McNamara Ends Tour; Lauds Military Progress

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, winding up his eighth visit to Viet Nam, said tonight the rate of progress in military operations during the past year "has exceeded our expectations."

He told newsmen he sees nothing that would indicate a substantial change in the rate of those military operations or deployment of U.S. forces here in the months ahead.

McNamara talked with newsmen after a four-day tour in which he inspected American military centers from the Saigon area to the rugged Marine battlefront on the edge of the demilitarized zone blanketing he border between the two Viet Nams.

U.S. B52 bombers pounded the zone again today, hammering at Communist troops and war supplies massed there in violation of the 1954 Geneva treaty.

Only small ground actions were reported, but U.S. airmen gave North Viet Nam and the Viet Cong no respite from bombing attacks. Three American planes were reported shot down, one in the North and two in the South.

McNamara, wearing khaki uniform-type shirts and pants during his visits to the field, said "military operations have progressed very satisfactorily during the past year."

Pressure on the Viet Cong has been greater than anticipated, he said. He explained that this pressure referred to casualties dealt to the enemy and their supplies, and their effect on Communist morale.

"Progress in the South Vietnamese economy has been more than we would have forecast a year ago," he added.

McNamara noted the effect on the economy of an influx of military forces and aid. He said the government of South Viet Nam had shown great political courage in devaluing the Vietnamese currency last June and that inflation has been stemmed.

The defense secretary said the South Vietnamese program of pacification, which now goes under the name of revolutionary development, has proved sound. He said the leadership of this program is able but progress "has been slow indeed."

McNamara lauded the "individual and collective" actions of U.S. forces serving in Viet Nam.

"I never come here without being impressed by the morale and performance of U.S. troops," he said.

"I saw nothing indicating substantial changes in the rate of operations or the deployment of U.S. forces in the months ahead," the secretary said.

Undersecretary of State Nicholas Katzenbach, the former attorney general who accompanied McNamara, said his visit has given him a "much better picture of the situation here."

He also praised the performance of American servicemen and said he was "moved by the determination of the South Vietnamese to see this thing through."

The deployment of U.S. forces to Viet Nam edged up toward the 370,000 to 400,000 expected by the end of the year. The U.S. command announced that, as of last Saturday, U.S. servicemen here totaled 324,000. Four thousand more troops of the 4th Infantry Division arrived Wednesday, boosting the rolls to 328,000.

Enlisted men and most of the officers are serving one-year hitches in Viet Nam. The U.S. command emphasized last Saturday, in requesting certain staff and advisory officers to stay on for up to two years, that enlisted men would not be called on to extend their terms.

5 Dyess Crewmen Die In Plane Crash

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — A troop carrier plane from Dyess Air Force Base here crashed and burned in a brushy pasture Wednesday night, and five of the six cewmen were killed.

A passing trucker, Carroll Brazee of Aspermont, pulled the lone survivor from the wreckage on the 6666 Ranch 75 miles northwest of Abliilene. The injured airman was reported in critical condition.

Sheriff E. W. Hollar of Guthrie, nine miles north of where the C130 Hercules transport went down in King County, said persons reaching the scene first found two bodies.

A ground party from Dyess located the other three dead in a search through mesquite brush so thick it was difficult to force a path from U.S. 83.

The fuselage and tail section lay near the center of a burned area about 50 by 200 yards.

"It looked like the whole country was afire when we got there," said Hollar, explaining that scattered parts of the craft burned along a half - mile stretch.

Residents said the fiery explosion as the transport struck was visible 37 miles north in Paduch.

Authorities said the deaths were the first in the 516th Troop Carrier Wing since it was formed at Dyess in 1958.

The base identified the survivor as A.3.C. Gary D. Steer, 22, McPherson, Kan., one of two loadmasters aboard.

The base said the dead are: Lt. Col. Robert E. Johnson, 44, the pilot, survived by his widow and four children at the base, and his mother, Mrs. Sara L. Johnson, Denver, Colo.

Maj. James O. Ashcraft, 48, the co-pilot, survived by his widow and two children at the base.

First Lt. Karl M. Klein, 28, the navigator, survived by his widow and two children at the base and his mother, Mrs. Margaret E. Klein of San Antonio, Tex.

Staff Sgt. John A. Brace, 29, flight mechanic, survived by his widow and four children at the base, and his father, Robert R. Brace, Corpus Christi, Tex.

A.3.C. Douglas G. Kouba, 19, the other loadmaster, survived by his widow of the base and his father, Otto P. Kouba, Rutherford, N.J.

Johnson Stumps For Democratic Congress

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — President Johnson, campaigning in Delaware after voicing an antibacklash plea in Brooklyn, N.Y. said today the nation could "falter and fall back and fail" if too many Republicans are elected in November.

Johnson, in remarks prepared for an outdoor rally here, said the Nov. 8 balloting will be fateful.

"Vote for the minority party — and we could falter and fall back and fail. Vote to return a strong Democratic Congress."

The President pictured the Democratic party as fulfilling its campaign promises in education, aid for the aged, antipoverty efforts, and attempts to build a lasting peace.

Johnson noted at the outset of his speech that in four days he will be leaving for a 17-day tour of Southeast Asia, including the four-day seven-nation conference in Manila, which will review the Viet Nam war and the outlook for peace.

"This reflects the administration's willingness to go the last mile to search for the first faint sign of an end to hostilities," the President said.

He came to Delaware on behalf of Rep. Harris B. McDowell Jr., who is seeking re-election to the House, and James M. Tunnell Jr., running for the Senate against Republican incumbent J. Caleb Boggs.

Johnson said he has secured congressional approval for his efforts to keep America strong, to honor the nation's commitments, and to prove in Viet Nam "that aggression does not pay."

He said American fighting men in Viet Nam "face another day of testing. They do not shrink from this responsibility because they know that America keeps her promises."

Johnson said America has promises to keep at home too, "promises to children who need education, promises to the poor who need hope, promises to the old who need comfort."

Urging his audience to vote Democratic, Johnson said:

"Vote to return a Democratic Congress and fulfill these promises.

"I believe I know your choice. I believe it will be the right one."

He said that in the 67 months the nation has been headed by President John F. Kennedy and himself, personal income went up 21 percent and "the money people have to spend and to save increased approximately ten times as much under the Democrats."

Reds Charge US Officers With Theft

MOSCOW (AP) — Two young former lieutenants in the U.S. Army have been arrested on a charge of stealing an antique statue of a bear from a Leningrad hotel, the U.S. Embassy reported today.

