"Rainfall totals actually became insignificant late Friday," says Walter Buckel in the Lamesa Press-Reporter in commenting on the plentiful water in that area.

"The water was standing along roadways, in the fields, everywhere you looked. Whether it was six inches or two inches really didn't make much difference. Unbelievable as it may seem we've reached our annual average of 16½ inches already — and it all fell in July and September." Buckel concluded, after noting that the stormy weather of last week had "cast a pall of gloom over the cotton crop prospects" of Dawson County.

Scurry County's average rainfall total is more than that of Lamesa, but it was exceeded in a period of two months, August and September. And, like Dawson County, a good portion of our yearly supply still bubbles near the top of the ground. In short, this area is now thoroughly soaked.

Interesting figures are being compiled on the first student body at Western Texas College. One is the big range of ages of students. The youngest enrollee at the college is 16, while the oldest is 77. Over half of the student body, however, falls within the usual college bracket, with 324 being from 18 to 21 and 248 others from 22 to 25.

"I understand the rising crime rate is even worse than we're told," wrote the correspondent to a question-answer column. "Who's covering up?"

The answer: Nobody but the victims. Half of all crimes committeed in the United States go unreported.

This information comes from the Governor's Criminal Justice Dept., which is promoting "Operation Crime-Stop" in an effort to encourage better public cooperation in halting crime in the state.

Several reasons are cited as causing victims to fail to report crimes, such as fear of repirsal, fear of involvement, etc., but the prime reason is apathy. Citizens are being urged to report all crimes, or suspicious acts they may witness. It does no harm for peace officers to check them out, even if some may not prove to be actual crimes.

Grand Jury Indicts Eight In Texas Bank Probe

HOUSTON (AP) — A federal grand jury indicted eight men, including four bank examiners, today on charges connected with the government investigation of the banking-insurance-real estate empire of Frank W. Sharp.

Two of the examiners were federal employes and the other two were state workers.

Among those indicted was Ted Bristol, a former examiner for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. He is accused of accepting a $10,000 loan from Sharp in 1969.

The Justice Department's top criminal lawyer, Asst. Atty. Gen. Will R. Wilson, once Sharp's attorney, has acknowledged purchasing stock for Bristol in an insurance company at Sharp's request.

Wilson, who says he has disqualified himself from any phase of the investigation of Sharp's affairs, has denied any wrongdoing.

The accusations against the eight, contained in four separate indictments, charge misapplication of funds of the Sharpstown State Bank, falsification of bank records and illegal loans of nearly $105,000 to bank examiners.

In addition to Bristol, the indictments named John T. Knight, an assistant FDIC examiner; Texas state bank examiners John B. Hooper and Welton Adler; former Sharpstown bank officials Douglas N. Lane, Herman Nelms and Carl Lundquist; and Houston real estate investor Charles L. Henke.

The Sharpstown bank was owned by Sharp, who pleaded guilty this summer to two violations of security and banking laws. He was fined, placed on probation and granted immunity from further prosecution in return for his testimony before the Houston grand jury.

The indictment says the loan to Bristol was made Feb. 28, 1968, through the Oak Forest Investment Corp., a firm controlled by Sharp.

In a statement made last month to counter what he termed "insinuations that I am or have been involved in illegal activities," Wilson acknowledged arranging for purchase of stock for Bristol during February 1968.

Federal Judge Woodrow Seals issued a bench warrant for all eight men and granted a $5,000 personal recognizance bond in each case.

The indictments are an outgrowth of a Securities and Exchange Commission investigation of loans made by Sharp, who controlled the bank, to key state government figures.

These figures, including Gov. Preston Smith and Texas House Speaker Gus Mutscher, used the loans to buy stock in Sharp's National Bankers Life Insurance Co. They made large, quick profits—$62,500 in the case of the governor.

Sharp wanted banking legislation approved. The legislature passed the bills but Gov. Smith vetoed them.

Thieu Orders "Shoot To Kill"

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu today ordered police to "shoot to kill" antigovernment rioters who throw firebombs or otherwise endanger lives.

Government spokesman Vu Khanh, confirming Thieu's order, said the president told police officials, "We are living in a period of political danger and turmoil. It is the duty of police to keep order. It is their duty to react to any violence.

"Whoever creates violence in the streets for the purpose of terrorism must be severely punished. Those who are caught red-handed burning autos must be shot on the spot if necessary."

Thieu made no mention of continuing demonstrations against his unopposed candidacy in Sunday's presidential election.

Thieu issued the order to some 400 police officials from around the country gathered for a meeting at the national police headquarters in Saigon.

Shortly after the meeting, a terrorist bomb exploded in front of a crowded restaurant in suburban Gia Dinh, wounding 24 persons, all Vietnamese.

It was the fourth major terrorist bombing in the Saigon area in the past two weeks.

The Gia Dinh Province chief, Col. Le Van Tu, said the wounded included five policemen, 14 soldiers, two women, two children and a civilian man.

Tu said preliminary reports showed no one was killed.

A vehicle belonging to an American contracting firm was firebombed in central Saigon earlier in the day. There were no injuries.

No new antigovernment protests were reported in Saigon, but in Da Nang several hundred students staged anti-Thieu demonstrations at two high schools.

Some of the students pelted police with rocks, and police fired scores of tear gas cannisters to disperse them.

No casualties were reported.

In another development, Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh, who along with Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky withdrew from the presidential race charging that the election was rigged by Thieu, said a president chosen in an uncontested election "can in no way represent the pople."

DOLPH BRISCOE

Briscoe To Run For Governor

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Dolph Briscoe announced for governor today and immediately served notice he would make the stock fraud scandal a basis of his campaign against Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes.

Barnes is the only other announced Democratic candidate for governor in the 1972 party primary.

"The public has a right to know why these two banking bills were afforded special treatment in the Senate; the same sort of special treatment they got in the House," the 48-year-old Uvalde rancher and banker told a news conference.

Briscoe said he had no new information to furnish about legislative passage of two banking bills in 1969 that had been asked by Frank Sharp, called the central figure of the stock scandal.

Briscoe also said he did not imply that bribery was involved in Senate passage of the bills.

Briscoe, chairman of the First State Bank of Uvalde, said he would have spoken out against the two banking bills in 1969 if he had been given a chance.

US Satellites Hurtle In Wrong Orbit

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Two new satellites hurtled into wrong but acceptable orbits today—one to test the Apollo tracking network, the other to probe the sun by creating its own solar eclipses.

