Abandoned Vehicle Law To Be Enforced

Several years ago aldermen of the City of Eldorado passed an ordinance designed for the purpose of disposing of junked or abandoned vehicles.

The ordinance was worked up through the legal department of the League Department Texas Municipalities and provided for a printed notice to be attached to the windshield of the vehicle and published.

For year or more the ordinance has not been enforced and now citizens are complaining of junked vehicles being abandoned on or near their property.

So now the City has decided to re-enforce the ordinance, and legal notices are now appearing on page 4.

Local P-TA Is Being Re-Organized

Mrs. Kalo Higgins, District Advisor for Texas Parent-Teacher Association, met with local parents to organize a local P-TA on Saturday, Sept. 7, at the Memorial Building.

The first general meeting will be held on September 16, 1974, at 7:00 p.m. in the Memorial Building. We would like to invite any and all interested persons to attend the meeting.

The P-TA feels the need to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

The local P-TA unit was disbanded four or five years ago after having been established in the schools here for several decades. The re-organization plans are worthy of the support of all local citizens.

We write articles from time to time in this column and we often wonder if anyone reads them.

Compliments are so rare that when the following one came in the mail Monday we were so proud of it we want to share it with our readers.

Of all the articles you all have published lately, I enjoyed the column about Mr. Alexander and his collection the most. I wish you had time to seek out more articles like the one mentioned.

The note came from Myrta Topliffe, Box 991, Houston, Texas. Miss Topliffe is employed with Shell in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones recently bought acreage in Eldorado and have provided space for 10 mobile homes.

Mrs. Jones was in our shop Monday and placed an ad which appears on page 4. While she explained that the family were originally from Anson, they move recently to Eldorado from Sonora.

The family have two married children but they have one 10-year-old son, Brian, who has entered the 5th grade here.

Street talk continues about the Western Company to locate about 20 men here, with mobile homes, later in the year. The firm has bought a 10-acre tract of land about two miles south of town across from the Rancho pump station.

Food Fads May Prove Damaging To Health

Despite the rich bounty provided to us by the land, Texans and Americans in general are described as nutritional illiterates.

Nutrition is a relatively new science. For this reason there is room for misunderstanding, and even intentional misrepresentation. Although much malnutrition is the result of poverty, a full pocket doesn't mean a nourished body, says the State Health Department.

The focus on the high price of meat has made Texans more aware of their eating habits. But one group of individuals—the food faddists—are willing to pay through the nose (and sometimes through their health) for items no better than those offered in supermarkets.

Like hula-hoops and Nehru jackets, fads come and go. But for some the memory may linger on, since food fads can affect health and the quality of living for a long time.

A big fad at the moment is the weight reduction kick, which is tied in by food faddists with better health and some particular foodstuff which they say can cure all the ills of the believers. Some reducing diets, when followed too long, can lead to permanent health problems.

Nutritionists say there is no one particular cure-all food, and they have scientific proof. Faddists, on the other hand, push hundreds of different contradictory food systems, including the current "organic" food theory.

Many diet or nutrition advocates are opportunists whose motivations are economic. Some of these persons appear to be sincere, albeit misguided and close-mouthed in their nutritional beliefs.

A look at some highly-publicized diets gives you an idea of the August Rain Was 9.11"

Over on page 5, we are running the cumulative rainfall record for the past 38 years, and for the month of August the average of the three gauges checked by the Soil Conservation Service gives 9.11 inches, a new all time high. Lloyd Johnson of the SCS points out that the previous high was 9.03 gauged in 1971.

The deluge hit this area during the final few days of the month of August. The recent rains further delayed any prospects for a very early cotton harvest as well as other field work.

Nursing Home News

All our residents had a busy and fun-filled week. Monday and Thursday we had our usual Happy Hour. Tuesday in Arts and Crafts we decorated small boxes to put all our odds and ends in. Friday we made small plaster plaques for decoration. Wednesday was Bingo and Domino day.

Our big Bingo winner this week was Mrs. Lee Dudley with two games. Other winners were Mrs. Flossie Crawford, Mrs. Beulah Harris, Mrs. Ella Casbeer, Mrs. Gertrude Nixon, Mrs. Myrtle Enoch and Mr. John Davis. Fred Watson and Ebbie Donaldson won three domino games against Dick Bearce and Sam McGinnis. Sam and Dick challenged Fred and Ebbie and they played again that afternoon but I never heard the results of that match.

We would like to thank Mrs. Patton Enoch for playing the piano for us last Friday morning. We enjoyed it so much.

Sunday all our residents enjoyed watermelon that was grown by Mr. Gene Edmiston. Thank you, we all had a slurping good time. Out of town visitors this week were Mrs. W. T. Mills to see her mother Mrs. Hallie Parker. Mrs. Sophronia Jeffrey enjoyed her visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simpson from Brownwood.

Happy Birthday to Hattie Blaylock who was 94 September 11th. We hope all her old friends can take time to stop by and wish her well. See you next week. —Ruthie Dacy, A.D., Beulah Harris, Rep.

In Dallas In October . . .

'Exposition Of West' To Highlight Fair

Dallas, Tex.—The local entertainment forecast for October promises cowboys in the Coliseum, Mustangs in the Cotton Bowl and Debbie Reynolds on stage at the Music Hall.

