Weight Machine Bought For School With Joint Effort

The Eagle Booster Club and Schleicher County Independent School District are in the process of purchasing a much needed weight machine for the athletic and physical education department. The price of the machine is $2500; this amount will be split between the club and the school district. The weight machine is designed so that as many as 17 people may work at the same time. Any age person can use the machine provided there is proper supervision. This machine has a dual purpose; first to supply practical direction for weight training that can be successfully applied to body building and secondly, it can be used as an aid in conditioning for all sports. By purchasing this Universal weight machine our school gains a piece of permanent equipment that can and will be used every day by all grade levels. The Eagle Booster Club is asking that anyone who wishes to make a donation to help buy this machine do so as soon as possible in order for the club to raise its part of the money. Persons wishing to donate please contact any member of the booster club or mail your contribution to Eldorado Booster Club, % Frances Peters, Box 600. The Eagles want to say thanks for this much needed project.

Signs Being Sold For Little League

L. E. McCalla, Commander of Post 257 of The American Legion, reports that sale of booster signs for the coming two years of Little League is now under way. Legionnaires are canvassing the business district and selling the signs for $25 each, and these will be good for the coming two seasons of Little League play. All-new signs are being made this year.

Band To Sell Light Bulbs In March

Next Tuesday, March 2nd, members of the Eagle Band will begin the sale of light bulbs, a project offered by West Texas Utilities to organizations for fund raising. The sacks of bulbs will be stamped Eldorado Eagle Band and will contain four 100-watt bulbs, two 75-watt bulbs, and two 60-watt bulbs. Pat Wester, manager of the Eldorado West Texas Utilities, says this assortment is most used in the home. The sack sells for $2.50. Mr. McDonald, band director, states that the town will probably be divided in sections with the band membership divided to work these sections, in order to cover the entire town in less time, hopefully 2 or 3 evenings after school. The band students appreciate the support you give them.

ROBERT NIXON

Robert Jackson Nixon, 74, died in Eldorado hospital on Sunday, Feb. 21, at 8:05 a.m. after an illness. Services were held at 2:30 Tuesday at the First Christian Church in Eldorado with Rev. He was married to Estella "Esta" Roberts on Aug. 10, 1916 in Manitou, Okla. In December 1920 they moved from Pontotoc, Texas, to the Bailey Ranch Community southwest of Eldorado, where he had lived since. His wife died on Feb. 10, 1965 and in 1966 he was married to Mrs. Gertrude (Diesenbourg) Saupe of Paris, Tennessee.

"Skinny" Holmes of Perryton, Texas; four brothers, Hanson, Farris and Lester Nixon of Eldorado and Lafayette Nixon of Dove Creek, Colo.; five sisters, Mrs. Mary Roberts of Bovina, Tex., Mrs. Edith Henshaw of San Angelo, Mrs. Emma Fuller of Brady, Mrs. Myrtal McMillan of Eldorado and Mrs. Lee (Wilma) Patrick of Sonora; four granddaughters, and one foster granddaughter; and four great-grandchildren.

He was a candidate for County Commissioner back in the early 1950's. Above photo of him was made about that time, and is from the files of The Success.

Band Students In Recent Contest

Two members of the Eagle Band with their piano accompanist, and director Mr. McDonald were in Brownwood Saturday for the Solo and Ensemble Contest (U.I.L.L.). Brian Holsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Holsley, a Junior, won a 2nd on his Trumpet solo in 1st Division playing. Benjie Jay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jay, a freshman, won a 1st on his trombone solo in 2nd Division. Both boys are already looking forward to work on their solos for next year with their eyes on winning, and a trip to State Contest. Lets of Luck! Their piano accompanist, Karen Hight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Hight, a Junior, is a very valuable asset to a soloist and has been for several years. Next year we hope she "accompanies" them to state. —Rep.

FINAL COBALT TREATMENT

Following daily trips since early in January, John Gilmore had his final cobalt treatment at Shannon hospital Tuesday. His doctors think they have his trouble whipped, but he'll report back in three weeks for further examination.

Local Medical Center Now Two Years Old

The Schleicher County Medical Center observed its second anniversary this past week, becoming two years old on February 16th. Since its beginning in the minds of interested citizens of the county, we have seen the establishment of the Hospital District, the election of the directors for the district and the planning and construction of our present hospital and nursing home facility. The citizens who so conscientiously strove toward this goal should be congratulated on this birthday of their achievement.

