Edgar Phillips, Big Spring FFA member, exhibited his lightweight Chester White barrow to the grand championship of the annual Howard County 4-H and FFA Swine Show this morning.

The reserve championship was won by a heavyweight Duroc shown by Bobby Suggs, also of the Big Spring FFA.

Barrow judging opened the Jaycee-sponsored show. Gilts in the Sears Foundation program were to be judged at 1:30 p.m. Both Martin and Howard County youths had Sears gilts entered. After the pigs were placed by county, area champions were to be selected.

An auction at 7:30 p.m. today will conclude the annual show.

Phillips' grand champion pig was bred by V. L. Gregg. The animal won the lightweight blue ribbon before copping the grand championship.

Suggs' Duroc was bred by S. McQuorter. It was winner of its calls prior to the championship judging.

Barrow judging results:

Nippy Cool Front Due

A cool front described as the hippest of the season moved into Texas Thursday.

The front was dropping temperatures by 10 to 12 degrees and was setting off some thundershowers—bad news for flood areas hopeful for drying weather.

The front dropped the temperature to a mill at Daltart early Thursday, making the town at the top of the Panhandle the coolest spot in the state before dawn.

The Wichita River and Holliday Creek in the Wichita Falls area were reported slowly receding from flood stage late Wednesday night. Earlier, they had inundated some 150 blocks of Wichita Falls and forced about 500 persons to flee from their homes.

However, city officials in Wichita Falls thought it might be two days or longer before the streams would be back in their banks.

Temperatures remained moderate and a weak cool front descending on the state from the Colorado-New Mexico-Oklahoma area was not expected to bring any severe change.

Air Force To Move Americans From North Africa Base

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—U.S. Air Force authorities decided to move about 50 Americans, including women and children, from their radar base at Saida, it was learned today, after repeated raids in the area by rebel planes fighting in French North Africa.

The radar base is on the Mediterranean in a corner of French Morocco lying between Algeria and the Spanish zone. U.S. bases in Morocco are under French protection.

About 200 Americans are at Saida. Fourteen are married men with their families. The married men are being replaced by single men.

Ben Ramsey New Texas Demo Chief

Political Veteran Succeeds Morrow

FORT WORTH (AP)—Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, a surprise compromise candidate, today was elected Democratic national committeeman from Texas.

There was a scattering of "Nos" at a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee on a voice vote to succeed Wright Morrow of Houston, ousted in July from the post he had claimed since 1952. Ramsey, regarded as a conservative in politics, also has a clear Democratic voting record which committee members felt would automatically open the door for him at the next national committee meeting in November in Chicago.

The East Texas lawyer did not campaign for Republican Dwight Eisenhower in the 1952 presidential election as did Gov. Allan Shivers and Morrow.

Edward Badouh of New Braunfels, chairman of the nominating subcommittee, told the Democratic leaders that the committee had come to the unanimous decision that Ramsey would "represent the political views of a majority of the people of Texas."

Badouh said Ramsey had been in public life for many years and in one election had polled the highest number of votes ever cast for a statewide candidate.

The entire committee action took less than 10 minutes.

Shivers is to address a $10 a plate barbecue and rally here tonight.

Ramsey, 50, is from San Augustine. He has never lost a race for public office and has made many.

He served in the Texas House for four years starting in 1930, then went to the Senate for two terms, and in 1950 was elected lieutenant governor. He also has served as secretary of state.

A former as well as a lawyer, Ramsey is noted for his quick wit and the kind of country wisecracks usually traded around a cracker barrel. In the Legislature he backed a series of labor restrictive bills which made him unpopular with unions.

Both the conservatives led by Shivers and the liberals or "loyalists" under the generalship of Speaker Sam Rayburn would like to control the state delegation to the national presidential nominating convention next year. The delegation will be selected at the May state convention.

Shivers is the chief speaker at a $10-a-plate barbecue and rally set for 7:30 p.m. at Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. The party leaders hope to raise at least $10,000 for a statewide precinct-by-precinct organization campaign that will pick up speed between now and April when the first conventions are held.

The State Democratic Executive Committee will pick a successor for Wright Morrow, national committeeman ousted last July after an open break with Gov. Shivers.

Both Shivers and Morrow broke with the national party in 1952 to support the GOP nominee, Dwight D. Eisenhower. The national committee then refused to recognize Morrow.

The state committee threw him out in July after Shivers conferred with National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler in Washington. Morrow, angry with Shivers, said it was a move to appease Rayburn and other national party leaders.

Keeping Grim Vigil
Mrs. William Raymond Teel and her five-year-old son, Roger, wait patiently on the bank of the Mississippi River at Davenport, Iowa, as rescue workers and skin divers search the river for the bodies of her husband, William R. Teel, 37, and another son, Gregory, 7, who were drowned when their small boat capsized. Roger, also in the boat at the time, was rescued by fishermen. The Teels, residents of Venice, Calif., were visiting for the 61st wedding anniversary of their parents.

Red Ants Chew Traffic Lights Into Confusion

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Hungry red ants with a taste for plastic insulation have been traced as the culprits responsible for a mysterious series of short circuit failures in San Fernando Valley traffic signals.

Manager Lloyd Braff of the Los Angeles Traffic Department said there have been 56 short circuits in six weeks, mostly along heavily traveled Lankershim and Ventura boulevards.

Electricians were mystified. Motorists were confused. Finally, Braff related yesterday, investigators found that the red ants, traveling in armies of thousands, burrowed down through 10 inches of crushed gravel in wire-conductor boxes placed near the signals and chewed the insulation off the wires.

In many places insulation had been stripped from the wires for several inches.

Powerful ant poison is being placed around the 1,000 signal control boxes in the valley.

Coed Due For $100,000 Try

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Only the magic word "Zena" stands between Patricia Morris and $100,000.

The 19-year-old coed is scheduled to try to break a hypnotist's spell on a TV show tomorrow night, and in a preview yesterday she appeared positively entranced.

Hypnotist Arthur Ellen put her to sleep for many minutes and told reporters he can repeat the stunt anytime during this week merely by repeating the word "Zena."

Ellen and Miss Morris will appear on NBC's "Truth or Consequences."

Before he casts his spell, $100,000 in new bills will be placed on a table before her. He will instruct her not to rise from her chair. If she can get up, take four steps and pick up the money, it's hers, payable at $5,000 annually for 20 years.

The Brooklyn-born hypnotist and a group of friends are putting up the money.

In yesterday's warmup Ellen was able to stick the coed with a pin and stand on her knees after suspending her rigid body between two chairs. Patricia said she felt no pain.

Perrin Flier's Body Found In Stock Tank

DENISON, Tex. (AP)—Found late yesterday in a stock tank near Pottsville was the body of a Perrin Air Force Base pilot who had bailed out of his plane the night before.

The pilot, 2nd Lt. Frank Manning, 22, radioed Perrin Tuesday night that he was bailing out after losing control of his ship.

LABOR STRIKE National Guard Clamps Vise On City Following Gun Battle

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP)—Six hundred National Guardsmen clamped a martial vise on this strife-torn city today after a wild gun battle at the struck Perfect Circle foundry.

The Guard was sent in after Mayor Paul McCormack proclaimed a state of limited emergency in this Eastern Indiana city of 15,000. The guardsmen were heavily armed and equipped with tanks.

Eight persons were shot yesterday as 5,000 union sympathizers converged from all over Indiana to back up a CIO United Auto Workers strike against the little foundry. It has a normal work force of only 250.

Shooting broke out as the demonstrators marched on about 100 nonstrikers inside the plant. The nonstrikers apparently opened fire first.

The strike over wages and a union shop began July 25. Tension and disorder has mounted steadily since. The dismissal of 35 pickets Tuesday apparently touched off yesterday's mob demonstration.

The former board chairman of Perfect Circle—a piston ring manufacturing firm—is Asst. Secretary of Commerce Lathair Teeter. In Washington, it was learned that the Eisenhower administration is dropping Teeter, via the resignation routine. He quit as board chairman of Perfect Circle to become assistant secretary in 1953. The CIO has been gunning for his scalp because of his public statements on labor matters.

Teeter, however, said he has no direct hand in management of Perfect Circle now and has not talked to company officials since the strike began. His resignation apparently had been in the works for weeks.

Meanwhile, a union-management conference was scheduled for later in the day. For the time being, there was no plan to try to reopen the struck foundry.

In calling out the Guard, Gov. George Craig—vacationing in Miami, Fla.—sent word through a spokesman that "there will not be a repetition of what happened Wednesday."

He added he intends to keep the plant closed as long as there is any danger of disorder.

Plane With 61 Aboard Missing

DENVER (AP)—A United Air Lines DC4 with 61 passengers and a crew of three was reported missing today by company officials here.

The plane left Denver at 6:33 a.m. (MST) for Salt Lake City, Oakland and San Francisco. Officials said the plane had not reported over Rock Springs, Wyo., a scheduled en route check point.

The Aircoach Flight 409 originated in New York at 7:10 p.m. (EDT) Wednesday and had made regular stops at Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago and Omaha en route to Denver.

United said here "every effort was being made to contact the plane and that further reports would be given as soon as possible."

The Wyoming director of aeronautics and Lowry Air Force Base said that search planes were in the air.

Wyoming Aeronautics Director George Nelson said in Cheyenne that severe turbulence was reported at 8,000 feet over northern Colorado and southern Wyoming early today.

Search planes scanned the rugged, precipitous snowy range of mountains in southern Wyoming between Laramie and Rawlins.

UAL officials in Denver reported flying weather at Denver and Salt Lake City, where the plane was scheduled to arrive at 9:06 a.m. (MST), was clear.

Officials said the plane's passengers boarded the plane in the East.

The most recent major air line crash in this area was on June 30, 1951. At that time a United Air Lines DC6 crashed atop Crystal Mountain, in Colorado, killing the 50 persons aboard. The plane was following generally the same flight route the plane now missing would have followed.

Gets Hospital Checkup
PANAMA (AP)—President Ricardo Arias was in a private hospital today for what his doctor described as a routine medical checkup.

