First Cavalry Suffers Heavy Battle Casualties

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —U.S. infantrymen tangled with North Vietnamese regulars in two small new fights today in the central highlands north of the battlefield on which U.S. air cavalrymen took heavy casualties Monday.

Units of the 25th Division skirmished with the North Vietnamese 12 miles southwest of the U.S. Special Forces camp at Plei Djering and 13 miles northwest of the Green Beret camp. Three North Vietnamese were reported killed in the first clash. There was no word of casualties in the other.

A U.S. military spokesman said the North Vietnamese inflicted heavy casualties on a three-platoon force of about 105 men on the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division in Monday's fighting 22 miles southwest of Plei Djering.

The spokesman said one platoon - about 35 men - was overrun and took the brunt of the casualties. He would not comment on reports that there were only three survivors in the platoon. U.S. military officials consistently refuse to give specific casualty figures in any action on grounds of security.

The North Vietnamese killed several wounded Americans as they swept across the battlefield, the spokesman reported.

The cavalrymen reported killing 102 North Vietnamese with the aid of air strikes and artillery. The North Vietnamese force was estimated at a battalion of about 500 men in all, and the force that overran the cavalry platoon was reported to be 150 to 200 men.

U.S. B52 bombers roared over the Plei Djering area today in support of the 25th and 1st Cavalry divisions and dropped their bombs on a North Vietnamese staging area 17 miles west of the Special Forces camp.

Only small, scattered ground action was reported elsewhere in Viet Nam.

Over North Viet Nam, the bad flying weather of the past two weeks persisted and U.S. pilots flew only 41 missions Monday. They hit at storage areas, roads and truck parks, mostly in the southern panhandle.

U.S. pilots flew 473 single - plane sorties Monday against Viet Cong camps, storage areas and fortified positions in South Viet Nam. South Vietnamese pilots flew 147.

The U.S. Navy announced that one sailor was killed and five were injured aboard the destroyer Philip Sunday when a highline rig collapsed during refueling in the Gulf of Tonkin off North Viet Nam.

The highline was rigged between the Philip and the tanker Navasota and was being used to transfer mail and supplies. The Navy said a coupling on the line parted.

JFK Assassination Controversy Grows

By DICK BARNES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controversy over the shots fired during the assassination of President John F. Kennedy reached new heights on this third anniversary of the Dallas tragedy.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., and former Kennedy adviser Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. called for further investigation.

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., a member of the Warren Commission, and former Kennedy press aide Malcolm M. Kilduff, while disputing commission findings about the shots, took no issue with the over-all commission conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, killed Kennedy.

Life magazine, disputing findings about the shots, called in this week's issue for a new investigation. Texas Gov. John B. Connally, wounded during the assassination, was quoted by Life as in positive disagreement with commission findings about the shots.

A spate of recent books has questioned the commission report. This week's newest round of debate is the most concentrated yet by present and past government officials.

Starting point for the new questioning is the commission finding that one bullet wounded both Kennedy and Connally. Some-but not all-of the critics move from here to the question of whether a second person fired at the Kennedy motorcade on that early Dallas afternoon.

Long said in New Orleans Monday he has always thought that a second person was involved.

The assistant Senate Democratic leader, in answer to a newsman's questions, said that although there is no doubt that Oswald played a part in the assassination, "whoever fired that second shot was a much better shot than Oswald."

The commission said three shots were fired. It concluded that one hit Kennedy and Connally, a later shot inflicted the major damage on Kennedy and one shot missed. The commission was unable to conclude which of the three shots missed.

Life quoted Connally as saying after a recent review of amateur films of the events: "There is my absolute knowledge. . . that one bullet caused the President's first wound, and that an entirely separate shot struck me. It's a certainty. I'll never change my mind."

Franco Asks End To Dictatorship

MADRID (AP) — Gen. Francisco Franco asked all adult Spaniards today to approve changes in the national organic laws which could help end the 27-year-old dictatorship of Spain.

The aging Franco—he will be 74 Dec. 4—drove through double lines of troops in gala uniforms to present to an extraordinary session of the Spanish Cortes — Parliament — a long-awaited program oriented toward liberalization of future Spanish regimes.

Received with high honors before the banner-decked Cortes building, guarded by a pair of huge lions cast from bronze of cannons captured from the Moors during Spain's African wars, Franco began his presentation in midafternoon.

Red Guards Ranks Split

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Peking's Red Guards have split into opposing groups struggling to control the Communist youth movement, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug said today.

Tanjug said Peking's Red Guards paper "East is Red" identified the groups as the revolutionary insurgents, who consider themselves the only true representatives of Mao Tse-tung, and an older outfit labeled Royalists.

The Red Guards paper, reporting on a fight between the groups at a textile factory Sept. 11, urged dissolution of the Royalist unit, Tanjug's correspondent in Peking said.

The paper said similar incidents are occurring in many factories and the struggle between the two groups is acute.

SHS Student Is Drowning Victim

Robert Edwards Hobbs, 17-year-old senior at Snyder High School, died in a tragic accidental drowning in a stock tank about 13 miles north of town off the Clairemont Road about 5:30 p.m. Monday.

The body was not recovered until 2:25 a.m. today. Firemen, Sheriff's Authorities and other rescue workers pulled the body from about 20 feet of water after dragging the pond for several hours.

Authorities said the youth had gone in the pond in an attempt to retrieve a duck and apparently sank after developing "cramps." He and another another youth, Larry Wadzeck, had been hunting. They shot a couple of ducks which fell into the pond.

Justice of the Peace Cone Merritt ruled the death to be from accidental drowning. He said the Wadzeck youth ran about a mile to the highway and halted a passing motorist. Rescue workers had difficulty in finding the pond since there is only one entrance for vehicles from the west.

The pond, of about five acres, is located on the old Whatley Ranch on land leased to Dewey Everett.

Hobbs sank in water about 75 feet from the dam, according to investigators. He was a popular student at Snyder HIgh School where he was a member of the baseball team. He played third base on an All-Star team during the summer baseball program.

Funeral will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday in Colonial Hill Baptist Church with the Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Jimmie Nelson. Burial will follow in Hillside Memorial Gardens under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home. Pallbeares will be Larry Wadzeck, Ronnie Potts, Terry Holt, David Cadena, Roy Hunter, Buddy Powell, Lane McMillan, Kinne Callaway, Bob Ray and Delbert Foree.

Born Aug. 1, 1949, in Odessa, Robert had resided in the county for the past 15 years. He was a member of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hobbs of Snyder; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Vera Miller of Snyder; his paternal grandfather, T. C. Hobbs of Brownwood; and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Kinsey of McGregor; and one brother, Dale, also of Snyder.

Jaycees who will serve as ushers include Les Francis, Darrell Raines, Jay Thompson and Cecil Fowler.

The joint committee arranging the service this year is composed of the Rev. Jene C. Greer, Ira-Union Methodist pastor; Rev. McMillan; Dr. A. B. Lightfoot, pastor of First Baptist Church; Rev. Bollinger, and Francis.

FINAL GRID CONTEST OF SEASON LAUNCHED

There was more traffic at the top last week in the Snyder Daily News Football Contest.

Six entrants wound up in a tie for the week's prize money, missing four selections each.

The four misses, of course, included the tie between Michigan State and Norte Dame, alone with Texas Tech's amazing upset of Arkansas.

