Home Town Talk

By B. D. D.

After reading Talker's spiritual travail Thursday morning a friend copied some lines from Thomas Dreier and brought them around with the advice to cheer up. Here they are:

Why Worry?

Why do we all worry so? Why do we fret and say the world is not treating us right and make ourselves disagreeable to every one by unnecessary lamentation?

Things are so easy if analyzed. The hard part is to stick to the analysis. Don't you think these lines sum up, briefly yet with so much truth and understanding, just what the world and his wife needs today?

A little more kindness and a little less creed;
A little more giving and a little less greed;
A little more smile and a little less frown;
A little less kicking a man when he's down;
A little more "we" and a little less "I";
A little more laugh and a little less cry;
A little more flowers on the pathway of life;
And fewer on graves at the end of the strife.

When your burdens grow too heavy for you, you can do one of two things. You can either throw off part of your load or, under the stimulation of inspiration, find new strength which will make your burdens seem light.

—THOMAS DREIER.

One thing about lamentation, it never fails to bring an anodyne from one's friends. And if we indulge in self-pity we are the only ones who pity ourselves. Others give us the horse laugh, whatever that is. Yesterday was just one of those days when Talker ought to have been tongue-tied.

The Great West Mill and Elevator company at Amarillo is offering to mill 5,000 bushels of wheat free for the Amarillo community chest. Five thousand bushels of wheat will yield approximately 1,000 barrels of flour. Several donations of wheat for this purpose have been offered. The mill will give free storage of the wheat until the flour is needed by the community chest. It is estimated that several thousand dollars will be saved by the Amarillo community by the donation of the wheat and the free milling.

Community chests everywhere will have less money during the coming winter than last year and they may face heavier demands. The charity dollar must be stretched to its utmost, and a good deal of charity must be administered without money. The Amarillo proposal appears practical.

A preacher in Alabama—or was it Georgia—preaches a marathon sermon lasting, we don't know, how many hours. Hot weather brings forth a number of queer stunts and one of the queerest is the marathon sermon, but probably not any worse than a marathan dance.

We would say there is smaller chance of the preacher who labors through 48 hours of talk saying anything than the speaker who has a limit of 15 minutes, for instance Dr. Ralph Sockman who makes a 15-minute talk over the radio on Sunday afternoons. Dr. Sockman never fails to say something worth remembering. He has recently written a book, "The Morals of Tomorrow," which is filled with challenging thought. From the chapter

BARS GO DOWN AT BRIDGES INTO TEXAS

Crews to Tear Up Roadway Leading to Toll Structures

GUARDS ARE POSTED

Governor Asks Sterling To Follow Suit On Texas Side

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 16. (AP)—Moving abruptly to end delay in free passage across the Red river, Oklahoma, under an executive order of Gov. William Henry Murray, threw open new free bridges into Texas late today.

The Oklahoma executive took matters in his own hands, directing opening of spans at Terral, Gainesville and Denison and destruction of approaches and roadways to parallel toll bridges. Then he asked the governor of Texas to take like action.

A few minutes later Oklahoma highway crews had gone to the Texas side of the Terral free bridge and removed barricades, acting on the theory Oklahoma owns half the span lengthwise across the stream. Before evening the proceedings were duplicated at Denison and like action was planned at Gainesville. Anticipated resistance at Denison, reports said, failed to materialize.

Opening Delayed

Litigation and disagreement between highway officials of the two states had held up the opening for weeks.

Immediately after issuing his order to the highway department, Governor Murray wired Gov. Ross Sterling of Texas.

Governor Murray said he believed public opinion in Texas would force highway officials there to join this state in opening the free bridges.

He instructed A. R. Loah, chief highway engineer, to maintain a guard near the toll bridges where the roads were being destroyed and not allow anyone to pass over the toll bridge roads excepting United States mail carriers. The Terral bridge was opened by a division engineer soon after the governor issued his order. An old truck which blockaded the bridge in Texas was pushed aside by maintenance men.

Roads to be Plowed

Work of plowing up the three toll highway approaches will begin early tomorrow.

In reply to a telephone call from Denison asking what resistance might be offered at the bridge there, Governor Murray said:

"There is an old watchman there and I have instructed that he not be hurt. I directed highway officials to take him down and take his pocket knife and chewing tobacco away from him.

"We have a right to cross a state boundary under United States laws," the governor said. "When we cross a bridge and find an obstruction we have the right to tear it out of the way."

Order Quoted

Murray's order was as follows:

"By authority of law in me vested I do hereby order the state highway commission to proceed without further delay to open these bridges, the Terral bridge on highway 81 designated as Texas-Oklahoma federal aid project No. 589; the Gainesville bridge on highway 77 designated as Texas-Oklahoma project No. 588 and also the Denison bridge on highway No. 75 designated as Texas-Oklahoma project No. 539.

"All of said bridges spanning Red river, the same being essential parts of the state highway system for free use of the citizens of this state shall hereby be declared open free to the public and to all traffice and the commission is hereby authorized to do and perform all things necessary to remove all obstruction in the way of free passage across each of the bridges."

In his telegram to Governor Sterling of Texas, Governor Murray said:

"Have just issued an executive order opening the Terral, Gainesville and Denison bridges on Red river and instructed the engineer

CONFERENCE IN PARIS TO SCAN GERMAN CRISIS

Major Statesmen to Study 'French Plan' to End Emergency

MELLON TO ATTEND

Treasury Head and Stimson To Have Official Status In Negotiations

PARIS, July 16. (AP)—A conference of major statesmen, which will include Chancellor Heinrich Bruening and Foreign Minister Curtius of Germany, will be held here Saturday to discuss Germany's financial situation, it was announced tonight by Premier Laval.

Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson of the United States and Foreign Minister Arthur Henderson of Great Britain will participate in the conference which, according to Premier Laval's announcement, will discuss the question of financial guarantees for credit to be extended to Germany and also "measures of political achievement."

Discuss French Plan

Premier Laval made it clear the plan for financial aid to Germany which will be discussed is a "French plan" and it was understood this accords with the views of Secretary Stimson and Mr. Henderson who went over it during a meeting this morning.

The "French commission," as Premier Laval called the plan, is considered to be a move to develop the Paris conference into a conclave of the greatest importance. There was evident reluctance on the part of Premier Laval tonight to discuss the question of whether France will consent to go to London for another conference of statesmen Monday, to which the powers were invited by the British government last night."

"Guarantees" Hold Interest

Up to the time the communique was issued, interest in the "French plan" centered around the question of the financial guarantees, which were reported after the morning meeting to involve some kind of control over Germany's finances.

It was reported the Paris conference would confine itself to questions of principle, and the meeting then would adjourn to London next week, in answer to the British government's invitation, where details of the Hoover plan as worked out by experts would be gone over.

MELLON ASKED TO ATTEND PARLEY

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—The United States will have full fledged membership in the conference of European powers which meets Monday in London to discuss the ills of central Europe.

Both Secretary Stimson of the state department and Secretary Mellon of the treasury are expected to attend, not as "unofficial observers," but empowered with a wide discretion as to the extent of their participation.

President Hoover today announced his plans for having the two cabinet officers at the confer-

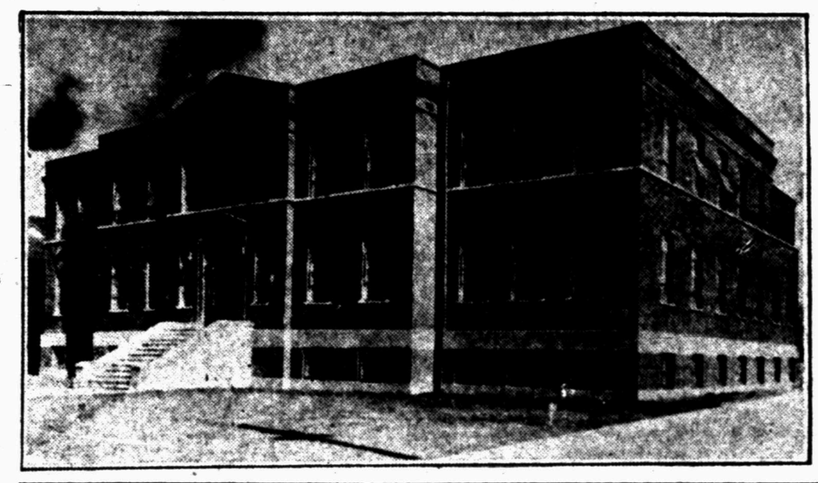
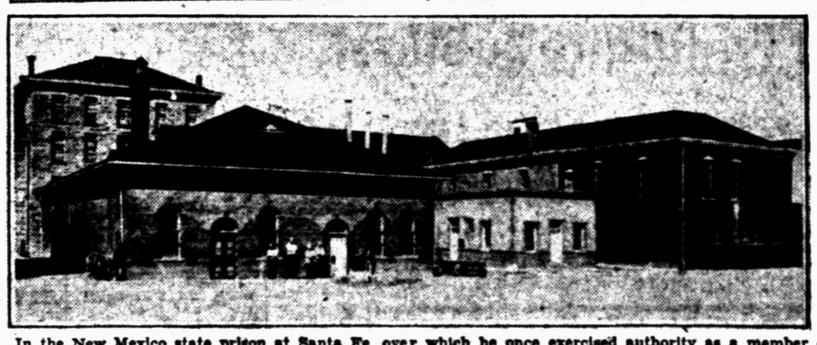
Where A. B. Fall Will Pay Debt to Society





In the New Mexico state prison at Santa Fe, over which he once exercised authority as a member of the New Mexico state prison board, Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, will pay his debt to society as the taker of a $100,000 bribe. The upper picture shows the prison hospital where Fall will live at the start—and throughout his term if his health does not improve. The lower picture shows the prison courtyard, the administration building and prison bakery in the background.

PETITION ASKS FALL'S LIBERTY

New Mexico Asks Hoover To Pardon Secretary

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—A last minute petition that Albert B. Fall be saved from a prison term imposed for accepting a bribe was received at the White House.

Asking executive clemency for the former secretary of the interior, it bore the names of Senators Bratton and Cutting of New Mexico and was submitted as well on behalf of both legislative houses of that state, once served by Fall in the senate.

President Hoover's vigorous denunciation of the men responsible for the scandals of the Harding administration has been taken as indicating Fall would not be pardoned.

Routine Followed

At the White House it was announced the petition was being forwarded to the justice department in accordance with the usual practice. James A. Finch, federal pardon attorney, indicated the petition would be subjected to the same routine given those of men less well known.

Finch will conduct his own investigation of the facts in the case, probably seeking also the opinions of the attorney who prosecuted Fall and the judge who sentenced him. Later he will submit a full report to the attorney general.

Meanwhile, Fall is awaiting commitment to the New Mexico state penitentiary at Santa Fe. Because of his ill health, a day was added to the year's sentence, thus allowing Attorney General Mitchell to select the place of imprisonment. As a result, Fall will be imprisoned in the warm dry climate of his native state rather than the jail here.

FORMER SON-IN-LAW DIES SUDDENLY

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., July 16. (INS)—Brandt Elliott, 45, former son-in-law of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, died suddenly today at his home at Woodlawn, near here.

He was divorced from the former Miss Jouett Fall three years ago and she is now with her mother in El Paso, Texas. They have one child, a daughter, who is with her mother.

Navy Pays 62 Cents Per Barrel For Oil While Producers Get Dime

Contracts Closed for Petroleum by Sea Fighting Branch Assure Big Companies Nice Prices for Year

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Awarding of contracts for navy fuel oil for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, was said at the department today to have been completed.

The contracts, all of which were awarded about the middle of May, called for approximately 7,169,150 barrels at a total cost of about $4,453,670. This is an average of about 62 cents a barrel.

Prices Vary

Prices vary widely because of differences in quantity and form of delivery. The largest single contract went to the Shell Oil company. It called for 4,620,000 barrels costing $2,260,100 or about 48.9 cents a barrel. This was for grade B fuel oil for use in West coast navy yards and stations. Other contracts were:

Union Oil company 216,000 barrels at an approximate average cost of 94.7 cents; Associated Oil company 160,000 barrels at 59 cents.

Fuel oil for Diesel engines, West coast yards and stations, Union Oil company 158,750 barrels at 90.2 cents; General Petroleum, 250 barrels at $1.428.

Bunker fuel oil, grade A, East yards and stations, Magnolia Oil company 912,500 barrels at 65 cents, Standard Oil company of New Jersey, 900 barrels at $1.62 Warner Quinlan, 25,000 barrels at $1.12, Colonial Beacon Oil company 170,000 barrels at $1.245, Gulf Refining company 241,000 barrels at $1.004.

Railroads Claim Farmers Can Meet Rate Increase

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—The Interstate Commerce commission was told today that despite low prices, agriculture can stand an increase in freight rates.

