It is a pleasure to roll out the welcome mat to Mickey Rathbone as he joins forces with the golf links. We trust that you, Mickey, will enjoy and participate in the fellowship of Eldorado Golf Club in the days ahead.

I believe that most of our group is back on the "mend." Lum and Ona Burk have returned to Eldorado and Lum has been on the course several times. Also Louise Wilkins (The Burks' daughter) is improving physically as she visits her parents.

Tiny Godwin has received good reports from the doctor and is really making progress. I saw him swing that walking cane the other day so believe he is beginning to practice.

Juanita Taylor is home and happily on the road to good health once again.

Paul Page is back at the office (limited time per day) and plans now to be back on the course about May 1st.

Mixed Team Play will be at 1:30 p.m. this Sunday (Feb. 10). One other thing about these plays—you do not need to have a partner—and/or team. Just come out, pay your $1.00, and get your name in the "pot". You will be paired with other players to make up the team. Play begins at 1:30 so you should be out about 1:15 to get yourself entered in the tournament.

"They say" in Spring a young man's fancy turns to love so I guess "we can say" an old man's fancy turns to golf. At least that would seem to be true with so many on the course on these pretty springlike days. (Of course there are young men and women on the course too.) I think there were about 30 golfers out this past Sunday—some visitors and guests along with regular club members. Perhaps this would be a good time for the membership chairman to make some contacts and boost the membership.

We have received some shipments of materials and parts for construction of the two new holes to be put in behind Derrick's hangar. I have not heard of a specific date when construction will begin, but am sure it will be in the near future.

In case we have some readers who are interested in a membership in Eldorado Golf Club, I'll give some information regarding same. The annual dues for one family membership is $40. This $40 may be paid semi-annually or quarterly so long as a full $40 is paid. If you would just like a three month membership for the summer months the dues will be $20. The board of directors have established that no $10—one quarter only—memberships will be accepted except for high school golf team members.
Green fees at the present time are $1 on week days and $1.50 on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

If you participate in the 2nd and 4th Sunday Mixed team plays and are NOT a member of the club, then you will be expected to pay green fees plus your $1.00 entry fee for the special tournament play.

Our first tournament, the Men's Club Championship, scheduled for April 20-21 is for Club members only. I believe this is the only closed event that we have in the local club. Visitors and guests are welcome to participate in other events upon payment of green fees, and/or entry fees where applicable.

Congratulations to Carrol Ratliff for making an Eagle on #14—a 390 yard par 4 hole—at San Angelo Country Club recently. I hear tell if the ball had not tipped a tree limb, that second shot would not have had a chance! That's great Carrol!! Keep up the good shots!

The Eldorado Lions Club held their meeting Wednesday at noon and Phil Olson brought the program.

Filing Deadline Passes With Three Local Candidates Unopposed

The filing deadline passed at 6:00 p.m. on Monday for candidates in the May 4 Democratic Primary, and on that day Dick Preston received applications from Gene McCalla who is now in the Precinct 2 Commissioner's race, and David Meador who announced for Precinct 4 Commissioner.

The local races are now "squared away" as shown in the column at the bottom of this page. Justice of Peace B. L. Blakeway, Treasurer A. G. McCormack, and Jim Thornton, candidate for County & District Clerk, are the only unopposed local candidates.

Cantata Rehearsals To Start Wednesday

Rehearsals by the Community Choir on the Easter cantata will begin this coming Wednesday night, Feb. 13th, in the First Baptist Church under direction of Mrs. Lucille McWhorter.

Singers from all churches are invited to attend. The cantata presented by the choir just before Christmas was well received and this one should be equally so. The cantata will be given the night of April 7th, which is Palm Sunday, in the Baptist church with the entire community attending.

The rehearsals will continue each week during the coming 2 months until the April 7 presentation.

Youth Supper Set

A youth supper and meeting for the youth of the several churches will be held this Sunday evening, Feb. 10, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Page. Dr. Andrew Edgington will speak.

Initial Services Held In Remodeled Quarters

The remodeled and renovated auditorium was in use for services for the first time this last Sunday, following the $50,000 renovation that started last Fall.

