Sheriff Announces For Re-Election

ORVAL EDMISTON

I would like to take this opportunity to ask the people of Schleicher County to support me in my candidacy for re-election as Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector for another term. As most people know, when this term is up I will have served the County 20 years in this capacity. This is a long time and a lot of things have happened—some good, some bad. I have tried to face the problems in a manner which would best serve the end of fair and impartial judgment in handling all sorts of problems that come to the attention of an officer and his department.

I know there are times when some people have been dissatisfied with things I have done but with the laws as they are, there are some situations for which there are no answers especially in family matters which are almost impossible to satisfy or justify. If the voters and people see fit to elect me to another term as Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector of Schleicher County I will do my best to serve all the people in an honest, fair and impartial manner. I want to thank the many friends and people for the support, help and guidance they have given me through the years because without your help and support an officer is helpless. Respectfully submitted, Orval N. Edmiston.

Arson Suspected In Fire During Holidays At The Local School

A fire which apparently smoldered much of last Tuesday night in the Eldorado school building did several thousand dollars worth of damage by the time it was discovered and brought under control by firemen early Wednesday, the day of New Year's Eve.

School custodians reporting to work at 7:00 Wednesday morning discovered the building full of smoke and summoned firemen to the scene. They used a considerable amount of water to bring the blaze under control.

Evidence of forced entry was found in a window by the lunch room which had been forced open. This led school officials and lawmen to suspect arson in the case.

Most serious damage was done to the small store room near the school administrative offices and across the hall from the doors to auditorium. The contents of the storeroom were destroyed and the woodwork in that part of the building was scorched and sustained considerable smoke damage. The school offices and some of the classrooms were smoked, which will call for future repairs.

School Supt. Guy Whitaker spent much of last week at the school supervising the assessment of damage. He was consulting with insurance adjusters.

A number of window and door glasses were broken and will have to be replaced. The plastered walls of the auditorium lobby will have to be redone and sometime in the future quite a bit of the school plant will have to be repainted.

The fire occurred in the main part of the school plant that was constructed back in 1950. The blaze apparently did no structural damage to the building, which is of steel and concrete construction. Also, Whitaker and other school personnel did not find evidence of theft of anything from premises.

School reconvered on Monday of this week on schedule, following the two weeks of vacation for Christmas and New Year's, but at considerable inconvenience to students and staff. The hallways where the fire damage was most extensive have been closed off, so that students have to go around the outside of the building.

Sheriff Orval Edmiston and his deputies and the fire marshals continued to sift evidence at the site, but had no definite report to give early this week. There are 4½ months remaining in the current school term and how much repair work can be done in the immediate future will have to be worked out.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCalla and Mrs. Roy Jones, and Mrs. Glenn Lackey and Kelsey spent Christmas in Evergreen, Colorado, visiting the Sid Penningtons.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray Stanford and sons of Vista, Calif., spent the Christmas holidays visiting home folks. Joe and Nancy and boys left late last week to return home.

Mrs. Roy Hall of Marble Falls and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McPherson also of Marble Falls spent part of the Christmas holidays visiting the Dale Cavness family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lester spent Christmas as Colorado City visiting the Bill Lesters. They spent part of the holidays visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Baumant at Kerrville.

Nursing Home Notes

Well Christmas is over for another year and we are all looking forward to the new year coming up. We all had a busy Christmas holiday; nearly everyone had visitors or went out on pass over the holidays. We had several Christmas parties. The FHA gave us a party which we enjoyed; the gifts they brought and the singing. The Baptist girls came by and sang for us and gave us some goodies to eat over the Christmas holidays. The Auxiliary party was a good time this year. Santa Claus came to see us and passed out gifts to one and all. Refreshments were served by auxiliary members, and a good time was had by all.

Bingo winners this past week were Mrs. Lizzy McAngus, Elva Daniels, Erna Rexroat, Russell Donaldson, Beulah Harris, Frank Reed and Carrie Blakeway.

We want to thank everyone for the things they did to make our Christmas a happy one. We enjoyed all the parties and all the visitors and we wish you a Happy New Year.

Electric Range

- ☆ Using your range more carefully can mean significant savings on your fuel bills. Avoid the temptation to keep opening the oven door. You lose up to 20% of the heat every time you do.
- ☆ Pre-heating the oven and baking only one dish or heating a few rolls is wasteful. With a little planning you can cook an entire meal in the oven.
- ☆ Reduce heat as soon as practical. When water is boiling, medium heat will keep it boiling. Use pans with tight-fitting lids to conserve heat.

