Eagle Band Wins Its 2nd Sweepstakes Trophy

The "Pride of Eldorado" (your Eagle Band) has done it again: another Sweepstakes trophy shines alongside the Sweepstakes trophy of 1967 in the band hall for University Interscholastic League contest last week end in Brownwood.

It was a deserving and proud bunch of youngsters that left Brownwood High School auditorium last Friday afternoon with happy shouts and tear stained faces. It was the second year that the boys carried their "Mr. Mac" to the buses, which had already been lavishly decorated with white shoe polish signs saying "No. 1", "Mr. Mac Strikes Again" and "Sweepstakes".

It was truly a win. Three judges in concert playing awarded three decisions of unreserved praise for a First rating, three judges in sight reading unanimously declared an exceptional job by the band and gave it a First in sight reading. The judges criticism sheets are something you can be proud of—they are full of praises for a wonderful band director and an outstanding band for a job well done. Drop by the band hall and read them. We are sure Mr. McDonald and the band members would like for you to.

There were 40 bands in the Region VII contest (Class B, Class A, Class AA, and Class AAA) Friday and Saturday. Eldorado was the only Class A band (of 15) winning Sweepstakes and Brady and Winters in AA were the only other sweepstakes awarded. Only three sweepstakes awarded over the two-day contest and your band earned, by hard work and devotion to the band director, one of those three.

One of the nicest compliments paid verbally by the judges in concert was that they would have enjoyed more music by the Eldorado Band.

After leaving Brownwood High School the band went to Gomez Restaurant for supper. There, Rusty Meador, band president, presented a silver bowl engraved "To The Greatest, Mr. Mac, Eldorado Eagle Band, 1968." Then Richard Keel presented a special "collection" from all the band members to Mr. Mac for the biggest steak available.

It was a tired but proud band that rolled in to Eldorado about midnight to be met by a group of happy parents. We have a right to be proud of the Eagle Band—they are the "greatest" and so is the man that swings the baton. Hats off to all of them—for a First in Marching contest, a First in Concert and a First in Sight Reading and a total Sweepstakes Award.

Post Script

Anyone looking through this issue will quickly see that the most intensive political campaign here is the one being waged by Hardeeman and Snelson for State Senator. These two are battling it out with no holds barred until the date of the primary.

—ps—

In the last two days I've discovered that a number of people are boosting for Dolph Briscoe for governor. Briscoe is a West Texan and comes from Uvalde and it appears he will be the favorite from West Texas. Of course East and Central Texas poll many more votes than West Texas, so his popularity out here may not be enough to put him in the run-off. Aside from those promoting Briscoe, anyone else I've talked to has not made up his mind in the governor's race. Most just shrug it off by saying they don't know and in fact they act like they don't give a damn.

I kinda feel the same way myself, but since I have nothing else to go on, I guess I'll give my vote to Briscoe and see how he comes out in the run-off.

—ps—

As far as the State Senate race is concerned, I can't help but feel that in our neighbor, Hardeeman of San Angelo, we have a powerful figure in the Texas Senate with many years of seniority back of him. I just can't see how I could vote against him, although I admire his youthful opponent. I'm going to stay with Hardeeman for one more term.

Winner of the State Senate race will go in for a four-year term.

—ps—

Then there is our young State Representative, Mr. Hilary Doran, whose opponent is Ricardo Padilla. As I said last week, Mr. Padilla has not been back to Schleicher county since he came to pay his fee to Dick Preston, county chairman.

Doran came to Eldorado a number of times last year and helped the local committee in getting our hospital bill introduced in the Legislature. As far as I am concerned Padilla is not entitled to a single vote in this county.

—ps—

As far as county candidates are concerned, they are all conducting a very quiet and polite campaign. We know, and you know, all of these local men. I may have some agonizing decisions to make when I vote, but I'll vote—and you can do the same.

—ps—

At the bottom of the ballot voters will have an opportunity to express themselves on three propositions, which have no force or effect as law. They amount to a sampling of public opinion.

The first one is: Are you for or against the legal sale of liquor by the drink?

Another is for legal horse racing on a pari-mutuel wagering.

No doubt there are opposite opinions on these two propositions although I can't see it would be such a revolutionary change if they were adopted.

The third deal is for Texas Legislature to set up a commission with power to fix the price of milk. I can't see any reason why we need THAT.

—ps—

This entire Democratic primary election Saturday has been overshadowed by national events in recent weeks. Everybody is wondering who will be the Democratic candidate for President in the general election next November. As of this week it seems to lay between Bobby Kennedy, Eugene McCarthy and Hubert Humphrey.

—ps—

The best political speech I've heard this year was at noon Saturday when Vice President Hubert Humphrey announced his candidacy for president in the Democratic party in a 30-minute speech in Washington, D. C.

He was interrupted with enthusiastic applause many times and commentators have already described him as "the happy warrior" and were predicting he would lead the field in that party.

