

Russia Asks UN For World Atom Control

Present Plan Not Working, Says Gromyko

Wants Strict Supervision Over All Phases

LAKE SUCCESS, June 11. (AP)—Russia today called on the United Nations to establish a world commission for strict international control over all facilities engaged in mining of atomic raw materials and in production of atomic materials and atomic energy.

Speaking in English, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko told the 12-nation U. N. Atomic energy commission that such an international group, operating within the framework of the veto-conscious Security Council, would have access to "any facilities for mining, production and stockpiling of atomic materials."

Yesterday Gromyko had told the commission's working committee that for him it was a day "full of compromise."

Declaring the Atomic Energy Commission has not made due progress in its work even after the commission's majority endorsement of the American (Baruch) plan, Gromyko said "it is time to proceed to the solution of concrete tasks."

He added the Soviet Union would insist that the task on prohibiting atomic weapons be considered from the viewpoint of its "necessity."

He did not change his basic position for immediately outlawing the bomb and only then for a convention setting up atomic controls.

In a speech given wide advance publicity through Gromyko's request for a meeting of the full commission—its first since March 18—Gromyko laid down these points:

1. The International Control Commission should be set up within the framework of the council—where the veto applies.

2. The commission shall have its own inspection apparatus.

3. Composition, rights and obligations of the commission, as well as provisions on basis of which it shall act, shall be determined by a special international convention signed by nations.

4. The commission shall be composed of nations on the Atomic Energy Commission, shall select its personnel on an international basis and periodically carry out inspection of facilities for mining and production of atomic materials.

5. The commission shall check existing stockpiles, investigate and verify the accounting and study production operations.

6. The commission shall "have access to any facilities for mining production and stockpiling of materials."

7. Signatory states to the convention must have right to carry on "unrestricted scientific research" directed toward discovery of methods for use of atomic energy for peaceful purposes.

Truman Urged To Sign New Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—Senator George (D-Ga.), said today he has asked Secretary of the Treasury Snyder to urge President Truman to sign the $4,000,000,000 tax reduction bill.

George, who supported the measure when it passed the Senate but has said he will hesitate to vote to override a veto, based his plea on the contention that a veto now would kill any chance of a tax cut before July 1, 1948.

"I think a veto of the bill would eliminate any reduction in tax rates until the latter part of 1948," the Georgia senator, top Democrat on the Senate finance committee, told a reporter.

"The President will be in no position to, and cannot afford, to recommend a tax reduction in January if he opposes it now."

Livestock Prices Reach New Highs

CHICAGO, June 11. (AP)—Cattle, hogs, sheep, and butter moved higher today to send beef steers to the scales at $30.00 a hundred pounds for the first time since March 5 and spring lambs to a new seasonal high price of $27.00.

Hogs generally were 25 to 50 cents higher than yesterday's trade, cattle were up from 25 cents to $1.00 a hundredweight, sheep 25 to 50 cents more, and butter joined the march with advances of one to 1 1/4 cents a pound.

Saturday Deadline On Renditions

Saturday is the deadline for property owners within the county to make tax renditions on their holdings to the tax collector-assessor's office, a spokesman for that department said today.

A team of two men concentrated this week on the task of bringing the renditions up to date.

Trucks Taken Off Some City Streets

Trucks in excess of half a ton capacity, except those engaged in actual loading and unloading operations in the area, were barred from use of certain streets in an ordinance adopted Tuesday evening by the city commission.

Action on the measure, which contained an emergency clause eliminating the necessity of three separate readings, came after Otis Grafa, owner and operator of West Texas Sand and Gravel company, had protested part of the ordinance.

The order would prohibit trucks from using all of Washington Boulevard, Eleventh Place between Settles and Johnson, and Johnson between Eleventh Place and to but not including E. 7th street.

Grafa asked that the order be modified to permit use of Eleventh Place. He contended that the act would force trucks operating from his plant to use a county road just east of the rodeo grounds and that in so doing a traffic hazard would be created at the US 80 intersection which would be worse than the one the commission proposed to eliminate in the residential area.

He also felt the action deprived drivers of an all-weather route, and blocked a feasible route for deliveries to the south. Grafa contended that the ordinance was aimed directly at his operators and was therefore discriminatory.

John Coffee, counsel for Grafa, called attention to the traffic hazard which might be created on US 80 as a result. Bob Kountz, Cecil McDonald, and Bill Bonner supported the ordinance.

Commissioner Willard Sullivan stated unequivocally he was opposed to unrestricted use of residential streets by commercial vehicles. Commissioner H. W. Wright moved adoption of the ordinance, Sullivan seconded and it carried without dissenting vote although Commissioner Mims expressed the fear that it would mean diverting the traffic to other residential areas.

Angeloan's Trial Opens In Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 11.—Selection of a jury was started in district court today to try Frank W. Keichline, 44, of San Angelo, Tex., on a charge of slaying Percy R. Perry, 42, ex-army major of Detroit and San Angelo.

Perry was fatally shot with a .22 calibre rifle last July 24 in a mountain cabin at El Porvenir, resort west of Las Vegas.

Testimony at a preliminary hearing five days after the shooting established that Keichline drove here from San Angelo seeking his wife, proceeded to El Porvenir and found her there in company of Perry. The shooting followed.

Keichline denied at the hearing that he shot Perry, declaring that as he entered a cabin Perry "grabbed the gun and it went off." Keichline testified that he carried the weapon "because I expected trouble if I saw Perry."

Courageous Mayor Intervenes

HURTSBORO, Ala., June 11. (AP)—A 19-year-old negro was alive today because Mayor Hurt Vann of this small, deep-south town had the courage to convince a lynch-bent mob that the law was better than the rope.

The negro, Jimmy Harris, thus became the second within the past three weeks to escape a southern mob intent on avenging the alleged attempted raping of two white women.

Harris was rescued yesterday by Mayor Vann, former Mayor H. M. Rutherford and his son,

Boy Freed Of Church Slaying

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 11.—A circuit court jury found 16-year-old Stuart B. Allen, a minister's adopted son, innocent by reason of insanity in the mutilation slaying of a church sexton.

The jury of 11 men and one woman ruled yesterday the mild-mannered youth still is insane. The verdict requires that Allen be confined to a mental institution as long as his condition remains unchanged.

"That's a perfect verdict," commented young Allen calmly after the jury's decision was read.

Allen was charged with first degree murder after the beaten and mutilated body of 58-year-old John Frank was found in the basement of the Christ Episcopal church April 2. Rev. James S. Allen, the boy's foster father, is rector of the church.