The Medical Center, operated by Medica Diversified, Inc., headed by Dr. J. B. Brame, has maintained its Medicare Certification since its inception, a fact for which we should be proud. Many other rural community hospitals are having difficult problems with the federal agencies and are in a constant struggle to maintain their certification.

Mr. Danny Barfield of Medica Diversified was recently appointed to the Speakers Texas Health Care Committee and worked in the passage of a bill signed by President Nixon which eased the problem for the rural hospitals and assured Eldorado of the continued operation of the Medical Center under the present Medicare standards.

In the past year Medica Diversified added twelve beds to the nursing home wing, beds which were badly needed. The Hospital Auxiliary, an organization of dedicated women, installed a beauty shop in the nursing home section and a gift shop in the lobby of the Center. Both projects were well received and appreciated.

Perhaps the greatest addition to the hospital in the past year was the addition of Dr. R. K. D. Peterson to the hospital staff and his beginning the general practice of medicine in our community.

We can be proud of the manner in which the board members have constantly worked for the continuance of quality medical care in our community and we only hope it will continue in the future.

Post Script

SHOWN HERE is Eldorado's newest business establishment, The Carousel Pants Shop, located in the Kempsky building across the street from the Court House.

Mrs. Sam Stringer is manager and the establishment has been open now for about a week. On page 3 of this Success issue, Mrs. Stringer lists some opening specials.

Inside, the building has been completely renovated in recent weeks with new fixtures, new paint, all of which carry out the circus decor, in keeping with "The Carousel" name.

Elsewhere over the business district, Billy Gene Edmiston is having a "Dry Weather Sale" at his Handy Hardware Store, and his advertised specials are on page 5. Also, Buddy White is marking down more merchandise at his Western Auto Associate Store in preparation to relocating the store on the Sonora highway around the first of March.

Since our severe drought continues to hold on we read reports of certain communities hiring a rain-maker. This reminds us of what the American Indian did when he needed a rain—he called upon the Medicine Man who called for a Rain Dance.

One historical writer had the following to say about the Indian Medicine Man and his rain dance: "Before the rain dance was to start, the Medicine Man would go out onto the prairie and sit for days or even weeks at a time. He claimed that he was looking for a vision. A sign; to tell him when to call for the rain dance to start. One day he would walk back into the village and say that the vision had come and it was time to start the dance. He KNEW that it was about to rain... and would have rained even without the rain dance! "The Indian Medicine Man was the biggest old faker of all time. He was looking for a sign all right but it didn't come from the heavens. It came from the GROUND. He had been doing nothing but watching the prairie dog towns. Before any rain the prairie dog will build a little mound around his front door to keep out the water. The more rain he expects the bigger the mound. If it's going to be a real gully washer, a flood, he will leave his hole and head for higher ground. You don't fool the prairie dog... he KNOWS when it's going to rain!"

Do we have any prairie dogs left in Schleicher county? If so, it is time we hear from James Williams and his old Indian friend.

Then along this line there was this story about a group of devout rural residents who were suffering from a drought, and who decided as a last resort that it would be a good idea to have a community prayer meeting asking the Lord to bring the blessed rain.

A committee was appointed to bring the matter to their local pastor. (He was a farmer, too.) The Reverend listened to their proposition and was sympathetic, but when asked for setting a day for the meeting, he said, "Well, I think it is a good idea, boys, but why don't we hold off a few days 'til the wind changes?"

Some literature pertaining to the Women's Department of this year's Fat Stock Show in San Angelo has been left at the Success office for interested local women. The 38th annual Fat Stock Show and Rodeo is scheduled for March 10-14. The packet left in this office includes entry blanks.

March 1st through 5th are the dates set for this year's Texas Public Schools Week. The week-long observation will mark 117 years of public schools in Texas. Each Texas citizen is encouraged to visit a public school in his community during this week.

Locally, the school is once again joining others over Texas in this observation, and the visitation and lunch scheduled is given on page 5.

An extra month—February—has been added for voters to register to vote in Texas in 1971 and first two months of 1972. Late Tuesday, 1193 voters were registered. If you are 18 or older, you are eligible to register to vote. (Those 18 thru 20 will be qualified for federal elections only.)