And it was a relief to find he doesn't speak of Indiana as "Indiana".

—ps—

Now Saturday's primary election has nothing to do with selection of a nominee for president, but the precinct and county conventions which follow do. In the county convention on May 11 resolutions may be adopted giving this county's preference for a candidate for president. And the same will be taking place in each of the 254 Texas counties on that day.

Late in the summer Texas delegates will go to Chicago for the National Democratic Convention and will help vote for the nominee for President. They will be guided by reports from all the 254 county conventions. One thing we feel sure of: Texas will not give its votes to Bobby Kennedy.

There is an ad in this issue asking that all who attend conventions vote to adopt the unit rule, and vote to designate Governor Connally as "favorite son" leader of the Texas delegation to the Chicago convention in August.

That part of the business starts right down here in the county convention on Saturday, May 11th.

—ps—

And now leaving aside the Democratic party, what about George Wallace?

I've heard more people lately interested in George Wallace of Alabama than I've heard about the Texas governorship.

According to a Wallace for President news release—

"The drive to put the name of former Alabama Governor George Wallace on the Texas presidential ballot has now organized 126 Texas counties in which reside about 85% of the state's population. The American Party, which was formed to put Wallace on the Texas ballot, has picked up surprising momentum with the addition of 66 new county organizations in the past two weeks.

"Adding spice to the Wallace gains in Texas was the recent organization of President Lyndon Johnson's home precinct at Stone- wall, Texas.

"The Wallace forces are concentrating on precinct organization because at least 14,259 Texans must come to the Wallace American Party precinct conventions on May 4 to guarantee Wallace a place on the presidential ballot in November. Under Texas law none of those attending the American Party precinct conventions may vote in the Democratic or Republican primaries held the same day."

—ps—

If that doesn't make this a crazy political summer, I don't know what you would call it.

And we haven't heard too much yet from the Republicans.

Lions Continue Sale Of Tickets For 23rd

The members of the Eldorado Lions Club are continuing sale of tickets this week for the barbecue and evening of entertainment set for Thursday, May 23rd.

The tickets are being sold for $2 each; with $1 going for the barbecue and $1 for the stage show.

Proceeds will go into the fund to send the Eagle Band to Dallas on June 26th to march in the parade at the Lions International Convention. The Eagle Band will represent District 2A-1 in the parade.

White Elephant Sale To Benefit Fund For New Band Uniforms

Could you use a throw pillow, lamp, picture, toaster or ashtray? If not, how about clothes, shoes, linens or toys? This is just a small sampling of what will be for sale at the White Elephant sale this week end. All proceeds will go to raising money for new band uniforms. Contributions of every size and description are pouring in to the old Enco Station on Main Street. Edith Collins is in charge and asks that anyone who has something to donate to please get in touch with her. Furniture is especially needed.

It seems the band never lets up on its efforts to make money. Next Tuesday they will be in charge of the concession stand for the Little Olympics. The weather is warmer now and a cool drink will taste mighty good while you are watching the races. Oh! Our special thanks this week to all of the teachers who asked that the money being donated to their end-of-school gifts be given to the uniform fund.—Rep.

Republican voters in this county are invited to vote at the Court House, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Ballots will be provided listing nominees for Governor, and other offices.

Voters who vote in this primary will have their Registration Certificates stamped "Republican" in the party affiliation space.

HENDERSONS TO BE HONORED SUNDAY ON THEIR 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henderson will be honored by their children with an open house Sunday in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in Eldorado on South Main street from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

The couple have been residents of Schleicher county all of their married life.

Zelma Spencer was born at Harper, Texas and moved with her parents to Eldorado in 1907 at the age of seven. The family lived at Bailey Ranch and she received her schooling in the Bailey Ranch school.

Lester Henderson came to this county in 1910, and the couple were married on May 1, 1913 in Eldorado by Rev. C. H. Riddle in the Baptist parsonage. Their married

With the passing of voter registration deadline on January 31st, there were 1234 registered voters in Schleicher county, and this should be the overall potential vote that could be polled in the Democratic primary Saturday.

But with the apathetic feeling prevailing among county residents it is very possible that three or four hundred of these voters will fail to show up at the ballot box.

Some 1500 ballots have been printed and delivered to County Democratic Chairman Preston and the four county voting boxes will be ready for business at 8:00 Saturday morning.

Voting Boxes

In obedience to a new law by the Legislature last summer, six voting boxes in this county were reduced to four, making just one voting box in each commissioner's precinct. Eliminated are the Frieske box in Pct. 2, and the Northern Natural box (formerly Reynolds) in Pct. 4.

The four, with their presiding judges are as follows: (all in town)

Precinct 1: Memorial Building with T. R. Spence as election judge.

Precinct 2: Voting will be at the R.E.A. Co-Op building in Eldorado, with Gerald Hartgraves and Mrs. R. A. Frieske in charge.