Food Traditions At New Year

Traditionally, the New Year observance is associated with certain foods. The American Indians served acorns and salmon; the Romans honey. In Quebec, the traditional cake, Le Cateau des Rois, is served on Epiphany. The cake contains a pea and a bean and the king and queen of Twelfth Night are elected by those receiving them.

Scottish celebrators carry cakes and spiced ale to wish their host a good year. Rice cakes are served in Ceylon.

And, of course, in many sections of this country, serving black-eyed peas on January 1st is believed to assure good fortune to family and friends.

IN OLD JAPAN

In Old Japan, New Year's was a celebration that lasted for three days. Everyone donned their Sunday best and visited relatives and friends.

Green pines and bamboo adorned gateposts. Doorways were decorated with red lobsters, crabs and scarlet tangerines, symbolizing wishes for health, long life and happiness.

FIRST CABLE

January 1, 1903 was an historic first day of a New Year. On this date the cables "Silverton" arrived in Honolulu after laying 2,600 miles of cable from San Francisco. The first message was promptly cabled across the Pacific Ocean.

GREETINGS . . . Ready or not, the New Year will soon be here. Linda Sand, mermaid at Florida's Weeki Wachee reminds us they celebrate the holiday in the sunny South just as they do in areas of the country where snow is part of the seasonal scenery.

Julian Calendar

Observance of January 1 as the start of the new year began in Imperial Rome when Julius Caesar chose the date as the first day of the year on the Julian calendar.

The New Year Babe came down from the Greeks. During the festival honoring Dionysus, the nature god, an infant represented the symbol of rebirth and a baby's image figured prominently in Greece's Eleusinian Mysteries, religious rites signifying the annual decline and renewal of vegetation.

Relish Plate Sure To Please

With company sure to be coming through the New Year holiday period, keep something ready-to-serve handy in the refrigerator. Assorted relishes or salad greens may be prepared at your convenience.

Slice crab apples, pickles, olives, celery and carrot slivers, tomato wedges, unpeeled apple or pear slices, and avocado, slices or orange and grapefruit sections.

You can supplement these with assorted fruits and cheeses, arrange on platter, refrigerate until needed.

On Toasting The Holiday

Toasting the New Year is a tradition of old. In Rome it was something of a ceremony, as it was custom to drink one glass for each letter of a sweetheart's name.

While it was quite popular to toast one's sweetheart, both the Romans and Greeks were particular about toasts and who made them, who poured and what was said. The right to make a toast at public gatherings and ceremonies was a great honor, reserved for an official or other important personage.

THE TOAST

"Here's how." "Here's Looking At You." "Bottoms Up." The familiar toast to the New Year at midnight might be also the traditional "Happy New Year!"

Yet, in case you wish to offer a toast in the language of friends from other places, here is how it might be done in other lands:

Ireland—sianta mah
Scotland—hoot mon
Italy—a la salutì
Sweden-Norway—skol
Spain—salud
France—a votre sante
Germany—gesundheit
Poland—na zdrowie
China—nee hong gin
England—cheerio
Czechoslovakia—na zdar
Hebrew—lachaim
Greece—ygeia

Should you wish to be more formal, and have the time to practice, you might wish your friends from other countries the traditional "Happy New Year" in this fashion:

SHIN NEN O-ME DE TO (Japanese)
GODT NYTT Aar (Norwegian)
A GLICKLUCH NIE YUOR (Yiddish)
BLAIDHAN NUA FE MHAISE DHUIT (Irish Gaelic)
GOON HO SINN SHEE (Chinese)
GLUECKLICHES NEU JAHR (German)
BONNE ET HEUREUSE ANNEE (French)
BUON CAPO D' ANNO (Italian)
AND in English—HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Make Resolutions? Be Reasonable

If you plan to make one or more resolutions for the New Year, be reasonable. A resolution you know you will not, or cannot, keep does little for self-confidence.

Make a resolution aimed at self-improvement, one which will not require a drastic change in habits or activities.

Here are four rules you might follow:

1. Don't resolve to do anything under the pressure of a calendar date or a friend's nudge to do "something to improve yourself."
2. Do take serious stock of your problems. Try to define the source of the trouble, not merely the symptom. If you are overweight and it is due to boredom or feeling sorry for yourself, solve the problem and weight loss will be easier. If necessary, get professional advice.
3. Once you have located the source of your difficulty, find out how important a change is to you. Is it a project you can really put yourself into? If you are not convinced you really want to overcome a situation as a personal goal, your resolution probably will be worthless. Other people's prodding is a poor substitute for a personal commitment.