LONDON, June 11. (AP)—Winston Churchill underwent an operation for hernia this morning.

The condition of the 72-year-old former prime minister was reported satisfactory.

Churchill is expected to be absent from his duties as opposition leader in the House of Commons for at least a month.

The bulletin announcing that the operation had been performed was signed by five doctors, including Lord Moran, president of the Royal College of Physicians, who attended Churchill throughout the war, and Sir Thomas Dunhill, one of the King George's physicians.

Protest Sent Reds On Hungary Case

In Address To Canadian Parliament

Peaceful Nations To Have Our Help, President Says

OTTAWA, June 11.—President Truman told the parliament of this northern "good neighbor" today that the United States intended to help those nations that want to live in peace, without coercion or intimidation.

Senators and members of the house of commons stood and applauded as the president, attired in formal morning clothes, entered the house chamber.

"We intend to aid those who seek to live at peace with their neighbors, without coercion or being intimidated," the President told the lawmakers.

He promised that American resources would be used to promote world recovery by aiding those who are willing to make "the maximum contribution to the same cause."

Addressing the Canadian Parliament in a speech in which he called for completion of the St. Lawrence project, a subject which long has stirred controversy in the United States, the President declared:

"We seek a peaceful world, a prosperous world, a free world, a world of good neighbors, living on terms of equality and mutual respect, as Canada and the United States have lived for generations."

"We intend to support those who are determined to govern themselves in their own way, and who honor the right of others to do likewise."

"We intend to aid those who seek to live at peace with their neighbors, without coercion or being intimidated, without intimidating or being intimidated."

"We intend to uphold those who respect the dignity of the individual, who guarantee him equal treatment under law, and who allow him the widest possible latitude to work out his own destiny and achieve success to the limit of his capacity."

"We intend to cooperate actively and loyally with all who honestly seek, as we do, to build a better world in which mankind can live in peace and prosperity."

In what was interpreted by many as an indication that the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program and the $350,000,000 relief measure for other devastated countries may be followed later by support for other countries, Mr. Truman asserted:

"At this critical hour in history, we of the United States are deeply conscious of our responsibilities to the world. We know that in this trying period, between a war that is over and a peace that is not yet secure, the destitute and the oppressed of the earth look chiefly to us for sustenance and support until they can again face life with self-confidence and self-reliance."

Mongol War No 'Incident'

NANKING, June 11. (AP)—A Chinese government spokesman, declaring "this is no ordinary frontier incident," charged Russia today with partial responsibility for an Outer Mongolian invasion of China's remote Sinkiang province.

The government instructed its ambassador in Moscow to protest the incident to both the Soviet government and to the outer Mongolian minister there as the aftermath of a punitive campaign which carried a Mongol cavalry battalion 50 miles into China.

Chang Yuan-chang, foreign office spokesman, gave no reasons why China was protesting directly to Moscow and declined comment on whether warplanes with Soviet markings had supported the Mongol attack, as reported by the official Central News Agency. Outer Mongolia, however, is pro-Soviet.

The Mongols rode into Sinkiang Friday, apparently to attempt to force the release of eight Mongolian soldiers held by the Chinese. Two Chinese soldiers were reported killed and others wounded in the initial assault on Peitashan. Chinese sources said today a number of Mongols were killed when Chinese warplanes ordered to disperse the clash inadvertently dropped bombs among the invaders.

Meanwhile, he said authorities here contemplated sending a high-ranking official to Sinkiang (See MONGOL WAR, Page 10, Column 4)

Farmers Need Dry Weather Quickly For Corn Planting

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—The nation's 1948 meat supply hangs in the balance today as midwestern farmers hope anxiously for dry, hot weather which will let them finish planting their dangerously delayed corn crop.

The Agriculture Department, in a report yesterday which forecast a wheat crop of almost unbelievable proportions, painted a rather dark picture of corn prospects.

It said that between 20 and 25 per cent of the corn acreage remained unplanted June 1, which is a late date, because of wet weather.

A short corn crop would force farmers to cut down on the production of meat animals, milk and poultry products. Reduced supplies of these foods would force prices higher.

While the department's crop report still held out hope for a full corn acreage, one official said he is "pretty well alarmed."

Harold K. Hill, assistant director of the corn belt region for the department's production and marketing administration, told a reporter:

"The situation looks dark because weather conditions since June 1 have improved very little in heavy-producing areas of the Midwest."

Interference Hotly Scored In State Note

Affair Might Be Taken To United Nations

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—The United States today sent Russia a strong protest against the Soviet up-set of Hungary's government.

The State Department note reportedly carries a threat to take the case before the United Nations if necessary.

The main proposal for action contained in the protest is understood to be a request for a joint American-British-Russian investigation of the situation in Hungary.

It was possible that some last minute changes were made in the text of the note by Secretary of State Marshall, who went over it finally shortly before it was sent out.

State department officials declined to detail the note's proposal immediately, but it was learned that the message to this country's views was sent to Soviet Lieut. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, chairman of the Allied Control commission in Hungary, with copies to Moscow and to London.

The text of the note is expected to be made available later in the day for publication.

As the document was originally prepared, it accused the Soviets of unjustified interference in the internal affairs of Hungary and of violating the Yalta agreement. It proposed the three-power investigation with the threat of taking the whole case to the United Nations unless satisfactory information can be turned up absolving Russia of the American accusations.

(The late President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill of Britain and Generalissimo Stalin of Russia reached an agreement at a Yalta conference regarding policies to govern occupation of enemy nations.)

Diplomatic officials indicated today that the term "United Nations" is not actually used in the text of the note as finally sent, but said there was no mistaking that an appeal to the United Nations is the ultimate move.

Unless some information not known now is brought out, the United States position is that Hungarian Premier Ferenc Nagy was forced into exile and was compelled to resign simply in order to make way for Hungarian communists to seize power.

The United States holds that in this move the communists were fully supported by the Soviets and that this country and Britain, as members of the Allied Control Council along with Russia, were completely ignored.

Farm Support Plan Advanced

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—A new scheme for government planning to keep farm prices approximately steady today was offered to congress.

Its big points:

1. A government-backed "buying pool." This would stand ready to buy non-perishable farm products at "fair" prices. The idea is that in times of surplus, when prices tend to go down, this buying pool would hold them up to the "fair" level. When supplies were scarce, the pool would sell.