Deadline to register is this week-end.

Last Wednesday, the firemen made a run to Alvin Farris's house where a mattress caught fire. The cause was believed to be an electric blanket.

Barker Resigns Coaching Job Here

SHERWOOD BARKER

After serving three years as head football and track coach of the Eldorado Eagles, Sherwood Barker has resigned effective March 1 to move to Temple as an assistant to John Elam of the Wildcats.

He graduated from Stephen F. Austin in 1957 with a bachelor of science degree. He served at Tomball as an assistant three years and then moved to Eldorado as line coach one year before going to Bishop in the same capacity.

He left Bishop to go to Abilene High School where he worked under David McWilliams a year before moving to Eldorado.

Besides his coaching duties, he taught two biology classes at Eldorado. His wife, Ann, is an Eldorado girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ballew who still live in Eldorado.

The couple have a daughter, Jamie Lynn, 8, and a son, John Ray, 1 1/2.

Two-Year Term Assessed For Theft

J. D. Christopher of San Angelo was assessed a two-year prison sentence late Tuesday by Judge Joe L. Mays of the 51st District Court here after a four-man, eight-woman jury found him guilty of theft over $50.

Christopher had pleaded not guilty to a charge of stealing tires, wrenches and wheels from the Tucker Well Service Co., which was stationed in Schleicher county May 12, 1970.

The defendant, represented by Marvin Hanz and James Eaton, contended that he was in Grand Prairie on the day when the items were reported taken and also that he had bought the tools, entered in the trial as the stolen goods, 10 days before the theft.

The tools were found at Christopher's residence May 14 and had been freshly painted, according to the testimony of Schleicher County sheriff Orval Edmiston.

The prosecution was led by 51st Dist. Atty. Frank C. Dickey, Jr.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Time is running out for making plans for 1971 forage crop needs. Experience gained over the past several months should be utilized in planning for the year and even years ahead.

It's true the weather over the past several months has been on the unusual side, but it is this kind of situation that must be given consideration in planning.

Take a livestock inventory and plan the forage program as thoroughly and with as much detail as any other part of the ranching program.

Once cattle numbers are determined, that can help determine the amount of forage—grazing, hay and silage, needed per animal per day to keep them in good condition and producing the desired rate of gain. Then figure the number of acres of each kind of forage—grass or temporary pastures or crops, required to get the job done, both for grazing and storage for future use.

You may find that with better management stocking rates may be increased without increasing the acreage now available.

Soil testing and the use of fertilizer are practices which research and actual farm demonstrations show will pay good dividends.

The important thing now is to get the necessary plans made so they can be put into operation when the long expected break in the weather comes.

Pray for a good harvest, but keep hoeing.

The failure to provide overload protection when an electric motor is being installed can result in expensive repair bills and possible fires.

Describing an electric motor as a willing worker which keeps right on trying no matter how much it is overloaded, it should be pointed out that most will develop twice their rated horsepower for a limited time. If overloading continues, the motor will get hot enough to burn the insulation off the windings.

When this happens, the 'burned out' motor is ready to be junked or have an expensive rewinding job. "Burn-outs," can be prevented with overload protection devices which stop the motor before damage is done.

Four such devices are available and include built-in overload protection, time delay fuses, manual starting switch and magnetic starting switch. Built into the motor by the manufacturer, the first mentioned, is designed to sense heat and stop the motor before damage occurs. Because there are two types of built-in protectors, those with automatic reset and those with manual reset, consideration should be given to its task when the motor is selected.

The automatic reset type automatically restarts its cooled down motor. There is an element of danger, depending upon how the motor is being used. Automatic and unexpected starting of a bench saw for example could cause serious personal injury. Use of the manual reset offers a distinct advantage under such situations.

The automatic reset type is preferred where motors run unattended to drive water pumps, refrigerator compressors and similar devices or equipment.

Read the name plate when selecting a motor. It will state whether the motor has built-in overload protection of the automatic type. Motors with manual reset protection have a visible reset button on the motor housing.

Nature gives everybody five senses. The other two, horse and common, you must acquire.

Planting season is just around the corner and despite the unfavorable soil moisture situation, the best seed available should be obtained for the crops to be planted.

