

THE BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

VOL. 8—NO. 220.

EIGHT PAGES TODAY

BIG SPRING, TEXAS, FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 28, 1936.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

FDR Submits Billion-Dollar Tax Program

Jap Soldiers Defiant, New Crisis Looms

Government Ready To Take Action; 4,000 On The Scene

(By The Associated Press)

Japan's insurgent soldiers today defied the deadline set for them to evacuate Tokyo government buildings. The government met the crisis with undisclosed "appropriate measures."

It was believed the area around the rebel stronghold was being cleared for action. Four thousand loyal troops beleaguered the rebels. Japanese sources at Shanghai asserted imperial sanction had been given for forcible ejection of the rebels if they do not soon withdraw.

Anxiety Felt

Information was received at Washington that the insurgents were holding out in Tokyo, but had agreed to obey the emperor's command to return to their barracks. Anxiety was felt in diplomatic and foreign Tokyo communities, although a gradual relaxation of tension was expected.

Loyal troops maintained their positions and the First fleet reinforced nine warships anchored in Tokyo bay. Japanese newspapers reported heavy withdrawals of bank deposits.

After assassinating four elder liberal statesmen Wednesday dawn, the soldiers had barricaded themselves in the headquarters. It had been reported they had agreed to return to their barracks, but today's developments indicated they might not yield.

Tokyo was still under martial law.

Shearn Moody Death Victim

Galveston Capitalist In Companies With Properties Here

GALVESTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Shearn Moody, 40, capitalist, civic leader and owner of the Galveston baseball club, died here today.

He was a member of one of the South's richest families.

Funeral services are to be held Saturday.

The death of Shearn Moody, prominent Galveston business man, and vice president of the American National Insurance company and active official of the National Hotel company, of which the Hotel of this city is an affiliate, stunned the official personnel of the two local firms here today when notified by an Associated Press dispatch to The Daily Herald. Mr. Moody had visited in Big Spring several times in the past few years since the Settles hotel became the property of the National Hotel company. Joe D. Farr, manager of the Settles, stated that Mr. Moody only recently had visited properties of his company at Lubbock, and at that time was in apparent good health.

OPEN HOUSE AT PARK BUILDING IS DELAYED

Open house for the concessions building in the scenic Mountain state park here has been delayed one week due to an unforeseen difficulty in making plumbing connections.

The building was to have been opened for public inspection Sunday, but it became necessary to tie in the plumbing lines to the septic tank off another building. To do this workmen are blasting through solid rock to lay the line.

V. J. Eckelkamp, technical service superintendent, said that the building would be opened the following Sunday and that by that time the premises would have been cleaned and landscaped.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PROGRAM IS GIVEN

Songs and speeches devoted to Texas and her heroes were presented in a Texas Independence day program given at the high school assembly Friday morning. The observance was held today because schools will have a holiday Monday.

Marjorie Hudson introduced the speakers of the morning. Dixie Sturville discussed "Texas Independence." Other topics were "Big Spring and Its Early History," told by Jimmie Myers, Jane Lee Hannah sang a solo, "Listen to the Mocking Bird."

The high school band played the familiar strains of "Eyes of Texas" as the opening song. Other band selections in which the assembly sang were "Home On the Range," and the official Texas song, "Texas, Our Texas."

SINGER DIES

ROME, Feb. 28 (AP)—Antonio Scotti, 70, famed baritone, died here Wednesday.

Best Wishes To These Big Spring People Who Observe Leap Year Day Birthdays

Here are five who, once in four years, celebrate their birthdays on the actual calendar date anniversary, February 29, and they will receive felicitations Saturday, Leap Year Day. Their ages range from 48 to 8—or, if you prefer, from 12 to 2. Left to right: M. B. McFARLAND, 506 Abrams, native of Honey Grove and resident of Big Spring for 27 years. He will be 48 on his 12th Leap Year birthday. JACK KING,

48 to 8—or, if you prefer, from 12 to 2. Left to right: M. B. McFARLAND, 506 Abrams, native of Honey Grove and resident of Big Spring for 27 years. He will be 48 on his 12th Leap Year birthday. JACK KING, 305 Owens, cafe proprietor and a resident of the city for 21 years. He will be 44, or 11. MRS. BILL DONALD, 1205 Main. With a seventh Leap Year birthday, she will be 28. She has lived here for six years.

H. B. "HAPPY" HATCH, native of Big Spring, who could call his age 5, but also will be 20 years old Saturday. MARY LOU BUCKLEY, niece of Mrs. Joe Jim Green, 1600 Main. Mary Lou will observe only her second Leap Year birthday, since she will be 8 years old tomorrow. (Picture of Hatch by Thurman. Photos of Mary Lou Buckley and Mrs. Donald by Bradshaw.)

Trade Holds Faster Pace Than Year Ago

Many Gains Shown; Only Wholesale Lines Are Hurt By Weather

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Business reacted briskly in areas where weather was favorable and in most cases, the volume was ahead of last year with the exception of wholesale lines which continued to lag as buyers remained weather-bound, according to reports to the department of commerce from 32 important cities. Inventories of winter merchandise on retail shelves were lower than in many years and in some cases, merchants had difficulty in replenishing. Building permits reflected a continued strong construction sentiment in spite of severe weather and activity, particularly in home-building, was greater than last year. Steady operations were being maintained in the steel centers as additional railroad orders were placed. Bank clearings receded from the previous week in some cities, but in most all cases, there were impressive gains over last year.

Gains in Sales

While New York reported business spotty, department store sales

(Continued on Page 10)

Beautification Program For City Outlined By Group

Beautification committee of the chamber of commerce Thursday selected to undertake a definite plan of beautification here for the centennial year.

Chief things suggested by the committee were highway beautification and installation of curbing and paving along Third street. Since this is the Centennial year, the committee declared there was an urgent need for transforming the appearance of the city now gained from highways.

DR. HOOVER NAMED MEDICAL EXAMINER

Dr. T. B. Hoover of the Hall & Bennett clinic has been designated as medical examiner for the department of commerce in Big Spring, it was learned today. The designation was announced by Dr. R. E. Whitehead, medical director of the department of commerce, Washington, D. C. Dr. Hoover will represent the department in this area in the examination of student air pilots as to their fitness for flying. Other department of commerce medical examiners are located at Abilene and Midland.

DROUTH HAMPERS ROAD WORK; WATER HAULING A NECESSITY

State highway No. 9 in Howard county is feeling the effects of a prolonged winter drouth, more than thousands of acres of farm and ranch land.

Highway contractors are now being forced to haul more than 100,000 gallons of water on the north and south road each day in order to hold fresh caliche carried in for base.

A fleet of five trucks with 5,000-gallon capacity tanks is being operated day and night on the northern end of the road where winds have threatened to blow the new base away as fast as it can be hauled in.

Bulk of the water is coming from one-mile lake, just west of town. The north end supply is being

INTEREST QUICKENS IN COUNTY LIQUOR VOTE

Approximately 3,000 voters are expected to cast ballots either for legalizing the sale of all liquors or against legalizing the sale of all liquors in a local option election here Saturday.

Last minute thrills by wet and dry forces have quickened interest in the election and have cast a shadow of doubt over the outcome.

Where a week ago there was a general consensus that the county would go dry as it has for the past 30 years, there was a growing difference of opinion among political observers here on the eve of the election.

All election judges had secured their supplies Friday and were ready to keep space of the vote in their tabulation. None expected more than a 65 per cent total of the potential vote for the county.

Buses will open at 8 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m. The Herald is attempting to make a complete canvass of the results and have the entire county complete soon after the polls close. An election extra will be issued.

Wet and dry arguments were being voiced more frequently on street corners Friday, one about as often as the other. Those favor-

WORK ON SUBSIDY PAYMENTS TO BE RESUMED NEXT WEEK

Task of compiling information for subsidy payments, disrupted here Jan. 4 when the supreme court returned an adverse verdict on the AAA program, will be resumed here Monday, said Weaver, adjustment assistant, said Friday.

Since no authorization has been received with which to pay for clerical help, the work will have to be carried on by the regular force at the county agent's office in addition to other duties.

Because of this, said Weaver, it will not be possible to accommodate more than 25 to 30 applicants per day. He urged them not make a special trip to town to apply for subsidy payments since they have until July 15 to file their claims.

Cotton producers should not expect to make application on any Saturday due to press of other business in the agent's office on that day.

It is imperative that the farmer or producer bring his tax tickets or farm record book (showing complete records of ginning) or both. Applications for subsidy payments must be substantiated by records, declared Weaver.

These payments are made to bring the producer's revenue from cotton to 12 cents per pound. The payment will amount to the difference between the price on the day the cotton was sold and 12 cents.

C. Of C. Adds More Members

Total Now 33; Teams To Finish Campaign By First Of Week

Four more new members were added Friday as members of commerce roster Friday as workers contacted more prospects bringing the total number of new members in the past three days to 33.

Those announced Friday were Courtesy Service Station, Masters Electric Service Co., Quality Auto Top & Body Co., and Roscoe Van Zandt, Cosden chemist.

Several teams who have not made complete reports will finish their assignments either today or Monday, it was indicated.

Next week the membership committee will launch plans for the second annual drive from the employees division, a heretofore slighted source of support which last year netted more than $500.

TAX COLLECTIONS FOR COUNTY BEST IN SEVERAL YEARS

Howard county has experienced one of the best percentage collection of current taxes in years, a complete check showed at the tax collector-assessor's office today.

Current collections totaled $133,119.65 or 83.24 per cent of the roll. When $24,465.84 last half taxes due by June are in the treasury, the collections will have amounted to 83.21 per cent of the roll. Total collections have hovered around 80 per cent for the past few years.

Weather

BIG SPRING AND VICINITY—Fair tonight and Saturday.

WEST TEXAS—Fair tonight and Saturday; slightly warmer in the Southwest portion tonight; colder in Panhandle Saturday.

EAST TEXAS—Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday; slightly warmer tonight except in north-west and north-central portions.

TEMPERATURES

	Thurs. Fri.
	p.m. a.m.
1	64 47
2	63 46
3	66 45
4	67 43
5	66 45
6	64 45
7	64 45
8	58 41
9	59 47
10	47 53
11	46 58
12	45 64

Sunset today 6:45 p. m.; sunrise Friday 7:15 a. m.

Must Finance Farm Bill And Bonus Bonds

Income Levy Suggested As Means To Meet Part Of The Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt today projected a combination tax program to raise five hundred million dollars annually on a permanent basis and a similar sum on a temporary basis for one to three years.

He expressed the view temporary levies would best be met through income taxes. He said the taxes were necessary because of the bonus payment and the AAA demise, which, he said, opened a 129-million-dollar gap in the treasury.

Son Start Hearings

The president listed levies as follows: Bonus, 120 million; farm program, five hundred million; temporary reimbursement taxes, 500 million.

Speaker Byrns said the house ways and means committee would start hearings next week. A bitter congressional battle over the billion-dollar bill was foreseen.

Mr. Roosevelt referred to the $500,000,000 farm program tax as a "windfall tax" to capture processing levies refused on order of the supreme court.

Basic Fares On Railroads Are Reduced

Trimmed From 3.6 To 2 Cents; Pullman Rate Also Slashed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—In a five-four decision, the interstate commerce commission today ordered a reduction in the basic rail passenger fare from 3.6 cents to two cents a mile. The new fares are effective June 2.

Under the decision, the present experimental fares in the West and South are not to be disturbed.

There was a possibility that Eastern carriers might go to the courts in an effort to overthrow the ICC decision.

The order placed Pullman fares on a flat three-cent basis. These fares heretofore have averaged four cents.

FLOOD HITS CITY

River At Pittsburgh Highest In Nine Years

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28 (AP)—The ice-clogged Allegheny river today set the highest flood level in nine years into Pittsburgh, inundating many communities along the banks for hundreds of miles.

Cells of homes and industrial plants were flooded. It was predicted the river would rise to 30 feet, five feet above the flood level in Pittsburgh.

INSPECT REFINERY

ABC Club Members Visit At Cosden Plant

ABC club members Friday gained an accurate conception of the size and scope of Cosden refinery and its contribution to the city by making an inspection tour through the plant.

After meeting at the Settles for the regular weekly luncheon, the members drove to the plant east of town and were conducted through it.

WILL EXTEND ACT

FD To Sign Bill Prolonging Neutrality Law

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Legislation extending the neutrality law until May 1 next year will be signed by President Roosevelt by tomorrow, it was learned today.

The present law expires tomorrow night. Congress has voted to extend the temporary neutrality program.

Frank Knox Active In Seeking Republican Nomination

Chicago Publisher Has Not Waited To Be 'Drafted'

Fifth in a series of six daily articles on possibilities for the republican presidential nomination.

By KIRKE SIMPSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Col. Frank Knox, of Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, and Illinois, believes in making his own opportunities.

He carved out his professional career the way he won his military title—by starting from scratch and working hard. He seems to have carried the same tactics into politics.

The Colonel—the pistol-shot "Frank Knox"—was contacted from "William Franklin Knox" on his own motion—enlisted as a Rough Rider under Leonard Wood and Theodore Roosevelt in 1898 and reached a lieutenant colonelcy in a big gun regiment in France in 1917-18.

Hammers For Success

He began his newspaper career, which carried him to the publisher's desk of a great Chicago daily and within sight of a republican presidential nomination, as a reporter in Michigan.

Whatever his work, the records disclose him as no man to wait on

(Continued on Page 10)

ELECTION EXTRA

An extra, giving results of Saturday's county-wide election on the liquor-legalization question, will be issued by The Herald Saturday. It will be widely distributed by newsmen.

The extra will be put on the streets as soon as returns can be gathered from the fifteen voting boxes and tabulated, after the polls close at 7 o'clock.

Since the newspaper office facilities will be tied up in the gathering of election returns, it will be virtually an impossibility to give out results by telephone and the public's cooperation is requested in limiting phone requests for the vote result.

Service Is Restored In Strike Area

Lines Serving Four Towns Grounded; Workers Deny Any Blame

EL PASO, Feb. 28 (AP)—Power was restored today in four towns in the power strike area after a sudden grounding of lines last night. The towns were Las Cruces, Hatch and Anthony, N. M., and Canutillo, Tex.

The president of the power company said line poles were arched off. The union declares workers had nothing to do with the alleged sabotage.

Limited service had been restored to El Paso; business district and hospitals after an interruption caused when workers walked out early Thursday.

N. C. Clay, president of the local union chapter, ascribed the strike to "discrimination against members in every form" by the company, allegedly in violation of the agreement which settled a previous strike a year ago today.

To this M. C. Smith, president of the company, would make no official comment.

Clay denied union men were responsible for any plant damage. "If any damage was done," he said, "it was done by non-union and unskilled help brought in to break the strike."

Non-union labor was called in and an old steam plant, long out of use was pressed into service to feed the downtown area and hospitals.

From the department of labor in Washington came the report Joseph S. Myers, conciliator, had been ordered to El Paso. Arthur Horn, state labor commission deputy here, sent a report to F. E. Nichols, the state commissioner. Nichols said he would fly here to investigate.

TAXI DRIVER SURE OF IDENTIFICATION

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)—Joseph Perrone, Bronx taxi driver who delivered the Lindbergh ransom note to Dr. J. F. Condon, said today that Bruno Richard Hauptmann "positively was the man who gave me the note."

He made the statement in reply to an assertion of Governor Harold Hoffman questioning Perrone's identification.

COL. FRANK KNOX

Around And About

By Tom Beasley

HERMAN FUHRER will be starting his wrestling here soon. The top-notch middleweights are drifting back into this part of the country. The Masked Marvel never beaten in this section, has left Alaska, crossed Canada, and is making stops on the West Coast. Vic Webber is still in New York and Sailor Watkins, one of the meanest men of the mat world, is reported to be in Mississippi.

NOTE FROM THE Sweetwater high school football training site: "When the Mustang hopefuls for 1936 really get down to their spring grind, we suspect they are going to get long sessions in blocking and tackling. Last season the coaches didn't spend much time on the tackling angle, pursuing the policy that a good blocker was naturally a good tackler. In most cases the surprise proved correct, in others it failed. Coaches say that the 1936 Mustangs are to be both good blockers and tacklers.

A STADIUM seating 100,000 is being built on the campus of University City, Madrid, to accommodate international football matches, boxing contests, etc. $200,000 is being spent on Ireland's Gaelic sports stadium at Croke Park, Dublin, which will seat 80,000.

LAWRENCE STEVENS of South Africa, the British Empire lightweight boxing champion by virtue of a victory over Kid Berg, works as a motor car mechanic for $33 a week in Johannesburg and has ambitions to own a garage. He plans to challenge Tony Canzoneri for the world title.

NORMAN MALECHEK, principal of Forsan high school, will accompany the high school basketball team to Abilene tonight. The Buffs play in the regional tournament at Abilene tomorrow.

GOLF RULES: Infractions—Out of bounds. (If from tee, second ball may be teed, otherwise must be dropped. (Five minutes search allowed.) Penalty: match play—stroke and distance unless reduced to distance only by local rule; medal play—stroke and distance unless reduced to distance only by local rule. Infractions—For not complying with out of bounds rule. Penalty: match play—loss of hole; medal play—disqualified.

