Winter Goes Out With One Last Rain

The past winter, the wettest in memory of old time residents, refused to give up without one more heavy rain before giving way to the first day of spring, which was Wednesday, the 20th.

Heavy rains which fell between midnight and dawn left a generous inch and a half in Eldorado Tuesday morning, leaving ditches and other low places standing in water.

With the ground already soaked with moisture the latest rain is slow in running off and is providing traffic problems on roads which are not paved. Several mentioned that they "almost got stuck."

Mrs. Edwin Jackson reported 1.50 inch at her ranch west of town and declared that the caliche road from there to town was in unusually bad condition and difficult to travel on.

As usual Tuesday's rain was not general. City of Eldorado seemed to draw much more than surrounding area.

More Wednesday

Another brisk rain arrived early Wednesday, adding an additional 6-tenths to the day before. In the west side of town water can be seen standing on the golf course and airport.

Heavy clouds were still hanging in the sky, promising more to come. But Average citizen is still saying, "Damned be he who first says 'nuf'."

Historical Marker To Be Placed April 21

The Official Texas Historical Marker for "Mr. C. C. Doty" will be dedicated (and later erected) on April 21, 1968, today announced Miss Sarah Miltia Hill of Eldorado, chairman of the Schleicher County Historical Survey Committee.

The marker will be placed on Texas 277, 12 miles north of Eldorado. Dedication plans will be announced by Miss Hill.

The cast aluminum marker with Swedish steel effect measures 18 by 28 inches and is sponsored by the Schleicher County Historical Survey Committee.

This is the third official Texas Historical Marker to be erected in Schleicher county.

The inscription on the marker will read:

"Christopher Columbus Doty — (April 16, 1857—October 26, 1944)

"First Permanent Citizen of Schleicher County Came to Texas from Missouri in 1879. Soon bought Headquarters at Ten-Mile Water Hole (1/2 Mi. East). Drilled first Water Well in County 1882 and erected first Windmill South of Concho River, thus establishing Area's Agricultural Industry.

"The organization of this County in 1901 included his Property and he was elected first Tax Assessor-Collector. Later was Justice of the Peace, a Rancher, active Methodist and a Mason. He married Alice Pancoast on June 3, 1887 and they had one daughter, Annie Marie."

The marking of local historic sites and landmarks is part of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee's 5-year RAMPs Program to Record, Appreciate, Mark, Preserve, and Survey Texas history. More than 3,300 Official Texas Historical Markers have been awarded throughout Texas since the RAMPs Program was begun in 1964.

This marker and its location will appear in the next edition of the "Guide to Official Texas Historical Markers," in tourist guides and on maps to stimulate tourist interest in this area, to provide interest in historical tours, and to acquaint the people of Schleicher County with their own unique historical past.

Revival Continuing At First Baptist Church

With Rev. Bob Campbell of Brownwood as evangelist and Walter Johnson of San Angelo in charge of music, the Revival services are continuing this week at the First Baptist church.

The Rev. Kenneth Vaughan, pastor, invites everyone to come to the remaining services which are held each day at 7:00 in the morning with serving of breakfast, and 7:00 p.m., Sunday, March 24, is the final day.

At the opening service last Sunday night, Mrs. Stigler's 6th graders rendered a special selection.

This coming Sunday at noon, dinner will be served the church young people at noon.

Drive-In Theatre To Remain Closed Permanently

Delbert and Imogene Edmiston are in the process of disposing of the equipment at their Eagle Drive-In Theatre on the east edge of Eldorado on the Menard highway. This action followed their announcement that they would not reopen this year.

Declining revenues in recent years and decreased attendance caused by the coming of TV and other activities which conflicted with movies on local showing nights, were all factors cited by the Edmistons in their decision to close.

The Edmistons opened the drive-in on Nov. 10, 1951, and operated profitably for a number of years afterwards.

Projection equipment was sold recently to a buyer in Dallas, and has already been removed. Mr. Edmiston stated that he will start dismantling the screen as soon as the weather warms up.

Mr. Edmiston still has the speakers and steel mounting posts for sale, along with popcorn machine, ice machine, and snowcone machine and some other equipment in the concession stand.

Announcement that the theater will close permanently, leaves Eldorado without such a facility. The Lone Star Theater here closed in 1955 and the building was subsequently converted into office quarters for Tom Ratliff's insurance agency.

Queen's Contest Is Week From Tonight

The Eldorado Lions Club is continuing arrangements for their Queen's Contest and program to be presented a week from tonight in the school auditorium, and the event is one of the main projects set to raise money to send the Eagle Band to Dallas on June 26th for the parade at the Lions International convention.

L. D. Mund, Ray Morgan and Jack Bell are the committee of Lions who are in charge of arrangements. They were lining up the girls for the contest this week and also selling sponsorships to local merchants.

Ticket sales have been under way for about the past week. They are being sold by the Lions Club members and by the Eagle Band if you have not already done so, get yours from any Lion or Band member. They cost $1.00 for adults and 50c for students.

