Post Script

With all the talk about fuel shortages and with the proposed changes from butane to propane, this writer checked to see how local dealers were being effected.

George Williams of Williams Fina station said his supplier is limiting his gasoline to 80% of what he received last year. His station is being closed each Sunday.

Mittel Texaco was also closed Sunday.

Mobley's Exxon has been notified that he can expect rationing but no date has been set as yet. Mobley's was open for business as usual Sunday.

Lum Davis Fina Station has always remained closed on Sunday, but he reports that his volume will still be reduced.

Jack Halbert, Jr., Mobil-Butane consignee on Menard highway, reports that he is being rationed on everything and goes on to say that after October there will be no more butane and everything will be propane.

20 Propane Tanks In Stock On Griffin's Butane Lot Here

The above tanks made their appearance here last Thursday following a report in the Standard-Times that Skelly Oil Co. had agreed in an out-of-court settlement in Austin that Skelly would continue supplying LP gas from their Huldale plant to independent propane and butane dealers in this West Texas area.

Dan Griffin Butane of Eldorado was instrumental in bringing the suit to a head.

In his report to the Standard, Griffin explained that Skelly was his sole supplier and that without the ability to buy gas from that company he would have to close down.

The Standard last Thursday quoted Griffin as saying, "I'm pleased that I got my supply back. It cost me money to get this done, but it benefitted every dealer in West Texas, and it kept me from going out of business."

Now to get back to the propane tanks.

Griffin explains to the Success that while butane may be the first fuel to be rationed there appears to be an adequate supply of propane.

But butane users can not put propane in their butane tanks unless they have special heavy-duty ones. In order to convert to propane, most of them must get the new propane tanks.

That then is the reason for the 20 new propane tanks already on Griffin's lot. Evidently he ordered them out the same day the Railroad Commission ordered the Huldale plant to continue serving its customers.

Damage To Mesquite By Cutworms

A cutworm has been causing extensive damage to mesquite in the San Angelo and surrounding areas. This insect was identified and discussed in Dr. Mike McWhorter's newsletter. However, additional caution should be exercised in advising persons on treating the mesquite with herbicides this year. Many areas have too great a defoliation to allow aerial spraying. A demonstration at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center at San Angelo has been canceled due to heavy defoliation.

The damage seems to be worse on older, rough bark trees. Regrowth mesquite probably has the least damage. These areas may survive for treatment.

Ranchers have advised that this is the third year in a row for this cutworm in the San Angelo area. Last year they were active all summer. The plants that were defoliated last year leafed out and appeared normal this year so no immediate control can be expected from this attack.

Some aerial spray work that was conducted last year on plants with very minor insect damage had good control. The foliage must be adequate to get good coverage.

Last year several aerial applicators were turning jobs down due to the insect damage. Other applicators were going in after one applicator would turn the job down and do the spray job regardless of conditions. So you may be getting questions regarding the effects of insect damage.

Boating Safety Outlined

Boating is a rapidly growing pastime for many families. Just the thought of being outdoors and skinning over that lake with the cool breezes whipping through your hair is enough to whet many an appetite for boating.

That thought will become a reality for many families this summer. But for some of these it will also be a tragic experience.

For a fun-filled and safe boating outing with your family, the agent suggests these safety precautions:

1. Check your boat before launching it. The Texas Water and Safety Act requires that all boats carry a Coast Guard approved flotation device for each passenger. Children under 12 are required to wear such a device. Power boats are also required to carry fire extinguishers. Inboards must have back-fire flame arresters on the carburetor. Sailboats and power boats require proper lighting. All motorboats more than 16 feet long must carry a whistle, horn or other sounding device.
2. Take no chances with rough weather. Spring storms are especially unpredictable. If caught in a storm, don't life-saving devices, head into the wind and toward the nearest sheltered shore.
3. Don't overload.
4. Know your boat's limitations. Don't show off or take unnecessary chances.
5. If your boat capsizes or is swamped, stay with it. If you are involved in a collision, render assistance.
6. Know distress signals. In a small boat during daylight hours, slowly raise and lower outstretched arms. On a larger craft, give four blasts on the horn, fly the National Ensign upside down or use smoke. At night use flashlights, flares, rockets or controlled fires.

With the increased number of boats on our lakes and waterways, boating safety precautions and operating your boat safely, you and your family can have a pleasurable outing.