Sharing the week's first and second prize money totalling $12.50 are Frank Overton, Route 1, Snyder; Evangeline Puente, 607 Thirty - fifth Street; Bill Harris, 2107 Forty - third; Frank Alarcon, 2807 Avenue N; Mrs. Bob Cole, 3004 Forty - first; Mike Davidson, Route 3, Snyder.

Another contest begins today, which is one day earlier than usual. The contest was moved up this week because several of the top games will be played on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. The deadline for entries is noon Thursday. They must be deposited in the contest collection box, or if mailed they must be postmarked no later than noon Thanksgiving Day to qualify for prizes.

This week's contest also will be the last one of the season.

The list of games may be found in sponsors' advertisements on the Football Contest Page of this issue of The Snyder Daily News.

Nunley Is Named Fireman Of Year

Garland Fullbright, fire marshal of the San Antonio Fire Department, told some 400 persons who attended the annual Thanksgiving dinner of the Snyder Fire Department that firemen need to have a working knowledge of engineering, electricity, plumbing, and nursing in order to properly carry out their work.

"Fire fighting is a hazardous job," he said, "and the firemen often perform the work of steeplejacks, laborers and teachers."

Fullbright acted as master of ceremonies, and he interspersed his speech with anecdotes and jokes.

The annual "Fireman of the Year" award was presented to Mickey Nunley, a young fireman who has taught fire fighting techniques at Texas A&M University. Nunley was described by his co-workers as "one of the best" firemen they have known. This award was presented by Roy Meador on behalf of Radio Station KSNY.

Fire Chief Alfred Kohl presented service pins to Wayne Jones and Ross Shell for completing five years of service with the Snyder Fire Department. Ten-year pins went to Newt Bonner, Odis Glasscock and H.A. Smith. Winning 15-year pins were Ed Shuler and Gerald Bugham.

A special award in recognition of 45 years of service was presented to Melvin Newton by Norman W. Autrey, former Chief of the Snyder Fire Department.

In receiving the award, Newton said, "I like all firemen and I hope I can be with them another 45 years." His wife also received a special gift from the firemen.

The welcome address was extended by Doug McGlaun, second assistant chief, and the response was given by George Patterson, city manager. Leonard Keller, first assistant chief, introduced guests, Rev. John Bollinger, chaplain of the Fire Department, introduced several minister guests. Included among those present were City Councilmen, County Commissioners, City Policemen, representatives of the School Sy-

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When Attworthy and I went together I kept wanting to tell him I thought he should either bathe more often or use a deodorant, but I didn't want to hurt his feelings. We've been married a year, he still has the same problem, and I still don't know how to tell him. Now that winter is here I can't keep all the windows open.

Once when a men's deodorant was being advertised on TV, I laughingly said, "Attworthy, you should try that." His back went up, and he said, "What for? I sit at a desk all day and I don't perspire. Besides, I bathe every week." I tried to tell him it wouldn't hurt to use it just to be "sure," but he blew up, so I changed the subject. How can I tell him, Abby? It's getting worse.

ATTWORTHY'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Like this: "I love you, darling, but you are getting a little ripe for me. Everybody perspires, including you, and the odor of perspiration is offensive. Try this men's deodorant (have some in your hand when you make your speech). Use it for ME, if not for yourself." And if he blows up, tell him to cool off in the bathtub.

DEAR ABBY: A letter in your column really hit home with me, and I hope you will publish my letter as a tip-of to other mothers who were as naive as mine:

A little girl signed "SQUASHED" wrote to you, complaining about overly-affectionate relatives. If "SQUASHED is a girl her problem might be more serious than you treated it. I am a grown woman now, but when I was about 8 years old I complained to my mother about an "overly - affectionate" uncle. She laughed it off with, "O, don't be silly. Uncle loves you."

To this day my mother does not know that my "loving" uncle tried to climb into bed with me one night when he was visiting us, and I fled, terrified, to my older sister's room to safety. When I am a mother you can be sure I will keep an eye on relatives who get too "affectionate" with my children.

GOOD MEMORY

DEAR ABBY: My grand-daddy on my mother's side gave mom a brand new car. He told her it was for her use only and not to let daddy use it because daddy thinks he's a great auto mechanic and if he ever got his hands on that car he'd be tinkering with it in no time.

Mom is being pestered to death. Do you think she should let daddy have a set of keys to her car? If she did and grand-daddy ever found out, there would be a war.

CAR TROUBLE

DEAR CAR: If your mother accepted the car with the understanding that she was not to let your daddy touch it, she should keep that promise. With all due respect to your grand daddy's generosity, gifts that could start a "war" should be neither offered nor accepted.

Turkey Feast Planned For Fighting Men

WASHINGTON — The U.S. fighting man in Viet Nam, described as the best fed in American wartime history, will get a hearty dinner of roast turkey with trimmings Thanksgiving Day.

It ought to be enough to make the Viet Cong cry.

In contrast with the Communists' basic diet of rice and fish, American troops in Southeast Asia will be getting a hot holiday meal consisting of:

Shrimp cocktail with crackers.
Turkey with giblet gravy.
Bread dressing.
Cranberry sauce.
Candied sweet potatoes.
Mixed vegetables.

And assorted relishes, hot rolls with margarine or butter, mincemeat or pumpkin pie, fruit and candy, plus coffee, tea or milk.

This is the Thanksgiving menu laid out for American soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines around the world, including the war theater.

Compare that with the basic fare of the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong of about 1.5 pounds daily of rice, salt, fish and nuoc man (fish sauce).

Paul R. Ignatius, assistant secretary of defense for installations and logistics, said over 88 per cent of the meals served in Viet Nam are hot meals with fresh meat, vegetables and other fresh food items. Seven per cent are heated canned foods. Only 5 per cent are field combat rations.

He said food is being provided to U.S. troops at a rate of about seven pounds per man per day, including 30 ounces of milk per

"I think that without question the troops are being fed better than those in any war in history," Ignatius said.

Recorders Missing In Air Crash

BERLIN (AP) — A U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board team, investigating last week's crash of a Pan American World Airways jet cargo plane in East Germany, announced today that two recorders that might have disclosed the cause of the accident have not been recovered.

The missing instruments — both designed to survive crashes — record crew and control tower conversation during the plane's last 30 minutes of flight as well as the instrument readings during the entire flight.

The plane, on a mail-carrying run from Frankfurt to West Berlin, crashed a week ago into a hill on a Soviet troop maneuver reservation several miles from its destination.

Soviet authorities placed tight security around the crash site before they turned over the wreckage and bodies of the three American crew members two days later.

Arnold Holstein, head of the investigating team, said that there is still much work to be done and some of the wreckage may have to be sent to the United States for further study.

Services were held here today for two of the crewmen — pilot Walter T. Reavis, 51, of Los Angeles; and copilot Raymond B. Foppe, 52, of Breese, ILL.

About 100 persons attended the ceremony, including many airline pilots.

stem, Sheriff's authorities, other city employes, and wives of the firemen.

Chief Kohl gave the annual report. During the period from Oct. 1965 to Oct., 1966, the Snyder Fire Department answered 300 calls, including 195 within the City limits. He also listed the names of several firemen who attended every drill, and he recognized the Ladies Auxiliary for their support of the Fire Department.

The Firemen and guests paid silent tribute to John J. Sanders, Snyder fireman who lost his life during the past year in the line of duty. He was the first Snyder fireman to die while fighting a fire. His widow received a special award and the appause of those present. Mr. Sanders had been a member of the Snyder Fire Department since 1956.

There were several favorable comments about the food. The menu included turkey and dressing with all the trimmings.