Because of a control problem with the second stage of the Delta rocket, the payloads were injected into elliptical rather than the desired circular orbits. Officials said this should not affect either mission.

The two-stage rocket vaulted skyward at 5:45 a.m.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials reported that because of the abnormal orbit, the solar probe at first was not in the proper attitude to aim its six experiments at the sun. But ground stations, using emergency procedures, sent steering signals to realign the craft.

Nixon Inks Draft Bill, Delays Hikes

WASHINGTON (AP) — After a three-month leave of absence, the military draft was back today, but those already in the ranks will have to wait for the pay raise included in the bill that resumed induction.

President Nixon signed the hard-won measure Tuesday. Congress, after five months of contention, passed it Sept. 21. It included a $2.4-billion pay raise, largest in military history.

"By law, the pay increases provided in this act are subject to the 90-day wage-price freeze," Nixon declared, foreclosing the possibility that the Oct. 1 effective date of the raises would be observed. Nixon's anti-inflationary freeze ends Nov. 13.

House Armed Services Committee Chairman F. Edward Hebert, D-La., who has said the Oct. 1 date should be honored, did not indicate he would fight the presidential decision.

Nixon also said he will use the bill's authority to end undergraduate deferments.

The bill extends the draft two years until June 30, 1973, the target area for achieving an all-volunteer Army. Nixon said the bill represented a significant step toward this goal by remedying "the long-standing inequities in military pay for the lower grades."

In a statement issued on the signing, Nixon said he hoped to be the last president to authorize extension of the draft.

Ransom Is Paid

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The family of Mexico's federal aviation director, who was kidnaped two days ago, waited anxiously for his release today after paying a $240,000 cash ransom.

Police forces, meanwhile, poised for the moment of his release to start what will probably become one of this country's largest manhunts in years.

The release of Julio Hirschfeld Almada, 52, was expected by midmorning after his wealthy father-in-law said he made contact with the kidnapers and delivered the ransom money.

Police vigilance at orders of the president Tuesday in order to allow the kidnapers to make contact with the family for the exchange. But vigilance was expected to return tenfold as soon as Hirschfeld was released.

There has been no indication the kidnapers might be leftist [illegible] exists active recently in Mexico, but it was widely believed in private and government circles that this was the case.

Ginger Aims At North Carolina

MIAMI Fla. (AP) —Hurricane Ginger, "a very fickle storm," aimed her fury at the North Carolina coast today but weathermen said she could change course again before hitting land.

At 9 a.m. Ginger was packing winds of 90 miles per hour as she moved through the Atlantic about 300 miles southeast of the Wilmington-Cape Hatteras area at about 10 miles an hour, the National Hurricane Center in Miami said.

"Ginger is a very fickle storm," said forecaster Joe Pelissier. "We don't know exactly where she will zero in so a hurricane watch is in effect for a large area of the North Carolina coast."

Pelissier said a hurricane warning would be issued 24 hours before Ginger was expected to hit land.

The center said Ginger was triggering northeasterly winds off 30 to 40 m.p.h. just off the North Carolina coast and winds of gale force were expected over most of the state's coastal area by late tonight.

"There is a possibility that winds may reach hurricane force of 75 m.p.h. by early Thursday," the center added.

Pelissier said Ginger could change course completely before reaching land.

"That is why no hurricane warnings have been issued yet," he added.

Forecaster Ray Kraft said Ginger's size was expected to remain about the same with gales stretching out 275 miles in all directions.

Her eye was 80 miles wide. But the amount of moisture in the oldest Atlantic hurricane on the center's record books was in doubt.

"She was a pretty dry storm when she crossed over Bermuda last week, but sometimes those kind get out to sea again and become very wet," Kraft said. "It's a huge storm in area but it's not as strong as its size would indicate."

"Small craft should remain in port along the Carolina coasts," the forecaster warned.

Indictments Are Returned

A Scurry County grand jury has returned two felony and two misdemeanor indictments.

Bobby Joe Lee was indicted for rape. The offense allegedly occurred Aug. 27 at a house in the east part of town. The victim is a 23-year-old woman. Lee was remanded to county jail in lieu of $5,000 bond. He was arrested by City Police.

An indictment for possession of marijuana was returned against David Lynn Lewis of Andrews. He is being held on $2,000 bond.

Mike Coonrod and Larry Nachlinger of Hermleigh were indicted for misdemeanor theft under $50, and these cases were transferred to the jurisdiction of county court.

The grand jury inspected the facilities at the county jail and returned an opinion that they are "sub-standard" from a stand-point of the officers' safety.

Peking Program Disappointment

HONG KONG (AP) — The Canton television relayed more than two hours of programs originating in Peking today without making the "special and important news program" it had promised.

Watchers in Hong Kong believed the program represented a fill-in to replace—for some reason—what Canton television had billed as a program concerning the National Day celebration Friday.

It was a disappointment for China watchers who had hoped the telecast would clear up some of the recent puzzling developments in Red China.

The Peking announcement a week ago that the traditional National Day parade had been canceled touched off speculation that something was stirring in Red China.

It has been traditional every Oct. 1 since the Communists took control of the mainland for Mao Tse-tung and other ranking Communist leaders to review the parade.

The telecast opened with coverage of a Chinese delegation returning to Peking from a visit to North Vietnam, continued with a long documentary on the use of acupuncture as a medical treatment, then switched to a gymnastics exhibition staged by a visiting Albanian athletic team—at which Premier Chou En-lai was seen.

Even with Chou's appearance, none of the three items appeared significant enough to have warranted Canton telecasting on a Wednesday night—one of the three nights each week it normally does not operate

POW Action Promised

WASHINGTON (AP) — Just hours after a few relatives of American prisoners of war picketed the White House, President Nixon paid a surprise visit to their convention and said he expects to bring the men home.

The President's appearance at a Tuesday night banquet of the National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia broke the administration's relative quiet on the subject with promises from Nixon and his secretary of defense for revived activity.

Nixon described the POW-MIA problem "as being one that has presidential priority" and said his goal is "obtaining the release of all our prisoners of war and missing in action, wherever they may be in Southeast Asia."

Beginning at noon Tuesday some dissident members of the league had picketed the White House with placards asking Nixon to set a date for withdrawal from Vietnam to win release of POWs.

The convention, in an afternoon business session, adopted several resolutions including some expressing distress with what delegates viewed as a lack of progress, and asking a speedy end to the war.

Upsets Jolt Contestants

A wave of upsets sent scores into orbit again in The Snyder Daily Football Contest last week, but for the first time this season there was a single winner.