Gov. Craig from Miami sent an order through his Indianapolis office for the Guard to come here.

For a time it appeared Lt. Gov. Harold W. Handley might countermand the order. He questioned the legality of the governor calling out the Guard while absent from the state. Although both are Republicans, Craig and Handley are long-time factional foes.

Later, Handley capitulated with a statement in which he said: "I respect the governor's right to call out the Guard. However, I would have liked to have given him the story. Everything was peaceful when I left New Castle. The 150 state troopers are on duty. My thought was to give it a try. The strike has been on 10 weeks. Why not wait another 12 hours?"

In the end, the lieutenant governor let the Guard call stand, but he refused to sign it himself.

Handley came here yesterday and persuaded the company not to try to reopen the plant pending today's union-management conference.

UAW officials insisted they did not mobilize the marchers. They claimed it was a spontaneous move of support by union members throughout the state.

Most of the crowd had withdrawn when the nonstrikers were finally brought out of the plant. State troopers held back about 250 to 300 who remained to watch the evacuation. It was marked only by minor scuffling.

Funeral services will be conducted at the First Baptist Church in Colorado City at 2 p.m. Friday. Rev. J. F. Selcraig, pastor, will be in charge, assisted by Rev. Clinton Eastman, Westbrook, and Rev. Everett Yielding, Buford. Kiker and Son Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Closing Arguments Scheduled In Contempt Of Congress Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—All the evidence was in today in the contempt of Congress trial of author Harvey O'Connor, who testified he did not think any congressional committee had a right to ask him whether he was a Communist.

Federal Judge Joseph C. McGarragh, conducting the trial without a jury, was ready to hear closing arguments from both sides.

Defense motions for acquittal were awaiting a court ruling.

O'Connor, testifying in his own defense as the last witness, said yesterday that under the Constitution no government authority can inquire into the political opinions of its citizens.

This was his answer when Asst. U.S. Atty. William Hitz, the government prosecutor, asked him if he felt that any committee of Congress could inquire into whether he was a member of the "Communist conspiracy."

Hitz said his question dealt with the Communist conspiracy, not with political affiliations.

O'Connor replied that he didn't know what the term "Communist conspiracy" meant, but he said he did not feel any congressional committee had a right to ask him if he were a member of the Communist party.

O'Connor, 38, lives in Winnetka, Ill., and Little Compton, R.I. He is the author of "Mellon's Millions," "The Astors" and other books.

He was charged with contempt after he had refused to tell the Senate Investigations subcommittee in July 1953 whether he was a member of the Communist party.

O'Connor testified he would have refused to answer any congressional committee that asked him about Communist party membership.

He also testified that, on being called as a witness by McCarthy's subcommittee, he had determined that he would not answer "any questions dealing with my political beliefs, ideas, or associations."

O'Connor said he had read about the activities of McCarthy's subcommittee and had decided to do what he could to halt what he considered to be "an invasion of the basic freedoms" of American citizens. He said McCarthy had called him merely in an effort to "blacken my name and ruin my reputation."

O'Connor has denied being a member of the Communist party.

Nixon Friends Slap California Governor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Friends of Vice President Nixon are at his side today with sharp retorts to Gov. Goodwin J. Knight for bringing a California Republican party feud, smoldering for more than a year, into the open.

The governor touched off intra-party fireworks yesterday by stating that, if President Eisenhower doesn't run next year, he intends to head the state's delegation to the GOP National Convention even if it means an open fight with Nixon.

The Nixon camp retaliated swiftly with statements by Rep. Carl Hinshaw, chairman of the state's GOP House members, and V. John Krehbiel, Los Angeles County Republican chairman.

Both criticized the governor for making his remarks in a Sacramento interview while President Eisenhower is ill.

Rep. Hinshaw accused Knight of "fantastic pretensions as a bona fide contender for the office of president."

connection with his fantastic pretensions as a bona fide contender for the office of president of the United States should not go unrebuked.

"Except in the ambitious dreams of Mr. Knight he is something of a political joke in national politics and it will prove most unfortunate for the Republican party in California and in the nation if his unseemly and almost indecent haste to exploit the unfortunate illness of President Eisenhower should result in creating a false impression of his real standing."

Gov. Knight, in his interview had reiterated that his first choice as a GOP nominee is President Eisenhower but that if the President doesn't run he will seek control of this state's convention votes as a favorite son—and only nominal—candidate.

Krehbiel said in his statement: "Gov. Knight by his conduct in injecting partisan politics while the President is confined to his hospital bed forfeits any right he may have had to enter the national picture. He certainly doesn't belong in the class of such outstanding men as Vice President Nixon and Sen. Knowland."

Nixon 'Easiest' To Beat, Says Democrat Chief

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Vice President Nixon "is the easiest Republican to beat" for the presidency but the Democrats will win next year from anybody, says Chairman Paul Butler of the Democratic National Committee.

Butler, here for a Jefferson-Jackson Day fund-raising dinner, discussed 1956 presidential possibilities at a press conference. His talk to the party rally was concerned mainly with a plea for Democratic unity and with an endorsement of Sen. Lister Hill for renomination and re-election next year.

Butler said Nixon would be his choice as "the Republican candidate for president easiest for the Democrats to beat."

Butler was here on a swing through the South. He made no direct reference at the dinner to the effort of E. D. Nixon, a Montgomery Negro, to buy a ticket for the meeting, but he did say he did not know why anyone would think he would not come to Birmingham.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan decided not to come here for the dinner after Nixon failed to get a ticket. Birmingham's segregation laws prohibit Negroes and white persons from dining together in public places.

Doubt Grows Over Khrushchev's Role

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Western diplomats are no longer so sure as they once were that jovial, back-slapping Nikita Khrushchev is the dominating figure inside the Soviet government.

At least a few believe that the key man—the chairman of the board within the ruling group—may be Premier Nikolai Bulganin. The distribution of power among Soviet leaders has provided a continuous guessing game for Western diplomats and foreign affairs officials ever since Joseph Stalin died. Each contact between top Russians and Western leaders is therefore carefully analyzed for signs of personal power positions.

The latest such occasion of substantial importance was the September visit to Moscow of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and his foreign minister, Heinrich Von Brentano.

Von Brentano recently came to the United States and conferred with the American, British and French foreign ministers in New York as well as with State Department officials here.

He is understood to have remarked in these conversations that Bulganin rather than Khrushchev was clearly the dominant figure in the negotiations.

Adenauer and his associates went to the meeting prepared to find Khrushchev playing a lead role and doing the tough bargaining. Instead, they found that Bulganin took the lead in virtually all the talks and was an extremely able and tough bargainer.

That July rain which temporarily broke the dry spell for the Lomax and Elbow communities may have come too late. Much of the land was planted to cane, maize and hegarl, and the race against frost started. L. H. Batton, who manages the J. Y. Robb place at Lomax, thinks cold weather is too near for the grain sorghums to grain out.

"If frost holds off a week or so later than usual, the late feed crop may make," he said. "But I look for some cool weather the last of this month when the growth will slow down."

Batton had intended to put much of their 500 acres of feed into silos, but doesn't think it will be mature enough for silage. In which case, he plans to graze the fields with cattle.

He will also have 100 acres of abruzi rye pasture for the winter. He got about an inch of rain Wednesday afternoon, which is enough to cause some good growth for the rye the next few weeks.

The cotton is pretty sorry on their place, Batton said, and over the community in general. There are a few good fields, however, and Everett Lomax has some cotton that will make a very good yield.

Fred Roman has been growing cotton on his farmland west of Knott for a good many years, but says this is the most spotted crop he ever made. Some cotton will make a bale to the acre, while other places will be hardly worth gathering. He thinks he will average a third of a bale on the entire field.

The reason for the uneven condition, he said, was the way the rains came. One part of the field would get a heavy shower, while a quarter mile away the dust would hardly be settled.

Several farmers in southern Dawson County have started growing a longer staple cotton. Around Klondike they are raising the D, P, and L, and think it will make more money than the short staple varieties.

They haven't ginned but a few bales yet, according to Clyde Edmondson, gin manager, but the staple is good. He said the shortest he had ginned was an inch, and some of it had measured one and one-sixteenth.

Most farmers in that area are pulling bolls, though a few intend to pick the cotton the first time over the field.

In 1952 the Elbow community grew up in thistles and they completely blocked the road in places after they started blowing. One or two farmers spent considerable money driving tractors over the fields to loosen the thistles, then had them piled up and burned. And likely enough seed was left on the fields to bring up a fresh crop for the next 10 years.

No matter who suggests it, not many farmers will willingly let a crop of thistles go to seed.

Frank Harris of Klondike has the biggest irrigation well in Southern Dawson, as well as the most profitable. Harris drilled it last spring then had a lot of trouble from caving. Finally he came out with a flow of 730 gallons per minute. With the help of some timely rains he raised 200 acres of cotton, which is expected to make a bale to the acre.

A lot of breeders' associations are flooding the mails with publicity. The biggest spenders are the King Ranch owners. They recently hired Jim Compton, agricultural writer from Lubbock, to publicize their Santa Gertrudis cattle.

Nearly all the news letters mention the prizes won by the association's livestock, but are mighty quiet about the shows where the animals didn't win. To hear each one tell it, you would think the country never had but one successful breed of cattle—theirs.

The biggest number of pigs at the local pig show came from Knott. The FFA members brought down 19 for the contest. They are specializing in feeding out hogs this year, said Cyril Keith, the vocational agriculture teacher at Knott.

The boys also have about 100 capons and a few lambs, but hardly any calves. The scant feed crop the last year or so has kept the boys from purchasing club calves. Keith said they bought some lambs at Brownfield and expect some more from Garden City within the next few days.

Keith came to Knott during the latter part of the school term last winter. This is his first teaching job after graduating from college. He is originally from DeLeon.

The trend toward big farming has continued in Martin County as well as elsewhere. Since 1950 the size of the owners there as elsewhere are still having a hard time keeping profits ahead of the debts.

