9A District Championship To Be Decided Here Friday

Eagle Band Takes A 1 Rating At Brady

The Eldorado Eagle Band walked off with a 1 rating with flying colors Saturday at Brady. This is the 8th consecutive year they have received a 1 rating. A lot of hard work and many hours of practice time go into making these routines ready for contests. The members are filled with pride over the band and the leadership of their Drum Major, Debbie Page. This was the 24th consecutive for Mr. McDonald to receive a 1 rating. He works hard to make the Eagle Band the best. He's loved and respected by the band and all of Eldorado. The routine was very well received by all the spectators and other band members that were at Brady. A lot of Eldorado people were in attendance and this helps the Band because they know people care.

Two of our twirlers, Margaret Powell and Vonda Maness, received medals for solo twirling, also.

WWI Veterans Honored

Honoring World War I veterans and their wives and widows, Eldorado Legionnaires Saturday morning served breakfast at the Memorial Building of sausage, eggs, biscuits, and drinks to a total of about 35 people.

This was the third annual such affair put on by the Bev McCormick Post of The American Legion. It is staged near the November 11th date of Armistice Day.

A brief program included a report by Benjie Jay who was delegate from here to Boys State in Austin last summer, sponsored by The American Legion of Texas.

Nine Years Since Sonora Defeated

It was October 22, 1964, the last time the Eldorado Eagles defeated Sonora, and the score that time was 6 to 3.

Since then Sonora Broncos have had a long string of victories and they have made State several times.

Their defeat at Mason last week prevented them from being automatic district 9A champs again this year. They now face Eldorado where Coach Quimby has a squad made up of 18 Seniors and 9 Juniors.

School Cafeteria Prices To Increase

Schleicher County Independent School District will increase lunch prices effective Monday, November 19, 1973. Several schools in our area have increased prices since school has started and will probably have another.

The following schedule will be in use Monday:

K-3 grade	40c
4-6 grade	50c
7-12 grade	60c
Adults	75c

The lack of commodities and increase in all food prices caused the necessary change. With the above schedule, the same quality meals will be served, it was stated by School Supt. Guy Whitaker.

Lions To Honor Teachers Tonight

The Eldorado Lions Club is ready to put on their annual ladies night honoring the local school administrators and teachers, and their husbands and wives. The event will be held tonight—Thursday, November 15th—in El Dorado Restaurant starting at 7:00 o'clock.

Penfield Barker, chairman of the Lions Club committee on Civic Improvement & Community Betterment, and in charge of the programs during this month of November, stated that Jim Newby of San Angelo will be the speaker. Newby is with General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Boss Lion Pat Ragsdale reports plans and arrangement complete for the event which always draws a good crowd and is a highlight of the Fall here in Eldorado.

The club will meet at noon next Wednesday, Nov. 21st, in the Memorial Building.

News Of The Sick—

Paul Page and Eldon Calk are continuing convalescence this week in Shannon hospital in San Angelo, following heart attacks.

W. F. Edmiston was confined in the hospital recently following an eye injury last week.

Mrs. Evelyn Stigler fell down the steps at the Presbyterian Church Sunday and sustained a broken bone in her elbow. She was in the local hospital early this week.

842 Bales Reported By Mikeska Gin

The season's ginning total at noon Monday was given at 842, which counted what was on the yard.

Cotton has not been coming in as fast as had been expected. Although there has been no measurable rain for several weeks, every morning has brought heavy fog and low-hanging clouds, and often chilly winds.

Often the fog is not burned away until late in the afternoon.

Claude Dittmore Dies

Claude Dittmore, 79, father of Mrs. Elton McGinnes of Eldorado, died Thursday in Bronte Hospital following a long illness.

Services were held Saturday afternoon in First United Methodist Church in Bronte, with burial in Fairview cemetery.

He was born April 13, 1894 in Tom Green county and moved to Coke county in 1939. He was a stockfarmer, a World War I veteran, and Coke County commissioner for 14 years.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Elton McGinnes of Eldorado; two sons, Raymond Dittmore of Abilene and Douglas Dittmore of Robert Lee; three stepdaughters, Mrs. D. W. Sheffy of San Angelo, Mrs. Turney Casey of Robert Lee and Mrs. Dean Taylor of Springtown; a stepson, Cecil Schooley of Brownwood; 20 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

Post Script

If the weather is at all favorable Eldorado can expect the biggest crowd in years when the Sonora Broncos come here Friday to tangle with the Eagles for District 9A championship.

—ps—
Jerroll Sanders reports that his El Dorado Restaurant will be open and prepared to serve the football crowd after the game Friday night. He says extra help has been engaged for the occasion.

—ps—
Historic note on the big game coming up Friday with Sonora... The present Eagle team members and pep squad and twirlers were all in lower elementary school the last time we beat Sonora, 'way back in 1964. That's nine years ago.

