Austin, Tex.—The Texas Veterans Land Program, temporarily shut down December 31, may re-open soon.

A meeting of the Veterans Land Board has been scheduled February 11 to review the bond market for a possible bond sale.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said financial advisors report interest rates are beginning to come down slowly and that favorable rates may be obtainable in March.

Armstrong also claimed the temporary halt in the program may have helped stem inflation of land prices.

"Our chief appraiser tells me that land prices are settling down in every area of the state except in the Houston vicinity," said Armstrong. "This means the delay may actually benefit those veterans who intend to make land purchases under the program in the future."

A total of 1,771 applications for loans were received in the last two weeks of December. Land Office staff members are trying to process more than 4,700 completed applications before the Veterans Land Program is re-opened.

Parts Rates Up

Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie charged Detroit automakers with pushing up prices on auto parts to make up for declining new car sales.

Christie told a traffic safety conference here parts prices jumped 32% in a single year.

The board chairman advised that safe driving is still the best way to hold down the cost of auto ownership, including insurance premiums.

"Why A Pastor?"

Jeremiah 3-15. And I will give you pastors according to my heart which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

As I have went before God, I see a people and God has showed me this people that has hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

The spirit of God is as dead, with most people as if they were a piece of furniture in the church. A Pastor is the man that God has appointed, are called to keep the wells cleaned out and to keep the living waters flowing as in Jer. 2-13.

A Pastor shows love but he will preach the gospel to where people can feel something, if he loves his sheep and the sinners.

I pray God that in these writings God have hewed out. The cistern isn't pure it's stale, it's got a stink, it need to be done away with and a new life of living water flowing.

A Pastor should have contact with his people every day. A Pastor should be ready at any hour to pray for the sick night or day. A Pastor should be able to go before God for any of the saints' needs. He ought to be able to counsel with all the sheep. For without council the devil will talk people out of living for God.

I want to say that if people aren't going to live the full truth, of holiness, why don't they tear out Isa. the 3rd chapter?

If you don't believe there is something to the way you wear your hair tear out I Cor. II chapter. If you don't believe in the gifts tear out I Cor. 12th chapter. If you don't believe in tongues tear out I Cor. 14th chapter. If you don't believe to be baptized in Jesus Name, mark out Acts 2-38. Peter had the keep, and the key is Acts 2-38. Then Peter said until them repent and be baptized everyone of you in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

As Pastor of the Pentecost church I care for every soul in this city, regardless of who you are. I care, and when it comes to preaching this gospel I pray it cuts to the heart so you will come out and be a separate people.

I want to say God is moving in this city. I won't call the names because the people don't know, or haven't had the teaching yet, to separate themselves.

One woman said. I love the writings, keep it up. A man said, I know you're right. I even see the Jesus Name baptism, but I would have to change my way if I went to your church. One woman came from another church and was baptized in Jesus Name. She said God revealed it to me. We pray for her she doesn't want to separate herself from the sinners.

Jesus looked over Jerusalem and wept. And I want to say in the last 7 1/2 years as pastor, God through me has shed many tears for Eldorado.

About two years ago, I tried to leave here but it wasn't the Lord's will and God showed me and said he would fill the church; he would change the hearts of this people.

So in the meantime you will see me doing carpenter work and I will be thanking God for everyone that hires me and for supplying my family's needs.

I want to go a little further to tell you that Pentecost is real. After a Sunday night service, a woman stood before the pulpit with tears rolling down her cheeks and said Bro. Ford, I have never heard it preached that way. A 60-year resident of Eldorado was in our service, she said I haven't been in a service like this since before I came here. God said he was going to give me a church full of people so you just as well let him have his way in your life.

In closing you know where the light is because the Bible says that the light shines in darkness.

As Pastor of this City, I care for your soul. —Bro. Ford.

Ten Commandments For Pruning Trees

Improper pruning of trees can be just as bad or worse than not pruning them at all. On the other hand, proper pruning can turn a tree or shrub into a beautiful plant specimen.

We offer 10 pointers to consider as far as the pruning operation is concerned:

1. Do not top trees. Topped trees often die because the topped branches cannot heal, thus letting in decay, fungi and bacteria. Also, side branches below topped stubs are usually weaker and are subject to wind damage.

2. Prune at the right season. Prune deciduous trees and shrubs, vines, ground covers and evergreens during the winter. However, an exception is that spring-flowering shrubs such as azaleas, forsythia, bridal wreath and gardenias should be pruned after flowering.