2. A special tax on the first sale of commodities coming under the plan. This would provide money to take care of losses on the pool operations.

John Brandt, of Minneapolis, president of the National Cooperative Milk Producers Federation, presented the plan to the House Agriculture Committee which is studying the question of a new, long-range federal farm program.

Meat Supply In The Balance

FARMERS NEED DRY WEATHER QUICKLY FOR CORN PLANTING

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—The nation's 1948 meat supply hangs in the balance today as midwestern farmers hope anxiously for dry, hot weather which will let them finish planting their dangerously delayed corn crop.

Foreign Bids Up Meat Cost

NEW YORK, June 11.—Foreign bidding for meat for export by agents willing to pay up to four cents a pound above American wholesalers is blamed for spiraling prices in the domestic retail market.

Industry spokesman in New York and Philadelphia were agreed that meat exports to Europe had driven prices up here from three to 11 cents a pound.

"Within the last few weeks," Jack Kranis, president of the National Meat Industry Council, said, "Agents of buyers in England, Germany, Poland, Belgium, Holland and France and other countries in that part of Europe have been buying everything they can get in slaughtered meat, and they are paying up to four cents a pound more than American buyers are willing to pay."

"This is the principal cause of the rising retail prices of the past week or two in this country."

Kranis said that other countries, such as Russia, probably should be included in the list of foreign buyers.

Kranis' organization claims as members 25,000 retail stores in eight states and the District of Columbia.

Miners Going Back To Work

UNIONTOWN, Pa., June 11.—Wildcat strikes by some 17,000 soft coal miners protesting current labor legislation were gradually ending today as AFL-United mine worker leaders appealed to the men to go back to protect the membership.

Already, miners at four of the 23 struck mines in southwest Pennsylvania had agreed to return to work today. The mines employ approximately 2,500 of the state's 14,800 idle diggers. Other mines opened yesterday. Some 2,100 Indiana miners also were out.

William Hynes, president of U M District 4, comprising the rich Uniontown area where the walkouts centered, made strong personal and radio appeals to the miners to go back.

The Hartley - Taft labor bill, which will soon reach President Truman for action, presumably would outlaw any coal strike when the mines pass out of government control June 30.

The CHIROPRACTOR and You

No. 6 of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of Chiropractic

CHIROPRACTIC IS RIGHT! The true value of any health service should be determined by its effectiveness in getting sick people well. The desire of the person who is sick is to get well. Words, opinions, arguments and pedantic description and prescription may arouse interest to a certain degree, but the final and decisive test is the effectiveness of the health service rendered.

Chiropractic has proved the accuracy of its principles and practice by actual results secured in restoring the sick to health, and it has been the means of bringing health to millions of individuals. Why not consult a competent Chiropractor in your own community and determine for yourself the value of Chiropractic as a health service.

CASE HISTORY No. 556. Confined to bed for nine months with excruciating sciatic pain, this comparatively young man had given up hope for recovery. An office colleague told him he was sending him "a birthday present." It turned out to be a Chiropractor who called at the suggestion of the friend. Realizing where the cause of the condition lay, the Chiropractor palpated the patient's spine, found a misaligned vertebra which was causing a nerve pressure, and adjusted it. Almost imperceptibly at first, the patient's condition improved. Within three months he was walking around again.

CASE HISTORY No. 1470. This young man had been bothered with boils since he was a boy. At age 21 he was having 12 to 16 boils a week. The condition was so distressing that he had to remain in bed for long periods of time. At one period he was in bed for three months straight. On one occasion he had 13 boils lanced at one time. Having tried all else, he visited a Chiropractor and took spinal adjustments. The adjustments released nerve pressure and within six weeks the eruption of boils had entirely ceased.

Electronics
Training Unit
Being Set Up

Enlistments are now being sought here for an electronics warfare company (8-37) under the naval reserve program, Wayne Williams, company commander, announced Wednesday. Company strength will be 40 enlisted men and five officers. Requirements for enlistments are Seaman first class rating or better and to be "striking" for a rating in the field of electronics, radio, radar or sonar. Those who have service in these fields in other branches also are eligible and may enlist in the company at comparable ratings in the navy. Civilians who have had experience in the fields are eligible, said Williams.

The navy has a substantial allowance for technical equipment to be used in the program, and Williams emphasized that weekly drills would be of technical nature and that there would be no close order drills. Prime purpose is to keep men abreast of development in the technical fields.

Men with special training as signalmen also may find ratings in the company, which is due to be the only one of its kind in this area. Currently, Williams is seeking a building suitable for meetings. Once a year the company would go on a two-weeks cruise.

Men and officers would receive base pay according to ratings on the basis of one day for each period of drill. Information may be had from Williams or from Joe Burrell, naval reserve recruiting officer.

Farm-To-Market Roads In Sight With County Help

AUSTIN, June 11. (AP)—More farm-to-market roads were in sight for Texas counties today if they can supply 75 per cent of the initial cost of construction.

The State Highway Department announced a new state-wide policy yesterday allowing counties to match highway funds on a three-to-one basis on projects costing not more than $100,000 annually.

The State Highway Department would provide all future maintenance of roads so built, Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said.

The new farm-to-market road policy was made possible by legislation enacted by the 50th legislature, Greer pointed out.

New laws allow pooling of county and state highway funds for farm-to-market road construction and distribution of the surplus of one cent of the gasoline tax that goes to the board of county and district road indebtedness.

Pending adoption of the bill is a constitutional amendment which would transfer the state's general fund ad valorem tax to counties for use to build farm roads and flood control projects.

All other legislative attempts this session to aid farm road construction failed.

The $100,000 ceiling was placed on individual county construction costs to allow state wide distribution of the limited finances available under the plan, Greer said.

He elaborated that no additional funds on the national or state level have been made available for the expansion of the program of construction of secondary or farm-to-market roads.

"The numerous requests from officials and citizens from all sections of the state for the designation, construction and maintenance of additional farm-to-market roads indicated the need of some type of additional program to provide at least for the more urgent and immediate needs in the rural areas of Texas," he said.

Highway engineers were unable to estimate how much farm roads a county could get for $100,000.

Herbert Eldridge, assistant to the state highway engineer, said costs were in the neighborhood of $3,000 per mile in the early 1940s but said he was sure that cost would be higher now.

Highway officials said they anticipated building two-lane dustless roads, using "some sort of asphalt surface" in most instances.