Earl Barnett was still head coach then, and we downed the Broncos 6 to 3. Since then, there has been a steady run of losing scores as the Eagles have met Sonora in the highlight game of each year's grid season of play.

Union Thanksgiving Service Set
The Ministerial Alliance is sponsoring and conducting the Community Thanksgiving Service again this year. It will be held Sunday night starting at 7:00 in the First United Methodist Church. Most local churches will dispense with their own services that night in order for their congregations to attend. The complete program is given on page 5 of this Success issue.

—ps—
While we are on the subject of the upcoming Thanksgiving season, next week's Success issue will have that as its theme with tie-in advertising from our local public-spirited merchants. We plan to have next week's paper printed Tuesday night and in the mail early Wednesday morning in order to reach our readers that day. The papers will be put in the post office boxes and delivered on the mail route Wednesday.

The Lions Club will hold their meeting at noon on Wednesday, Nov. 21st, announced Boss Lion Pat Ragsdale.

School will be dismissed at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon for Thanksgiving holidays set Thursday and Friday.

The Court House will observe Thursday and Friday of next week as holidays, so if you have any immediate business there, it should be taken care of no later than next Wednesday.

City Hall and water & gas departments will be closed Thanksgiving day and the day following.

If previous years are an indication, though, most local businesses will take just Thanksgiving Day as a holiday with most people back at work Friday morning.

—ps—
With our subscribers: Mr. and Mrs. Neal Heflin have moved from Tulsa, Okla., to apartment 45, 215 Eagle Crest Drive, Lake Oswego, Oregon 97034. She is the former Kay Frances Peters of this place.

—ps—
GIRL SCOUT TROOP 25 met Nov. 12 with Mrs. Lola Squyres as leader at the Memorial Building. We worked on the Interior Decorating badge. Jo Ann Lozano brought refreshments. —Rep.

When the Eldorado Eagles defeated Wall last Friday night 19 to 0, and—

When Mason defeated the Sonora Broncs the same night 10 to 0—

It produced a confrontation for Dist. 9A Championship which will be settled here Friday night between Eldorado and Sonora. Kick-off time is 7:30 p.m. It is the last scheduled game of the season and district championship hangs in the balance.

We Want District 9A! Do You?

If so, please support the Eagles Friday at the pep rally and Friday night at the game. The pep rally will be held in the gym at 2:30, and the game at 7:30. Please bring your spirit, enthusiasm, and team loyalty with you. Let's show the Eagles how proud we are of them!

Thank you!
—Cheerleaders

ABOUT BI-DISTRICT PLAY:

Winner of the 9A crown Friday night will meet either Bangs or Dublin or DeLeon of 10-A in bi-district play-off. The game will presumably be arranged Thanksgiving week end.

Wm. J. Burrus Dies

William "Bill" Jesse Burrus, 84, died in Hudspheth Hospital in Sonora at about 1:00 a.m. Friday morning after a long illness. Grave-side services were held in Eldorado cemetery under the direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mr. Burrus was born April 15, 1889 in Clinton, Mo. He was married to Rosa L. Stanger Feb. 10, 1917 in Colorado Springs, Colo. They lived there for two years before moving to Schleicher county in 1919 where he was engaged in ranching.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Wilma Burrus Luedecke of Eldorado; two sons, James N. Burrus of Goldthwaite and John E. Burrus of Stephenville; a brother J. T. Burrus of Mountain Home; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Social Security Meeting Set For November 15th

Representatives of the San Angelo Social Security Office will hold a meeting at the Neighborhood Center on the San Angelo Highway at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, November 15th, to acquaint the Spanish-speaking people of Schleicher County with the provisions of Supplemental Security Income, a new Federal program to begin in January to replace the present old-age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to the disabled now administered by the State Welfare Department.

The meeting will be conducted in the Spanish language in an effort to reach those persons who otherwise might not learn of the new program.

The meeting is open to the public, and all persons interested are urged to attend. Any questions about the meeting can be answered by calling the San Angelo Social Security Office at 949-4608.

VISIT FROM MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Johnson from Guadalajara, Old Mexico, and their son, Tom E. Johnson of Midland, Denny Johnson from California and daughter Elaine Dittmar of New Jersey, and sister Mrs. O. R. Burden of Wichita Falls, all visited Mrs. W. N. Ramsay recently in Hudspheth Nursing Home in Sonora.

Eagles Down Wall By 19-0 Score

The Eldorado Eagles moved within one game of district championship last Friday defeating the Wall Hawks by a score of 19-0.

Mort Mertz made it across the line on a one-yard burst in the first period.

Lineman Frank Martinez broke through snatching the football from the Wall quarterback turning it into a 75-yard touchdown romp. Both conversion attempts failed. The Eagles took a 12-0 lead into the dressing room.