3. Use proper tools. Hand shears can handle twigs under one-half inch in diameter. Long-handled lopping shears are needed for timber one-half to one inch in diameter. Branches larger than one inch in diameter should be cut with a pruning saw.

4. Make all cuts flush with the trunk. Stubs don't heal properly and the decay and deterioration spreads down the trunk of the tree until wind topples it.

5. Seal big cuts with pruning paint. Use pruning paint on cuts larger than one inch in diameter to ward off insects and diseases.

6. Repair damaged plants at once. Plants should be kept healthy year-round; this means pruning damaged twigs or branches.

7. Use common sense when pruning. Watch for limbs that may fall over power lines or damage other property.

8. Always prune after transplanting. Pruning is especially important for balled-and-burlapped plants; this compensates for roots lost during digging.

9. Beware of the door-to-door pruner. If you can't handle the pruning job yourself, hire someone with an established operation and years of reputation.

10. Have a reason for pruning. Don't prune just to pass the time of day.

Following these simple guidelines can save many headaches, heartaches and "butchered" plants.

Dormant Oil Season At Hand

Late winter and early spring is the season to apply dormant oils for controlling some of the hard-to-kill insect pests on trees and shrubs. Dormant oils are specially refined petroleum oils that contain emulsifying agents which allow mixing with water. They are effective for controlling pests such as scale insects, mites, pecan phylloxera, insect eggs and hibernating caterpillars. These oils kill the egg as well as immature and adult stages of insects and mites by enveloping them in a continuous film of oil, thereby smothering and ultimately killing them.

Dormant oils have several advantages over most other insecticides, such as being less expensive, giving good covering action, leaving residues on fruit and nut trees that are exempt from tolerance, and being safe to handle. However, oils are toxic to leaves, have low toxicity to some insects, and are relatively unstable in water solutions.

A dormant oil can be used on any trees and shrubs that are in the dormant stage. However, better insect control will be obtained if used in late winter or early spring just before new plant growth begins. Apply the oil when temperatures are between 40 and 65 degrees F. Do not make an application if freezing weather is expected within 48 hours after treatment.

When mixing and applying dormant oils, use only the amounts recommended by the manufacturer. Some trees tolerant to normal application rates of oil may be damaged if excessive amounts are used. Even normal applications of oil have been noted to damage beech, sugar and Japanese maple, walnut, butternut and some spruces. Cover tree trunks and limbs thoroughly with the spray but avoid excessive application of the oils.

Salisbury steak, which is bunless hamburger, comes from a Dr. J. H. Salisbury, who about 75 years ago recommended ground steak three times a day for a whole list of ailments.

CURL UP WITH A COOKIE

Winter is extra-cozy when the cookie jar is full of old-fashioned Pecan Curls. Their attractive laciness and "snowy" edges are perfectly suited when everyone gathers inside. Quick or old-fashioned oats and pecans add a pleasant chewiness, so charming with the butterscotch flavor.

To "curl" the baked cookies, turn them upside down on a rolling pin or on several straight-sided glasses. Either type of surface should be wrapped with paper towels or napkins so cookies won't fall off. Remove Pecan Curls when cool and store tightly. So good when you're "curled up" by the fire!

PECAN CURLS

Makes 4 dozen

- 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 3/4 cup butter or margarine, soft
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3/4 cup finely chopped pecans
- 1/2 cup Quaker oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)
- 2 tablespoons confectioners sugar

Heat oven to moderate (350°F.). Sift together flour and soda into bowl. Add brown sugar, butter, eggs and vanilla. Beat until smooth, about 2 minutes. Blend in pecans and oats. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto well-greased cookie sheets, allowing about 3 inches between cookies.

Bake in preheated oven (350°F.) 8 to 10 minutes or until cookies are brown around edges. Cool about 1 minute, then carefully remove cookies from cookie sheets with wide spatula. Turn upside down over rolling pin or several straight-sided glasses which have been wrapped in paper towels or napkins.

Allow to cool completely before removing from rolling pin. Sift confectioners sugar into a small flat bowl. To "frost" carefully dip edge of each cooled cookie into sugar.

OUR FLAG

Historical Highlights

FIRST FOREFATHER

The first flag of the colonists to have any resemblance to the present Stars and Stripes was the Grand Union flag, sometimes referred to as the "Congress Colors." It consisted of thirteen stripes, alternately red and white, representing the Thirteen Colonies, with a blue field in the upper left hand corner bearing the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew, signifying union with the mother country, according to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. This banner was first flown by the ships of the Colonial Fleet in the Delaware River in December, 1775.