I wonder how anyone ever made a living on a 150-acre farm? A lot of people did it before World War II, including our family. We never worked over 140 acres as long as I stayed on the farm, yet we managed to live, or at least exist. We didn't live very high on the hog, though there was always plenty of hog to eat, plus milk, butter, vegetables and home-grown corn meal. If anyone wanted more than that to eat, he was too hifalutin' to live on a farm.

Black Marketing By GI Families Fought

AUGSBURG, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army reinforced today its campaign to wipe out minor black marketing by soldiers' families in West Germany.

If she does not pay the fine within six months, she will be placed under confinement for a maximum of 30 days. Her name was not released.

Visiting Russ Builders To See Multiple Units

BOSTON (AP)—A delegation of 10 Russian construction experts—in Boston on a tour of American cities—switch from private homes to multiple-unit developments today on the last round of their visit. Apparently most interested in methods and material to speed Soviet building, the tourists yesterday focused their interest and cameras on single-unit dwellings.

The Russians purchased a prefabricated door, an accordion-type fabric door, a preassembled double window and door.

Charles R. Bragg, managing director of the Host Home Builders Assn. of Boston, said the Russians were surprised or impressed by:

1. The fact that open, airy homes with so much glass could be lived in comfortably in the cold, New England climate.
2. The high quality of plaster and concrete used in American housing developments compared with that used in Russia.
3. Negro and white workmen side by side on construction jobs.

Foreign Legion Fights To Hold 3 Embattled Morocco Outposts

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—French Foreign Legion veterans fought to hold three embattled outposts in northern Morocco at all costs today against well-organized rebel tribesmen.

Troops from Bouard and Tizi Ouzil fought through ambushes and past mountain marksmen yesterday and finally linked up with Moroccan cavalry from Aknoul. They beat off a series of mass attacks that began Saturday against the triangle of outposts along the border between French and Spanish Morocco.

But the French were still menaced by the rebels holding positions in the surrounding mountains. Both sides apparently had been reinforced for a hard fight in the area where Abd el Krim, the veteran warrior, scored successes in the Rif war more than 30 years ago.

Taza, a city of 29,000 45 miles south of the border, was crowded with hundreds of refugees from isolated outposts in the area.

Most were women and children, and some were from villages to the south and west, indicating the French feared the fighting would spread to heretofore peaceful areas.

The French Cabinet was called into session in Paris to see if it could stick together long enough to get its Moroccan reform program back on the track.

Premier Edgar Faure was faced by resignation threats from six key Cabinet members of the Gaullist Social Republican and Independent Peasant parties.

Many members of the National Assembly were crying for Faure's scalp because he yielded to Moroccan nationalist demands for the shelving of Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafat. Other deputies demanded a debate on the Premier's policies because the rest of his program, including appointment of a new Moroccan government, was stalled.

The three menaced outposts, Bouard, Aknoul and Tizi Ouzil, are in a triangle formed by the Rif and Middle Atlas ranges and control one of the few roads linking Spanish and French Morocco.

Simultaneous attacks at Imouzzer-des-Marmoucha and Berkine, southeast of Fez, suggested to French authorities that a mastermind outside Morocco was seeking to unite the Rif tribes with the warlike Berbers.

Refugees at Taza said the rebel columns came from Spanish Morocco and carried Spanish and British-made submachineguns.

The French apparently were determined to defend the strategic northern triangle at all cost. Resident General Pierre Boyer de Latour flew to the area yesterday to take personal charge.

French officials said they had several thousand troops in the area. Many French army transports have landed at Nouaceur, largest U.S. air base in Morocco.

In Paris, Rene Massigli, permanent head of the French Foreign Office, was reported to have used "firm language" in a talk with the Spanish ambassador in which he asked that the rebels be prevented from using Spanish Morocco as a base.

Father Cited In Adoption Fight

DEDHAM, Mass. (AP)—Probate Judge James F. Reynolds has ordered the arrest of Melvin B. Ellis after he failed to appear in court in connection with a religious adoption case.

The case centers around a Massachusetts law which says that "when practicable" a child may be given for adoption only to couples of the same religious faith as the child.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis are Jews and their adopted daughter Hildy, for whom they have cared for most of her 4 1/2 years, was born to a Catholic mother, Mrs. Marjorie McCoy Doherty of Hingham.

RIVER GOES HIGHER

Tampico Deaths Estimated At 326

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The death toll in flood-battered Tampico mounted today to 326, by unofficial count, as the relentless Panuco River went still higher.

Reports from upriver communities of a sharp drop held out some hope of relief for the stricken port within 48 hours. But there were fears the inland rains of the past week would continue, sending the river's headwaters climbing again before Tampico could get a respite.

As Mexico grappled with a major disaster beyond the limits of its strained resources, U.S. armed forces and relief agencies handled most of the rescue and relief operations at Tampico. Mexican efforts have been concentrated largely on relief to the Yucatan Peninsula, where Hurricane Janet killed an estimated 200 persons last week and wiped out three towns.

At Tampico, the aircraft carrier Salpan took the lead in the most intensive American relief campaign ever staged in Mexico. The U.S. Army, Air Force and Marines, plus the American Red Cross and the Salvation Army, poured food, clothing, medicine and other supplies into the stricken city of 110,000 and the surrounding area.

The aircraft carrier Siboney was en route from Norfolk with 12 large helicopters, while the Oglethorpe, an American transport, was reported loading additional food at Norfolk.

Lt. Col. M. C. Quillen, airlift operations officer in charge of joint U.S. Army-Air Force transportation, announced that the 14th Air Force has airlifted approximately 250,000 pounds of food and clothing to Tampico since Oct. 1.

The U.S. 4th Army's headquarters in San Antonio, Tex., announced it was preparing additional equipment for air shipment requested by the Red Cross and U.S. Navy. Included are water purification units, power generators and field equipment. Army personnel were being sent to operate and maintain the equipment.

Grateful residents of Tampico called all this "Operation Friendship." Mexican newspapers hailed the aid as greatly strengthening U.S.-Mexican ties.

The forces gave top priority to rescuing trapped refugees in the Tampico area. Most of this work has been carried out by 14 helicopters. An estimated 1,500 persons have been rescued in the last three days. Tamaulipas Gov. Horacio Teran reported another 1,500 were still marooned on rooftops, dikes and in trees in the Los Llanos del Golfo area out from the city.

Pan American World Airways rushed a 70-passenger clipper plane from Miami to help evacuate the victims to other cities. The number of homeless was staggering—83,000 in Tampico itself and about 100,000 in the surrounding area.

The exodus from the city was slowed by lack of surface transportation. No highways or railroads were open, and the exit by sea was dangerous because of swift currents. Even the road to the airport was flooded, making the trip difficult except for helicopters.

Although some cases of dysentery have been reported, there has been no major outbreak of disease. Typhoid serum shots were administered.

Inland floods were reported receding in many areas but estimates of crop losses were soaring. The governor of the northern state of Sonora said damage to the cotton crop alone in his state ran to at least 12 million dollars.

Mystery Leaves Everyone In Fog

WINDSOR, Vt. (AP)—The mystery of the water in the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Waterman was no nearer solution today.

The Watermans have been forced to take refuge in a trailer in their front yard.

The water, in the form of dew, mist or fog, dampens everything in the eight-room house except the walls and ceilings.

The Watermans have lived in the house for nine years but not until two weeks ago did water begin to plague them.

Experts from electrical, plumbing, furnace and insulation companies are as puzzled as the Watermans. There are no water pipe leaks and there seems to be no seepage from a spring, well or other body of water.

Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy GOD: for I am the LORD your God. (Lev. 25:17)

Russia's Move Easy To See Through

The hypocritical attitude of the Soviet Union in the Algerian manipulation became apparent almost at once. The Soviet Bloc, leagued with the Afro-Asiatic group plus some help from Latin America, overrode the West in asking the U. N. General Assembly to inquire into France's conduct in Algeria, thereby so angering the French that they walked out of the General Assembly to stay until the matter is cleared up one way or another.

send a U. N. commission into the country to stir up more strife by its very presence. In Moscow the head of the Communist Party, Nikita Khrushchev wasn't quite so obscure. He said Russia supports the "national liberation" movement in French North Africa, disavowed any interference in French affairs, but hoped a "just solution" could be found for the problem.

Peron Just Another Woman Chaser

The newly-liberated press of Argentina, long compelled to refrain from any mention of deposed Dictator Juan Peron except of a laudatory nature, has been kicking up its heels in high clover. The departed Peron's love affairs have been spread in the newspapers and magazines giving the people the first information in cold type that he was quite a ladies' man.

Peron's amorous adventures. The press secretariat elaborated on the new chief's orders by explaining: "The provisional government does not look with approval on notices and commentaries published by some organs on the private life of the ex-President. The government believes that criticism . . . should be on a high plane and constructive."

Delegation of The President's Powers

After Mr. Sherman Adams and Mr. Brownell returned to Washington last week, a decision was taken about the delegation of the President's powers and duties. It was that the ceremonial functions, so far as they were necessary, would be performed by the Vice President but that the substantive powers of his office were to be exercised for the President by the White House officials.

It has been there, in fact, ever since he began to express his doubts about a second term and almost said in so many words that he was uncertain about his health. Since then Mr. Nixon's ability to carry on for President Eisenhower has been the most critical question in American politics. The country was on notice from Mr. Eisenhower himself that if he ran again, the country might be voting for Mr. Nixon as President. It followed also that if the President did not run again, the question was whether Mr. Nixon could win, or whether, as the Gallup Poll indicated, he would in fact divide the Eisenhower voters.

The Constitution, as we know, lacks a clear provision about how the President's functions are to be performed in case of partial disability. In a case of total disability, we know what the Constitution intends—that as long as the disability lasts, the Vice President shall exercise the powers and duties but shall not hold the office of President. But there is no Constitutional provision for the kind of partial and temporary disability which is what the news from Denver has led us to expect.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. —Of course you know about the little white beans Boston has made famous. The Virus May Be Losing A Round

Man now appears to be catching up with the virus, and may even get ahead in their centuries-old conflict. Man now is able to "split" the virus—something the virus has been able to do to man, at least figuratively, for a long time.