Garden Check List For June

1. A good mulch helps prevent summer heat damage. Almost any plant will benefit from the use of a good mulch. It conserves water, reduces soil temperature, reduces weeds, prevents compaction and keeps vegetable cleaner. Fresh organic mulch materials may require additional nitrogen fertilizer to overcome the deficiency caused by the decomposition of the organic matter.
2. If beds are not mulched keep soil around plants loose and cultivated to allow better water penetration and aeration. With repeated watering, soils often become compacted.
3. Do not allow hydrangeas, coleus, caladiums and mums to suffer from lack of moisture. Caladiums will go dormant and the foliage will die. The others will get hard woody stems and stop growing.
4. If irrigation is needed, water thoroughly and allow soil to become dry before watering again. This encourages deeper root penetration and aids in plant growth.
5. You can still plant some of the heat loving summer annuals as vinca, salvia, zinnia, marigold and portulaca. Except for zinnia it is best to use started plants rather

COMPLETES MARINE BASIC

Camp Pendleton, Cal. — Marine Pvt. Albert R. Martinez, son of Mrs. Raquel R. Martinez of Eldorado, Texas, has completed advanced infantryman training at the Marine Corps Base here.

A 1971 graduate of Eldorado High School, he joined the Marine Corps in November, 1972.

6. To keep annuals blooming over a longer period, remove the faded blossoms and provide occasional light applications of a complete fertilizer.
7. If you move house plants out of doors, place them in a shaded garden bed and plunge the pots into the soil.
8. Remember to water container plants and hanging baskets frequently. On a dry windy day several waterings may be necessary.
9. Dig and divide those beds of crowded spring flowering bulbs as soon as the foliage dies.
10. Observe the beauty of the blooming daylily and select the new varieties you want in your garden.
11. Roses still need monthly applications of fertilizer and weekly spray applications for insect and disease control. See L-878, Roses: Summer Care for details.
12. Pests to watch for and control this month include:

- a. Elm Leaf Beetle. Sevin spray applied as needed or at weekly intervals. Be sure to cover under side of leaves.
- b. Lace Bugs. On pyracantha, azalea, chrysanthemum, sycamore, etc. Injury appears as spotted or mottled grayish discolorations on upper leaf surface. Insects usually on lower leaf surface. Control with diazinon, (spectracide) dimethoate (cygon) or malathion.
- c. Spider Mites. Small oval red-dish mites having 8 legs. Almost need hand lens to see. Usually on under surface of leaf. Attack many types of plants. Control with Kelthane. Indiscriminate use of Sevin in the garden can result in build up of mite populations due to the eradication of their natural predators.
- d. Tent Caterpillars. Frequently found in pecan, mulberry, and other trees. High pressure spray of malathion or Sevin will control. Removal of nest or web with cane pole will also expose insects to birds and other natural predators.
- e. Chinch Bugs in St. Augustine. Control with diazinon, aspon or trithion.
- f. Aphid, scale and whitefly control with diazinon or malathion.
- g. Bagworms on juniper, arbutus and other plants. Control with sevin, malathion or diazinon while the worm and its mobile home is small. Hand pick if the portable bag is more than an inch long.
- h. Powdery Mildew. Attacks roses, crepemyrtle, zinnia, and euonymus as well as many others. Control with karathane, Acti-dione Pm, or benomyl.
- i. Burned looking leaves on pear, loquat, apple and pyracantha. Bacterial disease. Remove dead or infected wood. Disinfect pruning tools after each cut using a 10% chlorine solution. (1 part clorox to 9 parts water.)
13. To edge grass along flower beds, under chain link fence and around foundations use naphtha in a tank type sprayer using low to moderate pressure. Spray every 4 to 6 weeks. Naphtha kills plant tissue on contact. Avoid getting it on tender bark or leaf surface of desirable plants. Use just enough to thoroughly wet the leaves and stems of undesirable plants.
14. Make a close examination of your landscape at the peak of summer development. Make notes regarding how it can be better arranged, planned, and planted to fit your family needs.
15. Save some time to sit back in your favorite lawn chair under a good shade tree and enjoy the peace and quiet of a lovely summer evening in your garden.

TIPS ON PACKING FOR A TRIP

Whether you're planning a long weekend, a leisurely vacation or a hectic holiday trip, wisely planning your packing may help you pack more fun into your travel plans.

Without good planning, on the other hand, packing the clothes and other family necessities for a trip can be as difficult and exasperating as an in-law's shopping list. But packing experts at Seward Luggage Company, Petersburg, Virginia, have several suggestions that can make travel more enjoyable.