This statement was made by J. J. Pelley, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, testifying in hearings on the carriers' petition for a 15 per cent increase.

Shortly before, William Wolf Bokle, chief attorney for the roads, had said they found it impossible to fix a date on which the proposed increase might be abandoned. He suggested the commission keep the case open, if an increase is granted, for any future action that might be warranted.

TEXACO CUTS PIPELINE RATE

Carrying Charge Lowered Two and Half Cents

The Texas Pipe Line company Thursday announced that effective July 9, 1931, a re-adjustment of its tariff rates for crude oil through the lines in the Panhandle and Olney-Newcastle areas. The following charges for the transportation of crude to the refineries at Wichita Falls have been posted:

Transportation per barrel from Olney-Newcastle and other North Texas pools, formerly 20 cents, has been reduced to 17½ cents. Panhandle section which was formerly 30 cents is now 25 cents a barrel.

These charges probably have been made to assure enough crude from the Panhandle fields to meet the requirements for the local refineries in the event of a general shutting down of leases in this district which would curtail ouptut below the needs of these plants.

So far the Texas company has met all requirements asked for by the independent plants at the usual posted price.

Texas Farmer Killed By Lightning Bolt

TRUST CHARGES TO BE SIFTED IN INQUIRIES

Body Takes Charge as Committee of Whole To Study Methods

ALLRED AUTHORIZED

Attorney General to Conduct Own Parallel Investigation

AUSTIN, July 16. (AP)—Two investigations of the oil industry were authorized today by the house of representatives of the Texas legislature, convened in special session to enact laws aimed at remedying conditions in the industry and strengthening the power of the state to conserve its natural resources.

One of the investigations will be carried on by the attorney general and the other by the house of representatives acting as a committee of the whole.

Both will be made in an effort to determine if antitrust laws are being violated by certain persons and firms and if the present chaotic condition of the oil industry has been caused by trusts, monopolies or agreements made in restraint of trade.

Bill Prepared

The senate was not in session today but will resume tomorrow. It was rumored the senate might receive a proposal to conduct a similar investigation.

What was regarded as the administration bill was prepared today by Representative Robert Wagstaff of Abilene, and Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman. It would establish a conservation commission of three members to be appointed by the governor to take over administration of the conservation laws, now administered by the railroad commission. The bill would accelerate court procedure and provide for speedy hearing of suits filed against the commission and by the commission.

Authors of the bill stated emphatically it had no connection with any effort to fix the price of oil and dealt only with prevention of physical waste. Members would be appointed for two, four and six-year terms at a salary of $7,500 per year.

Measure Brings Clash

The attorney general was authorized to investigate the oil industry under a resolution introduced by Representative J. B. Ford of McGregor and to employ two special assistant attorneys general to concentrate on the investigation. The expense of the investigation will be paid from the contingent expense fund of the legislature.

The Ford resolution was adopted 76 to 43 after lengthy debate, marked by bitter clashes between Representatives Graves, supporter of the resolution, and Dewey Young of Wellington, and E. H. Lasseter of Henderson. Graves shouted the oil industry was "in a hell of a fix" with Lasseter charging the resolution with its attendant expense would "put the state in the same condition as the oil industry; bankrupt."

Young and Graves tangled when the former asked Graves if all other industry was not in the same shape as oil and if aiding the oil industry might not work to the detriment of other industries and the people generally by increasing the price of oil products.

Restraint Charged

Both resolutions were based on "opinions held by several members of the legislature," that the anti-trust laws were being violated, the oil market controlled by monopolies and trusts and that illegal agreements had been made in restraint of trade.

Representative Keller of Dallas said he was of the opinion the price of gasoline and oil was set by the major companies by common consent but he doubted if it could be proved.

Both resolutions called for "immediate" investigations.

The resolution for the house investigation, adopted 104 to 10, was offered by Representative Satterwhite and originally provided for

Wichita Wholesale Firms Aid Archer In Emergency; Business Recovering

Special to The Record News.

ARCHER CITY, Texas, July 16.—A survey of conditions in Archer City and the surrounding territory today showed that the business men and county officials are rapidly recovering from the shock brought on by the closing of two local banks early this week.

Retail business is reported about normal and activities of the various county departments has been resumed. Wichita Falls wholesale houses have offered local concerns every assistance in tiding over the emergency. Auditors for the stockholders in the Peoples Exchange bank will report to county commissioners court on July 20. The county will issue warrants next week to finance the government.

The board of trustees of the Archer City independent school district announced today that the district had approximately $18,000 on deposit in the Power Banking company when it closed. The Power bank, as depository for the school district, had given a bond of 1929 signed by the company, F. M. Power, president and H. A. Power, cashier, with Harrold K. Dycus and Graham B. Purcell signing as sureties.

F. M. Power said today he did not know when the bank will reopen. A meeting of the school board has been called for next Monday when finances will be discussed.

The only instrument pertaining to the closing of either of the banks filed for record is an agreement between Sam Cowan, Claude Cowan, James Roberson, W. T. Hutcheson, bondsmen for the county funds in the Peoples Exchange bank, with their attorneys and the attorneys for the partners in the bank. Bondsmen assign several thousand acres of land in Archer and Baylor counties to the county in the agreement.

Gas Shortage Forces Hungarian Pair Down After Ocean Flight

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 16. (AP)—Capt. Alexander Magyar and Capt. George Endres were forced to land their transatlantic monoplane Justice for Hungary at the little village of Biscke, 14 miles west of Budapest, tonight after a nonstop flight from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland.

They landed the ship in rough ground along a railroad track at 12:40 p. m. central standard time, their last drop of gasoline exhausted. They had covered approximately 3,200 miles over land and sea in a little more than 26 hours.

Almost within sight of the goal where a gigantic crowd was awaiting them, including high officials of the Hungarian government, the gasoline tanks ran dry and they landed the ship where they could.

The propeller was broken in landing, and one of the wings of the plane was damaged, but the fliers themselves were uninjured. They crawled out of the plane, grinning broadly.

Captain Magyar walked to a railroad signal box immediately after landing and phoned the news of their mishap to the Matyasfold airdrome. An airplane just had arrived at the field from Vienna when Captain Magyar's message arrived and the plane was sent immediately to Biscke to pick up the heroes of the air.

LAST TRIBUTES PAID BAILES

Legion Honors Memory Of Noted Pilot

Funeral services, both military and civilian, were held here Thursday afternoon for Chester R. Bailes, 32, Wichita Falls air pilot who was killed when his plane crashed at Chicago Sunday.

Services were held from the First Christian church, with the Rev. W. B. Bratton, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, officiating, assisted by the Rev. E. F. Huppertz, assistant pastor of the First Christian church.

Services at the grave in Rosemont were in charge of the American Legion. Members of the legion also formed a military guard of honor for the body from the home to the church and from the church to the cemetery.

Shortly after Bailes learned to fly while employed with the Continental Oil company here, he became the first manager of the Municipal airport at Kell field in 1927, when the port was operated by the late L. P. (Pink) Hammond.

His rise in the ranks of aviation was rapid thereafter. He flew passenger schedules for the Braniff Airways, the Universal Airways and the Southwest Air Fast Express during their operations through Wichita Falls. In April he moved to Kansas City, being transferred with the Braniff Airways for a passenger run between there and Chicago. In May he set a new passenger service speed record between the two points.

In June, 1930, he was awarded the Chicago Tribune heroism prize in aviation, for a perilous rescue of a party of injured oil men, marooned at a desolate spot near the Mexican border.

Surviving are the widow, formerly Miss Frances Hackbusch of Wichita Falls, whom he married in 1921; two small daughters, Patsy Sue and Marian Ruth; his mother, Mrs. R. L. Sanderford, 1519 Twelfth street; and two brothers, Fred Bailes of Dallas, and Ernest J. Bailes of Cold Springs, Texas.

Active pallbearers during the services Thursday were Jack Ayres, Ray Schrader, Bill Billings, Frank Hover, R. V. Carlton, and Wayne Lansing, all pilots and intimates of Bailes. Arrangements were in charge of the Hines mortuary.

HOUSE ORDERS OIL INQUIRIES

Dual Probe to Study Charge Of Monopoly

the investigation to be supervised by the house committee on oil, gas and mining. The amendment to resolve the house into a committee of the whole, was offered by Representative Keller. It was vigorously supported by Representative Petsch who made a bitter speech against what he termed were "insinuations against the administration.

Regime Supported

"The administration is not afraid of an investigation of the oil industry and no connection with oil interests as charged by certain members on the floor of the house. Its skirts are clear and it has nothing to fear by turning on the lights." He dared any member to find anything wrong with the administration in connection with the oil business. The defeat of the original Satterwhite resolution was attributed by Petsch to the desire to accelerate proceedings and not waste time.

Representative Satterwhite said he would make a motion as soon as the house convened tomorrow to resolve the house into a committee of the whole. He said he would move that Speaker Fred Minor retain the speaker's chair during the investigation. Satterwhite said he had no set course to follow in the investigation but had a list of witnesses whose view on the oil industry he would like to receive.

Read Granberry, house parliamentarian, said all bills on oil conservation and regulation would be referred to the committee of the whole. The resolution provided for an eight-day investigation but Granberry said he believed the committee could continue its session as long as it saw fit.

Representative Bailey Hardy of Breckenridge, chairman of the house oil, gas and mining committee, state the administration forces, through adoption of the amendment providing for the committee of the whole, had succeeded in their efforts to keep the oil bills out of his committee, expressing the belief they were a little "afraid" to have them go to that committee.

It was indicated a specific ruling would be asked on whether the committee of the whole could continue in session more than eight days and if the oil bills would become the property of the oil committee at the expiration of that period.

OIL COMMISSION BILL COMPLETED

AUSTIN, July 16. (AP)—A bill to create an appointive conservation commission to supervise oil and gas was completed today by Representative R. M. Wagstaff of Abilene, Alfred Petsch of Fredericksburg, A. P. Johnson of Carrizo Springs and Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman. The elective railroad commission at present has charge oil oil and gas.

Authors of the bill said they believed their proposal would meet the views of Gov. Ross S. Sterling. The bill was similar to that prepared by the Texas oil emergency committee except the oil emergency group wanted to give a commission power to prevent production above market demand and was silent on the question of a new commission.

Perhaps the most important part of the bill would accelerate court procedure in cases in which the new commission might be involved. Under existing statutes, enforcement of proration has been paralyzed through the mere filing of injunction suits. It requires months or years for these suits to go through the courts. During the pendency of a suit, proration can not be enforced against the plaintiff.

The bill would provide that no injunction should be issued except subsequent to a hearing after notice and only on the posting of a bond by the plaintiff.

It must be clearly shown to the court that a commission order is invalid and if enforced against the plaintiff will cause him irreparable damage. "The nature and extent of such invalidity and damage must be established by evidence, unless apparent of record, and must be recited in the injunction order." The bond would be for the purpose of indemnifying persons suffering damages as a result of the violation in event the order should be held valid.

Oil suits would have precedence in all courts and the trial in the original court would have to be held within 25 days after answer was filed. The commission would have authority to enjoin operators from violating proratieon and could throw into rceivership parties persisting in violating an order after the order had been held valid.

OKLAHOMA SHUTDOWN PARTLY SUCCESSFUL

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 16. (AP)—Results from only partly successful attempts for a shutdown in the Oklahoma City oil field until prices improve were seen today in decreased daily production and pipe line runs.

A published forecast had it that by the end of the week the total movement would be less than 10,000 barrels daily—less than half of last week's average, although many large operators have refrained from joining the shutdown.

Governor Murray continued to await developments in Texas before lending an official hand to the shutdown. Cicero Murray, his personal oil representative, has conferred with oil men in a new survey of the situation.

Comment was to the effect that pipe line companies are "scraping tank bottoms" to meet requirements as some operators who are not producing have refused to release stored oil to the carriers at the current low price. In other cases buyers have refused to waive contracts calling for specific deliveries although some are for higher figures than the present posted price.

Wilbarger Land Makes 100 Bushels of Oats To Acre

VERNON, Texas, July 16. (AP)—R. L. Luttrell of northeast Wilbarger county has established a record for the 1931 grain season, harvesting 908 bushels of oats from a nine-acre field, according to County Agent R. E. L. Pattillo. The oats were planted in September and grazed until March 10.

WOMAN SHOT AT PADUCAH

Sister-in-Law Charged After Attack

Special to The Record News.

PADUCAH, Texas, July 16.—Mrs. A. R. Westmoreland was in a critical condition from a pistol wound and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Richards, about 50, pioneer Paducah resident, was under two charges of assault with intent to kill after a shooting in the Westmoreland home Thursday morning.

The second charge against Mrs. Richards was based on allegations that she fired at, but missed, her brother, A. R. Westmoreland. She was released under $2,000 bond in each case.

Mrs. Richards is the owner of the property, two miles south of Paducah, where the Westmorelands make their home.