DIPPING CUSTOM

The "dipping" custom goes back to olden times and has nothing to do with beverages. With eyes closed, the head of the family opens the Bible and indicates a passage with his finger. The text is interpreted to indicate what lies in store for the year ahead.

1976 A.D.

Use of the notation A.D. ("in the year of our Lord") was initiated by Charles III of Germany, who affixed the symbolism to his reign in 879. The system of retroactively dating the years prior to the Saviour's birth and dedicating the succeeding years to His Glory was invented by a Monk about 532 A.D. This marked the beginning of what is termed the Christian Era.

CELEBRATION . . . In some sections of the country, fireworks often welcome the New Year. At Daytona Beach, pretty Caroline Naughton prepares to welcome 1976 with a big "boom."

CRACKER CRUSTED HAM

If you are having company over for the New Year observance, one thing is fairly certain. Through the Christmas holiday period, they have likely been served ham on more than one occasion. For a change of pace, prepare your ham differently.

CRACKER CRUSTED HAM

¾ cup finely crushed crackers	1 fully cooked ham, about 12 - 15 lbs.
2 tablespoons dark brown sugar	¾ cup corn syrup
1 teaspoon dry mustard	whole cloves
1 teaspoon grated orange rind

With rolling pin, crush crackers between waxed paper into very fine crumbs. Sprinkle with sugar, mustard and orange rind, tossing well to mix; set aside. Heat ham, uncovered on rack in shallow pan, about 10 minutes to the pound in slow oven (325°F.) or until meat thermometer registers 130°F. About 40 minutes before ham is finished, remove from oven; trim any remaining skin and discard. With sharp knife, score ham about ¾ inch deep into diamond shapes measuring 1½" x 1". Brush ham with corn syrup. Sprinkle and pat crumb mixture all over ham. Stud diamond pattern with whole cloves. Return to oven and continue heating. Let stand about 15 to 20 minutes at room temperature before carving.

Yield: Party of 12 with plenty of leftovers.
For dessert, serve a new version of an old favorite. Pineapple upside-down cake in the form of a Christmas wreath will garner your guests' attention and praise.

Remembering
For Safety & Economy
BATHROOM SAFETY
Accidents do happen all around the house, but they occur most commonly in the bathroom. To make sure that your bathroom is as safe as possible for you and your family, see how it shapes up with this bathroom safety checklist:
* Date and label all medicines and check their shelf life. Medicines used incorrectly or beyond their expiration date can be more harmful than helpful.
* Store all medicines and caustic cleaning compounds in locked cabinets to prevent accidental intake by children and pets. And, even when discarding empty and old containers, place them where your small loved ones can't get at them.

* Harsh chemical cleaners can be harmful if accidentally used improperly. Always read instructions before using any cleanser and, whenever possible, avoid using hazardous ones. For example, instead of using drain cleaners which contain dangerous lye or acid, use Drain Power, the first drain opener to use pressure to unclog sinks and bathtubs.
* Line your bathtub with a rubber mat or with decorative rubber decals to prevent falls. A handle or rod installed on the shower wall will provide extra protection, too.
* Never use electrical appliances near water or wet surfaces. If you must use them in the bathroom, be sure to unplug them when they're not being used.

New Year Date Not Always Same

While celebrating the New Year is an ancient custom, the date has not always been January 1.
During the middle ages, the date was March 25. Once the date was about June 21, the summer solstice, and again about September 21st, the autumnal equinox.
Jewish people have celebrated their New Year late in September or early October. The special occasion is called Rosh Hashanah, which means "The Feast of the Trumpets."

Charades Game For New Year

If you're looking for a New Year party game, try "Resolution Charades," a variation of the old Chinese custom of telling fortunes with bamboo sticks.
Paint a circular box (such as an oatmeal container) bright red. Fill it with straws which each contain a tightly rolled New Year resolution written on thin paper. Each player draws a straw and then acts out his resolution.
Small prizes such as chopsticks or fans may be awarded for best presentations.