Luggage is the first consideration, and perhaps you can buy one or two new pieces as gifts for yourself or family.

Since most luggage looks alike, check the construction, hardware, locks and closures. Make sure the covering material is scuff and scratch resistant as well as water repellent.

Bear in mind your mode of transportation. Air travelers need compact, lightweight sturdy constructions while those traveling by car, camper, or rail can use heavier, bulkier suitcases and trunks.

Avoid last minute packing. Sit down at least three days beforehand and make up a list of all items needed for the trip. As you pack, check the items off, and then fasten the list on the inside of the case where it can't be lost. This avoids lost articles, especially the clothing of the younger members of the family.

First pack the heavy and least-used articles in the bottom of the trunk or suitcase. After putting in the largest items, fill in the nooks and crannies with the smaller items. Don't forget to utilize shoes, slippers and other hollow items as packing places for socks, handkerchiefs, belts, etc.

If you're planning on camping, bedding, towels, etc., can be packed in the bottom of a duffle bag. Sheets, pillow cases, towels and pajamas should be packed near the top for use on arrival.

Remember travel can be tiring. For overnight stops en route, carry essentials - underwear, night clothes, cosmetics, toiletries, etc. - in one or two lightweight pieces. This keeps you from relying on all of your luggage each time you stop.

Luggage, camera, sports equipment and other easy-to-lose items should be clearly tagged. Use identification labels that bear both home and destination addresses, wherever possible. If luggage is locked, let the children wear the keys on a chain around their necks.

There is an abundance of fashionable, low-cost luggage available that is easy to carry. One piece perfectly suited for traveling without muss or fuss is a 20-inch roll duffle bag with adjustable shoulder straps and zip outer pocket. This "in" bag is part of the Seward "Swades" line constructed of a vinyl material with the look and feel of soft leather suede. It's a natural for carrying all those small items that are necessary for a trip. Other practical "now" items from the "Swades" line are horn bags, shoulder totes, cabin bags and bike pack sacks.

Obviously, no one can afford to outfit an entire family with new luggage. A family of four can usually vacation with just four pieces if luggage is carefully chosen and packed wisely. One very popular four-piece combination includes a garment bag, 29" pullman, 21" weekender and a tote bag.

For the travelwise, Seward, a Dayco Company, offers a complete line of luggage that is available in leading department stores. Additional information can be obtained by writing Seward Luggage, Petersburg, Virginia 23803.

No matter what style of luggage you choose, heeding the packing tips in this article should add to your convenience and help prevent you from forgetting anything. For if you do your lists properly, you won't have to wonder, once the journey begins, if you forgot to pack something. You'll have the comfort of knowing this reassuring fact: It's in the bag!

Tractor Pull Contests Set For 2 Days At San Angelo's Fiesta Del Concho

The sound of 20th Century agricultural tractor power will surge across Fiesta Del Concho at San Angelo June 8 and 9 during two days of tractor-pulling contests.

Farmers throughout West Texas are expected to enter the pull for cash prizes, according to General Chairman Clovis Olsak. This is the first such competition ever staged in West Texas.

Approved and supervised by the Texas Tractor Pullers Association, the Fiesta Del Concho event follows closely on the Southwest Tractor Pull in March at Ft. Worth which drew contestants from as far away as Illinois and Colorado.

Already, 20 farmers have entered the event. Many are from the San Angelo area, and some from as far away as Lamesa and Sweetwater. Entry deadline is Friday morning at 8:00 a.m. Randall Ward of Akron, Ohio has confirmed plans to bring his Massey-Ferguson 55 tractor, modified with a Chevrolet 427 engine, for an exhibition pull. Rules Committee Chairman Eugene Cmerok of Miles points out that there are three weight classes in each of two tractor categories. In the stock category, the classes are for tractors weighing a maximum of seven, nine, and twelve thousand pounds, and no turbochargers or blowers will be permitted in this category. The Super-Stock category is for tractors with or without turbochargers or blowers, and will be divided into classes with maximum weights of twelve, fifteen, and eighteen pounds. All tractors in both categories must be standard, out of field models.