County's Cash Balance Shows
Decline In Month Of $8,000

Howard County's cash balance for all funds stood at $153,381 at the end of May, the approved report of County Auditor Chester O'Brien, Sr. showed today.

This represents a decline of $8,000 for the month and included $85,273 in the unexpended balance of the 1945 road bond series. Receipts for the month totalled $15,189 and disbursements $23,186. The jury fund slipped into the red by $89.39 in the face of $835 expended during the month.

That the general fund might be on thin ice in three months was forecast by the rate of demands against receipts. Balance at the end of the month, after disbursements, of $3,330, was $11,638. No substantial resources are in sight before collecting time in October.

The officers salary fund was pepped a bit by the transfer of $2,700 from the road and bridge fund, which ran expenses during May for this account to $14,453. Revenues were $8,676.

Disbursements and balances of other funds were: Officers salary $4,246 and $4,409; permanent improvement $514 and $753. The special road bond fund had $2,605 for its ending balance, the road and bridge special had $1,463, viaduct warrant $748 and 1945 road bond $85,273. Total was $153,381.

Jester Names
Denison Man To Labor Office

AUSTIN, June 11. (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester Tuesday appointed M. B. Morgan of Denison as the new commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics.

Morgan, a former state representative, succeeds Mauren Moore, whose term of office expired Jan. 31 of this year.

Jester said he considered the appointment "a double play because it should be favorable both to the railway brotherhoods and the American Federation of Labor."

Morgan, now ticket agent for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railway and a practicing attorney at Denison, is a member of the order of railway telegraphers and order of railway clerks, both affiliates of the AFL.

The governor expressed regret that the 50th legislature did not complete action on his proposal for creation of a department of commerce and labor, with divisions of commerce, conciliation and inspection.

"The session adjourned without authorizing the new department. Therefore, it is now incumbent upon me to make the new appointment of the commissioner," he said.

Night School Class Planned At College

Interest in night school for the summer semester at Howard County Junior College has grown to the extent that a meeting of all persons who are considering night classes during the summer has been called for 8 p. m. Thursday.

E. C. Dodd president said that the meeting would be held at the college and that at that time the demands for courses will be analyzed. So far as possible, classes will be arranged where there is a sufficient demand.

McQuinn, Mize Lead In All-Star Poll

Two New Yorkers, Geo. McQuinn of the Yankees and Johnny Mize of the Giants, today topped the all-star game tabulation for rival first base starting positions. McQuinn with 4,623 votes holds first place in the American League first base race, approximately 2,000 votes ahead of Rudy York of the Boston Red Sox.

Mickey Vernon of the Washington Senators is in third place. Mize, with 4,438 ballots has a 2,400 vote advantage over Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League's first base balloting. The poll for starting lineups in the all-star game July 8 at Wrigley Field will end at midnight June 28. Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox left fielder, tops all vote getters of both leagues, with 5,218.

City Commission Disposes Of Variety Of Business Topics

More than a dozen matters were dealt with by the city commission in another busy session Tuesday evening. Pausing at times for considerable debate, the city fathers nevertheless dispatched an impressive amount of business within the space of three hours.

They gave tentative approval to replanning of two blocks between Pennsylvania and Ayford streets between 16th and 18th streets. Bill Bonner and E. L. Killingsworth, who purchased three blocks in that area from Cosden, asked permission to replot the units into north and south lots so as to make W. 16th and W. 17th conform to portions in Park Hill addition.

Frank Miller, operator of the North Side Cab company was granted permission to operate two additional units in order to meet demands for service and to compensate for equipment that was at times out of order. Paul S. Limer, Yellow Cab operator, said he had no objection to the increase.

Two blocks on W. 17th street were ordered paved with a permissible skip provided it was agreeable to other property owners. Other paving projects were discussed by City Manager H. W. Whitney.

Bill Cox, immediate past president of the Jaycees, and Durward Letzer, county agent, were granted permission to display 70 calves in the city park Wednesday provided they sprayed and made sure all refuse was cleared.

Adopted without anyone appearing on it was an ordinance regulating trailer house camps. It was up for the third and final reading.

Whitney was authorized by the commission to secure bids from oil processors for aviation gasoline either delivered to city storage or for the bidder to furnish transport trucks to be maintained at the municipal port for servicing planes.

The commission declined an appeal for a lower water rate for the U. S. Experiment Farm. It now is paying the standard minimum of 25 cents per thousand.

The manager was instructed to stake a zone within a quarter of a mile radius of the Moss Creek lake in which fishing and boating would be prohibited. This was done as a step toward securing U. S. Health approval of the water supply.

Following a discussion of an instrument landing system proposed for the Munny port, commissioners authorized Whitney to confer with regional CAA officials in Fort Worth. Whitney gave a report on a disturbance in the northwest part of town Saturday when policemen were prevented from taking a prisoner by a milling group estimated at 75 persons.

Passed to a second reading was the proposed city zoning and planning ordinance. This will be read on successive readings. Other routine matters were discussed.

City Budget Approved By Commission

Two persons turned out for the public hearing on the city's budget Tuesday evening and city commissioners gave final approval to the guide which proposed general fund expenditures of $454,000 and interest and sinking fund disbursements of $101,000. The budget is retroactive to the beginning of the fiscal year, April 1, 1947.

John A. Coffey, formerly high school principal and now associated with Cosden Petroleum Corporation, and a reporter were the only ones present for the budget hearing. Several others had been before the commission on other matters earlier in the three hour meeting.

The budget was adopted with the provision that the city manager be instructed to explore the possibility of securing a park site in the northwestern quarter of the city. Commissioners agreed that if a site could be obtained that development would come as rapidly as possible.

Authorization of the mayor to sign a bill of sale on an old hangar building for $3,000 added that much to the potential resources for the city. City Manager H. W. Whitney said that there were indications the tax roll might be larger than originally estimated at $9,900,000.

Another proposal affecting the northwest quarter of Big Spring was that officials study the feasibility of securing one or two Latin-American policemen to serve that portion of the city.

Loboes Record Sixth Straight

By the Associated Press. It was a quiet night comparatively speaking in the West Texas-New Mexico League as all three leaders won their games and a total of 83 runs were scored. Usually the boys get more runs than that. They also were a little off on home runs. One game produced only six and another five.

And for a change there were three fairly close games.

Leading Amarillo beat Borger 17-11, second-place Lubbock licked Pampa 9-4 and third-place Lamesa downed Abilene 7-4. Out in New Mexico Albuquerque won a slugfest over Clovis 17-14. The boys got 34 hits in that game. Lamesa is the current sensations. The Lobos have won six straight games.