Man knows of no direct way to combat the viruses; he can only treat their consequences, make the victim as strong and healthy as possible and hope that nature will do away with the cause of it all.

As incredible as the Dodgers' triumph over the Yankees is the fact that a little guy—and an Ivy League player to boot—is the leading ground gainer in major college football so far this season. Statistics issued today by the NCAA Service Bureau show that Claude Benham, 5-foot-8, 170-pound Columbia quarterback, is the major college individual leader both in passing and total offense. Like another small star of 16 years ago, Davey O'Brien of Texas Christian, durability is one of Benham's best assets.

Benham, who provides most of Columbia's offense, is a 60-minute player, and in two games he has handled the ball—either passing or running—on 79 plays. That's close to the record set by the 148-pound O'Brien in 1938, when he averaged 40 rushes and passes per game. In two games the stubby Columbia junior from Portsmouth, Va., has racked up 397 yards on 79 plays. His 59 pass attempts, 27 completions and 363 yards through the air are high for the season to date. He's had seven passes intercepted, also high for the leaders. It was a losing game that sent Benham to the top. He accounted for 229 yards by rushing and passing—the individual single-game high for the year—while Columbia was losing to Princeton, 20-7.

Meanwhile Art Lupino of Arizona, who never passes, reclaimed the rushing leadership he held all but one week last season. Lupino gained 129 yards in 16 carries against Idaho for a three-game total of 361 yards.

Jim Swink of Texas Christian, last week's rushing leader, slipped to second place with 345 yards, but he scored 13 points against Arkansas to go into a tie for the scoring lead with Southern California's Don Arnett. Each has 44 points.

Joe Clements of Texas, passing and total offense leader a week ago, was sidelined by a head injury after only two plays against Southern California and dropped to fifth in passing and seventh in total offense.

Another Ivy Leaguer, Bill Beagle of Dartmouth, moved into second place behind Benham in passing with 26 completions out of 50 attempts. Nick Consoles of Wake Forest, who has thrown 40 passes without an interception, is third with 25 completions. The control artist among the passers is Wisconsin's Jim Haluska, who has completed 14 of 19 for a 73.7 percentage and also hasn't had one intercepted.

Dick Young of Georgia is runner-up in total yardage with 368 and Lupino third with 361.

John Stewart of Stanford, who made two catches against Ohio State, retained his pass-receiving leadership with 13 in 3 games. His newest challenger is John Breddie of Boston University, who caught 6 Saturday for a total of 11 in 2 games. Kentucky's Howard Schnellenberger gathered in 7 passes Saturday for a total of 10. Two punters, Bill Schmitt of Pittsburgh and Billy Smith of Louisiana State, are averaging better than 50 yards per kick—Schmitt 51.2 and Smith 50.4.

Rocky Ranked Alone At Top

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano has pounded a big gap between himself and the rest of the division with his hammer-like fists, according to today's quarterly ratings of the National Boxing Assn. The NBA believes the gap is the widest it has been since Marciano became champion three years ago and doesn't bother to list a logical contender.

"Marciano has punched his way out of good opponents," said Fred Saddy, chairman of the NBA Rating Committee in a statement. "We are listing Bob Baker, Nino Valdes and Hurricane Jackson as the outstanding boxers in the heavyweight division."

Saddy suggests that Baker, Valdes and Jackson engage in an elimination tournament, the winner to meet Marciano. He said that would be the best way to provide a logical contender for the Rock.

Marciano knocked out Archie Moore, light-heavyweight titlist, in eight rounds in his last title defense Sept. 21. Floyd Patterson is listed as Moore's most logical contender.

Southwest Conference Gate Up 20 Per Cent This Year

Southwest Conference football attendance is up better than 20 per cent with every school showing a gain except Southern Methodist, which hasn't yet had a home game.

A survey after three weeks of play shows that 90,000 more persons have paid their way into the stadium than for the same period last season. The average per game has been 30,750. Last year it was 25,363. Twelve home games this year have drawn 308,000 compared to 279,000 for 12 in 1954.

The biggest increase has been by Texas, which has pulled in 14,000 compared to 8,513 last year; two games being figured in each year. The big boost has come partially

Most Eyes In Southwest On Texas This Weekend

Most of the eyes were on Texas Thursday as Southwest Conference eleven prepared for their weekend football tilts.

Texas plays Oklahoma in Dallas in the annual renewal of one of the Southwest's oldest gridiron feuds. That's all it takes to fill Dallas' Cotton Bowl to overflowing with the shoutiest, wildest type of football fan in the world.

So nearly everybody was watching, one way or other, Wednesday as sophomore Joe Clements, the Longhorns' sharp-shooting passer, hit receivers with his early-season precision. Texas coaches said they were confident that the brilliant Clements, injured playing against Southern California last week, would start against the Big Red. And the general opinion at Austin was that Bud Wilkinson better polish up that Sooner pass defense.

Baylor and Arkansas, with a crucial conference test set for Waco, worked a little harder, too, but started tapering off late Thursday. The defending champion Porkers worked on pass defense and offense as Coach Jack Mitchell told his Ozark charges that Baylor probably would be just as tough as TCU. The Horned Frogs beat the Hogs 26-0 last week.

Baylor reported signs of weakness in the air after its Wednesday scrimmage. The varsity had little trouble defending itself against Arkansas ground plays but its aerial defense was spotty. Baylor expected to be almost at full strength. But Arkansas had only one experienced center ready for duty.

Southern Methodist stressed the air game, too. A scout report said Missouri's Tigers, SMU's Friday night opponents in the Cotton Bowl, were weak on pass defense. Quarterbacks John Roach and Charlie Arnold displayed some effective passing for the Mustangs, but the SMU defense were having trouble with slick fingers and holes in their hands.

At Houston, Coach Jess Neely shuffled his lineup in preparation for the game there Saturday night against undefeated Clemson. Neely apparently was giving the sophomores every chance to break into the Owl lineup.

Coach Abe Martin of undefeated, unextended Texas Christian said he thought his boys would be ready to play against Alabama, but he fretted about missed offensive assignments. Frog followers fear a letdown after two spirited starts against Texas Tech and Arkansas.

Martin didn't quite agree. "This team won't ever be down," he said, "but it might not be up as much one week as it was the week before."

The Texas Aggies, who meet Nebraska in their weekend tilt, had four quarterbacks calling signals—and none looked bad. Besides, full-back Jack Pardee showed impressive work and Coach Bear Bryant said he was pleased with the Cadets' progress.

And that Texas-Oklahoma tussle? Oklahoma was still favored from the fact that Texas is playing night games this season.

Arkansas has drawn 70,000 for three games compared to 29,500 for two last season. Games played by Arkansas at Little Rock are figured in the home attendance and last year no games had been played in Little Rock whereas one has been played this season. However, Arkansas drew 40,000 in two games at Fayetteville this season, which is a gain of over 10,000 with the Little Rock appearance not figured in.

Baylor is up about 7,000 on the average. Texas A&M has drawn 17,500 more and Rice 10,000. Texas Christian is the same for both years.

among the wagering gentry in Dallas, even after Bud Wilkinson opined: "There was no immediate comment from Texas Coach Ed Price. 'The incentive for Texas is so great that I don't think we can defeat them.'"

Polly Riley, Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite Setting Pace

FORT WORTH (AP)—Polly Riley of Fort Worth and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Dallas led the way today into the second round of the 20th annual Women's Texas Open Golf Tournament.

Miss Riley, 1948 champion and twice a runner-up in this tournament, downed Mrs. T. N. Blalock, Houston, 5 and 4 yesterday while Mrs. Goldthwaite, four-time winner of the event, beat Mrs. Grant Messinger, Denton, 6 and 5. Also coming through with easy conquests were Mrs. H. C. Riedel, Dallas, 1955 state women's champion, and Pat Garner Stapler, Midland, 1955 women's West Texas title holder.

Mrs. Riedel outshot Mrs. Hayden Davis, El Reno, Okla., 6 and 5, while Mrs. Stapler defeated Lennie Hunt, Houston, 7 and 6.

The lone professional entry, Bettye Mims Danoff, Dallas, posted an easy 6 and 5 victory over Mrs. Carl Mahan, Abilene, Tex. Other championship flight results included: Mrs. L. E. Hosenk, Dallas, beat Mrs. H. D. Wyson, McKinney, 3-1; Greta Leone, Chicago, beat Mrs. George Dean, 7-5; Mrs. Roy Carpenter, Dallas, beat Mrs. Jo Meyers, Dallas, 3-2; Norma Shook, Morgantown, N.C., beat Mrs. Tom-

Sugar Bowl May Land Cadets

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Sugar Bowl may land Army's football team for its next game if the academy's rebuilding program produces an impressive season.

The last major scholastic obstacle was brushed aside with the change of examination dates from Christmas week, when prebowl practices reach their peak, to late January.

Sugar Bowl officials have made no secret of their longing for Army teams since five major conferences have committed their members to other bowls and big-time football has declined in the East.

Army previously turned down bowl feelers on the grounds that a New Year's game would conflict with examinations. The change of dates came after the academy Board of Visitors earlier this year recommended acceptance of bids to major bowls when they were made.

Of the four biggest bowls, only the Sugar Bowl has no tie-up with conferences. The only other open berth is in the Cotton Bowl, where the Southwest Conference champion meets an invited opponent.

The acceptance still would be left to academy officials, but a source close to the Sugar Bowl said it would be merely a formality.

Brooklyn Still Is In A Tizzy

NEW YORK (AP)—The situation in Brooklyn once again is normal but it'll be many a day before the last word is uttered about the Brooklyn Dodgers winning their first world baseball championship.

The shouting and tumult that followed the Dodgers' final-game triumph over the proud New York Yankees had died today but it didn't take much prompting to send a Flatbush fan off on the clutch pitching of Johnny Podres, the great catch of Sandy Amoros in the seventh game, the slugging of Duke Snider or the spirited play of Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson.

Meantime, the Brooklyn players scattered to all sections of the country to await their World Series checks. The Yankees packed their bags for an exhibition tour of the Far East starting Saturday.

