer and another on a shot by Dave Johnson.

Frank Bertaina held the Yankees to three hits and allowed the same number to get as far as second base. Ed Brinkman drove in two runs with a single in the Senators' three-run eighth inning.

TROPHY HUNTING AGAIN

Emerson Seeks Third U.S. Title

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Roy Emerson is trophy hunting again at the U.S. National Singles Championships, but the Australian's days as a regular on the world-wide tennis safari appear to be numbered.

"I've been away from home since March 5," Emerson said Thursday after opening his drive for a third U.S. men's title with a straight set victory over young Georges Goven of France. "I'd like to settle down, most likely back home in Brisbane. I'll be " in November and I've played a lot of tournament tennis."

Emerson, seeded second to countryman John Newcombe in the tournament he won in 1961 and 1964, whipped Goven, France's 19-year-old prodigy, 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 to lead a quartet of seeded players into the second round.

The next barrier for Emerson, who first played in the West Side Tennis Club classic as a skinny youngster 13 years ago, is hardhitting Jim Osborne of Honolulu. He ousted Inderjit Singh of Cincinnati, by way of India, 6-2, 6-3, 6-1 Thursday.

Following Emerson into the second round were fourth seeded Nicola Pilic of Yugoslavia, No. 5 Cliff Drysdale of South Africa and No. 7 Clark Grebner of Beachwood, Ohio, the top-rated American in the starting field of 128.

Pilic defeated Lamar Roemer of Houston 6-1, 6-1, 6-4; Drysdale drubbed Butch Newman of Havelock, N. C., 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 and Graebner bounced Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Tex., 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Meanwhile, Wimbledon queen Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the favorite to bring the United States its first women's crown since 1961, led a contingent of four seeded American girls into the second round.

Tired Law Hangs Up Baseball Cleats

PITTSBURGH (AP) — To those on the Pittsburgh Pirates who knew him well, Vernon Law's retirement came as no surprise.

Weary and aching after 16 seasons, most of them with a losing club, Law, 37, no longer possessed the ability which once vaulted him to the pinnacle of his profession.

Law, winner of only two games this year for seventh-place Pittsburgh, plagued by arm trouble and hobbled by a groin injury, announced Thursday he was calling it quits.

Law led the Pirates' pitching staff for most of his 16 years — 10 of them in the second division — and in 1960 carried them to a World Series victory and won the Cy Young award as baseball's best pitcher.

KICKING PROBLEM SOLVED

Powerful Kansas City Chiefs Are Improved

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP) — Earlier this summer Hank Stram said the most pressing question mark facing his Kansas City Chiefs was place kicking.

Either Hank had his tongue in his cheek or his eyes closed.

For the only question Jan Stenerud might present is how far back he can go before he misses on a field goal try.

Stenerud is a rookie from Norway by way of Montana State who is replacing Mike Mercer, the best kicker in the American Football League last season. He booted a 59-yard field goal in college and threatens to kick some long ones, if not quite that long, for the Chiefs.

But if Stram, at the time he made the statement, really felt that was the Chiefs' most pressing problem, it showed how well off Kansas City is compared with all the other teams in the league which were, and still are, worrying about quarterbacks, tackles, linebackers, corner backs and anything else you care to name.

The Chiefs' prestige was slightly tarnished in their 35-10 Super Bowl loss to Green Bay last January, but their reputation as by far the best team in the AFL still stands.

They've proved it already by crushing Oakland, their No. 1 rival in the Western Division, 48-0 and then trouncing the Chicago Bears of the National League 66-24, both within five days in exhibition play.

Preseason games might not have much importance, but it is fair to say the outcome of those contests was significant.

"I think we're better now than we were a year ago," Stram said, offering an ominous note to the other AFL teams. "We've had more quality competition this year than ever before."

What he means is the Chiefs have greater depth than before, and adding depth to the Chiefs is like giving an octopus another arm.

In the backfield Kansas City has Len Dawson, the league's leading quarterback in 1966; Mike Garrett, second best rusher; Curt McClinton, eighth in rushing, and spare running back Bert Coan, ninh in rushing.

Coa spells Garrett while McClinton's replacements will be Gene Thomas and Aaron Brown, who has been converted from a defensive lineman. Fullbacks don't come much bigger than Brown, who stands 6-feet-5 and weighs 265.

For receivers, Dawson has split end Chris Burford and flanker Otis Taylor, who each caught 58 passes last season, plus tight end Fred Arbanas, one of nine men the Chiefs placed on the All-Star team.

The rest of the offensive line consists of tackles Jim Tyrer and Dave Hill, guards Ed Budde and Curt Merz and center Jon Gilliam, who apparently has completely recovered from a knee operation.