Mrs. Westmoreland, shot through the stomach with a pistol bullet, was given a 50-50 chance for recovery by physicians. Her husband was unhurt.

No reason for the shooting was given and Mrs. Richards declined to make a statement. The family is one of the oldest and most prominent in Paducah.

Statesmen Go To Paris Conference

ence. Stimson, he said, will attend, and Mellon has been asked to be present "if it is consistent with his plans." The former now is in Paris and the latter is resting in Southern France.

Tonight there were indications Mr. Hoover was giving them no specific instructions. It is assumed by officials here that some political questions, as well as those dealing with economics will come before the meeting.

GERMAN CHIEFS LEAVE FOR PARIS

BERLIN, July 16. (AP)—Extraordinary diplomatic developments in Paris and London today snarled the week-end program of Chancellor Bruening and Foreign Minister Curtius, making it necessary for them to leave Germany during the height of the financial crisis.

Telephone lines linking Berlin, London and Paris buzzed unceasingly all day, with the upshot that the visit of Prime Minister MacDonald and Foreign Secretary Henderson to the German capital was called off.

Herr Bruening and Dr. Curtius instead ordered their grips packed for Paris and Frau Curtius hastily cancelled the catering arrangements for a "German chequers" week-end at Hubertusstock.

Meanwhile, Germany was cheered by one factor and depressed by another. Arrangements to meet tomorrow's pay rolls were completed and the naiton's banks, closed for two days by President Von Hindenburg's decree, were reopened. But they turned away large crowds of sullen and money-hungry depositors for they were not permitted to pay out funds held in savings accounts.

The cabinet buised itself with preparation of new decrees which were expected to be made public late tonight.

Police chiefs throughout the nation took measures to prevent a repetition of Communist riots.

Executives of the big industrial and shipping concerns took their own emergency measures made necessary by the abnormal situation.

Among these was the Ford Motor company of Cologne, which announced suspension of production "for a few days," but at the same time denied any intention of wholesale dismissal of employes.

The fact pay rolls were met was considered of the greatest importance.

on "The New Hypocrisy," we quote a paragraph on tolerance:

"Tolerance is indeed a noble virtue if it is a true charity of mind and a hesitation to judge until the full facts are known, but it offers as much opportunity for the cant of a modern Pecksniff as did the old Pharisaism. There are several counterfeits which pass for tolerance. One is lazy-mindedness, the hypocritical tolerance of those who do not think or those who shirk the responsibility of forming a judgment on the whole moral situation. Another is indifference, false because there is no true tolerance unless one really cares. Still another is sentimentalism, refusing to judge or oppose because we feel a certain virtuousness in so doing. And the worst counterfeit of tolerance is the sheer self-interest which argues that we want others to have a good time when in reality our real motive is that the others may think well of us. Thus we seek a reputation for tolerance by allowing unwholesome ideas to pass unprotested, and even by parading our own indulgence in order to demonstrate that we are not puritanical. This pose of tolerance is quite as truly hypocrisy as the traditional pretense of moral strictness."

ALTUS TO GET SECOND BANK

New Institution Awaits Organization

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., July 16.—A state bank with a capital of $50,000 will be opened in Altus in a short time, provided a few local citizens subscribe for enough stock to qualify as directors, according to W. B. Gover, formerly of Shidler, and Ned Holman, chairman of the board of the Liberty National bank of Oklahoma City, who have been issued a charter by the state banking department.

Gover has had many years of banking experience and will come to Altus to make his home and will be the executive officer of the bank, it was stated. He recently sold his banking interests at Shidler and has been looking the state over for a desirable place to invest in a bank for some time, and it was on the suggestion of Holman that he became interested in the Altus field.

Local Officers

Holman is one of the leading bankers of the state. He lived in Guthrie for a number of years. He was at one time connected with the Exchange National bank of Tulsa, but six months ago purchased controlling interest in the Liberty National bank and became chairman of the board.

The new bank will be controlled and managed by local persons, and officers of the Liberty National bank will become interested only for the banking contact in this section of the state, Holman stated. He said several local parties were considering subscribing to the stock.

Fixtures Purchased

"We believe Altus and Jackson county have a wonderful future," Holman said. "The community has a good financial institution in the Altus National bank, but a town the size of Altus will sooner or later have two strong banks and we're just taking advantage of the opportunity to establish a new bank at this time."

Gover and his associates purchased the fixtures of the Citizens State bank and the bank will occupy the ground floor of the Gosselin office building. The building leased has been recognized as one of the finest banking structures in the Southwest.

If plans go through an announcement of the stockholders and board of directors will be made in the next few days, Gover said.

Pleasant Valley Farm Club Meets

Special to The Record News.

IOWA PARK, Texas, July 16.—The Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration club held its bimonthly meeting at the clubhouse in Iowa Park with the president, Mrs. C. C. Burrows, in the chair.

Mrs. I. W. Corder, wardrobe demonstrator, made an interesting talk on "The Well Groomed Person," supplementing her discussion with a plan for a budget to cover all clothing expense over a period of two years.

Mrs. B. C. Custis was next on the program with an instructive discussion of "Correct Posture in Relation to Health."

Under the direction of Mrs. Burrows, plans were made for exhibits of canned products to be entered at the Wichita County fair this fall, and assignments were made for certain foods to be prepared during the present canning season.

The next meeting date, Wednesday, Aug. 5, will be an all-day meeting dedicated to the furnishing and finishing of the club kitchen at the clubhouse. Donations are being made by members and friends.

Mrs. Burrows urged a good attendance at the annual two-day yearly encampment at Diversion lake. Pleasant Valley club members were advised to meet at the City park in Iowa Park Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Those present were Mesdames C. C. Burrows, B. C. Custis, L. N. Lockridge, Tom Rogers, Hardy Jones, J. F. Davis, I. W. Corder and Miss Emma Davis.

Gold Tooth Victim To Be Buried With Military Honors

Nelson was brought from Texas to Walter Reed hospital here in an army airplane ambulance. Five operations had been performed upon him since Saturday.

Jones County Sees Promising Harvest

Special to The Record News.

ANSON, Texas, July 16.—Reports from all parts of Jones county and from many parts of this section, with few exceptions, indicate the best chances for big feed and cotton crops for years, some say since the fabled days of 1919.

Except where farmers failed to get cotton planted in time, Jones county is promising a great cotton yield. Maize and other row crops are faltering, also, the grain being practically matured in some fields.

With the good grain crop now being harvested, Jones county should come back into her own this fall. She should produce enough to feed herself and have plenty to spare.

General Officers Of Army Assigned

SOCIETY and CHURCH NEWS

PEEPS AT PEOPLE

By MRS. L. N. CASON

Down my street the hot wind and sun has parched the green. I thought as I drove, of lush bottom lands in Tennessee and in the Mississippi delta. Green is green there until cold weather turns vines and leaves to the rich red and gold and purple of autumn.

I thought of the white hot meteor falling in a man's yard the other day and wondered how much vegetation it killed. But, I suppose the family didn't think of that. They must have been offering up thanks that it didn't fall right on the house. (Though comparison rearely satisfies one.)

A friend telephoned me saying "Since this (you notice ours is a special depression),—is over, I'm going to—" when I interrupted in astonishment, "Is the depression over?" But it was with no intention of throwing cold water on a bonfire of depression. Even though one goes off and sobs in the corner occasionally, a bright face is a pleasant thing. Especially so in the home.

Anyway the depression is melting. In black and white I read in a newspaper that a survey shows scattered signs of better business. It's true they were pretty well scattered. One was a report that hot weather was creating a demand for summer merchandise in Chicago and the other from Boston showed a slight decline in activity in cotton and a consistent increase in silks and hosiery.

It (the depression) must be going. Despite the hot weather, the windows are full of felt hats in Wichita Falls. What year of our Lord was it when women began wearing felt hats in July and straw ones in February? It has been during my lifetime.

Why worry over that? There's always something beautiful in the world. I found it this morning when I followed the trail of the mocking bird and walked across the grass into the back yard of Mrs. W. M. Frank on Indian Heights. A semicircular lily pond was so clear and so cool and beautiful it had enticed the red verbenas that ran over the borders into it.

There was a garden in the background where zinnias in brilliant colors, gorgeous cannas of ruffled rose and gold, chaste shasta daisies stately gladioluses and even "hen and chickens" drew freshness from the water. In the pool, pickerel rush and waving cat-tails and floating hearts and hyacinth grew with the water lilies. In the water you could see the darting gold fish waving their plumy fins and tails in quite a superior manner.

Mrs. Frank heard that baby fish grow better in an earthen pool and in one corner of her yard, where an earthen pool was promptly dug, she has 363. Or at least, she had when she counted them. In a pool where the infants develop, a net stands guard so the dragon fly can't do his dastardly work. I really shuddered when I heard how he preyed upon the young.

While Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Frank's sister, Mrs. Wade, whose pretty round pond is next door, work with gold fish, Jack Frank, though interested in the goldfish pool, has his own industry. "Here's my pool," he said, pointing out a circular one alive with movement; "I put one minnow in there and now I've got about 30." He said he might sell minnows if he got enough.

I can understand the love for the pools and for the beautiful fish, even though Mrs. Wade's "Black Moor" refused to come to the surface to be looked at; but the thing that appealed most to me was the beauty of the lilies. In both pools there were many of them. Blue water hyacinths reared their lovely heads and floating hearts bloomed in pale yellow. But the lilies in white and red and yellow and pink floated at home on the clear waters just as the "bob white" of the partridge was at home in the green of the trees in the back.

Beautiful Bridge Luncheon Honors Mrs. T. H. Lawson

Named honoree Thursday by members of her bridge club, Mrs. T. H. Lawson, who moves to Fort Worth soon, looked the part in a pretty frock of turquoise blue and a jaunty black hat. Mrs. J. D. Bright, who will make her future home in Electra, was a guest of the club.

Tallies and score cards carried out the travel motif. The natty traveler on each card carried band-boxes and bundles in pretty pastel shades.

Before luncheon, Mrs. Lawson was presented by her fellow club members with a lovely boudoir picture. Her thanks were prettily expressed.

The luncheon table was centered with a huge bowl of crepe myrtle in deep red with touches of white in the myrtle and daisies. Small baskets of gold and orchid filled with verbena and petunias in harmonizing shades of mauve and purple, stood at each side the handsome center.

An unusually delightful luncheon was served to Mrs. Lawson, the honoree and to Mesdames J. D. Bright, J. E. Hall, Guy C. Raley, J. I. Staley, M. Mitcham, H. P. Hodge, E. B. Lehrack, W. L. Hawkins and Carlisle Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Raub Give Special Music Program

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Raub are appreciated in Wichita Falls as outstanding musicians in their individual lines despite the old adage that prophets are without honor in their own country. But they are also highly honored in Bethel, Conn., where they are spending the summer taking advanced studies in music.

"Mr. and Mrs. Raub are talented musicians," the Danbury (Conn.) Evening News says, "and charmed their hearers with their selections." Mr. and Mrs. Raub gave special musical numbers Sunday, July 12, at the Danbury Methodist church.

"Mr. Raub was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. J. Bostelmann; he is studying with Mr. Bostelmann of New York and Redding.

"His first number was 'Meditation' (Thais), by Massenet, and for the offertory he played Fibich's 'Souvenir Poetique.' Both numbers were well rendered, with a technique that proclaimed him master of the instrument used.

Mrs. Raub for her numbers, by special request, repeated the anthem which she sang two weeks ago, 'How Beautiful Upon the Mountains,' by Harker, and at the close of the service, sang a selection from the Messiah by Handel, 'Come Unto Me.' She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Charles A. Rinne. Mrs. Raub has a pleasing personality which lends charm to her beautiful soprano voice. Her selections were well suited to her voice, which combines power with sweetness.

"Mrs. Raub is studying with Mrs. Edith Quaile Saslansky, of New York and Ridgefield."

HOOVER DROPS VACATION PLAN

President Stays by Desk Through Summer

WASHINGTON, July 16. (UP)—Hard work and much of it is President Hoover's schedule for the remainder of the summer.

While many government officials are resting or traveling the president has abandoned plans for a vacation trip, it was said today. He expects to remain at his shiny mahogany desk throughout the hot months, except for short visits to his mountain retreat in Virginia.

Many of his close associates are telling Mr. Hoover that he is working too hard and are urging him to arrange for some relaxation, but he has declined to entertain their suggestions.

Friends have dwelt upon the reports that swordfish are running off Montauk Point, L. I. They have explained even such a fisherman as Representative Will Wood of Indiana caught a string of sporty big sea fish at Panama last year. They have dwelt on the beauties of the Canal Zone at this time of year. But all to no avail.

The executive is convinced, his friends say, the domestic economic situation and the future of his international debt holidays plan require that he remain here almost continuously.