Many of the firemen had to leave the banquet before it concluded--in order to extinguish a grass fire at Fluvanna. They filed silently out of the cafeteria at Central Elementary and went to the fire in their dress clothes.

Nothing could have more clearly pointed up the fact that firemen always are ready to protect life and property.

Brown Flies To Leningrad

MOSCOW (AP) — The special plane carrying British Foreign Secretary George Brown could not land at Moscow today because of bad weather, and flew to Leningrad, the British Embassy said.

It was expected Brown would take a train from Leningrad to Moscow for his talks here with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Brown had been trying since Monday night to fly into the Soviet capital but low fog and ice kept the city's two international airports closed.

His plane went to Copenhagen, Denmark, from London earlier today in the hope that there would be a break in Moscow weather and it could come in.

Connally Urges Daring In Texas' Tourist Development

AUSTIN (AP) — If Texas wants to encourage tourism, Gov. John Connally said today, she must produce more individual effort like that which saved the Alamo from destruction in 1903.

In a speech to the Governor's Tourist Development Conference, Connally indicated he would ask the 60th Legislature for more money to promote Texas, but he stressed that individual daring and creativity are more important.

Connally presented the first Governor's Tourist Development Award to Mrs. Kathryn O'Connoer of Victoria, who "has given generously of her fortune and her energies to achieve the restoration of the Presidio of La Bahia, where James W. Fannin and 342 men were massacred on Palm Sunday 1836 to become martyrs in the cause of Texas freedom."

The Alamo was saved by Clara Driscoll, Connally said, when she bought a 30-day option on the Alamo in 1930 and held it long enough to preserve it from being razed to make way for a hotel.

"I cannot quarrel with the position that fine hotels are, indeed, essential to tourism," Connally said. "On the other hand, I cannot imagine that even if the Waldorf Astoria's presence on Alamo Plaza in San Antonio could possibly offset, in dollars and cents, the loss of the Alamo.

"Certainly no hotel could offset the spiritual loss to Texans—and to all Americans, really—of a place where man stood nobly in defense of liberty.

"There is often a very precise relationship between the preserved past and the profitable present."

Connally said 17 million visitors came to Texas last year and spent more than $900 million, of which $72 million went directly into the state treasury in the form of taxes. This was a return of more than 100-to-1, he said, on the taxpayer's investment in the total tourist development program for the state.

But Texas still lags behind Florida, for example, he said.

Texas had as many visitors as Florida last year, he said, but they stayed longer in Florida because there were more things to do there.

As examples of individual daring and creativity, Connally cited Six Flags over Texas between Dallas and Fort Worth, the Astrodome at Houston, the Sea-Aarama at Galveston and several others.

Fat from roasting fresh ham
½ cup waterground white cornmeal
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup cold milk
1½ cups scalded milk
4 large eggs

Shortly before fresh ham has finished roasting, use a bulb-type baster to siphon off the fat from the roasting pan into a measure and allow any brown drippings to settle; pour ¼ cup of the clear fat into an oblong ovenglass baking dish (11¾ by 7½ by 1¾ inches); place in a moderate (350 degrees) oven long enough to have fat very hot when batter is ready. In a medium saucepan, stir together the cornmeal, salt and cold milk; gradually stir in the scalded milk, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened; cool slightly. In a medium mixing bowl, beat eggs until thickened and a pale yellow color; gradually and smoothly, stir into cornmeal mixture. Pour into the hot drippings in hot baking dish. Bake in the 350-degree oven until puffed and set — about 35 minutes. Serve at once, cutting into squares and removing with wide - blade server at the table. Makes 6 servings.

Sauerkraut Reigns In Pennsylvania

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

SAUERKRAUT, called "the darling of Dutch cuisine," is popular all over Pennsylvania. And its reign started early. In 1820, a small New England boy visiting Philadelphia, is reported to have said: "Wonder why they don't have more gingerbread here — 'spose they like sourcrout better."

Among Pennsylvania Dutch cooks, simmering sauerkraut with pork and serving it with mashed potatoes is taken for granted. And with that combination, bread and applebutter is always a go-along. Sometimes too, dumplings crown the cinnerplate!

We won't swear to the authenticity of the following recipe for Pennsylvania - Dutch Stew, but for a different kind of "boiled dinner," you might like to try this hearty recipe.

Pennsylvania - Dutch Stew

2 tablespoons salad oil
3 chicken legs and thighs, split to make 6 pieces
2 medium onions, cut into thin strips
3 medium carrots, pared and cut into thin strips
1 can (1 pound and 11 ounces) sauerkraut, undrained
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 bay leaf
1 cup dry white wine
6 medium - small potatoes, pared and halved
3 frankfurters, halved crosswise
½ or 1 whole ring (about ½ to 1 pound) cooked - type Polish sausage (kielbasa), cut crosswise into 6 pieces

In a 5-quart Dutch oven, heat the oil. Add chicken and brown slowly on both sides; remove and reserve. To drippings in Dutch oven, add the onion and carrot; cook gently, stirring often, until lightly browned — about 10 minutes. Stir in the sauerkraut, pepper, bay leaf and wine. Add the potatoes, franks and Polish sausage pieces, burying them in the kraut. Arrange the chicken on top. Bring to a boil; cover tightly and simmer until potatoes and chicken are tender — 45 to 60 minutes. Makes 6 hearty servings.

NOTES: The Polish sausage (kielbasa) called for in the above recipe is made from coarsely ground pork with added beef and is well seasoned, especially with garlic. It comes various ways; for this recipe use the kind whose package directions specify that it needs only to be broiled or allowed to stand in boiling water before being eaten. When you use it in this Pennsylvania - Dutch Stew, just remove it from its wrapping, cut it in chunks and add to the stew as directed in the recipe.

Because both the sauerkraut and meats will add salt to the Pennsylvania - Dutch Stew, none is called for in the reeipe; but salt may, of course, be added to taste.

1 pound, 11 - ounce-can yields 3½ cups undrained (2¼ cups drained and 1¼ cups liquid)
1 pound plastic package yields 3 cups undrained (2 1-3 cups drained and 2-3 cup liquid)
2 pound plastic package yields 5 cups undrained (3 2-3 cups drained and 1 1-3 cups liquid)

Fruit Ade Adds Punch To Mallow Whip Dessert

Here's a refreshing cooling dessert to serve to company after a hearty meal. Pineapple-Orange Mallow Whip, developed and tested by economists, is orange-flavored gelatin, gelatin sections, bananas, whipping cream and convenient Pineapple-Orange fruit ade.

Whip-up this fluffy dessert in the morning and pour into a vanilla wafer crust. At serving time, simply cut into squares and garnish with vanilla wafers and a dollop of whipped cream.

Pineapple - Orange Mallow Whip is an exceptionally fine dessert following a poultry or pork dinner.

Pineapple-Orange Mallow Whip ... (Makes 12 servings)

½ pound marshmallows
3 cups pineapple-orange fruit
1 package (6 oz.) orange flavored gelatin
2 cups diced orange sections
2 bananas, sliced
1 cup whipping cream, whipped
Vanilla Wafers
Whipped Cream

Melt marshmallows in pineapple-orange ade over low heat, stirring constantly. Add gelatin; stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Beat orange mixture until frothy. Combine oranges and bananas; mix lightly. Fold into orange mixture. Fold in whipped cream. Arrange vanilla wafers on bottom of a 12x7½x2-inch pan. Spoon gelatin mixture over wafers. Chill until firm. Cut into servings. Garnish each serving with a vanilla wafer and whipped cream.