Defensively, the Chiefs are as strong as anyone and stronger than most. The front four includes ends Jerry Mays and Chuck Hurston plus tackles Buck Buchanan and Andy Rice or Ed Lothamer.

The linebacking is extremely rugged with Bobby Bell, Sherrill Headrick and E. J. Holub holding down the starting spots and rookies Willie Lanier and Jim Lynch providing good back-up protection.

The secondary has a new face, corner back Fletcher Smith, only because Fred Williamson broke his arm. It's just possible, though, that Williamson will have a tough time getting back into the line-up when he returns.

The three returning starters are cornerback Willie Mitchell and safeties Johnny Robinson and Bobby Hunt, the latter two the top pass interceptors in the league last year, each grabbing 10.

And to top everything off, the Chiefs have discovered a kick return artist named Noland Smith, who is only 5-foot-6¼ and who has scored several touchdowns in exhibition games on punt and kickoff returns of better than 70 yards.

Then there's Stram's new Tight End I formation . . . but by this time Kansas City's opponents have to cry too much.

Texas Loop Title Hanging

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Albuquerque and El Paso open a five-game series tonight that could decide the Texas League pennant, yet the club that has suffered one of the greatest collapses might still win it.

Albuquerque leads the leaguee by 1½ games over Amarillo and two over El Paso. But Albuquerque and El Paso close out against each other while Amarillo winds up with last-place Dallas-Fort Worth with only four games to play.

Amarillo hardly considers itself in an advantageous position since it now has lost seven in a row and 15 of its last 16 game But if the law of average should swing toward the Sonics, they still might win or tie for the championship.

Albuquerque edged Austin 4-3 Thursday night to hang onto first place, and in fact increase its lead since Amarillo took a 5-4 licking from Arkansas. Meanwhile El Paso moved within half a game of Amarillo by shutting out Dallas-Fort Worth 4-0.

Austin and Arkansas, who along with Dallas-Fort Worth are out of contention for anything much, get together in their final games.

Albuquerque won dramatically Thursday night, Mel Corbo and Luis Alcaraz clouted back-to-back home runs in the eighth for the margin of victory.

Three Arkansas runs in the ninth whipped Amarillo. uique Rivera brought in two with a triple and Joe Hague drove in the clincher with an infield hit.

Tom Murphy allowed Dallas-Fort Worth only three hits as El Paso scored three runs in the first inning and won going away. Tom Egan's two-run homer was the big blow.

It's Albuquerque at El Paso, Dallas-Fort Worth at Amarillo and Austin at Arkansas tonight.

Texas Netman Survives

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Only one Texas collegian survived Thursday's first round of the National Tennis Tournament —Chris Bovett, the Australian from Pan American College.

Bovett beat Daniel Bleckinger of Oshkosh, Wis., 6-4, 6-, 6-4.

George Taylor of Houston Lamar Roemer and Jaime Sibirats of Trinity University and Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Tex., were defeated.

Boemer lost to Nicola Pilic of Jugoslavia 61, 6-2, 6-4; Taylor to Erik Van Dillen of San Mateo, Calif., 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 36, 62; Subirats to Humphre Hose of even ezuela 8-6, 2-6, 7-5, 8-6, and Stewart to Clark Graebner of Beackwood Ohjo, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Nancy Richey of San Angelo, rated No. 2 in women's tennis, had to withdraw because of a back ailment.

Five Join SWC Trail

More than 600 young men were at work throughout the Southwest Conference today as all teams swung into the football practice grind.

Texas, Texas Christian, Rice, Texas Tech and Arkansas were the last to hit the practice field. Southern Methodist, Texas A&M and Baylor preceded them.

SMU, A&M and Baylor got the earlier start because they have games Sept. 16.

Southern Methodist opened training Monday and already was settled into the routine when the Aggies and Baylor got going Thursday.

Eighty players, including 20 lettermen, turned out at Aggieland. Coach Gene Stallings expressed pleasure at the squad's good physical condition as evidenced in a scrimmage.

Baylor suffered an injury the first thing. Phil Russell, the No. 1 defensive end, pulled a hamstring muscle but he was expected back in a few days. There were 76 on hand, including 20 lettermen.

Arkansas expected 20 lettermen in camp today, while there were due to be 23 at Texas, 31 at Texas Christian, 33 at Texas Tech and 31 at Rice.

GRACIOUS, HAPPY

Dickson Fires 71 Despite Elements

By FRANK PITMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Some phrases and words, most unprintable, to enrich golfdom's colorful vocabulary are flowing from the 67th U.S. Amateur Championship over the Broadmoor West's fog-bound, wind-blown, water-logged links.

Bob Dickson of McAlester, Okla., the reigning British Amateur king, was gracious and happy after posting his one-over par 71 to take a three-stroke lead in Thursday's partly completed first round.

Consequently his original contribution to golf grammar was negligible.