Giant Air Liner Boasts All Luxuries of Private Railway Car

A great Boeing transport plane, weighing 17,500 pounds and equipped with all the luxuries of a modern air liner, slipped down on the Municipal airport Thursday morning, stored away 315 gallons of gas to meet its 675-gallon capacity and soared away again with Phoenix as its goal.

Aboard were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Kennedy and their daughter. Mr. Kennedy is a director of the Standard Oil company of California. The big biplane came to Wichita Falls from Ponca City, where Mr. Kennedy conferred with oil operators. The party will return to San Francisco Friday.

The air liner is equipped with lounges, beds, kitchenet and much the same fittings as a private railway car. Its load limit is 16 passengers. Three Hornet motors provide the power and 125 miles an hour is the average cruising speed.

Right Turn on Red Light Proves Effective in Speeding Traffic Here

A traffic regulation allowing right hand turns on red signal lights became effective here Thursday morning. First day results indicate that the measure will prove successful in speeding traffic, according to members of the police station traffic division.

Most drivers observed Thursday every phase of the new ruling, according to John Sewell, traffic captain, although a few have not become aware of the fact that before making the turn, the automobile is to come to a full stop, and the turn made at seven miles per hour or less.

Penalty for failure to observe requirements of the regulation will be the same as for passing a red signal light, it was said.

Conditions under which the drivers may make a right turn on a red light are as follows:

1—Vehicles must come to a full stop and proceed at a rate of speed not exceeding seven miles per hour while making the turn.

2—Drivers desiring to make a right turn on a red signal shall keep cars as close to the curb as possible, and shall give pedestrian traffic full right of way.

3—Through traffic must come to a stop near the center of the street, allowing those wishing to make a right turn to keep as close to the curb as possible.

4—Where traffic lines are designated by white lines, motorists must keep inside of said lines and shall not pass another car while making turn.

OKLAHOMA TO ASK SESSION

State Starts Move for U. S. Relief Program

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 16. (UP)—Cicero Murray, chairman of the newly formed state relief committee, announced today that he would ask President Hoover to call a special session of congress not later than Sept. 15 to consider nationwide unemployment and drouth relief problems.

Congress would be asked to appropriate a large fund to match funds raised by every state for relief work next fall, Murray, a cousin to Gov. William H. Murray, said.

Murray was in conference this afternoon with Senator Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma; W. A. Pat Murphy, state labor commissioner; A. R. Losh, state highway engineer, and J. F. Owens, former head of the state relief organization.

Meetings Called

Tentative plans, Murray said, are for the demand for a special session of congress to be made by petition signed by representatives of 18 Missouri valley states.

Murray said the date for mass meetings to be held in every county in Oklahoma would be set late today. The meetings probably will be held next week. A state-wide demand addressed to President Hoover will be drafted at these meetings and will be forwarded to the president, bearing the signature of Governor Murray.

Further details of the relief plan will be worked out at a state relief convention to be held about Aug. 1. Another convention of regional nature will be held later, probably at Memphis, Tenn.

Texas Invited

States cooperating with Oklahoma, or which will be asked to cooperate, include Colorado, Louisiana, Arkansas, Alabama, Texas, Mississippi, Minnesota, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, New Mexico, Iowa, Wisconsin, South Dakota, Nebraska and Michigan.

Murray estimated that Oklahoma could have about $9,000,000 cash available for relief if the present plans materialize. He estimated counties would raise $1,500,000 and that at least a third of a $10,000,000 highway building project could be drawn upon.

FOUR DIE AS PLANES CRASH

Army Ships Collide in Air Over Brooks oField

SAN ANTONIO, July 16. (US)—Two army planes collided 400 feet in the air near Brooks field today and the occupants, three army flying corps officers and a student cadet, instantly were killed as the ships, locked together, crashed to death.

The dead are Maj. C. V. Hart, flight surgeon and pilot of one of the planes; Capt. Carlos J. Chamberlain of New York, who was in Hart's plane; Lieut. K. Austin Rogers, pilot and instructor in the other plane, and Cadet Endicott Longacre, the student flyer who was with him.

The cause of the collision was undetermined and officers at Brooks filed thought it might never be known. Rogers and his pupil were on an instruction flight. The other two fliers were in the air to watch some maneuvers which had been planned.

While the two planes did not take fire on crashing, they were totally demolished and were a twisted mass of wreckage and torn fabric.

A farmer and several Brooks field pilots witnessed the accident. The farmer telephoned the field for help. He then went to the pile of wreckage and was extricating the four bodies when a score of army flying officers came to his assistance.

Captain Chamberlain was a New York national guard officer and expected to become a flight surgeon. He was in training with Major Hart who was one of the few flight surgeons holding a pilot's rating.

Florists Protest Express Charges

DALLAS, July 16. (AP)—Protests against alleged discrimination jn express rates on flowers were voiced today at the closing session of the 17th annual convention of the Texas State Florists association.

Speakers said the discrimination lay in charges on flowers packed in ice. All other perishable commodities, including fish, oysters, etc., were allowed the difference in weight caused by the ice in which they were packed, it was said. This allowance was not made for ferns and flowers, President E. W. Judge, of Tyler, explained.

A permanent legislative committee composed of Chairman Jack Weatherford, Houston; Gordon Boswell, Fort Worth; and Hans Schroeder, Brownwood, was appointed.

Missouri Bank Robbed By Three Armed Men

ANNAPOLIS, Mo., July 16. (INS)—Three armed bandits today held up and robbed Olin Lewis, assistant cashier of the bank of Annapolis, took all the money in sight, and escaped in an automobile, believed to be stolen.

The bandits bound Lewis after scooping all the money available. The amount of money taken in the robbery could not be ascertained.

The automobile, in which the bandits escaped, was later found abandoned, a few miles outside the city. According to witnesses, the bandits entered a car, with Tennessee license and continued on their way.

Harris County Police Probe Drowning Mystery

HOUSTON, July 16. (AP)—City and county officers and a justice of the piece were conducting an investigation today into the mysterious drowning of C. G. Jeffry, 48, a night watchman for the Port City Compress company, whose erect body was found in the company's reservoir.

A cursory examination of the body failed to disclose any marks of violence. He was fully clothed and a small amount of grass, similar to that which is on the edge of the reservoir, was found in his hands, this led officers to believe the watchman might have lost his footing and fallen.

In addition, as the 19th prize winner, Mrs. Hodges received a prize of $150. Mrs. Hodges in preparing her material for her entry in the contest was counseled by John Butts of the North Texas Furniture company, who as counselor for a tour prize winner is also awarded a prize of $15 and a certificate of recognition as a "Furnitor" by the Home Furnishings industry.

Visit Famous Homes

Mrs. Hodges will join the tour at Chicago on Aug. 1. On the itinerary of the famous homes tour will be such spots as Henry Ford museum of colonial relics at Dearborn, Mich.; Niagara Falls, historic Boston and its environs, the show places of New York City and Philadelphia, Washington, D. C.; "The Hermitage" at Nashville; New Orleans, Galveston, San Antonio, and El Paso.

Reaching the Pacific coast, the tourists have a personal invitation from Mary Pickford and other noted film stars to visit their homes. Also included in the plans are a visit to Catalina island, San Francisco, Crater Lake, Ore., Portland and Seattle, Salt Lake City, Denver and Colorado Springs, Kansas City, St. Louis, Mo., and Lincoln's home at Springfield, Ill.

All Expenses Paid

The party will travel in a chartered Pullman with all expenses for transportation, meals and sight-seeing trips fully paid. Arrangements have already been made for entertainment at different cities along the route. The tour will start from and end in Chicago. The winners' fares are being paid to the spot they join the tour, and return fare home at its conclusion.

The other tour winners are Miss Frances Walker, San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Charles F. Wendling, Pittsfield, Mass.; Mrs. M. L. Gillespie, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Miles Milton Moon, Battle Creek, Mich.; Mrs. Lucy K. Wilkes, New York City, N. Y.; Mrs. E. H. Style in Furnishings

Besides going on the tour of famous homes, winners of the first 24 prizes in the home styling contest will receive cash awards of $150 to $1,000 each. There are also 200 honorary awards for those outside the select two dozen. These include 20 prizes of $50 each, 30 prizes of $25 each, 50 prizes at $10 each and 100 prizes at $5 each, giving a grand total of 224 awards aggregating $8,500.

"What is Home Styling," was asked of John Butts of the North Texas Furnitnre company.

"You follow the fashions in hats, dresses and shoes," said Mr. Butts.

"You wouldn't dream of wearing out-of-date clothes. Nowadays it is smart, too, to keep your home surroundings in tune with the times. Out-model, outworn furniture, rugs and accessories have no place in the modern scheme of things. First, furnish your home. It tells what you are," said Mr. Butts.

"Home styling consists in going through your home, room' by room, and adding those necessary touches that bring beauty and style. It is not refurnishing, for every home has certain pieces that are correctly styled which can be used as a style and color 'foundation' for the room. Then by discarding unsuitable or unserviceable pieces and replacing them with attractive, harmonious furnishings, the room is re-styled once more."

Texas Facts

By BILL EDWARDS

Texas farm crops and livestock produced in 1930, in spite of short crops and low prices, were of an estimated value of $684,512,000. Twice in recent years has Texas produced more than a billion dollars in farm crops alone—$1,071,527,000 in 1919 and $1,064,775,000 in 1923, according to U. S. department of agriculture figures, the difference in totals being largely due to differences in the prices they brought.

HELPING BUILD TEXAS

Texas is not depending solely upon highway improvements, as extensive and as important as they are, to attract automobile tourists. Individual communities and groups are seeking to make visits to Texas more attractive and excursions into it more pleasant. Notable instance of group action is that undertaken by towns in the so-called hill country with the ultimate purpose of creating by dams 500 or more small lakes on the clear, spring-fed streams that help to make that section of Texas so beautiful. Several of the dams already have been built and the lakes impounded, some of them by voluntary contributions of labor from nearby citizens. Kyle and San Marcos citizens joined recently in building a dam on the Blanco river, four miles from San Marcos, and the result is a beautiful lake. . . . There is more interest in and influence for the maintenance of existing state parks and the acquisition of more. Caddo lake in East Texas, Paloduro canyon in Northwest Texas, Davis mountains in West Texas are three of the most ambitious efforts to preserve to the use of Texans and their visitors natural beauty spots of the state. . . . Interest in Mexico and building of roads in that republic will bring into Texas an increasing number of tourists from other parts of the United States, for Texas affords the best available route to nearly all the nation. California's welcome to tourists, as evidenced by good roads, camp facilities and development of its beauty spots, brought that state thousands of new citizens. Realization of that is helping increase Texans' desire to make their state more attractive to automobile travelers.

The Hay Mow Movement

OF NATIONAL societies of one kind and another this country surely has more than its share. Yet there ought to be plenty of room for the Society of Hay Mow Sleepers, a group recently organized by a number of New York and Chicago business executives.

The aims of this outfit are simple. Membership is open to men who either were brought up on farms and slept in hay mows as a matter of course or were brought up in cities and wanted to sleep in hay mows but never did.

The club houses, naturally enough, will be barns, strategically located in various parts of the country. Each barn will contain a hay mow, and any member can gratify his passion for hay mow sleeping at any time simply by repairing to one of these club barns.

A good many devices have been brought forth in the last few years to soothe and divert the tired business man. Musical shows are staged in his honor, clam bakes are arranged, summer camps have been brought into being; but could any of these really compete with a good hay mow?

Sleeping in a hay mow is, after all, one of the noblest pursuits open to mankind. In the first place, hay makes an ideal bed—soft, rustling, warm in cool weather and cool in warm weather. It is odorous with a spicy fragrance that brings sleep almost of its own efforts.

Besides, the surroundings serve to increase the sleeper's enjoyment. The hay mow is dusky, quiet, secluded; and on rainy days, when the raindrops drum on the roof and the eaves drip musically, the hay mow sleeper has no cause to envy anyone on earth.

There ought to be a big place for such a club. There may be just one trouble; the organizers will probably find themselves swamped with applications.

We Have More Leisure

ONE of the commonest criticisms of our modern industrial civilization is that it has made us forget the use of leisure time.

Prof. Dixon Ryan Fox of the department of history, Columbia university, recently provided a very sane answer. Pointing out that a century ago most people had very little leisure time to use, he remarked:

"Few phenomena at the beginning of the 19th century are more impressive to the modern reader than the immense effort required to 'keep house.' More women do more reading now than then, meet each other in social contact, attend more concerts, give more time to less children. If the industrial revolution has drawn some women from kitchens, it has at the same time increased beyond all computation their opportunities for civilization. Only a little less can be said of its effect on man."

In order to use leisure time, one must have it. We are at least beginning to get it. Sooner or later we shall learn how to use it wisely.