Crop yields are greatly influenced by the kind and quality of the planting seed used. Varieties are important and many have been developed for specific areas and for resistance to diseases.

Study variety reports and demonstration results in the area and then select the one best suited to your needs. Since it is not always easy to find the quality and purity needed in planting seed, sources should be checked and orders placed now for the seed needed.

Along with good seed, adequate lime, fertilizer, weed and insect control are "musts" for successful farming.

Few farmers in Schleicher county have overused fertilizer, but many are using too little for maximum crop and pasture production.

Of course, we've got to get rain to germinate the seed and to give the fertilizer a chance to do its job.

If you cannot win make the one ahead break a record.

Welfare Schedules Changes Announced

Changed Welfare schedules have been announced by Mr. Raymond A. Waugh, Supervisor of the Welfare Unit which includes Sutton and Schleicher counties. He notes that the changes in the State Department of Public Welfare programs which were announced early in January have brought about the need for further changes.
He says that the use of new Adult client-completed forms and the modified Aid to Families with Dependent Children forms provide a much better and faster service for Applicants and financial Recipients. This means that by using the mails, the Welfare Department is now able to give each county better service than at any time in the past.
On the new schedule, Welfare workers will no longer have regular days in any given county. But Welfare workers will continue to give personal services in each of the counties as they are needed. And it is hoped that facilities presently being used in each county will become appointment centers.
Mr. Waugh emphasized that work in each county will be on the basis of need, rather than as a routine. Further, in order that each individual in any given county may have ready access to our services, addressed envelopes will be left with the county and city officials who have graciously assisted us in providing services in the past.
He stressed that the Welfare Department always welcomes your comments, your questions and your suggestions. Please pass them on to any Welfare workers in your area. They will receive prompt, definitive and courteous attention and consideration.

IRS Warns Against Scare Advertising

Dallas, Tex.—North Texas taxpayers were warned today against misleading newspaper, radio, and TV ads conveying the impression that the tax law greatly complicates their 1970 returns.
Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for North Texas, said the ads placed by some commercial preparers of tax returns also picture the Form 1040 as extremely complex so as to discourage taxpayers from attempting to fill out their own returns.

Mr. Campbell said the IRS has tried to make improvements in the form and in filing procedures in response to numerous suggestions from taxpayers, lawyers, accountants, and others. In addition, the IRS has this year offered to figure the income tax and retirement income credit for up to 30 million taxpayers filing 1970 returns.

Having IRS figure the tax could reduce the largest single type of error made by taxpayers, selection of the wrong tax table or rate schedule, as well as help elderly persons with retirement income credit calculations, Mr. Campbell said.

Other changes made in the 1970 forms and schedules have resulted in a smaller tax package for most taxpayers, Mr. Campbell explained. The basic package sent to 50 million people contains 24 pages, compared to 32 pages last year. In addition, the instructions will not appear on the backs of the various schedules but will be printed in a numbered and indexed booklet located in the center of the tax form package.

Taxpayers should be careful of "guarantees" offered by some commercial preparers of returns that make it appear that they will represent the taxpayer in any subsequent audit, Mr. Campbell said. Generally, only attorneys, CPA's and those who, by demonstrating their qualifications, are enrolled for practice, can represent a taxpayer before IRS. Taxpayers should be sure of just what is meant by a "guarantee" offered by a preparer.

Mr. Campbell said that if a taxpayer employs a commercial preparer to fill out his return, he should select a reputable one. Regardless of who fills in the form, the taxpayer is responsible for the accuracy of the return.

Specialist Outlines Reason For Pruning Ornamental Plants

College Station, Tex.—Now is the time to inspect woody ornamentals for needed pruning, but don't prune just because it is that time of the year or because you need the exercise.

"If you cannot justify the removal of a limb or branch, you better put up your equipment and go spade the garden for exercise," says Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist at Texas A&M University.

Some of the reasons for pruning include removing dead or winter-killed growth or balancing the top with the root system when setting out new plants. Diseased or insect-injured wood, as well as storm or accident-damaged limbs, should be removed as soon as possible.

Older shrubs can be rejuvenated by pruning the older branches. Cutting can help develop a desired shape or size; and sometimes can be used to produce better flowers and fruit.

