Attorneys estimated use of the JQC testimony and exhibits may shorten the Senate proceedings from the expected six weeks / or more to three.

Meanwhile, the Judicial Qualifications Commission continued to move forward on its own course the taxpayers. toward ousting the 229th district judge from office.

Carrillo's attorney, Arthur Mitchell of Austin, made clear he will try to show the impeachment effort was launched as the result of a political break between the Carrillo and George Parr factions in stormy Duval County last year.

Carrillo has been suspended from his court since last August when the House of Representatives voted articles of impeachment, but he continues to draw full pay.

by the help of our Lord.

Today, people say the nicest things about George Washington and history recognizes his nobility and great achievements. But when he was alive, many harsh things were said about him because of his policy of peace with England during his last years in office as our first president!

G Some critics of nuclear power plants say they release dangerous amounts of radioactivity into the air. Actually, they give off minute, harmless quantities of radiation, according to safety experts, yet they increase the amount of electricity available to all of us!

21st District are recurrent: inflation, over-regulation by government and the energy crisis, to name a few. In examining what this Congress has done about these and other problems so far, the best we could say about the Congress (and the President, for that matter) is that there is a mixed record. On the subject of inflation, the Congress is becoming increasingly conscious of the need to control increasingly expanding government spending. Still, the Congress has far to go.

Also taking shape is legislation designed to give the small businessman or individual a fighting chance in dealing with government regulation. I co-sponsored a bill which gives small businessmen the chance to reclaim costs incurred in a legal hassle with the government, provided that the courts deside in favor of the defendant. This is one bright spot in the record of the 94th Congress, but the bill has not yet reached the floor.

The Congress' record on energy legislation is disastrous, however. The foolishness of the energy bill passed last fall (calling for a rollback in oil prices) is matched only by the President's decision to sign it into law. The bill is ill-conceived, and will result in an increased dependence on foreign oil. However, I do hope that the amendment I am now proposing concerning natural gas will pass the House. It would reregulate the price of gas on the interstate market, and eliminate government controls, so that people in other states would pay the same price for Texas gas that we Texans do.

As I look forward to the new year, I do so with both hope and a bit of anxiety. As Americans, all of us, including those in Congress, face difficult tasks. The times we face are challenging, but offer us the opportunity for great rewards. I hope that all of my friends in the 21st District will make it a point this year to inform me of their thinking on the issues and assist me in making the decisions which best reflect their views and best interests. Working together, we may bring the Congress to a turning point, and then point it in the direction of energy and the economic independence, and toward less government interference in the lives of individuals and in the marketplace.

VEGETABLE PIZZA FOR KIDS

Pizza and vegetables team up to lure youngsters into "good eating." Inveigling children to eat vegetables takes on a happier note when the vegetables are on a "favorite food," pizza!

Layer vegetables between pizzas to form a 3-high pizza tier; then serve each child a wedge. The cheese and sauce on the frozen pizza flavors the vegetables, making them irresistable to youthful palates.

RELUCTANT VEGETABLE EATERS PIZZA

- 1 medium sized eggplant, peeled, cubed
- 1/4 cup chopped onions
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 8 pitted black olives, chopped 2 packages (10 oz. each) frozen chopped spinach, cooked, drained well
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1 teaspoon butter or margarine
- 2 small zucchini, cut into sticks
- 1/2 cup sliced onions
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine

3 packages (13½ oz. each) Frozen Cheese Pizzas Saute peeled eggplant and onions in butter; add salt. Arrange eggplant mixture and black olives on frozen pizza. Add garlic salt and butter to drained spinach; arrange on second frozen cheese pizza. Saute zucchini sticks and onions in margarine; arrange on third frozen cheese pizza. Bake at 425°F. for 25 minutes. Makes 8, 3-tiered wedges.

Surprisingly, rice is about as American a food as you could prepare for your family. Rice may seem oriental to you, but virtually all of the rice eaten in the U.S.A. is grown in the U.S.A. In fact, the United States is one of the largest exporters of rice in the world. American rice is preferred in many foreign countries because of its high quality, uniformity and cleanliness.

American homemakers like to use rice for many reasons. It's economical, costing less than four cents for a half-cup serving. It's easy to prepare, cooking in minutes. And it's healthful, containing vitamins, minerals and proteins. But the main thing is, it tastes good.

Here is a well seasoned mushroom and rice casserole with a Spanish accent that will cost you less than its rich taste and impressive good looks would lead you to believe.

RICE FLAMENCO

- 1 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced or 3 cans (4 ounces each) sliced mushrooms, drained 1/2 cup sliced green onions 1/2 cup chopped celery 3/4 cup grated carrots 1/4 cup oil 1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce 2 teaspoons salt 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper 1 cup water 4 cups cooked rice (cooked in chicken
- broth or bouillon) 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese

Cook mushrooms, onions, celery, and carrots in oil until tender. Add tomato paste, tomato sauce, salt, pepper, and water. Cover and simmer for 15 minutes. Serve vegetables over beds of fluffy rice. Top with grated cheese. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

The Canary Islands were not named after birds living there. The islands were called Canaria because of the large dogs found there.

...and that junk"

Not everyone has caught the spirit of this Bicentennial Year. There's a cynic in town who is already complaining about our emphasis on "liberty — and that junk."

He's the same cynic, incidentally, who has been heard to berate "religion — and that garbage."

But the shouting of cynics cannot change the fact that these two hundred years of American history stand on the foundations of freedom and faith.

This is the heritage we carry forward into our third century. Always remember that there are those who wish they were free to worship with us in our churches every Sunday!
