Program Held For C. C. Doty Marker

State Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman was among those on the program at the dedication Sunday afternoon at the Memorial Building of the market commemorating C. C. Doty.

A tribute to Mr. Doty, pioneer citizen of Schleicher county, who drilled the first water well in this county in 1882, and erected the first windmill south of Concho river, was given by Don McCormick.

Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene discussed "New Plans and Aims of the Survey Committees" and Senator Hardeman described the growth of museums, historical committees over the state, and their aims and purposes.

The aluminum marker citing Mr. Doty's contributions to county history has already been erected on Highway 277 about 12 miles north of Eldorado. It cites his lifetime, 1857 to 1944, and cites his "headquarters at ten-mile water hole, ½ mile east".

A mile in both directions on the highway are signs proclaiming Historical Marker One Mile Ahead so that interested motorists can turn off and read it.

This is the third such marker placed in Schleicher county. Previous ones have been put on the Col. Black house in the east part of the county and on the County Jail which also serves as sheriff's residence here.

The markers have been placed upon recommendation of the Schleicher County Historical Survey Committee, of which Miss Militia Hill is chairman.

She had had a hospital stay shortly before being involved in the accident last week end. She was on the bus going to Midland where she planned to visit relatives.

She is making satisfactory recovery in Clinic-Hospital in San Angelo this week.

Post Script

The Democratic Primary election comes up Saturday of next week, and as we are about to enter the final week of campaigning, I'm wondering just what to say about it.

When you go to the polls May 4th you'll be faced with a ballot where ten candidates are in the race for Governor. It is the first "open race" in a number of years since the incumbent, John Connally, did not seek re-election. Ask just about anyone what they think about the Governor's race and they will say they just don't know. They don't seem to be interested and perhaps many will not bother to vote. In recent weeks, some national events of importance have taken attention from the Governor's race here.

A commentator last week described the Texas voter as being "apathetic"—that he couldn't care less.

Of course the first primary will narrow the field down to two for the run-off primary a month later, which may generate some fireworks.

Local Scene

When local politics generates a head of steam it usually brings out a large absentee vote, but we called the County Clerk's office Tuesday and were informed that only 36 absentees were listed at that time. Next Tuesday, April 30, is the final day for voting absentee in person or requesting ballot by mail.

Our only county-wide race is for Sheriff where incumbent Orval Edmiston has James Mika as an opponent.

Precinct One, which includes the city of Eldorado, finds three out for County Commissioner—Gunn, Williams, and Kinser; the latter the incumbent. Could be a run-off in this one.

District Races

Dorsey Hardeman is again running for re-election as State Senator from the 25th District and again has as his opponent, Pete Snelson of Midland. Two years ago Hardeman defeated Snelson by the narrow margin of 65 votes and the race again promises to be close. Both have organized supporters in each county who are engaged in intensive canvassing.

For State Representative we have our young incumbent, Hilary Doran running for his second term. His opponent is Ricardo Padilla of Del Rio, who has never been back to Eldorado since he came to pay his filing fee with our County Democratic Chairman. Apparently he is concentrating his campaign in Val Verde county, and the border area.

When our hospital bill was passed in the State House and Senate over a year ago we publicly expressed our appreciation to Rep. Doran and Senator Hardeman for guiding it through—and we still appreciate it.

Congress

Congressman O. C. Fisher, who has been in office 25 years, drew his first opponent in 14 years in a Democratic Primary when Gordon Johnson of Odessa announced in January. That race, too, has remained quiet despite the fact that the 21st Congressional District now stretches 350 miles, from Odessa on the west to a slice of San Antonio on the east.

Returns—Night Of May 4th

Eldon Calk stated this week that he has tentative plans to again place an election return board at the front of his Eldorado Drug store the night of the Democratic Primary. As returns are tallied, they will be posted on the board and a running total will be kept from the various boxes from over the county.

Further details on this will be announced next week.

School News

The Junior-Senior banquet will be held Saturday night in the Memorial Building. The Juniors are spending much of this week decorating the main room; the theme of the banquet is traditionally kept secret until time of the event.

Walter Wallis elementary school principal, reports that the end-of-school picnics and events are coming up.

This Friday the 6th grades will take their field trip to San Angelo with their teachers, Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Humphries, and the room mothers. They will go to the Mathis weather station, the Coca Cola plant, the Fort Concho Museum, and Holsum Bakery. They will have a picnic lunch at noon. They will leave in a school bus at about 8:00 a.m., and be back late in the day.

The 3rd and 4th grades will have their end-of-school picnics on Monday and Tuesday of next week. The 5th grade picnic will be Wednesday, the 2nd grade on Thursday, and 1st grade on Friday. All picnics will be here in town at the Court House and County Park.

The kindergarten, or Pre-School For Five-Year-Olds, was closed out last Friday. There were about 44 pupils in the morning and afternoon groups, and Mrs. Robinson was instructor, with Mrs. Jay and Mrs. Morgan assistants.