Xmas Lighting = Low Cost Holiday Decor

Maybe Christmas is a good time to dispel the myth (no, not Santa Claus, Virginia) that lights are big energy users, that it is somehow unpatriotic to light up for Christmas.
Fact is that only about one per cent of the energy used in the U.S. is needed to light homes, and only a small fraction of this amount is used for home decorative holiday lighting.
Actually, a modest display of indoor and outdoor Christmas lights using about 500 watts for four hours daily adds only about six cents a day to the electric bill. (Cost is based on the national average of about 3 cents per kilowatt hour).
Gary Mason, General Electric Christmas lighting expert, suggests this "500" lighting package for the economy-minded:
INDOORS — Decorate a six-foot tree with three strings of 25 "cool" lights for a total of 75 lights. "Cool" type bulbs use fewer watts than standard bulbs and actually operate cool enough to touch. As a result, they can be used on plastic as well as live trees.
If your tree doesn't happen to be a six-footer, use this formula to determine how many lights to use: multiply the tree height in feet, times the maximum width, times three. Double this figure if you use mid-giget bulbs.
OUTDOORS — Use three 50-light midget sets to outline a door or window or to spruce up a tree. Midgets are particularly attractive in the bare branches of trees which have lost their leaves.
For a more traditional approach, light an evergreen tree or shrub.
Armed with three 50-light midget sets, a home-owner can choose between creating several displays or concentrating all 150 lights on one "spectacular."
At six cents a day for two weeks, these indoor and outdoor Christmas lighting displays (three Cool Bright 25 light sets and three 50-light Merry Midgets) would add only 85 cents to the electric bill. For three weeks... $1.27, and about $1.80 for a full month, according to Mason.
For the all-thumpers and those who prefer to let others do-it-themselves, there are lighted decorations for doors, walls or windows. GE has wreaths, large tinsel bells, even an 18-inch tree... all wired, ready to hang and light up.
To keep energy costs down this Christmas, energy-wise consumers will use efficient, lower-watt midget or "cool" bulbs, Mason said. Midgets are now available, he said, in straightline sets that are easy to install, unlike early midget sets which were looped and awkward to decorate with.
Midget light sets use only 18 watts, regardless of the number of lights they contain... 20, 35 or 50. And five 50-light sets of midgets — that's 250 lights — use less electricity than a single 100-watt bulb.
For Christmas lighting tips, write for "22 Ideas" booklet, Dept. 1180, General Electric Co., Nela Park, Cleveland, Ohio 44112.

* Plan ahead plan: casseroles of cooked dry beans freeze well to provide winter "quickie" meals. Freezing softens beans somewhat so cook the beans until barely tender for the best quality frozen product, say home economists at the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
* Next time you carpeting needs cleaning, consider this: 90% of the professional carpet cleaners now do the job by hot water extraction — often referred to as "steam cleaning". This is how the system works: hot water and detergent are injected into the carpeting under pressure and removed in a fraction of a second by a powerful vacuum, along with ground-in soil and dirt.
* Dirt is removed to the depth of the pile, say researchers at the Earl Grissmer Company — the leading marketer of rental carpet cleaning equipment (Rinsenvac). Carpeting is usually ready for use in a couple of hours.
* When washing large items — sheets and tablecloths, etc. — try to "balance" the load with small items such as pillowcases and towels. Mixed loads make for better handling in both the washer and dryer. . . Wax a dustpan and dirt will slide right off. (You can use the same trick with snow shovels. Sticky snow won't cling.)
* Keen Teen Tip: If short on cash — and, what teen-ager isn't? — and you have to give a gift, give a gift of your time — i.e., ten hours of free babysitting or house hold chores, etc. (And, a gift of yourself often means more!)

GREETING CARD

The first of the year in France is the time of the greatest festival and is to the native of France what Christmas is in America. This is the great family day and the most cherished of all red-letter days on the calendar.

The greeting card custom is more extensive in France at New Year's than it is in other countries at Christmas. It is almost a duty to mail greetings to every acquaintance. The average person will feel neglected if he does not receive at least a hundred cards.

New Year's is, in fact, a home-coming with relatives and friends, gathering for the purpose of dining and saluting the newborn year.

ABOUT CRONUS

The Greek god Cronus carried a long curving blade and ruled as lord of the universe. His descendant we know today as Father Time.

During the first month of their new year, ancient Greeks observed the festival of Antheseria. Plays, banquets, songs and dancing were the order of evenings.

The Romans welcomed the Greek festivals, with bigger parties. The Roman Saturnalia lasted from December 17 to December 23, in honor of Saturn, Roman god of agriculture, a counterpart of Cronus.

NEW YEAR'S BRUNCH

New Year's a day of casual entertaining and gatherings on the spur of the moment. It is also a day many gather for watching football games and parades.

The food should be simple, informally cooked and easy on the hostess. For snacking set out a fruit and cheese platter which goes together in a jiffy.

Do a favorite casserole ahead and ready to heat in the oven—make a salad in advance and have ready some pre-baked rolls to heat. This can be a serve-yourself day, and all on one plate. Might have a pot of coffee ready too.