Precinct 3: Voters will cast their ballots at the County barn, with Frankie Short as election judge.

Precinct 4: Voting will take place at the high school gym, with Nick Jurecek and Jimmy West in charge.

Polls open at 8:00 and close at 7:00.

Precinct Conventions

The precinct chairman in each of the four precincts will hold a grassroots convention at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday.

Precinct One will hold its convention in the district court room. The other three will hold their convention at the voting location. Each of these will elect a delegate to the county convention which will be held a week later, at 2:00 p.m., in the district court room.

Take Your Registration Slip

Voters are reminded that you must take your Voter Registration Certificate with you when you go to the polls to vote in the Democratic Primary.

As you check in to vote, the clerk will stamp "Democrat" on your certificate in the space for party affiliation.

Then, when you go to your Democratic Precinct Convention, you are required to show the Registration Certificate properly stamped.

Also, remember that while you are urged to study the Sample Ballot ahead of time, you CANNOT take a sample with you to consult when you go to the polls to vote.

Returns To Be Posted

Eldon Calk will have returns posted on a board in front of his Eldorado Drug store beginning at 7:00 p.m. Dick Preston and his committee will get returns in at the court house and then call them to the drug store.

Harlan and Betty Sue McAlpine are getting ready to add onto their house on the ranch. Work is to be under way by next week.

life in ranching was interrupted two months later when Lester entered military service in World War One on the 25th of June, 1918. His service included six months in France and he did not return home until the following June, when they resumed ranching and farming which has been their life's occupation.

Zelma also owned and operated in Eldorado cafe for 26 years, retiring in June, 1966.

They have two sons, Clifton Henderson of Angleton, Texas, and Calvin of Eldorado; also 8 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. The family are Baptists.

Gold and white wedding bells will feature decorations for Sunday's reception which is being arranged by the children.

PAR-TEE

The odds against the golfers of the El Dorado Golf Club showing up on a cloudy and misty Sunday afternoon with their clubs ready to tee off in a mixed foursome are not as great as you might think. Last Sunday we had 15 such golfers. Since the number was uneven it turned out to be a mixed threesome play instead of foursome. Anyway you better believe that it "never rains" on the golf course. The winning team with a one over par was Jack Hannes, (captain), Gerald Childers and Ernestine Hext; second place with a 2 over went to Dick Preston (captain), Ralph Waldron and Penny Bland.

The WELCOME MAT is out this week to Bob and Pat Sykes. We are indeed happy to have you all back in the flock and hope your days with us are many.

I checked the handicap book this week and found that most everyone is entering scores—which is good. Won't be long before we can all have an established handicap at El Dorado Golf Club.

Mary Robinson is leading "the pack" in the Women's Association play. Let's all get busy and give Mary a little competition on these association plays. We can't just let her win them all hands down.

Have you tried the new tee box on number 2? Sure is a different shot from "way back" there isn't it? I don't believe many are hitting the green from that new tee box.

Frank Lozano was in Monday and said that Katherine and Militia Hill offered us some tulips for setting out on the course. Tulips should be real pretty and brighten up the place. Thank you Katherine and Militia Hill.

Carroll Ratliff has a new pupil. Wonder if Brother Tom is as dedicated to practice as some of the ladies in the first class. Could be—it was getting "close to dark" when he left the practice tee Saturday.

It was rather disappointing Sunday to find that Bob Bradley put WORK before golf. I just would not have believed it if I had not heard it with my own ears. You better cover the ditch or sell the ox one Bob!

Several Eldorado golfers were trying out the new 9 hole course in Sonora Saturday. I think Vernon Rogers had the best round—even par—one bogie and one birdie. That is real fine golf Vernon! Keep up the good work! It is a pretty course—not so many rocks and draws as the old course—but those weeds don't hold the balls up very well, especially when you have been used to playing with wooden tees in the fairways (like us girls). On the old course I was hoping to break 80 one of these days—and now on the new course I am looking forward to breaking 100 again! Oh well, can't win them all! And after all it is just a game—and lots of fun.

Happiness is getting a bank statement with all the figures in the right hand column in black ink.—Rep.

LEGION MEETS TONIGHT

Alvin Farris, commander of the American Legion post, announces that the May meeting will be held at 8:00 tonight, Thursday, in the Legion room of the Memorial Building and urges all Legionnaires to attend.

Thank you, Senator Hardeman, for all you've done to strengthen law enforcement in Texas...

We, as law-enforcement officers of the state and of the 25th Senatorial District, want to thank you, Senator Hardeman, for your knowledgeable and resourceful work in strengthening the Texas Criminal Code.

The oral-confession acceptability and simplification of methods to warn the accused have been most helpful to us in performance of our duties to the public good. We know this was not an easy task in view of U.S. Supreme Court decisions, which, in our opinion, have adversely affected maintenance of safety in homes and streets across the nation. We commend you for your perseverance.