Lions Set Barbecue And Stage Show

Thursday, May 23rd, is date set by the Lions Club for a Barbecue to be followed by a Stage Show, and it is hoped that these events will raise the thousand additional dollars needed to send the band to the Lions International Convention on June 26th to march in the parade, at Dallas, Texas.

The barbecue will be held that day at 6:30 p.m. on the court house lawn, and the stage show at 8:00 will feature Mr. Charlie Brown of Bronte, in addition to other local talent.

Tickets have been printed and will be sold ahead of time for $2 each by the Lions Club members and members of the Eagle Band.

Boss Lion Bill Rountree and Raymond Hall, secretary, were making arrangements to send some of the tickets to neighboring Lions Clubs so that a number of out-of-town Lions can attend. The Eldorado Eagle Band will represent District 2A-1 at the parade in Dallas in June.

There are two shuttle relays run on the football field, the 160-yard shuttle and 240 yard shuttle.

The other three relays are run on the track, the 440 relay and the 880 relay plus the 300 yard medley in which the first and anchor girls run 100 yards and the second and third 50 each.

The competition is the best and will help the Eaglettes measure the competition across the state.

The latter units are especially built for elderly people, and are located near the First Christian Church.

Mrs. Gilmore is executive secretary of the Public Housing Authority and will be glad to show the rental units to anyone interested. The amount of rent is based on family income and several other factors.

Daylight Saving In Effect Again Sunday

Once again, we are about to make the change to Daylight Saving Time. This Sunday, April 28th, is the last Sunday in April and is designated as the start of the 6-months period for the new time. "Spring Forward—Fall backward" is the saying which reminds you which way to set your clock by one hour at change-over time.

The easiest way to take care of it, is to set your clock ahead an hour just before you go to bed Saturday night. If you retire at 10:00 p.m., move your watch to 11:00; then you are all set for the new time set-up. Don't forget to do it, or you'll be an hour late for church.

Bobby DeLong Is In Shannon Hospital

FFA BOYS PARTICIPATE IN CONTESTS AT ANGELO

The 16th annual 4-H and FFA wool and mohair judging contest was held last week end at Angelo State College.

In the range judging contest held Saturday morning at the ASC Farm north of San Angelo, Eldorado FFA Chapter judging team No. 1 came in first with 1,560 points. Members of the team include Sam Oglesby, William Edmiston, Pete Whitten and Jack Williams. Coach of the team was Richard Pafford, assistant vocational ag teacher in the local schools.

Eagle Trackmen Win Reg'l Championship

The Eagles of Eldorado finished their 1968 track season in style Saturday afternoon in Lubbock at the Region 1-A finals. They had totaled 42 points for their performance to lead the other Class A schools in this Region that runs from the Panhandle to El Paso to Sonora to Abilene. This is the largest region in the state.

John Mayo, who has been the "big run" all season, started the day off by winning the shot put with a toss of 59' 7½" and placing 2nd in the discus with 161' 11". This qualifies John for the State Meet in Austin on May 2, 3, and 4.

In the track events, Eldorado had qualified all of their boys to the finals from the preliminaries that were held Friday in a sand storm. In the finals, the boys who place 1st and 2nd qualify for the state meet. Wayne Doyle was 4th in the 100-yd. dash, Paul Page ran a 50.6 quarter to place 3rd, and R. L. Lozano was 5th in the 440 with a 51.1. The mile relay team composed of Doyle, Roy Davidson, Lozano, and Page were 3rd place with their best time of the year of 3:27.1.

The track team has had a real fine record this season and they have brought back 10 trophies and two championships to Eldorado. They will be losing Mayo, Lozano, and Davidson by graduation.

These three young men have done an outstanding job of representing their school and community the past 4 years, not only in track, but in all phases of their athletic endeavors.

The entire track team for the 1968 season besides the boys who went to region are: Keith Williams, Steve Sykes, Sam Oglesby, Albert Torres, James Davis, Mickie Clark, Bob Page, and Mike Olson.

Coming up from the B-Team for next season will be John Danford, Joel Muzquiz, Walter Speck, Debbie Lively, Bradley Roden, Bob Sykes, Roy Jones, and Charles Adams. Archie Nixon and Billy Hubble will be up from the Jr. High team.

Wilde To Be Honored For Conservation

An outstanding program of farming has won for Ello L. Wilde of Eldorado an award as Outstanding Conservation Farmer of the Year.

The award will be presented to Wilde in San Angelo on May 10 at a banquet sponsored by the Eldorado Divide Soil and Water Conservation District and two other Soil Conservation Districts that join this district. This presentation is in conjunction with the Fort Worth Press Awards Program of "Save the Soil and Save Texas." On Wednesday, May 22, 1968 the award will be presented to Wilde at the local Lions Club.