The Grand Union flag was carried by Marines and American Bluejackets comprising an expeditionary force in the West Indies during 1776

Winter's here again—and it's prime-time to take good care of yourself. One thing that goes hand-in-glove with cold weather is hot tea. For time-honored tea with a new twist, R.C. Onions In Exciting Side Dish

Most often onions are used as a flavor ingredient only. But not so with mild Idaho-Oregon Sweet Spanish onions. Creole Onions show off their ability to be turned into an exciting side dish.

Thick slices of onion are baked until tender in a tomato-wine sauce. Bits of crisp bacon and green pepper are sprinkled over the top as a flavor accent. Delicious with fried chicken, meat loaf or roast beef.

In addition to their delicate flavor, Idaho-Oregon Sweet Spanish onions have an enormous size, giving them the title Gentle Giant. They also have excellent keeping qualities. For storage a cool dry place with good circulation is recommended. Cut onions should be wrapped and refrigerated; if chopped, they can be frozen.

Look for Idaho-Oregon Sweet Spanish onions from September through March.

Creole Onions

2 large Idaho-Oregon Sweet Spanish onions	1 clove garlic, minced
Salt and pepper	½ cup tomato puree
2 slices bacon	¼ cup dry white wine
¼ cup chopped green pepper	¼ cup water
	¼ teaspoon thyme

Peel and slice onions into ½-inch slices. Arrange in buttered shallow baking dish. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Fry bacon until crisp. Drain and crumble. Add green pepper and garlic to bacon drippings. Saute a few minutes. Combine tomato puree, wine, water and thyme. Pour over onions. Sprinkle with crumbled bacon and green pepper. Bake, covered, at 375 degrees 30 to 35 minutes, or until tender. Baste occasionally with pan liquid. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Harvest Moon Popcorn

In double-digit inflation days, you can still be a happy hostess who doesn't have to spend "the mostest" if you serve America's all-time favorite "penny snack" for your informal parties. Even fancied up with extra flavorings and fixings, popcorn still costs out to just cents per generous serving. Harvest Moon Popcorn is such a treat. Team it with mugs of fresh apple cider, and you have just the right fun fare for everything from hoedowns to fifth quarter get-togethers. It's a winner every time.

Harvest Moon Popcorn

¾ cup melted butter	½ teaspoon garlic powder
1 teaspoon dillweed	¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce	2 quarts popped popcorn*
1 teaspoon lemon pepper	2 cups canned shoestring potatoes
½ teaspoon onion powder

Combine dillweed, Worcestershire sauce, lemon pepper, onion powder, garlic powder and salt with melted butter in a small saucepan. Put popcorn and shoestring potatoes in a large bowl. Pour butter/dillweed mixture over popcorn and shoestring potatoes; toss. Spread popcorn mixture on a jelly roll pan (15½ x 10½ x 1-inch) and bake in a preheated 350-degree oven 8 to 10 minutes, stirring once. Makes 2½ quarts.

*1 ounce of unpopped popcorn kernels (2 tablespoons household measure) makes approximately 1 quart of popped corn.

BIBLE QUESTIONS

Question: "On what basis can I believe the Bible?"

Answer: There are essentially two areas of evidence that will affect one's acceptance of the Bible as truth. FIRST, there are the facts ABOUT the Bible. There are sixty-six (66) fragments, forming one unit pertaining to man's REDEMPTION.

These fragments or books, as we call them, form unity, but are from the pens of about forty (40) writers, inspired by God. These men were from a variety of backgrounds in culture, language, education, social status, separated by time, geography and many other influences, spanning 1600 years in the making of your Bible. It is a monumental library in subject matter alone, in that it speaks of God, Man, Sin, Morals, Human Redemption; even Origin, Purpose and Destiny, without a single contradiction.

