500 CIVILIANS KILLED BY BOMBS

Moody Claims Jim Juggles Figures

Mitzi's Sea Going Coat

When Mitzi Hajos, the sprightly commedienne from Vienna and way stations, left for Europe the other day, she wore a coat on which was embroidered a sister ship of her own liner, the Majestic.

STATE WORSE OFF THAN WHEN MA IS SEATED

Candidate Launches Bitterest And Most Direct Attack on Fergusons

GREETED IN BRENHAM

Dan Declares That Texas Treasury Has Not The Millions Claimed

BRENHAM, May 19.—Juggling of figures by James E. Ferguson to show a spurious prosperity of the prison system, and a misleading status of state finances, was charged by Dan Moody, candidate for gover nor in the most aggressive and direct attack on the man behind the opposing candidacy so far in his race, in his address here Wednesday night on the Washington county court house square.

The county made a homecoming welcome of Moody's return. He spoke here two years ago in his race for attorney general. Rev. A. Hartman of the Lutheran church, former pastor at Moody's home town of Taylor introduced him.

Moody charged against the Fergusons that instead of having fulfilled their claim that the treasury was millions of dollars better off than before they took office, it was on January 1 of this year $978,000 worse off than at the start of the present term.

He charged that the prison system debt showed a gain of $167,000 during 1925, as contrasted with the Ferguson claim that the system had made itself self supporting and was paying off old debts. The prison system January 1, he asserted owed the staggering sum of $1,516,000. Monthly cost of keeping each prisoner jumped from $33 to $38 in the first year of the Ferguson regime, he asserted.

Victim Asks High-Jackers To Play Fair

Addresses Them Through Newspapers, Begging Them to Lay Off

HOUSTON, May 19.—(AP)—J. B. Cooper, proprietor of a store at Nome, Texas, whose store has recently been robbed five times for a loss of more than $1,500, today wrote a letter to the Houston Chronicle appealing to "members of the hi-jackers association" to let his business alone.

Futher robberies of the store, Mr. Cooper writes, would be in violation of hi-jackers rules which he facetiously says provide that no store shall be robbed more than five times and after the total of the loot reaches $1,500.

"I am depending," the letter says, "on all honorable hi-jackers to insist that members desist from again robbing my place of business."

WURZBACH TO LAUNCH FIGHT ON E. NOLTE

State Chairman of G. O. P. Object of Attack By Insurgents

PARTY IS SPLIT

Dallas Republicans Will Aid San Antonio Congressman

SAN ANTONIO, May 19.—(AP)—Incidental to the opening of the campaign of Harry M. Wurzbach for reelection to congress from this district next Wednesday night, steps will be taken to organize a state-wide movement to unseat Eugene Nolte of Seguin as state chairman of the republican party, Dr. John B. Albright announced today.

This movement has originated outside the congressional district, Albright said, and is being engineered from Dallas, which will send a delegation of 250, headed by George F. Rockwold to attend the Wurzbach meeting and confer with local leaders in regard to organizing in opposition to Nolte. Dallas county is said to be well organized and after the formation of a San Antonio organization steps will be taken to form other groups in Houston and Fort Worth.

Corpus Christi also is planning to send a large delegation with the same purpose in view in addition to taking part in the congressional race. Other towns in the district are also expected to send delegations.

Wurzbach was scheduled to leave Washington tonight, according to telegrams received by his friends. He will spend Saturday and Sunday at his home in Seguin and be in San Antonio Monday to remain over Thursday. He is scheduled to open his campaign with a speech here next Wednesday night.

Republican leaders who have broken with R. B. Creager, national committeeman, and Nolte, are expected to arrive here the early part of next week and will be in conference with Wurzbach and local leaders. There are said to be several tentative candidates to oppose Nolte for the state chairmanship and some man will be selected at the conference.

Chanters To Spread Gospel Of Song and Wichita Fame In Tour of United States

Noted Shrine Quartet Will Broadcast Harmony Over Two Texas Stations Before Going North

Maskat Temple's Shrine chanters, singers of sorts who have recently been spreading musical gospel abroad in the land will leave Wichita Falls Friday noon on another tour destined to emblazon the name of their city and temple in other far flung domains. The coming jaunt—or tow it, may wind up with an American version of a command appearance in royal court, for efforts are now being made for the chanters to give a short concert before President Coolidge in the White House on their swing through the east.

Congressman Guinn Williams, Orville Bullington, prominent republicans of this city, and high Masonic officials in Washington are seeking to arrange the appearance and there is every reason to believe it will be successful, Paul Von Allman, director of the quartet, said Wednesday. If the plan goes through, the appearance will probably be Saturday, May 29.

Friday night, the 21st, the chanters will broadcast from station WFAA, Dallas, from 8:30 to 9:30 and will leave immediately after for Houston. At 2:30 Saturday afternoon they will give a concert opening the Brunswick department of the W. L. Pace Piano company's new home in Houston. At 7:30 in the evening they will be the headliners at the spring Shrine ceremonial of the Houston temple, and at 9 p. m. they will appear as a feature act on the Majestic vaudeville circuit, closing the first show of the evening and opening the last one. At 9:30 they broadcast from KPRC, Houston Post-Dispatch, and Sunday morning will sing at regular services of the First Methodist church.

The chanters will be back in Wichita Falls Monday and will leave Tuesday for the annual Shrine meeting in Philadelphia. This trip will be taken by the way of Ashville, N. C., where on Friday they will sing before the Asheville Kiwanis club. If the Coolidge appearance is arranged, they will be in Washington Saturday for this concert and will go on to Philadelphia where they are scheduled as one of the premier attractions of the great Shrine session.

CHILDREN AND WOMEN SLAIN BY ATTACKERS

City of Damascus Seriously Damaged by Aerial Bombardment

HOUSES DESTROYED

Artillery and Airplanes Rain Missiles Into Metropolis

LONDON May 20—(Thursday) — (AP) — A dispatch to the Daily Express from Damascus dated May 19, says;

"The city has undergone another bombardment by artillery and airplanes. More than 500 civilians, including women and children and about 100 rebels and twenty French were killed.

"Three hundred houses were destroyed."

VOTING FRAUD TO BE PROBED

Senate Will Investigate Charges of Huge Expenditures

WASHINGTON, May 18.—(AP)—Investigation of expenditures in all senatorial campaigns this year—primary as well as general—was ordered today by the senate, 59 to 13, after charges of corruption in the Pennsylvania primary yesterday had been made and denied on the floor.

Complying with a resolution adopted, Vice President Dawes named the following senators as members of the committee to conduct the inquiry: Reed of Missouri and Bayard of Delaware, democrats; LaFollette of Wisconsin, a progressive republican.

The committee will select its own chairman and it is likely that the post will go to Reed, of Missouri, author of the resolution which stipulated that two republicans, two democrats and one progressive republican were to be named on the committee.

The move for the inquiry was launched from the democratic side and resulted in the sharpest political skirmishing in the senate at this session. Two roll calls were necessary and before they had been completed there had been a considerable shifting of votes, milling around and laughter in the chamber.

Senator Harrison, democrat, Missouri, set off the fire works with an ironical speech, during which he called attention to published reports of expenditures in the Pennsylvania primary ranging from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000.

PENNSYLVANIA CHOOSES VARE

Avowed Wet Nominated For U. S. Senate By Republicans

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—(AP)—Representative William S. Vare of Philadelphia, an avowed "wet," is the choice of Pennsylvania republicans as their nominee for United States senator.

The overwhelming endorsement given his candidacy in his home city was sufficient to assure Vare a plurality in excess of 100,000 tonight with seven-eighths of votes counted, although the combined votes of his two opponents, classed as drys, exceeded the winner's total by 200,000.

His opponents in the three-cornered primary fight which ended at the polls yesterday, Senator George Wharton Pepper and Governor Gifford Pinchot, conceded his nomination as returns from outlying districts failed by a wide margin to overcome the Philadelphia lead.

His nearest rival, Senator Pepper, whose candidacy had the backing of some of the dry forces and of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, attributed the Vare victory to "the organization" and declared an analysis of the returns failed to show any issue upon which the contest turned.

G. O. P. Vote Heavy.

The total republican vote was the largest ever cast in a state primary, with 866 districts still to report, it was 1,379,219.

Reports that Governor Pinchot may become an independent candidate for the senatorship were in the air during the campaign, but even when brought to the governor's attention, failed to bring any expression from him. In his statement today he said he had made a "clean cut," open fight for certain great definite principles and "I'm glad I made it."

Returns tonight from 7,415 districts of the 8,281 in the state, gave Vare a plurality of 103,885 over Pepper. Vare's vote was 585,199 and Pepper's 481,314 in the same district, Pinchot received 312,706.

Other candidates of the Vare ticket were leading their opponents in the incomplete returns, although by smaller pluralities than the congressman.

Edward E. Beidleman, former lieutenant governor, who had the support of the Vare organization for the nomination for governor had a plurality of 7,271 districts, of 22,459 over John S. Fisher, former state banking commissioner who was the candidate of the Mellon-Fisher forces.

Installment Plan Of Buying Scored

DALLAS, May 19.—(AP)—Installment plan selling of merchandise lacking re-sale value, was condemned in resolutions adopted by the associated retail men and retail merchants associations, who closed their three joint conventions here today.

Purchase beyond ability to pay is encouraged by sale of articles under deferred payment plan if the merchandise has "has no" re-sale value, the credit men declared. Approval was given for installment plan sales of such things as furniture, jewelry, musical instruments, automobiles and labor saving devices.

E. N. Brown Elected Rock Island Head

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—E. N. Brown, chairman of the St. Louis San Francisco Railway company, today was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company to succeed Charles Hayden, who remains chairman of the Rock Island board and finance committee.

The St. Louis, San Francisco railroad on January 22, announced that it had acquired working control of the Rock Island in connection with a plan to eventually merge those two properties into one system.

The Rock Island directors today declared the regular semi-annual dividends of $3.50 on the 7 per cent preferred and $3 on the 6 per cent preferred, both payable June 30 to stock of record June 11.

Bridge Contracts Over Neches Let

PALESTINE, May 19.—(AP)—Anderson, Cherokee and Freestone county commisioners in joint session here awarded contracts for two bridges, one across the Naches river on the Palestine-Rusk highway, and the other at Bonner's ferry, 12 miles west of Palestine.

Thomas and Rateliff will build the Naches bridge for $49,000. The Austin Bridge company of Dallas got the major portion of the other project for $159,000. Thomas and Rogers got the contract for dirt work at $27,000, the work to be completed within a year.

EXAMINE IMMIGRANTS

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—The policy of examining and selecting immigrants to this country at the source has been extended to include Germany, Norway and Denmark. The system already is in effect in Great Britain, Irish Free State and is regarded by officials here as a success.

S. S. Kresge Gives $25,000,000 For School Purposes

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Sebastian S. Kresge, head of a chain of 300 five and ten cent stores, has established a $25,000,000 endowment for philanthropy and education.

The exact application of the income is yet to be determined.

An initial gift of $2,000,000 was made in 1924, but never revealed till announcement of a second gift of $23,000,000 yesterday. Further gifts are to be made as work progresses. The endowment starts with an income of $600,000 a year which is expected to reach several million eventually.

The latest gift consists of 500,000 shares of the S. S. Kresge common stock which has a market value of approximately $45 a share.

Mr. Kresge started his fortune in Detroit in 1897 when he opened a store with $8,000 capital.

His second wife, Mrs. Doris Mercer Kresge, recently sued to compel him to carry out a pre-nuptial contract to give her stock. A settlement was effected.

Bathing Revue At Baylor Taboo

WACO, May 19.—(AP)—Dreams of a bathing girl revue, with the fair co-eds of Baylor university as participants, vanished Wednesday morning when President S. P. Brooks announced to the students in chapel that there would be no revue. "If this revue is held, I will see that all the class officers and those participating will be prosecuted so that they will remember it," Dr. Brooks declared.

Dr. Brooks' announcement followed publication Tuesday in the Lariat, Baylor Daily, of a story coming from the chairman of the class social committee, who was quoted as having said that "this event alone will be worth your money." Members of the class declared that the revue was not to be a real revue, but a farce.

STREAMS RISING

Rains in Italy Threaten Great Flood in Several Sections.

ROME, May 19.—(AP)—With the waters of the northern Italian rivers gradually, but steadily receding, heavy rains began again at midnight and lasted through the early part of the morning, threatening to extend the flooded areas.

Previous to the new rain fall reports from the entire affected region were reassuring, although the refugees in many places were forced to spend the night in improvised camps.

Large sums of money have been donated for relief work.

STAGE FOR REFORM

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Dr. Winifred Sackville Stoner is going on the stage because she thinks the theatre is the best means of effecting reform. Her play will have the theme that marriage proposals should be made by women.

MUSTACHE GONE

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Aldous Huxley, English novelist and grandson of the famous scientist, has shaved off his mustache. "It came out pink," he said. "Then it turned red. Everybody thought it was atrocious."

Widow Of Stokes Shocked At Death Of Aged Husband

DENVER, May 19.—(AP)—Pale and drawn as the result of a collapse earlier in the day, Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, accompanied by her two children, James, 11, and Helen Muriel, 9, and her mother, Mrs. Arthur Scott Miller, were ready to leave Denver tonight for New York City, following word of the death of her estranged husband, W. E. D. Stokes. While Mrs. Miller, speaking for her daughter previously had stated that Mrs. Stokes "most certainly would not" attend the funeral of the late millionaire, Samuel Untermyer her New York attorney was requested to have services deferred until the arrival of the children, James and Helen Muriel have not yet been told of their father's death.

Mrs. Stokes, who was overcome by the shock and forced to remain in bed during the day, declined to make any statement.

Writing In Ink To Girl He Admired, Causes His Arrest

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 19.—(AP)—The task of penning a verse in blood by Charles Kuhn, 24, was interrupted by the police last night when Kuhn was arrested on the complaint of Miss Marion Lehman, 19, that Kuhn had threatened her life. The gory ink from Kuhn's missive was obtained from an incision made in his wrist with a razor blade.

Kuhn talked freely of writing the bloody love note, each stanza of which was separated by a smear of blood, but denied that he told Miss Lehman he would slay her if she declined to marry him.

Tacna And Arica Dispute Settled

LIMA, Peru, May 19.—(AP)—Peruvian official circles here asserted that an agreement in principle has been reached at Washington for a partition of the disputed provinces of Tacna and Arica among Chile, Peru and Bolivia.

While the government itself is maintaining strictest reserve in the matter of these circles declare that the agreement the province of Tacna would go to Peru that of Arica to Chile, while a corridor in between these provinces would be given to Bolivia as a means for an outlet to the sea in return for pecuniary indemnifications of Peru and Chile.

Methodists Boost Law Membership

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 19.—(AP)—Lay representations in every annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, with few exceptions will be practically doubled by the action of the general conference here today in passing a measure which gives laymen one member in the annual conference for every 800 members in the district.

This measure is by far the most important matter acted upon favorably by the governing body of the church.

QUITS GAS COMPANY.

Veteran Resigns After Long Service With Corporation.

TEXARKANA, Ark., May 19.—(AP)—W. L. Wood, Jr., 46, and resident manager of the Southwestern Gas and Electric company, tendered his resignation today, effective June 1. He has been at the head of the company's Texarkana interests for 21 years.

The Southwestern operates at Shreveport and other smaller cities in the southwest. Its service here includes street railway, electric power and gas. It is one of the many companies controlled by the Insull interests.

Second S. A. Bank Bandit Suspect Is In Hands Of Jury

SAN ANTONIO, May 19.—(AP)—The case against Earl Collins, charged with participation in the robbery of the San Antonio National bank March 30, was expected to go to the jury late tonight. Arguments were begun this afternoon and continued after a recess for dinner.

Both sides closed in the afternoon after Collins took the stand in his own behalf.

The defendant emphatically denied any knowledge of the bank robbery and said he did not become acquainted with the other defendants until after his arrest. Wilkins was the only one of the indicted men whom he knew, Collins said.

Dealers To Study Coal At First Hand

DALLAS, May 19.—(AP)—A chance to study coal mining first hand led the retail coal dealers association of Texas to choose McAlester, Okla., mine town today as their 1927 convention city.

Closing a three-day convention here, the dealers elected Hugh L. Wallace, of Fort Worth, president and Tillman Bibb, another Fort Worth man, vice president.

The convention declared in favor of requiring railroad to weigh cars of coal free of charge at destination, rather than at the mine, thus guarding against theft and waste en route.

Worker At Lumber Mill Is Killed

BEAUMONT, May 19.—(AP)—Orvie Shires, age 19, of Village Mills, Texas, died at a local hospital tonight from injuries sustained earlier in the day, when he was run over by a locomotive near his home city.

He was an employe of the Kirby Lumber company for some time but this was the first day he had worked at the "front," that is where the timbers were being cut for the sawmill. His left leg was mangled.

MINERS IN TRUCE

MUSKOGEE, Okla., May 19—(AP)—A truce prevailed tonight between the two factions striving for control of district 21, United Mine Workers of America.

An expected attempt of Gomer Jones, recently elected president by the district executive board, to assume charge of the district offices here, did not materialize today. Jones and his followers said they were awaiting the arrival of members of the international board of investigation, who are to represent John L. Lewis, international president.

LYNCH PRAISES PARKS, ROADS

Davidson Says "Highways Of Destiny" Aid In Building

AMARILLO, May 19.—(AP)—The nation's highways are the "roads of destiny," said Lynch Davidson, candidate for governor at the regional park conference here today. He added that in Texas they would become the "road of disgrace" unless the state highways are given a more efficient administration.

The conference included representatives from Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Kansas, Mississippi and New Mexico.

The conference endorsed wider community and national support of the program of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, declaring recreation facilities supplied by this organization to be "a necessary link in city, state, and national recreational development for the spiritual, social, cultural, physical and recreational use of the leisure time of America."

Discusses Parks.

Mr. Davidson discussed parks and roads and their relation to the state's recreational facilities. He pointed out that the progress of civilization has been marked by the development of transportation and referred to America's leadership in transportation.

He referred to favorable highway aid as "mere financial principles by which federal authority encroaches on the rights of sovereign states," but said that no one state could reject the principle and that since it has become an established method, Texas should take advantage of this means of building her highways.

"Regardless of its merits or demerits," he continued, "federal aid is now one of the ways of road construction. The automobile license and gasoline tax have become a popular and seemingly fair principle of revenue raising. Bond issues have been used, yet we must seek other ways if our constantly growing road needs are to be met.

Department Criticized.

"Under the present administration the Texas highway department has come in for severe and manifestly just criticism. Disclosures of a disgraceful nature, deserving the condemnation of every right thinking citizen, have appeared in the press. No single branch of the government today is charged with matters of greater public importance. A comprehensive, connected system of highways to tap and develop the resources of this empire state is imperative."