Wilde has worked with the Eldorado Divide SWCD since April of 1959. He worked out a conservation plan with assistance from a Soil Conservation Service technician, Bill Rountree of Eldorado. This plan served as a guide for Wilde to carry out a complete conservation program on his 640-acre farm 19 miles northwest of Eldorado.

In 1960 Wilde had 9,702 feet of terraces constructed. In 1961 he had 3,517 feet of diversion terraces constructed. The diversion terraces were constructed above the old terraces that were on the place when he bought it. The old terraces needed work done on them to get them back to needed height and end-closures. Wilde did the maintenance work needed on the old terraces in 1961.

When the old terraces were constructed on the place about the late 1930's, terraces were left out that were needed. During the dry years this situation caused little trouble. However, in the spring of 1967 about 5 inches of rain fell in a very short time and the runoff from the un-terraced area helped cause the terraces to break. As soon as the field was dry enough to work, the breaks in the terraces were filled in. The latter part of 1967 the remaining terraces needed on the place were constructed. Also, more maintenance work was done on the terraces damaged by the big rain in the Spring.

The conservation cropping system has been considered by Wilde, equally as important as the mechanical practices needed on the place. One of the things he did soon after he bought the place, was to remove all outside fences around the cropland. Removal of these fences has almost eliminated the possibilities of grazing the residues from field crops. Wilde considers the residues more important for soil protection and improvement than for grazing. His rotation consists of mainly cotton and grain sorghums. About 1/3 grain sorghum; 1/3 cotton; and 1/3 of his cropland follow each year. By rotating in this order cotton is only on the same land one year of three as is on land that was fallow the previous year.

Crop yields are proof enough that Wilde's application and maintenance of all the needed soil, water and plant conservation practices are paying dividends. In 1966 his cotton yield was 124 bales on 114 acres. His maize that year was better than some of the maize on irrigated fields in the area.

Wilde's exceptional good yields in dry years is well known in this area. He has examples each year as to the benefits of conservation practices.

Conservation practices carried out on the Wilde farm include conservation cropping system, 575 acres; crop residue use, 575 acres; contour farming, 575 acres; terrace construction 82,619 feet; diversion terrace, 3,696 feet; deferred grazing, 61 acres; proper grazing use, 61 acres; and range seeding on 9 acres.

The Wilde farm with the above conservation practices applied catches the rain where it falls, and gets it into the ground where it can be used to produce crops rather than running off and carrying precious fertile topsoil with it.

Ford Oglesby Jr. and John Hanes of El Dorado Woolens have been on a business trip to New York this week.

Mrs. P. S. Dudley became ill Monday and was taken by ambulance to the Sonora hospital, where she was reported making good progress Tuesday.

Endorses Hardeman For Re-Election

I am proud to be an American, a Methodist and a Democrat, and that I live in Schleicher county where we enjoy the wonderful privileges and blessings which are ours to enjoy individually, where each one who has availed themselves of the right to vote, will exercise his or her right to inform themselves on the qualifications of a distinguished, informed, loyal and dedicated man, who has served us faithfully for many years as our Senator, and wishes to be re-elected Senator of the 25th Senatorial District. I accepted Hon. Hardeman's Schleicher county campaign manager, by recommendation from an outstanding Schleicher County citizen, with Senator Hardeman's understanding that I would give whole hearted, loyal support, but require his answer to all questions which might be against him.

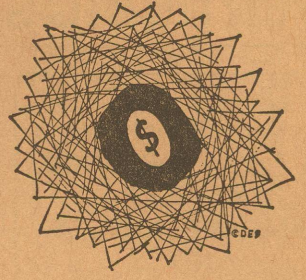

Senator Hardeman has complied with each inquiry, many of which astounded him, as well as myself. I will be more than eager for you to be informed by his written statement.

Senator Hardeman feels at home in Schleicher county. I have personally known him many years, and can truthfully say there has never been a request, of which I am aware of, that he has not exercised his authority to seek the best of those he represents.

I have had the privilege of being seated on the Senate floor on several occasions, some of which he knew I would be present, but other times he was not aware of my presence, and he always conducted his position of authority seeking to serve his fellow man.

We must re-elect him; otherwise our area will have a less experienced representative in the Legislature. We need to keep representation by a man who lives close to home and understands our problems. --Mrs. Palmer West.

Senator Hardeman

In early April the Texas Restaurant Association met in convention in Galveston.

One of the main pieces of business to come out of this meeting was the open instruction to all members to work against Dorsey Hardeman for State Senator.

Do you know why?

Dorsey Hardeman is against a liquor-by-the-drink law.

Restaurant owners know that they can make more money selling liquor than by selling food and they would like to get Senator Hardeman out of their way.