Rice takes on extra savor when it is cooked in well-seasoned chicken stock instead of water.

Educational Program At Travis P-TA

Travis P-TA met in regular session Monday at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Elmo Crowder, president, presiding. The meditation was given by Mrs. B. J. Bartels. Mrs. Kenneth Smith read the minutes, Mrs. James Beckham gave the treasurer's report and Mrs. C. M. Word, chairman of Health and Mental Health, read a note of thanks from the Humble - Smith school, for pies donated by the Travis executive committee for the school's recent spaghetti supper.

Mrs. L. D. Stone and Mrs. W. D. Sims gave brief reports on the state convention they attended in Austin last week. Mrs. Stone was particularly impressed with the talk by House Speaker Ben Barnes.

The program theme was "The Individual Learner Comes First." Symposium participants were Mrs. Marvin Dozier, Dr. R. B. Pierce, and Mr. Frank Miller.

Mrs. Dozier stressed the importance of communication between parents and teachers. Dr. Pierce expressed the need for individual learning for each child and the important roles that home, church and school play in this learning. Mr. Miller brought to the group's attention that federal government aid to education, in the amount of $50 billion per year, is second to aid for defense.

There was a great deal of discussion after the program, while members enjoyed coffee and cookies and continued to probe the future of education.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS

You can combine thinly sliced pared apples and pears for a one-crust pie with a streusel-type topping. Combining the two fruits gives interesting flavor.

Stir a little bottled horseradish into canned applesauce and use as a quickly made accompaniment for roast turkey or chicken. This sauce is also good with pork chops or roast pork.

KENNEDY MARKER — The plaque bearing the text giving details of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was put in place in Dallas. Workmen arrived early in the morning and placed the two bronze plaques on granite markers in Dealey Plaza. Erection of the plaques was completed just one week short of the three years since Kennedy was fatally wounded by a sniper. (AP Wirephoto)

Grave Of John F. Kennedy Still Draws Many Visitors

By ROBERT E. GEIGER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sometimes the visitors come in military cadence, or with the quick and happy step of school children, or in the contemplative way of the thoughtful citizen.

They still throng to the grave of John F. Kennedy, assassinated in Dallas, Tex., three years ago today.

By count and estimate more than 16 million persons have climbed the grassy slopes of Arlington National Cemetery to the graves of Kennedy and two of his children.

In the first few weeks there were more than 30,000 a day. Now there are about 15,000 daily, but a pleasant Indian summer or spring day, or a holiday will draw many more thousands.

Visitors often wait an hour or two in line. Not long ago, wreath-laying ceremonies were averaging 15 a day.

A new granite and marble memorial authorized by Congress is nearing completion. The simple grave outlined by a low white picket fence stands today in sharp contrast to the gleaming marble of the new memorial a few feet away.

The new site, to which the bodies of Kennedy and his two children, who died in infancy, will be moved next spring, includes a circular walkway, more than 200 feet across and an inscription wall of granite upon which are engraved quotations from the Kennedy inaugural speech of Jan. 20, 1960.

The eternal flame lighted by Kennedy's widow during the burial service will be moved to the new site and remain a central symbol. The light has gone out on occasion since the burial but the new one to be installed in the memorial has been tested in hurricane - force wind and simulated rain storms.

John Carl Warnecke, the architect who designed the memorial, attempted to keep it as simple as the expenditure of more than $2 million permitted.

A gray slate marker set flush with the ground will identify the president's grave and those of the children — Patrick Bouvier Kennedy and baby girl Kennedy.

The president's marker will be engraved with the words: John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 1917-1963.

The eternal flame may be seen on a clear night from the Lincoln Memorial, perhaps a mile or more across the Potomac River.

In its new location, the grave and the flickering flame will be in a straight line from the Lincoln Memorial to the Custis Lee Mansion at the crest of the hill overlooking the cemetery. The mansion was built in 1802 by George Washington Parke Custis, adopted grandson of President George Washington.

Thousands of mementos have been tossed upon Kennedy's grave in the three years since the assassination. They give some hint of the moods of the people who visit the grave and the emotions that stir them.

A baby's shoe, a religious medal, a scarlet flower, the berets and caps of military men, a torn page from a Bible with a marked passage were part of one day's offerings.

The mementos are gathered daily, packed and sent to the White House.

The great and the famous, kings and emperors, the ordinary and the obscure citizens of the world have been drawn to the grave.

What brings them?

Many motives.

A busload of children arrives on its Washington sightseeing tour. They pile out laughing and chattering with cameras dangling on their arms.

A group of nuns makes the walk around the grave, solemn and silent.

A cluster of businessmen, taking time out from a convention, arrives. They talk casually among themselves but stop for a moment in silence.

A woman came to the grave in a heavy downpour of rain. She told a cemetery worker: "I came all the way from Canada to see this grave and no rain is going to stop me now, or anything else."

Another visitor, asked what had drawn him to the grave, said of Kennedy: "He was a man of grace. He died too young, too needlessly. That has haunted me ever since he was killed. I wanted to come and see the place where he is buried."

Most of those coming alone appear thoughtful or sad as they reach the grave.

Many shed a tear.

Hospital Enlarged

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP) — A $2,200,000, 4-story brick addition to the Community Hospital of Brazosport has been completed. This adds 109 beds and other modern and up-to-date facilities. The number of beds now is 194, according to Bill C. Smith, administrator.

There are 33 medical doctors on the active list, and a total of 64, including dentists and other doctors, using the hospital. Employes number approximately 165 full time and about 85 part time.

At the dedication of the new addition J. L. (Bo) Wilson, chairman of the board of trustees, pointed out that this marks the completion of Phase 1, most of the board's immediate objectives. Phase 2 is the renovation of the old part of the hospital, and could begin at an early date, depending primarily on the availability of a matching federal grant, the method used in financing the addition.

Decides To Be Just A Drunk

BEAUMONT (AP) — "You can't arrest me for drunk, I'm an alcoholic," the unsteady gentleman sternly warned Police Desk Sgt. H. W. Meek.

"Fine," replied Meek, "we'll charge you as an alcoholic then they can send you to (the state mental hospital at) Rusk."

"Rusk? Hold it, sir. Anyone can see that I'm just drunk," was the man's frantic reply.

"Okay, we'll just put down that you're drunk and let you spend a while in jail," Meek said.

"Gee thanks, officer," the grateful prisoner grinned happily as the jailer led him upstairs to a cell.

Ransom Drive Slammed By Baptist

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—An official of the Southern Baptist Convention has labeled deplorable the Kentucky Baptist Convention's effort to raise $37,000 ransom for Baptist leaders imprisoned in Cuba.

Executive Secretary Arthur Rutledge of the denomination's Home Mission Board, the agency responsible for Baptist work in Cuba, said Monday the Kentucky convention's decision is in direct contradiction to a request by the board.

The Rev. David Fite, the Rev. Herbert Caudill and 35 other Cuban Baptist leaders, were jailed in April of 1965. Charges against Fite and Caudill included espionage. However, they were convicted of illegal currency exchange.

On Nov. 10 the Home Mission Board requested state conventions to avoid any action on behalf of the imprisoned Baptists other than to call for prayer, Rutledge said. The conventions were asked specifically that ransom not be considered, he declared.

Meeting at Bowling Green Nov. 18, the Kentucky convention approved a drive to raise $37,000 designated for drugs and food to be sent to Cuba in exchange for the prisoners. The supplies were to be sent through diplomatic channels.