E. E. Palo, P. O. Box 951, Snyder, had the top entry. He missed seven selections. Since he led the field, he will receive the first prize for the week of $12.50.

There was a multiple tie for second place, which means that the second prize money will be carried over. Those finishing in a tie for second, with eight misses each, were Johnny Hardin, 3111 Avenue X; W. S. Bigham, Route 2, Snyder; Joe Carrisalez, 605 Nineteenth Street, and Van C. Mills, 3201 Fortieth Street.

Another contest begins today. The list of games may be found in sponsors' advertisements on the football contest page of this issue of The Snyder Daily News.

This cow moos only for men

By Abigail Van Buren

(c 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: We have a cow on our farm named Helen Mae and she hates women. Helen Mae is a beautiful Guernsey with soft brown eyes and a gentle manner, but she won't let a woman within 20 feet of her. She is very friendly to all men whether she's seen them before or not, but any woman who has tried to milk her has had to run for her life. You can't fool Helen Mae either. She can tell women from men regardless of how they're dressed.

Is there any explanation for this? And if you can find out if there is some way to get Helen Mae to let a woman milk her, I'd appreciate it, as my husband can't always get to her at milking time.

FARMER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: None of my farm experts have studied psy-cow-ology, but they tell me that cows have their hangups just like humans. However, I'll milk my readers and try to come up with an udder opinion.

DEAR ABBY: I really got a big chuckle the other day when I read your answer to the lady whose 12-year-old son still wets the bed. You said, "No man ever went on a honeymoon in a diaper."

Well, you're wrong. I did. Due to an accident, I became a paraplegic from the waist down, and I always wear "diaper-type" shorts, well-padded in front. I wore them on my honeymoon last year, at age 41. And I still wear them. Sign me...

ALL WET IN FREEPORT, PA.

DEAR WET: Thank you for teaching me a lesson I should have learned years ago. "ABSOLUTES" are risky. Now it's my turn to be all wet.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is married to a fine young man who is the only child of a rich mother. She floods them with gifts and trips, etc., which I could never afford to give them.

Two of my friends have the same problem and we wonder if these women know they are being unkind to the other mothers. Or do they care?

"NO SCRAPS FROM THE TABLE"

DEAR NO SCRAPS: Would you prefer that your daughter and her husband receive none of the things you are not able to give them from the "other mother"? That is what you are suggesting.

DEAR ABBY: How can I tell my mother [age 47] that if she doesn't quit her job and start spending more time with my father [age 52] she is going to lose him?

I am married now and my parents are alone again. Mother has now started selling real estate like the very bread on their table depended upon it, which it does not, as Dad has always made a very good living.

I didn't realize the seriousness of the situation until Dad came along with my husband and me one evening. We ran into a girl friend of mine, now newly divorced, and I saw Dad actually encourage this divorcee's attentions.

He is not a dirty old man, Abby. He is just very lonely and looking for something to do with his spare time, which is a dangerous combination. How can I tell my mother she had better start being a wife again before it's too late?

CONCERNED DAUGHTER

DEAR CONCERNED: Tell her, just the way you told me.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Pair Held In Thefts

Fast action by City Police and Highway Patrolmen resulted in the arrest here yesterday of two men who are wanted in Deming, N. M. for car theft.

City Detective Paul Alexander said automobile theft charges have been filed in Deming against George Allisen Poore, 19, of McCook, Neb., and Edward Michael Cunningham, 20, of Trenton, N. J.

Graves said the suspects were arrested about 20 miles north of town on U.S. 84 by Highway Patrolmen Wendell Rehm and Bob Clark minutes after they were involved in a hit-and-run collision at Twenty-fourth Street and College Avenue at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Alexander said Mrs. Anna Conklin Paetzold, operator of Trailertopia, called and complained that an unidentified motorist had fled the scene after his car struck her 1968 Model Oldsmobile at Twenty-fourth Street and College Avenue.

Officer Homer Dill investigated the collision and put out an alert for officers to look for a green, 1969 Model Camaro that was involved in the collision. There was minor damage to Mrs. Paetzold's car. Rehm and Clark spotted the car on the Lubbock Highway and subsequently arrested Poore and Cunningham.

Alexander said the two gave statements admitting car thefts in Deming, N.M. and in Scottsdale, Ariz. They also are wanted for thefts in Los Angeles, Calif.; Hollywood, Calif.; Scottsdale, Ariz.; Phoenix, Ariz., and Tucson, Ariz. Alexander said the two also are suspected of committing other crimes in Denver, Colo. He said the FBI will enter the case.

Bond had not been set in Deming. Cunningham was charged in Corporation Court with running a traffic light, leaving the scene of an accident and driving without a license.

Man Charged In Gasoline Theft

The theft of gasoline from the animal warden's pickup at Cogdell Memorial Hospital early yesterday morning has been cleared with the arrest of a 23-year-old Snyder man, according to City Police.

Detective Paul Alexander said the man was arrested this morning on a warrant issued by Corporation Court Judge Gene Dulaney. The warrant charges a misdemeanor offense of theft under $5.

Alexander said a warrant also will be issued for the arrest of another suspect in the theft. The first suspect was arrested by officer Homer Dill.

"Service is the name of the game in Kiwanis," said Kiwanis Division Lt. Gov. Ellis Mills of Midland. He was the installing officer at the annual installation and Ladies Night Banquet of the Snyder Kiwanis Club last night in the Scurry County Coliseum.

Ellis challenged members of the local club to "make this your best year."

"There are men who know the job can be done," Ellis said. He told those present that the Texas-Oklahoma District was recognized at the International Convention in San Francisco as the No. 1 Kiwanis District last year.

Rev. Riley, after he was installed, said that "What we are today is a result of what our former leaders and members have done in the past." He pledged his best efforts during the coming year.

Don Adams inducted three new members — Leslie Albin, Henry Hartman and Dr. James Tully.

H. W. Cargile, on behalf of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Bergman, presented a scholarship to Gene Robertson, who accepted on behalf of Western Texas College.

Johonas Eicke provided musical entertainment. Windy Monroney played dinner music.

Cargile introduced guests, and the speaker was introduced by Arel Faver. Bob Clifton was the master of ceremonies. Windy Monroney played the national anthem and Roy Meador led in the singing of "America." Ken Brumbelow led in the pledge of allegiance. Invocation was given by I. E. Martin, and J. C. Massingill gave the benediction.

Judge Rules In Favor Of Students

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — A federal judge has ruled in favor of two students who challenged the Texas voting law that requires voters in the 18-21 age group to vote in the county where their parents reside.