That's why.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Guidelines have been written (1967) for your agent and mailed to producers who have worked with beef cattle, angora goats, production of fat, feeder, and stocker lambs, accelerated lambing, lamb feeding, swine production, wool and mohair preparation for market, cotton production, grain sorghum production and small grain production. These guidelines pin point the do's for increased production by using the latest technology with known management, to increase income for all producers in the county.

Why not a guideline for a thing of beauty, like a pecan for a shade and still bear and produce excellent quality fruit when proper care is given?

This guideline will be coming to every family to the county this week. Soils, varieties, planting, fertilization, watering, inject control use of systemic poisonings to control insects are some of the subjects home owners should know in meeting health care practices in order to have vigorous and beautiful trees.

Adolescence is when you think you'll live forever; middle age is when you wonder how you've lasted so long.

Congratulations to Richard Pafford, vocational agriculture instructor in training at Eldorado High, and to the FFA team trained in range judging who came in no. 1. Members of the team were Sam Oglesby, William Edmiston, Pete Whitten and Jack Williams.

Winning the Angelo State College range judging event means that these youngsters are ready for the big time.

The Walter Pope invitational grass identification and range contest hosted by Mr. Walter C. Pope and sponsored by the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District, will be held Saturday, May 11, at the Pope Ranch. 4-H and FFA teams from adjoining counties are being invited to attend. A barbecue lunch will be served by the Papes to contestants and invited guests.

Golf is like taxes; you drive hard to get to the green and then wind up in the hole.

With screwworm cases on the upswing, livestock producers are now in a critical period.

This year the first case in Texas was confirmed on March 26, and more cases are being reported. One of the major causes for this early infestation was the movement of cattle from the interior of Mexico into the northern barrier zone for better pastures. Warm weather, humidity, and a large number of wildflowers, weeds and grasses are also adding to the possibility of more screwworms moving into Texas. This year the potential for screwworm cases is greater than it has been in a number of years.

All livestock owners are urged to check their animals on a day-to-day basis. They should examine and treat all wounds on their livestock. Injuries can be kept to a minimum by checking fences, pens, and chutes for protruding nails, wires, or splinters. Navel wounds of newborn animals should be treated and rechecked frequently.

It is also important to control external parasites by spraying or dipping the animals with a recommended insecticide. For further information, producers can pick up a copy of "Texas Guide for Controlling External Parasites on Livestock and Poultry," Leaflet 256 at the county agent's office.

Worms taken from wounds should be sent to the Mission Screwworm Laboratory for identification. Livestock owners who need vials for the larval samplings or instructions on collecting the samples should contact the county agent's office.

If you want to know how long it will take to get to the top of your career, consult a calendar; if you want to know how long to fall to the bottom, consult a stop watch.

Operation Big Number is not a game. It's a way of helping senior citizens see needed telephone numbers in a hurry. First "thought up" by Schleicher County Committee on Aging, the idea has become of interest to other committees planning programs for the elderly.

The specialist for family life education on aging, Minnie Bell, of Texas A&M University, explains how the project works.

A list of senior citizens living alone or home bound should be contacted for 5 or 6 important telephone numbers. These usually include the doctor or hospital, the sheriff, the fire department, an ambulance driver, a close neighbor or a relative. The numbers, in large size (3 inches), are painted on an attractive board with a cord for hanging near the telephone.

Many aged persons do not see well. In time of an emergency the large telephone number board facilitates a necessary call, says Miss Bell.

Members of the Schleicher County Committee on Aging are: Mrs. Leo Prater, ch., and Mrs. Ethel Jeffrey, Mrs. Edwin Jackson, Mrs. John Gilmore, and Miss Constance Spence.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman
O. C. FISHER

When should the flag be flown at half-mast? A dozen inquiries have been received, following the President's action in ordering them lowered for the late Martin Luther King.

There is a routine practice for half-mast following the death of a President, Vice President, member of the Cabinet, a General of the Army, Fleet Admirals, members of the Congress, Service Secretaries, Supreme Court Justices and Governors. Likewise, ex-Presidents and ex-Vice Presidents are included. The President may, at his discretion, extend the honor to others of extraordinary renown.

The Library of Congress can find but a few times in our history, prior to this past week, when a President has ordered the flag flown at half-mast for a person other than one in or formerly in an officially recognized status: Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, General McArthur, the Pope, Adlai Stevenson, and Winston Churchill. On a few other occasions, the Unknown Soldier of Korea was so honored, and also the heroes who lost their lives on the submarine U.S.S. Thresher.

There will be those who will question the propriety of including the controversial King in this list.

Damages caused by Negro riots in Washington are now estimated at $13.5 million. There were 8 killed. The claim that the riots here were in protest against the killing of Martin Luther King is pure hogwash. That killing served as an excuse, not a reason, for the outbreaks by mobs of Negro hoodlums who would rather steal than work for a living. To this vast criminal element a riot is a license to steal and plunder and burn. In organized packs, they clean out store after store.

