74TH YEAR

ELDORADO—SCHLEICHER COUNTY, TEXAS (76936)

Thursday, November 6, 1975

Number 45

by Lyndell Williams
Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—Railroad Commissioner Ben Ramsey's decision to step down at the end of his present term Jan. 1, 1977, assured a wide open race for his position next year.

A large field already is forming. Ramsey, 71, took many by surprise with the announcement he plans to return to law practice in San Augustine in a little more than a year.

His public service career dates back to 1931 when he first entered the House of Representatives. He served six terms as lieutenant governor—longer than any Texan.

State Rep. David Finney of Fort Worth, Houston attorney Terence O'Rourke and Walter Wendlandt, an Austin attorney and former Commission division head, are announced candidates.

Secretary of State Mark White Jr. said last week he is seriously considering getting in the race.

White is an appointee of Gov. Dolph Briscoe, and speculation favored him to replace Ramsey if the incumbent stepped down before end of his term.

Other possible contenders for the Commission—which regulates Texas oil and transportation industries—are Texas Legislative Council Executive Director Robert E. Johnson and State Rep. Lane Denton of Waco.

Minority Gains Few

A state legislator claims state agencies have made no progress at finding jobs for blacks, Mexican-Americans and women.

Rep. Paul Ragsdale of Dallas said the number of black employees in 33 agencies increased only four-tenths of 1% in the last year, the number of Mexican-American workers 1.1%, and the number of women 3.7%.

Short Snorts . . .

Texas Civil Liberties Union and the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund sued to block implementation of the new Texas Voter Registration Act.

State Insurance Board scheduled a public hearing here November 12 to consider workmen's compensation and employers' liability rates, including certain longshoremen's and harbor workers' rates.

Texas Industrial Commission reported more than 1,400 jobs and 1,300 "spinoff" jobs will be created by 15 new industries that located in Texas during September.

The Governor approved 37 grants totalling nearly $2.90 million for local, regional and state-level improvements in criminal justice.

A 15-member advisory committee on child care licensing required by state law has been named by State Welfare Commissioner, Raymond Vowell.

The State Board of Education will hold its first meeting in new quarters here November 8 to adopt new spelling and math textbooks for grades one through six.

Texas' jobless rate dropped 8% at mid-August to 324,500 (6% of the labor force).

WEST SIDE CHURCH OF CHRIST will have charge of the services this Sunday afternoon, Nov. 9th, at the Nursing Home, starting at 3:30.

Woman's Club Has Arts And Crafts Program

The Woman's Club of Eldorado met Tuesday, Oct. 28, at 2:30 p.m. for a meeting on Arts and Crafts.

Mrs. Arch Mittel presided in absence of Mrs. Bill Van Dusen. Mrs. Granvil Hext, Arts and Crafts chairman, was leader for the program. Mrs. Oliver Teele led the group in singing This Land Is Your Land.

The leader introduced to the group, Herman C. Walker, Jr. of Kerrville. Herman is well known here having been reared on a ranch near Sonora and Eldorado. He also was a graduate of Eldorado High School, then attended Texas Tech University and graduated with a degree in animal science; but also with a course in aluminum sculpture. By the time he graduated he was positive he wanted to get into an art related field. Encouragement from his professor, family and friends helped his interest to grow.

Herman chose to move to Kerrville, a well known art center. There he set up a professional Foundry and Art Gallery. He and his wife, the former Deanne Hext have their business, Bellas Artes at 2693 Junction Highway, Kerrville, Texas.

His work has been well received and collectors from all parts of the U.S.A. are buying his sculpture and paintings. He has his work placed with Jensen Gallery, Jackson, Wyoming; McAdoo Gallery, Sanat Fe, N.M.; and he is presently showing his work at the Sportsman Gallery in the Galleria in Houston. His foundry work has tripled in one year. Several well known artists from the region are having their work cast with him.

His sculpture pieces which he brought to the club were very interesting; also his demonstration was very interesting to each one present.

Several guests and also some men attended the meeting and each one expressed how interesting it was. Members of the club were host for the evening.

Tea and coffee was served to everyone present. After all guests left, a business meeting was held in the club room.

Eighth Grade Game

The Eldorado 8th grade football team went to Mason last Thursday and came back with a 14-8 victory over the Mason 8th grade.