The contest is to determine which contestant can pull a weighted sled over a prepared dirt track the furthest distance. The sled was manufactured for the Southwest Hardware and Implement Association at a cost of over $12,000 and is designed to give each puller an equally fair chance to win an award. The same sled was used at the Fort Worth pull in March, and is designed so that the weight on the sled can be steadily increased as the tractor draws it down the track until it finally becomes so heavy the tractor stalls. So each puller has an equally fair chance to win a prize.

Local tractor owners are urged to enter the event and learn the exciting sport of tractor pulling. Entry fees are $15 per class entered with rules and entry forms available from the Fiesta Del Concho, P. O. Box 712, San Angelo, TX 76901, and from implement dealers. General admission tickets will be $2.00 at the gate and $1.75 in advance, for spectators. The Fiesta Del Concho Tractor Pull will be held on Friday and Saturday afternoons, June 8 and 9, from 2:00 until 5:00 p.m.

Gunsteads Back From Recent Trip To Kansas
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gunstead and Gwendolyn and Billy Charles returned last week from a vacation in Kansas. They left early the morning of May 25 and went the entire 600 miles that day to Dodge City, Kansas, where they spent the night and saw the famous Boot Hill on Saturday morning. The Gunstead family then traveled on to Greensburg, Kansas which is 45 miles east of Dodge City. There they attended the 20th anniversary reunion of her high school graduating class; 19 of the 27 who were class members attended. Saturday evening the all school banquet was held in the big banquet room at the Burke's Restaurant where 234 former graduates of the Greensburg school met for the dinner and a program honoring the classes of 1973, 1963, 1953, 1943, 1933, 1923 and 1918. They toured the nearby Burketown village.
On Sunday the Gunstead family attended a basket dinner for Mrs. Gunstead's class, a good time was had by all who attended, and the afternoon was filled with a lot of visiting and picture taking. The Gunstead family left Greensburg Sunday afternoon to go on to South Haven, in southern Kansas to visit Mrs. Gunstead's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knox and her family, and also Dale Church and Basil Church and their families. The Gunsteads left South Haven, Kansas, on Tuesday, May 29th to head for home. They stopped in Oklahoma City to see the Frontier Village, and arrived home that night.
The Gunsteads report that they had a very enjoyable trip, but experienced a wet cold front in Kansas on Sunday that caused high winds and severe thunder storms and some tornadoes. Also the Gunsteads reported that they did not hit any gasoline shortages except that north of Oklahoma City one station had a sign that they would sell a maximum of 10 gallons to any one customer.

BRIDAL SELECTIONS FOR BILLIE GAYL BLAYLOCK AND PATSY TAMPKÉ AT WESTERN AUTO

Munchin' Time

Sweet yet tangy distinguishes the flavor-blend of this new Crunch Snack. Golden kernels of sugar coated puffed corn cereal and whole pecan halves are subtly seasoned with spices and herbs . . . ten minutes in the oven and it's munchin' time. This delightfully different treat can be made ahead to serve as an accompaniment for chilled or hot beverages whatever the occasion. And Kay Kellogg's recipe for Crunch Snack has another plus. With ready-to-eat cereal as the principal ingredient, it's as easy on the budget as it is to make.

CRUNCH SNACK

1/4 cup regular margarine or butter
1/2 teaspoon dill weed
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon sesame seeds
3 cups sugar coated puffed corn cereal
1/2 teaspoon onion powder
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 cup pecan halves
1/2 teaspoon oregano

1. Melt margarine in large saucepan over low heat; remove from heat. Add sesame seeds, onion powder, garlic powder, oregano, dill weed and Worcestershire sauce; stir to combine. Add sugar coated puffed corn cereal and pecans; toss gently until mixture is well-coated. Spread evenly in shallow baking pan.
2. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 10 minutes or until crisp. Cool. Store in tightly covered container.
Yield: 3 1/2 cups Crunch Snack

Consumer Protection Act Is Now Law

(By John L. Hill, Attorney General) Austin, Tex.—One of the accomplishments about which our State Legislature could boast at the end of its 1973 session was the passage of a really meaningful Consumer Protection Act.

The Attorney General's staff is pretty proud of that achievement, too, because we worked side by side with the Texas Consumer Association and the Texas Retail Federation for four long months to help the sponsors pass that bill.

I believe that the consumer law my office had had to enforce before that bill became effective May 21 when Governor Dolph Briscoe signed it into law, was woefully inadequate. I felt that the State was giving only lip service to consumer protection until a firm law, with penalties strong enough for a violator to feel, was substituted for the old law.

Now, people are asking me, "How does the new law help the consumer?"