The final figures on the payoff to the players were expected today. But it was estimated each of the 32 full Dodger shares would be worth about $9,854 and each of the 36 losing Yankee shares $5,739.

The money comes out of the players' pool from the first four games, amounting to $654,853.59. Thirty per cent of the pool goes to players on the teams finishing second, third and fourth in each league. The Dodgers get 60 per cent of the remaining 70 per cent and the Yankees 40.

The seven-day series attracted 362,310 fans and record net receipts of $2,337,515.34. The players receive an estimated $83,000 as their share of the $100,000 receipts from the pregame television show while $1,125,000 from the actual broadcasting and televising of the games goes into the majors' central fund to help support the players' pension fund.

For some of the Dodgers there will be very little letup from baseball. Don Newcombe, the team's 29-game winner who failed in the first game, will join the Giants' Willie Mays in heading an exhibition tour of major league players.

Amoros, for whom a big welcome is waiting in Cuba, will play in the winter league, which opens Friday. Don Zimmer, Dixie Howell and relief pitcher Ed Roebuck also are signed up for winter play.

Podres will be home Saturday for a big party at Mineville, N.Y., an adjoining hamlet to Witherbee, the tiny iron mining town where the 23-year-old southpaw makes his home.

A big welcome home celebration also awaits Manager Walt Alston at Darrtown, Ohio, after he ful-

Walter J. O'Malley has said the 43-year-old ex-schoolteacher will be back.

O'Malley saw in the Dodger triumph a fresh impetus to the plans for building a new Brooklyn stadium in the Atlantic and Flatbush sections.

"Right now the matter is pretty much out of our hands," he said. "But I don't see how anyone could want to see the Dodgers leave Brooklyn. Certainly we don't want to go anywhere else and I am now more confident than ever that something will turn up which will enable us to build a new home befitting the world champions."

Frank Lane Set To Begin Work

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Frank Lane, the trading wizard of baseball, presumably will be named the new general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals today and given strong authority to rebuild a club now in its lowest position in 35 years.

While Lane was conferring yesterday with August A. Busch Jr., brewery owner and president of the club, Bill Walsingham Jr. quit after nine years as vice president, saying, "I believe a ball club cannot be successfully run by two people, both of whom are confident they are qualified to do the job."

The 59-year-old Lane, who elevated the Chicago White Sox from the second division to pennant contention with more than 200 trades in seven years, told newsmen after the conference with Busch, "There's nothing certain until it's on the dotted line."

But it's understood a contract was drafted and will be presented at a meeting of the Cardinal Board of Directors today.

And the way Lane expounded his theories on club operation before the conference made it appear his meeting with Busch was merely a formality. Only once or twice did he use the word "if" in discussing the job.

"I would proceed in orderly fashion," he said, but indicated a number of changes would be made. "I don't contemplate any wholesale shakeup," he said, "but the Cardinals, despite the talk about all the good ballplayers they have, still are confronted with the way they finished."

The Redbirds' seventh place finish was their worst since 1919.

Lane will be succeeding Dick Meyer, who also served as a top executive of Busch's brewery. He is stepping out to devote more time to his brewery duties.

The question of whether Lane will replace Harry (The Hat) Walker as manager remained unanswered, but he said he doesn't intend to bring Marty Marion—here as manager.

TOM McDONALD BACK OF WEEK

By The Associated Press

One of the principal reasons why Oklahoma was able to whip Pittsburgh and keep football's longest winning streak going through its 21st game last Saturday was half-back Tommy McDonald.

Tommy scored two touchdowns on runs of 43 and 9 yards, raced 23 yards on a key play in another Sooner scoring drive and racked up an impressive 124 yards by rushing as Oklahoma turned back the big Eastern team 29-14. In addition he hit 2 of 5 passes for 39 yards.

In recognition of this fine all-around performance, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters participating in the weekly Associated Press poll today picked McDonald as the season's first Back of the Week.

The experts had named Wisconsin's pass-catching end, Dave Howard, as Lineman of the Week by a big margin for his feats against Iowa.

McDonald earned the designation by the narrowest of margins over a trio of brilliant pass-pitching quarterbacks, Clemson's Don King, Navy's George Welsh and Maryland's Frank Tamburello.

The sharpshooting quarterbacks generally claimed most of the attention in the Back of the Week balloting, Big Paul Hornung of Notre Dame, Len Dawson of Purdue and Fred Wyant of West Virginia all received considerable backing. Others nominated were Wade Mitchell and Tippy Vann, Georgia Tech; Frank Paszkowski, Richmond; Bob Pascal, Duke; Pat Uebel, Army; Lenny Moore, Penn State; Jerry Gustafson and Bill Tarr, Stanford, and Bob Davenport, UCLA.

Coahoma B Set To Play Opener

COAHOMA, (SC)—The Coahoma B football team plays its first game of the season here at 7 p.m. Saturday, meeting Big Lake.

The Bulldogs reserves also have home-and-home dates lined up with Roscoe and Hermleigh. They next see action here Saturday, Oct. 15, at which time they test Hermleigh.

All players who do not see action in the A team's game against Grandfalls tomorrow night are eligible to play in the Big Lake contest.

Yearlings Test Snyder Tonight

Fresh from an exciting one-point victory over Central of Ahliene, the Big Spring Ninth Grade football team plays host to the powerful Snyder Junior High boys at Steer Stadium this evening. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

This year's edition of the Ninth Grade team, coached by Marion Cump, could be the strongest team here since 1931 and easily ranks with the strongest in history.

The boys have been holding their own in scrimmages with the High School B team this week, trying to get ready for the Snyder team.

The Snyder team has won three games without a loss, the latest coming at the expense of Lamesa. The final tally was 19-0.

Snyder was held scoreless in the first period by Lamesa but the Tiger Cubs rolled up 220 yards rushing to only 30 for Lamesa and made 41 yards passing to 35 for the Breeses.

Kenneth Drake scored twice for Snyder while Richard Mahan crossed the double stripes on one occasion. Gail Courtney booted the extra point.

Probable starters for Snyder tonight will be Tony Anger and Johnny Griggs at ends, Ronnie Giles and Roger Hensley at tackles, Billy Duhose and Gene Williamson at guards, Billy Rinehart at center, Mahan at quarter, Drake and Mickey McGrew at halves and Jerry Proctor at fullback.

Big Spring's record can't match that of the Tiger Cubs. The Yearlings lost their first game to Andrews, 20-7, and yielded a 14-13 decision to Crockett of Odessa before getting on the victory track.

They then beat Bowie of Odessa, 26-0, and Ahliene, 20-13.

Coach Crump will probably start a lineup composed of Charles Preas and Jack Phillips at ends, Chubby Moser and Sam Copeland at tackles, Bud Bridges and Kenny Johnson at guards, Bobby McAdams at center, Roger Flowers or Bill French at quarterback, Scotty Ellison and Benny McCrary at halfbacks and Wayne Fields at fullback.

Local Elevens Visit Snyder

Two local football teams board buses today for Snyder where they meet teams in that city in games this evening.

Making the trip from here are the Seventh and Eighth Grade clubs. The Seventh Graders are coached by Dan Lewis, and Eighth Graders by Charles Caraway.

The Seventh Graders see action at 6 p.m., the Seventh Graders at 7:30 p.m.

Lewis' team was not scheduled last week. The Eighth Graders ran roughshod over Bonham of Odessa, 33-7.

Rockdale-San Saba Game Is Cancelled

ROCKDALE (AP)—Cancellation of a football game between Rockdale and San Saba was announced by the Rockdale School Board yesterday because of racial integration of the San Saba school.

W. T. Scurlock Jr., president of the Rockdale School Board, said the board had contacted the San Saba school several times but had not mentioned possible non-use of Negro players.

San Saba officials said they planned to use all players on their team for every game that remained on their schedule.

BORED 615 FANS WATCH CHAVEZ BEAT FLANAGAN

By CHRIS EDMONDS

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP)—Boxing fans who stayed away by the thousands from last night's nationally televised bout between Eddie Chavez and Glen Flanagan congratulated themselves today. They were able to turn off their sets.

The 615 who paid their way into the Richmond Auditorium weren't that lucky. They sat through—but not silently—a dull 19-rounder in which Chavez, of San Jose, was given an unanimous decision over Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn.

"Somebody hit somebody," pleaded the fans who paid $2,468 gross. "It won't hurt much."

The way they were going it wouldn't have, either. Chavez, a notorious powder-puff puncher, appearing to be trying on occasion but the veteran Flanagan preferred wrestling, and that's the way it went. So successful was the Minnesota Irishman that twice he succeeded in hurling Chavez between the ropes, both times squarely in front of the television cameras.

Flanagan, who weighed 139½ to Chavez' 130, was on his bicycle most of the time with the exception of the early rounds. Chavez caught up with him often enough, but immediately was caught himself in an octopus-like tangle of arms. Flanagan was warned repeatedly for holding by Referee Frankie Brown, but was not penalized for his antics.

In fairness to Flanagan it should be pointed out that he was only a substitute. Cisco Andrade of Compton, Calif., was scheduled to meet Chavez but was stricken with a throat infection over the weekend. Flanagan, an insurance salesman in St. Paul, took the bout on 24-hour notice.

The two contestants, despite the slim paid attendance, reportedly pocketed $4,000 each as the result of the TV guarantee.

Referee Brown scored the bout 58½-51½, Judge Jack Downey 58-52, Judge Ray Florie 59-51, and The Associated Press 56½-53½—all for Chavez.

BIG WEEKEND AHEAD

Half Of Unbeaten Schoolboy Teams Totter Under Strain

By The Associated Press

Eighty-five undefeated, untied teams hit the October gridiron trail in the Texas Interscholastic League with half of them tottering under the strain.

This weekend sees seven games matching unbeaten, untied powers while many of them face teams with sullied records but still strong enough to knock them out.

Arlington of Class AAA takes on Terrell of Class AA while there are three strictly Class AA contests sending undefeated, untied teams against each other—Hereford at Phillips, Gladewater at Carthage, New London at Rusk.

