HILL'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

stands in the forefront of Texas institutions. Twenty-six years of successful work are behind. Other schools are new and untried in comparison. It has seen every other business college in the state start, and many of them give up the ghost. Hill's stands today, and holds its commanding position, because it started right. The standard was set high at the beginning, and has never been lowered. Thoroughness and efficiency in everything—this explains the remarkable history of this school. The South is filled with men of affairs whose large success is attributable to the training received in Hill's Business College. You can do as well. The same standard, the same excellence, are still to be found. You will have the same advantages, and better. The opportunities in the world of business are still as great, and greater. The young men who get ready for these opportunities will reap the harvest. By the scores they are coming to Hill's Business College to make the preparation. Why not you? As fast as our students are ready, they are placed in good positions. Three placed last week. We could place YOU today, were you ready. Don't delay, not even for a day. A $50 life scholarship in book-keeping, or in shorthand and type-writing, $42.50; in telegraphy and station work, $35; book-keeping, shorthand and typewriting, all together, only $75; tuition by the month, $12.50; mail course, $20. Our shorthand is the quickest and easiest learned. Address R. H. Hill, Waco, Texas, or Memphis, Tenn.

S. H. Andrews moved into his new shop Saturday, and is now at his new stand ready to serve you.

WHAT A FARMER CAN DO IN WEST TEXAS.

A. S. Williamson of Fort McKavett was in the city Wednesday with twenty-five bales of cotton which he raised from fifty acres of sod land. He sold the fleece staple at 9 1/4 cents and it brought him the neat sum of $1,223 77. He sold $175 worth of cotton seed and has 200 bushels left. This is an example of what a farmer in West Texas can do if he tries.

A. A. Williamson arrived in the city Monday afternoon from his farm near Fort McKavett with twenty-five bales of cotton which he will market here today. — San Angelo Daily Standard

A. S. Williamson and A. A. Williamson of whom the above has reference to, are farmers from Schleicher county, and have one of the best stockfarms in the Fort McKavett country. This farm and ranch contains 640 acres with some fine improvements, and is an ideal place to live. We once had the pleasure of being cared for at this home over night, and we found these good people like most all Schleicher county people, well contented, and we hope some day to see our public roads in such shape that such people as these will bring their products to their home town instead of some other town.

PASSED BEYOND.

At the Mathew's resident on Saturday night, the spirit of Mrs. Humphery took flight to the world beyond at 11 o'clock. She was the wife of W. E. Humphery, a prominent ranchman from the Thorpe neighborhood and had been brought to our city for medical treatment. On Friday February 5th a son was born to this union from which the deceased never recovered. Mrs. Humphery was 35 years of age, and this was the first child born to her, in spite of all the attention given her by both friends and physician, she passed over the River of Death, and now rests sweetly with loved ones gone on before. Her death came as a shock to her many friends as most of them thought she was doing nicely, but late Saturday eve the turn was for the worst and she only lasted a few hours longer. She was laid to rest in the city Cemetery Sunday eve. Rev. P. D. Swift conducted the burial services. The infant son, who will never realize the touch from his mother's fingers nor feel the press of his mother's lips, is doing fine and we hope will live and bloom into manhood to cherish the memories of these sad hours of it's father.

THE SUCCESS with scores of friends extends condolence to the bereaved husband and relatives, in this their sad hours.

P. I. Elder moved his sheep to the J. E. Mills ranch last week.

LET'S HAVE ONE.

Why not have a "Trade Day" for Eldorado, that is have a day set upon which the people can meet and exchange stock, machinery or any thing that they may have that they wish to dispose of. Say for instant, have first Saturday or first Monday of each month, this we think would be a great advantage to the people of the county as well as to the town people.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our many friends and the good people of Eldorado, for their many acts of kindness and assistance during the late illness and death of our beloved wife and daughter. And may the promise of the Great Teacher who says, in as much as ye have done it unto one of these little ones ye have done it unto me, be your reward.

Your friend

W. E. Humphery and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Humphery.

W. L. BANNISTER PAYS $16,000 FOR STOCK AND FARM.

W. L. Bannister of Eldorado, Schleicher county, has bought the property near Carrizo Springs in Dimmitt county, formerly owned by Felix M. Shaw, comprising some 500 to 600 acres, together with all the live stock, including cattle, hogs and horses, for a consideration of $16,000.

Mr. Bannister left San Antonio Monday morning and will return with his family in about ten days to take possession of his acquisition. "I will make a specialty of stock farming," said he just before his departure, "and after a tour of South Texas, covering a period of about two months, I feel sure that I have made no mistake in casting my lot with the live, progressive people of Dimmitt county," Texas Stockman Journal.

