Is now the time to buy land?

Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan. Your total cost of borrowing, too, can be less. Ask us for help: We know land values; we will inspect the property. We will then try to make a loan that meets your exact needs.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER 13 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 82)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 65 to read as follows:

"Section 65. Wherever the Constitution authorizes an agency, instrumentality, or subdivision of the State to issue bonds and specifies the maximum rate of interest which may be paid on such bonds issued pursuant to such constitutional authority, such bonds may bear interest at rates not to exceed a weighted average annual interest rate of 6%. All Constitutional provisions specifically setting rates in conflict with this provision are hereby repealed." This amendment shall become effective upon its adoption.

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified electors of this State at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "To set a six percent (6%) weighted average annual interest rate for bonds issued pursuant to constitutional authority presently having a specified interest ceiling."

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER 8 ON THE BALLOT (SJR 1)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article IV, Section 4, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows: "Section 4. The Governor elected at the general election in 1974, and thereafter, shall be installed on the first Tuesday after the organization of the Legislature, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall hold his office for the term of four years, or until his successor shall be duly installed. He shall be at least thirty years of age, a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in this State at least five years immediately preceding his election."

Section 2. That Article IV, Section 22, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 22. The Attorney General elected at the general election in 1974, and thereafter, shall hold office for four years and until his successor is duly qualified. He shall represent the State in all suits and pleas in the Supreme Court of the State in which the State may be a party, and shall especially inquire into the charter rights of all private corporations, and from time to time, in the name of the State, take such action in the courts as may be proper and necessary to prevent any private corporation from exercising any power or demanding or collecting any species of taxes, tolls, freight or wharfage not authorized by law. He shall, whenever sufficient cause exists, seek a judicial forfeiture of such charters, unless otherwise expressly directed by law, and give legal advice in writing to the Governor and other executive officers, when requested by them, and perform such other duties as may be required by law. He shall reside at the seat of government during his continuance in office. He shall receive for his services an annual salary in an amount to be fixed by the Legislature."

Section 3. That Article IV, Section 23, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 23. The Comptroller of Public Accounts, the Treasurer, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and any statutory state officer who is elected by the electorate of Texas at large, unless a term of office is otherwise specifically provided in this Constitution, shall each hold office for the term of four years and until his successor is qualified. The four-year term applies to these officers who are elected at the general election in 1974 or thereafter. Each shall receive an annual salary in an amount to be fixed by the Legislature; reside at the Capital of the State during his continuance in office, and perform such duties as are or may be required by law. They and the Secretary of State shall not receive for their own use any fees, costs or perquisites of office. All fees that may be payable by law for any service performed by any officer specified in this section or in his office, shall be paid, when received, into the State Treasury."

Section 4. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to provide a four-year term of office for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Secretary of State, and certain statutory State officers."

Budgeting

"We can't live on a budget!" Or is it that you don't want to? How else can you find out where your money goes—or where it's taking you? A smart consumer not only spends his money wisely, but plans his spending as well.

Good money management considers the past, present, and future. Look at the past to see where your money goes as well as where it comes from. Keep an extra close check on spending for a month or more to determine your spending patterns.

Then figure how much money is coming in. Your spendable income basically is your pay check. If you have cash income from other sources, such as dividends, interest, or rent, be sure to include it.

Look at the present to check family needs and wants for which you can spend current income. First, list the things you need—your fixed expenses. This includes food, shelter (house payments, repairs, furniture, appliances, utilities), clothing (new, repairs), taxes, transportation (bus fare, auto payments and repairs, gas, oil), insurance, health (doctor and dentist, drugs, eye glasses), and savings (including emergencies).

Second, list the things you want—flexible expenses. These include education (books, tuition, newspapers, magazines), recreation (sports, movies, records, pets, vacations), gifts, personal grooming, contributions and dues, etc.

Third, add up these items to see if they fit the family's total expected income. If you're like most people starting a budget, you've probably overspent. You'll have to alter your plan. Remember your important needs—food, a place to live, and clothing. Can these costs be cut? What about other expenses? What could be left out or put off until later?

Make your plan, but keep it simple. If it's easy to use, you'll be more likely to stick to it. Then try your plan for a month or two. Perhaps you've overestimated spendings in some areas and underestimated in others. Try to leave a "cushion" of a few dollars.

Look to the future and adjust to change. Spending and savings plans seldom remain the same for long periods of time. Major changes may have to be made as financial problems are solved, as goals are reached or reevaluated, as you move from one stage to another in the family life cycle, if you have a change in income.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER 14 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 57)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a Section 6b, to read as follows:

"Section 6b. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6, Article VII, Constitution of the State of Texas, any county, acting through the commissioners court, may reduce the county permanent school fund of that county and may distribute the amount of the reduction to the independent and common school districts of the county on a per scholastic basis to be used solely for the purpose of reducing bonded indebtedness of those districts or for making permanent improvements. The commissioners court shall, however, retain a sufficient amount of the corpus of the county permanent school fund to pay ad valorem taxes on school lands or royalty interests owned at the time of the distribution. Nothing in this Section affects financial aid to any school district by the state."