Having Trouble? Read This First

SEATTLE, June 11. (AP)—Mrs. Victor Enfield really knows what troubles are.

Here started February 12 when her eldest son, Kenneth, 10, was struck by a coal truck. He was unconscious four days and spent several weeks recuperating.

While he was still in bed the baby of the family, Joyce, 16 months, pulled a cup of coffee onto herself and badly scalded one arm.

Then Mrs. Enfield's husband, a parts man for a motor company, had an accident at work and was knocked unconscious.

Yesterday her third child, Jack, was struck by an automobile and suffered head and leg injuries.

If a man breathed pure oxygen all the time he would die.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning

That The Red-Blood Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your fingernails, your lips, the lobes of your ears—are they pale and off color?

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: No appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloats and give off that sour food smell.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vital blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh all out hollow places. Conservation Practices Are Observed At J. Y. Robb Ranch

Soil management measures included in a coordinated soil and water conservation program designed to fit the needs of the land were observed Tuesday by land owners and operators who made a tour of the J. Y. Robb ranch.

Among the conservation measures the group studied were over crops of abuzzi rye and hairy vetch, straw litter left on the land after harvesting abuzzi rye, land plowed to leave a trashy cover, examples of pasture land showing grass improvement, terraces maintained and protected with cover crops and contour cultivation.

The tour was sponsored by supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation district and was conducted by Al Jordan and E. A. Pittman of the SCS.

R. H. Batton, manager of the Robb ranch, said the rye proved itself as a grazing crop in addition to its value as a soil protector.

"Rye furnished earlier grazing and was more resistant to rust and insects than other small grains." Batton said. "On one field of 51 acres we ran about 50 hogs and 45 head of cattle for three months."

Stubble mulch plowing was demonstrated on a field with a litter of straw left after combining abuzzi rye and hairy vetch.

Bundles of cane were scattered in the small grain fields to provide roughage for livestock, Batton said. Better and greener growth of rye on land which had cane stubble also was noted.

Pasture land was observed in good condition with an abundance of forage composed of side oats grama, black grama, buffalo grass and palatable weeds.

Temperature tests showed the value of protective grass cover crops and litter. With an air temperature of 103 degrees, the soil with good cover was reached at 92 degrees, while on uncovered ground it soared to 135 degrees.

The group concluded the tour with a stop at the farm of Gordon Stone, district supervisor, where a cover crop of spring oats on newly constructed terraces was observed.

Making the tour were J. C. Mott, W. A. Kaderil, Edmund Tom, district supervisor, Glenn Tom, Riley Burns, James D. Eiland, Martin county agent, Sadler Bridges, Gus Leffler, Batton, Pittman and Jordan.

Aircraft Carrier Explodes At Base

PHILADELPHIA, June 11. (AP) Seventeen workmen and crew members of the 27,000 ton aircraft carrier Valley Forge were scalded today when a broken steam line flange flooded the ship's No. 3 fireroom with steam.

A spokesman said 10 men were in the Philadelphia Naval hospital with burns ranging from minor to second degree. The remainder of the injured were treated at the ship's sick bay.

Competition And Free Enterprise

Recently the house judiciary committee approved legislation which would prohibit corporations from acquiring the assets of other corporations to stifle competition.

The significance of this is in the possibility that it could, through enactment into law, become a means of plugging a bad leak in the anti-trust statutes. Currently, corporations are prohibited from gaining control of other corporations through purchase of stock. On the face of it, this looks good, but in actual practice the hole is big enough for defeating the spirit while adhering to the letter of the law.

The worst part of it is that a big operator is big enough to buy a competing firm or industry outright without batting an eye. It then makes no difference who holds the stock, for the stock simply represents the physical assets and organization.

Some of the staunchest supporters of the "free enterprise" system are among the corporations who have violated the spirit of the anti-trust laws. They have been so blinded by selfish interest that they have not had the clear vision to see that a course of stifling competition is one of the worst enemies of free enterprise. So long as competition has a chance to function, so does free enterprise. When that opportunity is gone, all the lip-service in the world to private trade won't save it.

Debate Would Refresh Memories

It will be interesting to see how far the proposal of Sen. Vandenberg gets. He proposes to try the Hungarian coup before the United Nations.

There is ample ground for bringing in to the world forum, for through the developments at San Francisco, much greater latitude was given to original proposals at Dumbarton Oaks for debates before the UN general assembly. Sen. Vandenberg had a big hand in this stroke at San Francisco when the charter was brought into being.

Under the charter, nations which use threat or force against another nation are subject to discussion. Whether there would be any action ultimately is highly conjectural, but certainly a full and free debate on the matter would have an effect on world opinion.

Of course, in the meantime, the coup will be scrubbed up and given a better appearance. Already announcement has been made of plans for an election to demonstrate that the new communist-dominated government represents the will of the masses. To facilitate this formality, the Soviets have announced that election laws will be modified to exclude the "enemies of democracy." That's a neat turned phrase, considering its source, and there can be but one conclusion—that the "enemies of democracy" are all those who might vote an anti-communist ticket. Thus, one of those 99 per cent plebiscites can be expected.

Perhaps the chief advantage of dragging the matter into the UN is to keep the peoples of the world from forgetting, and at the same time to invigorate the UN.

The Nation Today—James Marlow—

Tax, Labor Bills Uncertain

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A big part of Congress' work for 1947 may land in the ashcan.

Congress has put a lot of its time and effort this year into a bill to cut income taxes and a bill to restrict labor unions.

Mr. Truman has opposed both. He's expected to veto the tax-cut bill. He may veto the labor bill.

A veto will kill the bills for 1947 unless Congress can get up enough votes—two thirds—to re-pass them into law.

There's small chance Congress can re-pass a vetoed tax bill.

The outlook is: 1. No income tax cuts this year.

This will give some idea of the work which went into the bills, both of which were rammed through by the Republicans. In the House 33 bills, and in the Senate 28 bills, to restrict labor unions were introduced. They went to House and Senate committees.

It was the job of these committees to come up with a single bill, after plenty of thought, examination and discussion.

Because the House and Senate bills differed, a joint House-Senate committee was created to work out a single, compromise bill.

This took more closed door sessions. A compromise was reached. And finally, full House and Senate approved the compromise bill.

Tax experts, employed by Congress, started last fall to figure out how income taxes might be cut. They got up tables, information, ideas.