SETTLES HOTEL COFFEE SHOP SPECIAL Sunday Evening Dinner 75c

Mint Springs advertisement featuring a man holding a bottle and the text 'The best advice I ever gave you Change to MINT SPRINGS AND KEEP THE CHANGE'.

FORSAN LEAVES FOR REGIONAL MEET

Sikes Starts With Untried Soph Talent

7 Lettermen Remain From 2nd Place A. & M. Baseball Team

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 28.—Rebuilding most of his team from untried squad and sophomore talent, overhauling his mound staff present tough tasks J. V. Sikes will have to face when he begins his first term as Texas Aggie baseball coach Monday, March 2 with 35 or 40 candidates. Seven lettermen remain from the team which took second place in the 1935 Southwest Conference race, but a number of these lettered as reserves.

Gone from the Maroon ranks are Jake Moody, who pitched the Cadets to four of their five 1935 conference victories. Ed Steves, catcher; Tommy Hutto, Travis Voelkel, Bill Couser and Bob Connelley, regular infield; and Bill Sodd, outfielder who hit at a .325 clip. With the exception of Pete Dowling, Houstonian and reserve outfielder, most of the remaining lettermen were low on an Aggie team which ranked last in 1935 conference hitting with an average of .226.

Two Letter Hurlers "Doc" Pliner, Denton, who won the only game he started, and Homer Martinez, Hebronville, who had a bad year after a fairly successful season in 1934, remain as 1935 lettermen hurlers. Travis (Icky) Perrenot, San Antonio, and Kyle Riddle, Decatur, are squadmen. Coach Sikes is banking heavily on Herb Knowles, junior college transfer from Beaumont, to come through. Newcomers hoping to get a pitching call will include John Spreen, Brenham; and Tom Murrain, Bartlesville, Okla.

Dowling, shifted from the outfield; and Walt Pythian, Taylor, junior college transfer, rank as leading prospects for the catching chores. Dowling broke into the lineup late the past year and collected six hits, including two homers, in sixteen times at bat, for a conference average of .378.

Joe Foster, Calvert, and Johnny Blalock, Troup, are lettermen who subbed for Voelkel and Couser at second and short last year. Other leading infield candidates will include Voelkel, Fayetteville; J. B. Ramsey, McKinney; Jim Spivey, Letkin; Jess Landrum, Beaumont; Les Schraub, Seguin; Johnny Morrow, Wortham; and Chris Finanagan, Houston.

Capit. Mike Langley, Fentress, and Ted (Fritz) Jones, Belton, are lettermen outfielders, squad and sophomore candidates including Woody Bell, Greenville; Foster Smith, Blanco; and Waylon (Chink) Manning, Beaumont.

Open Season March 14 The Aggies will open their season in a game here Saturday, March 14, with the Grand Prize club from Houston and will play the Beaumont Exporters March 20 and 21. Their Southwest Conference schedule will be: March 27 and 28, Baylor at Waco; April 3 and 4, Rice at College Station; April 11 and 12, Texas Christian at College Station; April 13, Southern Methodist at College Station; April 20, Baylor at College Station; April 24 and 25, Southern Methodist at Dallas; April 27, Texas Christian at Fort Worth; May 2, University of Texas at College Station; May 16, Rice Institute at Houston; and May 22 and 23, University of Texas at Austin. The Aggies also will play a pair of exhibition games with the University of Texas Longhorns May 13 and 14 at Brenham, but these tilts will not count towards the conference championship.

The "Old Fox" Concentrates His 'Flocks' From Minors Around The Washington Camp

ORLANDO, Fla., Feb. 28. (AP)—Clark Griffith, the Old Fox of the Potomac, has literally surrounded his Washington Senators with minor league talent for the duration of the spring training period. All the Washington chateaux are concentrated now in a small area, unlike last year at this time when the Senators and their two farm clubs, Chattanooga and Albany, were scattered out, a hundred or so miles apart.

While the Senators train at Tinker Field here, the Lookouts have quarters at Sanford, 10 miles away, and Albany is lodged at Winter Garden, 10 miles off in another direction. Griffith, the "Old Fox" as he terms his group of hopefuls, in the immediate vicinity is pointed out as an important move in the effort to make Washington a pennant contender in the American league. "It means," Griffith says, "that we can run around from club to club, bring a player up or send him down. It means I can watch these rookies, both with the team and with Chattanooga or Albany. Griffith, while driving and putting around the golf courses here, awaiting the arrival of his players, made two decisions on material. In both cases he strengthened Chattanooga by sending Leon (Lefty) Pettit, veteran hurler, and Alex McCoshy, south with Washington in 1935—back to the Lookouts.

Ten Rookie Hurlers The Old Fox was relieved and heartened when he received the signed contract of Jimmy DeShong, right-hander recently obtained from the Yankees. A score of Senators headed by Manager Bucky Harris comprised the first contingent, followed a week later by the veteran slabmen, including Earl Whitehill, Jack Russell and Ed Link.

AGGIES, FROGS BATTLE TO KEEP OUT OF CELLAR

Each Team Credited With 1 Conference Victory

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 28.—The Texas Aggies and Texas Christian Horned Frogs will tangle here Saturday night in what is expected to decide a season-long battle between the two teams in the Southwest conference cellar championship in basketball. Each team has played nine games to date and each has only one victory to its credit. The Frogs earned their victory in their season's opener, beating Southern Methodist 29-23, and the Aggies later defeated the Frogs 26-19. Both teams are expected to drop their remaining games, the Aggies being scheduled to meet Southern Methodist here Monday night and the University of Texas here Thursday night, and the Frogs scheduled to play Rice at Houston Monday night and Southern Methodist at Dallas Saturday night, March 7.

The Aggies have scored 229 points and had 306 scored against them in their nine games to date. The Frogs have netted 215 but have been 319 chucked up against them. With his forward-ranks riddled with injuries, Virgil Harris, having broken his hand and Everett Clark recovering from a case of flu, Aggie Coach "Fib" McQuillan has shifted Ward Roberts, sophomore guard, to forward. He will team with Ed Lee at forward, Clyde Jones at center and Capt. Monte Carmichael and Taylor Wilkins at guard.

In a second game Saturday night, the Texas Aggie freshmen, victorious in three out of four games, will play the North Texas Aggies. The winner in three out of its four games to date, Coach "Silkes" of the Texas Aggie freshmen, agrees will meet the North Texas Aggie here Saturday night following the Aggie-Texas Christian rivalry tilt. The first-year Aggies defeated Allen academy 52-29 and the Rice institute "Silmes" 35 to 15 and 26 to 15, but lost to the University of Texas "Yearlings" 19 to 53. Their probable starting lineup is: Dick Chiswell, San Angelo, and A. Utterback, Brackettville, forwards; Paul Wofford, Arlington, center; and Frank Sachso, Quitaque, and C. T. Davis, Jr., guards.

TEXAS AGGIE SPORT BRIEFS COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 28.—The winner in three out of its four games to date, Coach "Silkes" of the Texas Aggie freshmen, agrees will meet the North Texas Aggie here Saturday night following the Aggie-Texas Christian rivalry tilt. The first-year Aggies defeated Allen academy 52-29 and the Rice institute "Silmes" 35 to 15 and 26 to 15, but lost to the University of Texas "Yearlings" 19 to 53. Their probable starting lineup is: Dick Chiswell, San Angelo, and A. Utterback, Brackettville, forwards; Paul Wofford, Arlington, center; and Frank Sachso, Quitaque, and C. T. Davis, Jr., guards.

TRACK CALL IS ISSUED AT TECH

LUBBOCK, Feb. 28. — With the basketball season completed, Coach Bert Huffman will issue a call for track aspirants Monday to prepare for Texas Tech's entrance in the Fat Stock Show meet at Fort Worth March 27 and 28 and the Texas relays late in April. Three lettermen remain from the 1935 squad that capped second place in the Border conference. John Case, Petersburg, who holds the conference two-mile record; Maurice Cowan, Lubbock, pole vaulter; and Jim Neill, Brownfield, hurdler, comprise the veteran strength. Approximately 30 freshmen and varsity candidates are expected to answer Coach Huffman's first call—the largest number of track candidates to report at Tech. Mrs. S. Spradling, Midland, has been released from a local hospital where she was treated for burns. She was returned to her home to convalesce. Stockton, Mile and half-mile relays—Hub Wilson; Grosbeck; Arlington Heibing, San Angelo; Melvin Horak, LaGrange; and Decker.

Swede Enters Nat'l Indoor Tennis Meet

Schroeder Rated Best Indoor Net Player In Europe

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP)—Carl Schroeder of Sweden, rated the best indoor tennis player in Europe on the strength of his victories over Baron Gottfried von Cramm, Jean Borotra and Christian Bousuiss, is here to compete in the national indoor tennis championships on the invitation of the United States Lawn Tennis Association and by royal command of his highness, King Gustav of Sweden. Schroeder had been invited to accompany King Gustav to the Riviera as his tennis partner but when the tennis-minded monarch learned of the invitation to play in America he lost no time in ordering Schroeder to accept.

He has often played tennis with the 17-year-old king and reveals that the ruler of Sweden will not tolerate any tendency on the part of his opponents to ease up because of his age and position. Serve him softly and he is quite likely to give you a piece of his mind and walk out of the match. King Gustav plays tennis for exercise and competition and demands plenty of action. Schroeder explains his aptitude for the indoor game as due to the fact that he was in the army and during the winter months had plenty of time to practice and improve his game. The outdoor season in Sweden is quite short. Tennis can be played in comfort only from June until September. Schroeder's outdoor game, he feels, hardly measures up to his indoor performances. He does not rate his own chances of winning our national title any too highly. In fact, he will be quite surprised if he manages to reach the final round. His victories over Von Cramm and Borotra he dismisses as "just the luck of the game." On another day either of these players might very well reverse the score, as he was being figured it out. Either the big, handsome Swedish star is very modest, or very honest. In practice matches he looked good enough, but the actual competition will bring any faults to the surface quickly enough.

Schroeder, as No. 1 man on the Swedish Davis cup team this year, will lead his teammates against Ireland in the first round matches at Dublin. Two years ago, just before entering the army, he played in the Wimbledon matches, but not for long as he was eliminated in the second round by Adrian Quist of Australia. He hopes to gain some experience on grass and hard courts this year and plans to play in the French championships at Wimbledon.

Gregory Mangin of Newark, the defending champion, stands in Schroeder's path to the national indoor crown. Mangin, three-time winner of the indoor title, is one of the greatest indoor players in the world. His style is suited to the high-bounding indoor game. The tennis officials who are staging the tourney are hopeful for a final match which would bring Schroeder and Mangin to opposite sides of the net. A little world's championship would be decided, for the Swedish ace holds three international covered courts titles while Mangin would be tossing his own national title into the fray.

British Trainers Ikered By 'Alien' Swim Coach

LONDON, Feb. 28. (AP)—The amateur swimming association's engagement of an American, Pete Denjardine, as diving coach for the British Olympic team, aroused hostility among British trainers. Commenting on this attitude the A.S.A. state that it was the association's aim to obtain the best available help for its team, and that the question of nationality did not arise.

Following the example of the Amateur Athletic Association, the A.S.A. is to notify all the swimmers and divers it may need for the Olympics that from a specified date they will be under observation. The British championships, at Wembley pool on July 1-4 will serve as final trials preparatory to team selection.

Sophomores May Get Call Over Vets Under New Michigan System; Kipke Fighting Way Out Of Rut

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 28. (UP)—Harry Kipke has begun spring football practice at the University of Michigan with the dictum that his players will have "to look good even when they lose" if they expect to make the team next fall. The coach is struggling to get Michigan "farther out" of the football rut. He uses an expression because his team failed to win half of its games last fall. Using as his nucleus some of the 20 lettermen—out of 28—who will be back, in addition to several other veterans, Kipke also will have men ineligible last fall to call as his trumps. He is counting heavily on the youngsters, figures that many of them will see competition and quite a number will earn letters.

New Men Placed First The coaches have about decided that players who failed to look impressive the last two seasons, even though they have seen enough service to earn letters, will have to make room for the new prospects. Whether they will go through with their present plans to build a team from rough-riding sophomores, or at the last fall back on more experienced men remains to be seen. The squad is working in two groups now. Each drills twice a week. As soon as the basketball floor is out of Yost Field House, the practice sessions will be moved there from the intramural building and as early as possible, probably about March 30, outdoor work will be started.

Kipke's plans call for a first squad of about 25 men, lined up by the close of spring practice. Attention will be concentrated on those men during the weeks between Sept. 10, the day fall practice starts, and Oct. 3, the day of the indoor game as due to the fact that he was in the army and during the winter months had plenty of time to practice and improve his game. The outdoor season in Sweden is quite short. Tennis can be played in comfort only from June until September. Schroeder's outdoor game, he feels, hardly measures up to his indoor performances. He does not rate his own chances of winning our national title any too highly. In fact, he will be quite surprised if he manages to reach the final round. His victories over Von Cramm and Borotra he dismisses as "just the luck of the game." On another day either of these players might very well reverse the score, as he was being figured it out. Either the big, handsome Swedish star is very modest, or very honest. In practice matches he looked good enough, but the actual competition will bring any faults to the surface quickly enough.

EIGHTY-ONE NOMINATED FOR RACE NEXT AUTUMN

West Thoroughbred Breeders Spending Much Money

DALLAS, Feb. 28. (AP)—Southwest thoroughbred breeders are spending thousands of dollars in the development of racing stock. Since the legalization of horse racing and pari-mutuel wagering in 1933, interest and activity in the breeding division has more than tripled, according to Miss Pearl K. Beckham of the Waggoner estate and Texas Jockey club, who is actively in charge of preliminary nominations and arrangements for the Southwest Thoroughbred Breeders' Futurity. The Breeders' Futurity is an annual Fall fixture at the Texas Jockey club's meetings at Arlington Downs. Fifty-three Texas- and Oklahoma-bred juveniles remain as potential candidates for the 1936 Futurity which promises to develop into an event comparable with the rich Eastern juvenile classics. The interest in breeding of thoroughbreds is clearly shown by the nomination of 81 of the 187 Futurity. George E. McCamey of the Bedford Stock Farms has nominated five. F. B. Kootz, master of the Paulford Farms near Tulsa, Okla., has 10 potential candidates, all by Witchmount. Col. R. B. George, Dallas enthusiast, has eight foals nominated, and the W. D. Reynolds Trust nominated three. The Waggoner's Three D's Stock Farm will rely on 13 prospective racers, including five by Phalaron, one by Quarie Bras II, out of Canfil, two by Stamford, and four likely youngsters by Liberty Limited, now represented for the first time. The Liberty Limited youngsters are out of Fliver, Grl Scout, Handy Mandy and High Flight, and all are standouts in the new Three D crop of yearlings. Woodward and Smith, now racing as Valdina Farms, will have 12 youngsters to choose from, and these all are by that noted sire, Chicago, and raised on the Running W ranch at Sabino, Tex.

Impromptu Tilt for Scrubs

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 28. (AP)—Substitutes on the Transylvania college and Kentucky Wesleyan college basketball teams staged an unscheduled game here between halves of a recent varsity game. Weary of the usual ball-balancing goal-shooting practiced by most subs, the two groups started a regular game after recruiting a coach from the side lines.

CHAMBERS GOES OUT OF LINEUP

FORSAN, Feb. 28. (Sp)—Forsan high school's hopes for a regional basketball championship took a drop here this morning when Chambers, center on the Buff team, went down with mumps. Coach Brady Nix will make several changes to fill the gap. Parker will be shifted from forward to center with Adams taking Parker's place at a forward position. Liles will play the other forward with McKinney and Scudday in the backcourt. T. Allen, J. Dietler and Max Moore will make the trip as reserves.

The Forsan team will leave for Abilene this afternoon, and will open play Saturday morning against O'Brien. Milburn, center, and the winners play Saturday night in the Abilene high school gym for the regional championship. The winner of the regional will enter the tourney at Austin March 6 and 7 for the state championship.

tiling card at Monahans next Wednesday. Ryan, only 22 years old, has won 41 of his last 43 matches. The semi-windup will bring together Al Szasz and Phil Roman. Herman Fuhrer and Dave Tobolowsky, local wrestling promoters, will open their outdoor arena here as soon as weather will permit.

Featuring Our New MODERN PAINT AND BODY WORKS Professionally Skilled Service—Bids Gladly Submitted On All Work. TOM CURRIE MOTOR CO. 202-6 Scurry Phone 250

Allen-Ogden advertisement for horse products including Quaker Oats, Rice Flakes, Catsup, OLIVES, CHERRIES, PEACHES, Tomatoes, FLOUR, Laundry Soap, Woodbury Soap, EGGS, BUTTER, and DELICATESSEN.

FLEW'S SERVICE STATIONS advertisement with text 'THERE IS ONE FACT WE SHOULD KEEP in mind: Our individual, local and national economic well-being is dependent on our ability to intelligently co-operate under the profit system.'

To the Voters of Howard County:

On the 29th of February, tomorrow, the voters of Howard county will have an opportunity to vote on legalizing the sale of liquor. This county voted dry first in 1909, again in 1918, and against repeal in 1934. This election has been called, or at least sponsored, by the wets. As citizens who are opposed to liquor, legal or illegal, we accept the challenge and ask those voters who believe with us to vote tomorrow against legalizing the sale of liquor.