Mr. Davidson recommended a provision compelling contractors to file with the county clerk and with the highway department a detaied sworn statement of the ways and means by which contracts were obtained, including money paid or loaned attorneys, candidates, office holders or others affecting the securing of the contract.

Big Hearted Man Sought By Girl

FORT WORTH, May 19.—(AP)—Miss Pearl Parthena Payne, 28, of Houston, wants a husband and expects to find him in Fort Worth where she thinks "the real big hearted men live." She wants him to help her support her invalid mother, she wrote Chief of Detectives Jackson here today. A picture and set of physical measurements accompanied the letter.

"I will marry the man who will help me support this dear little mother of mine," her letter said, "but I don't want anybody from Houston. I think the real big-hearted men live in and around Fort Worth."

FARMER RELIEF TO BE SETTLED

House Members Reported To Have Reached Compromise

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—With rumors of a compromise persisting consideration of farm relief legislation in the house will be resumed tomorrow after a day devoted to other business. Final votes on the Haugen price stabilization bill, the Tincher credit measure and the Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing proposal, however, are unlikely before Friday or Saturday.

Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee predicted today that the house would finish reading his bill for amendment tomorrow and be in position to take up the other measures as substitutes.

Under the rules, the Haugen bill cannot be brought up for passage until there has been opportunity to offer the other two measures. Votes on the substitutes will come first.

Reports of a compromise between the Tincher and Aswell forces are not denied by the sponsors of these bills, though they insist there is nothing definite to announce as to possible procedure. Representative Aswell, Louisiana, ranking democrat on the agriculture committee and co-author of the Curtis-Aswell measure, already has indicated that he would not object to having incorporated in his bill the feature of the Tincher plan for a $100,000,000 appropriation for loans to farmers' co-operative associations. Several Tincher bill supporters hope it may be possible to offer an amalgamated bill as a substitute instead of two bills.

Crossing Crash It Fatal To Two

FORT WORTH, May 19.—(AP)—Two grade crossing accidents near Fort Worth early tonight cost two lives and seriously injuries to two others.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bracken, of Burleson, were killed instantly when an automobile in which they were returning home from Cleburne was struck by a Fort Worth-Cleburne interurban express car three miles south of Keerman. Albert Bracken, their 3-year-old grandson who was with them was injured.

I. S. Hurst, cattleman of Burleson, sustained a broken arm and scalp wounds when a northbound Missouri-Kansas-Texas passenger train struck the automobile in which he was driving to Fort Worth at the Killis street crossing, in the extreme southern portion of the city.

Mrs. A. C. Cook Is Called By Death

Mrs. A. C. Cook, 50, well known local citizen and active church worker, died Wednesday afternoon at the residence at 1501 Bluff following an illness of several days.

Mrs. Cook is survived by her husband, A. C. Cook, and one son, Claude Cook of Wichita Falls; her mother, Mrs. J. B. Nail; a brother, W. R. Neal; and three sisters, Mrs. Henry Sonamaker, Mrs. W. F. Sonamaker, and Mrs. Henry Pandy of Dalhart.

The funeral will be held from the First Christian church Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Dr. Floyd Allan Bash, minister in charge.

Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Envoy's Daughter Weds Lieutenant

BERLIN, May 19.—(AP)—Miss Dorothy Ann Maria Schurman, daughter of American Ambassador and Mrs. Jacob Gould Schurman, was married to Lieutenant James Marshall McHugh in a civil ceremony at the Rathshaus at noon today. The religious ceremony later was performed by Rev. Irwin S. Yeworth, pastor of the American church, in the ball room of the embassy. It was witnessed by Foreign Minister Stresemann, Frau Stresemann and the 40 members of the embassy staff. A wedding breakfast followed.

The bride's sister, Barbara, was bridesmaid and Hugh Millard, third secretary of the embassy, was best man. After a honeymoon in Europe the couple will sail on June 20 for the United States.

Lieutenant McHugh, an officer in the marine corps, is the son of Mrs. A. F. McHugh of Wichita, Kan.

Federal Employes To Seek Economy

LAREDO, May 19.—(AP)—A localized effort to promote economy in government departmental operations was instituted here today with the organization of the Federal Business association, composed of federal officials and employes of civic departments and army units.

The membership roster represents the postoffice, immigration, customs, public health, border patrol, the army and other departments.

F. H. Lizarde, postmaster, was elected president; J. E. Trout, immigration inspector in charge, vice president, and Mrs. G. E. Neblett, federal district deputy clerk, secretary-treasurer.

Water Runs Uphill Engineer Reports

WACO, May 19.—(AP)—Water may not run uphill, but there is a stream in Falls county which does, according to United States Engineer, W. C. Goodlove, who has been making a government survey south of Marlin in connection with the Big Creek reclamation project.

Crossing the Reagan-Highbank road, there is a small tributary to Muscle Run flowing north, according to Mr. Goodlove. South of the road, the elevation is 522 feet. About a mile further north it is 517 feet, and thus the stream flows normally.

But when Big Creek gets on one of its rampages and goes out of banks, this northerly flowing stream fills up with backwater and begins to run south, Mr. Goodlove declared by gosh.

DECLINES HONOR

Harry Rogers of San Antonio Not Candidate for Governor.

SAN ANTONIO, May 19.—(AP)—Taking cognizance of reports that he might be chosen by the republican state organization as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, Harry H. Rogers, of San Antonio told the Associated Press that in no event would he make the race.

Rogers, a capitalist, declared the matter had not been discussed with him and that there was no foundation for a rumor emanating from Dallas that he would enter the primaries.

CARDINAL CELEBRATES.

BOSTON, May 19.—(AP)—William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston today celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his consecration as a bishop of the Roman Catholic church. The cardinal was made bishop of Portland, Maine, on May 19, 1901, and was made a cardinal in 1911.

"HER MAN"

--By Beatrice Burton--

READ THIS FIRST:

SYLVIA STARR has been engaged to RANDALL PHELPS for a year when he asks her to free him because he's fallen in love with her chum, FAY SHIRLEY.

Heartbroken, Sylvia gives him up, much to the satisfaction of her guardian, AUNT AGONY, who wants her to marry a wealthy bachelor, PETER WILK. Aunt Agony says Ranny will never be faithful to any woman for very long.

She seems to be right, too, for presently he drops Fay and marries Sylvia, after all. But their married life is not pleasant, even from the very beginning. For Ranny hates to be tied down, and he falls in love with one girl after another. And he gambles and drinks so much and gives Sylvia so little money for the house that she has to turn music teacher to make both ends meet.

When the first baby, RANNY JUNIOR, dies of flu, she has a nervous breakdown and refuses ever to go back to the flat where she and Ranny lived together. She is sure that he doesn't care for her, and he has a hard time persuading her to come back to him. He finally swears never to look at another woman, and he and Sylvia begin life anew in the Little White House. A year later, their second baby, a little girl, is born, and Sylvia feels that her cup of happiness is full.

Then BABS DELANO, an old school friend, comes to take a job in town as a librarian. She stays at Sylvia's house while she's looking for a flat; and Ranny and she fall wildly in love with each other!

Ranny asks Sylvia to divorce him, and she refuses to. Then she changes her mind about it, and tries to find Ranny to tell him that she will give him up to Babs. But she can't locate him, and the next she hears of him he has been hurt in a railroad wreck, with Babs Delano. Sylvia hurries to the town where he has been taken, to find him at the point of death. Babs is dead already.

(NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY)

CHAPTER LXV

Peter said goodby to her in the lobby of the little hotel, with a yawning night clerk and a drummer for a soda pop firm looking on.

But there was nothing in their parting that made the drummer sit up and take notice—nothing to make the night clerk stop his magnificent yawns. They parted almost as casual acquaintances might have said farewell.

"Goodby, Peter," Sylvia said, looking at him from under her thick lashes. "You've been so good to me. But then, you always are good, aren't you? You're just made that way—I don't know how to thank you."

Peter broke in upon her words, blushing furiously as he always did when anybody said anything nice to him about himself.

He assumed the manner of an elderly uncle.

"Now, you run upstairs and have a good night's rest," he ordered her. "I've told the nurse how to get hold of you, if anything happens. So if you don't hear anything, you'll know that Ranny's all right. As your Aunt Agony would tell you, 'No news is good news.'"

"WHERE DO YOU EXPECT TO GO?" SH E ASKED

He held out his hand, shook hers and left a roll of bills in it.

"You may need that," he said, shaking his head as she tried to give it back to him. "They cashed a check at the hospital for me. Remember, Dr. Buzzard will be up here before long. I know everything is going to be all right. Goodby, my girl."

He backed away from her, with a friendly little nod.

To see him go, no one would ever have guessed that he was leaving the one and only woman in the world for him. And if his heart was sore and heavy—and it was—he gave no sign of it. He even whistled a little under his breath, as he walked almost jauntily across the lobby and out of the door.

Once outside, the whistling stopped instantly, and the jauntiness went from his step. You could see him then for what he was, a disappointed and unhappy bachelor, approaching middle age.

When he left her, Sylvia went slowly up the stairs and down the long red-carpeted corridar to the room that he had engaged for her.

She went in, locked the door behind her, and stood in the middle of the room, staring at the red roses woven into the rug.

She stared at them, but she didn't see them.

She was seeing Ranny as he lay on the hospital bed, with that ghastly pallor on his face. She could see him lying there like a dead man, barely moving the sheet with his breathing.

She thought of Babs Delano. She tried to be sorry because Babs was dead. But she couldn't feel any sorrow. She couldn't feel anything.

Her brain and her soul seemed to be merged in a passion of waiting. That was all she could do—to wait! They had told her so at the hospital. "All you can do is wait, Mrs. Phelps," the nurse had said in that hushed voice of hers.

So there was nothing to do but sit in this strange little room and wait for the telephone to ring, and for the morning to come.

Not bothering to take off her hat and her coat, she switched off the lights in the room and dropped into a chair beside the windows.

She pushed back the curtain and looked down into the main street of the little town, wrapped in the stillness of midnight. She wondered how long it would be before it was dawn. How many hours must pass until she could go to the hospital again.

There must be other people there who had been hurt in the wreck. Where were the friends who loved them as she loved Ranny? Here in this very hotel, perhaps. Suffering as she was suffering.

She wondered if she really were suffering. She felt nothing now, but a kind of numbness that spread over her, like paralysis.

The dawn had come up before she awakened.

Her neck was stiff, her throat was dry, and she ached all over as if she had been beaten.

She stretched herself, yawned and looked around her at the unfamiliar room. For one merciful second she wondered where she was—and then the horror of the night before came back to her, and she remembered!

She leaned forward in her chair and opened the window beside her, letting the clean, cold morning air sweep into the stuffy room.

"I must bathe, and call up Aunt Agony," she thought, for she was practical in most things. "And someone ought to wire Babs' folks about her."

She had heard Babs mention a family several times, and she had heard her speak of a Dakota farm where two old aunts of hers lived. But she had no idea just how to reach them. Perhaps the main library at home knew Babs' permanent address. She must telephone and find out.

But she didn't move.

She seemed to have no power to get up and do anything. Her whole mind seemed to have room for nothing but her thought of Ranny, and presently she found herself out in the air, on her way to the hospital where he lay in his deathlike sleep.

She hadn't stopped even to wash her face and hands, but was just as she had been the night before.

Ranny did not die.

It was written in the stars that he should be the only one of the fifteen people of the "fatally injured" list who did not die.

Three days after the wreck, the head nurse at Hope hospital told Sylvia that he was going to get well.

Sylvia went back to her little hotel and packed up her clothes to go home.

"I've got to get back to the baby," she said stonily to Mother Phelps who had taken a room next to hers. "And I've got to get to work—"

"Work?" Mother Phelps raised her thick eyebrows.

"Work, of course," Sylvia answered. "Ranny will have to help support the baby as soon as he's up and able to go to work. But I shall never take a penny of alimony from him."

Again Mother Phelps raised the expressive black brows that decorated her handsome face. "Alimony?" she asked. "Are you going to divorce Ranny, even after this?"

Sylvia stared at her. "Why, certainly!" she answered. "Ranny asked me for a divorce the day before he was hurt, and if I had told him then that I'd get one, this never would have happened to him. He was running away with Babs to force me to divorce him, don't you see?"

Silently Mother Phelps nodded her head.

"The only thing I can't understand is why he never checked out of the Antlers hotel," Sylvia went on, putting her brush and comb into her suitcase. "His bags are still there, so Peter tells me."

"I suppose he went away with that woman on the spur of the moment. That's the way he always does things," Mother Phelps mused. "He's always been like that—all his life. When he was a little boy he'd be playing marbles in the back yard one minute, and the next time I looked out of the window he'd be halfway down the street carrying his baseball bat."

Sylvia didn't answer. She had a sudden vision of Ranny as a dirty, grubby little boy, playing marbles and baseball, and sudden tears welled up into her eyes. She could feel them, warm in her throat, too.

"I mustn't do this!" she thought, and when she looked up from her packing, her eyes were dry again and her face stony.

That was the way she went through the next four weeks—dry-eyed and hard-lipped. The gentle look that had given her face its greatest charm was gone. It was like a face that is chiseled out of marble, almost.

Aunt Agony heard her crying one

THE PEPPY BRAN FOOD

Multiply this saving by 40

The average family, let us say, consumes about 40 cups of coffee a week. Consider the saving M·J·B gives you by its concentrated strength and richness. For you can use less of M·J·B to each spoonful and still have a rich, satisfying cup of coffee. Now multiply this saving 40 times each week—it counts up, doesn't it?

It is true you buy coffee by the pound but you drink it by the cup. So it's really the cost-per-cup that counts! And measured by this scale, M·J·B is the most economical coffee you can buy.

Put it to a week's test and see!

Growing tots need lots of food!

LIGHT, feathery cakes and cookies, when perfectly leavened as with Dr. Price's Phosphate Baking Powder, are wholesome, nourishing and good for children.

Good, body-building cake is far better for them than candy. Always have cake in the pantry!

Appetite Gone?

A tempting, delicious looking meal—all the choicest morsels from a well stocked pantry. The fragrant aroma of all these good things failing to put a keen edge on your appetite—failing to arouse, in any degree, a hardy relish for the food so attractively placed before you. Why?

Scores of men and women are faced with the same misfortune. After a day of toil—when they are tired—when good things to eat should be ravishly sought to recharge their vitality and fit them for play time—their stomachs turn. They are worn down, played out. Food has no appeal. To them it is sickening. The aroma of appetising things nauseates them.

Red blood cells are missing. Red blood which should be coursing through your veins strengthening your vitality—adding to your strength—keeping you healthy and fit—is not to be found.

S. S. S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. What use is an automobile without a battery? What advantage is a dynamo without electricity? Your body is a human dynamo. Your blood cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. Weakened blood cells make you like the storage battery with dry cells—power is lacking—energy gone—productive qualities at the lowest ebb. S. S. S. supplies the red blood cells—the spark that recharges your system.

Mr. James Chaloupka, Sherman School, Chillicothe, Ohio, writes:

"I feel like a new man after taking S. S. S. It gave me a better appetite and cleared my skin of pimples and blackheads."

Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S. S. S.—the great blood purifier. Give nature a helping hand. Get back the lost appetite—the missing vitality—the keen, sparkling eyes—that look of determination. The best way to start back over the road to well being is with S. S. S. Nerves will become stronger. S. S. S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor, and a more "up and going" appearance.

S. S. S. is sold at all leading drug stores. Try a bottle and see for yourself. The large size bottle is more economical. Get one today.

OFFICER HERO SAVES SOLDIER

Lieutenant Drives Into River Pulling Enlisted Man To Safety

SAN ANTONIO, May 19.—(AP) For the second time within two months Lieutenant W. M. Ives, 23rd infantry, Fort Sam Houston, has saved a man from death at the risk of his own life.

Lieutenant Ives last night dived into the Guadalupe river near Comfort and pulled William H. Glauser, headquarters company, mounted police to safety as the waters closed over his head for the third time.

Nearly three thousand soldiers and several score horses and mules were swimming and milling in the river when Lieutenant Ives who stood on the bank spied the drowning man's arm.

The officer swam to safety with the unconscious man and after reviving him, sent him to the base hospital at San Antonio.

Lieutenant Ives' first heroic act was when an airplane crashed at Camp Stanley and burst into flames. He rushed into the fire and carried iLeutenant Leslie Holcomb to safety.

No other mishaps have marked the continuance of the division's march toward Kerrville. Early tomorrow the division, marching into two columns expects to meet at Bandera Pass and on the famous Indian battle grounds stage a sham battle.

Hamlin Graduates Hear Baccalaureate

HAMLIN, May 19.—Rev. G. T. Palmer of the First Baptist church of Hamlin preached the baccalaureate sermon of the local high school Tuesday night to a graduating class of 35 students, the largest in the history of the school.

Preceding the sermon a program of musical numbers was presented.

The following students are in the 1926 class: Gladys Cassle, May Bynum, Anna Joe Wilkerson, Mildred Morgan, Gladys Childers, Lena Bowie, Willie Inez Boone, Doris Bryan, Bona Roundtree, Geneva Owen, Bonita Harrison, Ruby White, Ruby Thompson, Irene Fry, Ernestine Watson, Almeta Little, Ruby Dean, Martha Malone, Pearl Briston, Marie Pope, Ara Gillis, George Owens, Meredith Owens, Ernest Via, Horace McGee, Jones Boyd, Walter Gruben, Robert Willingham, Travis Conner, Gerald Morgan, Frank Harris, Johnny Agnew, Sidney Anderson, Millard Webb and Joe Webb.

Candy Kid Bandit Pleads Not Guilty To Murder Charge

BALTIMORE, May 19.—(AP)—Richard Reese Whittemore, "candy kid" bandit and alleged head of a million dollar crime trust, calmly made his first move in his battle to sweep aside the tightening strands of the Maryland noose today when he pleaded not guilty to first degree murder. He is accused of slaying with premeditation nd for the purpose of escape, Robert H. Holtmand a Maryland penitentiary guard, in February, 1925.

Whittemore was natilly dressed and displayed no signs of nervousness as he asked for a jury trial. Selection of a jury started at once. Whittemore, represented by Edgar Allen Poe, a former president of the Baltimore Bar association, is allowed 20 peremptory challenger and the prosecution, directed by State's Attorney Herbert R. O'Conor, ten.

The priscner entered the court room under convoy of one of the heaviest guards ever in a Baltimore court.

Pajamas No Attire For Theatre Party

BETHANY, W. Va., May 19.—(AP)—A lecture on the proprieties of male attire and an injunction "not to do it again" under penalty of suspension greeted two Bethany college boys who appeared before President Cloyd Goodnight for a hearing on charges of appearing at the college "movie" in pajamas. The students were Francis Vandoyle, Newcastle, Pa., and James Long, Shelby, Ohio.