The two are being held in Leningrad for investigation under part of the Soviet criminal code that provides for up to six years imprisonment on conviction.

The embassy identified them as Buel Wortham of North little Rock, Ark., and Craddock Gilmour of Montclair, N.J.

Gilmour's parents live in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The two Americans were arrested Oct. 1 at the Finnish border as they were driving out of the Soviet Union. An embassy spokesman said the bear "was allegedly discovered in their effects during customs examination."

The charge against them was defined by the embassy as aggravated theft. The section of the Soviet criminal code involved refers to theft "by a group of persons in accordance with a preliminary agreement."

An embassy consular officer, Harlan Moen, visited them in Leningrad Tuesday.

He found them well but they said their terms of confinement were trying. They have been separated in solitary confinement cells.

The investigating officer told Moen that he would look into arranging for the two men to have contact with English-speaking persons.

SCURRY ANIMAL IS CHAMPION

DALLAS — A January pig owned by C. W. Howell of Snyder was named Junior Champion Boar at the Pan-American Livestock Exposition at the State Fair of Texas.

The Howell entry, "Silver Bird," had placed first among January boar pigs to move into the judging for the championship.

Front Unloads Foot Of Rain

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More than a foot of rain descended in rural areas and a smaller cloudburst filled Beaumont streets with water Wednesday.

These deluges and light showers dotting Southeast and South Central Texas descended as a dying cool front was trying to thrust southward into the Gulf of Mexico.

Another mass of chilled air already was approaching the Texas Panhandle today with a promise of more moisture and dropping temperatures.

As much as 12.5 inches of rain poured down at Fannett, a rice farming community southwest of Beaumont. Growers said two-thirds of the rice crop had been harvested in that vicinity but there probably was damage to the remainder.

Beaumont measured 5.63 inches but there was no word of major damage. The rainfall lasted from midmorning to dusk.

Except for clear skies in West Texas, it was mostly cloudy over the state this morning and a good bit of early morning drizzle and fog overhung the state's north central and northeast sections.

Fog cut visibility to less than one mile at Texarkana and Lufkin after daylight. Fort Worth and Dallas were among such points with a mixture of drizzle and fog.

Moisture amounts at other points for the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. included Houston .55 inch, Palacios .38, Corpus Christi .24, Lufkin .22, Galveston .05, Victoria .04, and Austin and Longview .02.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 43 degrees at Dalhart up to 77 at Corpus Christi, Galveston and Laredo.

Presidio's 93 was the top mark in the state Wednesday and other highs scaled down to 75 at Beaumont.

Refrigerated air flowing southward as Wyoming and Colorado braced for heavy snows was due to surge into the Texas Panhandle by tonight, bringing scattered showers with its passage.

Lower temperatures were promised most of West and North Texas by Friday.

Bus Driver 'Blacks Out'

A Greyhound Bus en route from San Francisco to Dallas on a regularly scheduled run went out of control, but was stopped without major damage shortly before 11 a. m. today about 22 miles south of Snyder on U. S. 84.

Lloyd Harold Holt of Lubbock, driver of the bus, said he "blacked out" while coughing and when he regained his vision the bus already was in the median area between the two lanes of U. S. 84 traffic.

"All I could do then was to try to stop the bus without it turning over." the driver said.

Five persons went to hospitals, one to Snyder and four to Sweetwater. There appeared to be no serious or critical injuries among the passengers on the bus.

The mishap was investigated by Texas Highway Patrolman Harold Kornegay of Snyder and officers from the Nolan County Sheriff's Department.

One Million Stolen At Montreal Airport

MONTREAL (AP) — Possibly $1 million in cash was in 15 mail bags stolen from the mailroom at Montreal International Airport early today, a police spokesman said.

Police in suburban Dorval near the airport said the bars surrounding the mailroom were cut at about 5 a.m. while employe were elsewhere in the building for their lunch period.

They said the bags that were stolen contained bills of various denominations destined to be delivered to chartered banks in Montreal.

THE REV. WILLIAM N. PARKEY addresses United Fund Campaign Workers at kickoff session at the Snyder Country Club.

Drive Launched By United Fund

The Scurry County United Fund kicked off its 1966 campaign for financial support of six agencies Wednesday at a luncheon session at the Snyder Country Club.

The Rev. William N. Parkey, minister at the First Christian Church, was the speaker for the kickoff luncheon.

Following the luncheon division leaders and workers picked up copies of a trade immediate plans to launch solicitation work in the campaign.

The Scurry County United Fund is seeking a total of $27,500 in this year's campaign, the same goal as for last year's drive.

The funds will support local operations of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Scurry County Boys Club, the American Red Cross, the Salvation Army and the Texas United Fund. The [illegible] organization backs the USO.

Residents are being urged to contribute to this year's United Fund Campaign at the rate of one hour's pay for each month of the year.

George Patterson and the Rev. John Bollinger are co-chairmen of this year's campaign.

Machine May Be Cure For Cancer

By RICHARD R. KASISCHKE

LONDON (AP) — A group of British scientists is working on a new radiation machine, using neutral beams, which a spokesman said today "looks like a 50-50 bet" to cure cancer.

Scientists at the electronics research laboratory at Baldock in Hertfordshire, say they believe their idea will prove more effective than X rays in treating many forms of cancer.

James D. L. H. Wood, heading the project, said: "We cannot say definitely whether it will be a cure yet, but it looks like a 50-50 bet. It will take about three years to develop a neutron generating tube with the high-power output required."

The scientists expect to have a machine compact enough to install in an ordinary radiotherapy treatment room.

Wood said they are using nuclear reaction characteristics of hydrogen bombs to attack cancer with beams of high-energy neutrons. The beams are produced in a vacumn tube, part metal and part glass. The neutron generator will be encased in 14 inches of steel with a small opening for the neutron beam.

Wood said high-power output was needed so treatment could be cut to a few minutes, the maximum time tolerable to a conscious patient.

Stocks Hold Some Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—A turbulent stock market remained higher early this afternoon despite profit-taking. Trading was the week's heaviest.

The ticker tape ran late as stocks pushed their recovery drive into the fourth straight session.

Many early gains were either pared or canceled. Losses of fractions to a point were spotted among gains that ran as much as 3 points or higher among glamor issues.

The follow-through from Wednesday's rally was linked with hopes that this time the great stock market slide of 1966 had found a bottom. Analysts said, however, that last week's low would have to be "tested" before there would be any firm basis for such theory.

Wintry Storm Leaves Snow In Northwest

DENVER (AP) — The first wintry storm of the season hurled snow over a broad area in the West today.