U.S. District Court Judge William Wayne Justice ordered that "the election code, as enacted by the 62nd legislature regular session in 1971, be, and hereby is, declared null and void and in violation of the 14th and 26th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution."

Wesley Ownby and Steve Muncy, both 19 and residents of Denton County, brought the suit against Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. and Denton County Tax Assessor-Collector George R. Lasater.

The class action suit asked that a part of the new three-year voter registration bill, sponsored by Sen. Mike McKool of Dallas, be declared unconstitutional. The ruling will apply to everyone in that age group.

Justice also ordered that Muncy and Ownby be entitled to register as voters in Denton County under the same terms and conditions generally applicable for persons under 21 years of age and older.

Ownby has lived in Denton since 1960 and is now employed there as a hamburger cook.

Nixon Meets Gromyko Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon meets with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko on disarmament and other issues today in an atmosphere warmed by several new U.S.-Soviet agreements.

The two superpower nations joined Tuesday in proposing a biological-weapons-ban treaty to the Geneva disarmament committee. Their two foreign ministers will sign accords here Thursday on modernizing the Washington-Moscow hotline and on avoiding accidental nuclear war.

But optimism from these developments and the historic Big Four Berlin Agreement signed Sept. 4 is tempered by significant differences remaining between the United States and the Soviet Union on a host of important subjects.

On European security — a topic slated for Nixon-Gromyko attention — the Kremlin has been less forthcoming than U.S. officials had hoped.

Gromyko's call at the White House, while he is in this country attending the U.N. General Assembly fall session, has become an annual affair. Today's session is the President's first talk with a high Soviet envoy in a year.

Gromyko delivered a relatively moderate policy speech at the United Nations Tuesday, declaring that an improved political climate is favorable for Moscow's proposed world disarmament conference. The Soviet foreign minister portrayed the time as ripe for a conference on European security and other tension-easing steps.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers sounded out Gromyko at the U.N. during a dinner meeting last Friday and got little new information on what the Kremlin really has in mind for a European security conference and East-West talks on mutual troop cuts in Europe.

The Berlin access agreement, which has a bearing on progress on the European security question, is currently at an impasse over East-West German disagreement on terms for carrying out the accord.

County Court Pleas Heard

Larry Nachlinger and Mike Coonrod of Hermleigh pleaded guilty in county court yesterday to a charge of theft under $50.

The offense by Nachlinger and Coonrod occurred Aug. 7. The offense by Bradley occurred Sept. 24.

Delta Kappa Gamma Has First Fall Meeting

The Zeta Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma had their first meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. Willie Bigham on Ennis Creek Road Sept. 27. Serving as hostesses with Mrs. Bigham were Lida Rhoades, Lillian Jones and Alta Nation.

The meeting opened with a meditation given by Mrs. Silas Devenport entitled "Peace." In the meditation Mrs. Devenport stated that "Pease is not the absence of conflict but the ability to cope with conflict. When we learn this, then peace will happen to all."

Miss Virginia Grove presented the program theme for the year "Changing Times: Challenge or Dilemma." Assisting Miss Grove with the program were Mmes. Wacil McNair, Robert Clinton, Harold Kelley and William Vestal.

Mrs. Kelley stated that the first program will be devoted to the topic "The Changing Role of Women," in the home, in the social area, in the area of economics, in political and civic areas and in the area of volunteer services.

Mrs. McNair asked the question in "Continuing Responsibilities" - "Have Women Met and Adjusted to Change?" The challenge or dilemma down thru the ages woman has restricted her role to wife and mother but today's world has daily change and challenge. How to combine effectively her role of wife and mother with her role as intelligent achiever is her own right."

Mrs. Clinton stated in "Meaningful Contribution" that "Anatomy is destiny," Sigmund Freud once said as he consigned women to the nursery. If Freud were living today he would have to retract that statement as women have not remained pacifists about the sterotyped role that society has placed them in. Women's liberation won't produce a million female Jeffersons or Einsteins but just one such woman might change the world.

Women that have made meaningful contributions to our society despite woman's position are: Dorothea Dix, who brought about establishments of state hospitals for the mentally ill in the early 19th century and the improvement of jails. The woman biologist, Rachail Carson, who, in her book "The Silent Spring" fought against insecticides, herbicides, fungicides and its abuse against both human, plant and animal life.

Mrs. Vestal as music chairman led the group in singing "America the Beautiful."

A business meeting followed the program conducted by Mrs. M. L. Gallaway, president.

The chapter welcomed two new members transferring from other chapters. Mrs. Helen Mack coming from Sweetwater and Mrs. Karen Honeycutt from Austin.

Mrs. Earl Donaldson was hostess to the Altrurian Club Sept. 24 at the Peveler home on Jackson Drive.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the club collect. Mrs. R. H. Odom presided at the business session. The club chose as its community improvement project the landscaping of the front grounds of the Boys Club.

Letters were signed by all members to congressmen asking their support of the Big Thicket National Park in East Texas.

The roll call responses were on the subjects of legislation and status of women which were discussed in talks by Mmes. Alvie Dolen and A. C. Preiutt.

Mrs. Dolen brought information on the pending legislation concerning equal legal rights for Texas women. The material was supplied by the state chairman of legislation of federated women's clubs and gave arguments both pro and con on the bill which was passed in the last session of the legislature and will be voted on in the general election of November 1972.

Mrs. Preuitt spoke of the privileges of every citizen in the selection of representatives to the national and state legislation bodies and to the continuing responsibility of keeping informed on the issues of public interest as they arise.