Certain time will be 8:00 p.m. the evening of March 28th, a week from tonight.

Candidates Visit Here

Pete Snelson of Midland is trying to unseat State Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman in the upcoming Democratic Primary, and both candidates made recent visits here in the interest of their campaigns.

Snelson was here last Friday, and Hardeman was here Monday morning.

Both made calls in the business district and passed out cards.

Directors Were Still Figuring Late Wed.

Abilene and Odessa With Lowest Bids

Rose Construction Co. of Abilene appeared to be low bidder on the new hospital Wednesday, but a close second was J. W. Cooper Company of Odessa. At 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, directors were figuring alternates on both bids and were expecting to award bid to one or the other later in the evening.

The action taken yesterday was the final official step in a program which started in September 1966 to secure hospital and medical facilities for the county. After four months' work by a voluntary committee, a bill was introduced in the Texas Legislature in February giving authority for establishing a Schleicher County Hospital District. After passing both Houses the bill was signed by the Governor on April 6, 1967.

In a county-wide election on May 20th voters approved the district and issuance of $450,000 by a vote of nearly 3 to 1. County Commissioners then appointed seven directors who have since carried the ball up to this time. They arranged for sale of the bonds, purchase of land, employment of architect and consultant and other legal details.

The hospital plans, approved some time ago by the directors as well as the State Health Dept., call for a hospital wing with 8 rooms accommodating 16 hospital beds, and a nursing wing with 11 rooms. Also included will be offices for two doctors, together with kitchen and other necessary rooms to make up a complete medical facility.

The judging team composed of Clifford Schooley, Ross Whitten, Jimmy McGinnes, and Hyman Sauer, coached by V. A. teacher Glynn D. Hill, made a triple win last Saturday in San Angelo. They won the College contest, the sheep division of the contest, and since this is used as the Concho District contest, they won the district also.

Clifford Schooley was 3rd high individual of the contest with 456 points out of 500 possible.

Ceiling Work Continues At Methodist Church

Harold Susen's workmen continued this week on the remodeling project in the sanctuary of the Methodist church.

Target date for the congregation to reoccupy the sanctuary is Palm Sunday, April 7th. The congregation are presently holding Sunday morning church services in the educational building, under direction of the pastor, the Rev. D. G. Salter.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Mund Saturday

Mrs. Henry (Marinda Lucretia) Mund died at 6:00 o'clock Saturday morning in St. John's hospital in San Angelo where she had been for about two weeks, and after she had spent about a year as a resident in the Golden Years Nursing Home in Christoval. She was 91½ years of age and at the time of her death was oldest member of the First Baptist church here in Eldorado.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3:00 in the First Baptist church with the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Vaughan, officiating and he was assisted by the Rev. Baltis Matthews, who had been a friend of Mrs. Mund's for 22 years.

Interment was made in Bailey Ranch cemetery beside her husband, Henry Mund, who died in February, 1939. Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home had charge.

Pall bearers were: Lum Davis, T. P. Robinson Jr., Weatherly Kinser, W. F. Edmiston, W. O. Faulk, and Bill Gunstead.

A Schleicher county resident since 1904, Mrs. Mund was affectionately known as "Aunt Marinda" to a wide group of relatives and friends.

In the county's early days, she helped Dr. Patton, Dr. Newsom and Dr. Lewis deliver babies over the county and in recent years was often called on to verify birth certificates.

The Mund grandchildren and their families had traditionally observed her birthday with get-togethers and the most recent of these was held last summer in Christoval when she turned 91.

Mrs. Mund as born Marinda Lucretia McDonald, on July 30, 1876, the eldest of 10 children of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Jefferson McDonald of Gillespie county. Her father was a Texas Ranger.

Her early years were spent in Gillespie county on farms, and in and near the towns of Fredericksburg, Harper, and Doss. She remembered when many people were still being killed in the Indian raids and often families would group together, in twos and threes when isolated, for their mutual protection. Her family lived for a time in a log cabin and she was once chased by a panther.

A few months after her 16th birthday, Marinda was married to Henry Mund, who was 12 years older than she. They farmed for several years in Gillespie county and it was there that their three sons, Charles, Bill and Ervin, were born. All three are now deceased.

In 1904 the family moved from Fredericksburg to Schleicher county, making the trip here in several days with their belongings in a covered wagon.

They settled in this county in Bailey Ranch, where her husband farmed for many years until his death. The Mund children and grandchildren attended the Bailey Ranch and Eldorado schools, which were just being developed, along with the town, in the early days.

Following Mr. Mund's death, Mrs. Mund moved into Eldorado and made her home here for about 30 years before moving to the rest home.

Survivors include three of her grandchildren who live here: Charlene, Mrs. Orval Edmiston; L. D. "Jelly" Mund; and Becky, Mrs. Mike Moore.