About Taxes

The statement is being emphasized that since liquor is being sold that we might as well legalize the sale of it and get the revenue. In other words we ought to confess our inability to suppress liquor law violations. It would be just as sensible and reasonable to say we cannot stop stealing so we might as well favor legalized theft, or that we can not perfectly enforce the laws intended to protect the morals of the people so we might as well license immorality.

We Do Not Need The Tax Money

The proposition of revenue has been presented in a very misleading way by the Wets. The voters want to remember that Howard county is in excellent financial condition and has always been able to operate on a cash basis and pays its debts as they accrue; also to build roads and maintain a county and home demonstration agent to serve our people in many other helpful ways. The same is true of the city of Big Spring. There are few cities in Texas or the south in better financial condition than Big Spring. The city schools are able to pay their debts and operate on a cash basis. They, too, are in sound financial shape and no legal liquor tax money has been available for Howard county, the city of Big Spring or our schools. Don't let them fool you by saying we need the money. We have been getting along fine all these years without it and we will be better off if we never get such money.

Not Necessary to Sound Growth

We want to remember that Howard county has been dry since 1909, but in the period of time from then until now the county has grown soundly and consistently, especially in the last 10 years. Our taxable values are eight or ten times more now than they were ten years ago and no legal liquor tax money was available to do it. We did not need it in the past to help us grow and we do not need it now. In fact liquor does not build homes, roads, schools, churches or any of the institutions that make a community a better, richer, or a finer place to live.

Bootleggers Are Not Put Out Of Business By Legal Sale Of Liquor

The experience the government has had since repeal indicates that legal liquor does not eliminate the bootlegger who is still credited with at least half the sales of liquor where liquor is legally sold. There are reasons for this: One is that the bootlegger sells for less for very obvious reasons. Another fact to remember is that the sale of booze and "control," and "regulation," decency and obedience to law never go together, and the sale of liquor in the past has rarely ever been on a plane above that on which the bootlegger operates.

Why Is A Change Desired?

Why did the wets call this election? Was it because of a burning desire to eliminate the bootlegger. No, not that. Already the state liquor law officials have been here and some heavy fines have been collected, and doubtless those who want to sell booze have decided that there is a hard road ahead for the bootlegger in the new set-up and that they want it legalized to lessen their trouble and expense, and not because of any desire to help the schools and old people.

Schools And Old Age Pensions

A great effort is made to try to convince the voters that our schools and old age assistance will be greatly helped if we vote to legalize liquor sales. If liquor was legalized in Howard county the total taxes could not be more than a few thousand dollars at most and the money so derived would go into the state treasury and the schools of Howard county would not get enough money back from this source to operate the schools a single day longer because this money would be paid to all school districts in the state. It is already evident that three fourths of the liquor tax will furnish only from 30 to 40 per cent of the money needed for old age pensions, so Texas will have to find other sources of revenue to help the old people.

Where Will Liquor Be Consumed?

The present liquor law in Texas provides that liquor must be sold in unbroken packages and cannot be consumed on the premises where purchased. In other words legal liquor must be consumed in a private place and not in any public place. The homes will be one of the places liquor can be consumed, but not much will be consumed there because there are not many people who would want to take liquor into their home to be drunk, especially if there are children in the home. It could be drunk in an automobile but that is a very dangerous place to drink it. The most of this legal liquor will, in all probability, be consumed in rooms rented in hotels, rooming houses, and similar places and such a situation might, and probably would, result in moral conditions worse even than existed in the old saloon days.

Cost Of Liquor

No revenue from the sale of liquor has ever paid the added cost to society caused by its use. Just a small part of the cost of court trials, prison maintenance, and the economic waste that always has and always will follow its use. Even a casual investigation of court proceedings and city, county and state expenditures in law enforcement will prove that liquor costs much more than it brings into any government treasury and its cost to legitimate business does not now nor never has justified giving liquor any legal standing or recognition of respectability in society.

Always Corrupting

Liquor has always been a corrupting, degrading and demoralizing influence. Multiplied examples of the wreck and ruin in honor, lives, character and fortunes are living, haunting memories in the minds of millions now living. Some men and women in Howard county have suffered so greatly from liquor that they ought to be willing and eager to vote against it even if they had to crawl to the polls to vote. So instead of making it easier to get liquor, which remember, must be consumed in a private place, let's make it as hard to get as possible, for the more increased use of booze cannot make us better in any way.

(Political Advertisement paid for by the undersigned.)

Good Government League

CLYDE THOMAS, Chairman
REV. C. A. BICKLEY, V-Chmn.
REV. W. S. GARNETT, Sec'y
FOX STRIPLIN, Asso.-Sec'y
B. REAGAN
CLIFF TALBOT, Mayor

REV. R. E. DAY
REV. J. A. PETERS
J. B. PICKLE—Executive Committee
REV. G. C. SCHURMAN
AND HUNDREDS OF OTHER
BIG SPRING CITIZENS

FD's Foes In Party Ranks Cause Worry

No Chance Now For Harmony In Renomination Of Roosevelt

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of AP Bureau, Washington)

Administration political leaders, whose first job is to get Mr. Roosevelt renominated in June with the least possible friction, are finding plenty to think about.

The most conspicuous of their difficulties arises, of course, from the activities of the anti-Roosevelt democrats. Expectations of a perfectly harmonious renomination have about disappeared. A dispute of greater or lesser magnitude over the platform likewise has come to be regarded as inevitable.

It is not the dissenters from the Roosevelt policies, however, who are receiving first attention in the present cogitations of the convention planners. They are faced with a less publicized, but possibly more hazardous situation within their own ranks.

In several states very troublesome tangles have arisen between rival factions which are all friendly to the president, but cannot agree among themselves. Usually these schisms go far back into local politics, but they bend up nationally in quarrels over the selection of convention delegates and state management of the presidential campaign.

"Localizing the Conflict"

So far as the anti-Roosevelt movement is concerned, the effort of the administration leaders is, as they say in diplomacy, to "localize the conflict."

Skirmishing at some points is expected, but the Roosevelt managers are predicting that it will be confined to a very few states. They hope that in far more than enough states to nominate, solid Roosevelt delegations will be chosen without a contest.

In four or five places only has there appeared, thus far, any organized attempt to send anti-Roosevelt delegates to the Philadelphia convention. There is opposition elsewhere, of course, but adverse sentiment and actual pre-convention organization work are two quite different things.

In Massachusetts, former Governor Ely has announced he would work for an anti-Roosevelt delegation. Governor Talmadge is definitely seeking a similar delegation from Georgia.

Less definite movements are under consideration in Wisconsin and one or two other states. In New York it appears that Al Smith and some of his associates will become delegates in opposition to a renomination.

Such movements may appear later over a wider territory, notably in the east, but few anti-Roosevelt men predict that the total number of delegates against the president will be more than a small minority.

Delegate Job for Fixers

One way to keeping this total down is for the national democratic organization to promote harmony in the various state organizations. Every campaign year, many an incipient insurgent has been mollified and quieted by recognition in the state campaign set-up, and a place on the delegation.

In this effort, the administration has one advantage. Three-fourths of the states elect governors in 1936. Each rival candidate for governor hopes to be nominated, and neither he nor his faction is anxious, in case he is nominated, to be openly at odds with the head of the national ticket. The natural inclination is to "go along" nationally.

Nevertheless, serious differences persist. In California the Sinclair EPIC faction and the old McAdoo faction have been battling over the make-up of the delegation to Philadelphia, and in Ohio the friends and opponents of Governor Davey

'Rose Marie' With MacDonald, Eddy To Play At Ritz

Newest of the pictureized light operas, "Rose Marie," with the same stars who made such success of "Naughty Marietta," comes to the Ritz theater this week-end, showing at a Saturday midnight matinee and on Sunday and Monday. Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy are co-stars in the popular production, bringing to the screen again the voices recognized as among the best in moviedom.

Like "Naughty Marietta," "Rose Marie" was directed by W. E. Van Dyke and produced by Hunt Stromberg. Replete with haunting music, a tender love story, magnificent photography and back-grounds, "Rose Marie" has been hailed as one of the major pictures of the year.

Miss MacDonald plays the name role, an opera star who travels disguised into the wilds in search of her dissolute brother, a fugitive. Nelson Eddy portrays Sergeant Bruce, the "Mountie" assigned to bring the criminal to justice. "Rose Marie" is a pictorial work of art, having been filmed in the lake country of the Sierra Nevada. Outstanding sequences are the brilliant musical numbers.

Others include Henry Wadsworth, James Macklin, Dudley Diggs, Jonathan Hale and Billy Newell.

Barrymore In Film At Ritz

Unusual Drama Is Presented In 'The Voice Of Bugle Ann'

One of the most amazing and dramatic court cases in history comes to the screen in "The Voice of Bugle Ann," the Ritz theater's feature for Friday and Saturday. In the story of Missouri hounds and their famous hounds, adapted from McKinley Kantor's famous novel, Lionel Barrymore has the lead role; and reviewers have lauded the part as the best for the capable Barrymore since that in "A Free Soul."

Barrymore plays Spring Davis, the old farmer who kills a man to avenge his dog, and makes a dramatic plea in court for dogs as man's best friends. The dramatic action is played against an interesting background, and foxhunts with Missouri hounds are staged.

There is a romance running through the story, with Eric Linden, last seen with Barrymore in "Ah Wilderness!" and Maureen O'Sullivan as the lovers. Two more of the "Ah Wilderness!" cast appear in the picture, Spring Byington as the mother and Charley Grapewin as the faithful friend. Others include Henry Wadsworth, James Macklin, Dudley Diggs, Jonathan Hale and Billy Newell.

art, having been filmed in the lake country of the Sierra Nevada. Outstanding sequences are the brilliant musical numbers.

Hoot Gibson Star Of Western Film Featured At Lyric

Exciting riding, bucking broncos, trick roping and outstanding photography provide the background for 'Rainbow's End,' Hoot Gibson's new starring picture which tops the Lyric theater's program for Friday and Saturday.

"Rainbow's End" is a story of a clash in personalities and a situation between father and son, with the father portrayed by Oscar Apfel. He is shown the error of his ways by Hoot—a reversal of the usual father-and-son conflict.

There are many humorous sequences in the play and love interest is provided in the romance between Hoot and June Gale, who appears as the daughter of the owner of the ranch on which Hoot is foreman.

Western action is furnished in the rodeo scenes which open the picture.

HARRY CAREY HEADS CAST OF PICTURE AT QUEEN

An adventure film with Harry Carey in the starring role, "Ruler's Paradise," is offered at the Queen theater Friday and Saturday. In it, Carey again rides the rough trails, this time as the man on a determined search for another who has stolen his wife and child.

The riding and shooting of the western story are included, but there is dramatic appeal in the picture that is filled with action. Climax of the film comes when Carey tracks down the villain and forces him until he changes from bully into cringing coward. The villain's part is played by Theodore Lorch.

Boilermakers' Feature A 'Basketball Octet'

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 28. (C)

They're thinking of calling Purdue's basketball team an octet instead of a quintet.

Although only five men see action at one time, three forwards, two centers and three guards have been sharing almost equally in the Boilermakers' campaign.

They are Capt. Bob Kessie, Jewell Young and Johnny Hines, forwards; Ed Elliott and Jim Seward, centers; and Red Lambert, Pat Malaska and Glen Downey, guards.

If the Boilermakers keep the pace in their remaining Big Ten games they set in the first four they may approach or surpass the scoring record for a conference season of 512 they established in 1934. In the first four games this season Purdue averaged an even 45 points per game.

Others in the cast are Edmund Cobb, Roger Williams, Chuck Morrison, Allen Greer and Charles Whittaker.

COME TO Pig Stand 91 510 E. 3rd

Hurry to Wards!

BIG 4-DAY SALE... ENDS SATURDAY

4795

IS DOWN, IS MONTHLY Small Carrying Charge

New! Compare $60 Ranges! LOW PRICED GAS RANGE

- Beautiful modern lines—rounded corners!
- Wards Double Quick Oven, rock wool insulated—keeps heat in—heats quicker!
- New Automatic Oven Heat Control—and burner handle combined!
- Full enameled oven and broiler linings—easy to keep clean!
- All cast-iron round burners—newest type!
- Cool Bakelite handles!
- Automatic cook top lighter—safe, convenient!

3-Burner Gas RANGETTE

27.95

Neat, compact, complete! Porcelain enameled—oven-door insulated—top flue holds in heat. Storage compartment—two oven racks. Burner cover for splash!

The Winner In Ward's Paint Contest

Mrs. Lamar Smith, 604 Main street, Big Spring, was announced winner of the Montgomery Ward paint contest. In making the announcement, E. M. Conley, Ward store manager said the company officials were highly pleased with the slogan.

A Lovely New Floor For 85c

Imparts a brilliant hard gloss—use it on wood or cement floors!

WARDS Paints

Certified Floor and Porch Enamel has greatest wear, weather, and wash resistance! Verified $1.10 value

85c

Certified Super-Spacer Varnish	qt. $1.20	Coverall Flat Wall Paint	qt. $1.69
inside or outside use; floor, woodwork; $1.75 value.		inside and outside use; washable, serviceable.
Certified Dryfast Enamel	qt. $1.05	Coverall Floor Varnish	qt. 65c
inside and outside use; verified $1.30 value; use in everywhere; some floor.		inside and outside use; verified $1.00 value; serviceable.
Certified Glass Wall Enamel	qt. $2.98	Coverall Floor Varnish	qt. 55c verified $3.30 value; for walls and woodwork; washable.		verified $1.00 value; low priced dependable varnish.
Certified Semi-Gloss Enamel	qt. $2.98	Certified Malmesbury	3lb. 39c verified $3.40 value; for walls and woodwork; washable.		verified $4.00 value; many colors; dependable quality.

Visit Ward's Stove Dept.

Come in tomorrow and see the new line of stoves. See the new features Wards have to offer. We are receiving new models every week. If you are planning on a new stove visit Wards stove department before you buy.

Auto LOANS

4th at Scurry
J. L. WEBB
T-F Service Station

This Add and 25 Cents

GOOD FOR A BIG MIRRORGRAPH PICTURES

at THURMAN'S STUDIO

FEW DAYS ONLY

102 W. 3rd St. Big Spring, Tex.

Woodward and Coffee

Attorneys-at-Law

General Practice In All Courts

Third Floor Petroleum Bldg. Phone 391

MONTGOMERY WARD

PHONE 280 221 WEST THIRD ST.

Fish And Cheese Dishes Solve Problems Of Menus For Lent

Just about now you are probably racking your brains and scouring your cook books for something to take the place of meat on Lenten meals. If that's the case you'll welcome suggestions for new ways to prepare fish.

You'll find the same food nourishment value in most sea food as you find in meat, and the tempting menu possibilities offer a new appetite appeal. You'll find the recipes on this page handy during and after Lent.

Fillets of Sole Carmec
Soak the fillets in half water and half milk for 2 hours. Dry well, cold over each fillet and place in a buttered dish. Sprinkle lightly with salt and poach in a short bouillon in the oven for about 10 minutes. Prepare a cream sauce made with the bouillon of fish and thickened with the yellow of eggs. Prepare apart a dish of fried tomatoes. Arrange the fillets of sole on a long platter making a circle around the dish. Dress over the sole the cream sauce and garnish with thin slices of truffles. Place a mound of the tomatoes in the center of the platter.

Broiled Bluefish and Banana
Broil the bluefish the regular way basting frequently with melted butter mixed with paprika. Slice the bananas and place them around the fish on a platter. Sprinkle lemon juice on the bananas and on the fish pour this mixture. Put from the pan 4 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon minced parsley and 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Serve with any vegetables you choose, preferably string beans or peas.

Creamed Codfish in Mashed Potato Ring
1/2 pound salt codfish
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour

2 cups milk
4 hard cooked eggs, shelled and sliced
4 cups well seasoned mashed potatoes
Cover codfish with cold water and let stand several hours to freshen. Drain, cover with cold water and bring to the boiling point. Drain and flake. Melt the butter in a double boiler, add the flour and blend. Add the milk and cook until thickened stirring constantly. Add the flaked fish and the eggs; heat well. Arrange the mashed potatoes around the edge of a serving platter and pour the creamed fish in the center.

Oyster Stew
1 dozen oysters and their juice
1/2 pint cream
2 cups milk
1 heaping tablespoon flour
3 heaping tablespoons butter
2 small carrots
2 small white onions
1 small white turnip
Parsley
2 hearts celery
Paprika
Salt and pepper
Make a cream sauce by melting 1 tablespoon of butter, add the flour, stir well and gradually pour in the scalded milk. Keep warm in a double boiler. Peel the carrots, turnip and onion and scrape the celery. Wash them carefully and cut them up very fine. Chop the parsley. Take the second tablespoon of butter and put it into a frying pan, then add the chopped vegetables and fry to a golden brown being very careful not to burn them. Next put the oysters and their juice in an enamel saucepan with the rest of the butter, salt slightly and add freshly ground pepper. Heat the cream. When ready to serve put the oysters on the fire and heat them until they curl at the edges. Now add the chopped vegetables to the cream sauce, then the hot cream to the sauce, and last of all the oysters and a little of their juice. Put at once into a soup tureen, sprinkle with a little parsley chopped fine and a dash of paprika.