Janne cautions against severe pruning and says that it is better to prune lightly and more often to prevent sunscald to the sensitive inner branches. He also says not to leave stubs that invite insects and disease. All wounds or cuts over three-fourths of an inch in diameter should be painted with a wound dressing which can be obtained at any nursery or garden center.

Janne says that plants which bloom in early spring with the appearance of new leaves should be pruned after they flower. Those that bloom later in the season may be pruned during dormancy.

More detailed information concerning pruning can be obtained from the publication, Modern Pruning Methods, which is available at any county Extension office, says Janne.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Each year the Internal Revenue Service produces one of the best sellers of all books printed—Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax," 1971 Edition, price 75c. If you need more information about your 1970 income tax return, get six bits in hand and visit your nearest IRS office for a copy. You will find a simple answer to a very large part of your tax questions. IRS doesn't give any guarantees, but most taxpayers figure they will reduce their taxes more than the 75c cost and thereby profit from the saving.

Liquor Bill Emerges Long-awaited bill to legalize sale of liquor-by-the-drink on a local option basis was introduced in the Senate by Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso and in the House by Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi.

Legislature was empowered to pass such an act by the constitutional amendment lifting the open saloons ban at last November's general election.

Christie said the bill is "clean, enforceable" and contains no "arbitrary, unreasonable and indefensible restrictions" such as limiting mixed drink sales to establishments selling food.

Initial permit fees would cost $5,000 and annual renewals $500. Hale will introduce later tag legislation calling for a 10% gross receipts levy on sale and service of mixed beverages.

Tax bill also would increase gallonage tax on distilled spirits from $1.68 to $2.70 and up wine tax per gallon in accord with the alcoholic content of vinous liquor.

Bill will further exempt mixed beverage permit holders and private clubs from the general sales tax and repeal the private club service fee of five cents a drink. Hale and Christie estimate a biennial additional tax revenue of $28 million.

Miniature bottles, subject of contention in prior legislative clashes over mixed drinks, would be banned. Mixed drink sellers would buy their stock from Texas wholesalers.

Legislation is expected to stir one of the sessions "more spirited" debates.

Courts Speak State Supreme Court agreed to consider a court of civil appeals decision concerning the city of San Antonio's annexation of five miles of U. S. Highway 261 right-of-way.

High Court reversed an intermediate court and withdrew an earlier opinion, concluding that a home for retired teachers in Waco must pay property taxes to the city and school district.

A Dallas woman got a new hearing in a court of civil appeals in her lawsuit against a Connecticut life insurance company over $20,000 in coverage on her late husband. Supreme Court sent the case back for consideration of whether death was accidental or self-inflicted.

U. S. Supreme Court upheld the tough state rule on private club operations. Federal district court here banned the use of federal funds to buy Mustang Island park land. Appeal is being filed.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed a 63-year prison sentence assessed a man in the shooting of the Cross Plains city marshal.

Appointments Governor Smith named Charles E. Simons of Dallas, executive vice-president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, to the State Highway Commission. In other recent action, Smith also appointed: Emory E. Gose Jr. of Houston to the Texas Aeronautics Commission and reappointed Rex C. Caudle of Denton. Former State Sen. Walter H. B. F. Block of Sunray to the Texas Water Well Drillers Board. Senate nominations committee, by 8-3 vote, recommended confirmation of Jack Stone of Wells to the Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Environmentalists Rally First Texas Environmental Education Conference drew a crowd of 1,000 to meet with state officials on ecological issues.

Environmentalists, who claim state effort to save natural resources and prevent pollution are uncoordinated and inadequate, are sponsoring some 60 pieces of legislation. One would establish the Office of Environmental Quality with veto power over other state agencies to protect natural resources.

Housing, Community Plans Told Governor Smith presented a special message to the Legislature recommending "bold, massive" programs to improve housing and encourage community development. Message recommended an official state urban policy, creation of a community affairs department, an advisory commission on intergovernmental relations, a state housing finance corporation and a state housing redevelopment corporation.

Governor also urged broad authority for local governments to improve services and efficiency thru interlocal contracts, subdivision standards outside cities and year-round voter registration.