After Congress opened Jan. 3, about 20 tax-cut bills were introduced. The bills went to Committees of House and Senate.

The full House acted first, passing a tax-cut bill March 27 after three days of debate. The Senate, debating several days, passed its bill May 28.

Since House and Senate bills differed a bit, again a joint House-Senate committee worked out a compromise and sent it to the full House and Senate which okayed it.

This bill and the labor bill went to the White House. Mr. Truman must act on the tax bill by Monday and on the labor bill by June 20.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Hindu-Moslem Unity Only A Hope

By CHARLES A. GRUMICH AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Indians attending United Nations sessions at Lake Success are hopeful that the partitioning of their homeland will be only a trial separation and that a reconciliation of the Hindu and Moslem communities will be effected once they have said goodbye to the British.

These feelings seem more wishful than hopeful, however, at this early stage in settling the future of the sub-continent's four hundred millions.

They are expressed by members or sympathizers of the Hindu-dominated All-India Congress party, who have kept Indian representation in the UN all to themselves and away from the Moslem League.

The League at a session in New Delhi disturbed by a riot enacted by non-League Moslems, voted to set up the separate dominion of Pakistan, and the Congress party is expected to vote for establishment of its dominion of Hindustan on Saturday.

Thus, the principles for partitioning India will be settled. The details of livelihood on both sides of the lines are something else to be worked out.

The best the British could get out of the whole deal would be to remain in the British Commonwealth instead of proclaiming either or both may do.

Indian politicians of all stripes appear to be working toward one common objective: To keep India, once free of the British "Raj," from finding itself again a prey to exploitation from the outside.

But the division of the sub-task and the rival leaders in the two major dominions may find it difficult to keep outsiders from playing one against the other.

The first major internal reform already undertaken by Indians in the interim government at New Delhi is a step toward abolition of untouchability in the Hindu caste system.

Many Hindu leaders, including Jawaharlal Nehru, who stands on the very top rung of the caste system as a Kashmiri Brahmin, refuse to recognize untouchability, and Mohandas K. Gandhi lives among the untouchables.

There is a practical political angle to raising the lot of the so-called scheduled castes, however, and the leaders are doubtless mindful of the many easy conversions to Christianity from the lowest ranks who were outcast from the Hindu fold.

Some Notes From The Distaff Side

Ladies only:

Ruth Holman is raising her stockings these days. Raising the girl, that is. The Gainesville girl, a co-ed at North Texas State College of Denton, has cocoons in her dormitory room, weaving away.

The eggs hatched into silkworms after a period of refrigeration. She fed them for weeks. They spin a web around themselves for a few days. When she has 300 of them in action, she plans to have the silk made into a pair of hose.

A girl with a bright future is the six-year-old Texarkana tot who threw her arms around a male cousin and told him how much she'd missed him. Her surprised mother asked the child how she had remembered the man—she had seen him since she was three.

"I didn't remember him at all," the girl said, "but you know it flatters me to tell them you remember them and miss them."

A certain ex-GI forgetful at Texas A&M won't forget 14 girls at Aggie land. He was married, had a bad habit of coming home intoxicated and treating his wife roughly.

The 14 girls, wives of other veterans who lived nearby, waited for him, waylaid him at midnight and gave him a terrific beating. It cured him, officials said.

Remember Pistol Packin' Mama? Lay That Pistol Down? So does a negro man at Cooper.

In county court W. H. Crunk's office she begged officers to "Give me that gun let me shoot at him!" Somebody obligingly did, and everybody but the negro man thought it was funny.

He didn't know the gun had been unloaded first.

Business Girl Magazine, the national magazine published at Dallas, is conducting a contest to select the ten best dressed business girls.

It all resulted from a pet peeve of Movie Actress Joan Leslie, who says only the wealthy women get named to the ten best dressed women's list each year. She says that actually the real best dressed women are business girls making $50 or so a week.

She will be one of the judges of the contest, with Editor and Publisher Betty Oliver of the magazine, and a jury of stylists.

Behind The Plow Outside The Law

WILLIAMSBURG, Ia. (AP)—One of Iowa's most contented farmers is Fred Blythe. Although he has a law degree from Columbia University, Blythe has been a dirt farmer for 30 years.

I've enjoyed every minute of these years on the farm," Blythe says. "I get more satisfaction than I ever could have in the law. My people were farmers for generations and I guess it's sort of in my blood."

Blythe took his law degree at Columbia in 1916 and after graduation was chosen as one of a group to attend a three-months course in England under Norman Angell. Later he began practicing law in Chicago but soon yielded to the call of the farm.

Navy Disposes Of Bulk Of Surplus

PEARL HARBOR (AP)—More than 90 percent of the 2,500,000 tons of surplus Navy material the Pacific at the end of the war has been disposed of, the Navy reports. The bulk of the remainder will be sold to China and the Philippines.

"WHY DON'T YOU GO BACK WHERE YOU CAME FROM?"

Hal Boyle's Notebook

Crowded California

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—There is a traffic jam in paradise—known on the map as Southern California.

The quickest way to bring terror into the face of a Californian is to say: "My, this is a lovely country. I think I'll settle down here."

He will give you a look of pained and utter dismay. For he has all the neighbors he wants now—more than he wants. He would like to censor Horace Greeley's advice: "Go West, young man." He doesn't want to hear anybody say, "California, here I come."

He has come to the conclusion California has over-sold the rest of America on the virtues of the balmy life here. That life is getting less heavenly every day as thousands of outlanders arrive to set up house-keeping.

"The whole country seems to want to move here," complained one resident. "They've crowded everything out but the climate."

"A lot of people think they can come out here and live free in an orange grove if they don't find work. But those days are gone. If they try that now they'll find themselves' full of buckshot. You can't pick oranges for nothing any more."

Families here a generation or two don't holler so loud. They simply remark: "The old California died the day the movie industry came."

"In another ten years the Los Angeles area will have ten million people," they say with dismal conviction, "and in ten years more it will be the biggest city the world has ever seen."

The prospect makes them unhappy rather than proud. The city is growing so fast people complain they can't move out of it.

One man brought a country acre out in San Francisco Valley a year ago.

"I'm twenty-two miles from city hall," he said, "and already they're talking of putting sidewalks in front of my place. I don't want them. I moved out here to get away from sidewalks and stoplights."

The chief objection most residents here have to further "colonization" is that it boosts the cost of living.

It has caused many people who came out here to establish homes to give up after a few weeks or months and go back where they came from. They found too much trouble in paradise.