Aviation Grows Safer

THE committee on aviation of the Actuarial Society of America finds that aviation is getting safer each year. In 1930, one planes operating on regular commercial schedules, deaths averaged one for every 17,000 passengers carried.

Noticeably enough, the hazard among "pleasure flyers" was much greater. During the whole of last year, only 24 passengers were killed in scheduled commercial flying—and 136 lost their lives in pleasure flying. Riding with a pilot who has less than 400 hours experience seems to be quite definitely dangerous.

The improvement in the commercial field is especially marked when one contrasts last year's record with the records of former years. In 1929 the probability of death for a passenger on a scheduled flight was one in 10,000; in 1928 it was one in 4,000.

A Boatload of Revolvers

A RECENT news photograph showed New York police officials taking a boatload of revolvers out to dump into the ocean. The weapons had been seized from various criminals during the course of one year, and they made an amazingly large pile.

No one will quarrel with the police for sending these weapons to the bottom of the sea; but many people will wonder at a civilization that permits dangerous weapons to be made and distributed in such quantities. Is there any good reason, in a country where the frontier is as tame and remote as it is in the United States, for allowing revolvers to be sold in the helter-skelter fashion that now prevails?

Answers to Questions

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

This is a special department devoted to the handling of inquiries. You have at your disposal an extensive organization in Washington to serve you in any capacity that relates to information. Write your question, your name, and your address clearly, and enclose two cents in coin or stamps for reply. Send to the Record News Information bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C.

Q.—What is the derivation of the name Connelley?—W. J. C.

A.—The surname Connelley and its various allied forms are derived from the Irish Conghalach, meaning a conflict.

Q.—Why is Rev. Thomas Starr King famous in California history?—B. D. M.

A.—The Rev. Thomas Starr King was an American unitarian clergyman and lecturer. He became pastor of the first Unitarian society of San Francisco in 1860, was among the first by newspaper article and lecture to call attention to Yosemite valley, and when in the presidential campaign of 1860 the idea of the establishment of California as an independent Pacific republic was discussed, he denounced the project from the lecture platform and preserved the state to the union.

Q.—Please give some facts about the Paris exhibition now going on.—W. H. A.

A.—The International Colonial and Overseas exposition opened in Paris in May. The United States is represented by six buildings, each housing exhibits from this country, the Philippines, Virgin Islands, Hawaii, Alaska, Samoa, Guam, and Porto Rico. The site of the exposition is around Lake Daumesnil, 250 acres having here been set aside. Outstanding buildings include the Colonial museum and the International Hall of Knowledge. Madagascar and Indo-China are among the outstanding places well represented. There is an exact reproduction of the wonderful temple of Angkor-Vat, and the celebrated Taj Mahal is also reproduced. An exact reproduction of Mt. Vernon has been built to scale. Most of the furnishings have been reproduced, many of them have been "aged" to the extent that they have the exact appearance of the originals at Mt. Vernon. A great niece of George Washington is the official hostess. Her living quarters are here.

Things to Do With an Orange or Lemon

It is surprising how many delectable concoctions have oranges and lemons as their basic ingredients. There are 48 pages of recipes in the booklet now available to readers of The Record News and many of them are new and unusual.

The section devoted to hot weather drinks is especially interesting, and just now is timely. Specifications for some 25 or 30 libations are to be found there, including everything from a "Piazza Punch" to a "Red Cross Cocktail." None of them calls for anything stronger than ginger ale, in addition to the fruit juices, to make it altogether refreshing.

SILENCE MARKS PAPAL DISPUTE

Rome-Church Declare Verbal Truce

ROME, July 16. (US)—An enforced calm settled down over the vatican state dispute today as both parties declared a newspaper truce in their quarrel over the government's suppression of Catholic action's youth organizations.

Both Osservatore Romano, semi-official vatican organ, and the Fascist press printed no retaliatory attacks. Osservatore Romano even refraining from publishing the laudatory messages received by Pope Pius XI on his firm stand against the Fascist regime.

The messages, most of them received from abroad, would have aroused the government's anger.

Since similar tactics have been employed previously during the present crisis, the move does not necessarily herald a conciliatory attitude. Both sides anticipate a prolongation of the status quo.

Plane City of Tacoma Unfit for Sea Hop

TOKYO, July 16. (UP)—Aviation experts reported today that the airplane City of Tacoma II, in which Lieut. Harold Bromley and Thomas Ash Jr. made unsuccessful attempts to span the Pacific ocean, was incapable of a nonstop flight of this distance.

The statement of the experts was expected to end a contest over the plane's use for the hazardous journey. It will be sold at auction shortly to raise funds for customs levies, which were temporarily waived for Bromley and Ash.

American Lieutenant Who Knew Ilena Wishes Royal Couple Well

CHINWANGTAO, China, July 16. (AP)—When Princess Ileana, becomes the bride of Archduke Anton of Austria a week from Sunday at Sinaia, nobody will wish her greater happiness than Second Lieutenant William J. Glasgow Jr., of the 15th United States infantry, now stationed at a summer camp near this small seaport.

Glasgow cherishes the happiest memories of his short-lived association with the princess and her mother, Queen Marie of Rumania, during their tour of America in 1926.

"That certainly was a pleasant assignment," Glasgow said today, referring to his detail as their aide when they visited West Point.

"Princess Ilena is a most charming girl," he said. His attractive features, tanned by the North China sun, brightened with a ready smile. "I wish her every possible happiness."

Glasgow could not be persuaded to talk further. Ever since the news of Ilena's betrothal reached China he has been mercilessly teased by his brother officers, but he keeps his own counsel.

Just what his friendship with the princess amounted to—whether it ended in 1926 or continued any extent since then—is the secret of Glasgow, a soldier and gentleman from the top of his handsome head to the soles of his polished riding boots.

Glasgow comes of a famous military family. His father, Brig. Gen. William J. Glasgow, recently retired to enter business at El Paso, Texas. His brother, Joseph M. Glasgow, now is stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, with the eighth cavalry.

ANSON DEATH TRIALS SET

Three Murder Cases on Court Docket

Special to The Record News.

ANSON, Texas, July 16.—Three murder cases are scheduled for trial in the district court here during the September term, according to settings made this week by District Judge Chapman.

Cecil Hunter, young farmer of the Oak Grove community, indicted this week for the slaying of Ralph Shirley at Stamford last Sunday night, will face trial on Sept. 28. J. B. Fare, Stamford, at whose home the fatal shooting occurred, was indicted on two counts for the sale of intoxicating liquor. Fare is already under a prison sentence on a whisky charge.

The trial of J. H. Saffel, billed for murder in the death of J. W. Windham, and for assault with intent to kill in the wounding of Frank Windham in Anson June 13, was set for Sept. 21.

W. H. Johnson, charged with the murder of Stonewall Parker at Hamlin, will get another trial on Sept. 28. A previous hearing resulted in a hung jury.

Porto Ricans and Filipinos Scrap In New York Riot

NEW YORK, July 18. (INS)—One man was shot and killed, two others were taken to hospitals, and more than 50 persons suffered minor injuries when 5,000 Porto Ricans and Filipinos staged a riot in Harlem early today.

Two hundred patrolmen, backed by police emergency squads, were compelled to wade in with clubs to restore order.

The outbreak, police were told, had been simmering for three months past. Ill feeling between the two factions, Porto Rican and Filipino, it was said, had been occasioned by attentions paid by the members of one faction to the other faction's girls.

A dispute in front of a restaurant touched off the explosion, it was said. Some one drew a pistol—a moment later, knives were flashing.

*Fruit and Cheese Salad—Remove the dry skins from a cupful of thoroughly roasted (dextrinized) peanuts. Crush coarsely between folds of a clean towel or heavy white paper. Dice one cupful of mild yellow cheese, place with the crushed peanuts and shake together to cause the small powdery particles of the nuts to adhere to the pieces of cheese and prevent sticking together. Drain an eight-ounce can of pineapple tidbits, and mix pineapple, cheese and peanuts together lightly with two forks, then heap on individual salad plates lined with crisp lettuce. Place two or three slices of avocado across the top and garnish with bits of pimiento.

A very delicious dressing may be quickly made by mashing some of the avocado to a smooth paste with a fork and thinning with a little of the pineapple juice. Peanut butter dressing is also good with this salad.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Ultra-Violet Ray

Question—Mrs. J. R. asks: "Will you please tell me something about the ultra-violet ray and the benefits to be derived from the treatments?"

Answer — The ultra-violet ray, known by various names as actinic ray, quartz light, alpine light, Kromayre lamp, mecury-quartz, is a type of light which tans the skin and increases the body's ability to absorb calcium and to metabolize fat. It is very useful in such deficiency diseases as anemia and tuberculosis. It can also be used to destroy tissues and is frequently used to remove skin blemishes. It is also helpful in certain throat conditions. This ray is present in sunlight, but will not penetrate glass. It may cause blindness if allowed to shine directly into the eyes, and for this reason both doctor and aptient use special glasses when treating with this ray. Special carbons may be used in carbon arc lamps to generate this ray. The actinic ray does not penetrate very deeply, its action being principally on the blood, as it passes through the surface capillaries of the skin.

Alkaline-Acid Balance

Qeustion—K. O. L. asks: "What foods are considered acid forming, and how should they be used in proportion with the alkaline forming foods?"

Answer—The acid forming foods include all of the cereals, meats, cheese, fish and eggs, and this does not mean that these foods are harmful. They do contain very valuable elements. If one limits the amount of acid forming foods to about one-third of the diet, and the alkaline forming foods to about two-thirds, there will be a sufficient leeway so that a healthy body can take care of the balance.

Friberg News

FRIBERG, Texas, July 16.—A demonstration of the canning of carrots and okra in the pressure cooker, featured the meeting of the Friberg Home Demonstration club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. A. Thornton. Miss Ethel Luise Webb supplemented the demonstration with an interesting lecture and answered many questions put to her by the members. Mrs. F. M. Greer, president, gave detailed information concerning the two-day encampment of all county clubs to be held at the Diversion lake on Monday and Tuesday, July 20-21, and urged as many as possible to attend. Mrs. Greer also read an interesting newspaper article. Mrs. C. A. Winslow, secretary, read the report of the last meeting. Particular attention was called to Mrs. A. F. Heusel, club member, who recently has canned approximately 80 pints of cooked American cheese, the cheese having matured perfectly and is a delicious and healthful food. Mrs. G. B. Campbell, of whom the club is justly proud, is pantry demonstrator for this club. There are now 20 members enrolled. Those present Tuesday afternoon were Mesdames John B. Rhea and J. T. Bobo of Wichita Falls, C. A. Winslow, G. B. Campbell, W. H. Seeker, J. S. Downing, W. E. Calloway, E. O. Chafin, R. S. Griswold, M. O. Collins, B. F. Greer, F. M. Greer, E. E. Bynum, B. F. Roediger, R. B. Bishop, A. F. Heusel, N. A. Thornton, and Misses Ethel Luise Webb, Ollie and Hazel Roediger and Annie Zeretzki. The club will meet next with Mrs. C. A. Andree.

Children and grow-ups alike, residing in and around this community, are justly proud of the small library established in the local school as a branch of the Kemp public library in Wichita Falls. The library, now numbering 300 volumes, comprises books of history, philosophy, travel, fiction, boots for small children and the teen age in wide variety; and any volume will be brought out on request, it is stated. The books are available every Wednesday morning until noon, when the librarian from Wichita Falls is in charge. No application cards are necessary. Since the establishment of the library an average of perhaps 40 books each week has been issued to patrons. The local branch affords an opportunity for study and pleasure.

Boy Scout activities in this community, the regular weekly meetings, hiking trips, etc., have been postponed during the busy season, but the scouts are looking forward with eagerness to an overnight camping trip early in August with their scoutmaster, Rev. A. F. Heusel.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Jones of Wichita Falls and Miss Fannie Fay Womack of Colorado City, Texas, were callers at the Ben Roediger home Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Jenne and Miss Carrie Jenne were confined to their home Sunday because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Litteken of Wichita Falls were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Emmert and George Jr. Sunday.

RECIPES

Jellied Brazilian Salad

One tablespoonful gelatin.
One-fourth cupful cold water.
One cupful boiling water.
One-fourth cupful sugar.
One-third cupful lemon juice.
One-half teaspoonful salt.
One-fourth cupful celery.
One-third cupful strawberries or red cherries.
One orange.
Four Brazil nuts.
Three ripe olives.
Parsley.

Soak gelatin in cold water, add boiling water and when dissolved add sugar, lemon juice and salt. Strain and put a thin layer on the bottom of small molds which have been rinsed with cold water. When firm decorate with a slice of strawberry cut in the shape of a small flower pot with a tiny stem of parsley growing out of it. Have in mind when arranging this decoration that when the jelly is turned out of the mold the decoration will be on top. Cover with just enough jelly to hold it in place. To remaining jelly add celery cut in fine pieces, strawberries or cherries cut in pieces, orange sections free from membrane and cut in pieces, nuts shredded and olives finely chopped. Fill molds, put in cold place to stiffen, unmold and serve on lettuce with cream mayonnaise dressing.

