

CHURCHES

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH J. M. Hays, Pastor.

May I use this means to speak a word of encouragement to all church members to be faithful to your church and to your Saviour in these most unusual and strenuous times. You need the divine impact that is to be gotten in our church services; and your church needs you.

We need to remember that the religion of a nation determines its destiny and the happiness of its people.

The Sunday School hour is at 10 o'clock each Sunday morning and Training Union each Sunday evening at 7:00 and preaching at 8:00 o'clock. We have our mid-week service each Wednesday evening at 7:30. To all these services we extend to you a hearty welcome and urge you to come if you have no church home.

Isn't it true: "The church that turns over its children to be educated by others gives a mortgage upon them with strong probability of foreclosure." "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."—Prov. 14:34.

SERVICE FLAG IN HOME OF BRADY COUPLE HAS 4 STARS

BRADY, Feb. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Finlay of Brady are proud of the four service stars hanging in the window of their home, the stars representing four sons who are with the armed forces of Uncle Sam. A fifth son is in defense work at Kelly Field, San Antonio.

Pvt. Roy Lee (Snooks) Finlay of the United States Air Corps, is stationed at Avon Park, Fla.; Pvt. William A. (Bill) Finlay is in the U. S. Army, and is at Fort Custer, Mich.; J. W. Finley, carpenter's mate, first class, is in the Navy and stationed at Camp Peary, Va., and Ralph E. Finlay, fire controlman, second class, also of the Navy, is somewhere in the Pacific.

Earl Finlay is in defense work at Kelly Field.

The above article was taken from the San Angelo Standard-Times of recent date.

These four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Finlay of Brady are nephews of Mrs. Will Isaacs and Mrs. Frank Bradley of this city. Mrs. Bradley also has two sons in service.

When they start building cars again, why not make 'em with ready-bent fenders so they'll always look like new?

Humble Ads Will Show Part Texas Oil Has In War

No state in the Union is more richly endowed with natural resources vital to war than Texas; and in the long list of these resources oil is by far the most important. To tell the interesting story of the essential part that Texas crude is playing in the war effort the Humble Oil & Refining Company will publish a series of newspaper advertisements, it was announced today by the Company's Advertising Department.

The first of the series, "There goes 'Tex' again!" appears in this issue. It concerns itself primarily with Texas manpower both here at home and in battle. Others to follow will feature toluene, basic ingredient of deadly TNT; high octane aviation gasoline for fighter and trainer planes; launching greases for ships; solvents, marine paints, Rust-Ban protective coatings, stratosphere greases, waxes; lubricants and fuels of all kinds. The list is practically endless.

Californian Is Feted With Dinners Here

Mrs. Herman A. Hirdler of Los Angeles, California is a ten-day house guest of her sister, is not unmindful of the feature role that petroleum plays in the factory and on the farm of the home front.

"There are 2,150 employees in uniform," the announcement says. "Backing them up are 12,557 loyal Texas employees united in the war effort."

RANCHMEN WILL HAVE TO STRETCH FEED, OFFICIAL DECLARES

While every effort is being made to obtain increased production of cake and meal for cattle, "it will be necessary that they (ranchmen) make every effort to stretch their supplies as far as possible".

That, in effect, is the answer to a plea made to the Commodity Credit Corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture

The shortage in feed is blamed on "the increase in live stock and dairy production" by C. C. Farrington, vice president of the corporation.

Texas' budget is handled by the State Board of Control, which submits to each session of the legislature an itemized statement of the various governmental departments' needs, as well as recommendations for appropriations to state educational and eleemosynary institutions.

WSCS Met For Study Monday At Church

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday at the church for their regular weekly meeting. The meeting was held at 2:30 with Mrs. L. Wheeler in charge of the study. "Planning for Peace" was the subject. A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Mae Tisdale. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served to the members by Mrs. Ben Hext.

Enemies are friends you make the mistake of losing.

"There goes 'Tex' again!"

"What a soldier, that 'Tex' . . . tough, rugged, and smart . . . Watch him push that tank into the thick of it . . . acts like he's been around machines all his life, and never tires of wrangling that clanking monster."

Yes, 'Tex' does take to machines. He likes tinkering with them, and he's had plenty of experience with the farm tractor, the family car, the windmill.

And he takes to war, too. Thousands of young men just like him from the Lone Star State are in every branch of America's armed forces. Nearly every outfit has its 'Tex.'

More than 2,000 of them have gone from their peace-time jobs with the Humble Company, and standing firmly behind them is Humble's army of nearly 13,000 "home front" soldiers dedicated to that tremendous job of supplying American and Allied fighting machines with essential oil supplies.

The same research, technique, and up-to-the-minute equipment, which in peace time gave you Esso Extra gasoline, 997 Motor oil, and second-to-none products for your home, your farm, and your factory, today is fashioning from Texas crude the vital tools of war. Below is a partial list of the Victory products which flow from Humble refineries:

Clubwoman: Wagewoman: Homewoman—

SHE'S THE SAME PERSON, when she goes to a store.

At her club meeting, it's kind of fun to hear some radical lecturer "prove" that most manufacturers are slickers, most store cheese is chalk, and most advertising is ballyhoo.

But watch the clubwoman when she starts buying. She wants her money's worth and she gets it. How? By first consulting the advertisements. Then by choosing the products she knows—the trade-marked, nationally advertised products that have been on the market for years.

Those trade-marked, advertised articles are the ARISTOCRATS among all the things she buys—or that any of us can buy.