It piled up 9 inches of snow in 6 hours in Grangeville, Idaho, and laid a 2 inch carpenting on Livingston, Mont.

Kosygin Labels Red China Obstacle To Red Cause

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Alexei N. Kosygin angrily charged today that Red China has prevented world communism from putting "a quick end" to U.S. military actions in Viet Nam.

He spoke at a Soviet-Polish friendship meeting in Sverdlovsk, in the Urals.

"Had American imperialism encountered the joint rebuff of all countries of socialism, their united policy, then it is doubtless that a quick end would have been put to its outrages in Viet Nam and the aggression would be cut short," he said:

"China's position has become a serious obstacle in the struggle for this sacred cause."

Kosygin was quoted by the official Soviet news agency Tass as saying Moscow was providing Hanoi with "considerable additional assistance" to meet "the needs created by the new phase of the American aggression."

"Military personnel for the armed forces of North Viet Nam are being trained in the Soviet Union," he said.

Kosygin made the speech during a visit to the Soviet Union by Polish Communist party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka and other Polish officials for talks on Viet Nam and Red China.

Kosygin accused Peking of rendering "a big service to American imperialists, to all the enemies of socialism, to the enemies of peace and progress."

Summarizing part of Kosygin's speech, Tass reported:

"The Soviet prime minister said the events in China associated with the so-called 'great cultural revolution,' and other recent developments indicated that the Chinese leaders were proceeding further and further along the road of division, and were causing serious damage by their policy to the struggle for socialism, for the freedom of the peoples, to the cause of peace and international security."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have met a remarkable man who does not believe in the delightful practice of kissing for the simple reason that it spreads germs. He is sincere and practices his belief to the fulest. How can a normal man resist the urge to kiss someone he cares deeply for? Surely there must be some temptation!

Or do you think this is a characteristic to be admired? A victory of intelligance over the emotions? Personally I would risk getting a few delicious germs, but he doesn't feel that way about it. What do you think? Sign this:

KISSABLE BUT UNKISSED

DEAR UNKISSED: I'm all for a clean relationship, but this is ridiculous. A kissless romance, as I see it, is not likely to hatch into anything as intimate as marriage, where it's share and share alike, germs included. So if that's what you had in mind, kiss this germ - conscious Romeo good-by. And be careful not to breathe on him.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law problem is different from any I have ever seen in your column. She can't do enough for me. When I call and invite her and dad here for dinner she says, "It's too much work for you — come here instead." And she won't take no for an answer. So we go, and she always sends us home loaded with tasty leftovers. She is constantly sending my husband and me gifts.

She sounds perfect, doesn't she? Well, she's far from it. On two occasions I've bought her gifts. She returned both of them and credited them to MY account. She's the most ungracious guest I have ever known.

When I finally got her to come over one afternoon, she sat with her coat on and stayed only a few minutes. She wouldn't even have a cup of tea because she didn't want to put me to any trouble. What on earth is wrong with her?

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: She means well, but she has never learned how to accept anything graciously. The burden of gratitude is too heavy for her to say "thank you." I doubt if she'll ever change. So try to understand her.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What do you thing of a mother who would entertain her sewing club by reading them the letters her son received from his girl friend? The son was away fighting a war at the time, and the girl friend happened to be MY DAUGHTER!

When I heard this, my blood just boiled. It was back in 1943, but every time I think about it I get upset all over again.

My daughter is married and I don't know what happened to the boy, but I still think that mother had her nerve. Every so often I get the strongest urge to call this woman up and give her a piece of my mind. Should I?

STILL MAD

DEAR STILL: No.

Rayburn White was a guest of Miss Susan Ivison and family over the weekend. Miss Ivison is a student of Lubbock Christian College.

OES Party Is Planned

Mildred Sparks, member of the Glad Tidings Committee, Grand Chapter of Texas Order of the Eastern Star, will be honored with a Halloween tacky party at Towle Park Barn, Saturday, Oct. 15 by members of the Snyder and Hermleigh chapters of the Order of The Eastern Star.

A contest style show will be held to select the "tackiest" person with a washer and dryer being given to the grand winner. All women are to wear veils while men are asked to wear masks. Prizes will be given to winners of other games, all in the flavor of Oct. 31.

To help defray the expenses of Grand Officer to Houston for the annual session of Grand Chapter, members are asked to bring an offering. Those wishing to attend may contact Eastern Star members.

WOMEN

Southern Development 20th Century Club Theme

Southern Development, featuring talks on "Florida's Newest College Experiments," North Carolina's School of Arts and "Stay South Young Man," was program theme of the Twentieth Century Club when they met Oct. 4 in the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. Frank Wilson as hostess.

"We are center stage for a dramatic scene in the story of our Southern States. There are unlimited opportunities now, not in the future, but now," Mrs. Guy Stoker said in part. Continuing on the topic of Stay South Young Man, she said "These opportunities are in finance, industry, education, medicine, recreation and communications. In fact, the nation's business is moving south."

In discussing Florida's newest College Experiments, Mrs. Idolph Crooks remarked, "Florida is fast building a reputation as a state that dares to experiment in education. These experiments could radically change the way classes are conducted throughout the South and the Nation. One of Florida's newest higher education experiments is taking place in Florida Atlantic University. This University is in its second year and has 2,400 students, and has as much TV equpment as any commercial station in the US. A student in this University may advance as rapidly as he desires. The University has been described as a center for learning rather than a facility for teaching."

Mrs. G. W. Hicks discussed North Carolina's School of the Arts saying "Dr. Vittorio Gianni, the school's president, explains the girls' "half-art-half academic schedule" this way, before, they were frustrated when they were sitting in class they wanted to be practicing their music or dancing. Here, after a morning of practice, they can concentrate on their school work without frustration. Their art is at the center. Dr. Louis Mennini, dean of music says this school gives us the chance to get at these talented young people early. By the time we finish with a high school student, for example, she will be further along in music than the best college seniors. The school of arts is a state sponsored school which seeks out and trains young people of potential professional talent in drama, dance and music."

SPORTSCUTTLE

If there ever was any doubt that the name of the game is "football" it should have been erased last weekend for followers of Southwest Conference teams.

A total of nine field goals went through the goal posts in games involving Southwest Conference teams, setting a new record. The Texas Longhorns were the "victims" of the most three - pointers, with Oklahoma scoring 12 of its 18 points on four boots. The Longhorns themselves contributed one field goal to the total.

The Tech - TCU game was all field goals as the Frogs took a 6-3 decision, and then there was comparable action in another part of the country as Georgia Tech slipped past Clemson by a similar margin and all of the points coming on field goals.