Work included removal of the old-fashioned "wavy" plaster from walls, insulating of the outer walls, the sheet rocking and paneling of the interior. The stained glass windows were re-leaded and re-mounted and carpet was laid throughout. Most recent phase of work was the installation of the new pews just last week.

Plans call for an open house to be held at some future time.

GIRLS PERFORM TUESDAY

Mrs. Shannon Harber's 5th and 6th grade girls gave a performance between games at the gym Tuesday night. It was the semi-final game of the season with the Sonora teams here.

Post Script

It was relief and a happy event last Friday afternoon when a freight truck backed up to our rear door and the driver reported that he had a full ton of newsprint paper for the Eldorado Success.

We had just printed and mailed The Success for the date of Thursday, January 31st, and over on the floor remained one last bundle that would have been sufficient for our next paper—the one you are reading now for Thursday, Feb. 7th.

We were that close to running out. One of our own crew happily helped the truck driver to unload the 20 bundles and stacked them up neatly in two piles.

This shipment came from Canada and was part of a carload destined to our wholesale house, Nationalwidt Papers, in San Antonio.

What we have on hand now should last us up to August.

The Canadian mills have improved the packaging of their paper. The 20 bales we got were stacked in two groups of 10 each. They were stacked on two wooden crates high enough to use a fork lift.

When the ton was delivered the two wooden crates were tossed out in our back yard.

If anyone can use this lumber for kindling—or whatever—come by and pick it up before we burn it.

Sanctuary Remodeling Given Go-Ahead

At a recent congregational meeting, approval was given for renovating and decorating of the church sanctuary. The choir is to be relocated to one side, the piano and organ will be moved, new light fixtures and stained glass windows will be put in, and the walls and trim will be repainted and restained. Work is to get under way soon.

The Women of the Church are observing the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial for Missions, February 10-17.

Presbytery of Tres Rios PCUS was to meet in University Church, El Paso, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Wendell Stewart To Give Address Sunday

Guest speaker for the service Sunday morning, Feb. 10, will be Mr. Wendell Stewart from Midland. He was co-ordinator of the Lay Witness Mission held at the church six months ago. Don't miss this service for laymen, by a layman. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon following the service.

The central heating and air conditioning system has been installed on the lower floor of the parsonage, and is now in use. The brick parsonage is now 29 years old and this is the latest improvement.

The Bible study class met at 7:00 Wednesday evening, followed at 8:00 by an Administrative Board meeting with Ed Meador presiding.

Brucellosis Program Explained

Livestock producers in Schleicher county will have a definite interest in the 1974 Texas Brucellosis Eradication Program, which officially began January 15.

Texas became "modified-certified" in August, 1973, which meant that less than 5% of the cattle herds and less than 1% of the cattle were infected. The new plan will make Texas a Brucellosis-free state.

Brucellosis, commonly called Bangs, is a costly, contagious disease of livestock that may also affect human beings. The disease in humans is known as undulant fever. Although it may attack most farm animals, it is more common in cattle, swine and goats. Herds with brucellosis may produce as much as 20% less milk and 40% fewer calves. Thus millions of dollars are lost across the state each year.

The new program is designed to locate the infection, contain it and assist the owner of infected animals to eliminate the disease. Three different methods are used to locate infections: Brucellosis Ring Test for dairy herds, Market Cattle Test of all breeding cattle slaughtered, and Blood Test of all breeding cattle exchanging ownership.

All infected and exposed cattle are quarantined and their movement is limited to slaughter only. Blood testing procedures are used to assist owners of infected herds to free their cattle of the disease.

All cattle, except steers, spayed heifers and vaccinated animals under two years old, must be tested within 30 days of any change of ownership.

A relatively simple "card" test has been developed that gives quick results—an improvement over the old system of sending blood samples to a laboratory. The cost of this initial test by a practicing veterinarian or other authorized person must be paid by the cattleman.