The boys told the president their unconventional attire was designed as a protest against Dr. Goodnight's orders that all male students should wear coats while attending the college theatre, irrespective of temperature.

Dr. Goodnight's order stands.

night, went to her door, and found it locked. She tiptoed back to her own bed, and had a hard time falling asleep. The sound of that broken-hearted crying seemed to echo in her ears all the rest of the night.

But in the morning Sylvia came down to breakfast looking as cold as ever. When she tried to smile, as she said good morning, the smile made her face look more unhappy than before.

"I've got to get my piano out of the Little White House," she said that morning. "If I'm going to give music lessons again I'll have to have it. You see about it, will you, please? I don't want to go near the place again if I can help it."

She laid the keys on the table and went out of the room.

That night when she came home from a drive with Sarah Wilk, the old piano was back in the corner of the back parlor where it had stood for so many years.

And the next morning the Lister twins came back to "darling Mrs. Phelps" for their music lessons once more.

It was a week later that Mother Phelps telephoned for Sylvia to come to Hillsboro. "Ranny wants to see you," she said, as if that were all the reason in the world for Sylvia dropping everything to go.

As a matter of fact, Sylvia did drop everything and go, leaving Aunt Agony to explain her absence to three pupils who came during the afternoon. And Aunt Agony was much upset about it—she didn't even answer the doorbell when it rang for the fourth pupil.

Sylvia found Ranny sitting up in a wheel chair, looking like his handsome self again. He was a little pale, and his hands twitched nervously, but aside from that he looked very well.

"Well," he greeted her cheerfully, "I didn't quite succeed in killing myself after all, did I?"

How like Ranny that was! He was off-hand about the terrible thing that had happened to him, as he might have been about a ride on a roller-coaster. There was no mark of tragedy on him—no mark of sorrow, either. The phrase "he comes up smiling" described him perfectly.

Sylvia wondered if they had told him about Babs' death, as she stood looking down at him.

She finally decided that he couldn't know about it and still be as cheerful as he was

"They're going to let me out of this prison next week," he said, looking around him at the pale-green walls of his hospital room. "That's why I sent for you."

"For me?" she faltered. "Why—where do you expect to go when you leave here?"

IMPRISON BISHOP

Prosecutor Urges Five-Year Term For Violation of Law.

MEXICO CITY, May 19.—(AP) Dispatches from Pachuca say that at preliminary hearings in the case of the Catholic bishop, Zarate, the prosecuting attorney announced that he intended to request the court to sentence the prelate to five year's imprisonment. The bishop is charged with having written a pastoral letter declaring that the religious clauses of the constitution themselves constituted a violation of the consititution.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

They Should Have Come To Texas To Settle The Issue

MIAMI, Fla., May 19.—(AP)—E. W. Wells, formerly of Atlanta, died at a hospital today after an altercation growing out of an argument over which state in the union possessed the most beautiful women.

H. G. Gunn, a Georgian, and B. G. Mizell, a Virginian, were held by police after Wells was taken to the hospital.

Mizell said that the two Georgians entered a house boat on the Miami river proclaiming the feminine pulchritude of their native state. Their talk attracted several strangers from different states, each championing the cause of their beautiful women.

After the Georgians had won the argument Mizell said a slurring reference was made to their state and during the fight which followed Wells was struck with a piece of timber.

Lone Bandit Robs Bank In Oklahoma

PAWHUSKA, Okla., May 19.—(AP)—The Farmers' State bank at Burbank, a small oil town 25 miles west of here, was robbed this afternoon. The bandit obtained at least $2,000, according to bank officials, although a check has not been completed. A youth, about 20 years old, entered the bank with a handkerchief tied about the lower part of his face and at the point of a gun forced Sidney Moore, the cashier, and Mr. Moore's small son to stand with their face to the vault door while Mrs. Moore, who is assistant cashier, was forced to gather up the cash and currency and place it in a sack. The robber then forced all three in the vault and locked it.

Mrs. Moore got out of the vault in a few minutes and gave the alarm and in half an hour Sheriff H. M. Freas and a posse left here for the scene of the robbery.

FOR Acid Stomach PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda here after take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

TRY A 25c BOTTLE

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug-store.—Adv.

THE ADVENTURE OF LIFE

TO a casual reader of the newspapers it would seem that suicide is on the increase. Mere children, the middle aged and the aged all grow weary of life and find a means to end it all. And the mania is not confined to the poor and those in ill health. People who appear to have everything to make life worth living are often the victims.

Possibly our superior news facilities that keep us posted on the happenings of every out-of-the-way corner of the earth make it only appear that there are more of those whose mental stress pushes them over the edge of that division which marks the line between normal and subnormal states of mind.

Certain it is that many—at times it seems most—of us find the journey of life but a weary one and long for the "rest of the tomb."

And yet surely if we look at life rightly we may find it enjoyable in spite of the inevitable struggles. There is much to do, much to enjoy and one never knows what adventure may be met with in even a humdrum life. And it is not only the Polyannas—the unthinking optimists—that find this to be the case. Sir Oliver Lodge says:

"Existence itself is a great adventure—a series of them. Some live placid lives and think to escape adventures—at any rate will not go to seek them—will try to avoid them. But none can escape altogether.

"There are three main adventures in human life—birth, death and marriage. Comparatively few escape all three. Marriage surely is an adventure; it may turn out surprisingly well, it may turn out disastrously ill. Death every one admits to be an adventure. But birth—few think of birth in that way; and yet I think it is one—an adventure as great as any perhaps—the coming to the planet, the becoming an individual, attaining a personality which, whether it begins then or not, at any rate is to continue."

Our work may be an adventure. Of course, as Lodge says, "work done against the grain, or under compulsion, is dreary; but work undertaken with enthusiasm is a delight. Everything depends on the conditions and the motive. The work of a galley slave at the oar must have been intolerable; but that of an athlete in a boat-race is voluntarily undertaken. Nor is there any permanent happiness to be obtained without work and service of some kind.

"Let us never think that existence is a placid stream down which we may glide without adventures. For a time we may, while character is maturing, while opportunity for thought and for development is needed; but there will come a time when sacrifice is demanded, when some urgent call is made upon our nature, and when a man feels he has to respond. This is the case with all heroes. Danger has to be faced, and our manhood rises to it."

And it is just such trials and the overcoming of them that makes life worth living—make just life itself the Great Adventure.

HIGHLY VERSATILE

If Mr. Lewis' books ever stop selling he'll have no trouble in making a fortune in the advertising business.

SPECIAL FUNCTION IN FLORIDA

ST. PETERSBURG is a Florida town. If it was named for the immortal saint, then it should be changed. Parker Watson was a negro. He was accused of house breaking. He was arrested by two deputy sheriffs. He was taken from the deputy sheriffs by unknown men and then shot to death.

He hadn't been indicted. He hadn't been given a trial. He was not privileged to face his accusers in open court. He was just suspected of housebreaking and then the brave deputies surrendered him to the men made a seive out of his body with their automatic guns. A mobite, masked or unmasked, is a very gallant man. He never gangs alone. He must have his crowd with him when he shoots to death an unarmed prisoner in the hands of sworn officials who find it inconvenient to live true to their oath of office and see to it that a person accused of crime is given a fair trial by a jury of his peers.

THEY'D COME OUT

That plan to put teeth in the dry law looks to us like a plot to give a lot of extra work to the dental profession.

FOOLISH

Our coal miners made the mistake of striking in winter when they didn't have any sympathizers to go out with them.

OUR JAPANESE NEIGHBORS

AS A NATION we are not noticeably over appreciative of other peoples. We seem to be more impressed with our own good qualities and inclined to label all other nationalities with the term "foreigners" and speak the word with more than a touch of scorn.

And yet it might be as well for us to be attentive—even to make a study—of other peoples with a view to finding out a few good qualities that they possess. Quite possibly we might even find a few characteristics of the most lowly that would be well for us to adopt for our own.

The Japanese, for example, are a people, of course, very different from us, and we frequently think of them with a little fear. They are very adaptable and although their civilization is much older than ours, they are quick to see the advantage of certain of our theories and practices and adopt them for their own—adding them to their own national characteristics acquired through the centuries rather than changing their own.

Lafcadio Hearn, once an American newspaper man, but later a teacher in a Japanese school, married a Japanese woman and adopted as much of the Japanese qualities and habits as possible. He has given us very charming glimpses into the character of this people. In his "Diary of a Teacher" he says:

"Noteworthy is the spirit of peace prevailing at the recesses that occur for ten minutes between each lesson. The boys romp and shout and race, but never quarrel. Among the 800 scholars we have never even heard of a fight nor of any serious quarrel. A spirit of manliness is cultivated, which excludes roughness but develops self-reliance and self-control."

Again he says: "No one (in Japan) endeavors to expand his own individuality by belittling his fellow; no one tries to make himself appear a superior being.

"The Japanese people believe that one should always turn one's happiest face to people. It is a wrong to cause them to share your sorrow or misfortune, and so hurt or sadden them. One should never look serious. It is not only unkind but extremely rude to show one's personal griefs or anger; these feelings should always be hidden. Even though it is death one must face, it is a duty to smile bravely.

"The smile is taught like the bow; like the prostration; like that little sibilant sucking-in of the breath which follows, as a token of pleasure, the salutation to a superior; like all the elaborate and beautiful etiquette of the old courtesy."

A WORLD CALAMITY

PADEREWSKI, worn by illness and anxiety, has been compelled to abandon his concert tour after giving seventy performances before 250,000 persons. The great Polish artist occupies a unique position in the musical world. Unquestionably he sacrificed a large part of his professional emolument and put by the prospect of living in affluence in his old age in order to serve as prime minister of a country whose strong assertion of individualism in political life has made statecraft an arduous employment for those who concern themselves with making and maintaining an independent nation. The imposing dimension of Paderewski's international prestige as a musician has not silenced tongues of ingratitude or calumny at home; and to such influences and opinions the temperamental artist has always been sensitive. It was with satisfaction that the public received the intelligence five years ago that he had returned to the concert platform after his uncomfortable political experiences, and if he must permanently say farewell to the piano and to musical audiences, it is the world's misfortune.

STILL A PUZZLE

NO SOVEREIGN remedy for the troubles in the coal trade has been developed in the course of the hearings before the House Committee of Interstate Commerce in Washington. Secretary Hoover's judgment that public ownership would be a calamity, that compulsory arbitration between operators and miners is impossible and that outside mediation offers the greatest hope for the composition of differences was the feature of the final sessions of the hearings. The problem thus far seems to baffle solution. Even the most strenuous opponents of public ownership of the mines refuse to look upon the coal industry as a wholly "private" enterprise and demand some form of public regulation. If the industry is to be left to deal with its own affairs, as Mr. Hoover suggests, it will have to be along the lines of the settlement in the anthracite field. The situation in the bituminous fields is far more puzzling and complex.

Questions From the World of Love Answered by a Noted Authority

Will She Lose Her Husband by Demanding a Daily Program of Love-Making?—The Second Wife Who Is Jealous of Her Husband's Funeral Plans—A Father's Duty to Married Daughters.

Dear Miss Dix—What do you think about married people frolicking together?

I always feel that my husband is sick or angry if he doesn't pull off a little "rough stuff" with me while I am trying to cook breakfast. And also feel that he is unfair to me unless every night when he comes home he pets me and babies me. His mother thinks I am so silly, and tells me that I will lose my husband with such insane pranks. But we have been married two years and he still thinks I am just precious. Do men love their wives better when they frolic with them and when they make them be affectionate? JUST WONDERING.

Answer:

Depends entirely upon the man. If a man is of a jovial type that delights in horse-play, undoubtedly he would enjoy a wife who liked to be mauled around like the rag doll in the side show.

The main factor in keeping a husband's love is congeniality, and there is no danger of your husband growing tired of you as long as you like to do the things he does and meet him on his own ground. So if he enjoys a frolic, play with him. If he gets any kick out of being a cut-up, applaud his antics.

But, of course, you must realize that a man can't keep up that sort of buffoonery indefinitely. It is bound to get stale after a while, so be wise enough to let such school-boy pranks die their natural death, and don't force your husband to stimulate a false gayety when he gets sobered down by the cares of life. It is only when we are very, very young that we are gay and humorous before breakfast.

As for you demending a certain amount of love-making every day, that is a different matter, and I should say that your procedure is exceedingly dangerous.

Personally I can think of nothing that would make a husband feel so unloverlike as to know that he was scheduled for a petting party that had to be pulled off on the strike of the clock, whether he felt like it or not. I can imagine him dreading the ordeal as he would going to the dentist's and having to screw up his courage to go through with it and breathing a sigh of thanksgiving when it was over.

A man may have the deepest and truest affection possible for his wife. His love for her may be so great that it is a part of life itself, but he isn't always in a sentimental mood. He doesn't always want to bill and coo and kiss.

When his mind is filled with business cares and worries, he doesn't want any fool woman asking him "Oo'o ducky is oo?" When he is wondering how he can get the bank to extend his note, he feels more like swearing at his wife than kweating that if she would die he will never, never, never marry again. And when he comes home tired and nerve-worn, he doesn't want to be slobbered over. He wants to be let alone.

There is a time and a place for everything under the sun. Especially is there a time and place for love-making, and wise is the woman who awaits the appointed psychological hour when her husband wants to make love to her, instead of forcing him to make it one of his daily duties that he comes to loathe. One kiss with some real feeling in it is worth a peck of hit or miss pecks on the ear that a man bestows upon his wife because he is expected to kiss her.

DICE WITH DESTINY

By MEIGS FROST

"On the day of the wedding—to show you my kindly regard—I will affix my signature to the brick contracts, and in the future I will use my most uninfluential efforts to secure other business for you and your concern. I hope you will feel much improved on the nineteenth of the month."

"Why the nineteenth?" I asked cheerlessly.

"The day set for the wedding. I am leaving for New York on an extended visit the twentieth, and I wish to see Honorah safely married before going."

Well, I knew one thing that seemed to settle my hash. My leg would still be broken on the nineteenth. I couldn't run away.

I wondered whether they intended to perform that ceremony with me lying in bed—or whether they'd pack me into one of these armchairs on wheels and push me up to my finish.

It was the latter.

A Miss Ewing, vice president of the Uplift society, came in one day with Honorah, and asked me if I had any last words to say before sentence was pronounced. I opined that I couldn't think of anything.

Honorah suggested that perhaps I might want a new suit of clothes in which to be a blushing bridegroom, but I said no. Any clothes at all would do me—and a winding sheet would seem most appropriate.

In this unjoyous state of mind I watched the calendar and cursed the what-not. I never saw days go by so fast.

As I stated, Germantown was not what you'd call permanently addicted to weddings, and the preparations began to look like a presidential inauguration. It was an all-ladies' wedding. The men in Germantown sat around the grocery and talked about the poor sucker with the broken leg.

I will not go into a detailed account of what they did in the way of decorating the church and ordering a wedding breakfast, but they did plenty.

And on the morning of the fourteenth of the month the sun broke through my clouds of gloom. Hope raised her beaten head and gave off signs of life. I'll remember that fourteenth of the month till I pass onward.

It seems that Buck Wells got himself accidentally lost while traveling from Omaha to Pop Beesom's ranch, and for causes over which he had no control, and before he knew it he was in Germantown, where he put up at the International hotel, intending to take the morning train.

He met my friend, the Chicago drummer, and they conferred. The drummer mentioned me, and Buck Wells had a fit on the spot.

"Shorty Kilgour going to be married!" Buck exclaimed, as I afterward learned. "There's something wrong. Shorty will do a lot of things—and has done 'em, but he wouldn't get married. I know him."

And Buck did know me. Didn't we pal around together for two years, and didn't we attach ourselves to Pop Beesom at one and the same time? We sure did!

Fifteen minutes after Buck Wells learned that I was in bed with a broken leg—and in imminent danger of matrimony—he climbed the steps of the Hanks mansion and came galloping into my room.

"Well, you old ring-tailed coyote!" Buck yelled, sitting down almost on my wounded pin, "what's all this which is happening?"

"It ain't happened yet," I told him, hugging him as best I could, "but it's likely to happen." And then I told Buck the gruesome details.

"I knew you wouldn't marry anybody if you could help it," he said.

"You've got to get me out of this, Buck," I wailed. "If my leg would hold me I'd help myself; but as it is I can't get away. We've got to work a scheme, and I've got to get Jeremiah Henk's signature to the brick contracts, or all my hard work won't make a cent for me. Therefore, as he won't sign up till the wedding day, you've got to rescue me that day—after he signs."

"How?" Buck asked.

I laid out the plan. Buck was to tear out of town somewhere and find a couple of good ponies, which he would install in the Germantown livery. The wedding was set for high noon, and I would be wheeled to the church in state. I'd get out of the chair at the church steps. I would hobble up the steps to the top, and they'd bring up my chair, after which I'd sit in again and be wheeled down the aisle.

The rescue would come after I had hobbled up the steps.

The platform at the top was about level with a pony's back. Buck would suddenly appear with the two horses, shift them under the platform, and while the ushers were dragging my chariot up the steps I'd simply cross over, land in the saddle, and gallop away to freedom, with the brick contracts all signed up in my pocket.

It would be hard on Honorah and the wedding guests, but if I didn't do it it would be harder on me—and I'm always interested most in me.

Buck studied the plan and announced that it hadn't a flaw. So he hung around town, playing pin-pool with the Chicago drummer. He got the horses all right, and they were ready for the job when the morning of the nineteenth dawned.

Jeremiah Henks had apparently forgotten all about the contracts, and when he showed up in a white choker and high hat I gently reminded him.

"Oh, I'll take care of that after the wedding!" he laughed. "No hurry, brother-in-law."

"No, there's no hurry," I admitted, "but I always like to have a man keep his word. You said you'd sign up on the wedding day—and here it is. I'm ready to go to the church, ain't I? Well, you've got to do your part and sign my contracts. If you don't—no wedding. Any sucker who tries to pull me out of bed and take me to church is going to get himself hurt!"

Then Jeremiah signed the papers and gave them to me.

I had one ace in the hole nobody knew about. Honorah and Jeremah thought I couldn't walk at all because I had always been in bed when they were around. But I could walk. That is I could limp around a little by favoring the busted pin. I practised in my room when nobody was about, because I certainly didn't mean to fall down on my part of the program, which was to get across that platform to the horses.

Well, we started to the church in carriages, on foot, and in wheel chair. I was the wheel chair, with the porter from the International hotel doing push duty.

What worried me was Buck's absence. He hadn't shown up at all in the morning, nor had he sent me word, and I began to fidget, though I trusted Buck implicitly. Honorah was dressed up in white like a sore thumb, and the ladies of the Germantown Civic, Purity and Dynamic Uplift society stood around and talked about me.