* * *

Although they haven't been going for the three - pointer on the scoreboard, the kicking game of the Snyder Tigers has been one of the bright spots. Frankie Grimmett, the junior end, has boomed some hefty and timely punts downfield for the Bengals, with only one mediocre production in five outings. So far, the punting record for the locals reads like this, game by game: Against Andrews, 4 for an average of 40 yards; Stamford, 3 for 45; Big Spring, 3 for 33; Kermit, 2 for 46.5; and Lamesa, 4 for 42.

* * *

Perhaps the most amazing offensive performance in the Southwest Conference belongs to the TCU Horned Frogs. The TCU record thus far is unusual because of its lack of touchdowns. The Frogs have averaged slightly over 271 yards per game, but have scored only two touchdowns.

* * *

Although Texas A&M's 35-14 victory over Texas Tech brought joy to the Aggie squad, none of the players got any consideration when they voted on the recipient of the game ball. The trophy wen to Loyd Taylor, assistant coach, who scouted the Red Raiders for Coach Gene Stallings. The Aggie players said they were well versed in everything the Red Raiders did all evening.

* * *

If the Lamesa Tornadoes have an individual who is greater than all the rest, there is no doubt about his identity. He is Steve Paxton, the speedy, uncanny linebacker, who is called by some area coaches the best they have ever seen.

* * *

Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes is credited with this statement: "You don't need any friends when you're winning." Lamesa Coach Donald Jay undoubtedly agrees. With a 34-6 lead and 25 seconds left to play in the game, Jay still had his No. 1 quarterback throwing for the downs, even going so far as to call time out in order to get off the play that tacked on the final 6-pointer against the Tigers last Friday night.

North Dakota State and North Dakota, one-two in The Associated Press' small-college football poll, each has one game remaining to play before their head-on meeting in Grand Forks, a week from Saturday.

North Dakota State, 5-0, faces Augustana, S.D., while North Dakota, unbeaten in four games, takes on South Dakota State this Saturday.

In the latest poll based on games through last weekend, North Dakota State received 159 points, including 100 for 10 first-place votes. The Bisons beat Montana State 35-23 last Saturday, dropping the Bobcats into seventh place in the rankings.

North Dakota climbed into the runner-up position after defeating South Dakota 31-17. Middle Tennessee and San Diego State advanced two places each, to third and fourth, respectively. A national panel of 17 sports writers and broadcasters participated in the balloting.

Sul Ross, Weber State, Montana State, Tennessee State, Arkansas State and Chattanooga complete the rankings in that order.

Can Floyd Hang Onto Vegas Lead?

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The $100,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament swung into the second round Thursday with several intriguing possibilities.

Could Ray Floyd, the first-round leader, hang onto it with his first round three - under-par 68?

Could the more celebrated Bill Casper, Jack Nicklaus or Arnold Palmer break par in quest of the $20,000 first prize?

Can Casper go on to win the event twice in a row?

Would the gusty desert winds continue?

So it was as play resumed over the par-36-35—71 Paradise Valley Country Club course and its 7,069 yards of golfing real estate.

The weatherman predicted winds of 25-30 miles per hour all day. The big breeze blew only the last part of the first round Wednesday.

Floyd, an early starter Wednesday, had no complaints. He had six birdies and three bogies in his first competition since the Cleveland Open in August.

National Open champion Casper had no argument with the weather in the first round but conceded he did not putt well as he shot a 37-36—73.

Nicklaus, the two-in-a-row Masters winner, was not hampered by the wind, he said, and his round of 36-35—71 included one bogey and one birdie.

Palmer shot 35-36—71 and blamed the wind for most of his troubles. On the third hole, he said, a chip shot blew laterally 20 feet into the stiff elements.

Beginning the second round, Mike Souchak and George Archer were one stroke behind Floyd, and tied at 70.

Mack Tells Pro Facts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tom Mack, rookie guard for the Los Angeles Rams, describes his first pro football start last week as a bruising experience.

The 6-foot-3, 245-pound Mack replaced the injured Don Chuy against Detroit, and played the entire game against Roger Brown, a 300-pound defensive tackle.

"The first thing I knew he slapped my helmet so hard it almost took off my head," Mack said Wednesday.

"The idea was to turn my head and throw me off balance," he added. "Then he would grab my shoulder on the same side and try to pull me out of the way. He must have slapped my helmet at least 20 times during the game and each slap felt like I'd been kicked in the head by a mule."

Mack said he stopped Brown with cut blocking — cutting Brown's legs from under him.

Mitchell Has NFL Honor

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Corner back Willie Mitchell of Kansas City considers any receiver he plays against to be the best in the American Football League.

Mitchell made Denver star Lionel Taylor look anything but good in Kansas City's 37-10 victory over the Broncos last Saturday night.

For his performance, Mitchell was named today as The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Week in the American Football League.

"This game, Lionel Taylor was the best receiver in the league as far as I was concerned," Mitchell said. "Next week Art Powell (of Oakland) will be the best in the league. This is the way I play. I'm out there to hit that man, hit him early and make him know I'm there and then keep on hitting them."

He held Taylor to three receptions for 22 yards, broke up four passes, made six tackles and assisted on two others.

One of the passes he knocked down was a long one to Taylor, and it forced Denver to kick a field goal. He also tackled Abner Haynes at the four-yard line and averted a touchdown. The Broncos had to go for a field goal, and it was blocked.

Bishop Forfeits Five

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Undefeated Bishop High School, ranked seventh in the state in Class AA, forfeited its five victories Wednesday after discovering a player had violated the 10-semester rule.

Bishop officials, after a check of the records, found the player transferred to Bishop four years ago and spent two years in the eighth grade.

Two conference victories were among those forfeited. Unbeaten Tuloso-Midway leads the district but must play Bishop.

AT LITTLE OLYMPICS

Reds Challenge U.S. Aquatic Supremacy

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The main confrontation between Russia and the United States in the Little Olympics comes this week on the diving boards.

"The Soviets came over determined to win the diving," said Harry Hainsworth, swimming director for the U.S. Amateur Athletic Union. "They are good and, if we aren't careful, they just might do it."

Swimming and diving began today at the Zacatenco Pool. The blue ribbon track and field competition doesn't start until next Tuesday.

Diving is an event which traditionally has been Uncle Sam's private property in the Olympics, but the Russians have come up fast in style off both the springboard and the platform.

Their chief hopes in the Little Olympics are Natalia Kusnetsova, a 19-year old student who won the women's platform title in the European Championships and Mikhail Safanov, Europe's springboard men's champion.