Rutledge added that officials have said any ransom deal involving sending goods or money to Cuba would be prohibited by Foreign assets control regulations governing relations with Cuba. For this and other reasons, any approach of this kind has been discouraged, the SBC official said.

New Plane Passes Test

BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—The Air Force reports a four-engine jet with a swollen nose has passed its first operational test as a communications ship for the Apollo moon flights.

The aircraft, dominated by a bulbous nose radome carrying a 7-foot-wide steerable, dish type antenna, is the first of eight EC135Ns which will provide a voice link with the Apollo space craft when the moon-bound astronauts are out of range of ground stations or ships.

During last week's Gemini 12 flight, the aircraft relayed voice messages between the Manned Space Flight Center at Houston and the two-man capsule on six orbits while it was over the Gulf of Mexico.

"This is the first time that an aircraft has been used to relay communications from an orbiting vehicle," said Lt. Col. Lawrence Politzer, project director for the Air Force's electronic systems division here at Hanscom Field.

TAX ANSWERS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

* * *

Question - I'm getting married in December. Will I be able to file a joint return for the entire year?

Answer - Yes. Marital status is determined as of the last day of the tax year. If you are married by that date then you are considered married for the entire year.

Question - How long do you have to own stock or some other asset to qualify for a long term capital gain?

Answer - More than six months.

Question - We have just sold our house at a profit. Is that taxable when we put the money into a larger home?

Answer - Generally, if you purchase and occupy another home within a year at a price equal to or above what you received for your old home then you will not be currently taxed on the profit made on the sale.

If, within the appropriate time period, you buy a new home at a lower price than you sold the old one for, all or part of the gain is taxed currently.

A complete discussion of this subject may be found in IRS Documnet 5017, "Selling Your Home," available by dropping a post card to your District Director.

Question - How about the cost of a hunting license. Is that deductible?

Answer - No it is not.

Question - What do you have to do to be able to claim a deduction for setting up an office in your home?

Answer - To establish this deduction you should be able to establish that:

1. - You are required to provide your own space and facilities as a condition or your employment.

2. - you regularly use part of your home for that purpose,

3. - the area of your home that is so used,

4. - the extent of the use, and

5. - the pro-rata portion of the home expenses attributable to such use.

Question - I'm divorced and my wife has custody of the children. Since I still support them can I claim them as exemptions on my withholding?

Answer - Yes you can if they qualify as your dependents. Generally, this means that you provide more than one - half their total support for the year.

IRS Document No. 5013, "Personal Exemptions and Dependents," explains this subject in detail. It may be obtained by dropping a post card to your District Director.

Question - Are employment agency fees deductible?

Answer - Yes, if you itemize deductions and you pay them for getting employment.

Question - I've heard that a check made out to cash or to yourself is not sufficient to establish a deductible expense. Is that right?

Answer - Generally speaking, that is correct. To substantiate a deductible expense your records must indicate, among other things, the purpose of the expense, and to whom paid, as well as the amount.

A check made out to cash or to yourself gives no indication by itself of the nature of the expense. This kind of check must be supported by other records, such as receipts, to be useful in proving any deductions you claim.

A check made out to a specific organization or person, like a charity or a doctor for example, may well be sufficient to establish that a deductible expenditure has been made.

Laredo To Eliminate Peddling

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—The Retail Trade Committee of the Laredo Chamber of Commerce has started a drive to eliminate all types of peddling and sidewalk street vending in the downtown district.

Duane Roush and John Daves, committee co-chairmen, said they are soliciting the cooperation of merchants. They also have called on Police Chief Billy Weeks to assist in curbing of activities of vendors who, they say, disrupt pedestrian and vehicular traffic during peak business hours.

"We have received many complaints from store owners and shoppers alike in regard to this serious problem," Daves said.

Laredo downtown streets generally are cluttered with street and sidewalk vendors particularly during the pre-Christmas period.

The committee asked merchants to move vendors off their property. If the merchant wishes to do merchandising on the street, "this would be left to conscience with the hope that he will cooperate and discontinue it immediately," Daves said.

Rabies Outbreak Alerts Beaumont

BEAUMONT (AP) — More than 3,000 dogs have been put to sleep at the city pound in the last year as a serious outbreak of rabies gripped the city.

Pound officials said that the measure is in keeping with U.S. Public Health Service and World Health Organization recommendations for combatting rabies.

Forty-seven rabid animals have been reported here since September, 1965.

Insurance In Force Nears $9 Million

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—The American National Insurance Co., one of the industry's major firms, is nearing the $9 billion mark in insurance in force, Chairman W. L. Vogler and President R. A. Furbush recently reported.

New insurance sales for the first 9 months through Sept. 30 amounted to $1.6 billion.

Ohio Teachers Still On Strike

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Negotiations have been suspended in Youngstown and have broken down in Hubbard as teachers strikes affecting more than 40,000 students entered the second day today.

The Youngstown Federation of Teachers and the Board of Education recessed negotiations at 3 a.m. today with no progress reported. Pickets were out this morning, a spokesman said.

Negotiations in Hubbard apparently broke down between the Hubbard Board of Education and the Hubbard Federation of Teachers. The board said schools would be open today but told youngsters not to attend.

The main issue in Youngstown is collective bargaining. At nearby Hubbard, the issues are collective bargaining and wages.

The Youngstown board agreed Monday to a collective bargaining election on or before Dec. 16, but said that supervisory personnel should be allowed to vote.

The federation disagreed and said the board's resolution should exclude supervisory personnel. Until that demand is met, a spokesman said the strike would continue.

Present bargaining agents are the Youngstown Education Association and the Hubbard Education Association. Both bargaining agents were designated by their respective school boards.

Both boards have said they may send notices to all striking teachers, notifying them that state law bans strikes by public employes.

Eugene Green, Youngstown federation lawyer, said the law would make no difference because the strikers are willing to lose their jobs and work elsewhere if they are fired because of the strikes.

The strike started Monday when Youngstown teachers picketed the system's 44 schools and Hubbard teachers picketed four schools in their districts.

Both federation groups are members of the AFL-CIO and backed by the Ohio Federation of Teachers.

Bus drivers have supported the strikes and the walkouts have disrupted transportation for some 2,000 parochial school pupils in Youngstown who depend on public transportation under a new Ohio law which provides it for them.

Flood Brings Crisis To Aldo Moro

By GERALD MILLER

ROME (AP) — Premier Aldo Moro's government is suffering a crisis of popular confidence as a result of its reaction to Italy's flood disaster.

The response to Moro's personal appeal for funds to help the flood victims has been so poor that the radio has practically stopped announcing how little money is being contributed.

Many Italians, rather than turn anything over to the government bureaucracy, are hauling food, clothing and other supplies in their own cars and trucks to stricken families

In the first days after the floods struck Nov. 4, officials in Florence, the city hardest hit, accused the government of slow and inadequate response to the emergency.

A wide segment of the Italian press has taken up that cry and carried it further, demanding to know what the government intends to do to prevent disastrous flooding in the future.

So far the government has increased gasoline and income taxes to raise $800 million for relief and reconstruction. But the Cabinet has not begun to deal with the larger problem — a national program of flood control and reforestation to remedy the generations of neglect and misuse that have left most of Italy's mountainous land mass dangerously bare of water-absorbing vegetation.

Summer Hangs On

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Downright warm weather, at least for late November, hung on over much of Texas today.

Temperatures climbed into the 70s and 80s throughout the state Monday, ranging up to 85 at Childress and 86 at Presidio.