Short Snorts Senate passed a constitutional amendment to guarantee that equality under law cannot be denied because of sex, race, color, creed or national origin. House approved repeal of an old law requiring county commissioners to force land owners to kill prairie dogs. Establishment of telephone and utilities regulatory commissions came under heavy fire at Senate committee hearing. Game, fish and water safety law violations brought the state $416,054 in fines during the last fiscal year, a $44,000 increase. March draft call for Texas is 908, Selective Service announced. Mental Health-Mental Retardation accepted $744,531 in federal grants. Credit union may not invest in a subsidiary corporation which is unrelated to its original purpose. Atty. Gen. Hearing Set Friday In Odessa On District 21

West Texas businessmen have been invited to a public hearing in Odessa on Friday, February 26, to discuss the redistricting of the West Texas area. Representative Delvin Jones of Lubbock, chairman of the Redistricting Committee of the House of Representatives, has called the meeting for 9:00 a.m. in the City Council Chambers of the Odessa City Hall.

Rep. Charles Jungmichel of La-Grange will conduct the hearing. Other committee members who will participate in the sessions are Reps. Bob Salter of Gatesville, Don Cavness of Austin, Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches and vice-chairman of the committee Clyde Haynes of Vidor.

"Representative Jones is to be commended for approaching this vital problem in this manner," said F. V. Wallace, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. "It has never been done this way before and in this manner every businessman has an opportunity to express his viewpoint on this important matter," Wallace concluded.

Jack G. Springer, executive vice-president of the WTCC, has urged business leaders of the area west of Odessa to El Paso, south to Del Rio and east to San Angelo and Big Spring to attend the Odessa meeting so that business can be properly represented at the hearing.

Committee members will hold a special press conference for all news media at 8:30 a.m. on Friday in the City Council chambers, according to the chairman.

Baptists To Launch Youth Revival

MICHAEL GOTT — EVANGELIST from Avalon, Texas

The Annual Youth Led Revival will begin on Sunday, February 28, 1971, at The First Baptist Church. Services will be at 10:55 that morning and at 7:00 that evening and each evening of the week thru March 7.

Each morning at 7:00 all the young people of our community are invited to gather in the Fellowship Hall of the church for breakfast and prayer. The speaker for this year's evangelistic emphasis is Michael Gott of Avalon, Tex.

Michael Gott has become widely known throughout the southwest United States as an outstanding young evangelist. During his ministry, the 28-year-old Texas Baptist minister has conducted over 250 evangelistic meetings, preaching to crowds that have, on some occasions, exceeded 1,500.

He is a graduate of Jacksonville Baptist College, Baylor University, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He also has done two years of post graduate study in the school theology at Edinburgh University in Scotland.

During the last decade Gott has attended some of the most significant meetings on evangelism in the world. He attended both the World and U. S. Congresses on Evangelism.

Rev. Gott traveled extensively in Europe and the Middle East as well as traveling extensively in Russia, Poland, Yugoslavia, and East Germany.

The growth of his ministry is marked by invitations to city-wide evangelistic campaigns in the United States as well as participating in two evangelistic campaigns in Great Britain. He will be engaged in similar type meetings in Europe in 1973.

Presently Evangelist Michael Gott is scheduled for 40 week long evangelistic meetings in 1971 throughout the United States. The meeting here is one of such in the series.

Pat Ragsdale, the minister of Music-Youth at First Baptist will be directing the music for the meeting. Bro. Ragsdale plans to use as many young people in the choir and on instruments as is possible. The choir, etc., will rehearse each evening at 6:24.

Rev. Kenneth Vaughan, pastor of the church extends an invitation to all the people of our community to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gunstead and Gwendolyn and Billy Charles spent the week end at Lake Buchanan. They were accompanied by Sigrid and Phil Head.

Littering Is Expensive

Two million dollars—the amount spent each year to clean up after Texas' wayfaring litterbugs—could go a long way toward building a new state hospital, or a school for the mentally retarded, or restoring decayed historic buildings.

A recent story by Associated Press writer Garth Jones reported that in addition to the $2 million spent annually to remove litter from Texas' highways, another $500,000 is spent to repair damage caused by vandals along the road.

Who throws all this litter on the highway? Those out-of-state tourists that Texas has spent thousands of dollars attracting?

No. According to state highway department surveys, most litter is tossed by local people—thoughtless and irresponsible citizens who gripe constantly about high taxes.