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to allow a county to reduce its county permanent school fund and distribute the money to independent and common school districts on a per scholastic basis."

H. D. COUNCIL TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Home Demonstration Council on Friday, Aug. 18, at 2:00 o'clock in the Sw. Co-Op building. Diane Durrett, Agent, stated there will be discussion of yearbook plans, bake sale, and THDA state meeting.

with legislative leadership to achieve anything in a special session, but Lt. Governor Ben Barnes and House Speaker Rayford Price said he hasn't said a word to them about his plans.

If Smith calls the session, apparently he will propose wholesale reorganization of the board and a controlled competitive rate system for property and auto insurance.

Austin, Tex.—A recent statewide survey shows 22% of Texans, or 2.5 million, are poor compared to a nationwide rate of 13%.

Further, Texas accounts for nearly 10% of the nation's poor. Texas Office of Economic Opportunity submitted the 300-page report to Governor Preston Smith, terming it the most comprehensive study ever undertaken among the Texas poor.

The Rio Grande Valley area was shown as having the highest incidence of poverty in the state—42.2% of the population. East Texas was next with 29% poverty rate.

The East Texas and Lower Rio Grande Valley areas also have the smallest proportion of persons completing high school.

About 55% of the heads of poor households are employed, and 70% of those have fulltime permanent jobs, according to the study.

However, low income levels make it difficult for these persons to bring their families out of poverty.

Guidelines for the report set poverty level for a family of four at an annual income of $3,800.

More than a third of the Texas poor are children under 15, and four out of five are black or Mexican-American.

George P. Taylor, TOEO director, said the report will be the basis of programs to alleviate poverty in the state. Recommendations include bringing in new industry to decrease unemployment, housing expansion and better health care and food programs.

A proposed four-year anti-poverty plan for Texas would seek $6.3 million in aid from national and regional OEO.

Reform Session Studied

Governor Smith disclosed he is putting together a "full package" of insurance reform proposals in case he decides to call a special legislative session this year.

Reports indicated the governor was serious when he said he may call such a session on insurance matter. Smith himself continued to lash out at the insurance regulatory board. When members ordered a rate cut for auto insurance averaging 11% statewide, Smith said a 21% reduction was in order.

Smith said he must work closely

Garment Labeling To Protect Children

A burned child is not a pretty sight, and protection for children against some fabric burns is on the way, says the Texas State Department of Health.

A new law has just become effective which eventually will lead to the use of flame resistant material in children's sleepwear and children's outer clothing through size 14.

At this time, children's sleepwear in sizes 0 to 6X must be resistant to flames or have a warning placed on it that it is flammable. At the end of next July this clothing must be flame resistant.

The labeling option in sleepwear gives manufacturers a year in which to begin using flame resistant fabric, but on July 29, 1973, all children's sleepwear through 6X must meet the standard or not be sold, says the State Health Department.

Compliance date for larger sizes of sleepwear and outer garments will be announced in the future, and manufacturers will again be given 12 months to comply following the announcement. Also covered will be mattresses and protective pads.

Incident after incident in Texas points up the need for flame resistant fabrics. When a person's clothing ignites, there's more than a good chance that the person will be burned—sometimes horribly, sometimes fatally, but always painfully.

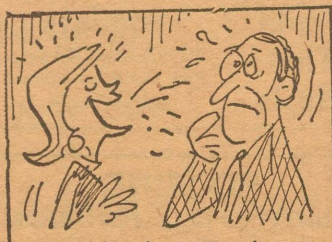

Burns in the United States are killing and crippling more people than polio did in its peak epidemic year in 1954. In 1954, about 50,000 persons contracted polio and 1,500 died of it. In contrast, according to National Safety Council figures, 6,700 persons died in fires and of burn injuries in 1970, and 250,000 suffered disabling injuries.

In clothing, says the State Health Department's Bedding and Product Safety Division, it is the quick igniting fabric which causes the greatest human losses. These soft fabrics, usually highly-flammable, are put into children's clothing as well as nightgowns and robes worn by adults. All too often the frills which decorate these fabrics burn rapidly, adding to the speed of ignition of the garment itself.

Experience has shown the need to protect our children—as well as adults—and the sleepwear standards in the Texas Hazardous Substances Law are a breakthrough in solving this life or death problem in the state.

Miss Patterson And Bill Lester, Jr. Were Married July 29 In Seymour

MRS. WILLIAM C. LESTER, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Lester, Jr., will live in Lubbock after their wedding trip. The couple exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening, July 29, at First United Methodist Church in Seymour, with the pastor, the Rev. J. Lennol Hester, officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line gown of peau de soie and Alencon lace fashioned with yoke sleeves and chapel length train of the lace. Her veil was held to a cabbage rose trimmed with pearls and she carried a bouquet of baby carnations with stephanotis.