Your passage of the mercury theft bill is of untold savings in the oilpatch.

Your work has freed our hands in combatting crime. For this, we thank you.

My Dear Friend:

It was my pleasure to preside at the recent conference of the Texas Police Association at which the enclosed resolution was adopted.

I want to add my own personal expression of appreciation to that of the TPA for the action taken by the Legislature in the changes to the Code of Criminal Procedure, as well as other acts which were passed which we believe will enable law enforcement agencies of Texas to more adequately serve the people of this state.

"Senator Hardeman, with his considerable stature and influence in the Senate, has been of immeasurable help to me during the past several sessions on specific bills which were sponsored by the Sheriffs' Association of Texas. The most recent, in addition to the changes in the Code of Criminal Procedure, was his introduction for us at the last Session of amendments to the 'Mercury Theft' statute, which has given us a fine law on this subject.

'Over The Rainbow' Was Banquet Theme

On Saturday night, April 27, the Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the Memorial Building. The theme of this year's banquet was "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." Along with the students, many faculty and school board members attended. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mittel from Kerrville.

Entertainment was provided by a folk singer, Miss Colleen O'Conner from Austin. She is presently working for her Ph. D. in physical education at the University of Texas.

The invocation was given by Kathy Robinson; the welcoming speech was by the Junior class president, Ross Whitten; and response was given by the Senior class president, Rusty Meador.

Servers for the banquet were Jean Rountree, Judy Hanusch, Peggy Hanusch, Sherry Davis, and June Holley.

The Junior class members spent several days decorating in the main room of the Memorial Building. At one end of the room was a mural with Dorothy; Toto, the dog; and Glenda, the good witch, who was dressed in pink and was surrounded by a large pink bubble. At the other end of the room was a large rainbow with a pot of gold at each end. In the background was another mural with the theme spelled out in blue and silver letters. An emerald green castle covered the back door and a picture in each of the windows told the story of "The Wizard of Oz."

Jim Taliaferro has moved to a Public Housing Authority unit.

Farms Have Been Electrified Since '35

Dim, flickering and smelly oil lamps were the only source of light in all but a handful of farm and ranch homes when the Rural Electrification Administration was established as a lending agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in 1935.

Farmers and other rural residents needed electric power, but they had no way of getting it because of distance and prohibitive costs. When the rural electrification program offered a solution through low-interest loans and advice on how to master technicalities in constructing and operating electric systems, response was immediate and widespread.

San Angelo, Texas, Thursday Evening, Feb. 22, 1968

Senator Accused Of LCB Meddling

The assistant chief of the Texas Liquor Control Board's enforcement division has asserted San Angelo Sen. Dorsey Hardeman used influence to keep TLCB agents from examining records of an impact liquor store.

William A. Mason said Hardeman interfered when he sought to examine records of an impact liquor store.

Impact is in a wet precinct adjoining legally dry Abilene.

Mason said that after a telephone call from the store manager, Hardeman asked the investigator wait until the senator could be present later in the day and argued that TLCB agents lacked authority to see the records until Mason showed him a copy of the law.

"He finally agreed that we did (have the right)," said Mason. "But by then the records had disappeared. We finally managed to get them sometime later," charged Mason.

Hardeman, who was in Del Rio, could not be reached for comment at mid-morning today.

Also today John W. Crank, former chief investigator for TLCB, who was either ousted or who quit, said Hardeman and other legislators have appeared at administrative hearings of the liquor board.

"Getting a member of the legislature to represent a guy was almost a sure way to get his penalty for a violation either reduced or eliminated altogether," said Crank today in

From this grassroots movement emerged the electric cooperative—a service organization created, owned and operated by the people it serves. As a group, electric cooperatives have received about 93% of almost $5 billion in electrification loans made by REA, and, as a result, have been largely responsible for the extension of electric service into the rural areas of the nation.

S. farms have central station electric service. In Texas, 96.8% of the rural residents are serviced efficiently and economically by 77 REA-financed electric distribution cooperatives and other suppliers.

Farmer-owned cooperatives have proved themselves equal to the challenge of serving once-neglected rural areas and making it pay. They have wisely invested the REA funds entrusted to them and are paying off their loans faster than they become due.

Under this newer program, modern telephone service is becoming a reality for more than 1½ million American farm and rural families. Electric power and adequate means of communication are two essentials to economic growth and stability. Both are being provided by local people for the betterment of themselves, their communities and nation through cooperation with the Rural Electrification Administration.