The third quarter saw no scoring as neither team was able to push across.

Mike Manning put the final score on the board insuring the win for the Eagles.

Among the defensive standouts was Gary Warnock replacing the ailing Roy Lloyd.

This win gives Eldorado a 6-2-1 standing in 1973 and moves the district mark to 3-0-2. The Mason Punchers helped the Eagles in the district combat as they knocked off district leaders, Sonora, by a score of 10-0.

Statistics:

Eldorado:	Wall:
13	First downs 10
221	Yards rushing 133
57	Yards passing 56
278	Total yards 189
4-14	Passes 4-9
1	intercepted by 1
1-35	Punts-ave. 43.25

Sonora To Enter 2A District Next Year

Realignment of districts for football took place recently, and Sonora will be a double-A school for the 1974 and '75 seasons.

During that time, the Eagles will play Sonora earlier in the season in non-district play, along with Rankin, Ozona, Iraan and Winters.

Remaining in 9A District with Eldorado will be Junction, Wall, Mason, and Menard and Robert Lee.

Edgar Sauer Presented 1st Bale Award By Lions

At the meeting last week of the Eldorado Lions Club, Edgar Sauer was presented a hat and gift certificate for bringing in the first bale of cotton in the county earlier in the season.

At the same meeting, a film "I Run Too Often" on the subject of home fire prevention, was shown.

The club did not meet Wednesday of this week in lieu of the ladies night set for Thursday night November 15th, honoring teachers.

BURKS BACK FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Lum Burk returned to Eldorado Thursday from Augusta, Ga., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim McWhirter. While there they attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Cathy McWhirter, to Franklin O. Smith. They also visited in Houston with Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Whitlen and Louise Wilkins, and with Bryan Whitten at Keesler AFB in Biloxi, Miss.

Jimmy Lloyd Injures Eye

Jimmy Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lloyd, sustained an eye injury Tuesday of last week. Jimmy has been in the Shannon hospital and returned home Monday of this week and is reported to be making good improvement with the injured eye.

Congressman O. C. Fisher Announces He Will Not Seek Re-Election In 1974

After serving in Congress for a third of a century, O. C. Fisher of San Angelo and Junction announced last week that he will not be a candidate for re-election in 1974. His sprawling 21st District extends from Big Lake on the west, to San Antonio on the southeast, a distance of about 350 miles.

The 70-year-old Democrat underwent open heart surgery in Houston earlier this year. In announcing his plans to retire to private life, Fisher cited health reasons for his decision not to run again in '74.

Fisher's action means that the 21st District will have an "open race" for the Congress post next year, both in the Democratic primary and the General Election and already some speculation is going on about who prospective candidates will be.

Fisher was serving as district attorney in San Angelo in 1942 when he ran against and defeated the late Charles South of Coleman who was the incumbent Democrat. At that time Tom Green and adjacent counties comprised the 21st District, and Congressman's job then paid $10,000 a year, a sizable sum in those days.

Recent approval of "Plan B" re-districting for Congressional district boundaries means that the present far-flung district will remain substantially the same, with about half of the district's voters concentrated in northern Bexar county adjacent to San Antonio. At present Congressmen are paid $42,500 a year. Some economists point out that when the "fringes" are added, the pay is equivalent to about $51,000 a year. Fisher will retire on a $30,000 a year Congressional pension.

Fisher served on the Armed Services committee. He claimed credit for preventing the closing of the bases at Del Rio and San Angelo.

Fisher has had a conservative voting record during his long tenure in Congress. He was returned to office more or less automatically until 1970 when he was forced into some unaccustomed campaigning. That year Dick Gill of San Antonio ran against him as Republican nominee and staged a well financed campaign. He came up with the rather original campaign slogan of "Oust Ovie."

In 1972, Republican Doug Harlan, professor of political science

long-time Congressman to retire and also of San Antonio, ran a good race for the office.

Several are expected to throw their hats in the ring for the job in the months ahead, in the Democratic and Republican primaries, which undoubtedly will mean a contest in the General Election a year from now.

State Sen. Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio is expected to announce at some future time. Other Democratic contenders may be State Rep. Frank Lombardino, San Antonio; State Rep. John Poerner, Hondo; former state legislator Jake Johnson, San Antonio; freshman State Sen. Nelson Wolf, San Antonio and Glenn Read, San Antonio advertising executive.

Four Republicans who may seek the post are Harlan and Gill, the previous contenders; also Henry Cotto, former ambassador to El Salvador and brother-in-law of Democratic Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby; also State Rep. James Nowlin has been mentioned. All are from San Antonio.

San Antonio and northern Bexar county will have considerable influence in the election to name Fisher's successor in office, since so many of the 21st District voters live there. Fisher's term in office has seen the 21st go from a rural constituency to the present urban one.