Lyrics of Life

By Douglas Malloch

NOT WITH ME

No one is goin' to quarrel with me;
If he wants to fight, he must fight alone;
There is too much good in the world to see
For to set around and to mope and moan.
You can't get along with some, no doubt;
Then them's the ones to get along without.

No one is goin' to have no scrap
With me, whoever may do me dirt;
I'll just forgive, and forget, the chap,
And then whatever he done won't hurt.
It isn't the thing that does us wrong,
It's thinking about the thing too long.

No one is going to have no fight
With me—it's a lot more fun to love.
Whatever he does, I'll treat him right,
The good is all I'll remember of.
And then, whatever the fellah done,
Whatever the row, I'm the one who won.

The Fire of the Sun

Anybody can feel or see that the sun is a ball of fire and through a telescope it can be seen that the sun is continually sending out tongues of flame a million miles high. If one of these tongues should reach the earth and lick it only for a second we and everything else would burn to a crisp and pass into space as ashes. But what keeps the sun's heat? Astronomical physicists figure that merely matter burning up would show very marked signs of cooling off in a million years, yet even our earth is known to be more than a million years old. Still the sun shows no signs of real cooling, so some have thought that radio activity which gives off a heat that needs no fuel to feed it, might be the cause of the sun's undiminished celestial bonfire, while outer parts of the sun are contracting and falling into the inner parts, and the contracting processes give off heat. But nobody actually knows the answer to what seems like the plainest of questions—what makes the sun hot?

Now what do you know about that?

WHAT TODAY MEANS TO YOU

TAURUS

Today's planetary aspects are distinctly adverse, and continue so until early in the evening, when they become fairly encouraging. During the day, a serene attitude is needed as, from time to time, there will be sensed sentiments of dissatisfaction, and there will be present symptoms of nervousness and worry. If indulged in, these undesirable influences will affect not only your thoughts but your actions, and the only way to counteract them is by strict attention to routine work, and the maintenance of poise. The evening can safely be given up to entertainment, and the signs denote success for all social or family reunions.

Children born today will escape most of the ailments from which infants generally suffer. They, according to the signs, will display a tendency during their 'teens to outgrow their strength, and this will require careful watching, and such remedies as will build up their constitutions. Their characters will be quite appealing, although they will possess a reserve force that will enable them to overcome difficulties that would be likely to swamp others. They will be alert, vigorous, and painstaking. They will face trouble with a smile, and are fated to exude happiness.

If today is your birthday, you are altogether too morose and self-introspective. You take life altogether too seriously, and this condition is brought about by a woeful lack of any sense of humor. You are a plodder, think a great deal—in fact, altogether out of proportion to your line of action. You rarely, if ever, enthuse and by your mood, dampen other people's lightness of heart, and never bring into any gathering that measure of congeniality that attracts and charms. In affairs of the heart, you are devoted to one and one alone; but this idealism does afford as much happiness as such an association should, as a result of your lugubriousness. Life, for most of us, is a rather drab affair, but nothing is gained by blinding oneself to the beauty that it does possess, and looking, at all times on the dark side.

Successful people born on this date are:

William G. Fargo, expressman.
John Swinburne, physician.
Gustav Cramer, photographer.
George T. Tryon, conchologist.
Emil Berliner, inventor.
Col. Albert A. Pope, manufacturer.

THE LAND OF THE SECOND-HAND.
(A Modern American Folk Song.)
By Arthur L. Lippmann

Sing ho! for the tiny germ-holes,
Sing hey! for the tricked-up trash,
For many mouldy wormholes
Will attract the suckers' cash!
The onslaught of the weevil
And the nibbling of the mice
Make new things mediaeval,
So they'll fetch a fancy price.

Remove the shiny varnish
From an inexpensive desk,
Inject synthetic tarnish
Next, to make it picturesque,
Make the joints and corners creak,
Then hack it with a hatchet,
Result: A rare antique!
And scratch it up and patch it up—

Hooray for the "Queen Anne" tables
The "Thirteenth Century" chairs,
The antique sellers' fables,
The farmer-millionaires.
You married folk and single—
Success knocks at your gate;
Hang out this magic shingle,
"Antiques Made While You Wait!"

Friend: "They say your late husband passed away as quiet and natural as could be."
Widow: "Yes, just like he was drunk."

HISTORY AS IT HAPPENED
The Battle of Bunker Hill
By Dr. Walter E. Traprock

The foolish idea persists that at the Battle of Bunker Hill our Colonials were forced to retreat. English point out that at the close of the engagement their men were on top of the hill.

As a matter of fact, the evacuation of the hill was a ruse carefully thought out by Maj. Benj. Bean (the famous "Bunker" Bean) to whom Boston's favorite fruit, baked beans, also owes its origin. Maj. Bean knew the summit of Bunker Hill to be a most dangerous position. The Boston Water Works company had just completed its first reservoir by impounding the waters of the Charles River Basin. Bean's ruse was simplicity itself.

After giving his famous order, referring to the buckskin trousers of the Hessians, "Don't shoot until you see the whites of their pants," he drew his men out and lured the enemy in. Then, opening the sluice gates of the reservoir, he dumped the contents of the Basin on the British rear! Hence, Back Bay. . . .

Most of the Hessians starved or were drowned in their attempts to swim out to Lord Howe's fleet which was anchored on the present site of the Copley Plaza hotel, just south of the bar. Rare sport was had by our gallant "Minute Men" who used to stand on the toll-bridge connecting Boston proper with Boston improper and shoot swimmers as they made for the open sea. "A Man a Minute!" was their slogan, from which they got their name. The first bonfire or beacon on what is now called Beacon Hill signalled the sinking of the last Hessian and the burning of Howe's flagship, the Prickly Heat.

There are so many misstatements and errors in our modern text-books that I am fully resolved to correct them all in a scholarly and accurate work, "History as It Happened," to be published by the Kidder Press after being serialized in this department.

BANDITS GET $30,000
Six Men Hold Up Institution, Intimidate 40 Customers

ST. LOUIS, May 19.—(AP)—Flourishing pistols and shotguns, six men held up 40 employes and patrons of the North St. Louis Trust company today and escaped with about $30,000 in cash.

The robbers forced those in the bank to hold up their hands and then to kneel on the floor, facing the wall while they looted the tellers' cages and vault. No shots were fired.

Included in the loot was a $15,000 deposit which had just been made by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

SOCIETY

Miss Stella Hill Is Bride of Leland Trice In Morning Wedding

Of interest to a large number of friends is the marriage of Miss Stella Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hill to Leland D. Trice of Waco, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's parents on Eleventh street at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning with the Rev. Walter Johnson reading the ceremony.

Preceding the entrance of the young couple, Miss Katheryn Sullivan sang "O Promise Me" and Miss Mildred Martin sang, "I Love You Truly," both were accompanied at the piano by Miss Elizabeth Cole.

The house was profusely decorated in spring blossoms and greenery for the nuptials, the ceremony being read before a lovely improvised alter of flowers. The bride wore a handsome tailored gown of powder blue with gray accessories, and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Bob Shaw of Waco, and a few intimate friends were present for the ceremony, including J. J. Hill and Jack Bristol and Misses Lois Fitzgerald, Bertie Mae Holt, Vera Hale, Mary Evans, Louise Lipscomb, Mary Old, Pegxy Eastwood, and Mesdames Chester Wynne, J. A. Staley, R. R. Moore, Ott Dale, J. M. Kenney, C. C. Holcomb, Pat Jarrett, C. R. Hartsook, Jack Bristol and W. H. Roberts. Among the children were Bettye Moore, Pat Kenney, Stanton Kennis Arckon Kennis and Jack Bristol Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Trice left for Galveston for a short wedding tour and will be at home in Houston after June 1.

Miss Creighton Hostess To Camp Fire Girls

Miss Phyllis Creighton, guardian of the group organized at the First Christian church, met with the girls Tuesday afternoon in a business session, when plans for summer work were discussed. The group was invited to meet at the home of Betty Spreen next week.

After the business session all went to camp fire headquarters, where an informal discussion was held on the earning of honor beads. Miss McIlheran explained the working of the honor system, and pointed out honors in the various crafts which might be earned by the members during the summer months when they have more time for Camp Fire work.

Those attending were: Venetia Keown, Marjorie Bash, Robert Wolford, Merrell Strong, Betty Spreen, and the guardian.

Mrs. Sammons Hostess To Tuttle Bible Class

Mrs. J. M. Sammons was hostess to the Tuttle Bible class of the Episcopal church in an interesting meeting when honored Mrs. Lena Matta, one of the members who is leaving soon for Fort Worth to make her home was honored. She was presented with a beautiful beaded party bag with an appropriate verse from the members.

Devotional was led by Mrs. Mollie McElroy. Reports were given by the committees on the work of the class, and plans for future activities were discussed.

Those present at the meeting were Mesdames Matta, M. J. Bashara, E. E. Guinn, R. J. Goodale, W. H. Godfrey, Mollie McElory, S. S. White, and Nat L. Inge.

Local Young Couple Are Wed Wednesday

Announcement is made of the wedding of Miss Hortense Boardman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Boardman to W. C. Pasley, the ceremony being read at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Walter J. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening.

Cut flowers were arranged in profusion in the living room and the couple knelt on a white satin pillow surrounded by white rose buds, and baskets of pink roses on either side, in the French doors.

Mrs. R. A. Sanders played for the entrance of the wedding party, Lesoehmer's "Bridal of Roses," and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mildred Boardman. Charlie Love of Corsicana attended Mr. Pasley.

The bride wore a lovely embroidered white net gown with wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds and lilies of the valley tied with tulle. Miss Mildred Boardman, wore a light blue taffeta afternoon gown with corsage of sweetpeas.

The ceremony was read in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Pasley left for a short wedding trip in Dallas after which they will be at home in this city, where he is connected with the Wichita Electric company.

Miss Sauer Entertains High School Seniors

Among the many delightful affairs given complimentary to the 1926 high school senior class probably none of them have proven more enjoyable than the dance given at the Wichita club Tuesday night when Miss Bernice Sauer was hostess.

The club lounge was beautifully decorated for the occasion in roses and wild flowers, and music was furnished by the Blue Hour orchestra. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. E. Sauer and Mrs. R. Posnansky of St Louis, and punch was served throughout the evening.

Three hundred guests including the senior class, other friends and out-of-town visitors, danced from 9:30 to 1 o'clock.

Jolly Matrons With Mrs. Leila Hernson

Mrs. Leila Herndon was hostess to the Jolly Matrons at her home on Tilden Tuesday afternoon when the house was attractively decorated in roses and other cut flowers for the games. Mrs. C. S. Burnett won the high score favor among the members and Mrs. L. V. Lemen second high. Mrs. M. A. Rutis was consoled for low. Mrs T. A. Melcher was fortunate among the guests.

A salad plate was served to Mesdames Burnett, L. D. Townsend, W. H. Jagers, M. A. Rutis, L. V. Lemen, S. B. Heard, W. H. Bentley and T. A. Melcher.

Former Athlete Pleads Guilty To Charge Of Robbery

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Alexander R. Hodges, former University of Kansas athlete, today pleaded guilty to second degree larceny in general sessions. He will be sentenced June 18.

The plea followed the drawing of a jury and complete arrangements for the trial with testimony supposed to be started today. Hodges' mother arrived from Kansas City only a few hours previously.

When the case was called this morning attorneys for the prosecution and defense united in asking a postponement until noon. A conference resulted in the plea being entered.

Hodges robbed a restaurant in 59th street of $240 April 20, last, using a toy pistol. After running three blocks he was captured in Columbus Circle and it was some time after hi sarrest before the police were convinced that his identity as given by himself was true.

AFFIRM SENTENCES

Negro Must Die and White Must Go to Prison.

AUSTIN, May 19.—(AP)—Death sentence of Alex Maxey, negro, from Shelby county, and the 50-year sentence of M. R. Smith from Bosque county, were affirmed today by the court of criminal appeals.

Maxey was convicted of murder in connection with the killing of LeRoy McCain, September 13, 1925. McCain was shot in the back of the head, and robbed of $100 in "crap game," winnings.

Smith was sentenced for murder in connection with killing of Dr. J. Owen Carpenter, May 13, 1925. He claimed the physician had made improper advances to his wife.

Founder Of Temple Believed Drowned

LOS ANGELES, May 19.—(AP)—Aimee Semple McPherson, founder and pastor of Angelus Temple here and widely known evangelise, who was reported to have drowned late yesterday while swimming in the surf at Ocean Park, was still missing today after an all night search.

While searchers continued to comb the beach from Santa Monica to Venice for a trace of the missing evangelist, a constant vigil was maintained throughout the night in the watch tower which surmounts "Sister Aimee's temple and where a specially appointed band of worshipers prayed hourly for their lost pastor.

Wheeler Declares Division Of Vote Nominated Vare

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP) Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon league issued this statement today regarding the senatorial primary in Pennsylvania:

The nomination of Mr. Vere, with the dry vote divided between Senator Pepper and Governor Pinchot was expected.

"In other states under such circumstances the drys unite on the candidate most likely to win, but it was impossibl to accomplish this in Pennsylvania.

"The united vote of Pinchot and Pepper showed that Pennsylvania's voters are against the platform advocated by Mr. Vare. He will not have any more influence in bringing back light wines and beer than Senator Edwards of New Jersey.

"We will make up this lost dry vote in the senate in some other state. The large majority of the senate will still be dry."

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

A Child's Laxative which Mothers Can Rely On

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.

ELECTRA GIRL WINS HONORS

Paper Gives Her Praise For Reading at Trinity University

ELECTRA, May 18.—Miss Salina Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Foster, living at the Sunshine Hill community is the fourth member of her family to win honors at school or college in the last few years.

Miss Foster recently read the platform arrangement, "The Neighbors," by Zona Gale at a recital at the Trinity university, in Waxahachie, where she is taking junior work. The Waxahachie daily gives the following sketch from her recital:

"Much credit is due Miss Foster for the excellent rendition, which was received well by the large and appreciative audience. This was Miss Foster's certificate recital, and her interpretation of the neighborly gatherings were vivid and delighted the audience very much.

"The reader lived every character of the play and she held her audience until the last scene climaxed the interpretation. The stage was decorated with flowers and ferns. During the recital Miss Foster was presented with several beautiful bouquets of carnations, lillies and roses."

Other members of the family to win honors are Miss Mary Foster, sister of Miss Salina, graduates this month with honors at the Texas Woman's college at Fort Worth. Another sister, Ruth Foster, attended Texas Woman's college last year and distinguished herself in special lines of work. Edward Foster, Jr., a brother is a student in the Electra high school, and is one of the track men who attended the interscholastic meet in Austin recently. Miss Salina Foster is a graduate of the Kidd Key college at Sherman, and entered Trinity university this year.

Ed. Foster, the father is a well known member of the firm of Foster and Allen, and Mr. Foster occupies his time with the cattle raising and more rural developments of the firm while Reese Allen is in the oil and real estate business.

BLACK TERROR FILES APPEAL

San Antonio Negro, Given Death, Seeks New Trial

AUSTIN, May 19.—(AP)—Appeal of Matthew Briscoe, one of the "San Antonio black terrors" was submitted on oral argument before the court of criminal appeals today. O. B. Black, former mayor of San Antonio, represented the negro and Assistant District Attorney C. W. Johnson of Bexar county, represented the state. Black charged that the indictment for criminal assault on a white woman that resulted in the imposing of the death penalty, should have been quashed. He charged that there was discrimination against the negro, as no negroes were chosen for the grand jury.

Briscoe was convicted and given the death penalty in two criminal assault cases. He was indicted for 28 felonies, two being murder, and five criminal assault, assault to murder and robbery with firearms and by assault, being the others.

Frank Lewis, negro companion, was given a life sentence in connection with the activities of a gang which consisted of Tillman Simmons, given the death penalty for murder, and another negro.

MEN'S CLOTHING—MAIN FLOOR

JACK COUNTY IS AMONG DISTRICT BIG OPERATORS

Many Wells Drilling Indicate Area of Great Activity

Following the discovery of shallow oil to the north of Antelope in the Baytex Oil company's No. 1 Snedecker test in the J. Robbins survey activity is at a high pitch in the north Jack county area. At present activity is confined principally to the northwest corner of the county nearest to the Markley-Prideaux production but leasing now is running far into the county towards the shallow production as found at Avis and there is some talk of a possible connection of the two districts in the shallow pay. A short resume of drilling in the district reveals an area of startling import.

The Ilseng Producing company on John Allen farm in the John Allen survey, abstract 2140, located 450 feet south and 150 feet east of the northwest corner has spudded and is drilling.

The Godley Oil company has made a location on the John Allen farm in the John Allen survey, abstract 2140, in the northeast corner and rig material is being moved in. Walker and Scott Drilling company on the John W. Carter land in TE&L survey No. 8305, abstract 728 three miles north of Jermyn and 12 miles northwest of Jacksboro, are moving rig material on the ground preparatory to spud in immediately. Wolfe Oil company's No. 1 J. E. Wilson ranch, SPRR Co. survey, abstract 577, located in the center of survey are rigging up preparatory to spud in immediately.

The Watchorn Oil and Gas company's No. 1, R. L. Carpenter estate, 11 miles northwest of Jacksboro, on state highway No. 25, is a location 900 feet east and 900 feet south of the northwest corner of the TE&L Co. survey No. 3325. This test spudded in Saturday morning. A standard rig is being used preparatory for a deep test if oil is not found at a lesser depth. Numerous other drilling contracts have been made to begin within the next 60 days in the northwest part of the county. Leasing of acreage is very active and the great demand for leases in the northwest shallow field of Jack county has caused the price of acreage to jump during the past week. In the western part of the county, 14 miles from Jacksboro, drilling activity continues to progress. The Buttram Petroleum company's Joe Preston No. 1 and No. 2 on the Preston farm are still on the pump, making an average of 50 barrels of high gravity oil daily. The Preston No. 3 J. K. Beevers survey, 900 feet north and 900 feet east of the southeast corner of the G. T. Hobbs survey is drilling at 450 feet. The Preston No. 4, Samuel Chearis survey, abstract 930 is setting casing at 1,300 feet, the No. 1 on the Oliver land, in the Thomas Kane survey, abstract 331, five miles from Jacksboro, is underreaming and setting 8-inch casing at 2,225 feet. This well is being watched with a great deal of interest as a good showing is expected at 2,255 feet. Murchison and Fain Oil company, S. M. Jones estate, Mat Mabia survey, abstract 413, location 5,430 feet north and 150 feet east of the southwest corner of survey spudded Monday. The J. F. Dingee Drilling company has a location 1,269 feet east and 150 feet north of the southwest corner of the George Hardesty survey, abstract 294, and is drilling at 800 feet.