BILL COLLINS FAMILY GIVEN HOUSE WARMING
Mr. and Mrs. Billy Collins and family were honored Sunday afternoon with a house warming from 3:00 to 5:00. The hosts were a group of friends of the Collins family. Guests were shown thru the house and were served cookies and punch and coffee. The gifts were arranged on tables for the guests to see. Lovely cut roses adorned the house throughout.
The Collinses have built their new home on the site formerly occupied by the S. E. Jones house in northeast part of town. The Collinses tore down the old house and have built this new house doing all the work themselves. The house is a four-bedroom home with two baths and family room, is roomy throughout, the house has paneling throughout, and is also carpeted all over, making it indeed a very lovely home. We congratulate the Collins family on their fine workmanship, and we know they will enjoy this fine home for years to come.

Lions To Dispense With May 8 Meeting

At their regular meeting at noon Wednesday, the Eldorado Lions club voted to dispense with their regularly scheduled meeting this coming week, the 8th of May.

The next meeting of the club will be on the 15th. On the 27th, a ladies night program will be held at which the new officers for the 1968-69 year will be installed.

Boss Lion Bill Rountree presided yesterday. Guests were Richard Pafford of Eldorado, Buz Cunningham of San Angelo, and Ralph Preston of Midland. Leslie Bassinger was introduced as a new member.

At the beginning of the meeting, Rusty Meador played the piano to accompany singing of "America", Lion Elton McGinnes led flag salute, and Lion P. S. Dudley gave invocation.

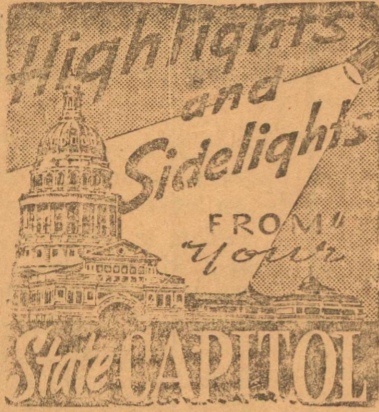

In the business session, Boss Lion Rountree reported that Del-Tex Candy Co. had donated $5 to the fund to send the Eagle Band to Dallas in June. He also read a letter from David Evans, incoming president of Lions International, congratulating District 2A-1 for winning the Melvin Jones Award the second year in succession.

Also on Tuesday, May 7th, a charter night will be held in Coleman. Tickets $2.50 per person.

Lion Fred Watson gave a report on attending HemisFair in San Antonio. He stressed the fact that reports of price-gouging by motels, parking lots, and eating places had been exaggerated that he was with a party of four who spent two days at the fair and only spent $20. He urged everyone to plan to attend the event during its current six-month run.

For the program, Mrs. P. A. Olson's piano and guitar pupils rendered several selections.

Mrs. P. S. Dudley was brought home Wednesday morning following a 10-day stay in the Sonora hospital.

Austin, Tex.—Hard-driving candidates for governor are coming down the stretch after a long campaign which has failed to fire up the voters.

Probably about 50% of the total eligible electorate of just over four million will decide the outcome Saturday (May 4).

Strong Democratic runners include Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, John Hill, Waggoner Carr, Eugene Locke, Don Yarborough, Dolph Briscoe, and Edward L. Whittenburg. Pat O'Daniel has campaigned extensively in recent weeks. Other candidates, Johnnie Mae Hackworth and Alfonso Veloz, have done little campaigning.

In the Republican primary, a warm gubernatorial contest features Paul Eggers, John R. Trice, and Wallace Sisk.

Another hard-fought contest on the Democratic ballot pits House Speaker Ben Barnes against Don Gladden and Gene Smith for lieutenant governor.

There are two State Supreme Court races in the Democratic primary:

Place 1—Matt Davis vs. Sears McGee;

Place 2—Tom Reavley vs. James G. Denton.

There is just one other statewide contest on either ballot:

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert is opposed by Dallas Blankenship.

Democratic, Republican and American parties have scheduled referendums on legalizing sale of mixed alcoholic beverages on local option, pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing, also on local option, and establishment of a state milk-price-fixing commission.

Democrats expect sharp fighting in their precinct conventions Saturday which decide makeup of the national presidential nominating convention delegation and shape of the state party organization. Gov. John Connally is campaigning for favorite son presidential designation, leadership of the national convention delegation and binding of delegates under the unit rule. Liberal opposition opposes both Connally as favorite son and the unit rule. Republican conventions Saturday will see strong efforts to name Sen. John Tower as their favorite son candidate.

Voters have been warned they cannot participate in affairs of the new American Party supporting George Wallace for president if they vote in either the GOP or Demo primaries Saturday or go to major party conventions. American Party needs 14,000 members to get Wallace on the November ballot.

Attorney General Rules

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held that the "open meetings" law of 1967 in valid and constitutional. Opinion cleared the way for first court action (at Brownsville) under the new act, Cameron County Criminal Dist. Atty. F. T. Graham requested the opinion after the Brownsville Herald complained its reporter was barred for an hour from a meeting of the Brownsville Public Utilities Board last January 25.