Grape Juice Mallow

Twenty-three marshmallows.
One cupful double cream.
One cupful hot grape juice.

Cut marshmallows and pour the hot grape juice over them; stir until the marshmallows are dissolved. Cool and fold in the cream after it has been whipped until stiff. Freeze in the drawer of a mechanical refrigerator or pack in ice and salt for three hours. Serves five or six. A cupful of strong coffee may be used instead of the cupful of grape juice to make coffee mallow.

Lemon Cocoanut Cookies

One-half cupful butter.
One cupful sugar.
One tablespoonful grated lemon rind.
Three tablespoonfuls cream.
Three cupfuls flour.
Two eggs.
Three tablespoonfuls lemon juice.
One-fourth teaspoonful vanilla.
One cupful cocoanut.
One teaspoon baking powder.

Cream the butter and sugar. Add the eggs and beat for two minutes. Add the rest of the ingredients and drop portions, three inches apart on greased baking sheets. (Flatten the cookies with the broad side of a knife). Bake in a moderate oven for 10 minutes.

Deviled Cornmeal Fritters

Two tablespoonfuls corn meal.
One tablespoonful flour.
One can deviled chili meat.
One medium-sized onion, cut fine.
One cupful boiling water.
One egg well beaten.
One-half teaspoonful salt.

Mix well and fry by spoonfuls in hot fat until brown.

Pear Salad

One small cream cheese.
One-half cupful chopped walnuts.
One can pears, large size fruit.

Arrange pear halves on lettuce leaves, cut side up. Mix cream cheese and nuts together and season with mayonnaise and salt and fill the hollows of the pears with the mixture. Serve with mayonnaise which has been thinned with a little whipped cream and garnish with a cherry.

Pineapple Smash

Boil two cups water and one cup sugar for five minutes. Add one pint grated pineapple and juice of three lemons. To one cup of mixture add one cup ice water and freeze until firm. Chill the remainder, and just before serving strain into punch bowl or pitcher. Add one pint ginger ale, or ice water, or soda water, and serve in tall glasses with a spoonful of the frozen mixture. Garnish with mint leaves.

Cream Spice Cake

Two cupfuls brown sugar.
One-half cupful shortening.
Two cupfuls pastry flour.
One cupful sour cream.
One-fourth teaspoonful salt.
Three eggs.
One teaspoonful soda.
Two teaspoonfuls cloves.
Two teaspoonfuls cinnamon.
Two teaspoonfuls allspice.

Cream the brown sugar and shortening together until thoroughly blended. Add the spices and beaten egg yolks and beat well. Measure and sift together the pastry flour, salt and soda. Add to the mixture alternately with the cream. Last fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased, floured cake pan and bake at 350 degrees F. for 45 minutes. The yolks of five eggs may be substituted for the three eggs if desired.

Vegetable Dinners

With access to good markets, which provide fresh vegetables throughout the summer, a vegetable dinner plate is an agreeable variety once or twice a week.

The dinner menu suggested above would even be acceptable on Sunday during torrid weather. For an evening dinner much of the preparatory work might be done during the morning and the vegetables that are to be baked might even be placed in the dishes in which they are to be cooked.

All the vegetables used, except the very strong flavored ones, should be cooked in the smallest amount of water that will keep them from burning. Several may be cooked in the oven at one time in small inexpensive dishes, or several vegetables may be cooked over one flame in triplicate kettles, or in a steamer, each in its separate dish.

The vegetables may be arranged on individual plates in the kitchen, or on a platter and served at the table. To make an ordinary plate especially attractive flute mashed potatoes with a pastry bag and tube for dividing lines.

Most vegetables are lacking in protein so they should be supplemented with milk, cheese, eggs or peanuts for proper balance. The following combinations are excellent for this purpose.

Asparagus en Casserole

One bunch asparagus or
One can asparagus.
One cupful cheese, grated.
Six or eight eggs, hard cooked.
One-fourth cupful butter.
Three tablespoonfuls flour.
Salt and pepper.
Buttered bread crumbs.

Cook fresh asparagus in salted water until tender and cut in 1½-inch lengths. Make a cream sauce by mixing flour into melted butter and stirring in sweet milk. Cook until thickened, then stir in grated cheese. Season to taste. Place a layer of asparagus, then a layer of sliced egg, then a layer of cheese sauce in a buttered baking dish. Repeat until all the asparagus, eggs and sauce have been used. Top with a layer of buttered bread crumbs and set in a moderate oven until crumbs are brown and the casserole is heated through. Serve hot.

Peas With Mint

Shell two quarts peas, put in a covered dish with one cup water and one-half teaspoonful salt and a slice of onion or a sprig of mint, two tablespoonfuls butter, few gratings nutmeg and one-half teaspoonful sugar. Bake for 30 or 40 minutes.

Lima Beans Maitre d'Hotel

Soak three-fourths cupful dried lima beans overnight, drain, barely cover with cold water, and bring to the boiling point, or use fresh beans. Put in a baking dish, add one slice onion finely chopped, two slices carrot finely choped and one-half teaspoonful salt. Cover, put in oven, and bake one and one-fourth hours or until soft. Drain and add three tablespoonfuls butter creamed and mixed with one teaspoonful lemon juice, and one-half tablespoonful chopped parsley.

Lima beans maitre de'hotel might be served with chopped spinach on toast, green peas with mint, savory onions, shredded carrots, sauteed cucumbers with brown sauce, delmonico potatoes, baked cocoanut custard, and sponge cake.

Baked Onions

Cut enough onions for four people in slices. Put in a baking dish with one thin slice salt pork, cut in dice, one cupful boiling stock or water, one-half teaspoonful salt, two cloves, and one-half tablespoonful chopped parsley. Cover and bake 35 to 40 minutes or until tender. Add one tablespoonful butter creamed with one tablespoonful flour. Mix well and return to oven for 10 minutes to thicken the sauce.

Saute Cucumbers

Pare and cut cucumbers in eighths lengthwise and three inches long, enough cucumbers for four people. Dip each piece separately in one egg slightly beaten; then coat with flour and saute in butter or oil until delicately brown.

Delmonico Potatoes

Cut two cupfuls cold boiled potatoes into cubes. Put in shallow baking dish, add one teaspoonful salt, one teaspoonful paprika, and one scant cupful cream or thin white sauce. Mix thoroughly, cover with one-half cupful grated cheese, and bake one-half hour. The cheese should form a golden brown crust. Serve in the same dish.

Delmonico potatoes might be served with summer squash stuffed with corn and tomatoes, sauteed cucumbers, beets with mint, nut bread and butter, orange and onion salad,

No wonder Women are switching to Camels

The steady increase in the number of women who are switching to Camels is a tribute to the mildness of this cigarette.

A woman's throat is more delicate than a man's—more easily irritated by the unkindly hot smoke of parched, dry-as-dust tobaccos.

Camels are milder, first, because they are a throat-friendly blend of fine Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos that require no parching.

Camels are milder, second, because all peppery dust is removed by a special vacuum-cleaning process before Camels are air-sealed in the Humidor Pack of germ-safe moisture-proof Cellophane.

Camels are milder, third, because this wrapping of moisture-proof Cellophane prevents the cigarettes from drying out. The natural moisture of the tobaccos is held intact.

When you inhale the cool fragrant smoke of a Camel you enjoy all the flavor, all the aroma of blended fine tobaccos kept in prime smoking condition—without the sting and bite-and-burn of stale, dried-out cigarettes.

Just try Camels, join the throng and switch to them for one day, then quit them—if you can.

● Don't remove the moisture-proof Cellophane from your package of Camels after you open it. The Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. It delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

EXPORTERS TALLY IN NINTH TO DEFEAT DALLAS STEER, 4-3

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED THOMPSON

The Same Old Game

Clarence Darrow, noted attorney, writes in his autobiography that baseball is not the same as it was in the days of old. Then, he said, "blunders by the opposing team had as much to do with victory as the hitting."

If he had been at Galveston Wednesday night to watch the Spudders boot away the first game with the Buccaneers, he doubtless would have reflected that baseball, after all, has not changed much.

Goodbye Eddie

Outfielder Frey, from the Western league, has joined the Fort Worth Panthers, replacing the veteran Eddie Moore in center field. By many sports writers this move is regarded as the end of Eddie's stay in the Texas league. Skipper Phelan may keep Moore for utility purposes, but if Frey hits as well as he id in the Western, it is doubtful that Moore will be in the lineup regularly.

Moore's hitting this season has been all off. Even his fielding has not come up to his form of last season, when he was poison to the Spudders, especially in the play-off games.

The cause of it all has been illness. Moore has not been in good health this season.

This is not official, but we hear from roundabout sources that the Cats and Skipper Phelan do not jibe so well. It is said the skipper is riding his men.

We heard that during the last Fort Worth series here, when the Cats were looking awful. At that time they appeared to need a little riding.

Maybe with Frey in there hitting the Cats will perk up and win some games. That will dispose of the necessity of riding by the skipper and all will be merry. Unless something of the sort does happen, we firmly believe the Cats will be out of the second half race, just as they were out of the first half.

A Jovial Bunch

Other things being equal, a team reflects almost entirely the temperament of its manager. Witness the Spudders, who are rather reticent, on the ball field and off. They are reserved, not very talkative, and haven't got much of the show-boy stuff.

Isn't Carl Williams the same way? His influence is felt, and has been felt by every team he has managed.

On the other hand, look at the Houston Buffs, with Dizzy Dean et al. A merry bunch, always slapping each other on the back, jokes pouring forth all the time, on the streets, on the field, in the taxi cabs as they ride to the park.

And Joe Schultz, the Houston skipper, is in the middle of all that goes on.

The "other things being equal" referred to above means, of course, that the team's spirit, in addition to being influenced by the manager, is also moulded by whether the club is winning or losing. Joe Schultz is a happy boy and all that and so is his team, but should the Buffs lose 20 straight no power on earth could make the Houston Buffs the happy buch they are now.

More About Dempsey

In writing about Jack Dempsey the other day, attempting to answer some questions forwarded by Jack O'Brien of Olney, we were stumped when the Olney fan asked what boxer it was that died supposedly from a blow received at the hand of the Mauler.

The information was forwarded to us yesterday by E. P. Turner of this city, who chanced to read the article.

Turner informs us that the unlucky boxer was Billy Miske, whom Dempsey knocked out in the third round of their bout at Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 6, 1920.

Miske, Turner said, died six months later, and it was believed that a body punch sustained in the Dempsey bout caused an internal injury that resulted in death.

Mr. Turner formerly boxed a great deal himself, and is well posted on the history of fighters.

Disillusioned Again

The Rambler never has been in position to see any of the present day headliners in action, and in the days when Dempsey was in his flower I was too young, or perhaps—ahem—more interested in affairs of the heart to give much of a dern whether Dempsey floored Willard, or Willard floored himself. Since those mushy days, however, I have read considerably in the boxing library. This reading had almost convinced me that men were too soft nowadays to stage any real bout, when Schmeling turned in a rather pretty fight to dispose of Stribling.

For the ensuing few days I found I was real excited over the German. Then came the news from Germany that Schmeling has a bum eye, and cannot come back to this country in September to meet his next challenger, Primo Carnera.

Somehow this revolted me. Alas, the poor boy has a sore eye, what? From two to three months rest is necessary to cure it, eh? One fight every year or so seems to be about the limit of our boxers' endurance.

Dempsey, in the old days when he boxed among the Colorado and Utah mining camps, sometimes fought as many as 30 or 40 fights a year. Surely he received more than a black eye from these bouts, but that didn't appear to stop him.

Mississippi Boy Breaks Four A. A. U. Sprint Marks

MERIDIAN, Miss., July 16. (AP)—Jack Burnett, Meridian, broke four sprint records in his first two competitions with the "big timers."

Jack last year was a freshman at the University of Mississippi. He set new records in the junior division of the Southern A. A. U. meet and the same division of the National A. A. U. meet at Lincoln, Neb.

At New Orleans, Jack ran the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds and the 220 in 21.2 He set new records in the same events at Lincoln, doing the century in 9.6, one-tenth of a second slower than the official world's mark of 9.5, and stepped off the 220 in 21.3

As a high school track star Burnett won every start.

LORBEER'S HIT DECIDES GAME

Steers Outplay Shippers Most of Way

BEAUMONT, July 16. (AP)—Lorbeer's blow to right that scored Holley from second in the ninth broke up a hectic ball game and gave Beaumont a 4 to 3 victory over Dallas today. The Exporters were roundly outplayed in nearly every department but their speed on base coupled with Todd's wild throw and Easterling's homer kept them in the running. Score:

Girl Athletes' 'Shorts' Brew Row in Australia

MELBOURNE, Australia, July 16. (AP)—Considerable disturbance is being raised in Australia over the amount of clothing women athletes should wear.