Use Right-Sized Tools With Tractors

Overloading can be a problem, even with large tractors. Whether it's a 100 horsepower two-wheel drive model or a 300 horsepower four-wheel drive monster, a tractor has a limitation on the load it can handle without damage to the engine, transmission, clutch, transmission, and other power train components.

It's natural to think big tractors can pull almost any equipment, but oversizing the machine behind the tractor can lead to problems. The tool may not operate fast enough for the desired results. Or you may not have enough power to run the implement at the proper depth.

For best results, moldboard plows, stubble mulch plows, disk harrows, chisels, field cultivators and most other tillage tools should be run at 4 to 5.5 miles per hour.

It's much better to use the correct size tool and to be able to pull it at the proper speed under all field conditions than to use oversized equipment.

When equipment is too big for the tractor, the work the tool does is lower quality. An operator may be tempted to overload the tractor and "lug" his way through tough spots. This leads to major breakdowns, expensive repair jobs and unavailability of equipment when you need it most.

Although powerful, large tractors can be abused by overloading.

When overloaded, the engine speed falls off well below that specified by the manufacturer. And the torque increase produces vibrations and substantial overloading of the crankshaft, clutch, transmission and other power train components.

Big December Show For Pecan Growers

San Angelo, Tex. (Special)—The eighth West Texas Regional Pecan Show is Dec. 13-14-15 at Odessa, said economist Robert H. Kensing of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

To be in Winnwood Mall, the show will include classes for all named varieties as well as competition for "heaviest pecan," "highest percent kernel," "collection of three varieties" and "collection of six varieties."

Kensing, chairman of the annual show, said the native (seedling) pecans were to be grouped in a separate class. He also said pecans from yard trees were not only eligible, but have been state winners in previous years.

Entries in the Odessa show may consist either of pecans already awarded ribbons in a county show, or of those submitted by growers living where there are no county shows (open entries that must number 40 pecans).

Samples that have already won in a county show should number at least 30 pecans, 10 of which will be processed for judging.

All entries should be sent to Maurice W. Black, County Extension Agent, 201 Courthouse, Odessa, Texas 79761, by 5:00 p.m., Dec. 10.

In the time between now and mid-December, pecans from over Texas will be exhibited in 30 county shows and three regional shows. Regional winners are eligible for competition in the Texas State Pecan Show in 1974.

TO CONDUCT SERVICE SUNDAY

First Baptist church, of which Rev. Kenneth Vaughan is pastor, will have charge of the service this Sunday afternoon, Nov. 18th, at the Nursing Home here in Eldorado.

It's a new Land Bank serving a new agriculture in new ways

Over the next ten years, agriculture will require a minimum of $60 billion in new financing to meet unprecedented changes and challenges. Because there is a Federal Land Bank—created to insure an abundance of capital at reasonable rates—you can have more confidence this need for credit will be met.

The Land Bank will continue to obtain loan funds in the nation's money markets on the very best terms it can. It will continue to make financing available to farmers and ranchers at reasonable cost. And with increased flexibility now permitted by the Farm Credit Act, it will help more people in more ways.

Today, more than ever, you should understand the operation of your Federal Land Bank. If you are not an Association member, let's get acquainted. If you are a member, let's get better acquainted. Let's work together... to build a secure place for you and your family in a viable, prosperous agriculture.

Two Wildcats Slated For This County

Schleicher county drew two wildcats last week.
Suburban Propane Gas Corp., San Antonio, will drill a 7,200-foot wildcat in Schleicher county, 5 1/2 miles southwest of Eldorado, four miles west of Canyon gas production in the Eldorado (Canyon gas and Wolfcamp oil) field and five miles south of the Page Ranch (Strawn) gas field. It is the No. 1 Luke Thompson.
Location is 1,220 feet from the north and 1,320 feet from the east lines of 141-A-WTRR, Abst. 442.
It is also 3/8 mile southwest of Delta Drilling Co. and Pauley Petroleum Inc., No. 1 Cox, a 7,285-foot failure, abandoned Nov. 7, 1969, after testing through perforations at 6,680-768 feet.

Second Venture
Fortune Drilling Corp., San Angelo, announced location for a 5,600-foot Strawn wildcat in Schleicher county, 15 miles northeast of Eldorado and 1 5/8 miles west-southwest of the lone Strawn oil producer and 1 3/8 miles west-southwest of 4,820-foot Strawn gas production in the Otto field, but separated by a 4,877-foot failure. It is the No. 1 Robinson.
Frank Caraway Drilling Co., San Angelo, will be the contractor.
Location is 660 feet from the south and 1,980 feet from the east lines of 52-I-GH&SA.
It is also 1/2 mile south of McClure Oil Co. No. 1 Robinson, a 5,478-foot failure, abandoned April 13, 1971. It recovered 30 feet of 39 gravity oil and 90 feet of oil and gas-cut mud on a drillstem test at the Canyon at 4,605-80 feet, flowed gas at the rate of 265,000 feetcubic feet on a test at 4,795-805 feet; recovered 15 feet of gas-cut mud on a test at 5,220-252 feet; and recovered 1,200 feet of gas, 200 feet of heavily oil- and gas-cut mud and 200 feet of salt water on a test of the lower Strawn at 5,460-575 feet. It was taken over by Fortune Drilling which set 4 1/2-inch casing at 4,900 feet and tested the Canyon through perforations at 4,615-19 feet.