A nationwide survey of litter along interstate highways and primary road systems in 29 states showed 59% of all litter was paper or paper products. About 15% consisted of cans with three fourths of them being beer cans; 6% were bottles; 6% were plastic articles; and 13% were miscellaneous items ranging from diapers to dentures. Highway workers can tell some bizarre stories about litterbugs in Texas. For example, a maintenance man in the Abilene area was felled by a gourd thrown from a passing car.

In another case, a highway worker near Ozona found a shoe box neatly tied with string and labeled, "This is the remains of Grandma, whose last wish was to have her remains scattered over the Catalina Mountains." The local sheriff took charge of the package, fortunately.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SET

A World Day of Prayer service sponsored by women of the Eldorado churches will be held Friday, March 5. The service of prayer will be held in one of the local churches to be announced. Women from the churches will participate in this interdenominational service.

Mrs. Edwin Jackson Sr. is serving as chairman of a committee of women from the various churches planning the service. Further details will be announced next week.

Laundering Mistakes

College Station, Tex.—Little mistakes can cause big problems, especially when it comes to the family laundry, reminds Bonnie Lyerly, Extension specialist in home management at Texas A&M University.

One re-occurring mistake in laundering, reported by the National Automatic Laundry and Cleaning Council, is incorrect use of bleach. Pouring bleach on garments without proper dilution causes almost one-half of laundry problems.

Miss Lyerly reports that another common error in laundering is leaving crayons in children's clothing. The crayons melt in hot water or in dryers and may spread to other fabrics.

Other laundry problems may be traced to overloading of washers, shrinkage of wool when laundered in too-hot water, and weakening of fabrics due to sunlight and oxidation from heating fumes.

Some laundry problems result from low-quality merchandise, Miss Lyerly adds. When garments are poorly manufactured or are made from inferior materials, disaster in the laundry is inevitable. Bonded garments fall apart, threads pucker, and dyes run and spread to other garments.

Market Report

College Station, Texas.—Do you take advantage of advertised food specials? If you do, you can definitely save money on your food budget, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist at Texas A&M University.

A variety of beef and pork cuts at budget saving prices are available at the meat counter this week. Some features to expect are beef roasts, ground beef, and round, T-bone or sirloin steaks. If it's pork you prefer, choose from ham, loin roasts or chops.

Fryers remain the number one bargain in the meat department, and Grade A large eggs continue to be the best egg value.

In the produce section, both grapefruit and oranges—two of our best sources of vitamin C—are in abundant supply. A new crop of avocados is appearing; thus prices are somewhat lower than in recent weeks. Bananas continue a good value, but quality and prices may vary. Apples also remain a good buy; at this time of year, be sure to store them in the refrigerator. And for a special treat, some markets are featuring strawberries.

Recent adverse weather conditions in many growing areas may result in higher prices and lower quality in some of the tender vegetables. However, good buys will be found on root vegetables—carrots, rutabagas, and turnips. Dry yellow onions and green onions are also in plentiful supply. Other good vegetable choices include broccoli, celery and lettuce.

O'NEAL COZZENS DIES

Word has been received here from Mrs. Jess Nixon of Ft. Worth of the death of O'Neal Cozzens, son of former residents here, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozzens. Mrs. Cozzens is now a widow and lives at 3717 5th Ave., Ft. Worth.

She and her family lived in Eldorado when the town was first settled, and moved to Ft. Worth years ago where they and other members of the family established a business college.

Lung Diseases Increase Four-fold

In the past ten years the mortality rate from emphysema and chronic bronchitis has more than quadrupled in the United States and continues to grow faster than any other disease.

Pulmonary or lung diseases are the second most common cause of disability in Texas. Until 1967, no intensive treatment and rehabilitation program existed for the Texan who had chronic obstructive lung disease, manifested by difficulty in breathing.

Dr. George A. Hurst, who heads

a pilot rehabilitation program for the State Health Department in East Texas, calls the rapid rise in lung disease a "seriously developing public health problem."

That is why the Pulmonary Rehabilitation Program was initiated in 1967 at the East Texas Tuberculosis Hospital near Tyler. It marked the first time there had been such an organized program in Texas—a pilot program to help people with chronic breathing trouble due to emphysema, chronic bronchitis, and obstructive asthma.