Fried Oysters
Clean and drain large selected oysters, then season with salt, pepper and paprika and just a dash of onion. Dip each oyster in flour to dry it further, then in slightly beaten egg, then in fine rolled nicely seasoned cracker crumbs. Leave for a few moments then dip once more in the egg and cracker crumbs and fry in deep fat heated to 400 degrees. Drain on paper and serve garnished with lemon slices and parsley.
1/2 pint oysters

Gets Job in Movies

A talent scout saw Wilma Francis (above), typing in an insurance company office in New Orleans, and now she's well on her way to becoming a movie queen. She attended Tulane and Loyola universities. (Associated Press Photo)

2 eggs
1/2 pint milk
Sufficient flour to make the batter.
Salt and pepper to taste
A little nutmeg
Hot lard
Scald the oysters in their own liquor and lay them on a cloth to drain well. Break the eggs into a dish, mix the flour with them, add the milk gradually with nutmeg and seasonings and put the oysters in the batter. Heat some lard in a deep pan, put in the oysters one at a time, take them up with a sharp pointed skewer and place on a paper to drain.

Salmon and Caper Sauce
2 slices salmon
1/2 pound butter
1/4 teaspoon chopped parsley
1 shallot
Salt, pepper and nutmeg to taste.
Lay the salmon in a baking dish, place pieces of butter over it and add the other ingredients rubbing a little of the seasoning into the fish, baste. When done remove from fire and drain. Lay in a dish and pour caper sauce over it.

Cheese to Serve in Lent
Cheese is an admirable meat substitute for it may be used in the concoction of satisfying dishes that offer nourishment and appetite appeal.

Grilled Cheese Sandwiches
1 hard-cooked egg
1 1/2 tablespoons pimiento
1 small onion
1/4 pound American cheese
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Put the egg, pimiento and onion with the cheese through a food chopper using the medium knife. Melt the butter in a saucepan and add the flour with the seasonings. Add the milk and stir until the mixture comes to a boil. Combine this mixture with the cheese mixture and spread between slices of bread. Butter the outside of the bread and toast under a low flame until golden brown.

Cheese Souffle
4 eggs
2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1/2 cup grated cheese
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains white pepper.
Melt butter, stir in flour, salt, pepper and mustard sifted together. When bubbling slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook and stir until mixture boils. Remove from fire and add egg yolks beaten until thick and lemon colored. Let stand until cool. Add cheese and whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve at once from the baking dish.

Welsh Rarebit
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 pound cheese cut in small pieces
1/2 teaspoon mustard
Few grains cayenne.
Toast or Wafer Crackers
Melt the butter, add the flour and mix the two together. Gradually add the milk, stirring constantly. Cook till thickened. Add the seasonings and serve on wafer crackers or toast.

A Lenten Dish
Here is a fish that offers an excellent meat substitute. Scalloped Tomatoes and Cheese.
Drain and season 3 cups canned tomatoes. Mix 1 1/2 cups cheese and 1 cup buttered bread crumbs. Put half the tomatoes in a greased baking dish and cover with half the cheese and crumbs. Add the remaining tomatoes and cover with cheese and crumbs. Bake in moderate oven till cheese is melted.

VETO CHALLENGED

Smith To Seek Overriding Vote For Seed Loans
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (AP) — President Roosevelt's veto of his bill authorizing $50,000,000 for 1936 seed and feed loans to farmers has been challenged by Senator Smith, democrat, South Carolina, who said he would "insist on a vote" to override "as soon as the time is propitious."
The president took the position that sufficient funds for lending to distressed farmers were available under the work relief act, that the farmers not in such dire straits should seek loans in normal channels, and that congress went outside budget estimates and took no steps to raise the money through additional taxes.

J. S. Jennings left Friday for Dallas for the week-end.

A house cat, put in a cage in San Francisco with a baby squirrel nursed the youngster to full growth.

Leslie's
Sensitive Beauty Service
For The Individual
For Skin Analysis
Call
MRS. HOWARD THOMAS
Room 305 - Hotel Sattles

NOTICE!
CHINA CUP AND SAUCER
OF LOVELY CLASSIC DESIGN IN EVERY PACKAGE OF MOTHER'S OATS

Today THE DIONNE QUINS HAD QUAKER OATS

WIN A $10,000 DREAM HOME FREE!

Enter the big Quaker Oats contest. Send 2 Quaker Oats trade-marks with your letter of 100 words or less on, "Which of the Dionne Quins Would I Adopt?" to Quaker Oats Co., Chicago.

2 Pkgs. 17c

Friday-Saturday Specials

Thompson's Malted Milk 1 lb. Can 45c
(Spun Ray Shaker FREE)

Spinach, Mustard, Turnip Greens, Peas, Corn, No. 2 can, 3 for... 25c

Loganberries, Raspberries, Blackberries in syrup, No. 2 can... 15c

Peaches Heart's Delight in heavy syrup, No. 2 1/2 can 15c

Catsup 14-oz. Bottle, 2 for 25c

Prunes Gallon 29c

Crackers 2 Lbs. 18c

Ribbon Cane Syrup, 1-2 gallon .29c

GRAPEFRUIT Each 2c

Radishes, Green Onions, Carrots, Mustard, per bunch... 4c

Market Specials

OLEO, all-sweet, per lb. 18c

WEINERS, per lb. 15c

CHEESE, per lb. 19c

PORK CHOPS, per lb. 25c

SLICED BACON, rind off, 1 lb. cello pkg. 25c

HAMBURGER, per lb. 10c

SAUSAGE, per lb. 17 1/2c

Cable's Baby Beef, Roast and Steaks. Try Some—They Are Better

ROBINSON & SONS
MODERN GROCERY AND MARKET
4th & Gregg Sts. Phone 226-227

B. O. JONES GRO. & MARKET

Today THE DIONNE QUINS HAD QUAKER OATS

WIN A $10,000 DREAM HOME FREE!

Enter the big Quaker Oats contest. Send 2 Quaker Oats trade-marks with your letter of 100 words or less on, "Which of the Dionne Quins Would I Adopt?" to Quaker Oats Co., Chicago.

BANANAS Golden Ripe, Per Pound 4c	GRAPEFRUIT Seedless, Table Size, 2 for 5c
CARROTS Large Bunches 3 1/2c	CELERY Giant Size, Well Bleached 12c
APPLES Delicious Large Ripe, Winesap Dozen 15c	LETTUCE Mountain Crown, Hard Type, Head 4c
MATCHES Blue Diamond 6 Boxes 18c	CABBAGE Hard Green Heads Pound 2c
Dairy Maid Baking Powder 25-oz. and cup and saucer, for 25c	Jersey Bran and Corn Flakes Large Pkg. 10c
SOAP Giant Bars Blue Barrel, F & G, or Big Ben, 6 for 25c	SALMON Good Grade, Pink 3 for 25c
PRIMROSE CORN No. 2 Can, 2 for 25c	PINEAPPLE Buffet, Tall Tins, 3 for 25c
SLICED BACON Cello Wrap, Pound 24c	HERSHEY'S COCOA 1-2 Pound 14c
GOOD LUCK OLEO Dated for Freshness Only 23c	STEW MEAT 1 Pound 14c Fancy Beef ROAST Pound 15c

Linck's Food Stores

No. 1—1405 Scurry No. 2—224 W. 3rd No. 3—119 E. 2nd

Pure Cane SUGAR 10 lbs 48c
CLOTH BAGS

Early June PEAS
No. 2 Cans 3 for 10c 25c

Walldorf TOILET TISSUE
English Walnuts or Brazil Nuts 5c 6 for 25c
Pound 17c

Dairy Maid Baking Powder 25c
Cup and Saucer FREE

Morning Bracer (Guaranteed) COFFEE 18c

FOLGER'S COFFEE 1-lb. Can 29c 2-lb. Can 56c
100% PURE COFFEE 1-lb. Pkg. 14c 3-lb. Pkg. 40c

TOMATOES
No. 1 Can 5c
No. 2 Can 8c
2 for 15c

CORN
No. 2 Std. 10c
3 for 25c

Ribbon Cane Syrup Gal. 55c
East Texas

MACKEREL
No. 1 Tall 3 for 10c 25c

GREEN BEANS Fancy Almond Nuts
No. 2 Cans 3 for 10c 25c
Pound 23c

Libby's TOMATO JUICE
10c 3 for 25c

IN OUR MARKETS SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY

Loin and T-Bone Steaks 20c lb.

Round Steak 25c lb.

Beef Roast 12 1/2c lb.

Stew 10c lb.

Choice Beef Roast 20c & 25c

FISH and OYSTERS

MOTHER'S OATS Large Pkg. with Premium 25c

Today THE DIONNE QUINS HAD QUAKER OATS

"Welcome Strangers" Reception Held At Settles By Group Of Oldtimers; Many Are Present

Musical Program Rendered By Mrs. Broughton, Mrs. Flewollen and Mrs. Keaton; Churches Send Hostesses

A very enjoyable two hours was passed by the group of old-timers and newcomers who met together at the Settles hotel Thursday afternoon for the first "Welcome Newcomers" function in the history of the town.

Women who have lived in Big Spring long enough to wear off the new feeling were on hand in generous numbers to welcome the strangers.

The sponsoring organization, St. Mary's Episcopal Auxiliary, was ably assisted by wives of pastors of other denominations and women active in the work of the churches. Many appreciative remarks on the part of the guests cheered the with Mrs. H. W. Broughton playing the accordion, Mrs. Victor Flewollen soloist and Mrs. H. G. Keaton at the piano. Each rendered several numbers.

Mrs. Joe D. Farr and Mrs. C. A. Bulot presided over the silver tea services. The tea table was centered with a potted primrose flanked with candles in silver holders.

Wives of the ministers present were: Meses. C. A. Blokley, D. F. McConnell, G. C. Schurman.

They were assisted by: Meses. A. Schnitzer, D. A. Koons, T. S. Currie, L. L. Freeman, J. T. Allen, H. L. Bohannon, Ira Thurman.

Others present were: Meses. Roy Green, H. D. Read, Howard Thomas, W. E. McNeill, H. R. Morris, F. C. Wright, John M. Hinman, Joe B. Heard, Fred Arrington, Charles Lozano, Thomas R. Parker, A. E. Lynch, W. O. Daniels, C. E. Madison, Mollie Shannon, Vera Culbertson, Vivian Williams, K. D. Neely, and Miss Edna Phillips.

Jack Hodges, Jr., is going to Pampa Sunday to drive back his wife and son who are visiting relatives there.

TFWC Head Visits Clubs

Mrs. Volney Taylor, Brownsville, president of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, arrived in Big Spring this afternoon with Mrs. Joseph Perkins of Eastland, sixth district head to visit federated clubs. She was entertained with a tea by the Hyperton club.

Mrs. Boatler Hostess For Card Club

Two Visitors Present; Four Trophies Presented

Mrs. E. C. Boatler gave a Saint Patrick's party for the members of the Matinee bridge club Thursday afternoon. The white and green colors were effectively used in the party appointments and in the refreshment plate.

Four trophies were awarded. Mrs. Donnelly received cutwork pillow cases for high members' score and Mrs. Burns cards for high guests.

Mexican pottery pictures were the other prizes; one was a floating prize that Mrs. Foosee received and the other bingo that Mrs. W. G. Wilson captured.

Mrs. W. G. Wilson and Mrs. Morris Burns were the only guests. Members were: Meses. Tom Donnelly, H. G. Foosee, A. E. Underwood, Roy McCombs, Sam Baker, George Harvell, Jimmy Tucker, Joe Ciere, Hal Farley and J. E. Fort.

Mrs. Farley will entertain next.

SEKS FATHER'S OLD TITLE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 28. (AP)—Ed Rutler is gunning for the title once held by his father, city bowler champion. At 15 he is the youngest contender.

Departing Club Member Honored By 7 Aces Club

Mrs. Henry Hollinger entertained the members of the Seven Aces club with a bridge-parochial party Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Stephen Rowe was presented with a bowl for making high bridge score and Mrs. J. S. Jennings with an ashtray for high parochial.

Mrs. Louise Voss, of Richmond, Ind., who has been spending the winter here, was present at the club for the last time. She is leaving soon for her home. As a farewell tribute, she was presented with a spotted cactus.

Gifts were exchanged by the club members, the gifts being wrapped and disguised so that the members had to select them by pinching and guessing the best they could.

Present were: Meses. Rowe, Jennings, Voss, Louis N. Millon, William Gottlieb, Earnest Richardson, Floyd Flood.

Mrs. Jennings will entertain the club next, sometime within the next two weeks. She will announce the date later.

CHOIR REHEARSAL

Members of the choir of the First Presbyterian church are asked to be present at 7 o'clock tonight at the church for choir rehearsal.

Housing Dispute Is Carried To Pres. Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (AP)—The American Federation of Labor decided today to carry its fight for a $500,000,000 low cost housing program directly to President Roosevelt.

Already called upon to arbitrate a dispute among high new dealers over details of a program they have been working on, Mr. Roosevelt will face a labor demand for both federal subsidies and low interest loans to build homes for low income workers.

The federation's demand for a $500,000,000 appropriation this year to start off the program came in the face of a White House assertion that the administration had approved no such figure.

The federation proposed that the program be entrusted to a national public housing authority, divorced from existing housing agencies.

The administration scrap centered around a difference over whether the government should provide subsidies or only low interest loans. The recently announced governmental search for places to cut expenses was reported to have played a part in the controversy.

$50,000 SOUGHT FOR TOWNSEND INQUIRY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (AP)—The House Townsend committee voted today to ask the house for $50,000 to carry on its investigation of financing of the old age pension plans, including the Townsend plan.

Mayor Presented Axe To Use In Cutting Taxes

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP)—This business of the mayor giving away a key to the city was reversed by a group of business men when they presented Mayor John D. Lynch with an axe.

Attached to the axe, which was inscribed with his name, was a ribbon bearing the suggestion that he cut the tax rate.

PUBLIC RECORDS

Marriage License

Woodrow Lovell and Miss Fiedell Heffington, Big Spring.

In the County Court

M. E. Coley vs. Fred Leeper, suit on note.

New Cars

Robb Investment company, Chrysler sedan.
R. T. Purpus, Ford sedan.
C. E. Sims, Dodge coupe.

666 SALVE FOR COLDS

Liquid-Tablets price 5c, 10c, 25c
Salve-Nose Drops

P-R-I-N-T-I-N-G T. E. JORDAN & CO.

113 W. First St. Just Phone 488

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP

29th DAY Specials

Wise buyers "Look before they leap" in their choice of foods. You can depend on the U-SAVE STORES having the very best at the lowest possible prices.

Quaker OATS

Med. Package ... 25c

RELISH

Hot Sauce

Full Quart 19c

Today THE DIONNE QUINS HAD QUAKER OATS

MOTHERS QUAKER OATS Large Size 25c

—With Premium Cup and Saucer

SALAD DRESSING

Best Maid, Quart Jar 29c

CRACKERS 2-lb. Salted

Box 17c

MATCHES

Carton, 6 Boxes 15c

PEANUT BUTTER, qt.

Armour's 25c

K C BAKING POWDER

25c Size 15c

FOLGER'S COFFEE

1-lb. 29c 2-lb. 56c

K. B. SHORTENING

4-lb. Carton 55c 8-lb. Carton 94c

POTATOES

U. S. No. 1

10 Lbs. 15c

SALT

5c Size 2 for 5c

PINTO BEANS

10 Lbs. 35c

MARKET

Sausage, pork lb. 15c
STEAK, lb. 15c
Oleo Margarine 2 lbs. 35c
EGGS Fresh Country 2 doz. 35c

FLOUR 48 Lbs. .169
1st Grade
FLOUR 48 Lbs. .140
2nd Grade

APPLES

Jonathan

2 Doz. 25c

U-SAVE

Grocery FINE FOODS

WE DELIVER FROM EITHER STORE

No. 1—205 E. 2nd, Phone 108 No. 5—215 W. 3rd, Phone 107

Good Gardening

13. Consider the Bean.

When you're planning what to plant in the garden, consider well the bean. This crop stands at the head of nearly everybody's list, in its capacity to produce largely on limited space, in the food value so produced and in the wide range of conditions under which it will thrive. Planting time for snap beans—based on the average date of the last winter frost as recorded through decades of experience—varies from late-February in the gulf south to early June in the far north. About 100 feet of row, with four seeds to a hill and the hills a foot apart, will produce enough for the average family at one planting. And a half pint of seed will do the job. They won't start well in wet soil.

Monday—Beets.

Woodmen Circle Changes Meeting Day To Tuesday

Members of the Woodmen Circle met in regular session Thursday evening at the W. O. W. hall with Mrs. Trassie Goldsticker of Lamesa, district manager, presiding as guardian.

The members voted to change their meeting night from Thursday to the Tuesday, meeting on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month.

Mrs. Ida Valentine of Lamesa was a guest.

Present were: Meses. Anna Pettefish, Mattie Wren, Vera Reeves, Mabel Hall, Lela Andrews, Ernestine Daniels, Minnie McCullough, Christine Bird, Beulah Wheelless, Laura Dearing, Purine Sneed, Lorene Crenshaw, Carrie Rippa.