If a brucellosis reactor is found at a sale yard or slaughterhouse, federal or state personnel trace the animal back to its herd of origin. Traceback tools include registered back tags or ear tags that many sale facilities are routinely putting on consigned animals. Ear tags are required for interstate shipment of most cattle.

Other animals in consignment where the reactor was found can be handled any of three ways—sold immediately for slaughter, sent to a quarantined feedlot, or returned to the ranch for quarantine.

All members of the herd of origin are considered exposed to the disease and must be tested at 30 and 120 days after the first reactor is found.

Government agencies conduct these additional tests and pay the direct costs. All reactor animals must be branded with a "B" on the jaw and sold immediately for slaughter. Meat from these animals is not tainted.

Final clearance on a state basis can be granted when no more than 1% of the herds in any one county and not more than 2% of the cattle in that county are confirmed reactors during an 18-month testing period.

The program is vital to Texas if we want to keep our interstate trade with Brucellosis-free states. Additional information is available at the county Extension office.

Don't Store Gasoline Too Long

Some people may try to beat the energy shortage by storing large amounts of gasoline. But this may create other problems.

Gasoline stored on a farm or around a house becomes an expensive convenience if the storage period is longer than six months.

First, the fuel contains a blend of several parts, one of which is extremely volatile and provides engines with easy starting. It evaporates rapidly. When the storage tank is exposed to the sun or high temperatures, most of this ingredient is lost in about 60 days.

Secondly, gas becomes gummy—similar to shellac—after it "ages." This gum may stop up the carburetor and cause engine deposits. It also may cause damages when mixed in small amounts with fresh gasoline.