Recently one rattling jalopy passed through town with its battered radiator pointed east. It held six children and three adults.

A baby buggy and a washtub were strapped on its roof. Gunny sacks full of clothes and household belongings were roped to the fenders. On the rear of the jalopy was scrawled this defiant sign:

"Goodbye California—and all your god darn geraniums!"

GOP Plots Strategy On Tax Bill

WASHINGTON. — Here is the inside strategy Republican leaders in Congress have already cooked up if President Truman vetoes the Tax Bill — as he is sure to do.

Late last week, House Republican leaders were tipped off by White House contacts that the President would veto the Tax Bill with a message announcing that he would call a special session of Congress in the fall for the purpose of drafting another tax bill giving help to low bracket taxpayers, but none to the high-brackets.

Following the advice certain key leaders of the House GOP steering committee and the ways and means committee held a secret meeting, at which the following strategy was devised:

(1) Knowing that they do not have the votes to override a Truman veto — and thus pass the Tax Bill over the President's head — the GOP leaders decided to make no concerted fight for an override.

(2) The House GOP leadership may sit tight and not even offer a motion to override. In fact if such a motion is offered, a group of Republicans led by Representative Clarence Brown of Ohio will actually vote to sustain the President to further insure the death of their own tax bill.

But here is the payoff. If a special session is called in the fall, the House Republican leaders plan to pass another tax bill, identical with the one now before the President.

Purpose of this strategy is to force Truman to veto the same bill twice.

The GOP leaders feel it would make excellent campaign material in next year's elections if they can dramatize the fact that President Truman rejected a tax-reduction bill not once, but twice.

TRUMAN'S KISS OF DEATH

Shortly before President Truman fired him, Assistant Secretary of State Spruille Braden was discussing Argentine affairs at the White House, at which time the President said:

"Spruille, I want you to know that I'm 100 per cent behind you. I'll back you all the way."

Elated, Braden went back to the state department. There a friend remarked:

"That's exactly what Truman said to Henry Wallace the day before he fired him. He told Henry that he would back him all the way, too. Next day Wallace was out."

Henry Morgenthau's friends told the same story. After Roosevelt died, Henry Morgenthau offered to resign as secretary of the treasury, but Truman insisted that he remain. In fact, the week before Truman left for Potsdam he summoned Morgenthau to the White House, clasped his hand and said:

"Henry, when I took this job I didn't know you very well. But since I've worked with you, I've begun to feel like a brother towards you. And I want you to feel like a brother towards me."

Exactly eight days later, and without prior warning, Truman sent his hatchet man, Sam Rosenman to see Morgenthau, handed him his walking papers.

REPUBLICANS GET TOUGH

Senator Taft and cohorts have got tough regarding the gentlemanly practice of "pairing." This is a time-honored system whereby an absent Democratic senator can offset his absence by "pairing" with a Republican senator or vice versa. Thus one "no" vote counteracts a "yea" vote.

When the Democratic move to postpone action on taxes came up, however, some interesting backstage byplay took place regarding this parliamentary etiquette.

Senator John Overton, La., Democrat, twice telegraphed from Arizona, where he is resting for his health, requesting a "pair" with his close Republican friend, Guy Gordon of Oregon, later with Ed Robertson of Wyoming. Both replied: "Sorry."

Hospitalized Democratic Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee also asked his secretary, W. R. Davidson, to find a pair. Davidson tried bulking, genial Arthur Vandenberg.

"I'll be glad to pair with McKellar," agreed the senator from Michigan, "if Millikin will release me."

Davidson carried the message to influential Senator Millikin of Colorado.

"I would like to do it," Millikin shrugged, "but the vote is too close. This is one bird we can't let get away."

After word he admitted an advance agreement had been reached with Taft against granting pairs. But he said it applied only to the one issue. Apparently Majority Leader White of Maine had not heard of the decision for he said he would find a pair for McKellar without success.

"I sometimes miss those policy meetings because the (tobacco) smoke gives me hay fever," White explained later.

"That doesn't mean," he hastened to add, "that I approve of senators being absent without reason. I am an old woman on the subject."

GOP tactics particularly rankled Illinois' Scott Lucas who rose on the Senate floor to denounce Republican disregard for courtesy and tradition.

When the tax-postponement vote finally came, Senator Warren Magnuson, Democrat, of Washington, turned the other cheek, declined to vote, announcing that he had agreed to pair with absent Republican Joe McCarthy of Wisconsin.

MARITIME LABOR TROUBLE

President Phil Murray has stepped in to settle a ranging feud between East Coast Maritime Labor Boss Joe Curran and West Coast Longshoremen Leader Harry Bridges, which threatens to blow CIO maritime unity sky-high.

This was the reason behind a secret meeting Murray held in ren Magnuson, Democrat, of New York yesterday when Curran and his right-hand man, Hoyt Haddock, secretary of the CIO National Maritime Committee, gave their side of the tiff with Bridges.

The tempest started over Bridges' efforts to replace Haddock with a personal stooge in Washington NMC Headquarters. However, the real issue gets much deeper and involves a long-standing row between Curran and Bridges for top control of CIO Maritime Labor.

Curran told Murray that Bridges was using the Haddock issue to stir up internal dissensions with shipowners when, Curran contended, the Maritime Unions should be pulling together, not apart.

Note—Murray, who once threatened to toss Bridges out of the CIO for troublemaking, is most anxious to avoid trouble on the verge of a threatened shipping strike and with labor legislation pending.

Actors, Too, Like To Talk Shop

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Movie stars, like plumbers, elevator operators and undertakers, like to talk shop, and here is what some of them are talking about.

On the "Memory of Love" set I find Merle Oberon, looking young and darkly beautiful and talking about leading men.

"You know," she says, "playing opposite an actor in a picture is like being married to him for a little while. When you work in such close association, you get to know him as well as if you were married. You end up either liking him very much — or hating him." All of which must be confusing to Miss Oberon, whose cameraman is her real husband, Lucien Ballard.

Then over on "They Passed This Way," I listened to genial Joel McCrea, who says his current leading lady is as good as Barbara Stanwyck.

"Like Barbara and a very few other actresses," he expounds, "she has sincerity. When she reads a line, she says it to you, and not out vunder someone. She's all right." He's talking about his wife, Frances Dee.

Out of "Treasure of Sierra Madre" I come across tuff-haired Humphrey Bogart and two grizzled prospectors, Tim Holt and Walter Huston. They are discussing Le Bon's puppet production of "Alice in Wonderland."