There are two other formidable girl divers — Vera Baklanova, winner of Europe's springboard event, and Alena Anohina, silver medalist in the 1964 Tokyo games.

The United States will depend upon a stout team of national champions.

Sue Gossick of Tarzana, Calif., finished fourth in the springboard at Tokyo. Shirley Teeples of Compton, Calif., is national platform champion and Joel O'Connell of Sunnyvale, Calif., won the U.S. crown off the one-meter board, not contested here.

Opposing Safanov in the men's diving will be Bernie Wrightson of Tucson, Ariz., U.S. outdoor champion in 1965, and Keith Russell of Mesa, Ariz., a last-minute replacement for the ailing Richard Gilbert of Lancaster, Pa.

The Russians have only one Olympic gold medalist on their track team-Romuald Klim, who threw the hammer 228-9½, but they will be represented with strong, promising youngsters in other events.

Klim's rival will be Ed Burke of Los Angeles, a member of the 1964 Olympic team.

The Americans will have Al Oerter, three-time Olympic champion, throwing the discus; Ralph Boston, world-record-setter in the broad jump; Bob Seargren, the 17-5½ pole vaulter, and world sprint champion Tommie Smith on its track and field squad.

Ford Shoots For First

CHARLOTTE (AP) — "Those Ford boys are hungry. It has been a long time between paychecks, and they're out for bread and butter."

That was the way one veteran stock car racing official summed it up Wednesday after ace drivers Fred Lorenzen and Gordon Johncock teamed in new Ford Fairlanes to win both front row spots for Sunday's National 500, a $75,000 event that normally doesn't claim the attention in the auto racing world that it is now getting.

"The word came down from Dearborn: Win at Charlotte and win big," said the track veteran. "They've got everything in their arsenal here and they're the people you've got to beat."

Other sources said Ford is trying to decide whether to campaign their Fairlane series cars with wedge-type engines next year, or whether to use their expensive single overhead cam engine which has been approved for the stock car tracks in 1967.

The National 500 and the American 500 at Rockingham Oct. 30, are said to be the testing grounds from which a decision will come later from Dearborn.

And, most sources believe, Chrysler Corp. is looking across the fence to see what Ford comes up with for next year before deciding its own future in the sport.

Lorenzen posted a six-mile average of 150.533 miles per hour to win the pole position and Johncock was clocked at 150.407 for the other front row spot. It will be the first time in two years that Fords have occupied both front row spots in a major race.

Rivalry Is Renewed

DALLAS (AP)—Prairie View and Wiley renew a 33-year-old rivalry next Monday when they clash in the 42nd annual State Fair Classic in the Cotton Bowl.

While Prairie View has dominated the series over the past eight years, Wiley is given a good chance of reversing the trend this year.

Prairie View, operating under a new coach, is rebuilding this season and already has suffered two losses. The Panthers' best showing was a 10-10 tie with Grambling Oct. 1. Wiley has lost to Texas Southern, Bishop and Alcorn.

This game has been going on at the State Fair for 42 years but Prairie View and Wiley have been in it only 33 times.

Gridiron Twinbill Set Tonight

A "doubleheader" is on tap at Junior High Stadium tonight as the Travis 8th and 9th grade football teams host Goliad Junior High School of Big Spring.

The 8th grade battle is set for 6 p.m., followed by a 7:30 p.m. kickoff for the 9th grade contest.

Also tonight, the "B" team of Snyder High School will be at Midland Lee for a 7:30 p.m. test while Lamar Junior High School's 9th grade team will be at San Angelo for a 7:30 p.m. encounter with Edison Junior High School.

The Lamar 8th grade waits until Saturday to go into action — in a 7 p.m. tilt at Sweetwater.

The Varsity Tigers host Levelland at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Tiger Stadium.

Area battles this week find Hermleigh playing host to Jayton, Hobbs entertaining Weinert, and Gail visiting Cotton Center in matches all slated for Friday night. Ira has an open date this week.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Jim Mooney, assistant pro at the Arizona Country Club, won the Southwest PGA golf championship Wednesday. He shot a final round 71 to finish the 54-hole tourney with a three-under-par 213.

SIXTY-SEVEN PREP ELEVENS UNBEATEN

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Texas schoolboy football race moves into virtual all-out conference play this week, with only six of the 96 districts of the four top divisions not getting into the fight for championships.

From Panhandle to Gulf and from the piney woods to the far west the schoolboys will be thinking of spots in the playoffs —and 67 of the teams will be trying to protect undefeated, untied records.

There will be some casualties although in only two instances do teams with perfect records meet each other.

Thirteen teams in Class AAAA and 14 in Class AAA will be playing teams already with sullied records but in Class AA, Mineola tangles with Chap Hill in a battle of the unbeaten and untied.

Class A also has a similar game — Rankin vs. Sonora — while Honey Grove clashes with Whitewright and Tahoka takes on Kress in fights between untied teams and those that have been tied.

There appears little danger of the top-rated teams taking tumbles except that in Class AAA, two of them meet each other. No. 7 San Marcos and No. 8 Lockhart clash at Lockhart in a game that counts in the district 3 standings.

San Angelo, heading up Class AAAA, plays Midland Lee and No. 2 Amarillo Tascosa engaged Amarillo Caprock while No. 3 Nederland rolls against Beaumont South Park.

McKiney, the No. 1 team in Class AAA, takes on Sulphur Springs in a conference struggle. Sweeney, No. 1 in Class AA, plays Boling, also a conference game, and Forney, the top team of Class A, gets Joshua in a district struggle in which Forney is expected to meet only passive resistance.

Robbie Shelton Sparks Rice Owls

By B. F. KELLUM

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—"He's too little to run over anybody. He just runs between folks."

That's the way one of Robby Shelton's coaches at Rice University describes the babyface sophomore quarterback who appears on his way to becoming a superstar.

Shelton, who stands only 5-9½ and weighs just 167 pounds, is the Southwest Conference's leading rusher with 296 yards on 51 carries, a 5.8 average.

This is even more amazing since Rice's three opponents were ranked in the top 10 in the nation when they played the Owls. Rice upset Louisiana State, lost to Tennessee and scared the daylights out of then second ranked UCLA before losing 24-27 on a field goal in the last seven seconds.

The Owls, generally picked for last place in the conference before the season started, begin league play Saturday against Southern Methodist. As has been the case all year, the Owls will be underdogs.

Shelton, who played high school football at Palacios, Tex., cannot see the bottom finish for the young Owls.

"I think we can win the conference...I really do," he said. "We've got a good team; if the breaks quit going the wrong way —we'll win."