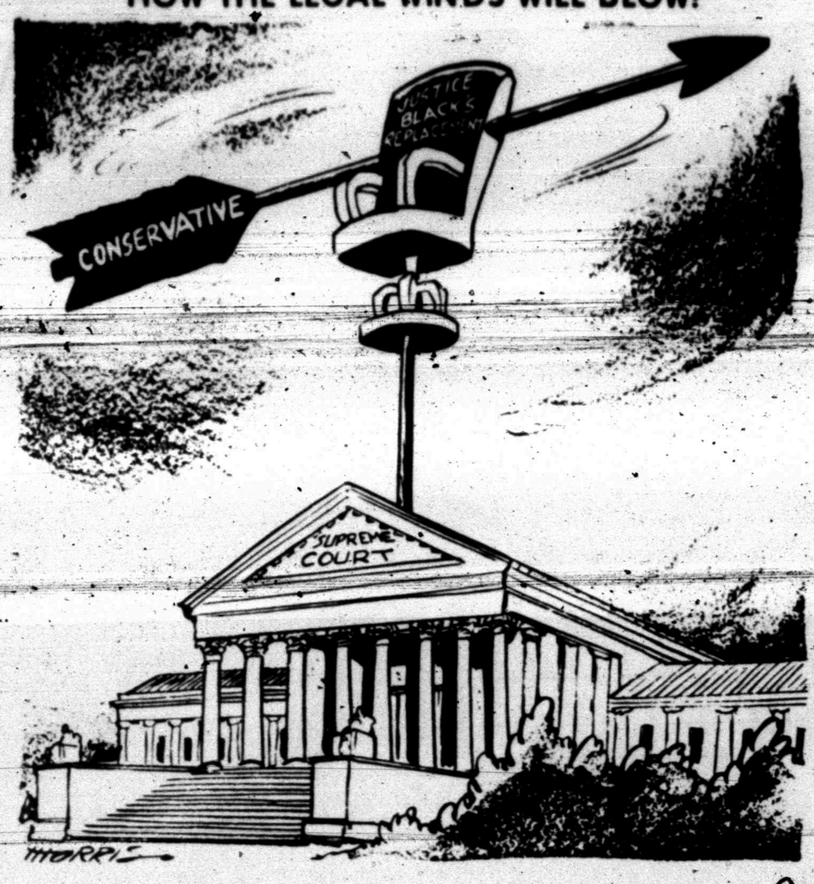
HOW THE LEGAL WINDS WILL BLOW!



Comfort Vs. Security Is Continuous Battle

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The trouble with you, the financial manager of your household, is that you want a better standard of living and security at the same time.

Quite often they engage you in a tug-o-war. You know that you have the down payment for a big car. But should you really so indulge yourself?

Think back a few years ago when things were lean. You told yourself that as soon as you got a bundle of cash together you were going to splurge. And now you have the bundle.

So what do you do? You deny yourself. Your affluence is not easy to accept. You feel insecure. You decide against the big car and instead you trade down to a compact. And you might even increase your insurance.

But the battle between comfort and security isn't over that easily. You install an air-conditioner.

This is a generalization of what has been occurring in thousands of households. It isn't fiction. Both compacts and automobile air-conditioning are among the hottest consumer items in years.

To George Katona, the dean of behavioral economists, this battle is one of the outstanding characteristics of modern life.

The pervasiveness of this feeling permits Katona, one of the founders of the famous Survey Research Center at the University of Michigan, to forecast a continuation of a high savings rate well into the 1970s.

Currently the rate is about 8.4 per cent of take home pay, the highest in 25 years and a figure that most economists believe cannot be maintained for long. A variety of factors, they say, will bring it down to "normal," or somewhere between 4.5 per cent and 6.5 per cent.

But, says Katona, "The surge in the savings rate is not just because of the recession. It will remain because of general insecurity. It will not stay at 8.4 per cent but it will be higher in the 1970s than 10 years before.

"In relation to our grandfathers and to foreigners we are rich," Katona explains. "But we are not rich in our own view. Even those making $20,000 to $25,000 don't feel rich. They budget carefully. They must always compromise."

And compromise, you will remember, is what you used to do when you were poor and swore that you wouldn't do when you became richer. But insecurity, it seems, is the shadow of riches.

That shadow is not associated solely with financial matters either, Katona reminds, but includes distress about the whole range of social problems—poverty, pollution, war, racism and so on. Feelings about the dollar and about one's fellow man cannot be divorced in studying consumer attitudes, he argues. The study is of a whole rather than fragments.

And while confessing that there is a misconception also about his own area of expertise—it is not a science, he says, but an art with scientific ingredients—he hazards this forecast for the immediate future:

Less inflation; a slow reduction of unemployment "but no disappearance of it;" and insecurity.

Bird Deaths Are Probed

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. (AP) — Birds continued to fall dead from the sky Monday as wildlife experts tried to figure out what killed hundreds of small birds late last week.

Reports from as far away as 50 miles up the Skeena River from this northern Pacific Coast city indicated that several larger birds—including eagles, owls and ravens—also had been killed. In Prince Rupert, most of the dead birds were warblers and thrushes.

Officials said it could be a week before the results of tests by federal and provincial labs on bodies are available.

Heard Named To Ford Board

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Dr. Alexander Heard, chancellor of Vanderbilt University, has been named chairman of the board of the Ford Foundation.

Heard, who will take over the post Jan. 1, says it will not curtail his activities at the Nashville university but he will "ask to be relieved of some other duties in other organizations."

Junior Editors Quiz on FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

QUESTION: What is the difference between a fruit and a vegetable?

ANSWER: According to the botanists, the name fruit is given to any fleshy part of a plant that has developed from a flower and has seeds. The plants which bear fruit may live from a few to many years. Some fruits, like strawberries, bananas and pineapples, grow on plants that live only three to five years. Other fruits, like apples, pears and oranges, grow on trees that may live from 50 to 100 years. Many of our common vegetables such as tomatoes, cucumbers and squash, are classified by the botanists as fruits. These are the fruits of annual plants, since the plant only lives one season. Most people do not think of them as fruit because they are not eaten for dessert.

Vegetables are herbaceous plants, ones that have a soft stem and little or no woody tissue. We may eat the root of the plant, such as carrots, beets and parsnips, or the stem may be consumed, as with asparagus. Sometimes the leaves are considered the edible part of the plant, as in lettuce or spinach; the seeds are the edible part of the pea and bean plant.

In the 19th century, farmers improved crops by using better methods. Fruits and vegetables became larger in size. They serve a great need because they are important sources of vitamins and minerals and are necessary to good health.

Riot Easily Started In Belfast

By DONALD FORBES
Associated Press Writer

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — In a tinder box of sectarian hatred like Belfast, a riot erupts from a trivial spark.

A schoolboy's stone glancing off a police prowl car or a badly aimed gelignite bomb bursting harmlessly near a British army patrol swiftly ignites street-fighting passions.

Northern Ireland's Protestant-based government on Aug. 9 ordered the internment without trial of terrorist suspects. Spokesmen for the Roman Catholic minority contend this is aimed exclusively at them. In any event, riots have been a daily affair according to the police and army.

An outbreak can be a brief skirmish or an ugly clash stretching over several hours and causing thousands of dollars in damage.

On any day in Belfast, trouble is not hard to find.

Take the Catholic New Lodge area at 3:10 one afternoon.

A British army patrol, each trooper hefting a high-velocity rifle that can kill at 600 yards, tramps past a block of new apartments. A sudden burst of shots and a nail bomb are aimed at the soldiers.