O. R. Rochelle's No. 1 on the Ira D. Gray farm in the J. W. Ramsey survey, abstract 499, has drilled to a depth of 1,875 feet and is waiting on 6-inch casing.

Indian Land Auction

SHAWNEE, Okla., May 19.—On May 25 at the Shawnee Indian agency at Shawnee, A. W. Leech, the superintendent, will auction for oil and gas purposes 2,756.920 acres of allotted Sac and Fox, Iowa, Citizen Pottawatomie, absentee Shawnee and Kickapoo Indian lands. All leases will be for 10 years, and as long as oil or gas shall be produced on them. The notice of the auction shows 1,657.60 acres of Cac and Fox land; 78.94 acres of Iowa land; 344.73 acres of Citizen Pottawatomie land; 595.65 acres of absentee Shawnee land and 80 acres of Kickapoo land.

The proximity of oil and gas development in Pottawatomie, Lincoln and Creek counties make some of the tracts appear attractive to oil operators.

Coleman County Well

Independent Oil and Gas company has a new producer in Coleman county, Texas, which flowed 580 barrels the first 24 hours from sand found around 2,500 feet. The well is No. 2 Gardner-Maples, in the southwest corner of the west 120 acres of the northeast 240 acres of section 265, Joseph W. Hicks survey. The well had an initial production of 25 barrels an hour.

HOW I IMPROVED MY HEALTH

Did It in Less Than One Month

As Mrs. Weaver herself says, "I was never very strong." This is a mild statement describing her condition, for, according to her letters, she was subjected to no small amount of ill health. Fortunately, her sister was familiar with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged Mrs. Weaver to try it. "After three or four weeks," writes Mrs. Weaver, "I felt a great difference in myself. I would go to bed and sleep sound, and although I could not do very much work, I seemed stronger. I kept on taking it and now I am well and strong, do my work and take care of three children. I sure do tell my friends about your wonderful medicine, and I will answer any letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Lawrence Weaver, East Smithfield St., Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

If you knew that thousands of women suffering from troubles similar to those you are enduring had improved their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, wouldn't you think it was worth a trial?

Murchison & Fain, Lynch

Murchison & Fain have abandoned their No. 1 Lynch test in Stephen county, Oklahoma, approximately 5 miles to the southwest of Lawton as a dry hole at 2,500 feet.

Tidal, Parkey

The Tidal Oil Corporation has spudded its No. 1 Parkey test located 150 feet in the southwest corner of block 42 of the Dallas county school lands, Archer county.

Magnolia, Miller

The Magnolia Petroleum Corporation is skidding derrick 50 feet to the north of their No. 1 Larkins Miller test to the east of Chalk hill. No. 1 was lost on a bad fishing job at 1,272 feet.

Pandem, Whitehead

The Pandem Oil Corporation has made location for a test to be drilled 600 feet to the west of the new Barkley-Howell producer on the Rogers land in section 166, TE&L Co. survey, Young county.

Stump, Chilson

Perkins-Cullum and Stump have made location for a test to be drilled 150 feet in the southeast corner of the west half of block 6, League 4 of the Denton county school lands.

Tidal, Waggoner

The Tidal Oil company's No. 1-C Waggoner wildcat producer which came in the latter part of the week pumped 120 barrels the first 24 hours on the beam from sand 1,942-46 feet with the top of the pay at 1,946 feet.

Murchison & Fain, Young

Murchison & Fain are drilling at 1,000 feet in thir No. 1 J. A. Young test located 150 feet to the east of a north and south line of the northeast quarter of section 2426 TE&L Co. survey approximately 2 miles to the south and west of Megargle.

Richardson, Netherton

The wildcat test of Richardson and associates on the Netherton land located 150 feet in the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 104, A. T. N. C. survey was setting casing late Wednesday with the expectation of bailing early Thursday morning. Sand in the test is from 1,463-65 1-2 feet.

Maer-Staniforth, Prideaux

Maer & Staniforth have changed the location of their No. 1 Prideaux test to the southeast corner of their 100-acre lease which is the north 100 acres of the south 180 acres of the east 260 acres of the Col Tap survey abstract 68, northeast Young county. Rig will be moved in on location today.

Perkins, Dutton

Texhoma, Demgen

The Texhoma Oil & Refining company is completing as dry its No. 1 Demgen test in block 18, League 3 of the Denton county school lands to the best of Holliday townsite. The test Wednesday was drilling below 1,900 feet, and will be abandoned at 2,000.

McElreath-Suggett, Snider

The wildcat producer of Suggett-McElreath and Phillips Petroleum on the Snider land in the R. Wilson survey is flowing natural between 20 and 25 barrels a day from the shallow 500 foot pay. No. 2 of the same operators to the north 300 feet was spudded Wednesday.

Perkins, Chilson

Perkins-Cullum and Stump are attempting to shut off water in their No. 1 Chilson test in the southwest corner of section 21 of the Denton county school lands. The test which came in as a semi-wildcat this past week from sand 1,812-14 1-2 feet is having a good deal of trouble with the power which is not sufficient to pump off the head of water. If plugging back is not satisfactory the well will be standardized.

Shasta, Meade

The Shasta Oil company is completing its No. 1 Meade test on east offset to the discovery producer in section 39 of the Meade pasture subdivision as a dry hole below 1,470 feet. The test had a sand which was tested and topped at 1,457 feet. The southeast diagonal offset to the discovery well is being cleaned out preparatory to putting on the pump after cementing last week in an effort to shut off water from a leaky casing seat. To the west of this on the Cross land Maer Staniforth will be looking for the sand today. To the east the Dale Oil Corporation is drilling at approximately 700 feet.

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Stockholders of Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation were informed by Harry F. Sinclair, chairman, at the annual meeting today that the company never had been in better condition and that net earnings for the first four moths of 1926 had risen to $9,310,000 in comparison with $5,169,000 in the corresponding period of 1925.

The company's expansion in gasoline production was emphasized more than 205,000,000 gallons having been made in the four months in contrast to 133,000,000 gallons a year ago. Its net crude oil production also increased to 3,775,000 barrels against 2,149,000 barrels.

Mr. Sinclair asserted that the policy recently adopted by the directors to apply part of current earnings to redemption of outstanding bonds should hasten the time when stockholders would be amply repaid for their patience. During 1925 the company retired about $4,000,000 of funded debt and preferred stock and about $1,000,000 additional thus far this year.

WHITEFIELD MUST SERVE.

Robert Whitefield, under 25 year sentence for the murder of his wife, Bess, must serve the term in the penitentiary, the court of criminal appeals ruled Wednesday when it denied him a rehearing.

Whitefield made several confessions in which he admitted killing his wife, whose body was found under a mesquite tree behind the ball park last summer. Later, however, he repudiated all of these and denied any implication in her death. The jury found him guilty and assessed the penalty which his been unsuccessfully appealed.

BYRD TO SOUTH POLE

Intrepid American Aviator Will Make Dash in Plane.

OSLO, Norway, May 19.—(AP)—A telegram to the Aftenposten from Spitzenbergen says Lieutenant Commander Richard Byrd, U. S. N., first man to fly over the North Pole, plans to undertake an expedition to the South Pole as soon as possible.

The lieutenant and the members of his expedition are leaving King's Bay for London tomorrow.

TEXAS EFFORTS THIRD

Petroleum exported from California in 1925 had a value of $90,305,402. New York was second for $82,609,944, but much of it was for oil shipped in from other states and refined there; Texas was third for $67,253,703.

MARLAND MAN IS NEW PRESIDENT OF OIL SCOUTS

Harry Sample of Marland's San Antonio Office Will Head "Sherlocks"

SAN ANTONIO, May 18.—(AP)—Harry Sample of the Marland Oil company's San Antonio office was elected president of the National Oil Scouts of America at their final business session today.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year are:

First vice president, W. N. O'Rourke, Shreveport; second vice president, N. E. Tanner of San Angelo; secretary-treasurer, Walter Wise of Amarillo, and chairman of executive committee, J. H. Chisholm of Mexia.

With three cities, Shreveport, Amarillo and San Angelo bidding for the next convention the decision as to the convention city was referred to the executive committee to be decided on at some future date.

San Angelo probably is the tsrongest contender but many of the oil scouts feel that the next convention should be held outside the state.

Millions Die of Indigestion

Most Common, Yet Insidious of Fatal Diseases Strikes Like Lightning and When Least Expected.

Protect Yourself by Strengthening Your Digestive Organs With Ferraline—Then Eat What You Please Without Fear of Trouble.

Nature, with her infinite wisdom, has provided in Ferraline a quick and sure relief for the millions who are living in constant fear of that dreaded disease—Indigestion. Ferraline is not a concoction made by man, but is a strictly natural product, and contains the essential elements which nature has provided to strengthen and tone up the weakened organs of digestion.

Indigestion and weak blood march hand-in-hand. No dyspeptic can have pure rich blood until his digestion is made perfect again. Stomach disorders always weaken the blood and weak blood causes anaemia, weakness and nervousness.

If you have had warnings of indigestion, do not delay another day to accept the positive guarantee that your money will be promptly and cheerfully refunded if the very first bottle of Ferraline does not give you relief. Don't be misled into believing that heartburn, gas, bloating, constipation, biliousness, sick stomach, heart and kidney pains will gradually go away. These are danger signals warning you that the dread disease, Indigestion, is gradually sapping your very life. Regenerate your digestive organs at once with Ferraline, then you can eat three good meals every day without discomfort. A ten-days treatment of Ferraline will cost you only One Dollar at your druggists. —Adv.

TANKWAGON UP IN OKLAHOMA ON GASOLINE

Advance of One Cent Follows New Price Posted By Indiana Standard

TULSA, Okla., May 19.—The Oklahoma tank-wagon market on gasoline and kerosene was advanced one cent a gallon Wednesday by the Marland Refining company, thus absorbing the full effect of the March 15 crude oil advance. Other distributors are expected to comply.

All distributors expected the Magnolia Petroleum company to take the initiative, but as in other price changes, the "Mag" waited for one of the big independents to do so.

The advance makes gasoline tankwagon price of 20 cents a gallon, which with the three cent state tax makes a total of 23 cents a gallon. The kerosene tank-wagon trice will now be 14 cents a gallon.

Group 3 refiners report just a slight slowing up in buying, although they have many orders on hand to keep their plants busy. One Kansas refinery reported that it has had to turn down orders for gasoline. The 58-60, 437, U. S. motor grade is held firmly at 12 1-4 to 12 1-2 cents, with the 56-58, 450, U. S. motor at 12 to 12 1-2 cents. Natural gasolines are also stronger, due to large jobber buying.

Burning oils are steady, the 41-43 grade of kerosene ranging from 10 3-4 to 11, and 42-44 at 11 to 11 1-4 cents. One refiner that has oversold its output is asking 12 cents.

TO CONDUCT CLASSES

O. C. Knight of Duncan, Okla., director and business manager of the First Baptist church of Duncan, will be in Wichita Falls next week to conduct one of two teachers' training classes which are to be organized at the Floral Heights Baptist church, continuing from Monday through Friday. Rev. C. S. McClung, pastor of the church, will be in charge of the other class.

"Financing the Church Through the Sunday School" will be taught by the pastor, and "Modern Church Finance" will be taught by Mr. Knight. Classes will begin at 7:30 o'clock each evening and last one hour, it is said.

PANDEM STOCK GOES ON THE NEW YORK CURB

Initial Days Sale Are Over 10,000 Shares With No Par Value

Stock of the Pandem Oil corporation went on the New York curb Wednesday. The stock closed at $9.12 1-2 with no par. Ten thousand shares featured the first days sales. The Pandem corporation was organized the latter part of 1925 and came into the Wichita district at that time under the management of Mr. Ben Bell, who up to that time was in the land department of the Sun company. The company's success in this district especially in wildcat ventures is one in which there have been few equals.

PLENTY OF FUN AT OLYMPIC

Music and Acrobatics To Be Combined In Levy Vaudeville

Music and acrobatics are to combined this week in the five acts of Bert Levey vaudeville which will be presented at the Olympic theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Along with these attractions the theatre is offering a comedy picture "Don't," featuring Sally O'Neil, with the usual arrangement of news reels and short comedies.

May and Lewis in "Cycles of Fun" have a number unusual in the extreme It is one of the most clever acrobatic numbers on the stage today and is guaranteed to be one of continued laughter from first to last. Several exceptionally difficult feats are performed.

Sergt. Chess Davis, billed as "The Whistling Doughboy," is one of the most accomplished whistlers on the stage at present and he has a melange of melody that is remarkably entertaining.

Comedy Singing.

"Leroy and Tozier in comedy singing and talking have an orthodox vaudeville skit built on some clever patter, some good voices and dancing.

"A Surprise" is the Musical Gob, Sailor Ford, who appears on the stage in the regulation navy blue with pistol, sword and packsack which turn out to be musical instruments of all description and from them he coaxes a wealth of harmony and melody.

Phil Godfrey in "The Tumbling Fool," has a tumbling act that rates as one of the best on the American stage today. For years he was the featured tumbler with Barnum and Bailey and Ringling Brothers, and now has constructed one of the most interesting vaudeville numbers anywhere.

Mission To Show Mark Twain Story

Mark Twain's masterpiece, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," has been reissued to a motion picture public by William Fox. It will open an engagement at the Mission theatre today.

Known to the multitude of Mark Twain lovers as "The Yankee," this story is regarded as not only as a great classic of American humor, but also as a forceful satire directed against those who sign for the "good old times." Mark Twain set out to show that the world we live in is the of all possible worlds, and the time we live in it is the best of all possible times.

This he did by taking a typical young American, bright as a new penny, filled with smart, up-to-date ideas, and setting him down in a medieval court, where he could judge for himself whether the knights of old were more courageous than the men of today, and whether life as a whole was more comfortable then than now.

Fumes From Mash Kill Ohio Couple

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, May 19. (AP)—What was at first believed to have been a double murder today proved to be an accident. County authorities this afternoon announced that investigation revealed that Omar Miller, 30, and his wife, Mrs. Ethel Miller, 20, who were found dead in a pit of a saw mill near their home at Bergholz, Jefferson county, were victims of fumes from fermentation of mash.

The bodies were found this morning by neighbors after a search had been conducted as a result of the couple's disappearance Monday. Coroner Bell reports the Miller's were preparing to operate a still and that poison fumes from the mash caused their deaths.

Cruelty To Dogs No Law Violation

KANSAS CITY, May 19.—(AP)—The Missouri law on crulety to animals does not include dogs, so Waldo Robey, young airplane pilot, who is accused of throwing a dog from his plane from a height of about a thousand feet, probably will not be prosecuted.

A warrant for the arrest of Robey on a charge of cruelty to animals was asked by L. A. Hatfield, chief humane officer. Maurice Dwyer, an assistant prosecutor, delved into the state statutes and learned that the law on cruelty to animals did not include dogs. Prosecution might be attempted, he said, on a charge of malicious destruction of property, but it was generally admitted that the dog killed was a stray, as no one claimed it.

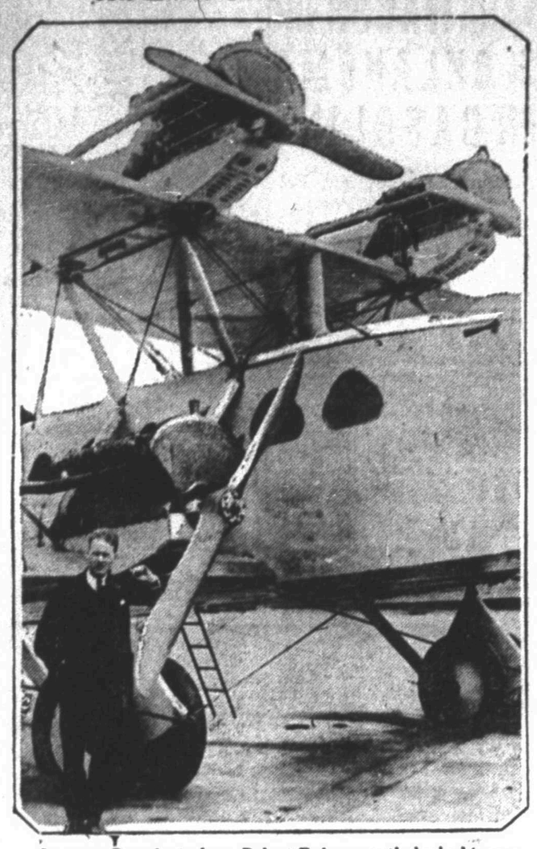
LOCKART, Texas, May 19.—(AP) A half-inch of rain fell here today. The downpour was accompanied by wind but no damage was reported.

Air Liner Sets New Record



In a new French airplane, Robert Bajac recently broke his own record for maximum duration of flight with a load of more than 3,000 pounds, exclusive of fuel and oil. He was in the air for three hours and 46 minutes. The plane, a Bleriot, is soon to be put on the popular Paris-London air way, where it will accommodate 18 passengers and their luggage.

Mexicans Return To Colony After Living In Texas

BROWNSVILLE, May 19.—(AP) Charging unjust discrimination in law enforcement and economic affairs, A. C. Vasquez, Mexican, consul here, announced today that 500 Mexican families would move in September from Cameron and Willacy counties, Texas, to the state of Tamaulipas, Mexico.

Vasquez said a colony nea· Victoria, capital of Tamaulipas, including 35,000 acres, was being prepared for the Mexicans. The land, according to the plans, is to be furnished to them without an initial payment and is to be tax free for 20 years. Each family is to receive from 25 to 30 acres for truck gardening, Vasquez said. Arrangements have been made, he said, to pass all implements and other property for the colony into Mexico duty free.

The proposed exodus would remove about half the Mexican portions of two counties. Vasquez said about sixty families already have agreed to the arrangement.

INJURIES ARE FATAL.

ROCKDALE, Texas, May 19.—(AP)—J. W. Gildart of San Antonio, an oil field worker, died of injuries in a hospital at Cameron early today as a result of injuries received in a fight here last night. Gildart received a fractured skull, it was reported by physicians. Jake Robbins of Rockdale, is being held in connection with the affair.

OIL MAN DIES

OIL CITY, Pa., May 19.—(AP) Joseph Crocker Sibley, 76, former chairman of the board of the Gelena Signal Oil company and widely known oil man, died at his home near Franklin today. Mr. Sibley served several terms in congress from this district. He retired from active business about fifteen years ago.

Friendship Ties Enhanced By Trip, Aviators Are Told

MANILA, May 19.—(AP)—Speaking at a banquet last night in honor of the Spanish aviators who recently arrived here Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine senate and leader in the independence movement, welcomed the visitors. He sid:

"With your arrival a blood compact of more than three centuries has been transferred into a compact of love. We regret that we have no home to offer you, much less a country, because we have none. The Philippines are a possession of the United States. While you are here you are the guests of the Americans, not Filipinos. We can only give you our sincere affection, our happy wishes and fraternal love. We welcome you as brothers from afar, hoping that in the future we shall have a country of our own which will be put at your disposal."