The other four grandchildren are Mrs. Wendal Yates and Mrs. Jack Browning of San Angelo, Jack Mund of Llano and Charles "Tart" Mund of New Braunfels.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Claudia Galbreath and Mrs. Roy Andrews, both of Eldorado; 16 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

The Mund family were long-time members of the Bailey Ranch Baptist church until that congregation merged some years ago with First Baptist church here in Eldorado.

Reynolds H. D. Meets

On Tuesday, March 12, 1968 at 2:00 p.m., the Reynolds Home Demonstration Club held its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Henry Moore.

Present were our Extension agent, Mrs. Vida Kreklow, and nine members: Mrs. H. A. Belk, Mrs. Bascom Hartgraves, Mrs. L. E. Lloyd, Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. Arden Poole, Mrs. Jack Wade, Mrs. Cecil Williams, Mrs. J. Tom Williams, Mrs. Frank Williams, and Mrs. Wayne Mikeska as visitor.

Mrs. Moore as recreation chairman, played a selection from a recording by Dr. John Forbay, a well known lecturer on Why four freedoms of man.

We were delighted to have Mr. Ed Meador, local business man, to speak on the program subject, "Are You Getting Your Money's Worth?" and a continuation of last month's subject, "It's Your Business, Take Care of It."

We appreciate Mr. Meador's answering some pertinent questions on taxes and felt indebted to him for taking the time to attend our meeting.

At the close of our rather informal meeting Mrs. Moore served hot coffee, spiced tea and a scrumptious dessert, and we all felt we had participated in a lovely and enlightening afternoon. —Mrs. Arden Poole, Reporter.

Oil News

John Q. McCabe, Midland, reopened the Nancy "S" (Canyon) field of Schleicher county with completion of his No. 1 Harzke, southwest twin to the depleted opener and lone producer, 20 miles east of Eldorado.

It was finalized for a calculated daily pumping potential of 103 barrels of 41.7 gravity oil, no water, with gas-oil ratio of 100:1. Potential was based on an actual 23-hour test through perforations at 4,029-033 feet, which had been acidized with 500 gallons.