Missouri City and Santa Fe play the only game between unbeaten, untied teams in Class A. Ranger, which has been tied but not defeated, plays Winters of the Class AA perfect-record list.

Port Arthur, one of the top-ranked teams of Class AAAA, meets Pasadena in a feature game. Pasadena is undefeated and untied but doesn't rate over Port Arthur although the latter has once been tied—by powerful Odessa.

Odessa will have its hands full this week, taking on Lubbock, which comes up to the opening of the Dist. 1 race in Class AAAA with an unblemished record.

Kermit risks a perfect record against once-tied Monahan and El Campo does the same with Port Lavaca in Class AA.

It's a big week for leveling and establishing sectional favorites. There are 264 games in the four classes with less than a dozen scheduled Thursday night.

Twenty-five schools are unbeaten but have been tied, making a total of 110 undefeated for the season—a little more than one-fifth of the original field.

Unbeaten teams in Class AAAA are Ahliene, Lubbock, Borger, Tyler, Yaleta, Waco, Wichita Falls, Corpus Christi Ray, Corpus Christi Miller, Baytown and Pasadena, undefeated and untied; Odessa, El Paso Austin and Port Arthur, undefeated but tied.

Class AAA's list: Arlington, Garland, Grand Saline, Lufkin, Bryan, Texas City and Alice, undefeated and untied; Texarkana, Levelland and Beaumont South Park, undefeated but tied.

Class AA: Crane, Dumas, Hereford, Phillips, Stamford, Spur, Abertathy, Ballinger, Winters, Alpine, Kermit, Pecos, Graham, Terrell.

Peron Labor Chiefs Quit; Elections Set

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The way was opened today for smashing Peronista rule of the giant General Confederation of Labor (CGT) in Argentina.

The CGT bosses, who ran the six-million-member labor organization as the powerful right arm of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron, resigned last night. The provisional government announced new elections would be held in every union within four months, supervised by the Labor Ministry.

Among the labor chiefs who quit was the secretary general, Hector Hugo di Pietro, who backed Peron in his feud with the Roman Catholic Church.

As a result of the shakeup, it was reported the CGT-operated newspaper La Prensa may be taken over by a federal intervenor. La Prensa, once Argentina's biggest independent newspaper, was handed over to the labor organization during Peron's regime.

The government's move on the CGT followed a one-day strike by 15,000 meat packers in four plants here, in Rosario and in La Plata. Climaxing a growing split in labor ranks between Peronistas and their opponents, the meat packers went out after Raul Santagostino took over their union from the pro-Peron secretary general Jose Presta.

Bell Repeats Innocence Claim
SEGUIN (AP)—Rep. John Bell reiterated a claim of innocence today in any veterans land deal after a jury which indicted him was declared illegally constituted.
Dist. Judge W. W. Ellison, ruling yesterday on another indictment returned by the jury, upheld an attorney's contention that the jury was not qualified because one of its members had not paid his poll tax.
Bell, a first-term member of Congress from Cuero, helped set up Texas' Veterans Land Program as a member of the state Legislature. He was indicted on charges of conspiring to steal $154,000 under the program.
Former State Land Commissioner Bascom Giles has been convicted of similar charges of frauds in the program and has prison sentences under appeal.
Bell said last night: "From the beginning I have maintained my innocence and I wish to reaffirm that same position now. I feel that any future action regardless of what it may be can result only in my complete vindication."
Bell added he "definitely" will be a candidate for re-election in the 1956 congressional elections. He said he still was ready for trial if he was reindicted.

Jap Cattle Pampered, But You Should Taste The Meat
TOKYO (AP)—Japanese cattle, smaller than their American counterparts, lead a life that would make a Texas steer blush. But you should taste the steaks they produce!
Dubbed affectionately with such girls' names as Hanako and Michiko, the cattle are a part of the Japanese farm family. They live right in the house. Rooms are built around their stall to take advantage of their bodily warmth in winter.
During the day there's not much to do but loaf in small pens, gaze contentedly at the serene Japanese landscape or graze in tiny pastures.
The food's good too — occasionally rice and plenty of barley, wheat and bran.
With only one or two animals to care for, the farmer lavishes great attention on them. They get a gentle but brisk rubdown every day with handfuls of straw. Farmers say this rubs the outer layer of fat right into the meat where it belongs.
This goes on for six years — that's right, six years — and then comes the payoff.
If the farmer did his job right, the meat will come out a deep, glossy red — deeper than American beef — rimmed with a thin layer of fat. Throughout there will be flecks of "fallen frost" or fat.
Now you're in for a treat. In a top Tokyo meat market, you pay 70 cents to $2 a pound, depending on grade, and carry your haul home, making certain not to bruise it en route.
Soak it for two hours in soy sauce, sprinkle well with garlic salt and then slap it on a grill, glowing with a deep mass of cherry-red charcoal.
The result is one of the greatest treats of the Orient. Some say your life will never be the same.

Damages Suit Filed In District Court
Robert Henry Long has filed suit in 118th District Court against Charles Ziegler Jr., asking judgment for $1,038 for damages he claims resulted from a traffic collision Aug. 27 at the intersection of Highway 80 and FM 700 west of Big Spring.
Long asks the judgment for injuries received by his son, Russell Long, damages to the car and medical expenses. He alleges negligence.

Yugoslavs To Get 300,000 Tons Of Surplus U. S. Wheat
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—The Yugoslav government says the United States is going to ship it 300,000 tons of American surplus wheat.
The government's Weekly Economic Review said last night the wheat agreement was reached during the recent visit of Robert Murphy, U.S. deputy undersecretary of state. The Review added that Murphy assured the Yugoslavs they would get considerable quantities of other American surplus farm products.
President Tito's government was reported especially interested in importing cotton.

Cosden Oil Display Slated For Monday
As a part of Oil Progress Week, the popular mobile display prepared by Cosden Petroleum Corporation will be made available here one day.
On Monday, between the hours of 12 noon and 6 p.m., the trailer with its built-in displays highlighting refining and manufacturing processes, will be parked on the Main Street side of the courthouse.
The public will be urged to file through the trailer and see this capsule museum of petroleum processing and products.

Examiner To Work With Driver Class
H. D. (Husty) Hightower, local driver's license examiner, is to work with the driver education class at Big Spring Junior High School next Wednesday.
Hightower said he plans to give written tests to as many of the 150 students as possible on Wednesday. Those passing the preliminary tests will be qualified for beginner driving permits, allowing them to drive when a licensed operator is in their car.

To Help Round Up Harmony

The Lads of Enchantment, Albuquerque, N. M., quartet, will be on hand at Municipal Auditorium Saturday evening when the annual Round Up of Harmony is staged by the Big Spring SPEBSQSA chapter. Members of the quartet are Don Pitts, tenor; Carl Wright, baritone; Dan Aycock, lead; and Gil Wallace, bass. The Round Up starts at 8 p.m. Saturday and will feature several quartets, including the international champions, the Four Harsemen of Amarillo.

Radio Notable, Wm. L. Shirer, To Address K-F

The Big Spring Knife and Fork Club launches its 1955-56 lecture season next Monday, and has booked one of the outstanding experts on foreign affairs.

The lecturer will be William L. Shirer of "Berlin Diary" fame, the radio commentator and author who is remembered by his on-the-spot reports out of Berlin during World War II and afterward.

The dinner session Monday will be at the Settles Hotel starting at 7:30 p.m. The K-F president, Dr. Carl Marcum, urged a full turnout of the membership for the season's initial program, "and because we have one of the foremost speakers ever to appear before our organization."

Reservations must reach the club secretary, Mrs. Moree Sawtelle, by Saturday.

In addition to his "Berlin Diary," which sold more than a million copies, Shirer also has written the "Midcentury Journal" and a recent novel, "The Traitor." Now a "farmer" in Connecticut, Shirer still does radio work and writing, and makes regular trips to Europe. He has received radio's Peabody Award and the Wendell Wilkie One-World Award for outstanding work as a commentator.

Shirer is to speak here on "The World Today," discussing vital topics on international relations, present and prospective.

Duchess Of Windsor Ends Author's Ghost-Writing Job

LONDON (AP)—The Duchess of Windsor said today she had "terminated" the employment of the American writer assisting with her memoirs on the unanimous advice of her three publishers.

In an earlier statement the American-born duchess said author Cleveland Amory "has now given all the assistance the duchess felt was of value and his employment has therefore been terminated."

Rumors of the rift between Amory and the former Wallis Warfield Simpson have been current in society and literary circles for weeks. The writer said on arrival in New York yesterday he quit two weeks ago after disagreements on how the book should be written.

"You can't make the Duchess of Windsor into a Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," Amory told reporters.

The duchess listed her publishers as the David McKay Co., McCall's

Magazine and the (London) Sunday Express and added she would continue the writing, even without Amory.

Society Girls Turn Milkmaid, Collect From Nursing Mothers

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP)—Society girls of the Junior League are running one of the nation's most unusual milk routes, the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

Junior Leaguers of suburban Evanston cruise around in automobiles, pick up "spare" breast milk from nursing mothers at their homes and deliver it to a hospital "milk bank" to aid premature babies.

Dr. E. Robbins Kimball of Evanston Hospital told the academy that two years' experience with the "premature babies milk bank" at that hospital "has already proved that it is both beneficial and practicable to have every premature and 'problem infant receive breast milk during his hospital stay, regardless of his mother's ability to supply his needs."

Mothers who donate milk for the bank, "pump" it themselves in their homes, using an electrical breast pump furnished by the Junior League. The society girls, offering to help in running the milk bank, purchased 22 electric pumps at a cost of $120 each—and they keep them in busy operation. They also teach mothers to bottle the milk and refrigerate it.

On the "local" Evanston milk route, milk is picked up daily in liquid form and used for routine feeding at the premature nursery. On the "suburban" route—covering 10 communities near Evanston—milk is picked up twice weekly in the frozen condition. This milk is banked until needed for emergency use, when it is thawed, sterilized and distributed.