HOOD BRIGADE MEMBER DIES

Veteran of War And Pioneer of Texas Answers Taps at Houston

HOUSTON, May 19.—(AP)—Captain Frank Bowden Chilton, 81, a member of Hood's brigade in the war between the sections, died at a hospital here today after an extended illness. Funeral services will be held at Wills, Texas, Thursday. Captain Chilton is survived by a widow and seven children.

Captain Chilton, who was admitted to the bar in 1874, was early an advocate for educating the negroes.

With his own hands, he built a church and school for the whites, inaugurated a movement to provide the same for negroes.

He soon became a factor in immigration and development. He was one of the state commissioners to the New Orleans exposition in 1885; a member of the deep water conventions which met at Fort Worth and at Denver, Colo. In 1885 was made a member of the board of trustees of the Baptist college at Waco, founded by his cousin, R. E. B. Baylor, now known as Baylor university.

He is widely known for his work with the Texas immigration association and with the Southern Inter-State Immigration Bureau. In 1887, a convention of public spirited men met at Dallas to organize the Texas Immigration association and Captain Chilton was made a member of the executive committee.

Growing out of the work with this orgnization, which had for its purpose advertising Texas and bringing in worthy industries from the north and west, the idea of a southern inter-state immigration bureau duplicated. In 1888, a convention of southern men was held in Montgomery, Alabama, and that organization was formed, while Captain Chilton as its general manager. Through that organization, the south began to advertise its products and southern seaports began to grow and industries were established.

GRAND SPECIAL RATES.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 19.—(AP)—A schedule of railroad fares for harvest hands going to wheat fields in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas was received today from the labor department in Washington by John H. Crawford, director in Kansas for the federal employment service. The rates will be in effect from June 10 to July 10. They will be about one-half the regular rates.

INJURED IN FALL.

COLUMBUS, Miss., May 19.—(AP)—Rev. T. M. Torbett of Fort Worth, Texas, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Henderson, Texas, was painfully, though not seriously, injured when thrown from a Pullman berth here today. Rev. Torbett, here attending the Cumberland Presbyterian convention, suffered bruises and cuts about the face when a switch engine backed into a sleeping car.

"Don't" A Scream On Olympic Bill

Bert Roach in 'DONT'

A comedy that is said to be more screamingly funny even than "Excuse Me" is coming on Thursday to the Olympic theatre. It is Alf Goulding's production, "Don't!" based on a story by Rupert Hughes. It is a Metro-Goldwyn-Maer picture.

The combination of Rupert Hughes, author and Goulding, director, is taking its destined place in the Who's Who of screenland. The two that made "Excuse Me" have again contributed to "Don't!" and made of it a comedy long to be remembered.

Although essentially a comedy, "Don't!" gives Alf Goulding his first opportunity to direct a picture that has a serious motif. It tells of the struggle of a young girl in a small town for freedom—and the much abused term "self expression," against her parents and narrow-minded friends In the end both the girl and her parents triumph, paradoxically enough Rupert Hughes, who never has anything to say unless it is worth while, has told his story in a refreshingly different style, and it has been directed with absolute understanding by Alf Goulding.

The cast of "Don't!" is filled with real names. Sally O'Neil, a new comer to the screen, who acts like a veteran, plays the leading feminine role; John Patrick, popular young juvenile, and Bert Roach in the important role of Uncle Nat. Others in the well balanced cast include James Morrison, Estelle Clark, DeWit Jennings, Ethel Wales, Johnnie Fox, Dorothy Seay, Evelyn Pierce, Brinsley Shaw, and Helen Hoge. Agnes Christine Johnston wrote the scenario.

Weather Quiet

The weather ma nwas in a more rational mood Wednesday after his lurid spree of the day before and as a result, north Texas got a steady day of sunshine with a more reasonable temperature variation.

All this came as a decided contrast to Tuesday, which brought a 37 degree climatic variation and along with it sunshine, rain, hail and high winds. Considerable damage was caused by a hailstorm in the Byers and Henrietta neighborhoods. Hail was also reported fro mHaskell and Hamlin west of here. A two-inch rain fell at Haskell following the hail.

Locally, a maximum temperature of 80 degrees was recorded Wednesday against 91 for Tuesday. The minimum was 56 degrees, one of he coolest May 18ths on record.

Winds were light from the east Wednesday.

LOERWALD INFANT.

The body of James Carl Loerwald, 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Loerwald, who died in a local hospital at 1:40 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, will be forwarded the morning by the Burrie-Dalton funeral home to Lindsay, for burial.

Men Improve

Herbert Blair and W. P. Smith, two of three men who were injured seriously as th eresult of a fall from a 50-foot scaffolding Tuesday afternoon, were reported improving at the General hospital where they are be-in gtreated. Jake Sims, the third man injured in the accident, who is also in the hospital, is reported most seriously injured and was resting as well as could be expected last night.

The men were doing repair work at the Nortex refinery south of Burkburnett and were on the high scaffolding when it collapsed, throwing the workmen to the ground, injuring them all severely.

They were given first aid treatment in Burkburnett and then brought here to the hospital.

Condition Serious

James Albert Miller, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller, who was injured Monday afternoon in an automobile wreck at Fourteenth and Holliday, was reported to be in a serious condition Wednesday afternoon at the Hargrave-Walker hospital where he is being treated. His brother, Earl, four years old, who was also injured in the same accident, is reported improving.

Mrs. Miller, who received a severe cut on the left wrist and bruises and minor cuts on the body, was also reported improving last night.

Three Escape Jail In Waco Delivery

WACO, May 19.—(AP)—Three white men made their way from the county jail this morning by sawing their bars across one of the windows. Among the escaped men was a federal prisoner. The three meeting making successful their escape are: Bill Lane, held on a charge of burglary; Jim Mozier, criminal assault and Allen Ingram, charged with opening a mail pouch. Officers did no report the jail delivery until after noon.

Ten or twelve prisoners were in the run around, from where the men made their escape but none of the others made an effort to get away.

The negro cook at the jail observed that the bars on the window had been severed and notified the jailer, which was the first information officers had of the escape.

Paducah Schools In Closing Week

PADUCAH, May 19.—Commencement week for the Paducah high school was ushered in yesterday by the delivery of the baccalaureate sermon at the school auditorium to an audience of about 800, by Mrs. R. L. Flowers, wife of Evangelist Flowers.

Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the department of government of the Technological college at Lubbock will deliver the commencement address Friday evening to the class of seventeen.

The class is composed of six girls and eleven boys as follows: Mazelle Copeland, Odessa Owens, Naomi Stone, Virginia Fullingim, Blanche Clark, Myrtle Davidson, Claude Campbell, Ted Grayum, Dean H. Hughes, Roy Killingsworth, Hester Hanks, Cecil Hayk, Hobson Howell, Willie Jennings, Martel Jones, Thurman Stinson and Troy Newton.

Eleven class rooms, a gymnasium and large study hall will be added to the high school building this summer.

Other officers elected are: Frank D. Guardo, San Antonio, past president; S. P. Williard, Denison, vice-president; Dee Dearing, Fort Worth, chaplain; Sam Goodman, San Antonio, conductor; William T. Souter, San Antonio, secretary; George Strickhausen, Galveston, treasurer; A. J. Bergeron, Fort Arthur, inner guard; Charles M. Bullock, Houston, outer-guard; trustees, L. N. Pastusik, Wichita Falls, R. E. Kinzie, Galveston, G. M. Riner, Beaumont.

TO AWARD CONTRACT
State Will Authorize Paving of Jim Wells County Road.

AUSTIN, May 19.—(AP)—Contract for the bituminous surfacing of 64.3 miles on highways 12 and 12-A in Jim Wells county is scheduled to be awarded June 15, the highway department announced today.

This will be one of the largest contracts ever let by the department, as it evolve estimated expenditure of $1,250,000.

Completion of the project will give Jim Wells a hard surfaced highway running the length of the county, providing an important link in the San Antonio to Edinburg highway.

Federal, state and county funds will be used.

Veteran of Texas Dies in Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 18.—(AP)—Robert Scott, 86, confederate veteran from Nacogodoches, Texas, died late last night at the Birmingham hospital.

Scott, a native of Alabama, was stricken as the special train from Texas approached Montgomery early Monday. He was given medical attention and continued on to Birmingham where an ambulance removed him to the hospital.

At the close of the war he moved to Texas where he engaged in farming.

MILK TEST DEMONSTRATED

ALTUS, May 19.—A milk testing demonstration for butter fat given by specialists under the direction of W. B. Ferrester, Jackson county farm agent, will be the main feature of the agricultural program of the community day Thursday at Lincoln when several hundred farmers are expected to attend.

RAZE OLD HOTEL

PADUCAH, May 19.—The old Star hotel, a frame building on the southwest corner of the square, built in the early days of the town, has been demolished and a two-story modern brick hotel will be erected in its place. The new hotel will contain 42 rooms.

Lusty Larruppers of Brainard's Rain Base Hits On Wacoans

Big Bruisers Bust Them Far And Wide To Score Sufficient Runs To Refrigerate Contest

Big Estell Poles One Far Over Wall to Score Others Ahead and Salt Away Game

BY BLONDY CROSS.

WACO, May 19.—The sturdy Tom Estell, Wichita Falls newest flinging addition whose largest asset is a wide-hooking curve ball ability, occasionally to lam the leather in a pinch to the great outdoors, gave the Spudders a three-run advantage today in the second round by whipping one of Oscar Tuero's latent heaves far over the left field fence with the bases loaded. Then in the seventh the engagement became a bit too warm for personal comfort, so he checked out of the picture, incidentally with that three-tally margin still hanging over Waco heads.

Brainard's bombarders acquitted themselves more or less nobly for that loss the day before by refrigerating early the series second, 9 to 6. But the Brainardian detachment did not stage all the bombardment that occurred in Waco's cozy little orchard this breezy afternoon.

The Pratt preserve is set up similar to the average duplex apartment's pantry, only there is no ceiling. A refreshing gale blew to port all afternoon. The Cubs made some lusty moves in the wrong place. They sent a quintet of homers soaring into the wind, with but one finding a runner on.

Breeze Wafts Them.

Stormy Davis lifted two ordinary pop flies to left and the gentle but exceedingly playful Zephyrs wafted them into the regions beyond. The Wacoans bulged forth with a couple of rallies shortly before supper time, but Suds Sutherland, a mighty mean man, ascended the hurling eminence and knocked over the entire Cubian batting order. Suds only inconvenience was a walk and a muft in right during the eighth. The temperamental Spudder athletes lazed through the exhibition, taking sultry pecks at Oscar just whenever they felt like it, almost invariably chasing over a counter when they did until the Cuban disappeared in the sixth at behest of a pinch hitter, who didn't hit the way he should have done, taking it from a Waco angle.

Roy Crumpler, the southpaw, gave the boys a little variety chunking in the seventh. They evidently didn't appreciate the change, for after two were out, five Spudders connected in succession for base bingles, scoring three runs before Lino Aguilar, the red righthander, was rushed to the rescue and Distel lined out to right center.

Homer in Opener.

Stormy's first four-base waft came in the opening canto. Lamb had got on for the Spudders, but was cut down at second just as Turgeon took his third strike. Washburn coaxed the Cuban for a walk at the start of the second. Fitzgerald hit to Mueller at first. The mulish one, in effort to cut Wash out at the keystone, chunked high to Lopez. Both runners were safe. Tuero celebrated the lax performance of his brethern by indulging in too many high balls with Distel at bat. His truant tosses put a runner on each cushion. Lapan popped to Boggess at third, and Estell followed with a candy clout, a roaring rip over the port wall.

Brainard hoisted one to the home run territory in the third and then Davis raised his second unorthodx four-base pop, an even more desultory aviation than his first that barely cleared the boards and had to have a timely shove by a gust of wind to carry across.

Distel opened the fourth by shooting a rocket across currents with just margin enough to clear the right center barrier. That blow put the tabulation at 6-2, Wichita Falls. Pratt's pelters made a couple of dirty waves in the sixth when Mueller lashed a liner to the railway thoroughfare that adjoins the port pasture for non-stop passage along with singles by McNamara and Wolgamot coupled with a slip of the finger at second. But the Mueller score was all they could garner. Goff, swinging for Tuero, hoisted out to Fitz nullifying the menace.

Turgeon, Bodie, Brainard, Washburn and Fitzgerald were the bopping boys who combed singles in row off Crumpler's portside delivery in the seventh for the final three Spud markers.

Still Talk About.

Boggess grounded out to short in the Cub half of the seventh and Pratt swished a sizzling slam over the left field boundary. Mueller followed with a rift to center and McNamara poled a homer Waco's fifth and the game's eighth, over the right field wall. Lopez singled to left. It was the goodnight closeup for Estell. Sutherland charged in and quelled the attack with suddeness and finally, Wolgamot and Augilar hoisting soft ones to Bodie in right. The remaining two innings don't count. Neither club menaced meaningly.

They're still standing around the corners down here talking about that encounter, a game in which the home team clouted 15 safeties including five homers and yet couldn't win.

Turgeon had the boys and girls, gasping for air, talking to themselves and wondering what it was all about in the fourth. With Wolgmot on first. Tureo hit an arching sort of a liner to the greensward a few feet from second. Pete chased over, got set, took the ball down around his ankles and dropped it purposely, recovered with precision and chunked to the keystone, forcing the wondering Wolgamot who had charged back for first. Distel launched a lurid throw to Washburn, doubling up on Oscar.

LATZO-WALKER BOUT TONIGHT

SCRANTON, Pa., May 19.—(AP) Pete Latzo, a quiet sturdy youth of 23, who has risen from mine boy to pugilistic prominence as a front rank welterweight contender makes his second bid for the world's title tomorrow night against Mickey Walker, smiling, rugged king of the 147-pound division.

Three years ago Latzo gave Walker, newly crowned champion, a fierce battle for 12 rounds in Newark, N. J., losing the newspaper decision. He has gone up the scale rapidly since, wading through welterweight ranks in impressive fashion.

BOSTON, May 19.—(AP)—Hal Wiltse lost his first home pitching assignment when Chicago fell on the Sox twirler in the fourth inning and scored seven runs. The White Sox opened the series here with a 9 to 7 victory. Lyons was hit heavily, but spectacular catches by the Chicago outfield, particularly by Mostil, helped him over the rough spots. Score:

Babe Hits Pair

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Four home runs, including two by Babe Ruth, figured in the Yankees' 6 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Browns in the opener of a series today. It was the eighth straight triumph for the New Yorkers. Ruth's 13th home run of the season off Zachary with Koenig and Gehrig on base in the third inning settled the game. He annexed his 14th off Ballou in the eighth. Meusel and Combs were the other home run hitters. The Yankees have now hade 35 homers in 31 games. Score:

Bam Exceeds Record

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Babe Ruth today passed his record home run pace of 1921, when he hit 59 circuit drives, by clouting two more round trip hits today—his thirteenth and fourteenth of the season—Ruth shot ten days ahead of his mark of five years ago. He had made only twelve homers on May 19, 1921.

Ruth's thirteenth homer was made against Pitcher Zachary of St. Louis in the third inning today with two runners on the paths, of the St. Louis team. His second came in the eighth, the first ball tossed to him by Pitcher Ballou. Both drives traveled on a line into the right field bleachers.

Pitcher Lupher of the Texhoma club has been offered a contract by the Oklahoma City club of the Western league, but it was rejected until next year. Lupher told them if their bargain was still open next year he would consider it.

Lupher's work against the Fredepick club last Sunday was excellent and he looked promising to the Oklahoma City scout. After Howell had been pounded heavily, Lupher was sent in with the bases choked. He pulled out and then let the Boosters down with two scattered hits and no runs.

The newly formed Indepenent league has been going at a fast clip of late and have been playing some fast baseball. The Munden Cyclers seem to be having everything their own way in this race and have captured both of the games they have played.

From the looks of the hitting, the Twilight league pitchers will have a hard time with this bunch on the play offs at the end of the year. They have several men who can hit hard and regular.

Johnnie O'Neal has slapped out six hits in eight times at bat and looks good for a lot more. Tank Horton, Red Belcher, Polly Woods and several others in the league have also been hitting well.

The American Refinery club has signed Reed Pace for the utility infield position. Pace is a good infielder and a sweet hitter and is expected to come through with the Eagles in grand style.

This year's Twilight league race has been a tight ono and one that all fans have been watching closely. Five of the six teams in the race have been up in the fight and are by no means out of the running.

This is one of the closest races in the history of the league.

The Security National Bank team got off to a slow start in the race and was dropping games left and right for a while, but they have taken a sudden brace behind the pitching of Gabe Harris and are now climbing for the top.

In batting they have been weak until very recently, but they have now uncorked a batting spree that bades ill for all their opponents. Montgomery and Thurman have always been two good hitters but up until lately they have been doing very little at bat.

Sunday this pair broke loose and started on a batting spree that had all the rest of the teams following them. The slants of Bill Andree and Eddie Kollman were hit hard and timely throughout the two games played. If this pair can keep up their hitting and the rest hit their stride the team will be hard to stop.

Speer Registers Second Victory For Bank Team

Water Boys Taste Defeat Second Time at Hands Or Hurler

Jethro Speer won his second game in the Twilight league and also his second win over the Water Department team Wednesday afternoon when the Security Bank continued their winning ways and downed the Water nine, 8 to 5.

Speer allowed but six hits, but four of these were bunched in the second and seventh innings for the five runs.

Dixon and Montgomery led the hitting attack of the bankers while Leslie led the hitters with the Water nine. All three of them getting two hits each.

Walker, Shipley and Montgomery slapped two baggers. Montgomery also starred in the field. Montgomery's catch of Polly Woods' line drive in the third inning was pure robbery. The ball was so hot that Montgomery got rid of it with a hard bang against the ground and much rubbing of the hand.

Eleven errors were chalked up by the two teams, six by the Water Department and five by the bankers.

Reds Tighten Hold

CINCINNATI, May 19.—(AP)—Cincinnati took a firmer hold on first place today by setting Brooklyn back 5 to 1 in a game featured by Donohue's remarkable pitching. The Dodgers collected but two hits and scored their only run in the second without a hit when Donohue walked three men. Picinich's homer in the eighth with two on cinched the game for the Reds.

Duo Is Stingy With Hits and Texhoma Wins

Marshall And Clinkerman Hold Refiners to Five Scattered Hits

ELECTRA, May 19.—Marshall and Clinkerman held the Waggoner Refinery team to five hits and six runs here this afternoon, and Texhoma captured the game 12 to 6.