The team played one of their best games of the year with quarterback Jed Edmiston mixing his plays well and keeping the Mason boys off balance. Eldorado scored on a pass play in the 1st half, Edmiston to Aguilar for a 6-0 lead. Mason came back to score and made a 2 point conversion to lead 8-6 at half time. Eldorado came back in the second half with a strong running game Charlie Bradley gaining 50 yards and Randy Morrison gaining 24 yards. Eldorado's final score came on a 17-yard pass from Edmiston to Brian Doran. Charlie Bradley ran the extra point to make the final score 14 to 8 with Eldorado the winner.

All of the boys played a very good game both offensively and defensively. As always Kurtis Homer was a terror on defense and Todd Swift intercepted two Mason aerials to blunt the Mason offense. Jed Edmiston intercepted a final desperation pass by Mason to nail the lid on Mason's efforts.

The 8th grade will travel to Menard Thursday, November 6th, for the final 8th grade game of the 1975 season:

JV'S Down Mason 13-8

Eldorado JV remains unbeaten as they toppled over Mason 13-8 last Thursday.

Eldorado won the toss and elected to receive the kick. Yardage was hard to gain and the Eagles were forced to punt. Edward Hernandez broke up a Mason pass and Lynn Whitaker picked the ball off. The first TD came on a pass from QB Jym Bob Byrd to Sam Whitten. The PAT by Hernandez was good and the score was 7-0.

John Cheatham kicked for the Eagles, and on a long drive, Mason threatened to score. Hernandez and Whitaker were able to tackle the ball carrier hard enough to juggle the ball loose. Leonard Lloyd recovered the fumble. This was an important save by the Eagles, keeping Mason from scoring in the first half.

In the second half, Cheatham again kicked off and made his way down field to tackle the receiver. Even good defense couldn't keep the fired-up Mason team from scoring. Their conversion attempt was good and Mason led 8-7.

Cole Jennings received the kick and the Eagles worked their way from their own 35 yard line to the 31-yard line of Mason. Byrd passed to Jennings to forward the ball to the 8-yard line. On the next play Shannon Wilkerson ran for the TD, but the PAT was no good. The Eagles led again 13-8!

In the fourth quarter Mason recovered an Eldorado fumble and nearly scored; Whitaker intercepted a pass, saving a Puncher's score. The Eagles again could gain no yardage, and were forced to punt, knowing a Mason TD would lose them the game. The receiver could not handle the ball, and Whitten covered it. Time ran out with the Eagles winning 13-8.

The Eagles played good defense, and leading in tackles this week were Whitaker 13, Whitten and Hernandez 12 each, Phil Head 10, Larry Fay 9, Lloyd 7, and Ricky Short 6.

The JV Eagles go to Menard Thursday, Nov. 6, for their last game. These boys have shown a tremendous spirit, determination, and ability. Let's go to Menard and back them for an 8-0 season.—Rep.

Barrio Clean-Up Effort Continues

The Barrio Clean-Up no. 2 was held all day Saturday, November 1, with 50 individuals participating. Clean-up no. 1 was held October 18 and clean-up no. 3 is set for November 8, 1975 with plans for a barbecue in the making.

Members of the community furnished a covered dish noon meal for the working men which was well worth anybody's full day of labor. The bill of fare included all sorts of Mexican dishes and there was such an abundance that after the work day was finished many of the workers gathered again and by campfire finished the food.

If it were not for the drive and desire that these people have, this project would be lost as there is simply not enough equipment available. There is a great need for twice the equipment to match the manpower and the tremendous undertaking.

Last week the city officials conveyed by special letter, their thanks and commendations to the people involved in this endeavor. The community members and neighbors would like to express their appreciation to the city as well as the county, for the use of their equipment as well as skilled operators and encouragement.

One of the most interesting and nice things about this giant effort is the fact that many of these workers are individuals not living in the barrio and yet they are joining the work force each Saturday and working as one neighbor helping another. Another interesting note is the response of the people within the community. These men are workers; in fact this clean-up no. 2 saw the women and children moved off the job and sent to lighter work.

Considering all factors, including the crushing lack of equipment, this has to be one of the most successful clean-up campaigns ever held in all of Eldorado. Come and see how it's done or for a better experience come and help—Saturday, November 8th at 8:30 a.m.—Rep.

TOWER TALKS by U.S. Senator for Texas JOHN TOWER

Gas Crisis

WASHINGTON—Cold homes. Dark factories. Long unemployment lines. That's the bleak prospect facing possibly millions of Americans this winter as the natural gas emergency grows ever more severe.

Make no mistake about it. The natural gas emergency is a dire national threat that could deal a severe blow to our hopes for economic recovery. Tens of thousands of jobs could be at stake.

Natural gas, our most economical and cleanest-burning fuel, presently accounts for about one-third of U.S. energy consumption.