Earth Satellite Contract Given

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Evening Sun said today the Navy has signed a contract with the Glenn L. Martin Co. of Baltimore to design, build and operate the launching gear for an earth satellite.

President Eisenhower announced several weeks ago the government was sponsoring an attempt to launch such a satellite into outer space for scientific purposes.

When President Eisenhower made his announcement it was speculated a satellite about the size of an over-inflated basketball would be sent 300 miles or more in the air.

There it would circle the earth 15 or 16 times a day at an average of about 18,000 m.p.h.

Wales Cook Prepares Real Welch Rarebit

Want some real Welch rarebit? All those recipes you have read in the American food magazines are all really just cheese sauces, according to the good cook for today, Mrs. Paul Gibson, who until eight years ago lived in South Wales.

When Paul Gibson was stationed in W. Wales during a period of World War II, he and some of his friends were invited to visit in the home of his future wife's aunt in Treorchy, South Wales. Here he met Nan who, two years after he had come back to Fort Sam Houston, met him in New York City and they were married in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Gibson was from a large family and she helped her mother with the housework and the general cooking. She fondly remembers cooking on the open coal fire over which a grill was fit for certain preparations. On one side of the pit was the water tank and on the other the oven. A huge chimney carried off the smoke all of which didn't go out and caused a constant cleaning process on the breast and other embellishments on the front of the stove.

In Wales the people eat much beef and lamb and it is mostly roasted or used in stews. One vegetable that the Welch use is broad beans and it is about the only one Mrs. Gibson has not been able to find here. The bean is similar in appearance to our green lima. But, she says, there's a difference.

The Gibsons live at 204 Dixie Avenue with their daughters, Mary Ellen, 7, Gwyneth, 6, next month, and Enid, 2. Also part of the family is the toy Collie whose name is Duchess. Mr. Gibson is registrar at the Veterans Hospital.

Now about those Welch recipes: This one is for bona fide Welch rarebit:

- 3 large onions, sliced
- 2 cups of grated cheddar cheese
- 3 large tomatoes, sliced

Oven Accessory

Electric range ovens may be converted in a jiffy to rotisseries with a new rotisserie, an appliance that automatically bastes and seals in natural juices as it rotates food. Roast beef, lamb, pork and ham as well as fowl and shish-kebab treats may be roasted or barbecued with this new barbecue attachment. It is installed by fastening two thumb screws to the oven rack.

Try Fruit Garnishes

Fruit garnishes do so much for fish or meat! Circle a platter of golden-fried fish filets with orange slices and sprigs of parsley or water cress for real appetite-appeal. Open a can of pineapple and stick a clove or two into each drained slice of fruit; then broil the pineapple rings and lay atop slices of baked ham.

Blueberry Flavor Sparks Entrees The Year 'Round

With modern canning and freezing methods, the short seasoned blueberries find themselves in the cooking pot the year around where they flavor entrees as well as jams and desserts. Even the desserts not made with blueberries are sparked by the flavor when combined with blueberry sauce.

BLUEBERRY SAUCE

- 1 cup blueberries
- 1 cup water
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons butter

BLUEBERRY RELISH

- 4 cups blueberries
- 7 cups sugar
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 1/2 bottle fruit pectin

BLUEBERRY CHEESE LOAF

- 1 box fresh blueberries or equivalent
- 2 packages orange-flavored gelatin
- 2 cups hot milk
- 1 egg
- Juice and grated rind of 1/2 lemon
- 1/2 pint sour cream
- 2 1/2 cups packages cream cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

ROLLED PANCAKES AND SOUR CREAM

- 1 1/2 cups buckwheat flour
- 1/2 cup ready to eat bran
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups milk or water
- 1 egg slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup melted shortening
- 1 3-ounce jar red or black caviar
- 1 cup thick sour cream

Easy Light Dessert

Want a light dessert for Sunday dinner? Empty a No. 2 can of applesauce into a pie plate. Top with marshmallows and place under the broiler until the applesauce is hot and the marshmallows are puffed and lightly browned.

Pry It Off

A new key type metal flipper is ideal for lifting off cans without bending them. It is a boon for baby foods.

Thoughts Of Home

The vase Mrs. Paul Gibson's holding has never been used to even hold a flower, but it was dear to her when she left her mother's home in Wales to become the bride of an American, and several plates and a picture from her family home helps to bring a little of the old country into their home life.

Mrs. Eisenhower Lists Recipe For Pumpkin Pie

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's favorite recipe is for "pumpkin chiffon pie." Pat Nixon's is for "California date nut bread."

Details of these and other favorite recipes of leading Washington women are contained in the new edition of the Congressional Club Cookbook, published recently. Mrs. Eisenhower is an honorary member of the club.

Besides the First Lady and the wife of Vice President Nixon, contributors of cooking formulas included wives of Cabinet secretaries, Supreme Court justices and members of Congress. Women lawmakers also supplied recipes.

This is the recipe for Mrs. Eisenhower's pie:

Three beaten egg yolks, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 1/2 cups cooked pumpkin, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 envelope gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 3 stiffly beaten egg whites, 1/4 cup granulated sugar.

Combine the egg yolks, brown sugar, pumpkin, milk, salt and spice. Cook in double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Soak gelatin in cold water, stir into hot mixture. Chill until partly set.

Beat egg whites, add granulated sugar, and beat stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture. Pour into pie shell and chill until set. Garnish with whipped cream. Makes one big pie or eight individual ones.

Johnny Cake Recipe Is Years Old

Back in the old, old days no man left the settlements without a sack of cornmeal over his shoulder. The bread made from it, a reliable staple of the pioneer's diet, came to have the name of "Johnny cake." In time this name was shortened to the familiar "Johnny cake."

JOHNNY CAKE

1 cup sifted flour
1 cup yellow cornmeal
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg well beaten
1/2 cup sweet milk
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 cup melted shortening

Sift all dry ingredients together. Mix well. Add egg, milk and vinegar. Add dry ingredients all at once, then melted shortening. Pour into a greased 8x2-inch pan. Bake at 400 degrees F. (hot oven) 30 to 35 minutes.

A favorite early American breakfast food was cornmeal mush, served with hot milk and sugar. On the second morning, the leftover mush was chilled, sliced, and then fried for another delicious breakfast.

Southern Recipe Is Hopping John

Each gust of false fall seems to raise the hopes of all the true Southerners. Their imaginative noses seem to smell lima beans or black-eyed peas simmering with salt pork and mingling with corn bread baking or frying.

One of the most Southern of recipes is Hopping John, a delicacy to black-eyed pea lovers. We've gone modern and are making it with frozen peas.

HOPPING JOHN

1/2 box (10 ounces) quick-frozen black-eyed peas
2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup (about 2 ounces) diced salt pork or bacon
1 1/2 cups hot cooked rice

Drop frozen peas into briskly boiling water. Add salt pork or bacon. Cover. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat. When water boils again, reduce heat and cook gently until peas are tender—about 40 to 45 minutes. Just before serving, mix with the hot rice. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Corn Meal MUSH

Mix 1 cup cornmeal with 1 cup cold milk. Bring 2 cups water and 1 cup milk to boil. Add 1 teaspoon salt and cornmeal mixture, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened. Cover, continue cooking over low heat 5 minutes or longer; stir occasionally. (If you use yellow cornmeal, cook 10 minutes or longer.) Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

For fried mush, pour cooked cornmeal into loaf pan. When cold, cut into 1/2 inch slices. Pan fry slowly on lightly greased skillet until golden brown. Serve hot with butter, syrup, jelly or honey.

For variety, add 3 teaspoons grated orange rind to the mush. Or, for sausage scrapple, pan fry 1/2 pound pork sausage meat. Drain. Add meat to corn meal mush, mold in loaf pan and fry as given above.

Savory Snack Treat

Spread split hamburger buns with smoked cheese and add sprinkle of garlic powder. Broil the buns until the cheese is bubbly while you are cooking hamburger patties with which to top them—one patty for each half cheese-spread bun. Serve with a crisp vegetable relish and lots of hot coffee.

Hamburger Surprise

Cut small sweet gherkins into thin lengthwise slices. Sandwich the pickle between two flat patties of ground beef, pressing edges of meat together well. Fry in skillet and serve on hamburger buns for a pleasant surprise.

Try Clabber Girls Flavor Fresh Lemon Loaf Cake

Lemon Loaf Cake is truly flavor fresh, a fine example of how delicious a cake may be when baked only with fresh ingredients. Baked as a loaf, it is easy to slice and serve as a treat for fruits, ice cream or sauces. Baked as cupcakes it is ideally suited to the family menu or the lunch box. Fresh Clabber Girl Baking Powder guarantees its flavor and light texture.

LEMON LOAF CAKE

Yield: 1-9 1/2 x 5 1/2-inch loaf cake or 24-2 1/2-inch cupcakes

2 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 1/4 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup sugar

2 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon lemon extract
3 eggs, separated
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup milk

Beat together flour, Baking Powder, and 1/2 cup sugar until cream together butter or margarine, 1/2 cup sugar, lemon rind, egg yolks until mixture is light and fluffy. Beat egg whites and 1/4 teaspoon salt until stiff. Gradually beat in the 1/4 cup sugar until mixture forms stiff peaks. Add dry ingredients to egg yolk mixture alternately with milk, adding dry ingredients last and last, but only until mixture is smooth after each addition. Fold in beaten egg whites. Pour batter into greased loaf pan or 24 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in a 350° F. (moderate) oven about 1 hour. Or bake in 24 greased or oiled 2 1/2 x 1 1/2-inch muffin pans at same temperature for 30 minutes.

Walnut Crumb Top Varies Apple Pie

When you are tempted to bake a variation of apple pie, a crumb crust is a good place to begin. The crunchiness of brown crumb topping is enhanced with the added flavor of walnut meats for this special pie.