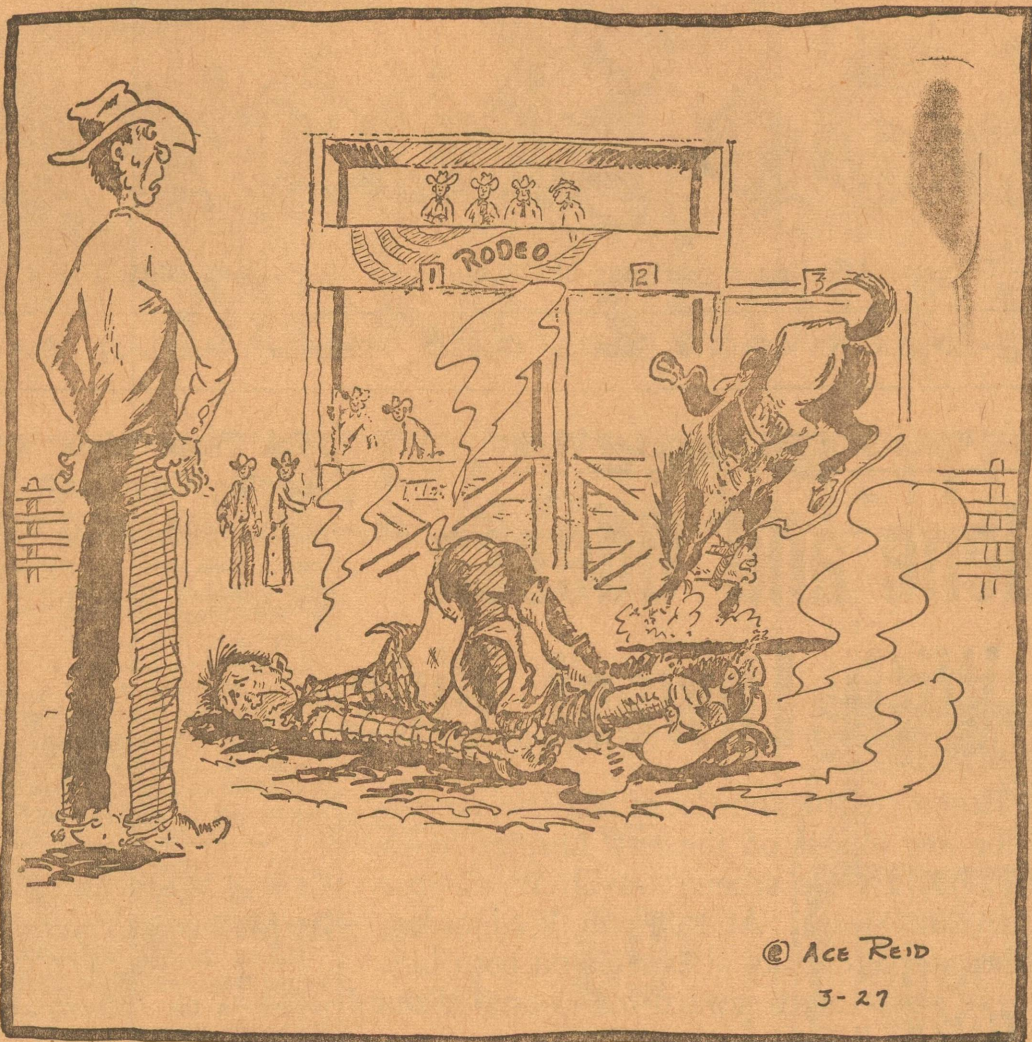

Top of pay was picked at 4,023 feet on Kelly bushing elevation of 2,187 feet. Slated as a 6,000-foot Ellenburger wildcat, it was drilled to 4,093 feet, with 4½-inch casing set at 4,092 feet, and plugged back to 4,058 feet.

Location is 2,310 feet from the north and east lines of 14-I-GH&SARR.

The Nancy "S" opener, L. E. Scherck No. 2 Wilson, was finalized May 18, 1954, to pump 211 barrels of 31.5 gravity oil through perforations at 4,033-049 feet. It became depleted April 19, 1955.

With these good rains it seems to me that we will "never see another poor day."

I would like to pass on to you some advice that I am borrowing from "Out of the Rough" by Elwyn Stobaugh, pro at San Angelo Country Club: "a round of golf can be a joyful experience or it can be frustrating, hard work. Strangely enough, this depends more on your attitude and character than it does on your skill. Therefore, it is important to keep a proper sense of proportion—golf, after all, is a game. Like 1. Do your best but recognize your limitations. Don't try to be something you are not. 2. Be very cautious of accepting free advice about your golf swing, or, anything else for that matter. 3. Forget your last shot and concentrate on the next. This is something that very few of us learn to do. 4. Abide by rules, use proper etiquette. 5. When your game falls apart, get professional advice and then, practice. As you know, it's not only how many good shots you hit but how few bad ones." Stobie's advice is good so let's all try to heed it.

How would you golfers like to have another mixed team play? Weather permitting let's try for Sunday afternoon, March 24, at 1:30 p.m. This will be men and women—best ball—12 holes—let's all be at the golf course and have a fine round of GOLF. —Rep.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tim Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Farmers have a wide choice of chemical and mechanical aids for fighting weeds and grass in their cotton fields this year. A control program using chemicals and mechanical means is not only cheaper but faster and easier to carry out than the old hand hoeing method.

There are nine preemerge chemicals, eight postemerges, three "layby" treatments and three spot sprays. Their efficiency was proved last year on more than 2.5 million acres of Texas cotton in 154 different counties, including Schleicher.

Four steps which growers have found important in carrying out a complete season weed control program include the application of a pre plant chemical; a preemerge spray as a band application at planting; early postemerge treatment and layby where adapted (mostly under irrigation and river bottom areas).

The use of pre-plant chemicals such as Planavin or Treflan is a suggested start. Also, DSMA can be used as preplant on Johnson-grass if an early spring brings out this grass. Then you can "over lay" with preemerge chemicals on a band basis at planting time with such materials as Caparol, Cotoran, CIPC, Karmex, Telvar or Herban.

Early postemerge chemicals include lateral oiling, DSMA, or MSMA for grass control and Herban or Cotoran combinations plus surfactants for broadleaf weeds, beginning when the cotton plants are three inches high and until bloom.

After the cotton is six inches high, Karmex or Caparol can be used on the weeds. For layby, some of the same preemerge chemicals can be used, some as a contact layby or late preemerge layby.

Interested farmers may contact the local county agent for a copy of the newly revised publication, B-1029, "Suggestions for Weed Control with Chemicals." It lists complete details on recommendations. Chemical container labels should be carefully read and followed.

Before television, nobody knew what a headache looked like.

Now is the time for Schleicher county ranchers to move their livestock if they are on the deferred-rotation grazing system.

The deferment period on one pasture will permit warm season plants to begin spring growth without injury from grazing. This is important because the plants need protection as the tender new leaves come out.

For those ranchers not in the deferred rotation grazing system, they should seriously consider beginning the system. The systematic deferment builds profits and provides stability and security against drought conditions.

When buying vegetable seeds and transplants it is very advisable to know varieties that are recommended in your locality. When the right variety has been selected soil, disease resistance, hardiness and earliness of planting is considered. Recommended varieties for this county may be secured at my office.

With tomatoes try Texto 2 and always the standbys for a sure crop Porters.

Don't forget the Di-Syston for early insect control. This is a systemic control for early season control of insects. You can in many instances double your yield of snap beans and greens. Do not use Di-syston on sweet potatoes or vegetables that produce tubers, potatoes, etc. No, this chemical is not poison but will repel insects the first 6-8 weeks of the vegetable life cycle. Thus snap beans will make in 45-55 days. You insure a good set of early beans that is usually destroyed by leaf minors, spider mites, or leaf hoppers.

A bachelor is a fellow who never finds out how many faults he has.