But supplies of natural gas are dropping almost as sharply as crude oil supplies dropped when the Arab oil embargo was imposed two winters ago.

Demand for natural gas is outrunning available supplies by about 15 per cent. Curtailments of natural gas could hobble industries in the Middle Atlantic states. Shortages in some areas could be so severe that home heating with gas—for which there is no economical substitute—may have to be curtailed.

The Federal Energy Administration estimates that, given present conditions, curtailments this winter could total 1.3 trillion cubic feet, up 30 per cent over last year. A severe winter could drive the shortfall to 1.45 trillion cubic feet.

Most of the blame for the natural gas shortage must fall upon Congress. Federal price controls have sharply retarded the development of new supplies of natural gas and have slowed the expansion of supplies from existing gas wells by denying producers a fair return. By holding the price of natural gas below those of other fuels, price controls also have encouraged overconsumption, misuse and waste of this precious fuel.

Now, as the cold winds of winter draw ever closer, Congress continues to ignore the real cause of the shortages it has helped create and make more severe.

The search is on for scapegoats, not answers. Congressmen and Senators are trying to find someone or something on which to put the blame for their mistakes. Short term solutions that will last through the next election are given priority over long-term solutions required to resolve the problem.

I for one am heartsick over the politicking and demagoguery that has taken place on this issue. Congress must face the reality of the natural gas crisis and put aside previously determined biases.

No political compromises, no price ceilings or rollbacks, no new bureaucratic agencies can avoid the fact that if demand is greater than supply, either we cut back on demand, increase supplies, or both. The hard economic facts say we must deregulate, and deregulate now.

Too many politicians say deregulation makes good economic sense, but bad political sense. I say we must look at the long term solutions, even if they are politically unpopular in the short run. There are times when politicians must act like statesmen, and do the right thing even when it is not the popular thing. This is one of those times.

To save wear and tears, keep a large jar of chopped onions in your freezer. When you need some for a recipe, just scoop them out and put the rest back in the freezer.

FIGHTING INFLATION

NUCLEAR POWER SAFE AND LOW COST

An increasing number of scientists agree that with nuclear power plants taking the place of oil and gas power plants we will no longer be burning our energy candle at both ends.

Nuclear power means lower electricity bills for the American consumer as experience with the 65 nuclear power plants already operating has proved.

Nuclear power is not only the cheapest way to generate electricity, it is also safe because reactor safety is carefully designed into nuclear power plants from the start.

The excellent safety record of commercial nuclear power plants has not happened by accident. It has resulted from the painstaking effort which accompanies the design, construction and operation of nuclear power plants.

A NEW CONSTELLATION

Continental Congress passed a resolution that established the Stars and Stripes on June 14, 1777, but did not specify the arrangement of the thirteen stars on the blue union, except to say that they should represent a new constellation. As a consequence, according to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, we find a variety of forms. The first flag, popularly known as the Betsy Ross flag, had them arranged in a circle, based on the idea that no colony should take precedence.

The cosacks along the Don river in Russia elected their leader by throwing their fur caps at him.

Gourmet First-Course Salad "Mushrooms Vinaigrette a la Iceberg" can be the answer to the gourmet's dilemma of what to serve for a first-course salad. Taste buds will waken when introduced to this tangy yet subtle treatment of mushrooms mixed with chopped green pepper, pimiento and ripe olives which mellow in an oil and vinegar marinade and are served atop crisp wedges of western iceberg lettuce, the nation's favorite salad green. Your guests' delight in this simple yet elegant salad far outweighs your effort to prepare it. Mushrooms Vinaigrette a la Iceberg 1 head western iceberg lettuce 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento 2 1/2 cup corn oil 2 tablespoons chopped ripe olives 2 1/4 cup white wine vinegar 2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms 2 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard 2 cups sliced mushrooms 2 1/2 teaspoon black pepper 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce; refrigerate in plastic bag or plastic crisper. Rinse, pat dry and slice mushrooms. Combine oil, vinegar, mustard, pepper, green pepper, pimiento and olives; mix well. Pour over mushrooms and toss lightly to coat. Chill for an hour or longer. Just before serving, add salt; stir to blend. Using sharp knife, cut lettuce head lengthwise into halves. Place cut-sides down; cut each half into halves or thirds for 4 to 6 wedges. Place on chilled serving plate or individual plates and spoon mushrooms and dressing over lettuce wedges. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

The Bi-Centennial basketball throw, manned by Pat Ragsdale, took in $18.

Thanks to everyone who had a part in helping with this. —Rep.