Within minutes, surrounding streets are full of kids, and a few adults, pelting the soldiers as they try to locate sniper nests.

A volley of rubber bullets—big enough to inflict a nasty bruise but not lethal—disperses the children.

Order is restored within minutes and while the more daring youngsters pick through the debris and broken glass from shattered windows, for rubber bullets—prized souvenirs—an army snatch squad collars two Catholic youths they suspect have thrown the nail bomb.

They submit to a search with a "snifter," an army device which can detect traces of gelignite on a man's hands or in the lining of his pockets.

Both are "clean." The patrol commander orders their release. The youths walk off, thanking the army for its courtesy. The lieutenant thanks them for their cooperation.

It's all over in 15 minutes.

In Protestant Ardilea, which borders the bottom of the Roman Catholic Ardoyne, troops and men of the Royal Ulster Constabulary are trying to contain a more inflammatory situation.

Children leaving a Protestant primary school have been stoned by Catholic youngsters and are retaliating. Adults join in.

While the stones fly, terrorists lob three gelignite bombs into the school, blowing out front windows and shattering classrooms. A textile factory is set alight and it takes armored cars and squads of constabulary to separate the combatants.

Later, under the noses of the security forces, a gas station is bombed.

Behind a cordon of troops is a mob of angry Protestants, shaking fists at the Catholic border and threatening reprisals. After dark, hours later, a couple of hundred troops are still on the spot to make sure the Protestants stay in their own encampment.

Protestants, fearing Catholic raids, are standing talking quietly in small clusters at the doors of their homes.

They give vent to the frustration by a lightning sortie down a Catholic side street almost surrounded by Protestant homes.

A soldier comments that a single stone thrown by a 10-year-old boy might disrupt the whole area again.

Tulsa's Starks Named Best Back Of Week

By DAYTON BLAIR H
Associated Press Sports Writer

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Todd Starks wasn't recruited by the University of Tulsa until the last possible moment; didn't get tapped for starting quarterback until just before the season started and admits his first game was "terrible."

But his second game was something else. Three touchdown passes in the final quarter were enough for underdog Tulsa to topple seventh-ranked Arkansas and win National Back of the Week honors for the native Californian.

As the architect of the 21-20 upset of Arkansas, Starks has suddenly lifted the hopes and prospects of Tulsa which is coming back from a couple of years of ill-fortune. Fans who a week ago thought he should get bumped off the starting assignment, are now in his corner.

Because of a staff shake-up, Tulsa had been late last winter in recruiting. Doug Gerhard was hired as a coach and went to California looking for junior college players who would be available this year.

Starks had quarterbacked Foothill Junior College at Los Altos, Calif., two seasons but the team's records were 1-8 and 3-6, not enough to get a lot of scouts excited. Starks had received feelers from several schools but most did not follow up and he was ready to come to Tulsa when Gerhardt talked to him.

He barely got here in time for the second semester in January and after the end of spring practice didn't stand out above a couple other prospective quarterbacks.

Coach Claude "Hoot" Gibson relates that the decision to go with him wasn't made "until 4 a.m. in Oklahoma City at a coaches' convention when we decided we had to make a choice."

In Tulsa's opening game, played in the rain and mud, Starks got only 80 yards passing and the team had a net of only 33 yards rushing as it lost to Kansas State.

"It was terrible," the 6-1, 175 Starks said.

But against Arkansas, Starks clicked, particularly in the final quarter. He hit 24 of 43 passes for 257 yards and the three touchdowns all together.

"When we got the wind (in the final period) I knew we could go," Starks said. "We were clicking."

Ashe Defeats Vladimir Zednik

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Arthur Ashe came from behind Tuesday to defeat Czechoslovakia's Vladimir Zednik, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4 in an early first-round match at the Redwood Bank International Open Tennis Championships.

Ashe, the No. 6 seed from Gum Springs, Va., showed the effects of a two-week layoff and admitted he wasn't sharp.

Two matches a day are being played at San Francisco's Golden Gateway Courts while the rest of the action in the $50,000 tournament takes place here. The Ashe match was in San Francisco.

Other first-round matches, played early Tuesday, saw Czechoslovakia's fifth-seed Jan Kodes topping Oakland's Steve Cornell, 6-1, 6-1; Yugoslavia's Nicki Pilic beating Mike Estep of Dallas, 6-3, 6-2 and Chili's Jaime Fillol downing San Francisco's Rich Anderson, 6-2, 6-0.

LA Wins, But Still Trails Giants By One

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The little guy at shortstop deserves a lot of credit," declared Manager Walter Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers while the little guy himself admitted the torrid baseball race in the West makes him nervous.

"I was nervous at 3 0'clock, all during the game and right now," commented Maury Wills, at 39 a veteran of four World Series. He had just driven in the winning run for a 2-1 victory over Houston which kept the Dodgers one game behind San Francisco with two to play in the National League.

"Being nervous doesn't keep me from functioning, but it makes it a little tougher," Wills explained.

After stroking his single off Don Wilson in the eighth, Maury grabbed a Roger Metzger liner and went deep for a Joe Morgan blooper for the first two outs in the ninth. Bill Singer then struck out Cesar Cedeno to complete his three-hitter. Wilson also gave up only three hits-one a leadoff homer by Duke Sims in the sixth after the Houston hurler had worked five perfect innings.

Sitting at his cubicle in the Dodger clubhouse, Wills said, "The nervousness comes from anticipation of whether I can carry the load the players expect me to."

He had gone hitless on three trips to the plate before facing Wilson in the eighth. Sims opened the inning by drawing a walk. Bill Grabarkewitz went in as a runner and was thrown out at second when Bobby Valentine failed on a hit and run play.

Valentine then walked, Singer sacrificed him with the bunt and Wills drove the runner home with a drive past the shortstop.

By that time the Dodgers knew the Giants were well ahead of San Diego as they went on to win 7-1 to maintain their lead in the West.

"Sure, I take a look at the scoreboard," said Wills. "I don't turn around and stare at it, but I do look between plays and between pitches."

Having beaten Wilson, ace of the Houston staff, Los Angeles must now face Ray Forsch (7-8) and Don Blasingame (10-15) in the final pair. Al Downing (20-8) gets the call for Los Angeles tonight with Don Sutton (16-12) going on Thursday night.

Originally, the Astros had announced rookie James Richard would open the series, but Manager Harry Walker changed his mind, saying he felt it would be unfair to the 6-foot 8 youngster to go in such a pressure situation.