In other new opinions, Martin has concluded that:

—Department of Public Safety can pay a commercial transportation company to move the household belongings of a highway patrolman transferred to a new duty station when state-owned equipment is not available.

—Beer can be sold from a 2 5/8 gallon container at a licensed bar. —State must pay the claim for $6,700 for the administrator of an estate in absence of any evidence that the documents submitted with the claim are false.

—Harris County Hospital District may spend public money to pay employees' travel expenses in recruiting activities but can't pay those of applicants or moving expenses.

Courts Speak

In an important new opinion, Court of Criminal Appeals has held that trial judges must interrupt criminal trials and get a jury verdict on a question of sanity if the issue is raised by evidence.

Following that decision, Court reversed two convictions, ordering new trials for a young Petersburg woman accused of stabbing a baby to death and for an Andrews County man sentenced to life imprisonment as an habitual criminal. Court also ordered a new trial in a Lubbock County murder case and closed the book on 21-year-old Kenneth Allen McDuff's unsuccessful appeal from the death penalty for murder of three teen-agers in Tarrant county a year and a half ago.

Supreme Court, reversing intermediate court, upheld trial judgment that land-owners' suit to stop Fort Worth annexation of 6.3 acres of land in 1963 is void.

State Building-Housing Code Urged

Senate Study Committee of Slums and Slum Clearance has called for statewide minimum building and housing codes and other action encouraging individual initiative in the area of home improvements.

Housing code, committee said, should be established by a state agency, designed to protect health and should include physical requirements and establish a desired occupancy ratio. Building Code was recommended for a January, 1970, effective date.

Other committee recommendations:

—Encouragement of local non-profit neighborhood corporations to plan neighborhood renovation.

—Establishment of a state-guaranteed loan program to assist with renovation and compliance with codes.

—Creation of a State Housing and Planning Commission to administer programs proposed.

Grants Approved

Governor Connally has approved six supplemental state regional planning grants totaling $18,153.

Biggest of grants, $8,559, will go to North Central Texas Regional Planning Commission, a voluntary association of local governments in 10 counties of the Dallas-Ft. Worth region. Same organization received an earlier grant of $22,000 for a variety of studies.

Other voluntary associations of local governments receiving grants were: Alamo Area Council of Governments, San Antonio, $3,691; Coastal Bend Regional Planning Commission, Corpus Christi, $2,030; Concho Valley COG, San Angelo, $5,700; El Paso COG, $1,765; and West Central Texas COG, Abilene, $1,538.

Education Conference

The top official with the U. S. Office of Education made a plea for expanded bilingual education programs here during the first session of the National Conference on Educational Opportunities for Mexican-Americans.

Harold Howe II, U. S. Commissioner of Education, said local school districts have failed Mexican American children because our society has treated persons who are different as inferior.

He said bilingual education gives proper dignity to the Spanish-speaking by not making their language and customs appear inferior.

Short Snorts

Governor's Committee on Public School Education, in a first-installment preview of its recommendations to the legislature, says enrollment will remain about the same for the next decade or so.

Governor has proclaimed May as "senior citizen month" in Texas.

Mrs. John Connally dedicated the Texas Tropical Trail along Padre Island and Rio Grande Valley, one of 10 off-the-beaten-path routes through scenic-historic Texas areas.

Parks and Wildlife Department has bought 64.5 acres in Starr county for white-winged dove nesting areas.

Bard Logan, San Antonio city directory agent, is new chairman of the American Party of Texas, succeeding former State Sen. Weaver Moore of Houston who resigned.

Republican state headquarters has added five new members: Mrs. John De La Garza, public relations; Miss Judith A. Rutledge, assistant to Executive Director John M. Stokes; Henry Smith, coordinator of candidates; Lewis E. Berry, Jr., research division head; and Kent Span, research.

Texas Animal Health Commission reports that Dimmit, Calhoun, Limestone and Zavala counties have qualified for certification in the crash program to clear up brucellosis in as many counties as possible by the end of the year.

To the Citizens

I think I have made a complete canvas of all voters in Precinct One and I want to say now that I thank all of you for the friendly reception I've received at every home.

I am proud of the record we commissioners have had in the past four years. Since I am now completing my first terms, I feel I have gained considerable experience which will be of benefit in another term.

Therefore I sincerely solicit your vote and support for a second term, and continued progress for Eldorado and Schleicher County.

Sincerely,

Weatherly L. Kinser

Music Fit For A Chief

When Los Voladores Flying Indians perform at HemisFair '68, the music that accompanies them will be fit for a chief—for José Villanueva de la Cruz, the Totonac chief, plays a reed flute and small drum while dancing atop a 114-foot pole.

These authentic Totonacan tunes are the accompaniment while the Flyers descend from the top of the pole at the Frito-Lay/Pepsi-Cola Pavilion in a series of 32 revolutions. Secured only by the ropes around their waists, the Flyers eventually fan out to a radius of thirty feet before reaching the ground.