The replacement of tires on farm tractors involves a lot of money. A few simple precautions will reduce these costs and pay an added dividend in longer tire life.

Proper inflation is the most important part of tire care. Under-inflated tires may not look low, but the sidewalls will buckle when the tractor is pulling a load and will eventually break. You should check the tires for the right amount of air pressure every two weeks. Continued use at low pressure will reduce tire life by a fourth.

Tire slippage causes excessive wear as well as wasting tractor fuel and time. Using tractor wheel weights, as recommended by the manufacturer, or filling the tires with calcium-chloride treated water can prevent slipping by giving additional traction.

Careful driving and stopping can prevent still more tire wear and injury. Smooth stops and slow driving to avoid stumps, stones, and other obstacles saves a lot of punctures and tire bruises.

Sunshine and grease are harmful to natural rubber, and tires shouldn't be allowed to stand on an oil soaked floor. Nor should they be left in the sunshine when they are not being used. A lot of tire life can be saved by storing rubber-tired implements on jacks so the tires don't bear the weight of the equipment.

The pessimist shouldn't waste time worrying. He knows everything will turn out wrong anyway.

Famed Commentator To Speak Saturday In Angelo Coliseum

PAUL HARVEY

With the Presidential primaries under way, the rush on gold threatening world economy and the Vietnam situation seemingly growing worse, Paul Harvey, famous national radio and news commentator, should not be at a loss for words when he speaks at San Angelo Coliseum March 23.

Sponsored by the San Angelo Jaycees and Radio Station KGKL, Harvey will be here in conjunction with Jaycee Americanism month.

Advance ticket sales indicate a near-capacity crowd will jam the Coliseum to hear the man who has received numerous awards and honors since starting his broadcast career in 1944. Tickets can be purchased in advance for $1.00 at any Town & Country Food Store, or by mail to the Jaycees office, Box 1768, and KGKL, Box 1878. Tickets at the door will cost $1.25.

Harvey, noted for his rapid-fire, sometimes biting delivery and his keen insight into world situations, usually speaks on current affairs. Thus, his San Angelo appearance could not come at a more opportune time.

This will not be the native Oklahoman's first San Angelo appearance. He spoke before a capacity audience at San Angelo Auditorium in 1964. He drew over 2,000 in Brownwood last April and also spoke at Winters in 1965.

Starting time of the program will be 7:30 p.m. Harvey's speech will last about an hour and the entire program about 1 1/2 hours.

Speakers To Address Stamford Meeting

Each of the speakers on the program at the annual membership meeting of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., in Stamford on Friday afternoon, March 22, have important roles in both national and regional programs, according to Charlie G. Bragg, executive vice president of RPCG.

The meeting will be held in Stamford High School's beautiful new and comfortable auditorium, starting at 1:00 p.m.

They are John A. Baker, Washington, D. C., Assistant Secretary of Agriculture; Rep. Graham Purcell, Wichita Falls, Congressman from the 13th District; Mrs. L. B. McDowell, housewife and chairman of the Women's District Cotton Promotion Assn.; Joe B. Pate, Jr., Lubbock cotton farmer and president of the newly organized Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations; and J. B. Cooper Jr., Roscoe farmer and president of RPCG.

Capitol Cloakroom gossip these days centers on Presidential primaries, the King-Carmichael invasion of Washington on April 22, and Senator Fulbright's open hearing debacle.

The New Hampshire preferential was an oddity. Although only a relatively small number of votes was involved, the results made headlines both in this country and abroad. Despite a last-minute drive for write-in votes for Rockefeller (250,000 cards were mailed), he got only a trickle of votes. Senator Eugene McCarthy was the only Democrat on the ballot, and he picked up 42% of those votes—with about half of the total turnout writing in the name of LBJ.

McCarthy is one of the U. S. Senate's most extreme liberals—of the Kennedy clan variety. And like the Kennedys, he is a dove who finds no fault with Communist aggression in Vietnam. But his unexpectedly big vote has caused concern in the White House, and served to whet the appetite of little Bobby Kennedy, heir-apparent to the John F. Kennedy throne in the political arena. The next day following the New Hampshire primary Bobby bobbed forth with a "reassessment" of his presidential plans, making like he might try to grab the torch and get in front of the parade.

Prospects for a hot Spring on the Potomac were enhanced by Martin Luther King's announcement that he would bring a Negro army of 3,000 militants here on April 22 to demonstrate, encamp in parks, block buildings, and pressurize Congress. Insiders claim King's treasury is running a bit low and he needs a big splurge to induce more people to donate. King's getting help from his old cohort, Stokely Carmichael. Both are veterans of riot-making demonstrations and marches, and both are rabble-rousers who have been successful in inciting the gullible into action. King has served 19 jail terms, Carmichael not so many.

In any event, most Washington observers foresee a wave of crime and violence in the wake of the big King-Carmichael push. Many of us have urged that the President use all military and other force that may be needed to repel this conspiracy against law and order in the nation's capital. If the boom is lowered early, more serious trouble may be averted.