SECOND, we look to the evidence WITHIN regarding facts, for confirmation of history: 1. ARCHAEOLOGICAL—an example in the Book of Daniel, Belshazzar promises to make Daniel THIRD in the Kingdom of Babylon for the interpretation of his dream (Daniel 5: 16, 29). History for centuries had denied this—but within the last hundred years, records have been uncovered that speak of Belshazzar's father, Nabonidus as ruling in exile, and speaking of a triumvirate government. 2. GEOGRAPHICAL, there is an exactness of location found of the cities, nations, districts and villages that cannot be duplicated in any human endeavor to record such information. 3. TOPOGRAPHICAL, as the Bible refers to "going up" to Jerusalem (elev. 2693 ft.—Mt. Scopus) or "down" to Jericho (500 ft. below sea level). The lakes, streams, valleys, mountains and other features are pin-pointed and referred to with a confidence only found in scripture. 4. SCIENTIFIC, notice these passages: Isaiah 40:22, "It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth . . ." This servant prophesied about 739-689 B. C. and yet Columbus in 1492 A. D. was warned about falling off the earth for it was flat. In the 17th century A. D. methods of quarantine for the purpose of disease control were "discovered," yet, God had warned His people of this in the 15th century B. C. See Leviticus 13. In Job 28:7, said to be written near or before Abraham, 2000 B. C., reference is made to the suspending of the earth in a gravitational-centrifugal system, yet in 1650 A. D. this was "discovered." In Genesis 15:5 and Jeremiah 33: 22, God refers to the innumerable of the stars, yet this 'fact' was only "discovered" in 1940 A. D. To these, others can be added by study. 5. Historical, as previous mention was made of 1, 2, and 3, people are added by their own records of achievement found in the Pyramids, the Behistun stone, the Elephantine papyri, records on cliff faces, in clay-tablet libraries dated 1500-1000 B. C., etc. The Moabite Stone endorses the Moabite rebellion recorded in 2 Kings 3 and Taylor Prism offers further enlightenment on the Assyrian King Sennacherib's unsuccessful besieging of the city of Jerusalem as seen in Isaiah 36 and 37. In 2 Kings 10, the early zeal of Jehu, who drove "furiously." From the Black Obelisk of Shalmanezar we see in a relief picture and the chiseled record of Jehu bowing before the Assyrian king and bringing tribute. He had ceased serving God as in his early years and was now in a reversed role.

Since REASON establishes the fact that such accuracy is not possible from human efforts, it must be concluded that such a record as the Bible is from a Divine source and is therefore THE Authoritative Source for Life (2 Peter 1:3; 2 Timothy 3: 16, 17). Questions may be directed to "Bible Questions," Box 91, Eldorado.

ALL-AMERICAN DESSERTS

If Americans were asked to pick their favorite course at dinner, dessert would probably win first place—especially if the children could vote.

The early American settlers also loved desserts and devised some interesting concoctions reflecting their various ethnic backgrounds and existing conditions in the New World.

Strawberries grew wild in American soil and the first batch of the season frequently was used to make strawberry shortcake, the most classic of American desserts. Our ancestors would spoon them, crushed and sugared, onto warm biscuits that had been broken open, buttered and closed again. Then they would pour thick cream over the shortcake to soak into the biscuit and mingle with the butter and strawberry juice.

Boston cream pie is another traditional American dessert. It is a plain cake in glamorous dress, lavished with a rich pudding filling and luscious chocolate frosting. According to legend, this cake that is called a pie originated at Boston's famous Parker House Restaurant.

Shown here are updated versions of these traditional desserts using another All-American favorite—Planters Cocktail Peanuts. Peanut Strawberry Shortcake and Boston Cream Pie with Peanuts are sure to please you and your fellow Americans when served for dessert.

PEANUT STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE
1 pint fresh strawberries, sliced
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup coarsely chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts
Margarine
4 shortcake biscuits, warmed and split
Sweetened whipped cream
Chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts

BOSTON CREAM PIE WITH PEANUTS
3/4 cup cold milk
1/2 cup heavy cream
1 package instant banana cream pudding
1/4 cup finely chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts
1 (9-inch) cake layers, baked, cooled and split
2 tablespoons margarine

Combine strawberries and sugar. Let set 1 hour, stirring once or twice. Stir in 1/2 cup strawberry mixture. Replace tops of biscuits. Top each with about 1/4 cup strawberry mixture. Garnish with whipped cream and chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts. Makes 4 servings.

1 square (1-ounce) unsweetened chocolate
2/3 cup unsifted confectioner's sugar
2 tablespoons plus 1 teaspoon boiling water
Chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts

Pour milk and heavy cream into mixing bowl. Add pudding and slowly beat with egg beater for 2 minutes. Mix in 1/4 cup finely chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts. Place bottom half of cake layer on serving dish; top with banana-nut filling. Let set 5 minutes, then top with remaining half of layer. Melt together margarine and unsweetened chocolate. Stir in confectioner's sugar and boiling water. Beat well until blended. Pour over cake. Garnish top with chopped peanuts. Chill at least 1 hour before serving. Makes one 9-inch cake.