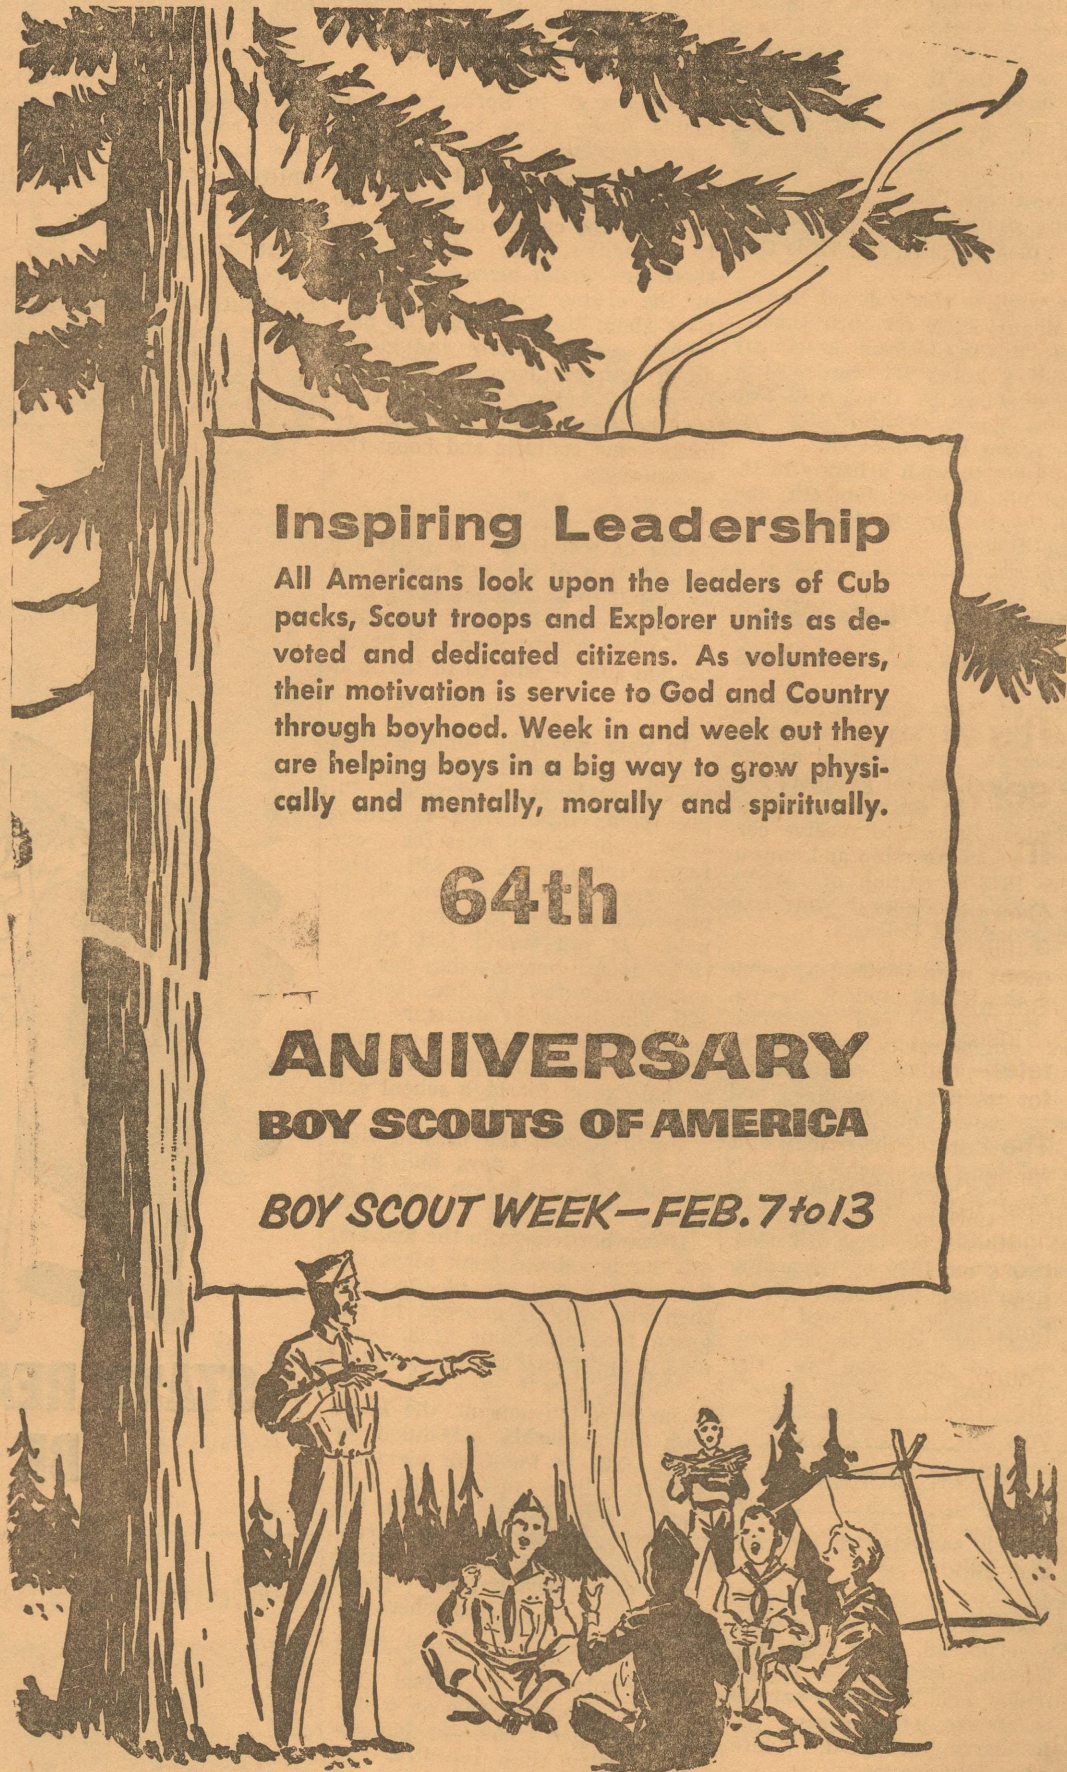

Furthermore, seasonal changes in grades of gasolines spell trouble if fuel blended for one season is carried over in storage tanks until another season.

For example, winter-grade fuel should not be used during late spring. This gas may cause the engine to skip because of vapor lock. The condition occurs when gasoline boils in the fuel lines, fuel pump or carburetor.