Except for readings down to 38 degrees near daylight at Dalhart and El Paso, there was little cooling overnight. Most other points had marks in the middle 40s to 60s

No rain fell anywhere in Texas and none was in prospect through Wednesday.

Weather Bureau observers expected a rather puny Pacific front to cool the Panhandle tonight and to spread over most of Northwest Texas by Wednesday. Little change was forecast elsewhere

Colonel Says Scares Keep Him Young

CORTLAND, N.Y. (AP) — When Air Force Col. Levi Chase, 49, was honored with a parade for his service in three wars — more than 500 combat mission in World War II, Korea and Viet Nam — he said he stays "young by being scared to death several times a week."

American To Stay In Auto Business

By CHARLES C. CAIN
AP Business News Writer

DETROIT (AP)—Board chairman Robert B. Evans of American Motors said today that despite a $12.6 million loss in fiscal 1966, his company was in the auto business to stay.

"There is absolutely no possibility that AMC might not survive," said the 57-year-old Detroit industrialist-sportsman. "There is no cause for gloom."

AMC's directors reported the loss Monday for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30 and at the same time voted to skip a quarterly dividend for the fifth straight quarter. It was the second largest annual deficit for AMC in its 12-year history.

Evans expressed some disappointment at the way AMC car sales have been going, particularly since the 1967 models were introduced a few weeks ago. But he pointed out "we are not alone — the other auto companies have the same problem in sales slumps and production cutbacks.

"We are victims of the Big Three auto companies. They are not intentionally trying to hurt us but they are competing vigorously and we are caught in the middle of a squeeze as they have tremendous amounts to spend on advertising and promotion."

AMC's gross sales of $870 million and a net loss of $12.6 million for fiscal 1966 were equal to a deficit of 66 cents a share. A year ago, sales hit $990.6 million with profits of $5.2 million equal to 27 cents a share.

New Phone Gadget Slows Crank Calls

DALLAS (AP)—Annoying, obscene and crank telephone calls have fallen almost 50 per cent in North Texas since Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. laid plans to trap annoyance callers starting in mid-June.

Wayne Palmer, Dallas division manager for the firm, said new call tracing devices have been the major factor in the decline.

Palmer said that more than 25 persons in North Texas alone had been arrested since the plan started.

Danes Go To The Polls

COPENHAGEN (AP) Danes voted today in national elections with non-Socialist parties claiming high hopes of ending the Socialists' 13-year control of the government.

Scrambling to put up at least a semblance of unity, the non-Socialists ended the brief but hectic election campaign Monday night with a warning that support for Premier Jens Otto Krag might mean more clearcut socialism in the years to come.

Krag, who called the snap elections three weeks ago, stuck to his original claim that he wanted only to test public opinion of his minority government's proposal to introduce a pay-as-you-earn tax system.

Since the last election in 1964, Krag had been maneuvering from compromise to compromise with non-Socialist parties, and some of the deals have not been too popular with his own party. The best guess is that Krag wants to get out of this situation — either as head of a stronger government or as head of a powerful opposition.

About 3.3 million Danes were eligible to vote. In the outgoing 175-seat Parliament, Krag's Social Democrats held 76 seats, the Conservatives and Moderate Liberals each had 36, the Radical Liberals 10, the Socialist People's party 10, independents 5 and Liberal Center 2.

Rookie Flynn Robinson of the Cincinnati Royals set eight new school basketball records at Wyoming. He averaged 27 points a game as a senior.

Powell Lawyers In Court Today

NEW YORK (AP)— Lawyers for Rep. Adam Clayton Powell go to court in two cases today —one an attempt to block a 30-day jail sentence for contempt of court against the Negro congressman, and the other involving a charge he is ineligible to hold this seat in the House.

Powell, who could be arrested on any of four contempt of court convictions if he enters the state on a weekday, was not expected to appear.

The appellate division of the state Supreme Court will consider an appeal from Powell to bar his punishment for criminal contempt. Powell was ordered jailed on the charge starting Wednesday.

The arrest order arises out of Powell's refusal to obey court instructions in a $164,000 libel judgment against him. He owes the money to Esther James, whom he called a go-between for corrupt police and gamblers.

The second action involves a federal court hearing to decide if Powell, re-elected to his 12th term two weeks ago, is ineligible to keep his seat.

Lassen Walsh, a Republican defeated by the Harlem Democrat, contends Powell is not a New York resident and that he last slept in the apartment he lists at his home in Manhattan about a year and a half ago.

The Board of Elections has refused to certify Powell the winner the race until the court rules.

Norvell To Begin Term

HERNANDO, Miss. (AP) — Aubrey James Norvell is scheduled to surrender to authorities here Dec. 2 to begin serving a penitentiary term for the ambush shooting of civil rights leader James H. Meredith last June.

The former hardware salesman from Memphis was sentenced to five years, with three years suspended, after entering a surprise plea of guilty Monday to a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. He is free under 25,000 bond.

Norvell pleaded innocent at his arraignment last Friday and trial was scheduled for today. His new plea came after his attorneys lost several motions to have indictments quashed.

Norvell, 40, was arrested June 6, minutes after Meredith, the man who integrated the University of Mississippi amid bloodshed in 1962, was peppered with birdshot on the second day of his "march against fear" in Mississippi.

Meredith was not seriously injured. Later he joined a massive civil rights march touched off by the shooting.

He said no more pictures would be published immediately unless something new turns up.

Bandits Take Over To Earn Loot

NEW YORK (AP) — Three bandits tied up a gas station manager and his assistant, police said, locked them in a rest room, then ran the station for two hours early today. Their haul, including money from the cash register, $595.

The robbers apparently fled when business petered out at the station in Long Island City, Queens, police said.

Brandt Says Social, Free Democrats Work Together

BONN, Germany (AP) — Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin said today that his Social Democrat party is completely in agreement with the Free Democrats on foreign and defense policy and working together for reuniting Germany.

Brandt spoke to newsmen after a meeting with Free Democrat leaders to see if the two parties can put together a governing coalition.

He said the meeting dealt with economic and financial matters. Apparently no agreement was reached on these. The two parties have long agreed on the points which Brandt cited.

Free Democrat party leader Erich Mende agreed with Brandt that the talks were sustained by a will to form a government. Mende stressed, however, that the two parties have not reached an agreement.

The meeting was the second between the two parties in the current interparty coalition talks. Another one is scheduled for Friday.

If the Free Democrats and the Social Democrats form the next government, Brandt probably will succeed Ludwig Erhard as chancellor.

Mende's party has been chastened by two recent defeats in state elections and should be eager for an accord. But it can offer Brandt only enough votes in the Bundestag to give him two more than the absolute majority needed for election. Many German politicians think this is too small a margin to run the country, especially since there are conservative Democrats who dislike the idea of working with Social Democrats.

Yet the Free Democrats furnish Brandt's party with a major chance of getting the top spot. If Brandt makes a deal with the Christian Democrats, who control 245 votes to 202 for his own party, he will probably have to take a smaller job.

SEC Powers Accept Bids

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Georgia and Mississippi, two traditional football powers from the Southeast, accepted invitations Monday to play in the Cotton Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl, respectively.

Georgia's opponent in the Dec. 31 Cotton Bowl classic will be Southern Methodist if the Mustangs can get by Texas Christian Saturday. Otherwise, Arkansas will represent the Southwest Conference.