Those who think for a moment that the passage of any kind of a civil rights bill will placate these despoilers and stop riots, should go to see a doctor and have their heads examined. The Congress has passed a half dozen extreme civil rights bills during the past ten years—and following each of them, there were increased racial violence, vandalism and bloodshed. Each of those civil rights bills was properly analyzed as being 10% civil rights and 90% politics.

But history keeps repeating itself. Liberal Democrats go hogwild in their lust for Negro votes. And Republicans register an even higher percentage of their membership in Congress for election-year civil rights bills—still hoping to get those Negro votes back in the fold.

Forty-four students comprise the choir which is directed by Dr. O. J. Bryson. Mike Gillespie of Kerrville is president of the organization.

Descendants Present At Doty Dedication

A good crowd turned out Sunday afternoon for the dedication program for the marker honoring C. C. Doty.

Mrs. Stephen Perner, of Ozona, the only child of Christopher Columbus and Alice Panoast Doty, was present. She had with her two of her three children, Sam and June and their children. Altogether there were ten descendants of the honoree present. Also present was Mrs. R. A. Harrell, chairman of Crockett County Historical Survey Committee.

Mrs. Perner presented Miss Miltia Hill, chairman of Schleicher County Historical Survey Committee, and Mrs. Dudley, retiring officer of the corresponding state committee, with handmade bracelets of barbed wire. These were made on a Texas ranch from wire that was actually used, 50 or 60 years ago, in fencing the great cattle herds of the southwest. To Senator Hardeman, she presented a branding iron. Later she made a contribution to the Schleicher County Historical Survey Committee in memory of the late Mr. Ernest C. Hill, who for 21 years was Democratic Chairman of Schleicher county.

Following the program, a reception was held in the courthouse, presided over by Mrs. J. L. Neill and Mrs. Jess Koy. Coffee and tea were served with many kinds of delicious cake. Later in the afternoon, all out-of-town guests were entertained by Misses Miltia and Katherine Hill in their home here.

Out of town guests included: State Sen. and Mrs. Dorsey B. Hardeman, San Angelo; Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene; Mrs. Marie Doty Perner, Ozona; Mr and Mrs. Bill Sloan, Ft. Worth, and children; Stephen, Vivian, Cynthia and Susan; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Perner, of Ozona, and children; Luann, Lucy and Louise; Mrs. Vester T. Hughes of Mertzon; and from Ozona: Mrs. L. A. Harrell, Mrs. Hugh Childress, Mrs. John R. Bailey, Mrs. W. L. Baggett, and Mrs. B. B. Ingram, Sr.

Merry Makers 42 Club

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hext, who were assisted by Mrs. Oran Enochs, was the setting for an Easter luncheon, honoring Mrs. Hext's mother, Mrs. Ernest Finnigan on April 13. The Easter motif was carried out in the room decorations.

Guests were members of the Merry Makers "42" Club.

Traveling prize went to Mrs. Arch Crosby and table prizes to Miss Chris Enochs, Mrs. Mary Joiner and Mrs. Ruth Williams.

A vote of thanks was given to Ernestine, Pearl and Mrs. Finnigan for a most pleasant and enjoyable day. —Rep.

TO AN UNKNOWN FRIEND:

Please accept the sincere thanks of the Eldorado Eagle Band and Bandsides for your contribution of $10.00. It is hard to put into words what both the thought and money means to us. We are striving for a goal that is most important and we are so thankful for each cent and encouraging word given to us.

While on my soapbox I want to give another special thanks to all the other people who have contributed to our drive. Those dollar bills you have mailed in or handed to a band member simply mean that next fall our fine band will be playing as well as ever but looking considerably sharper. — "The Bandaides"

A Gospel Meeting is continuing at the Rock Church of Christ this week, with services each night at 7:30.

Sorority Organized

At 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 22, 1968, a general business meeting was held in the Clubroom of the Memorial Building for the purpose of generating interest in establishment of a Beta Sigma Phi chapter in Eldorado. In order to transact necessary steps in forming such a chapter, a temporary slate of officers were elected as follows:

Pres. _____ Tootar Dunham
Vice-Pres. _____ Yvonne Kerr

Menard Jaycees Set Air Show Sunday, April 28

The Menard Jaycees are sponsoring a Confederate Air Force Fly-In April 28, at 2:00 p.m. at Menard County Airport with a selected group of famed World War II aircraft from their flying museum based in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

These rare and historic aircraft need no introduction to the thousands of men and women who built, serviced and flew the aircraft during 1939-1945. To these, the name Corsair, P-51 Mustang, Grumman Bearcat or Mitchell bomber will stir a feeling of pride and possibly a lump in their throat. For some others those who were not living at the time—this is an opportunity to see these historic aircraft which helped to bring World War II to an end. And they can see them in flight, not just on a museum floor.