For more than 400 years this ceremony has been performed, because it has a religious as well as agricultural significance for the Totonacs. The climb to the top of the pole symbolizes their desire to be closer to the male god of the heavens—whose essence is fire and earth. Their descent represents the union of this male god with a female god of the earth who is water and cold—resulting in a pleasant climate and a good harvest.

The costumes of the Flyers, too, are symbolic. They wear cloth pants and shirts trimmed with birds' feathers, because they believe that the spirit comes back to earth in the form of an eagle or another bird.

At HemisFair '68, the sound of music will come from the most unexpected places—when Chief José Villanueva de la Cruz raises his flute to his lips and begins the Flying Indians Spectacular.

NOTICE!

Voting in the Republican Primary will take place in the Schleicher County Court House. The polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Saturday, May 4, 1968.

Mrs. L. T. Wilson has gone to California to visit relatives. Her address is 2901 Concord Blvd., Concord, Calif. 94520.

IN HOSPITALS

Mrs. Jim Simpson is in the Harris hospital in Fort Worth slowly improving. Her leg was set and put in a cast last Thursday. They moved her from intensive ward Sunday to room 724. Surgery will be done on her jaw and cheek bone Wednesday morning.

Jim Simpson is in the Brown-wood hospital. He is doing well, and expects to be dismissed in a few days following a car wreck April 20.

Jim had a broken nose and right arm, and Lizie May had broken leg and jaw and cheek bone.

Symptoms of further breakdowns in law enforcement in this country keep popping up. Appraisal of criminals is openly broadcast, even in high places. Many Judges have been doing it for years. Meantime, the crime rate feeds on such coddling. It has more than doubled in the last decade.

Recently the appeasement practices have been accorded to black militants in scores of colleges and universities. Down in Tuskegee Institute, a Negro college in Alabama a gang of outlaw students held the visiting Board of Directors as hostages for 12 hours. And it's happened elsewhere.

Amazingly, in a number of instances where organized bands have taken over, blocked hallways, even held such officials as hostages, school boards have supinely yielded to the demands. And in most instances the rebels have gotten by with their defiance of lawful authority—a practice which bristles with anarchy.

Elsewhere, appeasement of rioters is defended in high places. The President disagreed with Chicago Mayor Daly's policy of "shoot to kill" looters caught in the act. Likewise, so did the young Attorney General, Ramsey Clark, who is more of a public defender than a prosecutor. Clark seems to dread tangling with Stokely Carmichael and other anarchists.

What is overlooked is the fact that history reveals the futility of coddling and appeasement as applied to international gangsters. Such policies have always ended up causing more wars and bloodshed than otherwise. One of these days—let us hope—it will be found that panty-waist treatment applied to domestic hoodlums is equally as futile. Instead of preventing arson, looting and bloodshed, such policies serve to encourage the apostles of lawlessness.

The net result is more crime, more arson, more violence. It should be remembered that the law-abiding have absolutely nothing to fear from tough enforcement policies. Only the criminals have anything to worry about.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Don't panic if you observe swarming termites in or near your house. Your house won't come crashing down around your ears just because termite swarms are present.

Winged termites are a definite sign of an infestation somewhere, but it may not necessarily mean that damage is being done. These wood infesting insects are capable of flying some distances and could be coming from surrounding infested structures or other wood in the soil.

However, the homeowner should keep a watchful eye for signs of possible termite infestation. Look for detached wings; they break off soon after swarming takes place and are usually present in the swarming area. Another important sign of termite infestation is shelter tubes.

These are earthen tubes or runways built by termites on foundation walls, and are used as passageways to the wooden food source, protection against natural enemies and as a moisture conserving device. Check the foundation walls, both inside and out and particularly in the areas adjacent to bathrooms and kitchen where possible water leaks have occurred. Special attention should also be paid to areas around earthen-filled or wooden decked porches.

If you find that termites are setting up housekeeping, don't let this problem scare you into temporary do-it-yourself measures which may eventually cost more than dependable treatment by a pest control firm. It takes a long time for termites to cause further additional damage, so it will pay you to spend some time in selecting a pest control firm to do the work.

No reliable pest control operator will attempt to impress you with the urgency of immediate action. You will have ample time to investigate the reliability of the operator and to compare his diagnosis and estimate of cost with that of other operators. Membership in a National or State pest control association is also evidence that the firm meets certain standards. Termite inspection requires much experience and knowledge about the habits of termites. A correct diagnosis is most essential to successful treatment.

A reliable operator will provide a plan of the inspected premises, indicating points of infestation and hazardous conditions, and a written statement of the work he proposes to do and its estimated cost. The homeowner should understand what obligations he is assuming and what he is getting in return. The lowest bidder may not be the most reliable operator. If his work is not thorough and based on well established principles of termite control, the results may prove to be the most expensive in the long run.