Bristling, descriptive phrases about the mounain-rimmed 6,946-yard par 35-35—70 course cascaded from the lips of players like former champion Bob Murphy — a 77 shooter — and Bill Harvey, the 36-year-old Dixie Amateur champion.

Murphy, the 1965 winner of this tourney from Nichols, Fla., opened his post-round discussion with sportswriter by throwing his shoe cross the locker room.

But then every player coming off the misty, fog-shrouded course into the locker room first yanked off his soaked shoes and wrenched the water from his socks.

That seemed to release some of the frustrations accumulated during three interruptions in play caused by drifting clouds of fog that blanked out the greens and fairways at various times during a trying day.

Harvey's graphic opinions reflected his sentiments after posting a 78 to replace his 71 score which led Wednesday's opening round until it was washed out.

Better things were promised today for the second round. The Weather Bureau forecast clearing skies and a high of around 70 degrees, up about 25 degrees from Thursday.

Probation Of Dimas May Be Revoked

[illegible] (AP) — Federal probation officer Manuel Vela said Thursday he will seek to revoke the probation of a farm labor union member held in Mexico if charges are filed against the man.

Vela said Magdaleno Dimas, convicted July 13, 1965, on a charge of smuggling aliens, is reportedly in custody at Torreon, Mexico, after being arrested about a week ago by officers conducting a marijuana investigation. Vela said Dimas, of Rio Grande City, received a two-year probated sentence.

Dimas took an active part in farm labor union activitie wit the United Farm Workers Orin Starr County. He and Horacio Carrillo of Corpus Christi were arrested in a hotel room at Torreon. Officers said they found 26 packages of marijuana in the room.

Vela said he had written for information concerning the arrest of Dimas. He said if he learns that Dimas has been charged he will ask to have the probation revoked. He added that Dimas also violated his probation by going to Mexico without permission.

Dimas had charged that Texas Rangers beat him June 1 when they arrested him at Rio Grande City on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Smog Seige Menace To Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An air pollution expert says Los Angeles residents, choking and blinking after the worst siege of smog in the city's history, face "a major catastrophe."

To help prevent complete air contamination, he said, car emissions must be greatly reduced and antismog laws more rigidly enforced.

Louis J. Fuller, Los Angeles County air pollution control officer, said residents of the sprawling basin can expect to suffer for at least 10 more years unless stringent action is taken.

Complaints of smarting eyes and lung congestion poured into the county Health Department this week as the smog reached the second highest count of all time. Smog alerts were issued three straight days, ending Thursday after scattered thundershowers fell in Southern California.

The smog count at nearby Azusa was .54 part per million parts of air on Monday, .70 Tuesday and .73 Wednesday. The highest ever recorded was .90 at Vernon in 1955.

Sizzling temperatures accompanied the smog—up to 113 in Burbank in the suburban San Fernando Valley. A high of 103 Thursday in Los Angeles broke the record of 101 for the date.

Klan Plans Annual Event

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The annual cross burning ceremonies of the Ku Klux Klan will be held at Stone Mountain, Ga., Saturday night, James R. Venable, imperial wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has announced.

Venable, who is chairman of a national group sponsoring the ceremony, said he expects the largest gathering of the Klan ever this year.

The annual ceremony is held in a cow pasture owned by Venable. In the past, the ceremony was held on Stone Mountain, now a state park.

Venable said this year's ceremony is sponsored by the 12 Klan groups which make up the national Knight of the Ku Klux Klan Association of America.

Be still

"Then was our mouth filled with laughter." Psalm 126:2.

It's mad to maintain that everything is right,
Or insane to infer life's a tragic plight.
Somehow in between lies a simple truth
That may be found in age or only seized in youth
That life is as you view it through the passing years
And seeking, you'll find laughter to evaporate the tears!

New Divorce Law In Force

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New York state's liberalized divorce law went into effect today but for most couples ready to call it quits, the decrees will be anything but the "quickies" granted in Reno or Mexico.

Nor will residents in other states benefit much from the law, which expands the 180-year-old "adultery only" statue to include other grounds.

A residency requirement of one year must be met if only one of the partners moves to the state and the alleged cause of the divorce occurred elsewhere. This compares with Nevada's six weeks.

No residency period is stipulated if both live in the state and the cause occurred here.

The new law considers "quickie" out-of-state divorces fraudulent if one of the partners returns to New York state within 18 months.

New grounds are: Abandonment by a spouse for two years, cruel or inhuman treatment, imprisonment of a spouse for at least three years and homesexual or other deviate sexual conduct.

Wage Floor Set By Presbyterians

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Motions favoring a minimum wage for all church workers and for practicing "conscientious disobedience" only as "a last resort" were adopted Thursday by the Texas synod of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

The motions were introduced during the final session of a three-day meeting of the synod, ruling body of the denomination in the state.