Singer, now 10-17, pitched three perfect innings. Then a walk and singles by Cedeno and Bob Watson brought in a run. Cedeno also tried to score on the second single, having reached second on a passed ball. But centerfielder Willie Davis threw him out at home.

Wilson had the Dodgers well in check before Sims faced him in the sixth and belted his fourth homer in 11 times at bat, a streak coming at an opportune time.

"I've always been a streak hitter," Sims admitted. "Earlier in the season I think I was trying too hard. Things have to work themselves out. "Fortunately, they worked themselves out."

Southern California Favored Over Okies

NEW YORK (AP) - "We're still waiting to play the best teams on our schedule—Colorado and Oklahoma."

The author of that statement is top-ranked Nebraska's Bob Devaney. This week he does not play Colorado or Oklahoma, but rather Utah State, which, like Nebraska, has a 3-0 record, but is unranked.

Coach Chuck Mills of the Aggies does not intend to plaster Devaney's remark all over the Utah State locker room.

"Far be it from me to refute Bob Devaney," says Mills. "What if it's true? We're just gonna go into Lincoln, Neb., and trade our blue jerseys for red ones, like Nebraska wears and hope the fans get all mixed up.

"We're not gonna resort to psychology or do anything different. I think it just creates more problems for the kids if you do crazy things. Besides, we're in the great position of not being supposed to win.

"No, wait a minute; I'll trade positions with Bob Devaney. I'd like to be the one they're all shooting at. This is survival week for us. We'll have to check the kids' adrenalin and the dilation of their pupils. If they're not dilated we're in real trouble."

One undilated vote for ... NEBRASKA.

Oregon at Texas—Was Donnie Wigginton's classy performance in place of the injured Eddie Phillips last week really that much of a surprise? After all, Wigginton overshadowed Phillips in the Longhorn' spring game, directing four long scoring drives. Oregon's quarterback, Dan Fouts, is hurting. TEXAS.

Michigan State at Notre Dame—Notre Dame this week and Michigan next. Now you know why they call Michigan State the Spartans. NOTRE DAME.

Kansas State at Colorado—Buffaloes have beaten Louisiana State and Ohio State on the road. Besides, they lost to Kansas State by a point last year. Not only are the Buffs ranked sixth in the nation but they're out for revenge, too. COLORADO.

Mississippi at Alabama—Crimson Tide was humiliated by Archie Manning last year but this time it's in Birmingham at night. Archie Who? ALABAMA, that's who.

Southern California at Oklahoma—Trojans have blanked two opponents since losing to Alabama and have a way of getting up for the big ones. Oklahoma starts a string of three scorcers—USC, Texas, Colorado. Just a hunch ... SOUTHERN CAL.

Duke at Stanford—Teams have never met before and it's unfortunate for Duke they have to start now. STANFORD.

California at Ohio State—If these two teams were to win their respective conferences, there'd be two runners-up in the Rose Bowl. Cal is on NCAA probation and the Big Ten's no-repeat rule has one more year to run. OHIO STATE.

Texas Christian at Arkansas—"The pigs were mad; oohh, were they mad," said a Tulsa fan after last week's shocking upset of Arkansas. They're still mad and Texas Christian suffers. ARKANSAS.

Pitt at West Virginia—The Mountaineers blew a 35-8 halftime lead a year ago and lost 36-35. This feud usually is a Hatfield-McCoy affair. Beware of Mountaineers with a score to settle. WEST VIRGINIA.

Washington at Illinois-Washington has scored 147 points in winning three games. Illinois has scored 0 points in losing three. Upset special of the week finds Washington looking ahead to Stanford. ILLINOIS.

Bear Linebacker Receives Honor

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bill Beall will tell you Roger Goree gives the same effort today he gave the Baylor coach 12 years ago on the Romano Hot Sausage little league baseball team in Baton Rouge, La.

"Roger always plays a fine game," Beall said after Goree destroyed Indiana from his linebacking post in a 10-0 Bear victory last Saturday.

Goree's 13 tackles, an intercepted pass and a blocked punt earned him The Associated Press defensive Player of the Week award.

Beall was a Louisiana State assistant while Goree was a youngster and the 6-foot, 203-pounder followed Beall to Baylor because "I've known him all my life. He's one of the greatest men I've ever known."

Goree first came under Beall's wing as an eight-year-old.

From baseball Goree progressed to the SWC's sophomore defensive player of the year at end in 1970.

Beall decided—much to linebacker coach Pat Culpepper's delight—that Goree could be a terror at the crucial linebacking job.

Goree is catching onto the ways of Culpepper, a former star at Texas, just dandy.

"Culpepper wants you to get fanatically psyched," Goree said. "He said when those offensive blockers come at you just squeeze their heads to the ball."

The 20-year-old Goree, who wants to be a coach, said he gets psyched up with a lot of "peace and quiet" before the game.

"I just concentrate on whipping the man in front of me," Goree said. "I pass up most of the pre-game meal. Oh, I might have two bites of roast beef and a little honey and bread. That linebacking can be a pretty good position once you get the hang of it."

Goree said he has learned that a linebacker has to be two different types of people.

"Around the campus you must be yourself," he said. "But when you put on the pads, well ...."

Indiana would understand Roger.

Hermleigh Hosts Fluvanna Friday

There are no football games scheduled in Snyder this week, but two Scurry County Six-Man teams open the District 3-B race at Hermleigh Friday night. Hermleigh's Cardinals will host Fluvanna's Buffaloes at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Coach Campbell said the same boys will play defense.

Four local teams have out-of-town tilts set this week. Travis 8th grade will be at Andrews for a 6 p.m. clash Thursday, followed by a 7:30 p.m. skirmish between Travis 9th grade and Andrews, while Lamar 8th grade will be at Colorado City for a 7:30 p.m. tussle Thursday. IN MEXICO CITY

Texas Trade Center To Open

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A Texas delegation headed by Gov. Preston Smith will open the state's first international trade center here Friday.

Industrial and business leaders and other state officials from Texas will be here with the governor.

The center, which will operate as a branch office of the Texas Industrial Commission at Austin, will be in one of this city's major convention hotels, the Maria Isabel-Sheraton, on the Pasea de la Reforma, Mexico City's main thoroughfare.

The purpose of the office, said retired Col. James H. Harvey, director of international trade of the State Industrial Commission, here to arrange for the center's opening, is to increase Texas' trade with Mexico in both directions.