Well, we take the position which is reflected in this law—that everybody is a consumer. Businesses are consumers, and the sales and service contracts they make should be as free of fraud as the consumer agreements you and I make.

The new law gives extra help to any consumer who complains of a fraud or misrepresentation which occurred after May 20, because:

- (1) It expands and clarifies the "dirty laundry list" of deceptive practices punishable by law.
- (2) It authorizes the trial court to order restitution to the consumer for the money he lost.
- (3) It allows the state to obtain penalties when a court orders an injunction against anyone found violating the consumer law, instead of delaying possibility of penalties until an injunction has been violated. Obviously, that will be an added deterrent to abuse.
- (4) It gives the consumer not only the legal right, but the incentive, to file an individual suit, since he now will have an opportunity to recover triple damages, as well as court costs and attorney's fees, if he wins his case.
- (5) It gives a group of consumers who claim injury by a single deceptive practice the right to file a class action suit—if each has suffered damages amounting to $10 or more. And if they win, they can recover actual damages, plus court costs and attorneys' fees.
- (6) It encourages the establishment of consumer protection offices by individual cities.
- (7) It gives the consumer more close-to-home help, because he can turn to his county or district attorney, who now have enforcement jurisdiction concurrent with the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division.

Under another law, the Legislature also guaranteed the maintenance of Attorney General's regional offices in El Paso, Houston, San Antonio, Dallas and Lubbock, and consumer protection assistance is available at each of these, as well as at my Austin office.

Your new consumer protection does all of that, and more, and at the same time, offers safeguards to assure that a well-meaning businessman is not the target for harassment suits, by awarding him court costs and attorney's fees if that is found to be the case. It also provides methods for dismissal of a suit, if the business wants to make an adjustment on the complaint.

One thing that must be stressed: If you have a complaint about a consumer abuse which occurred prior to May 21, my Consumer Protection staff will help all they can, but they will be confined to enforcement under the old law.

If you have a problem which dates to May 21 or since, my first suggestion would be to contact the person with whom you made the contract, to see if it can't be settled amicably. Most merchants and service people do want to satisfy their customers.

If that doesn't work, contact your county or district attorney, or the Attorney General's office in Austin, Dallas, Houston, Lubbock, El Paso or San Antonio.

Attends Course

A. T. "Sonny" Turner of Eldorado returned last week from a Continuing Education Center at the University of Nebraska for Management Internship.

The course consisted of three two-week sessions sponsored by the National Rural Electrification Association. Main topics consisted of the management of rural co-ops.

Of 17 men from co-ops attending the course, Turner graduated first in his class. He also received an honorary citizenship in the state of Nebraska for his efforts.

Turner said the course helped him learn in several areas even outside the co-op management field. When he arrived home he was greeted by a new baby son.

County Extension Agent's Column

By MRS. DIANE LUBE

Even under ideal storage conditions, most fresh vegetables retain top quality only for a few days. Green leafy vegetables quickly wilt and change flavor as water evaporates from tissues. Other vegetables—corn, beans and peas—lose sweetness within a short time as sugar converts to starch.

Hot weather can dull appetites, so don't forget tasty, eye-catching salads when planning and preparing meals. Imagination in combining vegetables and fruits will perk up meals and arouse a round of applause from family members.

Don't think that freezing kills bacteria in foods. It simply stops their multiplication. So maintain strict sanitation when preparing foods for the home freezer. And freeze only high quality foods.

Local markets feature flavor-rich nutritious cantaloupes. Serve the versatile fruit chilled and topped with a scoop of rainbow sherbet. Or slice it and top with chicken salad garnished with fresh mint. Or transform it into golden balls combined with other fresh fruits, all nestled on crisp leaves of lettuce.

Mrs. Davis Dies At 86

Mrs. John L. (Dorothy Thomson) Davis, 86, died Saturday in Schleicher County Hospital.

Survivors include her husband and several nieces and nephews including Curtis L. Andrews of Eldorado.

MISS ALEXANDER BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. SUTTON IN SONORA CHURCH RITE

MRS. EDDIE SUTTON

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, May 26, 1973, between Miss Teresa June Alexander and Edward William Sutton, III in the First United Methodist Church in Sonora. Officiating at the ceremony were the Rev. John M. Weston, pastor of the First Methodist, and the Rev. Clifton Hancock, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sutton, Jr.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father for the double ring rites, wore an all-over chantilly lace gown with satin underneath. The princess styled gown featured a scalloped bolero with pearls sewn on the bolero. The hemline and neckline were also scalloped. The bride's veil and train were of the same type lace, accented by the seillons. All were sewn by the bride's mother.