WALNUT CRUMB TOP APPLE PIE

- 1 1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 2 1/2 cups (No. 2 can) pie-sliced apples
- Walnut crumb topping:
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
 - Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, spices and apples. Roll pastry 1/4 inch thick. Line a 9-inch pie pan. Trim pastry 1 inch larger than pan, fold edge to form a standing rim, and flute. Fill with apple mixture and bake in hot oven

(425 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Then sprinkle walnut crumb topping over apple mixture around edge of pie, leaving 1 1/2 to 2-inch area in center uncovered to permit escape of steam. Spoon melted butter over crumb topping. Bake 20 minutes longer, or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst.

If desired, use 1/2 cup granulated sugar and 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar.

WALNUT CRUMB TOPPING

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup fine graham cracker crumbs
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

4-Door Hardtop In New Dodge Line

A new design with many revolutionary features add interest to the Dodge models for 1956, which go on display Friday, and may be seen locally at Jones Motor Co., 101 Gregg. This is the 1956 Dodge four-door Lancer hardtop. It is in the Custom Royal series, but the same body style is also offered in the lower priced Royal and Coronet series. Dodge has touched up its "forward look" for the year, added a "Magic Touch" push-button drive selector, and increased horsepower.

ON DISPLAY HERE FRIDAY

New Design, New Mechanical Features Mark Dodge For '56

The new 1956 line of Dodge passenger cars will be introduced to the public Friday. The local presentation, along with others all over the country, will be at Jones Motor Co., 101 Gregg, and the company is inviting everyone to see the new models.

Dodge has announced a new era in automotive design, both in exterior and interior appearance, and in mechanical advancements. Among many mechanical improvements is the revolutionary new "Magic Touch" push-button drive selector which completely eliminates the necessity for any kind of a gear-shift or drive control lever.

In the new body design for 1956, Dodge has carried the Forward Look into an even bolder, more dramatic form. Unique high-sweep rear fender tail fins lend an aircraft-like effect and mold the flavor of speed into every line of the car, giving it at the same time a pronounced directional appearance.

New in its basic concepts and exciting in its beauty and appeal is the Four-Door Lancer by Dodge. All of the youth and vigor of true hardtop styling have been combined with the comfort and convenience of the four-door sedan. Full-width rear doors provide easy access to the rear passenger compartment, while full side vision is assured by a unique design which allows the use of full rear door windows.

Significant of Dodge's traditional consideration of the car buyer's freedom in price selection is the fact that the new Four-Door Lancer hardtop is offered in the low-priced Coronet, as well as in the Royal and Custom Royal series. Byron J. Nichols, vice president and general sales manager, pointed out four separate series comprise the 1956 line of Dodge Cars: Coronet, offering four-door sedan, club coupe, four-door Lancer hardtop, Lancer hardtop and Lancer convertible; Royal V-8, offering four-door sedan, four-door Lancer hardtop, Lancer hardtop and Lancer convertible. And a new Station Wagon line offers a wide choice of seven Suburban two-door and Sierra four-door models.

Important engine news of the year is the new Dodge Super Red Ram V-8 engine which has been upped to a total displacement of 315 cubic inches, resulting in vastly increased power and torque. Horsepower is up to 218, while even more significant is the new "break-away" from standing start performance, resulting from the phenomenally improved torque. High compression ratios and the radically redesigned combustion chambers afford increased engine output and higher efficiencies, yet the new Dodge engines allow new car buyers the economy of regular gasoline.

And to top it off, Dodge again offers an optional four-barrel carburetor with matching intake manifold, dual exhausts and a distributor with special spark-advance curve for those desiring even higher Super Red Ram V-8 engine output. Horsepower is 230.

Matching in its Forward Look concepts the "Magic-Touch" push-button gear selector, is the new Dodge Highway Hi-Fi, an automatic car record player, operating through the car radio. It gives 45 minutes to a full hour of uninterrupted music on each side of the 7-inch records. A choice of high fidelity classical and popular recordings and even recorded readings of selected subjects is available. The addition of Hi-Fi is a significant forward step in the development of the automobile as a home-on-wheels.

Dietrich Opens Third Show At Las Vegas Club

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Mariene Dietrich, in full dress and near undress, roused night club customers to shouts of appreciation last night in her third opening in this wondrous show business town. The glamorous grandma was on stage 57 minutes at the Sahara Hotel.

First she did a dozen numbers in a silky net-and-feather gown, with a bosom peekaboo effect that had the crowd gasping. She wound up in top hat and tail-coat "The Dark Town Strutters Ball."

This is Miss Dietrich's third appearance on a three-engagement contract but there are indications the contract will be renewed. She does only one other night club appearance, at the Cafe de Paris in London.

Miss Dietrich told reporters she has no plans to appear on television "because I'm too lazy."

Big 3 Tell Reds To Stick To Pack

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France have told Russia she "remains bound" by agreements to keep Berlin open to the West.

The State Department yesterday made public the text of a note which U.S. diplomats delivered to the Soviet Foreign Office in Moscow Monday. The British and French presented similarly worded notes, the department said. The notes contended the Russians cannot delegate their responsibilities in this field to the East German government, which the Western Big Three do not recognize.

The notes were prompted by an agreement Soviet leaders and East German Premier Otto Grotewohl concluded in Moscow Sept. 20. At that time, the Soviets said they had given East German authorities the power to regulate traffic between Berlin and the rest of Germany.

Klondike Boys Band Together To Earn Funds By Hog Raising

By JESS BLAIR
KLONDIKE — The Klondike FFA members have found that in union there is strength — and also a little cash money. The boys have a joint project in feeding out hogs. They built a lot and shed near the school ground where the hogs are kept and tended to by various members. Over the weekends the chores are rotated. These are not show pigs, but commercial porkers that will be sold later during the school year. The proceeds will finance a trip to either the Fort Worth or Houston livestock show. Whatever is left over will be used to buy books and teaching aids. Last year the boys attended the San Antonio show.

The swine feeding project started in 1953, when the FFA members borrowed $150 from a Lamesa bank to buy five head of pigs and enough feed to last for a few weeks. Since then some of the farmers have helped the boys out by donating feed.

All the garbage from the school lunch room goes into the hog pen, and this helps reduce the feed bill. Last year the chapter made a profit of $298 from September until May. Since then they have built and paid for an $85 stock trailer besides buying other FFA equipment, such as film strips, magazines and minor items.

The freshman, or greenhand class, usually does most of the work in caring for the pigs. The boys do all the worming, castrating and other duties required in hog raising. They also have developed a unique method of weighing the animals.

They load them on a pick-up and carry them down to the Klondike gin. There two or three boys hold the hog on the platform scales while another member does the weighing. Then the hog is put back into the pick-up and the boys who held him are weighed again. The difference in the two figures, of course, is the hog's weight.

The project is supervised by Adrian Huckabee, vocational agricultural teacher and advisor. He says the project serves two purposes: It enables the boys to make a little extra money, and it provides the practical experience they will need later in farming or ranching for themselves.

"The boy who can feed, manage and care for livestock in a profitable manner at school, will generally take home some working plan for his own project," Huckabee said.

Duval Jury Ruled Illegal

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals held today that the Duval County grand jury that returned 104 indictments striking at alleged corruption in Duval County was illegally organized.

The ruling came in a decision ordering a judgment reversed and prosecution dismissed in the conviction of former Duval County school Supt. R. L. Adame on a charge of felony theft.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard called the reversal "disheartening." He said he had conferred with Dist. Atty. Sam Burris of Alice and that all matters contained in the 104 indictments will be submitted to the present grand jury.

Sheppard said the appeal court's action reversed the court's position of only 18 months ago when it refused to set aside former 79th dist. Judge A. S. Broadfoot's discharge of a grand jury commission the judge considered lax in selecting fair and impartial grand and petit jurors.

The appellate court said the dismissal, under the facts in the case, "would amount to destruction of our grand jury system."

Mother Convicted

DETROIT (AP)—An all-woman jury last night convicted Mrs. Rosemary Jacques, 31, wife of a Detroit policeman, of manslaughter in the fatal spanking of her 6-year-old foster son Robert Szabo after the boy wet his pants. She will be sentenced Oct. 15. Maximum penalty is 15 years.

Texas Supreme Court Rules In Area Cases

Applications for writs of error have been refused by the Texas Supreme Court in three cases appealed from Howard and Borden counties.

The applications were denied in the cases of Ellis Iden versus Mildred Ackerman and others, and J. S. Garlington versus A. L. Wasson and others, both suits involving title to Howard County land. The Borden case, involving compensation, was styled Texas Employers Insurance Association versus Luther Sevier.

Washburn Trial Set For Oct. 17

WACO (AP)—The Harry Washburn murder trial was tentatively set today for Oct. 17 in 54th District Court here.

The setting came after a conference between Judge D. W. Bartlett, McLennan County Dist. Atty. Tom Moore Jr. and Tom Green County Dist. Atty. Aubrey Stokes. Bartlett refused to make the date definite until Washburn's attorneys were consulted.

Washburn, accused of planting the dynamite bomb that killed Mrs. Helen Harris Weaver, Jan. 19 in San Angelo, was brought from county jail to the court house for the trial setting. He talked by telephone with one of his attorneys, Cliff Tupper, in San Angelo.

Washburn said Tupper agreed to the Oct. 17 date but wanted to talk with other attorneys before making it definite.

The trial was transferred here Saturday after attorneys were unable to pick a jury in San Angelo. Ten jurors were selected from 450 prospects.

Experts Say:
Dog foods like these tend to become sticky, gummy masses, or remain hard and flavorless.

They can't absorb water—can't release the natural flavors and aromas the way Kasco meal does. Their monotonous taste appeal fails to give your dog the variety of flavors he craves . . . dulls your dog's taste. Result: "Food Monotony" sets in—dogs stray—may start "food hunting" in alleys where poison, disease and injury may lurk.

END "FOOD MONOTONY" DANGER . . . feed your dog KASCO

The instant water touches Kasco—the flavors POP!

HAMBURGER-LIKE TEXTURE

Let your dog get a whiff of the rich, natural flavors in a dish of Kasco and he'll dive into it as if it's the first real meal he's ever had! Get Kasco today—see for yourself how Kasco gives him a zestful, hearty appetite day after day and see how completely Kasco satisfies him.