The Confederate Air Force's "Ghost Squadron" consists of some of the last and in several instances the only one of its type of World War II aircraft left in flying condition in the world. Manned by a group of pilots and aviation enthusiasts, sometimes referred to as "Rebels with a Cause," they are a group dedicated to preserve in flying condition these historic aircraft so that their children and yours may see these airplanes perform in the sky.

Tickets for the show are $1.50 for adults and 50c for children. They may be obtained from any Menard Jaycee or at Wilensky's and Navaho Restaurant or at the gate. Gates will open at 12:00 noon.

LIONS MET YESTERDAY

The Lions Club met yesterday with Boss Lion Bill Rountree presiding. The tickets were distributed for the May 23rd barbecue and stage show. The Lions members are now selling them for $2 each.

Guy Whitaker brought the program. He introduced Bob Logan of the Social Security office in San Angelo who distributed pamphlets and showed a film.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

I had a trip last week which I wish could have been shared with every one of you.

The Community Improvement Contest of District Seven took four Extension workers and Curly Hays, Public Relations man for West Texas Utilities, across 8 or 10 counties to visit the same number of communities.

Lino, Mason, Gillespie, Kerr, McCulloch and Menard counties, to name some of them, have completely outdone themselves in putting on a show of natural beauty this Spring. Prairie Mountain, Long Mountain, Cypress Creek, East Sweden and Doss and Saline are beautifully named but to top a ridge and see a community center settled in a mess of flowers, green grass, sparkling ponds of water, great oak trees and the softest of blue skies simply made my heart smile.

Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder and my eyes beheld some sheer, rare beauty last week. Not all the flowers were bluebonnets, either; violet filaree, white thistles, winecups, wild verbena, yellow buttercups and daisies filled in this gorgeous natural mosaic which I am not adequate to describe.

One community which was beautifully situated is Prairie Mountain on Farm to Market road number 2323 about 15 or 13 miles out of Llano.

Just now I was trying to find Prairie Mountain on the map without any luck. Then I remembered that one of their projects for next year is to get their name on the map. A pretty nice project I would say and one which is soundly deserved.

I would like very much to be able to tell you about the people who live in these communities and the things they do together to make their lives richer, the lives of their children fuller and the lives of their neighbors more meaningful and happier.

Entering the Texas Community Improvement contest is entirely an optional community choice. No one urges, no one insists. It would be a staggering figure if the total man hours and woman hours which have been spent on the effort of improving these communities could be added together.

Probably the most satisfying aspect of the whole effort to me, as a judge, was to note that in no community was there an over balance of work done by the women or work done by the men and boys and girls.

In one community an enterprising leader led a band of 4-H boys and girls down the barrow ditches on the highway dragging gunny sacks and picking up trash as they went. You should have seen the size of the trash pile those children created when they had emptied their sacks several times. We saw a colored slide.

"I think they will forever be more careful about throwing trash away after that experience, and besides that we wanted to teach them respect for public property and places," said the leader as he told of the activity.

There are so many things a community can do to improve itself. Not only was the community center an object of pride as we were shown new kitchens, new rest rooms, landscaped yards, refinished pianos, new barbecue equipment and literally dozens of other features; but, each home in the community had had the same loving attention as the "meeting place."

Water testing for health records, animal vaccinations for safety, change of crops, new uses of wild-life programs, improved animal herds, soil testing, a total recreation and educational program for all ages, individual signs for each home with arrows pointing the way, and other projects I do not recall without my notes are examples of community-wide efforts.

The nicest result of an improvement contest is the joy and happiness created in the lives of those who take part. "Why, it is not work when we do things together," one man said.

Another statement which pleased me very much came from one of the women. "Oh I do wish you could have come yesterday; we had so much fun getting ready for you," she said and I knew that she was telling the truth.

If you have read the papers you know by now that Lowake in Concho county was the first place winner out of District Seven's 22 counties for 1968.

I am by Lowake like an art critic was of President Eisenhower's paintings. The critic said that the most remarkable thing about Ike was that he painted at all.

Lowake has at least a dozen reasons why it should have no community at all if a real pessimist was doing the analyzing.

Lowake community has no school as its center. Community members are affiliated with 14 different churches in six different centers, understandably then there are no common church ties; banking is done in three different counties and four different towns; the business enterprises of the community include farming, ranching, and a whole string of small business enterprises; there is no appeal of a predominating age group, for there are all ages and families in all stages.

But they have one big thing in common. They care about where they live. They have tremendous pride in the accomplishments of each other. They work together and play together with the same zeal.

Lowake uses the old school building as a community center. The people have made and spent nearly $8,000 in keeping the building and grounds attractive, convenient and comfortable.

A young man described the spirit of all the communities and especially the spirit of Lowake when he concluded his speech with Lowake's official motto:

"If you are not afraid to roll up your sleeves you will likely never lose your shirt."