A white orchid centered the bride's bouquet on a white Bible, a gift several years ago of the bride's grandparents. White carnations, pearls, lace, and ribbon streamers complemented the bouquet.

Her going away dress was a blue, pink, and white plaid skirt with a solid pink top, and she had a plaid jacket to match. It was all made by her grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Belk.

Mrs. Jimmy Belk, aunt of the bride, of Bremond was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Leo J. Wilson at the organ.

Miss Sheila Alexander, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Sutton, sister of the bridegroom, of Fort Stockton, Miss Kay K. Brown and Miss Jessie McCutchen. All wore long dresses of yellow organza with white flocked flowers. They wore gold chokers with their initials on the charm. These were gifts from the bride.

Best man was Mike Taylor of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The groomsmen were Tom Dempsey of Eldorado, James Larry Davis of Eldorado and Tony Renfro. Ushers included Eddie Alexandre, brother of the bride, Kerry Joy, Scott Jacoby and Terry Hann of Abilene.

Another brother of the bride, R. B. Alexander, was candlelighter, along with Bret Hann of Wall. Distributing rice bags were Shellie Minick of Dimmitt and Heath Belk of Mertzon.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

Grandparents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Belk of Eldorado, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Alexander of Eldorado, Mrs. Jim Sutton, Springdale, Arkansas, and great-grandmother Mrs. Lucy Bruton, were special guests at the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Sonora High School and is attending Angelo State University. The bridegroom is a 1971 graduate of Sonora High School and also attends Angelo State. Both the bride and bridegroom are presently employed in San Angelo, and plan to continue in college this fall. Following a wedding trip to Austin they are at home in San Angelo.

Give Stew Hungarian Accent

"Paprika" is Hungarian for "red pepper." This condiment is available in different strengths ranging from hot to mild and is useful both as a spice and for decorative purposes. Hungarian cooks are especially imaginative in using paprika. Veal Paprika is a Hungarian type stew Americans will enjoy.

Veal Paprika

- 1/2 cup corn oil
- 3 medium onions, sliced
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 pounds boned veal, cut in 1-inch cubes
- 2 cups water
- 1/2 green pepper, cut in strips
- 3 tablespoons paprika
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 tablespoons corn starch
- 2 tablespoons water
- Hot noodles

Heat corn oil in 4-quart Dutch oven over medium heat. Add onion and garlic; saute until tender. Remove onion. Add veal; brown on all sides turning as needed. Add onion, water, green pepper, paprika, parsley and salt. Cover; reduce heat and simmer gently 1 hour or until tender. Mix together corn starch and water until smooth. Add to veal mixture. Bring to boil, stirring constantly, and boil 1 minute. Serve with noodles. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

The new superhighway is a masterpiece of engineering skill, yet you still can't see around the curve in the distance. Whatever lies beyond the bend is as much a mystery as it was when this was a single-lane road.

Today we are living in the space age and are exposed to fresh miracles with almost every passing hour. But we still can't "see around the bend" of life. We are as human as we ever were and have no way of knowing what is coming next.

Since the beginning of time, man has lived with this mystery. What keeps him going? For many, it is the knowledge that the answer to our fate lies in far more capable hands than ours. This is God's universe, after all, His creation, and we are His creatures.

True, you can't see around the bend. But you can equip yourself for life's journey by taking a single, all-important step. This step is toward the church of your choice.

Agriculture Fuel Needed
Agriculture Commissioner John C. White urged the Federal Office of Oil and Gas to seek immediate compliance from industry with guidelines which would assure adequate fuel supplies for Texas agriculture.

White said curtailments are already being made in spite of federal guidelines announced May 10. The commissioner said Texas is in a "critical period," and a lack of fuel could be "disastrous" to the 1973 crop season.

Final Reform Measures Passed

Lobby control, code of ethics and campaign finance disclosure legislation passed in closing hours of the 63rd Legislature's regular session.

While none of the bills were as strict as the original House version, all were viewed by advocates as an improvement over present laws.

All filings and financial disclosure under all three bills will be with the secretary of state.

The new public access to information act is viewed as the best law of its kind in the country. Governor Briscoe earlier signed H. B. 3 to strengthen the open meetings laws.