Vapor lock may even cause an engine to cut off. When this happens, the engine must be allowed to cool. Water may be poured on the fuel lines or fuel pump to speed the cooling process.

Summer grade fuel may cause hard starting during cold weather.

Scouts To Participate In Bi-Centennial

The Boy Scouts of America have been officially recognized as part of the national Bicentennial program for their four-year program to involve some 6.5 million youth and adult members in activities leading to the commemoration of America's 200th birthday.

The American Revolution Bicentennial Commission recognized that through Scouting's Bicentennial Program, youth and adults will find a meaningful relationship between their active participation in Scouting and the spirit of the Bicentennial. Scouting has identified this relationship through existing and newly-created programs from 1973-77. These programs directly contribute to the development of youth, forge an increased awareness of family relationships, and enhance awareness and support of projects affecting community, national, and international programs.

Special task forces of adult volunteers, youth members, and BSA professionals on the national level have been working for over two years to develop a Bicentennial observance program that would be meaningful to members of the Boy Scouts of America. These task forces have integrated BSA monthly program themes, national activities, and suggestions for local programs into a package that will immediately involve all BSA members into the spirit of the Bicentennial. The BSA national office personnel maintain a close working relationship with members of the Bicentennial Commission and staff to provide for the maximum use of available resources and program suggestions. Local councils are encouraged to avail themselves of state and local resources.

The BSA Bicentennial Program covers the entire Bicentennial Era of 1973-77. Each year of the Bicentennial Era has been identified with a program emphasis. Each program emphasis will carry a national theme and program direction that contributes to the character development, citizenship training, and physical and mental fitness of youth. A recognition program has been developed to recognize participating members in Bicentennial

TS&GRA To Meet

Programs. Scouting also is encouraging BSA units, councils, and the national organization to recognize non-Scouting groups for their service to the advancement of human welfare.

The national office of the Boy Scouts of America has developed a comprehensive communications program that is detailed through 1977. An important ingredient in this program is the continuing features in the BSA magazines, Boys' Life, Scouting, and Exploring magazines have and will continue to bring program highlights and special Bicentennial related features to the attention of Scouting's membership.

The national office of the BSA will prepare special scripts and outlines for local council use in preparing for Scout shows and camps. The development materials will be specially written to include the current Bicentennial Program emphasis.

The ARBC has on the basis of officially recognized the general the above outlined BSA program Boy Scout Program and granted the BSA use of the official Bicentennial logo.

Boy Scout Council Headquarters In San Angelo Now In New Quarters

In a move from the Trust Building to the former Servicemen's Center in San Angelo, the Concho Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America has returned to virtually the same location they were in in 1936 when the big flood wiped out their building, according to Jack Moore, district executive.

Moore said that the former headquarters for the scouts was on a site not far from the corner of Park Drive and Irving and was washed away in the flood.

Now they have returned, after 38 years, and are looking forward to a very successful future—minus floods.

When the Servicemen's Center board of directors decided available funds had been cut too much and the center could not continue to operate, the lease was given back to the city and entertainment for servicemen reverted to Goodfellow Air Force Base. Several local groups lobbied for the specious building, but the city fathers gave the Boy Scout council the option. The council was looking for a relocation site as their office in the Trust Building, their former headquarters, was being closed Jan. 1.

Moore noted that their lease is only for a year, therefore the improvements they are making on the building are strictly temporary in case they move in the near future.

Included in the minor facelift are partitioned offices, a self-service sales area and a 30 by 67 foot meeting area in the middle. Moore pointed out that all materials and labor have been donated by interested citizens and work on the building is done at night and on the week ends—meaning they must circumvent loose materials during the week of regular work which is a sacrifice they are willing to make.

He said the council was saving about $2,800 in material costs and an undetermined amount in labor. He added that even the electrical wiring will be put in one night soon.

"I would like to particularly emphasize the self-service center for unit leaders and the scouts and the big room in the middle which will be available for training meetings, round table meetings, committee and pack meetings," said Moore. —Reprinted from the San Angelo Evening Standard.