For some people National Peanut Week goes on for 52 weeks and then starts all over again. Even though this week, March 9-16, was the official one, it is in order to keep observing Peanut week for as long as you like.

Quick easy and good... These cookies taste like candy bars, and are a favorite with youngsters.

Candy Bar Cookies

- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 1/2 cup soft butter
- 3 teaspoons vanilla
- 4 cups raw quick-cooking rolled oats

1 cup semisweet chocolate pieces.

1. Start heating the oven to 350 F. Grease a 13x9x2-inch pan with unsalted shortening or salad oil.

2. With a spoon or electric mixer on medium speed, mix the brown sugar and butter in a large bowl until light and fluffy. Add the corn syrup, vanilla, salt and rolled oats and beat on low speed to mix ingredients well.

3. Spread the mixture evenly in the greased pan with the back of a spoon or spatula. Bake on the rack in the center of the oven 15 minutes.

4. While the mixture bakes, mix the peanut butter and chocolate in a small bowl.

5. Remove the pan from the oven and at once spread the peanut butter-chocolate mixture evenly over the top to cover until the heat melts the chocolate. When cool, cut into 27 bars and remove from the pan with a spatula.

To extend the comments on the many uses always available peanuts, I offer more and varied recipes calling for "goober peas" as they were once called.

Peanut Meat Loaf.—The recipe calls for 1 1/2 cups ground beef, 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion, 1/2 teaspoon powdered dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup finely chopped salted peanuts, 3/4 cup fine crumbs, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk and 1 tablespoon tomato juice.

Mix ingredients lightly. Bake in greased loaf pan at 350 degrees F. about 1 hour. Serve with tomato sauce. Serves six.

Macaroni and Cheese With Peanuts.—You'll need an 8-ounce package macaroni or spaghetti in small pieces, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, Cayenne pepper if desired, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups milk, 2/3 cup grated cheese, 3/4 cup chopped salted peanuts, 1/4 cup fine crumbs mixed with 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine.

Cook macaroni or spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Melt butter or margarine and blend in flour and seasonings. Add milk and cook slowly until thickened, stirring constantly. Arrange alternate layers of cooked peanuts in a greased baking dish, saving some peanuts and cheese for the top. Cover with white sauce and sprinkle with crumbs, peanuts and cheese. Brown at 375 degrees F. about 20 minutes. Makes four servings.

Peanut Cream Pie.—Ingredients include 1 cup sugar, 6 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg yolks, 2 cups milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 teaspoons butter and 1 cup roasted peanuts.

Chop peanuts. Sift sugar, flour and salt. Add beaten egg yolks and milk. Cook over boiling water until thickened. Add vanilla, butter and peanuts. Pour into baked pie shell. Top with meringue.

If the American people would only become as concerned with good, sound, health giving nutrition as they are with faddish crash, weight losing schemes, our chances to stay strong and healthy would be greatly enhanced.

Read what an eminent medical authority has to say about some of the more popular diets and if you are thinking about going on one—hold it, you may not choose to after all.

This Year's Crop Of Weight-Reduction Diets

The Low Carbohydrate Diet that is sometimes called the "drinking man's diet," is utter nonsense, has no scientific basis and is "chock full" of errors, according to Dr. Philip White of the American Medical Council on Foods and Nutrition. Some individuals on a low carbohydrate diet may at first undergo a change in water balance which might account for a loss of a few pounds, but weight loss is not permanent unless a reducing diet, adequate in all nutrients, is followed until the desired weight is reached. Maintenance of the desired weight is up to the individual.

Stuffing Diet. The so-called Mayo Clinic Diet has no connection whatsoever with the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. This diet completely eliminates sugars and starches. On this diet, as on any other, if you eat more calories than you use daily, you will gain weight.

Formula Diets. Formula diets, prepared liquid diets you buy or make to replace normal foods, are still in use and tempting many a wishful weight reducer.

Dr. Philip White of the American Medical Association, says, "Unsupervised use of a formula diet for short periods of time by those who are not grossly overweight, may assist individuals in losing a relatively small amount without presenting great difficulties. On the other hand, individuals who are excessively overweight and who may have additional ailments, such as heart disease, kidney disease or diabetes mellitus, should not undertake weight reduction without medical guidance."

Easter Seals Provide Services For Disabled

The Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children of Texas offers a variety of services to the physically disabled citizen of Schleicher county, according to Mr. Jo Ed Hill the Easter Seal Representative for the county.

"The Texas Easter Seal Society can provide services to people and families who cannot afford to pay all or part of the cost involved. We can assist in paying for physical, occupational and speech and hearing therapy when it is prescribed by a medical doctor," he said.

"Should a family or individual have to travel to another town for therapy we can help defray traveling expenses when the family is unable to meet them.