Whitesides, Texhoma first sacker, led the hitting attack with three hits in three times at the bat. Bordeaux struck out five Texhoma batters after relieving Delaune in the second inning and pitched good ball for the 2 2-3 innings that he was on the hill.

Victory For Santel Friday Night Will Mean Realization Long Cherished Dream

Heavy Grappler, Meeting All Comers, Often Sought Match With Champion, But To No Avail

BY BLONDY CROSS.

WACO, May 19.—A victory for Ad Santel, World's light heavyweight mat champion, in that finish match with Joe Stecher, the king of them all, Friday night at Wichita Falls in the Eleventh and Ohio arena will mean the realization of the popular Santel's fondest hopes.

Santel, smaller and lighter by many pounds than the average heavyweight, has striven for years with the dream of some day winning the world's heavyweight belt. He has come close to it and has defeated a majority of the world's toughest big fellows, but has never copped the championchip. In his younger days as a wrestler, Santel endeavored to get a match with Frank Gotch then world's champ, and, in fact, had drawn up an agreement to meet Gotch in San Fransisco. Four days before the proposed match and after a heavy advance ticket sale had been registered, Goach refused to go on.

Since that day, Santel has met them all. He tangled with Stecher twice. Lost once, but came back later to wage a struggling uphill battle to a headlock in two hours, the match being halted at the point, in possibly the greatest condition of his career, Santel goes after Stecher again Friday, in what no doubt will be his last opportunity two wrest the championship belt from the scissors exponent. A victory for Santel would mean a fortune for him. He declares confidence of winning.

Matty Matsuda and Dutch Mantell, the welterweight favorites in Wichita Falls express belief Ad will win this time.

Says Mantell in characteristic manner, "You just naturally can't beat these Dutchmen." Other promoters have tried to buy the match. Tom Law of Wichita, Kansas, offered the Wichita Falls wrestling association a cold $1,000.

I have at hand a telegram from a Lew Cutler, from Oklahoma City sent Matchemaker Ross and forwarded to me. It reads: "Would like to have the Stecher-Santel match in Oklahoma City. Have been trying to make that match for several months. Will pay you $500 and 25 per cent of the net if you allow me to put it on here."

DUKE AND RYAN TO MEET AGAIN

Will Provide Feature Of Monday Night's Fight Card Here

Harry "Dago" Ryan, speedy Dallas ex-newsboy, who lost a doubtful decision to Duke Trammel last week will be given another shot at his ancient enemy Monday night in a return match of 10 rounds, the feature event of the American Legion weekly boxing card.

Ryan had no alibi whatever for the reverse verdict he received in the last scrap, although a great number of fans present hooted the judge's opinion and argued that Ryan should have been returned the winner. "Dago" did not go back to Dallas, but instead remained in this city in order to be in the best condition on Monday next. In their last meeting the Dallasite seemed to tire toward the end of the contest and looked as though he could use the week's training to a good advantage.

The match last week proved a thriller from beginning to end, being the first in several weeks that created enough interest to have the spectators on their feet, first for one battler, then for the other. With another week of hard training, Ryan should wage an even harder fight, whereas "Sockem" Duke will always have that devastating right hand with which he expects to repeat his victory over Ryan. A strong supporting card will be announced Friday.

My, What Hitting!

BEAUMONT, May 19.—(AP)—The Exporters loosed their heavy bats today, driving 23 hits to the outfield and over the fence for a 112-4 victory over the league leading Steers. Schuman was sent to the showers in the third and Conley finished while safeties rained all over the premises. Woeber's twelfth home run of the year was Dallas' second hit of the game, coming in the second. Riley hit for the circuit with the bases empty. Reagan, Oliver, Brown and Robertson divided 14 hits equally, the four getting eight extra base knocks. Fillingim pitched an excellent game, easing up perceptibly when his mates presented him a big lead early in the game. Score:

Sports Beat Buffs

HOUSTON, May 19.—(AP)—A parade of Houston pitchers failed to still the noise of Shreveport bats here today and the Sports evened the series by winning 10 to 7. Joe Bonowitz, by hitting safely in each of his five trips to the plate, has an unbroken string of six consecutive blows. Homer Peel, with a double and two triples, led the Buff attack. Chick Taylor robbed Peel of another extra base blow with a leaping catch against the left field fence.

Handsome Georges Winds Up Training

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—A picturesque figure in pugilism for almost two decades, Georges Carpentier of France, today shadow boxed through the last workout of a long training grind which he hopes will put him back on the light heavyweight throne.

Although the popular orchid man has seen only 32 summers flit past, his appearance in Madison Square Garden ring Friday night for a 10-round battle with Eddie Huffman of California will mark the opening of his 19th season as a boxer. His long ring campaign has left few marks on one of the finest physiques of pugilism—Carpentier still is considered one of the handsomest men in the game and a pugilist whose prestige has been shaken only slightly by his knockouts.

Ragged Fielding Aids Bears, Going Strong, To Beat Him

SAN ANTONIO, May 19.—(AP)—Joe Klein's pinch hit for three bases in the eighth inning started a Bear rally which overtook a two-run lead and gave San Antonio the second game of the Fort Worth series today, 8 to 3. Until the eighth Walter Betts, former Philadelphia National leaguer, had held the Bears to four hits, while the Cats bunched three hits off Frank Watt to give them two runs.

Ed Konetchy started the Cat scoring in the third when he brought in Eddie Moore with a three bagger. The Bears tied the score in the seventh when Segrist opened with a single and scored as Orsatti went to second on a wild pitch. Two singles, a sacrifice and a double gave the Cats two runs and the lead in the eighth. Following Klein's pinch hit, Flashkamper singled and Najo walked, Segrist's double to left, coupled with an error by Smith and Wirt's sacrifice fly gave the Bears four runs and the game.

WINNING HORSE PAYS 50-1

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Louisville developed an extra feature through the wagers today when Panic paid over 50 to 1 in capturing the sixth race at six furlongs. In Bounds was second and May Fair third. The time was 1:12 3-5.

The carded star event at Louisville went to King Nadi which won handily with Arcady second, and the favorite, Lee Occotner, third. The six furlongs were covered in 1:02 3-5.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, May 19.—(AP)—The cotton market was moderately active today but it was also a two-sided affair, the advances and declines about offsetting each other. At the start the tone was firmer and prices advanced 16 to 20 points in the early trading owing to favorable Liverpool cables and early advices of considerable rain in the belt. The advance was sustained for a long time owing to the confirmation of the rains by the weather map and by a fairly bullish weekly weather report which emphasized the backwardness of the crop in the Atlantic coast states owing to droughty conditions. Later the market turned easy owing to an official forecast for fair weather in the western and central belts and showers in the east where needed most, and most of the early gain was lost. The market closed at the lowest showing net gains for the day of only two to five points.

At the start Liverpool was eight to 14 points lower than due and first trades here showed gains of 16 to 18 points. October later gained two points additional, trading up to 17.28 or 20 points net higher. The other months did not better the opening, trading at 17.65 for July and 17.26 for December.

The market started to react in earnest after the issue of the official forecast for fair weather for the western belt and showers for the eastern belt and the downward tendency persisted for the rest of the day with occasional small rallies until near the close July traded down to 17.51, October to 17.12 and December to 17.11, or 14 to 16 points down from the highs. The market closed at the bottom.

Exports for the day totaled 18,833 bales.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—An opening advance in the cotton market was followed by reactions today. Unfavorable features in weather and crop news failed materially to stimulate demand and after selling up to 17.63, October reacted to 17.55 under liquidation or realizing by recent buyers. October closed at 17.57, the general market closing steady at net advances of four to 10 points.

The opening was firm at an advance of nine to 14 points in response to reports of rains in the southwest. These reports also were a factor in Liverpool which made a relatively firm showing, and prices here soon showed net advances of 11 to 15 points, July selling at 18.30 and December at 17.60. Slight buying developed on unfavorable features in the weekly report of the weather bureau, referring more particularly to the complaints of low night temperatures and the statement that boll weevils and other insects were becoming active in south Texas. Demand was comparatively light, however, and the market met realizing at the advance which turned prices a shade easier. There also may have been a little local selling during the afternoon on a better official western belt forecast than expected. Export for realizing, there was very little pressure against the market, offerings being wel enough taken to steady prices around 18.17 for July and 17.47 for October. The close was a few points up from the lowest on covering.

Private cables said the Texas rain news had been followed by trade calling and continental buying in Liverpool and that the Manchester cloth trade was receiving more encouraging reports from China.

Exports today 18,833, making 7,334,163 so far this season. Port receipts 10,237. U. S. port stocks 888,282.

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Speculators for the decline continued in control of the price movement in today's stock market. With the industrial average down to within 2 points of the low levels established in the March and April declines stronger desistance to selling pressure was apparent, particularly in the motor group which is believed to harbor a large short interest. Total sales today were 927,000 shares, or 64,000 below those of yesterday.

The day's business news was largely constructive in character. The weekly steel trade reviews reported that the demand for steel in the first half of May was better than the corresponding period last month. Freight car loading for the week ended May 8 were nearly 13,500 above those of the corresponding week last year. The Sinclair Oil company reported net earnings for the first four months of $9,-310,000 compared with $5,169,000 in the same period last year.

One of the most interesting financial developments of the day was the announcement of an issue of $154,000,000 additional common stock of the American Telegraph and Telephone company, making it the first "billion dollar corporation" in the country.

The attacks of bear traders today centered largely on high priced industrial specialties. American Brake Shoe and Foundry broke over 8 points to 110 and then rallied to 113⅝. Foundation company was driven down 7 points to 85, as compared with a high of 179⅝ earlier in the year, but snapped back to 88⅛. American Radiator broke 5 points to 101¼, but made up more than half its loss. U. S. Cast Iron Pipe dropped 5½ points to 150 and then rallied a point. All established new low records for the year.

Oils displayed a firm undertone despite some selling inspired by reports of increased crude production. Panhandle Producers and Refiners and Lago again touched new highs.

Rumors that Hudson directors would declare a special dividend distribution tomorrow brought about active short covering in that stock, which closed over 2 points higher at 59¼.

Rails were sluggish despite the continuance of heavy freight traffic, and predictions of unusually favorable April earnings, particularly by the hard coal carriers. Up to April 1, 1926, Class 1 railroads authorized the expenditure of $822,-000,000 for new rolling stock and other improvements, according to statistics made public at the spring meeting of the American Railway association.

Banks called about $10,000,00 in loans during the day, but there were plenty of funds available. Call money held at 3½ per cent all day, but it was available in the "outside market" at 3¼. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

A moderate recovery in the European paper currencies featured the irregular foreign exchange markets. Demand sterling was slightly easier just below $4.86. French francs rallied over 10 points from yesterday's low to 2.85 cents and Belgian francs sold above 2.90 cents. Italian lire also made further recovery of aboue 12 points to 3.90 cents. The Scandinavian currencies were easy.

Altus Bulldogs To Lose Star Athletes

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, May 19.—The Bulldog athletic teams will receive a straggling blow such as was never received before this week when some of the best who have represented the blue and white in several years will be graduated from the Altus senior high school.

Reid, captain and fullback for the gridsters; Bailey, end; Rooker, halfback; Cross, guard; Avery, tackle; and Wooldridge, halfback, will be missing from the squad next fall.

Andersen and Bailey will be missing from the caging squad, after playing exceptionally well on this year's quintet.

Reid and Anderson, who form the entire track squad will depart from the school this week.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW.

CHICAGO, May 19.—(AP)—Pronounced weakness in the market for new crop deliveries of wheat developed today toward the last. Optimistic advices in regard to the approaching harvest of winter wheat in the southwest was largely responsible. May wheat, however, held firm. Closing quotations on wheat were irregular, varying from one cent net decline to 1¼c gain, with corn ⅛c to ⅝c off, oats ⅛ to 1c down and provisions unchanged to 17c up.

Corn and oats gave way with wheat. Both the feed grains sold within a fraction of the lowest figures on the crop. Moisture where needed gave some advantage to the selling side.

Highest quotations this season in the big market put firmness into provisions.

Studebaker Pledge to the Public on Used Car Sales

1 All used cars offered to the public shall be honestly represented.

If a car is suitable only for a mechanic who can rebuild it, or for some one who expects only a few months' rough usage on a camping trip, it must be sold on that basis. Each car must be sold for just what it is.

2 All Studebaker automobiles which are sold as CERTIFIED CARS have been properly reconditioned, and carry a 30-day guarantee for replacement of defective parts and free service on adjustments.

This is possible because tremendous reserve mileage has been built into every Studebaker, which it is impossible to exhaust in years.

3 Every used car is conspicuously marked with its price in plain figures, and that price, just as the price of our new cars, is rigidly maintained.

The public can deal in confidence and safety only with the dealer whose policy is "one price only—the same price to all." For to sell cars on this basis, every one of them must be honestly priced to begin with.

4 Every purchaser of a used car may drive it for five days and then, if not satisfied for any reason, turn it back and apply the money paid as a credit on the purchase of any other car in stock—new or used.

It is assumed, of course, that the car has not been smashed up by collision or other accident in the meantime.

Our fine used cars are sold at the lowest time-payment rates in the industry. Only a small down payment necessary to secure one of these attractive values. See them today!

Medicine Park To Be Public Ground Again This Year

Special to The Record News.

LAWTON, Okla., May 19.—Contrary to prevailing opinions, Medicine Park, the Wichita mountain summer resort in Oklahoma, will not be closed to the public this summer. Announcement to this effect has been made by the board of directors of the park, which will be formally opened Saturday, May 29.

Only the hotel on the grounds will be reserved exclusively for use of the club members, all other concessions—swimming pool, dance and dining pavillions, private cottages, etc., being available for the public as has been the case formerly.

The hotel has been improved and a third story added and it will be maintained only for members of the Medicine Park club.

Preparations have been made for a banner summer, officials state.

SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS

R. W. Rhymes was adjudged guilty of automobile theft and a sentence of two years and a half in the state penitentiary assessed him by a jury in the 89th district court Wednesday afternoon.

The alleged theft occurred on October 8 at Electra, Rhymes in company with T. J. Cossey, according to the indictments, stealing a car belonging to F. W. Williams.

INVITE MAYOR TO TALK

Mayor R. E. Shepherd has been invited to make the commencement address before the graduating class of the Devol high school at that city on Friday night. Mr. Shepherd stated Wednesday that he had accepted the invitation, and would talk along the lines of "Education and Business."

SUSPECT HELD

A man believed by city police to be wanted in El Reno, Okla., where he is alleged to have broken jail following assessment of a two-year sentence for car theft has been arrested here and will be turned over to the El Reno sheriff upon his arrival, it was stated Wednesday by Chief of Police George Hodgins.

CASES ARE SET

Settings in the 89th district court for today include cases against C. R. Fulche, charged with forgery on two counts, and against Sam Francis, charged with swindling on two counts.

The case of the state versus D. L. Tipton, charging driving a car while intoxicated, has been reset for June 1, it was announced Wednesday from the district attorney's office.

FILE LIQUOR CHARGES

Charges of possession of liquor for purpose of sale were filed late Wednesday afternoon naming W. E. Primm, following his arrest by Constable W. R. Bradford in an automobile with two gallons of whiskey.

Oral Jones, cashier of the City National Bank has been placed on the program of the convention of the Panhandle Bankers association to be held at Amarillo on June 7 and 8, it is announced. The subject assigned Mr. Jones is "A Few Scattering Remarks."

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Ross and their two small daughters have been called to Madill, Okla., to attend the funeral of Arnold's McKenzie, Mrs. Ross's brother, who was drowned there Tuesday morning.

Canada has much building activity except in the Martime Provinces where heavy snows have held back operations.

Veterans Of Gray Will Carry On As Ranks Are Thinned

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 19.—(AP)—Bivouacked on the soil of a state that cradled the Confederacy, one fifth of the living remnant of the southern army responded happily to "taps" tonight after all thought of disbanding the United Confederate Veterans had been dissipated.

The Confederacy, represented by Lee's men will carry on. No official action was taken, or was necessary after General W. B. Freeman, commander in chief had sounded the tocsin of war on all proposals in his annual address.

The militant address of the commander was the high spot in the first day's proceedings. With all the fire of his youthful, active military days, General Freeman told his compatriots that the Confederate army would never be disbanded—not as long as there were two men left able to get together.

Allred Is Invited To Address Meeting

James V. Allred, Wichita Falls attorney who is making the race to succeed Dan Moody as Texas' attorney general has been invited to speak before the annual convention of the League of Texas Municipalities to be held at Corpus Christi, on May 25, and will probably accept the invitation, it was announced Wednesday.

Mr. Allred spent Wednesday in Santonio but will be back in north Texas Friday night to deliver the commencement address before the graduating class of his old high school at Bowie it is announced.

OFFICE BOYS STRIKE

CHICAGO, May 19.—(AP)—Brought up believing in the American tradition that office boys become corporation presidents, ten youthful employes of the Illinois Central railroad freight department are on strike over promotion demands. Several of the boys have been employed several months, others had been on the job only two weeks.

MISSED HER KISS

OKEMOS, Mich., May 19.—(AP)—Rev. William J. Carlow's departure from home here without kissing his wife good-bye prompted her to file charges of non-support against him, she said. The complaint is expected to be withdrawn, for the minister is back home and reconciled with his wife.

RIVALS OF SALOONS

PARIS, May 19.—(AP)—Movies are keeping French workmen away from the saloons. The pictures and improved housings, thinks Professor Lalde of the Academy of Medicine, are doing more than anything else to decrease alcoholism in the country.

RADIO DEAFNESS

LONDON, May 19.—(AP)—Many persons are suffering from radio deafness because they listen in many hours without removing the ear phones. An ear specialist advises the use of loud speakers.

SAVES HER BEANS

DETROIT, May 19.—(AP)—When the circuit court jury on which Mrs. Nina B. Smith was serving resumed after luncheon she remembered she had left a pot of beans on the fire. The judge excused her and the court went on with the trial for 50 minutes without her. The beans were saved.

Brides of England are wearing wreaths of brightly colored spring flowers instead of orange blossoms.

Appeal Is Costly To One Prisoner; Fine Is Increased

Appeal of a $10 fine in the city's corporation court for vagrancy to the county court at law proved costly Wednesday to Tommy Blackwell, who drew from the higher tribunal a conviction and a fine of $75 and costs on the same charge. The fine and costs amount to more than $100.

A large number of criminal and misdemeanor cases have been heard before the county court at law this week, the results being as follows:

W. E. Fowler, 30 days in jail for unlawfully carrying a pistol, and a fine of $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

J. W. Armstrong and R. V. Armstrong of Electra both pleaded guilty to chicken theft on two counts each and were each assessed two six-months sentences in the county jail to run concurrently.