COFFEE Facts & Figures
WHAT'S IN A NAME?

What are the origins of "mocha" and "java," two words long associated with coffee?

Mocha, a port on the Arabian Peninsula, was for many years the center from which most European-bound coffee was exported. Java in the East Indies has been a source of quality coffee since the start of the 18th century.

Today, more than a hundred different types of coffee beans from over fifty nations are shipped to the United States for roasting and blending. According to the National Coffee Association, our most popular beverage, when served at home, costs only about 3 cents per cup.

Pralines Are New Orleans' Historic Treat

New Orleans is famous for its many culinary delights, and pralines are probably the most well-known candy of the city. The candy was the creation of a French marshal's chef, who in an effort to satisfy the marshal's sweet tooth, coated almonds with sugar and named the confection after the marshal, Cesar du Plessis Prasline (pronounced pralin).

In the early days of this country, news traveled slowly from Paris to New Orleans, but, eventually travelers returning from France brought back the idea for the candy that Marshal Prasline's chef had developed. American cooks took it one step further, preparing a confection of pecans and brown sugar, using several nuts in each patty.

New Orleans Pralines

1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar 1/4 cup Karo light corn syrup
1/2 cup sugar 1 tablespoon margarine
1/2 cup evaporated milk (undiluted) 1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups coarsely broken pecans or walnuts

In heavy 3-quart saucepan stir together brown sugar, sugar, milk and corn syrup. Cook over very low heat (about 1 hour), stirring frequently, until temperature reaches 238°F on candy thermometer or until small amount of mixture dropped into very cold water forms a soft ball which flattens on removal from water. Remove from heat. Add margarine and vanilla. Beat about 1 minute or until well blended. Add nuts; stir until coated. Quickly drop by tablespoonfuls onto waxed paper placed on cookie sheets. When cool and set, remove from paper. Makes about 24 (3-inch) pralines.

Note: Mixture will curdle if cooked too rapidly.

energy talk

by C. R. Gardner
Consultant

It may surprise you to know that, as a nation, we use more than one-third of the world's energy each year. This, despite the fact we have only six per cent of the world's people.

Furthermore — due largely to bad habits — a sizeable portion of this energy is wasted.

We have always considered ourselves a nation of plenty — including plenty of energy. Now, we are finding out this just isn't so.

Where Will It End?

Gasoline prices continue to rise while the cost of living across the board keeps going up. Where will it all end, you ask? Well, some of the best minds in the world don't have the answer, and we don't pretend to either. It's just a shame that we didn't realize how good we had it before.

If bad habits waste energy, perhaps good habits can help turn the tide. Isn't it worth a try?

Here are more good energy-saving ideas you can easily put to use:

Energy And Appliances

Keep appliances clean and in good operating order. An inefficient appliance wastes both energy and money.

If you have an automatic dishwasher, try to wash only full loads. But, by the same token, don't "overload" an appliance.

Use the correct appliance for the job. It costs three times as much to toast bread in an oven than in a toaster.

Wash clothes in warm or cold water, rinse in cold. (If everyone did this, fuel savings would amount to the equivalent of about 100,000 barrels of oil a day. That's enough to heat 1.6 million homes in winter.)

A refrigerator or freezer will work more efficiently if located away from heating equipment and direct sunlight.

Bright Ideas

To help keep rooms warm in winter and cool in summer, it's a good idea to install reflective Sunfighter film on all windows facing the sun. The film can help cut heating costs during winter by keeping heat in that would normally escape through the window. If you would like more information on this, write me — C. R. Gardner, ICI-US, New Murphy Road, Wilmington, DE 19897.

Also, consider adding economical fluorescent lighting wherever possible. A 40-watt fluorescent lamp produces more light than a 100-watt incandescent bulb — at half the cost!

"Turnoff" should be the watchword when leaving a room. This applies — not only to lights — but to TVs, radios, stereos, etc.

Lastly, clean or replace furnace filters regularly, at least once a month.

What did I say?

Appalled now and then at the impropriety of your own remarks? We say things we really don't mean. And occasionally we say what we do mean but really shouldn't say. No church claims it can train you to say the right thing at the right time — although expressing truth, concern and kindness toward others is very much a part of Christian living. Our churches teach the Gospel of Christ which has for two thousand years inspired truth, concern and kindness. The heart of that Gospel is God's love for US and for ALL MEN. No person can hope always to say the right thing. But, generally, what we express are our convictions. Our church helps us discover and implement them!