Basketball Games Held Last Wednesday Night

Last Wednesday night there were two important basketball games played in the gym. If you missed these—you missed a good time. We had players that were barely five feet tall and players who were nearly seven feet tall. There were moms, dads, teachers, coaches — you name it — they played ball that night. The Booster Club wishes to thank all of those who played ball that night and those who came to watch the games, and made it a success. We know that there was sore muscles and tired feet the next day. But thanks again BALL PLAYERS! Eldorado Booster Club.

Miracle

He came and touched my hand and by a force unknown I'm taken to a land Beneath a silver dome.

I saw a tree of silver With apples mad of gold Covered by the winter With snow that wasn't cold.

He motined to the right and to my disbelief A mountain oh so bright A diamond it must be.

But then he said look up The stairway oh so pretty And on a cloud of luck There was a mighty city.

The city was of peace The only king was love The only kind of beast Was a beautiful dove.

So if you're touched by time Don't hesitate to go. The peace you're sure to find Is worth much more than gold.

ROMANS — CHAPTER 10
Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. 1. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. 2. For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. 3. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. 4. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth these things shall live by them. 5. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above;) 6. Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring Christ again from the dead.) 7. But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; 8. That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 9. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 10. For the Scripture saith, Whoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. 11. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. 12. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 13. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? 14. And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! 15. But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? 16. So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. 17. But I say, Have they not heard? Yea verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. 18. But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. 19. But Esaias, is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. 20. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people. —Homer E. Garvin, Servant of The Lord And Our Savior Jesus Christ. —Paid Adv.

FLAVOR facts & fancies

The aroma that greets you when opening a jar of instant coffee is not a chemical. It comes from real coffee oils. But those oils are sprayed into the jar before it is capped and the aroma does nothing for the flavor of the coffee in the cup!

Today's flavor magicians are merely carrying on a tradition as old as history. Accomplished cooks in ancient times were able to make salt pork, olives, onion, parsley, condiments and stuffing taste like quail!

Now, a dash of lemon freshness has been added to new menthol Twist cigarettes. It tastes fresher than ordinary cigarettes and gives you a smoother cool. This is one lemon that makes people light up!

Ever wonder why there's little or no vanilla in most vanilla ice creams? All the natural vanilla produced in the world would not be enough to flavor the vanilla ice cream in the U.S. alone!

Chocolate an aphrodisiac? The ancient Aztecs believed so; they forbade their women to eat it. Likewise, 17th century monks were told to leave hands off, too.

There are more than 9,000 taste buds located on your tongue -- more than enough to help you enjoy any flavor!

"Overgrazing" Costs

By the looks of some of our rangeland at this time of year one would never know that 1973 was a favorable year moisture-wise. Drive up and down our roads and highways and observe how short a lot of the range land appears. Spring or the new growth period is some six or eight weeks off. What will the land look like between now and then?

We must be careful in stating that a certain range is overgrazed. No one wants to admit that his range is overgrazed. It seems that every person has a different idea as to what overgrazing might be. Is your range overgrazed?

Regardless what we think overgrazing is—someone pays the price when this happens to the range. It may be difficult to place a dollar and cents cost on overgrazing at any given time; however, a good comparison might be that of high feed bills, followed by losses due to low per cent lamb, kid and calf crops, higher death losses, lighter fleece weight as shearing and light weight animals when they are sold.

These are few of the losses that a rancher must bear each year that he overgrazes his rangeland. These losses will continue each year that a rancher overgrazes his range, and the losses will increase as the range condition goes down.

Often time we hear people say, "I don't have much feed on the ground but I've got lots of grass roots left if it will just rain." This is often far from the truth. Generally, the root system of our grasses is in just as poor condition as the above ground parts.

Research has shown that when the grass plant has been grazed to the point of defoliation the root growth is retarded or stopped. Tests have shown that when 90% of the foliage is removed there is a complete root growth stoppage for 17 days even with sufficient moisture. Without moisture numerous roots die along with grass plants. Partial root stoppage occurred after single clippings at the 70, 60, and 50% levels.