Thursday Luncheon Club Meets With Mrs. E. V. Spence

Mrs. E. V. Spence entertained members of the Thursday luncheon club this week at her home in the City park with a delightfully informal session. Mrs. E. M. Conley was present as a member for the first time.

Mrs. Rice scored highest for the club and was given a picture. Mrs. Thomas Wood substituted for Mrs. C. S. Blomshild at the bridge games.

Members playing were: Meses. G.

HOOVER PRINTING CO.

Settles Building Commercial Printing

Quality Shoe Repairing at Reasonable Prices

MODERN SHOE SHOP

North Opposite Courthouse

Floor Sanding and Refinishing

New Equipment

EDISON

Phone 336

LIVING COSTS ARE CLIMBING

HEY! — DON'T YOU KNOW PRICES ARE HIGHER?

YES — BUT NOT ELECTRICITY!

ELECTRICITY IS MORE THAN EVER THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN THE HOME

Living expenses go up and down . . . mostly up for the last few years . . . all except your electric service. It has gone steadily downward, even when other prices reached the highest peaks. Today electricity is cheaper than ever and has decreased in price more than any other living cost.

You can make full use of electricity in your home at a very small cost, save time . . . energy . . . health, and add to the comfort and convenience of your family. For example, good light for an evening of reading costs only two or three cents.

PENNY WISE SAYS:

"Your eyesight is precious. Don't strain your eyes by reading or studying under a poor light, when cheap electricity allows you to have all the light you need at a cost of only two or three cents an evening."

SAFEGUARD EYESIGHT with GOOD LIGHT

Good light is one of the most important needs of the home . . . and one of the cheapest. Protect your eyes and the eyes of members of your family from strain with a new Better Sight Lamp, scientifically designed to give proper light without glare.

Lounge Lamps
Priced from $6.45 up

TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY

C. S. BLOMSHILD, Manager

News Notes From

Oil Field Communities

OIL FIELD NEWS
The Home Demonstration club met Feb. 26 at the Chalk school cafeteria.

Neely was elected first year yard demonstrator as Mrs. Caldwell is entering the second year work.

TO MILLIONS WHO SHOULD USE BRAN

Tests Show ALL-BRAN Corrects Constipation Gently and Naturally

Since its introduction, some fifteen years ago, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has been used with beneficial results by millions of people.

Realizing the important relationship between proper diet and health, the Kellogg Company has aided for some years research in leading university laboratories.

ALL-BRAN supplies soft "bulk" which absorbs water, and gently cleanses the intestinal tract.

This tempting cereal may be enjoyed by every normal person. Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient.

Help your family keep well. Serve Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

*Constipation due to inefficient "bulk."

bridge party recently. St. Patrick motif was used in tables, table decorations, refreshments and miniature green paper hats filled with candy.

Mr. C. V. Wash is erecting a barber shop between his grocery store and Coulson Drug store.

CHURCH NOTES

Forsan Baptist
Walter C. Dever, Pastor
Sunday school, 11 a. m.
Church service, 11 a. m.

Forsan Assembly of God
L. R. McLamore, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
Church service, 11 a. m.

Chalk Church
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Church service, 11 a. m.
Bible study, 7 p. m.

Lees Baptist
Ben Ferguson, Pastor
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Church service, 11 a. m.

Mother and Daughter
To Get Age Pensions
LIBERTY, Mo. (UP)—Among applicants for old age pensions in Clay, Platte and Clinton counties

666 Insurance
Take 666 Liquid or Tablets twice a week and place 666 Salve or Nose Drops in nostrils night and morning

Creamed Ham Offers Menu Variety

Iron-Man 5 Offers 111-4 Win As Record

HILLSBORO, Feb. 28 (AP)—Here's one that will send basketball fans thumping through the record books in search of its equal:

Hillsboro Junior college beat Ranger Junior college, 111 to 4, in a Central Texas conference game.

Hillsboro made no substitutions. Hillsboro led, 22-0, at halftime. Ranger made two field goals in the second half.

U. S. ESTIMATES THRIFT GROUPS ENROLL 750,000

WASHINGTON (UP)—Upward of 750,000 persons, chiefly of small means, are shareholders in Federal savings and loan associations.

SIX ARE INDICTED AT HOUSTON AFTER U. S. DOPE RAIDS

HOUSTON, Feb. 28. (AP)—Five indictments, naming six persons, were returned by the federal grand jury here late yesterday and today as the outgrowth of a series of raids by federal narcotic agents

To be good, creamed ham should be highly seasoned. In making just plain creamed ham, we use one and one-half cups of ham to one cup of ham sauce.

1. Chopped green pepper or pimiento.

2. Chopped hard cooked eggs. 1 egg to 1 cup of ham.

3. Cooked peas, corn or lima beans. (1-2 the quantity of ham used.)

4. Chopped parsley and a bit of lemon juice to the creamed ham and make the mixture in a dish covered with buttered crumbs.

5. Uncooked egg.

6. Cream instead of milk.

7. One-fourth pound of grated pimiento cheese.

8. One-half minced cooked chicken, one-half ham, and a dozen chopped olives.

9. Peanut butter.

Just to show you what infinite variety you can obtain from so simple a thing as creamed ham, let me tell you some of the ways it can be served.

10. Creamed ham on toast.

11. Creamed ham on hot cornbread—muffins.

12. Creamed ham on French toast.

13. Creamed ham on fried mush or hot mush with egg added.

14. Creamed ham on potato croquettes.

15. Creamed ham on ring of noodles, rice or macaroni.

16. Eggs shirred in creamed ham.

17. Poached eggs on toast.

18. Now, if you serve creamed ham the same way twice in the next year, it won't be for lack of the possibilities it offers for variety.

UMPIRING—'A BREAK' RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 28. (AP)—Comes baseball season and Hal Weafer, for eight years the first-acker on the Richmond club, gets what he considers the "biggest break of my baseball career"—an umpireship in the International league.

BURRUS GROCERY & MARKET
900 Main Phone 703
SPUDS U. S. No. 1, 10 lbs. 15c
Green Beans That are good, 7 1/2c
CELERY Large Bleached 14c
LETTUCE Large, Firm 4c
Cabbage Green, Firm, Pound 1c
Pork & Beans No. 1 Can 5c
TOMATOES No. 1 Can .5c, No. 2 Can 15c, Two for 15c
PEAS Early June, No. 2 Can, 3 for 25c
PINEAPPLE Crushed, Tidbits 3 for 25c
PRUNES Gallon 29c
COFFEE 100% Pure 1-lb. 12c, 3-lb. 34c
EGGS Fresh Country, Infertile, Dozen 17c
CORN FLAKES Jersey, Large Box, 3 for 25c
SOAP P & G, C-W, Giant Bar, 6 for 25c
CLEANSER Sunbrite, Per Can 5c
BEETS No. 2 1/2 Can 10c
Toilet Tissue Gauze, 6 for 25c
PICKLES Sour, Dill, Full Quarts 15c
SALMON Chum, No. 1 can 10c
Veal Loaf Meat, 2 lbs. 25c | Stew Meat, Rib, lb. 10c
ROAST, Beef 15c | SAUSAGE, Pork, lb. 20c
CHEESE Full Cream, 20c | BACON Sugar Cured, the kind we slice, Pound 28c

Shall Liquor Be Illegal --Or Regulated?

Howard County Voters Should Face The Liquor Question Honestly

The so-called prohibition laws have not worked. They did not work nationally, and the people voted repeal. They did not work in Texas, and the people voted repeal.

They Have Not Worked In Howard County

Liquor of every kind has been sold freely, in many types of establishments, by the bottle and by the drink — to minors as well as adults. Bootleggers still have the upper hand in the liquor traffic. They still do a flourishing business, and will continue to do so under the present "prohibition" law.

The Liquor Traffic Has Not Been Stopped. It Can Be Controlled

Vote for legalization of liquors in Howard county and you vote for proper regulation. You vote to limit sales to unbroken packages, properly taxed. You vote against the bar and the open saloon. You vote for control measures that prevent sales to minors. You vote for regulation that restricts the hours of sale.

Three Fourths Of Liquor Taxes Go To Old Age Pension Fund

Legalized liquor sales mean legitimate revenue for state funds. Three-fourths of taxes from liquor go to the old age pension fund and one-fourth to the available school fund. Why let the bootlegger grow rich, when honest control of liquor means needed revenue for the aged and the schools.

FACE THE FACTS -- GO TO THE POLLS SATURDAY AND VOTE FOR THE LEGALIZATION OF ALL LIQUORS

(Political Advertisement Paid for by West Texas Wholesale Drug, D. K. Howze, Owner)

Strangled by Silks

A Texas 'Duchess'

JAPANESE MILITARISTS SLAY CABINET MEMBERS

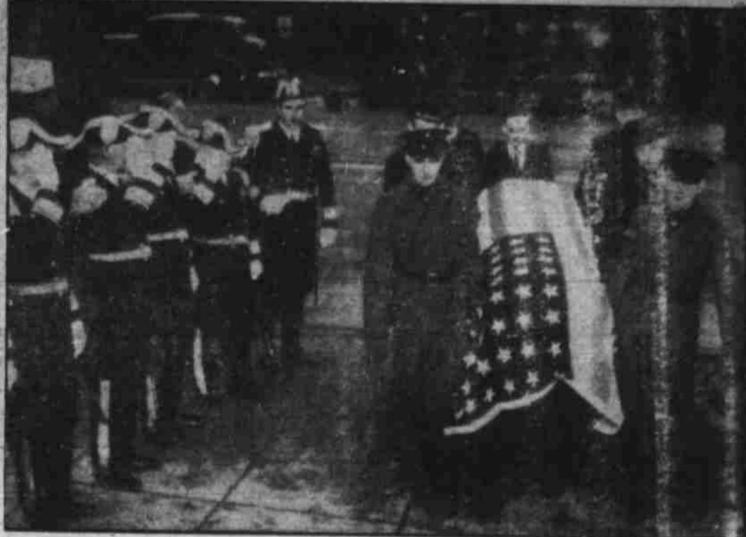

NAVY OFFICIALS IN TRIBUTE TO COL. ROOSEVELT

Miss Gail McDavitt (above), of Brownsville, Tex., elected "sweetheart of Texas" at the University of Texas where she is a senior, was chosen as her school's "duchess" for the Galveston Mardi Gras celebration. (Associated Press Photo)

Turning on leaders who were victorious in a recent election, a group of "young officers" of the Japanese army assassinated three cabinet ministers, including the former premier, Makoto Saito, (left); Premier Katsuo Okada, (center); and Korekiyo Takahashi, (right), finance minister. Some reports said Takahashi was fatally wounded, others that he was wounded, but alive. (Associated Press Photos)

Funeral services for Col. Henry Latrobe Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and a distant relative of the president, were held at Washington with President and Mrs. Roosevelt and a host of other notables in attendance. Above are shown navy officials at salute as marines carried the casket into the church. Burial was in Arlington National cemetery. (Associated Press Photo)

Police were investigating the strange death of Mrs. Ethel Palm, 50, (above) who was found hanging by her knitted silk nightgown from a closet in her Palm Beach, Calif., apartment. (Associated Press Photo)

OFFICIAL 'BLUE BONNET' GIRL

Irena Caldwell, 22, winner in a contest among more than 600 girls, was named official "blue bonnet girl" of the Texas Centennial exposition. She will be official hostess at the exposition. The blue bonnet is the official Texas flower. (Associated Press Photo)

THE OLD MASTER GIVES A LESSON

It may have been some inside dope on outside curves, umpires and speedballs that Walter Johnson, Sr., veteran big league hurler, now retired, was passing on to his 20-year-old son, Walter, Jr., as they were snapped here on the home slope at Germantown, Md. The youngster was to try out as pitcher with the Philadelphia Athletics. (Associated Press Photo)

Held in Slaying

Jack O'Day, 26-year-old jockey (above), is shown in his cell at New Orleans, after he was arrested in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Estelle Hughes, a visitor from Panama City, Fla. The body was found in a remote section as Mardi Gras day dawned. (Associated Press Photo)

A PEEK INTO MIAMI'S BOUDOIR

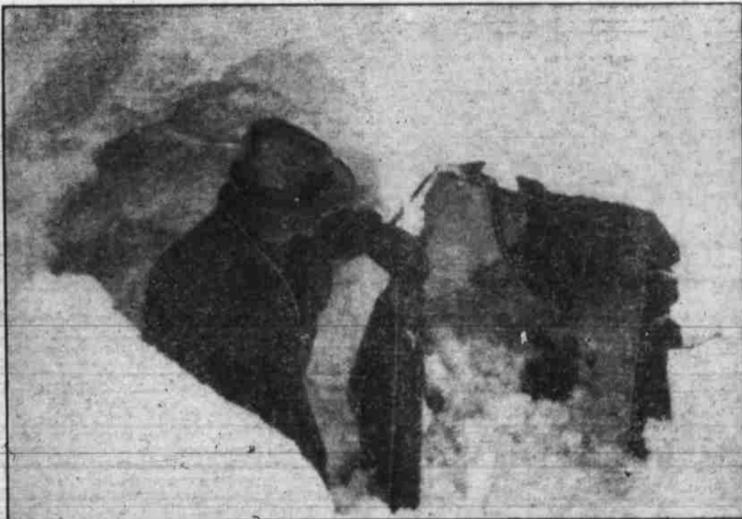

These charming Miami Beach girls stepped out of their boudoirs to show the latest in negligee styles at the winter estates. Left to right: Helen Nye in a beguine negligee with slanson bodice; Jane Taylor in a flamingo ninon; Kitty Williams in a dusty rose beguine; and Betty Cook in a chertreuse beguine. (Associated Press Photo)

Seeks Nomination

Stephen A. Day, Chicago (above) son of a former United States supreme court justice, who sought support in Ohio for his candidacy for the G. O. P. nomination for president on a platform of preservation of the integrity of the court. (Associated Press Photo)

THREE DIE IN CASCADE MOUNTAIN SNOWSLIDES

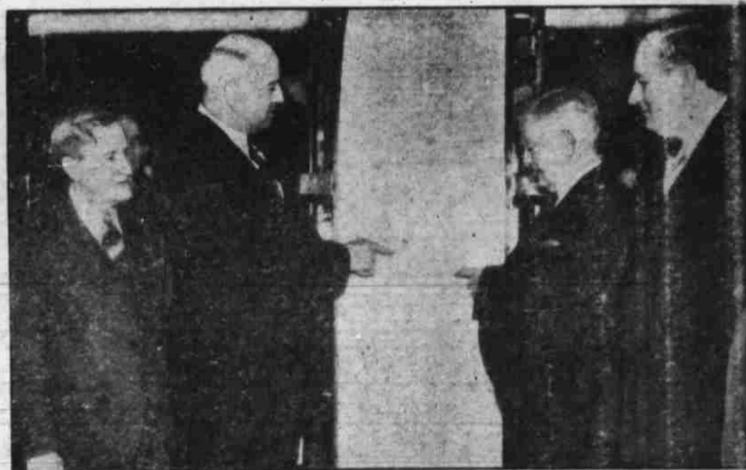

Workers searched through huge avalanches for buried motorcars on the Snoqualmie pass in the Cascade mountains, 65 miles southeast of Seattle. Three persons were known to have been crushed under the great white slides. Here a buried truck is being cleared from a drift by a CCC worker. (Associated Press Photo)

A DOLLAR ACROSS THE RIVER

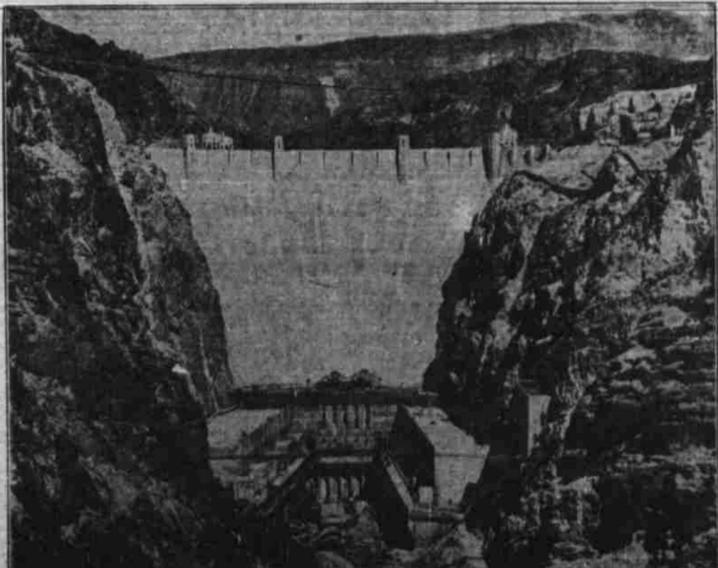

Walter Johnson, one-time big league baseball pitcher, recently voted a place in baseball's hall of fame, tossed a silver dollar across the Rappahannock river at Fredericksburg, Va., duplicating the feat ascribed by legend to George Washington. Johnson, who had said he could throw a dollar across the river if Washington did, is shown as he made his third toss, which was successful. (Associated Press Photo)

FIRST TEXAS CENTENNIAL STAMPS OFF PRESS

The first issue of Texas Centennial stamps is shown being inspected at the bureau of printing and engraving, Washington, by several observers from the Lone Star state—left to right: Ben Sheppard (D-Tex.); Postmaster General Farley; Vice-President Garner and Sen. Connally, (D-Tex.). (Associated Press Photo)

BOULDER DAM READY FOR 'DELIVERY' TO U. S.