Deceptive Operators Lead To Complaints
by John L. Hill, Attorney General Austin, Tex.—Usually, when a new scheme for taking advantage of people who have managed to put away a few hard-earned dollars comes on the horizon, it is short-lived.
Some of these schemes are referred to commonly as "con" games because the originators or practitioners are "confidence men" who have the type of personality or spiel to gain the average person's trust, and convince that person that he stands a chance to "get rich quick."
But the consumer's confidence threshold drops to zero as soon as he or she begins to suspect that not only is there no pot of gold at the end of the "con man's" rainbow, but the savings invested in a fraudulent investment program are endangered.
As soon as the dream dust veeps, the deluded consumers begin to complain, and about the time they do, the purveyors of dreams begin to disappear, along with the money they have taken.
The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division staff often has observed that just about the time a rash of complaints springs up about one deceptive practice, the operators have begun to pack up to play their game in another state. Or they may turn up later as the objects of another type of complaint.
That is the reason, as we have stated previously, that we are working for co-ordination of consumer protection efforts between Texas and other states and Texas and the federal government—to put operators out of business entirely.
Obviously, Texas consumers who had been lured into deceptive commodities futures options schemes had reached their saturation point by the end of August.
They have complained of losing large sums of money from purported purchases of "options" on commodities such as silver, grain and other items important to international trade. The hit was that the self-styled dealers did not have any claim to or control of the options they were offering.
When this problem came to the specific attention of our office, the Attorney General's staff immediately started working on this problem with the State Securities Board. On September 13, we issued a joint declaration that commodities futures options are securities, and therefore must be licensed and regulated by the state.
I appointed a special investigatory task force headed by Joe K. Longley, chief of my Consumer Protection Division, and Bill Flanary, as assistant attorney general who has specialized in securities cases. Their work and efforts by other state, local and federal enforcement groups led Dallas District Judge Dee Brown Walker to convene a

High Percentage of Grasses in Native State

Native Grasses
Bill Rountree, Dist. Conservationist Soil Conservation Service
One of the rarest sights in Texas or in West Texas—range vegetation in virtually its native state—can be seen on the late Will L. Isaacs ranch some 20 miles east of Eldorado. With the exception of a few old timers, not many people living today have seen the native grasses growing as they did when the buffalo and antelope roamed these rangelands.
Bill Rountree, District Conservationist working on the ranch recently observed the improved condition and noted that it is approaching the condition it was in its native state. At the time I was helping the owner revise her conservation plan in cooperation with the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District.
Isabella McCutcheon, owner of the ranch, has rested the pasture for the past several years except for the grazing of wildlife. Rest and deferment can be given the credit for the appearance of an abundance of sideoats grama, blue-stems, Texas cropgrass, and green sprangletop as well as a lot of other good native grasses and forbs.
If all the pasture were like certain parts of the pasture, the pasture could support 43 animal units without injury to the grass—636 acre pasture. However, as in most other range units, due to past use, not all of the total acreage has the high potential of productivity growing on it.

A survey of the pasture showed 65-70% of the composition to be of the original native grasses on the sites in some parts of the pasture. The only alterations in the vegetation from the supposed native state on some sites in the pasture is the intrusion of scattered mesquite and pricklypear—very little needlegrass.
Mrs. McCutcheon's conservation plan for the ranch is to add water and cross fence the pasture so she can carry out a deferred rotation grazing system and allow the pastures to continue to improve and get even clover to their native-state. She plans to run cattle on the place.
Her operation calling for deferred rotation grazing will be of benefit to deer and turkey as she is a wildlife enthusiast. She says she expects deferred grazing along with conservation grazing to assist in controlling erosion while helping the palatable grasses make their maximum growth on the ranch.

There are legitimate futures contracts in the commodities field being offered through members of the Chicago Board of Trade and members of stock exchanges who engage in a highly sophisticated level of accounting in international trade.
These regulated brokers would be quick to caution you against banking all your assets on the hope of "getting rich quick" in a speculative market.
Beware of anyone who tries to sell you on "a sure thing."

court of inquiry on the commodities options business, now in progress.