Stoppage of root growth fails to take place, according to research, when 40% or less of the leaves are removed. The balance point in relation of top reduction and root growth stoppage is found to be between the 40 and 50% levels.

This supports the theory of "take half and leave half of the forage produced each year." On rangeland that is heavily and continuously grazed with no rest periods, not only does root growth stop completely, food reserves are depleted and the plants gradually become weakened. Thus weakened, the plant is less able to resist grazing, erosion, drought, cold and disease. If close grazing continues, with no recovery period, the grasses will eventually die off, and be replaced by invading brush, poisonous plants and bare ground.

Technicians assisting Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District will be glad to work with producers in assisting them in working out grazing systems in order to keep their ranges in a high productive state.

Austin, Tex.—A total of 332 separate proposals have been submitted to the Constitutional Convention.

Last day for filing recommendations for individual or wholesale revisions of the constitution had the expected outpouring. Each has been referred to an appropriate committee for study and processing before consideration on the convention floor.

Delegates who wish to submit proposals in the future must get permission of two-thirds of their colleagues.

Meanwhile, the convention has progressed through preliminary approval of the preamble and Bill of Rights—with no changes over the old constitution.

Next article to get floor consideration this week will be rights and suffrage.

At least two controversial items in that article are a provision allowing a property ownership requirement for voting in bond elections and denial of voting rights to felons.

Another recommendation of the rights and suffrage committee would provide a constitutional requirement for a secret ballot. There is now no such requirement in Texas although courts have held secrecy must be maintained.

Tax Formula Approved

The Legislative Property Tax Committee approved a modified version of the Texas Research League's proposal to gather data for a new school finance formula.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. had urged rejection of the plan, which El Paso Rep. Luther Jones charged was slanted in favor of big business.

Jones later asked Daniel to order an investigation of the Research League.

He objected to state reliance on the privately-financed League for assistance in tax studies: Seven such studies have been done by the organization since 1964.

Election Rules Changed

As the Monday filing deadline for candidates neared, Secretary of State Mark White Jr. reminded of new election requirements.

He told candidates they must designate campaign managers before they accepted any political contributions or make any election expenditures including filing fees.

Designations of the managers must be filed with the Secretary of State for candidates seeking offices involving more than one county. County clerks receive the designations for one-county positions or those within a county.

Study Via Telephone

Wonders never cease in the modern world of communications. A Texas university professor conducts regular classes via the conference telephone call. A recent class lecture on migraine headaches was heard over the telephone by 58 persons and the class lasted 2½ hours.

Short Snorts

A consulting firm has been hired on a $55,000 contract to help reorganize and streamline the 600-employee State Board of Insurance.

A number of state agencies have moved Austin offices to a new block-square Stephen F. Austin building north of the capitol.

Texas Water Rights Commission approved a $55,000 bond issue for Cameron County Water Control and Improvement District 10.

State Rep. John W. Bryant, 26, is the legislature's newest member. He won a special vacancy election, and is now installed as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention.

All members of the State Board of Education must run for election

SOUP IS DINNER IN A KETTLE

A hearty bean soup is a complete dinner in a kettle. Easy on the budget, too, satisfying and highly nutritious. No matter which variety of dried bean is used as the basis for the soup, the bean can be counted on to be a good source of protein, "B" vitamins and iron as well as food energy.

The savory well seasoned soup given today is made with canned dried beans to cut the cooking time to modern requirements. It uses pinto or kidney beans with tomatoes, onion, garlic, spices, herbs and a little pork. Dark corn syrup brings out the flavor of many bean dishes. In this soup, it adds just the right amount of sweetness to help blend the flavors.

Hearty Bean Soup

2 cans (16 ounces each) pinto or kidney beans
1 quart water
1 can (16 ounces) peeled tomatoes

1 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup Karo dark corn syrup
1 tablespoon salt
1 clove garlic, minced
1 to 1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder
1 teaspoon dry oregano
Dash pepper
1 cup sliced link sausage, partially cooked

Mix together beans and bean liquid, water, tomatoes, onion, corn syrup, salt, garlic, chili powder, oregano and pepper in heavy 4-quart saucepan or soup kettle. Bring to boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer about 1 1/2 hours. Stir occasionally to mash beans. Add sausage after soup has cooked about 1 hour. Uncover and boil gently; stirring occasionally, about 30 minutes or until soup is thickened. Makes about 8 (1 cup) servings.