FRENCH COOKING MADE EASY

CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

The French know how to make the end of the meal light and reviving or make it a spectacular finale.

Chocolate Mousse is an ideal ending to a heavy meal. Each fluffy spoonful is bursting with chocolate. This version calls for rich, flavorful Blue Bonnet Margarine. Tests conducted in European cooking schools comparing Blue Bonnet and butter found no difference in performance on flavor.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 12 lady fingers, split | 1 cup (1 6-ounce package) semi-sweet
chocolate pieces,
melted |
| 3/4 cup (1-1/2 sticks)
Blue Bonnet Margarine | 6 egg whites |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans |
| 6 egg yolks | |
| 1-1/2 teaspoons vanilla | |
| 1 teaspoon rum extract | |

Line a 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan with waxed paper. Arrange split lady fingers around sides, then on bottom of pan. (1)

Cream margarine, gradually add sugar and cream together until light and fluffy. (2) Add unbeaten egg yolks, one at a time, beat until smooth after each addition. Thoroughly blend in vanilla, rum extract, and melted semi-sweet chocolate pieces. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold into chocolate mixture. (3) Fold in coarsely chopped pecans. Pour into pan lined with lady fingers. Refrigerate overnight.

To serve, invert on serving plate; remove waxed paper. Decorate top with whipped cream. Cut into thin slices to serve (4) —mousse is very rich. Makes about 12 to 15 servings.

BUDGET DECORATING

You don't have to destroy your budget to decorate your home.

In fact, you can create great-looking accessories easily and economically, when you wake up to the pretty potential of sheets.

Today, they come in a wide variety of attractive colors and match patterns, many with the look of famous fashion designs. The cost per square yard of sheeting is far less than that of almost any other fabric, and they're both durable and easy to clean.

Besides, you'll be able to point with pride at the finished product, when you've done-it-yourself.

For example, you can turn the tables on your table settings by getting a tablecloth out of a sheet or bedspread. Just measure the table's diameter, add to that twice the length you want the cloth to drop down on the sides and one more inch for the hem. For a cloth up to 65 inches in diameter, you'll need a twin sheet; up to 80 inches, a double sheet; up to 89 inches, queensize, and up to 107 inches, kingsize.

Fold the sheet in half lengthwise and then fold crosswise to form a rectangle four layers thick. Fold up one corner to the other side forming a triangle and rectangle combination with all the open edges facing the side opposite the fold.

Cut a non-stretchy cord to serve as a compass. Knot one end and pin with corsage pin to fabric. Tie a pencil on the other end. Length of cord should be half the diameter you want, plus 1/2 inch. Mark the outer edge of cloth and cut. Make a 1/2 inch hem.

The extra fabric can easily be turned into a set of matching napkins. Cut the fabric into squares of the size you want and press a 1/4 inch hem all around. Turn the hem another 1/4 inch and stitch.

You can get more such exciting ideas on creating pillow covers, chair seats, folding screens, dust ruffles, headboards, picture frames, plant stands, bath accessories, wall coverings, shades, draperies and table runners at a "Fashion Home Decorating Center" in most stores that sell Fieldcrest sheets, towels and bedspreads, or by sending $1 to Fieldcrest, 60 West 40th St., New York, N.Y. 10018 for Decorating Digest.

It could help give your home new life, without killing the family economy.

Good Attendance Is Necessary

During the 64th Texas Legislature, House Bill 1126 was passed: This bill made several changes in the operation of the Texas Public School System. One major change, and probably the most important, was in the finance article. Under the Foundation School Program, a school district may receive state financial aid for minimum salaries, current operating expenses, categorical program aid, and transportation services. The amount of state aid to each school district shall be based on the district's ability to support its public schools. The amount of state aid is based on CURRENT AVERAGE DAILY ATTENDANCE. This means that any day a child is absent, funds from the state are reduced and must be made up by local tax money. For this reason, please do not permit your child to be absent unless it is absolutely necessary: An absence is excused when the absence results from:

1. Illness of the child;
2. Illness or death in the family of the child;
3. Quarantine of the child and family;
4. Weather or road conditions making travel dangerous.
5. An absence approved by a teacher, principal, or superintendent of the school in which the child is enrolled; or
6. Circumstances found reasonable and proper.