Shelton scored the first touchdown against UCLA on a 12-yard sweep before the game was two minutes old. The Bruins never went ahead in the game until the 17-yard field goal won it for them in the last seconds.

"I didn't even know I scored," Shelton said. "I thought I was on the one-yard line."

Shelton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shelton of Palacios, were on hand and received an extra thrill when Robby's older brother, tailback Terry Shelton, scored Rice's last touchdown on a one-yard plunge.

Robby apparently has installed the fighting spirit in the Owls this year and Allen Davis, Robby's freshman coach, thinks he knows why.

"I'll tell you why," Davis said. "He's not fast but he is a heckuva dodger. He's not a holler guy leader. He just takes the team and runs it."

Jess Neely, beginning his 27th and last season as Rice's head coach, calls Shelton "a little wonder—a real operator."

Shelton will be 20 years old Oct. 20, two days before the Rice-Texas game. The Longhorns also have a sophomore quarterback in Bill Bradley who has been billed as a super star.

Bradley has been sidelined by a knee injury but is expected to play in the Rice game.

Rice fans believe they have their own super star in Shelton. So far he has given them no reason to think otherwise.

Financing Is Problem For Social Security Benefits

By EDMOND LE BRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's proposal to increase Social Security benefits by some $2.2 billion a year has revived talk that some source besides the payroll tax on employers and employes must be found to help finance the massive old age, disability retirement and health care system.

The obvious candidate is the general treasury.

Dipping into the treasury for any substantial part of Social Security funds would be almost unprecedented. With minor exceptions, the programs have been financed throughout their 30-year life by a payroll tax levied in equal proportion on employers and employes.

But there is a growing feeling that there is a limit on the amount of tax that payrolls can bear without provoking both business and general voter resistance. And the Social Security Administration is on record as recognizing and even sharing this feeling to some extent.

The tax, increased sharply when medicare was instituted, now is 4.2 per cent each on employer and employe. It is calculated on each worker's wages up to $6,600, a maximum tax of $277.20 on each. On Jan. 1 the rate goes up to 4.4 per cent and then by stages to 5.65 per cent by 1987.

Moreover, while the law does not now provide it, it is taken for granted that the wage base in time will be increased, too.

Payrolls also are taxed, on a scale varying from state to state, to pay for the unemployment compensation system. This tax is on the employer only.

Those who argue against further payroll tax increases have more to their case than understandable reluctance to be tapped. They say the Social Security payroll tax is a regressive tax: a man who earns no more than $6,600 pays it on his full income, while one who earns more pays on only a portion.

Last May 11, in testimony not much noted at the time, Social Security Commissioner Robert M. Ball told a Senate-House Economic subcommittee that the administration was studying Social Security benefit increases but that the problem of financing them was "the big inhibiting factor."

He went on, "We have come to a place where further increases in the contribution rates run into increasing resistance." Personally, I believe that they could be somewhat higher than they are. But how much is a question.

"I would like to take the opportunity to say that we will also give, and are giving, serious consideration to whether the Social Security system might in part also have a general revenue contribution which has a generally more progressive base than the present method of financing, and perhaps a combination of present financing and general revenues would be better."

Administration sources have estimated that about three-quarters of the proposed $2.2 billion additional benefits could be financed by present Social Security revenues — an estimate promptly challenged by Republicans.

But even if it proves accurate, there would remain more than $500 million to be financed. It would not be surprising if Social Security officials, and many members of Congress, were to ponder whether this is perhaps the time to shift some of the burden to the general revenues.

A Junior Editors Quiz About ANCIENT GLASS

QUESTION: Why were glass objects so valuable in ancient Egypt?

• • •

ANSWER: Glass is sand, with some other ingredients, heated to a point where it melts and fuses into a hard, transparent substance. We use a great many glass objects. They [illegible] to blow molten glass into [illegible] to press it into moulds or to cast it in various [illegible] when glass was first discovered by the Egyptians or Syrians by 3000 B.C. or before, they did not understand the ways of handling it. Glass objects were built up by laborious methods: a bar of iron would be made, around which a shape of clay and mud would be constructed. A core of hot glass, often a brilliant blue because of impurities, would then be worked around the clay. Around this would be coiled differently-colored threads of molten glass, which could be pulled up and down by delicate wires, producing a rich zig-zag effect. Small jars and vases, such as we illustrate, were made in this way to hold the unguents and perfumes of the few high born ladies who could afford to own them. These glass objects were few in number and highly sought after, hence exceedingly valuable. After glass blowing was invented in 300 B.C., glass objects became much more common.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the picture, with the ancient glass bright blue or green. 10-13

Mind Turns To Things Left Undone

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Autumn turns the mind to things undone, goals unwon.

No matter how fruitful the harvest, there are some berries that failed to ripen or that you failed to pick.

For example, here is one man who has never—

Climbed a molehill or the Matterhorn.

Wing-walked on an airplane aloft.

Beat the bass drum in a St. Patrick's Day parade.

Run down an ascending department store escalator.

Put down a native rebellion.

Had a new variety of rose or cauliflower named in my honor.

Passed the barbecue sauce to Lyndon B. Johnson.

Asked for a press pass on a trip to the moon.

Attended the launching of a submarine or the opening of a new delicatessen.

Sat in Gypsy Rose Lee's lap.

Learned to drive a tractor or a covered wagon.

Been able to sell one of my daughter's kindergarten paintings to the Louvre.

Taken the cap off a beer bottle with my teeth.

Drunk martinis out of an office water cooler.

Made love to a girl listed in the Social Register — or the rogues' gallery.

Worn a beard, a beret, a monocle, or a pair of snowshoes.

Got in a fist fight with a jockey or a pistol duel with a midget.

Been bitten by a tarantula or stung by a scorpion.

Taken a leashed chihuahua for a walk, or cracked a whip over a dogsled team in the Arctic.

Had a whale of a time munching blubber in an Eskimo igloo.

Made a pilgrimage to either Mecca or Las Vegas.

Suffered insomnia in a bed that George Washington didn't sleep well in either.

Played poker with Harry Truman or gone on a truffles hunt with Charles de Gaulle.

Pulled up lame in an Olympic marathon race.

Imitated bird calls for profit on an Ed Sullivan television show.

Served as an undercover agent for the FBI, the CIA, or the P-TA.

Well, that's my catalog of unachieved ambitions.

Verdict Pending n Double Slaving

VERNON, Tex. (AP) — The bodies of Ebbie Joe Grainger, 33, and Mrs. Weldon Ogerly, 37, were found in the woman's home here Wednesday.