Joe Young and Willie Wardell pleaded guilty to theft under the value of $50 and received a day in jail and court costs.

Sam Francis plead guilty to unlawful wearing of the emblem of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and was fined $1 and mosts.

Booker T. Rusher was fined $1 and costs on a plea of guilty to gaming, appealed from city court.

C. H. Fraley was tried before a jury on a charge of theft of gasoline and received a penalty of 30 days in jail, a $50 fine, and court costs.

Three bonds were forfeited, Ed Francis and J. M. Ricks, both charged with chicken theft and under $250 bonds, and Earnest M. Thompson, charged with slander and under a $500 bond.

Start New School

Actual construction work was started Wednesday on the new ward school building to be erected in Country Club Estates. Building operations will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

An attractive site for the building was donated recently to the school board by the Hamilton-Martin Investment company, owners and developers of the new sub-division, and plans have been made for a large school.

SUNDAY SCHOOL GROWS

Grace M. E. Reports Remarkable Progress in Past Few Months

"The Sunday school of Grace Methodist church has enjoyed the greatest growth in the history of the church within the past few weeks," Rev. Leslie Miller, pastor of Grace Methodist church, said yesterday. Recently the attendance reached 343, and more than 300 are in attendance each Sunday, he said, in comparison with the former attendance of 225 to 250.

School Trustees To Sell Bonds In Meeting Tuesday

Trustees of Wichita county school districts six, seven and eight, will meet in the office of county superintendent Burr Bryant at three o'clock on next Tuesday afternoon, May 23 for the purpose of receiving bids for the sale of $70,000 worth of school bonds voted in the last three weeks, it was announced Wednesday.

Bids will be received at that time and the sale contract let, Mr. Bryant stated Wednesday, subject of course to refusal of the bonds by the state board of education, which has the power to buy them if it will, and subsequent approval by the office of the attorney general.

The bonds are of three issues, Valley View district having voted a $20,000 issue to buil. a new brick school building. Pleasant Valley district seven having voted $10,000 for the same purpose, and City View district 8 having authorized a $20,000 issue.

Set $1,000 Bond

A preliminary hearing was held before Justice of the Peace R. V. Guinn Wednesday for O. L. Lunsford, charged upon a complaint filed by L. E. Bates, department of justice agent, with interstate transportation of a stolen automobile from Oklahoma to Texas. Bates was remanded to the county jail following the hearing with his bond set at $1,000. He was arrested by city officers several days ago. The preliminary hearing was held before Justice of the Peace Guinn due to the absence from the city of United States Commissioner J. A. Lantz.

WYMAN FUNERAL.

The funeral for Emily La Vene Wyman, 1-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wyman was held from the chapel of Hines Mortuary Wednesday at 1 o'clock with Rev. R. G. Percival, assistant pastor of Floral Heights Methodist church, conducting the funeral. Burial was in Riverside. The child died Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock at the residence, 1503 Seventh street.

BUILDING PERMITS

Building permits issuance this week has to date totalled $232,175, figures announced Wednesday afternoon by city clerk W. E. McBroom indicated. The total represents 24 items.

The largest single item Wednesday was represented by a permit for a business house to be built at 609 Indiana by Welch, Morgan and Parker at a cost of about $11,000.

Gold bandit earrings, choker beads and gold curb bracelets are being worn by faddish dressers in Biarritz.

City's 8,000 School Pupils Winding Up Class Work For Year

EXAMINATIONS ARE CONCLUDED

Final Events of Term To Be Finished by Next Friday

School is almost out.

The 8,000 or more youngsters in the city's public school system heaved sighs of relief Wednesday, which really marked the end of a strenuous year. Seniors of the high school and college have been free all week; examinations in elementary grades and lower classes of the high school and college were finished Wednesday and every one dismissed until Friday when grades will be given out.

Teachers in the various schools will be busy Thursday finishing up reports, grading and recording grades.

Opera at Bowie.

Bowie school has planned an operetta to be given at the school Friday morning by the students, and following the closing exercises, a picnic prepared and sponsored by the Parent Teacher association of the school will be held.

The operetta, "The Return of Spring," will be presented by the following pupils:

Snowflakes, Ora Delle Hagemann, Hazel Nicholson, Frances Wright, Mary Joe Ogden, Genieve Brooks, Dorothy Baumgardner; Sunbeams, Veda Wyatt, Agnes McAfee, Lucille Dunn, Nellie Barrett, Lorene Fogle, Marie Webb; Raindrops, Evelyn Stearns, Ara Belle Wooten, Vera Ford, Thelma Turner, Nadine McShan, Beatrice Glenn; Caterpillars, J. F. Craven, Bonnie Brooks, Ruty Wright, Butterfly: Birds, Josephine Martin, Myrtle McGallion, Irene Finnell; Flowers, Violet, Ifon Callahan; daffodil, Thelma Cadwell; Jack-in-the Pulpit, Robert Lee Baumgardner; Hyacinth, Della Oliver; Tulip, Hazel Baker; boys and girls, Harry Baumgardner, Wilton Hagemann, Harold Bartell, Oneil White, Willie Dell Owens, Fannie Bettes, Mayzell Knight.

Readings will be given by Ruby Neil Brooks, including "When the Minister Comes to Tea;" and "When the Teacher Gets Cross."

Report Cards Friday.

Report cards will be given at the Bowie school at 9 o'clock Friday morning, the principal, Edward Walker, announced yesterday.

Other schools are planning to give out reports cards at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, with some of the schools having short programs.

Crockett Wins Piano.

Crockett school will have a brief entertainment Friday afternoon in the auditorium of the school, when the new piano won by the school in a contest sponsored by the Wichita Music company will be displayed. The piano was delivered at the school Wednesday.

The Parent Teachers association will entertain the teachers of the San Jacinto school at lunch Thursday according to announcement from the principal, R. A. Jarrott.

Water Problems Of City Discussed

The water filtration plant for the city of Wichita Falls is of an obsolete type, inadequate for the water users of the city, and is located on a spot too small to allow for expansion, was the opinion of L. D. Matter, of the International Filter Plant of Chicago in an address to a joint meeting of the Lions and Optimits clubs at the Kemp Wednesday at the noon luncheon.

Mr. Matter, who has been to this city on numerous occasions to make inspections for industrial concerns, made a survey of the present water situation and at the request of P. B. Curd, public utilities commissioner, and Mayor R. E. Shepherd, spoke to the joint meeting of the clubs concerning his findings.

"You have a filtration plant with a nomal capacity of five million gallons with a reserve for a twelve hour period. When this plant was designed it was ample to meet the requirements of the city in its normal capacity. You have passed through this plant at times eleven million gallons. You have a clear water well of one and one-half million gallons and a three-hour storage plant should your plant get out of commission," he said.

Mr. Matter suggested as a remedy for the situation a new plant, one which may be adequate for present needs and planned so that units may be added year after year to meet the requirements.

Solon Featherston, president of the Optimists club, asked that all Optimists be present for the next meeting to consider plans for the Boys' home. Judge J. S. Dickey of the Lions club announced that the Lions were expecting to have 100 per cent attendance at the meeting next week. Reports from delegates to the state Lions convention at Houston will be given.

Hail And Rain In Hamlin Territory

HAMLIN, May 19.—One residence was slightly damaged and considerable loss was occasioned in crops by high wind and hail in a storm that swept this section late Tuesday night. The hail beat down several farmers' crops west of the city but it was not spread over a wide area.

An unusually severe rain amounting to two inches fell after the hail. It was accompanied by a violent electrical display.

HASKELL COUNTY WHEAT CROP IS NOW ASSURED

HASKELL, May 19.—A slight electrical disturbance, accompanied by an all night rain, visited this section late Tuesday night. The Haskell county wheat crop has been assured by the rain, farmers report, and prospects were never better for bumper production.

POOL TO OPEN

Opening of the municipa swimming pool on Seventh street will be made Monday, May 24, according to Charles Bunnenberg, park superintendent. Playground equipment for the season has been installed in this and other parks and play grounds of the city.

C. C. Frazee, director of recreation, has begun his work for the summer and is making plans for the summer work to begin Monday.

W. D. Rowland, of the land department of the Superior Oil Producing company has returned to Wichita Falls from Brownwood, where he has been the past few months in the interest of his company.

Confirmation a Challenge and a Dedication, Phillips Declares In Address to Class at Temple

Rabbi Points Out Value and Import of The Confirmation Ceremony, Saying It Gives to The Class a Priceless Heritage

Confirmation is a challenge to self-dedication and self-sacrifice to the faith and ideals of the Jewish race, Rabbi Samuel Phillips of Temple Israel told members of the confirmation class of the temple in his address to them at the confirmation period Tuesday night. He pointed out that every confirmant should be instilled with new courage, vigor and self-respect and the confirmation should reveal that the heritage of the class was a priceless one.

Rabbi Phillips' address in full was as follows:

"We are told that when our forefathers assembled at the feet of Mt. Sinai to receive the Ten Commandments they so rejoiced that they exclaimed "we shall obey and hear," pledging themselves to obey even before knowing what it was that they were asked to obey. Even so have we Jews, all through the ages, been saying first "na'aseh." "We shall do" and then "V'Nishma—we shall hear." By birth, we become heirs of the Jewish heritage, the Torah. As we are trained to speak our mother tongue, so we are taught to observe Jewish customs and to repeat exalted truths even before our minds are ripe enough to understand them. Some never outgrow the tendency of being Jews by birth only. Their religion therefore, is a blind unreasoning feeling, which fails to stand the test in times of trouble or doubt.

Mus Understand.

"You, who are confirmed tonight, must try to hear and understand the commands of your religion, and learn to appreciate its beautiful teachings, in order to permit your heritage to take deep root in your hearts. You must become Jews by choice as well as by birth.

"In your work at Temple Israel Sabbath school, you learned to understand the history of Israel, to glory in the fiery words of the prophets and to love the soul music of our psalmists. Though much remains to be learned about your religion, you have gathered enough knowledge to realize that your faith has been the light of the world, the glory of all nations.

"You have come to know that yours is a priceless heritage. The world now stands in greatest need of its spirit, to heal the wounds inflicted by greed and hatred; and to guide humanity out of darkness into the light of God.

Should Be Proud.

"The challenge to you is to realize that confirmation means self-dedication and self-sacrifice to our faith and its ideals. Everyone of you should always be proud of his sacred and glorious heritage.

"Every confirmant should be instilled with new courage, vigor and self-respect to follow the injunction of this great poet:

"To thine own self be true,
And it must follow as the
Night the day, thou canst
Not then be false to any man."

"Confirmation can open your eyes to the beauty and powers of your faith. It is not enough to be a Jew by race, you must accept the fundamentals of its historic religion; a belief in God, in the existence and immortality of the soul, and in freedom of will.

"The instruction of the confirmation class room will be re-inforced by your own experience in maturity; you may be tormented by doubt and despair during the years of storm and stress before you "find yourselves." Your philosophy of life and your career; yet we bid you remember that the only pathway out of doubt is through it. Skepticism is only a half-way house, wherein you may sojourn for a moment, but beyond which we must pass to the haven of faith at the end of the road. If you but preserve the open-mind, broad tolerance and sympathetic understanding, the sheer force of your own personal experience, whether joyful or sorrowful, will unfold an answer to the riddles of faith and the mysteries of human life.

"Lastly, you are challenged not merely to the people and the faith, but to the institutions and symbols of Israel.

Ritual Has Place.

"During the preparation for your reception into the Jewish household you have submitted to the discipline of observance and ceremony. You must not find those tiresome and obnoxious in the years to come, for ritual has a rightful place in religion, even as it plays a significant role in communal, fraternal, military and national institutions. Too often the conflict between parents and children in the home is intensified by disagreement over ritual. You must turn your hearts to your parents, for your elders are only too ready to go more than half-way to meet you.

The house will be sanctified, the synagogue service enriched, and the community inspired, if new meaning is poured into interpretation of those symbols which have given Judaism its historic beauty and potency.

To the Jewish people, faith and life confirmation summons you. At this turning point in your lives, you, children of this year's confirmation class, solemnly pledge yourselves to be forever faithful to the God of our fathers, to love Him and worship Him with all your hearts, and to live up to the best of your ability to the precepts of Judaism, and to labor with all your might in behalf of humanity.

"May the Lord help you in your desire to be of service to mankind.

Amen."

GRACE M. E. MEN PLAN DINNER

Banquet to Be Held At Church Thursday Evening

The first banquet and get-to-gether meeting of the Men's Bible class of Grace Methodist church will be held Thursday evening beginning at 7:45 o'clock at the church dining room, according to the pastor, Rev. Leslie Miller. The program arranged for the occasion has the following numbers:

Service Means Good Business

No higher ethical principle governs industry, and at the same time no rule is more easily applied, than that business should be conducted at a goodly margin of profit and should serve its clients and the public well.

Service does not dwarf profits, but ennobles the giver that he may better enjoy his financial rewards.

CANTON TO MEET

Regular Session to be Held Thursday Night at Lodge Hall.

The Wichita Canton I. O. O. F. will meet in their regular session Thursday night, several members from Burkburnett having indicated that they will be present. A good turnout of the members here is desired.

All members are urged to be in uniform and with swords. Practice will take up some of the time and plans for the Odd Fellows Memorial service to take place at an early date will be discussed.

One marriage license was issued Wednesday at the county clerk's office, this going to O. N. Oechsner and Elsie Hess.

Scraps of News

Miss Minnie Dell Davis, teacher of Alamo school, who has been ill at her home in Haskell, has returned for the closing of the public schools.

The faculty of the Alamo school will be entertained at noon Thursday at the cafeteria, according to the principal, J. E. Park. Mrs. Ada Adams is manager of the cafeteria.

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes have returned from Memphis, Tenn., where they attended the general conference of Mthodist churches.

Miss Lucile Aynesworth, instructor in Austin school, is ill in the General hospital and reported doing nicely.

Mrs. D. B. King who is recovering from a major operation at a local hospital has been removed to her home on Ninth where she is reported to be improving.

Mrs. B. M. Bullard is reported ill in the General hospital.

Dr. J. C. A. Guest who is ill in the Clinic-hospital is reported improving.

Mrs. H. W. Conn who is recovering from a recent operation at a local hospital was removed to her home Wednesday and was reported to be improving.

Seniors Keep Busy

Seniors of the Wichita Falls Junior college and high school are making hay while the sun shines—in other words, they are enjoying to the utmost the week of fun planned for them before graduation Friday night.

Thursday under the provision made by Evan Harris and Vernon McGee, college students, the senior college class enjoyed an all day picnic Thursday. That was nothing on the high school graduates though, for they enjoyed an all day picnic on the Fisher farm as the guests of Miss Thelma Fisher, one of the honor graduates. Following the picnic, a treasure hunt which lasted far into the night completed Thursday's calendar.

Events for today for the classes include: college students, a gypsy party given by Marie Beaty; high school senior, morning swim; hayride at 5 o'clock; costume, "tacky" theater party, evening.

KING FUNERAL WEDNESDAY.

The funeral for Mrs. Mary King, 32, wife of R. W. King of 308 Adams street, who died at a local hospital Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, was held Wednesday afternoon from the chapel of the Merkle Undertaking company with burial following in Rosemont. Dr. Walter J. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church, was in charge of the service.

Besides her husband, she is survived by five children.

SCHOOL HONOR PUPILS NAMED

Oscar Powers and Norene Reasor Win High Points Here

Honor students among the graduating classes of the high school and Junior college were announced Wednesday as follows: First place among the boys in high school, Oscar Powers; first place for girls, Evelyn Hardeman. For the students making the honor roll in the high school, having made an average of 90 per cent or more, during the senior year in high school are:

Weldon Carter, Ford Chauncey, Morine Clark, Fred Couper, Thelma Fisher, Marguerite Gerhardt, Evelyn Hardeman, Oscar Powers and Paul Sonnamker.

College Honor Students.

Morene Reaser of the senior class of Junior college made the highest average of the class among the girls. Vernon McGee made highest honors among the boys.

Students of Junior college who made an average of "A" for their senior year or an average of "B" during their two years of college work are included on the honor roll as follows: Thelma Adams, Robert Cummips, Ruth Frank, Evan Harris, Dephney Hendrix, Ellen Hooker, Johnnie Jobe, Inez Kemmerly, Vernon McGee, Kathleen Melat, Agnes Morton, Ethyle Myers, Edna Prechel, Norene Reaser, Elizabeth Wright.

An offer of a Wheary trunk was made by P. B. M. company to the high school graduate who made the highest percentage in his work during the year and has been granted to Oscar Powers.

Tied For First

A quartet from the junior high school graduating class has tied for the first place in the history contest conducted by Miss Johnnie Morgan, head of the history department who last year announced the award would be given annually. Ruth Bruce, George Bays, Walter Cline and Joline Woods have tie for first place. A re-check of work done by these students in the seventh grade was made, and each averaged 95 in history during the year.

Board To Meet

A regular meeting of the Municipal Welfare board will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the chamber of commerce, according to the secretary, Mrs. Kathleen Gorsline. The chairman, Mayor R. E. Shepherd has asked that all welfare workers meet with the board in order that they may become better acquainted with the work and discuss plans for work in the future.

Mother With Two Gold Stars Sheds Tears At Theatre

A "Gold Star" mother sat in a seat close to the stage at the Majestic theatre at the Wednesday matinee performance of "What Price Glory?"

The mother is doubly a member of the gold star fraternity for she lost two sons in the war.

"What Price Glory?" is a war play, a damnation of war, written by a captain of the U. S. marines at Chateau Thierry where he lost a leg.

After the show, the "Gold Star" mother with a tear in her eye, sought the manager of the play.

"It was just like me being in France myself when my two boys were dragged in from No Man's land to die," she said.

"When the lieutenant came in bearing on his shoulder the wounded man, I felt as though someone were bringing in one of my boys. When the young soldier pleaded with his captain to stop the flow of blood, it seemed as though it were my own son calling to me to stop the blood just as he had done hundreds of times when a youngster and had cut his finger.

"It is the greatest thing I have ever seen, and every mother who had a son in battle should see the play."

Awarded Cup

Paul Cain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Cain, was awarded the loving cup and the state medal for the best essay submitted from junior high school or a high school of less than 300 students, in the commencement exercises at junior high school Wednesday morning. The cup and medals were won in the Interscholastic league contests. The loving cup will be kept at the school for the next year.

MRS. YOUNG ENTERTAINS

At the joint meeting of the Lions and Optimists clubs at noon Wednesday at the Kemp hotel entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Lloyd Young who gave an interesting reading, "The Major's Story." Two solos, "Little Mother of Mine," and "Mother Machree," were sung by E. F. Bohmfalk, educational director of the First Methodist church, south, with Mrs. Bohmfalk at the piano.