SHEEP DEALS.

The sheep business in this section is beginning to liven up and some good deals are being consummated. One of the most recent was made by W. D. Chadlock, a Crockett county stockman, who sold to Sol Mayer and Sam Oglesby Schleicher county sheepmen, 3,400 head of mixed sheep at around $4 a head, making a total consideration of approximately $13,600.—San Angelo Standard.

Honorable Brown E. Lee representative from the 102 district, although an absentee, voted for submission, as he promised his people he would, if submission carried in the primaries and Mr Lee voted for submission in the House. Ain't it a pity that we are not as well represented in the senate as we are in the house.

Marlin

For shooting the swift flying, heavily feathered ducks and geese the Marlin 12-gauge repeating shotgun has no superior. This gun is exceedingly strong in construction and yet is not heavy. It is bored to throw an excellent pattern with great penetration. The solid top keeps out the weather and the brush and twigs of the blind, and the side-ejector prevents the empty shells from being a nuisance to the shooter. It's the best and weather gun.

The Marlin 12-gauge is suited to all forms of bird and trap shooting, and for durability, strength and ease of action is unequalled. Made for both black and smokeless powders and for heavy loads. Two separate extractors make sure work.

We notice by the San Angelo Standard that Mr. B. Metcalf and price of farmers has gone to Austin in the interest of an extension of the line to be located at or near the bridge of Mr. Metcalf.

Leaves a private of ever lover of the rubber industry in west Texas, that such a farm located in Tom Green county would be of much benefit to us Schleicher county farmers. It is the intention of Ben Hur to visit the station as often as circumstances will permit, and doubtless hundreds of others will do likewise. If we the farmers of Schleicher could assist Mr. Metcalf in any way to secure this much needed station, we would only be too willing to do so, however we feel that the matter is safe in the hands of the hustling San Angeloans.

White, of Butler, Tenn. says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. ### The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says: "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proved beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by B. E. Earle.

ARE YOU A MAIL ORDER SHOPPER? IF SO, STOP IT.

We wonder, says the Anti-Mail Order Journal, if the man or woman who has contracted the mail order shopping habit has ever stopped to think of the actual crime they are committing—of the dire and dreadful consequences of their act upon the community in which they reside; of the evil effects which tends to seriously injure their own children, their neighbors, and themselves.

If you have never thought upon the subject it is time you were doing so. If you have never before realized what this habit—this pernicious habit—means to a community, you need but look about you now. You have a personal pride in your community, and you point with pleasure to its growth, but you have no right to any credit for that growth or improvement—you have done all in your power to reduce real estate values, to reduce the amount of taxes collected, to reduce the number of teachers employed in your schools and their salaries as well. You have prevented many a young man and young woman from getting employment at home. You have driven out of your town and community good workmen; you have striven diligently to keep down real estate values; you have reduced rents, and prevented the painting of houses and the general upkeep of your town. You have stolen from the charities, the hospitals, the poor of your town.

You have no right to enjoy the society of the community in which you reside; you are an interloper, the mire and mud on the wheels of progress, and a greater menace to your town than the yellow peril; you are the Chinaman of your community—he gets all the dollars out of a town he can and then takes them out of the country. So do you. If he imperils a country by cheap labor, you encourage cheap labor and make monopoly possible by your support of it. There are so many other evils attendant upon that of sending money to mail order houses for articles which should be purchased at home that it would take a long time to enumerate them. Probably not the least of these is that "sneaky" dog-in-the-manger feeling a mail order fiend must have from the methods he employs to keep his fellow townsman from learning what he is doing.

Ever notice that sort of down-cast look the mail order bushwhacker get? It is especially noticeable when he gets into a home store for something he has forgot to send away for or because he wants credit. The mail order house wouldn't credit him for a cent's worth of goods if he was starving to death.

Don't you think now you had better deal at home? Wouldn't you feel better? Of course you would. You could then hold your head up in the community in which you reside; you would be aiding in upbuilding your home interests; you would be a man among men, a woman among women—an honored and respected citizen.

Inquire the price of goods of your merchant; show him your mail order catalog, and be confidential with him; treat him as a man face to face; pay him cash as you pay the mail order house, and our word for it, at the end of the year you will be better off; your town will be busier and better, and you will enjoy the feelings of an honest citizen doing his duty. be able to look every man square in the face—no longer a sneak, a traitor or a Chinaman.