The end of five years of labor and expenditure of $50,000,000 for construction of Boulder dam, the giant barrier against the Colorado river, will be signalized March 1 when the government formally accepts the dam. Here is a front view, as seen from downstream, with the great horseshoe powerhouse at the base. (Associated Press Photo)

SLED 'AMBULANCE' FOR SNOW SLIDE VICTIMS

Sleds and snow shoes were the only means of travel for rescuers at the Camp Bird mine, Orem, Utah, where an avalanche of snow killed three and injured four. Here is an injured miner after he was dug out of a snow drift. At the left is part of a boarding house left standing after the slide ripped through the center. (Associated Press Photo)

BRUNO'S NEW DEATH WARRANT

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the statutes in such cases made and provided, I, THOMAS W. TRENCARD, Presiding Judge of the Hunterdon County Court of Oyer and Terminer, do hereby appoint the week commencing Monday, the twentieth (20) day of March, A. D. 1936, as the week within which such sentence of death must be executed in the manner provided by law and hereby command you to execute said sentence upon some day within the week so appointed, and this shall, under the statutes of this State, be your sufficient warrant therefor.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the Hunterdon County Court of Oyer and Terminer, this nineteenth day of February, A. D. 1936.

Thomas W. Trencard, Presiding Judge of the Hunterdon County Court of Oyer and Terminer.

ATTEST: Clerk of the Hunterdon County Court of Oyer and Terminer.

Words of doom run through this warrant, signed by Judge Thomas W. Trencard of Trenton, N. J., which directs that Bruno Richard Hauptmann shall be executed the week of March 30 for the Lindbergh baby murder. It is Hauptmann's second death warrant, Gov. Harold G. Hoffman having previously given him a 30-day reprieve.

Big Spring Daily Herald

Published Sunday morning and each weekday afternoon except Saturday.

BIG SPRING HERALD, INC.

JOE W. GALBRAITH, Publisher
ROBERT W. WHEPKY, Managing Editor
MARVIN K. HOUSE, Business Manager

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS
Subscribers desiring their addresses changed will please state in their communication both the old and new addresses.

Office 216 East Third St.
Telephones: 728 and 729

Subscription Rates
Daily Herald

One Year	Mail: $5.00	Carries: $6.00
Six Months	Mail: $2.75	Carries: $3.50
Three Months	Mail: $1.50	Carries: $2.00
One Month	Mail: $0.50	Carries: $0.70

National Representatives
Texas Daily Press League, Mercantile Bank Bldg., Dallas, Texas.
Lathrop Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., 180 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, 370 Lexington Ave., New York.

This paper's first duty is to print all the news that's fit to print honestly and fairly to all, unbiased by any consideration, even including its own editorial opinion.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in any issue of this paper will be cheerfully corrected upon being brought to the attention of the management.

The publishers are not responsible for copy (missions, typographical errors) that may occur further than to correct it the next issue after it is brought to their attention and in no case do the publishers hold themselves liable for damages further than the amount received by them for actual space covering the error. The right is reserved to reject or edit all advertising copy. All advertising orders are accepted on this basis only.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights for republication of special dispatches are also reserved.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—There is something intriguing about the tenor of White House mail. Roosevelt's mail is different from the mail of any preceding president, not only in its greatest volume, but because it is largely from people who can hardly spell.

Here is a typical letter written in a painful scrawl:

"I never saw a president I would write to until you've got in your place. But I have always felt like you and your wife and your children were just as common as we are."

Letters like this pour in at the rate of 3,000 a day. Most of them are merely plaints about inadequate relief. But enough are colored with praise of the president and his works to have some political significance. Like this one:

"The reason I have delayed writing is that I consider you the most busy man of all the presidents we have had, and have did more for the masses of the people."

Relief Wanted
Many indicate that the writer expects personal and direct aid from the president:

"I have tried all I could possibly do—first God and then you, and you are the only one that I trust that can help me."

Roosevelt has planted this idea by his radio talks, and by one or two dramatic, widely publicized acts in which he did personally bestow favor.

The mill is so heavy that it requires a special staff to handle it. Practically all mail addressed to the president in long-hand goes not to the White House but to a wartime check on Constitution Ave., where in a large barn-like room known as "Ray 3" there sit 30 clerks who pound typewriters all day answering mail.

Correspondence Division
They are the correspondence division of WPA, under Ben Whitehurst. Every day they turn up letters like this:

"I am very green on writing a letter to a president, or:

"Dear Honored Mr. Roosevelt, dear sir, I take pleasure in hands to drop you a few lines of very important, or:

"My Dear President: You are my big man, you are my buddy. I am very glad that you are smarter than President Hoover."

Many letters reflect the idea that the government will take care of everyone. "Is there any alphabetically arrangement that I can get some aid from?"

Many an order is sent in for specific articles. "I've changed my mind about wanting a cow. Instead, I think I'll take a beautician's course."

A plea came from a 12-year-old girl: "In the name of the Lord or the democratic party send the money. I am 12. I am small to my age but my mother is dead so I am the oldest girl. Will you please send about two thousand dollars and don't send a check, send it in money already coined out."

Information Bureau
From North East, Pa., a woman wrote to the president: "I would like to have advise if I could send dirt to you that I dug that I think is gold. I would like to know if I should pay money or not for this land after looking at the dirt."

Letters addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt are sent to the White House for her attention. She wants to see letters that reflect an unusual need or a praiseworthy struggle.

"I have nothing to eat and no table to eat off of."

"It is a simple thing to die, but a fearful thing to live."

"We have fifteen chickens and a little cow helping us."

"I believe I owe 5 months rent, but I will know for sure when the landlord calls."

"My children are also sticking out of their shoes."

"In the last eight years we have had five operations in our family, and all of them dry years."

Every Letter Answered
Whitehurst's division boasts that every letter gets an answer. There is a stock answer for almost every type of request. The commonest reply is, "See your local relief administrator."

But there was no stock answer ready for this one: "I am the father of sixteen children and am and have been on relief for some time. Will you kindly send me all available information on birth control. Thank you."

Whitehurst is making a special collection of excerpts from humorous or touching letters to show the president. Here are some samples.

"We are living with my sister's husband that died last March."

"I am a licensed portable engineer and a fairly good mechanic thrown in."

"I was a former vaudeville comedian, and have been out of work a year now, and I hardly know which way to turn."

"Every time it rains my house leaks full speed."

Pathos
A negro expressed his need for clothing by writing: "I must get my skin out of people's eyesight."

From Stafford, Kansas, a woman addressed the president: "Kind friend, if one married woman they lose this old folks pension? I had a chance this fall to marry a man 35 years old, but I told him no, but I wanted to marry him so I would have someone to love and pet. Now I have nothing but my Pekinese dog. I may be old in years but I am one of those that are 60 and feel just like 16."

Political Ammunition
Some of the letters will afford choice republican ammunition against the relief program. Here are one: "My dad hasn't a decent pair of pants to sit on the steps with."

Other excerpts: "I guess I will have to split up my family, including my mother-in-law, who is seventy years old."

"My mother is very intellectual. She speaks three languages and

DAILY CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS

- Fastener
- Move suddenly
- Raise by assessment
- Edible seaweed
- Forbidden
- God of love
- Baseball team
- Little bit
- Scene of conflict
- Live bit
- Shook or trembled
- Complement of a cup
- Patron saint of lawyers
- Common
- Honored
- Slender
- Note of the crew
- Style of type
- Reach across
- Island of the West Indies
- Encourage
- Stick tightly
- Death notice
- Evergreen tree
- Male deer
- Tricky or mean; slang
- Finish
- Source of sugar
- List
- Long tooth

DOWN

- Cards held at a deal
- Exchange premium
- Finely divided rock
- Affirm
- Gazed
- Biblical weeds
- In bed
- King Arthur's lance
- Warning signs
- Thoroughly
- Monkey-like animal
- Reputed discoverer of America
- Belgian river
- Uniform
- Direct
- Slope
- Pulpy fruit
- Singing birds
- Insure
- Steeple
- Measure of length
- Dwell
- Beverage
- Popular jargon
- Build
- Singing
- Bottom of the foot
- Day or do
- Honored with festivities
- Feminine name
- Behaves
- Fellow
- Bar
- Makes well
- Small island
- Gas used in making electric signs
- Secures
- And not

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14				15						16
17				18						19
20			21							22	23
				24				25
26	27	28					29				30	31	32
33						34					35
36						37					38
39						40				41
42				43						44
				45
47	48	49						50			51	52	53
54						55	56				57
58						59					60
61						62					63

has even written a poem that nobody will buy.

"My father was hit by an auto and speaks broken English."

"All surface toilets in city and county should be replaced by unemployed men."

"I am passable only for a toothless mouth."

Democratic politicians point out that these letters are from people who have never before felt privileged to write a president, and that they represent a great wrong which will go to the polls in November to mark "x" beside the name of the "Buddy" they have been corresponding with.

Republicans, on the other hand, claim that the "relief vote" is a purchased vote.

(Copyright, 1934, by United Features Syndicate, Inc.)

REPRESENTATIVE OF TWO ADDRESSES GIRLS' CLASS
Mrs. Agnes Hughes Massie, special representative of T. W. C. at Fort Worth, addressed the senior girls Thursday morning on choosing the right college after graduation from high school. Mrs. Massie has been connected with the school as special representative for the past nine years.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
Room No. 1, Settles Hotel
Subject: Jesus Christ.
Golden Text: Isaiah 9:5 Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder.

Responsive reading: Isaiah 52: 10; 53: 1-5, 7, 11, 12.
Christian Science services are held each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock a. m. and each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
Rev. D. F. McConnell, D. D., pastor.
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. A. Porter superintendent. "Come One, Come All, a Place for Any One."
Praching, 11 a. m. "The Greatness of His Power." 7:30 p. m. "Triumphant Certainty."
Young people's meeting at 6:30. Miss Elizabeth Hanson, leader, on subject "How Our Church Uses Money."

FIRST BAPTIST
"God's Call to All," will be the sermon topic of Rev. R. E. Day, pastor, at the morning services at the First Baptist church. The service starts at 10:30 o'clock. At the evening hour, 7:30, the pastor will preach on "The Way to Permanent Relief." There will be baptizing following the service.
Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. and young people meet at 6:30 p. m. Monthly meeting of deacons will be held at 7:30 Monday evening.

FIRST METHODIST
Sunday school at 9:45. Pascal Buckner, general superintendent. Services at 11 and 7:30.
Evening topic: "How Big Spring May Know I Am a Christian." Special music by the choir. Young people at 6:30.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN
501 N. Gregg
T. H. Graumann, Pastor
9:30, Sunday school and Bible class.
11. Morning service. The topic of the sermon will be: "How May a Christian Stand Firm in Temptations?" All are cordially invited. On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, the Ladies Aid will meet at the church. On Wednesday evening at 7:30 Lenten services will again be held. The sermon will be based on the second word of the Lord Jesus which He spoke from the cross: "Verily I say unto thee, today thou shalt be with Me in paradise." All are cordially invited.

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL
The following services and activities have been announced for the week of March 3 at St. Mary's Episcopal church:
Sunday—9:45 a. m. church school, 10 a. m. adult Bible class, 11 a. m. Holy communion and sermon by the rector.
Monday—3 p. m. Woman's Auxiliary.
Wednesday—7:30 p. m. Litany and address on the Book of Common Prayer.
The bishop of the district will visit St. Mary's on March 22. Any one who is interested in confirmation should notify the rector or some member of the congregation. You are invited to worship with us at St. Mary's. Church attendance is urged upon the congregation specially during the Lenten season. Sunday is the first Sunday in Lent.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Fourteenth & Main Sts.
Forrest R. Waldrop, Minister
Lord's Day Services: Bible school 9:45 a. m. Sermon and Communion 10:45 a. m. Young Peoples meeting 6:15 p. m. Sermon and Communion 7:30 p. m.
Monday: Ladies Bible class 4 p. m.
Wednesday: Mid-Week Service 7:30 p. m.
Friday: Cottage Singing 7:30 p. m. "You are always welcome."
Mrs. W. Clifton is ill.

HERALD WANT-ADS

One insertion: 8c line, 5 line minimum. Each successive insertion: 4c line. Weekly rate: $1 for 5 line minimum; 3c per line per issue, over 5 lines. Monthly rate: $1 per line, no change in copy. Readers: 10c per line, per issue. Card of thanks, 5c per line. Ten point light face type as double rate. Capital letter lines double regular rate.

CLOSING HOURS
Week Days 11 A. M.
Saturday 4 P. M.

No advertisement accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specific number of insertions must be given. All want-ads payable in advance or after first insertion.

Telephone 728 or 729

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1 Lost and Found 1
LOST—Roll of plans addressed to Peters, Strange Co. Reward for return to Herald office.
PICKED up; ten days ago; bald faced horse; four white legs. Owner can have same by calling at R. D. Hatch place, 12 miles out on Lamesa Highway.

8 Business Services 8
See the New Royal Typewriter Thomas Typewriter Exchange 312 Petroleum Bldg. Phone 98
ARE you dissatisfied with your barber? If so, give us a trial. If not, give us a trial anyway. OK Barber Shop, 706 East 3rd.

NEW LOCATION
Joe's Place
1608 West 3rd St.
Buy — Sell — Exchange
Anything — Second-hand

SPECIALS for Saturday: rubber boots 25c; half soles, including rubber heels, 85c. City Shoe Shop, 307 1-2 East 3rd St.

9 Women's Column 9
PERMANENTS guaranteed; $2.50 oil permanents for $1.50; others half price. Shampoo, set and dry 60c.
Tonsor Beauty Shop, Phone 125
120 Main St.

SPECIAL on all permanents $1.50 up; $4 and $5 waves, two for the price of one. Billington Beauty Shop, Phone 1038.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Daily Herald will make the following charges for political announcements (cash in advance):
District Offices . . . $25.00
County Offices . . . $15.00
Precinct Offices . . $ 5.00

The Daily Herald is authorized to announce the following candidacies, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July, 1936:

For State Representative, 61st District:
PENROSE B. METCALFE

For District Attorney, 70th Judicial District:
CECIL C. COLLINGS

For District Clerk:
HUGH DUBBERLY
JACK EDWARDS

For Tax Collector-Assessor:
JOHN F. WOLCOTT

For Sheriff:
JESS SLAUGHTER

For County Judge:
H. R. DEBENPORT
J. S. GARLINGTON
CHARLIE SULLIVAN

For County Treasurer:
E. G. TOWLER
R. FLOYD (Pepper) MARTIN

For County Clerk:
R. LEE WARREN

For County Attorney:
WALTON MORRISON
WILBURN BARCUS

For Commissioner Pet. No. 1:
FRANK HODNETT
REECE N. ADAMS
J. E. (ED) BROWN.

For Commissioner Pet. No. 2:
ARVIE E. WALKER
A. W. THOMPSON
S. I. (SAM) CAUBLE
L. M. GARY
MARTIN E. TATUM

For Commissioner Pet. No. 3:
J. S. WINSLOW
H. H. (HUB) RUTHERFORD
J. O. ROSSER
DAVE LEATHERWOOD
A. G. HALL

For Commissioner Precinct 4:
T. J. (TOM) MCKINNEY
ED J. CARPENTER
W. M. FLETCHER
J. L. NIX
S. L. (ROY) LOCKHART
J. W. WOOTEN
EARL HULL
W. L. POF
T. E. SATTERWHITE

For Constable Precinct 1:
J. F. (JIM) CRENSHAW

For Justice of Peace Pet. 1:
J. H. (DAD) HEFLEY
JOE FAUCETT

★ Man About Manhattan ★

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—It's a mad, fatalistic ambition that persuades a man to try to lie out of a black eye. It just can't be done. There was that young novelist, and some successful he is too, who stepped into a Park Avenue salon the other day. Quite serenely he turned a pale and mouse-colored orb upon his hostess.

"Where in the world did you get THAT!" she shrieked. "A hack driver hit me," he explained. "I saw stars."

"You poor darling, I should think you DID see stars," she comforted, "come into the kitchen and let me give you a sirlon poultice!"

As the other guests crowded around one impertinent whelp wanted to congratulate him upon his felicity.

"You're the only man I know who wouldn't attempt to lie," he flipped. "As a matter of fact, I would have seen through you if you had given us any fantastic stories. I can always tell when a man is lying."

"That's very observing of you," complimented the wonderful writer.

"Sure," continued the smarty, "I knew the moment I saw you that some uncouth fist had reposed on that peeper."

As a matter of record, nobody hit the novelist at all. Having just returned from Liverpool, one of those storms that have frequented the Atlantic seaboard of late caught his ship and gave her a sudden lurch. It threw him against the door of his cabin.

But, it never occurred to him to tell the truth. He knew nobody would believe him.

One of the interesting personalities you encounter in New York is Arthur L. Runyan, who used to be a cowboy in Texas. But years of riding the open range only whetted his appetite for the city, because there was something he wanted to build. And in great cities you find capital.