Each had been shot once in the head and a .32 caliber pistol was found near Grainger.

Officers said Grainger had been free on $6,000 bond after he was indicted in July for the shooting of Mrs. Ogerly's husband. Ogerly, who recovered from his wounds, was not at home when Wednesday's double shooting occurred.

An inquest verdict was pending.

City Hunts For Rapist-Strangler

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The most massive manhunt in the city's history is under way as authorities seek a rapist-strangler who struck Wednesday for the fourth time in 10 months.

In addition, this city of half-a-million persons is concerned about six other unsolved slayings — including the murders three weeks ago of a suburban couple and their small daughter.

City Manager William C. Wichman ordered Wednesday unlimited overtime on an emergency basis for the city's 950 policemen. He also pressed firemen into police duty.

The latest victim was Mrs. Alice Hochhausler, 51, wife of a surgeon and mother of nine children. Her body was found in the Hochhausler garage.

Police said Mrs. Hochhausler had gone to Good Samaritan Hospital Tuesday night to drive her daughter, Elizabeth, 22, home after she got off work. Mrs. Hochhausler had said she was afraid for her daughter, a nurse, who lives alone in an apartment, to be out at night by herself.

When Mrs. Hochhausler arrived back at her own home about midnight, she was attacked, police said.

Mrs. Hochhausler was raped and strangled with a cord from her bathrobe, which she had worn to the hospital, officials said. The body was discovered by her husband, Dr. Carl J. Hochhausler, who had gone to bed about 11 p.m. and did not know his wife was missing until he awoke Wednesday morning.

Firemen will join police in street-by-street visits, advising housewives in methods of self-protection and how to summon help when needed, Safety Director Henry Sandman said.

Like Mrs. Hochhausler, the other three victims of the strangler were in their 50s.

In addition to investigating the four stranglings, police are still seeking clues in the murders of Jerry Bricca, 28, his wife, Linda Jane, 24, and their daughter, Debbie, 4.

They were stabbed repeatedly and Mrs. Bricca was raped, in their suburban home. Their bodies were found Sept. 27. Bricca was a chemical engineer.

ALONE WITH HIS THOUGHTS — Charles H. Percy, a candidate for the U.S. Senate, provides this study during a civic club luncheon in Chicago. It was his first public appearance since the Sept. 18 slaying of his daughter Valerie, 21, in their home at Kenilworth, Ill., a Chicago suburb. He used a Biblical passage to explain his return to the campaign against Democrat Sen. Paul H. Douglas. "There is a time to be born, a time to die, a time to dance and a time to mourn, a time to keep silent and a time to speak. Now is the time to speak," he said. (AP Wirephoto)

No Next Of Kin At Soldier's Rites

WASHINGTON (AP) — For nine days the Army sought to locate any relatives of Spec. 4 John F. Barzan. Failing, it buried him last Friday, the first American victim of the Viet Nam war for whom no next of kin could be found.

The New York native, 40, was buried with simple military honors in the Long Island, N.Y., National Cemetery after the Army made what was described as an "administrative decision" on the rare case.

His mother, the only relative named in Barzan's service file, was last known to be in New York.

"We assumed that she would want him buried there, so we decided on the Long Island National Cemetery," a spokesman said.

If relatives come forward and want the remains interred elsewhere, the spokesman said, the government will arrange it.

Barzan, a bachlor, died of heat prostration Sept. 25 while on a work detail of his unit, the 117th Transport Company, near Cap Lai& South Viet Nam.

In its routine process of notifying next of kin of the dead, the Army sent a personal representative to the only address given for his mother, Margaret D. Barzan of 2461 Amsterdam Ave., N.Y.

She had moved in 1958, leaving no forwarding address.

The Army turned to its master enlistment files at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., and came up with an address of 3204 28th Ave., Astoria, N.Y.

This, too, proved negative.

All of Barzen's personal belongings, including letters, were searched in a vain attempt to locate relatives or perhaps friends who could be of help.

On Oct. 4 the search was dropped. Barzan's remains were flown to Dover Air Force Base, Del., the eastern arrival point for bodies of military men. On Oct. 7, the remains were shipped to the national cemetery.

Completes AF Course

OKLAHOMA CITY — First Lieutenant Thomas R. Heard, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hart, live on Rt. 1, Hermleigh, Tex., has completed specialized pilot training at Tinker AFB, Okla., in the U. S. Air Force's newest jet transport, the C-141 Starlifter.

Lieutenant Heard is being assigned to McChord AFB, Wash. He is a member of the Military Airlift Command which employs the giant cargo-troop carrier in the global airlift of U. S. military forces and equipment.

The lieutenant is a graduate of Snyder High School. He received his B. A. degree in history in 1964 from the University of Texas and was commissioned there upon completion of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program. Lieutenant Heard is a member of Scabbard and Blade.

Panel Eyes West Texas Pollution

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — An engineer for a West Texas water district warned Wednesday that his area would soon be in "serious trouble" unless salt water from oil well operations is reduced.

Mel Coltharp, pollution engineer for the West Central Texas Municipal Water district, issued the statement at a session of a special legislative committee at Abilene.

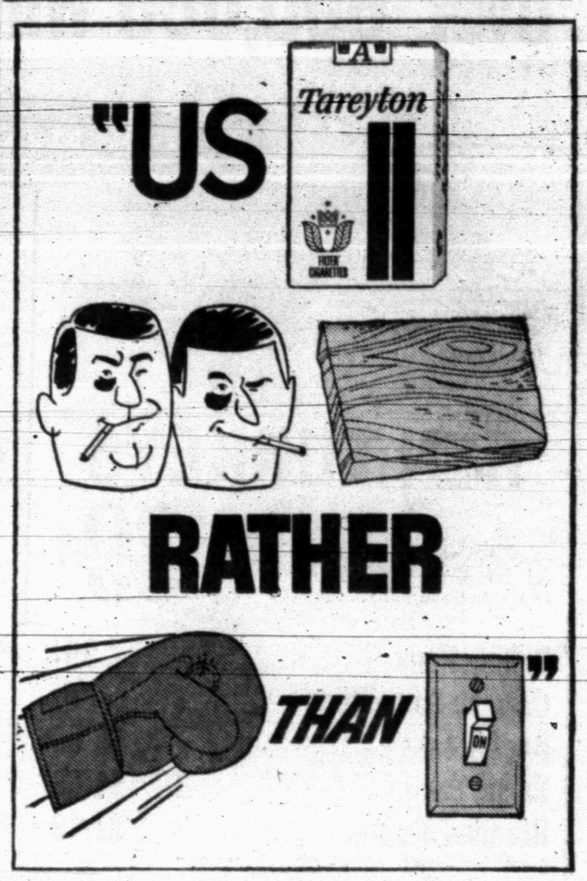
Testimony dealing with pollution from feed lot operations was to begin today.