"Pretty soon they won't need any actors," says Bogie. "Perce Westmore does wonders; he could make up one actor to do every role. I wonder how many roles Bette Davis could do in one picture."

"You aren't kidding about that," adds Huston. "I remember back in the old days when I did a two-reeler at Paramount about the Civil War. I played Lincoln. Grant and Lee."

Then Bogie tells about chiding one of the actors who testified before a Congressional committee. The actor, who appears in action films of the "Which Way Did They Go?" calibre, claimed Communist propaganda was infiltrating pictures. Bogie illustrated the only way the actor's films could reflect Red ideology. The dialogue follows:

"Which way did they go?" "Left."

Nurses Scorn Jinx Of Classes Of 13

OKLAHOMA CITY. (AP)—Nurses in training at the University of Oklahoma medical school here are not superstitious. A class of 13 junior grade nurses became seniors May 26. Another class scheduled to be graduated in October, has 13 members, as has a third class to be graduated in September, 1948.

Airborne Invasion Of Honkers

SUSANVILLE, Calif. (AP)—Nobody is kicking about an airborne invasion that has taken place near here.

More than 100 Canadian honkers—large geese — have settled along Honey Lake in Lassen County and are busy raising families.

Some nests examined by game wardens have as many as 15 eggs each.

Lubbock VA Work Growing

Claim folders have increased from 44,000 to 66,000 at Lubbock Regional Veterans Administration office since its activation a year ago, Robert W. Sisson, Regional manager announced today.

The Lubbock office, which serves 79 counties in West Texas, reached its first anniversary on June 1. During the first year of operation more than eight million dollars in disability compensation payments went through the office, and at the same time more than 12 million dollars was paid in subsistence to veterans attending school or taking on-the-job training.

On June 1, 1947 some 16,800 veterans in the region were receiving compensation, and 18,994 were engaged in education or training. The VA medical services to veterans in the area also have expanded considerably. During June of 1946 only 665 out-patient medical treatments were provided as compared to 3,500 treatments during May of 1947.

Since its activation, the Region has expanded to include sub-regional offices at Amarillo and El Paso. Both subregional offices have medical and dental clinics, and in addition a medical clinic has been opened at San Angelo. Contact offices are located at Borger, Childress, Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo, Big Spring, Odessa and Pecos. Guidance centers are at Texas College of Mines, El Paso; Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene; West Texas State college, Canyon; and Texas Tech. Lubbock.

Strike Crisis In Auto Plant Over

DETROIT, June 11.—The auto industry was steered safely past a threatened crisis today by a new wages and hours pact for 22,500 Briggs Manufacturing Co. workers.

Briggs and the GTO United Auto Workers, with only hours to go before a strike deadline, agreed to terms last night.

Their settlement on a two-year contract averted a strike set for 10 a. m. today which soon would have forced both Packard and Chrysler, each dependent on Briggs for auto bodies, to quit making passenger cars.

Together, Packard and Chrysler produce an estimated one-sixth of the industry's cars.

Charges of assault and intent to murder have been filed against Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keating as result of a Sunday affray which occurred on the US Experiment farm north of town. Keating is superintendent of the farm.

W. T. Bolt, who filed the complaint against the couple, said he had been beaten about the head by both parties after an exchange of words. His injuries, suffered about the head, required medical attention.

Bolt, an employe of the farm for the past quarter of a century, said he had also been suspended from duty as result of the trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Keating were freed on $500 bond shortly after they had been questioned by the county attorney Tuesday.

Army Orders 100 B-36's

FORT WORTH, June 11. (AP)—The Army Air Force announced Tuesday they have ordered 100 B-36s, world's largest bomber.

The six-engine bombers which can carry 10,000 pounds of bombs 10,000 miles are being built by the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation at its plant here. Company officials said the first of the planes will come off the assembly line this week and be delivered to the AAF in July for static tests.

Harry Woodhead, Convair president, said the Fort Worth plant will turn the bombers out at the rate of one per week and that the company expected to complete delivery of the order by the middle of 1949. The 100-plane order represents a sizeable portion of the company's $337,000,000 backlog, he said.

Brig. Gen. Roger Ramey, commanding general of the Eighth Air Force, told reporters who inspected the Convair plant here Saturday, that the B-36s would be assigned to his command. The Eighth Air Force is now equipped with B-29s.

May has testified he managed the concern, but declared he had no financial interest in it.

Tighter Lending Policy Suggested To Halt Land Boom

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The government counted today upon "more conservative" lending policies of credit institutions to help halt the boom in farm land prices.

Representatives of insurance companies, banks and other lending agencies agreed at a conference that future loans on farms should be based on the normal, long-term earning capacity rather than current high figures.

The government-sponsored Federal Land Banks have followed the policy of making loans on such an appraisal since 1933.

The conference called at President Truman's direction and attended by farm organizations and government officials as well, also urged government agencies, State Agricultural colleges, farm organizations and lending agencies to caution protective buyers of high priced land.

In calling the conference, Mr. Truman noted that farm prices have increased 92 per cent since 1939 and said he feared a farm price collapse similar to that which followed World War I.

Rep. Cooley (D-N.C.) in a talk in the House criticized the conference as "a deliberate effort to drive down the value of farm land and to frighten the public."

Cooley contended farm land prices have not kept pace with other prices and asked why farm owners should be singled out "for slaughter of the value of their investments."

to "give necessary directions to local authorities."

Reule sources here said the Mongolian commander had issued a 48-hour ultimatum demanding the release of the captives. The Chinese garrison commander ordered the men freed, these sources said, but his order reached Peitashan too late.

The government-sponsored Chinese central news agency correspondent at Tihwa, in a story dated June 10, said the bombing of Peitashan had continued up to the time he filed the story and fighting between Mongol and Chinese ground forces still was under way. One Chinese dispatch reported a 200-mile invasion of Sinkiang.

Sugar Rationing End Seen Soon

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Prospects for an end to household sugar rationing by July 1 brightened today as the United States was allotted a bigger share of the world sugar pool.

The International Emergency Food Council, inter-governmental agency which divides scarce foods among importing areas, granted this country 350,000 tons more than originally had been allotted for this year.

This increase is equivalent to about five pounds a person.

A highly placed agriculture department official who asked that he not be named said the additional supply should be enough to permit rationing to householders if not to institutions and to industrial users, to be dropped by the end of this month.