Attendance has been good; however, some absences are not necessary and state money has been lost. The school asks for your cooperation in keeping our taxes as low as possible.

SMALL WONDER

How Little Things Can Really Mean A Lot

Few Americans realize it, but microfilming has become so highly developed that it is now possible to put 8000 manuscript-size pages on a single sheet of film. In fact, a typical copy of the Holy Bible can be placed on a piece of film measuring 2 inches by 2 inches!

Not only do businesses use microfilming as an efficient method of storing and retrieving information used daily, but it is used in schools, hospitals and libraries, too.

Literally hundreds of thousands of rare books and documents have been microfilmed by the Library of Congress, not only preserving them for all time, but making valuable research materials available to schools and scholars!

The use of microfilm (reproducing original documents in reduced form) touches the life of every American. Because it saves businesses money, by allowing them to use less paper and space, it ultimately helps keep prices down

Coffee Break

By David and Eunice Bigelow

Did you know that in ancient times coffee was ground between two smooth stones? Later on, the Romans used a simple mortar and pestle. Marie Antoinette, in her luxurious way, had a jewel-encrusted gold grinder while Martha Washington relied on a plain wooden wall mill. Nowadays we have the ease of ready-to-make instant coffees with the delight of added flavors. Just heat water and try any one of R.C. Bigelow's six excitingly different flavors—chocolate, anisette, orange-and-spice, apricot, cinnamon and mint—and you're set for a new taste adventure.

In 1776 the first cocktail was supposedly made by Betsy Flanagan, an Elmsford, N.Y. barmaid.

The POWER of PRINT in AMERICAN HISTORY

1776 1976 PROPAGANDA FOR THE REVOLUTION

This article is adapted from a program of historical monographs created by the St. Regis Paper Company in an effort to rededicate our heritage and renew our pride in our country's achievements.

Political revolutions are neither spontaneous nor inevitable. They result from problems, forces and decisions working over long periods of time. In few periods of American history has the power of print proven so effective in molding public opinion as in the era of the Revolution.

When Parliament enacted the Stamp Act in 1765, it touched off a rash of condemnatory writing; so much so, Britain was forced to repeal the act. Other taxes, brought about by the Townshend Acts, were also written off the books—except the tax on tea.

Some of the most effective propaganda, however, appears to have been created by Paul Revere. Though best known for his midnight ride, he was also an accomplished copperplate engraver and by far the most famous of all his engravings was "The Boston Massacre." This consummate piece of inflammatory art and writing depicts the Redcoats deliberately firing on a defenseless crowd, perpetuating the legend of the "massacre." This tragic confrontation, more riot than massacre, occurred on the night of March 5, 1770. Five civilians were killed, including Crispus Attucks, the first black casualty of the American Revolution.

What is generally considered the first newspaper cartoon in America appeared in 1754 and again 20 years later. It was Benjamin Franklin's device of a disjointed snake, representing the colonies, with the legend "Join or Die."

But the piece of writing with perhaps the most impact was the pamphlet published by Thomas Paine entitled Common Sense. It went into several translations and sold 120,000 copies within three months.

Nothing in the Revolution's period and perhaps nothing written in America since, has enjoyed more instantaneous and comparable influence. Within six months of its printing, the Declaration of Independence was signed. One of the most traumatic events in all American history occurred during the Revolution: the "treason" of Benedict Arnold. In the 1780 issue of the Continental Almanac, a representation of his hanging in effigy was printed. The drawing dramatically conveyed the need for steadfast allegiance to the Patriot cause and made Arnold's name a symbol of special infamy ever since.

If powerful propaganda was being fashioned to achieve independence, it was also serving to preserve the new nation and mold a national character.

Lavender was once considered a token of affection.

According to tests, a mouse's favorite food is chocolate.

The cairn terrier got its name because it was skillful at digging out foxes in their lairs among the Scottish cairns, which were heaps of stones used as memorials or landmarks.

WHERE SOMEONE TRUDGED BEFORE

How deep is the snow? How rough is the terrain that lies beneath it? You can never be sure until there are footprints to follow. It is easier to make one's way through the snow where someone has trugged before.

At the heart of the Christian religion is the belief that God gave his own Son, to be our Savior... and also to be our example. The study of his life is, therefore, an important part of Christian education. Though we cannot aspire to be like Him — we can learn to meet life's challenges and crises with the same resolute courage and commitment.

Why plunge aimlessly on? Someone has shown the Way!