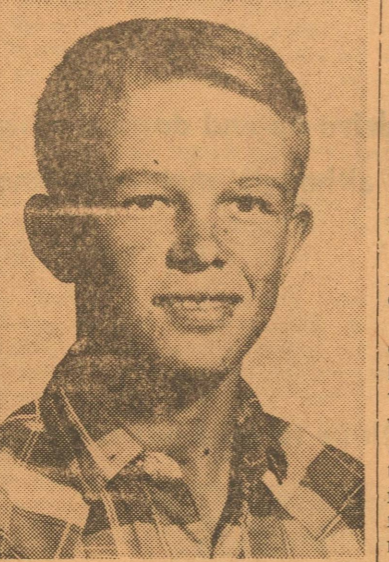

"We can also provide assistance to individuals and families in purchasing orthopedic equipment such as wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, braces when prescribed by a medical doctor.

"We can provide help to families in reaching the right person or agencies to receive help that the Easter Seal Society does not provide. This is very important when special testing, evaluation or hospitalization might be necessary. Also people are often eligible for services from public or private agencies but do not know the person, requirements, or place to get the help, perhaps the Easter Seal Society can help," he added.

Mr. Hill urged anyone who might be able to benefit from the help provided by the Easter Seal Society to contact him at First National Bank here in Eldorado.

Easter Seal Services are available to any adult or child with a physical handicap. The 1968 Easter Seal Appeal will provide funds for a wide variety of educational projects and treatment services for Texans. The campaign will run through Easter Sunday, April 14.

Eaglet Jr. High Track Team Scores In Meet At San Angelo

ARCHIE NIXON

New Shot Put Record For Meet

Competing against Jr. High Schools from San Angelo, Abilene, Snyder, Brownwood, Big Spring, and Colorado City, the Eaglet Jr. High boys learned that the competition is really tough in the big schools. The 7th grade failed to score in their division although some of them found themselves running harder than ever before to keep from being lost. These boys are beginning to get the competitive spirit. Their next competition as a team will be at McCamey on March 29.

In the 8th grade division, Archie Nixon continued to improve in both the shot-put and the discus, throwing the discus 144' 0" (9' short of the meet record), and the shot 52' 7" breaking the meet record by 8 inches. He also placed third in the broad jump. The relay teams ran well enough to place high in many junior high meets only to find themselves scrambling to keep from being lost. They also discovered that there is a lot of work needed on timing on hand-offs. Dobbie Lively placed 2nd in the 660 yard run.

April 6 Opening Nears For HemisFair

San Antonio, Texas.—The countdown clock is moving closer and closer to opening day and workmen are picking up the tempo in a bustle of activity to make sure HemisFair '68 is ready for its millions of visitors.

With less than a month to go, first-time visitors find it hard to believe the World's Fair will meet its April 6 deadline. Others who visit the grounds on a regular basis are amazed at the speed at which the $156 million showplace is taking shape.

Landscaping it going in on the banks of the lagoons. The miniorail made its maiden voyage around the 92.6-acre grounds the first of the month, and the Swiss Skyride continued its 1,000-passenger per day average. Workmen are still busy on the exteriors of some of the multitude of structures, but more are tucked away inside preparing exhibits.

In all, HemisFair '68 is a flurry of activity, and as each day clicks off the countdown clock, the eyes of the world focus more and more on the six-month World's Fair.

The race with the clock to be prepared to meet the millions of World's Fair visitors was obvious in the words of Marshall Steves, president of HemisFair, in his recent report to the board of directors.

"It will be ready on time," he said. "We may be backing out the gate with paintbrushes, but it'll be ready on time."

The $13 million civic center complex built by the city of San Antonio is ready for the opening. The 10,000-seat arena was the site a month ago for a performance by the Harlem Globetrotters. The San Antonio boat show was held in the huge exhibit hall, and the seats have been installed in the 2,800-seat theater awaiting the first performance of the opera "Don Carlo" to inaugurate the beautiful structure.

Many pavilions are completed and truckloads of exhibits are rolling up daily to others. The 622-foot Tower of the Americas focal point of the downtown World's Fair, is scheduled for completion at mid-month; the $6.75 million federal pavilion is substantially completed and carpet is being installed; and workmen are installing the 42 different movie screens in the overhead portion of the $10 million Institute of Texan Cultures.

The nearness of the opening is pointed up in more ways than construction and countdown clocks.

Visitors Services, Inc. reports its daily telephone and mail load tripling as vacation planners from throughout the western hemisphere write for reservations. Although meeting 100% success in filling those requests, VSI now asks those inquiring to offer a choice of several dates, if possible, if they desire rooms close to the Fair.

More than $2 million in tickets to the Fair have been sold and the peak is not expected until this month. The response in both departments has led officials to believe the estimate of 7.5 million persons attending the Fair is conservative.

COMMISSIONED 2ND LIEUT.

San Antonio, Tex.—Joe Charles Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Christian of Eldorado, Tex., has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force upon graduation from Officer Training School (OTS) at Lackland AFB, Texas.