Well, Runyan has seen his dream crystallize into cold actuality. He has invented a machine which translates English (and vice versa) into every language in the world. It also teaches correct pronunciation. In fact, he has an intricately involved yet easily manipulated apparatus that is something like a combination radio-phonograph (stop me if this becomes too bewildering) and with it anyone can master any language he wishes to learn.

Runyan used to travel Europe with a cowboy troop, a sort of wild west show, and he got the idea of his machine while abroad. He was having an awful time understanding any of those foreigners, and it occurred to him there ought to be an easy mechanical way of hurdling annoyances like that.

EMPLOYMENT

10 Agents and Salesmen 10
MEN wanted for Rawleigh routes of 800 families in West Mitchell, Seary and Borden counties and Big Spring, Texas. Salary $25 weekly should start earning $25 weekly and increase rapidly. Write to day, Rawleigh, Dept. TXB-60-8, Memphis, Tenn.

14 Empty Wtd—Female 14
LADY desires permanent work as housekeeper, or in motherless home, boarding house, or hotel. Mrs. S. A. McClanahan, Weldon Camp, on West Highway.

FOR SALE

18 Household Goods 18
WE have just traded for three almost new General Electric washers to sell for $45.00 down, balance $1.20 a week. Help yourself to a real bargain. Maytag Co., 408 E. 3rd.

20 Musical Instruments 20
GOOD used pianos only $35, and up. Factory representative here. Big reduction on new pianos. Come and see. No obligations. Must move 20 pianos at once. Moreland Music Co., 201 E. 2nd, Ph. 1233

22 Livestock 22
WANT to sell 450 head of 2 to 6 year ewes at $7; also 16 bucks. Apply D. W. Christian, Sr., Rte. 1, Box 64, Big Spring.

26 Miscellaneous 26
FRYER in good condition; price $12.50. Apply 801 Runnels St.

WANTED TO BUY

27 Household Goods 27
WILL pay cash for used furniture and stoves. P. Y. Tate, Second-hand Store, 1109 West 3rd St. We deliver.

FOR RENT

34 Bedrooms 34
FRONT bedroom; lady preferred; available after March 1st. $10 per month, 706 East 12th. Apply cabin 14, Meyer Court.

BEDROOM to rent; men only. 1502-1-2 Scurry St.

WANT TO RENT

43 Farms & Ranches 43
WANTED to lease—80 or 160-acre in Heald County. Address P. O. Box 641, Big Spring, Texas.

REAL ESTATE

46 Houses For Sale 46
FIVE-room stucco house with garage; Highland Park; $2,000, $500 cash; Balance in Federal loan; very reasonable terms. Write Box MFC, % Herald.

48 Farms & Ranches 48
FOR sale or trade: 180 acres north of Lamesa and two lots in San Angelo. H. C. Penkett, 306 East 14th St., Big Spring.

Man Who Told Of Finding Redfern Put Under Arrest

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Feb. 28. (AP)—The Paramaribo newspaper, the Banner, said that Alfred Harred, reportedly a member of a boundary commission who last week told of finding Paul Redfern, missing American flier, had been arrested for fraud.

Harred's account of a journey into the jungle with Art Williams, former United States army pilot, told of discovering Redfern living among a tribe of Indians who regarded him as a white god.

5 MINUTE SERVICE

CASH ON AUTOS
MORE MONEY ADVANCED
OLD LOANS—REFINANCED
TAYLOR EMERSON
Ritz Theatre Building

LET US HELP SOLVE YOUR FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

Borrow from us.
Automobile loans — furniture loans — personal loans.
Collins & Garrett
FINANCE CO.
Big Spring, Texas
126 East 2nd Phone 888

THE BOOMERANG CLUB

Chapter 17
MEAN TRICK

"George, darling, this won't hurt your career, will it?" Frankie asked. "They won't strike you off the register, or whatever it is, will they?"

"Probably," said George gloomily. "That is, if it ever comes out."

"It won't," said Frankie. "Don't worry, George. I shan't let you down."

"You did it very well, I've never heard you talk so much before," George sighed. He looked at his watch. "I shall give my examination another three minutes," he said.

"What about the car?"

"I'll arrange with a garage to have that cleared up."

"George," said Frankie, "you've been an angel. I don't know why you did it."

"No more do I," said George. "Daddy feel thing to do."

"He nodded to her."

"Bye-bye. Enjoy yourself."

"I wonder if I shall," said Frankie. She was thinking of that cool impersonal voice with the slight American accent.

George went in search of the owner of it, whom he found waiting for him in the drawing-room.

"Well," he said abruptly. "I'm glad to say it's not so bad as I feared. Concession very slight and already passing off. She ought to stay quietly where she is for a day or so, though." He paused. "She seems to be a Lady Frances Derwent."

"Oh, fancy!" said Mrs. Bassington-french. "Then I know some cousins of hers, the Draycotts, quite well."

"I don't know if it's inconvenient for you to have her here," said George. "But if she could stay where she was for a day or two—"

"Oh, of course. That will be quite all right, Dr—"

"Arbutnot. By the way, I'll see to the car business. I shall be passing a garage."

"Thank you very much, Dr. Arbutnot. How very lucky you happened to be passing! I suppose a doctor ought to see her to-morrow just to see she's getting on all right."

"Don't think it's necessary," said George. "All she needs is quiet."

"I see. But her people ought to know."

"I'll attend to that," said George.

"Well here I am," thought Frankie. "Safely in the enemy's camp. Now it's up to me."

There was a tap on the door and Mrs. Bassington-french entered. Frankie raised herself a little on her pillow.

"I'm so frightfully sorry," she said in a faint voice. "Causing you all this bother."

"Nonsense," said Mrs. Bassington-french. Frankie heard anew that cool, attractive, drawing voice with a slight American accent, and remembered that Lord Marchington had said that one of the Hampshire Bassington-frenches had married an American heiress.

"Dr. Arbutnot says you will be quite all right in a day or two if you just keep quiet."

"He seems nice," she said. "He was very kind."

"He seemed a most capable young man," said Mrs. Bassington-french. "It was very fortunate that he just happened to be passing."

"Yes, wasn't it?"

"But you mustn't talk," continued her hostess. "I'll send my maid along with some things for you and then she can get you properly into bed."

"It's frightfully kind of you."

"Not at all."

Frankie felt a momentary quail as the other woman withdrew.

"A nice kind creature," she said to herself. "And beautifully unsuspecting."

For the first time she felt that she was playing a mean trick on her hostess.

"Oh, well," thought Frankie. "I've got to go through with it now. But I wish she hadn't been so nice about it."

She spent a dull afternoon and evening lying in her darkened room. Mrs. Bassington-french looked in once or twice to see how she was, but she did not stay.

The next day, however, Frankie admitted the daylight and expressed a desire for company and her hostess came and sat with her for some time. They discovered many common acquaintances and friends, and by the end of that day Frankie felt, with a guilty quail, that they had become friends.

Mrs. Bassington-french referred several times to her husband and to her small boy, Tommy. She seemed a simple woman, deeply attached to her home, yet for some reason or other Frankie fancied that she was not quite happy. There was an anxious expression in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

in her eyes sometimes that did not argue a mind at peace with itself. On the third day Frankie got up and was introduced to the master of the house.

He was a big man, heavily-jowled, with a kindly but rather abstracted air. He seemed to spend a good deal of his time shut up in his study. Yet Frankie judged him to be very fond of his life, though interesting himself very little in her concerns.

Tommy, the small boy, was seven, and a healthy, mischievous child. Sylvia, Bassington-french obviously adored him.

"It's so nice down here," said Frankie with a sigh. She was lying out on a long chair in the garden. "I don't know whether it's the bang on the head, or what it is, but I just don't feel I want to move. I'd like to lie here for days and days."

"Well, do," said Sylvia Bassington-french in her calm, incurious tones. "No, really, I mean it. Don't hurry back to town. You see, I went on. It's a great pleasure to me to have you here. You're so bright and amusing. It quite cheers me up."

"So she needs cheering up," flashed across Frankie's mind. At the same time she felt ashamed of herself.

"I feel we really have become friends," continued the other woman.

Frankie felt still more ashamed. It was a mean thing she was doing—mean—mean—mean. She would give it up! Go back to town. Her hostess went on. "It won't be too dull here. Tomorrow my brother-in-law is coming back. You'll like him, I'm sure. Everyone likes Roger."

"He lives with you?"

"Oh, and on. He's a restless creature. He calls himself the 'new-do-well' of the family, and perhaps it's true in a way. He never sticks to a job for long—in fact I don't believe he's ever done any real work in his life. But some people just are like that—especially in old families. And they're usually people with a great charm of manner. Roger is wonderfully sympathetic. I don't know what I should have done without him this Spring when Tommy was ill."

"What was the matter with Tommy?"

"He had a bad fall from the swing. It must have been tied on to a rotten branch, and the branch gave way. Roger was very much upset because he was swinging the child at the time—you know, giving him high ones such as children love. We thought at first Tommy's spine was hurt, but it turned out to be a very slight injury and he's quite all right now."

"He certainly looks it," said Frankie, smiling, as she heard faint yells and whoops in the distance.

"I know. He seems in perfect condition. It's such a relief. He's had bad luck in accidents. He was nearly drowned last winter."

"Was he really?" said Frankie thoughtfully.

"She no longer meditated returning to town. The feeling of guilt had abated. Accidents! Did Roger Bassington-french specialize in accidents, she wondered.

She said: "If you're sure you mean it, I'd love to stay a little longer. But won't your husband mind my butting in like this?"

"Henry? Mrs. Bassington-french's lips curved in a strange expression. "No. Henry won't mind. Henry never minds anything nowadays."

Frankie looked at her curiously. "If she knew me better she'd tell me something," she thought to herself. "I believe there are lots of odd things going on in this household."

Henry Bassington-french joined them for tea, and Frankie studied him closely. There was certainly something odd about the man. His type was an obvious one—a jovial, sport-loving, simple country gentleman.

But such a man ought not to sit twitching nervously, his nerves obviously on edge.

(Copyright 1935-36, Agatha Christie)

Frankie meets Roger Bassington-french tomorrow.

TEXAN TAKES OATH AS ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

Welly K. Hopkins, former Texas state senator, was sworn in as assistant to Attorney General Homer Cummings. Here he is shown taking the oath of office, accompanied by well-wishers. Left to right, Senator Morris Sheppard (D-Tex.); Vice-President John N. Garner; Hopkins, and B. Foucault, appointment clerk of the department of justice. (Associated Press Photo)

Prosecution Fights Move To Aid Bruno

Only Startling New Evidence For New Trial Will Save Him

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 28. (UP)—Governor Harold G. Hoffman is "chipping pebbles off Gibraltar" and nothing will save Bruno Richard Hauptmann from death the week of March 30, except startling new evidence warranting a new trial, members of Hauptmann's prosecution indicated to the United Press.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz, back from an interrupted Florida vacation, summoned his aides to discuss Hoffman's attacks on Hauptmann's conviction as the sole kidnaper and slayer of the Lindbergh baby.

Three points were made emphatically clear prior to Wilentz's first visit to the state house in several weeks:

There will be no further reprieves for Hauptmann at the expiration of the present respite unless sensational circumstances develop.

Neither Dr. John F. (Jafse) Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, nor other state witnesses will be asked to return to face "persecution" at the "whim of any man."

Ready to Go To Court

The importance of the disputed testimony of Millard White, who indicted Hauptmann near the Lindbergh home, has been overestimated by the governor in its relation to possible nullification of the hearings in which the German carpenter was extradited to New Jersey from New York.

Wilentz is confident Hauptmann will be executed on schedule. Although he is loath to believe the governor will order another delay, he is prepared to go to the courts, if necessary, to see that the third sentence of death passed on Hauptmann is carried out.

Defense demands that Dr. Condon be returned to explain alleged discrepancies in his statements since the trial find little response in the attorney general. He feels state witnesses do not "owe their lives" to the case and that the sworn testimony before judge and jury is sufficient answer to questions raised now.

A legal authority ridiculed hints by the governor that if White had found to have perjured himself, the extradition proceedings and Hauptmann's trial might be invalidated. This authority said New Jersey's method of obtaining Hauptmann did not in the least affect the trial.

The defense through chief of counsel C. Lloyd Fisher continued demands for the indictment of White by the Hunterdon county

A Subtle Bit Of Business

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (UP)—President Roosevelt is assured of campaign counsel from Dr. Rexford G. Tugwell, No. 1 brain trust, despite pressure from democratic national committee members and others to get Tugwell out of office out of the country during the presidential year.

Democratic national committee sources revealed last December Mr. Roosevelt had been informed Tugwell, Secretary of Interior Harold I. Ickes and Works Progress Administrator Harry Hopkins were considered in some parts of the country to be political liabilities.

The White House denied knowledge of such advice and Postmaster James A. Farley said he would not discuss the matter. But a committee member insisted such advice had been offered Mr. Roosevelt. In December there were political wisecracks willing to gamble Tugwell and possibly Ickes and Hopkins would not be in the arena when the presidential battle began.

The "practical political" element of the democratic party has been suspicious of Tugwell and doubtful also of Hopkins and Ickes. During the 1934 campaign Tugwell was in Europe.

Speculation over Tugwell's future with the new deal ended, however, when Columbia university announced its most famous professor of economics had been granted another year's leave of absence at Mr. Roosevelt's personal request. Committee members who had hoped the New York educator might be absent during the presidential campaign accepted that announcement as meaning Tugwell would remain grand jury. Fisher has not produced the signed complaint. Prosecutor Anthony Hauck has insisted as a prerequisite for investigating the White case.

Tugwell Will Continue As FD's Adviser

Roosevelt Wants His Brain Truster Regardless Of Others' Opinion

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (UP)—President Roosevelt is assured of campaign counsel from Dr. Rexford G. Tugwell, No. 1 brain trust, despite pressure from democratic national committee members and others to get Tugwell out of office out of the country during the presidential year.

Democratic national committee sources revealed last December Mr. Roosevelt had been informed Tugwell, Secretary of Interior Harold I. Ickes and Works Progress Administrator Harry Hopkins were considered in some parts of the country to be political liabilities.

The White House denied knowledge of such advice and Postmaster James A. Farley said he would not discuss the matter. But a committee member insisted such advice had been offered Mr. Roosevelt. In December there were political wisecracks willing to gamble Tugwell and possibly Ickes and Hopkins would not be in the arena when the presidential battle began.

The "practical political" element of the democratic party has been suspicious of Tugwell and doubtful also of Hopkins and Ickes. During the 1934 campaign Tugwell was in Europe.

Speculation over Tugwell's future with the new deal ended, however, when Columbia university announced its most famous professor of economics had been granted another year's leave of absence at Mr. Roosevelt's personal request. Committee members who had hoped the New York educator might be absent during the presidential campaign accepted that announcement as meaning Tugwell would remain grand jury. Fisher has not produced the signed complaint. Prosecutor Anthony Hauck has insisted as a prerequisite for investigating the White case.

RED CROSS OPENING MORE EMERGENCY FIRST AID STATIONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Commenting on the need for emergency first aid stations on highways such as the Red Cross is establishing throughout the country, Harold F. Enlow, director of the highway accident prevention program said, "Emergency cases resulting from traffic injuries are far too often mishandled by well-meaning persons without knowledge of first aid methods. Fast driving when taking victims to the hospital often intensifies the patient's shock, a condition usually resulting from motor car accidents."

The Red cross highway emergency first aid program consists of the establishment of roadside stations with personnel qualified to give immediate aid to automobile casualty victims. These highway first aiders, instructed by the Red Cross, are volunteers, and emergency first aid equipment is supplied them by the organization. Latest figures on development of the program show that by Feb. 1 there were 86 highway emergency first aid stations in operation and 245 projected in Arizona, California, Idaho, Oregon, Utah and Washington. There were 21 in operation and 249 projected in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska and Wyoming, and in 20 eastern states there are 199 stations being operated by 69 Red Cross chapters, with 1,275 more in the process of establishment.

This makes a total of more than 2,000 highway emergency first aid stations actually in operation or soon to be established.

CONOCO WILL ERECT 'HOSPITALITY HOUSE' AT THE CENTENNIAL

"Hospitality Houses" will afford visitors to the Texas Centennial celebration describing in Dallas this summer all that the name implies—true southern hospitality. This $75,000 building is to be erected exclusively for the convenience of exposition visitors and tourists by the Conoco travel bureau, America's largest free travel service and a branch of the Continental Oil company. Construction on the $75,000 building will be begun within a few weeks in preparation for the opening of the Southwest's first world's fair at Dallas in June. It has been announced.

"Hospitality House" will be located just inside the gates of the exposition grounds and its open door will welcome all visitors to the final day of the exposition. All motor tourists are invited to use this building as their headquarters—to enquire about travel, to meet friends, or simply to enjoy rest and comfort or a cool drink of water.

Up-to-the-minute travel information will be available here to all visitors. Across the rear of the main lounge will run an information desk attended by travel experts. It will be their duty to supply detailed information about the exposition, Dallas, and other Texas cities and regions. They will also distribute free road maps and booklets describing scenic parts of all the United States; plan return trips for motorists to Dallas; supply detailed information on conditions of all United States highways, and complete hotel and cabin camp information.