It started following a letter to the Victorian Women's Athletic association, in which girl athletes were described as "shameless and brazen" in going about in "short pants like men," and being responsible for "awful crimes" through their "immodesty of dress."

The association's secretary answered that "shorts" were essential for proper freedom of leg action, and that girls were taken away from the "temptations of life" by their outdoor exercise.

Tom Nash, former all-American end at the University of Georgia, is batting .306 with the San Antonio club of the Texas league.

Spuds' Opening Tilt With Tribe Is Rained Out

For the second time on the present road trip, the Spudders Thursday night were forced into idleness by rain.

Arriving in San Antonio for their three-day stand, the team was met by a heavy rain which made postponement necessary. A double-header will be played Friday night, it was announced.

Trainer Mauls Sharkey In Practice Round

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., July 16. (US)—No fighter a few days distant from an important match ever appeared so bad against his training mates as Jack Sharkey did today and the crowd of 300, which braved a slight downpour of rain to witness his labor, jeered and laughed at him as he fought like an armless man against a swarm of angry bees.

Joe Banovic, light heavyweight and former Binghamton neighbor of the American heavyweight title holder, who has resented Jack's attitude and Joe is nothing but a kid from home who had to be tolerated, made his big opponent miserable as he rushed him off his feet, pummelled Sharkey as he willed and absolutely beat his powerful adversary in a round which was one-sided in Joe's favor.

Sharkey could not stop the bull-like charges of Banovic who succeeded in pinning Jack's hands as he started punches and generally maltreated the Bostonian with sweeping left hooks to the head and middle.

Celebrities Watch Mickey Walker Train

ORANGEBURG, N. Y., July 16. (US)—With Dr. Jack Kearns putting on a barbecue as an added attraction to Mickey Walker's regular boxing matinee, the Orangeburg muscle manor was over-run with celebrities this afternoon.

Among the spectators was Tommy Burns, former heavyweight champion, who was not much bigger than Walker when he fought Marvin Hart for the title.

"I give Walker better than an even chance to win," he said after watching Mickey box seven rounds.

This was the high spot of Walker's training schedule. He boxed seven rounds today, two each with Don Petrin, Eddie Kid Whalen and Jack Webb and one with Barney Baker, the Patterson string bean. The toy bull dog warmed up slowly. He seemed loggy against Petrin and Whalen but got going in good style with Webb, who is as big as Sharkey but, it must be confessed, not as clever.

Eddie Moore, On Suspended List Due To Illness, Plans Comeback Next Year

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, July 16.—The 30-day suspension of Eddie Moore, veteran center fielder of the Fort Worth Cats, removes from active service one of the Texas league's finest ball hawks, base runners and popular players. The suspension of Eddie may create an impression his long and brilliant diamond career is over. It is doubtful if such is the situation.

Moore has experienced a bad year because of stomach trouble which has constantly prohibited him from giving his best.

The 30-day suspension will all but close Eddie's 1931 campaign. This winter he intends to remedy his ills and hopes for several more seasons of class A baseball. Moore, 10 pounds underweight, intends to rest at his Fort Worth home. Eddie is only 31 years old. He is still fast, still a reliable fielder and consistent hitter—smarter than ever; which means that Eddie's going out of the Fort Worth lineup and on the suspension list for the first time in five years removes the standard by which other Texas league outfielders are judged.

Art Phelan's Fort Worth Cats are missing Dick Whitworth's pitching in the second half. Whitworth will be out of Fort Worth's lineup for a week or two yet. He is nursing a bruised pitching hand. Dick is not with Fort Worth on the current road trip, but is working out daily at Fort Worth—that is, as much as his injured hand will allow.

Whitworth, who won 20 games for the Cats in 1930, will have to bear down and pitch often to reap as many victories this season. His current mound percentage is 11 victories and seven defeats. Whitworth's absence from the lineup is one reason the Cats are strangers to a first division berth.

On July 28, 25 of Texas' finest golfers will start long treks over the Dallas Brook Hollow Country club course in their sectional qualifying round of the 1931 national amateur golf championship. The national event starts Aug. 31 at Beverly Country club, Chicago.

Of the 25 golfers who will compete in the qualifying test from district six, seven will be eligible to qualify. Selecting the probable seven qualifiers is rather difficult, but some of the state's outstanding shot makers will be playing over their home courses, and it is only naturally to favor most of the qualifiers as Dallasites.

Gus Moreland, Texas' biggest tournament winner and current state champion, appears as a sure qualifier. Dr. S. M. Hill of Dallas, who holds the amateur course record of 67 at Brook Hollow, is another favorite among the first seven. C. L. Dexter, former Texas and Southern champion, knows the Brook Hollow course like a book. He is a good medal player and one of the ranking favorites. Edwin McClure, three times state champion of Louisiana, is an out-of-town favorite. So is Bryon Nelson, the young sensational link star of Fort Worth. Bud McKinney, formerly of Del Rio but now of Dallas, has toured the Brook Hollow course many times the last month and has consistently scored low. Houston's qualifying favorite will be Jack Dold, 1929 Texas municipal champion. Neil Smith, Brook Hollow's ace golfer and 1930 Dallas champion, will be among the favorites.

Only two non-Texans are entered in the sectional qualifying test. They are Edwin McClure of Shreveport, La., and Dr. William J. Bryan Jr., of Tulsa, Okla.

Back Stroke Swim Champ Keeps Title

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Eleanor Holm, 17-year-old national back stroke swimming champion, tonight successfully defended her national title at 220 yards in the second night of the national A. A. U. outdoor swimming championships at Bronx Beach on Long Island sound. She failed by almost four seconds of matching her world's record. The time was three minutes, four and two-fifths seconds.

Her world standard, set at Honolulu in 1929, is three minutes and three-fifths of a second. John McSheehy, of the Whitinsville, Mass., community center, was second, five yards back of the flying New York school girl and Lisa Lindstrom, of the Women's Swimming association of New York, Miss Holm's teammate, was third.

Helene Madison of Seattle, Wash., flashed to victory in the 440-yard free style event for her third national title defense in the current championship in five mintues, 42 and four-fifths seconds, three and two-fifths seconds behind her world standard.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Captaincies of varsity teams at Marquette university next year will be divided between athletes from the United States and Canada. The hockey and track teams will be headed by Canadian students.

DOEG, VINES IN TENNIS FINALS

Pair to Fight for Longwood Bowl Title

BROOKLINE, Mass., July 16. (AP)—Johnny Doeg, national singles tennis champion, and 19-year-old Ellsworth Vines, Pasadena, Calif., regarded as one of the game's outstanding prospects, gained the final round of the Longwood bowl tournament today.

Doeg moved into his third Longwood finale in five years by outsteadying Clifford Sutter, New Orleans, last year's winner, in an extra set match 6-4, 7-5, 4-6, 6-4. Vines gained what will be his eighth consecutive finals match in this year's campaign by roundly trouncing Wilmer Allison, second seeded Texas veteran, 7-5, 6-3, 6-4.

Mrs. Helen Wills Moody and Mrs. George W. Wightman, Brookline, in the women's invitation doubles entered the semifinals by defeating Mrs. Ary Lamme, New York, and Mrs. Robert Morris, Boston, 6-4, 6-4. Mrs. Moody then put on a one-set exhibition with G. Holmes Perkins, Massachusetts champion, during which she ran him leg-weary and finally defeated him, 7-5.

The only upset in the men's play came when Allison and Sutter, third seeded, were knocked out of the doubles semifinal by Fred Baggs and Dr. William Rosenbaum, the New York veterans, 6-4, 5-7, 6-2.

Malones Win Over Dixon Sign, 3 to 2

Jewel Sisk's crashing single down the third base line in the last half of the seventh inning Thursday afternoon on Debus field broke up an airtight pitchers battle between Homer Lewis and Harry Geyer and gave Malone Beauty Shop a 3 to 2 victory over Dixons. Homer Lewis pitched one-hit ball until the last inning and was holding a 2 to 1 lead when a double, an error, three stolen bases and Sisk's single wiped away his lead. Harry Geyer returned to his old time form and it was a pretty battle down to the last with Geyer giving up four hits and whiffing 10 men while Lewis gave up but three hits and fanned six. Score:

British and American Davis Cup Netters Start Inter-Zone Play Today

By FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, July 16.—On the neutral ground of France, the Davis cup tennis teams of the United States and Great Britain tomorrow start their three-day series of inter-zone matches to decide which nation will challenge during the following week-end the French holders of the famous tennis trophy.

Since 1927 France has held the cup against the onslaughts of the whole world.

Pierre Gillou, president of the French Tennis federation, in the presence of Sam Hary and H. Roper Barrett, non-playing captains of the two teams, drew from a hat names, which assured a fighting start for the series and added uncertainty to the outcome of the Anglo-American duel.

Sidney Wood, recently crowned Wimbledon champion, and then Henry W. Austin, Britain's ranking player, were first drawn. Frank Shields and Fred Perry then take the court while Saturday's doubles will be between George Lott and Johnny Van Ryn and Perry and George P. Hughes. Sunday the remaining singles will be played with the pairs reversed, Wood meeting Perry followed by Shields against Austin.

The hope in the American camp is that three British scalps will be captured by Saturday.

TO NAME TWO COACHES

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The University of Chattanooga Moccasins will have two new football coaches this fall. One will handle the freshmen squad, while the other will take charge of the varsity ends. "Scrappy" Moore, head coach, is playing baseball this season with the Birmingham Barons.

Night baseball games in Atlanta have been cut to two a week, and these are both to be "ladies' nights."

BRECK GOLFERS SEEK REVENGE

Eastland Team to Play There Sunday

Special to The Record News.

BRECKENRIDGE, Texas, July 16.—Smarting under a 11 to 8 defeat handed them by a young set of golf wizards at Eastland last Sunday, the Breckenridge Country club golf team planned to put in lots of extra practice all this week in an effort to avenge this defeat in a return match with the Eastlanders on the home grounds next Sunday.

The Breck golf club wielders have never tasted defeat on their home links, although they have yet to win a match away from home. Interest in golf here is due to pick up in the future. All greens of the home course are being retopped this week and should attract a number of followers of the game who heretofore have refused to take their game seriously with such bad greens to contend with as has been the case in the past.

A city tournament is being planned as soon as the greens are in shape, and an effort will be made to get women golfers out on the links more.

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Cotton advanced about $1.50 per bale today.

After selling up to 9.49 in the early trading, October reacted to 9.35 under realizing or selling, but firmed again in the late trading and closed at 9.47. The final tone of the market was steady at net advances of 26 to 30 points.

The opening was steady, unchanged prices to an advance of 5 points in response to the steadiness of the late Liverpool cables and reports of a better tone in the stock markets at London and Paris. There was considerable selling on the favorable weather reports from the South, but it was quite readily absorbed by trade buying and covering, which sent the market about 25 to 33 points net higher before the end of the morning, July sold up to 9.12 and December to 9.73 but the demand which was attributed chiefly to covering by shorts tapered off at these figures.

As the buying subsided, realizing seemed to increase and the market lost part of its gains, with December sagging off to 9.57 or about 16 points from the high level of the morning. Trading became quiet at the decline, however, and the market firmed up again in the last hour, when contracts appeared to be scarce and the market may have been influenced by the continued firmness of grain. July closed at 9.14 and December at 9.69, making recoveries of about 6 to 12 points from the low point reached on the early afternoon setback.

Some thought a continuance of the rains would increase the danger of boll weevil damage, but the more general comment was that they were favorable for the development of the plant. Reports of a better domestic demand for spot cotton may have been a contributing factor in the late afternoon rally.

Liverpool cables reported continental buying of the distant months in that market and said there were numerous small orders for cotton cloths in Manchester with yarns easy. Houses with both Liverpool and continental connections were credited with buying here during the morning. Exports today 9,900, making 6,829,880 so far this season. Port receipts 1,427. U. S. port stocks 2,845,018.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, July 16. (AP)—Cotton advanced today in moderately active trading owing to good cables and a more optimistic feeling as to the financial situation in Europe, coupled with a firmer stock market and by the end of the morning had advanced 30 to 31 points or a dollar and a half a bale.

This bulge attracted profit taking and prices eased off 12 points or a little over half a dollar a bale after mid-session. In the late trading prices recovered sharply duplicating the previous highs and making new highs on some months and closed steady with the general market showing net gains for the day of 30 to 32 points or about a dollar and a half a bale.

Liverpool was 1-5 penny points worse than due early but had rallied before the American rings opened. Private cables said the continent bought distant months against which there was more liquidation. First trades here showed gains of 5-7 points and the market continued to improve in early trading on the favorable European news.