"Of course we want to sell more manufactured goods from Texas to Mexican buyers," Havey said. "But this is a two-way proposition. Many Texas industrialists and manufacturers now are importing items from Europe and the Far East which can be purchased in Mexico with a saving in both shipping costs and time of delivery."

He cited the example of a Monterrey manufacturer who expanded his plant recently on the strength of a long-term contract, plus financial assistance on improvements, with a Texas industrial firm.

Smith, who visited Mexico City briefly a few weeks ago, planned to remain here through Sunday to confer with Mexican officials of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce and the Mexican foreign trade institute and to see some of the city's major tourist attractions.

Havey said the Texas Trade Center, located next to the U.S. embassy, would work closely with the embassy's commercial section in developing increased trade.

"It is not widely recognized that Texas is no longer primarily an agriculture state," he said. "In fact, it is now an industrial empire within a republic," with five per cent of the state's gross product last year being sent abroad through 13 major seaports and four international airports.

"Today we are sending Texas-made products to 138 foreign countries. We rank seventh in exports among the 50 states with approximately $1.5 billion worth of Texas goods flowing out to the far corners of the earth.

Havey estimated the Latin American market alone accounts for $10 billion a year in export sales, of which Mexico purchases about $2 billion worth. "And Mexico, so to speak, is 'just across the street' from Texas."

Included in the 40 to 50-member Texas delegation listed as to join Gov. and Mrs. Smith here Friday were Judge Martin Dies, Jr., of Beaumont; Chester Wine of Corpus Christi, chairman of the Texas Industrial Commission; four members of the commission, Homer Bryce of Henderson, Gerald Brown of Austin, E. L. Cooke of Fort Worth and Warren Woodward of Dallas; Texas Industrial Commission director James Harwell of Austin; State Rep. Raul Longoria of Pharr; Ramiro Ramirez of McAllen, head of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission; and its executive director, Glenn Garrett of Austin.

Smith, Havey said, plans to return to Austin Sunday after attending Mexico's Ballet Folklorico here.

Pair Charged In Robbery

ABILENE Tex. (AP) — Two Iranians were to be brought here today from Van Horn where they are held on felony theft charges stemming from Tuesday's robbery of the First National Bank of Abilene.

The pair was apprehended Tuesday afternoon near Van Horn along with another man, three women, and four children.

Abilene police said they anticipated no charges against others in the group.

Charged in the court of County Court-at-law Judge Don Lane at Abilene were Amdul Motaleb Fayoj, 43, and Norhosiam Zardouz, 22, both of Tehran.

FRANK HILDEBRAND

Hildebrand Is Named Top Travel Director

AUSTIN (AP) — The executive director of the Texas Tourist Development Agency (TTDA) Frank Hildebrand, has been named state travel director of the year. The results of a poll of the nation's travel directors were announced today in Atlanta, Ga.

Hildebrand has headed TTDA since its creation by the legislature in 1963. Initially appointed by Gov. John Connally, Hildebrand has also served under Gov. Preston Smith and the nine-member Texas Tourist Development Board which assumed supervisory control when the agency was reorganized in 1969.

Prior to his current job, Hildebrand was chief of travel promotion in the Texas Highway Department, the only state agency then involved in travel promotion. He joined the state agency after a 10 year career with newspapers. From 1959 until 1962 he was travel editor for the Houston Post. His other newspaper experience included positions with the Dallas Morning News, the Baytown Sun, and the Jennings (La.) Daily News, where he was editor and associate publisher.

Crime Pays For Lawmen

Career Corner

by Joyce Lain Kennedy

what job would you like to see explored in this column?

Dear Joyce: I'm an ex-serviceman and I may be interested in getting into the security field as a guard or similar job. I've heard the pay isn't too good but how about the future and promotions? — C.K., Phoenix

Offenses covered in the FBI's reports shot up by 176 percent in the past decade — crimes involving property increased 180 percent. Crime pays for some — meaning the lawful workers who combat it by protecting factories, office buildings, trade shows, stores, banks, hotels, college campuses, sports arenas, airports, hospitals and other places, including private homes.

EARNINGS of private crime-fighting companies are estimated to have quadrupled during the past decade, and some financial analysts expect them to keep rising by 10-15 percent a year in the near future. One national industrial security system expects this, a recession year, to be the biggest in revenues in its long history.

PAY FOR GUARDS AND WATCHMEN will depend on geographic location, employer and job level (in some work settings, there's a military-like ranking of men from patrolman to lieutenant, captain and up). In general, starting pay is low, often from minimum wage to $2.50/hour; large guard companies and civil service jobs may pay more — $2.25-3.00/hour to start. Experience is not generally required to start although preference is given to men with military or police experience.

ADVANCEMENT in one big company can be to resident supervisor, field director (he is an area supervisor), operational manager, assistant manager to branch manager. Branch managers in this company typically earn $12-30,000. There's no college requirement but those with a legal or business administration background have an edge to advance to upper echelon administrative spots.

WORKING CONDITIONS vary from pleasant (inside a modern air-conditioned plant, for instance) to poor (prowling a deserted railroad yard in the middle of the night in rain, sleet or snow). You may work a 7am-3pm, 3pm-11pm, or 11pm to 7am shift and holidays, too. But there is a chance for overtime pay and part-time work.

OF THE SERVICES frequently available from anticrime firms (uniformed guards, armored cars and couriers, central station surveillance and crime investigations) the central station surveillance operators are often union members and earn $2.50-$3.95/hour. Women hold this job along with men. The work consists of monitoring detection devices (alarms, closed-circuit TV) installed in clients' premises which are wired into central surveillance. The operator dispatches a guard and notifies police or firemen on signal of break-in or fire. The guard dispatched may be called a patrol runner, and earn $2.50-$4.20/hour.

WOMEN are increasingly entering the protective services field — often as professional crowd pleasers: attractively uniformed usherettes, ticket takers, convention crowd control specialists, and receptionists at special events. Their uniformed presence is intended to deter disorderly crowds. Burns International Security Services, Inc. pays these "special services" women (housewives and students working part time) $2.50-$3.00/hour in the Chicago area, and supervisors earn $3.50-4.25/hour.

TO ENTER THE SECURITY FIELD, read newspaper want ads; apply direct to independent protection firms (ranging from one-man contractors to large national concerns); or to large industrial establishments which hire their own employees for guards; or check at local, state and Federal civil service offices.

HOME OFFICE ADDRESSES of several major nationwide protective services firms to which you can write for employment information will be sent to readers who enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Ask for "Anticrime companies."

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only . . .opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $17.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $50.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winners. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employes of The Snyder Daily News and their families are not eligible to enter.