Eaglettes Win District Track Championship

In their first season of competition, and their second track meet ever, Eldorado won the district title over Robert Lee (the favorites) Mertzon, Norton and Wall. Not only did the girls in green win the meet but also won all three relays, the shot put and 60 yard dash.

Four trophies were awarded and the Eaglettes grabbed all four much to the surprise of the onlookers. Eldorado 166 points, Robert Lee 155, Mertzon 78, Wall 30, and Norton 13. Nine district records were broken, four by the Eaglettes, four by Robert Lee, and one by Mertzon. The weather was perfect and Eldorado took a 14-10 lead after the first field event and never trailed again. First and second place winners in every event will advance to regional in Colorado City on Tuesday, April 23. With first and second there going to the State Meet in Abilene May 10-11.

It was Eldorado's full slate of participants in every event that brought home the over-all trophy. Points were picked up in every event which speaks well of the team effort.

The new district records included:

Susan Hill, 60-yd. dash, 7.2. Eldorado, Sprint Relay, 52.6 (Peggy Hill, Linda Derrick, Lisa McAngus, Susan Hill).

Eldo. Mile Relay 4:25.6 (Claudia Meador, Lisa McAngus, Linda Derrick, Susan Hill).

Austin, Tex.—Sen. Ralph Yarborough has taken himself out of contention with Gov. John Connally for Texas Democratic favorite son designation. But he has drawn battle lines for party conventions.

Liberals, if they follow Yarborough's lead, will oppose the favorite son device, demand selection of an uninstructed state delegation to the Demo national convention and oppose the traditional "unit rule."

Conservative-moderate forces, rallying behind the governor, will offer resolutions backing Connally for favorite son and head of the 104-vote Texas national convention.

In all probability, they, too, would require all of the state's 104 votes to be cast as a package, without consideration to preferences of a minority viewpoint among the delegates.

That, in a nutshell, is the main issue to be decided in some 5,260 Democratic voting precincts May 4. In selected precincts, supporters of Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy are expected to push resolutions seeking to commit delegates to their presidential candidacies. Neither of the senators at this point appears to have any substantial support over the state.

Some of the nation's Democratic governors at a St. Louis, Mo., conference last week gave Connally a boost by urging him to become a serious contender—a sort of favorite son among the governors, for vice-president. Connally said he has no aspirations for the job, and does not expect it to be offered. Nevertheless, he is expected to play a major role in charting the course of the 24 Democratic state chief executives at the nominating convention.

Meanwhile, although they are traveling widely and speaking frequently, the 13 candidates for governor of Texas continued to find themselves overshadowed by world, national and partisan events. And the election is only a little more than a week away!

Record Number of Voters

Total voter registration this year is a record 4,072,397—nearly a million more than the last presidential year (1964) but still shy of predictions.

Five biggest counties of the state alone account for nearly 1,633,000 of the total eligible voters, and if all major metropolitan areas are counted, city voters overwhelm the rural area residents. That statistical fact figures strongly in campaign plans of gubernatorial candidates who are busily scouting the big cities during the weekend of their vote drives.

Last county to report to Secretary of State Roy R. Barrera on registration was Harris (Houston) with 593,721 voters. Dallas county has 466,925, Bexar (San Antonio) 237,359, Tarrant (Fort Worth) 242,693 and Travis (Austin) 102,264.

Oil Production Cut

Railroad Commission ordered a second consecutive reduction in state-wide oil production allowable, pegging it at 45.7% of potential for May. This will allow maximum production of 3,476,972 barrels daily next month.

Factor now in effect is 47.6% and permits average calendar day allowable of 3,531,736 barrels.

Major producers submitted nominations for 3,071,269 barrels of Texas crude oil a day for May, a decrease of 60,099 from April. Bureau of Mines' forecast of demand remained unchanged at 3,040,000.

Production allowable a year ago (May, 1967) was only 33.8%, or 3,022,309 barrels a day.

Draft Quota Down

Texas draft quota for May is 2,131, compared with 2,378 for April, reports Selective Service Director Col. Morris S. Schwartz.

However, local draft boards actually will forward more men to the armed forces examining and entrance stations for pre-induction physical and mental exams. May call in this category is 9,000 compared with 8,500 for April and 7,200 in March.

Schwartz also announced that the state must provide 42 medical doctors and two doctors of osteopathy for the Army during July-September.

New Water Plan Told

A plan for tapping the great ice-cap water wealth of the northwest to satisfy needs of Texas and 16 other southwestern and western states will be presented to the Texas Water Development Board at a hearing here Friday, April 26.

Lewis G. Smith of Denver, a retired U. S. Bureau of Reclamation engineer, proposes to bring in water from Columbia, British Columbia and Yukon via the Rocky Mountain Trench to High Plains and Pecos River for diversion to West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. Plan would divert water to the Rio Grande for South Texas and the Valley area.