Miss Donna Patterson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Debbie and Judy Patterson, also sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Ruddick sister of the groom. Attendants wore matching gowns of floral voile with Empire waists and wide-brimmed hats. They carried long-stemmed daisies.

Organist was Mrs. Johnnie Martin and soloist was Mrs. Roger Bell, aunt of the bride. Frieda Wirz was flower girl and Chris Mooney was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Jim Honeycutt and Paul Bellinghousen, both of Bedford.

Bob Lester of Eldorado was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were John McGregor of Lubbock, Ray Ballew of Eldorado, and Derrell Patterson, brother of the bride.

Johnny Griffin of Midland and Greg Renegar of Levelland seated guests.

Fellowship Hall was setting for the reception following the ceremony. Bride's table was laid with a white net edged in lace over taffeta. It was accented by the 3-tiered wedding cake and a crystal and silver epergne holding a yellow floral arrangement.

Groom's table was covered with a brown antique lace cloth and antique copper urn which belonged to the bride's great-grandmother. Centering the table was a chocolate cake topped with clusters of yellow confection grapes.

The bride received an Associate of Arts degree from South Plains College and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas Tech University.

The bridegroom is presently in managerial training with Brittany Restaurants in Lubbock. He graduated from Eldorado High School and served in the U. S. Navy four years. He has attended Tarleton State College and Texas Tech.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents on Friday night in Seymour.

GOD SPEAKS TO YOU NOW

What about money?

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Money, a medium of exchange, and a system of credits backed up by our federal government is important, but it is not God.

It is a matter of what comes first in your life, God or money. It is no sin to be rich, but it is a sin to make riches your idol. God promises prosperity to those who follow his way.

Psalms No. one: "Whatsoever he doeth shall prosper . . ."

Matthew 5:33, "But seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

WHAT THINGS? The things you need for your physical well being.

However, you cannot serve God and money at the same time. God comes first. Material things follow in their natural order. Henry David Thoreau said, "Money is not required to buy one necessity of the soul."

Money is not the measure of a man.

PUT GOD FIRST.

—J. Loyd Rice

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

By The Ministerial Alliance of Eldorado

Life's Supreme Value

In Matthew 13:44-46 we find the twin parables of the treasure hidden in a field and the pearl of great value. These parables teach the supreme value of the kingdom of heaven. Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." In our day finding hidden treasure is very rare. It may not have been so in ancient times. The only banks were in the earth. A peasant plowing land might unearth treasure that some former inhabitant had buried in time of invasion and then never lived to return and regain. Such a peasant would hasten to buy the field and claim the treasure if at all possible.

In ancient times the pearl was the most popular of gems and the most desirable. Diamonds were too rare to count for much. Jesus speaks of the pearl merchant who found the incomparable pearl. "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it." Such a merchant might have traveled to India where the finest pearls were to be found in ancient times. One day he came across the one pearl of great value. He may have possessed pearls of great beauty but they all seemed dim in the light of this one superb pearl. He must possess it at all costs. He does not hesitate to sell every pearl in his collection that he may possess the finest.

Jesus is reminding us that we must examine our scale of values in life. What do you value most? Material possessions are important, and necessary to sustain life. Christianity is a materialistic religion. We are to pray for our daily bread. But material values can never be supreme in life. In our finest hours we know this. Spiritual values such as faith, hope, and love are life's greatest values. Such are found in the Kingdom of Heaven. What do you value most in life, fame, pleasure, comfort? All grow dim in the light of the supreme value of God and His Kingdom.

Christ himself, the King of the Kingdom, is the greatest value of life. He is the treasure hidden in a field. He is the pearl of great value. Some Christians in their experience are like the finder of hidden treasure. They come upon Christ suddenly, perhaps in a revival meeting or in a sudden spiritual encounter. They accept him gladly and readily. Others are like the pearl merchant. They are the seekers. They search long and hard for life's greatest value, its highest good. At length they find Christ and the answer to their quest. May we all find life's supreme value in Him.

Maybe you know her as Miss Lizzie or Granny Hill or Aunt Mary Jones. Through the years she's been a tower of strength in her community . . . helping with the sick, sharing with the poor . . . a friend to all.

She doesn't seem to worry about the future, just looks to the brighter side and is happy. You envy her, thinking she gets much out of life that you miss. Does she have a secret, a magic formula?

No, you can't say that her fellowship with God is a secret, for God is for everyone!

Would you like to possess some of her strength to look ahead, to face danger and conquer fear? The Church can help you reach this goal. All through the years it has strengthened mankind and helped him find the best in himself and in others.
