Texas Press Association Austin, Tex.—An executive order has been issued by Gov. Dolph Briscoe creating the Division of Rural Community Services in the Texas Department of Community

Governor Briscoe, who has listed rural development as one of the priorities of his administration, created the new division in response to what he termed "the urgent needs of rural areas." In announcing the new rural services offices, Governor Briscoe ment of Community Affairs is to make all state resources available and accessible to local communities as they strive to help them-The Rural Community Services

Along the same line, the Governor has acted to expand the Texas Industrial Commission to include three members from rural areas. In the past, membership on the Commission has been two employers of labor, two employees or lab-orers and five members from the general public. The Texas Industrial Commission s responsible for planning, organizing and operating a program for attracting and locating new industries and to promote the expansion of existing industries in Texas.

New rural members of the TIC are James Hunt of Sonora, president of Stockman's Feed Company; James B. Bond of Navasota, an attorney and director of the Navasota Industrial Foundation; and William A. Porter of Terrell, a farmer and businessman.

Revision Commission Reverses

The Texas Constitutional Revision Commission reversed its August 25 decision—that the Texas Legislature should meet annuallyand voted that the proposed new Constitution should require the legislature to meet once every two years. But the time and duration of session or sessions would be set by the lawmakers themselves.