Note: Bits of leftover ham or pork may be used to replace sausage.

Parsecs, 19,160,000,000,000 miles long, are derived from diminutive deviations in the Scientifically accurate instruments for everyday measuring are the rulers, tape measures, yard and metre sticks made by Lufkin.

Some scientific instruments can produce lines as fine as a micron, 5 times thinner than a spider's thread.

NEW FIRST AID SKILL BOOK FOR YOUTH

It happens all the time. In the city and in the country. There's a car wreck. People are cut and bleeding. A crowd gathers. People just stand around -- silent. They don't know what to do.

Or, there's a fire--or an explosion. Falling buildings break bones. Flying glass cuts through soft skin. Again, a crowd gathers. People waste time waiting for help to come. All this time, hurt people are waiting for someone to help...help.

Every day, too many people, especially young ones, are seriously injured. Because they are not always treated correctly or in time many of them die.

To combat such tragic facts, the Boy Scouts of America has published a new, colorfully illustrated booklet called First Aid Skill Book that can help you learn what to do in case of an emergency.

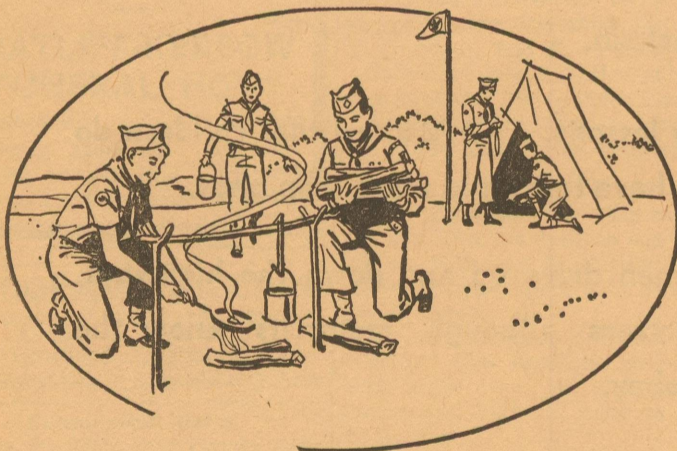

This booklet details over 105 first aid topics from the care of simple cuts and bites to treatment for major burns and excessive bleeding. Special emphasis is placed in the booklet on first-aid problems common to the city. One of them--lead poisoning, its detection and six common symptoms--is discussed fully; another topic is bites of rats and other animals as well as spiders and insects.

First Aid Skill Book also explains the "why" and "dangers" of first aid. It's written for youngsters to understand. The booklet was developed as part of the continuing educational thrust of the BSA, and as a study guide for inner-city Scouts, to obtain BSA safety and first-aid skill awards and Merit Badges. But this particular booklet can also serve as an invaluable reference for parents, teachers, community health aides as well as Scoutmaster.

It's available, as Number 6588, from local Scout distributors or for 30 cents from the Supply Division of the Boy Scouts of America, North Brunswick, New Jersey 08902.

The more you learn about first aid, the better you will feel about taking care of yourself--and other people, too. That's being prepared!

Man or Statue?

Today we see Lincoln in heroic size. He appears almost more of a statue than a man—a great figure cast in bronze, with a furrowed brow and solemn countenance.

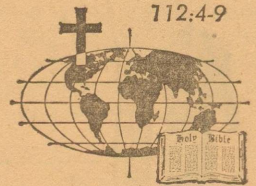

Yet Lincoln was a man. He walked the earth, and felt love and joy; but he knew tremendous frustration and almost insurmountable sorrow. He prayed, earnestly and effectively.

Throughout each crisis in his life, and there were many, he was sustained by faith. God seemed close to him, and he turned to Him often. He didn't pause to think about whether he'd go to church or not. He went.