Smith estimates the potential yield of icecap sources of British Columbia and Yukon are roughly 650,000,000 acre-feet a year, and 38,000,000 acre-feet would meet import needs of 17 states until 2070. Smith projects reuse of water 100 times before it finds its way to the sea and general curtailment of per capita consumptive use from 2.16 acre feet to .5 foot after 2200.

Costs of the enormous project would be paid by cities using the water made available.

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court rejected a breach of contract damage suit against Houston Boxing Club and K. S. (Bud) Adams brought by P. L. (Pinkie) George, a Houston boxing matchmaker.

High court ordered Amarillo district court to reconsider a law-suit brought against truckdriver D. F. Thompson by Donnie Thoreson for damages to 90 acres of wheat burned after the truck drove over a field.

In a Victoria case, Supreme Court upheld an injunction against Louis W. Chennault from going into competition with Otis Engineering Corporation within 100 mi. of that city.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the conviction for sale of heroin against a Tarrant county grade school teacher who was sentenced to 19 years imprisonment. Life sentence assessed against a Brownsville man for murder of his wife was upheld.

Appointments Announced

Governor Connally named Louis R. Sarazan, Fort Worth businessman, to State Board of Public Welfare. Sarazan succeeds Carl Flaxman of Dallas who resigned.

Drs. H. A. Barnett of Houston, Robert L. Daily of Wichita Falls, P. C. Funk of Dallas and Merle Wade Delmer of San Antonio were appointed by Connally to State Board of Medical Examiners. Dr. Howard R. Coats of Tyler was re-appointed.

Visitor Statistics Reported

Texas Highway Department's new brochure on 15,100,000 out-of-state visitors who spent $807.9 million in Texas last year showed they stayed on an average of 5.9 days.

Average travel party had 2.9 members, spent $3.89 each per day, drove 3,622 miles on complete trip. Half of them came on vacation, 28% to visit family or friends and 8% on combination business-vacation trip. Bulk of visitors came from Louisiana, California and Oklahoma.

Planning Grant Authorized

A state regional planning grant of $7,834 has been freed for the Houston-Galveston Area Council which previously received a $21,000 grant.

Funds will support the Council's program for study and planning of unified regional development, including transportation and application to land-use planning in Brazoria, Chambers, Fort Bend, Galveston, Harris, Liberty, Montgomery and Waller counties.

Short Snorts . . .

An extensive report on ground water supplies in Liberty county from the U. S. Geological Survey and the Texas Water Development Board shows good quality water could be pumped at four times the present rate of 50,000,000 gallons a day without causing excessive declines in water levels.

State Building Commission has set May 7 for the second bidding on the $588,834 dormitory-construction project at West Texas Children's Home at Pyote (first one was called off because the specifications would have gone over the money).

A $35,525 federal grant has been approved for development to Palmetto State Park, 15 miles northwest of Gonzales in South-Central Texas, to be matched by Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

Parks and Wildlife Department reports selection of San Antonio Bay and Espiritu Santo Bay for oyster reseeding efforts under a $50,000 federal aid effort scheduled to start the first week in May.

Success Office

SNELSON SAYS:

"TEXAS MUST MEET THE CRIME PROBLEM"

Pete Snelson feels deeply that the handcuffs placed on our law enforcement officers by the Texas Criminal Code written by his opponent (Hardeman), must be unlocked and placed on the hands of the Criminals where they belong. This "Code," which places the "rights" of the criminal above those of the public, must be revised to strengthen the hand of those men who have dedicated their lives to the protection of our lives and property. Texas' growing crime rate, a frightening spectacle in the light of nationwide riots and disorders, must be halted by sensible laws and a greater recognition of the responsibility of the men charged with enforcing them.

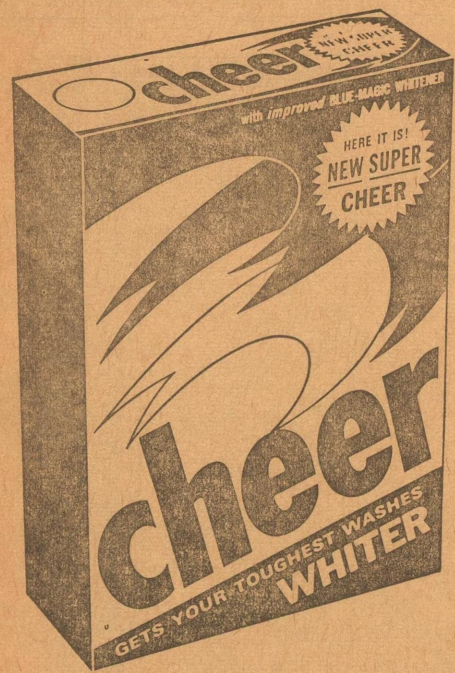

If you believe, with me, that we cannot tolerate lawlessness and that we must do all that we can to prevent it, then I hope you will join hands with me in this campaign for State Senator.