The Rev. James Mahon of Amarillo introduced the resolution calling for members taking part in public dissent on social issues "as a last resort to practice conscientious disobedience, realizing the serious responsibility placed upon those who disobey and accepting the legal consequence."

An amendment calling for public dissent to be within the established channels and structures failed.

The Rev. David Acharias of Dallas offered a motion urging all synod churches to pay lay employes a minimum wage of $1.50 an hour. It also was approved.

A motion urging the Defense Department to set up a program using conscientious objectors was tabled after an amendment was proposed.

The synod also passed motions encouraging the church's institutions to desegregate, expressing support of poverty programs and of the church's Vietnam policy, and commending the Texas Legislature for acting to regulate use of drugs such as LSD.

Prosperity Rampant On Wall Street

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Prosperity has exploded in Wall Street's face.

So much stock is being bought and sold by affluent individuals and institutions that the brokerage firms have been unable to keep up with the paperwork involved in the flood of transactions.

As a result, the New York and American stock exchanges and several regional exchanges shortened their daily trading periods by 90 minutes for nine days last month to give brokers' clerical staffs more time for their chores.

The American appetite for investing money in corporation stocks has reached tremendous proportions in recent years.

In the first half of this year, 1,234,398,860 shares changed hands on the New York Stock Exchange—a daily average of 9.8 million. This compared to the 1,039,045,404 shares traded in the 1966 first half for a daily average of 8.2 million.

Trading also has rocketed upward on the American Stock Exchange, regional exchanges and the over-the-counter market.

Back in 1926, volume on the New York exchange was 601 million shares for the year. By 1966 it had ballooned to 2,205,700,000.

The trading pace has more than doubled since 1959, when the total was 1,039,000,000 shares and the daily average 3.2 million.

Since 1952, the U.S. stockholder population has increased from 6 million to 22 million. These investors were part owners of nearly 7,000 companies.

Reagan Loses Tuition Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov Ronald Reagan has lost by a 2-1 margin his long battle to have the state Board of Regents impose tuition at California's universities.

But he claims victory today "in principle."

After a two-day meeting, the California Board of Regents agreed to allow a special committee to determine new student payments at an unspecified date.

Reagan said a number of the regents apparently had been "hung up" over the word tuition.

By a 14-7 vote, with two abstentions, the rengets rejected Reagan's proposed annual tuition after he had suggested $250 per student. Reagan proposed lowering this to $200 before the regents agreed on a general new "charge."

The amount of the charge and when it goes into effect were left blank to be filled in at subsequent regent meetings.

Soviets Expel Two American Attaches

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today ordered the expulsion of the press attache and agricultural attache of the U.S. Embassy.

The Foreign Ministry accused the two men, R. Dabney Chapman and Brice K. Meeker, of "activities incompatible with their diplomatic status." No details were given.

The American Embassy had no immediate comment. Chapman was in Moscow. Meeker was out of the country.

Route, Design For Highway Approved

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Highway Commission has approved the route and design features for U.S. 271 from Paris to the Red River.

The commission said Thursday the route and design were the same as those presented by the Highway Department at a July 6 public hearing.

Sleepy Town Aroused By Potent Spa

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — A spring whose water is said to increase men's potency has brought boom times to the once sleepy Bosnian town of Kladanj.

The hotel is packed. A nearby hunting lodge, rooms in private homes and local enterprises are enjoying unprecedented prosperity from the influx of visitors, many from abroad.

Illustrovana Politika, Belgrade weekly, described the propsperity.

An array of tents has sprung up near the spring on Mt. Konjuh, 10 miles from the town.

One enthusiastic inhabitant erected a signpost near a gas station read "Sex Town." It was removed next day.

Reuf Hasic, director of the Town Council's communal services, is quoted as saying: "I am not ashamed to state that I have become personally convinced that the water from the spring returns virility to men. We shall make a scientific research of the water and publish the results."

A reporter from the magazine saw a letter sent by a Slovenian woman thanking Hasic for hospitality shown to her and her husband on a visit to the town. She said the water from the spring had saved their marriage.

"I have received at least a score of similar letters," says Hasic. But he adds: "Exaggerated rumors are bringing us trouble. They provoke distrust with sober people."

Wife Is Needed, Husband Decides

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—Hank Paris often boasted to his wife Colleen that he could take care of their six boys "standing on my head."

No longer.

He placed this ad Thursday in the Rockford Morning Star and Rockford Register Republic: "Colleen, hurry home. I admit I can't take care of the boys standing on my head. Hank.

"P.S.—the washing machine broke."

Colleen is in a Rockford hospital where she gave birth Monday to their first daughter.

Regardless of Hank's plea, Colleen's doctor says she cannot come home until Saturday.