Sponsors of the Dec. 17 Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston are said to favor a Southwest Conference team to oppose Mississippi, although Oklahoma and Colorado also are being considered. Arkansas, SMU and Texas are the front-runners from the Southwest for the nod.

The Cotton Bowl last year paid $230,107.26 to each of the competing teams, the highest money figure in the event's history. No decrease is forecast for this year, as the clash again is a sellout and will be televised by CBS at 1:30 p.m. CST.

These other bowl developments also came to light Monday:

Kilgore will meet Ferrum Va. in the Shrine Bowl Nov. 26 at Savannah, Ga; and.

Parsons College of Fairfield, Iowa, accepted an invitation to play in the Pecan Bowl at Abilene Dec. 10. The other team, said to be either the University of North Dakota or Arkansas State, will be named Tuesday.

Also, Henderson County will meet Pasadena Junior College Dec. 10 in the Junior Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

A TCU victory over SMU would place Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl because the Razorbacks whipped the Mustangs in regular season play.

Mississippi has a 7-2 record going into Saturday's game with Mississippi State. It lost to Alabama and Georgia.

Georgia lost only to Miami, 7-6, and goes into Saturday's clash with Georgia Tech with 8-1 mark.

Georgia Tech plays in the Orange Bowl this year.

Georgia has never played in the Cotton Bowl but it took a 7-0 victory in 1965 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso. Sun Bowl officials have yet to select either team for this year's contest.

By LAWRENCE MALKIN

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Labor government today overrode the objections of unions and business and extended its wage and price standstill for another six months. The economic freeze will be allowed to thaw only around the edges.

The government published a White Paper outlining details for a "period of severe restraint" starting in January.

After six months of total wage standstill that began with the austerity measures in July, exceptions will be permitted for low-paid and more-productive workers.

Price increases may be justified only by increased material costs, higher taxes and, in exceptional cases, the need to make a profit or to maintain efficiency.

Both wages and profits will be under constant government scrutiny, and officials have power to halt boosts by law.

The wage and price freeze has been the key to foreign confidence in the British pound which strengthened hesitantly after Prime Minister Harold Wilson introduced a program of higher taxes, spending cuts, and credit restrictions last July 20. Without them, he probably would have been forced to devalue Britain's currency.

During the past four months, the wage and price indexes have risen by less than one percentage point. The cost has been a slowdown in production and profits, and a doubling in the unemployment figure.

Union leaders, businessmen and some members of Wilson's own party have begun demanding that the government loosen Britain's belt a notch or two. But the White Paper offered them few concessions.

Buffs Split With Hobbs

FLUVANNA — The Fluvanna Junior High School split a pair of basketball games here with Hobbs Monday night. The host boys won, 40-28, and the girls lost, 14-32

The boys took a 13-4 first quarter lead and outscored the visitors in each of the remaining frames. Three young Buffs hit the double figure column: Larry Patterson with 12, Louis Contreras with 11, and Alex Ynguan with 10 points. High point man for Hobbs was Junior Garcia. He rang the hoops for 14 points

Rennetta Jordan paced the girls attack with nine points, but Hobbs' Reta captured high point honors with 17 points.

The Hobbs girl took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter and never was seriously threatened thereafter.

FLUVANNA BOYS — Larry Patterson 4-4-12; Louis Contreras 5-1-11; Junior Bilano 1-0-2; Alex Ynguanzo 5-0-10; Randy Gill 2-0-4; Mike Landrum 0-1-1; totals 17-6-40.

The Fluvanna varsity hosts Gail tonight in a program that begins at 5:30 p.m.

Conservative Irish Maintain Top Spot

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ara Parseghian took it all in stride but Duffy Daugherty is beginning to feel persecuted.

Parseghian's Notre Dame football team edged out Daugherty's Michigan State club by a scant three points in this week's Associated Press college poll after they fought to a 10-10 tie last Saturday. It was one of the closest counts in the history of the poll.

"We were ranked No. 1 last week," Parseghian said on hearing the news, "and Michigan State didn't beat us, and I think we deserve to be on top again."

Daugherty, however, was not convinced.

"I would hope that as the writers take time to reflect," he said, "they would reward this great gang of Spartans for their great effort in the last two seasons."

"No one could be more worthy than this group that played like champions and fought right down to the wire."

This was the second year in a row that Michigan State has had its troubles with the poll. Last season, the Spartans were ranked first at the end of the regular season but were replaced by Alabama when they lost to UCLA, 14-12, in the Rose Bowl.

Notre Dame received 556 points in the poll to Michigan State's 553. The Irish had 23 first place votes to 13 for the Spartans with 14 ballots naming both teams in a tie for first place. Points are awarded on nine for second, etc. evote, the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc.

But Michigan State made the count close with 27 second-place votes against 15 for the Irish. Alabama was third with 467 points and eight first-place votes and Nebraska was fourth with 401 points and a lone first-place ballot.

The rest of the Top Ten were Georgia Tech fifth, UCLA sixth, Georgia seventh, Purdue eighth, Florida ninth and Southern California 10th.

Michigan State is through for the season but Notre Dame's hopes for continuing in first place depend on its meeting with Southern California Saturday in Los Angeles.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parenthesis, and total points:

1. Notre Dame (37)	556
2. Michigan State (27)	553
3. Alabama (8)	467
4. Nebraska (1)	401
5. Georgia Tech	336
6. UCLA	278
7. Georgia	201
8. Purdue	136
9. Florida	99
10. Southern California	62

South Rises Again-- For Grid Bowl Games

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The South, a reluctant bystander at last Saturday's Poll Bowl, has recouped, as expected, by grabbing the lion's share of college football's post-season prizes.

Five teams from the rugged Southeastern Conference and two powerful Dixie independents accepted bowl bids Monday as all but five berths in the eight major holiday attractions were filled.

This weekend, two Southwest Conference schools are expected to join the field, giving the southland at least nine of the 16 bowl spots.

Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee - all of the SEC - and independents Georgia Tech and Miami nailed bowl assignments Monday while the Pacific 8 Conference pulled a mild surprise by selecting Southern California as the host team in the Rose Bowl. Purdue and Syracuse had been named to the Rose and Gator Bowls, respectively, over the weekend.

The top game should be the Sugar Bowl confrontation between third - ranked Alabama and fourth-ranked Nebraska.

If Alabama sidesteps an upset in its remaining two regular-season games and the Cornhuskers don't stumble against Oklahoma in their Thanksgiving Day windup, the New Orleans classic will offer the only pairings of perfect-record teams.

The game is a rematch of Alabama's 39-28 Orange Bowl triumph over Nebraska last New Year's night.

Georgia Tech, only other unbeaten and untied major team, meets Florida in the Orange Bowl at Miami the night of Jan. 2 after Southern California, the Pacific 8 king, and Purdue, the Big Ten runner-up, tangle in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

If Southern Methodist takes the Southwest Conference title by beating Texas Christian Saturday, the Mustangs will entertain Georgia in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas on Dec. 31. Tennessee takes on Syracuse in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., the same day.

Mississippi goes to the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston on Dec. 17, where it probably will run into, Arkansas of the SWC. Miami has filled half the bill at the Dec. 10 Liberty Bowl at Memphis. Berths in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., Dec. 24, are still wide open, with 12 schools in the running.

Southern California's nomination as the West Coast's Rose Bowl representative raised a few eyebrows. UCLA, which beat the Trojans last Saturday but finished one-half game behind them in Pacific 8 play, had been expected to get the call.