Agriculture is in the midst of a fast accelerating technological race. New knowledge and skills are being applied daily to crop and livestock production by producers who assume that prevailing economic conditions and market relationships will not change but, changes are coming fast and economic and marketing relations are not exempt.

The county agent is working daily with crops, livestock and various resource committees to help producers make the best of the economics in the latest knowledge and skills.

The poisonous bitterweed can be controlled by spraying infested areas with 1 pound per acre of 2, 4-D low volatile ester. Application should be made when the plants are growing vigorously and in the bud stage and when the temperature is above 55 degrees F. Since soil moisture conditions are good over areas of Texas where the weed is most damaging, spraying this spring will pay good dividends. The county agent should be consulted for details on a spraying program.

No good substitute has yet been found for simplicity, frankness, sobriety, industry and sincerity.

Good gardening is more than pulling weeds and watering. A "green thumb" gardener is not a person who is just lucky in growing plants, but one who has a general knowledge of plants and how to bring the best out of them.

Plants should be checked often for signs for insect damage. Sucking insects such as aphids, thrips, and other "bugs" will cause yellowing, stunting, wilting, and under severe infestation can cause death. Should the populations of sucking insects become too serious either diazinon or malathion can be used effectively.

Holes in leaves, stems, and fruits indicate that chewing insects have been busy. Beetles, grasshoppers, and caterpillars are the most common pests of this type. Carbaryl, (Sevin), DDT, diazinon, malathion, methoxychlor, and rotenone are good controls for chewing insects.

Insects in the soil are also harmful, especially to seeds and young, growing plants. To combat maggots, cutworms, white grubs, and other soil insects, the soil should be treated with chlordane about four weeks before planting with 10% dust, wettable powder or 74% emulsion in water.

Fungi can also be problems on plants around the home and garden. Acti-dione (PM) and sulphur Karathane are recommended for control of powdery mildew, and maneb or captan are effective against black spot. Phaltan is effective for treating either of these fungi.

Gardeners know that nematodes can also cause trouble on ornamental plants. "Nematode Killer" and "Nema-X" are good controls for nematodes.

When treating for any of these insects or pests it is important to remember that many of the symptoms could also be caused by soil deficiencies or lack of water.

When fertilizing, only the recommended amount of fertilizer should be applied. The addition of extra amounts of fertilizer can upset the balance of nutrients in the soil and may cause damage to the plants.

A good soaking is better than shallow watering. Don't try to grow too many plants in one area. It is much more attractive and productive to grow only the number of plants you can care for with a minimum of work. And maybe you too can be a green thumb gardener.

The gift of gab isn't a gift—it's a peril.

Susan Hill Track Captain This Season

Miss Susan Hill, the track team's only Senior, was recently elected track captain by her teammates. Susan has run the 60-yard dash, and anchored both the sprint relay and mile relay teams to victory in the district meet. In regional she came in second in the 80, third in the 440 relay and won the mile relay to help her team to a second place finish. She will advance to state in the 60-yard dash and mile relay.

This is the first girls track team from Eldorado High School

Girls Letter in Track

A Senior, a Sophomore, and 8 Freshmen were the first track lettermen ever recognized by Eldorado High School. Susan Hill and Lisa Whitten were the only two upperclass while Lisa McAngus, Claudia Meador, Kathleen O'Harrow, Sheila Murr, Mary Lynn McCalla, Linda Derrick, and Susan Rogers are Freshmen. At the same time Coach Bell also announced that Kathy Robinson had also earned her letter as manager.

Eaglette Tracksters Take Third Place

It was a group of eight freshman girls who scored all Eldorado's points and brought home the 3rd place trophy in the giant 43 team Bluebonnet Belle Relays last Saturday in San Angelo.

Kathleen O'Harrow and Mary Lynn McCalla were entered in the field events where Kathleen came in third in the shot put and 4th in the discus.

There were two shuttle relays run on the turf. In 160 yard shuttle the Eaglettes came in 4th. Medals went to Peggy Hill, Lisa McAngus, Linda Derrick, and Sheila Murr. In the 240 shuttle Susan Rogers replaced Murr. This group came in third with a 31.5. The 300 medley relay was made up of Susan Rogers, Lisa McAngus, Sheila Murr, and Claudia Meador running distances of 100 yards, 50, 50, and 100 yards. This group clocked a 37.4 to take first place. Eldorado had a fifth in the 440 relay which gave the foursome no medals or points but they came back and took third in the 880 relay behind Borden county and Somerset The state meet bound relay team clocked a 1:53.4, their best so far.

Points were 5-3-2-1 in individual events and 20-12-8-4 in relays. Medals are awarded through four places in each event. This is probably the largest girls track meet in Texas. Borden county won the meet with 72 points, Robert Lee next with 49, and Eldorado 43.

Nueces Canyon won fourth. Borden county, Robert Lee and Eldorado are all in the same region.