The Texas Railroad Commission now has the authority to control salt water pollution from oil wells.

Representatives of some oil firms said the commission is doing a good job with the problem.

But some ranchers and spokesmen for the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association implied that the commission ought to use more stringent controls.

In all, 31 persons testified before the committee, headed by State Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo.



LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — A lady from Arizona has written asking about Taxco. She wants to know the best way to get there, what you find in Taxco and something about hotels. Sort of general information.

Well, you have to go by automobile or bus. If you are traveling in your own car, you have a choice. You can go by way of Toluca and Ixtapan de la Sal (sort of the back way) and see some interesting country. Or you can just get on the toll road going south on Insurgentes and go by way of Cuernavaca. Some people make the circuit as a round trip — one way down and the other way back — if they have time.

Taxco is about 5,600 feet altitude and has a spring - like climate most of the year. The name was taken from the Aztec language word "Tlachco" which means "place of the ball game." But I do not see where anyone could play ball. The little city is all up and down, built on the sides of rugged mountains. It was founded by the Spaniards in 1529 and is important as the silver capital of Mexico. Be sure to visit all the silver shops around the main plaza and the adjoining streets. You can watch the artisans at work and get a first hand view of the industry. Visit the Santa Prisca Church built in the 18th Century by Jose de la Borda, a miner who became fabulously wealthy in Taxco. I'd suggest you pick up a guide and have him show you the works. The convent of San Bernadino, the church of La Veronica, the home of de la Borda and the Humboldt house which still preserves its original colonial style. Market day is on Sunday. There are three hotels you would possibly be interested in. The Hotel de la Borda, The Victoria and the Real de Taxco. It is well worth the trip.

What game is found in Tampico area and when is hunting season?

You find in this region wildcat, mountain lion, alligator, deer, wild boar and smaller animals and birds. Mountain lion and wildcat season are open the year around. Wild boar is open — runs from October 15 to January 31. Likewise with deer which is hunted from September 1 to October 31. The alligator, I believe, has no season. Always open. Most of the birds are hunted in the fall and early winter.

Information on State Fair of Aguascalientes?

Sad thing but that runs from April 25th to May 5th so you've had it this year. However, make your plans for next year. It's a showy affair. Goes on day and night, they have serenades, dancing, cock fights, bullfights and fireworks. The city is famous for its tableware, blouses, carpets and delicately embroidered items. You also find brightly striped sarapes called "Saltillo sarapes" which are made here. But they also make the same type in Saltillo.

When is market day in Oaxaca?

Saturdays. And here you find the interesting pottery, black and some that is multi - colored and glazed. This is the chief item. You also find brightly colored blankets and shawls, knives and machetes and blocks and blocks of fruits and vegetables that make wonderful color pictures.

Inventive Americans Keep US Patent Office Swamped

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans are the most inventive people in the world and they've got the U.S. Patent Office swirling in acres of paper.

The end of American inventiveness isn't in sight but the Patent Office already has taken steps to ease its paper crush — by ordering the installation of a $2 million microfilm system for patent documents.

A record 66,586 patents were issued during the fiscal year which ended June 30 — the vast majority of them to Americans — and the figure this year is expected to exceed 70,000.

That's a far cry from the Patent Office's first year of operation when only three were issued — the first on July 31, 1790, to Samuel Hopkins of Pittsford, Vt., for an improvement in "the making of pot ash and pearl ash by a new apparatus and process."

Since 1836 when the current numbering system began, the office has issued 3,278,942 patent numbers — the latest Tuesday to Hoel L. Bowditch of Foxboro, Mass., for an invention called "industrial chart recorder with special inking pen."

One problem still nagging the Patent Office, in addition to the acres of documents it must keep on file, is the time it takes to process patent applications, which are being filed at a rate approaching 100,000 yearly. The average time has been reduced from 3½ to 2½ years with a goal of 18 months by 1970.

The office figures its inventories of patent copies cover more than two acres of storage space. It receives more than 25,000 orders daily for these copies from business, industrial, scientific and technical sources throughout the world.

The new microfilm system, scheduled to go into operation in June 1968, will relieve much of this paper burden and even save the taxpayers about $500,000 annually, the office says.

The system will produce, on order, a printed paper copy of an individual patent and make available for public inspection microfilm files of patents arranged by subject matter.

Plan Siege On Ghettoes

HENDERSON, Tex. (AP)—A "sphere of development" agreement between cities and small towns would reduce the "swollen ghettoes" of Dallas and Houston, the regional director of anti-poverty program said Wednesday.

Such an arrangement would be held generally to eliminate poverty in all of East Texas, Bill Crook said on a tour of poverty pockets.

"Cities like Houston and Dallas should have learned by now from the experience of Eastern cities, that bigness cannot be equated with progress and success. If these cities can be persuaded to stop thinking in terms of city limits, and think instead in terms of zones of influence which would embrace the rural areas and small towns within a radius of 100 or more miles, the benefits could be legion," Crook said.

Prisoners Sing Their Way Out Of Jail

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP) — Thirty-three prisoners sang their way out of jail.

Brought before Police Judge William Colson Wednesday, the prisoners — some wearing paper party hats — burst into the strains of "Happy Birthday."

Later, Mayor Kenneth Schmied passed out cake to the prisoners who had been arrested on drunkenness charges.

Finally, they were called before Colson, who dismissed the charges because Wednesday was his 47th birthday.

Jurors Hard To Find In Gambling Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — General Sessions Judge Charles W. Halleck went through two jury panels of 48 persons Wednesday and could find only 10 persons who said they had never played a game of chance.

So Halleck had to put off a gambling case for a month, when a new group of prospective jurors will be available.

Wonder If Romeo Deserves A Memorial?

VERONA, Italy (AP) — A statue of Juliet, a statue of Romeo, or one of each? Or does either deserve a memorial?

The questions are being debated in this town made famous by Shakespeare. The tourist office likes the debate, though it is backing the idea of a statue for Juliet as a lure to more tourists. Her tomb here attracts 150,000 a year.

Critics of the statue for Juliet complain that Verona already has the tomb, as well as a Juliet's house and a Juliet's balcony.

This faction likes to point out that the tourist office itself has its quarters in Juliet's house, right under Juliet's balcony, and that there's not a marker to recall poor Romeo in the whole town.