In the meantime, two other Dallas trial courts have upheld our declaration that commodities futures options are securities subject to regulation, but an Austin court has decided to the contrary.
Our efforts are aimed at protecting Texans from commodities options offers which are misleading; some of which may be deceptive to a criminal degree.

EUROPE
Based on a similarity of coastal outlines, some scientists believe that the Americas were once a part of Europe, which floated away from its moorings.

Eighteenth century ladies sometimes cinched their waists in so tightly they suffocated.

Where We Live
Our early New England and Southern towns took the forms we still admire because all land, private and public, had to fit the community plan for growth.
Later, this early American tradition was lost, and urban sprawl followed.
America's architects believe we must re-learn the lessons of our forefathers and give our citizens the right to adopt new land-use policies to create the communities they want.

The Roadrunner—

Like a fast traveling, forever on the move roadrunner, blundering and beeping into all aspects of life, so may this article and any subsequent ones to follow in your paper be. "THE ROADRUNNER" column, just as the bird itself, will be covering a tremendous area, being especially located in the southwest. However, it too, as we often find ourselves, may be misplaced, unsure, troubled, or full of laughing beeps and on the run, having fun.

"THE ROADRUNNER," hopefully will be known for the definite point of its "TALES," whether it be humor, patriotism, inspirational, or tales purely for the sake of a "tale" (with a point, however). If successful, it could prove to be a mirror for us to better ourselves, and a doorway, so we can open up ourselves, our feelings, and our lives to other people, and to God.

The writer's identity will be unknown AS PRESIDENT, and sole member of the "PECOS RIVERS RIGHTERS CLUB." I take the stand of EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE, to remain silent concerning my identity, my personal affairs (business, mind you), and any taped conversations I may have had with any of you. This is necessary for the protection and maintenance of high esteem for the office I hold. Also for my protection and safety if these tales should come to an abrupt END. But I'll possibly have no fear for at least another year, until Halloween "un" ROLLS, and ROLLS, and ROLLS around. It's an "issue" that happens in most towns.

"The younger generation" people are constantly saying, "Why, this '73 Halloween I didn't expect eggs to be thrown, what with the price of eggs now-a-days!" And with so many shortages many did not expect houses to be rolled. "The things the younger generation does" is always talked about, but what about the good ole days that you and I have been through . . . which were so full of pranks that we would be appalled at if they were done today. There's always the story of the stealing of "out houses" with a voice from inside saying, "Hey, set me back down."

My most remembered Halloween experience happened while I was in college and in a large city. Three of us were riding around in a convertible with the top down, to eliminate the sound of the doors opening and closing. We were out to see just how many pumpkins we could, ugr, "borrow." Our group consisted of the driver, my roommate and myself. We alternated houses and my turn was coming up. They stopped about a block away; I hopped over the side and they drove around the block expecting to come back finding me with at least ONE pumpkin. I went from tree to tree sneaking up to the house. Their outside porch light was on and ALL was quiet . . . From my last tree of safety I sighted not one, but two pumpkins just waiting for the pickin's. I slowly tip-toed to the closest pumpkin, bent down and picked it up . . . as I straightened up, I stood eye-ball, to eye-ball with the lady of the house. We both stared at each other for about 30 seconds, neither of us spoke, I merely bent BACK down, replaced the merchandise, turned and walked away toward the all too slowly approaching get-away car. To this very day, I can still vividly remember that silent stare, my loss of speech, and running ability, plus the heart stoppage . . . I definitely wasn't a roadrunner at that moment. What were your good ol' days like compared to the mid paper "un" rolling of today? Egg throwing? I've never cared for, but this year I went all over town from house to house with my vacuum cleaner and was thankful for Halloween . . . as for me and my household, we'll have scrambled eggs for the next year, even with an egg or gas ration!

Limit Home Freezing

Home freezers may balk if loaded with too much unfrozen food at one time. Add only the amount of food that will freeze within 24 hours—in other words, about two or three pounds per cubic foot of freezer space.

For example, add no more than 40 pounds of unfrozen food at one time in a 12 cubic foot freezer.

Few home freezers can lower meat temperatures fast enough to assure top quality. For best results—and least drain on the home freezer—sharp freeze meats at a locker plant where equipment is built for the job. Then transfer the frozen product to a home freezer.

Even freezing a large quantity of fruits and vegetables can overload a freezer.

If a freezer can't cool fast enough to sharp freeze a big load, the entire unit's temperature rises. Consequently, any stored frozen food becomes warmer—damaging its quality.

So, add foods in small quantities to a home freezer to maintain quality of the product. Or, sharp freeze it at a locker plant and use the home freezer as only a storage place.

Frozen Ingredients

Recipes often call for chopped, grated, diced or minced ingredients. Do this time-consuming work ahead of time—then freeze the various ingredients until needed.

For example, grate cheese a pound or two at a time. One pound makes about four cups grated cheese. Measure it in one-cup units—or in amount wanted most often.