The lieutenant, selected for OTS through competitive examination, is being assigned to Chanute AFB, Ill., for training as an aircraft maintenance officer.

Lieutenant Christian, a graduate of Eldorado High School, received a B. S. degree from Angelo State College, San Angelo, Tex.

His wife, Melva, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pfluger of 1606 Parker in San Angelo.

Austin, Texas.—All those candidates for governor got a hefty bit of pressure off them when both the state Democratic and Republican executive committees decided to put the question of liquor-by-the-drink on the May 4 ballot.

With increasing concern over liquor-law enforcement and the Texas Liquor Control Board, coupled with Gov. John Connally's push for liquor-by-the-drink, gubernatorial candidates have been pressured hard for their stand on the issue.

Now, with the question being put to the voters in a referendum, all the candidates have to say is that they will abide by the wishes of the voters.

Also on the ballot as referendums will be the question of pari-mutuel horse-race betting and the creation of a Texas Dairy Commission with the power to regulate and fix the price of milk and other dairy products.

Although none of the voters' answers to the three questions will be binding, the issues do assure a high turnout of the more than 4,000,000 registered voters. It will take an act of the Legislature to put any of them in effect. Ballots will merely say: "This proposition is only an expression of public opinion and has no force or effect as law."

Legislature directed the first primary vote on local option pari-mutuel gambling. Petitions signed by 119,000 voters called for voter opinion on creating a Texas Dairy Commission with power to regulate milk prices.

Both party leaders decided the liquor-by-the-drink issue is hot enough to warrant a check on that, too. This referendum will be the first opportunity Texas voters have had to express their opinions statewide since the repeal of prohibition in the 1930's.

Campaigns already are shaping up on the high-voltage drinking and gambling issues. Opponents of a dairy commission also are organized for battle. Anti-Crime Council of Texas has formed to combat organized crime and defeat the racing proposition. Committee for Tourism and Regulated Sale of Mixed Drinks stands ready to get back into action. Dry spokesmen report they have organized to fight liquor-by-the-drink. Texas Racing Association is ready with a campaign for a wagering proposal.

Meanwhile, House committee studying liquor laws has asked for an attorney general's opinion on constitutionality of a mixed drink local option bill.

Parks Improved

While finishing touches were supplied to the $1 million renovation of the Davis Mountains State Scenic Park near Fort Davis, new federal grants were approved for four other state parks.

Federal funds of $104,140 matched by a state appropriation of like amount will finance a 498-acre park 14 miles southwest of Cleburne.

Federal funds of $28,500, also matched by legislative appropriation, is earmarked for Mission San Francisco del Los Tejas Historic Park northwest of Crockett, a 118-acre historic park in the Piney Woods.

Lake Brownwood State Recreation Park near Brownwood will get $117,150 federal money matched by the state for its 538-acre park.

Another federal grant of $99,900 matched by state funds, will create the 588-acre Bentsen-Rio Grande Valley State Scenic Park near Mission.

Dedication tentatively is set for March 28 of the Davis Mountains Park. Also slated for dedication by Governor Connally that same day at the Park is scenic Texas Mountain Trail, one of ten unveiled by Connally last January to lure tourists off the beaten path into Texas areas of outstanding beauty and historic interest.

Screwworm Cases Cut

Texas' screwworm eradication program cut reported cases of infestation from 49,484 in 1962 to 1,219 in 1967. So reports Auditor C. H. Cavness in his audit of the Animal Health Commission.

Commission's share of the program has been turned over to the federal government except for security supervision of the Rio Grande Valley screwworm fly production plant and the required inspection force.

Courts Speak

State won its $1,000 civil penalty suit against a Bellville contractor under a water permit law. The road builder was first permanently enjoined from using public waters without permit from the Texas Water Rights Commission.

State Supreme Court denied rehearing of decision that Hillsboro cannot enforce a peddlers and vendors ordinance against an insurance company.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a six-year probated sentence for a Houston lawyer who encouraged his client to lie on the witness stand.

Same court ordered a new trial for the man who received the death penalty for the shooting death of a potato chip salesman in Chambers county.

Short Snorts . . .

Texas Railroad Commission set May 7 for hearing on current market price for gas used for light and fuel in the Panhandle.

Rio Grande Valley cotton farmers have been given a 13-day planting extension (until April 13) because excessive rains and low soil temperatures have made planting impractical under the old schedule, says Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

A report on South Africa's mohair industry will be given Saturday, March 23, in Brady by three Texans who toured that country as representatives of the Mohair Council of America. The three are James L. Powell of Fort McKavett, Al Dishman of Uvalde and Armer Earwood of Sonora. The Mohair Council will sponsor an open meeting of mohair producers, warehousemen and all other people interested at 10 a.m. in Brady High School's cafeteria on 11th West St.

He also announced a brief directors' meeting after the presentation. Its purpose will be to discuss plans for adapting the South African methods to the specific needs of the Texas industry. He said it is hoped the meeting will conclude by 1:00 p.m. Lunch will be available in the cafeteria.