At the Tyler hospital, a multidisciplinary approach utilizes the services of three physicians in different aspects of the rehabilitation program. Vocational counselors, psychologists, physical therapists and social workers also pool their specialized knowledge in an intensive program to aid the patient.

The patient undergoes an intensive series of medical, physiological, psychological, social and vocational evaluations. He begins medical treatment, breathing training, and a graded exercise program designed to improve pulmonary functions and increase physical ability to the maximum. Teaching the patient to care for himself and to be a productive member of society is as important in the program as the medical treatment itself.

The pilot program has been very successful. At the end of fiscal year 1969, 63% of the patients in the program were employed. An additional 19% were seeking employment or were ready for employment. Another 18% were ill for employment, or had died.

Through this pilot program, the State Health Department is trying to salvage those patients whose chances of recovery without the program would be very poor. The Tyler project is one of only four such centers in the entire country.

Driving CAN Be A Pleasure Again!

Remember when a weekend drive was something you did for fun? How everyone looked forward to piling into the family car for a leisurely Sunday drive to look at the scenery, visit friends? You could wheel along enjoying the view without tensing up over some driver determined to tailgate or revving his engine to speed past you.

Not any more, you say. Times have changed. Weekend driving has become something to endure only if absolutely necessary. On a holiday weekend, you are further unnerved by publicized projections of doom—how many people will be killed on the highways that weekend. Instead of the spirit of the open road, driving is more of a spectre—something that must be endured.

According to the Atlantic Companies (Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company and the Centennial Insurance Company) we Americans are responsible for more deaths on the highway than on all the battlefields of all the wars we've ever fought! More than 5 million people—about the size of the population of Los Angeles—were killed or injured on our highways last year.

Does it have to be that way? No. Believe it or not, you CAN make driving a pleasure again if you, and every man or woman behind the wheel follow the unusual checklist recently released by the Atlantic Companies. It lists things we should do, instead of things we should avoid; the steps we can take to lengthen our driving pleasure instead of shortening it.

Try the following... it may add years to your life span!

DO... Test that new car under all conditions—before you buy. Is it comfortable?

Easy to park? Can you see in all directions? Controls within easy reach? Does it suit all of your intended purposes?

DO... Consider renting a similar model before buying. DO... Equip your car for every need. A mirror for the right side as well as the left. Bumper guards to prevent those nicks and bumps.

DO... Review brakes, wipers, horn periodically. Even if your car passed inspection within the past year, it may not be safe today.

DO... Have your windows and headlights cleaned every time you buy gas.

DO... Examine tires frequently for balance, worn treads and inflation. For safety and convenience, studded snow tires may be worth their weight in gold on ice-slicked streets and in snow country.

DO... Adjust your driving to meet special conditions. Different driving defenses are called for in morning get-to-work traffic, snow, fog, winding roads, poor street surfaces. Creepers can be as hazardous on the road as speeders. And if you merely want to watch the scenery, take the less-traveled scenic route or, better yet, be a passenger and leave the driving to someone else. DO... Plan your trip. Be certain of every part of your route.

DO... Start early. Drive long distances only when you are rested and traffic is light. Avoid those busy-time, busy-area rush hours.

DO... Decline that one "for the road." Know your capacity. Better still, if you drive, don't drink unless it's coffee.

DO... Break up your trip with frequent stops. You'll cover more miles—and enjoy them more, as well.

DO... Stay alert on super-highways. Those many directional signs demand your full attention.

DO... Sound off to the appropriate traffic department and local newspaper about worn, defaced or obscured road signs.

If the courtesies of the road can be brought back, there's no doubt that the casualties of the road can be rolled back. After you've equipped yourself, your family and your car for enjoyable driving, Atlantic's way, there's only one more thing necessary to bring back the enjoyment of driving: DO... Your part.

Legislature is specifically authorized and empowered to prescribe such limitations and restrictions and enact such laws as may be necessary in order that such federal matching money will be available for assistance and/or medical care for or on behalf of needy persons.

"Nothing in this section shall be construed to amend, modify or repeal Section 31 of Article XVI of this Constitution; provided further, however, that such medical care, services or assistance shall also include the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting lenses or prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision.