Place cheese in air-tight containers or wrap in moisture-vapor-resistant plastic wrap, and freeze. American process cheese freezes well.

Chop a pound or two of onions at a time, either with a knife or in a blender for finely chopped pieces. Wrap in 1/2-cup or 1/4-cup units in air-tight plastic wrap.

Place packages in a glass freezer jar that can be tightly closed, to keep the onion odor from escaping, and freeze.

Green peppers also can be chopped and frozen. Mince parsley and then put in the freezer. Both should be packaged in convenient-sized units, then placed in air-tight containers.

Keep bread crumbs on hand in the freezer, too. Save bread heels until you have several. Crumb them in the blender, or between two sheets of wax paper with a rolling pin.

Store in an air-tight freezer container. If preferred, lightly butter the heels before crumbling to make buttered crumbs.

PAR-TEE NEWS—

Due to the damp, cool weather, not enough players showed up to have the annual playday for turkeys before Thanksgiving.

Those playing played the regular mixed foursome playday.

Winning first place were: Ernestine Hext, Delbert Taylor, Tim Terry, and W. Crippin.

Just one place of prizes were given since just two teams played. Maybe this weather will clear and everyone get over their colds and more players will be out.

The course is in great shape. We had 3 players from San Angelo Saturday. —Happy Golfing.

Cotton harvesting progressed significantly, approaching full capacity early this week, but inclement weather slowed it during the latter part of the week; reports B. B. Manly, Jr., in charge of the USDA's Abilene Cotton Classing Office. The Abilene Classing Office processed 52,000 samples during the week ending November 10, bringing the season total to 125,000 samples.

The quality of the samples classed showed some improvement. This week 56% were in white grades, and 45% were light spotted. This compares to 45% white and 56% with light-spotted grades the previous week. Grade 41 was the predominant grade at 28%. Twenty-four per cent was grade 42, and 15% was grade 51. Bark reductions declined from 24 to 19% this week.

Does Vegetable Gardening Pay?

Now is the time to begin thinking about a vegetable garden for next year.

Better tasting vegetables, a good form of relaxation and an ecological return to the land are some of the reasons for home gardening. An even more important reason is to combat the rising cost of living.

It is pointed out that the economical feasibility of home gardening is indicated by figuring the cost and returns for a simple garden. Assume tomatoes were successfully grown in a row four feet wide and 25 feet long. At an ideal spacing of 2 1/2 feet between plants, 10 plants could be grown in this area and could be expected to produce an average yield of six pounds of fruit per plant. The total yield would be 60 pounds.

The value of the tomato crop figured at the price paid a store for the same amount of produce (35 cents a pound) would be $21. Money expended on the garden would include the following: seed, 25 cents; fertilizer (20 lbs.), $1.50; insecticide and fungicide, $2; and water, $3. Total cost of the tomato garden would be approximately $6.75. Net earnings on the plot of tomatoes would be about $14.25.

Higher yields would mean increased earnings. On the other hand, a crop loss could result in a minus net value, and the same could be true for excessive costs. Labor inputs and crop value are other factors which must be considered in order to get a true picture of the value of a home garden.

Information on soil preparation, planting, variety selection, watering, insect and disease control, and general cultural practices is available at the county Extension office.

Montgomery Attending College On East Coast

Phillip B. Montgomery is a Freshman student at Coastal College, at Conway, South Carolina, and was recently written up in the student newspaper, The Chanticleer. He is a grandson of Mrs. Nan Montgomery of this place.

The article states that he is a Freshman majoring in Engineering. He is married to the former Jean Suggs of Loris, S. C., and they have a small son, Patrick, better known as "Tooter."

Phillip graduated from EHS in 1966 and subsequently served in the Air Force and he met his future wife while stationed at Myrtle Beach Air Force Base. He drives a red Volkswagen with a sticker on the rear window, "Goat Ropers Need Love Too." Goat Roper is an affectionate name for a Texan.

CUNNINGHAM YOUTH PARTICIPATING IN STATE VOICE CONTESTS, NEW MEXICO

Dan Cunningham

Dan Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cunningham, Jr., 2410 Loma Drive, Artesia, New Mexico, who competed in the vocal solo division of the Southeast District of the New Mexico Teachers Association in Hobbs has qualified for the state level competition. This audition will be held at the state convention in Hobbs.

Cunningham, a member of the 1974 graduating class of the Artesia High School, will sing selections from the required repertoire of the Music Teachers National Association which will include the following: "Vouchsafe, O Lord," from Handel; "Dettingen Te Deum," one selection from the early English classics; an art song from French or German repertoire of the 19th or 20th century, to be sung in the original language; and one song from the repertoire of the 20th century by an English or American composer.