Fair and fun is the prediction when the gates of the 1974 State Fair of Texas swing open corral-style for a 17 day "Exposition of the West," October 4-20, at Fair Park in Dallas.

Bronc busters and bull riders break from the chute October 5, in the first of nine State Fair Rodeo performances in the Coliseum. Top cowboys from the national rodeo circuit will compete for individual championships and more than $50,000 in prize money.

Colorful college football headlines Cotton Bowl events during this year's Fair. SMU-Oregon State, Prairie View-Grambling, Texas-Oklahoma and SMU-Virginia Tech are scheduled for the 72,000 seat stadium.

A sparkling production of the recent Broadway hit, "Irene" starring Debbie Reynolds and Patsy Kelly, marks the second anniversary of the new Music Hall in Fair Park. Bright songs, dazzling choreography and a charming Cinderella story highlight this musical revival.

The popular Pan-American Livestock Exposition will offer fairgoers a look at prime rib on the hoof as champion beef cattle parade past the judges' stand. Horses, swine, sheep, goats, rabbits and poultry combine for a barnyard symposium attracting breeders, buyers and curious spectators of all ages.

Free outdoor entertainment includes marching bands, high-wire acts, versatile musical groups, parades and fireworks. Booths, shops displays and demonstrations will garner attention in six mammoth exhibit halls. Multiple performances of an old fashioned three-ring circus are scheduled daily.

The matchless Midway, alive with

State Fair tradition and excitement, will glisten with new lighting, paving improvements, redesigned game stands and attractive landscaping features from Big Tex Circle to the Cotton Bowl Plaza.

The carnival atmosphere, care-free attitudes, Indian summer weather, contests and exhibitions, outdoor picnic opportunities and toe-tapping music for three million people add up to a one-of-a-kind October extravaganza—the 1974 State Fair of Texas.

San Saba Valley Resource Conservation District Discussed

On March 23, 1972, the San Saba Valley RC&D was officially organized. After many months of hard work the application was finalized in February of 1973 and sent to USDA in Washington, D. C. On March 1 of this year the board of directors of the RC&D area was notified that the application was accepted by the USDA.

The San Saba Valley RC&D comprises four counties—Menard, Schleicher, Concho, and McCulloch.

Since the application has been accepted in Washington, steering committees in the different counties have been busy setting priorities for county projects.

At the present time there are several applications for RC&D projects in Washington. There is no way of knowing exactly when the San Saba Valley RC&D plan will be approved for planning but it is important that the people of the four counties involved be ready.

The aim of RC&D projects is to speed up resource programs in the multiple-county areas as a base for town-and-country economic development.

Each RC&D project has its own unique goals, but most aim to:

Improve and expand recreation facilities; promote historical and scenic attractions.

Reduce pollution of air and water.

Improve markets for crop, and livestock products.

Encourage training programs to improve job skills.

If and when planning assistance is authorized a project coordinator is named to help the sponsors review their problems and opportunities and develop a plan of action. When the plan is approved, USDA provides technical and financial help in carrying out measures called for in the plan.

The success of the RC&D project will depend on coordinated planning and action by the sponsors and the effectiveness of assistance from federal, state, and local agencies, and groups, governmental and otherwise.

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD
Church will have charge of the services this Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15th, at the Nursing Home.

Reddy's consumer tips on ... lighting

Edison's light bulb has come a long way since it first lit up the night in 1879; today, lighting is such a natural part of our lives we hardly give it a thought. But the fact is, the more choice we have in how we can use light, the more attention we should pay to how we buy and use light bulbs and lighting fixtures. Put a little more light in your life by following Reddy's money-saving, energy-conserving lighting tips:

CARE FOR LIGHTING EQUIPMENT

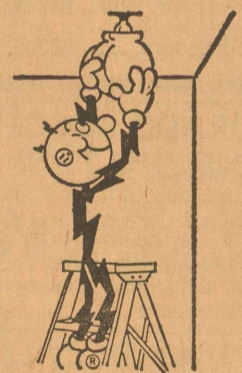

Dust and dirt alone cause substantial losses in the amount of light produced. Systematic cleaning is important. Clean lamp bulbs (when they are cool) with a damp cloth.

Check frequently for defective cords or plugs. Replace or repair them immediately if they are faulty.

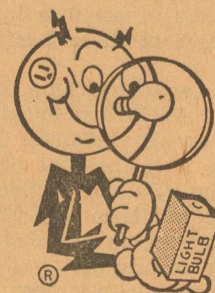

LESS IS MORE

Generally, you'll get more light for your money if you use the least amount of bulbs that give the light you need. For instance, one 100-watt bulb gives more light than three 40-watt bulbs—and costs about one-third less to buy and replace.

READ THE LABEL

Speaking of "lumens," you'll find that all light bulbs have three ratings on their packaging. Lumens tell you what the light output or performance of the bulb is. "Watts" tell you how much electricity is needed to produce that light, and "bulb life" is the estimated length of time it will take the filament inside the bulb to burn out. When brightness is more important than bulb life—for reading, studying or working—choose the "standard" life bulb that gives you the most lumens for its wattage.

Remember, Reddy supplies the energy, but only you can use it wisely!