Monahans In Top 10 Poll

DALLAS (AP)—Sports writers over Texas pick Amarillo Tascosa and McKinney to claim state schoolboy football championships in the season's final Dallas News poll.

Tascosa was rated the favorite in Class AAAA and McKinney in Class AAA.

The final poll was conducted last week in Class AA, where Sweeny was ranked first, and in Class A where Forney was the top choice. Each won its first round playoff game.

Two teams were added and two dropped out of the rankings for both Classes AAAA and AAA in the closing ballot.

Dallas Bryan Adams and San Antonio Mac Arthur are newcomers in AAA, displacing Dallas Woodrow Wilson and Wichita Falls Rider.

Monahans and Robstown moved into the top 10 for AAA, ousting Odessa Ector and Brownwood.

The rankings:

Class AAAA: 1. Amarillo Tascosa 10-0; 2. Austin McCallum 10-0; 3. Brazosport 9-1; 4. San Angelo 9-1; 5. Carrollton Turner 10-1; 6. San Antonio MacArthur 10-0; 7. Marshall 9-1; 8. Dallas Bryan Adams 7-2-2; 9. Houston Waltrip 10-1; 10. Spring Branch 8-1-1.

Class AAA: 1. McKinney 10-0; 2. Bridge City 9-1; 3. Dumas 9-1; 4. San Marcos 10-0; 5. Vernon 10-0; 6. Fredericksburg 9-1; 7. Robstown 10-0; 8. Nacogdoches 8-2; 9. Conroe 8-2; 10. Monahans 8-2.

Matt Goukas Jr. of the Philadelphia 76s of the National Basketball Association is the son of a member of the league champion Philadelphia Warriors of 1946 - 47.

Day Of Assassination Was Frantic In Financial World

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Today's third anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy is also the anniversary of one of the most frantic days ever known in the financial world.

For a long while that day nobody knew what might happen to the value of stocks and bonds or to the U.S. dollar or to confidence in the banks and brokerage houses

The news on Wall Street was bad just prior to the assassination. A couple of days earlier two prominent firms had been suspended from the New York Stock Exchange in the great salad oil swindle.

This, in itself, was a crisis. Millions of dollars in salad oil had "disappeared" and prominent brokers were left holding worthless pieces of paper. Many investors had lost confidence in the market .

In this mood a big advisory service unwittingly forecast events by advertising that day: "Violent swing ahead?"

The assassination news hit financial circles in the East while many people were still at lunch. Rushing to their offices, many brokers were swamped with orders and dumped billions of dollars of stock.

It is sometimes misleading to estimate paper losses, but share values did drop nearly $11 billion. American Telephone & Telegraph, for example, fell $6 a share. Some specialists, committed to maintaining an orderly market, failed to do so.

Confusion became compounded. The New York Stock Exchange shut its doors at 2:07, the first time in 30 years it had closed for an emergency. So great was the surge of orders already in that activity continued for another 43 minutes.

Three minutes after the Big Board announced its closing, the American Exchange did also. The Montreal, Toronto, Midwest and Pacific Coast exchanges followed. The Securities & Exchange Commission asked a suspension of all other trading.

The New York Federal Reserve Bank hurriedly called a meeting of money men, including commercial and investment bankers, insurance companies, stock officials and government securities dealers.

Reserve officers assured all that they had ample power to deal with the situation. They said they were in close cooperation with other banks, in close contact with central banks in other nations. If the dollar weakened they would support it.

The value of the dollar that afternoon remained strong and the Federal Reserve Bank here issued a statement saying, "There is no need for special action in the financial markets."

Since it was Friday, all financial activity ceased for the weekend.

Most institutions also remained closed Monday.

Economists advised during the weekend that there would be a short period of uncertainty. Brokerage houses offered the obvious advice: "Don't panic."

Unable to forecast, financial men and economists — and perhaps the majority of the American people — assured themselves that, after all, we are the richest and most powerful nation in the world.

When the markets opened Tuesday that was the mood that prevailed. Prices surged up and business circles talked of a "honeymoon" with the new president. Things would be good, they said, for now at least.

Junior Editors Quiz on PORTUGUESE

QUESTION: How did the Portuguese people become so sea-minded?

• • •

ANSWER: When Portugal became a separate kingdom in the 1100's A. D., the proud independent Portuguese found themselves with a tiny country, hardly larger than our state of Maine. Grapes, olives and cork trees grew well, but much of the land was poor. Fish, however, swarmed off the coast, so it was natural that the Portuguese should become sea-minded. A man of remarkable vision, Prince Henry the Navigator, took this seafaring interest and directed Portugal toward real greatness. He established a center for the study of discovery at Sagres, outfitted ships, and sent them out into the unknown (this was before Columbus). Portuguese captains discovered the Cape of Good Hope, rounded Africa and reached India. Portugal established many colonies, became an important world power. But with the 1500's, Portugal's power declined. A purge of Jews weakened the country; a number of overseas colonies were lost. Portugal could not compete with the great powers and clung to old-fashioned ways. But in 1953, the country began a modernization program, symbolized at lower right. Another bright chapter in her history may lie ahead.

Boyle Learns By Reading His Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

America's highway accident toll now costs more than $1 billion a month in economic losses. Or, $200-plus each year for every U.S. family.

Splurgers at Las Vegas would be hard put to match the gaudiness of the gambling at Saratoga, N.Y., in its heyday. "Bet-a-million" gates once lost $100,000 on the turn of a single card there, and the famous beauty, Lillian Russell, who cured her morning hiccups with champagne, paraded a spaniel wearing an $1,800 diamond collar.

Fun is where you find it. The puffer fish, which swims in Africa's Congo River, blows itself into the shape of a ball when frightened. So the thrifty natives, after thoroughly scaring the fish into a globe of fear, use it to play soccer.

The years's worst pun: Tony Curtis tells of the girl who stopped going with a guy because she heard he was a "no account bum." It was his bank who said he had no account.

Quotable notables: "The secret of happiness is this: Let your interests be as wide as possible, and let your reactions to the things and persons that interest you be, as far as possible, friendly rather than hostile." — Bertrand Russell.

How thoughtful can a husband get? Well, one fellow sent a swatch of dress fabric to Chris Andrews, president of Triumph cars, and asked if he had a car to match its color. "I want to give it to my wife for Christmas," he explained.

Finding parking spaces for people, not motor cars, may be a major problem of the 21st century. The world population is growing by 8,000 every hour. At this rate earth's inhabitants, who totaled 3.3 billion in 1965, by 1985 may number five billion.

Edible pets: The goldfish which Western peoples raise for pleasure have for centuries been raised by the Chinese for food.

Worth remembering: "Yes, we did produce a near perfect republic. But, will they keep it, or will they, in the enjoyment of plenty, lose the memory of freedom? Material abundance without character is the surest way to destruction." — Thomas Jefferson.

Forklore: It will bring bad luck to look in a mirror by candlelight. A mole is a sign of future wealth (but not if the mole is the kind that ruins the looks of your lawn). You'll sweep up fresh trouble if you take along an old broom when you move into a new home. A girl who helps sew a mourning dress for a young widow will herself be soon married.

Forgotten heroes: Walter Gant, a career bachelor in Wakefield, England, served as best man at 48 weddings, and thereby probably had more raw rice flung in his face than any other man in history.

It was George Bernard Shaw who observed, "The secret of being miserable is to have leisure to bother about whether you are happy or not."

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only . . . opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS, Games ending in a tie score must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $12.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $25.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winners. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employes of The Snyder Daily News and their families are not eligible to enter.