He is being coached by Miss Linda Johnson, director of the Artesia High School choral department. A prime factor in qualifying for this competition is a knowledge of theory on the college level, which is determined by a written test preceding the vocal auditions.

Dan also auditioned and qualified, along with four other piano students in New Mexico, to receive a Master Class lesson from Dr. Stephen Bardas. Dr. Bardas, the NMMTA convention clinician and recitalist, is currently Artist-in-Residence at North Texas State University.

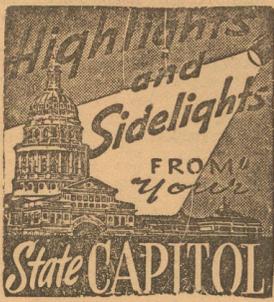

Students will compete in scales, oral theory, and performance on the Annual Student Affiliate Day at the convention. Dan will be competing in the oral theory and performing in a piano ensemble. All students will be entertained at a banquet in their honor, with Dan serving as Co-Master of Ceremonies. Following this will be the concert of award winners in vocal and piano. Winners of this state competition will continue to the Southwest Division Conference in Nevada.

Active in the choral and drama groups of the Artesia High School, young Cunningham is a proficient pianist, a pupil of Vergine Gates, who will present him in a senior piano recital in the spring.

Many community groups have been entertained by Cunningham with his guitar and vocal selections. The Cunningham family are members of the Church of Christ.

Dan is the grandson of Mrs. Lucille Jackson of Eldorado.

Austin, Tex.—Outlook for a bleak winter grew steadily worse as the energy crisis mounted.

Speed limit reductions and year-around daylight savings time, recommended by President Richard Nixon, may be some of the milder results.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, assessing the president's proposals and reaction of other states before announcing his own program, said gasoline rationing is an "eventuality that will have to be considered."

Grimmest of all was Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Langdon's forecast: "Some people in Texas are going to be cold this winter." Those who use butane, propane or electricity for their heating are the ones most likely to get the shivers, said Langdon.

Middle distillate fuels, used primarily to generate electricity—and of increasing importance due to the shortage of natural gas—may also be in short supply as much as 400,000 barrels daily, according to Langdon's estimate.

Meanwhile, the Nixon administration altered previously-announced allocation policies to allow middle distillate suppliers to provide Texas customers diesel fuel, fuel oil and kerosene without limit through November.

Even in the reprieve from mandatory allocations, there was an implied warning to Texas electric utility companies: come December they may be running short of fuel oil, since allocation formulas are based on 1972 purchases. Most Texas utilities, used to plenty of natural gas, didn't use much fuel oil to fire their boilers in 1972.

Things apparently are going to get a lot worse before they get better on the energy front.

Pay Amendment Defeat Assessed

For the fifth time in eight years Texans voted down a pay raise for legislators, and assessments of the reason why varied widely.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. and others concluded that the vote on the $15,000-annual-pay annual-sessions amendment was due to "tragic events at the national level that have crushed public confidence in our political and governmental systems."

Not so, said Republican gubernatorial candidate Jim Granberry, who maintained lawmakers asked too much salary and made an error in coupling the pay raise issue with that of annual sessions.

Granberry suggested voters will approve $8,000 to $10,000 salaries and limited annual sessions with proper leadership support and a clear presentation.

At any rate, Texans undoubtedly will get to ballot on the issue again in some form after next year's constitutional convention. Most-likely proposal will be creation of a commission of citizens, as recommended by the Constitutional Revision Commission, to set salaries of lawmakers and other state officials. Prospects for the kind of unlimited annual legislative sessions recommended by the Revision Commission dimmed with results of the November 6 election.

New Insurance Hearing Set
 Life insurance policy price disclosure and cost comparisons will be considered at a public hearing here November 27.

The State Insurance Board is then expected to review a model rule covering "life insurance interest-adjusted cost comparison indexes."

While the Insurance Board does not set prices of life insurance policies, it does police misleading and deceptive sales practices. Board Chairman Joe Christie said calculation of life insurance costs through the cash-surrender value doesn't always show true cost to purchasers.

Laredo Grant Approved

A $306,894 grant was approved by the U. S. Department of Labor to help Laredo ease unemployment problems caused by closing of Laredo Air Force Base.

The total includes $217,294 for institutional training of 90 in five occupations, and $89,000 will be used for on-the-job training of 160 in four different occupations.

Short Snorts . . .

The 1974 Southern Governors' Conference will be held at Lakeway resort near Austin September 8-11.

Attorney General Hill defended minimum requirements for candidates to get on the ballot in a hearing before the U. S. Supreme Court.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White warned of a four million ton agricultural fertilizer shortage next spring.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby said a controversy between doctors and laymen over control of Health Maintenance Organizations must not be allowed to deny health care coverage under the proposed new HMO system.

Texans' estimated personal income declined 3% in September from an August peak of a 177.5% of the 1967 base value.