Dog Heir To Estate

Owes Arkansas $20

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 28. (UP)—Attorneys for the state revenue department are seeking a solution of how the state can collect an inheritance tax on the $500 bequest left to a pet dog.

The dog answers to the name of "Flp" and was bequeathed the sum and a life interest in the family home, by his late master, W. K. Sims, east Arkansas planter.

Under Arkansas inheritance tax laws, strangers in blood, friends, servants, nephews, and nieces have no exemptions.

In the inheritance tax rate the dog would owe the state $20.

RITZ FRIDAY-SATURDAY
A NEW ROMANTIC THRILL!

A new romantic thrill in the prize story of the year!

The VOICE OF BUGLE ANN
MGM Picture Starring
LIONEL BARRYMORE
Maureen O'Sullivan
Eric Linden

PLUS:
Paramount News,
"A Quiet Fourth"

QUEEN FRIDAY and SATURDAY

WILLIAM BERGE Presents
HARRY CAREY

IN A FAST-MOVING DRAMA OF THE WEST... TEEMING WITH ADVENTURE AND RED-BLOODED ACTION...

"RUSTLER'S PARADISE"

PLUS: "Roaring West" No. 13

RITZ SATURDAY MIDNIGHT MATINEE

Gay in the Spirit of Romance... Glorious in its Inspiring Melody!

Jeanette MacDonald
Nelson Eddy
ROSE MARIÉ

PLUS:
Metro News
"Three Orphan Kitties"

LYRIC FRIDAY-SATURDAY
HOOT GIBSON
A FIRST DIVISION PRODUCTION
"RAINBOW'S END"

PLUS: "Adventures of Rex and Rinty" 9

Frank Knox

CONFIDENTIAL FROM PAGE 1

There are means by which an energetic republican could help destiny shape party ends at Cleveland. Although he only once has run for public office—governor of New Hampshire—and then been defeated, Colonel Knox has been active in party affairs for years and in more than one state. He knows what to do.

Waiting to be drafted would mean foregoing important organizational work for the enlistment of delegates in advance. Colonel Knox's temperament hardly harmonizes with such strategy. Wherefore it would little surprise political observers if at Cleveland he disclosed a considerable block of southern votes.

There may be little prospect of republican electoral votes from the

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

MARKETS
H. O. BEDFORD & CO., 306 Petroleum Bldg.

NEW YORK COTTON

Month	High	Low	Close	Prev
Mar	11.19	11.13	11.18	11.12
May	10.80	10.75	10.78	10.77-73
July	10.45	10.37	10.41	10.39-40
Oct	10.10	10.04	10.05	10.04-05
Dec	10.09	10.02	10.05	10.03
Jan	10.08	10.03	10.08	10.08

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Month	High	Low	Close	Prev
Mar	11.07	11.03	11.03	11.00
May	10.73	10.70	10.71	10.68-69
July	10.40	10.36	10.38	10.35
Oct	10.06	10.01	10.03	10.01
Dec	10.06	10.00	10.03	10.00
Jan	10.06	10.02	10.05	10.02

CHICAGO WHEAT

Month	100%	100%	100%	14
May	97 1/2	91	91-91 1/2
July	97 1/2	91	91-91 1/2
Sept	90 1/2	90	90-90 1/2

NEW YORK STOCKS
Volume 2,460,000 shares.

Industrials

Stock	High	Low	Close
Am Can	120 1/2	119 1/2	120 1/2
Al Chem	176	175 1/2	175 1/2
Coca Cola	94 1/2	94	94 1/2
Du Pont	143 1/2	143	143 1/2
Int Harv	68	67	67
Mont Ward	41 1/2	38 1/2	39 1/2
Nat Dis	31 1/2	30 1/2	30 1/2
Radio	12 1/2	12 1/2	12 1/2
Std Brds	64 1/2	63 1/2	63 1/2
Warn Bros	13	12 1/2	12 1/2

Utilities

Stock	High	Low	Close
Anaconda	35 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2
Con Gas	34 1/2	33 1/2	33 1/2
Com & S	33 1/2	33	33
Edison	173 1/2	171	172 1/2
Un Corp	7 1/2	7	7
Int Nick	52 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2

Oils

Stock	High	Low	Close
Conl Del	35 1/2	35	35 1/2
Consol	14 1/2	14	14 1/2
Std NY	60 1/2	59 1/2	60
Shell Un	18 1/2	17 1/2	18
TP-C&O	14 1/2	14	14 1/2
Tex Corp	37 1/2	36 1/2	37 1/2
Soc Vac	16	15 1/2	15 1/2

Motors

Stock	High	Low	Close
Gen Mot	59	58 1/2	58 1/2
Chrysler	95 1/2	94 1/2	94 1/2
Packard	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
Studebaker	13 1/2	13 1/2	13 1/2

Steele

Stock	High	Low	Close
AT&SF	76 1/2	74 1/2	75
B & O	23 1/2	22	22 1/2
NY Cent	40	38 1/2	38 1/2
Penn RR	38 1/2	36 1/2	36 1/2
Sou Pac	37 1/2	34	35 1/2

Aviation

Stock	High	Low	Close
Doug Air	70 1/2	68 1/2	69 1/2
Un Air	29 1/2	28 1/2	28 1/2
Cur Wri	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2

Curbs

Stock	High	Low	Close
Ch Ser	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2
El B&S	18 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
Gulf O	85 1/2	83 1/2	84 1/2
Humble O	70	69	69

Interest

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

would be negligible and would be "blood money," that so-called "control" would force drinking to hotels and automobiles and give rise to conditions worse than the schools, that liquor cost more than it returned to governmental units. These were the questions pondered by a majority of the largest number ever qualified to vote in Howard county as they prepared to write a decision on the issue Saturday.

For tax payments and exemption certificates showed the following voting strength for the fifteen boxes in the county: No. 1 (Big Spring) 288, No. 2 (Big Spring) 1,037, No. 3 (Big Spring) 1,928, No. 4 (Big Spring) 865, Vincent 72, Gay Hill 105, R-Bar 54, Highway 56, Coshoma 272, Foran 289, Center Point 170, Moore 75, Knott 135, Morse 39, and Soash 70, or a total of 5,306 for the county.

The four Big Spring boxes will vote in the following parts of the courthouse: No. 1 in the sheriff's office, No. 2 in the county commissioners courtroom, No. 3 in the county courtroom and No. 4 in the district courtroom. Other boxes will be in the respective school buildings.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE MONDAY, OBSERVING INDEPENDENCE DAY

For the first time, Big Spring schools will take a holiday in observance of the anniversary of Texas Independence. Principal George Gentry having announced that classes will be suspended next Monday.

The holiday is being observed this year in special recognition of Centennial year. Monday being the 100th birthday of the state's independence.

Texas independence programs were given at the schools today. Big Spring banks also will be closed Monday in observance of the holiday.

SPRING 1936

Men's CURLEE SUITS

They're the hit of the season. Very fashionably tailored in latest modes. Single and double breasted. Belted and plain backs. Regulars, Slims, Shorties, Stouts and conservatives.

Sizes 34 to 46

2 Pants 22.50

New Spring Hats

In light grey, tan, heavenly blue and mixtures. Medium and light weight felts. Sizes to fit everyone.

$3.50 up

Tom Sawyer Play Suits$1.90 up
Tom Sawyer Dress Suits$2.98 up
Boys' Dress Hats, all shades$1.49 up
Kate Greenway Dresses or Girls$1.00 up
Red Goose School Shoes for Children$1.98 up

Mellinger's Dep't Store

H. O. BEDFORD & CO., Brokers
COTTON - STOCKS - GRAIN - BONDS

Complete Market Facilities In All Listed Securities.

Office in Petroleum Building, Room 306
Telephone 306 P. O. BOX 128

Darby's Jelly Ann Bread

EUROPEAN NATIONS ENGAGED IN NEW GAME OF ALLIANCE

Duce Woos Hitler As An Offset To Paris Pact

ROME, (AP)—Mussolini is wooing Hitler, hoping for a return of the once intimate Italo-German relations to offset the Franco-British tie-up.

Diplomats of many countries admit they are watching the developments because of its possibly far-reaching results.

Thus far Germany "hasn't having any," preferring to remain neutral and keep on good terms with England.

Duce's Agents in Reich

Mussolini recently sent Count Scarpia to Germany to keep in touch with Hitler and his lieutenants. He has no official standing, but is remaining in Germany indefinitely.

Il Duce likewise sent Renato Ricci, undersecretary of education in charge of the fascist youth movement, to Germany to make a tour of Germany's youth training centers.

An Italian close to the government said that Italian newspapers have received instructions to handle the German situation with kid gloves. They were told to play up the third anniversary of Hitler's regime in a sympathetic light. They were also ordered to eliminate dispatches from other capitals criticizing Germany.

A high German official outlined the Italo-German position of the moment thus:

"At the beginning of the war, German feeling was distinctly anti-Italian. Now this feeling is much changed.

"Germany is neutral. She has no intention of getting into the camp of the sanctionists. She wants Italy to continue strong and be an influence in Europe.

"Trade between the two countries has increased somewhat since sanctions went into effect, but not much. It has augmented for some products and decreased for others.

"There is no reason why they could not reach an agreement on Austria. Hitler does not object to an independent Austria and would make an agreement on this point, if Italy would agree to let the Austrians choose their own government.

"Even if the national-socialists should gain control in Austria and ask for union with Germany, Hitler would not accept at this time because it would cause trouble."

Locarno Infringement Seen

Another German official said his country and Italy felt the same way with regard to the Franco-British military talks, believing they infringed on the Locarno pact.

"Germany was assured, by England and France that their military conversations referred to the Mediterranean and not the Rhine," he said, "but she does not altogether believe these assurances.

"She thinks that the contacts of the general staffs of the two countries are very dangerous. However, Germany has not had any conversations with Italy on this subject."

A German who was recently received by Mussolini said Il Duce emphatically told him:

"Go back to your country and say that Germany must be with us. Otherwise the other nations will crush her."

France Is Extending Security Chain To Mid-East

PARIS, (AP)—Cabinets come and cabinets go but Europe's feverish search for a war-proof treaty goes on forever.

Nearly half a hundred anti-war pacts have been signed and sealed by Europe's chancelleries and still the negotiations continue.

Yet the rising crescendo of marching feet still threatens to end the statesmen's conferences.

France in Leading Role

Largest projects on the long schedule of war-proof treaties is a five-power pact to defend Austria's independence, a mutual assistance agreement between Russia and Rumania, and a plan to put "teeth" into the League of Nations covenant.

In most of the treaty negotiations since Versailles, France has played the biggest part, beginning with her alliance with Belgium shortly after the World war, and ending with her new pact with Soviet Russia. Paris has attempted to build a wall of sacred paper around Germany for her own security.

An unbroken chain from the English channel to Asia has been forged by France, either directly through treaties with other nations or by her allies' treaties with other friendly powers.

England Avoids Signing

Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Russia, Poland, Greece, Turkey, Iran and Afghanistan are linked to France, either directly or through a common ally. Great Britain has promised her friendship to France although she has signed no treaty. France hopes Italy will return to her camp.

Trade

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

were 9.6 per cent above last year. Chicago retailers experienced a light week with occasional buying rushes as weather moderated. Setbacks were reported by Portland, Ore., Birmingham, Detroit, San Francisco and Indianapolis with retail trade lighter than the previous week and the 1935 week. That the trend of business was to favorable weather areas was indicated by reports of sharp gains, running as high as 50 per cent over the previous and 1935 weeks in Dallas, Houston, New Orleans, Wilmington, Cleveland and Atlanta.

Leading wholesale centers were preparing for bunch orders, in view of low inventories and delayed buying, but orders lagged during the week as severe weather induced buyers to stay at home. Quotations prevailed in most New York wholesale houses with apparel lines suffering and the disturbance in the dress manufacturing industry subsided without stimulating an increase in orders. Chicago, Kansas City, Boston and Cincinnati markets were also feeling the effect of restrained buying, while sharp gains were reported by Houston and New Orleans.

January sales of 28 chain store companies and two mail order houses were 8.8 per cent greater than the same month last year with a total volume of $166,000,000. January cotton consumption of 591,500 bales was the largest since July, 1933.

BALLROOM DANCING CLASSES
MON. - WED. - FRIDAY
7 P. M.
ROBERT RIEGEL
Federation Bldg.

when the war with Ethiopia is over.

Austria will be indirectly but strongly linked to France, diplomats believe, if Vienna agrees on the proposed five-power Danubian pact with the tricolor's military allies, the Little Entente. So will Hungary, it is hoped.

Iraq is believed to be ready to join Turkey, Iran and Afghanistan in the Mid-East Entente, and the fact that Iraq and Arabia a few days ago signed a mutual assistance pact encourages that belief.

Strenuous efforts are being made to steer Bulgaria into the Balkan Entente.

Peace Chained to Facts

Yet, with such an impressive chain extending from continent to continent, France has given no indication of relaxing her efforts to forge additional links.

She wants to get the Baltic states, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia, firmly lined up with Moscow and to break Germany's new-found hold on Poland.

"If even part of our chain holds together," said one French diplomat, "we'll have peace in Europe for 5 years. But we have few illusions. We'll keep right on arming ourselves."

Recital Presented By Voice Pupils

Voice pupils of Mrs. Ira Powell and Mrs. Ann Houser presented a joint recital for the junior high school chapel program Friday morning.

The first presentation was the "Wedding of Jack and Jill." Soloist for the wedding was Ellis Joyce Robinson. Present at the ceremony were all the characters of fairyland and Mother Goose rhymes.

Principals in the wedding were: Max Murell as Jack; Virginia Neel as Jill; and Betty Jean Underwood as May Queen. Others in the roles of Mother Goose characters were: Joan Carpenter, Bobby Baggett, George H. Taylor, Bobby Bohyers, Bob Hendricks, Ira Chesley Powell, Roy Manell, John Cornelson, Margaret Dougherty, Donald McAdams, Bobby Coffey, Dorothy Ann Bishop, Doris Jess Clay, James Mancill, Fred Taughner, Jimmie Harris, Durwood Carnett, Lelah Anderson was accompanist.

Dean Miller did a tap dance to the music of "Sing Before Breakfast." A guitar solo and duet was played by Naomi Pfifer and Doylene Montgomery.

NETS FOR INFANT

Funeral services were to be held at 3 p. m. today for the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hadley, 405 Aylford street.

Man's Friends Glad He Told Them About BLACK - DRAUGHT

Writing from Texarkana, Texas, Mr. W. T. Bentley, of that city, says: "I have been using Black-Draught for fully forty years. I keep a supply on hand. I first knew of Black-Draught when I was a boy, clerking in a store. I saw people buying it and thought: it must be good. I took it for constipation and biliousness. I would have a bad taste in my mouth and headache. I knew I needed a laxative—something to cleanse the system. I would hunt up the Black-Draught and take a dose. I would be relieved in a few hours. In Black-Draught, I have found a simple remedy—one that does not have any after-effects. I do not know of anything better to take for a dull, tired, listless feeling. I have recommended Black-Draught to many friends and neighbors. I know they have been glad that I did, for they have said so."—adv.

Let our service and paint departments under W. J. (Bill) Hannford, give you the service you need and want.
Official Studebaker Service
Auditorium Garage
400 East 3rd St. Phone 290

FLOOR RUGS, FELT BASE

Size	Price	Size	Price
9x12	4.99	6x9	2.99

Liquid Wave Set
Sue Free 6 Oz. Bottle 2 for 9c

Brilliantine 3 Oz. Bottle 7 for 9c
Regular 10c Value

Manicure Polish Remover Set
Orange Stick and Cotton
Regular 10c Value 2 Pkgs. 9c

COSTUME JEWELRY 10c - 15c Value 9c

ENAMELWARE Large Pieces, Mottled 9c

18x36 Inches! Cannon Towels 9c

11 1-2 x 12 Inches Wash Cloths, 3 for 9c

Cleansing Tissue 200 Sheets 9c

Spearmint Tooth Paste 2 Tubes 9c

Fancy Dress Buttons & Slides Big Assortment 9c

Silk Crepe-de-Chine BRASSIERES (Tailored, Tea Rose) 9c

Stamped Goods Large Sizes 9c
Scarfs, Buffet Sets, Center Pieces, Dollies and Pillow Tops

Regular 15c Value 9c

Grey Enamel DISH PANS 12 Qt., Big Value 19c

All 15c GLASSWARE 9c

Ladies' Cotton RIB HOSE 15c Value, Pr. 9c

Men's New Pattern DRESS SOCKS 9c

10 1-4 Inch Waste Baskets 9c

TINWARE Graters and Sifters 9c

3x9 Feet Window Shades (Green and Ecru Crepe Fibre) 9c

KITCHEN ALUMINUM Choice of Sauce Pan, Fudding Pan or Sauce Plate 9c

CHOICE OF 9c ITEMS
Woodbury's Facial Soap, Lady Leather Cold Cream, Dr. Lyon's Tooth Paste, Tooth Brushes, 3 oz. Firmwave, 4 oz. Cold Cream, Box Stationery, etc.

WATCH FOR OUR BIG COLORED CIRCULAR BEING DISTRIBUTED TODAY

DUDLEY'S
Owned and Operated By L. B. Dudley, a Big Spring Institution
"PRICES TALK"
220 MAIN STREET BIG SPRING, TEXAS