Stock Market Takes No News As Good News and Prices Gain

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, July 16. (US)—In the absence of more unfavorable news on the German situation, stock prices today recovered a portion of their losses on Wednesday. The immediate excuse for aggressive sponsorship of various leading stocks was the rumor that a new half-billion-dollar loan or credit was under contemplation by European bankers or central banks. More definite details were lacking, and the story was not confirmable in the most important quarters here, which actually intimate that nothing of the kind is feasible for the present. The story, with its natural inference of a more cooperative spirit on the part of the French, was sufficient to stimulate a moderate buying movement which carried virtually the entire list up from the lows generally established at the opening. The volume of 1,500,000 shares, emphasized the professional nature of the day's trading. The market, however, is rather thin on both sides, so that erratic price fluctuations are possible each day.

The news from Germany seemingly confirmed the impression previously accepted here that the nation must work out of its own present difficulties with no outside aid. With no additional troubles disclosed as the banks reopened, the German mark recovered briskly, as did also the German bonds.

The stock market had been placed in position to recover by reason of an increasing tendency to sell short. Its technical position favored an improvement on the slightest provocation in the news. There was the additional incentive to price improvement, also, in rather large buying orders from Europe. The Europeans interested in the American market have been responding very gingerly to the constant turn of events on the continent, and today, their buying represented a substantial portion of the total demand, with the buying about equally divided between short covering and new investments.

Helped by this change in European sentiment, although there is still a feeling of decided nervousness, the most active speculative sponsors of the market furnished aggressive support to some of the leading issues, such as Steel, Can, and others. The industrial group was principally favored by this buying, the railroad shares being backward throughout the day. Heaviness in the rails quite obviously reflected estimates that New York Central's earnings for the first half of the year were little over interest requirements and possibly not more than 50 cents a share on the capital stock. Buying of New York Central on the reaction, however, was of impressive character. There is little haste exhibited in buying Central but apparently scale buying orders are placed just under the market. No one expects cheerful earnings statements currently from the railroad systems; the buying of rail shares is based entirely on hopes or expectations of improvement in general business, which cannot but help the systems.

Stocks with sizeable short accounts were among the strongest performers; American Foreign Power, International Telephone & Telegraph, and Case Threshing especially.

Lorillard was an outstanding performer, advancing more than a point net on aggressive buying of semi-speculative nature induced by estimates of substantial increase in earnings to accrue from the recent advance in cigaret prices. Lorillard is the lowest-priced of the leading cigaret stocks and there has been constant absorption of the issue in belief that maintenance of the higher cigaret quotations will add well over a dollar a share to Lorillard earnings. The stock currently enjoys very aggressive sponsorship.

Copper shares were helped by reports of somewhat better demand from abroad, although the price of the metal failed to reflect such improvement. The coppers harbor extensive short accounts, but buying of more than purely speculative nature is confined to reactions, and is mainly for the pull.

Penick & Ford was a sensation, soaring over 6 points on a favorable court decision upholding its patents against corn products. The latter was heavy.

Corn closed strong, 1⅞@3½ cents above yesterday finish, wheat 1⅝@1⅞c up, oats showing 1⅛@1⅝c advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 25 cents.

Forecasts indicated no immediate abatement of the illstarred combination of excessive heat and of moisture dearth. Damage already to corn was reported from some sections west and northwest. Elsewhere, urgent need of rain to avert crop injury el

Owsley Attacks U. S. Engineers in Russia

TORONTO, Ont., July 16. (AP)—Speaking before the Lions' convention today, Col. Alvin Owsley of Dallas, Texas, past commander of the American Legion, declared that the 3,000 American engineers and executives working in Russia under Soviet auspices would have their citizenship forfeited if they refuse to return to the United States in 30 days.

"The ruin and impoverishment of the free workmen of the United States will result from the industrialization of Russia," Colonel Owsley predicted, pointing out that Russian industrialization depends on conscript labor.

FREE BRIDGES ORDERED OPEN

Murray Halts Delay In Texas-Okla. Spans

to tear up roadbed on the Oklahoma side approaching the other bridges. I trust you will join me on your side of the line.

"It is absurd for any individual person or corporation to hold up two sovereign states and the project of the nation itself. I urge that you give like instruction on your side of the line."

An injunction has been issued by the federal courts to Denison toll bridge owners preventing Texas and Oklahoma from using the new bridge until settlement of a charter question. Just what action the federal government might take in view of the governor's executive order was not known here tonight. The Texas Highway commission was alleged by highway commissioners of Oklahoma to have made a contract several months ago permitting the toll bridge to operate for a certain time before opening the Texas side of the free span.

Governor Murray stated the Terral free bridge was completed Jan. 15 at a cost of $168,000 and the pavement approach finished May 1. The Gainesville structure built at a cost of $226,000 was completed April 16 and the pavement connection made June 10. He said the Denison bridge, which cost $225,000, was completed Feb. 25, and the pavement connection made July 1. "The delay in opening these bridges to free use of the public is the cause of undue expense and inconvenience to citizens of Oklahoma and prevents utilization of the bridges and roadways for which a great outlay of public funds has been made," the governor's order stated.

With the three Red river bridges opened, only one toll bridge remains on a major highway in Oklahoma, the Lexington-Purcell structure now in litigation over title.

Another angle in the toll bridge controversy came when the governor said W. C. Lewis, assistant attorney general, probably would go to Washington at once to ask the United States supreme court to enjoin the toll bridges from collecting further fees.

TEXAS COMMISSION HAS "NO OBJECTION"

ABILENE, Texas, July 16. (AP)—W. R. Ely, chairman of the Texas highway commission, said tonight that he had no objection to offer to the action of Gov. W. H. Murray of Oklahoma in ordering three new free bridges between Texas and Oklahoma opened today.

Informed of Murray's order, Ely said, "That's all right. The Texas highway commission wants all of the bridges opened."

Ely said the Texas commission had ordered the Terral bridge opened at 11 o'clock this morning. He said the Denison bridge had been closed from the Texas side due to a restraining order of a Houston federal judge and that he understood the Gainesville bridge was not opened because some construction work remained to be done.

Ely said that although he had not seen the restraining order issued by the federal court, he understood it was issued against the Texas highway commission. "If Governor Murray wants to have barricades on that bridge torn down, that is a matter between him and the federal authorities," Ely said. "The Texas highway commission contested the restraining order under which the bridge has remained closed. It seems that the commission should not be responsible however, if someone else tears down the barricade."

DENISON, Texas, July 16. (AP)—Automobile traffic was flowing across the Red river free state bridge here tonight following the removal of barriers by the Oklahoma highway authorities under order of Gov. William Murray.

Traffic was diverted to the free bridge from the toll crossing of the Red River Bridge company here which was blocked by Governor Murray's order at the same time.

Removal of the free bridge barrier at the Texas side was protested by C. T. Davis, assigned at the bridge for guard duty.

Bert McCaleb, Durant, Okla., division highway engineer, led a party of highway workers in removing the obstacles at the bridge. McCaleb drove the first car across from Oklahoma. He was followed by a party of Durant citizens.

Removal of the barriers opens the span which was recently constructed by Oklahoma and Texas at a cost of $250,000.

GAINESVILLE BRIDGE LACKS APPROACH

GAINESVILLE, Texas, July 16. (AP)—All obstructions were removed from the free bridge over Red river six miles north of here by Oklahoma employes today but autoists still using the toll bridge. Lack of approach made the state free bridge impassable.

No action to destroy the approach to the toll bridge on the Oklahoma side had been taken.

Edgar Turner, president of the Gainesville Red River Bridge company, expressed belief Governor Murray's order to make the approaches to the toll bridges impassable would not be carried out. He based this belief, he said, on the fact it would obstruct public travel.

One and sixth-tenth mile of highway leading to the free bridge on the Texas side is under construction. Four and four-tenths miles more, leading into Gainesville, has not been contracted for by the Texas highway commission.

Two wooden fences on the Texas side of the state bridges were removed by the Oklahoma road crew under order of Governor Murray.

TEXANS SURPRISED AT MOVE

AUSTIN, July 16. (AP)—Action of Oklahoma in ordering approaches to toll bridges across the Red river torn up in Oklahoma aroused considerable surprise and amusement among officials of the Texas highway department tonight.

The Texas commission has been restrained from opening the Denison-Durant bridge in federal court pending construing of a contract between the Texas commission and the operators of the toll bridges, the operators claiming the commission owes them approximately $150,000 if the bridge was opened now.

'One Way' Out

G. G. Wickline, chief bridge engineer, said it surprised him greatly that Oklahoma followed this procedure but admitted it was "one way to kill the cat." Wickline said guards were being maintained on the state's structure across the river to "prevent anything happening to it."

Gribb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, and members of the Texas commission were not in the capital and could not be reached for a statement.

T. H. Webb, assistant highway engineer, and Wickline said they believed the federal court injunction merely restrained the Texas commission from declaring the bridge open for traffic and doubted if any action could be taken should motorists arbitrarily decide to use the bridge. The highway department has erected barricades on the road and signs declaring the bridge closed by injunction. Highway department officials said they did not believe the injunction would be construed to mean that Texas was to prevent the bridge being used.

Several attorneys about the capital said they believed the injunction restrained the commission from opening the bridge but provided no action against persons who used the bridge.

A message from Governor Murray of Oklahoma asking Texas to take similar action was received but Governor Sterling was at Mineral Wells reviewing national guard troops and will not return to Austin before Saturday.

The Terral-Ringgold bridge, a free structure, was opened today.

SUGGESTS U. S. BUY EAST TEXAS FIELD

"It would remove a thorn from the side of the oil industry, a factor that has been blamed largely for present distressed conditions," said Warner, who a number of years ago was secretary of the Republican party in Wyoming. "With East Texas out of the picture crude prices should rise," he said.

Vegetable Dinner Recipes Given

plum ice cream and silver cake.

Summer Squash Stuffed With Corn and Tomatoes

Four or five summer squash.
One cupful cooked corn.
One cupful tomatoes.
Three-fourths teaspoonful salt.
Few grains pepper.
One teaspoon onion, finely chopped.
One cupful soft bread crumbs.
Four tablespoonfuls finely cut bacon.
Four tablespoonfuls cracker crumbs.
One teaspoonful sugar.

Wash and wipe summer squash for each person, cut through the skin on top and steam 25 minutes or until almost tender. Remove top and center. Mix cooked corn cut from cob, tomatoes peeled and cut in dice, salt, pepper, sugar, onion, and bread crumbs. Stuff the squash with this mixture, cover top with bacon mixed with cracker crumbs, and bake 30 minutes or until brown at 350 degrees F.

Beets With Mint

One-half cupful butter.
Three cloves.
Two tablespoonful tarragon vinegar.
One teaspoonful sugar.
One and one-half cupfuls small beets.
Six mint leaves.

Melt butter, add cloves, tarragon vingar, and sugar. Add beets, cooked and left whole or cut in slices. Simmer 10 minutes or longer, sprinkle with mint leaves cut in bits with scissors and serve hot.

Lima Beans Supreme

Two cupfuls lima beans.
One-half cupful cooking oil.
Two cupfuls tomato puree.
One medium onion.
One stalk celery.
Two gherkins.
One-half cupful stuffed olives.
One-half cupful grated cheese.
One tablespoonful Worchestershire sauce.

Soak beans and boil slowly one and one-half hours. Cook oil and tomatoes until thick, add onion, celery, gherkins and olives, all chopped quite fine, and Worcestershire sauce with salt and pepper as necessary. Mix half of this with drained beans; put into a bean-pot or covered casserole with the rest of the sauce. Bake one and one-half hours in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F. Uncover, sprinkle with cheese and bake until cheese has melted and browned.

Lima beans supreme might be served with French artichokes, carrot fritters, smothered cabbage, baker tomatoes, maitre d'hotel potatoes, head lettuce, fresh berries or peaches and cream, oatmeal cookies and lemonade.

Baked French Artichokes

Remove outside leaves from artichokes. Cut off stem close to leaves, cut off one-inch from top of leaves, separate carefully, and with a sharp-edged teaspoon remove choke from the center. The choke is fuzzy like a thistle. Soak one-half hour in cold water. Drain, put in a deep dish, half cover with boiling watre, add one tablespoonful salt and one tablespoonful vinegar, cover and bake one and one-fourth hours. Remove from water and place upside down to drain. Serve Hollandaise sauce in the center, or pass it. Leaves are drawn out separately with the fingers, the fleshy ends are dipped in sauce, and the tender part is eaten. The bottom to which the leaves are attached is also edible.

Peanut Croquettes

One cupful bread crumbs.
One cupful mashed potatoes.
One teaspoonful lemon juice.
One cupful chopped roasted peanuts.
One beaten egg.

Mix bread crumbs, potato, seasonings, and add one-half beaten egg. Shape into croquettes; dip in cracker crumbs and egg; and fry in deep fat.
